ALL ACTIONS DEPEND ON INTENTION
Hadith Imam Bukhari Number 1

حَدَّثَنَا الْحُمَيْدِيُّ عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ الزُّبَيْرِ قَالَ حَدَّثَنَا سُفْيَانُ قَالَ حَدَّثَنَا يَحْيَى بْنُ سَعِيدٍ الْأَنْصَارِيُّ قَالَ أَخْبَرَنِي مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ إِبْرَاهِيمَ التَّيْمِيُّ أَنَّهُ سَمِعَ عَلْقَمَةَ بْنَ وَقَّاصٍ اللَّيْثِيَّ يَقُولُ سَمِعْتُ عُمَرَ بْنَ الْخَطَّابِ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ عَلَى الْمِنْبَرِقَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ إِنَّمَا الْأَعْمَالُ بِالنِّيَّاتِ وَإِنَّمَا لِكُلِّ امْرِئٍ مَا نَوَى فَمَنْ كَانَتْ هِجْرَتُهُ إِلَى دُنْيَا يُصِيبُهَا أَوْ إِلَى امْرَأَةٍ يَنْكِحُهَا فَهِجْرَتُهُ إِلَى مَا هَاجَرَ إِلَيْهِ

Narrated to us Al-Humaidi Abdullah bin Az-Zubair, he Sa'd narrated to us Sufyan, he Sa'd narrated to us Yahya bin Sa'id Al-Anshari, he Sa'd informed us Muhammad bin Ibrahim At-Taimi, that he heard Alqamah bin Waqash Al-Laitsi say: I heard Umar bin Al-Khaththab on the pulpit say: I heard Rasulullah, peace be upon him, say: All actions depend on intentions, and every person gets what he intended. Whoever migrates for worldly gains or to marry a woman, his migration is for what he intended.

Narrated to us Abdullah bin Yusuf, he Sa'd informed us Malik from Hisyam bin 'Urwah from his father from Aisyah, Mother of the Believers, that Al-Harith bin Hisyam asked Rasulullah, peace be upon him: O Messenger, how does revelation come to you? Rasulullah said: Sometimes it comes like the ringing of a bell, the hardest for me, then it stops, and I understand what is conveyed. Sometimes an angel appears as a man, speaks to me, and I comprehend his words. Aisyah said: I saw revelation descend on him on a very cold day, then it ceased, and his forehead was sweating.

Narrated to us Yahya bin Bukair, he Sa'd narrated to us Al-Laits from 'Uqail from Ibnu Syihab from 'Urwah bin Az-Zubair from Aisyah, Mother of the Believers, she said: The first revelation to Rasulullah, peace be upon him, was a true dream in sleep, never seeing a dream except it came like the light of dawn. Then he loved solitude, staying in Hira Cave, worshiping for several nights before returning to his family for provisions. He returned to Khadijah for more provisions until the Truth came in Hira Cave. An angel said: Read! He said: I cannot read. The angel took and pressed me until I was exhausted, then released me and said: Read! I said: I cannot read. He pressed me again, then released me and said: Read! I said: I cannot read. He pressed me a third time, then released me and said: Read in the name of your Lord who created, created man from a clot. Rasulullah, peace be upon him, returned trembling, went to Khadijah bint Khuwailid, saying: Cover me! They covered him until his fear subsided. He told Khadijah, fearing for himself. Khadijah said: By Allah, Allah will never disgrace you, for you maintain kinship ties. She took him to Waraqah bin Naufal, a Christian who wrote Hebrew scriptures. Khadijah said: Listen to your nephew. Waraqah asked: What did you see? Rasulullah told him. Waraqah said: This is the divine law revealed to Moses. I wish I were young to support you when your people expel you. Rasulullah asked: Will they expel me? Waraqah said: Yes, no one brought what you bring without being opposed. If I live to see it, I will support you strongly. Waraqah died soon after, and revelation paused.

Narrated to us Musa bin Isma'il, he Sa'd narrated to us Abu 'Awanah, he Sa'd narrated to us Musa bin Abu Aisyah, he Sa'd narrated to us Sa'id bin Jubair from Ibnu 'Abbas about Allah?s words: Do not move your tongue to hasten it. Ibnu 'Abbas said: Rasulullah, peace be upon him, struggled with the revelation?s intensity, moving his lips. Ibnu 'Abbas said: I will move my lips for you as Rasulullah did. Sa'id said: I will move my lips as I saw Ibnu 'Abbas do. Then Allah revealed: Do not move your tongue to hasten it, it is upon Us to collect it in your heart and make you recite it. When We recite it, follow its recitation, meaning listen and be silent. Then it is upon Us to explain it, meaning We will make you recite it. After that, when Gabriel came, Rasulullah listened, and when Gabriel left, he recited as Gabriel did.

Narrated to us Abu Al-Yaman Al-Hakam bin Nafi,, he Sa'd informed us Shu'aib from Az-Zuhri, he Sa'd informed me Ubaidullah bin Abdullah bin 'Utbah bin Mas'ud, that Abdullah bin 'Abbas informed him that Abu Sufyan bin Harb informed him: Heraclius sent for him with a group of Quraisy traders in Syria during the truce between Rasulullah, peace be upon him, and Abu Sufyan and the Quraisy disbelievers. They met him in Iliya with Roman dignitaries. Heraclius asked through his interpreter: Who is closest in kinship to this man claiming to be a prophet? Abu Sufyan said: I am the closest. Heraclius said: Bring him near and his companions behind him. He told the interpreter: I will ask about this man; if he lies, refute him. Abu Sufyan said: By Allah, if not for shame of being called a liar, I would have lied. Heraclius asked: What is his lineage among you? I said: He is of noble lineage. He asked: Has anyone Sa'dthis before him? I said: No. He asked: Was any of his ancestors a king? I said: No. He asked: Do the noble or weak follow him? I said: The weak. He asked: Are they increasing or decreasing? I said: Increasing. He asked: Does anyone apostatize after entering his religion? I said: No. He asked: Did you accuse him of lying before his claims? I said: No. He asked: Does he betray? I said: No, we are in a truce, unsure of his actions. Heraclius said: I asked about his lineage, and you Sa'dhe is noble, as prophets are sent from noble lineages. I asked if anyone Sa'dthis before, you Sa'dno; if someone had, I?d say he follows another?s words. I asked if his ancestors were kings, you Sa'dno; if they were, I?d say he seeks his father?s kingdom. I asked if you accused him of lying before, you Sa'dno; I know he wouldn?t abandon lying to people to lie about Allah. I asked if the noble or weak follow him, you Sa'dthe weak, as they follow prophets. I asked if they increase or decrease, you Sa'dincrease, as faith grows until complete. I asked if anyone apostatizes, you Sa'dno, as faith settles in hearts. I asked if he betrays, you Sa'dno, as prophets do not betray. He orders you to worship Allah alone, abandon idols, and practice prayer, truth, and chastity. If true, he will rule where my feet stand. I knew a prophet would come, not from you. If I could reach him, I?d wash his feet. Then he read Rasulullah?s letter: In the name of Allah, the Merciful, the Compassionate, from Muhammad, Allah?s servant and messenger, to Heraclius, Roman leader. Peace to those who follow guidance. I invite you to Islam; embrace it, you will be safe, Allah will reward you twice. If you turn away, you bear your people?s sin. O People of the Book, come to a word equal between us, worshiping only Allah, associating nothing with Him.

He narrated to us [Abu Al-Yaman] Sa'd he narrated to us [Shu'aib] from [Az-Zuhri] Sa'd he narrated to me ['Amir bin Sa'dbin Abu Waqash] from [Sa'd], that the Messenger of Allah, may Allah bless him and grant him peace, gave food to some people, and at that time Sa'dwas sitting. However, he did not give the food to a certain man, even though that man was the most impressive to me among those present. So I asked the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him: O Messenger of Allah, what about so-and-so? Indeed, I see him as a believer. The Prophet, peace be upon him, replied,Or is he a Muslim? I paused for a moment, then felt compelled to clarify what he meant, so I repeated my question: O Messenger of Allah, what about so-and-so? I truly see him as a believer. The Prophet, peace be upon him, replied: Or is he a Muslim?? Then I felt compelled to clarify what he meant, so I repeated my question again. Then the Prophet, peace be upon him, said: O Sa'd indeed I will also give to that person. However, I prefer to give to others rather than to him, for I fear that Allah may cast him into Hell.? Gabriel came and asked: What is faith? He replied: Faith is to believe in Allah, His angels, His books, His meeting, His messengers, and the resurrection. Gabriel asked: What is Islam? He replied: Islam is to worship Allah alone without partners, perform prayers, pay obligatory zakat, and fast Ramadan. Gabriel asked: What is excellence? He replied: To worship Allah as if you see Him; if you cannot, know He sees you. Gabriel asked: When is the Hour? He replied: The questioned knows no more than the questioner, but its signs are: when a slave gives birth to her master, and when lowly camel herders compete in building towers, among five matters known only to Allah. The Prophet then recited: Indeed, the knowledge of the Hour is with Allah. Gabriel departed, and the Prophet said: Bring him back, but they saw nothing. He said: That was Gabriel, teaching people their religion. Abu Abdullah said: All this is part of faith.

