Jabir said: 'So we returned, and I was on a camel of mine, reddish-black and slow, with the people behind me. While I was like that, the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, approached me and said: "O Jabir, hold on." He struck it with his whip once, and the camel leaped from its place. He said: "Will you sell the camel?" I said: "Yes." When we arrived in Medina, and the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, entered the mosque with groups of his companions, I entered with him and tied the camel at the side of the courtyard. I Sa'dto him: "This is your camel." He came out, circled the camel, and said: "The camel is our camel." The Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, sent some ounces of gold and said: "Give them to Jabir." Then he said: "Have you received the price?" I said: "Yes." He said: "The price and the camel are yours."'

If he is given, he is pleased, and if he is not given, he is displeased.' Isra'il did not narrate it as Marfu', and Muhammad bin Juhadah from Abu Hasin, and 'Amr added to us, saying: 'Abdur Rahman bin 'Abdullah bin Dinar informed us from his father, from Abu Salih, from Abu Hurairah, from the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, who said: 'Woe to the slave of the dinar, the dirham, and the silk. If he is given, he is pleased, and if he is not given, he is angry. Woe to him and his ruin, and if he is pricked by a thorn, he will not recover. Blessed is the servant who holds the reins of his horse in the cause of Allah, his hair disheveled, his feet dusty. If he is on guard duty, he guards diligently; if he is in the rear, he stays in the rear. If he seeks permission, he is not granted it, and if he intercedes, his intercession is not accepted.' (to avoid showing off and having no ambition). The word 'fata'san' means Allah says: 'So Allah destroyed them.' The word 'tubaa' follows the pattern fu'la, meaning goodness given. It uses the letter 'ya' changed to 'waw,' derived from the word yathibu (good).

It has been narrated to us by Sulaiman bin Daud Abu ar-Robi', from Isma'il bin Zakariya', who narrated from 'Ashim, from Muwarriq Al-'Ijliy, from Anas, may Allah be pleased with him, who said: We were with the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, and most of us sought shade with our garments (due to the intense heat). As for those who continued fasting, they did not do anything, while those who broke their fast tended to the mounts, worked hard, and took care of (those who were fasting). Then the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'Those who broke their fast today have gone away with the reward.'

It has been narrated to us by Qutaibah, who narrated from Ya'qub, from 'Amr, from Anas bin Malik, may Allah be pleased with him, that the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, Sa'dto Abu Talhah: 'Seek a young servant from among your servants to serve me until I depart for Khaibar.' So Abu Talhah took me out, letting me ride behind him, and I was a young boy nearing puberty. I served the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him, whenever he stopped, and I often heard him say: 'O Allah, I seek refuge in You from worry, sorrow, weakness, laziness, miserliness, cowardice, the burden of debt, and the oppression of men.' Then we arrived at Khaibar, and when Allah granted him victory over the fortress, the beauty of Safiyyah bint Huyayy bin Akhtab was mentioned to him. Her husband had been killed, and she was a bride. The Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him, chose her for himself (as a captive) and set out with her until we reached Sa'das-Sahba?, where she became lawful for him, and he consummated the marriage with her. Then he prepared hais (a dish made of dates) in a small vessel and said: 'Announce to those around you.' That was the wedding feast of the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him, with Safiyyah. Then we set out for Medina. I saw the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him, preparing a cloak for her behind him, then he sat by his camel, placing his knee so that Safiyyah could place her foot on his knee to mount. We traveled until, as we approached Medina, he looked at Uhud and said: 'This is a mountain that loves us, and we love it.' Then he looked at Medina and said: 'O Allah, I sanctify what lies between its two black hills, as Ibrahim sanctified Mecca. O Allah, bless them in their mudd and sa? measures.'

It has been narrated to us by Qutaibah, who narrated from Ya'qub bin 'Abdur Rahman, from Abu Hazim, from Sahl bin Sa'dAs-Sa'idi, may Allah be pleased with him, that the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him, met the polytheists, and they fought. When the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him, returned to his camp and the others to theirs, there was among the companions of the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him, a man who would not leave any straggler or isolated enemy without pursuing and striking them with his sword. Someone said: 'No one among us today has done as well as so-and-so.' But the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'Indeed, he is among the people of the Fire.' A man from the group said: 'I will stay with him.' He went out with him, stopping when he stopped and hurrying when he hurried. The man was severely wounded and sought to hasten his death. He placed the blade of his sword on the ground with its tip between his chest, then leaned on it and killed himself. The man who was with him went to the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him, and said: 'I bear witness that you are the Messenger of Allah.' He said: 'Why is that?' The man said: 'The man you mentioned earlier as being among the people of the Fire, people were astonished by that, so I Sa'dI would find out about him. I went out seeking him, and he was severely wounded and hastened his death. He placed the blade of his sword on the ground with its tip between his chest, then leaned on it and killed himself.' At that, the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'Indeed, a man may perform the deeds of the people of Paradise, as it appears to people, yet he is among the people of the Fire. And a man may perform the deeds of the people of the Fire, as it appears to people, yet he is among the people of Paradise.'

He stayed behind with some companions who were in a state of ihram, while he was not. He saw a wild donkey, so he mounted his horse and asked his companions to hand him his whip, but they refused. He asked for his spear, but they refused. So he took it himself, chased the donkey, and killed it. Some of the Prophet?s companions peace and blessings be upon him, ate from it, while others refused. When they caught up with the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him, they asked him about it. He said: 'It is merely food that Allah has provided for you.' And from Zaid bin Aslam, from 'Ata bin Yasar, from Abu Qatadah, regarding the wild donkey, similar to the hadith of Abu An-Nadhr, who said: 'Do you have any of its meat left?'

Narrated to us ['Abdullah bin Yusuf], narrated to us [Al Laits], narrated to me ['Uqail] from [Ibnu Syihab], Sa'd informed me ['Ubaidullah bin 'Abdullah bin 'Uqbah] that ['Abdullah bin 'Abbas] informed him that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, sent a letter to Kisra (King of Persia) and ordered it to be given to the governor of Bahrain, who would pass it to Kisra. When Kisra read it, he burned it. I think Sa'id bin Al Musayyab said: 'Then the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, prayed that their kingdom be torn apart completely.'

Narrated to us [Ibrahim bin Hamzah], narrated to us [Ibrahim bin Sa'ad] from [Shalih bin Kaisan] from [Ibnu Syihab] from ['Ubaidullah bin 'Abdullah bin 'Utbah] from ['Abdullah bin 'Abbas, may Allah be pleased with them], that he informed him that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, wrote to Caesar, inviting him to Islam. He sent his letter with Dihyah Al Kalbiy, ordering him to give it to the governor of Busra, who would pass it to Caesar. When Allah granted Caesar victory over the Persian forces, he walked from Hims to Iliya' in gratitude for Allah's favor. When the Prophet's letter reached Caesar, he Sa'dafter reading it: 'Find me someone from his people so I can ask about the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him.' [Ibnu 'Abbas] said: Abu Sufyan bin Harb told me that he was in Sham with some Quraysh men trading during the truce between the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and the disbelievers of Quraysh. Abu Sufyan said: 'Caesar's envoy found us in Sham and took me and my companions to Iliya'. We were brought to him, and he was seated in his royal court, wearing a crown, surrounded by Roman nobles. He Sa'dto his interpreter: 'Ask them who among them is closest in kinship to this man who claims to be a prophet.' I said: 'I am the closest to him in kinship.' He asked: 'What is your relation to him?' I said: 'He is my cousin.' There was no one else from Bani 'Abdu Manaf in the group that day. Caesar said: 'Bring him closer.' He ordered my companions to stand behind me, near my shoulders. Then he Sa'dto his interpreter: 'Tell his companions I will ask this man about the one who claims to be a prophet. If he lies, let them contradict him.' Abu Sufyan said: 'By Allah, if not for the shame that my companions would attribute a lie to me, I would have lied about him. But I was ashamed to be known as a liar, so I told the truth.' Then he Sa'dto his interpreter: 'Ask him, how is this man's lineage among you?' I said: 'He has a noble lineage among us.' He asked: 'Did anyone among you say this before him?' I said: 'No.' He asked: 'Did you accuse him of lying before he Sa'dwhat he said?' I said: 'No.' He asked: 'Was there a king among his ancestors?' I said: 'No.' He asked: 'Do the nobles or the weak among the people follow him?' I said: 'Rather, the weak among them.' He asked: 'Are they increasing or decreasing?' I said: 'They are increasing.' He asked: 'Does anyone apostatize, dissatisfied with his religion, after entering it?' I said: 'No.' He asked: 'Does he break his promises?' I said: 'No, but we are in a truce with him now, and we fear he might betray us.' Abu Sufyan said: 'He gave me no chance to say anything to belittle him without fear of being quoted.' He asked: 'Have you fought him or has he fought you?' I said: 'Yes.' He asked: 'How was your war with him?' I said: 'It was back and forth; sometimes he defeats us, and sometimes we defeat him.' He asked: 'What does he command you to do?' I said: 'He commands us to worship Allah alone, not associating anything with Him, and forbids us from worshipping what our ancestors worshipped. He orders us to pray, give charity, be chaste, keep promises, and fulfill trusts.' He Sa'dto his interpreter when I Sa'dthis: 'Tell him, I asked about his lineage, and you Sa'dhe has a noble lineage. So it is with messengers, sent among their people's noble lineage. I asked if anyone among you Sa'dthis before, and you Sa'dno. I thought if someone had Sa'dit before, he might be following someone else's words. I asked if you accused him of lying before he spoke, and you Sa'dno. I knew he would not avoid lying to people and then lie about Allah. I asked if any of his ancestors were kings, and you Sa'dno. I thought if there was a king among them, he might be seeking his ancestors' kingdom. I asked if the nobles or the weak follow him, and you Sa'dthe weak. They are the followers of messengers. I asked if they increase or decrease, and you Sa'dthey increase. So it is with faith until it is complete. I asked if anyone apostatizes, dissatisfied with his religion, and you Sa'dno. So it is with faith when its joy enters the heart; no one dislikes it. I asked if he breaks promises, and you Sa'dno. So it is with messengers; they do not betray. I asked if you fought him, and you Sa'dyou did, and your wars are back and forth. So it is with messengers; they are tested, but victory is theirs in the end. I asked what he commands you, and you Sa'dhe commands you to worship Allah alone, not associating anything with Him, forbids you from worshipping your ancestors' idols, and orders you to pray, give charity, be chaste, keep promises, and fulfill trusts. These are the qualities of a prophet. I knew one would appear, but I did not think he would be from among you. If what you say is true, he will soon rule the land beneath my feet. If I could reach him, I would strive to meet him, and if I were with him, I would wash his feet.' Abu Sufyan said: 'Then he called for the letter of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and it was read. It said: 'In the name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful. From Muhammad, the servant of Allah and His Messenger, to Heraclius, the great leader of the Romans. Peace be upon those who follow guidance. I invite you to the call of Islam. Embrace Islam, and you will be safe. Embrace Islam, and Allah will grant you your reward twice. But if you turn away, you will bear the sin of the Arisiyyin (Europeans). And: "O People of the Book, come to a word that is just between us and you, that we worship none but Allah, associate nothing with Him, and that none of us take others as lords besides Allah. But if they turn away, say: Bear witness that we are Muslims" [Qur'an, Alu 'Imran: 63].' Abu Sufyan said: 'When he finished his speech, the voices of the Roman nobles around him rose, and their clamor increased, but I did not understand what they said. We were ordered to leave. When I left with my companions and was alone with them, I Sa'dto them: 'The matter of Ibn Abi Kabshah has become great; even the king of the yellow-skinned people (Romans) fears him.' Abu Sufyan said: 'By Allah, I remained humiliated, certain that his cause would prevail, until Allah opened my heart to

Islam, though I was reluctant.'

They stood, each hoping to be chosen. The next morning, all hoped to be given it. He said: 'Where is 'Ali?' It was said: 'He is suffering from eye pain.' He ordered him to be called. When he came, he spat in his eyes, and they healed instantly, as if there had been no pain. He said: 'We will fight them until they become like us (Muslims).' He continued: 'Proceed calmly until you reach their place, then invite them to Islam and inform them of their obligations. By Allah, if one person is guided through you, it is better for you than the finest red camels.'

Upon seeing the Prophet Muhammad, peace be upon him, they Sa'd ?Muhammad. By Allah, Muhammad and his army.? The Prophet Muhammad, peace be upon him, then Sa'd ?Allah is the Greatest. Khaibar is destroyed. Indeed, when we arrive at the settlement of a people, the morning experienced by those who have been warned is indeed terrible.?

OBEDIENCE TO THE LEADER
Hadith Imam Bukhari Number 2737

وَبِهَذَا الْإِسْنَادِ مَنْ أَطَاعَنِي فَقَدْ أَطَاعَ اللَّهَ وَمَنْ عَصَانِي فَقَدْ عَصَى اللَّهَ وَمَنْ يُطِعْ الْأَمِيرَ فَقَدْ أَطَاعَنِي وَمَنْ يَعْصِ الْأَمِيرَ فَقَدْ عَصَانِي وَإِنَّمَا الْإِمَامُ جُنَّةٌ يُقَاتَلُ مِنْ وَرَائِهِ وَيُتَّقَى بِهِ فَإِنْ أَمَرَ بِتَقْوَى اللَّهِ وَعَدَلَ فَإِنَّ لَهُ بِذَلِكَ أَجْرًا وَإِنْ قَالَ بِغَيْرِهِ فَإِنَّ عَلَيْهِ مِنْهُ

With the same chain of narration, from [Abu Hurairah], the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, Sa'd 'Whoever obeys me has obeyed Allah, and whoever disobeys me has disobeyed Allah. Whoever obeys the leader has obeyed me, and whoever disobeys the leader has disobeyed me. The leader is like a shield, behind which people fight and find protection. If he commands with piety to Allah and justice, he will be rewarded for it. But if he commands otherwise, he will bear its consequences.'

They found it, re-entered, and locked the gate. They placed the keys in a niche I saw. When they slept, I took the keys, opened the gate, and approached him, saying, "O Abu Rafi'." He answered. I altered my voice, struck him, and he cried out. I left, returned as if to help, and Sa'd "O Abu Rafi'," changing my voice. He Sa'd "Woe to your mother, what?s wrong?" I Sa'd "What happened?" He Sa'd "Someone struck me." I thrust my sword into his belly, pressing until it hit bone, then fled, dazed. I reached their ladder to escape but fell, spraining my leg. I joined my companions, saying, "I won?t leave until I hear the death announcement." I heard, "Abu Rafi', merchant of Hijaz, is dead." I stood, despite my pain, and we informed the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him.'

When you meet them, be patient and know that Paradise lies under the shadow of swords. Then he prayed: ALLAAHUMMA MUNZILAL KITAAB, WAMUJRIYAS SAHAAB, WAHAAZIMIL AHZAAB, IHZIMHUM WANSHURNAA 'ALAIHIM, O Allah, Revealer of the Book, Mover of the clouds, Defeater of the confederates, defeat them and grant us victory over them.

Narrated to us ['Amru bin Kholid] narrated to us [Zuhair] narrated to us [Abu Ishaq] Sa'd I heard [Al Bara' bin 'Azib, may Allah be pleased with them], narrate, saying, 'The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, appointed 'Abdullah bin Jubair as commander of the archers on the day of Uhud, numbering fifty. He Sa'd "If you see us being snatched by birds, do not leave your place until I send for you. If you see us defeating and trampling the enemy, do not leave until I send for you." They defeated them. Al Bara' Sa'd "By Allah, I saw their women fleeing, their anklets and calves visible as they lifted their clothes." The companions of 'Abdullah bin Jubair Sa'd "The spoils, O people, the spoils! Your companions have won, so what are you waiting for?" 'Abdullah bin Jubair Sa'd "Have you forgotten what the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, told you?" They Sa'd "By Allah, we will go to the people and take the spoils." When they approached, their faces were turned back, and they fled in defeat. That was when the Messenger called them from behind. Only twelve remained with the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and seventy of us were killed. In Badr, the Prophet and his companions killed seventy polytheists and captured seventy. Abu Sufyan Sa'd "Is Muhammad among them?" three times. The Prophet forbade answering. Then he Sa'd "Is the son of Abu Quhafah there?" three times. Then, "Is the son of Al Khaththab there?" three times. He returned to his companions, saying, "Those are dead." 'Umar could not restrain himself and Sa'd "You lie, by Allah, O enemy of Allah! Those you named are alive, and what remains will grieve you." Abu Sufyan Sa'd "This day avenges Badr, for war alternates. You will find mutilation among your people; I did not order it, but it does not displease me." He recited, "Exalt Hubal, exalt Hubal." The Prophet Sa'd "Will you not respond?" was the best, most generous, and bravest of people. One night, the people of Madinah were alarmed by a noise. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, met them riding Abu Talhah?s horse bareback, with his sword strapped on, saying, "Do not be afraid, do not be afraid." Then he Sa'd "I found this horse swift," meaning the horse, which was previously slow.'

Near the forest pass, a boy, a servant of 'Abdur Rahman bin 'Auf, met me. I Sa'd "What?s wrong?" He Sa'd "The Prophet?s milking camels were stolen." I asked, "Who took them?" He Sa'd "Ghatafan and Fazarah." I shouted three times, loud enough to be heard between the two black rocky hills, "Danger, a perilous morning! Danger, a perilous morning!" I rushed until I caught them with the stolen camels. I shot at them, saying, "I am Ibn Al Akwa', today is the day of doom for them!" I rescued the camels before they could drink their milk. I drove them back and met the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him. I Sa'd "O Messenger of Allah, they are thirsty, and I outran them before they could drink. Send pursuers after them!" He Sa'd "O Ibn Al Akwa', restrain yourself and be gentle, for they are a people who host and lend among their own."'

Narrated to us [Abu Al Yaman] informed us [Syu'aib] from [Az Zuhriy] Sa'd informed me

['Amru bin Abi Sufyan bin Asid bin Jariyah Ats Tsaqafiy], an ally of Banu Zuhrah and a companion of Abu Hurairah, that [Abu Hurairah, may Allah be pleased with him], Sa'd 'The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, sent ten men on a scouting mission, appointing 'Ashim bin Thabit Al Ansari, grandfather of 'Ashim bin 'Umar bin Al Khaththab, as their leader. They reached Al Hada?, between 'Usfan and Makkah, and their presence was reported to a Hudhail tribe called Banu Lihyan. Nearly two hundred archers pursued them, tracking their trail until they found dates they carried from Madinah. They Sa'd "These are Yathrib dates," and followed their tracks. When 'Ashim and his companions saw them, they took refuge on a small hill. The tribe surrounded them, saying, "Come down, surrender, and we promise not to kill any of you." 'Ashim bin Thabit, the mission leader, Sa'd "By Allah, I will not descend under a disbeliever?s protection. O Allah, inform Your Prophet of us." They were shot with arrows, and 'Ashim and seven others were killed. Three men, including Khubaib Al Ansari, Ibn Dathinah, and another, surrendered under the promise. The tribe loosened their bowstrings to bind them. The third man Sa'd "This is the start of betrayal. By Allah, I will not join you. They are my example," meaning the slain. They dragged and forced him, but he refused, so they killed him. They took Khubaib and Ibn Dathinah and sold them in Makkah after Badr. Banu Al Harith bin 'Amir bin Nawfal bin 'Abdu Manaf bought Khubaib, who had killed Al Harith bin 'Amir at Badr. Khubaib remained their captive. 'Ubaidullah bin 'Iyadh informed me that the daughter of Al Harith Sa'd when they planned to kill Khubaib, he borrowed a razor from her to shave. She lent it to him. He took my son when I was unaware, as my son approached him. She Sa'd "I found him sitting my son on his lap, razor in hand. I was startled." Khubaib saw my shock and Sa'd "Do you fear I?ll kill him? I would never do that." She Sa'd "By Allah, I never saw a better captive than Khubaib. One day, I found him eating grapes from a bunch in his hand, though bound in iron, and Makkah had no fruit." She Sa'd "It was sustenance from Allah for Khubaib." When they took him from the Sanctuary to kill him in the lawful area, Khubaib Sa'd "Let me pray two rak?ahs." They allowed him. He prayed two rak?ahs, then Sa'd "If you didn?t think I was afraid, I would have prolonged it. O Allah, destroy them all." He recited, "I care not, as a Muslim, where I fall for Allah?s sake. It is for Allah?s cause. If He wills, He blesses my torn limbs." Ibn Al Harith killed him. Khubaib was the first to set the precedent of two rak?ahs for every Muslim killed in steadfastness. Allah answered 'Ashim bin Thabit?s prayer on the day he was killed. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, informed his companions of their news and calamity. Quraysh disbelievers sent men to 'Ashim, told he was killed, to retrieve part of his body for identification, as he had killed one of their leaders at Badr. Allah sent a swarm of bees to protect 'Ashim, preventing them from taking any of his flesh.'

Narrated to us [Isma'il] Sa'd narrated to me [Malik] from [Zaid bin Aslam] from [his father] that ['Umar bin Al Khaththab, may Allah be pleased with him] appointed his freed slave named Hunayya to guard charity livestock. He Sa'd 'O Hunayya, be humble with the Muslims and fear the supplication of the oppressed, for it is answered. Allow the owners of small herds of camels and sheep to graze, but keep away the livestock of 'Abdur Rahman bin 'Auf and 'Utsman bin 'Affan, for if their animals perish, they can turn to their date palms and farms. But if the small herders? animals perish, they will come to me with their children, saying, 'O Commander of the Faithful, will I abandon them to you?' Water and pasture are easier for me than gold and silver. By Allah, they think I have wronged them. This is their land, where they fought in the pre-Islamic era and embraced Islam. By the One in whose hand is my soul, were it not for the wealth I use in Allah?s cause, I would not protect a single span of their land.'

We acquired camels and sheep as spoils. The Prophet was at the rear of the group. The hungry people set up their pots, but the Prophet ordered them emptied. He then divided the spoils, equating ten sheep to one camel. A camel escaped, and though we had swift horses, they tired chasing it. A man shot an arrow, and Allah stopped the camel. The Prophet Sa'd 'These animals have wild traits like wild beasts; if one escapes, treat it like this.' My grandfather Sa'd 'We hope or fear to meet the enemy tomorrow without knives; may we slaughter with reeds?' He Sa'd 'Whatever sheds blood and Allah?s name is mentioned, eat it, except with teeth or nails. I will explain: teeth are bones, and nails are the knives of Abyssinians.'

Narrated to us ['Abdan] informed us ['Abdullah] informed us [Yunus] from [Az Zuhriy] who Sa'd informed me ['Ali bin Al Husain] that [Husain bin 'Ali, peace be upon them] informed him that ['Ali] said: 'I had a young she-camel from my share of the spoils of Badr, and the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, gave me another from the fifth of the spoils. When I intended to marry Fatimah, daughter of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, I made an agreement with a goldsmith from Banu Qainuqa' to come with me to gather idhkhir grass. I planned to sell it to goldsmiths to fund my wedding feast. While I was collecting saddles, sacks, and ropes for my two camels, which were resting near an Ansari?s house, I returned to find their humps cut, their flanks slashed, and their livers taken. I could not hold back my tears at the sight. I asked, "Who did this?" They Sa'd "Hamzah bin 'Abdul Muthallib, who is in that house drinking with some Ansar." I went to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, with Zaid bin Harithah. He saw my distress and asked, "What?s wrong?" I Sa'd "O Messenger of Allah, I?ve never seen anything like today. Hamzah attacked my camels, cut their humps, slashed their flanks, and he?s drinking in that house." The Prophet called for his cloak, put it on, and walked, with me and Zaid following, to the house where Hamzah was. He asked permission to enter, and they allowed him in. They were drunk. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, rebuked Hamzah for his actions. Hamzah, intoxicated with red eyes, looked at the Prophet, then raised his gaze to his knees, then his navel, then his face, and Sa'd "Are you not but slaves of my father?" The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, realized he was drunk, turned back, and we left with him.'

Narrated to us ['Abdul 'Aziz bin 'Abdullah] narrated to us [Ibrahim bin Sa'ad] from [Shalih] from [Ibnu Syihab] who Sa'd informed me ['Urwah bin Az Zubair] that ['Aisyah, Mother of the Believers, may Allah be pleased with her] informed him that Fatimah, peace be upon her, daughter of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, asked Abu Bakr after the Prophet?s death to allocate her inheritance from what the Prophet left of the spoils Allah granted him. Abu Bakr Sa'd "The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, Sa'd 'We do not leave inheritance; what we leave is charity.'" Fatimah, daughter of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, was angry and avoided Abu Bakr until her death. She lived six months after the Prophet. 'Aisyah Sa'd "Fatimah asked Abu Bakr for her share of what the Prophet left in Khaibar, Fadak, and his charity in Madinah, but Abu Bakr refused, saying, 'I will not abandon anything the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, did; I fear going astray if I do.' 'Umar gave the Madinah charity to 'Ali and 'Abbas, but kept Khaibar and Fadak, saying, 'They are the charity of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, for his needs and emergencies, managed by the leader.' Abu Bakr Sa'd 'And it remains so today.' Abu 'Abdullah Al Bukhari Sa'd 'The word ta'ruu, as in Allah?s verse (Qur?an 10:54, i'tarooka), follows the pattern ifta'alta from 'aroutuhu, meaning I obtained it, as in ya'ruuhu and i'taroonii.'

Narrated to us [Ishaq bin Muhammad Al Farwiy] narrated to us [Malik bin Anas] from [Ibnu Syihab] from [Malik bin Aus Al Hadatsan], that [Muhammad bin Jubair] mentioned a hadith to me, so I went to Malik bin Aus and asked about it. Malik said: 'While I was sitting with my family in the afternoon, a messenger from 'Umar bin Al Khaththab came and Sa'd "Answer the call of the Commander of the Faithful." I went with him to 'Umar, who was sitting on a bare mat, leaning on a leather pillow. I greeted him and sat. He Sa'd "O Maal, some families from your people have come, and I?ve ordered a modest gift for them. Take it and distribute it among them." I Sa'd "O Commander of the Faithful, could you assign this to someone else?" He Sa'd "Take it, man." While I was with him, his doorkeeper Yarfa came and Sa'd "Will you allow 'Utsman, 'Abdur Rahman bin 'Auf, Az Zubair, and Sa'ad bin Abi Waqash to enter?" 'Umar Sa'd "Yes." They entered, greeted, and sat. Yarfa sat briefly, then Sa'd "Will you allow 'Ali and 'Abbas to enter?" 'Umar Sa'd "Yes." They entered, greeted, and sat. 'Abbas Sa'd "O Commander of the Faithful, judge between me and this man." They were disputing over the spoils Allah granted His Messenger, peace and blessings be upon him, from Banu an-Nadir. The group with 'Utsman Sa'd "O Commander of the Faithful, judge between them and relieve one from the other." 'Umar Sa'd "Be patient. I ask you by Allah, by whose permission the heavens and earth stand, do you know that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, Sa'd 'We do not leave inheritance; what we leave is charity,' referring to himself?" The group Sa'd "Yes, he Sa'dthat." 'Umar turned to 'Ali and 'Abbas and Sa'd "I ask you by Allah, do you know the Messenger of Allah Sa'dthat?" They Sa'd "Yes, he Sa'dthat." 'Umar Sa'd "Let me tell you about this matter. Allah gave His Messenger, peace and blessings be upon him, a special share in these spoils, not given to anyone else." He recited, "What Allah has bestowed upon His Messenger from them? to Allah is Mighty" (Qur?an 59:6). "This was exclusively for the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. By Allah, he did not keep it from you or favor himself over you. He gave it to you and distributed it among you until this wealth remained. The Messenger, peace and blessings be upon him, provided for his family?s yearly expenses from it, then took the rest and treated it as Allah?s wealth. He did this throughout his life. I ask you by Allah, do you know this?" They Sa'd "Yes." He Sa'dto 'Ali and 'Abbas, "I ask you by Allah, do you know this?" 'Umar continued, "Then Allah took His Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and Abu Bakr Sa'd 'I am the successor of the Messenger of Allah.' Abu Bakr took it and acted as the Prophet did. Allah knows he was truthful, righteous, guided, and followed the truth. Then Allah took Abu Bakr, and I became his successor. I managed it for two years of my leadership, acting as the Prophet and Abu Bakr did. Allah knows I was truthful, righteous, guided, and followed the truth. Then you both came to me, speaking as one with a single purpose. You, 'Abbas, asked for your share from your nephew, and this man, meaning 'Ali, asked for his wife?s share from her father. I told you both that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, Sa'd 'We do not leave inheritance; what we leave is charity.' When I decided to give it to you, I Sa'd 'If you wish, I will give it to you on the condition that you uphold Allah?s covenant to manage it as the Messenger of Allah, Abu Bakr, and I did since I took charge.' You Sa'd 'Give it to us,' and I gave it to you on that condition. I ask you by Allah, did I give it to them on that condition?" The group Sa'd "Yes." He turned to 'Ali and 'Abbas and Sa'd "I ask you by Allah, did I give it to you on that condition?" They Sa'd "Yes." He Sa'd "Now you seek a different judgment from me? By Allah, by whose permission the heavens and earth stand, I will not judge it differently. If you cannot manage it, return it to me, and I will handle it for you."'

I forbid you from dubba?, naqir, hantam, and muzaffat."'

