"Narrated to me Muhammad bin Al-'Ala', narrated to us Abu Usamah, narrated to us Buraid bin Abdullah from Abu Burdah from Abu Musa (may Allah be pleased with him), he said: We heard of the Prophet's peace be upon him departure while we were in Yemen, so we set out to migrate to him, myself and my two brothers, I being the youngest. One was Abu Burdah, and the other Abu Ruhm, either he said a few or he said fifty-three or fifty-two men from my people. We boarded a ship, and it took us to the Negus in Abyssinia. There we met Ja'far bin Abi Talib and stayed with him until we arrived together. We met the Prophet peace be upon him when he had conquered Khaibar. Some people said to us, meaning the people of the ship, 'We preceded you in migration.' Asma' bint 'Umais, who was among those who came with us, visited Hafsah, the wife of the Prophet peace be upon him, having migrated to the Negus with those who migrated. Umar came to Hafsah while Asma' was with her and said upon seeing Asma', 'Who is this?' She said, 'Asma' bint 'Umais.' Umar said, 'This Abyssinian, this seafarer?' Asma' replied, 'Yes.' Umar said, 'We preceded you in migration, so we have more right to the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him than you.' She became angry and said, 'No, by Allah, you were with the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him, who fed your hungry and advised your ignorant, while we were in a distant, hostile land in Abyssinia for the sake of Allah and His Messenger peace be upon him. By Allah, I will neither eat food nor drink water until I mention what you said to the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him. We were persecuted and afraid, and I will mention this to the Prophet peace be upon him and ask him. By Allah, I will not lie, deviate, or add to it.' When the Prophet peace be upon him came, she said, 'O Prophet of Allah, Umar said such and such.' He said, 'What did you say to him?' She said, 'I said such and such.' He said, 'He is not more entitled to me than you. He and his companions have one migration, while you, the people of the ship, have two migrations.' She said, 'I saw Abu Musa and the people of the ship coming to me in groups, asking me about this hadith. Nothing in the world made them happier or greater in their eyes than what the Prophet peace be upon him said to them.' Abu Burdah said, Asma' said, 'I saw Abu Musa repeatedly asking me to repeat this hadith.'

Hadith Imam Bukhari Number 3909

حَدَّثَنَا سَعِيدُ بْنُ أَبِي مَرْيَمَ أَخْبَرَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ جَعْفَرٍ قَالَ أَخْبَرَنِي زَيْدٌ عَنْ أَبِيهِ أَنَّهُ سَمِعَ عُمَرَ بْنَ الْخَطَّابِ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ يَقُولُ أَمَا وَالَّذِي نَفْسِي بِيَدِهِ لَوْلَا أَنْ أَتْرُكَ آخِرَ النَّاسِ بَبَّانًا لَيْسَ لَهُمْ شَيْءٌ مَا فُتِحَتْ عَلَيَّ قَرْيَةٌ إِلَّا قَسَمْتُهَا كَمَا قَسَمَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ خَيْبَرَ وَلَكِنِّي أَتْرُكُهَا خِزَانَةً لَهُمْ يَقْتَسِمُونَهَا

"Narrated to us Sa'id bin Abu Maryam, informed us Muhammad bin Ja'far, he said, informed me Zaid from his father, that he heard Umar bin Al-Khattab (may Allah be pleased with him) say: 'By the One in Whose Hand is my soul, were it not for fear of leaving the last of the people destitute, I would not have conquered a town without dividing it as the Prophet peace be upon him divided Khaibar. But I leave it as a treasury for them to share.'

"Narrated to me Muhammad bin Al-Muthanna, narrated to us Ibn Mahdi from Malik bin Anas from Zaid bin Aslam from his father from Umar (may Allah be pleased with him), he said: Were it not for the future generations of Muslims, I would not have conquered a town without dividing it as the Prophet peace be upon him divided Khaibar.

It is reported from Az-Zubaidi from Az-Zuhri, he said, informed me Anbasah bin Said that he heard Abu Hurairah informing Sa'id bin Al-'As, he said: The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him sent Aban on an expedition from Medina toward Najd. Abu Hurairah said: Aban and his companions came to the Prophet peace be upon him at Khaibar after he had conquered it, their horses' reins made of palm fiber. Abu Hurairah said, 'I said, O Messenger of Allah, do not distribute to them.' Aban said, 'And you, a creature descending from the peak of Dha'n.' The Prophet peace be upon him said, 'O Aban, sit down,' and he did not distribute to them.

"Narrated to us Yahya bin Bukair, narrated to us Al-Laith from Uqail from Ibn Shihab from Urwah from Aishah, that Fatimah (peace be upon her), the daughter of the Prophet peace be upon him, sent to Abu Bakr asking for her inheritance from the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him from what Allah had granted him in Medina, Fadak, and the remainder of the fifth of Khaibar. Abu Bakr said, 'The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said, "We are not inherited; what we leave is charity. The family of Muhammad peace be upon him eats from this wealth." By Allah, I will not change anything of the charity of the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him from its state during his time, and I will act in it as the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him did.' Abu Bakr refused to give Fatimah anything from it, so she was upset with him and did not speak to him until she passed away. She lived six months after the Prophet peace be upon him. When she died, her husband Ali buried her at night without informing Abu Bakr and prayed over her. Ali had the respect of the people during Fatimah's life, but when she passed, he noticed a change in their attitude. He sought reconciliation with Abu Bakr and pledged allegiance to him, having not done so in those months. He sent to Abu Bakr, saying, 'Come to us, and let no one come with you,' disliking Umar's presence. Umar said, 'By Allah, do not go to them alone.' Abu Bakr said, 'What do you think they will do to me? By Allah, I will go to them.' Abu Bakr went to them, and Ali recited the testimony and said, 'We recognize your virtue and what Allah has given you. We do not envy the good Allah has bestowed upon you, but you acted alone in this matter, and we believe, due to our kinship with the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him, we had a share.' Abu Bakr's eyes filled with tears. When he spoke, he said, 'By the One in Whose Hand is my soul, the kinship of the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him is dearer to me than my own kinship. As for the dispute between us over this wealth, I did not deviate from good, nor did I abandon anything I saw the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him do with it, but I followed it.' Ali said to Abu Bakr, 'Your appointment for allegiance is this evening.' When Abu Bakr prayed Zuhr, he ascended the pulpit, recited the testimony, mentioned Ali's matter and his abstention from allegiance and his excuse, then sought forgiveness. Ali recited the testimony, affirmed Abu Bakr's right, and said that what he did was not out of envy or denial of what Allah favored him with, but we believed we had a share in this matter, and he acted alone, so we felt resentment. The Muslims were pleased with this and said, 'You have done right.' The Muslims drew closer to Ali when he returned to the recognized matter.

Sell the mixed dates for dirhams, then buy Janib dates with the dirhams.' "Narrated to me Ubaidullah bin Musa from Israil from Abu Ishaq from Al-Bara' (may Allah be pleased with him), he said: When the Prophet peace be upon him performed Umrah in Dhu al-Qa'dah, the people of Mecca refused to let him enter Mecca until he negotiated with them to stay for three days. When they wrote the document, they wrote, 'This is what Muhammad, the Messenger of Allah, has agreed upon.' They said, 'We do not acknowledge this for you. If we knew you were the Messenger of Allah, we would not have prevented you from anything, but you are Muhammad bin Abdullah.' He said, 'I am the Messenger of Allah, and I am Muhammad bin Abdullah.' Then he said to Ali bin Abi Talib (may Allah be pleased with him), 'Erase Messenger of Allah.' Ali said, 'By Allah, I will never erase you.' The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him took the document, though he was not skilled at writing, and wrote, 'This is what Muhammad bin Abdullah has agreed upon: he shall not bring arms into Mecca except sheathed swords, and he shall not take any of its people if they wish to follow him, nor prevent any of his companions from staying if they wish.' When he entered it and the time expired, they came to Ali and said, 'Tell your companion to leave us, for the time has passed.' The Prophet peace be upon him left, and Hamzah's daughter followed him, calling, 'O uncle, O uncle.' Ali took her, holding her hand, and said to Fatimah (peace be upon her), 'Take your cousin's daughter.' She carried her. Ali, Zaid, and Ja'far disputed over her. Ali said, 'I took her, and she is my cousin's daughter.' Ja'far said, 'She is my cousin's daughter, and her aunt is my wife.' Zaid said, 'She is my brother's daughter.' The Prophet peace be upon him judged for her aunt, saying, 'The aunt is like a mother.' He said to Ali, 'You are from me, and I am from you.' To Ja'far, he said, 'Your character resembles mine.' To Zaid, he said, 'You are our brother and our freedman.' Ali said, 'Will you not marry Hamzah's daughter?' He said, 'She is the daughter of my foster brother.'

"Narrated to us Qutaibah bin Sa'id, narrated to us Sufyan from Amru bin Dinar, he said, informed me Al-Hasan bin Muhammad that he heard Ubaidullah bin Abu Rafi' say, I heard Ali (may Allah be pleased with him) say: The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him sent me, Zubair, and Miqdad, saying, 'Go until you reach Rawdah Khakh, for there is a woman on a camel with a letter; take it from her.' We set out, our horses racing, until we reached the Rawdah, and there was the woman. We said to her, 'Hand over the letter.' She said, 'I have no letter.' We said, 'You will produce the letter, or we will strip your clothes.' She took it out from her braid, and we brought it to the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him. It was from Hatib bin Abi Balta'ah to some pagans in Mecca, informing them of some of the Messenger of Allah's peace be upon him plans. The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said, 'O Hatib, what is this?' He said, 'O Messenger of Allah, do not hasten with me. I was a man attached to Quraysh,' meaning an ally, not one of them, 'and those with you from the Muhajirun have relatives protecting their families and properties. Since I lacked that lineage among them, I wanted to create a bond with them to protect my kin. I did not do it out of apostasy from my religion or acceptance of disbelief after Islam.' The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said, 'Indeed, he has told you the truth.' Umar said, 'O Messenger of Allah, let me strike the neck of this hypocrite.' He said, 'He witnessed Badr, and who knows, perhaps Allah looked upon those who witnessed Badr and said, "Do as you wish, for I have forgiven you."' Then Allah revealed the Surah, 'O you who believe, do not take My enemy and your enemy as allies, showing them affection when they have disbelieved in the truth that came to you, until the verse, they have gone astray from the right path.'

"Narrated to us Ubaid bin Ismail, narrated to us Abu Usamah from Hisham from his father, he said: When the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him marched in the year of the conquest, and the Quraysh heard of it, Abu Sufyan bin Harb, Hakim bin Hizam, and Budail bin Warqa' went out seeking news of the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him. They traveled until they reached Marr Az-Zahran, where they saw fires as if they were the fires of Arafah. Abu Sufyan said, 'What are these? They seem like the fires of Arafah.' Budail bin Warqa' said, 'The fires of Banu Amr.' Abu Sufyan said, 'Amr is fewer than that.' Some of the Messenger of Allah's peace be upon him guards saw them, caught them, and brought them to the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him. Abu Sufyan embraced Islam. When he marched, he said to Al-Abbas, 'Hold Abu Sufyan at the place where the horses' noses are pierced until he sees the Muslims.' Al-Abbas held him, and the tribes passed with the Prophet peace be upon him, battalion by battalion, past Abu Sufyan. A battalion passed, and he said, 'O Abbas, who are these?' He said, 'These are Ghifar.' He said, 'What have I to do with Ghifar?' Then Juhaynah passed, and he said the same, then Sa'd bin Hudhaim passed, and he said the same, then Sulaim passed, and he said the same, until a battalion came that he had never seen the like of. He said, 'Who are these?' He said, 'These are the Ansar, led by Sa'd bin Ubadah with the banner.' Sa'd bin Ubadah said, 'O Abu Sufyan, today is the day of battle, today the Ka'bah will be violated.' Abu Sufyan said, 'O Abbas, how splendid is the day of protection.' Then a battalion came, the smallest of them, with the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him and his companions, and the Prophet's banner with Zubair bin Al-Awwam. When the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him passed Abu Sufyan, he said, 'Did you not hear what Sa'd bin Ubadah said?' He said, 'What did he say?' He said, 'Such and such.' He said, 'Sa'd lied, but this is a day when Allah will glorify the Ka'bah, and a day when the Ka'bah will be clothed.' He ordered that his banner be planted at Al-Hajun. Urwah said, and Nafi' bin Jubair bin Mut'im informed me, he said, I heard Al-Abbas say to Zubair bin Al-Awwam, 'O Abu Abdullah, here the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him ordered you to plant the banner.' He ordered Khalid bin Al-Walid to enter from the upper part of Mecca at Kada', and the Prophet peace be upon him entered from Kuda. Two men from Khalid bin Al-Walid's cavalry were killed that day, Hubaish bin Al-Ash'ar and Kurz bin Jabir Al-Fihri.

Ibn Abbas said, 'I don’t think he called me that day except to show them my knowledge.' Umar said, 'What do you say about, "When the victory of Allah has come and the conquest, and you see the people entering Allah’s religion in multitudes," until the end of the Surah?' Some of them said, 'We were commanded to praise Allah and seek His forgiveness when we are granted victory and conquest.' Others said, 'We don’t know,' or some did not say anything. Umar said to me, 'O Ibn Abbas, is that what you say?' I said, 'No.' He said, 'Then what do you say?' I said, 'It is the sign of the Prophet’s peace be upon him death, which Allah informed him of. "When the victory of Allah has come and the conquest," meaning the conquest of Mecca, that is the sign of your death. "So exalt [Allah] with praise of your Lord and ask forgiveness of Him. Indeed, He is ever Accepting of repentance."' Umar said, 'I do not know of it except what you know.'

He praised Allah and glorified Him, then said, "Indeed, Allah has sanctified Mecca, not the people. It is not permissible for anyone who believes in Allah and the Last Day to shed blood in it or cut down its trees. If anyone seeks permission citing the fighting of the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him in it, say to them, 'Allah permitted it for His Messenger and not for you, and He permitted it for me only for a short time during the day, and its sanctity has returned today as it was yesterday. "Narrated to us Sulaiman bin Harb, narrated to us Hammad bin Zaid from Ayyub from Abu Qilabah from Amru bin Salamah, he said, Abu Qilabah said to me, 'Why don’t you meet him and ask him?' So I met him and asked him, and he said, 'We were at a water source where people passed by, and riders would pass by us, so we asked them, "What is happening with the people? What is happening with the people? Who is this man?" They said, "He claims that Allah sent him, revealed to him, or Allah revealed such-and-such." I used to memorize those words, and it was as if they were fixed in my chest. The Arabs were delaying their Islam until the conquest, saying, "Leave him and his people, for if he prevails over them, he is a true prophet." When the people of the conquest came, every tribe hastened to embrace Islam, and my father hastened to our people with their Islam. When he arrived, he said, "By Allah, I have come to you from the Prophet peace be upon him truly." He said, "Pray such-and-such prayer at such-and-such time, and pray such-and-such prayer at such-and-such time. When the time for prayer comes, let one of you call the Adhan, and let the one with the most Qur'an lead you." They looked, and there was no one with more Qur'an than me because I had learned from the riders, so they put me forward to lead them, and I was six or seven years old. I was wearing a cloak, and when I prostrated, it would shrink from me. A woman from the tribe said, "Won’t you cover the backside of your reciter?" So they bought and cut a shirt for me, and I was never happier with anything than I was with that shirt.'

When the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him arrived in Mecca during the conquest, Sa'd bin Abu Waqqas took the son of Zam'ah's slave girl and brought him to the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him, and Abd bin Zam'ah came with him. Sa'd bin Abu Waqqas said, 'This is my nephew's son; he entrusted me that he is his son.' Abd bin Zam'ah said, 'O Messenger of Allah, this is my brother, the son of Zam'ah, born on his bed.' The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him looked at the son of Zam'ah's slave girl and saw that he resembled Utbah bin Abu Waqqas the most. The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said, 'He is yours, he is your brother, O Abd bin Zam'ah, because he was born on his bed.' The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said, 'Veil yourself from him, O Sawdah,' because he saw the resemblance to Utbah bin Abu Waqqas. Ibn Shihab said, Aishah said, the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said, 'The child belongs to the bed, and for the adulterer is the stone.' Ibn Shihab said, Abu Hurairah used to proclaim this.

"Narrated to us Muhammad bin Muqatil, informed us Abdullah, informed us Yunus from Az Zuhri, he said, informed us Urwah bin Zubair, a woman stole during the time of the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him during the conquest of Mecca. Her people panicked and went to Usamah bin Zaid to intercede for her. Urwah said, when Usamah spoke to him about her, the face of the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him changed, and he said, 'Are you speaking to me about a punishment from Allah's punishments?' Usamah said, 'Seek forgiveness for me, O Messenger of Allah.' In the evening, the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him stood and delivered a sermon, praising Allah as He deserves, then said, 'To proceed, what destroyed the people before you was that if a noble among them stole, they let him go, but if a weak person stole, they applied the punishment on him. By the One in Whose Hand is Muhammad’s soul, if Fatimah, the daughter of Muhammad, stole, I would cut off her hand.' Then the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him ordered regarding that woman, and her hand was cut off. Her repentance was good after that, and she got married. Aishah said, 'She used to come after that, and I would convey her needs to the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him.'

"Narrated to us Sa'id bin Ufair, he said, narrated to me Al-Layth, narrated to me Uqail from Ibn Shihab, and narrated to me Ishaq, narrated to us Ya'qub bin Ibrahim, narrated to us the nephew of Ibn Shihab, Muhammad bin Shihab said; and Urwah bin Zubair believed that Marwan and Miswar bin Makhramah informed him that the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, stood when a delegation of Hawazin, who had embraced Islam, came to him. They asked him to return their wealth and captives. The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said to them: 'I have with me those you see, and the most beloved speech to me is the most truthful, so choose one of the two groups, either the captives or the wealth, and I have delayed for you.' The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, had waited for them for about seventeen days when he returned from Ta'if. When it became clear to them that the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, would only return one of the two groups, they said: 'We choose our captives.' So the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, stood among the Muslims, praised Allah as He deserves, then said: 'To proceed, your brothers have come to us repenting, and I have decided to return their captives. Whoever among you wishes to do so willingly, let him do so, but whoever wishes to keep his share until we give him from the first of what Allah grants us, let him do so.' The people said: 'We willingly agree, O Messenger of Allah.' The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said: 'We do not know who among you has agreed and who has not, so return and let your leaders inform us of your decision.' The people returned, their leaders spoke to them, then they came back to the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, and informed him that they willingly agreed and consented. This is what reached me regarding the captives of Hawazin.

"Narrated to us Abdullah bin Yusuf, informed us Malik from Yahya bin Sa'id from Umar bin Kathir bin Aflah from Abu Muhammad, the freed slave of Abu Qatadah, from Abu Qatadah, he said: We went out with the Prophet, peace be upon him, in the year of Hunayn. When we met in battle, the Muslims faced a setback. I saw a polytheist overpowering a Muslim, so I struck him from behind on his shoulder with a sword, cutting through his armor. He turned to me and grabbed me tightly; I felt the smell of death from him, but then death overtook him, and he released me. I reached Umar bin Khattab and asked, 'What is wrong with the people?' He said, 'It is the decree of Allah, Mighty and Exalted.' Then they returned, and the Prophet, peace be upon him, sat and said: 'Whoever has killed an enemy and has proof, his spoils are his.' I said, 'Who will testify for me?' Then I sat. The Prophet, peace be upon him, repeated it, so I stood and said, 'Who will testify for me?' Then I sat. The Prophet, peace be upon him, said it again, so I stood, and he said, 'What is it, O Abu Qatadah?' I told him, and a man said, 'He is truthful, and his spoils are with me, so satisfy him on my behalf.' Abu Bakr said, 'By Allah, no! He will not give it to a small bird of Quraysh and leave a lion of Allah who fights for Allah and His Messenger, peace be upon him.' The Prophet, peace be upon him, said, 'He is right, give it to him.' So he gave it to me, and I bought a garden in Banu Salimah with it, and it was the first wealth I acquired in Islam. Al-Layth said, narrated to me Yahya bin Sa'id from Umar bin Kathir bin Aflah from Abu Muhammad, the freed slave of Abu Qatadah, that Abu Qatadah said: On the day of Hunayn, I saw a Muslim fighting a polytheist, and another polytheist was sneaking behind to kill him. I rushed to the one sneaking, and he raised his hand to strike me, but I struck his hand and cut it off. He grabbed me tightly until I feared, then he weakened, and I pushed him and killed him. The Muslims fled, and I fled with them, but Umar bin Khattab was among the people. I asked him, 'What is wrong with the people?' He said, 'It is the decree of Allah.' Then the people returned to the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, and he said: 'Whoever has proof of killing an enemy, his spoils are his.' I stood to seek proof for my kill but found no one to testify, so I sat. Then I decided to tell the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him. A man said, 'The weapon of the one he mentions is with me, so satisfy him.' Abu Bakr said, 'No, he will not give it to a small bird of Quraysh and leave a lion of Allah who fights for Allah and His Messenger, peace be upon him.' The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, stood and gave it to me, and I bought a garden with it, the first wealth I acquired in Islam.

"Narrated to us Muhammad bin Al-Ala', narrated to us Abu Usamah from Buraid bin Abdullah from Abu Burdah from Abu Musa, may Allah be pleased with him, he said: After the Prophet, peace be upon him, finished from Hunayn, he sent Abu Amir leading an army to Awtas. Abu Amir met Duraid bin Simmah, and Duraid was killed, and Allah defeated his companions. Abu Musa said: He sent me with Abu Amir, and Abu Amir was shot in his knee by a Jushami with an arrow that lodged in his knee. I reached him and said, 'O uncle, who shot you?' He pointed to the man and said, 'That is my killer who shot me.' I went after him and caught up with him. When he saw me, he fled, but I followed him, saying, 'Are you not ashamed? Will you not stand firm?' He stopped, we exchanged two sword strikes, and I killed him. I said to Abu Amir, 'Allah has killed your companion.' He said, 'Pull out this arrow.' I pulled it out, and water came out. He said, 'O nephew, convey my greetings to the Prophet, peace be upon him, and ask him to pray for my forgiveness.' Abu Amir appointed me over the people, stayed briefly, then died. I returned and entered upon the Prophet, peace be upon him, in his house on a bed of palm stalks with a mattress, leaving marks on his back and sides. I informed him of our news and Abu Amir's message to pray for his forgiveness. He called for water, performed ablution, raised his hands, and said, 'O Allah, forgive Your servant Abu Amir,' and I saw the whiteness of his armpits. Then he said, 'O Allah, place him on the Day of Resurrection above many of Your creation.' I said, 'And for me, pray for forgiveness.' He said, 'O Allah, forgive Abdullah bin Qais his sins and grant him a noble entrance on the Day of Resurrection.' Abu Burdah said: One prayer was for Abu Amir, and the other for Abu Musa.

"Narrated to us Ali bin Abdullah, narrated to us Sufyan from Amr from Abul Abbas, the blind poet, from Abdullah bin Umar, he said: When the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, besieged Ta'if and achieved nothing, he said, 'We will return tomorrow, Allah willing.' This was heavy for them, and they said, 'Shall we leave without conquering it?' Sometimes he said, 'We will return.' He said, 'Go forth to fight.' They went and sustained wounds. He said, 'Tomorrow we will return, Allah willing.' This pleased them, and the Prophet, peace be upon him, laughed. Sufyan once said, 'He smiled.' Al-Humaidi said, narrated to us Sufyan the entire report.

"Narrated to us Muhammad bin Bashar, narrated to us Ghundar from Shu'bah from Asim, he said: I heard Abu Uthman say, I heard Sa'd, the first to shoot an arrow in the path of Allah, and Abu Bakrah, who scaled the fortress of Ta'if with others. They came to the Prophet, peace be upon him, and said, 'We heard the Prophet, peace be upon him, say: Whoever claims a father other than his own while knowing it, Paradise is forbidden for him.' Hisham said, and informed us Ma'mar from Asim from Abu Aliyah or Abu Uthman An-Nahdi, he said: I heard Sa'd and Abu Bakrah from the Prophet, peace be upon him. Asim said, 'Two men have testified for you, sufficient for you.' He said, 'Yes, one was the first to shoot an arrow in the path of Allah, and the other was the third of twenty-three from Ta'if.'

"Narrated to us Muhammad bin Al-Ala', narrated to us Abu Usamah from Buraid bin Abdullah from Abu Burdah from Abu Musa, may Allah be pleased with him, he said: I was with the Prophet, peace be upon him, when he was staying at Ji'ranah between Mecca and Medina with Bilal. A Bedouin came to the Prophet, peace be upon him, and said, 'Will you not fulfill what you promised me?' He said, 'Rejoice.' The Bedouin said, 'You have said "rejoice" to me too many times.' The Prophet, peace be upon him, turned to Abu Musa and Bilal, seemingly angry, and said, 'He has rejected glad tidings, so accept it, both of you.' They said, 'We accept.' He called for a bowl of water, washed his hands and face in it, spat into it, and said, 'Drink from it and pour it on your faces and chests, and rejoice.' They took the bowl and did so. Umm Salamah called from behind the curtain, 'Leave some for your mother.' So they left a portion for her.

"Narrated to us Ya'qub bin Ibrahim, narrated to us Ismail, narrated to us Ibnu Juraij, he said, Atha' informed me that Shafwan bin Ya'la bin Umayyah informed him that Ya'la said: 'Would that I could see the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, when revelation is sent down to him!' He said, while the Prophet, peace be upon him, was at Ji'ranah, shaded by a cloth with some of his companions, a Bedouin came to him wearing a robe scented with perfume and said: 'O Messenger of Allah, what do you think about a man who entered ihram for Umrah in a robe after applying perfume?' Umar signaled to Ya'la with his hand to come. Ya'la came and put his head in, and behold, the Prophet, peace be upon him, had a reddened face and was breathing heavily for a while, then he was relieved. He said: 'Where is the one who asked me about Umrah just now?' The man was sought and brought. The Prophet said: 'As for the perfume on you, wash it off three times, and as for the robe, remove it, then do in your Umrah as you would do in your Hajj.'

"Narrated to us Musa bin Ismail, narrated to us Wuhaib, narrated to us Amru bin Yahya from Abbad bin Tamim from Abdullah bin Zaid bin Ashim, he said: When Allah granted His Messenger, peace be upon him, spoils on the day of Hunayn, he distributed them among those whose hearts were to be reconciled and gave nothing to the Ansar. It was as if they felt resentful because they did not receive what others received. So he addressed them and said: 'O group of Ansar, did I not find you astray, and Allah guided you through me? Were you not divided, and Allah united you through me? Were you not poor, and Allah enriched you through me?' Every time he said something, they said: 'Allah and His Messenger are more trustworthy.' He said: 'What prevents you from responding to the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him?' They said, every time he said something: 'Allah and His Messenger are more trustworthy.' He said: 'If you wished, you could have said: You came to us so and so.' Are you not satisfied that people take sheep and camels while you take the Prophet, peace be upon him, to your dwellings? If it were not for the migration, I would have been a man of the Ansar, and if people took a valley or a mountain pass, I would take the valley or pass of the Ansar. The Ansar are the inner garment, and others are the outer garment. You will encounter selfishness after me, so be patient until you meet me at the Pool.'

Anas said: The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, was informed of their words, so he sent for the Ansar and gathered them in a tent of leather and did not invite anyone else. When they gathered, the Prophet, peace be upon him, stood and said: 'What is this talk I hear from you?' The scholars of the Ansar said: 'As for our leaders, O Messenger of Allah, they said nothing, but some of our younger ones said: May Allah forgive the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, he gives to Quraysh and leaves us, while our swords drip with their blood.' The Prophet, peace be upon him, said: 'I give to men who have recently come out of disbelief to reconcile them. They said, 'Here we are, O Messenger of Allah, rejoice, we are with you.' He was on a white mule, then dismounted and said, 'I am the servant of Allah and His Messenger.' The Ansar said, 'When it is tough, we are called, but the spoils are given to others?' This reached him, so he gathered them in a tent and said, 'O group of Ansar, what is this talk I hear from you?' They were silent. He said, 'O group of Ansar, are you not satisfied that people go with the world while you go with the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, to your homes?' They said, 'Yes.' The Prophet, peace be upon him, said, 'If people take a valley and the Ansar take a mountain pass, I would take the pass of the Ansar.' Hisham said, I said, 'O Abu Hamzah, were you present?' He said, 'Where would I be if not there?'

He raised his hands and said, 'O Allah, I am free from what Khalid has done,' twice.

Mu'adh said, 'And you, how do you read, O Mu'adh?' He said, 'I sleep early at night, then rise after fulfilling my sleep, and read what Allah has decreed for me, hoping for reward in my sleep as in my prayer.'

Narrated to us Qutaibah, narrated to us 'Abdul Wahid from 'Umarah bin Al Qa'qa' bin Syubrumah, narrated to us 'Abdur Rahman bin Abu Nu'am, he said: I heard Abu Sa'id Al Khudri say: Ali bin Abu Talib, may Allah be pleased with him, sent a piece of gold, still in its raw form, to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, from Yemen. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, divided it among four people: 'Uyainah bin Badr, Aqra bin Habis, Zaid Al Khail, and the fourth was either Alqamah or 'Amir bin Thufail. A man from his companions said, "We are more entitled to this than these people." When this reached the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, he said, "Do you not trust me, when I am the trusted one of He who is in the heavens? News from the heavens comes to me morning and evening." A man with sunken eyes, prominent cheekbones, a protruding forehead, a thin beard, a shaved head, and a tucked-up waistcloth stood and said, "O Messenger of Allah, fear Allah." He replied, "Woe to you! Am I not the most entitled among the people of the earth to fear Allah?" The man turned away. Khalid bin Al Walid said, "O Messenger of Allah, shall I strike his neck?" He said, "No, perhaps he prays." Khalid said, "How many people pray, saying with their tongues what is not in their hearts?" The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "I have not been commanded to probe people's hearts or split open their bellies." Then he looked at him as he walked away and said, "From the lineage of this man will emerge a people who recite the Book of Allah fluently but it will not go beyond their throats. They will pass through religion as an arrow passes through its target." I think he also said, "If I were to encounter them, I would kill them like the people of Thamud.