He said: Welcome, O people or delegation, with honor and no regret. They said: O Messenger of Allah, we can only come in the sacred month, as a disbelieving Mudar tribe lies between us. Teach us a clear directive to convey to those we left behind and enter paradise. They inquired about drinks. The Prophet, peace be upon him, enjoined four things and forbade four: He enjoined faith in Allah alone, asking: Do you know what faith in Allah alone entails? They replied: Allah and His Messenger know best. He said: Bearing witness that there is no deity but Allah and Muhammad is His Messenger, performing prayer, giving zakat, fasting Ramadan, and offering one-fifth of war spoils. He forbade drinking from al-hantam, ad-dubba, an-naqir, and al-muzaffat?or sometimes Sa'dal-muqayyar. He said: Uphold these and share them with those you left behind.

When the Messenger, peace be upon him, finished, he said: Shall I tell you of these three? One sought Allah?s refuge, so Allah sheltered him. Another was shy before Allah, so Allah was shy toward him. The third turned away, so Allah turned from him.

Ubay said: Yes, I heard the Messenger, peace be upon him, say: While Moses was among Bani Israil?s elders, a man asked: Do you know anyone more learned than you? Moses said: No. Allah, the Exalted, revealed to Moses: Yes, Our servant Khidr. Moses sought the way to him, with the fish as a sign. He was told: When you lose the fish, return, for you will meet him. Moses followed the fish?s trail in the sea. His servant said: Remember when we rested at the rock? I forgot the fish; only Satan made me forget to mention it. Moses said: That is what we sought. They retraced their steps and met Khidr. Their story is as Allah narrated in His Book.

Narrated to us Muhammad bin Al-'Ala', he Sa'd Hammad bin Usamah narrated from Buraid bin Abdullah, from Abu Burdah, from Abu Musa, from the Prophet, peace be upon him, who said: The likeness of the guidance and knowledge Allah sent me with is like abundant rain falling on land. Some soil, fertile, absorbs water, sprouting herbage and grass aplenty. Other patches, hard, retain water, benefiting people who drink, water livestock, and irrigate crops. Another portion, barren valleys, neither holds water nor grows herbage. Such is the likeness of one who gains understanding of Allah?s religion and benefits from what Allah sent me with, learning and teaching it, and one who pays it no heed and rejects Allah?s guidance I was sent with. Abu Abdullah said: Ishaq said: Some land forms pools holding water, and some is flat desert.

Narrated to us Muhammad bin Bashshar, he Sa'd Ghundar narrated, he Sa'd Shubah narrated from Abu Jamrah, who said: I translated between Ibn 'Abbas and people. He said: The Abd Al-Qais delegation visited the Prophet, peace be upon him. He asked: Who are these people or delegation? They said: Rabi'ah. He said: Welcome, O people or delegation, with honor and no regret. They said: We come from a far distance, with a disbelieving Mudar tribe between us. We can only visit in the sacred month. Teach us a clear directive to share with those we left behind and enter paradise. The Prophet, peace be upon him, ordered four things and forbade four: He ordered faith in Allah alone, saying: Do you know what faith in Allah alone is? They said: Allah and His Messenger know best. He said: Bearing witness that there is no deity but Allah and Muhammad is His Messenger, performing prayer, giving zakat, fasting Ramadan, and giving one-fifth of war spoils. He forbade al-hantam, ad-dubba, al-muzaffat, and sometimes Sa'dan-naqir or al-muqayyar. He said: Uphold these and share them with those you left behind.

"It was narrated to us by [Abu Nu'aim Al Fadl bin Dukain] who said: It was narrated to us by [Shayban] from [Yahya] from [Abu Salamah] from [Abu Hurairah] that the Khuza'ah killed a man from Banu Laith during the conquest of Makkah in retaliation for one of their own who was killed. This was reported to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, who mounted his camel and delivered a sermon: 'Indeed, Allah has withheld killing from Makkah, or the elephant.' Abu Abdullah said: 'Thus Abu Nu'aim mentioned it, and they were uncertain between "killing" and "elephant," while others say "elephant." And Allah granted victory to His Messenger, peace and blessings be upon him, and the believers over them. He said: "Know that it was not lawful for anyone before me, nor will it be lawful for anyone after me. Know that it was lawful for me for a moment of the day. Know that at this hour it is sacred; its thorns may not be cut, its trees may not be felled, and its lost items may not be picked up except by one who announces them. Whoever is killed has the better of two options: either compensation or retaliation from the victim's family." Then a man from Yemen came and said: "O Messenger of Allah, write it for me." He said: "Write for Abu so-and-so." A man from Quraysh said: "Except for Idhkhir, O Messenger of Allah, for we use it in our houses and graves." The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said: "Except Idhkhir, except Idhkhir." It was Sa'dto Abu Abdullah: "What was written for him?" He replied: "That sermon."'

It was narrated to us by ['Abdullah bin Muhammad] who said: It was narrated to us by [Sufyan] who said: It was narrated to us by ['Amr] who said: It was narrated to me by [Sa'id bin Jubair] who said: I Sa'dto [Ibn 'Abbas]: 'Nawf Al-Bakali claims that Moses is not the Moses of the Children of Israel, but another Moses.' He said: 'The enemy of Allah has lied. Ubayy bin Ka'b narrated to us from the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him: "Moses, the Prophet, stood giving a sermon to the Children of Israel and was asked: 'Who is the most knowledgeable person?' He said: 'I am.' Allah reproached him for not attributing knowledge to Him. Allah revealed to him: 'There is a servant of Mine at the junction of the two seas who is more knowledgeable than you.' Moses said: 'O Lord, how can I find him?' It was Sa'dto him: 'Carry a fish in a basket; when you lose it, he is there.' So Moses set out with his servant, Yusha' bin Nun, carrying a fish in a basket until they reached a rock. They laid their heads down and slept, and the fish slipped out of the basket and 'took its way into the sea as in a tunnel' (Qur'an 18:61). This was astonishing to Moses and his servant. They continued for the rest of their night and day. In the morning, Moses Sa'dto his servant: 'Bring us our morning meal; we have suffered fatigue in this journey of ours' (Qur'an 18:62). Moses did not feel weary until he passed the place he was directed to. His servant said: 'Do you remember when we took shelter at the rock? I forgot the fish, and none made me forget but Satan' (Qur'an 18:63). Moses said: 'That is what we were seeking.' So they retraced their steps (Qur'an 18:64). When they reached the rock, they found a man covered with a cloth. Moses greeted him. Al-Khidr said: 'How is there peace in your land?' Moses said: 'I am Moses.' He said: 'Moses of the Children of Israel?' He said: 'Yes.' Moses said: 'May I follow you so that you teach me of the guidance you have been taught?' (Qur'an 18:66). Al-Khidr said: 'You will not be able to have patience with me' (Qur'an 18:67). 'O Moses, I have knowledge from Allah that He taught me, which you do not know, and you have knowledge He taught you, which I do not know.' Moses said: 'You will find me, if Allah wills, patient, and I will not disobey you in any matter' (Qur'an 18:69). They walked along the shore without a boat until a ship passed by, and they asked to be carried. Al-Khidr was recognized, so they were carried without charge. A bird came and perched on the edge of the ship, pecking once or twice into the sea. Al-Khidr said: 'O Moses, my knowledge and your knowledge compared to Allah's knowledge is only like the pecking of this bird in the sea.' Then Al-Khidr deliberately took a plank from the ship and pulled it out. Moses said: 'These people carried us without charge, yet you damaged their ship to drown its people?' Al-Khidr said: 'Did I not say you would not be able to have patience with me?' Moses said: 'Do not blame me for what I forgot, nor burden me with difficulty in my affair' (Qur'an 18:73). The first incident was due to Moses' forgetfulness. They continued until they met a boy playing with other boys. Al-Khidr took the boy's head and killed him with his hands. Moses said: 'Have you killed an innocent soul who has not killed anyone?' (Qur'an 18:74). Al-Khidr said: 'Did I not tell you that you would not be able to have patience with me?' (Qur'an 18:75). Ibn 'Uyaynah said: 'This is more emphatic.' They went on until they came to a town and asked its people for food, but they refused to host them. They found a wall about to collapse, and Al-Khidr set it up with his hands. Moses said: 'If you had wished, you could have taken payment for it.' Al-Khidr said: 'This is the parting between me and you' (Qur'an 18:77-78). The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'May Allah have mercy on Moses. We wish he had been patient so we could have heard more of their story.'