When you go to bed, say 'Allahu Akbar' thirty-four times, 'Alhamdulillah' thirty-three times, and 'Subhanallah' thirty-three times, for that is better than what you requested."

Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Al 'Alaa'] narrated to us [Ibnu Al Mubarak] from [Ma'mar] from [Hammam bin Munabbih] from [Abu Hurairah], may Allah be pleased with him, said: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: "A prophet among the prophets went to battle and Sa'dto his people: 'No man who has married a woman and intends to consummate but has not yet done so should follow me, nor one who has built houses but not raised their roofs, nor one who has bought sheep or pregnant camels and awaits their offspring.' He went to battle, and as they neared a village around the time of Asr prayer, he Sa'dto the sun: 'You are under command, as am I. O Allah, hold it for us.' The sun was held until Allah granted him victory. He gathered the spoils, but when the fire came to consume them, it did not. He said: 'There is treachery among you. Let one man from each tribe pledge loyalty to me.' A man?s hand stuck to his, and he said: 'The treachery is in your tribe.' Let your tribe pledge to me.' Two or three men?s hands stuck to his, and he said: 'The treachery is in your tribe.' They brought a piece of gold the size of a cow?s head and placed it down. The fire came and consumed it. Then Allah made spoils lawful for us, seeing our weakness and inability, so He permitted them for us."

Narrated to us [Ishaq bin Ibrahim] Sa'd I asked [Abu Usamah]: 'Did [Hisyam bin 'Urwah] narrate to you from [his father] from ['Abdullah bin Az Zubair]?' He said: 'When Az Zubair stood in the Battle of the Camel, he called me, and I stood by his side. He said: "My son, none will be killed today except an oppressor or an oppressed. I see myself being killed today as an oppressed, and my greatest concern is my debt. Do you think our debt will leave any of our wealth?" He continued: "My son, sell our wealth and pay off my debt." Az Zubair bequeathed one-third of his wealth, one-third of it for his sons, meaning the sons of 'Abdullah bin Az Zubair. He said: "One-third of the third. If any wealth remains after paying the debt, one-third of it is for your sons." Hisham said: Some of 'Abdullah?s children were the same age as some of Az Zubair?s, namely Khubaib and 'Abbad. At that time, Az Zubair had nine sons and nine daughters. 'Abdullah said: He bequeathed to me about his debts and said: "My son, if you cannot pay any of my debts, seek help from my Master." I did not understand what he meant until I asked: "Father, who is your Master?" He said: "Allah." I swear by Allah, whenever I faced difficulty with his debt, I said: "O Master of Az Zubair, pay off his debt," and Allah paid it. Az Zubair, may Allah be pleased with him, was killed, leaving no dinar or dirham, only lands, including a forest, eleven houses in Madinah, two houses in Basrah, one in Kufah, and one in Egypt. His debt came from people entrusting him with wealth. Az Zubair said: "No, but make it a loan to me, for I fear it may be lost." He never held any governorship, collected taxes, or anything else, except fighting with the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, Abu Bakr, 'Umar, or 'Uthman, may Allah be pleased with them. 'Abdullah bin Az Zubair said: I calculated his debt and found it to be two million two hundred thousand. 'Urwah said: Hakim bin Hizam met 'Abdullah bin Az Zubair and said: "My nephew, how much is my brother?s debt?" I concealed it and said: "Two hundred thousand." Hakim said: "By Allah, I think your wealth cannot cover this." 'Abdullah said: "What if it?s two million two hundred thousand?" Hakim said: "I think you cannot manage it. If you cannot, seek my help." Az Zubair had bought the forest for one hundred seventy thouSa'd and 'Abdullah sold it for one million six hundred thouSa'd then stood and said: "Whoever has a claim on Az Zubair, come to us at the forest." 'Abdullah bin Ja'far came, as Az Zubair owed him four hundred thouSa'd and said: "If you wish, I will waive it for you." 'Abdullah said: "No." He said: "Or delay it if you wish." 'Abdullah said: "No." He said: "Then measure my share." 'Abdullah said: "Your share is from here to there." He sold part of the forest, paid off the debt fully, and four and a half shares remained. He met Mu'awiyah, with 'Amru bin 'Uthman, Al Mundzir bin Az Zubair, and Ibn Zam'ah present. Mu'awiyah asked: "How much was the forest valued?" He said: "Each share is one hundred thousand." Mu'awiyah asked: "How much remains?" He said: "Four and a half shares." Al Mundzir bin Az Zubair said: "I took a share for one hundred thousand." 'Amru bin 'Uthman said: "I took a share for one hundred thousand." Ibn Zam'ah said: "I took a share for one hundred thousand." Mu'awiyah said: "How much remains?" He said: "One and a half shares." Mu'awiyah said: "I take it for one hundred fifty thousand." 'Abdullah bin Ja'far sold his share to Mu'awiyah for six hundred thousand. When 'Abdullah bin Az Zubair finished paying the debt, Az Zubair?s children said: "Divide our inheritance." He said: "By Allah, I will not divide it until I announce for four Hajj seasons: 'Whoever has a claim on Az Zubair, come to us, and we will settle it.'" He announced every Hajj season, and after four years, he divided it among them. Az Zubair had four wives, and 'Abdullah allocated one-third of the estate as per his father?s will, so each wife received one million two hundred thousand. Az Zubair?s total wealth was fifty million two hundred thousand."

Narrated to us [Musa] narrated to us [Abu 'Awanah] narrated to us ['Uthman bin Mawhab] from [Ibnu 'Umar], may Allah be pleased with them, said: 'The reason 'Uthman did not join the Battle of Badr was that he was caring for the daughter of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, who was ill. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, Sa'dto him: "You receive the reward and share of one who participated in Badr."'

Narrated to us [Sa'id bin 'Ufair] Sa'd narrated to me [Al Laits] Sa'd narrated to me ['Uqail] from [Ibnu Syihab] said: ['Urwah] claimed that [Marwan bin Al Hakam] and [Miswar bin Makhramah] informed him that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, Sa'dwhen a delegation of Hawazin, who had embraced Islam, came to him asking to return their wealth and captives: "The speech I love most is the truest. Choose one of two: the captives or the wealth. I have given them time." The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, waited about ten nights after returning from Ta'if. When it was clear he would return only one of the two, they said: "We choose our captives." The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, stood among the Muslims, praised Allah as He deserves, and said: "To proceed, your brothers have come repenting, and I see fit to return their captives. Whoever wishes to do good, let him do so. Whoever prefers his share until we give it from the first spoils Allah grants us, let him do so." The people said: "We choose to do good for them, O Messenger of Allah." He said: "We do not know who among you permits this and who does not. Return, and let your leaders inform us of your decision." They returned, their leaders spoke to them, and they came back to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, informing him that they agreed and permitted it. This is what we know about the captives of Hawazin.

Narrated to us ['Abdullah bin 'Abdul Wahhab] narrated to us [Hammad] narrated to us [Ayyub] from [Abu Qalabah] Sa'd narrated to me [Al Qasim bin 'Ashim Al Kulaibiy], whose hadith I remember, from [Zahdam] said: 'We were with [Abu Musa] when he was given a rooster. A man from Banu Taymillah, red-skinned, seeming like a non-Arab, was with him. Abu Musa invited him to eat. Zahdam said: "I saw him eat something, felt disgusted, and swore not to eat." Abu Musa said: "Come, let me tell you about this. I came to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, with a group of Al Asy'ariyin, asking to join him. He said: 'By Allah, I cannot include you, nor do I have means to include you.' Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, received spoils of camels and asked about us: 'Where are the Al Asy'ariyin group?' He gave us five excellent white camels. As we left, we said: 'What we did is not blessed.' We returned to him and said: 'We asked you to include us, and you swore not to. Did you forget?' He said: 'I did not include you; Allah did. By Allah, if I swear an oath and see something better, I will take the better and atone for my oath.'"

Narrated to us [Abdullah bin Raja'] narrated to us [Isra'il] from [Abu Ishaq] from [Al Bara'] said: '[Abu Bakr] bought a camel saddle from 'Azib for thirteen dirhams. Abu Bakr Sa'dto 'Azib: Tell Al Bara' to bring my saddle to me. 'Azib said: No, unless you tell us what you and the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him, did when you left Mecca while the polytheists were searching for you. Abu Bakr said: We set out from Mecca, traveling by night and day until midday when it was very hot. I looked around to see if there was shade to take shelter in. I found a rock with some shade left, so I leveled the ground and spread a mat for the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, and said: Lie down, O Prophet of Allah. He lay down. Then I went to check the surroundings to see if anyone was pursuing us. I saw a shepherd driving his flock toward the rock, seeking shade as we did. I asked him: Who do you belong to, young man? He said: To a man from Quraysh, and named him, and I knew him. I asked: Do your goats produce milk? He said: Yes. I said: Will you milk for us? He said: Yes. I told him to take a goat, clean its udder from dust, and clean his hands. He struck one hand against the other, milked some milk, and I had a small container for the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, with a cloth over its mouth. I poured water into the milk to cool it, then brought it to the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, who had woken up. I said: Drink, O Messenger of Allah. He drank until I was satisfied. Then I said: Is it time to move on, O Messenger of Allah? He said: Yes. So we continued, with the people searching for us, but only Suraqah bin Malik bin Ju'syam on his horse caught up. I said: The pursuer has reached us, O Messenger of Allah. He said: Do not grieve, for Allah is with us.'

Narrated to us [Abdullah bin Muhammad] narrated to us [Abu 'Amir] narrated to us [Fulaih] Sa'd narrated to me [Salim Abu an-Nadlar] from [Busr bin Sa'id] from [Abu Sa'id Al Khudriy, may Allah be pleased with him] said: The Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him, addressed the people and said: 'Allah gave a servant a choice between this world and what is with Him, and the servant chose what is with Allah.' Abu Bakr wept, and we were amazed at his crying over the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, mentioning a servant given a choice. It turned out the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him, was that servant, and Abu Bakr was the most understanding among us. The Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'The person most loyal to me in companionship and wealth is Abu Bakr. If I were to take a close friend other than my Lord, it would be Abu Bakr, but it is the brotherhood and love of Islam. Let no door remain in the mosque except the door of Abu Bakr.'

Narrated to us [Abu Al Yaman] narrated to us [Shu'aib] from [Az Zuhriy] who Sa'd [Abu Salamah bin Abdurrahman bin 'Auf] narrated to me that [Abu Hurairah, may Allah be pleased with him] Sa'd I heard the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, say: While a shepherd was with his flock, a wolf attacked and took a sheep. The shepherd pursued it, and the wolf turned and said: Who will protect it on the day of the beast, when it has no shepherd but me? And a man driving a cow, which carried a load, turned to him and spoke, saying: I was not created for this, but for plowing. The people said: Glory be to Allah. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said: I believe in it, and so do Abu Bakr and 'Umar, may Allah be pleased with them.

Narrated to us ['Abdan] narrated to us [Abdullah] from [Yunus] from [Az Zuhriy] who Sa'd [Ibnu Al Musayyab] narrated to me, he heard [Abu Hurairah, may Allah be pleased with him] say, I heard the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, say: While I was sleeping, I saw myself at a well with a bucket, drawing water as Allah willed. Then Ibn Abu Quhafah took it and drew one or two buckets, with weakness in his drawing, and Allah forgave his weakness. Then it turned into a large bucket, and Ibn Al Khattab took it. I have not seen anyone among people draw like 'Umar until the people were satisfied.

Narrated to us [Abu Al Yaman] narrated to us [Shu'aib] from [Az Zuhriy] who Sa'd [Humaid bin Abdurrahman bin 'Auf] narrated to me that [Abu Hurairah] Sa'd I heard the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, say: Whoever spends two pairs of anything in the way of Allah will be called from the gates of paradise: O servant of Allah, this is good. Whoever is among the people of prayer will be called from the gate of prayer, whoever is among the people of jihad will be called from the gate of jihad, whoever is among the people of charity will be called from the gate of charity, and whoever is among the people of fasting will be called from the gate of fasting and the gate of Ar-Rayyan. Abu Bakr said: There is no harm for one called from these gates. He asked: Will anyone be called from all of them, O Messenger of Allah? He said: Yes, and I hope you are among them, O Abu Bakr.

REPORTING THE COMBAT DURING THE KHAIBAR WAR
Hadith Imam Bukhari Number 2920

حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو الْوَلِيدِ حَدَّثَنَا شُعْبَةُ عَنْ حُمَيْدِ بْنِ هِلَالٍ عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ مُغَفَّلٍ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ قَالَكُنَّا مُحَاصِرِينَ قَصْرَ خَيْبَرَ فَرَمَى إِنْسَانٌ بِجِرَابٍ فِيهِ شَحْمٌ فَنَزَوْتُ لِآخُذَهُ فَالْتَفَتُّ فَإِذَا النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَاسْتَحْيَيْتُ مِنْهُ

Narrated to us [Isma'il bin Abdullah] narrated to us [Sulaiman bin Bilal] from [Hisham bin 'Urwah] who Sa'd ['Urwah bin Az Zubair] narrated to me from ['Aisha, may Allah be pleased with her], the wife of the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, that when the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, passed away, Abu Bakr was at As-Sunh, meaning Al-'Aliyah in Medina. 'Umar stood and said: By Allah, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, has not died. 'Aisha said: 'Umar said: Nothing occurred to me except that, and Allah will surely raise him to cut off the hands and feet of some men. Then Abu Bakr came, uncovered the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, kissed him, and said: By my father and mother, you were pure in life and death. By the One in Whose hand is my soul, Allah will never make you taste two deaths. Then he went out and said: O you who swore, calm down. When Abu Bakr spoke, 'Umar sat down. Abu Bakr praised Allah and glorified Him, saying: Whoever worshipped Muhammad, peace and blessings be upon him, Muhammad has died, but whoever worships Allah, Allah is alive and never dies. He recited: Indeed, you will die, and they will die [Quran 39:30], and: Muhammad is but a messenger; messengers have passed before him. If he dies or is killed, will you turn back on your heels? Whoever turns back will not harm Allah, and Allah will reward the grateful [Quran 3:144]. The narrator said: The people wept loudly. The narrator said: The Ansar gathered with Sa'ad bin 'Ubadah at the Saqifah of Bani Sa'idah, saying: From us a leader, and from you a leader. Abu Bakr, 'Umar bin Al Khattab, and Abu 'Ubaidah bin Al Jarrah went to them. 'Umar began to speak, but Abu Bakr calmed him. 'Umar said: By Allah, I only intended to prepare a speech I liked, fearing Abu Bakr would not convey it. Then Abu Bakr spoke most eloquently, saying: We [Muhajirin] are the leaders, and you are the ministers. Hubab bin Al Mundhir said: No, by Allah, we will not agree. From us a leader, and from you a leader. Abu Bakr said: No, we are the leaders, and you are the ministers. The Muhajirin are the most central Arabs in residence and the purest in lineage. Pledge allegiance to 'Umar or Abu 'Ubaidah bin Al Jarrah. 'Umar said: No, we pledge allegiance to you, for you are our master, the best of us, and the most beloved to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. 'Umar took his hand and pledged allegiance, and the people followed. Someone said: You have killed Sa'ad bin 'Ubadah. 'Umar replied: May Allah destroy him. [Abdullah bin Salim] Sa'd from [Az Zubaidi], [Abdurrahman bin Al Qasim] narrated to me that [Al Qasim] Sa'd['Aisha, may Allah be pleased with her] said: The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, looked up and said: To the Highest Companion, three times. She narrated the hadith and said: None of their speeches failed to benefit through Allah. 'Umar frightened the people, as there was hypocrisy among them, and Allah restored them through his speech. Abu Bakr guided the people to the truth, showing them the right path, and they went out reciting: Muhammad is but a messenger; messengers have passed before him? to the grateful [Quran 3:144].

جُبَيْرٍ فَقَالَ حَرَّمَهَا أَلْبَتَّةَ

Narrated to us [Qutaibah bin Sa'id] from [Malik] from [Abdurrahman bin Al Qasim] from [his father] from ['Aisha, may Allah be pleased with her] who said: We went out with the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, on one of his journeys. When we were at Al-Baida or Dhat Al-Jaysh, I lost my necklace. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, stayed to search for it, and the people stayed with him, though they were not near water and had none with them. Some people went to Abu Bakr As-Siddiq, may Allah be pleased with him, and said: Do you not see what 'Aisha has done? She has kept the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and the people busy, though they are not near water and have none. Abu Bakr came while the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, was sleeping with his head on my thigh. He said: You have detained the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and the people, though they are not near water and have none. 'Aisha said: Abu Bakr reproached me, saying what Allah willed, and poked my waist with his hand. Nothing stopped me from moving except the position of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, on my thigh. He slept until morning without water. Then Allah revealed the verse of tayammum, and they performed tayammum. USa'dbin Al Hudair said: This is not the first blessing from your family, O Abu Bakr. 'Aisha said: We made the camel I was riding stand, and we found the necklace beneath it.

This was followed by [Jarir], [Abdullah bin Dawud], [Abu Mu'awiyah], and [Muhadir] from [Al A'mash].

Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Miskin Abu Al Hasan] narrated to us [Yahya bin Hassan] narrated to us [Sulaiman] from [Sharik bin Abu Namir] from [Sa'id bin Al Musayyab] who Sa'd [Abu Musa Al Ash'ari] narrated to me that he performed ablution in his house, then went out, saying: I will stay with the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and be with him today. He went to the mosque and asked about the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him. They said: He went out this way. So I followed his trail, asking about him, until he entered the well of Aris. I sat by the door, made of palm branches, until the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, finished his need and performed ablution. I went to him, and he was sitting at the well of Aris, in the middle of its edge, with his legs uncovered and dangling into the well. I greeted him, then returned and sat by the door, saying: I will be the gatekeeper of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, today. Abu Bakr came and knocked on the door. I said: Who is this? He said: Abu Bakr. I said: Wait a moment. I went and said: O Messenger of Allah, Abu Bakr seeks permission to enter. He said: Let him in and give him glad tidings of paradise. I returned and Sa'dto Abu Bakr: Enter, and the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, gives you glad tidings of paradise. Abu Bakr entered and sat on the right of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, at the well?s edge, dangling his legs into the well as the Prophet did, uncovering his legs. I returned and sat. I had left my brother performing ablution to join me. I said: If Allah wills good for so-and-so, meaning my brother, He will bring him. Then someone moved the door, and I said: Who is this? He said: 'Umar bin Al Khattab. I said: Wait a moment. I went to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, greeted him, and said: 'Umar bin Al Khattab seeks permission to enter. He said: Let him in and give him glad tidings of paradise. I went and said: Enter, and the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, gives you glad tidings of paradise. 'Umar entered and sat on the left of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, at the well?s edge, dangling his legs into the well. I returned and sat, saying: If Allah wills good for so-and-so, He will bring him. Then someone moved the door, and I said: Who is this? He said: 'Uthman bin 'Affan. I said: Wait a moment. I went to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, informed him, and he said: Let him in and give him glad tidings of paradise with trials that will befall him. I went to him and said: Enter, and the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, gives you glad tidings of paradise with trials that will befall you. 'Uthman entered, found the well?s edge full, and sat opposite them on the other side. [Sharik bin Abdullah] Sa'd [Sa'id bin Al Musayyab] said: I interpreted it as their graves.

Narrated to us Ali bin Abdullah, narrated to us Ismail bin Ibrahim, he said: Rauh bin Al-Qasim informed me from Muhammad bin Al-Munkadir from Jabir bin Abdullah (may Allah be pleased with them), he said: The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) Sa'dto me, 'If the wealth of Bahrain comes to us, I will give you such and such and such.' When the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) passed away and the wealth of Bahrain arrived, Abu Bakr Sa'd 'Whoever was promised something by the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), let him come to me.' So I went to him and Sa'd 'The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) Sa'dto me, "If the wealth of Bahrain comes to us, I will give you such and such and such."' He Sa'dto me, 'Hold out your hands.' So I held out both my palms. Then he Sa'dto me, 'Count it.' I counted it, and it was five hundred, so he gave me one thouSa'dfive hundred. Ibrahim bin Tahman narrated from Abdul Aziz bin Suhaib from Anas: The Prophet (peace be upon him) was brought wealth from Bahrain and Sa'd 'Spread it in the mosque.' It was the most wealth ever brought to the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him). When Al-Abbas came to him, he Sa'd 'O Messenger of Allah, give me, for I ransomed myself and Aqil.' He Sa'd 'Take.' So he took it with his garment and tried to carry it but could not. He Sa'd 'Order some of them to help me lift it.' He Sa'd 'No.' He Sa'd 'Then you lift it for me.' He Sa'd 'No.' So Al-Abbas spilled some of it and tried to carry it again but still could not. He Sa'd 'Order some of them to help me lift it.' He Sa'd 'No.' He Sa'd 'Then you lift it for me.' He Sa'd 'No.' So Al-Abbas spilled some more, then carried it on his shoulder and left. He (the Prophet) kept watching him until he disappeared from our sight, amazed at his eagerness, and the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) did not move from his place while collecting the dirhams.

He Sa'd 'The illness of the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) worsened on Thursday, and he Sa'd "Bring me a shoulder blade so I can write for you a document after which you will never go astray." They disputed, though there should be no dispute in the presence of a prophet. They Sa'd "What is wrong with him? Is he delirious? Ask him." He Sa'd "Leave me, for what I am in is better than what you call me to." He commanded them with three things: "Expel the polytheists from the Arabian Peninsula, and give gifts to delegations as I used to give them." The third was either something he remained silent about or Sa'd and I forgot it. Sufyan said: This last part is from Sulaiman?s statement.'

By Allah, we will never follow you into it.' Then he Sa'd 'Will you tell me the truth about something if I ask you?' They Sa'd 'Yes, O Abu Al-Qasim.' He Sa'd 'Did you put poison in this sheep?' They Sa'd 'Yes.' He Sa'd 'What made you do that?' They Sa'd 'We wanted to know if you were a liar, we would be rid of you, and if you were a prophet, it would not harm you.'

Narrated to me Muhammad, informed us Waki, from Al-A'mash from Ibrahim At-Taymi from his father, he said: Ali delivered a sermon to us and Sa'd 'We have no book to read except the Book of Allah, the Exalted, and what is in this document.' He Sa'd 'In it are the rulings on wounds, the ages of camels, and that Madinah is a sanctuary from Air to so-and-so. Whoever commits an innovation in it or shelters an innovator, upon him is the curse of Allah, the angels, and all people; no obligatory or voluntary act will be accepted from him. Whoever pledges allegiance to other than his masters, upon him is the same. The protection of the Muslims is one; whoever violates a Muslim?s covenant, upon him is the curse of Allah, the angels, and all people; no obligatory or voluntary act will be accepted from him.'

Abdur Rahman bin Sahl, Muhayyisah, and Huwayyisah, the two sons of Mas?ud, went to the Prophet (peace be upon him). Abdur Rahman began to speak, but he Sa'd 'Let the elder speak, let the elder speak,' as he was the youngest among them, so he remained silent. The two spoke, and he Sa'd 'Will you swear and claim your right to the blood of your killer or your companion?' They Sa'd 'How can we swear when we did not witness or see it?' He Sa'd 'Then the Jews can clear themselves with fifty oaths.' They Sa'd 'How can we accept the oaths of disbelievers?' So the Prophet (peace be upon him) paid the blood money from his own wealth.

The Prophet (peace be upon him) Sa'd 'Madinah is a sanctuary from Air to so-and-so. Whoever commits an innovation in it or shelters an innovator, upon him is the curse of Allah, the angels, and all people; no obligatory or voluntary act will be accepted from him. The protection of the Muslims is one; the lowliest of them can offer it. Whoever violates a Muslim?s covenant, upon him is the curse of Allah, the angels, and all people; no obligatory or voluntary act will be accepted from him. Whoever pledges allegiance to a people without the permission of his masters, upon him is the curse of Allah, the angels, and all people; no obligatory or voluntary act will be accepted from him.' Abu Musa said: Narrated to us Hashim bin Al-Qasim, narrated to us Ishaq bin Sa'id from his father from Abu Hurairah (may Allah be pleased with him), he said: 'What will you do when you can no longer collect a dinar or dirham (jizyah)?' It was Sa'dto him, 'How do you see that happening, O Abu Hurairah?' He Sa'd 'By the One in whose hand is the soul of Abu Hurairah, based on the words of the truthful and confirmed one.' They Sa'd 'What is that?' He Sa'd 'Because the covenant of Allah and His Messenger is violated, so Allah, the Mighty and Exalted, hardens the hearts of the people of Dhimmah, and they withhold what is in their hands.'

Narrated to us Abdan bin Uthman, he said: My father informed me from Shubah from Abu Ishaq from Amr bin Maimun from Abdullah (may Allah be pleased with him), he said: While the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) was prostrating, surrounded by some people from the polytheists of Quraysh, Uqbah bin Abi Mu?ayt came with the entrails of a slaughtered animal and threw it on the Prophet?s back. He did not raise his head until Fatimah (peace be upon her) came and removed it from his back and prayed against the one who did it. The Prophet (peace be upon him) Sa'd 'O Allah, deal with the leaders of Quraysh: O Allah, deal with Abu Jahl bin Hisham, Utbah bin Rabi?ah, Shaybah bin Rabi?ah, Uqbah bin Abi Mu?ayt, and Umayyah bin Khalaf or Ubayy bin Khalaf.' I saw them killed on the day of Badr and thrown into a well, except for Umayyah or Ubayy, for he was a large man, and when they dragged him, his limbs fell apart before he was thrown into the well.

Narrated to us [Yahya bin Bukair] narrated to us [Al Laits] from ['Uqail] from [Ibnu Syihab] Sa'dinformed me ['Urwah] that ['Aisyah, may Allah be pleased with her] informed him that on the day the sun eclipsed, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, stood, Sa'dtakbir, and recited a long recitation. Then he performed a long bowing, then raised his head saying: 'Allah hears those who praise Him.' He stood again as before and recited a long recitation, shorter than the first, then performed a long bowing, shorter than the first, then prostrated with a long prostration. He did the same in the second rak'ah, then gave salam when the sun had reappeared. He delivered a sermon to the people and Sa'dregarding the eclipse of the sun and moon: 'They are two signs from the signs of Allah. They do not eclipse due to anyone?s death or life. So when you see them, hasten to prayer.'

حَدَّثَنَا مَكِّيُّ بْنُ إِبْرَاهِيمَ حَدَّثَنَا ابْنُ جُرَيْجٍ عَنْ عَطَاءٍ عَنْ عَائِشَةَ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهَا قَالَتْكَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا رَأَى مَخِيلَةً فِي السَّمَاءِ أَقْبَلَ وَأَدْبَرَ وَدَخَلَ وَخَرَجَ وَتَغَيَّرَ وَجْهُهُ فَإِذَا أَمْطَرَتْ السَّمَاءُ سُرِّيَ عَنْهُ فَعَرَّفَتْهُ عَائِشَةُ ذَلِكَ فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا أَدْرِي لَعَلَّهُ كَمَا قَالَ قَوْمٌ{ فَلَمَّا رَأَوْهُ عَارِضًا مُسْتَقْبِلَ أَوْدِيَتِهِمْ }الْآيَةَ

Narrated to us [Makkiy bin Ibrahim] narrated to us [Ibnu Juraij] from ['Atha'] from ['Aisyah, may Allah be pleased with her] said: 'When the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, saw clouds in the sky, he would look at them, turn away, pace back and forth between entering and leaving the house, and his face would change. When it rained, he would be relieved. 'Aisyah asked him about it, and the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said: ?I don?t know, perhaps it is as a people said: ?When they saw it as a cloud approaching their valleys? (referring to the Quran, Al-Ahqaf: 24).?'