Anas said: The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, pronounced talbiyah for hajj, and we pronounced it with him. When we arrived in Mecca, he said, "Whoever among you does not have a sacrificial animal should intend it for umrah." At that time, the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, had a sacrificial animal. Then Ali bin Abu Talib returned from Yemen, and the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, asked him, "With what did you pronounce your talbiyah, since your family is with us?" Ali replied, "I pronounced the talbiyah of the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him." The Prophet said, "Then stay, for we have a sacrificial animal.

Narrated to us Yusuf bin Musa, narrated to us Abu Usamah from Isma'il bin Abu Khalid from Qais from Jarir, he said: The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said to me, "Can you relieve me of Dzul Khalshah?" I said, "Yes." I set out with one hundred and fifty horsemen from Ahmas, who were skilled riders. I was unsteady on horseback and mentioned this to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him. He struck my chest with his hand until I saw the mark of his hand on my chest and said, "O Allah, make him steadfast and make him a guide who is guided." I never fell off a horse after that. Dzul Khalshah was a house in Yemen belonging to Khath'am and Bajilah, containing idols they worshipped, called Al Ka'bah. I went to it, burned it with fire, and destroyed it. When Jarir arrived in Yemen, there was a man there swearing by idols. It was said to him, "The messenger of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, is here, and if he wishes, he could behead you." While he was striking the idols, Jarir stood over him and said, "You will break them and testify that there is no deity but Allah, or I will behead you." He broke them and testified. Then Jarir sent a man from Ahmas, nicknamed Abu Artah, to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, to bring the good news. When he reached the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, he said, "O Messenger of Allah, by the One who sent you with the truth, I did not come until I left it like a mangy camel." The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, blessed the horses and men of Ahmas five times.

Narrated to me 'Abdullah bin Abu Syaibah Al 'Absi, narrated to us Ibnu Idris from Isma'il bin Abu Khalid from Qais from Jarir, he said: When I was in Yemen, I met two men from Yemen, Dzu Kala and Dzu Amr. I told them about the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. Dzu Amr said to me, "If what you say about your companion is true, he passed away three days ago." They came with me to Medina, and when we were near Medina, we saw riders coming from the city. We asked them, and they said, "The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, has passed away, and Abu Bakr has been appointed as the caliph, and the people are in good condition." They said, "Tell your companion (Abu Bakr) that we intend to visit him, and, God willing, we will return." They went back to Yemen. I informed Abu Bakr of their words, and he said, "Why didn’t you bring them?" The next day, Dzu Amr said to me, "O Jarir, you have honor with me. I will tell you something: You, the Arabs, will remain in good condition as long as you choose a leader when your leader dies. But if you choose with the sword, they will be like kings, angry with the anger of kings and pleased with the pleasure of kings.

Hadith Imam Bukhari Number 4012

حَدَّثَنَا إِسْمَاعِيلُ قَالَ حَدَّثَنِي مَالِكٌ عَنْ وَهْبِ بْنِ كَيْسَانَ عَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمَا أَنَّهُ قَالَبَعَثَ

Narrated to us Isma'il, he said, narrated to me Malik from Wahb bin Kaisan from Jabir bin 'Abdullah, may Allah be pleased with them both, he said: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, sent a delegation to the coast and appointed Abu Ubaidah bin Jarrah as their leader. They were three hundred in number. We set out, but when we were on the way, our provisions ran out. Abu Ubaidah ordered the army’s provisions to be collected, and they amounted to two sacks of dates. These sustained us day by day, little by little, until they were depleted, and we were left with only one date per person. I said, "What good is one date?" Abu Ubaidah replied, "We felt its absence when it was gone." Then we reached the sea, and there was a whale as large as a hill. The group ate from it for eighteen nights. Abu Ubaidah ordered two of its ribs to be set up, then ordered a camel to be saddled, and it passed under them without touching.

Narrated to us Yahya bin Sulaiman, narrated to me Ibnu Wahb, narrated to me 'Amru, and Bakr bin Mudlar said from 'Amru bin Al Harits from Bukair that Kuraib, the freed slave of Ibnu 'Abbas, narrated to him that Abdullah bin Abbas, Abdurrahman bin Azhar, and Al Miswar bin Makhramah sent him to Aisha, the wife of the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, saying, "Convey our greetings to her and ask about the two rak’ahs after Asr. We have heard you perform them, but we were informed that the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, forbade them." Ibnu Abbas said, "I used to strike people with Umar bin Al Khathab for performing them." Kuraib said, "I went to her and conveyed what they sent me with. She said, 'Ask Ummu Salamah.'" I went out and informed them of her words. They sent me back to Ummu Salamah with the same question. Ummu Salamah said, "I heard the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, forbid them, but then I saw him perform them. When he performed them, he had prayed Asr, then entered my place where there were women from Bani Haram of the Ansar, and he prayed those two rak’ahs. I sent a slave girl to him and said, 'Stand beside him and say, Ummu Salamah says: O Messenger of Allah, didn’t I hear you forbid these two rak’ahs, yet I see you performing them? If he gestures with his hand, step back.' The girl did so, and he gestured with his hand, so she stepped back. When he finished, he said, 'O daughter of Abu Umayyah, you asked about the two rak’ahs after Asr. Some people from Abdul Qais came to me with the Islam of their people, and they kept me from the two rak’ahs after Zuhr. These are those two rak’ahs.'" Abu Muhammad was asked about this hadith and said, "I hold to the hadith of Umar from the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him: 'There is no prayer after Asr until the sun sets, nor after Subh until the sun rises.'

Narrated to us Abdullah bin Yusuf, narrated to us Al Laits, he said, narrated to me Sa'id bin Abu Sa'id that he heard Abu Hurairah say: The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, sent a cavalry toward Najd, and they brought a man from Bani Hanifah named Thumamah bin Uthal, the leader of the people of Yamamah. They tied him to a pillar in the mosque. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, came to him and said, "What do you have, O Thumamah?" He replied, "O Muhammad, I have something better. If you kill me, you kill one with blood ties. If you show kindness, you show it to one who is grateful. If you want wealth, ask for it, and you will be given what you wish." The Prophet left him until the next day, then asked, "What do you have, O Thumamah?" He said, "As I told you, if you show kindness, you show it to one who is grateful if you kill, you kill one with blood ties if you want wealth, ask, and you will be given what you wish." The Prophet left him until the day after, then asked, "What do you have, O Thumamah?" He said, "As I told you." The Prophet said, "Release Thumamah." He went to a palm grove near the mosque, bathed, then entered the mosque and said, "I testify that there is no deity but Allah and that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah. O Muhammad, by Allah, there was no face on earth more hated to me than yours, but now your face is the most beloved to me. By Allah, there was no religion more hated to me than yours, but now your religion is the most beloved to me. By Allah, there was no land more hated to me than your land, but now your land is the most beloved to me. Your cavalry captured me while I intended to perform umrah. What do you think?" The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, gave him good news and ordered him to perform umrah. When he arrived in Mecca, someone said to him, "Have you apostatized?" He said, "No, but I have embraced Islam with Muhammad, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. By Allah, you will not receive a single grain of wheat from Yamamah until the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, permits it.

Narrated to us Abul Yaman, narrated to us Syu'aib from Abdullah bin Abu Husain, narrated to us Nafi' bin Jubair from Ibnu Abbas, may Allah be pleased with them both, he said: During the time of the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, Musailamah the Liar came to Medina. He said, "If Muhammad grants me succession after him, I will follow him." He came with many of his people. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, approached him with Thabit bin Qais bin Shammas, holding a piece of palm branch. He stood before Musailamah and his companions and said, "If you asked me for this piece of palm branch, I would not give it to you. You will not exceed Allah’s decree concerning you. If you turn away, Allah will destroy you. I see you as the one I was shown in a vision. Here is Thabit to respond to you on my behalf." Then he left him. Ibnu Abbas said: I asked about the Prophet’s statement, "You are the one I was shown in a vision," and Abu Hurairah informed me that the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "While I was sleeping, I saw two gold bracelets on my hands, and their matter concerned me. It was revealed to me in the dream to blow on them, so I blew, and they flew away. I interpreted them as two liars who would appear after me: one is Al Ansi, a leader from Sana’a, and the other is Musailamah, a leader from Yamamah.

Narrated to us Ishaq bin Nashr, narrated to us Abdurrazaq from Ma'mar from Hammam that he heard Abu Hurairah, may Allah be pleased with him, say: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "While I was sleeping, I was given the treasures of the earth, and two gold bracelets were placed in my hands, but they weighed heavily on me. STONE WORSHIP AND THE FALSE OF MUSAILAMAH AL-KADZAB

حَدَّثَنَا الصَّلْتُ بْنُ مُحَمَّدٍ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ مَهْدِيَّ بْنَ مَيْمُونٍ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ أَبَا رَجَاءٍ الْعُطَارِدِيَّ يَقُولُكُنَّا نَعْبُدُ الْحَجَرَ فَإِذَا وَجَدْنَا حَجَرًا هُوَ أَخْيَرُ مِنْهُ أَلْقَيْنَاهُ وَأَخَذْنَا الْآخَرَ فَإِذَا لَمْ نَجِدْ حَجَرًا جَمَعْنَا جُثْوَةً مِنْ تُرَابٍ ثُمَّ جِئْنَا بِالشَّاةِ

Narrated to us Ash Shalt bin Muhammad, he said, I heard Mahdi bin Maimun say, I heard Abu Raja' Al Atharidi say: We used to worship a stone. If we found a better stone, we would discard it and take the other. If we couldn’t find a stone, we gathered a handful of dirt, brought a sheep, milked it over the dirt, and circumambulated it. When the month of Rajab came, we said, "No warfare," and we removed the iron from every spear and arrow and discarded them to honor the month of Rajab. I heard Abu Raja say: On the day the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, was sent, I was a young boy herding camels for my family. When we heard of the Prophet’s mission, we fled to the fire, to Musailamah the Liar.

Narrated to us Sa'id bin Muhammad Al Jarmi, narrated to us Ya'qub bin Ibrahim, narrated to us my father from Shalih from Ibnu 'Ubaidah bin Nasyith, in another narration named Abdullah, that Ubaidullah bin Abdullah bin Utbah said: We heard that Musailamah the Liar came to Medina and stayed at the house of Bint Al Harith bin Kuraiz, the mother of Abdullah bin Amir. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, came to him with Thabit bin Qais bin Shammas, the orator of the Messenger of Allah, holding a stick. He stood before him and spoke to him. Musailamah said, "If you wish, settle the matter between us, then grant it to us after you." The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "Even if you asked for this stick, I would not give it to you. I see you as the one I was shown in a vision. Here is Thabit bin Qais to respond to you." Then the Prophet left. Ubaidullah bin Abdullah said: I asked Ibnu Abbas about the vision of the Messenger of Allah he mentioned. Ibnu Abbas said, "It was mentioned to me that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'While I was sleeping, I saw two gold bracelets placed on my hands, and I was alarmed and disliked them. I was permitted to blow on them, so I blew, and they flew away. I interpreted them as two liars who will appear.' Ubaidullah said, 'One was Al Ansi, killed by Fairuz in Yemen, and the other was Musailamah the Liar.'

He gave it to me." Jabir said, "I met Abu Bakr later and asked him, but he did not give me. I went to him again, and he did not give me. I went to him a third time, and he did not give me. I said to him, 'I came to you, and you did not give me, then I came again, and you did not give me, then I came a third time, and you did not give me. Either give it to me, or you are stingy with me.' He said, 'Did you say stingy with me? What disease is worse than stinginess?' He said it three times, 'I did not withhold from you any time except that I intended to give it to you.'" From Amr from Muhammad bin Ali, I heard Jabir bin Abdullah say, "I went to him, and Abu Bakr said to me, 'Count it.' I counted it and found it to be five hundred. He said, 'Take twice as much.'

said: We were sitting with Ibnu Mas'ud when Khabbab came and said, "O Abu Abdurrahman, can these young men read as you read?" He replied, "If you wish, I can have one of them read to you." Khabbab said, "Yes." Ibnu Mas'ud said, "Read, O Alqamah." Zaid bin Hudair, brother of Ziyad bin Hudair, said, "Do you order Alqamah to read when he is not the best reader among us?" Ibnu Mas'ud said, "If you wish, I can tell you what the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said about your people and his." I recited fifty verses from Surah Maryam. Abdullah said, "What do you think?" Zaid said, "Very good." Abdullah said, "I don’t read anything that he hasn’t read." Then he turned to Khabbab, who was wearing a gold ring, and said, "Isn’t it time to discard this ring?" Khabbab said, "You won’t see it on me after today." He discarded it. Narrated by Ghundar from Shu'bah.

Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, during the Farewell Pilgrimage, and we assumed ihram for umrah. Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "Whoever has a sacrificial animal should assume ihram for hajj along with umrah and not release ihram until completing both." I arrived in Mecca while menstruating and could not circumambulate the Kaaba or perform sa’i between Safa and Marwah. I complained to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and he said, "Undo your hair, comb it, assume ihram for hajj, and leave umrah." I did so. When we completed the hajj, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, sent me with Abdurrahman bin Abu Bakr As-Siddiq to Tan’im, and I performed umrah. He said, "This is in place of your umrah." She said, "Those who assumed ihram for umrah circumambulated the Kaaba and performed sa’i between Safa and Marwah, then released ihram. They performed another circumambulation after returning from Mina. As for those who combined hajj and umrah, they performed only one circumambulation.

Narrated to us Yahya bin Sulaiman, he said, Ibn Wahb informed me, he said, Umar bin Muhammad narrated to me that his father narrated to him from Ibn Umar, may Allah be pleased with them both, he said: We were discussing the Farewell Pilgrimage while the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, was among us, and we did not know what the Farewell Pilgrimage was. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, praised Allah and glorified Him, then mentioned the False Messiah (Dajjal) at length, and said: "Allah did not send a prophet except that he warned his nation about him. Noah warned his nation, and the prophets after him. He will emerge among you, and nothing of his affair will be hidden from you. Your Lord is not hidden from you." He said this three times. "Indeed, your Lord is not one-eyed, but the Dajjal is one-eyed, his right eye like a protruding grape. Indeed, Allah has forbidden your blood and your wealth, just as this day, this city, and this month are sacred. Have I conveyed the message?" They said, "Yes." He said, "O Allah, bear witness," three times. "Woe to you, or alas for you, do not revert to disbelief after me, striking each other's necks.

Narrated to me Muhammad bin Al Mutsanna, narrated to us Abdul Wahhab, narrated to us Ayyub from Muhammad from Ibn Abu Bakrah from Abu Bakrah from the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, he said: "Time has come full circle as it was on the day Allah created the heavens and the earth. The year consists of twelve months, four of which are sacred: three consecutive ones—Dhul-Qa'dah, Dhul-Hijjah, and Muharram—and Rajab of Mudar, which is between Jumada and Sha'ban." He said, "Which month is this?" We said, "Allah and His Messenger know best." He was silent until we thought he would name it differently. He said, "Is it not Dhul-Hijjah?" We said, "Yes." He said, "Which city is this?" We said, "Allah and His Messenger know best." He was silent until we thought he would name it differently. He said, "Is it not Mecca?" We said, "Yes." He said, "Which day is this?" We said, "Allah and His Messenger know best." He was silent until we thought he would name it differently. He said, "Is it not the Day of Sacrifice?" We said, "Yes." He said, "Your blood, your wealth," and Muhammad (the narrator) thinks he also said, "and your honor, are sacred to one another, like the sanctity of this day of yours, in this city of yours, in this month of yours. You will meet your Lord, and He will ask you about your deeds. Beware, do not go astray after me, striking each other's necks. Let those present convey this to those absent, for perhaps some of those who receive it will understand it better than some who heard it." Muhammad (the narrator) would say whenever he mentioned it, "The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, spoke the truth." Then he said, "Have I not conveyed the message?" twice.

I said, "O Messenger of Allah, you see my condition due to this illness, and I have wealth, but I have no heir except one daughter. Should I give two-thirds of my wealth in charity?" He said, "No." I said, "Then half of it?" He said, "No." I said, "Then a third?" He said, "A third, and a third is a lot. It is better to leave your heirs wealthy than to leave them destitute, begging from people. You will not spend anything seeking the pleasure of Allah except that you will be rewarded for it, even the morsel you put in your wife's mouth." I said, "O Messenger of Allah, will I be left behind after my companions?" He said, "You will not be left behind and perform any deed seeking Allah's pleasure except that it will increase your rank and status. Perhaps you will be left behind so that some people benefit from you and others are harmed by you. O Allah, complete the migration of my companions and do not turn them back on their heels. But the unfortunate Sa'd bin Khawlah," the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, felt sorry for him because he died in Mecca.

Narrated to me Muhammad bin Al Alaa, narrated to us Abu Usamah from Buraid bin Abdullah bin Abu Burdah from Abu Burdah from Abu Musa, may Allah be pleased with him, he said: My companions sent me to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, to ask for mounts for them as they were with him in the Army of Hardship, which was the Battle of Tabuk. I said, "O Prophet of Allah, my companions have sent me to you to provide them with mounts." He said, "By Allah, you will not ride anything." I met him while he was angry, and I was unaware of it. I returned sad because of the Prophet’s refusal, peace and blessings be upon him, and out of fear that he was upset with me. I returned to my companions and informed them of what the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said. Shortly after, I heard Bilal calling, "O Abdullah bin Qais." I answered him, and he said, "Respond to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, he is calling you." When I came to him, he said, "Take these two camels and these two camels," referring to six camels he had just acquired from Sa'ad. "Take them to your companions and say, 'Allah,' or he said, 'the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, provides you with these, so ride them.'" I took them to them and said, "The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, provides you with these, but by Allah, I will not leave you until some of you come with me to those who heard the words of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, so you do not think I said something he did not say." They said to me, "By Allah, we believe you, and we will do what you want." So Abu Musa went with some of them to those who heard the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, refuse them and then grant them afterward, and they narrated to them the same as Abu Musa had narrated.

Narrated to us Musaddad, narrated to us Yahya from Shu'bah from Al Hakam from Mush'ab bin Sa'ad from his father that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, set out for Tabuk and appointed Ali as his deputy. Ali said, "Do you leave me behind with the children and women?" He said, "Are you not pleased to be to me as Aaron was to Moses, except that there is no prophet after me?" Abu Dawud said, narrated to us Shu'bah from Al Hakam, I heard Mush'ab.

Narrated to us Ubaidullah bin Sa'id, narrated to us Muhammad bin Bakr, informed us Ibn Juraij, he said, I heard Atha' inform, he said, Safwan bin Ya'la bin Umayyah informed me from his father, he said: I fought with the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, in the Army of Hardship. Ya'la said, "That battle is the most steadfast of my deeds in my view." Atha' said, Safwan said, Ya'la said: I had a hired worker who fought with someone, and one of them bit the other's hand. Atha' said, Safwan informed me which one bit the other, but I forgot. The one bitten pulled his hand from the biter's mouth, dislodging one of his front teeth. They came to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and he dismissed the case of the tooth. Atha' said, I think he said, the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "Would he leave his hand in your mouth for you to chew it as if it were in the mouth of a stallion chewing?

Narrated to us Yahya bin Bukair, narrated to us Al Laith from Uqail from Ibn Shihab from Abdur Rahman bin Abdullah bin Ka'ab bin Malik that Abdullah bin Ka'ab bin Malik, one of Ka'ab's sons who accompanied him when he was blind, said: I heard Ka'ab bin Malik narrate his story when he stayed behind from the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, during the Battle of Tabuk. Ka'ab bin Malik said: I never stayed behind from the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, in any battle he fought except Tabuk, though I also stayed behind during the Battle of Badr. However, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, did not blame anyone who missed Badr, as he and the Muslims only intended to intercept the Quraysh caravan until Allah brought them face-to-face with their enemy without prior arrangement. I was present with the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, on the night of Aqabah when we pledged to defend Islam. I do not consider missing Badr equivalent to being at Aqabah, though Badr is more famous among people. Regarding my story of staying behind during Tabuk, I was never in better health or wealthier than when I missed that battle. By Allah, I never prepared two mounts for any battle before, but for Tabuk, I had two mounts ready. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, never fought a battle without concealing its purpose, but for Tabuk, he openly declared its goal. He set out for Tabuk in extreme heat, facing a long and perilous journey against a large enemy. He explained to the Muslims what they would face and ordered them to prepare adequately. The Muslims accompanying him were numerous, not listed in a register. Ka'ab said: A man who wished to stay behind thought his absence would go unnoticed unless Allah revealed it. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, set out when the fruit harvest was abundant, and I was distracted by it. He and the Muslims prepared, and I went to prepare with them but returned without doing anything, saying to myself, "I can prepare anytime." I remained in this indecision until the Muslims were fully ready. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, departed with them, and I had prepared nothing. I kept going and returning without preparing, wavering between joining or not, until the army moved swiftly, and the battle began. I thought of catching up, but it was only wishful thinking, and I was destined not to join. After the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, left for Tabuk, sadness overwhelmed me. When I went out among the people, I found only hypocrites or weak individuals excused by Allah. The Prophet did not mention me until he reached Tabuk. While sitting with his companions, he asked, "Why did Ka'ab bin Malik stay behind?" A man from Banu Salimah said, "O Messenger of Allah, perhaps he was preoccupied with himself." Muadh bin Jabal said, "What a bad thing to say! By Allah, O Messenger of Allah, I know Ka'ab bin Malik is a good man." The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, remained silent. Then he saw a man in iron armor, hard to recognize, and said, "You must be Abu Khaithamah?" It was indeed Abu Khaithamah Al-Ansari, who had given a measure of dates in charity when mocked by hypocrites. Ka'ab bin Malik said: When I heard the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, was preparing to return from Tabuk, I was filled with sorrow. I began crafting lies, thinking, "What excuse can save me from his anger?" I sought advice from my family. When I heard he was nearing Medina, lies vanished from my mind, and I realized I could not lie to him. I decided to be truthful. When he arrived in Medina, he went to the mosque, as was his custom after travel, prayed, and sat with his companions. Those who stayed behind came, offering excuses with oaths, about eighty of them. The Prophet accepted their statements, renewed their pledge, sought forgiveness for them, and left their hidden intentions to Allah. Then I came to him, greeted him, and he smiled like one who is angry. He said, "Come here." I approached and sat before him. He said, "Why did you stay behind, O Ka'ab? Did you not pledge to give your life for Islam?" I said, "O Messenger of Allah, by Allah, if I sat before anyone else, I would escape their anger with excuses. But I know if I lie to you now and you are not angry, Allah will make you angry with me. If I tell you the truth and you are angry, I will accept it gladly. Let Allah judge me with my honest words. By Allah, I had no excuse. I was never stronger or wealthier than when I stayed behind." The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "This man has spoken the truth. Stand up until Allah decides for you." I stood and left. Some men from Banu Salimah followed me, saying, "O Ka'ab, by Allah, we did not know you had sinned. You did not offer excuses like others who stayed behind. Only the Prophet's intercession can erase your sin." Ka'ab said: They kept reproaching me until I wanted to return to the Prophet and deny myself. I asked, "Is there anyone else who faced the Prophet like me?" They said, "Yes, two others said what you said, and he responded to them as he did to you." I said, "Who are they?" They said, "Murarah bin Rabi'ah Al-Amin and Hilal bin Umayyah Al-Waqifi." Ka'ab said: They mentioned two righteous companions who fought at Badr, worthy of emulation. I left when they named them. Ka'ab said: Days later, the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, forbade Muslims from speaking to the three of us who stayed behind from Tabuk. People shunned us, and their attitude changed until the earth felt alien, not the one I knew. This lasted fifty nights. My two companions stayed home, weeping, but I, being young and resilient, went out, prayed in congregation, and walked in the markets, though no one spoke to me. I approached the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, greeting him at his seat after prayer, wondering if he would respond. I prayed near him, stealing glances. When I prepared to pray, he looked at me, but when I turned to him, he looked away. After long isolation, I walked to Abu Qatadah's garden, my cousin and beloved friend. I greeted him, but by Allah, he did not respond. I said, "O Abu Qatadah, I swear by Allah, do you not know I love Allah and His Messenger?" He was silent. I repeated my oath, and he remained silent. I repeated again, and he said, "Allah and His Messenger know best." My eyes filled with tears, and I returned through the garden. While in Medina's market, a man from Syria selling food asked, "Who can point me to Ka'ab bin Malik?" People pointed to me, and he gave me a letter from the King of Ghassan. Being literate, I read it: "We heard your friend has isolated you. Your Lord does not forsake you. Join us, and we will help you." I said, "This is another trial." I burned the letter. After forty days of isolation, no revelation came. A messenger from the Prophet came, saying, "O Ka'ab, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, orders you to avoid your wife." I said, "Should I divorce her or what?" He said, "No, just avoid her and do not approach her." I told my wife, "Go to your family and stay with them until Allah decides this matter." The wife of Hilal bin Umayyah went to the Prophet, saying, "O Messenger of Allah, Hilal bin Umayyah is old and frail with no servant. Do you object if I serve him?" He said, "No, but he must not approach you." She said, "By Allah, he has no desire for anything. He has been weeping since this began." Some family members said, "Ask the Prophet about your wife, as he allowed Hilal's wife to serve him." I said, "I will not ask, for I don't know what he would say, and I am young." This lasted ten more nights, completing fifty nights of silence. On the fiftieth morning, I prayed Fajr at the back of my house, overwhelmed with regret, feeling the earth constrict me. Suddenly, I heard someone shout, "O Ka'ab bin Malik, rejoice!" I fell in prostration, knowing my ordeal was over. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, announced after Fajr that Allah had accepted our repentance.

Narrated to me Muhammad bin Bashar, narrated to us Ghundar, narrated to us Shu'bah from Sa'ad from Urwah from Aishah, she said: I had heard that a prophet does not die until he is given a choice between this world and the Hereafter. When he was ill and his death approached, with his head on Aishah's thigh, he fainted. When he regained consciousness, he looked toward the ceiling of the house and said, "O Allah, with the Highest Companion." I said, "Then he will not stay with us." I understood that this was the statement he used to tell us when he was healthy.

The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, looked at it, so I took the siwak, broke it, cleaned it, and gave it to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him. He cleaned his teeth with it, and I never saw the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, clean his teeth better than that. (Continuing from the same chain of narration as the previous hadith), Ubaidullah bin Abdullah bin Utbah informed me that Aishah and Abdullah bin Abbas, may Allah be pleased with them, said: When revelation descended upon the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, he would cover his face with a cloth. When he felt distressed, we would uncover it, and he would say, "Allah has cursed the Jews and Christians who took the graves of their prophets as places of worship," warning against what they did.

AISYAH'S CONCERNS ABOUT THE SUBSTITUTE OF RASULULLAH SHALALLAHU ALAIHI WASALLAM AS LEADER
Hadith Imam Bukhari Number 4090

أَخْبَرَنِي عُبَيْدُ اللَّهِ أَنَّ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ لَقَدْ رَاجَعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي ذَلِكَ وَمَا حَمَلَنِي عَلَى كَثْرَةِ مُرَاجَعَتِهِ إِلَّا أَنَّهُ لَمْ يَقَعْ فِي قَلْبِي أَنْ يُحِبَّ النَّاسُ بَعْدَهُ رَجُلًا قَامَ مَقَامَهُ أَبَدًا وَلَا كُنْتُ أُرَى أَنَّهُ لَنْ يَقُومَ أَحَدٌ مَقَامَهُ إِلَّا تَشَاءَمَ النَّاسُ بِهِ فَأَرَدْتُ أَنْ يَعْدِلَ ذَلِكَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ أَبِي بَكْرٍ رَوَاهُ ابْنُ عُمَرَ وَأَبُو مُوسَى وَابْنُ عَبَّاسٍ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ عَنْ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

Ubaidullah informed me that Aishah said: I kept checking on the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. The only reason I did so frequently was that it did not occur to me that people would ever love someone who took his place after him. I feared that no one would take his place except that people would see it as a bad omen. So I wanted the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, to shift that responsibility away from Abu Bakr. Narrated by Ibn Umar, Abu Musa, and Ibn Abbas, may Allah be pleased with them, from the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him.

The people said, "O Abu Hasan, how is the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, this morning?" He said, "Praise be to Allah, he is recovering." Abbas bin Abdul Muttalib took his hand and said to him, "By Allah, in three days you will be a servant of the stick. By Allah, I see that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, will pass away from this illness. I recognize the faces of the Banu Abdul Muttalib at the time of death. Let us go to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and ask him to whom this matter (leadership) will be entrusted. If it is for us, we will know it, and if it is for someone else, we will know it, and he can entrust it to us." Ali said, "By Allah, if we ask the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, for it and he denies us, the people will never give it to us afterward. By Allah, I will not ask the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him.

Narrated to us Sa'id bin Ufair, he said: Narrated to me Al Laith, he said: Narrated to me Uqail from Ibn Shihab, he said: Anas bin Malik, may Allah be pleased with him, narrated to me that while the Muslims were performing the Fajr prayer on Monday, led by Abu Bakr, they were surprised when the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, lifted the curtain of Aishah's room. He looked at them while they were in the rows of prayer, then smiled and laughed. Abu Bakr stepped back to join the row, thinking that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, wanted to come out for the prayer. Anas said: The Muslims were almost distracted in their prayer due to joy at seeing the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. He signaled to them with his hand to complete their prayer, then entered the room and lowered the curtain.

Narrated to me Muhammad bin Ubaid, narrated to us Isa bin Yunus from Umar bin Sa'id, he said: Ibn Abu Mulaikah informed me that Abu Amr Dhakwan, a freed slave of Aishah, informed him that Aishah said: Among the blessings of Allah upon me is that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, passed away in my house, on my day, between my chest and throat, and that Allah combined my saliva with his at his death. Abdur Rahman entered upon me with a siwak in his hand while I was supporting the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. I saw him looking at it, and I knew he loved the siwak. I said, "Shall I take it for you?" He nodded yes. I took it, but it was too hard for him, so I said, "Shall I soften it for you?" He nodded yes. I softened it and gave it to him, and he used it. In front of him was a container or small bucket—Umar was uncertain—with water. He dipped his hands in the water and wiped his face, saying, "There is no god but Allah indeed, death has its pangs." Then he raised his hand and kept saying, "With the Highest Companion," until he passed away, and his hand fell.