It was narrated to us by ['Abdullah bin Maslamah] from [Malik] from [Musa bin 'Uqbah] from [Kuraib], the freed slave of Ibn 'Abbas, from [Usamah bin Zaid] that he heard him say: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, set out from 'Arafah until he reached the valley (a path by the mountain). He dismounted, urinated, and performed a light wudu. I said: 'Is it time for prayer, O Messenger of Allah?' He replied: 'The prayer is ahead of you.' He rode on, and when he reached Muzdalifah, he dismounted and performed a complete wudu. Then the call for prayer was made, and he prayed Maghrib. Then everyone tethered their camels at their places, and the call for 'Isha was made, and he prayed without praying anything between them.

The most wretched among them went, brought it, waited until the Prophet, peace be upon him, prostrated, and placed it between his shoulders. I watched, unable to do anything?had I the strength to stop it. They laughed and mocked, while Rasulullah, peace be upon him, remained prostrating, not raising his head until Fatimah came and removed it. Then Rasulullah, peace be upon him, raised his head and Sa'd 'O Allah, deal with Quraysh,' three times. They were alarmed by his prayer, believing supplications in that place were answered. Then he named, 'O Allah, deal with Abu Jahal, 'Utbah bin Rabi'ah, Syaibah bin Rabi'ah, Al Walid bin 'Utbah, Umayyah bin Khalaf, 'Uqbah bin Abu Mu'aith,' and a seventh I forgot. Narrated to us by Musaddad, Sa'd narrated to me Yahya bin Sa'id, narrated to us Auf, narrated to us Abu Raja' from Imran, Sa'd 'We were on a journey with the Prophet, peace be upon him, traveling at night until dawn. We slept deeply, as no sleep is sweeter to a traveler. Only the sun?s heat woke us. The first to wake were so-and-so, then so-and-so, then so-and-so?Abu Raja' named them, but Auf forgot?then Umar bin Al Khaththab, the fourth. The Prophet, peace be upon him, was not woken until he awoke himself, as we did not know what occurred in his sleep. When Umar awoke and saw the people?s state, being steadfast, he proclaimed takbir loudly, continuing until the Prophet awoke. They complained to him of their situation. He Sa'd "No harm, continue." After a short distance, he stopped, called for water, performed wudu, and led the prayer. After finishing, he saw a man apart, not praying with the group, and asked, "What prevented you from praying with us?" He Sa'd "I am in major impurity with no water." The Prophet Sa'd "Use dust; it suffices." Later, the people complained of thirst. He sent a man?Abu Raja' named him, but Auf forgot?and Ali to find water. They met a woman with water skins on her camel and asked, "Where is water?" She Sa'd "I saw water yesterday at this time; our group sought it." They Sa'd "Come with us." She asked, "To whom?" They Sa'd "To the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him." She Sa'd "The one called the apostate?" They Sa'd "He is the one you mean." They brought her to the Prophet and told him the story. He had her dismount, took a vessel, poured water from her skins, tied them, and called, "Drink and take water!" All drank and took as they wished. He gave a vessel to the impure man, saying, "Go, pour it over yourself." The woman watched her water, and by Allah, it seemed fuller than before. The Prophet Sa'd "Gather food for her." They collected dates, flour, and roasted barley, placed it in a cloth, and loaded it on her camel. He Sa'd "We took none of your water; Allah provided for us." She returned to her people, delayed, and they asked, "What kept you?" She Sa'd "A marvel! Two men took me to the one called the apostate, who did such and such. By Allah, he is the most wondrous between these," pointing her fingers to the sky and earth, meaning, "He is truly Allah?s Messenger." Muslims thereafter spared her tribe from raids, not harming her clan. She told her people, "These people spare you deliberately. Will you accept Islam?" They obeyed and embraced Islam.' Abu Abdullah Sa'd 'Apostate means leaving one religion for another.' Abu Aliah Sa'd 'The Sabians are a sect of the People of the Book who read the Psalms.'

He took my hand and ascended to the lowest heaven. At the lowest heaven, Jibril Sa'dto its keeper, "Open." The keeper Sa'd "Who is this?" Jibril Sa'd "This is Jibril." The keeper Sa'd "Is anyone with you?" Jibril Sa'd "Yes, Muhammad, peace be upon him." The keeper Sa'd "Was he sent for?" Jibril Sa'd "Yes." When it opened, we ascended, finding a man seated with groups on his right and left. When he looked right, he smiled; when left, he wept. He Sa'd "Welcome, righteous Prophet and son." I asked Jibril, "Who is this?" He Sa'd "This is Adam. The groups on his right are the people of Paradise; on his left, the people of Hell. He smiles when looking right and weeps when looking left." He took me to the second heaven, saying to its keeper, "Open," as with the first. Anas Sa'd "He mentioned meeting Adam, Idris, Musa, Isa, and Ibrahim, peace be upon them, in the heavens, not specifying their stations except Adam in the lowest heaven and Ibrahim in the sixth." Anas continued, "When Jibril passed with the Prophet, peace be upon him, by Idris, he Sa'd 'Welcome, righteous Prophet and brother.' I asked, 'Who is this?' Jibril Sa'd 'This is Idris.' Passing Musa, he Sa'd 'Welcome, righteous Prophet and brother.' I asked, 'Who is this?' Jibril Sa'd 'This is Musa.' Passing Isa, he Sa'd 'Welcome, righteous brother and Prophet.' I asked, 'Who is this?' Jibril Sa'd 'This is Isa.' Passing Ibrahim, he Sa'd 'Welcome, righteous Prophet and son.' I asked, 'Who is this?' Jibril Sa'd 'This is Ibrahim, peace be upon him.' Ibnu Syihab Sa'd Ibnu Hazm told me that Ibnu Abbas and Abu Habbah Al Ansari Sa'd the Prophet, peace be upon him, Sa'd 'I was taken up until I heard the pens? scratching.' Ibnu Hazm and Anas bin Malik Sa'd the Prophet, peace be upon him, Sa'd 'Allah, Mighty and Exalted, prescribed fifty prayers for my community. I returned, passing Musa, who Sa'd "What did Allah prescribe for your community?" I Sa'd "Fifty prayers." He Sa'd "Return to your Lord; your community cannot bear it." I returned, and Allah reduced it by half. I told Musa, who Sa'd "Return to your Lord; your community cannot bear it." I returned, and Allah reduced it by half again. I told Musa, who Sa'd "Return to your Lord; your community cannot bear it." I returned, and Allah Sa'd "Five prayers, equal to fifty; My word does not change." I returned to Musa, who Sa'd "Return to your Lord." I Sa'd "I am shy before my Lord." Jibril took me to Sidratul Muntaha, covered in colors I cannot describe. Then I entered Paradise, with domes of pearls and soil of musk.'

Narrated to us by Ali bin Abdullah, Sa'd narrated to us Sufyan, Sa'd narrated to us Abu Hazim, Sa'd 'People asked Sahl bin Sa'd "What was the pulpit made of?" He Sa'd "No one alive knows better than I. It was made from tamarisk wood, crafted by a freed slave for the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him. He stood on it when it was made and placed, facing the qibla, proclaimed takbir, and the people stood behind him. He recited, bowed, and they bowed behind him. He raised his head, stepped back, and prostrated on the ground. He returned to the pulpit, bowed, raised his head, stepped back, and prostrated on the ground. That was its use." Abu Abdullah Sa'd Ali bin Al Madini Sa'd Ahmad bin Hanbal, may Allah have mercy on him, asked me about this Hadith, saying, "I meant that the Prophet, peace be upon him, was higher than the people, so it?s fine for the imam to be higher than the congregation based on this Hadith." I Sa'd "Sufyan bin Uyainah was often asked about this; didn?t you hear it from him?" He Sa'd "No."'