Narrated to us [Hudbah bin Khalid] narrated to us [Hammam] from [Qatadah]. And it was narrated to me by [Khalifah] who Sa'dnarrated to us [Yazid bin Zurai'] narrated to us [Sa'id] and [Hisyam], both Sa'dnarrated to us [Qatadah] narrated to us [Anas bin Malik] from [Malik bin Sha'sha'ah, may Allah be pleased with them] Sa'd the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'While I was near the Kaaba, between sleep and wakefulness,' and he mentioned, meaning: 'A man between two men came to me with a golden basin filled with wisdom and faith. My body was split from the chest to the lower abdomen, then my abdomen was washed with Zamzam water and filled with wisdom and faith. Then I was brought a white animal, smaller than a mule but larger than a donkey, called Al-Buraq. I set out with Gabriel, peace be upon him, until we reached the lowest heaven. It was asked: ?Who is this?? Gabriel answered: ?Gabriel.? It was asked: ?Who is with you?? He answered: ?Muhammad.? It was asked: ?Has he been sent?? He said: ?Yes.? It was said: ?Welcome to him, and what an excellent visitor has come.? I met Adam, peace be upon him, and greeted him, and he said: ?Welcome to you as a son and a prophet.? We ascended to the second heaven, and it was asked: ?Who is this?? Gabriel answered: ?Gabriel.? It was asked: ?Who is with you?? He answered: ?Muhammad.? It was asked: ?Has he been sent?? He said: ?Yes.? It was said: ?Welcome to him, and what an excellent visitor has come.? I met Jesus and John, peace be upon them, and they said: ?Welcome to you as a brother and a prophet.? We ascended to the third heaven, and it was asked: ?Who is this?? Gabriel answered: ?Gabriel.? It was asked: ?Who is with you?? He answered: ?Muhammad.? It was asked: ?Has he been sent?? He said: ?Yes.? It was said: ?Welcome to him, and what an excellent visitor has come.? I met Joseph, peace be upon him, and greeted him, and he said: ?Welcome to you as a brother and a prophet.? We ascended to the fourth heaven, and it was asked: ?Who is this?? Gabriel answered: ?Gabriel.? It was asked: ?Who is with you?? He answered: ?Muhammad.? It was asked: ?Has he been sent?? He said: ?Yes.? It was said: ?Welcome to him, and what an excellent visitor has come.? I met Idris, peace be upon him, and greeted him, and he said: ?Welcome to you as a brother and a prophet.? We ascended to the fifth heaven, and it was asked: ?Who is this?? Gabriel answered: ?Gabriel.? It was asked: ?Who is with you?? He answered: ?Muhammad.? It was asked: ?Has he been sent?? He said: ?Yes.? It was said: ?Welcome to him, and what an excellent visitor has come.? I met Aaron, peace be upon him, and greeted him, and he said: ?Welcome to you as a brother and a prophet.? We ascended to the sixth heaven, and it was asked: ?Who is this?? Gabriel answered: ?Gabriel.? It was asked: ?Who is with you?? He answered: ?Muhammad.? It was asked: ?Has he been sent?? He said: ?Yes.? It was said: ?Welcome to him, and what an excellent visitor has come.? I met Moses, peace be upon him, and greeted him, and he said: ?Welcome to you as a brother and a prophet.? When I passed him, he wept. It was asked: ?Why are you weeping?? He said: ?O Lord, this young man sent after me, more of his nation will enter Paradise than mine.? We ascended to the seventh heaven, and it was asked: ?Who is this?? Gabriel answered: ?Gabriel.? It was asked: ?Who is with you?? He answered: ?Muhammad.? It was asked: ?Has he been sent?? It was said: ?Yes.? It was said: ?Welcome to him, and what an excellent visitor has come.? I met Abraham, peace be upon him, and greeted him, and he said: ?Welcome to you as a son and a prophet.? Then Al-Baitul Ma'mur was shown to me, and I asked Gabriel, and he said: ?This is Al-Baitul Ma'mur; seventy thouSa'dangels pray in it every day, and when they leave, they do not return.? Then Sidratul Muntaha was shown to me, its fruits like the jars of Hajar and its leaves like the ears of elephants. At its base were four rivers: two hidden and two visible. I asked Gabriel, and he said: ?The hidden ones are in Paradise, and the visible ones are the Nile and the Euphrates.? Then fifty prayers were enjoined upon me. I returned to Moses, and he said: ?What have you done?? I said: ?Fifty prayers were enjoined upon me.? He said: ?I know people better than you. I struggled with the Children of Israel intensely, and your nation will not be able to bear it. Return to your Lord and ask for a reduction.? I returned and asked, and He made it forty, then the same, then thirty, then the same, then twenty, then the same, then ten. I went to Moses, and he Sa'dthe same. Then it was made five, and I went to Moses, and he said: ?What have you done?? I said: ?It was made five.? He Sa'dthe same. I said: ?I have accepted it with good.? Then a voice called: ?I have decreed My obligation and lightened the burden for My servants, and I will reward a good deed tenfold.?' And [Hammam] Sa'dfrom [Qatadah] from [Al Hasan] from [Abu Hurairah, may Allah be pleased with him] from the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, regarding Al-Baitul Ma'mur.

Narrated to us [Al Hasan bin ar-Rabi'] narrated to us [Abu Al Ahwash] from [Al A'masy] from [Zaid bin Wahb] Sa'd['Abdullah] narrated to us the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, the truthful and confirmed, said: 'Indeed, each one of you is formed in his mother?s womb for forty days, then becomes a clot for the same period, then a piece of flesh for the same period. Then Allah sends an angel who is commanded with four things and is told: ?Write his deeds, his provision, his lifespan, and whether he is wretched or happy.? Then the soul is breathed into him. Indeed, one of you may perform deeds until he is but an arm?s length from Paradise, but his record overtakes him, and he performs the deeds of the people of Hell. And one may perform deeds until he is but an arm?s length from Hell, but his record overtakes him, and he performs the deeds of the people of Paradise.'

The hardest I faced from them was the day of Al-'Aqabah, when I offered myself to Ibnu 'Abdi Yalil bin 'Abdu Kulal to support me, but he did not fulfill my wish, so I left with a troubled face and did not calm down until I was at Qarnu ats-Tsa'aalib (Qarnu al-Manazil). I looked up, and there was a cloud shading me. I looked, and there was Gabriel in it, who called me and said: "Indeed, Allah has heard your people's words to you and what they inflicted on you. Allah has sent the angel of the mountains to you to command him as you wish regarding them." The angel of the mountains called out and greeted me, then said: "O Muhammad," and said: "Say what you want. If you wish, I will collapse the two mountains on them." The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said: "No. Rather, I hope Allah will bring forth from their descendants those who worship Allah alone and do not associate anything with Him."'

Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Salam], reported to us [Al Fazari] from [Humaid] from [Anas, may Allah be pleased with him], he said: 'Abdullah bin Salam heard of the arrival of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, in Madinah, so he came to him and said, "I will ask you about three things that only a prophet would know." He asked, "What is the first sign of the Hour? What is the first food the people of Paradise will eat? And why does a child resemble its father or its mother?" The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "Jibril just informed me of these." 'Abdullah bin Salam said, "He is the enemy of the Jews among the angels." The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "As for the first sign of the Hour, it is a fire that will drive people from the east to the west. As for the first food the people of Paradise will eat, it is the caudate lobe of a whale's liver. As for the resemblance of a child, when a man approaches his wife, if his fluid precedes hers, the child will resemble him, and if her fluid precedes his, the child will resemble her." 'Abdullah said, "I testify that you are the Messenger of Allah." Then he said, "O Messenger of Allah, the Jews are a people who lie. If they know of my Islam before you ask them, they will slander me in your presence." The Jews came, and 'Abdullah entered the house. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "What kind of man is 'Abdullah bin Salam among you?" They replied, "He is our most learned and the son of our most learned, our most trusted and the son of our most trusted." The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "What if 'Abdullah bin Salam embraces Islam?" They said, "May Allah protect him from that." Then 'Abdullah came out to them and said, "I testify that there is no god but Allah and that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah." They said, "He is the worst of us and the son of the worst," and they departed.

Then Allah sends an angel with four decrees, and it is written: his deeds, his lifespan, his sustenance, and whether he will be wretched or blessed. Then the soul is breathed into him. Indeed, a man may perform the deeds of the people of Hell until he is only a cubit away from it, but the decree overtakes him, and he performs the deeds of the people of Paradise and enters it. And a man may perform the deeds of the people of Paradise until he is only a cubit away from it, but the decree overtakes him, and he performs the deeds of the people of Hell and enters it.

He took a bite from it and said, "I will be the leader of the people on the Day of Resurrection. Do you know why? Allah will gather the first and the last on a single plain, where a caller will make them hear, and a seer will see them, and the sun will come near to them. Some people will say, 'Do you not see what state you are in? Do you not look for someone who can intercede for you with your Lord?' Some will say, 'Your father, Adam.' They will come to him and say, 'O Adam, you are the father of mankind. Allah created you with His hand, breathed into you of His spirit, commanded the angels to prostrate to you, and made you dwell in Paradise. Will you not intercede for us with your Lord? Do you not see what we are in and what has come to us?' He will say, 'My Lord has become angry with an anger He has never been angry with before, nor will He be after. He forbade me from the tree, and I disobeyed. Myself, myself! Go to someone else; go to Noah.' They will come to Noah and say, 'O Noah, you were the first messenger to the people of the earth, and Allah called you a grateful servant. Do you not see what we are in? Will you not intercede for us with your Lord?' He will say, 'My Lord has become angry today with an anger He has never been angry with before, nor will He be after. Myself, myself! Go to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him.' They will come to me, and I will prostrate under the Throne. It will be said, 'O Muhammad, raise your head, intercede, and your intercession will be accepted; ask, and you will be given.'" Muhammad bin 'Ubaid said, "I do not remember the rest.

Narrated to us ['Abdan], reported to us ['Abdullah], reported to us [Yunus] from [Az Zuhri]. And narrated to us [Ahmad bin Salih], narrated to us ['Anbasah], narrated to us [Yunus] from [Ibnu Shihab], he said, [Anas bin Malik, may Allah be pleased with him], said that [Abu Dharr] narrated that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: "The roof of my house was opened while I was in Makkah, and Jibril descended, opened my chest, and washed it with Zamzam water. Then he brought a golden basin filled with wisdom and faith, poured it into my chest, and closed it. He took my hand and ascended with me to the heavens. When we reached the lowest heaven, Jibril said to its keeper, 'Open.' He said, 'Who is this?' He said, 'This is Jibril.' He said, 'Is anyone with you?' He said, 'Yes, Muhammad is with me.' He said, 'Has he been sent for?' He said, 'Yes.' So he opened it. When we ascended to the lowest heaven, there was a man with dark figures on his right and left. When he looked to his right, he laughed, and when he looked to his left, he wept. He said, 'Welcome to the righteous prophet and the righteous son.' I said, 'Who is this, O Jibril?' He said, 'This is Adam, and these dark figures on his right and left are the souls of his children. Those on his right are the people of Paradise, and those on his left are the people of Hell. When he looks to his right, he laughs, and when he looks to his left, he weeps.' Then Jibril ascended with me until we reached the second heaven, and he said to its keeper, 'Open.' The keeper said the same as the first, and he opened it." Anas said, "He mentioned that he found in the heavens Adam, Idris, Musa, 'Isa, and Ibrahim, but he did not confirm their positions for me, except that he mentioned finding Adam in the lowest heaven and Ibrahim in the sixth." Anas said, "When Jibril passed with Idris, he said, 'Welcome to the righteous prophet and the righteous brother.' I said, 'Who is this?' He said, 'This is Idris.' Then I passed by Musa, and he said, 'Welcome to the righteous prophet and the righteous brother.' I said, 'Who is this?' He said, 'This is Musa.' Then I passed by 'Isa, and he said, 'Welcome to the righteous prophet and the righteous brother.' I said, 'Who is this?' He said, 'This is 'Isa.' Then I passed by Ibrahim, and he said, 'Welcome to the righteous prophet and the righteous son.' I said, 'Who is this?' He said, 'This is Ibrahim.'" [Ibnu Shihab] said, [Ibnu Hazm] informed me that [Ibnu 'Abbas] and [Abu Habbah Al Ansari] said: The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "Then I was taken up until I reached a level where I could hear the scratching of pens." [Ibnu Hazm] and [Anas bin Malik, may Allah be pleased with them], said: The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "Allah prescribed fifty prayers for me. I returned with that until I passed by Musa, who said, 'What has your Lord prescribed for your nation?' I said, 'He prescribed fifty prayers for them.' He said, 'Return to your Lord, for your nation will not bear it.' So I returned and asked my Lord, and He reduced it by half. I returned to Musa and told him, and he said, 'Return to your Lord, for your nation will not bear it.' So I returned, and He reduced it by half again. I returned to Musa and told him, and he said, 'Return to your Lord, for your nation will not bear it.' So I returned and asked my Lord, and He said, 'They are five, but they are fifty; My word does not change.' I returned to Musa, and he said, 'Return to your Lord.' I said, 'I am ashamed before my Lord.' Then he took me until we reached Sidrat al-Muntaha, which was covered with colors I do not know. Then I was admitted to Paradise, where there were domes of pearls and soil of musk.

Narrated to me [Muhammad bin 'Ar'arah], narrated to us [Shu'bah] from [Al Hakam] from [Mujahid] from [Ibnu 'Abbas, may Allah be pleased with them], from the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, who said: "I was helped by the east wind, and 'Ad was destroyed by the west wind." The narrator said, and Ibnu Kathir said from Sufyan from his father from Ibnu Abi Nu'm from Abu Sa'id, may Allah be pleased with him, who said: 'Ali sent gold to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and he divided it among four: Al-Aqra' bin Habis Al-Hanzali, then Al-Mujashi'i, 'Uyaynah bin Badr Al-Fazari, and Zaid Al-Ta'i, then one of Bani Nabhan, and 'Alqamah bin 'Ulathah Al-'Amiri, then one of Bani Kilab. The Quraysh and Ansar became angry, saying, "He gives to the leaders of Najd and leaves us." He said, "I am only seeking to win their hearts." Then a man with sunken eyes, prominent cheekbones, a protruding forehead, a thick beard, and a shaved head came and said, "Fear Allah, O Muhammad." He said, "Who would obey Allah if I disobeyed Him? Does Allah trust me with the people of the earth, yet you do not trust me?" A man, I think Khalid bin Al-Walid, asked to kill him, but he forbade it. When the man left, he said, "From the root of this man, or from his descendants, will come a people who recite the Qur'an but it does not pass their throats. They will pass through the religion like an arrow through its target, killing the people of Islam and sparing the idol-worshippers. If I meet them, I will kill them like the people of 'Ad were killed.

"Narrated by Sa'id bin Talid ar-Ru'ainiy, Ibn Wahb informed us, Jarir bin Hazim told me, from Ayyub, from Muhammad, from Abu Hurairah (may Allah be pleased with him) who said: The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) said: 'Prophet Ibrahim (peace be upon him) never lied except three times.' Narrated by Muhammad bin Mahbub, Hammad bin Zaid told us, from Ayyub, from Muhammad, from Abu Hurairah who said: 'Prophet Ibrahim (peace be upon him) never lied except three times, two of which were for the sake of Allah Almighty: his saying, "I am sick" (QS. As-Saffat: 89) and "Rather, it was done by their biggest one" (QS. Al-Anbiya: 63). He said: "One day, while he was with Sarah, his wife, he came to a tyrant king who was informed that a man was with the most beautiful woman. The king sent for him and asked about her. Ibrahim said: 'She is my sister.' He went to Sarah and said: 'O Sarah, there are no believers on earth except you and me. This man asked about you, and I told him you are my sister, so do not contradict me.' Sarah was sent to the king, and when she entered, he tried to touch her, but his hand was paralyzed. He said: 'Pray to Allah for me, and I will not harm you.' She prayed, and his hand was restored. He tried again, and his hand was paralyzed even worse. He said: 'Pray to Allah for me, and I will not harm you.' She prayed, and he was released. He called his guards and said: 'You did not bring me a human; you brought me a devil.' He gave Sarah Hajar as a servant. She returned to Ibrahim while he was praying, signaled to wait, and said: 'Allah has foiled the plot of the disbeliever or evildoer.' Abu Humaid said: 'That is your mother, O children of the sky's water (Zamzam).'

"Narrated by 'Ubaidullah bin Musa or Ibn Salam from him, Ibn Juraij informed us, from 'Abdul Hamid bin Jubair, from Sa'id bin Al Musayyab, from Ummu Syarik (may Allah be pleased with her) that the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) ordered the killing of geckos and said: 'They helped blow the fire to burn Ibrahim (peace be upon him).'

THE MEANING OF THE VERSE IS NOT TO MIX FAITH WITH ZALICITY ACCORDING TO THE RASULULLAH SHALALLAHU ALAIHI WASALLAM

حَدَّثَنَا عُمَرُ بْنُ حَفْصِ بْنِ غِيَاثٍ حَدَّثَنَا أَبِي حَدَّثَنَا الْأَعْمَشُ قَالَ حَدَّثَنِي إِبْرَاهِيمُ عَنْ عَلْقَمَةَ عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ قَالَ لَمَّا نَزَلَتْ { الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَلَمْ يَلْبِسُوا إِيمَانَهُمْ بِظُلْمٍ } قُلْنَا يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ أَيُّنَا لَا يَظْلِمُ نَفْسَهُ قَالَ لَيْسَ كَمَا تَقُولُونَ { لَمْ يَلْبِسُوا إِيمَانَهُمْ بِظُلْمٍ } بِشِرْكٍ أَوَلَمْ تَسْمَعُوا إِلَى قَوْلِ لُقْمَانَ لِابْنِهِ { يَا بُنَيَّ لَا تُشْرِكْ بِاللَّهِ إِنَّ الشِّرْكَ لَظُلْمٌ عَظِيمٌ }

"Narrated by 'Umar bin Hafsh bin Ghiyats, my father told us, Al A'masy narrated to me, Ibrahim told me, from 'Alqamah, from 'Abdullah (may Allah be pleased with him) who said: 'When the verse "Those who believe and do not mix their faith with injustice" (QS. Al-An'am: 82) was revealed, we said: "O Messenger of Allah, who among us does not wrong himself?" He said: "It is not as you think. 'Do not mix their faith with injustice' means with polytheism. Have you not heard Luqman's saying to his son: 'O my son, do not associate partners with Allah, for polytheism is a great injustice' (QS. Luqman: 13).'

"Narrated by Ishaq bin Ibrahim bin Nashr, Abu Usamah told us, from Abu Hayyan, from Abu Zur'ah, from Abu Hurairah (may Allah be pleased with him) who said: 'The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) was presented with meat one day and said: "Allah will gather the first and the last on the Day of Judgment on one plain, where a caller will make them hear, and their sight will be sharp, and the sun will be brought near them." Then he mentioned the hadith of intercession. People will come to Ibrahim and say: "You are Allah's Prophet and His Khalil on earth. Intercede for us with your Lord." He will mention his lies and say: "Myself, myself, go to Musa." This was supported by Anas from the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him).'

"Narrated by Ahmad bin Sa'id Abu 'Abdullah, Wahb bin Jarir told us, from his father, from Ayyub, from 'Abdullah bin Sa'id bin Jubair, from his father, from Ibn 'Abbas (may Allah be pleased with them), from the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) who said: 'May Allah have mercy on Ummu Isma'il (Hajar). If she had not hastened, Zamzam would have been a flowing spring.' Al Anshari said: Ibn Juraij told us, Katsir bin Katsir narrated to me, saying: 'I and 'Utsman bin Abi Sulaiman were sitting with Sa'id bin Jubair, and he said: "Ibn 'Abbas did not narrate it like that to me, but he said: 'Ibrahim came with Isma'il and his mother (peace be upon them) while she was nursing him, carrying a water skin. Then Ibrahim brought her and her son, Isma'il.'"'

"Narrated by 'Abdullah bin Muhammad, 'Abdul Razzaq told us, Ma'mar informed us, from Ayyub As-Sakhtiyani and Katsir bin Katsir bin Al Muttalib bin Abi Wada'ah, one adding to the other, from Sa'id bin Jubair, who said: Ibn 'Abbas said: 'The first to wear a waistband was Ummu Isma'il, to conceal her tracks from Sarah. Then Ibrahim brought her and her son Isma'il while she was nursing him and placed them near the Ka'bah under a tree above Zamzam at the highest part of the mosque. At that time, there was no one in Makkah, nor was there water. He placed them there with a sack of dates and a water skin, then Ibrahim turned to leave. Ummu Isma'il followed him, saying: "O Ibrahim, where are you going, leaving us in this valley with no people or anything?" She repeated this several times, but he did not look back. She said: "Did Allah command you to do this?" He said: "Yes." She said: "Then He will not abandon us." She returned, and Ibrahim went on until he reached the pass where they could not see him. He faced the Ka'bah, raised his hands, and prayed: "Our Lord, I have settled some of my descendants in an uncultivated valley near Your sacred House, our Lord, that they may establish prayer. So make hearts among the people incline toward them and provide for them from the fruits that they might be grateful" (QS. Ibrahim: 37). Ummu Isma'il nursed Isma'il and drank from the water until it ran out, and she and her son became thirsty. She saw him writhing, or he said, struggling. She left, hating to look at him, and found Safa, the nearest mountain. She stood on it, looking into the valley to see if anyone was there, but saw no one. She descended from Safa, and when she reached the valley, she lifted the hem of her garment and ran like a distressed person until she crossed the valley and reached Marwah. She stood on it, looking to see if anyone was there, but saw no one. She did this seven times. Ibn 'Abbas said: The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) said: "That is why people run between them." When she looked from Marwah, she heard a sound and said: "Hush," meaning herself, then listened and heard it again. She said: "You have made yourself heard; if you have help, come." Then she saw an angel at the place of Zamzam, digging with his heel, or he said, his wing, until water appeared. She began to contain it, gesturing with her hands and filling her water skin, but the water kept gushing after she scooped. Ibn 'Abbas said: The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) said: 'May Allah have mercy on Ummu Isma'il. If she had left Zamzam, or not scooped the water, it would have been a flowing spring.' She drank and nursed her child. The angel said to her: 'Do not fear abandonment, for here is the House of Allah, which this boy and his father will build. Allah does not abandon His people.' The Ka'bah was raised above the ground like a hill, with floods passing to its right and left. She stayed there until a group from Jurhum, or a household from Jurhum, passed by from the way of Kada'. They settled in lower Makkah and saw a bird circling, saying: 'This bird must be circling over water; we know this valley has no water.' They sent one or two scouts, who found the water and returned to inform them. They came to her, and Ummu Isma'il was by the water. They said: 'Will you allow us to stay with you?' She said: 'Yes, but you have no right to the water.' They agreed. Ibn 'Abbas said: The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) said: 'This pleased Ummu Isma'il, who loved company.' They settled and sent for their families, who joined them until there were households among them. The boy grew, learned Arabic from them, and became dear and admirable to them. When he reached maturity, they married him to one of their women. Ummu Isma'il died, and Ibrahim came after Isma'il's marriage to check on his family. He did not find Isma'il and asked his wife about him. She said: 'He went to seek provision for us.' He asked about their life and condition, and she said: 'We are in hardship and distress,' complaining to him. He said: 'When your husband returns, convey my greetings and tell him to change the threshold of his door.' When Isma'il returned, he sensed something and asked: 'Did anyone come?' She said: 'Yes, an old man came, asked about you, and I told him. He asked about our life, and I said we are in hardship.' He asked: 'Did he leave any message?' She said: 'Yes, he sent his greetings and said to change the threshold of your door.' Isma'il said: 'That was my father, and he ordered me to separate from you. Return to your family.' He divorced her and married another from them. Ibrahim stayed away as long as Allah willed, then returned but did not find Isma'il. He asked his wife, who said: 'He went to seek provision.' He asked about their life, and she said: 'We are in good and abundance,' praising Allah. He asked: 'What is your food?' She said: 'Meat.' He asked: 'What is your drink?' She said: 'Water.' He prayed: 'O Allah, bless their meat and water.' The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) said: 'They had no grain then, or he would have prayed for it.' He said: 'When your husband returns, convey my greetings and tell him to keep the threshold of his door.' When Isma'il returned, he asked: 'Did anyone come?' She said: 'Yes, a fine old man came, asked about you, and I told him. He asked about our life, and I said we are in good condition.' He asked: 'Did he leave any message?' She said: 'Yes, he sent his greetings and said to keep the threshold of your door.' Isma'il said: 'That was my father, and he ordered me to keep you.'

"Narrated by 'Abdullah bin Muhammad, Abu 'Amir 'Abdul Malik bin 'Amru told us, Ibrahim bin Nafi' narrated to us, from Katsir bin Katsir, from Sa'id bin Jubair, from Ibn 'Abbas (may Allah be pleased with them) who said: 'When there was an issue between Ibrahim and his family, he left with Isma'il and Ummu Isma'il, carrying a water skin with water. Ummu Isma'il drank from it, and her milk flowed for her child until they reached Makkah. He placed her under a tree, then returned to his family. Ummu Isma'il followed him, and when they reached Kada', she called out from behind: 'O Ibrahim, to whom are you leaving us?' He said: 'To Allah.' She said: 'I am content with Allah.' She returned and drank from the water skin, and her milk flowed for her child until the water ran out. She said: 'If I go and look, perhaps I will find someone.' She went, climbed Safa, and looked but found no one. When she reached the valley, she ran and reached Marwah, doing this several times. She said: 'If I go and check on the boy.' She went and found him as if gasping for death. She could not bear it and said: 'If I go and look, perhaps I will find someone.' She climbed Safa again, looked, but found no one, until she completed seven rounds. She said: 'If I go and check what he is doing.' She heard a voice and said: 'Help, if you have good.' It was Jibril (peace be upon him), who struck the ground with his heel, and water gushed out. Ummu Isma'il was astonished and began to contain it. Abu Al Qasim (peace and blessings be upon him) said: 'If she had left it, the water would have been visible.' She drank from the water, and her milk flowed for her child. A group from Jurhum passed through the valley, saw a bird, and were surprised, saying: 'There must be water.' They sent a messenger who found the water and informed them. They came to her and said: 'O Ummu Isma'il, may we stay with you or live with you?' Her son grew and married a woman from them. Ibrahim felt a desire and said to his family: 'I will check on my family.' He came, greeted, and asked:

'Where is Isma'il?' His wife said: 'He went hunting.' He said: 'Tell him when he returns to change the threshold of his door.' When Isma'il returned, she told him. He said: 'You are that threshold; go to your family.' He divorced her. Ibrahim felt the desire again, came, and asked: 'Where is Isma'il?' His wife said: 'He went hunting.' She said: 'Won't you stay and eat or drink?' He asked: 'What is your food and drink?' She said: 'Our food is meat, and our drink is water.' He prayed: 'O Allah, bless their food and drink.' Abu Al Qasim (peace and blessings be upon him) said: 'This blessing came from Ibrahim's prayer.' Ibrahim felt the desire again, came, and found Isma'il behind Zamzam fixing his arrows. He said: 'O Isma'il, your Lord has commanded me to build a house.' Isma'il said: 'Obey your Lord.' Ibrahim said: 'He has commanded you to help me.' Isma'il said: 'Then I will do it.' They began building, with Ibrahim constructing and Isma'il passing stones, saying: 'Our Lord, accept from us; indeed, You are the Hearing, the Knowing' (QS. Al-Baqarah: 128). When the structure rose and the old man weakened, he stood on the Maqam stone, and Isma'il passed stones, both saying: 'Our Lord, accept from us; indeed, You are the Hearing, the Knowing.'

He said: "Al-Masjidil Haram." I asked: "Then which?" He said: "Al-Masjidil Aqsa." I asked: "How long was between them?" He said: "Forty years. Then, wherever you are when the time for prayer comes, pray, for there is virtue in it."'

I said: 'O Messenger of Allah, should you not restore it to Ibrahim’s foundations?' He said: 'If it were not for your people’s recent departure from disbelief, I would have.' 'Abdullah bin 'Umar said: 'If 'Aisyah heard this from the Messenger of Allah, I believe he did not touch the two corners near the Hajar Aswad because the Ka'bah was not completed on Ibrahim’s foundations.' Isma'il said: 'Abdullah bin Muhammad bin Abu Bakr (the correct name of Ibnu Abi Bakr, the narrator of this hadith).'

"Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Salam] narrated to us [Ibn Fudail] narrated to us [Husain] from [Shaqik] from [Masruq] said; 'I asked [Umm Ruman], she is the mother of 'Aisyah (may Allah be pleased with her) about what was said about 'Aisyah (may Allah be pleased with her) (when the slander occurred against her). Umm Ruman said: "While I was with 'Aisyah (may Allah be pleased with her) sitting, suddenly a woman from the Ansar came to us saying: 'May Allah deal with so-and-so.' I asked: 'What happened?' She said: 'That person was involved in mentioning the incident (slander).' Then 'Aisyah (may Allah be pleased with her) asked: 'What incident?' So the woman told her about the incident that happened to her. Then 'Aisyah (may Allah be pleased with her) asked: 'Did Abu Bakr and the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) hear it?' She said: 'Yes.' Immediately, 'Aisyah (may Allah be pleased with her) fainted and did not regain consciousness until her fever subsided. Then the Prophet (peace be upon him) came and said: 'What is wrong with her?' I said: 'A fever took her because of the incident (slander) being talked about.' Then 'Aisyah (may Allah be pleased with her) sat up and said: 'By Allah, if I swear, you will not believe me, and if I make excuses, you will not accept them. My situation with you is like that of Prophet Ya'qub (peace be upon him) with his sons, (who said): 'And Allah alone is the One sought for help against what you describe.' Then the Prophet (peace be upon him) left her, and Allah revealed what He revealed. Then he informed 'Aisyah (may Allah be pleased with her). 'Aisyah (may Allah be pleased with her) said: 'All praise be to Allah, not to anyone else.'

"Narrated to us [Yahya bin Bukair] narrated to us [Al Laits] from ['Uqail] from [Ibn Shihab] said narrated to me ['Urwah] that he asked ['Aisyah] (may Allah be pleased with her), the wife of the Prophet (peace be upon him): 'What do you think about Allah's statement in Surah Yusuf, verse 110, which means: "Until when the Messengers despaired (of their people's faith) and thought that they had been denied (kudzdzibuu, with a doubled 'dzal') or (were lied against, kudzibuu, without a doubled 'dzal').' 'Aisyah (may Allah be pleased with her) said: 'Rather, it is that the Messengers were indeed lied against by their people.' I said: 'By Allah, they were certain that their people accused them of lying, so what does "thought" mean in this verse?' 'Aisyah (may Allah be pleased with her) said: 'O 'Urwah, indeed the Messengers were certain they would be lied against.' I said: 'Perhaps it is "or they thought they were lied against"?' 'Aisyah (may Allah be pleased with her) said: 'Allah forbid. The Messengers did not suspect that of their Lord. This verse,' she said, 'relates to their followers who believed in their Lord and confirmed them, but their trials were prolonged, and help was delayed until they despaired of those who denied them among their people and thought their followers might deny them, then Allah's help came.' Abu 'Abdullah Al Bukhari said: 'The word "istay'asuu" follows the pattern of "istaf'aluu" from the root "yaistu." In Surah Yusuf, "la tai'asuu min rauhillah" (do not despair of Allah's mercy) means to always prioritize hope.'