His wives permitted him to stay where he wished, so he stayed in Aishah's house until he passed away with her. Aishah said, "He died on the day he was with me in my house. Allah took him while his head was between my chest and throat, and his saliva mixed with mine." She said, "Abdur Rahman bin Abu Bakr entered with a siwak he was using. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, looked at it, so I said to him, 'Give me this siwak, O Abdur Rahman.' He gave it to me, I broke it, chewed it, and gave it to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. He cleaned his teeth with it while leaning against my chest.

One of us would recite a supplication for him when he was ill, so I went to recite it for him. He raised his head to the sky and said, "With the Highest Companion, with the Highest Companion." Abdur Rahman bin Abu Bakr passed by with a fresh siwak branch in his hand. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, looked at it, and I thought he needed it. I took it, chewed its end, shook it, and gave it to him. He cleaned his teeth with it better than he ever had, then handed it to me, but his hand dropped, or it fell from his hand. Allah combined my saliva with his on the last day of this world and the first day of the Hereafter.

Narrated to us Yahya bin Bukair, narrated to us Al Laith from Uqail from Ibn Shihab, he said: Abu Salamah informed me that Aishah informed him that Abu Bakr, may Allah be pleased with him, came on horseback from his residence in As-Sunh until he dismounted. He entered the mosque and did not speak to the people until he went to Aishah. He approached the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, who was covered with a Yemeni patterned cloth. He uncovered his face, leaned over him, kissed him, and wept. Then he said, "May my father and mother be sacrificed for you. By Allah, Allah will not combine two deaths upon you. As for the death that was written for you, you have fulfilled it." Az-Zuhri said: Abu Salamah narrated to me from Abdullah bin Abbas that Abu Bakr came out while Umar bin Al-Khattab was addressing the people. He said, "Sit down, O Umar," but Umar refused to sit. The people turned to him and left Umar. Abu Bakr said, "To proceed, whoever among you worshipped Muhammad, peace and blessings be upon him, know that Muhammad has died. But whoever among you worships Allah, know that Allah is alive and does not die. Allah says: 'Muhammad is no more than a messenger, and indeed, messengers have passed away before him. If he dies or is killed, will you turn back on your heels? Whoever turns back on his heels will not harm Allah in the least, and Allah will reward those who are grateful.'" Umar said, "By Allah, it was as if the people did not know that Allah had revealed this verse until Abu Bakr recited it. They all took it from him, and I heard every person reciting it." Sa'id bin Al-Musayyab informed me that Umar said, "By Allah, as soon as I heard Abu Bakr recite it, I was shaken, my legs could not support me, and I fell to the ground when I heard him recite it, realizing that the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, had died.

We said, "The sick person dislikes medicine." When he regained consciousness, he said, "Did I not forbid you from treating me with ladud?" We said, "Yes, because the sick person dislikes medicine." He said, "Let no one remain in the house without being treated with ladud while I watch, except for Abbas, for he was not present with you." Narrated by Ibn Abu Az-Zinad from Hisham from his father from Aishah from the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him.

"Abdullah bin Yusuf narrated to us, Malik informed us, from Sumayya, from Abu Shalih, from Abu Hurairah, may Allah be pleased with him, that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: When the imam says, 'Not of those who earned Your anger, nor of those who went astray,' say, 'Aamiin.' Whoever's saying of Aamiin coincides with the angels' Aamiin, his past sins will be forgiven.

"Muslim bin Ibrahim narrated to us, Hisyam narrated to us, Qatadah narrated to us, from Anas, may Allah be pleased with him, from the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him. Also, Khalifah said to me, Yazid bin Zura'i narrated to us, Sa'id narrated to us, from Qatadah, from Anas, may Allah be pleased with him, from the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, he said: On the Day of Resurrection, the believers will gather and say, 'If only we sought intercession with our Lord.' They will come to Adam, peace be upon him, and say, 'You are the father of humanity, Allah created you with His Hand, made His angels prostrate to you, and taught you the names of all things. Intercede for us with your Lord to relieve us from this place.' Adam will say, 'I am not the one you seek,' mentioning his sin, feeling ashamed, and say, 'Go to Nuh, the first messenger Allah sent to the people of the earth.' They will go to Nuh, and he will say, 'I am not the one you seek,' mentioning his request to his Lord without knowledge, feeling ashamed, and say, 'Go to Ibrahim, the friend of the Merciful.' They will go to Ibrahim, and he will say, 'I am not the one you seek, go to Musa, a servant Allah spoke to directly and gave the Torah.' They will go to Musa, and he will say, 'I am not the one you seek,' mentioning his killing of a person unjustly, feeling ashamed, and say, 'Go to Isa, Allah's servant, messenger, word, and spirit.' Isa will say, 'I am not the one you seek, go to Muhammad, a servant whose past and future sins Allah forgave.' They will come to me, and I will go to ask permission from my Lord, and it will be granted. When I see my Lord, I will fall in prostration, and He will leave me as He wills. Then it will be said, 'Raise your head, ask, and you will be given speak, and you will be heard intercede, and your intercession will be accepted.' I will raise my head, praise Him with praises He teaches me, and intercede. He will set a limit for me, and I will admit them to Paradise. I will return to Him, and when I see my Lord, I will prostrate again. He will leave me as He wills, then say, 'Raise your head, speak, and you will be heard ask, and you will be given intercede, and your intercession will be accepted.' I will raise my head, praise Him with praises He teaches me, and intercede. He will set a limit for me, and I will admit them to Paradise. And what makes a child resemble his father or mother?' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'Jibril just informed me.' Abdullah said, 'Who is Jibril?' He replied, 'He is the angel hated by the Jews.' He said, 'The first sign of the Hour is a fire from the East driving people to the West. The first food the people of Paradise will eat is the caul of a fish liver. As for a child resembling his father or mother, if the man's seed precedes the woman's, it resembles the father if the woman's seed precedes, it resembles the mother.' Abdullah bin Salam said, 'I testify there is no god but Allah and you are the Messenger of Allah.' He said, 'O Messenger of Allah, the Jews are a slandering people if they know of my Islam before you ask them, they will slander me.' The Prophet sent for them and asked, 'Who is Abdullah bin Salam among you?' They said, 'The best of us, son of the best of us, our master, son of our master.' He asked, 'What if Abdullah bin Salam embraced Islam?' They said, 'May Allah protect him from that.' Abdullah came out and said, 'I testify there is no god but Allah and Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah.' They said, 'He is the worst of us, son of the worst of us,' and disparaged him. He said, 'This is what I feared, O Messenger of Allah.'

"Isma'il narrated to us, Malik narrated to me, from Ibnu Syihab, from Salim bin Abdullah, that Abdullah bin Muhammad bin Abu Bakr informed Abdullah bin Umar, from Aisyah, may Allah be pleased with her, wife of the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'Do you not see that your people, when building the Kaaba, reduced the foundations of Ibrahim, peace be upon him?' I said, 'O Messenger of Allah, will you not restore it to Ibrahim's foundations?' He replied, 'If not for your people's recent disbelief.' Abdullah bin Umar said, 'If Aisyah heard this from the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, I do not see the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, abandoning touching the two corners near the Hijr except that the Kaaba was not completed on Ibrahim's foundations.'

MOVING THE QIBLATE FROM BAITUL MAQDIS TO THE KA'BAH

Hadith Imam Bukhari Number 4126

حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو نُعَيْمٍ سَمِعَ زُهَيْرًا عَنْ أَبِي إِسْحَاقَ عَنْ الْبَرَاءِ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُأَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ صَلَّى إِلَى بَيْتِ الْمَقْدِسِ سِتَّةَ عَشَرَ شَهْرًا أَوْ سَبْعَةَ عَشَرَ شَهْرًا وَكَانَ يُعْجِبُهُ أَنْ تَكُونَ قِبْلَتُهُ قِبَلَ الْبَيْتِ وَأَنَّهُ صَلَّى أَوْ صَلَّاهَا صَلَاةَ الْعَصْرِ وَصَلَّى مَعَهُ قَوْمٌ فَخَرَجَ رَجُلٌ مِمَّنْ كَانَ صَلَّى مَعَهُ فَمَرَّ عَلَى أَهْلِ الْمَسْجِدِ وَهُمْ رَاكِعُونَ قَالَ أَشْهَدُ بِاللَّهِ لَقَدْ صَلَّيْتُ مَعَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قِبَلَ مَكَّةَ فَدَارُوا كَمَا هُمْ قِبَلَ الْبَيْتِ وَكَانَ الَّذِي مَاتَ عَلَى الْقِبْلَةِ قَبْلَ أَنْ تُحَوَّلَ قِبَلَ الْبَيْتِ رِجَالٌ قُتِلُوا لَمْ نَدْرِ مَا نَقُولُ فِيهِمْ فَأَنْزَلَ اللَّهُ{ وَمَا كَانَ اللَّهُ لِيُضِيعَ إِيمَانَكُمْ إِنَّ اللَّهَ بِالنَّاسِ لَرَءُوفٌ رَحِيمٌ }

"Abu Nu'aim narrated to us, he heard from Zuhair, from Abu Ishaq, from Al Bara', may Allah be pleased with him, that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, prayed facing Baitul Maqdis for sixteen or seventeen months. He preferred that his Qibla be towards the Kaaba. Then he prayed Asr with a group of companions facing the Qibla. After that, one of the companions who prayed with him went out and passed by Muslims in a mosque who were bowing. He said, 'I testify to Allah, indeed I have prayed with the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, facing Mecca.' So they turned while praying towards the Qibla. There were some people who died facing the first Qibla, and we did not know what to say about their status. Then Allah revealed, 'And Allah would not let your faith go to waste, for Allah is Most Compassionate, Most Merciful to mankind.' (Al Baqarah: 143)

"Yusuf bin Rasyid narrated to us, Jarir and Abu Usamah narrated to us, and the wording is Jarir's, from Al A'masy, from Abu Shalih, Abu Usamah said, Abu Shalih narrated to us, from Abu Sa'id Al Khudri, he said, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'On the Day of Resurrection, Nuh will be called and he will say, "Here I am, at Your service, O Lord!" Allah will ask, "Did you convey Our message?" Nuh will say, "Yes." Then Allah will ask his people, "Did he convey Our message to you?" They will say, "No warner came to us."

Allah will ask, "Who will testify for you?" Nuh will say, "Muhammad, peace and blessings be upon him, and his followers." So you (the Muslim Ummah) will testify that Nuh conveyed the message, and the Messenger will be a witness over you. This is the meaning of Allah's statement, "Thus We have made you a just community that you will be witnesses over mankind, and the Messenger will be a witness over you." (Al Baqarah: 143) The term "just" means fair.

"Abdullah bin Yusuf narrated to us, Malik informed us, from Hisham bin Urwah, from his father, he said, I said to Aisyah, the wife of the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, when I was young at that time, 'Have you considered Allah's statement, "Indeed, Safa and Marwah are among the symbols of Allah. Whoever performs Hajj to the House or Umrah, there is no blame on him for walking between them"? I see no issue if someone does not walk between them.' Aisyah said, 'No, if it were as you say, it would be "no blame on him if he does not walk between them." This verse was revealed about the Ansar, who used to make talbiyah for Manat, located near Qudaid. They avoided walking between Safa and Marwah. When Islam came, they asked the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, about it. So Allah revealed, "Indeed, Safa and Marwah are among the symbols of Allah. Whoever performs Hajj to the House or Umrah, there is no blame on him for walking between them." (Al Baqarah: 158)'

"Al Humaidi narrated to us, Sufyan narrated to us, Amru narrated to us, he said, I heard Mujahid say, I heard Ibnu Abbas, may Allah be pleased with them both, say, 'Among the Children of Israel, there was retribution (qisas) but no blood money (diyah). Then Allah, the Exalted, said to this Ummah, "Prescribed for you is legal retribution for those murdered: the free for the free, the slave for the slave, and the female for the female. But whoever is pardoned by his brother for something..." The pardon means accepting blood money for intentional killing. "Then adhering to it with fairness and payment to him in kindness." He follows it fairly and pays with kindness. "This is a concession from your Lord and a mercy" from what was prescribed for those before you. "Whoever transgresses after that will have a painful punishment," meaning killing after accepting the blood money.' (Al Baqarah: 178)

"Abdullah bin Munir narrated to me, he heard Abdullah bin Bakr As Sahmi, Humaid narrated to us, from Anas, that Ar Rubayyi', his aunt, broke the front tooth of a female slave. They asked her to forgive, but they refused. They offered compensation, but they refused.

They came to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and insisted on retribution. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, ordered retribution. Anas bin An Nadhr said, 'O Messenger of Allah, will Ar Rubayyi's front tooth be broken? No, by the One who sent you with the truth, her tooth will not be broken.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'O Anas, the Book of Allah is retribution.' So the people agreed and forgave. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'Indeed, among Allah's servants are those who, if they swear by Allah, He will fulfill it.'

"Musa bin Ismail narrated to us, Abu 'Awanah narrated to us, from Hushain, from As Sya'bi, from Adi, he said, 'Adi took a white thread and a black thread. When night came, he looked at them but could not distinguish them. In the morning, he said, "O Messenger of Allah, I placed under my pillow a white thread and a black thread." He said, "Your pillow must be very wide if the white thread and black thread are under your pillow."'

THE MEANING OF WHITE AND BLACK THREADS IS NIGHT AND DAY
Hadith Imam Bukhari Number 4150

حَدَّثَنَا قُتَيْبَةُ بْنُ سَعِيدٍ حَدَّثَنَا جَرِيرٌ عَنْ مُطَرِّفٍ عَنْ الشَّعْبِيِّ عَنْ عَدِيِّ بْنِ حَاتِمٍ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ قَالَقُلْتُ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ مَا{ الْخَيْطُ الْأَبْيَضُ مِنْ الْخَيْطِ الْأَسْوَدِ }أَهُمَا الْخَيْطَانِ قَالَ إِنَّكَ لَعَرِيضُ الْقَفَا إِنْ أَبْصَرْتَ الْخَيْطَيْنِ ثُمَّ قَالَ لَا بَلْ هُوَ سَوَادُ اللَّيْلِ وَبَيَاضُ النَّهَارِ

"Qutaibah bin Sa'id narrated to us, Jarir narrated to us, from Mutharrif, from As Sya'bi, from Adi bin Hatim, may Allah be pleased with him, he said, 'I said, "O Messenger of Allah, what is 'the white thread from the black thread'? Are they actual threads?" He said, "Your neck must be very wide if you see the two threads. No, it is the blackness of the night and the whiteness of the day."'

Hadith Imam Bukhari Number 4151

"Ibnu Abu Maryam narrated to us, Abu Ghassan Muhammad bin Mutharrif narrated to us, Abu Hazim narrated to me, from Sahal bin Sa'ad, he said: When the verse 'And eat and drink until the white thread becomes distinct to you from the black thread' (Al Baqarah: 187) was revealed, and 'of the dawn' had not yet been revealed, people who intended to fast would tie a white thread and a black thread to their legs and continue eating until they could distinguish them. Then Allah revealed 'of the dawn,' and they understood that it meant from the night to the day.

"Ubaidullah bin Musa narrated to us, from Israil, from Abu Ishaq, from Al Barra, he said: During the time of Jahiliyah, people who entered ihram for Hajj would approach the house from its back. Then Allah revealed, 'It is not righteousness to enter houses from the back, but righteousness is in one who fears Allah. So enter houses through their doors.' (Al Baqarah: 189)

He replied, 'We fought until there was no fitnah, and the religion was for Allah. But you want to fight until fitnah arises and the religion is for other than Allah.' Utsman bin Shalih added from Ibnu Wahhab, he said, someone and Haiwah bin Syuraih informed me, from Bakr bin Amru Al Ma'afiri, that Bukair bin Abdullah narrated to him, from Nafi', that a man came to Ibnu Umar and said, 'O Abu Abdur Rahman, what made you perform Hajj one year and Umrah another, and abandon Jihad in the way of Allah, when you know how Allah encourages it?' Ibnu Umar said, 'O my nephew, Islam is built on five pillars: faith in Allah and His Messenger, the five prayers, fasting in Ramadan, paying zakat, and Hajj to the House.' The man said, 'O Abu Abdur Rahman, do you not hear what Allah mentioned in His Book: "And if two groups of believers fight, reconcile between them, but if one transgresses against the other, fight the one that transgresses until it returns to Allah's command" and "Fight them until there is no fitnah"?' Ibnu Umar said, 'We did that during the time of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, when Islam was small, and a man would be tested in his religion, either killed or tortured, until Islam grew and there was no fitnah.' The man said, 'What is your opinion about Utsman and Ali?' Ibnu Umar replied, 'As for Utsman, it is as if Allah has forgiven him, but you disliked forgiving him. As for Ali, he is the cousin of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and his son-in-law.' Then he pointed with his hand and said, 'This is his house, as you see.'

When he set out for Arafah, if he could easily provide a sacrificial animal, such as a camel, cow, or sheep, he could choose whichever he wished. If it was difficult for him, he should fast for three days during Hajj, before the day of Arafah. If the last of the three days is the day of Arafah, there is no blame on him. Then he should proceed to stand at Arafah from the Asr prayer until darkness falls, then depart from Arafah when the people depart, until they reach Muzdalifah, where they spend the night. Then they should remember Allah frequently, increasing takbir and tahlil before dawn. Then depart, for the people have departed, as Allah Almighty said, "Then depart from where the people depart and seek forgiveness from Allah. Indeed, Allah is Forgiving, Merciful" (Al Baqarah: 199), until you throw the pebbles at the Jamrah.'

Unquestionably, the help of Allah is near'" (Al Baqarah: 214). I met Urwah bin Zubair and mentioned this to him, and he said, Aisyah said, 'Far be it from Allah! "Ishaq narrated to us, Rauh narrated to us, Syibl narrated to us, from Ibnu Abu Najih, from Mujahid, regarding the verse 'Those among you who die and leave wives' (Al Baqarah: 234), he said, 'This iddah was required to be observed at the husband's family's house. Then Allah revealed, "Those among you who die and leave wives should make a bequest for their wives, provision for a year without turning them out. But if they leave, there is no blame on you for what they do with themselves in an acceptable manner" (Al Baqarah: 240). Mujahid said, "Allah made it a full year, seven months and twenty nights, as a bequest. If she wishes, she stays in her bequest, and if she wishes, she leaves." This is the meaning of Allah's statement, "Without turning them out. But if they leave, there is no blame on you." The iddah remains obligatory for her.' He claimed this from Mujahid. Atha said, Ibnu Abbas said, 'This verse abrogated her iddah at her family's house, so she observes iddah wherever she wishes, as Allah Almighty said, "Without turning them out."' Atha said, 'If she wishes, she observes iddah at her family's house and stays in her bequest, and if she wishes, she leaves, as Allah Almighty said, "There is no blame on you for what they do with themselves." Atha said, 'Then the inheritance verse came and abrogated the residence, so she observes iddah wherever she wishes, and there is no residence for her.' And from Muhammad bin Yusuf, Warqa narrated to us, from Ibnu Abu Najih, from Mujahid, with this narration. And from Ibnu Abu Najih, from Atha, from Ibnu Abbas, he said, 'This verse abrogated her iddah at her family's house, so she observes iddah wherever she wishes, as Allah said, "Without turning them out,"' or similar.

When those with him complete one rak'ah, they move to the place of those who have not prayed, without giving salam. Then those who have not prayed come forward and pray one rak'ah with him. Then the imam leaves, having prayed two rak'ahs. Each of the two groups stands and prays one rak'ah for themselves after the imam departs, so each group completes two rak'ahs. If the fear is greater than that, they pray on foot or riding, facing the Qibla or not.' "Narrated to me [Ibrahim bin Musa] from [Hisyam] from [Ma'mar] Likewise narrated from another chain, And narrated to me ['Abdullah bin Muhammad] Narrated to us ['Abdur Razzaq] Informed us [Ma'mar] from [Az Zuhri] said Informed me ['Ubaidullah bin 'Abdullah bin 'Utbah] said Narrated to me [Ibnu 'Abbas] said Narrated to me [Abu Sufyan] from his mouth to mine, he said: I set out during the period when the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, was sent. While I was in Syria, a letter came from the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, to Heraclius. Dahyah Al Kalbi brought it and handed it to the leader of Busra, who then handed it to Heraclius. Abu Sufyan said: Heraclius said: 'Is there anyone here from the people of this man who claims to be a prophet?' They said: 'Yes.' Then I was called along with some Quraysh. We entered to meet Heraclius and were seated before him. He said: 'Which of you is closest in lineage to this man who claims to be a prophet?' Abu Sufyan said: I replied: 'I am.' They seated me in front of him, with my companions behind me. Then he called his interpreter and said: 'Tell them I will ask this man about the one who claims to be a prophet if he lies, refute him.' Abu Sufyan said: By Allah, if lying had benefited me, I would have lied. Heraclius said to his interpreter: 'Ask him about his status among you.' I said: 'He has a high status among us.' He said: 'Was there a king among his ancestors?' I said: 'No.' He said: 'Did you accuse him of lying before he said what he said?' I said: 'No.' He said: 'Do the nobles or the weak follow him?' I said: 'Rather, the weak follow him.' He said: 'Are they increasing or decreasing?' I said: 'They are increasing.' He said: 'Does anyone among them apostatize from his religion after entering it, out of resentment?' I said: 'No.' He said: 'Have you fought him?' I said: 'Yes.' He said: 'How was your fighting with him?' I said: 'The war between us and him is like a bucket sometimes he wins over us, and sometimes we win over him.' He said: 'Does he betray?' I said: 'No, and we are in a truce with him, and we do not know what he will do in it.' Abu Sufyan said: By Allah, I could not say anything else. He said: 'Did anyone say this before him?' I said: 'No.'

Then he said to his interpreter: 'Tell him: I asked you about his status among you, and you claimed he has a high status, and so the messengers are sent from noble lineages among their people. I asked you if there was a king among his ancestors, and you said no I said if there was a king among his ancestors, I would say he is a man seeking his ancestors' kingdom. I asked you about his followers, whether they are the weak or the nobles, and you said the weak, and they are the followers of the messengers. I asked you if you accused him of lying before he said what he said, and you said no, so I knew he would not abandon lying to people and then lie about Allah. I asked you if anyone apostatizes from his religion after entering it out of resentment, and you said no, and so is faith when it mixes with the joy of hearts. I asked you if they are increasing or decreasing, and you said they are increasing, and so is faith until it is complete. I asked you if you fought him, and you said you fought him, and the war between you and him is like a bucket he wins over you, and you win over him, and so the messengers are tested, then the outcome is theirs. I asked you if he betrays, and you said he does not betray, and so the messengers do not betray. I asked you if anyone said this before him, and you said no, so I said if someone had said this before him, I would say he is a man following a statement said before him.' Then he said: 'What does he command you?' I said: 'He commands us to pray, give charity, maintain kinship, and be chaste.' He said: 'If what you say about him is true, then he is a prophet. I knew he would appear, but I did not think he would be from among you. If I knew I could reach him, I would love to meet him, and if I were with him, I would wash his feet. His dominion will surely reach what is under my feet.' Then he called for the letter of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and read it, and it said: 'In the name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful. From Muhammad, the Messenger of Allah, to Heraclius, the great of Rome. Peace be upon those who follow guidance. As for what follows, I invite you to the call of Islam. Embrace Islam, and you will be safe embrace Islam, and Allah will grant you your reward twice. But if you turn away, then upon you is the sin of the peasants. And "O People of the Scripture, come to a word that is equitable between us and you - that we will not worship except Allah and not associate anything with Him..."' When he finished reading the letter, voices rose around him, and there was much commotion, and we were ordered to leave. Abu Sufyan said: When I and my companions left and settled our affairs, I said to them: 'The matter of Ibn Abi Kabsha has become such that the king of the yellow-skinned people fears him.' Abu Sufyan said: By Allah, I remained certain that the matter of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, would prevail until Allah brought Islam into my heart. Az Zuhri said: Then Heraclius called the Roman leaders and gathered them in his house. He said: 'O Romans, do you want success and guidance forever and for your kingdom to remain steadfast?' They rushed angrily toward the doors, but found them locked. He said: 'Bring them back.' He called them and said: 'I was only testing your commitment to your religion, and I have seen from you what I love.' Then they prostrated to him and were pleased with him.

"Narrated to us [Isma'il] said Narrated to me [Malik] from [Ishaq bin 'Abdullah bin Abu Thalhah] that he heard [Anas bin Malik, may Allah be pleased with him] say: Abu Thalhah was the Ansari with the most date palms in Medina, and the property he loved most was Bairuha, which faced the mosque. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, used to enter it and drink its pure, fresh water. When the verse was revealed: 'You will not attain righteousness until you spend of that which you love,' Abu Thalhah said: 'O Messenger of Allah, Allah says: "You will not attain righteousness until you spend of that which you love," and the property I love most is Bairuha. It is now charity for Allah I hope for its righteousness and its reward with Allah. O Messenger of Allah, dispose of it as you see fit.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'Well done, that is a profitable property, that is a profitable property! I have heard what you said, and I think you should distribute it among your relatives.' Abu Thalhah said: 'I will do so, O Messenger of Allah.' So Abu Thalhah distributed it among his relatives and cousins. ['Abdullah bin Yusuf] and [Rauh bin 'Ubadah] said: 'That is a profitable property.' Narrated to me [Yahya bin Yahya] he said I read the hadith of [Malik] with the wording: 'Maal Rayih.' (profitable property). Narrated to us [Muhammad bin 'Abdullah Al Anshari] he said Narrated to me [my father] from [Tsumamah] from [Anas, may Allah be pleased with him] said: 'So he gave it to Hassan and Ubay, and I was the closest relative to him, but he did not give me any of it.'

"Narrated to me [Ibrahim bin Al Mundzir] Narrated to us [Abu Dlamrah] Narrated to us [Musa bin 'Uqbah] from [Nafi'] from ['Abdullah bin 'Umar, may Allah be pleased with them] that the Jews came to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, with a man and a woman from among them who had committed adultery. He said to them: 'What do you do with those who commit adultery among you?' They said: 'We blacken their faces and beat them.' He said: 'Do you not find stoning in the Torah?' They said: 'We find nothing in it.' Abdullah bin Salam said to them: 'You have lied bring the Torah and recite it if you are truthful.' So they placed the book they studied, and one of them covered the verse of stoning with his hand, quickly reading what was before and after it without reading the verse of stoning. Abdullah Salam removed his hand from the verse of stoning and said: 'What is this?' When they saw that, they said: 'This is the verse of stoning.' So he ordered them to be stoned near the place of funerals by the mosque. Abdullah said: 'I saw the man shielding the woman, protecting her from the stones by bending over her.'

"Narrated to us [Abu Al Yaman] Informed us [Syu'aib] from [Az Zuhri] said Informed me ['Urwah bin Az Zubair] that [Usamah bin Zaid, may Allah be pleased with them] informed him that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, rode a donkey with a saddle from Fadak, and he seated Usamah bin Zaid behind him, going to visit Sa'ad bin 'Ubadah in Bani Al Harith bin Al Khazraj before the Battle of Badr. He said: He passed by a gathering that included Abdullah bin Ubay bin Salul, and this was before Abdullah bin Ubay embraced Islam. In the gathering were a mix of Muslims, idol-worshipping pagans, Jews, and Muslims, including Abdullah bin Rawahah. When the dust from the animal covered the gathering, Abdullah bin Ubay covered his nose with his cloak and said: 'Do not cover us with dust.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, greeted them, then stopped, dismounted, invited them to Allah, and recited the Quran to them. Abdullah bin Ubay bin Salul said: 'O man, there is nothing better than what you say if it is true, so do not disturb us in our gathering. Return to your mount, and narrate to those who come to you.' Abdullah bin Rawahah said: 'Yes, O Messenger of Allah, come to us in our gatherings, for we love it.' The Muslims, pagans, and Jews began cursing each other until they nearly fought. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, kept calming them until they settled. Then the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, mounted his animal and continued until he reached Sa'ad bin 'Ubadah. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said to him: 'O Sa'ad, did you hear what Abu Hubab said?' meaning Abdullah bin Ubay, 'He said such and such.' Sa'ad bin 'Ubadah said: 'O Messenger of Allah, forgive and pardon him, for by the One who sent down the Book to you, Allah brought the truth you were given. The people of this town had agreed to crown him and place a turban on him, but when Allah opposed that with the truth He gave you, he was resentful, and that is why he did what you saw.' So the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, forgave him. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and his companions used to forgive the pagans and the People of the Book as Allah commanded, enduring harm. Allah, Mighty and Exalted, said: 'You will surely hear much abuse from those who were given the Scripture before you and from those who associate others with Allah...' and Allah said: 'Many of the People of the Scripture wish they could turn you back to disbelief after you have believed, out of envy from themselves...' to the end of the verse. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, adhered to forgiveness as Allah commanded until Allah permitted fighting them. When the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, fought in the Battle of Badr, and Allah killed the leaders of the Quraysh disbelievers, Ibnu Ubay bin Salul and the pagans and idol-worshippers with him said: 'This matter has prevailed.' So they pledged allegiance to the Messenger

HYPOCRITE WHO DOES NOT PARTICIPATE IN FIGHT AND PRAISE
Hadith Imam Bukhari Number 4201

حَدَّثَنَا سَعِيدُ بْنُ أَبِي مَرْيَمَ أَخْبَرَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ جَعْفَرٍ قَالَ حَدَّثَنِي زَيْدُ بْنُ أَسْلَمَ عَنْ عَطَاءِ بْنِ يَسَارٍ عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ الْخُدْرِيِّ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُأَنَّ رِجَالًا مِنْ الْمُنَافِقِينَ عَلَى عَهْدِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ إِذَا خَرَجَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِلَى الْغَزْوِ تَخَلَّفُوا عَنْهُ وَفَرِحُوا بِمَقْعَدِهِمْ خِلَافَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَإِذَا قَدِمَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اعْتَذَرُوا إِلَيْهِ وَحَلَفُوا وَأَحَبُّوا أَنْ يُحْمَدُوا بِمَا لَمْ يَفْعَلُوا فَنَزَلَتْ{ لَا يَحْسِبَنَّ الَّذِينَ يَفْرَحُونَ بِمَا أَتَوْا وَيُحِبُّونَ أَنْ يُحْمَدُوا بِمَا لَمْ يَفْعَلُوا }الْآيَةَ

"Narrated to us [Sa'id bin Abu Maryam] Informed us [Muhammad bin Ja'far] he said Narrated to me [Zaid bin Aslam] from ['Atha bin Yasar] from [Abu Sa'id Al Khudri, may Allah be pleased with him] that some hypocrites during the time of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, when he went out to battle, stayed behind and were pleased with their sitting back, opposing the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. When the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, returned (with victory and spoils of war), they offered their excuses for not joining the battle and reinforced their excuses with oaths. Then they wished to be praised (as if they were heroes) while they had done nothing. Therefore, the verse was revealed: 'Think not that those who exult in what they have brought about and love to be praised for what they have not done, think not that they will escape the punishment...' (Quran, Ali Imran (3): 188).