Narrated to us by Ibrahim bin Al Mundhir Al Hizami, Sa'd narrated to us Anas bin Iyadh, Sa'd narrated to us Musa bin Uqbah from Nafi,, that Abdullah bin Umar informed him, that the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, stopped at Dhu Al Hulaifah under a samurah tree during his Umrah and Hajj, where the mosque now stands. When returning from battle, Hajj, or Umrah, he descended a valley?s base, rested at a streambed on the eastern valley?s edge until morning, not at the stone mosque or the hilltop mosque. There was a gully where Abdullah prayed, with Sa'ddunes where the Prophet, peace be upon him, prayed. A flood buried that place. Abdullah bin Umar Sa'dthe Prophet, peace be upon him, prayed at a small mosque, not the one at Sharf Ar Rawha. Abdullah knew the Prophet?s prayer spot, saying, 'There, to your right when standing in the mosque.' That mosque is on the right path to Makkah, a stone?s throw from the larger mosque. Abdullah prayed at the Irq gully near Rawha?s end, below the mosque on the right path to Makkah. A mosque was built there, but Abdullah passed it on his left, praying at the gully itself. From Rawha, he delayed noon prayer until reaching that spot. Returning from Makkah, if passing it an hour before dawn or at night?s end, he rested until morning prayer. Abdullah Sa'dthe Prophet, peace be upon him, stopped under a large tree near Ar Ruwaisah, right of the path, in a flat spot two miles from Ruwaisah?s edge. Its top was broken, bent inward, standing on its base with many gullies. Abdullah Sa'dthe Prophet, peace be upon him, prayed near a stream behind Al Arj toward Hadbah, where two or three graves with stone markers lay right of the path. Abdullah prayed noon there after passing Al Arj post-midday. Abdullah Sa'dthe Prophet, peace be upon him, stopped at trees left of the path near Harsha?s stream, a bowshot from the path. Abdullah prayed at the tallest tree closest to the path. Abdullah Sa'dthe Prophet, peace be upon him, stopped at a stream near Marr Az Zhahran toward Madinah, descending from Safrawat, left of the path to Makkah, a stone?s throw away. Abdullah Sa'dthe Prophet, peace be upon him, stayed at Dhu Tuwa, spending the night until morning prayer when visiting Makkah, on a rugged hill, not the built mosque, but lower on the black hill, ten cubits from the hill, facing two mountain passes toward the Kaaba.'

Narrated to us by Abdullah bin Yusuf, Sa'd informed us Malik from Ibn Shihab from Ubaidullah bin Abdullah bin Utbah from Abdullah bin Abbas, Sa'd 'I came riding a female donkey, nearing puberty, while the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, was leading people in prayer at Mina without a barrier. I passed in front of some rows, dismounted, let the donkey graze, joined the row, and no one objected.'

Narrated to us Ali bin Abdullah Al Mutsanna, he Sa'd narrated to us Sufyan, he Sa'd we memorized it from Az Zuhri from Sa'id bin Al Musayyab from Abu Hurairah from the Prophet, peace be upon him, he said: 'When the heat is intense, delay the prayer until it cools, for intense heat comes from the breath of Hellfire. Hellfire complained to its Lord, saying: "O Lord, parts of me consume others!" So, Allah permitted it two breaths: one in winter and one in summer. Thus, the intense heat you feel and the extreme cold you experience come from it.'

Because of this, we fell asleep in the mosque, then woke up, fell asleep again, and woke up again until the Prophet, peace be upon him, came out to us and Sa'd 'No one else on earth is waiting for this prayer except you.' Ibnu 'Umar did not mind whether he performed it earlier or later, as long as he did not fear missing its time due to sleep, and he would sleep before it. Ibnu Juraij Sa'd 'I asked 'Atha, and he Sa'd I heard Ibnu 'Abbas say, "One night, the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, delayed the Isha prayer until people fell asleep, woke up, fell asleep again, and woke up again." 'Umar bin Al Khaththab stood and Sa'd "The prayer." 'Atha Sa'd Ibnu 'Abbas Sa'd "The Prophet, peace be upon him, came out, placing his hand on his head, as if I can see his hair dripping with water now. He Sa'd 'If it were not burdensome for my ummah, I would have ordered them to perform the Isha prayer at this time.'" I, Ibnu Juraij, confirmed with 'Atha how the Prophet, peace be upon him, placed his hand on his head as Ibnu 'Abbas described. 'Atha spread his fingers slightly, placed the tips on the side of the head, then pressed and moved them around the head until his thumb touched the edge of the ear near the face, at the temple and the base of the beard, neither slowly nor quickly, but just like that. He Sa'd "If it were not burdensome for my ummah, I would have ordered them to pray like this."'

Narrated to us Abu An Nu'man, he Sa'd narrated to us Mu'tamir bin Sulaiman, he Sa'd narrated to us my father, narrated to us Abu 'Utsman from 'Abdurrahman bin Abu Bakar, that the Ashhabush Shuffah were poor people. The Prophet, peace be upon him, Sa'd 'Whoever has food for two, let him take a third, and if for four, let him take a fifth or sixth.' Abu Bakar came with food for three, and the Prophet, peace be upon him, came with food for ten. He Sa'd 'That was me, my father, my mother,'?the narrator Sa'd I don?t know if he said?'my wife, and a servant between us and Abu Bakar?s house.' Abu Bakar ate dinner with the Prophet, peace be upon him, and stayed until the Isha prayer was performed, then returned and stayed until the Prophet, peace be upon him, ate dinner. He came after much of the night had passed as Allah willed. His wife Sa'dto him, 'What kept you from your guests?' or she Sa'd 'your guest?' He Sa'd 'Have you not fed them?' She Sa'd 'They refused until you came; they were offered but refused.' He Sa'd 'I went and hid.' He Sa'd 'O Ghuntsar,' and he scolded and cursed, saying, 'Eat, may it not be pleasant.' He Sa'd 'By Allah, I will never eat it.' By Allah, we did not take a bite except that more grew from beneath it. He meant until they were full, and it became more than it was before. Abu Bakar looked at it, and it was as it was or more. He Sa'dto his wife, 'O sister of Bani Firas, what is this?' She Sa'd 'No, by the coolness of my eyes, it is now three times more than before.' Abu Bakar ate from it and Sa'd 'That was from the devil,' meaning his oath, then ate a bite and took it to the Prophet, peace be upon him, and it remained with him. There was an agreement between us and some people, and the time passed, so we divided into twelve men, each with people?Allah knows how many with each man?and they all ate from it, or as he said.'

This is because when he performs ablution perfectly and then goes out to the mosque, intending only the prayer, every step he takes raises him a degree and erases one of his sins. When he prays, the angels continue to pray for him as long as he remains in his prayer place, saying: O Allah, forgive him, O Allah, have mercy on him. One of you remains in a state of prayer as long as he is waiting for the prayer.'

She Sa'd 'When the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, was ill with the illness that led to his death, the time for prayer came, and the adhan was called. He said: Order Abu Bakr to lead the people in prayer. It was Sa'dto him, "Indeed, Abu Bakr is a soft-hearted man; if he stands in your place, he will not be able to lead the people in prayer." He repeated, and they repeated their response. He repeated a third time and said: You are like the women of Yusuf! Order Abu Bakr to lead the people in prayer. So Abu Bakr went out and led the prayer. The Prophet, peace be upon him, felt some relief and went out, supported by two men, as if I could see his feet dragging from the pain. Abu Bakr wanted to step back, but the Prophet, peace be upon him, signaled to him to stay in place. Then he was brought and sat beside him.' It was Sa'dto Al A'masy, 'Did the Prophet, peace be upon him, pray, and Abu Bakr prayed following his prayer, and the people prayed following Abu Bakr?s prayer?' He nodded, 'Yes.' Abu Daud narrated from Syu'bah from Al A'masy some of it, and Abu Mu'awiyah added, 'He sat to the left of Abu Bakr, and Abu Bakr prayed standing.'

On Monday, while they were in rows for prayer, the Prophet, peace be upon him, lifted the curtain of the room and looked at us while standing, his face like a page of a book. Then he smiled and laughed. We almost fell into temptation out of joy at seeing the Prophet, peace be upon him. Abu Bakr stepped back to join the row, thinking the Prophet, peace be upon him, was coming out for prayer. The Prophet, peace be upon him, signaled to us to complete our prayer, lowered the curtain, and passed away that day.