"Narrated to us ['Amru bin Muhammad] narrated to us [Ya'qub bin Ibrahim] said narrated to me [my father] from [Salih] from [Ibn Shihab] that ['Ubaidullah bin 'Abdullah] informed him from [Ibn 'Abbas] (may Allah be pleased with them) that he (Ibn 'Abbas) and Al-Hurr bin Qais Al-Fazariy disagreed about the companion of Musa (peace be upon him). Ibn 'Abbas (may Allah be pleased with them) said: 'He is Khadir.' During their disagreement, [Ubayy bin Ka'ab] passed by them, so Ibn 'Abbas called him and said: 'I am disputing with this friend of mine about the companion of Musa (peace be upon him) whom he asked the way to meet. Have you heard the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) mention his story?'

Ubayy said: 'Yes, I heard the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) say: "While Musa (peace be upon him) was among the assembly of the Children of Israel, a man came to him and said: 'Do you know anyone more knowledgeable than you?' He said: 'No.' So Allah revealed to Musa: 'Indeed, there is Our servant Khadir.' So Musa asked the way to meet him. Then a fish was made a sign for him, and it was said to him: 'When you lose the fish, return, for you will meet him.' So he followed the trace of the fish in the sea. Then his servant said to Musa: 'Did you see when we took shelter at the rock, I forgot the fish, and none made me forget to mention it except Satan.' So Musa (peace be upon him) said: 'That is what we were seeking.' So they retraced their steps.' Then they found Khadir. That was their story as Allah narrated in His Book.'

"Narrated to us ['Ali bin 'Abdullah] narrated to us [Sufyan] narrated to us ['Amru bin Dinar] said, narrated to me [Sa'id bin Jubair] said; I said to [Ibn 'Abbas] (may Allah be pleased with them): 'Nauf Al-Bakaliy claims that Musa, the companion of Khadir, is not Musa of the Children of Israel, but another Musa.' Ibn 'Abbas (may Allah be pleased with them) said: 'The enemy of Allah lied, narrated to us [Ubayy bin Ka'ab] from the Prophet (peace be upon him): "Musa stood delivering a sermon to the Children of Israel, then he was asked: 'Who is the most knowledgeable among people?' He said: 'I am.' So Allah reproached him because he did not attribute knowledge to Him. Then He said to him: 'Indeed, there is a servant of Mine at the confluence of the two seas who is more knowledgeable than you.' Musa said: 'O my Lord, who can I take to meet him?' Sometimes Sufyan said: 'O my Lord, how can I meet him?' He said: 'Take a fish and put it in a basket, and wherever you lose the fish, he is there.' Sometimes he said: 'He is there.' So he took a fish and put it in a basket, then he set out with his servant Yusha' bin Nun until they reached the rock, they laid their heads and slept. The fish stirred, came out, and fell into the sea, 'taking its way in the sea as in a tunnel.' Allah held back the flow of water from the fish, so it became like an arch. So Musa said: 'That is the sign like an arch.' They continued walking for the rest of their night and day. When the next day came, Musa said to his servant: 'Bring us our meal; indeed, we have suffered fatigue in this journey of ours.' Musa did not feel fatigue until he passed the place Allah commanded him. His servant said to him: 'Did you see when we took shelter at the rock? Indeed, I forgot the fish, and none made me forget to mention it except Satan, and it took its way in the sea amazingly.' So it was a tunnel for the fish and a wonder for them. Musa said: 'That is what we were seeking.' So they retraced their steps. They returned, following their tracks until they reached the rock, and there was a man covered with a cloth. Musa greeted him, and he returned the greeting, saying: 'How is there peace in your land?' He said: 'I am Musa.' He said: 'Musa of the Children of Israel?' He said: 'Yes, I came to you to teach me of the guidance you have been taught.' He said: 'O Musa, I have knowledge from Allah's knowledge that He taught me, which you do not know, and you have knowledge from Allah's knowledge that He taught you, which I do not know.' Musa said: 'May I follow you?' He said: 'Indeed, you will not be able to have patience with me. How can you have patience for what you do not encompass in knowledge?' Until His saying: 'a monstrous thing.' Then they walked along the seashore until a boat passed by them. They spoke to them to carry them, and they recognized Khadir, so they carried them without charge. When they boarded the boat, a bird came and perched on the edge of the boat, pecking at the sea once or twice. Khadir said to him: 'O Musa, my knowledge and your knowledge compared to Allah's knowledge is only like what this bird has taken with its beak from the sea.' Then he took an axe and pulled out a plank. Musa was startled, as he had already removed a plank with the axe. Musa said to him: 'What have you done? These people carried us without charge, yet you deliberately damaged their boat to drown its people. Indeed, you have done a monstrous thing.' Khadir said: 'Did I not say that you would not be able to have patience with me?' Musa said: 'Do not blame me for what I forgot, and do not burden me with difficulty in my matter.' So the first time was Musa's forgetfulness. When they left the sea, they passed by a boy playing with other boys. Khadir took his head and broke it with his hand, gesturing as if plucking something. Musa said to him: 'Have you killed an innocent soul for no reason? Indeed, you have done a terrible thing.' Khadir said: 'Did I not say to you that you would not be able to have patience with me?' Musa said: 'If I ask you about anything after this, do not keep me in your company. You have received an excuse from me.' They proceeded until they came to the people of a town and asked its people for food, but they refused to host them. They found therein a wall about to collapse, leaning—Sufyan gestured with his hand as if smoothing something upward, and I did not hear Sufyan mention leaning except once. Musa said: 'These are people we came to, but they neither fed us nor hosted us, yet you went to their wall. If you wished, you could have taken a reward for it.' Khadir said: 'This is the parting between me and you. I will inform you of the interpretation of that which you could not have patience.' The Prophet (peace be upon him) said: 'We wish Musa had been patient so Allah would have narrated to us more of their story.' Sufyan said; the Prophet (peace be upon him) said: 'May Allah have mercy on Musa. If he had been patient, more of their story would have been narrated to us.' Ibn 'Abbas read: 'Before them was a king who seized every good boat by force. As for the boy, he was a disbeliever, while his parents were believers.' Then Sufyan said to me: 'I heard it from him twice and memorized it.' It was said to Sufyan: 'Did you memorize it before hearing it from 'Amru, or did you memorize it from someone else?' He said: 'From whom else would I memorize it? Someone narrated it from 'Amru, and I heard it from him two or three times and memorized it.'

Narrated to me [Ishaq bin Ibrahim] narrated to us [Rauh bin 'Ubadah] narrated to us ['Auf] from [Al Hasan], [Muhammad] and [Khilas] from [Abu Hurairah, may Allah be pleased with him] said, The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: "Indeed, Prophet Moses (peace be upon him) was a shy and modest man, so none of his skin was seen due to his shyness. Some of the Children of Israel mocked him, saying, 'He only covers himself like this because of some defect in his skin, either leprosy, scrotal hernia, or some other disease.' Indeed, Allah wanted to clear Moses of what they said about him. One day, he was alone, placed his clothes on a rock, and then bathed. When he finished, he went to take his clothes, but the rock ran away with his garment. So Moses took his staff and chased the rock, calling out, 'My clothes, O rock! My clothes, O rock!' until he reached an assembly of the leaders of the Children of Israel. They saw him naked, in the best form Allah had created, clearing him of what they had said. The rock then stopped, and Moses took his clothes and wore them. He began striking the rock with his staff. By Allah, the rock bore the marks of his blows, three, four, or five marks. This is among the stories of Prophet Moses (peace be upon him) as Allah stated: 'O you who believe, do not be like those who abused Moses, but Allah cleared him of what they said, and he was honorable in the sight of Allah.'

So I ('Abdullah) went to the Prophet (peace be upon him) and informed him of what the man said. He became angry until I saw the anger on his face. Then he said,

'May Allah have mercy on Moses, for he was hurt by more than this and remained patient.'

Narrated to us [Yahya bin Bukair] from [Al Laith] from ['Abdul 'Aziz bin Abu Salamah] from ['Abdullah bin Al Fadl] from [Al A'raj] from [Abu Hurairah, may Allah be pleased with him] said; "While a Jew was offering his goods for sale, someone offered something for it that he disliked, so he said, 'No, by the One who chose Moses over all mankind.' A man from the Ansar heard him and stood up, slapped his face, and said, 'You say, "By the One who chose Moses over all mankind," while the Prophet (peace be upon him) is among us?' The Jew went to the Prophet (peace be upon him) and said, 'O Abu Al Qasim, I have protection and a covenant, so why did so-and-so slap my face?' The Prophet (peace be upon him) asked (the Ansari), 'Why did you slap his face?' He explained the incident. The Prophet (peace be upon him) became angry, visible on his face, and said, 'Do not favor one prophet over another, for when the Trumpet is blown, all in the heavens and earth will faint except those whom Allah wills. Then it will be blown again, and I will be the first to be revived, but I will see Moses holding onto the Throne. I do not know whether he was reckoned with his fainting at Mount Sinai or was revived before me, and I do not say that anyone is better than Jonah, son of Matta.'

I replied, "By my father and mother as ransom, I indeed said it." He said, "You will not be able to sustain that. Instead, fast and break your fast, pray at night and sleep, and fast three days each month, for a good deed is rewarded tenfold, and that is like fasting forever." Narrated to us [Abu Al Yaman] informed us [Shu'aib] narrated to us [Abu Az Zanad] from ['Abdurrahman] who narrated to him that he heard from [Abu Hurairah, may Allah be pleased with him] that he heard the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) say, "My example and the example of people is like a man who kindled a fire, and moths and these creatures fell into the fire." And he also said, "There were two women with their sons, and a wolf came and took one of their sons. One woman said, 'It took your son.' The other said, 'No, it took your son.' They sought judgment from Prophet David (peace be upon him), who judged that the child belonged to the older woman. They then went to Prophet Solomon, son of David (peace be upon them), and told him what happened. Solomon said, 'Bring me a knife, and I will cut the child in two.' The younger woman said, 'Do not do it. May Allah have mercy on you, he is her son.' So Solomon judged that the child belonged to the younger woman." Abu Hurairah (may Allah be pleased with him) said, "By Allah, I had not heard of 'sikkin' (knife) in this story until that day, and we used to say only 'mudya' (blade).

Then Allah revealed, 'Do not associate anything with Allah; indeed, association (shirk) is a great injustice.' (Surah Luqman, verse 13).

Narrated to us [Muslim bin Ibrahim] narrated to us [Jarir bin Hazim] from [Muhammad bin Sirin] from [Abu Hurairah, may Allah be pleased with him] from the Prophet (peace be upon him) said: "No infant spoke from the cradle except three: 'Isa (peace be upon him). The second was a man from the Children of Israel named Juraij. While he was praying, his mother came and called him, but he hesitated to respond. He said to himself: 'Shall I answer her or continue my prayer?' His mother then said: 'O Allah, do not let him die until You show him the faces of prostitutes.' One day, while Juraij was in his hermitage, a woman came and offered herself to him and spoke to him, but he refused. She then went to a shepherd and allowed him to be with her, and she gave birth to a boy. She claimed, 'This is Juraij’s child.' People came to Juraij, destroyed his hermitage, forced him out, and insulted him. Juraij performed ablution, prayed, then approached the boy and asked, 'Who is your father, O boy?' The boy replied, 'The shepherd.' The people said, 'We will rebuild your hermitage with gold.' Juraij said, 'No, only with clay.' The third was a woman from the Children of Israel who was nursing her son. A handsome, dignified man passed by on his mount, and she said, 'O Allah, make my son like him.' The baby left her breast, looked at the man, and said, 'O Allah, do not make me like him.' Then he returned to nursing. Abu Hurairah (may Allah be pleased with him) said, 'It is as if I can see the Prophet (peace be upon him) sucking his finger.' Then a female slave passed by, and the mother said, 'O Allah, do not make my son like her.' The baby left her breast and said, 'O Allah, make me like her.' The mother asked, 'Why is that?' The baby replied, 'That rider is one of the tyrants, while this slave woman is accused of stealing and adultery, yet she has done neither.'

Hadith Imam Bukhari Number 3183

حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ كَثِيرٍ أَخْبَرَنَا إِسْرَائِيلُ أَخْبَرَنَا عُثْمَانُ بْنُ الْمُغِيرَةِ عَنْ مُجَاهِدٍ عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمَا قَالَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ رَأَيْتُ عِيسَى ومُوسَى وَإِبْرَاهِيمَ فَأَمَّا عِيسَى فَأَحْمَرُ جَعْدٌ عَرِيضُ الصَّدْرِ وَأَمَّا مُوسَى فَآدَمُ جَسِيمٌ سَبْطٌ كَأَنَّهُ مِنْ رِجَالِ الزُّطِّ

Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Kathir] informed us [Isra'il] informed us ['Uthman bin Al Mughirah] from [Mujahid] from [Ibn 'Umar, may Allah be pleased with them] said, the Prophet (peace be upon him) said: "(During the Isra'), I saw 'Isa, Musa, and Ibrahim (peace be upon them). As for 'Isa, he was reddish, sturdy, with a broad chest. As for Musa, he was lean and tall, like the men of Sudan (Africa).

That night, in a dream near the Ka'bah, I saw a man with the finest complexion among men, his curly hair reaching his shoulders, his head dripping with water or water being poured over it, placing his hands on the shoulders of two men while circumambulating the House. I asked, "Who is this?" They said, "This is Al-Masih, son of Maryam." Then I saw a man behind him, sturdy, with curly hair, blind in his right eye, resembling Ibn Qatan the most among those I have seen, placing his hands on the shoulders of a man while circumambulating the House. I asked, "Who is this?" They said, "This is Al-Masih Ad-Dajjal." This was also narrated by ['Ubaidullah] from [Nafi'].

Narrated to us [Musa bin Isma'il] narrated to us [Abu 'Awanah] narrated to us ['Abdul Malik] from [Rib'i bin Hirash] said, ['Uqbah bin 'Amru] said to [Hudhaifah], "Will you not tell us what you heard from the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him)?" Hudhaifah said, "Indeed, I heard him say: 'When the Dajjal emerges, he will bring water and fire. What people see as fire is actually cold water, and what people see as cold water is actually burning fire. So whoever among you encounters him should choose what appears to be fire, for it is fresh, cold water.'" Hudhaifah also said, "And I heard him say: 'A man from those before you was visited by an angel to take his soul and was asked, "Have you done any good deed?" He replied, "I don’t know." It was said to him, "Think." He said, "I don’t know anything except that I used to conduct business with people in this world, granting leniency to the wealthy and forgiving the poor." So Allah admitted him to Paradise.' And Hudhaifah said, "And I heard him say: 'A man approached death and, despairing of life, instructed his family: "When I die, gather a large amount of firewood and set it ablaze until it consumes my flesh and reaches my bones, turning them to ash. Then take the ash, and on a windy day, scatter it into the river." They did so, but Allah gathered him and asked, "Why did you do that?" He replied, "Out of fear of You." So Allah forgave him.'" 'Uqbah bin 'Amru said, "And I heard him say that, and it was mentioned that the man was a grave digger.

The example of you, the Jews, and the Christians is like a man who employed workers and said, 'Who will work for me until midday for one qirat each?' So the Jews worked until midday for one qirat each. Then he said, 'Who will work for me from midday until the 'Asr prayer for one qirat each?' So the Christians worked from midday until the 'Asr prayer for one qirat each. Then he said, 'Who will work for me from the 'Asr prayer until sunset for two qirats each?' You are the ones who work from the 'Asr prayer until sunset for two qirats each. Know that you receive double the reward. The Jews and Christians became angry and said, 'We worked more and received less!' Allah, the Mighty and Exalted, asked, 'Have I wronged you of any of your rights?' They replied, 'No.' He said, 'That is My favor, which I grant to whomever I wish.'

Narrated to me [Ahmad bin Ishaq] narrated to us ['Amru bin 'Ashim] narrated to us [Hammam] narrated to us [Ishaq bin 'Abdullah] said, narrated to me ['Abdur Rahman bin Abu 'Amrah] that [Abu Hurairah, may Allah be pleased with him] narrated to him that he heard the Prophet (peace be upon him). And narrated to me [Muhammad] narrated to us ['Abdullah bin Raja'] informed us [Hammam] from [Ishaq bin 'Abdullah] said, narrated to me ['Abdur Rahman bin Abu 'Amrah] that [Abu Hurairah, may Allah be pleased with him] narrated to him that he heard the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) say: "There were three people from the Children of Israel: a leper, a bald man, and a blind man. Allah Almighty wished to test them, so He sent an angel to them. The angel came to the leper and said, 'What would you like most?' He replied, 'A good complexion and good skin, for people shun me.' The angel touched him, and his leprosy vanished, and he was given a good complexion and good skin. The angel asked, 'What wealth do you like most?' He said, 'Camels.' (Or he said, 'Cows'—the narrator was uncertain, as either the leper or the bald man said camels, and the other said cows.) So he was given a pregnant she-camel, and the angel said, 'May it be blessed for you.' Then the angel came to the bald man and said, 'What would you like most?' He replied, 'Good hair and to be rid of this, for people shun me.' The angel touched him, and his baldness vanished, and he was given good hair. The angel asked,

'What wealth do you like most?' He said, 'Cows.' So he was given a pregnant cow, and the angel said, 'May it be blessed for you.' Then the angel came to the blind man and said, 'What would you like most?' He replied, 'That Allah restores my sight so I can see people.' The angel touched him, and Allah restored his sight. The angel asked, 'What wealth do you like most?' He said, 'Sheep.' So he was given a pregnant sheep. The animals of the first two multiplied greatly, as did those of the third, so each had a valley of camels, a valley of cows, and a valley of sheep, respectively. Then the angel came to the former leper in his original form and appearance and said, 'I am a poor man whose provisions have run out on my journey. I have no means to continue today except by Allah and then by you. I ask you, by the One who gave you a good complexion, good skin, and wealth, for a camel to help me continue my journey.' The man said, 'I have many obligations.' The angel said, 'I seem to recognize you. Were you not a leper whom people shunned, poor, and then Allah gave you wealth?' He replied, 'I inherited this wealth from my forefathers.' The angel said, 'If you are lying, may Allah return you to your former state.' Then the angel came to the former bald man in his original form and said the same as he said to the first, and he responded similarly. The angel said, 'If you are lying, may Allah return you to your former state.' Then the angel came to the former blind man in his original form and said, 'I am a poor man and a traveler whose provisions have run out. I have no means to continue today except by Allah and then by you. I ask you, by the One who restored your sight, for a sheep to help me continue my journey.' The man said, 'I was blind, and Allah restored my sight, and I was poor, and He enriched me. Take what you wish, for by Allah, I will not withhold anything you take for Allah’s sake today.' The angel said, 'Keep your wealth. You have been tested, and Allah is pleased with you and displeased with your two companions.'

Narrated to us [Isma'il bin Khalil] informed us ['Ali bin Mushir] from ['Ubaidullah bin 'Umar] from [Nafi'] from [Ibnu 'Umar, may Allah be pleased with them] that the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: "There were three people from those before you who were walking when it started to rain, so they took shelter in a cave, but it closed upon them. One of them said to the others, 'By Allah, O people, nothing will save you except truthfulness. Let each of you pray with what he knows to be his truthful deed.' One of them said, 'O Allah, You know that I had a worker who worked for me for a faraq (three sha') of rice, then he left and abandoned it. I took that faraq and planted it, and it grew until I was able to buy a cow from its yield. One day he came to me asking for his wage, and I said to him, "Go to that cow and take it." He said, "I am only entitled to a faraq of rice." I said, "Take the cow, for it is from that faraq." So he took it. If You know that I did that out of fear of You, then grant us relief.' So the rock moved slightly. Another said, 'O Allah, You know that I had two elderly parents, and every night I brought them milk from my sheep. One night I was delayed, and when I came, they were asleep, while my family and children were crying from hunger. I would not give them drink until my parents had drunk, but I disliked waking them, and I also disliked leaving them without their share of milk. I waited until dawn. If You know that I did that out of fear of You, then grant us relief.' So the rock moved further until they could see the sky. The third said, 'O Allah, You know that I had a cousin who was the dearest person to me, and I sought her for myself, but she refused unless I gave her a hundred dinars. I worked until I could afford it and brought it to her. She allowed me to approach her, but when I was between her legs, she said, "Fear Allah and do not break the seal except by its right." So I stood up and left the hundred dinars. If You know that I did that out of fear of You, then grant us relief.' So Allah opened the cave for them, and they came out.

He then said, 'The rider was a disbeliever, while the woman—they say to her, "You committed adultery," and she says, "Allah is sufficient for me," and they say, "You stole," and she says, "Allah is sufficient for me."'

He came to a monk and asked, 'Is there repentance for me?' The monk said, 'No,' so he killed him. He kept asking, and a man told him, 'Go to such-and-such village.'

Death overtook him, and he leaned toward it with his chest. The angels of mercy and the angels of punishment disputed over him. Allah inspired the village he was heading to draw closer and the one he left to move further away, and He said, 'Measure the distance between them.' They found he was closer to the village by a handspan, so he was forgiven.

The cow said, 'We were not created for this; we were created for plowing.' The people said, 'Glory be to Allah, a cow speaking?' He said, 'I believe in it, and so do Abu Bakr and 'Umar,' though they were not present. And a man was with his sheep when a wolf attacked and took one. The people said, 'Glory be to Allah, a wolf speaking?' He said, 'I believe in it, and so do Abu Bakr and 'Umar,' though they were not present." And narrated to us ['Ali] narrated to us [Sufyan] from [Mis'ar] from [Sa'ad bin Ibrahim] from [Abu Salamah] from [Abu Hurairah, may Allah be pleased with him] from the Prophet (peace be upon him) with a similar narration.

Then 'Aishah said: "I wish I had made a vow when I swore to continue doing it until I completed it.

If we return to Madinah, the stronger will surely expel the weaker.' (Allah, the Exalted, immortalized his statement in Surah Al-Munafiqun, verse 8.) Spontaneously, 'Umar said: 'Should we not kill this reprehensible person, O Messenger of Allah?' referring to 'Abdullah bin Ubbay bin Salul. Narrated to us [Zaid, he is the son of Akhzam] said, narrated to us [Abu Qutaibah, Salmu bin Qutaibah] narrated to me [Mutsanna bin Sa'id Al Qashir] said, narrated to me [Abu Jamrah] said, [Ibnu 'Abbas, may Allah be pleased with them] said to us: "Would you like me to tell you about the conversion of Abu Dzarr, may Allah be pleased with him?" Abu Jamrah said:

We replied, "Yes, we would." Ibnu 'Abbas, may Allah be pleased with them, said: Abu Dzarr, may Allah be pleased with him, narrated: "I was a man from the tribe of Ghifar, and news reached us that a man in Makkah claimed to be a Prophet, so I said to my brother: 'Go to this man, speak with him, and bring me news about him.' So he went, met him, and returned. I asked, 'What news do you bring?' He said, 'By Allah, I have seen a man who calls to goodness and forbids evil.' I said to him, 'I am not satisfied with the news you bring.' So I took a leather bag and a stick and set out for Makkah. When I arrived, I did not know the man and was reluctant to ask about him. I drank from the water of Zamzam and stayed in the mosque (al-Haram)." Abu Dzarr continued: "Then 'Ali, may Allah be pleased with him, passed by me and said, 'It seems you are a stranger?' I said, 'Yes, that's right.' He said, 'Come to the house.' So I went with him, and he did not ask me anything, nor did I tell him my purpose." In the morning, I returned to the mosque to ask about the man, but no one could give me any information. Abu Dzarr continued: "Then 'Ali approached me and said, 'Has this man not yet found his home?' I said, 'No.' He said, 'Come with me.' Then he asked, 'What is your business, and what brought you to this land?' I said to him, 'If you keep it a secret, I will tell you.' He said, 'I will do so.' I said to him, 'We heard that a man has appeared here claiming to be a Prophet, so I sent my brother to speak with him, but he returned, and I was not satisfied with the news he brought. So I wanted to meet him.' 'Ali said to him, 'You have been guided, and I will show you the way to him. Follow me, and enter where I enter. If I see someone I fear for you, I will stand by the wall as if fixing my sandal, and you should proceed.' So he went, and I went with him until he entered, and I entered with him to meet the Prophet (peace be upon him). I said to him, 'Explain Islam to me.' So he explained it, and I embraced Islam on the spot. Then he said to me, 'O Abu Dzarr, keep this matter a secret and return to your land. When you hear of our success, come back.' I said, 'By the One who sent you with the truth, I will proclaim it among them.' So I went to the mosque while the Quraysh were there and said, 'O people of Quraysh, I bear witness that there is no god but Allah and that Muhammad is His servant and Messenger.' They said, 'Get up against this one who has changed his religion.' So they stood up and beat me until I nearly died. Then 'Abbas found me, covered me, and turned to them, saying, 'Woe to you, you would kill a man from Ghifar when your trade and passage (to Sham) go through Ghifar?' So they let me go. The next morning, I returned to the mosque and said the same as I did yesterday. They again said, 'Get up against this one who has changed his religion.' I was treated as they did yesterday, and again 'Abbas found me, covered me, and said to the Quraysh the same as he said yesterday." Ibnu 'Abbas, may Allah be pleased with them, said: "That was the beginning of Abu Dzarr's Islam, may Allah have mercy on him.

He (Qutaibah) said; "And [Ibn Bukair] said, narrated to us [Bakr bin Mudlar] -with the wording-; '(until) the whiteness of his armpits was visible' (meaning no hair in his armpits).

And Abu Musa said, "The Prophet, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him, supplicated with his hands raised, and I saw the whiteness of his armpits.

People rushed to take some of it. Then Bilal went in again and came out with a stick. The Messenger of Allah, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him, came out, and it was as if I saw light on his shins. He planted the stick and then prayed Zuhr with two rak'ahs and Asr with two rak'ahs, while a donkey and a woman passed in front of him.

THE OBLIGATION OF TRANSMITTING HADITH ACCORDING TO THE RASULULLAH SHALALLAHU ALAIHI WASALLAM
Hadith Imam Bukhari Number 3303

حَدَّثَنِي الْحَسَنُ بْنُ صَبَّاحٍ الْبَزَّارُ حَدَّثَنَا سُفْيَانُ عَنْ الزُّهْرِيِّ عَنْ عُرْوَةَ عَنْ عَائِشَةَ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهَا أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يُحَدِّثُ حَدِيثًا لَوْ عَدَّهُ الْعَادُّ لَأَحْصَاهُ وَقَالَ اللَّيْثُ حَدَّثَنِي يُونُسُ عَنْ ابْنِ شِهَابٍ أَنَّهُ قَالَ أَخْبَرَنِي عُرْوَةُ بْنُ الزُّبَيْرِ عَنْ عَائِشَةَ أَنَّهَا قَالَتْ أَلَا يُعْجِبُكَ أَبُو فُلَانٍ جَاءَ فَجَلَسَ إِلَى جَانِبِ حُجْرَتِي يُحَدِّثُ عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُسْمِعُنِي ذَلِكَ وَكُنْتُ أُسَبِّحُ فَقَامَ قَبْلَ أَنْ أَقْضِيَ سُبْحَتِي وَلَوْ أَدْرَكْتُهُ لَرَدَدْتُ عَلَيْهِ إِنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَمْ يَكُنْ يَسْرُدُ الْحَدِيثَ كَسَرْدِكُمْ

Narrated to me [Al Hasan bin Shabbah Al Bazzar] narrated to us [Sufyan] from [Az Zuhriy] from ['Urwah] from ['Aisyah, may Allah be pleased with her] that the Prophet, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him, would narrate a hadith such that if someone repeated it, I would remember it. And [Al Laits] said, narrated to me [Yunus] from [Ibnu Syihab] that he said, informed me ['Urwah bin Az Zubair] from ['Aisyah, may Allah be pleased with her] that she said, "Are you not amazed at Abu So-and-So, who came and sat by my room narrating a hadith attributed to the Messenger of Allah, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him, intending for me to hear it while I was engaged in glorification (dhikr)? He left before I finished my glorification. If I had caught up with him, I would have refuted him, for the Messenger of Allah, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him, did not narrate hadiths consecutively as you do (meaning narrating many hadiths in one sitting).

Narrated to us ['Abdullah bin Maslamah] from [Malik] from [Sa'id Al Maqburiy] from [Abu Salamah bin 'Abdur Rahman] that he asked ['Aisyah, may Allah be pleased with her], "How was the prayer of the Messenger of Allah, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him, during Ramadan?" She replied, "He performed (the sunnah qiyamul lail) in Ramadan and other months no more than eleven rak'ahs. He prayed four rak'ahs, and do not ask about their beauty and length, then he prayed another four rak'ahs, and do not ask about their beauty and length, then he prayed three rak'ahs. I once asked, 'O Messenger of Allah, do you sleep before performing witr?' He replied, 'My eyes sleep, but my heart does not sleep.'