"Narrated to me [Ibrahim bin Musa] Informed us [Hisham] that [Ibn Juraij] informed them from [Ibn Abu Mulaikah] that ['Alqamah bin Waqqash] informed him that Marwan said to his gatekeeper: 'O Abu Rafi', go to Ibn Abbas and ask him: If every one of us is to be punished for being pleased with what he has done and loves to be praised for what he has not done, does that mean we will all be punished?' [Ibn Abbas] said: 'What is it with this verse? This verse was only revealed concerning the Jews.' When the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, asked them about something, they concealed it from him and told him something else. Then they showed him that they deserved praise for what they had told him and were pleased with what they had concealed regarding what he asked them. Then Ibn Abbas recited the verse: 'And [recall] when Allah took the covenant of those who were given the Scripture, [saying], "You must make it clear to the people and not conceal it"' (Ali Imran: 187). And Ibn Abbas recited the verse: 'And never think that those who rejoice in what they have perpetrated and like to be praised for what they did not do' (Ali Imran: 188). It was also narrated by ['Abdur Razzaq] from [Ibn Juraij]. Similarly narrated from another chain, Narrated to us [Ibn Muqatil] Informed us [Al Hajjaj] from [Ibn Juraij] Informed me [Ibn Abu Mulaikah] from [Humaid bin 'Abdur Rahman bin 'Auf] that he informed him regarding this story of Marwan.

"Narrated to us [Ibrahim bin Musa] Informed us [Hisham] from [Ibn Juraij] he said Informed me [Hisham bin 'Urwah] from [his father] from ['Aisyah, may Allah be pleased with her] that a man had an orphan girl, married her because she had a date palm grove, and kept her for it, though he had no affection for her. So the verse was revealed: 'And if you fear that you will not deal justly with the orphans...' (An Nisa: 3). I think he said: She was his partner in that date palm grove and in his wealth.

"Narrated to us ['Abdul 'Aziz bin 'Abdullah] Narrated to us [Ibrahim bin Sa'ad] from [Salih bin Kaisan] from [Ibn Shihab] he said Informed me ['Urwah bin Az Zubair] that he asked ['Aisyah] about the saying of Allah, the Exalted: 'If you fear that you will not be just to the orphans...' (An Nisa: 3). Aisyah said: 'O my nephew, this refers to an orphan girl under the care of her guardian, who shares in his wealth, and he is impressed by her wealth and beauty. Her guardian wants to marry her without being just in her dowry, giving her what others would give her. So they were forbidden to marry them unless they act justly toward them and give them the highest dowry customary for them. They were commanded to marry other women they liked besides them.' Urwah said: Aisyah said: 'People sought the verdict of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, after this verse, so Allah, the Exalted, revealed: "They ask you for a legal verdict concerning women..." (An Nisa: 127). Aisyah said: And the saying of Allah, the Exalted, in another verse: 'And you desire to marry them' (An Nisa: 127) refers to one of you disliking his orphan girl when she has little wealth and beauty. She said: So they were forbidden to marry those orphan women whose wealth and beauty they desired unless with justice, due to their aversion to those with little wealth and beauty.

Aisyah said: It was revealed concerning the guardian of an orphan if he is poor, he may take from it in a reasonable manner for his care of it.

right over his wife if one of them wished, he married her, or they married her off, or they did not marry her off. They had more right over her than her family. So this verse was revealed regarding that.

(An Nisa: 33). Ibn 'Abbas said: Meaning heirs. 'And those with whom you have made a pledge...' When the Muhajirun came to Medina, a Muhajir inherited from an Ansari instead of his relatives due to the brotherhood the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, established between them. When the verse 'And for all, We have made heirs...' was revealed, it was abrogated. Then he said: 'And those with whom you have made a pledge...' refers to support, aid, and sincere advice, while the inheritance was removed, but he may make a bequest for him. Abu Usamah heard this from Idris, and Idris heard from Thalhah.

"Narrated to me [Muhammad bin 'Abdul 'Aziz] Narrated to us [Abu 'Umar Hafsh bin Maisarah] from [Zaid bin Aslam] from ['Atha bin Yasar] from [Abu Sa'id Al Khudri, may Allah be pleased with him] that some people during the time of the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'O Messenger of Allah, will we see our Lord on the Day of Resurrection?' The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'Yes. Do you find difficulty in seeing the sun at noon when it is bright and there are no clouds?' They said: 'No.' He said: 'And do you find difficulty in seeing the moon on the night of the full moon when it is bright and there are no clouds?' They said: 'No.' The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'You will not find difficulty in seeing Allah, the Mighty and Exalted, on the Day of Resurrection, just as you do not find difficulty in seeing one of them. When the Day of Resurrection comes, a caller will announce: Let every nation follow what they used to worship. So those who worshipped other than Allah, such as idols and false deities, will fall into the Fire. Until none remain except those who worshipped Allah, whether righteous or sinful, and the remnants of the People of the Scripture. The Jews will be called and asked: 'What did you worship?' They will say: 'We worshipped Uzair, the son of Allah.' It will be said to them: 'You have lied Allah has not taken a wife or a child. What do you want now?' They will say: 'We are thirsty, our Lord, give us drink.' They will be directed: 'Will you not drink?' And they will be gathered to the Fire, which is like a mirage, parts of it destroying others, and they will fall into the Fire. Then the Christians will be called and asked: 'What did you worship?' They will say: 'We worshipped the Messiah, the son of Allah.' It will be said to them: 'You have lied Allah has not taken a wife or a child.' It will be said to them: 'What do you want?' They will answer as the first group did, and they will be cast into the Fire. Until none remain except those who worshipped Allah, whether righteous or sinful. The Lord of the worlds will come to them in the form closest to what they had seen of Him. It will be said: 'What are you waiting for? Every nation follows what it used to worship.' They will say: 'We parted from people in the world when we were in great need of them and did not associate with them. We are waiting for our Lord whom we used to worship.' He will say: 'I am your Lord.' They will say, two or three times: 'We do not associate anything with Allah.'

The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'Irrigate your garden, O Zubair, then let the water flow to your neighbor.' But the Ansari became angry and said: 'O Messenger of Allah, is it because he is your cousin?' The face of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, changed color, then he said: 'O Zubair, irrigate your garden, then hold the water until it reaches the wall, then let it flow to your neighbor.' The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, hoped that Zubair would understand his right with a clear ruling. Initially, he had suggested something that would benefit both, but when the Ansari angered the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, he gave the full share to Zubair. [Zubair], may Allah be pleased with him, said: 'By Allah, I think this verse was revealed concerning that: "But no, by your Lord, they will not [truly] believe until they make you judge concerning that over which they dispute among themselves..."' (An Nisa: 65).

Then Allah revealed to His Messenger (peace and blessings be upon him), while his thigh was on my thigh, and it became so heavy on me that I feared my thigh would break. Then the burden was lifted from him, and Allah revealed: 'Except those with disability.'

The Prophet said: 'Write: Not equal are those believers who sit (at home) and those who strive in the cause of Allah.' Behind the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) was Ibn Umm Maktum, who said: 'O Messenger of Allah, I am blind.' So the verse was revealed in its place: 'Not equal are those believers who sit (at home), except those with disability, and those who strive in the cause of Allah.'

'Abdullah stood up, his companions dispersed, and he threw pebbles at me. I went to him, and Hudhaifah said: 'I was surprised at his laughter he knew what I meant. Hypocrisy was revealed upon a people better than you, then they repented, and Allah accepted their repentance.'

"Isma'il narrated to us, he said: Malik narrated to me from 'Abdur Rahman bin Al-Qasim from his father from 'Aishah (may Allah be pleased with her), the wife of the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him), she said: We went out with the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) on one of his journeys until we reached Al-Baida or Dhat Al-Jaysh, where my necklace broke. The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) stayed to search for it, and the people stayed with him, though they were not near water and had no water with them. The people went to Abu Bakr As-Siddiq and said: 'Do you not see what 'Aishah has done? She has detained the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) and the people, and they are not near water and have no water with them.' Abu Bakr came while the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) had placed his head on my thigh and was asleep. He said: 'You have detained the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) and the people, and they are not near water and have no water with them.' 'Aishah said: Abu Bakr rebuked me and said whatever Allah willed him to say, and he poked me in my side with his hand. Nothing prevented me from moving except the position of the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) on my thigh. The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) slept until morning without water. Then Allah revealed the verse of tayammum, and they performed tayammum. Usaid bin Hudhair said: 'This is not the first blessing from you, O family of Abu Bakr.' 'Aishah said: We roused the camel I was riding, and there was the necklace beneath it.

"Yahya bin Sulaiman narrated to us, he said: Ibn Wahb narrated to me, he said: 'Amru informed me that 'Abdur Rahman bin Al-Qasim narrated to him from his father from 'Aishah (may Allah be pleased with her): My necklace fell at Al-Baida while we were entering Medina. The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) stopped his camel and dismounted, resting his head in my lap, sleeping. Abu Bakr came and harshly poked me, saying: 'You have detained the people over a necklace.' I felt as if I were dead due to the position of the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him), and it hurt me. Then the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) woke up, and the time for Subh prayer arrived. He sought water but found none, so the verse was revealed: 'O you who have believed, when you rise to [perform] prayer...' (Al-Maidah: 6). Usaid bin Hudhair said: 'Allah has blessed the people through you, O family of Abu Bakr. You are nothing but a blessing to them.'

It was also narrated by Waki' from Sufyan from Mukhariq from Thariq that Miqdad said this to the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him).

They discussed and mentioned that the caliphs had ruled. 'Umar turned to Abu Qilabah, who was behind him, and said: 'What do you say, O 'Abdullah bin Zaid,' or he said: 'What do you say, O Abu Qilabah?' I said: 'I do not know of any soul whose killing is permissible in Islam except a man who commits adultery after being married, or kills a soul unjustly, or fights against Allah and His Messenger (peace and blessings be upon him).' 'Anbasah said: Anas narrated to us such and such. I said: Anas narrated to me, he said: A group of people came to the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) and spoke to him, saying: 'We find this land unhealthy.' He said: 'Here are our livestock go out with them and drink their milk and urine.' They went out, drank their milk and urine, and recovered. Then they turned on the shepherd, killed him, and drove off the livestock. Soon after, they killed a soul unjustly, fought against Allah and His Messenger, and intimidated the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him). 'Umar said: 'Glory be to Allah.' I said: 'Are you accusing me?' He said: 'Anas narrated this to us.' He said: 'O people of such-and-such, you will remain in goodness as long as this one or someone like him is among you.'

Her people demanded qisas and came to the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him). The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) ordered qisas. Anas bin Nudlar, the uncle of Anas bin Malik, said: 'No, by Allah, her tooth will not be broken, O Messenger of Allah.' The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) said: 'O Anas, the Book of Allah prescribes qisas.' But then her people relented and accepted compensation. The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) said: 'Indeed, among Allah’s servants are those who, if they swear by Allah, He would fulfill it.'

"Musa bin Isma'il narrated to us, Ibrahim bin Sa'ad narrated to us from Shalih bin Kaisan from Ibnu Syihab from Sa'id bin Al Musayyab, he said: The Bahirah is a camel whose milk was reserved for idols, so no one among the people could milk it. The Sa'ibah was a camel they released for their gods, and nothing was to be carried on it. Ibnu Al Musayyab said: Abu Hurairah said: The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) said: 'I saw Amru bin Amir Al Khuza'i dragging his intestines in the Fire. He was the first to institute the Sa'ibah.' The Washilah is a she-camel that gives birth to a female as its first offspring, then gives birth to another female, and they would release it for their idols if one followed the other without a male in between. The Haam is a stallion camel that mates a set number of times, and when it finishes, they dedicate it to their idols and exempt it from carrying loads, calling it Al Haami. Abul Yaman said to me: Shuyaib informed us from Az Zuhri I heard Sa'id say: He reported this. The narrator said: And Abu Hurairah said: I heard the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) say something similar. Narrated by Ibnu Al Had from Ibnu Syihab from Sa'id from Abu Hurairah (may Allah be pleased with him): I heard the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him).

Then he said: 'Know that the first of creation to be clothed on the Day of Resurrection is Ibrahim. Know that some men from my nation will be brought and taken to the left, and I will say: "O Lord, my companions!" It will be said: "You do not know what they innovated after you." So I will say as the righteous servant said: "And I was a witness over them as long as I was among them, but when You took me up, You were the Observer over them, and You are, over all things, Witness." (Al-Maidah: 117-118). It will be said: "These people continued turning back on their heels since you left them."'

GOD IS THE MOST JEALOUS AND THE MOST LIKES TO BE PRAISE
Hadith Imam Bukhari Number 4268

حَدَّثَنَا حَفْصُ بْنُ عُمَرَ حَدَّثَنَا شُعْبَةُ عَنْ عَمْرٍو عَنْ أَبِي وَائِلٍ عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ قَالَلَا أَحَدَ أَغْيَرُ مِنْ اللَّهِ وَلِذَلِكَ حَرَّمَ الْفَوَاحِشَ مَا ظَهَرَ مِنْهَا وَمَا بَطَنَ وَلَا شَيْءَ أَحَبُّ إِلَيْهِ الْمَدْحُ مِنْ اللَّهِ وَلِذَلِكَ مَدَحَ نَفْسَهُ قُلْتُ سَمِعْتَهُ مِنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ قَالَ نَعَمْ قُلْتُ وَرَفَعَهُ قَالَ نَعَمْ{ وَكِيلٌ }حَفِيظٌ وَمُحِيطٌ بِهِ{ قُبُلًا }جَمْعُ قَبِيلٍ وَالْمَعْنَى أَنَّهُ ضُرُوبٌ لِلْعَذَابِ كُلُّ ضَرْبٍ مِنْهَا قَبِيلٌ{ زُخْرُفَ الْقَوْلِ }كُلُّ شَيْءٍ حَسَّنْتَهُ وَوَشَّيْتَهُ وَهُوَ بَاطِلٌ فَهُوَ زُخْرُفٌ{ وَحَرْثٌ حِجْرٌ }حَرَامٌ وَكُلُّ مَمْنُوعٍ فَهُوَ حِجْرٌ مَحْجُورٌ وَالْحِجْرُ كُلُّ بِنَاءٍ بَنَيْتَهُ وَيُقَالُ لِلْأُنْثَى مِنْ الْخَيْلِ حِجْرٌ وَيُقَالُ لِلْعَقْلِ حِجْرٌ وَحِجًى وَأَمَّا الْحِجْرُ فَمَوْضِعُ ثَمُودَ وَمَا حَجَّرْتَ عَلَيْهِ مِنْ الْأَرْضِ فَهُوَ حِجْرٌ وَمِنْهُ سُمِّيَ حَطِيمُ الْبَيْتِ حِجْرًا كَأَنَّه مُشْتَقٌّ مِنْ مَحْطُومٍ مِثْلُ قَتِيلٍ مِنْ مَقْتُولٍ وَأَمَّا حَجْرُ الْيَمَامَةِ فَهُوَ مَنْزِلٌ

"Hafsh bin 'Umar narrated to us, Syu'bah narrated to us from 'Amru from Abu Wail from 'Abdullah (may Allah be pleased with him), he said: 'No one is more jealous than Allah, and for that reason, He prohibited shameful acts, both apparent and hidden. And there is nothing more beloved to Him than praise, and for that reason, He praised Himself.' I said: 'Did you hear it from 'Abdullah?' He said: 'Yes.' I said: 'And did he attribute it (to the Prophet)?' He said: 'Yes.' The term 'Wakil' (Al-An'am: 102) means Guardian and Encompassing. 'Qubulan' is the plural of Qabil, meaning various types of punishment. 'Zukhruf al-Qawl' means every false thing you embellish and adorn is zukhruf. 'Harth Hijr' means forbidden, and everything prohibited is hijr or mahjur. 'Hijr' is also any structure you build. It is said for a female horse, hijr, and for intellect, hijr or hijan. As for Al-Hijr, it is the place of Thamud, and what you enclose of the land is hijr. Hence, the Hatim of the Kaaba is called hijr, as if derived from mahtum, like qatil from maqtul. As for Hijr of Yamamah, it is a residence.

He said: 'Call him.' They called him, and he said: 'Why did you slap his face?' He said: 'O Messenger of Allah, I passed by the Jews and heard him say: "By the One who chose Moses above mankind." I said: "And above Muhammad?" Anger overtook me, so I slapped him.' "Abu Al Yaman narrated to us, Shu'aib informed us from Az Zuhri, he said 'Ubaidullah bin 'Abdullah bin 'Utbah informed me that Ibn 'Abbas (may Allah be pleased with them) said 'Uyainah bin Hishan bin Hudzafah came and stayed with his nephew Al Hurr bin Qais. He was among those whom Umar kept close, one of the reciters in Umar's gatherings and his advisory council, whether young or old. Uyainah said to his nephew, "O my nephew, do you have favor with this leader? Seek permission for me to meet him." Al Hurr said, "I will seek permission for you." Ibn 'Abbas said, "So Al Hurr sought permission for Uyainah to meet Umar, and Umar granted it. When he entered, he said, 'O Ibnul Khattab, by Allah, you neither give us generously nor judge among us with justice.' Umar became so angry that he almost struck him. Then Al Hurr said to him, 'O Commander of the Faithful, indeed Allah, the Exalted, said to His Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him): "Take to forgiveness, enjoin what is good, and turn away from the ignorant." And this man is among the ignorant.' By Allah, Umar did not harm him when this verse was recited to him. He paused, respecting the Book of Allah.

So what prevents you from fighting as Allah has mentioned in His Book?' Ibn 'Umar replied, 'O my nephew, would I be swayed by this verse? Not fighting is dearer to me than being swayed by this verse: "And whoever kills a believer intentionally..." until the end of it.' The man said, 'But Allah says: "And fight them until there is no fitnah..."' Ibn 'Umar replied, 'We did so during the time of the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) when Islam was few, and a man would be tested in his religion they would either kill him or bind him until Islam grew, and there was no more fitnah.' When the man saw that Ibn 'Umar did not agree with him, he said, 'What is your opinion about Ali and Uthman?' Ibn 'Umar replied, 'My opinion about Ali and Uthman? As for Uthman, Allah had forgiven him, but you disliked that He forgave him. As for Ali, he is the cousin of the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) and his son-in-law.' He pointed with his hand, saying, 'And this is his daughter, as you see.'

I said, I will hold myself accountable for him as I did not for Abu Bakr or Umar, though they were more deserving of every good than he. I said, he is the cousin of the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him), the son of Az Zubair, the son of Abu Bakr, the son of Khadijah’s brother, and the son of Aishah’s sister. Yet he rises above me and does not want that. I said, I did not think I would turn this feeling away from myself, but he left it. I do not see him seeking good. If I must be led by my cousins, I prefer that over being led by others.'

"Ubaid bin Isma'il narrated to me, from Abu Usamah, from Ubaidullah, from Nafi', from Ibn Umar, may Allah be pleased with them, who said: When Abdullah bin Ubayy passed away, his son, Abdullah bin Abdullah, came to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and requested his shirt to shroud his father. The Messenger gave it to him. Then, he asked the Messenger to pray over his father’s body. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, prepared to perform the funeral prayer, but Umar stood up, pulled the Messenger’s garment, and said, 'O Messenger of Allah, will you pray over him when your Lord has forbidden you to do so?' The Messenger replied, 'Allah has given me a choice,' and recited the verse: 'Seek forgiveness for them or do not seek forgiveness for them even if you seek forgiveness for them seventy times...' (Quran, At-Tawbah 9:80). He added, 'I will seek forgiveness for him more than seventy times.' Umar said, 'He is a hypocrite.' Yet, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, prayed over him, and then Allah revealed: 'Do not pray over any of them who die, nor stand at their grave.' (Quran, At-Tawbah 9:84).

"Yahya bin Bukair narrated to us, Al-Laith narrated to us from Uqail. Others said: Al-Laith narrated to me from Uqail, from Ibn Shihab, who said: Ubaidullah bin Abdullah narrated to me, from Ibn Abbas, from Umar bin Al-Khattab, may Allah be pleased with him, who said: When Abdullah bin Ubayy bin Salul died, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, was called to pray over him. As the Messenger stood to perform the prayer, I jumped toward him and said, 'O Messenger of Allah, will you pray over Ibn Ubayy when he said such-and-such on such-and-such a day?' I listed his misdeeds. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, smiled and said, 'Step back from me, O Umar.' When I persisted, he said, 'I have been given a choice, and I have chosen. If I knew that by exceeding seventy, he would be forgiven, I would do so.' The Messenger then prayed over him and left shortly after. Then, two verses from Surah Bara'ah were revealed: 'Do not ever pray over any of them who die, nor stand at their grave, for they disbelieved in Allah and His Messenger and died in a state of disobedience.' (Quran, At-Tawbah 9:84). Later, I was amazed at my boldness toward the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and Allah and His Messenger know best.

We met men, half of whom were as handsome as you have ever seen, and the other half as ugly as you have ever seen. My visitors told them, "Go and plunge into that river." They did so and returned to us, their ugliness gone, now in the most beautiful form. My visitors said to me, "This is the Garden of Eden, and that is your place." They added, "As for those who were half handsome and half ugly, they mixed good deeds with bad, but Allah has forgiven them."'

The Prophet said, 'O my uncle, say, "There is no deity but Allah," so I may intercede for you with Allah.' Abu Jahl and Abdullah bin Abu Umayyah said, 'O Abu Talib, will you abandon the religion of Abdul Muttalib?' The Prophet said, 'I will keep seeking forgiveness for you as long as I am not forbidden.' "Muhammad narrated to me, Ahmad bin Abu Shuaib narrated to us, Musa bin A'yan narrated to us, Ishak bin Rashid narrated to us that Az-Zuhri narrated to him, he said: Abdur Rahman bin Abdullah bin Ka'ab bin Malik narrated to me from his father, who said: I heard my father, Ka'ab bin Malik, one of the three whose repentance was accepted, say: He never stayed behind from the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, in any battle he fought except two: the Battle of Usrah and the Battle of Badr. He said: I resolved to be truthful to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, in the morning. It was his custom to go to the mosque and pray two rak'ahs upon returning from a journey. The Prophet forbade me and my two companions from speaking, though he did not forbid others who stayed behind. People avoided speaking to us, and this lasted so long that I feared dying without the Prophet praying over me or him passing away, leaving me in that state, with no one speaking to me, praying over me, or greeting me. Then, Allah revealed our repentance to His Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, in the last third of the night while he was with Umm Salamah, who supported me. The Prophet said, 'O Umm Salamah, Ka'ab's repentance has been accepted.' She said, 'Shall I send someone to give him the good news?' He replied, 'Then people will disturb you and keep you from sleeping tonight.' When the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, prayed Fajr, he announced that Allah had accepted our repentance. His face shone like a piece of the moon when giving good news. We were the three who lagged behind, unlike those whose excuses were accepted. Those who lied to the Prophet were mentioned as the worst of people. Allah said: 'They will make excuses to you when you return to them. Say, "Do not make excuses we will not believe you. Allah has informed us of your true state..."' (Quran, At-Tawbah 9:94).

"Abu Al-Yaman narrated to us, Shuaib informed us from Az-Zuhri, who said: Ibn As-Sabbaq informed me that Zaid bin Thabit Al-Anshari, may Allah be pleased with him, a scribe of the revelation, said: Abu Bakr sent for me during the Yamamah battle, with Umar beside him. Abu Bakr said Umar told him, 'The Yamamah battle has struck the companions, and I fear it will strike the Quran’s memorizers in other lands, causing many to perish unless you order the Quran’s collection.' Abu Bakr said to Umar, 'How can I do something the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, did not do?' Umar replied, 'By Allah, it is good.' He persisted until Allah opened my heart as He did Umar’s, and I agreed. Abu Bakr said, with Umar silently sitting beside him, 'You are a wise young man, we trust you, and you wrote the revelation for the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him. So, collect the Quran.' Zaid said, 'By Allah, moving a mountain would not be heavier than collecting the Quran. Why do you do what the Prophet did not?' Abu Bakr said, 'By Allah, it is good.' I kept debating until Allah opened my heart as He did for Abu Bakr and Umar. I collected the Quran from parchments, shoulder blades, palm stalks, and the hearts of men until I found two verses from Surah At-Tawbah with Khuzaimah Al-Anshari, which I found with no one else: 'A Messenger has come to you from among yourselves your suffering distresses him he is eager for your faith and compassionate toward the believers...' (Quran, At-Tawbah 9:128-129). The compiled sheets remained with Abu Bakr until his death, then with Umar until his death, then with Hafsah, Umar's daughter.

"Muhammad bin Bashshar narrated to us, Ghundar narrated to us, Shubah narrated to us from Abu Bishr, from Sa'id bin Jubair, from Ibn Abbas, who said: When the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, arrived in Medina, he saw the Jews fasting on Ashura. They said, 'This is the day Moses triumphed over Pharaoh.' The Prophet said to his companions, 'You have a greater right to Moses than they do, so fast.'

"Al-Hasan bin Muhammad bin Shabbah narrated to us, Hajjaj narrated to us, Ibn Juraij said: Muhammad bin Abbad bin Ja'far informed me that he heard Ibn Abbas recite: 'Indeed, they turn their chests away.' (Quran, Hud 11:5). I asked him about it, and he said: Some hypocrites were ashamed to relieve themselves or be intimate with their wives openly, so this verse was revealed about them.

Ibn Umar replied, 'I heard the Prophet say: A believer will draw near to his Lord.' Hisham said, 'A believer draws near until Allah places His cover over him, confronting him with his sins, saying, "Do you recognize this sin?" He replies, "O my Lord, I recognize it," twice. Allah says, "I concealed it in the world, and I forgive it for you today." Then, his record of good deeds is folded. As for the others or the disbelievers, they will be called before all witnesses: "These are those who lied against their Lord indeed, the curse of Allah is upon the wrongdoers." (Quran, Hud 11:18). They said, 'That's not what we're asking.' He said, 'Are you asking about the tribes of the Arabs?' They said, 'Yes.' Each narrated part of the story. The Prophet said to Aishah, 'If you are innocent, Allah will clear you. If you committed a sin, seek Allah’s forgiveness and repent.' Aishah said, 'By Allah, I find no example except that of Abu Yusuf: "So patience is most fitting, and Allah is the one sought for help against what you describe." (Quran, Yusuf 12:18). Then, Allah revealed: 'Indeed, those who came with falsehood are a group among you...' (Quran, An-Nur 24:11) for ten verses.

So, a famine struck them, consuming everything until they ate bones. A man would look at the sky and see what seemed like smoke between him and it due to hunger. Allah said: 'So watch for the day when the sky brings a clear smoke.' (Quran, Ad-Dukhan 44:10). Allah also said: 'Indeed, We will remove the punishment a little, but you will return to disbelief.' (Quran, Ad-Dukhan 44:15).

Narrated to us ['Abdul 'Aziz bin 'Abdullah] Narrated to us [Ibrahim bin Sa'ad] from [Shalih] from [Ibnu Syihab] he said Informed me ['Urwah bin Az Zubair] from ['Aisyah, may Allah be pleased with her] she said to him when he asked her about the saying of Allah, the Exalted: "Until when the messengers despaired" he said: I asked, were they lied to or did they lie? Aisyah said: They were lied to. I said: Indeed, they were certain that their people had lied to them, so what is meant by their supposition? Aisyah said: Yes, by my life, they were certain of that. I asked her: And they supposed that they had been lied to? She said: God forbid, the messengers did not suppose that of their Lord. I asked: So what is this verse? She said: They are the followers of the messengers who believed in their Lord and confirmed them, but the trial was prolonged for them, and help was delayed until the messengers despaired of those who lied to them from their people, and the messengers thought that their followers had lied to them, then Allah's help came to them at that time. Narrated to us [Abu Al Yaman] Informed us [Syu'aib] from [Az Zuhri] he said Informed me ['Urwah] so I said: Perhaps it is "they were lied to" (without emphasis). She said: God forbid, in a similar manner.

Narrated to us ['Ali bin 'Abdullah] Narrated to us [Sufyan] from ['Amru] from ['Ikrimah] from [Abu Hurairah] reaching the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, he said: When Allah decrees a matter in the heaven, the angels beat their wings in submission to His statement, like a chain on a smooth rock. Ali and others said: It is as Allah's saying: "When fear is removed from their hearts, they say, 'What did your Lord say?' They say," to the one who spoke, "the truth, and He is the Most High, the Great." The eavesdroppers hear it, and the eavesdroppers are like this, one above another. Sufyan described with his hand, spreading the fingers of his right hand, placing some above others. Sometimes a meteor catches the listener before he passes it to his companion, burning him, and sometimes it does not catch him until he passes it to the one below him, until they cast it to the earth. Sometimes Sufyan said: Until it reaches the earth, it is cast to the mouth of the sorcerer, who lies with it a hundred lies, and it is believed. They say: Did he not tell us on such and such a day such and such would happen, and we found it true, for the word that was heard from the heaven. Narrated to us ['Ali bin 'Abdullah] Narrated to us [Sufyan] Narrated to us ['Amru] from ['Ikrimah] from [Abu Hurairah] he said When Allah decrees a matter, and he said: to the mouth of the sorcerer. I said to Sufyan: Did you hear Amru say I heard Ikrimah say I heard Abu Hurairah? Sufyan said: Yes. I said to Sufyan: Indeed, someone narrated from you from Amru from Ikrimah from Abu Hurairah, attributing it, that he read "Furrigha" (was completed). Sufyan said: That is how Amru read it, so I do not know if he heard it that way or not, and that is our reading.