She Sa'd 'Yes. The Prophet, peace be upon him, became heavy and Sa'd Have the people prayed? We Sa'd No, they are waiting for you. He Sa'd Put water for me in the basin. We did so, and he bathed. We Sa'd No, they are waiting for you, O Messenger of Allah. The people were gathered in the mosque waiting for the Prophet, peace be upon him, for the last 'Isha prayer. The Prophet, peace be upon him, sent for Abu Bakr to lead the people in prayer. The messenger came to him and Sa'd The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, orders you to lead the people in prayer. Abu Bakr, a soft-hearted man, Sa'd O 'Umar, lead the people in prayer. 'Umar Sa'd You are more entitled to that. So Abu Bakr led the prayer during those days. Then the Prophet, peace be upon him, felt some relief and went out for the Zuhr prayer, supported by two men, one of whom was 'Abbas. They seated him beside Abu Bakr. Abu Bakr prayed following the prayer of the Prophet, peace be upon him, and the people prayed following Abu Bakr?s prayer, while the Prophet, peace be upon him, was sitting. He joined Mu'adh in prayer. Mu'adh recited Surah Al-Baqarah or An-Nisa, so the man left. It reached him that Mu'adh had criticized him. He went to the Prophet, peace be upon him, and complained about Mu'adh. The Prophet, peace be upon him, Sa'd O Mu'adh, are you causing fitnah? or Are you a troublemaker? three times. Why did you not recite Glorify the name of your Lord, or By the sun and its brightness, or By the night when it covers? For behind you are the elderly, the weak, and those with needs.' I think this is in the hadith. Abu 'Abdullah Sa'd this was supported by Sa'id bin Masruq, Mis'ar, and Asy Syaibani. 'Amru, 'Ubaidullah bin Miqsam, and Abu Az Zubair from Jabir Sa'dthat Mu'adh recited Al-Baqarah in the 'Isha prayer, and this was supported by Al A'masy from Muharib.

Narrated to us 'Ali bin 'Abdullah, he Sa'd narrated to us Sufyan, more than once, from Az Zuhri, he Sa'd I heard Anas bin Malik say, 'The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him, fell from a horse, and possibly Sufyan Sa'd "from a horse," and his right side was injured. We visited him, and when the time for prayer came, he led us in prayer sitting, and we sat. Sufyan once Sa'd "We prayed sitting." After completing the prayer, he Sa'd "The Imam is made to be followed. When he says takbir, say takbir; when he bows, bow; when he rises, rise; when he says, 'May Allah hear those who praise Him,' say, 'Our Lord, to You be praise'; and when he prostrates, prostrate." Sufyan Sa'd "This is how Ma'mar brought it." I Sa'd "Yes." Sufyan Sa'd "He preserved it." Az Zuhri Sa'd "To You be praise, I remember his right side was injured." When we left Az Zuhri, Ibnu Juraij Sa'd "I was with him, and his right thigh was injured."'

Narrated to us Abu Al Yaman, he Sa'd informed us Syu'aib from Az Zuhri, he Sa'd informed me Sa'id bin Al Musayyab and 'Atha' bin Yazid Al Laitsi that Abu Hurairah informed them, 'People Sa'd "O Messenger of Allah, will we see our Lord on the Day of Resurrection?" He Sa'd "Do you doubt seeing the moon on the night of the full moon when there are no clouds?" They Sa'd "No, O Messenger of Allah." He Sa'd "Do you doubt seeing the sun when there are no clouds?" They Sa'd "No." He Sa'd "You will see Him like that. On the Day of Resurrection, people will be gathered, and it will be Sa'd 'Whoever worshipped something, let him follow it.' Some will follow the sun, some the moon, and some the false deities, leaving this community with its hypocrites. Allah will come to them and say, 'I am your Lord.' They will say, 'This is our place until our Lord comes, and when He comes, we will recognize Him.' Allah will come to them and say, 'I am your Lord.' They will say, 'You are our Lord,' and He will call them, and the Sirat will be placed over Hell. I will be the first among the Messengers to cross with my community. No one will speak that day except the Messengers, and their words will be, 'O Allah, save, save.' In Hell, there are hooks like the thorns of Sa'dan. Have you seen the thorns of Sa'dan?' They Sa'd 'Yes.' He Sa'd 'They are like the thorns of Sa'dan, but no one knows their size except Allah. They snatch people according to their deeds. Some are destroyed by their deeds, and some are torn and then saved. When Allah wishes to show mercy to those in the Fire, He will command the angels to take out those who worshipped Allah. They will take them out, recognizing them by the marks of prostration, as Allah has forbidden the Fire from consuming the marks of prostration. They will come out of the Fire, having been burned, and the water of life will be poured on them, and they will grow like seeds grow by the side of a stream. Then Allah will finish judging His servants, and one man will remain between Paradise and Hell, the last of the people of Hell to enter Paradise, facing the Fire. He will say, 'O Lord, turn my face away from the Fire; its wind has poisoned me, and its blaze has burned me.' Allah will say, 'If I do that, will you ask for anything else?' He will say, 'No, by Your might.' Allah will grant him covenants and pledges as He wishes, and turn his face from the Fire. When he faces Paradise and sees its splendor, he will remain silent as long as Allah wills, then say, 'O Lord, bring me near the gate of Paradise.' Allah will say, 'Did you not give covenants and pledges not to ask for more?' He will say, 'O Lord, let me not be the most wretched of Your creation.' Allah will say, 'If I grant you this, will you not ask for more?' He will say, 'No, by Your might, I will not ask for more.' He will give his Lord covenants and pledges as He wishes, and Allah will bring him near the gate of Paradise. When he reaches the gate and sees its beauty and joy, he will remain silent as long as Allah wills, then say, 'O Lord, let me enter Paradise.' Allah will say, 'Woe to you, son of Adam, how treacherous you are! Did you not give covenants and pledges not to ask for more?' He will say, 'O Lord, do not make me the most wretched of Your creation.' Allah, the Mighty and Exalted, will laugh at him and permit him to enter Paradise, saying, 'Wish,' and he will wish until his wishes are exhausted. Allah, the Mighty and Exalted, will say, 'And this and that,' reminding him until his wishes are fulfilled. Allah, the Exalted, will say, 'This is for you and its like with it.' Abu Sa'id Al Khudri Sa'dto Abu Hurairah, 'The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him, Sa'd "Allah Sa'd 'This is for you and ten times its like.'" Abu Hurairah Sa'd 'I only memorized from the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him, his saying, "This is for you and its like with it." Abu Sa'id Sa'd 'I heard him say, "This is for you and ten times its like."'

But by the one in whose hand is my soul, he did not send down his hands except that a cloud of clouds rose like a mountain. And he did not come down from the pulpit until I finally saw the rain drenching his beard sallallaahu 'alaihi wasallam. The next day and the day after that, we continued to get rain and the next day until the next Friday. On the following Friday the Bedouin Arabs, or someone else stood up and Sa'd " O Messenger of Allah, many buildings collapsed, property sank and drifted, so pray to Allah for us."He raised his hands and prayed: 'ALLAHUMMA HAWAALAINAA WA LAA 'ALAINAA (O Allah, send down rain around us and do not cause damage to us) '. Not to mention he gave a signal with his hand to the clouds, unless the clouds disappeared instantly. Then the city of Medina became like a lake and streams of water, Medina also did not get sunlight for a month. And no one came from all corners of the city except to tell about the occurrence of heavy rain.'

Then he would turn and stand facing the people while they were seated in their rows. He would admonish them, advise them, and command them. If he wanted to dispatch an expedition, he would do so, or if he wanted to order something, he would order it, then leave.' Abu Sa'id Sa'd 'The people continued to do so until I went out with Marwan, who was the governor of Medina, on Eid al-Adha or Eid al-Fitr. When we reached the prayer place, there was a pulpit built by Kathir bin As-Salt. Marwan wanted to ascend it before the prayer, so I pulled his clothes, and he pulled back, then ascended and delivered the sermon before the prayer. I Sa'dto him, "By Allah, you have changed (the Sunnah)!" He Sa'd "O Abu Sa'id, what you know has passed." I Sa'd "By Allah, what I know is better than what I do not know." They performed the prayer before the sermon, then delivered the sermon afterward. The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) left, and I saw him as if signaling with his hand for the congregation to remain seated. He then passed through their rows until he reached the women, accompanied by Bilal. He recited: 'O Prophet, when believing women come to you pledging...' (Quran, Al-Mumtahanah: 12). After reciting, he said: 'Are you prepared for this?' One woman among them, and no one else answered, said: 'Yes.' Hasan did not know who she was. He said: 'Then give charity.' Bilal spread out a cloth and said: 'Come, may my parents be your ransom!' They threw large bracelets and rings into Bilal?s cloth. Abdurrazzaq said: 'Al-Fatakh are large rings used in the pre-Islamic era.'

Musaddad narrated: Abu Al-Ahwas narrated to us, from Mansur bin Al-Mu'tamir, from Ash-Sha'bi, from Al-Bara' bin Azib, who said: The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) delivered a sermon on the Day of Sacrifice after the prayer, saying: 'Whoever prays our prayer and performs our sacrifice has fulfilled the rite. Whoever sacrifices before the prayer, it is merely meat.' Abu Burdah bin Niyar stood and said: 'O Messenger of Allah, I sacrificed before going to the prayer, knowing today is for eating and drinking, so I hastened and fed my family and neighbors.' The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) said: 'That is merely meat.' He asked: 'I have a young goat better than two sheep for meat. Will it suffice for me?' He replied: 'Yes, but it won?t suffice for anyone after you.'