THE STORY OF ISRA MI'RAJ PROPHET SHALLALLAHU ALAIHI WASALLAM
Hadith Imam Bukhari Number 3305

حَدَّثَنَا إِسْمَاعِيلُ قَالَ حَدَّثَنِي أَخِي عَنْ سُلَيْمَانَ عَنْ شَرِيكِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ أَبِي نَمِرٍ سَمِعْتُ أَنَسَ بْنَ مَالِكٍيُحَدِّثُنَا عَنْ لَيْلَةِ أُسْرِيَ بِالنَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مِنْ مَسْجِدِ الْكَعْبَةِ جَاءَهُ ثَلَاثَةُ نَفَرٍ قَبْلَ أَنْ يُوحَى إِلَيْهِ وَهُوَ نَائِمٌ فِي مَسْجِدِ الْحَرَامِ فَقَالَ أَوَّلُهُمْ أَيُّهُمْ هُوَ فَقَالَ أَوْسَطُهُمْ هُوَ خَيْرُهُمْ وَقَالَ آخِرُهُمْ خُذُوا خَيْرَهُمْفَكَانَتْ تِلْكَ فَلَمْ يَرَهُمْ حَتَّى جَاءُوا لَيْلَةً أُخْرَى فِيمَا يَرَى قَلْبُهُ وَالنَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نَائِمَةٌ عَيْنَاهُ

Narrated to us [Isma'il] said, narrated to me [my brother] from [Sulaiman] from [Syarik bin Abdullah bin Abu Namir], I heard [Anas bin Malik] narrate to us about the night journey (Isra') of the Prophet, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him, from the Kaaba Mosque (Al Haram). At that time, he was approached by three beings (angels) before he received revelation, while he was sleeping in the Sacred Mosque. The first angel said, "Who is this among his people?" The middle one said, "He is the best among them." The third one said, "Take the best of them." That was part of the Isra' story, and he did not see them again until they came according to the vision of his heart, and the Prophet, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him, had eyes that slept but a heart that did not sleep, as is the case with the prophets—their eyes sleep, but their hearts do not. Then Jibril approached him and took him up (Mi'raj) to the heavens.

Narrated to us [Abu Al Walid] narrated to us [Salm bin Zarir] I heard [Abu Raja'] say, narrated to us ['Imran bin Hushain] that they were with the Prophet, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him, on a journey. They traveled through the night until just before dawn, they rested and were overcome by sleep until the sun rose. The first to wake up was Abu Bakr, who did not wake the Messenger of Allah, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him, until he woke up himself. Then 'Umar woke up, and Abu Bakr sat near his head, reciting takbir and raising his voice until the Prophet, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him, woke up. He then came out (from the tent) and led us in the morning prayer. Meanwhile, a man from the group separated himself and did not pray with us. After finishing, the Prophet asked, "O So-and-So, what prevented you from praying with us?" He replied, "I am in a state of janabah (major impurity)." The Prophet ordered him to perform tayammum with dust, and he prayed. Then the Messenger of Allah, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him, included me in riding with him to continue the journey until we became extremely thirsty. While we were traveling, we came across a woman with her legs dangling between two large water bags. We asked her, "Where is the water?" She replied, "There is no water." We asked, "How far is it between your family (home) and water?" She said, "A day and a night." We said, "Come, let us meet the Messenger of Allah, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him." She asked, "Who is the Messenger of Allah?" We did not tell her about him until we brought her to the Prophet, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him. She told him the same thing she told us, adding that she was a mother with orphaned children. The Prophet, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him, asked for her water bags, wiped their openings, and we, forty thirsty men, drank until we were satisfied, filling every water skin and container we had, except we did not water a camel, and the bags were almost bursting from being full. Then he said, "Bring what you have." So, we gathered meat and dates for her until she reached her family. She said, "I met the most remarkable (magical) person, or he is a prophet as they claim." Allah guided that tribe through that woman, and she and her people embraced Islam.

Narrated to me [Muhammad bin Basysyar] narrated to us [Ibnu Abu 'Adiy] from [Sa'id] from [Qatadah] from [Anas, may Allah be pleased with him] who said, "A vessel of water was brought to the Prophet, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him, while he was at Zawra' (near the market in Medina). He placed his hand in the vessel, and water began to flow from between his fingers, so the people performed ablution." Qatadah said, "I asked Anas, 'How many were you?' He replied, 'Three hundred or around three hundred people.'

He placed his hand in the vessel and ordered the people to perform ablution from it. I saw water flowing from beneath his fingers, and the people performed ablution until the last of them had done so.

Narrated to us [Musa bin Isma'il] narrated to us [Mu'tamir] from [his father] narrated to us [Abu 'Utsman] that ['Abdurrahman bin Abu Bakr, may Allah be pleased with them] narrated to him that the people of the Suffah were poor, and the Prophet, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him, once said, "Whoever has food for two should take a third, and whoever has food for four should take a fifth or sixth," or as he said. Abu Bakr brought three people, while the Prophet, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him, brought ten, and Abu Bakr brought three. He ('Abdur Rahman) said, "The three were me, my father, and my mother." (The narrator, Abu 'Utsman, said, "I am not sure if he mentioned 'my wife and my servant who worked between our house and Abu Bakr's house.'") Abu Bakr ate dinner at the Prophet's house, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him, and stayed until he prayed

Isha. Then he returned, staying until the Messenger of Allah, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him, finished his dinner. Abu Bakr came back after some time had passed in the night as Allah willed. His wife said to him, "What kept you from your guests or guest?" (The narrator is unsure of the wording.) Abu Bakr said, "Have you fed them dinner?" She replied, "They refused until you came. They were offered food, but they refused, and we were overwhelmed in persuading them." I went and hid. Abu Bakr said, "O Ghuntsar!" He scolded and insulted me ('Abdur Rahman) and said, "Eat." Then he said, "I will never feed him ('Abdurrahman) again." He said, "By Allah, we did not take a morsel except that more grew from beneath it until they were full, and the food became more than it was before. Abu Bakr looked and saw that there was something or more. He said to his wife, 'O sister of Bani Firas, what is this?' She said, 'By the coolness of my eyes, it is now three times more than before.' Abu Bakr ate from it and said, 'That was from Satan,' meaning his oath not to feed 'Abdurrahman. Then he ate a morsel from it and took the large bowl to the Prophet, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him, and it remained with him. There was an agreement between us and that people (the Suffah) regarding their return, and when the time expired, we dispersed into twelve groups, each led by a man, with only Allah knowing how many people were with each man, except that he sent the leader with them. He said, 'They all ate from that food (the bowl Abu Bakr brought),' or as he said. Another said, 'We knew that Abu Bakr was wise.'

Narrated to us [Musaddad] narrated to us [Hammad] from ['Abdul 'Aziz] from [Anas] and [Yunus] from [Tsabit] from [Anas, may Allah be pleased with him] who said, "The people of Medina were afflicted with a drought during the time of the Messenger of Allah, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him. While he was delivering a sermon on a Friday, a man stood up and said, 'O Messenger of Allah, the livestock have perished, and life has become difficult, so pray to Allah to grant us water.' He raised his hands and prayed. Anas said, 'The sky was like glass, then a wind blew, bringing clouds that gathered, and the sky sent down its torrents. We left (the mosque) wading through water until we reached our homes, and the rain continued until the next Friday. Then that man or another stood up and said, 'O Messenger of Allah, the houses have been damaged (due to flooding), so pray to Allah to stop it.' He smiled and said, 'Around us, not upon us.' I looked at the clouds dispersing around Medina as if they were a crown.

Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Al Mutsannaa] narrated to us [Yahya bin Katsir Abu Ghassan] narrated to us [Abu Hafsh, whose real name is 'Umar bin Al 'Alaa', brother of Abu 'Umar bin Al 'Alaa'] said, I heard [Nafi'] from [Ibnu 'Umar, may Allah be pleased with them], "The Prophet, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him, used to deliver sermons leaning against a tree trunk. When a pulpit was made for him, he moved to it, and the trunk moaned. He approached it and rubbed his hand over it." ['Abdul Hamid] said, narrated to us ['Utsman bin 'Umar] informed us [Mu'adz bin Al 'Alaa'] from [Nafi'] with this hadith. It was also narrated by [Abu 'Ashim] from [Ibnu Abu Rawwad] from [Nafi'] from [Ibnu 'Umar, may Allah be pleased with them] from the Prophet, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him.

THE TRUENESS OF THE PROPHET SHALALLAHU ALAIHI WASALLAM TURNED THE MIBAR
Hadith Imam Bukhari Number 3319

حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو نُعَيْمٍ حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ الْوَاحِدِ بْنُ أَيْمَنَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ أَبِي عَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمَا أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يَقُومُ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ إِلَى شَجَرَةٍ أَوْ نَخْلَةٍ فَقَالَتْ امْرَأَةٌ مِنْ الْأَنْصَارِ أَوْ رَجُلٌ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ أَلَا نَجْعَلُ لَكَ مِنْبَرًا قَالَ إِنْ شِئْتُمْ فَجَعَلُوا لَهُ مِنْبَرًا فَلَمَّا كَانَ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ دُفِعَ إِلَى الْمِنْبَرِ فَصَاحَتْ النَّخْلَةُ صِيَاحَ الصَّبِيِّ ثُمَّ نَزَلَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَضَمَّهُ إِلَيْهِ تَئِنُّ أَنِينَ الصَّبِيِّ الَّذِي يُسَكَّنُ قَالَ كَانَتْ تَبْكِي عَلَى مَا كَانَتْ تَسْمَعُ مِنْ الذِّكْرِ عِنْدَهَا

Narrated to us [Abu Nu'aim] narrated to us ['Abdul Wahid bin Ayman] said, I heard [my father] from [Jabir bin Abdullah, may Allah be pleased with them] that the Prophet, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him, used to stand by a tree or palm tree on Fridays. A woman or man from the Ansar said, 'O Messenger of Allah, shall we make a pulpit for you?' He said, 'If you wish.' So they made a pulpit for him. On the next Friday, he moved to the pulpit, and the palm tree cried out like a child. The Prophet, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him, came down, embraced it, and it moaned like a child being soothed. He said, 'It was crying for the remembrance (dhikr) it used to hear near it.'

Narrated to us [Isma'il] said, narrated to me [my brother] from [Sulaiman bin Bilal] from [Yahya bin Sa'id] said, informed me [Hafsh bin 'Ubaidullah bin Anas bin Malik] that he heard [Jabir bin Abdullah, may Allah be pleased with them] say, "The mosque (Nabawi) was roofed with palm trunks, and when the Prophet, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him, delivered a sermon, he would stand by one of those trunks. When a pulpit was made for him, and he stood on it, we heard a sound from that trunk like the sound of a pregnant camel. The Prophet, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him, came to it, placed his hand on it, and it became calm.

Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Basysyar] narrated to us [Ibnu Abu 'Adiy] from [Syu'bah].

And narrated to me [Bisyir bin Khalid] narrated to us [Muhammad] from [Syu'bah] from [Sulaiman], I heard [Abu Wa'il] narrate from [Hudzaifah] that 'Umar bin Al Khaththab, may Allah be pleased with him, said, "Who among you remembers the saying of the Messenger of Allah, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him, about fitnah (trials)?" Hudzaifah said, "I remember it as he said it." 'Umar said, "Speak, for you are bold." The Messenger of Allah, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him, said, "A man's fitnah lies in his family, wealth, children, and neighbor; it is expiated by prayer, fasting, charity, enjoining good, and forbidding evil." 'Umar said, "That is not what I meant, but the fitnah that surges like the waves of the sea." Hudzaifah said, "O Commander of the Faithful, no harm will come to you from it, for there is a closed door between you and it." 'Umar asked, "Will the door be opened or broken?" Hudzaifah said, "It will be broken." 'Umar said, "Then it will never be closed again." We (Syaqiq) asked, "Did 'Umar know what the door was?" Hudzaifah said, "Yes, as surely as there is night before tomorrow. I narrated to him a hadith without error." We were hesitant to ask him, so we sent Masruq to ask, "Who is the door?" He replied, "'Umar.

Narrated to us [Abu Al Yaman] informed us [Syu'aib] narrated to us [Abu Az Zanad] from [Al A'raj] from [Abu Hurairah, may Allah be pleased with him] from the Prophet, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him, who said, "The Hour will not come until you fight a people whose sandals are made of hair and until you fight the Turks, with small eyes, red faces, and flat noses, their faces like hammered shields. You will find that the best of people are those who most dislike this matter (power) until they are involved in it (to establish justice). People are like mines; the best among them in the pre-Islamic era are the best in Islam if they understand Islam. A time will come when one of you will prefer to see me over having the like of his family and wealth.

He said, "O 'Adiy, have you seen Al Hirah?" I said, "I have not seen it, but I have heard about it." He said, "If you live long, you will surely see a woman traveling from Al Hirah to circumambulate the Ka'bah, fearing no one but Allah." I said to myself, "Where are the robbers of Tayy who have set the land ablaze?" He continued, "If you live long, you will surely conquer the treasures of Kisra." I asked, "Kisra bin Hurmuz?" He said, "Yes, Kisra bin Hurmuz. And if you live long, you will surely see a man coming out with a handful of gold or silver, seeking someone to accept it, but finding no one to take it. And surely, one of you will meet Allah on the Day of Meeting with no interpreter between him and Allah. Allah will say to him, 'Did I not send you a Messenger to deliver the message to you?' He will say, 'Yes.' Allah will say, 'Did I not give you wealth and grant you favor?' He will say, 'Yes.' Then he will look to his right and see nothing but Hellfire, and he will look to his left and see nothing but Hellfire." 'Adiy said, "I heard the Prophet, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him, say, 'Protect yourselves from the Fire, even with half a date (in charity). If you cannot find that, then with a kind word.'" 'Adiy said, "Later, I saw a woman traveling from Al Hirah to circumambulate the Ka'bah, fearing only Allah, and I was among those who conquered the treasures of Kisra bin Hurmuz. And if you live long, you will see what Abu Al Qasim, the Prophet, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him, said about a man coming out with a handful of wealth.

Its head is examined, and nothing is found on it; its shaft is examined, and nothing is found on it; its feathers are examined, and nothing is found on it; it has already passed through the dung and blood. Their sign is a black man, one of whose upper arms is like a woman's breast or a piece of moving flesh. They will emerge at a time of division among people.' Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Katsir] narrated to us [Sufyan] from [Al A'masy] from [Khaythamah] from [Suwaid bin Ghafalah] who said, ['Ali, may Allah be pleased with him] said: "I would rather fall from the sky than lie about the Messenger of Allah, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him. When I speak to you about matters between me and you, war is deception. I heard the Messenger of Allah, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him, say: 'At the end of time, there will come a people young in age, foolish in understanding, speaking with the best words of creation. They will pass through Islam as an arrow passes through a target. Their faith will not go beyond their throats. Wherever you meet them, kill them, for killing them will bring reward on the Day of Resurrection for whoever kills them.'

Narrated to me [Muhammad bin Al Mutsannaa] narrated to us [Yahya] from [Isma'il] narrated to us [Qais] from [Khabbab bin Al Arat] who said: "We complained to the Messenger of Allah, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him, while he was reclining on his cloak in the shade of the Ka'bah, saying, 'Will you not seek help for us? Will you not pray to Allah for us?' He said, 'Among those before you, a man would have a pit dug for him and be placed in it, then a saw would be brought and placed on his head, splitting him in two, yet that would not make him abandon his religion. His flesh would be combed with iron combs, scraping the flesh from his bones and nerves, yet that would not make him abandon his religion. By Allah, this matter (Islam) will be completed until a rider travels from Sana'a to Hadramaut, fearing nothing but Allah or the wolf for his sheep. But you are impatient.'

Narrated to us ['Ali bin Abdullah] narrated to us [Azhar bin Sa'ad] narrated to us [Ibnu 'Aun] said, [Musa bin Anas] narrated to me from [Anas bin Malik, may Allah be pleased with him] that the Prophet, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him, missed Thabit bin Qais. A man said, 'O Messenger of Allah, I will find out about him for you.' He went to him and found him sitting in his house with his head bowed. He asked, 'What is wrong with you?' He said, 'It is bad. I raised my voice above the voice of the Prophet, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him, so my deeds are void, and I am among the people of the earth (Hellfire).' The man returned and informed him that he said such and such. Musa bin Anas said, 'Then he returned the second time with great glad tidings.' He said, 'Go to him and tell him that you are not among the people of Hellfire but among the people of Paradise.'

Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Yusuf] narrated to us [Ahmad bin Yazid bin Ibrahim Abu Al Hasan Al Harraniy] narrated to us [Zuhair bin Mu'awiyah] narrated to us [Abu Ishaq], I heard [Al Bara' bin 'Azib] say: "Abu Bakr came to my father’s house to buy a camel saddle from him and said to 'Azib, 'Send your son to carry it with me.' I carried it with him, and my father went to collect its price. He said to Abu Bakr, 'O Abu Bakr, tell me what you did when you traveled by night with the Messenger of Allah, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him.' Abu Bakr said, 'Yes. We traveled all night and into the next day until midday. The road was empty, with no one passing by. Then a tall rock with shade, untouched by the sun, appeared to us. We stopped there, and I leveled a place with my hands for the Prophet, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him, to sleep on. I spread a mat and said, 'Sleep, O Messenger of Allah, and I will guard around you.' He slept, and I went to check the surroundings. I saw a shepherd approaching the rock with his goats, seeking the same shade we did. I asked him, 'Who do you belong to, boy?' He said, 'To a man from the city or Mecca.' I said, 'Do your goats have milk?' He said, 'Yes.' I said, 'Will you milk them?' He said, 'Yes.' He took a goat, and I said, 'Clean the udder of dust, hair, and dirt.' I saw Al Bara' clap one hand against the other to show cleaning the udder. He milked a small amount of milk into a cup. I had a small container I carried for the Prophet, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him, for drinking and ablution. I went to the Prophet, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him, but I did not want to wake him. I reached him just as he woke up. I poured water into the milk to cool it at the bottom and said, 'Drink, O Messenger of Allah.' He drank until I was satisfied. Then he said, 'Is it not time to move on?' I said, 'Yes.' We set off after the sun had tilted. Suraqah bin Malik followed us, and I said, 'We are being overtaken, O Messenger of Allah.' He said, 'Do not grieve, for Allah is with us.' The Prophet, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him, prayed against him, and his horse sank into the ground up to its belly. He said, 'I see you have prayed against me. Pray for me, and by Allah, I will turn back those who are searching for you.' The Prophet, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him, prayed for him, and he was saved. He would meet no one without saying, 'I have taken care of this place, so return.' He kept his promise to us.

He said to him, "No harm, it is a purification, if Allah wills." The Bedouin said, "You say purification? No, it is a fever that rages or flares up in a weak old man, sending him to the graves." The Prophet, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him, said, "Then so it is.

Narrated to us [Abu Ma'mar] narrated to us ['Abdul Warith] narrated to us ['Abdul 'Aziz] from [Anas, may Allah be pleased with him] who said: "There was a Christian man who embraced Islam and read Surah Al-Baqarah and Alu 'Imran. He used to write for the Prophet, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him. Then he reverted to Christianity and said, 'Muhammad knows nothing except what I wrote for him.' Allah caused him to die, and they buried him. The next morning, the earth had cast him out. They said, 'This is the doing of Muhammad and his companions; because he turned away from their religion, they dug up our friend and cast him out.' They buried him again, digging deeper. The next morning, the earth had cast him out again. They said, 'This is the doing of Muhammad and his companions; they dug up our friend and cast him out because he turned away from their religion.' They buried him again, digging as deep as they could. The next morning, the earth had cast him out again. They realized it was not the work of humans and left him exposed.

He came with many people from his tribe. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, approached him with Thabit bin Qais bin Shammas, holding a piece of palm leaf, and stood before Musailamah and his companions, saying, 'Even if you asked for this piece of palm leaf, I would not give it to you, and you will never surpass Allah's decree concerning you. If you turn away, Allah will destroy you. I see you as I saw in my dream about you.' Then [Abu Hurairah, may Allah be pleased with him] informed me that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'While I was sleeping, I saw two gold bracelets on my hands, and their beauty tempted me. It was revealed to me in the dream to blow on them, so I blew, and they flew away. I interpreted them as two liars who would appear after me. One was Al 'Ansiy, and the other was Musailamah the Liar from Yamamah.'

So I wept. Then he said, "Are you not pleased to be the leader of the women of paradise or the women of the believers?" So I laughed because of that.'

He stayed with Umayyah bin Khalaf Abu Safwan, as Umayyah would stay with Sa'ad when passing through Medina on his way to Syria. Umayyah said to Sa'ad, "Wait until midday when people are distracted, then go and perform Tawaf." While Sa'ad was performing Tawaf, Abu Jahl appeared and said, "Who is this performing Tawaf at the Kaaba?" Sa'ad replied, "I am Sa'ad." Abu Jahl said, "You perform Tawaf at the Kaaba safely when you have given refuge to Muhammad and his companions?" Sa'ad said, "Yes." They argued, and Umayyah said to Sa'ad, "Do not raise your voice at Abu Al Hakam, for he is the leader of the valley's people." Sa'ad said, "By Allah, if you prevent me from performing Tawaf at the Kaaba, I will cut off your trade route to Syria." Umayyah kept saying to Sa'ad, "Do not raise your voice," and held him back. Sa'ad grew angry and said, "Leave us, for I heard Muhammad, peace and blessings be upon him, say that he will kill you." Umayyah said, "Me?" Sa'ad replied, "Yes." Umayyah said, "By Allah, Muhammad does not lie when he speaks." He returned to his wife and said, "Do you know what my brother from Yathrib said to me?" She asked, "What did he say?" He said, "He claims he heard Muhammad say he will kill me." She said, "By Allah, Muhammad does not lie." When the Quraysh went out to Badr and the call to war was heard, his wife said to him, "Do you not remember what your brother from Yathrib said?" Umayyah was reluctant to go, but Abu Jahl said to him, "You are one of the valley's nobles, so march with us for a day or two." So he went with them, and Allah killed him.'

The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, asked them, 'What do you find in the Torah regarding stoning?' They said, 'We expose them and flog them.' Abdullah bin Salam said, 'You are lying. The Torah contains the command to stone.' They brought the Torah and spread it out. One of them placed his hand over the verse of stoning and read what was before and after it. Abdullah bin Salam said, 'Lift your hand.' He lifted his hand, and there was the verse of stoning. They said, 'He is right, O Muhammad, it contains the verse of stoning.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, ordered that they be stoned. Abdullah bin 'Umar said, 'I saw the man shielding the woman from the stones.'

"Narrated to us [Abdullah bin Maslamah] from [Malik] from [Zaid bin Aslam] from [Abu Shalih as-Samman] from [Abu Hurairah, may Allah be pleased with him] from the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, who said, 'Horses are for three types of people: for one, they bring reward; for another, they are a shield; and for another, they bring sin. The one who gains reward is the man who keeps his horse for Allah's cause, tending it in a meadow or garden. Whatever it consumes from the meadow or garden earns him good deeds. If it breaks its rope and runs over a hill or two, its droppings and tracks earn him good deeds. If it passes by a river and drinks, even if he did not intend to water it, that earns him good deeds, and that is his reward. The second is a man who keeps it for livelihood, protection, and restraint, not forgetting Allah's right over its neck and back, so it is a shield for him. The third is a man who keeps it for pride, show, and enmity against Muslims, so it brings him sin.' The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, was asked about donkeys, and he said, 'Nothing was revealed to me about them except this comprehensive, profound verse: {Whoever does an atom's weight of good will see it, and whoever does an atom's weight of evil will see it} [Quran 99:7-8].'

"It has been narrated to us by [Abdullah bin Raja'] who narrated to us from [Isra'il] from [Abu Ishaq] from [Al Bara'] who said; '[Abu Bakr] bought a camel saddle from 'Azib for thirteen dirhams. Then Abu Bakr said to 'Azib, "Instruct Al Bara' to bring this saddle to me." But 'Azib said, "No, not until you tell us what you and the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, did when you both left Mecca while the polytheists were searching for you." Abu Bakr said, "Very well. We set out from Mecca, traveling by night or day until noon when it was very hot. I looked around to see if there was any shade to take shelter in. I found a rock and approached it, seeing some shade behind it. So, we stopped there, and I leveled the ground with my hands and spread a mat for the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and said to him, "Lie down, O Prophet of Allah." So, the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, lay down. Then I went to check the surroundings to see if anyone was pursuing us. I came across a young shepherd boy driving his sheep toward the rock to seek shade as we did. I asked him, "Who do you belong to, O boy?" He said, "I belong to a man from Quraysh," mentioning his name, which I recognized. I asked, "Do your sheep produce milk?" He said, "Yes." I asked, "Will you milk them for us?" He said, "Yes." So, I ordered him, and he took a sheep from his flock. I instructed him to clean the udder from dust and then to clean his hands." The narrator (Abu Ishaq) said, "I saw Al Bara' strike one hand with the other to demonstrate cleaning the udder. (Abu Bakr) continued, "Then the shepherd boy milked a small amount of milk into a cup, and I had prepared a small container for the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, which he used for drinking. I poured water into the milk to cool its bottom, then I went to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and found him awake. I said, "Drink, O Messenger of Allah." Abu Bakr said, "So, he drank until I was satisfied." Then I asked, "Is it time to continue our journey, O Messenger of Allah?" He replied, "Yes." So, we resumed our journey while the polytheists were searching for us, but none of them caught us except Suraqah bin Malik bin Ju'syam on his horse. I said, "This pursuer has caught up with us, O Messenger of Allah." He said, "Do not grieve, for Allah is with us."'

"It has been narrated to us by [Muhammad bin Sinan] who narrated to us from [Hammam] from [Tsabit] from [Anas] from [Abu Bakr, may Allah be pleased with him] who said, 'I said to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, while we were in the cave, "If one of them looked under his feet, he would surely see us." He said, "What do you think, O Abu Bakr, of two people with Allah as their third?"'

"It has been narrated to me by [Abdullah bin Muhammad] who narrated to us from [Abu 'Amir] who narrated to us from [Fulaih] who said, it has been narrated to me by [Salim abu an-Nadlar] from [Busr bin Sa'id] from [Abu Sa'id Al Khudriy, may Allah be pleased with him] who said; The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, delivered a sermon to the people and said, 'Indeed, Allah gave a choice to a servant between this world and what is with Him, and that servant chose what is with Allah.' (Abu Sa'id) said, 'Suddenly, Abu Bakr wept, which surprised us because the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, only mentioned a servant who was given a choice. It turned out that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, was the servant meant, and Abu Bakr was the one who understood the hint best. Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'Indeed, the most trustworthy person to me in companionship and wealth is Abu Bakr. If I were to take a close friend other than my Lord, it would be Abu Bakr. But it is the brotherhood of Islam and its love. There shall remain no door in the mosque except that it will be closed, except for the door of Abu Bakr.'

The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "As for your companion, he has been upset." Abu Bakr gave salam and said, "I had an issue with Ibnu Al Khaththab, and I got angry with him, but then I regretted it. I went to him to ask for forgiveness, but he refused to forgive me. So, I came to you." The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "May Allah forgive you, O Abu Bakr," three times. Then 'Umar regretted it and went to Abu Bakr's house, asking, "Is Abu Bakr here?" They said, "No." So, 'Umar went to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and gave salam. The Prophet's face, peace and blessings be upon him, showed anger, which worried Abu Bakr, so he knelt on his knees and said, "O Messenger of Allah, by Allah, I was the one who wronged him twice." The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "Indeed, Allah sent me to you, but you said, "You are a liar," while Abu Bakr said, "He is truthful," and he supported me with his person and his wealth. Will you leave my companion alone?"—he repeated it twice—"After that, Abu Bakr was not harmed again.

The shepherd chased it, and the wolf turned to him and said, "Who will protect it on the day of the beast, when there is no shepherd for it but me?" And a man was driving a cow, which he had mounted with a heavy load. The cow turned to him and spoke, saying, "I was not created for this, but I was created for plowing." The people said, "Glory be to Allah." The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "Indeed, I believe in that, and so do Abu Bakr and 'Umar bin Al Khaththab, may Allah be pleased with them."'