Then I came to him, and he said: What prevented you from coming to me? I said: I was praying. He said: Did Allah not say: "O you who have believed, respond to Allah and to the Messenger when he calls you to that which gives you life." (Quran, Al Anfal: 24). Then he said: Shall I not teach you the greatest chapter in the Quran before I leave the mosque? When the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, was about to leave the mosque, I reminded him, and he said: "All praise is due to Allah, Lord of the worlds." (Quran, Al Fatihah: 2), it is among the seven oft-repeated verses and the great Quran that I was given.

Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Muqatil] Informed us ['Abdullah] Informed us [Abu Hayyan At Taimi] from [Abu Zur'ah bin 'Amru bin Jarir] from [Abu Hurairah, may Allah be pleased with him] that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, was brought a piece of meat, and the arm was raised to him, and he liked it, so he took a bite from it. Then he said: I am the leader of mankind on the Day of Resurrection, do you know why? Allah will gather all people, the first and the last, in one plain, where a caller will call them, and sight will penetrate them, and the sun will come near, and people will reach a level of distress and anguish they cannot bear. People will say to one another: Do you not see what has befallen you? Do you not look for someone to intercede for you with your Lord? Some people will say to others: Go to Adam. They will come to Adam, peace be upon him, and say to him:

You are the father of humanity, Allah created you with His hand, breathed into you His spirit, and commanded the angels, and they prostrated to you, intercede for us with your Lord, do you not see what we are in, do you not see what has befallen us? Adam will say: My Lord is angry today, an anger He has never been angry with before nor will be after, and He forbade me from the tree, but I disobeyed Him, myself, myself, myself, go to someone else, go to Noah. They will come to Noah and say: O Noah, you are the first messenger to the people of the earth, and Allah called you a grateful servant, intercede for us with your Lord, do you not see what we are in? He will say: My Lord, the Mighty and Exalted, is angry today, an anger He has never been angry with before nor will be after, and I had a supplication which I used against my people, myself, myself, myself, go to someone else, go to Abraham. They will come to Abraham and say: O Abraham, you are Allah's prophet and His friend from the people of the earth, intercede for us with your Lord, do you not see what we are in? He will say to them: My Lord is angry today, an anger He has never been angry with before nor will be after, and I told three lies—Abu Hayyan mentioned them in the hadith—myself, myself, myself, go to someone else, go to Moses. They will come to Moses and say: O Moses, you are Allah's messenger, Allah favored you with His message and His speech over people, intercede for us with your Lord, do you not see what we are in? He will say: My Lord is angry today, an anger He has never been angry with before nor will be after, and I killed a soul I was not commanded to kill, myself, myself, myself, go to someone else, go to Jesus, son of Mary. They will come to Jesus and say: O Jesus, you are Allah's messenger, His word which He cast to Mary, and a spirit from Him, and you spoke to people in the cradle as a child, intercede for us with your Lord, do you not see what we are in? Jesus will say: My Lord is angry today, an anger He has never been angry with before nor will be after, and he did not mention a sin, myself, myself, myself, go to someone else, go to Muhammad. They will come to Muhammad and say: O Muhammad, you are Allah's messenger and the seal of the prophets, and Allah has forgiven your past and future sins, intercede for us with your Lord, do you not see what we are in? I will go and come under the Throne, and I will fall prostrate to my Lord, the Mighty and Exalted, then Allah will open for me from His praises and good commendation something He has not opened for anyone before me. Then it will be said: O Muhammad, raise your head, ask, and you will be given, intercede, and your intercession will be accepted. I will raise my head and say: My nation, O my Lord, my nation, O my Lord, my nation, O my Lord. It will be said: O Muhammad, admit from your nation those who have no account against them through the right gate of the gates of Paradise, and they are partners of people in what is besides that of the gates. Then he said: By the One in Whose hand is my soul, the distance between the two leaves of the gates of Paradise is like the distance between Mecca and Himyar or between Mecca and Busra.

"Narrated to us [Umar bin Hafsh bin Ghiyats] Narrated to us [my father] Narrated to us [Al A'masy] he said Narrated to me [Ibrahim] from ['Alqamah] from ['Abdullah, may Allah be pleased with him] he said 'When I was with the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, in a field while he was leaning, suddenly some Jews passed by, they said to one another: 'Ask him about the soul,' so they said, 'What is your opinion about it?' But some of them said, 'Do not let him confront you with something you dislike.' They said, 'Ask him.' Then some of them approached him and asked about the soul.' The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, remained silent and did not answer anything. I knew he was receiving revelation. I stood from my place. When the revelation descended, he said: 'And they ask you about the soul. Say: The soul is of the affair of my Lord, and you have not been given knowledge except a little.' (Al Israa`: 85).

COMMAND TO READ THE QURAN IN A MODERATE VOICE
Hadith Imam Bukhari Number 4353

حَدَّثَنَا يَعْقُوبُ بْنُ إِبْرَاهِيمَ حَدَّثَنَا هُشَيْمٌ حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو بِشْرٍ عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ جُبَيْرٍ عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمَافِي قَوْلِهِ تَعَالَى{ وَلَا تَجْهَرْ بِصَلَاتِكَ وَلَا تُخَافِتْ بِهَا }قَالَ نَزَلَتْ وَرَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مُخْتَفٍ بِمَكَّةَ كَانَ إِذَا صَلَّى بِأَصْحَابِهِ رَفَعَ صَوْتَهُ بِالْقُرْآنِ فَإِذَا سَمِعَهُ الْمُشْرِكُونَ سَبُّوا الْقُرْآنَ وَمَنْ أَنْزَلَهُ وَمَنْ جَاءَ بِهِ

فَقَالَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى لِنَبِيِّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ{ وَلَا تَجْهَرْ بِصَلَاتِكَ }أَيْ بِقِرَاءَتِكَ فَيَسْمَعَ الْمُشْرِكُونَ فَيَسُبُّوا الْقُرْآنَ{ وَلَا تُخَافِتْ بِهَا }عَنْ أَصْحَابِكَ فَلَا تُسْمِعُهُمْ{ وَابْتَغِ بَيْنَ ذَلِكَ سَبِيلًا }

"Narrated to us [Ya'qub bin Ibrahim] Narrated to us [Husyaim] Narrated to us [Abu Bisyr] from [Sa'id bin Jubair] from [Ibnu 'Abbas, may Allah be pleased with them] regarding the words of Allah: 'And do not raise your voice in your prayer, nor lower it...' (Al Israa: 110). Ibnu Abbas said this verse was revealed when the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, was in hiding in Makkah. When he led the prayer with his companions, he raised his voice while reciting the Qur'an. When the polytheists heard this, they insulted the Qur'an, the One who revealed it, and the one who brought it. So Allah, the Mighty and Sublime, said to His Prophet: 'And do not raise your voice in your prayer,' meaning in your recitation, so that the polytheists hear it and insult the Qur'an, 'nor lower it' from your companions so they cannot hear it, 'and seek a way between that.'

"Narrated to us [Al Humaidi] Narrated to us [Sufyan] Narrated to us ['Amru bin Dinar] he said Narrated to me [Sa'id bin Jubair] he said 'I said to Ibnu Abbas that Nauf Al Bikali claims that Moses, the companion of Al-Khidr, is not Moses, the companion of the Children of Israel.' [Ibnu Abbas] said 'The enemy of Allah has lied. Narrated to me [Ubay bin Ka'ab] that he heard the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, say: 'Once Moses stood delivering a speech to the Children of Israel. He was asked: 'Who is the most knowledgeable person on earth?' He said: 'I am.' So Allah reproached him because he did not attribute knowledge to Him. Allah revealed to him: 'O Moses, I have a servant at the junction of the two seas who is more knowledgeable than you.' Moses said: 'O Lord, how can I meet him?' He said: 'Take a fish with you and put it in a basket wherever you lose the fish, he is there.' So he took a fish and put it in a basket, then set out with his servant, Yusha' bin Nun, until they reached a rock. They laid their heads down and slept, and the fish stirred in the basket, came out of it, and fell into the sea, 'and it took its way in the sea as in a tunnel' (Al Kahfi: 61). Allah held back the flow of water for the fish, so it became like an arch. When they woke up, his companion forgot to inform him about the fish, so they continued their journey for the rest of their day and night. The next morning, Moses said to his servant: 'Bring us our morning meal indeed, we have suffered fatigue from this journey of ours.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'Moses did not feel fatigue until he passed the place Allah commanded him to seek.' His servant said to him: 'Do you remember when we took shelter at the rock? Indeed, I forgot the fish, and none made me forget to mention it except Satan, and it took its way in the sea amazingly.' Moses said: 'That is what we were seeking.' So they retraced their steps. 'Then they returned, retracing their footprints.' When they reached the rock, they saw a man covered with a cloth. Moses greeted him, and Al-Khidr said: 'And how is there peace in your land?' He said: 'I am Moses.' He said: 'Moses of the Children of Israel?' He said: 'Yes.' Moses said to Al-Khidr: 'I have come to you so that you may teach me from what you have been taught of guidance.' He said: 'Indeed, you will not be able to have patience with me. O Moses, I have knowledge from Allah's knowledge that He taught me, which you do not know, and you have knowledge from Allah's knowledge that He taught you, which I do not know.' Moses said: 'You will find me, if Allah wills, patient, and I will not disobey you in any matter.' Al-Khidr said to him: 'If you follow me, do not ask me about anything until I mention it to you.' So they set out walking along the seashore. A boat passed by, and they spoke to them to carry them. They recognized Al-Khidr and carried them without charge. When they boarded the boat, Al-Khidr suddenly pulled out a plank from the boat's boards with an axe. Moses said to him: 'These people carried us without charge, yet you deliberately damaged their boat to drown its people?' Al-Khidr said: 'Did I not say that you would not be able to have patience with me?' Moses said: 'Do not blame me for what I forgot, and do not burden me with difficulty in my affair.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'The first time was due to Moses' forgetfulness.' Then a bird came and perched on the edge of the boat, pecking at the sea. Al-Khidr said to him: 'My knowledge and your knowledge compared to Allah's knowledge is only like what this bird has taken from the sea with its beak.' Then they disembarked from the boat, and while they were walking along the shore, Al-Khidr saw a boy playing with other boys. Al-Khidr took his head with his hand and killed him. Moses said to him: 'Have you killed an innocent soul who has not killed anyone? Indeed, you have done something atrocious.' Al-Khidr said: 'Did I not say to you that you would not be able to have patience with me?' This was more severe than the first. Moses said: 'If I ask you about anything after this, do not let me accompany you. You have received an excuse from me.' So they set out until they came to the people of a town. They asked its people for food, but they refused to host them. They found a wall about to collapse Al-Khidr stood it up with his hands. Moses said: 'These people we came to, they did not feed us nor host us. If you had wished, you could have taken a reward for it.' Al-Khidr said: 'This is the parting between me and you, until his saying: That is the interpretation of that over which you could not have patience.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'We wish Moses had been patient so that Allah would have narrated more of their story to us.' Sa'id bin Jubair said: 'Ibnu Abbas recited the verse of the Qur'an meaning: 'There was before them a king who seized every good ship by force.' Ibnu Abbas also recited the verse of the Qur'an meaning: 'As for the boy, he was a disbeliever, while his parents were believers.'

"Narrated to us [Ibrahim bin Musa] Narrated to us [Hisyam bin Yusuf] that [Ibnu Juraij] informed them, he said Narrated to me [Ya'la bin Muslim] and ['Amru bin Dinar] from [Sa'id bin Jubair], one of them adding to the other, I heard him narrate from Sa'id bin Jubair, he said indeed, I was with Ibnu 'Abbas at his house. Then he said: 'Ask me,' so I said: 'O Ibnu 'Abbas, may Allah make me your ransom, indeed in Kufah, there is a storyteller called Nauf, who claims that Moses, who was with the Children of Israel, is not the Moses who accompanied Al-Khidr.' [Amru] said to me Ibnu Abbas said: 'The enemy of Allah has lied.' While [Ya'la] said to me that [Ibnu Abbas] said Narrated to me [Ubay bin Ka'ab], he said The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'Moses, the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, reminded the people one day until their eyes overflowed and their hearts softened, then he turned away. A man caught up with him and said: 'O Messenger of Allah, is there anyone on earth more knowledgeable than you?' He said: 'No.' So Allah reproached him for not attributing knowledge to Allah. It was said: 'Yes.' He said: 'O Lord, where is he?' He said: 'At the junction of the two seas.' He said: 'O Lord, make a sign for me by which I will know him.' [Amru] said to me: 'Where the fish leaves you.' And [Ya'la] said to me: 'Take a dead fish where it is given life, that is the place.' So he took a fish and placed it in a basket and said to his servant: 'I do not burden you except to inform me where the fish leaves you.' He said: 'You have not burdened me much.' That is the saying of Allah, the Exalted: 'And when Moses said to his servant,' Yusha' bin Nun—not from Sa'id—he said: while he was in the shade of a rock in a moist place, the fish stirred, and Moses was asleep. His servant said: 'I will not wake him.' When he awoke, he forgot to inform him. The fish stirred and entered the sea, and Allah held back the flow of the sea so that its trace was like in a stone. [Amru] said to me: 'Like this, as if its trace was in a stone,' and he made a circle with his thumbs and the fingers next to them. 'Indeed, we have suffered fatigue from this journey of ours.' He said: 'Allah has removed fatigue from you'—this is not from Sa'id. He informed him, and they returned and found Al-Khidr. [Uthman bin Abi Sulaiman] said to me: 'On a green mat in the middle of the sea.' Sa'id bin Jubair said: 'Covered with his cloth, with one end under his feet and the other under his head.' Moses greeted him, and he uncovered his face and said: 'Is there peace in my land? Who are you?' He said: 'I am Moses.' He said: 'Moses of the Children of Israel?' He said: 'Yes.' He said: 'What is your purpose?' He said: 'I have come to you to teach me from what you have been taught of guidance.' He said: 'Is it not enough for you that the Torah is in your hands and that revelation comes to you? O Moses, I have knowledge that is not fitting for you to know, and you have knowledge that is not fitting for me to know.' A bird took with its beak from the sea, and he said: 'By Allah, my knowledge and your knowledge beside Allah’s knowledge is only like what this bird took with its beak from the sea.' When they boarded the boat, they found small ferries carrying the people of this shore to the people of the other shore. They recognized him and said: 'The righteous servant of Allah.' We said to Sa'id: 'Al-Khidr?' He said: 'Yes, we will not carry him for a fee.' So he damaged it and drove a peg into it. Moses said: 'Have you damaged it to drown its people? Indeed, you have done something atrocious.' [Mujahid] said: 'Reprehensible.' He said: 'Did I not say that you would not be able to have patience with me?' The first was forgetfulness, the second was a condition, and the third was intentional. He said: 'Do not blame me for what I forgot, nor burden me with difficulty in my affair.' They met a boy, and he killed him. [Ya'la] said: Sa'id said: 'He found boys playing, took a disbelieving, charming boy, laid him down, and slaughtered him with a knife.' He said: 'Have you killed an innocent soul who has not killed anyone?' It had not committed perjury, and Ibnu 'Abbas read it as 'Zakiyyah' (pure), meaning Muslim, like saying a pure boy. They set out and found a wall about to collapse, and he set it up. Sa'id said: 'With his hand like this,' and he raised his hand, and it stood upright. [Ya'la] said: 'I think Sa'id said he wiped it with his hand, and it stood upright.' He said: 'If you had wished, you could have taken a reward for it.' Sa'id said: 'A reward we could eat.' 'And there was before them'—Ibnu 'Abbas read it as 'before them'—a king, they claim, not from Sa'id, that he was Hudud bin Budad, and the killed boy, they claim, was named Jaisur. 'A king who seized every ship by force.' So I wanted that if it passed by him, he would leave it because of its defect, and when they passed, they could repair it and benefit from it. Some say they sealed it with a bottle, and some say with tar. 'His parents were believers,' and he was a disbeliever. 'We feared that he would overburden them with transgression and disbelief,' meaning his love would lead them to follow his religion. 'So we intended that their Lord should substitute for them one better than him in purity,' regarding his saying: 'Have you killed an innocent soul?' 'And closer in mercy,' they are more merciful to him than to the first one Al-Khidr killed. Someone other than Sa'id claimed they were substituted with a girl, and as for Dawud bin Abi 'Asim, he said from more than one that it was a girl.

"Narrated to me [Qutaibah bin Sa'id] he said Narrated to me [Sufyan bin 'Uyainah] from ['Amru bin Dinar] from [Sa'id bin Jubair] he said I said to [Ibnu Abbas] that Nauf Al Bikali claims that Moses of the Children of Israel is not the Moses who accompanied Al-Khidr. Ibnu Abbas said 'The enemy of Allah has lied. Narrated to us [Ubay bin Ka'ab] from the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, he said: 'Once Moses stood delivering a speech to the Children of Israel. He was asked: 'Who is the most knowledgeable person?' He said: 'I am.' So Allah reproached him because he did not attribute knowledge to Him. Allah revealed to him: 'Indeed, I have a servant at the junction of the two seas who is more knowledgeable than you.' Moses said: 'O Lord, how can I reach him?' He said: 'Take a fish in a basket, and wherever you lose the fish, follow it.' So Moses set out with his servant, Yusha' bin Nun, carrying the fish until they reached a rock. They rested there, and Moses laid his head down and slept. Sufyan said in another narration from someone other than 'Amru: 'At the base of the rock was a spring called Al-Hayat (Life), and anything its water touched came to life. The fish was touched by the water of that spring.' The fish stirred and slipped out of the basket, entering the sea. When Moses awoke, he said to his servant: 'Bring us our morning meal,' as in the verse. He did not feel fatigue until he had passed the place he was commanded to seek. His servant, Yusha' bin Nun, said to him: 'Do you remember when we took shelter at the rock? Indeed, I forgot the fish,' as in the verse. They returned, retracing their steps, and found in the sea the path of the fish like an arch, which was a wonder to the servant and a tunnel for the fish. When they reached the rock, they found a man covered with a cloth. Moses greeted him, and he said: 'How is there peace in your land?' Moses said: 'I am Moses.' He said: 'Moses of the Children of Israel?' He said: 'Yes.' Moses said: 'May I follow you so that you teach me from the guidance you have been taught?' Al-Khidr said to Moses: 'You have knowledge from Allah that He taught you, which I do not know, and I have knowledge from Allah that He taught me, which you do not know.' Moses said: 'I will follow you.' Al-Khidr said: 'If you follow me, do not ask me about anything until I mention it to you.' So they set out walking along the shore. A boat passed by, and Al-Khidr was recognized, so they carried them without a fee, meaning without payment. They boarded the boat, and a bird landed on the edge of the boat, dipping its beak into the sea. Al-Khidr said to Moses: 'Your knowledge, my knowledge, and the knowledge of all creatures compared to Allah’s knowledge is only like what this bird has taken with its beak.' Suddenly, Moses was surprised when Al-Khidr took an axe and damaged the boat. Moses said to him: 'These people carried us without a fee, yet you damaged their boat to drown its people?' as in the verse. They continued until they saw a boy playing with other boys. Al-Khidr took his head and killed him. Moses said to him: 'Have you killed an innocent soul who has not killed anyone? Indeed, you have done something atrocious,' as in the verse. Al-Khidr said: 'Did I not say that you would not be able to have patience with me?' until his saying: 'They refused to host them, and they found a wall about to collapse.' Al-Khidr gestured with his hand like this and set it upright. Moses said to him: 'We entered this town, and they neither hosted us nor fed us. If you had wished, you could have taken a reward for it.' Al-Khidr said: 'This is the parting between me and you. I will inform you of the interpretation of that over which you could not have patience.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'We wish Moses had been patient so that their story could be told to us in more detail.' Ibnu Abbas used to recite the verse: 'There was before them a king who seized every good ship by force.' As for the boy, he was a disbeliever.

"Narrated to us [Sulaiman bin Harb] Narrated to us [Syu'bah] from [Al Mughirah bin An Nu'man]—a sheikh from Nakha—from [Sa'id bin Jubair] from [Ibnu 'Abbas, may Allah be pleased with them] he said The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, delivered a sermon and said: 'O people, you will be gathered to Allah barefoot, naked, and uncircumcised, 'As We began the first creation, We will repeat it. That is a promise binding upon Us. Indeed, We will do it.' (Al Anbiyaa`: 104) Then he said: 'The first to be clothed on the Day of Resurrection is Abraham, peace be upon him. Indeed, some men from my nation will be brought and taken to the left. I will say: 'O Lord, my companions.' It will be said: 'You do not know what they innovated after you.' So I will say as the righteous servant said: 'I was a witness over them as long as I was among them until His saying: a witness.' (Al Maa`idah: 117-118) It will be said: 'They continued to turn back on their heels since you left them.'

"Narrated to us ['Umar bin Hafsh] Narrated to us [my father] Narrated to us [Al A'masy] Narrated to us [Abu Shalih] from [Abu Sa'id Al Khudri] he said The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'Allah, the Mighty and Sublime, will say on the Day of Resurrection: 'O Adam,' and Adam will say: 'I answer Your call and my happiness is in Your hands, O Lord.' Then a voice will call: 'Indeed, Allah commands you to bring forth from your progeny a delegation to the Fire.' Adam will say: 'O Lord, what is the delegation to the Fire?' He will say: 'From every thousand, I think,' he said, 'nine hundred ninety-nine.' He said: 'At that time, the pregnant woman will miscarry, the child will turn gray, and you will see people as if intoxicated, but they are not intoxicated, but the punishment of Allah is severe.' (Al Hajj: 2) That was heavy upon the people until their faces changed. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'Nine hundred ninety-nine are from Gog and Magog, and one is from you.' Then he said: 'You, on the Day of Resurrection, among people are like a black hair on the side of a white bull, or he said: like a white hair on the side of a black bull. And I hope you will be a quarter of the people of Paradise.' So we (the companions) glorified Allah. Then he said: 'A third of the people of Paradise,' so we glorified Allah. Then he said: 'Half of the people of Paradise,' so we glorified Allah again. [Abu Usamah] said from [Al A'masy] regarding the verse of Allah: 'You see people as if intoxicated, but they are not intoxicated.' He said 'From every thousand, nine hundred ninety-nine.' [Jarir], [Isa bin Yunus], and [Abu Mu'awiyah] said with the wording 'sakraa and they are not sakraa,' not 'sukaara.'

"Narrated to us [Ishaq] Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Yusuf] Narrated to us [Al Auza'i] he said Narrated to me [Az Zuhri] from [Sahl bin Sa'ad] that 'Uwaimir went to 'Ashim bin 'Adi, the leader of Bani 'Ajlan, and said: 'What is your opinion about a man who finds another man with his wife? Should he kill him, or what should he do? Please ask the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, about this on my behalf.' So 'Ashim went to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and said: 'O Messenger of Allah.' But the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, disliked the question. When 'Uwaimir asked 'Ashim about the Prophet's response, he said: 'The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, disliked the question and considered it shameful.' Then 'Uwaimir said: 'By Allah, I will not stop until I ask the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, about this.' So 'Uwaimir went to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and said: 'O Messenger of Allah, a man finds another man with his wife, should he kill him, or what should he do?' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'Allah has revealed verses concerning your matter in the Qur'an.' So the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, ordered them to perform mula'anah (mutual cursing) with his wife as mentioned by Allah in His Book. So 'Uwaimir performed mula'anah with his wife. Then 'Uwaimir said: 'O Messenger of Allah, if I keep her, I would have wronged her.' So he divorced her, and this became the tradition for those who perform mula'anah after them. Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'Observe! If she gives birth to a black child with wide, dark eyes, large buttocks, and thick legs, then I would think 'Uwaimir has spoken the truth. But if she gives birth to a reddish child like a gecko, then I would think 'Uwaimir has lied about her.' Later, she gave birth to a child with the characteristics described by the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, confirming 'Uwaimir's claim. Henceforth, the child was attributed to the mother.

"Narrated to me [Sulaiman bin Daud Abu Ar Rabi'] Narrated to us [Fulaih] from [Az Zuhri] from [Sahl bin Sa'ad] that a man went to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and said: 'O Messenger of Allah, what is your opinion if someone finds another man with his wife? Should he kill him, or what should he do?' So Allah revealed concerning them what is mentioned in the Qur'an about mutual cursing. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said to him: 'Your matter and that of your wife have been decided in the Qur'an.' Sahl said: So they performed mutual cursing, and I witnessed it beside the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. Then he divorced her, and this became the tradition for those who perform mula'anah. After that, she was pregnant, and he denied the child was his. So the child was attributed to the mother. Then it became the established practice in inheritance that the child inherits from her, and she inherits from him what Allah has ordained for her.

"Narrated to me [Muhammad bin Basysyar] Narrated to us [Ibnu Abu 'Adi] from [Hisyam bin Hassan] Narrated to us ['Ikrimah] from [Ibnu 'Abbas] that Hilal bin Umayyah accused his wife of committing adultery with Syarik bin Samha and brought the matter before the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'Bring evidence (four witnesses), or you will receive punishment on your back.' Hilal said: 'O Messenger of Allah, if one of us sees another man with his wife, should he go seek witnesses?' The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, kept saying: 'Bring evidence, or you will receive punishment on your back.' Hilal then said: 'By the One who sent you with the truth, I am truthful, and Allah will reveal what will spare my back from punishment.' Then Gabriel descended and revealed to him: 'And those who accuse their wives...' (An-Nur:

6-9). The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, recited it until reaching 'if he is among the truthful.' Then the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, left and sent for her. Hilal returned with his wife. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'Allah knows that one of you is lying, so is there anyone among you who will repent?' Then his wife stood and swore, and when she reached the fifth oath, they stopped her and said: 'The fifth oath will bring a curse upon you (if you are guilty).' Ibn 'Abbas said: She hesitated and paused until we thought she would retract, but then she said: 'I will not disgrace my people for the rest of the day,' and proceeded with the oath. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, then said: 'Observe her. If she gives birth to a child with dark eyes, large buttocks, and thick legs, then it is the child of Syarik bin Samha.' Later, she gave birth to a child as described by the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'If this matter had not been settled by Allah’s Book beforehand, I would have dealt with her severely.'

THE LAW OF LI'AN AND THE SEPARATION OF CHILDREN FROM A HUSBAND WHO ACCUSES HIS WIFE
Hadith Imam Bukhari Number 4379

حَدَّثَنَا مُقَدَّمُ بْنُ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ يَحْيَى حَدَّثَنَا عَمِّي الْقَاسِمُ بْنُ يَحْيَى عَنْ عُبَيْدِ اللَّهِ وَقَدْ سَمِعَ مِنْهُ عَنْ نَافِعٍ عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمَاأَنَّ رَجُلًا رَمَى امْرَأَتَهُ فَانْتَفَى مِنْ وَلَدِهَا فِي زَمَانِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَأَمَرَ بِهِمَا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَتَلَاعَنَا كَمَا قَالَ اللَّهُ ثُمَّ قَضَى بِالْوَلَدِ لِلْمَرْأَةِ وَفَرَّقَ بَيْنَ الْمُتَلَاعِنَيْنِ

"Narrated to us [Muqaddam bin Muhammad bin Yahya] Narrated to us my uncle [Al Qasim bin Yahya] from ['Ubaidullah] - he heard from him - from [Nafi'] from [Ibnu 'Umar, may Allah be pleased with them] that during the time of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, a man accused his wife and denied the child she was carrying was his. So the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, ordered them to come forward, but they accused each other. As Allah decreed, the Messenger of Allah ruled that the child belongs to the wife and separated the two (husband and wife).