Uthman bin Abu Shaibah narrated to us, Jarir narrated to us, from Mansur, from Abu Ad-Duha, from Masruq, who said: We were with Abdullah when he Sa'd 'The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) Sa'dwhen he saw people turning away (from Islam): "O Allah, afflict them with seven years of famine like the time of Yusuf." Then a famine struck them where no plants grew, so they ate skins, carrion, and rotten things. Then one of them looked at the sky and saw smoke due to hunger. Abu Sufyan came to him and Sa'd "O Muhammad, you command obedience to Allah and maintaining family ties, your people have perished, so pray to Allah for them." Allah then said: "So watch for the day when the sky brings a clear smoke" (Quran, Ad-Dukhan: 10-16) until His words: "Indeed, you will return (to disbelief). The day We strike with the great blow, indeed, We will take retribution." The blow was the day of Badr, and the smoke, the blow, the compulsion, and the sign of the Romans have passed.'

Abdullah bin Yusuf narrated to us, Malik informed us, from Sharik bin Abdullah bin Abu Namir, from Anas bin Malik, who said: A man came to the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) and said: 'O Messenger of Allah, the livestock have perished, and the roads are cut off, so pray to Allah.' He prayed to Allah, and it rained from one Friday to the next. A man came to the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) and said: 'O Messenger of Allah, the houses have collapsed, the roads are cut off, and the livestock have perished.' The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) said: 'O Allah, on the tops of mountains, hills, valleys, and where trees grow.' The clouds cleared from Madinah like a cloth being removed.

Muhammad bin Kathir narrated to us, from Sufyan, Mansur and Al-A'mash narrated to us, from Abu Ad-Duha, from Masruq, who said: I visited Ibn Mas'ud, and he said: 'The Quraysh delayed in accepting Islam, so the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) prayed against them. A famine struck them until they perished in it and ate carrion and bones. Abu Sufyan came to him and said: "O Muhammad, you came commanding family ties, and your people have perished, so pray to Allah." He recited: "So watch for the day when the sky brings a clear smoke" (Quran, Ad-Dukhan: 10). Then they returned to their disbelief, so Allah said: "The day We strike with the great blow, indeed, We will take retribution" (Quran, Ad-Dukhan: 16), meaning the day of Badr.' Abu Abdullah said: Asbat added from Mansur: 'The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) prayed, and they received rain, covering them for seven days. People complained about excessive rain, and he said: "O Allah, around us and not upon us." The clouds moved away from above his head, and people around them received rain.'

Muhammad bin Abu Bakar narrated to us, Mu'tamir narrated to us, from Ubaidullah, from Thabit, from Anas bin Malik, who said: The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) was delivering a sermon on Friday when people stood and shouted: 'O Messenger of Allah, the rain has stopped, the trees have turned red, and the animals have died, so pray to Allah to send us rain.' He said: 'O Allah, grant us rain,' twice. By Allah, we saw no clouds, not even a wisp, until a cloud appeared and it rained. He came down from the pulpit and prayed. When he finished, the rain continued until the next Friday. When the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) stood to deliver the sermon, they shouted: 'The houses have collapsed, and the roads are cut off, pray to Allah to withhold it from us.' The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) smiled and said: 'O Allah, around us and not upon us.' Madinah became clear, and it rained around it, but not a drop fell in Madinah. I looked at Madinah, and it was like a crown.

While the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) was delivering a sermon on Friday, a Bedouin stood and said: 'O Messenger of Allah, the property has perished, and hunger has struck, so pray to Allah to send us rain.' Anas bin Malik said: The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) raised his hands, and there was not a wisp of cloud in the sky. Clouds like mountains appeared, and he had not yet descended from the pulpit when I saw rain dripping on his beard. We received rain that day, the next, and the day after, until the next Friday. That Bedouin, or another man, stood and said: 'O Messenger of Allah, buildings have collapsed, and property has drowned, so pray to Allah for us.' The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) raised his hands and said: 'O Allah, around us and not upon us.' He had not yet pointed to a part of the sky but it cleared, until Madinah became like a basin, and the valley of Qanat flowed for a month. Anas bin Malik said: No one came from any direction without reporting abundant rain.

Inside it were people I recognized, and I began to say, 'I seek refuge with Allah from the Fire.' Then another angel met us and Sa'dto me, 'Do not be afraid.' I narrated it to Hafsah, and Hafsah narrated it to the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him. He Sa'd 'What an excellent man Abdullah is, if only he would pray at night.' Ishaq narrated to us, Ya'qub bin Ibrahim narrated to us, my father narrated to us from Ibn Shihab, who Sa'd Mahmud bin Ar-Rabi' Al-Ansari informed me that he remembered the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him, including an incident where the Prophet spat water from a well in their house onto his face. Mahmud narrated that he heard 'Itban bin Malik Al-Ansari (may Allah be pleased with him), who was among those who witnessed Badr with the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him, say, 'I used to lead my people, Banu Salim, in prayer, but a valley between me and them would flood when it rained, making it difficult for me to reach their mosque. So I went to the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him and Sa'd "My eyesight is weak, and the valley between me and my people flows when it rains, making it hard for me to cross. I would like you to come and pray in my house so I can make it a place of prayer." The Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him Sa'd "I will do so." The Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him and Abu Bakr (may Allah be pleased with him) came in the morning when the day was well advanced. The Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him asked for permission to enter, and I granted it. He did not sit until he Sa'd "Where would you like me to pray in your house?" I pointed to the place where I wanted to pray. The Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him stood, Sa'dthe takbir, and we lined up behind him. He prayed two rak'ahs, then gave the salam, and we gave the salam when he did. I detained him with a meal of meat we had prepared for him. The people of the house heard that the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him was in my house, and men gathered until many were in the house. One of them Sa'd "What has Malik done? I don?t see him." Another Sa'd "That one is a hypocrite who does not love Allah and His Messenger." The Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him Sa'd "Do not say that. Do you not see that he has Sa'd 'There is no deity but Allah,' seeking only the pleasure of Allah?" The man Sa'd "Allah and His Messenger know best. As for us, by Allah, we only see his affection and speech directed toward the hypocrites." The Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him Sa'd "Indeed, Allah has forbidden the Fire for whoever says, 'There is no deity but Allah,' seeking the pleasure of Allah." Mahmud bin Ar-Rabi' Sa'd "I narrated this to some people, including Abu Ayyub, the companion of the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him, during the expedition in which he passed away, with Yazid bin Mu'awiyah leading them in the land of the Romans. Abu Ayyub disapproved of what I narrated and Sa'd 'By Allah, I do not think the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him Sa'dwhat you claimed.' This weighed heavily on me, so I vowed to Allah that if He spared me until I returned from this expedition, I would ask 'Itban bin Malik (may Allah be pleased with him) about it if I found him alive in his people?s mosque. When I returned, I performed Hajj or Umrah, then traveled to Madinah. I went to Banu Salim and found 'Itban, an elderly blind man, praying with his people. After he gave the salam from the prayer, I greeted him, told him who I was, and asked him about that hadith. He narrated it to me as he had the first time.'

The Prophet peace and blessings be upon him passed away that day.

Qutaibah narrated to us, Abdul Aziz narrated to us from Abu Hazim, from Sahal bin Sa'ad (may Allah be pleased with him) who said: It reached the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him that there was an issue among the Banu 'Amru bin Auf in Quba. He went with some of his companions to resolve it. The Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him was detained, and the time for prayer arrived. Bilal came to Abu Bakr (may Allah be pleased with them) and Sa'd 'O Abu Bakr, the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him is detained, and the time for prayer has come. Will you lead the people?' He replied, 'Yes, if you wish.' Bilal established the prayer, and Abu Bakr stepped forward and began with the takbir. The Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him arrived, walking through the rows, parting them until he stood in the first row. The people signaled by clapping. Sahal Sa'd 'At-Tashfiih means clapping.' Abu Bakr did not react during his prayer. When the clapping grew louder, he turned and saw the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him. The Prophet signaled to him to continue praying. Abu Bakr raised his hand, praised Allah, then stepped back into the row. The Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him stepped forward and led the people in prayer. When he finished, he faced the people and Sa'd 'O people, why do you clap when something happens during prayer? Clapping is for women. Whoever encounters something during prayer should say, "Subhanallah."' Then he turned to Abu Bakr (may Allah be pleased with him) and Sa'd 'O Abu Bakr, what prevented you from continuing to lead the people when I signaled to you?' Abu Bakr replied, 'It is not fitting for Ibn Abu Quhafah to lead the prayer in front of the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him.'