"It has been narrated to us by [Isma'il bin Abdullah] who narrated to us from [Sulaiman bin Bilal] from [Hisyam bin 'Urwah] who said, ['Urwan bin Az Zubair] informed me from ['Aisyah, may Allah be pleased with her], the wife of the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, that when the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, passed away, [Abu Bakr] was in Sunuh. Isma'il said, 'Meaning a village in 'Aliyah, Medina.' Then 'Umar stood up and said, 'By Allah, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, has not died.' 'Aisyah, may Allah be pleased with her, said, 'Then 'Umar said, "Nothing occurred to me except that. And surely Allah will raise him, and he will cut off the hands and feet of those who say so."' Then Abu Bakr came, uncovered the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and kissed him. He said, 'By my father and mother, you were pure in life and in death. By the One in Whose hand is my soul, Allah will never make you taste two deaths forever.' Then he went out and said, 'O you who have sworn allegiance, be calm.' When Abu Bakr spoke, 'Umar sat down. Abu Bakr praised Allah and glorified Him, then said, 'Whoever worshipped Muhammad, peace and blessings be upon him, indeed Muhammad has died, and whoever worships Allah, indeed Allah is Ever-Living and does not die.' Then he recited the verse from Surah az-Zumar, verse 30: 'Indeed, you will die, and they will die,' and from Surah Alu 'Imran, verse 144: 'Muhammad is but a messenger; messengers before him have passed away. If he dies or is killed, will you turn back on your heels? Whoever turns back on his heels will not harm Allah in the least, and Allah will reward the grateful.' The narrator ('Amru) said, 'Then the people wept profusely.' The narrator said, 'Then the Ansar gathered with Sa'ad bin 'Ubadah in the tent of Bani Sa'adah and said, "We will have a leader from us, and you will have a leader from you." Then Abu Bakr, 'Umar bin Al Khaththab, and Abu 'Ubaidah bin Al Jarrah went to them. 'Umar began to speak, but Abu Bakr calmed him. Previously, 'Umar said, "By Allah, I did not intend that. I had prepared a speech that impressed me, but I feared Abu Bakr would not convey it." Then Abu Bakr spoke with the wisdom of the most eloquent people. He said in his speech, "We (Muhajirin) are the leaders, and you are the ministers." Hubab bin Al Mundzir immediately said, "No, by Allah, we will not do that. We will have a leader, and you will have your own leader." Abu Bakr replied, "No, but we are the leaders, and you are the ministers. The Muhajirin are the most central Arabs in residence and the purest in lineage. So, pledge allegiance to 'Umar or Abu 'Ubaidah bin Al Jarrah." Then 'Umar said, "No, rather we pledge allegiance to you, for you are our master, the best of us, and the most beloved to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him." Then 'Umar took his hand and pledged allegiance to him, followed by the people. Someone said, "You have destroyed Sa'ad bin 'Ubadah." 'Umar replied, "May Allah destroy him." And [Abdullah bin Salam] said, from [Az Zubaidiy] who said, [Abdurrahman bin Al Qasim] informed me that [Al Qasim] said that ['Aisyah, may Allah be pleased with her] said, 'The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, looked up and said, "To the Highest Companion," three times.' Then she narrated the full hadith and said, 'None of their speeches failed to benefit through Allah. 'Umar frightened the people with the possibility of hypocrisy among them, and Allah returned them (to steadfastness and unity) through 'Umar's speech. Abu Bakr showed his mature insight, guiding people to the truth and recognizing the truth they held. He went out reciting Surah Alu 'Imran, verse 144: "Muhammad is but a messenger; messengers before him have passed away..." until the end of the verse "...the grateful."'

"It has been narrated to us by [Qutaibah bin Sa'id] from [Malik] from [Abdurrahman bin Al Qasim] from [his father] from ['Aisyah, may Allah be pleased with her] that she said, 'We set out with the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, on one of his journeys. When we reached Baida' or the place where the army gathered, I lost my necklace. So, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, searched for it along with the people in the army. They were not near a water source, and they had no water with them. Some people went to Abu Bakr Ash-Shidiq, may Allah be pleased with him, and said, 'Don’t you see what 'Aisyah has done? She has kept the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and the people busy, while they are not near water and have no water with them.' So, Abu Bakr Ash-Shidiq, may Allah be pleased with him, came while the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, was resting his head on my lap, asleep. He said, 'You have detained the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and the people, while they are not near water and have no water.' 'Aisyah, may Allah be pleased with her, said, 'So Abu Bakr Ash-Shidiq, may Allah be pleased with him, reproached me and said whatever Allah willed him to say, poking my side with his hand. Nothing prevented me from moving (due to his poking) except that I was aware of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, resting on my lap. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, slept until morning without water. Then Allah revealed the verse of tayammum, and everyone performed tayammum. Usaid bin Al Hudlair said, 'This is the beginning of the blessings of your family, O Abu Bakr.' 'Aisyah, may Allah be pleased with her, said, 'Then the camel I was riding stood up, and we found my necklace underneath it.'

"It has been narrated to us by [Muhammad bin Miskin Abu Al Hasan] who narrated to us from [Yahya bin Hassan] who narrated to us from [Sulaiman] from [Syarik bin Abu Namir] from [Sa'id bin Al Musayyab] who said, [Abu Musa Al Asy'ariy] informed me that he performed wudu' in his house, then went out. (Then he narrated), I said, 'I will stay close to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and be with him today.' He said, 'So, I went to the mosque and asked about the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him. They said, "He went out and headed that way." So, I followed his trail, asking about him, until I saw him enter the Aris well (in a field in central Medina). I sat by the door, made of palm fronds, until the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, finished his need and performed wudu'. I approached him, and he was sitting by the Aris well, in the middle of its edge, with his clothing raised to his shins and his legs dangling in the well. I greeted him, then turned back and sat by the door. I said, 'I will be the gatekeeper of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, today.' Then Abu Bakr came and knocked on the door. I asked, 'Who is this?' He said, 'Abu Bakr.' I said, 'Wait a moment.' Then I went and said, 'O Messenger of Allah, Abu Bakr seeks permission to enter.' He said, 'Allow him to enter and give him the glad tidings of paradise.' I returned and said to Abu Bakr, 'Enter, and the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, gives you glad tidings of paradise.' So, Abu Bakr entered and sat to the right of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, on the edge of the well, dangling his legs in the well as the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, did, with his clothing raised to his shins. Then I returned and sat. I had left my brother performing wudu' and catching up with me. I said, 'If Allah wills good for so-and-so,'—meaning my brother—'He will bring him.' Then someone moved the door, and I asked, 'Who is this?' He said, ''Umar bin Al Khaththab.' I said, 'Wait a moment.' Then I went to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, greeted him, and said, 'O Messenger of Allah, 'Umar bin Al Khaththab seeks permission to enter.' He said, 'Allow him to enter and give him the glad tidings of paradise.' So, I went and said, 'Enter, and the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, gives you glad tidings of paradise.' So, 'Umar entered and sat to the left of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, on the edge of the well, dangling his legs in the well. Then I returned and sat. I said, 'If Allah wills good for so-and-so, He will bring him.' Then someone moved the door again, and I asked, 'Who is this?' He said, ''Utsman bin 'Affan.' I said, 'Wait a moment.' Then I went to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and informed him. He said, 'Allow him to enter and give him the glad tidings of paradise, along with trials that will befall him.' So, I went to him and said, 'Enter, and the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, gives you glad tidings of paradise, along with trials that will befall you.' So, 'Utsman entered, but found the edge of the well full, so he sat opposite him on the other side.' [Syarik bin Abdullah] said, [Sa'id bin Al Musayyab] said, 'I interpreted their sitting positions as their graves, while 'Utsman's grave is separate from theirs.'

The mountain shook, and he said, 'Be still, O Uhud, for upon you are a Prophet, a Siddiq (the truthful one, meaning Abu Bakr), and two martyrs.'

Ibn 'Abbas, as if consoling him, said, 'O Commander of the Faithful, even so, you accompanied the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him excellently, parted with him while he was pleased, then accompanied Abu Bakr excellently, parted with him while he was pleased, and accompanied their companions well. "Narrated to me by Ahmad bin Shabib bin Sa'id, from his father, from Yunus, who said, Ibn Shihab informed me that 'Urwah reported that 'Ubaidullah bin 'Adiy bin Al-Khiyar informed him that Al-Miswar bin Makhramah and 'Abdur Rahman bin Al-Aswad bin 'Abdu Yaghuts said to him: 'What prevents you from speaking to 'Uthman about his brother Al-Walid, as people have raised many complaints about him?' So I waited for 'Uthman until he went out for prayer and said, 'I have a need with you, which is advice for you.' 'Uthman said, 'O man.' Ma'mar said, 'I think he said, I seek refuge in Allah from you.' So I left and returned to them. Then 'Uthman's messenger came, so I went to him, and he asked, 'What is your advice?' I said, 'Allah, the Exalted, sent Muhammad peace and blessings be upon him with the truth, revealed the Book to him, and you were among those who responded to Allah and His Messenger, migrated twice, accompanied the Messenger of Allah, and saw his guidance. People have spoken much about Al-Walid’s matter.' He asked, 'Did you meet the Messenger of Allah?' I said, 'No, but his knowledge reached me as it reaches a secluded maiden in her chamber.' He said, 'To proceed, Allah sent Muhammad with the truth, and I was among those who responded to Allah and His Messenger, believed in what he was sent with, migrated twice as you said, accompanied and pledged allegiance to the Messenger of Allah. By Allah, I never disobeyed or deceived him until Allah took him. Then Abu Bakr was likewise, then 'Umar, then I was appointed Caliph. Do I not have the same rights as they had?' I said, 'Yes.' He said, 'Then what are these talks reaching me from you? As for Al-Walid’s matter, we will address it justly, if Allah wills.' Then he called 'Ali and ordered him to whip Al-Walid, and 'Ali whipped him eighty times.

'Quraysh.' He asked, 'Who is their elder?' They said, 'Abdullah bin 'Umar.' He said, 'O Ibn 'Umar, I ask you something, so explain. Do you know 'Uthman fled at Uhud?' He said, 'Yes.' He asked, 'Do you know he was absent at Badr?' He said, 'Yes.' He asked, 'Do you know he was absent at Bay'atur Ridwan?' He said, 'Yes.' The man said, 'Allahu Akbar!' Ibn 'Umar said, 'Come, I'll explain. His flight at Uhud—I testify Allah forgave him. His absence at Badr—he was caring for the Prophet's daughter, and the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him said, 'You have the reward and share of those at Badr.' His absence at Bay'atur Ridwan—if there were anyone in Makkah more noble than 'Uthman, the Prophet would have sent them instead. He sent 'Uthman, and Bay'atur Ridwan occurred after. The Prophet raised his right hand, saying, 'This is 'Uthman's hand,' clasped it with his left, and said, 'This is for 'Uthman.' Now go with this explanation.'

"Narrated to us by Musaddad, from Yahya, from Sa'id, from Qatadah, from Anas bin Malik (may Allah be pleased with him): The Prophet peace and blessings be upon him climbed Uhud with Abu Bakr, 'Umar, and 'Uthman. The mountain shook, and he said, 'Be still, Uhud,' striking it with his foot, 'for on you are only a Prophet, a Siddiq, and two martyrs.'

"Narrated to us by Musa bin Isma'il, from Abu 'Awanah, from Hushain, from 'Amru bin Maimun: I saw 'Umar bin Al-Khattab (may Allah be pleased with him) in Madinah days before his stabbing. He stood before Hudzaifah bin Al-Yaman and 'Uthman bin Hunaif, asking, 'What have you done? Do you fear overburdening the land beyond its capacity?' They said, 'We imposed a fair burden it can bear, with no excess.' 'Umar said, 'Ensure you haven't overburdened it.' They said, 'No.' 'Umar said, 'If Allah spares me, I'll ensure Iraq's widows need no man after me.' Four days later, he was stabbed. I stood with only 'Abdullah bin 'Abbas between us at dawn when he was struck. He would align the prayer rows, saying, 'Straighten your rows,' until no gaps remained, then lead and recite Surah Yusuf, An-Nahl, or similar in the first rak'ah until all joined. After his takbir, I heard him say, 'He killed me,' or 'The dog ate me,' when stabbed. The assailant, with a double-edged knife, stabbed everyone right and left, wounding thirteen, seven fatally. A Muslim threw a cloak over him. Realizing capture, the assailant killed himself. 'Umar took 'Abdur Rahman bin 'Auf's hand, pulling him forward. Those near saw what I saw, but those at the mosque's edges didn't, only missing 'Umar's voice, saying, 'SubhanAllah.' 'Abdur Rahman led a brief prayer. After, 'Umar said, 'O Ibn 'Abbas, see who killed me.' He returned, saying, 'Al-Mughirah's slave.'

'Umar said, 'The skilled knife-maker? May Allah curse him. I ordered him good. Praise Allah, my death wasn't by a Muslim's hand. You and your father liked non-Arabs in Madinah.' 'Abbas had many slaves. Ibn 'Abbas said, 'If you wish, I'll act.' 'Umar said, 'You lie; they speak your tongue, pray toward your qiblah, and perform your hajj.' Carried home, people acted as if never struck by such calamity. Some said, 'He's fine,' others, 'I fear for him.' He drank wine, but it exited his wound. He drank milk, but it exited too. They knew he'd die. We visited, people praised him. A youth said, 'Rejoice, O Commander of the Faithful, for Allah's glad tidings of companionship with the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him , seniority in Islam, just leadership, and martyrdom.' 'Umar said, 'I'd be content if my deeds balanced, neither against nor for me.' Seeing the youth's garment touch the ground, 'Umar said, 'Bring him back. Nephew, lift your garment; it preserves it and fears your Lord.' He said, 'O 'Abdullah bin 'Umar, check my debts.' They calculated eighty-six thousand or so. 'Umar said, 'If my family's wealth suffices, pay from it. If not, ask Bani 'Adiy bin Ka'b. If insufficient, ask Quraysh, not others, to settle my debt. Go to 'Aishah, Mother of the Believers, say 'Umar sends greetings, not Commander of the Faithful, for I'm no longer their leader, and request burial with his two companions.' 'Abdullah greeted, sought permission, and found 'Aishah weeping. He said, ''Umar sends greetings and requests burial with his companions.' She said, 'I wanted it for myself, but today I prioritize him.' 'Abdullah returned, and 'Umar said, 'Lift me.' A man supported him. 'What news?' 'What you hoped, O Commander, she permitted.' 'Umar said, 'Praise Allah, nothing was dearer. When I die, carry me, greet, and say 'Umar seeks permission. If she allows, bury me; if not, return me to the Muslims' cemetery.' Hafshah, Mother of the Believers, came with women. Seeing her, we stood. She approached 'Umar, wept briefly. Men sought permission, and she entered a room. We heard her weeping. They said, 'O Commander, make a will, appoint a successor.' 'Umar said, 'I find none more worthy than those the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him was pleased with at his death.' He named 'Ali, 'Uthman, Az-Zubair, Talhah, Sa'ad, and 'Abdur Rahman, adding, ''Abdullah bin 'Umar is your witness, with no role, as consolation. If Sa'ad leads, so be it; if not, seek his aid, for I didn't remove him for weakness or betrayal.' He said, 'I advise the next Caliph to honor the early Muhajirin's rights and sanctity, treat the Ansar well, who settled and believed before them, accepting their good and forgiving their errors, treat city dwellers well as Islam's defenders, collecting wealth and angering enemies, taking only their surplus willingly, treat Bedouin Arabs well as the root of Arabs and Islam's material, taking from their lesser wealth and returning to their poor, and uphold Allah and His Messenger's covenant with the protected people, fighting for them and not burdening beyond their capacity.' When 'Umar passed, we carried him. 'Abdullah bin 'Umar greeted, saying, ''Umar seeks permission.' 'Aishah said, 'Enter.' He was buried beside his two companions. After burial, the group met. 'Abdur Rahman said, 'Entrust your matter to three among you.' Az-Zubair said, 'I entrust mine to 'Ali.' Talhah said, 'I entrust mine to 'Uthman.' Sa'ad said, 'I entrust mine to 'Abdur Rahman bin 'Auf.' 'Abdur Rahman said, 'Who of you two relinquishes this? We'll entrust it to him, with Allah and Islam watching for the best.' The two elders were silent. 'Abdur Rahman said, 'Entrust it to me, with Allah as witness I won't favor but choose the best.' They agreed. He took one's hand, saying, 'Your kinship to the Prophet and seniority in Islam are known. Allah watches: if I appoint you, be just; if I appoint 'Uthman, obey him.' He said the same to the other. After securing the pledge, he said, 'Raise your hand, O 'Uthman.' He pledged to 'Uthman, 'Ali followed, and the household pledged.

"Narrated to us by Qutaibah bin Sa'id, from 'Abdul 'Aziz, from Abu Hazim, from Sahal bin Sa'ad (may Allah be pleased with him): The Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him said, 'Tomorrow, I'll give the flag to a man through whom Allah grants victory.' People spent the night guessing who'd receive it. In the morning, all hoped for it. He said, 'Where is 'Ali bin Abu Thalib?' They said, 'He has an eye ailment, O Messenger of Allah.' He said, 'Send for him.' When 'Ali came, the Prophet spat in his eyes, prayed for him, and he was healed as if never ill. He gave him the flag. 'Ali said, 'O Messenger of Allah, shall I fight until they become like us?' He said, 'Proceed calmly, reach their place, invite them to Islam, and inform them of Allah's rights. By Allah, if one is guided through you, it's better than red camels.'

"Narrated to us by Qutaibah, from Hatim, from Yazid bin Abu 'Ubaid, from Salamah: 'Ali had stayed behind from the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him during Khaibar because he was suffering from an eye ailment. He said, 'I am staying behind from the Messenger of Allah.' Then 'Ali set out and caught up with the Prophet. On the evening of the night before Allah granted victory in the morning, the Messenger of Allah said, 'I will give the banner, or the banner will be taken tomorrow by a man whom Allah and His Messenger love,' or he said, 'who loves Allah and His Messenger, and Allah will grant victory through him.' When we were with 'Ali, though we did not expect him, they said, 'This is 'Ali.' So the Messenger of Allah gave him the banner, and Allah granted victory through him.

Sahl asked, 'What does he call him?' He said, 'He calls him Abu Turab.' Sahl laughed and said, 'By Allah, none gave him that name except the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, and there was no name dearer to him than it.' I eagerly sought the story from Sahl and said, 'O Abu 'Abbas, how did this happen?' Sahl said, ''Ali visited Fatimah, then went out and lay down in the mosque. The Prophet asked, 'Where is your cousin?' She said, 'In the mosque.' So he went to him and found his cloak had fallen off his back, and dust had reached his back. He began wiping the dust off his back, saying, 'Sit up, O Abu Turab,' twice.

The Prophet peace and blessings be upon him received captives, so she went to him but did not find him. She met 'Aishah and told her. When the Prophet came, 'Aishah informed him of Fatimah’s visit. The Prophet came to us when we had gone to bed. I started to get up, but he said, 'Stay where you are.' He sat between us until I felt the coolness of his feet on my chest and said, 'Shall I teach you something better than what you asked for? When you go to bed, say Allahu Akbar thirty-four times, SubhanAllah thirty-three times, and Alhamdulillah thirty-three times. That is better for you than a servant.'

"Narrated to us by Khalid bin Makhlad, from 'Ali bin Mushir, from Hisham bin 'Urwah, from his father, who said, Marwan bin Al-Hakam informed me: 'Uthman bin 'Affan suffered severe nosebleeds in the year of nosebleeds, preventing him from performing Hajj, and he made a will. A man from Quraysh visited him and said, 'Appoint a successor.' 'Uthman asked, 'Have they said so?' He replied, 'Yes.' 'Uthman asked, 'Who is it?' The man was silent. Another man, likely Al-Harith, came and said, 'Appoint a successor.' 'Uthman asked, 'Have they said so?' He replied, 'Yes.' 'Uthman asked, 'Who is it?' He was silent. 'Uthman said, 'Perhaps they mentioned Az-Zubair?' He replied, 'Yes.' 'Uthman said, 'By the One in Whose hand is my soul, he is the best of them as far as I know, and he was the dearest to the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him.'

And narrated to us by 'Ali, from Sufyan, who said: I went to ask Az-Zuhri about the hadith of the Makhzumi woman, and he called out to me. I said to Sufyan: 'Did you not narrate it from anyone?' He replied: 'I found it in a book written by Ayyub bin Musa, from Az-Zuhri, from 'Urwah, from 'Aishah (may Allah be pleased with her), that a woman from Banu Makhzum stole. They said: 'Who will speak to the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him about her?' No one dared to speak to him, so Usamah bin Zaid spoke to him. The Prophet said: 'Are you interceding regarding a punishment prescribed by Allah?' Then he stood and delivered a sermon, saying: 'Indeed, those before you were destroyed because when a noble among them stole, they let him go, but when a weak person stole, they enforced the punishment. By Allah, if Fatimah, the daughter of Muhammad, had stolen, I would have cut off her hand.'

"Narrated to us by Ishaq bin Nasr, from 'Abdur Razzaq, from Ma'mar, from Az-Zuhri, from Salim, from Ibn 'Umar (may Allah be pleased with them both), who said: During the lifetime of the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, if a man had a dream, he would narrate it to the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him. I wished to have a dream to narrate to the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him. I was a young, unmarried man, and I used to sleep in the mosque during the time of the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him. I saw in a dream that two angels took me and brought me to the Fire, and it was folded like a well, with two horns like a well’s horns. There were people in it whom I recognized, and I began saying: 'I seek refuge with Allah from the Fire, I seek refuge with Allah from the Fire.' Then another angel met them and said to me: 'You will not be harmed.' I narrated it to Hafsah, and Hafsah narrated it to the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, who said: 'What an excellent man 'Abdullah is, if only he would pray at night.' Salim said: After that, 'Abdullah would sleep very little at night.

THE ATTITUDE OF THE PROPHET SHALLALLAHU ALAIHI WASALLAM TOWARD THE ANSHAR
Hadith Imam Bukhari Number 3494

حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو الْوَلِيدِ حَدَّثَنَا شُعْبَةُ عَنْ أَبِي التَّيَّاحِ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ أَنَسًا رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ يَقُولُقَالَتْ الْأَنْصَارُ يَوْمَ فَتْحِ مَكَّةَ وَأَعْطَى قُرَيْشًا وَاللَّهِ إِنَّ هَذَا لَهُوَ الْعَجَبُ إِنَّ سُيُوفَنَا تَقْطُرُ مِنْ دِمَاءِ قُرَيْشٍ وَغَنَائِمُنَا تُرَدُّ عَلَيْهِمْ فَبَلَغَ

ذَلِكَ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَدَعَا الْأَنْصَارَ قَالَ فَقَالَ مَا الَّذِي بَلَغَنِي عَنْكُمْ وَكَانُوا لَا يَكْذِبُونَ فَقَالُوا هُوَ الَّذِي بَلَغَكَ قَالَ أَوَلَا تَرْضَوْنَ أَنْ يَرْجِعَ النَّاسُ بِالْغَنَائِمِ إِلَى بُيُوتِهِمْ وَتَرْجِعُونَ بِرَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِلَى بُيُوتِكُمْ لَوْ سَلَكَتْ الْأَنْصَارُ وَادِيًا أَوْ شِعْبًا لَسَلَكْتُ وَادِيَ الْأَنْصَارِ أَوْ شِعْبَهُمْ

"Narrated to us by Abu Al Walid, from Shu'bah, from Abu at-Tayyah, who said, I heard Anas (may Allah be pleased with him) say: The Ansar said on the day of the conquest of Makkah, when he gave to the Quraysh: 'By Allah, this is astonishing. Our swords drip with the blood of the Quraysh, yet our spoils are returned to them.' This reached the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, so he called the Ansar and said: 'What is this I hear about you?' They, being truthful, said: 'It is as you heard.' He said: 'Are you not pleased that people return to their homes with spoils while you return to your homes with the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him? If the Ansar were to take a valley or a mountain pass, I would take the valley or pass of the Ansar.'

When her waiting period is over, you may marry her.' 'Abdur Rahman said: 'May Allah bless you in your family and wealth. Where is your market?' They directed him to the market of Bani Qainuqa'. He did not return except with a surplus of cheese and ghee. He continued trading, then one day he came with traces of yellow (perfume). "Narrated to us by Musaddad, from 'Abdullah bin Daud, from Fudail bin Ghazwan, from Abu Hazim, from Abu Hurairah (may Allah be pleased with him), that a man came to the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, and he sent for his wives, who said: 'We have nothing but water.' Then the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him said: 'Who will take or host this man?' A man from the Ansar said: 'I will.' He took him to his wife and said: 'Honor the guest of the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him.' She said: 'We have nothing but the food for my children.' He said: 'Prepare your food, light your lamp, and put your children to sleep when they want dinner.' So she prepared her food, lit her lamp, and put her children to sleep. Then she stood as if to fix her lamp and turned it off. They pretended to eat, but they went to bed hungry. In the morning, they went to the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him, who said: 'Tonight Allah laughed or was amazed at your actions.' Then Allah revealed: 'And they prefer others over themselves, even though they are in need. And whoever is protected from the stinginess of his soul, they are the successful ones.'

Abu Talhah was a skilled archer whose shots penetrated deeply. On that day, he broke two or three bows due to the intensity of his shooting. A man passed by with a quiver of arrows and said, 'Give these to Abu Talhah.' The Prophet peace and blessings be upon him raised his head to look at the enemy, and Abu Talhah said, 'O Prophet of Allah, may my father and mother be sacrificed for you, do not raise your head lest an enemy arrow strikes you. Let my neck be struck instead.' I saw 'Aishah bint Abu Bakr and Umm Sulaim, both with their garments raised to their ankles, revealing their anklets. They were carrying water skins on their backs, pouring water into the mouths of the wounded. Then they would return, refill the water skins, and come back to pour water into the mouths of the wounded. The sword struck Abu Talhah’s body two or three times.

They said, 'This is a man from the people of Paradise.' He prayed two rak'ahs briefly, then left, and I followed him. I said, 'When you entered the mosque, they said you are one of the people of Paradise.' He said, 'By Allah, no one should say what they do not know. I will tell you why. I saw a dream during the time of the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him and narrated it to him. I saw myself in a garden'—he described its vastness and greenery—'with an iron pillar in its center, its base in the earth and its top in the sky, with a handle at its top. I was told, "Climb it." I said, "I cannot." Then a helper came, lifted my clothes from behind, and I climbed until I reached the top and held the handle. It was said to me, "Hold fast." I woke up with the handle in my hand. I narrated this to the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, and he said, "That garden is Islam, that pillar is the pillar of Islam, and that handle is the firmest handhold. You will remain upon Islam until you die." That man was 'Abdullah bin Salam.' Khalifah said: Narrated to us by Mu'adh, from Ibn 'Aun, from Muhammad, from Qais bin 'Ubad, from Ibn Salam, who said 'Wasif' instead of 'Minsaf.'

"Narrated to me by Isma'il bin Khalil, from Salamah bin Raja', from Hisham bin 'Urwah, from his father, from 'Aishah (may Allah be pleased with her), who said: On the day of Uhud, the polytheists were decisively defeated. Then Iblis shouted, 'O servants of Allah, watch your rear!' The front ranks turned back to the rear ranks, and the rear ranks fought them. Hudhaifah looked and saw his father (Al-Yaman). He shouted, 'O servants of Allah, my father, my father!' She said, 'By Allah, they did not stop until they killed him.' Hudhaifah said, 'May Allah forgive you.' My father, 'Urwah, said, 'By Allah, Hudhaifah continued to have goodness from it until he met Allah, the Mighty and Exalted.'

"Narrated to me by Muhammad bin Abu Bakr, from Fudail bin Sulaiman, from Musa bin 'Uqbah, from Salim bin 'Abdullah, from 'Abdullah bin 'Umar (may Allah be pleased with them), that the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him met Zaid bin 'Amr bin Nufail in a valley called Baldah before revelation came to him. The Prophet peace and blessings be upon him was offered a meal but refused to eat from it. Then Zaid said, 'I do not eat what you slaughter on your stone altars, and I only eat what has had the name of Allah mentioned upon it.' Zaid bin 'Amr used to criticize the Quraysh for their sacrifices, saying, 'The sheep was created by Allah, He sent down water for it from the sky, and He caused plants to grow for it from the earth, yet you slaughter it without mentioning Allah’s name,' denouncing this and considering it significant.

"Musa said: Narrated to me by Salim bin 'Abdullah, and I only know it as narrated from Ibn 'Umar, that Zaid bin 'Amr bin Nufail went to Sham seeking a religion to follow. He met a Jewish scholar and asked about their religion, saying, 'Perhaps I will follow your religion, so tell me about it.' The scholar said, 'You cannot follow our religion unless you take your share of Allah’s wrath.' Zaid said, 'I only flee from Allah’s wrath, and I will never bear any of Allah’s wrath as long as I can. Can you guide me to another religion?' He said, 'I only know of the Hanif religion.' Zaid asked, 'What is the Hanif?' He said, 'The religion of Ibrahim, who was neither a Jew nor a Christian and worshipped only Allah.' Zaid left and met a Christian scholar, repeating the same. The scholar said, 'You cannot follow our religion unless you take your share of Allah’s curse.' Zaid said, 'I only flee from Allah’s curse and wrath, and I will never bear any of it as long as I can. Can you guide me to another religion?' He said, 'I only know of the Hanif religion.' Zaid asked, 'What is the Hanif?' He said, 'The religion of Ibrahim, who was neither a Jew nor a Christian and worshipped only Allah.' When Zaid heard their statements about Ibrahim peace be upon him, he left, raised his hands, and said, 'O Allah, I bear witness that I am upon the religion of Ibrahim.' Al-Laith said: Hisham wrote to me, from his father, from Asma' bint Abu Bakr (may Allah be pleased with them), who said: I saw Zaid bin 'Amr bin Nufail standing with his back against the Ka'bah, saying, 'O people of Quraysh, by Allah, none of you is upon the religion of Ibrahim except me.' He used to save girls who were to be buried alive, saying to a man intending to kill his daughter, 'Do not kill her; I will provide for her needs.' He would take her, and when she grew up, he would say to her father, 'If you wish, I will return her to you, or if you wish, I will continue to provide for her needs.'