"Narrated to us [Yahya bin Bukair] Narrated to us [Al Laits] from [Yunus] from [Ibnu Syihab] he said Narrated to me ['Urwah bin Az Zubair] and [Sa'id bin Al Musayyab] and ['Alqamah bin Waqqash] and ['Ubaidullah bin 'Abdullah bin 'Utbah bin Mas'ud] from the story of ['Aisyah, may Allah be pleased with her], the wife of the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, when the people of slander spread gossip about her with what they said, and Allah cleared her of their accusations. A group of people narrated to me parts of the story, and some of their narrations confirmed others, so the story seemed strong, and I memorized the words of each one they told me, with some narrations confirming others. From 'Urwah, he narrated to me from Aisyah, the wife of the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, she said: 'When the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, intended to travel, he would cast lots among his wives, and whichever one’s lot came up, he would take her with him. Aisyah said: He cast lots among us for a campaign he undertook, and my lot came up, so I went with the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, after the verse of the veil was revealed. I was carried in my howdah and set down in it. We traveled until the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, completed that campaign and returned. As we approached Medina, returning, he announced one night that we would move on. I got up when they announced the departure and walked until I passed the army. After I finished my business, I returned to my caravan, but my necklace from Zafar, Yemen, had broken. I searched for my necklace, and looking for it delayed me. The group that was preparing my howdah came and carried it, placing it on my camel, thinking I was inside. At that time, the women were light, not weighed down by flesh, as they only ate small portions of food. So the people did not suspect the lightness of the howdah when they lifted it, and I was a young girl. They sent the camel off and moved on. I found my necklace after the army had passed. I came to their campsite, and there was no one calling or answering. So I went to my usual spot, thinking they would miss me and return for me. While I was sitting there, my eyes grew heavy, and I fell asleep. Safwan bin Al-Mu’attal As-Sulami, then Adh-Dhakwani, was behind the army. He traveled through the night and reached my spot in the morning. He saw the shadow of a sleeping person and came to me. He recognized me when he saw me, as he had seen me before the veil was ordained. I woke up to his exclamation of 'Inna Lillahi wa Inna Ilayhi Raji’un' when he recognized me. I covered my face with my cloak. By Allah, he did not speak a word to me, nor did I hear anything from him except his exclamation, until he lowered his camel, and I mounted it. He led the camel I was on until we reached the army after they had settled at noon. Then those who were doomed were doomed, and the one who took the lead in the slander was Abdullah bin Ubay bin Salul. We arrived in Medina, and I fell ill upon arrival for nearly a month, while people were immersed in the talk of the slanderers, though I was unaware of any of it. What troubled me during my illness was that I did not see the kindness from the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, that I used to see when I was sick. He would only come to me, greet me, say: 'How is she?' and then leave. That worried me, but I did not sense the evil until I went out after recovering. Umm Mistah went out with me toward Al-Manasi', our place for relieving ourselves, and we only went out at night. This was before we had latrines near our homes, as our custom was like the early Arabs, relieving ourselves in open spaces. So I and Umm Mistah, daughter of Abu Ruhm bin Abdul Manaf, whose mother was the daughter of Sakhr bin Amir, the aunt of Abu Bakr As-Siddiq, and her son was Mistah bin Uthatha, went toward my house after finishing our business. Umm Mistah tripped on her cloak and said: 'May Mistah stumble!' I said to her: 'What a bad thing you said! Are you cursing a man who witnessed Badr?' She said: 'O you, haven't you heard what he said?' I said: 'What did he say?' She told me about the slanderers' words, and my illness worsened. When I returned to my house, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, came to me, greeted me, and said: 'How is she?' I said: 'Will you permit me to go to my parents?' I wanted to confirm the news from them. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, permitted me, so I went to my parents and said to my mother: 'O Mother, what are people talking about?' She said: 'O my daughter, take it lightly, for by Allah, rarely is there a beautiful woman with a husband who loves her, with co-wives, but that they speak much against her.' I said: 'SubhanAllah, have people really spoken of this?' I wept that night until morning, my tears not ceasing, and I could not sleep. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, called Ali bin Abi Talib and Usama bin Zaid, may Allah be pleased with them, when the revelation was delayed, to consult them about separating from his family. As for Usama bin Zaid, he advised the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, with what he knew of his family's innocence and his affection for them, saying: 'O Messenger of Allah, your family, and we know nothing but good of them.' As for Ali bin Abi Talib, he said: 'O Messenger of Allah, Allah has not restricted you, and there are many women besides her. If you ask the servant girl, she will tell you the truth.' So the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, called Barirah and said: 'O Barirah, have you seen anything suspicious?' Barirah said: 'No, by the One who sent you with the truth, I have not seen anything to blame her for except that she is a young girl who falls asleep over her family's dough, and the domestic animal comes and eats it.' So the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, stood and sought to be absolved that day from Abdullah bin Ubay bin Salul. Aisyah said: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said from the pulpit: 'O Muslims, who will absolve me from a man whose harm to my family has reached me? By Allah, I know nothing but good of my family, and they have mentioned a man about whom I know nothing but good, and he never entered my family except with me.' Sa'ad bin Mu'adh Al-Ansari stood and said: 'O Messenger of Allah, I will absolve you of him. If he is from Al-Aws, I will strike his neck, and if he is from our brothers of Al-Khazraj, command us, and we will carry out your order.' Sa'ad bin 'Ubadah, the leader of Al-Khazraj, who was a righteous man before this but was overcome by tribal zeal, stood and said to Sa'ad: 'You lie, by Allah's life, you will not kill him, nor can you kill him.' Usaid bin Hudair, a cousin of Sa'ad bin Mu'adh, stood and said to Sa'ad bin 'Ubadah: 'You lie, by Allah's life, we will surely kill him, for you are a hypocrite defending hypocrites.' The two tribes, Al-Aws and

Al-Khazraj, rose up until they nearly fought, while the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, was standing on the pulpit. He kept calming them until they were silent, and he was silent. Aisyah said: I wept that day, my tears not ceasing, and I could not sleep. My parents were with me in the morning, and I had wept for two nights and a day, unable to sleep, with my tears not ceasing, and they thought my crying would break my heart. While they were sitting with me as I wept, a woman from Al-Ansar asked permission to enter, and I allowed her. She sat crying with me. While we were in that state, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, entered, greeted us, and sat. Aisyah said: He had not sat with me since the slander began, and a month had passed without revelation about my matter. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, recited the testimony of faith when he sat, then said: ‘As for what follows, O Aisyah, such-and-such has reached me about you. If you are innocent, Allah will clear you, and if you have committed a sin, seek Allah’s forgiveness and repent to Him, for when a servant confesses his sin and repents to Allah, Allah accepts his repentance.’ Aisyah said: When the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, finished his speech, my tears dried up until I felt nothing.'

(An-Nisa: 93) and His saying: "And do not kill the soul which Allah has forbidden except by right..." up to "except those who repent and believe..." (Al-Furqan: 68-70).' So I asked him, and he said: 'When this verse was revealed, the people of Makkah said: We have turned away from Allah, killed the soul which Allah has forbidden except by right, and committed immoralities. So Allah revealed: "Except those who repent, believe, and do righteous deeds..." until the end of the verse.'

(As-Syu'ara: 214) was revealed, the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, climbed Safa and began calling: 'O Bani Fihr, O Bani 'Adi,' to the clans of Quraysh until they gathered. If a man could not attend, he sent a messenger to see what was happening. Abu Lahab and Quraysh came, and he said: 'Suppose I told you that cavalry is in the valley intending to attack you, would you believe me?' They said: 'Yes, we have only known you to be truthful.' He said: 'Then I am a warner to you before a severe punishment.' Abu Lahab said: 'May you perish all day! Is this why you gathered us?' Then it was revealed: 'Perish the hands of Abu Lahab, and perish he! His wealth and what he earned will not avail him...' (Al-Lahab: 1-2).

He said: 'O uncle, say: There is no god but Allah, a word by which I will defend you before Allah.' Abu Jahl and Abdullah bin Abu Umayyah said: 'O Abu Talib, will you abandon the religion of Abdul Muttalib?' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, kept presenting it to him, and they kept repeating their statement until Abu Talib's final words were: 'On the religion of Abdul Muttalib,' and he refused to say: There is no god but Allah. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'By Allah, I will seek forgiveness for you as long as I am not forbidden from doing so.' Then Allah revealed: 'It is not for the Prophet and those who believe to seek forgiveness for the polytheists...' (At-Tawbah: 113) and regarding Abu Talib, Allah revealed to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him: 'Indeed, you do not guide whom you love, but Allah guides whom He wills...' Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Katsir] Narrated to us [Sufyan] Narrated to us [Manshur] and [Al A'masy] from [Abu Dluha] from [Masruq] he said While a man was speaking among the people of Kindah, he said On the Day of Resurrection, smoke will come and affect the hearing and sight of the hypocrites, while it will affect the believers like a cold. So we were alarmed, and I went to [Ibn Mas'ud], who was reclining, and he got angry and sat up, saying Whoever knows something should say what he knows, and whoever does not know should say, 'Allah knows best.' For part of knowledge is to say 'Allah knows best' regarding what one does not know. Indeed, Allah said to His Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him: 'Say, I do not ask you for any reward for it, nor am I of those who pretend' (Shaad: 86). When the Quraysh delayed in accepting Islam, the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, prayed against them, saying: 'O Allah, afflict them with seven years of famine like the seven years of Yusuf.' So they were struck by a year of famine until they perished in it, eating carrion and bones. A man would see between the sky and the earth something like smoke. Then Abu Sufyan came and said: 'O Muhammad, you came commanding us to maintain family ties, but your people are perishing, so pray to Allah for relief.' So the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, recited: 'So watch for the day when the sky brings a clear smoke, enveloping the people. This is a painful punishment. They say: Our Lord, remove from us the punishment indeed, we will believe.' Up to His saying: 'Indeed, We will remove the punishment a little, but you will return to disbelief' (Ad-Dukhan: 10-15). How can the punishment of the Hereafter be removed from them when they return to their disbelief? That is the meaning of Allah’s saying: 'The day We strike with the greatest assault' (Ad-Dukhan: 16), meaning the Day of Badr. And 'Lizaaman' (Al-Furqan: 77) also refers to the Day of Badr. 'Alif Lam Mim. The Romans have been defeated in the nearest land, and they, after their defeat, will overcome' (Ar-Rum: 1-3). And the victory of the Romans has passed.

Then he recited: 'The natural disposition of Allah upon which He created mankind. There is no change in the creation of Allah' (Ar-Rum: 30).

So the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'It is not as you think. Narrated to me [Ishaq] from [Jarir] from [Abu Hayyan] from [Abu Zur'ah] from [Abu Hurairah, may Allah be pleased with him] that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, was one day in public when a man came walking and said: 'O Messenger of Allah, what is faith?' He said: 'Faith is to believe in Allah, His angels, His books, His messengers, His meeting, and to believe in the resurrection.' He said: 'O Messenger of Allah, what is Islam?' He said: 'Islam is to worship Allah and not associate anything with Him, to establish prayer, to pay the obligatory zakat, and to fast in Ramadan.' He said: 'O Messenger of Allah, what is Ihsan?' He said: 'Ihsan is to worship Allah as if you see Him, for if you do not see Him, indeed He sees you.' He said: 'O Messenger of Allah, when is the Hour?' He said: 'The one asked about it knows no more than the questioner, but I will tell you about its signs: when a slave woman gives birth to her master, that is one of its signs and when the barefoot and naked become leaders of people, that is one of its signs. There are five things that none knows except Allah: Indeed, Allah has knowledge of the Hour, sends down the rain, and knows what is in the wombs.' Then the man left, and he said: 'Call him back to me.' They went to call him back, but they saw nothing. He said: 'That was Gabriel, who came to teach people their religion.'

THE REVELATION OF THE VERSES ABOUT THE HIJAB DURING THE PROPHET'S MARRIAGE WITH ZAINAB
Hadith Imam Bukhari Number 4418

حَدَّثَنَا سُلَيْمَانُ بْنُ حَرْبٍ حَدَّثَنَا حَمَّادُ بْنُ زَيْدٍ عَنْ أَيُّوبَ عَنْ أَبِي قِلَابَةَ قَالَ أَنَسُ بْنُ مَالِكٍأَنَا أَعْلَمُ النَّاسِ بِهَذِهِ الْآيَةِ آيَةِ الْحِجَابِ لَمَّا أُهْدِيَتْ زَيْنَبُ بِنْتُ جَحْشٍ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهَا إِلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَتْ مَعَهُ فِي الْبَيْتِ صَنَعَ طَعَامًا وَدَعَا الْقَوْمَ فَقَعَدُوا يَتَحَدَّثُونَ فَجَعَلَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَخْرُجُ ثُمَّ يَرْجِعُ وَهُمْ قُعُودٌ يَتَحَدَّثُونَ فَأَنْزَلَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى{ يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا لَا تَدْخُلُوا بُيُوتَ النَّبِيِّ إِلَّا أَنْ يُؤْذَنَ لَكُمْ إِلَى طَعَامٍ غَيْرَ نَاظِرِينَ إِنَاهُ إِلَى قَوْلِهِ مِنْ وَرَاءِ حِجَابٍ }فَضُرِبَ الْحِجَابُ وَقَامَ الْقَوْمُ

Narrated to us [Sulaiman bin Harb] Narrated to us [Hammad bin Zaid] from [Ayyub] from [Abu Qilabah], [Anas bin Malik] said I know best about this verse, the verse of the veil. When Zainab bint Jahsy, may Allah be pleased with her, was given to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, she was with him in the house. He prepared food and invited people, who sat talking. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, went out and returned, but they were still sitting, talking. So Allah, Exalted is He, revealed: 'O you who believe, do not enter the houses of the Prophet unless permission is given to you for a meal, without awaiting its preparation' up to 'from behind a veil' (Al-Ahzab: 53). So the veil was set up, and the people left.

I said: 'O Prophet of Allah, I find no one left to invite.' He said: 'Remove your food.' Three people remained talking in the house. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, went out to the rooms of the Mothers of the Believers, greeting them, and they greeted him, praying for them, and they prayed for him. When he returned to his house, the three were still talking. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, was very shy, so he went out toward Aisyah’s room. I do not know if I informed him or was informed that the people had left. He returned, and when he placed one foot in the threshold and the other outside, he lowered the veil between me and him, and the verse of the veil was revealed.

She was a large woman, easily recognizable to those who knew her. Umar bin Al-Khattab saw her and said: 'O Saudah, by Allah, you are not hidden from us, so consider how you go out.' She turned back, and the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, was in my house, eating dinner, holding a piece of meat. She entered and said: 'O Messenger of Allah, I went out for some need, and Umar said such and such to me.' She said Then Allah revealed to him, and when the revelation ceased, the piece of meat was still in his hand, not placed down. He said: 'It has been permitted for you to go out for your needs.'

When their hearts are relieved, they say, 'What did your Lord say?' They reply, 'The truth, and He is the Most High, the Most Great.' The eavesdropping jinn hear it, stacked one above another. They hear a word and pass it to the one below, who passes it to the one below, until it reaches the tongue of a sorcerer or soothsayer. Sometimes a shooting star overtakes them before they can pass it, and sometimes they pass it before the star reaches them. Then they mix it with a hundred lies. It is said, 'Did he not tell us on such-and-such a day, such-and-such?' So they believe because of that word heard from the heavens.

The Quraysh gathered around him. They asked: "What's the matter?" He replied: "What if I told you that an enemy would attack you in the morning or evening, would you believe me?" They said: "Of course." He said: "Indeed, I am a warner to you before a severe punishment." Abu Lahab said: "Is this why you gathered us? Woe to you!" So Allah revealed: "May the hands of Abu Lahab perish, and may he perish." (Al-Lahab: 1)

Narrated to us [Qutaibah bin Sa'id] Narrated to us [Jarir] from [Al A'masy] from [Abu Dluha] from [Masruq] he said I visited [Abdullah bin Mas'ud], and he said "O people, whoever knows something should speak of what he knows, and whoever does not know should say, 'Allah knows best.' For it is part of knowledge to say 'Allah knows best' about what one does not know. Allah, the Mighty and Exalted, said to His Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him: 'Say, I do not ask you for any reward for it, nor am I of those who pretend' (Shaad: 86). I will tell you about the smoke. Indeed, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, called the Quraysh to Islam, but they delayed in accepting it. So he said: 'O Allah, help me against them with seven years like the seven years of Yusuf.' So they were struck by a year of famine that consumed everything until they ate bones and carcasses. A man would see between himself and the sky something like smoke due to hunger. Allah, the Mighty and Exalted, said: 'So watch for the day when the sky brings a clear smoke, enveloping the people. This is a painful punishment.' (Ad-Dukhan: 10-11) They said: 'Our Lord, remove from us the punishment indeed, we will believe.' (Ad-Dukhan: 12) It was said to him, 'If We remove it, they will return to disbelief.' So he prayed to his Lord, and it was removed, but they returned to their disbelief. So Allah took retribution on them on the day of Badr. That is Allah’s saying: 'The day We strike with the greatest assault, indeed, We will take retribution.' (Ad-Dukhan: 16)

Narrated to us [Yahya] Narrated to us [Abu Mu'awiyah] from [Al A'masy] from [Muslim] from [Masruq] he said [Abdullah] said This was because when the Quraysh resisted the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, he prayed against them for years like the years of Yusuf. They were struck by drought and hardship until they ate bones. A man would look at the sky and see something like smoke between him and it due to exhaustion. So Allah, the Exalted, revealed: "So watch for the day when the sky brings a clear smoke, enveloping the people. This is a painful punishment." (Ad-Dukhan: 10) Someone came to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and said: "O Messenger of Allah, seek rain from Allah for Mudar, for they have perished." He said to Mudar: "You are bold." So he sought rain for them, and they were given rain. Then it was revealed: "Indeed, you will return." (Ad-Dukhan: 15) When prosperity reached them, they returned to their state. So Allah, the Mighty and Exalted, revealed: "The day We strike with the greatest assault, indeed, We will take retribution." (Ad-Dukhan: 16) He said: Meaning the day of Badr.

Narrated to us [Yahya] Narrated to us [Waki'] from [Al A'masy] from [Abu Ad Dluha] from [Masruq] he said When I visited [Abdullah], he said Part of knowledge is to say 'Allah knows best' for what one does not know. Indeed, Allah said to His Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him: "Say, I do not ask you for any reward for it, nor am I of those who pretend." (Shaad: 86) When the Quraysh attacked the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and resisted him, he said: "O Allah, help me against them with seven years like the seven years of Yusuf." So they were struck by a year of famine, eating bones and carcasses from hardship, until one of them would see something like smoke between him and the sky due to hunger. They said: "Our Lord, remove from us the punishment indeed, we will believe." (Ad-Dukhan: 12) It was said to him, if We remove it from them, they will return to disbelief. He prayed to his Lord, and it was removed from them, but they returned to disbelief. So Allah took retribution on them on the day of Badr. That is Allah’s saying: "So watch for the day when the sky brings a clear smoke" up to "Indeed, We will take retribution." (Ad-Dukhan: 10-16)

Narrated to us [Sulaiman bin Harb] Narrated to us [Jarir bin Hazim] from [Al A'masy] from [Abu Ad Dluha] from [Masruq] he said I visited [Abdullah], then he said Indeed, when the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, called the Quraysh, they denied him and resisted him. He said: "O Allah, help me against them with seven years like the seven years of Yusuf." So they were struck by a year that consumed everything, so they ate carcasses. One of them would stand and see something like smoke between him and the sky due to exhaustion and hunger. Then he recited: "So watch for the day when the sky brings a clear smoke, enveloping the people. This is a painful punishment, until 'Indeed, We will remove the punishment a little, but you will return.'" (Ad-Dukhan: 10-15) Abdullah said: "Will the punishment be removed from them on the Day of Resurrection?" He said: The great assault is the day of Badr.

(Shaad: 86) When the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, saw the Quraysh resisting him, he said: "O Allah, help me against them with seven years like the seven years of Yusuf." So they were struck by a year of famine that consumed everything, so they ate bones and skins. One of them said, until they ate skins and carcasses. Something like smoke would rise from the earth. Abu Sufyan came to him and said: "O Muhammad, your people have perished, so pray to Allah to remove it from them." So he prayed, then said: "Will you return to this?" In the narration of Manshur, then he recited: "So watch for the day when the sky brings a clear smoke" up to "you will return." (Ad-Dukhan: 10-15) Will the punishment of the Hereafter be removed from them? The smoke, the great assault, and the inevitable have passed. One of them said: the moon. Another said: and the Romans.

You are My servant and My messenger I have named you Al-Mutawakkil (the one who relies on Allah). You are not harsh, nor stern, nor one who shouts in the markets. You do not repel evil with evil, but you pardon and forgive. Allah will not take you until He straightens through you the crooked religion, so that people say: 'There is no god but Allah,' opening blind eyes, deaf ears, and sealed hearts.

One of them pointed to Al-Aqra' bin Habis, the brother of Bani Mujashi', and the other pointed to another man. Abu Bakr said to Umar: "You only wanted to oppose me." Umar said: "I did not intend to oppose you." Their voices rose in that matter, and Allah revealed: "O you who have believed, do not raise your voices above the voice of the Prophet..." Narrated to us [Abdullah bin Muhammad] Narrated to us [Abdurrazaq] Informed us [Ma'mar] from [Hammam] from [Abu Hurairah, may Allah be pleased with him] he said The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said: "Paradise and the Fire argued. The Fire said: 'I am favored with the arrogant and the tyrants.' Paradise said: 'Why is it that only the weak and lowly among people enter me?' Allah, Blessed and Exalted, said to Paradise: 'You are My mercy I show mercy through you to whomever I will of My servants.' And He said to the Fire: 'You are My punishment I punish through you whomever I will of My servants. Each of you will have its fill.' As for the Fire, it will not be full until He places His foot on it, and it says: 'Enough, enough.' Then it will be full, and some parts will press against others. Allah, the Mighty and Exalted, will not wrong any of His creation. As for Paradise, Allah, the Mighty and Exalted, will create for it a creation.

She said, "I see your wife doing it." He said, "Go and look." She went and looked but found nothing of what she claimed. He said, "If she were like that, I would not stay with her.

Narrated to us [Al Humaidi] Narrated to us [Sufyan] Narrated to us [Amru bin Dinar] he said, Narrated to me [Al Hasan bin Muhammad bin Ali] that he heard [Ubaidullah bin Abu Rafi'], the scribe of Ali, say, I heard [Ali, may Allah be pleased with him] say The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, sent me, Zubair, and Miqdad, saying, "Go to Raudhah Khakh, for there is a woman there with a letter take it from her." We went, our horses galloping, until we reached the Raudhah and found the woman. We said, "Hand over the letter." She said, "I have no letter." We said, "You will produce the letter, or we will strip your clothes." She took it out from her braided hair. We brought it to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and it was from Hatib bin Abi Balta'ah to some polytheists in Mecca, informing them of some of the Prophet’s affairs, peace and blessings be upon him. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "What is this, O Hatib?" He said, "Do not hasten against me, O Messenger of Allah. I am a man from Quraysh, but not one of them. Those with you from the Muhajirin have relatives protecting their families and wealth in Mecca. Since I lack lineage among them, I wanted to do them a favor to protect my relatives. I did not do this out of disbelief or apostasy from my religion." The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "He has told you the truth." Umar said, "O Messenger of Allah, let me strike his neck." He said, "He witnessed Badr, and what do you know? Perhaps Allah, the Mighty and Exalted, looked upon the people of Badr and said, 'Do as you wish, for I have forgiven you.'" Amru said Regarding this, the verse was revealed: "O you who believe, do not take My enemy and your enemy as allies." (Al-Mumtahanah: 1). Ali narrated to us He said It was said to Sufyan that in this matter, the verse was revealed: "Do not take My enemy and your enemy as allies." (Al-Mumtahanah: 1). Sufyan said, "This is in the hadith of the people I memorized it from Amru, leaving out not a single letter, and I do not think anyone else memorized it.

Urwah said Aisyah said Whoever among the believing women accepted this condition, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said to her, "I have accepted your pledge," verbally. By Allah, his hand never touched the hand of a woman in the pledge of allegiance. He only accepted their pledge by saying, "I have accepted your pledge on that." This was supported by [Yunus], [Ma'mar], and [Abdurrahman bin Ishaq] from [Az Zuhri]. [Ishaq bin Rashid] said from [Az Zuhri] from [Urwah] and ['Amrah].

He recited the verse about women. Most of Sufyan’s wording is: He recited the verse, "Whoever among you fulfills it, his reward is with Allah. Whoever commits any of that and is punished, it is an expiation for him. Whoever commits any of it and Allah conceals it, it is up to Allah if He wills, He punishes him, and if He wills, He forgives him." This was supported by [Abdurrazzaq] from [Ma'mar] regarding the verse.

Then he moved through them with Bilal until he reached the women and said: "O Prophet, when the believing women come to you to pledge allegiance that they will not associate anything with Allah, nor steal, nor commit adultery, nor kill their children, nor fabricate falsehood between their hands and feet," until he finished the entire verse. Then he said, "Are you on that?" One woman, and no one else answered, said, "Yes, O Messenger of Allah." Al Hasan did not know who she was. He said, "Give charity." Bilal spread his garment, and they began throwing rings and bracelets into Bilal’s garment.

"Narrated to us Sa'd bin Hafs, Narrated to us Shayban from Yahya, he said, Informed me Abu Salamah, he said: A man came to Ibn Abbas while Abu Hurairah was sitting with him and said: Give me a ruling about a woman who gave birth forty nights after her husband's death. Ibn Abbas said: The waiting period is the later of the two terms. I said: And those who are pregnant, their term is until they give birth. Abu Hurairah said: I agree with my nephew, meaning Abu Salamah. Then Ibn Abbas sent his servant Kuraib to Umm Salamah to ask her. She said: The husband of Subai'ah Al-Aslamiyyah was killed while she was pregnant, and she gave birth forty nights after his death. She was proposed to, and the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, married her off. Abu As-Sanabil was among those who proposed to her. Sulaiman bin Harb and Abu Nu'man said: Narrated to us Hammad bin Zaid from Ayyub from Muhammad, he said: I was in a gathering with Abdurrahman bin Abi Laila, whose companions revered him. They mentioned the issue, and he said the waiting period is the later of the two terms. I narrated the hadith of Subai'ah bint Al-Harith from Abdullah bin Utbah. Some of his companions frowned at me. Muhammad said: I understood their intent and said: I would be bold indeed to lie about Abdullah bin Utbah while he is in Kufah. They were ashamed and said: But his uncle did not say that. I met Abu Athiyyah Malik bin Amir and asked him, and he narrated the hadith of Subai'ah. I asked: Did you hear anything from Abdullah about it? He said: We were with Abdullah, and he said: Do you impose hardship on her without granting her leniency? The shorter Surah An-Nisa came after the longer one: And those who are pregnant, their term is until they give birth.

"Narrated to us Abdul Aziz bin Abdullah, Narrated to us Sulaiman bin Bilal from Yahya from Ubaid bin Hunain that he heard Ibn Abbas, may Allah be pleased with them, narrate, saying: I held back for a year, wanting to ask Umar bin Al-Khattab about a verse, but I could not due to my awe of him. When he went for Hajj, I went with him. On the way back, he stepped aside to some Arak trees for a need. I waited until he was done, then walked with him and said: O Commander of the Faithful, who were the two women among the Prophet's wives who conspired against him? He said: They were Hafshah and Aishah. I said: By Allah, I wanted to ask you about this for a year but could not due to my awe of you. Umar said: Do not do that. If you think I have knowledge, ask me, and if I know, I will tell you. Umar continued: By Allah, in the days of ignorance, we did not consider women's opinions until Allah revealed about them what He revealed and apportioned their rights. While I was pondering a matter, my wife said: Why not do such and such? I said to her: What is it to you, and why interfere in a matter I intend? She replied: How strange, O Ibn Al-Khattab! You do not want to be questioned, yet your daughter questions the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, until he spends his day angry. Umar took his cloak and went to Hafshah, saying: O my daughter, do you question the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, until he spends his day angry? Hafshah said: By Allah, we do question him. I said: Know that I warn you of Allah's punishment and the anger of His Messenger, peace and blessings be upon him. O my daughter, do not be deceived by the one whose beauty and the Prophet's love for her impress her, meaning Aishah. Then I went to Umm Salamah because of my kinship with her and spoke to her. Umm Salamah said: How strange, O Ibn Al-Khattab! You meddle in everything, even between the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and his wives. By Allah, her rebuke stopped me from some of what I felt. I left her. I had a friend from the Ansar if I was absent, he brought me news, and if he was absent, I brought him news. We feared a king from Ghassan, as it was said he intended to march toward us, filling our hearts with fear. My Ansari friend knocked on the door, saying: Open, open! I said: Has the Ghassani come? He said: Worse than that—the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, has separated from his wives, especially Hafshah and Aishah. I took my clothes and went to find the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, in his upper room, climbing hurriedly. A black servant of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, was at the top of the stairs. I said to him: Say, this is Umar bin Al-Khattab. He permitted me. I narrated this incident to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. When I mentioned Umm Salamah, he smiled. He was on a mat with nothing between him and it, with a leather pillow stuffed with palm fiber under his head, leaves poured at his feet, and a tanned hide at his head. I saw the mat's marks on his side and wept. He said: Why do you weep? I said: O Messenger of Allah, Kisra and Caesar are in luxury, while you, the Messenger of Allah… He said: Are you not content that the world is theirs and the Hereafter is ours?

"Narrated to us Ibrahim bin Musa, Informed us Hisham from Ibn Juraij, and Atha said: From Ibn Abbas, may Allah be pleased with them: The idols worshipped by Noah's people later appeared among the Arabs. Wadd was for Kalb in Daumah Al-Jandal, Suwa for Hudhayl, Yaghuth for Murad and then Bani Ghutaif in Jauf near Saba, Ya'uq for Hamdan, and Nasr for Himyar, the family of Dhu Al-Kala. These were names of righteous men from Noah's people. When they died, Satan whispered to their people to erect statues in their gathering places and name them after them. They did so, but the statues were not worshipped until those people died and knowledge faded, then they were worshipped.

"Narrated to us Musa bin Isma'il, Narrated to us Abu Awanah from Abu Bishr from Sa'id bin Jubair from Ibn Abbas, he said: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, set out with a group of his companions toward the Ukaz market. The devils were blocked from heavenly news and pelted with meteors, so they returned. Their companions asked: What is wrong with you? They said: We were blocked from heavenly news and pelted with meteors. They said: Nothing blocked you except some event. Search the east and west of the earth to see what happened. Those heading toward Tihamah found the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, at Nakhlah, heading to the Ukaz market, praying Fajr with his companions. Hearing the Quran, they listened and said: This is what blocked you from heavenly news. They returned to their people and said: O our people, we heard a wondrous Quran guiding to the right path, so we believed in it and will not associate anything with our Lord. Allah, the Mighty and Exalted, revealed to His Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him: Say: It has been revealed to me that a group of jinn listened, and what was revealed to him was the jinn's statement.

Jabir said: I will only tell you what the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, told us. He said: I stayed in Hira. When I finished, I descended and was called. I looked to my right, saw nothing, to my left, saw nothing, ahead, saw nothing, behind, saw nothing. I raised my head and saw something. "Narrated to us Ubaidullah bin Musa from Isra'il from Musa bin Abu Aishah that he asked Sa'id bin Jubair about Allah's saying: Do not move your tongue with it. Indeed, upon Us is its collection and its recitation, meaning: We will gather it in your heart and enable you to recite it. When We have recited it, follow its recitation. Then, upon Us is its explanation, meaning: We will clarify it through your tongue.

So Allah revealed the verse in: I swear by the Day of Resurrection, Do not move your tongue with it to hasten it. Indeed, upon Us is its collection and its recitation, meaning: We will gather it in your heart. When We have recited it, follow its recitation, meaning: when it is sent down, listen. Then he said, 'There is none of you, nor any soul that breathes, except that its place in Paradise or the Fire has been written, and it has been written whether it will be wretched or blessed.' A man said, 'O Messenger of Allah, should we not rely on our book and abandon action? Whoever among us is of the people of happiness will reach the deeds of the people of happiness, and whoever among us is of the people of misery will reach the deeds of the people of misery.' He said, 'As for the people of happiness, they are facilitated for the deeds of the people of happiness, and as for the people of misery, they are facilitated for the deeds of the people of misery.' Then he recited, 'As for he who gives and fears Allah and believes in the best,' the verse.