Yahya bin Sulaiman narrated to us, Ibn Wahb Sa'd Amru informed me from Bukair, from Kuraib that Ibn Abbas, Al-Miswar bin Makhramah, and Abdurrahman bin Azhar (may Allah be pleased with them) sent him to Aishah (may Allah be pleased with her), saying, 'Convey our greetings to her and ask about the two rak'ahs after Asr, and say we were informed that you perform them, though we heard the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him forbade them.' Ibn Abbas Sa'd 'I used to strike people with Umar bin Al-Khattab for performing them.' Kuraib Sa'd 'I went to Aishah (may Allah be pleased with her) and conveyed their message. She Sa'd "Ask Umm Salamah." I returned to them and informed them of her response, so they sent me to Umm Salamah with the same question. Umm Salamah (may Allah be pleased with her) Sa'd "I heard the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him forbid them, but later I saw him perform them after Asr. He came to me while some women from Banu Haram of the Ansar were with me. I sent a servant girl to him, saying, 'Stand by him and say, Umm Salamah says, "O Messenger of Allah, I heard you forbid these two rak'ahs, yet I see you performing them." If he signals with his hand, step back.' The girl did so, and he signaled with his hand, so she stepped back. When he finished, he Sa'd 'O daughter of Abu Umayyah, you asked about the two rak'ahs after Asr. Some people from Abdul Qais came to me, keeping me from the two rak'ahs after Zuhr, so these are those.'

Qutaibah bin Sa'id narrated to us, Ya'qub bin Abdurrahman narrated to us from Abu Hazim, from Sahl bin Sa'ad As-Sa'adi (may Allah be pleased with him) that the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him was informed of an issue among Banu Amru bin Auf. He went with some people to resolve it but was delayed, and the time for prayer arrived. Bilal came to Abu Bakr (may Allah be pleased with him) and Sa'd 'O Abu Bakr, the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him is delayed, and the time for prayer has come. Will you lead the people?' He Sa'd 'Yes, if you wish.' Bilal established the prayer, and Abu Bakr stepped forward and began with the takbir. The Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him arrived, walking through the rows until he stood in the first row. The people signaled by clapping. Abu Bakr did not turn during his prayer, but when the clapping increased, he turned and saw the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him. The Prophet signaled to him to continue praying. Abu Bakr raised his hands, praised Allah, and stepped back to the row. The Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him stepped forward and led the prayer. When he finished, he faced the people and Sa'd 'O people, why do you clap when something happens during prayer? Clapping is for women. Whoever encounters something during prayer should say, "Subhanallah," for no one hears it without turning. O Abu Bakr, what prevented you from continuing to lead when I signaled to you?' Abu Bakr Sa'd 'It is not fitting for Ibn Abu Quhafah to lead the prayer in front of the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him.'

She narrated to us, saying, 'The Prophet peace and blessings be upon him came to us while we were washing his daughter and Sa'd "Wash her three times, five times, or more if you deem necessary, with water and sidr, and make the last with camphor. When you are done, inform me."' She Sa'd 'When we finished, he gave us his waistcloth, saying, "Clothe her in it," and he did not command more than that.' I do not remember which of his daughters it was. Ayyub believed that clothing her meant covering the entire body of the deceased woman. Likewise, Ibn Sirin ordered that a woman?s body be fully covered, not just the lower part.

Narrated by Isma'il, narrated to me Malik, from Abdullah bin Abu Bakar bin Muhammad bin Amru bin Hazm, from Humaid bin Nafi,, from Zainab binti Abu Salamah, she informed him, saying: I visited Ummu Habibah (may Allah be pleased with her), the wife of the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him). She said: I heard the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) say: 'It is not permissible for a woman who believes in Allah and the Last Day to mourn for a deceased person beyond three days, except for her husband, for four months and ten days.' Then I visited Zainab binti Jahsy when her brother died. She requested perfume, applied it, and said: I have no need for perfume, except that I heard the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) say from the pulpit: 'It is not permissible for a woman who believes in Allah and the Last Day to mourn for a deceased person beyond three days, except for her husband, for four months and ten days.'

Narrated by Abdan and Muhammad, both Sa'd informed us Abdullah, informed us Ashim bin Sulaiman, from Abu Utsman, he Sa'd narrated to me Usamah bin Zaid (may Allah be pleased with them), he said: The Prophet?s daughter sent for him, saying: 'My son has passed away, come to us.' The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) sent his greetings and said: 'Indeed, to Allah belongs what He takes and what He gives, and everything with Him has an appointed term, so let her be patient and seek reward.' She sent again, insisting he come. He went with Sa?ad bin Ubadah, Mu?adz bin Jabal, Ubay bin Ka?ab, Zaid bin Tsabit, and others. The child was handed to the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him), his soul trembling. I believe he said: Like an empty waterskin. His eyes welled with tears. Sa?ad said: 'O Messenger of Allah, what is this?' He replied: 'This is mercy that Allah has placed in the hearts of His servants, and indeed, Allah shows mercy to those among His servants who are merciful.'

Narrated by Abdan, narrated by Abdullah, informed us Ibnu Juraij, he Sa'd informed me Abdullah bin Ubaidullah bin Abu Mulaikah, he said: Uthman?s daughter (may Allah be pleased with him) passed away in Makkah, and we came to attend her funeral. Ibn Umar and Ibn Abbas (may Allah be pleased with them) were present. I was sitting between them, or I sat next to one, then the other came and sat beside me. Abdullah bin Umar (may Allah be pleased with them) Sa'dto Amru bin Uthman: 'Why don?t you forbid crying? For the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) said: "Indeed, the deceased is punished due to his family?s weeping over him."' Ibn Abbas (may Allah be pleased with them) said: 'Umar (may Allah be pleased with him) used to say something similar.' Then he narrated: I was with Umar (may Allah be pleased with him) from Makkah until we reached Al-Baida. He saw a caravan under a tree?s shade and said: 'Go see who they are.' I looked and saw Suhaib. I informed him, and he said: 'Call him to me.' I returned to Suhaib and said: 'Go meet the Commander of the Faithful.' When Umar was struck, Suhaib came crying, saying: 'O my brother, O my friend.' Umar said: 'O Suhaib, do you cry for me when the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) said: "The deceased is punished due to some of his family?s weeping"?' Ibn Abbas (may Allah be pleased with them) said: When Umar died, I mentioned this to Aisyah (may Allah be pleased with her). She said: 'May Allah have mercy on Umar. By Allah, the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) did not say that Allah punishes a believer for his family?s weeping, but he said: "Allah increases the punishment of a disbeliever due to his family?s weeping." And she said: "Sufficient for you is the Quran: ?No bearer of burdens will bear the burden of another? (An-Najm: 38)." Ibn Abbas (may Allah be pleased with them) said: And Allah is the One who makes laugh and cry (An-Najm: 43). Ibn Abu Mulaikah said: By Allah, Ibn Umar (may Allah be pleased with them) Sa'dnothing after that.

Narrated by Abdullah bin Yusuf, informed us Malik, from Ibn Shihab, from Amir bin Sa?ad bin Abu Waqqas, from his father (may Allah be pleased with him), he said: The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) visited me during the Farewell Pilgrimage when I was very ill. I said: 'My illness has worsened, and I have wealth, but only a daughter will inherit me. May I give two-thirds of my wealth in charity?' He said: 'No.' I said: 'Half?' He said: 'No.' Then he said: 'A third, and a third is substantial or a lot. It is better to leave your heirs wealthy than to leave them destitute, begging people. You will not spend anything seeking Allah?s pleasure but you will be rewarded for it, even for what you put in your wife?s mouth.' I said: 'O Messenger of Allah, will I outlive my companions?' He said: 'You will not outlive them and do a righteous deed but it will increase your rank and status. Perhaps you will live long enough for some to benefit from you and others to be harmed. O Allah, complete the emigration of my companions and do not turn them back on their heels.' But Sa?ad bin Khawlah saddened the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) because he died in Makkah.

Narrated by Al-Hasan bin Abdul Aziz, narrated by Yahya bin Hassan, narrated by Quraisy, he is Ibn Hayyan, from Tsabit, from Anas bin Malik (may Allah be pleased with him), he said: We entered with the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) to Abu Saif Al-Qaiyn, who was the foster father of Ibrahim (peace be upon him). The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) took Ibrahim, kissed him, and smelled him. Later, we visited again when Ibrahim was dying. The eyes of the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) shed tears. Abdurrahman bin Auf (may Allah be pleased with him) said: 'Even you, O Messenger of Allah?' He said: 'O Ibn Auf, this is mercy.' Then, with more tears, he said: 'The eyes shed tears, the heart grieves, but we only say what pleases our Lord. Indeed, we are saddened by your departure, O Ibrahim.' Narrated by Musa, from Sulaiman bin Al-Mughirah, from Tsabit, from Anas bin Malik (may Allah be pleased with him), from the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him).

When he entered, he found him surrounded by his family and asked: 'Has he passed away?' They said: 'No, O Messenger of Allah.' The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) wept. When the people saw him weeping, they wept too. He said: 'Do you not hear? Allah does not punish for the tears of the eyes or the grief of the heart, but He punishes or shows mercy for this,' pointing to his tongue. 'And the deceased is punished due to his family?s weeping over him.' Umar (may Allah be pleased with him) would strike with a stick, throw stones, and scatter dirt.

A man came and said: 'Ja?far?s women,' mentioning their weeping. He ordered him to stop them. The man went, then returned, saying he had forbidden them, but they did not obey. He ordered him again to stop them. The man went and returned, saying: 'By Allah, they have overcome me,' or 'us,' with doubt from Muhammad bin Abdullah bin Hawsyab. Then the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) Sa'dto him: I have hidden something for you. Ibn Sayyad said: It is smoke. He said: Be gone, you will not exceed your limit. Umar (may Allah be pleased with him) said: O Messenger of Allah, let me strike his neck. The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) said: If it is him, you will not have power over him, and if it is not him, there is no good in killing him. Salim said: I heard Ibn Umar (may Allah be pleased with them) say: After that, the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) and Ubayy bin Ka?b went to the palm grove where Ibn Sayyad was, intending to hear something from him before he saw him. The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) saw him lying in a thick garment, making a murmuring or humming sound. Ibn Sayyad?s mother saw the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) hiding behind palm trunks and Sa'dto Ibn Sayyad: O Saf, this is Muhammad (peace and blessings be upon him). Ibn Sayyad got up. The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) said: If she had left him, it would have been clear. Shu?aib Sa'din his narration: He kicked with a murmuring or humming sound. Ishaq Al-Kalbi and Uqail said: Murmuring. Ma?mar said: Humming.

No prayer is performed for one who does not cry out, as it is considered a miscarriage. Abu Hurairah (may Allah be pleased with him) narrated that the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) said: No child is born except upon the natural disposition, then its parents make it Jewish, Christian, or Magian, just as a beast produces a beast intact. Musa bin Isma'il narrated to us, Jarir bin Hazim narrated to us, Abu Raja' narrated to us, from Samrah bin Jundab, who said: It was the habit of the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, after performing a prayer, to turn to us and say, 'Who among you saw a dream last night?' He Sa'd 'If someone had a dream, he would narrate it, and the Prophet would say, ?As Allah wills.? One day, he asked us, 'Did any of you see a dream?' We Sa'd 'No.' He Sa'd 'But I saw last night two men who came to me, took my hand, and led me to the Holy Land. There was a man sitting and another standing with an iron hook in his hand.' Some of our companions narrated from Musa that the hook was inserted into one side of his mouth until it reached his neck, then the same was done to the other side, and the first side healed, and it was repeated. I Sa'd 'What is this?' They Sa'd 'Move on.' We moved on until we came to a man lying on his back with another standing over his head with a rock or stone, smashing his head. When he struck, the stone rolled away, and he went to retrieve it. By the time he returned, the head had healed, and he struck it again. I Sa'd 'Who is this?' They Sa'd 'Move on.' We moved on to a hole like an oven, narrow at the top and wide at the bottom, with fire burning beneath it. When the fire came close, they rose until they almost came out, and when it subsided, they returned to it. There were men and women, naked. I Sa'd 'Who are these?' They Sa'd 'Move on.' We moved on until we came to a river of blood with a man standing in its middle.' Yazid and Wahb bin Jarir narrated from Jarir bin Hazim: 'And on the riverbank was a man with stones in front of him. When the man in the river tried to come out, the man threw a stone into his mouth, forcing him back. This happened every time he tried to come out. I Sa'd 'What is this?' They Sa'd 'Move on.' We moved on until we reached a green garden with a great tree, at its base an old man and children, and a man near the tree kindling a fire. They took me up the tree and into a house more beautiful than any I had seen, with old men, youths, women, and children. Then they took me out and up the tree again into a house even better and more excellent, with old men and youths. I Sa'd 'You have shown me around tonight; tell me what I saw.' They Sa'd 'Yes. The one whose mouth was torn is a liar who told lies that spread to the horizons, so he is treated thus until the Day of Resurrection. The one whose head was smashed is a man whom Allah taught the Qur?an, but he slept through it at night and did not act upon it by day, so he is treated thus until the Day of Resurrection. Those in the oven are adulterers. The one in the river is an eater of usury. The old man at the tree?s base is Ibrahim, peace be upon him, and the children around him are the children of mankind. The one kindling the fire is Malik, the keeper of Hell. The first house you entered is the abode of the general believers, and this house is the abode of the martyrs. I am Jibril, and this is Mika?il. Raise your head.' I raised my head and saw above me something like a cloud. They Sa'd 'That is your abode.' I Sa'd 'Let me enter my abode.' They Sa'd 'You still have life remaining; when it is complete, you will come to your abode.'

He Sa'd 'What day is today?' She Sa'd 'Monday.' He Sa'd 'I hope to pass between now and tonight.' He looked at the cloth he was wearing while ill, stained with saffron, and Sa'd 'Wash this cloth of mine and add two more to shroud me in them.' I Sa'd 'This is worn out.' He Sa'd 'The living are more deserving of new clothes than the dead; it is only for the decay of the body.' He did not pass away until the evening of Tuesday and was buried before morning.

Narrated by Qutaibah, narrated by Jarir bin 'Abdul Hamid, narrated by Husain bin 'Abdurrahman, from 'Amru bin Maimun Al-Audi, he said: I saw 'Umar bin Al-Khattab (may Allah be pleased with him) say: 'O 'Abdullah bin Umar, go to Ummul Mu'minin 'Aishah (may Allah be pleased with her) and say that 'Umar bin Al-Khattab sends his greetings to you, then ask her permission for me to be buried with my two companions.' She said: 'I had wanted that place for myself, but today I prefer him over myself.' When he returned, 'Umar asked him: 'What is your news?' He said: 'She has given you permission, O Commander of the Faithful.' He said: 'There is nothing dearer to me than that resting place. When I pass away, carry me there, then give greetings and say that 'Umar bin Al-Khattab seeks permission. If she permits, bury me there; if not, bury me in the Muslim cemetery. I do not know anyone more entitled to this matter than those whom the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) was pleased with when he passed away. Whoever they appoint after me is the caliph, so listen to him and obey.' He named 'Uthman, 'Ali, Talhah, Az-Zubair, 'Abdur-Rahman bin 'Awf, and Sa'dbin Abi Waqqas. Then a young man from the Ansar came to him and said: 'O Commander of the Faithful, rejoice with the glad tidings of Allah. You have your precedence in Islam as you know, then you became caliph and acted justly, and then martyrdom after all this?' He said: 'If only it were so, O nephew, sufficient for me to be neither against me nor for me. I enjoin the caliph after me to treat the early Muhajirin well, to recognize their rights and preserve their honor. I enjoin him to treat the Ansar well, who established their home and faith in Madinah, to accept the good among them and forgive those who do wrong. I enjoin him to uphold the covenant of Allah and His Messenger (peace and blessings be upon him), to fulfill their agreements, to fight for them, and not to burden them beyond their capacity.'

'Umar bin Al-Khattab (may Allah be pleased with him) said: 'How can you fight people when the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) said: "I have been ordered to fight people until they say there is no god but Allah. Whoever says it has protected his life and property from me, except by its right, and his reckoning is with Allah"?' Abu Bakr (may Allah be pleased with him) said: 'By Allah, I will fight whoever separates prayer from zakat, for zakat is the right of wealth. By Allah, if they withhold even a young goat that they used to give to the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him), I will fight them for withholding it.' 'Umar (may Allah be pleased with him) said: 'By Allah, it was nothing but Allah opening the heart of Abu Bakr (may Allah be pleased with him), and I realized that he was right.'

As for poverty, the Hour will not come until one of you goes around with his charity and finds no one to accept it from him. Then one of you will stand before Allah with no veil or interpreter between him and Allah. Allah will say to him: "Did I not give you wealth?" He will say: "Yes." Then He will say: "Did I not send a messenger to you?" He will say: "Yes." He will look to his right and see nothing but the Fire, then look to his left and see nothing but the Fire. So let each of you protect himself from the Fire, even with half a date; if he finds none, then with a kind word.'