"Narrated to us Yahya bin Bukair, narrated to us Al Laith from Uqail from Ibn Shihab, and narrated to me Sa'id bin Marwan, narrated to us Muhammad bin Abdul Aziz bin Abu Rizmah, informed us Abu Shalih Salmawaih, he said: Narrated to me Abdullah from Yunus bin Yazid, he said: Informed me Ibn Shihab that Urwah bin Zubair informed him that Aishah, the wife of the Prophet peace be upon him, said: The first thing that began with the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him was the true vision in sleep. He never saw a vision except that it came like the break of dawn. Then solitude was made dear to him, so he would go to the cave of Hira' and worship therein, which is devotion for a number of nights before returning to his family and taking provisions for that. Then he would return to Khadijah and take provisions again until the truth came to him while he was in the cave of Hira'. The angel came to him and said, 'Read.' The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said, 'I am not a reader.' He said, 'He took me and pressed me until I was exhausted, then released me and said, "Read." I said, "I am not a reader." He took me and pressed me a second time until I was exhausted, then released me and said, "Read." I said, "I am not a reader." He took me and pressed me a third time until I was exhausted, then released me and said, "Read in the name of your Lord who created, created man from a clot. Read, and your Lord is the Most Generous, who taught by the pen," to His saying, "taught man what he knew not." The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him returned with it, his heart trembling, until he entered upon Khadijah and said, "Cover me, cover me." They covered him until his fear subsided. He said to Khadijah, 'O Khadijah, what is wrong with me? I fear for myself.' He informed her of the event. Khadijah said, 'No, rejoice, for by Allah, Allah will never disgrace you. By Allah, you maintain family ties, speak the truth, bear burdens, earn for the destitute, honor the guest, and assist in the calamities of truth.' Khadijah took him to Waraqah bin Naufal, her cousin, the brother of her father, who had become a Christian in the pre-Islamic period. He wrote the Arabic script and wrote from the Gospel in Arabic as Allah willed. He was an old man who had gone blind. Khadijah said, 'O cousin, listen to your nephew.' Waraqah said, 'O nephew, what do you see?' The Prophet peace be upon him informed him of what he saw. Waraqah said, 'This is the Namus that was sent down to Moses. Would that I were young in it, would that I were alive.' He mentioned a word. The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said, 'Will they expel me?' Waraqah said, 'Yes, no man has come with what you have brought except that he was harmed. If I live to see your day, I will support you with strong support.' Soon after, Waraqah passed away, and the revelation paused for a time until the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him was saddened. Muhammad bin Shihab said: Abu Salamah bin Abdurrahman informed me that Jabir bin Abdullah Al Ansari (may Allah be pleased with them) said: The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him spoke about the pause in revelation, saying in his narration, 'While I was walking, I heard a voice from the sky. I looked up, and there was the angel who came to me at Hira' sitting on a throne between the sky and the earth. I was afraid of him and returned, saying, "Cover me, cover me." They covered me, and Allah, the Exalted, revealed, "O you who are wrapped up, arise and warn, and magnify your Lord, and purify your garments, and abandon idols,"' Abu Salamah said, 'The idols were what the people of ignorance worshipped.' Then the revelation continued.

As for the one who earns reward, it is a man who keeps them for the cause of Allah, letting them graze in a meadow or garden. Whatever they consume in that meadow or garden becomes good deeds for him. Even if they break their tether and climb one or two hills, their hoofprints and dung are good deeds for him. If they pass by a river and drink from it, even if he did not intend to water them, that becomes good deeds for him. Thus, for that man, they bring reward. Another man keeps them for wealth and honor, without forgetting Allah's rights over their necks and backs, so they are a shield for him. And another man keeps them for pride and showing off, so they bring sin upon him.' The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him was asked about donkeys, and he said, 'Allah has not revealed anything to me about them except this comprehensive and concise verse: "Whoever does an atom's weight of good will see it, and whoever does an atom's weight of evil will see it."'

Umar said, 'He is someone you know well.' One day, he called me and included me with them. I realized he called me that day only to show them. He said, 'What do you say about the verse of Allah the Almighty, "When the victory of Allah and the conquest come"?' Some of them said, 'We were commanded to praise Allah and seek His forgiveness when we are granted victory and conquest.' Others remained silent, saying nothing. He said to me, 'Is that what you say, O Ibn Abbas?' I said, 'No.' He said, 'Then what do you say?' I said, 'It is the appointed time of the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him, which Allah informed him of. It says, "When the victory of Allah and the conquest come," that is a sign of your appointed time. "So glorify the praise of your Lord and seek His forgiveness, for He is ever-accepting of repentance."' Umar said, 'I know nothing of it except what you have said.'

حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو الْيَمَانِ حَدَّثَنَا شُعَيْبٌ عَنْ الزُّهْرِيِّ وَأَخْبَرَنِي أَنَسُ بْنُ مَالِكٍ قَالَفَأَمَرَ عُثْمَانُ زَيْدَ بْنَ ثَابِتٍ وَسَعِيدَ بْنَ الْعَاصِ وَعَبْدَ اللَّهِ بْنَ الزُّبَيْرِ وَعَبْدَ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنَ الْحَارِثِ بْنِ هِشَامٍ أَنْ يَنْسَخُوهَا فِي الْمَصَاحِفِ وَقَالَ لَهُمْ إِذَا اخْتَلَفْتُمْ أَنْتُمْ وَزَيْدُ بْنُ ثَابِتٍ فِي عَرَبِيَّةٍ مِنْ عَرَبِيَّةِ الْقُرْآنِ فَاكْتُبُوهَا بِلِسَانِ قُرَيْشٍ فَإِنَّ الْقُرْآنَ أُنْزِلَ بِلِسَانِهِمْ فَفَعَلُوا

Narrated to us Abu Al Yaman, narrated to us Shu'aib from Az Zuhri, and Anas bin Malik informed me, he said Uthman ordered Zaid bin Thabit, Sa'id bin Al 'As, Abdullah bin Zubair, and Abdurrahman bin Al Harith bin Hisham to transcribe the Qur'an into codices. Uthman said to them, "If you and Zaid bin Thabit disagree on the Arabic of the Qur'an, write it in the dialect of Quraysh, for the Qur'an was revealed in their dialect." So they did.

Narrated to us Abu Nu'aim, narrated to us Hammam, narrated to us 'Ata', and Musaddad said narrated to us Yahya bin Sa'id from Ibn Juraij, he said 'Ata' informed me, he said Safwan bin Ya'la bin Umayyah informed me that Ya'la said, "If only I could see the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him when revelation was descending upon him." When the Prophet peace be upon him was at Ji'ranah, shaded by a cloth he wore, accompanied by some of his companions, a man scented with perfume came to him and said, "O Messenger of Allah, what is your opinion of a man who enters ihram wearing a cloak after applying perfume?" The Prophet peace be upon him looked for a moment, then revelation came to him. Umar signaled to Ya'la to come, so Ya'la came and put his head in, seeing the Prophet's face red, snoring for a while, then it subsided. He said, "Where is the one who asked me about Umrah just now?" The man was sought and brought to the Prophet peace be upon him, who said, "As for the perfume on you, wash it off three times, and as for the cloak, remove it. Then do in your Umrah as you would in your Hajj.

THE PROCESS OF COLLECTING THE QUR'AN IN THE TIME OF ABU BAKAR
Hadith Imam Bukhari Number 4603

حَدَّثَنَا مُوسَى بْنُ إِسْمَاعِيلَ عَنْ إِبْرَاهِيمَ بْنِ سَعْدٍ حَدَّثَنَا ابْنُ شِهَابٍ عَنْ عُبَيْدِ بْنِ السَّبَّاقِ أَنَّ زَيْدَ بْنَ ثَابِتٍ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ قَالَأَرْسَلَ إِلَيَّ أَبُو بَكْرٍ مَقْتَلَ أَهْلِ الْيَمَامَةِ فَإِذَا عُمَرُ بْنُ الْخَطَّابِ عِنْدَهُ قَالَ أَبُو بَكْرٍ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ إِنَّ عُمَرَ أَتَانِي فَقَالَ إِنَّ الْقَتْلَ قَدْ اسْتَحَرَّ يَوْمَ الْيَمَامَةِ بِقُرَّاءِ الْقُرْآنِ وَإِنِّي أَخْشَى أَنْ يَسْتَحِرَّ الْقَتْلُ بِالْقُرَّاءِ بِالْمَوَاطِنِ فَيَذْهَبَ كَثِيرٌ مِنْ الْقُرْآنِ وَإِنِّي أَرَى أَنْ تَأْمُرَ بِجَمْعِ الْقُرْآنِ قُلْتُ لِعُمَرَ كَيْفَ تَفْعَلُ شَيْئًا لَمْ يَفْعَلْهُ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ عُمَرُ هَذَا وَاللَّهِ خَيْرٌ فَلَمْ يَزَلْ عُمَرُ يُرَاجِعُنِي حَتَّى شَرَحَ اللَّهُ صَدْرِي لِذَلِكَ وَرَأَيْتُ فِي ذَلِكَ الَّذِي رَأَى عُمَرُ قَالَ زَيْدٌ قَالَ أَبُو بَكْرٍ إِنَّكَ رَجُلٌ شَابٌّ عَاقِلٌ لَا نَتَّهِمُكَ وَقَدْ كُنْتَ تَكْتُبُ الْوَحْيَ لِرَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَتَتَبَّعْ الْقُرْآنَ فَاجْمَعْهُ فَوَاللَّهِ لَوْ كَلَّفُونِي نَقْلَ جَبَلٍ مِنْ الْجِبَالِ مَا كَانَ

Narrated to us Musa bin Isma'il from Ibrahim bin Sa'd, narrated to us Ibn Shihab from Ubaid bin As Sabbaq, that Zaid bin Thabit (may Allah be pleased with him) said Abu Bakr sent for me regarding the casualties of the people of Yamamah, and Umar bin Al Khattab was with him. Abu Bakr (may Allah be pleased with him) said, "Umar came to me and said, 'The casualties at Yamamah were heavy among the reciters of the Qur'an, and I fear that the casualties among the reciters at other places will cause much of the Qur'an to be lost. I suggest you order the compilation of the Qur'an.' I said to Umar, 'How can you do something the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him did not do?' Umar said, 'By Allah, this is good.' Umar kept persuading me until Allah opened my heart to it, and I saw what Umar saw." Zaid said Abu Bakr said, "You are a young, intelligent man, and we do not suspect you. You used to write the revelation for the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him, so trace the Qur'an and compile it." By Allah, if they had tasked me with moving a mountain, it would not have been heavier than what they ordered me to do in compiling the Qur'an. I said, "How can you do something the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him did not do?" He said, "By Allah, it is good." Abu Bakr kept persuading me until Allah opened my heart as He did for Abu Bakr and Umar (may Allah be pleased with them). So I traced the Qur'an, collecting it from palm stalks, thin stones, and the memories of men until I found the end of Surah At-Tawbah with Abu Khuzaimah Al Ansari, which I did not find with anyone else: "There has come to you a Messenger from among yourselves, it grieves him that you should suffer..." until the end of Bara'ah. The sheets remained with Abu Bakr until Allah took him, then with Umar during his lifetime, then with Hafsah bint Umar (may Allah be pleased with her).

Narrated to us Musa, narrated to us Ibrahim, narrated to us Ibn Shihab, that Anas bin Malik narrated to him, that Hudhaifah bin Al Yaman came to Uthman after fighting the people of Sham in the conquest of Armenia and Azerbaijan with the people of Iraq. Their differences in recitation alarmed Hudhaifah, so he said to Uthman, "O Commander of the Faithful, save this nation before they differ about the Book as the Jews and Christians did." Uthman sent to Hafsah, saying, "Send us the sheets so we can transcribe them into codices, then we will return them to you." Hafsah sent them to Uthman, who ordered Zaid bin Thabit, Abdullah bin Zubair, Sa'id bin Al 'As, and Abdurrahman bin Al Harith bin Hisham to transcribe them into codices. Uthman said to the three Quraysh among them, "If you differ with Zaid bin Thabit on anything in the Qur'an, write it in the dialect of Quraysh, for it was revealed in their dialect." They did so until they transcribed the sheets into codices. Uthman returned the sheets to Hafsah and sent a codex to every region from what they transcribed, ordering that any other Qur'an in any sheet or codex be burned. Ibn Shihab said, Kharijah bin Zaid informed me that he heard Zaid bin Thabit say, "I missed a verse from Al Ahzab when we transcribed the codex, which I had heard the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him recite. We searched for it and found it with Khuzaimah bin Thabit Al Ansari: 'Among the believers are men true to what they covenanted with Allah...' So we included it in its surah in the codex.

Narrated to us Yahya bin Bukair, narrated to us Al Laith from Yunus, narrated to us Ibn Shihab, that Ibn As Sabbaq said Zaid bin Thabit said, Abu Bakr sent for me, saying, "You used to write the revelation for the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him, so trace the Qur'an." I traced it until I found the last two verses of Surah At-Tawbah with Abu Khuzaimah Al Ansari, which I did not find with anyone else: "There has come to you a Messenger from among yourselves, it grieves him that you should suffer..." until the end.

THE DESCRIPTIONS OF THE VERSES ON JUSTICE FOR THOSE WHO HAVE AN EDUCATION

حَدَّثَنَا عُبَيْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ مُوسَى عَنْ إِسْرَائِيلَ عَنْ أَبِي إِسْحَاقَ عَنْ الْبَرَاءِ قَالَلَمَّا نَزَلَتْ{ لَا يَسْتَوِي الْقَاعِدُونَ مِنْ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ }{ وَالْمُجَاهِدُونَ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ }قَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ادْعُ لِي زَيْدًا وَلْيَجِئْ بِاللَّوْحِ وَالدَّوَاةِ وَالْكَتِفِ أَوْ الْكَتِفِ وَالدَّوَاةِ ثُمَّ قَالَ اكْتُبْ{ لَا يَسْتَوِي الْقَاعِدُونَ }وَخَلْفَ ظَهْرِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَمْرُو بْنُ أُمِّ مَكْتُومٍ الْأَعْمَى قَالَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ فَمَا تَأْمُرُنِي فَإِنِّي رَجُلٌ ضَرِيرُ الْبَصَرِ فَنَزَلَتْ مَكَانَهَا{ لَا يَسْتَوِي الْقَاعِدُونَ مِنْ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ }{ وَالْمُجَاهِدُونَ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ }{ غَيْرُ أُولِي الضَّرَرِ }

Narrated to us Ubaidullah bin Musa from Isra'il from Abu Ishaq from Al Bara', he said When the verse "Not equal are those believers remaining [at home] and the Mujahideen in the way of Allah..." was revealed, the Prophet peace be upon him said, "Call Zaid for me and let him bring the tablet, ink, and shoulder bone." Then he said, "Write: 'Not equal are those...'" Behind the Prophet peace be upon him was Amru bin Umm Maktum, the blind man, who said, "O Messenger of Allah, what do you command me, for I am a blind man?" So the verse was revealed in its place: "Not equal are those believers remaining [at home] and the Mujahideen in the way of Allah, except those with an excuse.

I listened to his recitation, and he was reciting in many dialects that the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him had not taught me. I almost attacked him during the prayer but waited until he finished. Then I grabbed him by his cloak and said, 'Who taught you this surah I heard you recite?' He said, 'The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him taught it to me.' I said, 'You lie, for the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him taught it to me differently.' I took him to the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him and said, 'I heard this man reciting Surah Al Furqan in dialects you did not teach me.'

The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said, 'Release him. Recite, O Hisham.' He recited the recitation I heard, and the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said, 'Thus it was revealed.' Then he said, 'Recite, O Umar.' I recited what he had taught me, and he said, 'Thus it was revealed. This Qur'an was revealed in seven dialects, so recite what is easy for you.'

She said, "Woe to you, what does it matter?" He said, "O Mother of the Believers, show me your codex." She said, "Why?" He said, "So I can arrange the Qur'an according to it, for it is being recited out of order." She said, "What does it matter which part you read first? The first to be revealed was a surah from the Mufassal mentioning Paradise and Hell. When people inclined to Islam, the lawful and unlawful were revealed. If the first thing revealed was 'Do not drink wine,' they would have said, 'We will never abandon wine.' If it was 'Do not commit adultery,' they would have said, 'We will never abandon adultery.' A verse was revealed in Mecca to Muhammad peace be upon him while I was a young girl playing: 'Nay, the Hour is their appointed time, and the Hour is more disastrous and bitter.' Surah Al Baqarah and An-Nisa were not revealed until I was with him." She brought out the codex and dictated the verses of the surahs to him.

He said, "I feared that a Qur'anic verse had been revealed about me. So I went to the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him and greeted him. He said, 'Last night a surah was revealed to me, and it is dearer to me than anything upon which the sun rises.' Then he recited, 'Indeed, We have granted you a clear victory...'" (Surah Al-Fath)

Narrated to us Musa, narrated to us Abu 'Awanah from Mughirah from Mujahid from Abdullah bin Amr, he said my father married me to a woman of noble lineage. He would check on his daughter-in-law and ask her about her husband. She said, "He is an excellent man, but he has not come to our bed nor touched us since I came to him." When this went on for a while, he mentioned it to the Prophet peace be upon him. He said, "Bring him to me." So I met him afterward, and he said, "How do you fast?" I said, "Every day." He said, "And how do you complete the Qur'an?" I said, "Every night." He said, "Fast three days every month and recite the Qur'an once every month." I said, "I can do more than that." He said, "Fast three days every week." I said, "I can do more than that." He said, "Break your fast for two days and fast one day." I said, "I can do more than that." He said, "Fast the best fast, the fast of Dawud, fasting one day and breaking one day, and recite the Qur'an once every seven nights." I wish I had accepted the concession of the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him, as I was strong then, but now I have become weak. Mujahid said he would recite one-seventh of the Qur'an to his family during the day, and the verses he recited, he would review during the day so it would be easier for him at night. When he wanted to gain strength, he would break his fast for a few days, count them, and fast the same number, as he disliked abandoning anything he parted with the Prophet peace be upon him on. Abu Abdullah said some said three, some said five, but most said seven.

Narrated to us Abdullah bin Yusuf, informed us Malik from Yahya bin Sa'id from Muhammad ibn Ibrahim bin Al Harith At Taimi from Abu Salamah bin Abdurrahman from Abu Sa'id Al Khudri (may Allah be pleased with him), he said I heard the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him say, "There will emerge among you a people whose prayer, fasting, and deeds will make you belittle your own prayer, fasting, and deeds. They will recite the Qur'an, but it will not go beyond their throats. They will pass through the religion like an arrow passes through its target. Narrated to us Ali, he heard Hassan bin Ibrahim from Yunus bin Yazid from Az Zuhri, he said Urwah informed me that he asked Aishah about the saying of Allah the Almighty: "And if you fear that you will not deal justly with the orphans, then marry women who are lawful for you, two or three or four, but if you fear that you will not be just, then one or those your right hand possesses. That is more suitable that you may not incline to injustice." (Q.S. An-Nisa: 3). Aishah explained, "O my nephew, it refers to an orphan girl who is under the care of her guardian, and he desires her wealth and beauty. He intends to marry her with a dowry less than what is customary for her. They were forbidden to marry them unless they could deal justly with them and give them the full dowry. Therefore, they were commanded to marry other women besides them.

The Muslims said, "Is she one of the Mothers of the Believers or one of those his right hand possesses?" They said, "If he veils her, she is one of the Mothers of the Believers if not, she is one of those his right hand possesses." When he departed, he placed her behind him and stretched a veil between her and the people.

Narrated to us Abu Al Yaman, informed us Shu'aib from Az Zuhri, he said Urwah bin Zubair informed me from Aishah (may Allah be pleased with her), that Abu Hudhaifah bin Utbah bin Rabi'ah bin Abd Shams, who was among those who witnessed Badr with the Prophet peace be upon him, adopted Salim and married him to his niece Hind bint Al Walid bin Utbah bin Rabi'ah. He was a freed slave of an Ansari woman, just as the Prophet peace be upon him adopted Zaid. In the pre-Islamic period, when someone adopted a man, people attributed him to the adopter and he inherited from his estate, until Allah revealed: "Call them by their fathers..." to His saying, "and your freed slaves." They were returned to their fathers. If a father was unknown, he was a freed slave and a brother in religion. Then Sahlah bint Suhail bin Amr Al Qurashi, then Al Amiri, the wife of Abu Hudhaifah bin Utbah, came to the Prophet peace be upon him and said, "O Messenger of Allah, we considered Salim our child, and Allah has revealed what you know." Then she mentioned the hadith.

Narrated to me Yahya bin Bukair, narrated to us Al Laith from Uqail from Ibn Shihab, he said: Urwah informed me that he asked Aishah (may Allah be pleased with her) about the verse, "And if you fear that you will not deal justly with the orphans..." She explained, "O my nephew, it refers to an orphan girl who is under the care of her guardian, and he desires her beauty and wealth. He intends to marry her with a dowry less than what is customary for her. They were forbidden to marry them unless they could deal justly with them and give them the full dowry. They were commanded to marry other women besides them." She also explained, "After that, people sought the verdict of the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him, so Allah revealed, 'And they ask you for a ruling concerning women...' to His saying, 'And you desire to marry them.' Allah revealed to them that if an orphan girl has beauty and wealth, they desired to marry her and follow the custom of giving the full dowry. If she was not desired due to lack of wealth and beauty, they would leave her and take other women. Thus, just as they leave her when they do not desire her, they are not allowed to marry her when they desire her unless they deal justly with her and give her the fullest right in dowry.

Umar said: Then I met Abu Bakr As Siddiq and said, "If you wish, I will marry Hafsah to you." Abu Bakr remained silent and did not respond to me. I felt more resentful toward him than toward Uthman. I waited a few nights, then the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him proposed to her, and I married her to him. Abu Bakr met me and said, "Perhaps you were upset with me when you offered Hafsah to me, and I did not respond." Umar said, "Yes." Narrated Yahya bin Sulaiman, narrated to us Ibn Wahb from Yunus, and narrated to us Ahmad bin Salih, narrated to us Anbasah, narrated to us Yunus from Ibn Shihab, he said: Narrated to me Urwah bin Zubair that Aishah, the wife of the Prophet peace be upon him, informed him that marriage in the pre-Islamic period was of four types. One was the marriage of people today, where a man proposes to another man for his ward or daughter, gives her a dowry, and marries her. Another was that a man would say to his wife when she was purified from her menses, "Send for so-and-so and seek a child from him." Her husband would avoid her and not touch her until her pregnancy from that man was confirmed. When her pregnancy was confirmed, her husband would be intimate with her if he wished. This was done out of a desire for noble offspring, and this marriage was called Istibdaa'. Another type was that a group of fewer than ten men would visit a woman, and all would be intimate with her. If she became pregnant and gave birth, after some nights, she would send for them, and none could refuse until they gathered with her. She would say to them, "You know what you did, and I have given birth. This is your son, O so-and-so," naming whomever she wished, and the child would be attributed to him, and he could not refuse. The fourth type was that many people would visit a woman who would not refuse anyone who came to her. These were prostitutes who placed flags at their doors as a sign. Whoever wanted them could enter. If one of them became pregnant and gave birth, they would gather and call for experts in lineage to attribute the child to the one they deemed the father, and he could not refuse. When Muhammad peace be upon him was sent with the truth, he abolished all pre-Islamic marriages except the marriage of people today.

Narrated to us Yahya, narrated to us Waki' from Hisham bin Urwah from his father from Aishah, regarding the verse, "And what is recited to you in the Book concerning the orphan girls to whom you do not give what is prescribed for them, and you desire to marry them," she said, "This is about the orphan girl under a man's care, who may be his partner in his wealth, and he is the most entitled to her. He does not want to marry her, preventing her from accessing her wealth, and he does not marry her to anyone else, disliking that someone else share in her wealth.

Narrated to us Ahmad bin Abu Amru, he said: Narrated to me my father, he said: Narrated to me Ibrahim from Yunus from Al Hasan, regarding the verse, "So do not prevent them," he said: Narrated to me Ma'qil bin Yasar that it was revealed about him. He said: I married my sister to a man, and he divorced her. When her waiting period ended, he came to propose to her again. I said to him, "I married her to you, provided for you, and honored you, but you divorced her. Now you come to propose again? No, by Allah, she will never return to you." There was no issue with the man, and the woman wanted to return to him. Then Allah revealed this verse, "So do not prevent them." I said, "Now I will do it, O Messenger of Allah." So he married her to him.

Narrated to us Sulaiman bin Abdurrahman and Ali bin Hujr, both said: Informed us Isa bin Yunus, narrated to us Hisham bin Urwah from Abdullah bin Urwah from Urwah from Aishah, she said: Eleven women sat together and agreed not to conceal anything about their husbands. The first said, "My husband is like the meat of a lean camel at the top of a difficult mountain, not easy to climb nor fat to be moved." The second said, "My husband? I will not reveal his details, for I fear I cannot leave him. If I mention him, I mention his flaws and merits." The third said, "My husband is tall. If I speak, he divorces me if I stay silent, he leaves me hanging." The fourth said, "My husband is moderate, like the weather of Tihamah, neither hot nor cold, neither frightening nor boring." The fifth said, "My husband? When he enters, he is like a young lion when he leaves, he is like a lion. He does not ask about what he knows." The sixth said, "My husband? If he eats, he mixes all foods if he drinks, he finishes all the water if he lies down, he wraps himself up. He does not reach out to know my sorrow." The seventh said, "My husband is clueless or foolish, a blunderer. Every ailment is his cure. He splits your head or breaks you, or does both to you." The eighth said, "My husband is as soft as a rabbit and as fragrant as zarrab (a fragrant plant)." The ninth said, "My husband has tall pillars, a long sword belt, abundant ashes, and a house close to the gathering place." The tenth said, "My husband is a master, and what a master! He has many camels, few pastures. When they hear the sound of the tambourine, they know they are doomed." The eleventh said, "My husband is Abu Zar'in. Who is Abu Zar'in? He adorned my ears with jewelry, filled my arms with fat, and made me so happy that my soul rejoiced. He found me among the owners of a few goats in a rugged place and brought me to the owners of many horses, camels, grinders, and bird chasers. With him, I speak without being disgraced, sleep until morning, and drink until satisfied. Abu Zar'in's mother, who is she? Her cooking pot is large, and her house is spacious. Abu Zar'in's son, who is he? His bed is like a sword drawn from its sheath, and he is satisfied with the arm of a four-month-old lamb. Abu Zar'in's daughter, who is she? She obeys her parents, fills her clothes, and angers her neighbor. Abu Zar'in's maid, who is she? She does not spread our talks, does not waste our provisions, and does not fill our house with rubbish. Abu Zar'in went out while the milk containers were being churned, met a woman with two children like leopards playing under her waist with two pomegranates, divorced me, and married her. I then married a noble man who rode swiftly, took a spear, brought me abundant livestock, gave me a pair of every kind, and said, 'Eat, Umm Zar'in, and feed your family.' If I gathered all he gave me, it would not reach the smallest vessel of Abu Zar'in." Aishah said: The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said: "I am to you like Abu Zar'in was to Umm Zar'in.

PLAYING WITH THE EQUIPMENT OF WAR BY THE HABASYAH PEOPLE AND A'ISYAH'S LOVE TO WATCH
Hadith Imam Bukhari Number 4791

حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ مُحَمَّدٍ حَدَّثَنَا هِشَامٌ أَخْبَرَنَا مَعْمَرٌ عَنْ الزُّهْرِيِّ عَنْ عُرْوَةَ عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْكَانَ الْحَبَشُ يَلْعَبُونَ بِحِرَابِهِمْ فَسَتَرَنِي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَأَنَا أَنْظُرُ فَمَا زِلْتُ أَنْظُرُ حَتَّى كُنْتُ أَنَا أَنْصَرِفُ فَاقْدُرُوا قَدْرَ الْجَارِيَةِ الْحَدِيثَةِ السِّنِّ تَسْمَعُ اللَّهْوَ

Narrated to us Abdullah bin Muhammad, narrated to us Hisham, informed us Ma'mar from Az-Zuhri from Urwah from Aishah, she said: The Abyssinians were playing with their weapons, and the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him covered me while I watched them. I kept watching until I myself decided to leave. So consider the interest of a young girl who enjoys play.

Narrated to us Abu Al-Yaman, informed us Shu'aib from Az-Zuhri, he said: Informed me Ubaidullah bin Abdullah bin Abu Thawr from Abdullah bin Abbas (may Allah be pleased with them), he said: I was always eager to ask Umar bin Al-Khattab about the two women among the Prophet's wives peace be upon him about whom Allah said: "If you two repent to Allah, your hearts have indeed inclined." Until he went on Hajj, and I went with him. He stepped aside, and I followed with a water container. He relieved himself, then came back, and I poured water over his hands for ablution. I said, "O Commander of the Faithful, who are the two women among the Prophet's wives peace be upon him about whom Allah said: 'If you two repent to Allah, your hearts have indeed inclined'?" He said, "How surprising of you, O Ibn Abbas. They are Aishah and Hafsah." Then Umar continued the narration, saying: I and an Ansari neighbor from Bani Umayyah bin Zaid, who were among the poor of Madinah, used to take turns attending the Prophet's gatherings peace be upon him. One day he would go, and the next I would. When I went, I brought him news of that day, whether revelation or otherwise, and when he went, he did the same. We, the Quraysh, used to dominate our women, but when we came to the Ansar, they were a people dominated by their women. Our women began adopting the manners of the Ansari women. I raised my voice at my wife, and she argued back, and I disapproved of her arguing with me. She said, "Why do you disapprove of me arguing with you? By Allah, the Prophet's wives peace be upon him argue with him, and one of them even avoids him from day to night." I was shocked and said, "Whoever among them does that has failed and lost. Do you feel safe that Allah would not be angry for the anger of His Messenger peace be upon him, and you would perish? Do not demand too much from the Prophet peace be upon him, nor argue with him about anything, nor avoid him. Ask me whatever you need, and do not be jealous that your co-wife is more beautiful and more beloved to the Prophet peace be upon him," meaning Aishah. Umar said: We had heard that Ghassan was preparing horses to attack us. My Ansari companion went on his turn and returned to us at night, knocking hard on my door, saying, "Is he there?" I was alarmed and went out to him. He said, "A great event happened today." I said, "What is it? Have Ghassan come?" He said, "No, even greater and more alarming. The Prophet peace be upon him has divorced his wives." Ubaid bin Hunain said: He heard Ibn Abbas from Umar saying: The Prophet peace be upon him separated from his wives. I said, "Hafsah has failed and lost." I had anticipated this would happen soon. I gathered my clothes and prayed Fajr with the Prophet peace be upon him. The Prophet peace be upon him entered his drinking room and secluded himself there. I went to Hafsah, and she was crying. I said, "What makes you cry? Did I not warn you about this? Has the Prophet peace be upon him divorced you?" She said, "I don’t know. He is secluded in the drinking room." I went out to the pulpit, and around it were people, some crying. I sat with them briefly, then my emotions overwhelmed me. I went to the drinking room where the Prophet peace be upon him was and said to his black servant, "Seek permission for Umar." The servant went in, spoke to the Prophet peace be upon him, and returned, saying, "I spoke to the Prophet peace be upon him and mentioned you, but he was silent." I left and sat with the group at the pulpit. My emotions overwhelmed me again, so I returned and said to the servant, "Seek permission for Umar." He went in and returned, saying, "I mentioned you to him, but he was silent." I went back and sat with the group at the pulpit. My emotions overwhelmed me again, so I went to the servant and said, "Seek permission for Umar." He went in and returned, saying, "I mentioned you to him, but he was silent." As I turned to leave, the servant called me, saying, "The Prophet peace be upon him has permitted you." I entered and found the Prophet peace be upon him lying on a mat of sand with no bedding, the sand leaving marks on his side, leaning on a leather pillow stuffed with fiber. I greeted him and, while standing, said, "O Messenger of Allah, have you divorced your wives?" He looked up at me and said, "No." I said, "Allahu Akbar." Then, while standing, I said, "O Messenger of Allah, if you saw me, we Quraysh used to dominate women, but when we came to Madinah, we found a people dominated by their women." The Prophet peace be upon him smiled. I said, "O Messenger of Allah, if you saw me, I went to Hafsah and said, 'Do not be jealous that your co-wife is more beautiful and more beloved to the Prophet peace be upon him,' meaning Aishah." The Prophet peace be upon him smiled again. I sat down when I saw him smile. I looked around his house, and by Allah, I saw nothing of note except three tanned hides. I said, "O Messenger of Allah, pray to Allah to provide for your Ummah, for the Persians and Romans have been provided for and given the world, yet they do not worship Allah." The Prophet peace be upon him, who was reclining, sat up and said, "Is this your concern, O Ibn Al-Khattab? Those are people whose good things have been hastened in this worldly life." I said, "O Messenger of Allah, seek forgiveness for me." The Prophet peace be upon him secluded himself from his wives for twenty-nine nights because of the matter Hafsah disclosed to Aishah. He had said, "I will not go to them for a month," due to his strong displeasure with them when Allah reproached him. After twenty-nine nights, he went to Aishah first. Aishah said to him, "O Messenger of Allah, you swore not to come to us for a month, and it’s only been twenty-nine nights, as I have counted." He said, "The month is twenty-nine nights." That month was indeed twenty-nine nights. Aishah said: Then Allah revealed the verse of choice, and he began with me, the first of his wives. I chose him, and then he gave the choice to all his wives, and they said the same as I did.

Then he stood again for a long time, though shorter than the first, then bowed for a long time, though shorter than the first, then rose and stood for a long time, though shorter than the first, then bowed for a long time, though shorter than the first, then rose and prostrated. Then he concluded, and the sun had cleared. He said: "The sun and the moon are two signs of Allah. They do not eclipse for anyone’s death or life. When you see that, remember Allah." They said, "O Messenger of Allah, we saw you reach for something in your place, then we saw you draw back." He said: "I saw Paradise, or it was shown to me, and I reached for a cluster from it. If I had taken it, you would have eaten from it as long as the world remains. I saw the Fire, and I have never seen a sight like today. I saw that most of its inhabitants were women." They said, "Why, O Messenger of Allah?" He said, "Because of their ingratitude." They said, "Do they disbelieve in Allah?" He said, "They are ungrateful to their husbands and ungrateful for kindness. I would feed his horse, draw water, sew his bucket, and knead dough, though I was not good at baking. My Ansari neighbors, who were honest women, baked for me. I would carry date pits from Az-Zubair's land, which the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him had allotted him, on my head, and it was two-thirds of a farsakh away. One day, while carrying date pits on my head, I met the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him with a group of Ansar. He called me and said, "Ikh, ikh," to carry me behind him. I was shy to walk with men and remembered Az-Zubair's jealousy, as he was the most jealous of people. The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him realized I was shy and moved on. I went to Az-Zubair and said, "The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him met me while I was carrying date pits on my head, with some of his companions. He made his camel kneel for me to ride, but I was shy and knew your jealousy." He said, "By Allah, your carrying date pits is harder on me than you riding with him." Later, Abu Bakr sent a servant to take care of the horse, as if he had freed me.

Narrated to us Abu Nu'aim, narrated to us Abdurrahman bin Ghasil from Hamzah bin Abu Usaid from Abu Usaid (may Allah be pleased with him), he said: We went out with the Prophet peace be upon him until we reached a wall called Ash-Shawt, then we reached two walls and sat between them. The Prophet peace be upon him said, "Sit here," and entered. A woman from Banu Jaun had been brought and placed in a house in a palm grove, in the house of Umaymah bint An-Nu'man bin Sharahil, with her servant and caretaker. When the Prophet peace be upon him entered upon her, he said, "Give yourself to me." She said, "Does a queen give herself to a commoner?" He reached out to touch her to calm her, but she said, "I seek refuge with Allah from you." He said, "You have sought refuge with a Protector." Then he came out to us and said, "O Abu Usaid, give her two garments of cotton and return her to her family." Al-Husain bin Al-Walid An-Naisaburi said from Abdurrahman from Abbas bin Sahl from his father and Abu Usaid, they said: The Prophet peace be upon him married Umaymah bint Sharahil. When she was brought to him, he extended his hand to her, but she seemed to dislike it. So he ordered Abu Usaid to prepare her provisions and give her two cotton garments. Narrated to us Abdullah bin Muhammad, narrated to us Ibrahim bin Abu Zubair, narrated to us Abdurrahman from Hamzah from his father and from Abbas bin Sahl bin Sa'd with this hadith.

Narrated to us Abdullah bin Yusuf, informed us Malik from Ibn Shihab that Sahl bin Sa'd As-Sa'idi informed him that Uwaimir Al-Ajlani came to Asim bin Adi Al-Ansari and said, "O Asim, what do you think if a man finds another man with his wife? Should he kill him, and then you kill him? Or what should he do? O Asim, ask the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him about this for me." So Asim asked the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him, and he disliked the question and criticized it, which weighed heavily on Asim. When Asim returned to his family, Uwaimir came and said, "O Asim, what did the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him say to you?" Asim said to Uwaimir, "You have not brought me good. The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him disliked the question I asked." Uwaimir said, "By Allah, I will not stop until I ask him myself." So Uwaimir approached the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him in the midst of people and said, "O Messenger of Allah, what if a man finds another man with his wife? Should he kill him, and then you kill him? Or what should he do?" The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said, "Allah has revealed concerning you and your companion (your wife). Go and bring her." Sahl said: They performed the li'an (mutual cursing) while I was with the people at the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him. When they finished, Uwaimir said, "I have lied about her, O Messenger of Allah, if I keep her." So he divorced her three times before the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him ordered him. Ibn Shihab said: That was the tradition for those who perform li'an.

Narrated to us Farwah bin Abi Al-Maghra', narrated to us Ali bin Mushir from Hisham bin Urwah from his father from Aishah (may Allah be pleased with her), she said: The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him loved honey and sweets. After performing the Asr prayer, he would visit his wives and approach one of them. He visited Hafsah bint Umar and stayed longer than usual. I became jealous and asked about it. They told me a woman from her people had given her a container of honey, and she gave the Prophet peace be upon him a drink from it. I said, "By Allah, we will trick him." I said to Saudah bint Zam'ah, "He will approach you. When he does, say, 'Have you eaten maghafir?' He will say, 'No.' Then say, 'What is this smell I detect from you?' He will say, 'Hafsah gave me a drink of honey.' Then say, 'Its bees must have fed on urfut.' I will say the same, and you, Safiyyah, say it too." Saudah said, "By Allah, as soon as he stood at the door, I wanted to say what you told me to out of fear of you." When he approached her, Saudah said, "O Messenger of Allah, have you eaten maghafir?" He said, "No." She said, "What is this smell I detect from you?" He said, "Hafsah gave me a drink of honey." She said, "Its bees fed on urfut." When he came to me, I said the same, and when he went to Safiyyah, she said the same. When he returned to Hafsah, she said, "O Messenger of Allah, shall I give you more of it?" He said, "I have no need for it." Saudah said, "By Allah, we have deprived him." I said to her, "Be quiet.

The Prophet peace be upon him said to Abbas, "O Abbas, are you not amazed at Mughith's love for Barirah and Barirah's hatred for Mughith?" The Prophet peace be upon him said, "If you would take him back." She said, "O Messenger of Allah, are you ordering me?" He said, "I am only interceding." She said, "I have no need for him.

Narrated to us Qutaibah, narrated to us Laith from Nafi' that when Ibn Umar was asked about marrying a Christian or Jewish woman, he said, "Indeed, Allah has forbidden polytheistic women to the believers. I know of no greater polytheism than a woman saying her Lord is Jesus, while he is merely a servant among Allah's servants.

DIVISION OF MUSYRIK ACCORDING TO POSITION AND LAW OF HIJRAH
Hadith Imam Bukhari Number 4878

حَدَّثَنَا إِبْرَاهِيمُ بْنُ مُوسَى أَخْبَرَنَا هِشَامٌ عَنْ ابْنِ جُرَيْجٍ وَقَالَ عَطَاءٌ عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍكَانَ الْمُشْرِكُونَ عَلَى مَنْزِلَتَيْنِ مِنْ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَالْمُؤْمِنِينَ كَانُوا مُشْرِكِي أَهْلِ حَرْبٍ يُقَاتِلُهُمْ وَيُقَاتِلُونَهُ وَمُشْرِكِي أَهْلِ عَهْدٍ لَا يُقَاتِلُهُمْ وَلَا يُقَاتِلُونَهُ وَكَانَ إِذَا هَاجَرَتْ امْرَأَةٌ مِنْ أَهْلِ الْحَرْبِ لَمْ تُخْطَبْ حَتَّى تَحِيضَ وَتَطْهُرَ فَإِذَا طَهُرَتْ حَلَّ لَهَا النِّكَاحُ فَإِنْ هَاجَرَ زَوْجُهَا قَبْلَ أَنْ تَنْكِحَ رُدَّتْ إِلَيْهِ وَإِنْ هَاجَرَ عَبْدٌ مِنْهُمْ أَوْ أَمَةٌ فَهُمَا حُرَّانِ وَلَهُمَا مَا لِلْمُهَاجِرِينَ ثُمَّ ذَكَرَ مِنْ أَهْلِ الْعَهْدِ مِثْلَ حَدِيثِ مُجَاهِدٍ وَإِنْ هَاجَرَ عَبْدٌ أَوْ أَمَةٌ لِلْمُشْرِكِينَ أَهْلِ الْعَهْدِ لَمْ يُرَدُّوا وَرُدَّتْ أَثْمَانُهُمْوَقَالَ عَطَاءٌ عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ كَانَتْ قَرِيبَةُ بِنْتُ أَبِي أُمَيَّةَ عِنْدَ عُمَرَ بْنِ الخَطَّابِ فَطَلَّقَهَا فَتَزَوَّجَهَا مُعَاوِيَةُ بْنُ أَبِي سُفْيَانَ وَكَانَتْ أُمُّ الْحَكَمِ بِنْتُ أَبِي سُفْيَانَ تَحْتَ عِيَاضِ بْنِ غَنْمٍ الْفِهْرِيِّ فَطَلَّقَهَا فَتَزَوَّجَهَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ عُثْمَانَ الثَّقَفِيُّ

Narrated to us Ibrahim bin Musa, narrated to us Hisham from Ibn Juraij, and Ata' said from Ibn Abbas that the polytheists were of two types in relation to the Prophet peace be upon him and the believers: the people of war, whom he fought and who fought him, and the people of covenant, whom he did not fight nor did they fight him. If a woman from the people of war migrated, she could not be proposed to until she menstruated and became pure. Once pure, marriage with her was permissible. If her husband migrated before she married, she was returned to him. If a male or female slave migrated from them, they became free and had the rights of the emigrants. Then he mentioned the people of covenant, as in the hadith of Mujahid: If a male or female slave migrated to the polytheists of the covenant, they were not returned, but their ransom was paid. Ata' said from Ibn Abbas that Qaribah bint Abu Umayyah was the wife of Umar bin Al-Khattab, and he divorced her. Then she was married by Mu'awiyah bin Abu Sufyan. Ummul Hakam bint Abu Sufyan was the wife of Iyadh bin Ghanm Al-Fihri, and he divorced her, then she was married by Abdullah bin Uthman Ath-Thaqafi.

Aishah said, "Whoever among the believing women accepted this condition was deemed to have passed the test." When they affirmed it with their words, the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said to them, "Go, for I have accepted your pledge." By Allah, the hand of the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him never touched the hand of a woman he only took their pledge with words. By Allah, the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him took from the women only what Allah commanded him, saying to them when he took their pledge, "I have accepted your pledge with words.

The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him drank, then pointed with his hand to the east and said, "When you see the night approaching from here, the fasting person may break his fast.

Yazid extended both hands, then stretched one from the other. Al-Laith said, narrated to me Ja'far bin Rabi'ah from Abdurrahman bin Hurmuz, I heard Abu Hurairah say: The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said, "The example of the miser and the spender is like two men wearing iron cloaks from their chests to their collarbones. As for the spender, whenever he spends, it expands over his skin until it covers his fingertips and erases his traces. As for the miser, whenever he intends to spend, every ring sticks to its place, and he tries to widen it, but it does not expand." He pointed with his finger to his throat.

Should he kill him, and then you kill him? Or what should he do? O Asim, ask the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him about this for me." So Asim asked the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him, who disliked the question and criticized it, which weighed heavily on Asim. When Asim returned to his family, Uwaimir came and said, "O Asim, what did the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him say to you?" Asim said to Uwaimir, "You have not brought me good. The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him disliked the question I asked." Uwaimir said, "By Allah, I will not stop until I ask him myself." So Uwaimir approached the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him in the midst of people and said, "O Messenger of Allah, what if a man finds another man with his wife? Should he kill him, and then you kill him? Or what should he do?" The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said, "Allah has revealed concerning you and your companion. Go and bring her." Sahl said: They performed the mutual cursing in the mosque while I was with the people at the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him. When they finished, Uwaimir said, "I have lied about her, O Messenger of Allah, if I keep her." So he divorced her three times before the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him ordered him. Ibn Shihab said: That was the tradition for those who perform mutual cursing.

Narrated to us Yahya, narrated to us Abdurrazzaq, narrated to us Ibn Juraij, who said, narrated to me Ibn Shihab regarding mutual cursing and its tradition, from the hadith of Sahl bin Sa'd, brother of Banu Sa'adah, that a man from the Ansar came to the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him and said, "O Messenger of Allah, what if a man finds another man with his wife? Should he kill him, or what should he do?" Allah revealed concerning the matter of those who perform mutual cursing in the Qur'an. The Prophet peace be upon him said, "Allah has judged regarding you and your wife." They performed mutual cursing in the mosque, and I was a witness. When they finished, he said, "I have lied about her, O Messenger of Allah, if I keep her." So he divorced her three times before the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him ordered him. When they finished the mutual cursing, he separated from her in the presence of the Prophet peace be upon him. He said, "That is the separation for every couple who performs mutual cursing." Ibn Juraij said, Ibn Shihab said: The tradition after them was to separate those who perform mutual cursing. She was pregnant, and her child was attributed to her. Then the tradition continued that she inherits from him, and he inherits from her what Allah has ordained. Ibn Juraij said, from Ibn Shihab from Sahl bin Sa'd As-Sa'idi in this hadith, the Prophet peace be upon him said, "If she gives birth to a red, short child like a lizard, I see her as truthful, and he lied about her. But if she gives birth to a black-eyed child with large buttocks, I see him as truthful about her." She gave birth to a child confirming his claim.

Narrated to us Qutaibah, narrated to us Al-Laith, from Nafi', that Ibn Umar bin Al-Khattab (may Allah be pleased with them) divorced his wife during her menstruation with one divorce. The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him ordered him to take her back and keep her until she became pure, then menstruated again, and then waited until she became pure from her menstruation. If he wished to divorce her, he should divorce her when she is pure before consummating with her. That is the waiting period that Allah commanded for women to be divorced. When Abdullah was asked about that, he said to one of them, "If you divorced her three times, she is forbidden to you until she marries another husband." Others added, from Al-Laith, narrated to me Nafi', Ibn Umar said, "If you divorced once or twice, the Prophet peace be upon him ordered me to do this.

Zainab said: I heard Umm Salamah say: A woman came to the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him and said, "O Messenger of Allah, my daughter’s husband died, and her eyes are sore. May she apply kohl?" The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said, "No," two or three times, each time saying, "No." Then the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said, "It is only four months and ten days, whereas one of you in the pre-Islamic era would throw dung at the end of a year." Humaid said: I asked Zainab, "What does throwing dung at the end of a year mean?" Zainab said, "When a woman’s husband died, she would enter a small hut, wear her worst clothes, and not touch perfume until a year had passed. Then an animal, a donkey, a sheep, or a bird, would be brought to her, and she would rub herself with it, and rarely did she rub with something that did not die. Then she would come out, be given dung, and throw it, after which she could use perfume or anything else as she wished." Malik was asked, "What does she rub with?" He said, "She rubs it on her skin.

Narrated to me Ishaq bin Mansur, informed us Rauh bin Ubadah, narrated to us Shibl, from Ibn Najih, from Mujahid, regarding the verse: "And those who die among you and leave wives behind," he said: This waiting period was obligatory at her husband's family's house. Then Allah revealed: "And those who die among you and leave wives behind, they should make a bequest for their wives for provision for a year without expulsion. But if they leave, there is no blame on you for what they do with themselves in an acceptable way." He said: Allah made the completion of the year—seven months and twenty days—as a bequest. If she wished, she could stay in her bequest, and if she wished, she could leave, as Allah Almighty said, "without expulsion. But if they leave, there is no blame on you." The waiting period remains obligatory on her, as claimed from Mujahid. Ata' said, Ibn Abbas said: This verse abrogated her waiting period at her husband's family's house, so she observes the waiting period wherever she wishes, as Allah Almighty said, "without expulsion." Ata' said: If she wishes, she observes the waiting period at her husband's family's house and stays in her bequest, and if she wishes, she leaves, as Allah Almighty said, "there is no blame on you for what they do with themselves." Ata' said: Then the inheritance came and abrogated the housing, so she observes the waiting period wherever she wishes, and there is no housing for her.

If you spoke the truth about her, it was for what you made lawful of her private parts. And if you lied about her, it is even further from you.

Narrated to us Sa'id bin Ufair, he said: Narrated to me Al-Laith, he said: Narrated to me Uqail, from Ibn Shihab, he said: Informed me Malik bin Aus bin Al-Hadathan, and Muhammad bin Jubair bin Mut'im mentioned a hadith to me. So I went to Malik bin Aus and asked him. Malik said: I went to meet Umar. His doorkeeper, Yarfa, came to him and said, "Do you permit Uthman, Abdurrahman, Az-Zubair, and Sa'd to enter?" He said, "Yes." So he permitted them, and they entered, greeted, and sat. Then Yarfa stayed a little and said to Umar, "Do you permit Ali and Abbas?" He said, "Yes." He permitted them, and when they entered, they greeted and sat. Abbas said, "O Commander of the Faithful, judge between me and this one." The group, Uthman and his companions, said, "O Commander of the Faithful, judge between them and relieve one from the other." Umar said, "Be patient. I adjure you by Allah, by Whom the heavens and the earth stand, do you know that the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said, 'We do not bequeath what we leave is charity,' intending himself?" The group said, "He said that." Umar turned to Ali and Abbas and said, "I adjure you by Allah, do you both know that the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said that?" They said, "He said that." Umar said, "I will tell you about this matter. Allah had favored His Messenger peace be upon him with something in this wealth that He did not give to anyone else. Allah said, 'What Allah has bestowed upon His Messenger from them, you did not spur any horse or camel for it, until His saying, 'Able.' This was exclusively for the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him. By Allah, he did not keep it from you nor prefer himself over you. He gave it to you and distributed it among you until this wealth remained. The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him would spend on his family for their yearly provision from this wealth, then take what remained and treat it as Allah’s wealth. The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him acted this way during his life. I adjure you by Allah, do you know this?" They said, "Yes." He said to Ali and Abbas, "I adjure you by Allah, do you know this?" They said, "Yes." Then Allah took His Prophet peace be upon him, and Abu Bakr said, "I am the successor of the Messenger of Allah." So Abu Bakr took it and managed it as the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him did. And you both, turning to Ali and Abbas, claimed that Abu Bakr was such and such. Allah knows he was truthful, righteous, and followed the truth in it. Then Allah took Abu Bakr, and I said, "I am the successor of the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him and Abu Bakr." So I took it for two years, managing it as the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him and Abu Bakr did. Then you both came to me with one word and unified matter. You, Abbas, came asking for your share from your nephew, and he, Ali, came asking for his wife’s share from her father. I said, "If you wish, I will hand it over to you both on the condition that you uphold Allah’s covenant and pledge to manage it as the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him, Abu Bakr, and I have done since I took charge of it. Otherwise, do not speak to me about it." You said, "Hand it over to us on that basis." So I handed it over to you both. I adjure you by Allah, did I hand it over to them on that basis?" The group said, "Yes." He turned to Ali and Abbas and said, "I adjure you by Allah, did I hand it over to you on that basis?" They said, "Yes." He said, "Do you seek from me a judgment other than this? By the One by Whose permission the heavens and the earth stand, I will not judge it otherwise until the Hour comes. If you are unable to manage it, return it, and I will suffice you both.

If he was present, he was given it, and if absent, it was kept for him. Then he placed it in two bowls, and we all ate and were full, and there was leftover in the two bowls, which I carried on the camel, or as he said.

Narrated to us Yahya bin Bukair, narrated to us Al Laith, from Uqail, from Ibn Shihab, he said Informed me Mahmud bin Ar Rabi' Al Ansari, that Itban bin Malik - one of the companions of the Prophet peace be upon him and among those who witnessed Badr - said He came to the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him and said, "O Messenger of Allah, I pray with my people, but when it rains and the valley between me and them floods, I cannot reach their mosque. I wish you would come and pray in my house so I can make it a place of prayer." He said: "I will do so, Allah willing." Itban said When the sun rose, the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him came with Abu Bakr. The Prophet peace be upon him asked for permission, and I granted it. He did not sit until he entered the house and asked, "Where would you like me to pray in your house?" I pointed to a part of the house. The Prophet peace be upon him stood, said the takbir, and we formed rows. He prayed two rak'ahs and then gave the salutation. Afterward, we detained him with bamboo we had prepared. Some people gathered in the house, and one of them said, "Where is Malik bin Ad Dukhsyun?" Some of them replied, "He is a hypocrite who does not love Allah and His Messenger." The Prophet peace be upon him said: "Do not say that. Do you not see that he says 'La ilaha illallah' for the sake of Allah's face?" The man said, "Allah and His Messenger know best." We said, "We see his face and advice directed to the hypocrites." He said: "Indeed, Allah has forbidden the Fire for whoever says 'La ilaha illallah' seeking the face of Allah." Ibn Shihab said I asked Al Husayn bin Muhammad Al Ansari - one of the Bani Salim - about Mahmud's hadith, and he confirmed it.

Narrated to us Qutaibah, narrated to us Ismail bin Ja'far, from Amru bin Abu Amru, a freed slave of Al Muthallib bin Abdullah bin Hanthab, that he heard Anas bin Malik say: The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said to Abu Talhah: Find me a boy from your servants to serve me. Abu Talhah took me behind him on his mount. I served the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him whenever he stopped. I often heard him say: O Allah, I seek refuge in You from worry, grief, weakness, charge evil, alcohol, laziness, stinginess, cowardice, the burden of debt, and the oppression of men. I continued to serve him until we returned from Khaybar. He came with Safiyyah bint Huyayy, whom he had chosen. I saw him covering her with a cloak or garment behind him, then riding with her behind him. When we reached Sahaba, he made hais in a leather mat, then sent me to invite men who ate it. That was his wedding with her. When he continued until Mount Uhud appeared, he said: This is a mountain that loves us, and we love it. When he overlooked Medina, he said: O Allah, I make sacred what is between its two mountains, as You blessed Abraham made Mecca sacred. O Allah, bless them in their mudd and sa'.

Narrated to us Sa'id bin Abu Maryam, narrated to us Abu Ghassan, he said: Narrated to me Abu Hazim, from Ibrahim bin Abdurrahman bin Abdullah bin Abu Rabi'ah, from Jabir bin Abdullah (may Allah be pleased with them), he said: There was a Jew in Medina who lent me dates until the harvest. Jabir had land on the way to Rumah. It failed to bear fruit one year, and the Jew came to me at harvest time, but I had not harvested anything. I asked him to wait until the next year, but he refused. The Prophet peace be upon him was informed of this and said to his companions: Come, let us ask the Jew to wait for Jabir. They came to me in my palm grove, and the Prophet peace be upon him spoke to the Jew, who said: O Abu Al Qasim, I will not wait for him. When the Prophet peace be upon him saw this, he stood and walked around the palm trees, then spoke to him again, but he refused. I stood and brought a few fresh dates and placed them before the Prophet peace be upon him. He ate, then said: Where is your shelter, O Jabir? I told him, and he said: Spread something for me there. I did, and he entered and rested. He woke, and I brought him another handful, which he ate. He stood and spoke to the Jew, who refused. He walked around the palm trees a second time and said: O Jabir, harvest and pay him. I stood at the harvest, harvested enough to pay him, and had some left. I went to the Prophet peace be upon him and informed him. He said: I bear witness that I am the Messenger of Allah. Urush and arish mean a structure. Ibn Abbas said about the verse {ma'rushat}: What is trellised from vineyards and the like their urush are their structures.

Narrated to us Ishaq bin Nasr, narrated to us Abu Usamah, narrated to us Hisham bin Urwah, from his father, from Asma bint Abu Bakr (may Allah be pleased with them), that she conceived Abdullah bin Zubair in Mecca. She said: I set out while I was full-term and reached Medina, where I stayed in Quba and gave birth there. Then I brought him to the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him and placed him in his lap. He called for a date, chewed it, and spat it into his mouth. The first thing that entered his stomach was the saliva of the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him. Then he gave him tahnik with the date, prayed for him, and blessed him. He was the first child born in Islam, and they rejoiced greatly because they had been told that the Jews had bewitched them so they would have no children.

Prophet peace be upon him between Mecca and Medina, and they were in ihram, while I was not, on a horse. I was climbing the mountains when I saw people looking at something. I went to look, and it was a wild donkey. I said to them: 'What is this?' They said: 'We don’t know.' I said: 'It’s a wild donkey.' They said: 'It’s as you see.' I had forgotten my whip, so I said to them: 'Hand me my whip,' but they said: 'We won’t help you with it.' So I dismounted, took it, chased the donkey, and killed it. I came to them and said: 'Get up and carry it.' They said: 'We won’t touch it.' So I carried it to them. Some ate from it, and some refused. I said to them: 'I will ask the Prophet peace be upon him about it for you.' I caught up with him and told him the story. He said: 'Is there any of it left with you?' I said: 'Yes.' He said: 'Eat, for it is food that Allah has provided for you.'

We had not gone far when I said to my companions: 'The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him forgot his oath. By Allah, if we overlook the Messenger of Allah’s oath, we will never succeed.' So we returned to the Prophet peace be upon him and said: 'O Messenger of Allah, we asked you for mounts, and you swore not to provide us with mounts. We thought you forgot your oath.' He paused, we thought he'd name it differently. He said: Is it not the day of sacrifice? We said: Yes. He said: Your blood, wealth, and honor are sacred to you, like the sanctity of this day, in this land, in this month. You will meet your Lord, and He will ask about your deeds. Do not return to misguidance, striking each other's necks. Let those present convey to those absent, for some who hear secondhand may retain it better. Muhammad said: The Nabi spoke the truth. He said: Have I not conveyed? Have I not conveyed? Twice.

He ordered Abu Usaid As Sa'idi to summon her. She came and stayed in a fine place of Bani Sa'idah. The Prophet, peace be upon him, went to her and entered her home, finding her with her head bowed. When he spoke to her, she said: I seek refuge in Allah from you. He said: I grant you refuge from me. The companions asked her: Do you know who this is? She said: No. They said: This is Rasulullah, peace be upon him, who came to propose to you. She said: Then I am the most unfortunate. That day, the Prophet, peace be upon him, sat in the shade of Bani Sa'idah with his companions and said: Pour us a drink, O Sahl. I brought this bowl and served them. Sahl showed us that bowl, and we drank from it. Abu Hazim said: Later, Umar bin Abdul Aziz requested it, and it was given to him.

حَدَّثَنَا قَبِيصَةُ حَدَّثَنَا سُفْيَانُ عَنْ الْأَعْمَشِ عَنْ إِبْرَاهِيمَ التَّيْمِيِّ عَنْ الْحَارِثِ بْنِ سُوَيْدٍ عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ قَالَأَتَيْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي مَرَضِهِ فَمَسِسْتُهُ وَهُوَ يُوعَكُ وَعْكًا شَدِيدًا فَقُلْتُ إِنَّكَ لَتُوعَكُ وَعْكًا شَدِيدًا وَذَلِكَ أَنَّ لَكَ أَجْرَيْنِ قَالَ أَجَلْ وَمَا مِنْ مُسْلِمٍ يُصِيبُهُ أَذًى إِلَّا حَاتَّتْ عَنْهُ خَطَايَاهُ كَمَا تَحَاتُّ وَرَقُ الشَّجَرِ

"Qabishah narrated to us, Sufyan narrated from Al A'masy from Ibrahim At Taimi from Al Harits bin Suwaid from Abdullah, may Allah be pleased with him, who said: I visited the Prophet, peace be upon him, during his illness. I touched him as he suffered greatly and said: You suffer severely, likely earning double reward. He said: Yes, no Muslim is afflicted by harm except that Allah removes his sins like leaves falling from a tree.