'Abbas said to the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, 'Place your waistcloth around your neck to protect you from the stones.' He fell to the ground, his eyes fixed toward the sky, then he regained consciousness and said, 'My waistcloth, my waistcloth,' and he tightened his waistcloth.

The Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him and his companions arrived in Mecca on the fourth of Dhul-Hijjah, proclaiming their intention for Hajj. She had a small, cramped house near the mosque. She would come to us and talk. When she finished her story, she would recite: 'The day of the scarf is one of our Lord’s wonders. Indeed, it was in the land of disbelief that Allah saved me.' When she recited this often, 'Aishah asked her, 'What is the day of the scarf?' She said, 'A young girl went out to some of my family carrying a leather scarf. It fell from her, and a bird swooped down, thinking it was meat, and took it. They accused me and tortured me, even searching my private parts. While they were around me, and I was in distress, the bird came, circled above our heads, and dropped it. They took it, and I said to them, 'This is what you accused me of, and I am innocent of it.'

Narrated to us by Abu Ma'mar, from 'Abdul Warith, from Qatan Abu Al Haitham, from Abu Yazid Al Madani, from 'Ikrimah, from Ibn 'Abbas (may Allah be pleased with them), who said: 'The first instance of swearing (qasamah) occurred in the time of ignorance among us, Bani Hashim. A man from Bani Hashim was hired by a man from Quraysh from another tribe. He went with him with his camels, and a man from Bani Hashim passed by whose water sack's strap had broken. He said, "Help me with a rope to tie the strap of my water sack so the camels don’t spill it." He gave him a rope, and he tied the strap. When they stopped, the camels were tethered except for one. The hirer asked, "Why is this camel not tethered like the others?" He replied, "It has no rope." The hirer asked, "Where is its rope?" Ibn 'Abbas continued: Then the hirer struck him with a stick, causing his death. A man from Yemen passed by the hired man, who said, "Will you attend the pilgrimage season?" He replied, "I don’t intend to, but perhaps I might." He asked, "Will you deliver a message for me once in a lifetime?" He said, "Yes." He said, "When you attend the pilgrimage, call out, 'O family of Quraysh.' If they respond, call out, 'O family of Bani Hashim.' If they respond, ask for Abu Talib and tell him that so-and-so killed me over a rope." The hired man died. When the hirer arrived, Abu Talib came to him and asked, "What happened to our companion?" He said, "He fell ill, I took good care of him, and I buried him." Abu Talib said, "You did well by him." After some time, the man entrusted with the message arrived at the pilgrimage and said, "O family of Quraysh." They replied, "This is Quraysh." He said, "O family of Bani Hashim." They replied, "This is Bani Hashim." He said, "Where is Abu Talib?" They said, "This is Abu Talib." He said, "So-and-so instructed me to deliver a message that so-and-so killed him over a rope." Abu Talib went to him and said, "Choose one of three options: pay a hundred camels for killing our companion, or fifty of your people must swear you didn’t kill him. If you refuse, we will kill you in retaliation." He went to his people, and they said, "We will swear." A woman from Bani Hashim, married to one of them and who had borne him a child, came to Abu Talib and said, "O Abu Talib, I would like you to count my son as one of the fifty who swear, and do not make him swear when oaths are required." Abu Talib agreed. Then a man from them came and said, "O Abu Talib, you wanted fifty men to swear instead of a hundred camels, meaning each man accounts for two camels. Here are two camels, accept them for me, and do not make me swear when oaths are required." Abu Talib accepted them. Then forty-eight men came and swore. Ibn 'Abbas said, "By the One in whose hand is my soul, within a year, not one of those forty-eight who swore had a blinking eye (they all died).

"Narrated to us by Al Humaidi, from Sufyan, from Bayan and Isma'il, who both said, we heard Qais say, I heard Khabbab say: 'I came to the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him while he was reclining on a cloak in the shade of the Ka'bah. We were facing severe persecution from the polytheists. I said, "O Messenger of Allah, will you not pray to Allah?" He sat up, his face red, and said, "Those before you were combed with iron combs, stripping the flesh from their bones or nerves, yet that did not turn them from their religion. A saw was placed on the parting of their head and split them in two, yet that did not turn them from their religion. Allah will surely complete this matter until a rider travels from Sana’a to Hadramaut fearing only Allah." Bayan added, "or the wolf upon his sheep."'

"Narrated to us by Sulaiman bin Harb, from Shu'bah, from Abu Ishaq, from Al Aswad, from Abdullah (may Allah be pleased with him), who said: 'The Prophet peace and blessings be upon him recited Surah An-Najm and prostrated, and everyone prostrated except one man. I saw him take a handful of pebbles, raise them, and prostrate on them, saying, "This is enough for me." I later saw him killed as a disbeliever in Allah.'

"Narrated to me by Muhammad bin Bashshar, from Ghundar, from Shu'bah, from Abu Ishaq, from 'Amru bin Maimun, from Abdullah (may Allah be pleased with him), who said: 'While the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him was prostrating, surrounded by people from Quraysh, 'Uqbah bin Abi Mu'ayt came with the entrails of a slaughtered animal and threw them on the Prophet’s back peace and blessings be upon him. He did not raise his head. Fatimah (peace be upon her) came and removed them from his back, cursing the one who did it. The Prophet peace and blessings be upon him said, "O Allah, deal with the leaders of Quraysh: Abu Jahl bin Hisham, 'Utbah bin Rabi'ah, Shaybah bin Rabi'ah, Umayyah bin Khalaf, or Ubay bin Khalaf." Shu'bah was uncertain. I saw them killed on the day of Badr and thrown into a well, except for Umayyah or Ubay, whose limbs were torn apart and not thrown into the well.'

EXPLANATION OF TWO VERSES ABOUT MURDER
Hadith Imam Bukhari Number 3566

حَدَّثَنَا عُثْمَانُ بْنُ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ حَدَّثَنَا جَرِيرٌ عَنْ مَنْصُورٍ حَدَّثَنِي سَعِيدُ بْنُ جُبَيْرٍ أَوْ قَالَ حَدَّثَنِي الْحَكَمُ عَنْ

"Narrated to us by 'Uthman bin Abu Shaybah, from Jarir, from Mansur, from Sa'id bin Jubair—or he said, from Al Hakam, from Sa'id bin Jubair—who said: 'Abdurrahman bin Abza instructed me, saying, "Ask Ibn 'Abbas about these two verses and their meaning: 'And do not kill the soul which Allah has forbidden except by right' (Qur'an, Al-Isra 17:33) and 'Whoever kills a believer intentionally' (Qur'an, An-Nisa 4:93)." I asked Ibn 'Abbas, and he said, "When the verse in Al-Furqan was revealed, the polytheists of Mecca said, 'We have killed the soul Allah has forbidden, worshipped another deity besides Allah, and committed immoralities.' So Allah revealed, 'Except for those who repent and believe' (Qur'an, Al-Furqan 25:70). This was for them. As for the verse in An-Nisa, if a man knows Islam and its laws and then kills, his recompense is Hell." I mentioned this to Mujahid, and he said, "Except for those who regret their actions."'

He said, "While the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him was praying at the Hijr of the Ka'bah, 'Uqbah bin Abi Mu'ayt came and put his garment around his neck, strangling him severely. Abu Bakr came, grabbed his shoulder, and pushed him away from the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, saying, 'Would you kill a man for saying, "My Lord is Allah"?' (Qur'an, Ghafir 40:28)." Ibn Ishaq confirmed, saying, Yahya bin 'Urwah narrated to me from 'Urwah, "I said to Abdullah bin 'Amr." 'Abdah said, from Hisham, from his father, "It was said to 'Amr bin Al 'As." Muhammad bin 'Amr said, from Abu Salamah, "'Amr bin Al 'As narrated to me."'

I brought him stones, carrying them in the edge of my garment, and placed them beside him. Then I left. When he finished, I walked with him and asked, "What about bones and dung?" "Narrated to me by 'Amru bin 'Abbas, from 'Abdurrahman bin Mahdi, from Al Muthanna, from Abu Jamrah, from Ibn 'Abbas (may Allah be pleased with them), who said: 'When news of the Prophet’s peace and blessings be upon him prophethood reached Abu Dharr, he said to his brother, "Go to this valley and find out about this man who claims to be a prophet receiving news from the heavens. Listen to his words and come back to me." His brother went, reached him, listened to his words, and returned to Abu Dharr, saying, "I saw him enjoining noble character and words that are not poetry." Abu Dharr said, "You haven’t satisfied what I wanted." So he took provisions and a water skin and went to Mecca. He entered the mosque, seeking the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him without knowing him and disliking to ask about him. When night fell, he lay down. 'Ali saw him and knew he was a stranger. When he saw 'Ali, he followed him, but neither asked the other anything until morning. He carried his water skin and provisions to the mosque and stayed there all day without seeing the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him until evening. He returned to his resting place, and 'Ali passed by, saying, "Hasn’t the man found his place yet?" 'Ali took him along, and neither asked the other anything. On the third day, 'Ali did the same and stayed with him, then said, "Won’t you tell me what brought you here?" Abu Dharr said, "If you give me a covenant and pledge to guide me, I will." 'Ali did so, and Abu Dharr told him. 'Ali said, "It is true, and he is the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him. Tomorrow, follow me. If I see anything I fear for you, I'll stand as if pouring water. If I proceed, follow me until you enter where I enter." Abu Dharr did so, following 'Ali until he entered the presence of the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, and Abu Dharr entered with him. He listened to his words and embraced Islam on the spot. The Prophet peace and blessings be upon him said to him, "Return to your people and inform them until my command reaches you." Abu Dharr said, "By the One in whose hand is my soul, I will proclaim it among them openly." He went to the mosque and called out at the top of his voice, "I bear witness that there is no god but Allah and that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah." The people rose, beat him until he fell, and Al 'Abbas came, leaning over him, saying, "Woe to you! Don't you know he is from Ghifar, and your trade route to Sham passes through them?" He saved him from them. The next day, Abu Dharr repeated it, and they beat him again. Al 'Abbas leaned over him again.'

He asked him, "What's wrong with you?" He replied, "Your people claim they will kill me if I embrace Islam." Al 'As said, "There is no way to you." I felt safe after he said that. Al 'As went out and met people filling the valley. He asked, "Where are you going?" They said, "We want Ibn Al Khattab, who has apostatized." Al 'As said, "There is no way to him." "Narrated to us by [Yahya bin Sulaiman] who said, [Ibnu Wahb] narrated to me, saying, ['Umar] narrated to me that [Salim] told him from [Abdullah bin 'Umar] may Allah be pleased with them both, who said: I never heard ['Umar] say about anything, 'I think it is so,' except that it turned out as he thought. Once, while 'Umar was sitting, a handsome man passed by. 'Umar said, 'My guess is wrong,' or 'This man is still following his religion from the pre-Islamic era,' or 'He was their soothsayer. Bring that man to me.' So the man was called to 'Umar, and he told him his suspicion, saying, 'I have never seen a day like today where a Muslim is confronted with such talk.' 'Umar said, 'I am certain of my suspicion about you unless you tell me otherwise.' The man said, 'I was indeed their soothsayer in the pre-Islamic era.' 'Umar asked, 'What is the most astonishing thing your jinn brought to you?' The man replied, 'One day while I was in the market, my jinn came to me, and I knew it was in a state of fear. It said, "Have you not seen the jinn in confusion and despair after turning away from meeting the young camels with their saddlebags?"' 'Umar said, 'The jinn spoke the truth. While I was sleeping near their idols, a man came with a calf and slaughtered it. Then someone shouted in a voice louder than any I had ever heard, saying, 'O Jalih, a successful matter, an eloquent man says, "There is no god but Allah."' The people jumped in shock. I said, 'I will not leave until I know what is behind this.' Then the man shouted again, 'O Jalih, a successful matter, an eloquent man says, "There is no god but Allah."' So I stood up, and soon after, it was said, 'This is a Prophet.'

"Narrated to us by [Abdullah bin Muhammad Al Ju'fi] who narrated to us from [Hisyam] who informed us from [Ma'mar] from [Az Zuhri] who narrated to us from ['Urwah bin Az Zubair] that [Ubaidullah bin 'Adi bin Al Khiyar] informed him, that Al Miswar bin Al Makhramah and 'Abdurrahman bin Al Aswad bin 'Abdu Yaghuts said to him: 'What prevents you from speaking to your uncle ['Utsman] about his brother Al Walid bin Al Uqbah, when he is the one most responsible for causing 'Uthman to be slandered?' Ubaidullah said: So I waited for

'Uthman when he went out for prayer, and I said to him, 'I have a need to offer you advice.' 'Uthman said, 'O man, I seek refuge in Allah from you.' So I turned away from him. After I finished the prayer, I sat with Al Miswar and Ibnu 'Abdi Yaghuts, and I told them what I said to 'Uthman and what he said to me. They said, 'You have fulfilled what was upon you.' While I was sitting with them, 'Uthman's messenger came to me. They said to me, 'Allah has tested you.' So I went to meet 'Uthman, and he asked, 'What is the advice you mentioned earlier?' Ubaidullah said: So I bore witness and said, 'Indeed, Allah Almighty sent Muhammad, peace and blessings be upon him, and revealed the Book to him. You were among those who responded to Allah Almighty and His Messenger, peace and blessings be upon him, and believed in him, migrated twice, accompanied the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and saw his guidance. People have spoken much about the matter of Al Walid bin 'Uqbah, so it is incumbent upon you to establish the prescribed punishment upon him.' 'Uthman said to me, 'O my nephew, did you ever meet the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him?' I said, 'No, but his knowledge has reached me as it reaches a virgin in her seclusion.' Ubaidullah said: Then 'Uthman bore witness and said, 'Indeed, Allah sent Muhammad, peace and blessings be upon him, with the truth and revealed the Book to him. I was among those who responded to Allah and His Messenger, peace and blessings be upon him, and believed in what Muhammad, peace and blessings be upon him, was sent with. I migrated to the two lands of migration as you said, accompanied the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and pledged allegiance to him. By Allah, I never disobeyed him nor deceived him until Allah took his soul. Then Allah appointed Abu Bakr as caliph, and by Allah, I never disobeyed him nor deceived him. Then 'Umar was appointed caliph, and by Allah, I never disobeyed him nor deceived him. Then I was appointed caliph. Do I not have the same rights over you as they had over me?' I replied, 'Yes, you do.' He said, 'Then what are these talks that have reached me from you? As for what you mentioned about the matter of Al Walid, we will address it with justice, God willing.' Ubaidullah said: So 'Uthman flogged Al Walid forty times and ordered 'Ali to flog him, and 'Ali flogged him. According to another narration, [Yunus] and [Ibnu Akhi Az Zuhri] from [Az Zuhri] said: 'Do I not have the same rights over you as they had?' Abu Abdullah said: 'This is a trial from your Lord,' meaning a test of hardship that has befallen you. In another context, 'al balaa'' means testing and purification for someone I test and purify, meaning I bring out what is within him. Yablu means to test. Mubtaliikum means the One who tests you. As for the phrase 'a great trial,' it refers to blessings, derived from ablaituhu (I bestowed blessings upon him), while the previous terms are derived from ibtalaituhu (I tested him).

"Narrated to me by [Muhammad bin Al Mutsanna] who narrated to us from [Yahya] from [Hisyam] who said, my father narrated to me from ['Aisyah] may Allah be pleased with her: That Ummu Habibah and Ummu Salamah mentioned a church they saw in Ethiopia that had images inside. They mentioned it to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and he said: 'Indeed, when a righteous man among them died, they built a place of worship over his grave and made statues of him. Those are the worst of creation in the sight of Allah on the Day of Resurrection.'

He said: 'O my uncle, say, "There is no god but Allah," a statement with which I will defend you before Allah.' Abu Jahal and Abdullah bin Abu Umayyah said, 'O Abu Thalib, will you abandon the religion of 'Abdul Muthallib?' They kept talking to him until the last thing he said to them was that he remained on the religion of 'Abdul Muthallib. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'I will keep seeking forgiveness for you as long as I am not forbidden.' Then the verse was revealed in Surah At-Tawbah, verse 113: 'It is not fitting for the Prophet and those who believe to seek forgiveness for the polytheists, even if they were close relatives, after it has become clear to them that they are inhabitants of the blazing Fire.' And the verse in Surah Al-Qasas, verse 56: 'Indeed, you [O Muhammad] cannot guide whom you love.'

"Narrated to us by [Hudbah bin Khalid] who narrated to us from [Hammam bin Yahya] who narrated to us from [Qatadah] from [Anas bin Malik] from [Malik bin Sha'sha'ah] may Allah be pleased with them both, that the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, told them about the night of Isra': 'While I was in al-Hathim'—or he may have said al-Hijr—'lying down, someone came and split.' Qatadah said: And I also heard him say, 'He split what was between this and that.' I asked Al Jarud, who was beside me, 'What does it mean?' He said, 'From the hollow of his chest to his lower abdomen,' and I heard him say, 'From the top of his chest to the place where his pubic hair grows.' Then the man took out my heart, and a golden basin filled with faith was brought to me. My heart was washed, filled with faith, and returned. Then I was brought a white beast, smaller than a mule but larger than a donkey.' Al Jarud said to him, 'Is that al-Buraq, O Abu Hamzah?' Anas replied, 'Yes, it places its step at the farthest point of its sight.' I rode it, and Jibril, peace be upon him, took me until we reached the lowest heaven. He requested the gate to be opened and was asked, 'Who is this?' He replied, 'Jibril.' It was asked, 'Who is with you?' He replied, 'Muhammad.' It was asked, 'Has he been sent for?' He replied, 'Yes.' It was said, 'Welcome to him, what an excellent visitor has come.' The gate was opened, and when I passed through, there was Adam, peace be upon him. Jibril said, 'This is your father, Adam. Greet him.' So I greeted him, and Adam returned the greeting and said, 'Welcome to the righteous son and righteous prophet.' Then I was taken to the second heaven, and Jibril requested the gate to be opened. He was asked, 'Who is this?' He replied, 'Jibril.' It was asked, 'Who is with you?' He replied, 'Muhammad.' It was asked, 'Has he been sent for?' He replied, 'Yes.' It was said, 'Welcome to him, what an excellent visitor has come.' The gate was opened, and when I passed through, there were Yahya and 'Isa, peace be upon them, who are cousins. Jibril said, 'These are Yahya and 'Isa, greet them.' So I greeted them, and they returned the greeting and said, 'Welcome to the righteous brother and righteous prophet.' Then I was taken to the third heaven, and Jibril requested the gate to be opened. He was asked, 'Who is this?' He replied, 'Jibril.' It was asked, 'Who is with you?' He replied, 'Muhammad.' It was asked, 'Has he been sent for?' He replied, 'Yes.' It was said, 'Welcome to him, what an excellent visitor has come.' The gate was opened, and when I passed through, there was Yusuf, peace be upon him. Jibril said, 'This is Yusuf, greet him.' So I greeted him, and Yusuf returned the greeting and said, 'Welcome to the righteous brother and righteous prophet.' Then I was taken to the fourth heaven, and Jibril requested the gate to be opened. He was asked, 'Who is this?' He replied, 'Jibril.' It was asked, 'Who is with you?' He replied, 'Muhammad.' It was asked, 'Has he been sent for?' He replied, 'Yes.' It was said, 'Welcome to him, what an excellent visitor has come.' The gate was opened, and when I passed through, there was Idris, peace be upon him. Jibril said, 'This is Idris, greet him.' So I greeted him, and Idris returned the greeting and said, 'Welcome to the righteous brother and righteous prophet.' Then I was taken to the fifth heaven, and Jibril requested the gate to be opened. He was asked, 'Who is this?' He replied, 'Jibril.' It was asked, 'Who is with you?' He replied, 'Muhammad.' It was asked, 'Has he been sent for?' He replied, 'Yes.' It was said, 'Welcome to him, what an excellent visitor has come.' The gate was opened, and when I passed through, there was Harun, peace be upon him. Jibril said, 'This is Harun, greet him.' So I greeted him, and Harun returned the greeting and said, 'Welcome to the righteous brother and righteous prophet.' Then I was taken to the sixth heaven, and Jibril requested the gate to be opened. He was asked, 'Who is this?' He replied, 'Jibril.' It was asked, 'Who is with you?' He replied, 'Muhammad.' It was asked, 'Has he been sent for?' He replied, 'Yes.' It was said, 'Welcome to him, what an excellent visitor has come.' The gate was opened, and when I passed through, there was Musa, peace be upon him. Jibril said, 'This is Musa, greet him.' So I greeted him, and Musa returned the greeting and said, 'Welcome to the righteous brother and righteous prophet.' When I passed by, he wept. He was asked, 'Why are you weeping?' He said, 'I weep because a young man sent after me will have more of his community enter Paradise than mine.' Then I was taken to the seventh heaven, and Jibril requested the gate to be opened. He was asked, 'Who is this?' He replied, 'Jibril.' It was asked, 'Who is with you?' He replied, 'Muhammad.' It was asked, 'Has he been sent for?' He replied, 'Yes.' It was said, 'Welcome to him, what an excellent visitor has come.' The gate was opened, and when I passed through, there was Ibrahim, peace be upon him. Jibril said, 'This is your father, greet him.' So I greeted him, and Ibrahim returned the greeting and said, 'Welcome to the righteous son and righteous prophet.' Then Sidratul Muntaha was shown to me, its fruits like the jars of Hajar and its leaves like the ears of elephants. Jibril said, 'This is Sidratul Muntaha.' There were four rivers, two hidden and two visible. I asked, 'What are these, O Jibril?' He said, 'The hidden ones are two rivers in Paradise, and the visible ones are the Nile and the Euphrates.' Then Baitul Ma'mur was raised for me, and I was given a vessel of wine, a vessel of milk, and a vessel of honey. I took the milk, and Jibril said, 'This is the natural disposition (fitrah) that you and your community are upon.' Then fifty prayers were enjoined upon me every day. I returned and passed by Musa, peace be upon him, who asked, 'What have you been commanded?' I said, 'I have been commanded with fifty prayers every day.' He said, 'Your community cannot bear fifty prayers every day. By Allah, I have tested people before you and dealt with the Children of Israel with the utmost effort. Return to your Lord and ask for a reduction for your community.' So I returned, and Allah reduced it by ten prayers. I returned to Musa, and he said the same, so I returned, and Allah reduced it by another ten prayers. I returned to Musa, and he said the same, so I returned, and Allah reduced it by another ten prayers. I returned to Musa, and he said the same. I returned and was commanded with ten prayers every day. I returned, and Musa said the same. I returned and was commanded with five prayers every day. I returned to Musa, and he asked, 'What have you been commanded?' I said, 'I have been commanded with five prayers every day.' He said, 'Your community cannot bear five prayers every day. I have tested people before you and dealt with the Children of Israel with the utmost effort. Return to your Lord and ask for a reduction for your community.' I said, 'I have asked my Lord until I am ashamed, but I am satisfied and submit.' When I passed by, a caller called out, 'I have decreed My obligation and lightened the burden for My servants.'

"Narrated to us by [Al Humaidi] who narrated to us from [Sufyan] who narrated to us from ['Amru] from ['Ikrimah] from [Ibnu 'Abbas] may Allah be pleased with them both, regarding Allah Almighty's statement in Surah Al-Isra, verse 60: 'And We made the vision which We showed you only as a trial for people.' Ibnu 'Abbas said, 'It was a vision with the naked eye shown to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, on the night he was taken on Isra' to Baitul Maqdis.' And Ibnu 'Abbas also said about the continuation of the verse: 'And the accursed tree in the Qur'an,' that it refers to the tree of Zaqqum (in Hell).

She called out to me, and I went to her not knowing what she wanted. She took my hand and led me to the door of the house. I was still panting until I calmed myself. Then she took some water and washed my face and head, then brought me into the house where there were women from the Ansar. They said; 'May you have goodness and blessings and the best of fortune.' Then she handed me over to them. They prepared my appearance. Nothing surprised me except the joy of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. Finally, they handed me over to him when I was nine years old.

Some of us passed away without enjoying any of their reward in this world, among them Mus'ab bin Umair, who was killed in the Battle of Uhud, leaving only a single cloth. If we covered his head with it, his feet would be exposed, and if we covered his feet, his head would be exposed. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, ordered us to cover his head with the cloth and place idhkhir leaves over his feet. Some of us have seen the fruits of their efforts ripen in this world and are now reaping them.

"[Yahya bin Hamzah] said, and narrated to me [Al-Auza'i] from ['Atha' bin Abi Rabah] said; I, along with 'Ubaid bin 'Umair Al-Laythsi, visited ['Aishah] may Allah be pleased with her, and we asked her about migration. She said; 'There is no migration today. In the past, believers would flee with their religion to Allah and His Messenger, peace and blessings be upon him, fearing persecution. But today, Allah has made Islam manifest, and now one can worship his Lord wherever he wishes. However, there is still jihad and intention.'

ABU BAKAR CRIED WHEN THE PROPHET MENTIONED THE CHOICE BETWEEN THE WORLD AND THE AFTERLIFE
Hadith Imam Bukhari Number 3615

حَدَّثَنَا إِسْمَاعِيلُ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ قَالَ حَدَّثَنِي مَالِكٌ عَنْ أَبِي النَّضْرِ مَوْلَى عُمَرَ بْنِ عُبَيْدِ اللَّهِ عَنْ عُبَيْدٍ يَعْنِي ابْنَ

"Narrated to us [Isma'il bin 'Abdullah] said, narrated to me [Malik] from [Abu an-Nadlar], a freed slave of 'Umar bin 'Ubaidullah, from ['Ubaid], meaning the son of Hunain, from [Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri] may Allah be pleased with him, that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, sat on the pulpit and said: 'Indeed, a servant was given a choice by Allah between receiving whatever he desired of the adornments of this world or what is with Him, and he chose what is with Him.' Then Abu Bakar wept and said; 'We ransom you with our fathers and mothers.' We were surprised at him. People said; 'Look at this old man. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, speaks of a servant given a choice between the adornments of this world and what is with Him, and he says, "We ransom you with our fathers and mothers."' It turned out that the servant given the choice was the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and Abu Bakar was the most knowledgeable among us about him. Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'Indeed, the most trustworthy person to me in companionship and wealth is Abu Bakar. If I were to take a close friend from my community, it would be Abu Bakar, but there is the brotherhood of Islam. No door in the mosque shall remain open except the door of Abu Bakar.'

"Narrated to us [Yahya bin Bukair], narrated to us [Al-Layth] from ['Uqail] said, [Ibn Shihab] said, informed me ['Urwah bin Az-Zubair] that ['Aishah] may Allah be pleased with her, the wife of the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said; 'I never knew my parents except that they were following the religion. Not a day passed without the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, visiting us at both ends of the day, morning and evening. When the Muslims were tested, Abu Bakar set out to migrate to the land of Abyssinia. When he reached Bark Al-Ghimad, he was met by Ibn Ad-Daghinah, the leader of the Qarah, who said, 'Where are you heading, O Abu Bakar?' Abu Bakar said, 'My people have expelled me, so I wish to roam the earth and worship my Lord.' Ibn Ad-Daghinah said, 'A man like you, O Abu Bakar, should neither leave nor be expelled. You provide for the destitute, maintain family ties, bear burdens, host guests, and assist in matters of truth. I will be your protector. Return and worship your Lord in your city.' So he returned, and Ibn Ad-Daghinah accompanied him. In the evening, Ibn Ad-Daghinah went around to the nobles of Quraysh and said to them, 'A man like Abu Bakar should neither leave nor be expelled. Do you expel a man who provides for the destitute, maintains family ties, bears burdens, hosts guests, and assists in matters of truth?' The Quraysh did not deny Ibn Ad-Daghinah's protection and said to him, 'Instruct Abu Bakar to worship his Lord in his house, pray there, and recite what he wishes, but not to harm us with it or do it openly, for we fear he may influence our women and children.' Ibn Ad-Daghinah conveyed this to Abu Bakar. So Abu Bakar continued to worship his Lord in his house, not performing his prayers openly or reciting outside his home. Then it occurred to Abu Bakar to build a mosque in the courtyard of his house, where he prayed and recited the Quran. The women and children of the polytheists would gather around him, marveling and looking at him. Abu Bakar was a man who wept easily and could not control his tears when reciting the Quran, which alarmed the nobles of the Quraysh polytheists. They sent for Ibn Ad-Daghinah, and when he came, they said, 'We granted Abu Bakar your protection on the condition that he worship his Lord in his house, but he has gone beyond that and built a mosque in his courtyard, openly praying and reciting there. We fear he may influence our women and children. Forbid him. If he wishes to confine himself to worshipping his Lord in his house, let him do so. If he insists on doing it openly, ask him to return your protection, for we dislike breaking your pledge, but we will not allow Abu Bakar to act openly.' 'Aishah said, Ibn Ad-Daghinah came to Abu Bakar and said, 'You know the terms under which I granted you protection. Either confine yourself to that, or return my protection, for I do not wish the Arabs to hear that I failed to honor a man I made a pact with.' Abu Bakar said, 'I return your protection to you and am content with the protection of Allah, the Mighty and Sublime.' The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, was in Makkah at that time and said to the Muslims, 'I have been shown the place of your migration, a land of date palms between two lava fields.' So those who migrated went to Madinah, and most of those who had migrated to Abyssinia returned to Madinah. Abu Bakar prepared to go to Madinah, but the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said to him, 'Take it slowly, for I hope to be permitted to leave.' Abu Bakar said, 'Do you hope for that, may my father be your ransom?' He said, 'Yes.' So Abu Bakar held himself back for the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, to accompany him and fed two mounts he had with acacia leaves for four months. [Ibn Shihab] said, ['Urwah] said, ['Aishah] said, 'While we were sitting in Abu Bakar's house at midday, someone said to Abu Bakar, 'Here is the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, veiled, at an hour he does not usually come to us.' Abu Bakar said, 'May my father and mother be his ransom. By Allah, nothing but a matter has brought him at this hour.' She said, 'The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, came and sought permission, was granted it, and entered. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said to Abu Bakar, 'Send out whoever is with you.' Abu Bakar said, 'They are only your family, may my father be your ransom, O Messenger of Allah.' He said, 'I have been permitted to leave.' Abu Bakar said, 'Companionship, may my father be your ransom, O Messenger of Allah?' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'Yes.' Abu Bakar said, 'Take one of these two mounts of mine, may my father be your ransom, O Messenger of Allah.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'For a price.' 'Aishah said, 'We prepared them as quickly as possible and made provisions for them in a bag. Asma', the daughter of Abu Bakar, cut a piece from her waistband and tied it around the mouth of the bag, which is why she was called Dhat An-Nitaqayn (the one with two waistbands). Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and Abu Bakar reached a cave in Mount Thawr and stayed there for three nights. 'Abdullah bin Abi Bakar, a young, intelligent, and perceptive lad, stayed with them at night and left before dawn to be among the Quraysh in Makkah as if he had spent the night there. He would hear any plans being made against them and bring the news to them when darkness fell. 'Amir bin Fuhairah, a freed slave of Abu Bakar, tended a flock of sheep for them, bringing it to them after an hour of the evening had passed, so they could rest with the milk and meat of their flock until 'Amir bin Fuhairah drove it away at dawn. He did this each of those three nights. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and Abu Bakar hired a man from the Banu Ad-Dil, from Banu 'Abd bin 'Adi, an expert guide skilled in navigation, who had sworn allegiance to the family of Al-'As bin Wa'il As-Sahmi, and he...'

"Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Basysyar], narrated to us [Ghundar], narrated to us [Shu'bah] from [Abu Ishaq] said, I heard [Al-Bara'] may Allah be pleased with him say; When the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, migrated to Madinah, Suraqah bin Malik bin Ju'sham followed him. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, prayed against him, and his horse sank into the ground. Suraqah said, 'Pray to Allah for me, and I will not harm you.' So he prayed for him. Al-Bara' said; Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, became thirsty and passed by a shepherd. Abu Bakar said, 'So I took a lean goat and milked a little milk into a container, then brought it to him, and he drank until I was satisfied.'

"Narrated to me [Zakaria bin Yahya] from [Abu Usamah] from [Hisham bin 'Urwah] from [his father] from [Asma'] may Allah be pleased with her, that she was pregnant with 'Abdullah bin Az-Zubair. She said, 'I set out with a full-term pregnancy and arrived in Madinah. I stayed in Quba' and gave birth there. Then I brought my baby to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and placed him in his lap. He asked for a date, chewed it, and then spat it into his mouth. So the first thing that entered his stomach was the saliva of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. Then he rubbed the date on his palate, prayed for him, and blessed him. He was the first child born in Islam.' This hadith is supported by [Khalid bin Makhlad] from ['Ali bin Mushir] from [Hisham] from [his father] from [Asma'] may Allah be pleased with her, that she migrated to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, while pregnant.

"Narrated to me [Muhammad], narrated to us ['Abdush Shamad], narrated to us [my father], narrated to us ['Abdul 'Aziz bin Shuhaib], narrated to us [Anas bin Malik] may Allah be pleased with him said; The Prophet of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, arrived in Madinah with Abu Bakar riding behind him. Abu Bakar was an elderly man known to people, while the Prophet of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, was a young man not yet known. Anas, may Allah be pleased with him, said; A man would come to Abu Bakar and say, 'O Abu Bakar, who is this man in front of you?' Abu Bakar would reply, 'This man guides me on the way.' The man would assume he meant the physical path, but he meant the path of goodness (Islam). Then Abu Bakar looked back and saw a horseman catching up with them. Abu Bakar said, 'O Messenger of Allah, a horseman is following us.' The Prophet of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, turned and said, 'O Allah, throw him down.' So the horse threw him down. Then the horse stood, neighing. The man said, 'O Prophet of Allah, command me as you wish.' He said, 'Stay where you are and do not let anyone follow us.' Anas, may Allah be pleased with him, said; At the beginning of the day, he was striving against the Prophet of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and by the end of the day, he became a shield for him. Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, stopped by the side of the harrah and sent for the Ansar. They came to the Prophet of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and Abu Bakar, greeted them, and said, 'Ride safely and obeyed.' So the Prophet of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and Abu Bakar rode, and they surrounded them with weapons. It was announced in Madinah, 'The Prophet of Allah has arrived, the Prophet of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, has arrived.' They climbed to high places to look, saying, 'The Prophet of Allah has arrived, the Prophet of Allah has arrived.' He continued until he stopped by the house of Abu Ayyub. While he was speaking to his family, 'Abdullah bin Salam heard of it while he was in his family's date palm grove, picking fruit for them. He hurriedly put down what he was picking and came to hear from the Prophet of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, then returned to his family. The Prophet of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'Which of our family's houses is the closest?' Abu Ayyub replied, 'Mine, O Prophet of Allah. This is my house, and this is my door.' He said, 'Go and prepare a place for us to rest.' Abu Ayyub said, 'Rise with the blessing of Allah.' When the Prophet of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, arrived, 'Abdullah bin Salam came and said, 'I bear witness that you are the Messenger of Allah and that you have come with the truth. The Jews know that I am their leader and the son of their leader, their scholar and the son of their scholar. Call them and ask them about me before they know I have embraced Islam, for if they know I have embraced Islam, they will say about me what is not true.' So the Prophet of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, sent for them, and they came and entered. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said to them, 'O community of Jews, woe to you. Fear Allah. By Allah, besides whom there is no deity, you know that I am the Messenger of Allah in truth and that I have come to you with the truth, so embrace Islam.' They said, 'We do not know it.' They said it to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, three times. He said, 'Who is 'Abdullah bin Salam among you?' They said, 'He is our leader and the son of our leader, our scholar and the son of our scholar.' He said, 'What if he has embraced Islam?' They said, 'God forbid, he would not embrace Islam.' He said again, 'What if he has embraced Islam?' They said, 'God forbid, he would not embrace Islam.' He said again, 'What if he has embraced Islam?' They said, 'God forbid, he would not embrace Islam.' He said, 'O Ibn Salam, come out to them.' So he came out and said, 'O community of Jews, fear Allah. By Allah, besides whom there is no deity, you know that he is the Messenger of Allah and that he has come with the truth.' They said, 'You lie.' So the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, expelled them.

He was asked, 'Ibn 'Umar is among the Muhajirin, so why did you reduce it from four thousand?' He replied, 'He was brought by his parents.' He also said, 'He is not like one who migrated on his own.'

"Narrated to me [Muhammad bin Ash-Shabah], or it reached me from him, narrated to us [Isma'il] from ['Ashim] from [Abu 'Utsman] said, I heard [Ibn 'Umar] may Allah be pleased with them both, if it was said to him that he migrated before his father, he would get angry. He said; 'I, along with my father, came to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and found him resting at midday, so we returned to our residence. Then 'Umar sent me, saying, 'Go and see if he has woken up.' So I went to him, entered, and pledged allegiance to him. Then I went back to 'Umar and informed him that he had woken up. So we set out to him, hurrying a bit, until we entered, and 'Umar pledged allegiance to him, then I pledged allegiance to him.'

Azib asked him about the migration journey of the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him. Abu Bakr said: We were under surveillance, so we left at night, hastening through the night and day until midday. Then we saw a large rock and approached it, finding some shade. I spread a camel-skin rug for the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, and he rested on it. I went to check the surroundings and found a shepherd approaching the rock for shade, as we had. I asked him, 'Who do you belong to, boy?' He said, 'I belong to so-and-so.' I asked, 'Do your goats have milk?' He said, 'Yes.' I asked, 'Can you milk them?' He said, 'Yes.' He took a goat, and I said, 'Clean the udder.' He milked some milk into a cup. I had a small water container prepared for the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him. I poured water into the milk to cool it, then brought it to the Prophet, peace be upon him, and said, 'Drink, O Messenger of Allah.' He drank until I was satisfied. Then we continued our journey while pursuers followed our tracks. Al-Bara’ said: I entered with Abu Bakr to his family, and there was Aisha, his daughter, lying ill with a fever. I saw her father kiss her cheek and say, 'How are you, my dear?'

Umm Al-Ala’ said: Uthman fell ill at our place, and we nursed him until he passed away. We covered him with his clothes. The Prophet, peace be upon him, came to us, and I said, 'May Allah’s mercy be upon you, O Abu As-Sa’ib. I testify that Allah has honored you.' The Prophet, peace be upon him, said, 'How do you know Allah has honored him?' I said, 'I don’t know, may my parents be your ransom, O Messenger of Allah.' He said, 'Death from his Lord has come to him, and I hope for his good. By Allah, though I am the Messenger of Allah, I do not know what will be done with me.' She said, 'By Allah, I will never praise anyone after this.' This saddened me, and I slept, seeing in a dream a flowing spring for Uthman. I went to the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, and told him. He said, 'That is his deeds.'

Abdus Samad informed us, saying: I heard my father narrate from Abu At-Tayyah, Yazid bin Humaid Ad-Duba'i, who said: Anas bin Malik, may Allah be pleased with him, narrated: When the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, arrived in Madinah, he stayed in the upper part of Madinah in a tribe called Banu Amr bin Auf. Anas said: He stayed for fourteen nights, then sent for the leaders of Banu Najjar. They came with swords sheathed. Anas said: I can still see the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, on his mount, with Abu Bakr riding behind him, and the leaders of Banu Najjar around him until he reached Abu Ayyub's courtyard. Anas said: He prayed wherever prayer time found him, even in sheep pens. Then he ordered the mosque's construction and sent for the leaders of Banu Najjar, saying, 'O Banu Najjar, name the price of this garden.' They said, 'No, by Allah, we seek its price only from Allah.' Anas said: The garden had polytheists' graves, ruins, and palm trees. The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, ordered the graves dug up, the ruins leveled, and the palm trees cut down and aligned toward the mosque's qibla. They made the mosque's doorposts from stone, carrying rocks while chanting, with the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, joining them, saying, 'O Allah, there is no good but the good of the Hereafter, so help the Ansar and Muhajirin.'

"Hamid bin Umar narrated to me, Bishr bin Al-Mufaddal narrated to us, Humaid narrated, Anas narrated that Abdullah bin Salam heard of the Prophet’s arrival in Madinah, peace be upon him, and asked him about three things only a prophet would know: 'What is the first sign of the Hour? What is the first food the people of Paradise will eat? Why does a child resemble his father or mother?' He said, 'Jibril just informed me.' Abdullah bin Salam said, 'He is the enemy of the Jews among the angels.' He said, 'The first sign of the Hour is a fire that drives people from east to west. The first food of Paradise’s people is the caudate lobe of a whale’s liver. As for a child, if the man’s fluid precedes the woman’s, the child resembles the father; if the woman’s fluid precedes the man’s, the child resembles the mother.' Abdullah bin Salam said, 'I testify there is no god but Allah, and you are His Messenger.' He said, 'O Messenger of Allah, the Jews are liars. Ask them about me before they know of my Islam.' The Jews came, and the Prophet, peace be upon him, said, 'What kind of man is Abdullah bin Salam among you?' They said, 'Our best and the son of our best, our most trusted and the son of our most trusted.' The Prophet said, 'What if Abdullah bin Salam embraces Islam?' They said, 'May Allah protect him from that.' He repeated, and they said the same. Abdullah bin Salam came out and said, 'I testify there is no god but Allah, and Muhammad is His Messenger.' They said, 'He’s our worst and the son of our worst,' belittling him. He said, 'This is what I feared, O Messenger of Allah.'

When Umayyah visited Medina, he stayed with Sa'd, and when Sa'd visited Mecca, he stayed with Umayyah. When the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, arrived in Medina, Sa'd went to perform 'Umrah and stayed with Umayyah in Mecca. Sa'd said to Umayyah: 'Find me a quiet moment so I may circumambulate the Ka'bah.' They went out near midday and met Abu Jahl. He said: ‘O Abu Safwan, who is with you?’ Umayyah said: ‘This is Sa‘d.’ Abu Jahl said to Sa‘d: ‘You circumambulate in Mecca safely after sheltering the apostates and claiming to support and aid them? By Allah, if you weren’t with Abu Safwan, you wouldn’t return to your family safely.’ Sa‘d raised his voice and said: ‘By Allah, if you stop me from this, I’ll block your path to Medina even more harshly.’ Umayyah said to Sa‘d: ‘Don’t raise your voice against Abu Al-Hakam, the leader of the valley’s people.’ Sa‘d said: ‘Leave us, Umayyah. By Allah, I heard the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, say they will fight you.’ Umayyah asked: ‘In Mecca?’ Sa‘d said: ‘I don’t know.’ Umayyah was deeply shaken. When he returned to his family, he said: ‘O Umm Safwan, do you know what Sa‘d said to me?’ She asked: ‘What did he say?’ He said: ‘He claimed Muhammad told them they will kill me.’ I asked: ‘In Mecca?’ He said: ‘I don’t know.’ Umayyah said: ‘By Allah, I’ll never leave Mecca.’ On the day of Badr, Abu Jahl rallied people, saying: ‘Go protect your caravan.’ Umayyah was reluctant to go. Abu Jahl came to him and said: ‘O Abu Safwan, if people see you stay back, a leader of the valley’s people, they’ll stay back too.’ Abu Jahl persisted until Umayyah said: ‘Since you’ve persuaded me, by Allah, I’ll buy the best camel in Mecca.’ He said to his wife: ‘O Umm Safwan, prepare my provisions.’ She said: ‘Have you forgotten what your Yathrib brother said?’ He replied: ‘No, I’ll only join them briefly.’ When Umayyah set out, he tied his camel at every stop. He continued until Allah, Mighty and Exalted, caused his death at Badr.

Farwah narrated to us, 'Ali narrated from Hisham, from his father, who said: Az-Zubair bin Al-'Awwam's sword was adorned with silver. Hisham said: 'Urwah's sword was also adorned with silver.

He returned, and they grabbed his horse's reins, striking him twice on his shoulder, one wound from Badr among them. 'Urwah said: I used to put my fingers in those wounds, playing as a child. When he defeated a people, he stayed at the battlefield for three nights. On the third day at Badr, he ordered his mount prepared, saddled, and walked, followed by his companions. They said, 'We think he's going for some need.' He stood at the well's edge, calling them by their names and their fathers' names: 'O so-and-so, son of so-and-so, does it please you that you obeyed Allah and His Messenger? We found what our Lord promised us true. Have you found what your lord promised true?' 'Umar said, 'O Messenger of Allah, why speak to bodies without souls?' The Messenger, peace be upon him, said, 'By Him in whose hand is Muhammad's soul, you are not more able to hear what I say than they are.' Qatadah said: Allah brought them to life to hear his words as humiliation, retribution, regret, and loss.

THE QURAISY'S POWERS AS GOD'S FAVOR THAT WAS REPLACED WITH DISTURBANCE
Hadith Imam Bukhari Number 3680

"Al-Humaidi narrated to us, Sufyan narrated, 'Amr narrated from 'Ata', from Ibn 'Abbas, may Allah be pleased with them: The verse 'Those who exchanged Allah's favor for disbelief' refers, by Allah, to the disbelievers of Quraysh. 'Amr said: They are Quraysh, and Muhammad, peace be upon him, is Allah's favor. 'And led their people to the abode of ruin' means the fire on the day of Badr.

"'Ubaid bin Isma'il narrated to me, Abu Usamah narrated from Hisham, from his father, who said: It was mentioned to 'Aishah, may Allah be pleased with her, that Ibn 'Umar attributed to the Prophet, peace be upon him, that the dead are punished in their graves due to their family's weeping. She said, 'Not so. The Messenger, peace be upon him, said: He is punished for his sins and errors, and his family weeps for him now.' She added: It's like his saying when he stood at the Badr well, containing the slain polytheists, and spoke to them. He didn't say, 'They hear what I say,' but, 'Now they know what I told them was true.' Then she recited: 'You cannot make the dead hear' and 'You cannot make those in graves hear,' meaning when they take their places in the Fire.

"Ishaq bin Ibrahim narrated to me, 'Abdullah bin Idris informed us, he heard Husayn bin 'Abdur Rahman from Sa'd bin 'Ubaidah, from Abu 'Abdur Rahman As-Sulami, from 'Ali, may Allah be pleased with him, who said: The Messenger, peace be upon him, sent me, Abu Marthad Al-Ghanawi, and Az-Zubair bin Al-'Awwam, all skilled horsemen, saying, 'Go to the garden of Khakh, where a polytheist woman carries a letter from Hatib bin Abi Balta'ah to the polytheists.' We found her riding her camel, as the Messenger, peace be upon him, described. We said, 'The letter?' She said, 'We have no letter.' We made her dismount and searched but found no letter. We said, 'The Messenger, peace be upon him, doesn’t lie. Produce the letter, or we’ll strip you.' Seeing our resolve, she reached for her waistband, where it was hidden, and took it out. We brought her to the Messenger, peace be upon him. 'Umar said, 'O Messenger of Allah, he betrayed Allah, His Messenger, and the believers. Let me strike his neck.' The Prophet asked, 'What made you do this?' Hatib said, 'By Allah, I believe in Allah and His Messenger. I wanted a favor with them to protect my family and property, as none of your companions lack kin there to protect theirs.' The Prophet said, 'He speaks the truth. Say only good of him.' 'Umar repeated, 'He betrayed Allah, His Messenger, and the believers. Let me strike his neck.' The Prophet said, 'Is he not of Badr’s people? Perhaps Allah looked at Badr’s people and said, “Do as you wish, for Paradise is yours,” or “I have forgiven you.”' 'Umar’s eyes teared, and he said, 'Allah and His Messenger know best.'

"Musa bin Isma'il narrated to us, Ibrahim narrated, Ibn Shihab informed us, 'Umar bin Asid bin Jariyah Ath-Thaqafi, an ally of Banu Zuhrah and companion of Abu Hurairah, may Allah be pleased with him, narrated from Abu Hurairah, who said: The Messenger, peace be upon him, sent ten men as a scouting party, appointing 'Asim bin Thabit Al-Ansari, grandfather of 'Asim bin 'Umar bin Al-Khattab, as their leader. They reached Al-Hada', between 'Usfan and Mecca, and their presence was reported to the Hudhayl tribe, called Banu Lihyan. About one hundred skilled archers pursued them, tracking their trail until finding date remnants at their camp. They said, 'Yathrib dates,' and followed the tracks. When 'Asim and his men sensed them, they took refuge on a hillock. The tribe surrounded them, saying, 'Come down, surrender, and we promise not to kill any of you.' 'Asim bin Thabit said, 'O people, I won't surrender to a disbeliever's protection.' He prayed, 'O Allah, inform our Prophet of us.' They were shot with arrows, killing 'Asim and seven others. Three men—Khubaib Al-Ansari, Zaid bin Ad-Dathinah, and another—surrendered on the promise. The tribe tied them with bowstrings. The third man said, 'This is the start of betrayal. By Allah, I won't join you. They are my example,' meaning the slain. They dragged and fought him, but he refused, so they killed him. They took Khubaib and Zaid to Mecca and sold them after Badr. Banu Al-Harith bin 'Amir bin Nawfal bought Khubaib, who had killed Al-Harith bin 'Amir at Badr. Khubaib remained their prisoner until they decided to kill him. He borrowed a razor from a daughter of Al-Harith to shave and, while she was unaware, her young son approached him. She found Khubaib holding the boy on his lap, razor in hand. She said, 'I was terrified, and Khubaib noticed.' He said, 'Do you fear I'd kill him? I wouldn't do that.' She said, 'By Allah, I never saw a better prisoner than Khubaib. I saw him eating a bunch of grapes, though bound in iron, with no fruit in Mecca.' She said, 'It was sustenance Allah provided Khubaib.' When they took him from the Haram to kill him in the lawful area, he said, 'Let me pray two rak'ahs.' They allowed him, and he prayed, saying, 'By Allah, if you didn't think I was afraid, I'd have prolonged it.' He said, 'O Allah, count them, kill them all, and spare none.' He recited: 'I care not, as a Muslim, how I die for Allah's sake. If He wills, He blesses the torn limbs.' Abu Sirwa'ah 'Uqbah bin Al-Harith killed him. Khubaib set the precedent for Muslims killed patiently to pray two rak’ahs. The Prophet informed his companions of their fate. Quraysh sent men to 'Asim, having heard he was killed, to take something recognizable, as he had killed one of their leaders. Allah sent a swarm of bees like a canopy, protecting 'Asim, so they couldn’t take any part of him. Ka’b bin Malik said they mentioned Mararah bin Ar-Rabi’ Al-'Amri and Hilal bin Umayyah Al-Waqifi, two righteous men who witnessed Badr.

"Qutaibah bin Sa'id narrated to us, Laith narrated from Yahya, from Nafi', that Ibn 'Umar, may Allah be pleased with them, was told that Sa'id bin Zaid bin 'Amr bin Nufail, a Badr veteran, fell ill on a Friday. Ibn 'Umar rode to him after midday, near Friday prayer time, and missed the prayer. Laith said: Yunus narrated from Ibn Shihab, who said: 'Ubaidullah bin 'Abdullah bin 'Utbah narrated that his father wrote to 'Umar bin 'Abdullah bin Al-Arqam Az-Zuhri, ordering him to visit Subai'ah bint Al-Harith Al-Aslamiyyah and ask about her story and what the Prophet, peace be upon him, told her when she sought his ruling. 'Umar bin 'Abdullah wrote back to 'Abdullah bin 'Utbah, saying Subai'ah informed him she was married to Sa'd bin Khawlah, of Banu 'Amir bin Lu’ay, a Badr veteran. He died during the Farewell Pilgrimage while she was pregnant. She gave birth soon after his death. After her postpartum period, she adorned herself for suitors. Abu As-Sanabil bin Ba’kak, from Banu 'Abd Ad-Dar, visited and said, 'Why do I see you adorned for suitors, hoping to marry? By Allah, you cannot marry until four months and ten days pass.' Subai'ah said, 'When he said that, I gathered my clothes at evening, went to the Messenger, peace be upon him, and asked him. He ruled that I was free to marry after giving birth and permitted me to marry if I wished.' Ashbagh followed from Ibn Wahb, from Yunus. Laith said: Yunus narrated from Ibn Shihab, and we asked him. He said: Muhammad bin 'Abdur Rahman bin Thawban, a freedman of Banu 'Amir bin Lu’ay, informed me that Muhammad bin Iyas bin Al-Bukair, whose father was a Badr veteran, told him.

"Narrated to me by 'Abdan, narrated to us by Abdullah, narrated to us by Yunus. (And narrated through another chain), Narrated to us by Ahmad bin Salih, narrated to us by 'Anbasah, narrated to us by Yunus from Az Zuhri, narrated to us by Ali bin Husain that Husain bin Ali, peace be upon them, informed him that Ali said: 'I had a camel from my share of the spoils of Badr, and the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, gave me another camel from the fifth of the spoils that Allah granted him that day. When I intended to marry Fatimah, peace be upon her, the daughter of the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, I made an appointment with a goldsmith from Bani Qainuqa' to travel with me to bring idhkhir. I intended to sell it to the goldsmiths to use the proceeds for my wedding feast. While I was preparing saddles, sacks, and ropes for my two camels, which were tethered beside an Ansari man’s house, I found, after gathering what I needed, that my camels had their humps cut off, their flanks slashed, and their livers taken. I could not hold back my tears upon seeing this sight. I asked, "Who did this?" They said, "Hamzah bin Abdul Muttalib did it, and he is in this house with some Ansar who are drinking, with a singing girl entertaining them and their companions." She said in her song, "O Hamzah, to the plump camels!" So Hamzah leapt up with a sword, cut off their humps, slashed their flanks, and took their livers. Ali said, "I went to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, where Zaid bin Harithah was with him. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, noticed my distress and asked, 'What’s wrong with you?' I said, 'O Messenger of Allah, I have never seen anything like today. Hamzah attacked my two camels, cut off their humps, and slashed their flanks. He is in that house with drinkers.' The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, called for his cloak, put it on, and set out walking, with me and Zaid bin Harithah following him. When he reached the house where Hamzah was, he asked for permission to enter, and they allowed him. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, began to rebuke Hamzah for what he had done. Hamzah, intoxicated with red eyes, looked at the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, from his knees up to his face and said, 'Are you not but the slaves of my father?' The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, realized he

He said, "I will consider my matter." I waited a few nights, and he said, "It seems I will not marry at this time." Umar said, "Then I met Abu Bakr and said, 'If you wish, I will marry Hafsah bint Umar to you.' Abu Bakr remained silent and gave no response, and I was angrier with him than with Uthman. I waited a few nights, then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, proposed to her, and I married her to him. Abu Bakr met me and said, 'Perhaps you were upset with me when you offered Hafsah to me, and I did not respond.' I said, 'Yes.' "Narrated to us [Abu Al Yaman] informed us [Shu'aib] from [Az Zuhri] he said, narrated to me [Malik bin Aus bin Al Hadatsan] that [Umar bin Al Khattab] may Allah be pleased with him called him, then his doorkeeper, Yarfa, came and said, 'Do you permit [Uthman], [Abdurrahman], [Zubair], and [Sa'd] to enter?' Umar said, 'Yes.' Then he let them in. After a while, he came again and said, 'Do you permit [Abbas] and [Ali] to enter?' Umar said, 'Yes.' When they entered, Abbas said, 'O Commander of the Faithful, judge between me and this man.' They were disputing about the property that Allah granted to His Messenger, peace and blessings be upon him, from Bani Nadlir, and they insulted each other. The group said, 'O Commander of the Faithful, judge between them and relieve one from the other.' Umar said, 'Be patient! I adjure you by Allah, by Whose permission the heavens and the earth stand, do you know that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "We are not inherited; what we leave is charity," meaning himself?' They said, 'He did say that.' Then Umar turned to Abbas and Ali and said, 'I adjure you both by Allah, do you know that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said that?' They said, 'Yes.' Umar continued, 'I will tell you about this matter. Allah, glorified be He, favored His Messenger, peace and blessings be upon him, with something in this fay' (spoils) that He did not give to anyone else.' Then he recited: (And what Allah restored to His Messenger from them – you did not spur for it any horses or camels, until His saying, Almighty) (Quran, Al-Hashr: 6). This was exclusively for the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. By Allah, he did not keep it from you nor prefer himself over you. He gave it to you and distributed it among you until this property remained. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, used to spend on his family their yearly expenses from this property, then take what remained and treat it as Allah's property. He did this during his lifetime. Then the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, passed away, and Abu Bakr said, 'I am the successor of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him.' So Abu Bakr took it and managed it as the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, did, and you were there.' Then Umar turned to Ali and Abbas and said, 'You both recall that Abu Bakr managed it as you say, and Allah knows he was truthful, righteous, upright, and followed the truth. Then Allah took Abu Bakr, and I said, 'I am the successor of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and Abu Bakr.' I managed it for two years of my leadership as the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and Abu Bakr did. Allah knows I was truthful, righteous, upright, and followed the truth. Then you both came to me, your words united and your matter one. You, Abbas, came to me, and I said to you both, 'The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "We are not inherited; what we leave is charity."' When I decided to hand it over to you, I said, 'If you wish, I will give it to you on the condition that you uphold Allah’s covenant and agreement to manage it as the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, Abu Bakr, and I did since I took charge. Otherwise, do not speak to me.' You both said, 'Give it to us,' and I gave it to you. Do you seek a judgment other than this? By Allah, by Whose permission the heavens and the earth stand, I will not judge otherwise until the Hour comes. If you are unable, return it to me, and I will suffice you both.' The narrator said, 'I related this hadith to [Urwah bin Az Zubair], and he said, 'Malik bin Aus is truthful. I heard [Aishah], may Allah be pleased with her, the wife of the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, say, "The wives of the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, sent Uthman to Abu Bakr to ask for their eighth share of what Allah granted His Messenger, peace and blessings be upon him. I opposed them and said, 'Do you not fear Allah? Do you not know that the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "We are not inherited; what we leave is charity," meaning himself? The family of Muhammad eats from this property.' So the wives of the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, accepted what Aishah told them.' Urwah said, 'This charity was in Ali’s hands; Ali withheld it from Abbas and prevailed over him. Then it passed to Hasan bin Ali, then to Husain bin Ali, then to Ali bin Husain, then to Al Hasan bin Al Hasan, both managing it alternately, then to Zaid bin Hasan, and it is truly the charity of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him.'

"Narrated to us [Ali bin Abdullah] narrated to us [Sufyan] [Amr] said, I heard [Jabir bin Abdullah] may Allah be pleased with them both say, 'The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "Who will deal with Ka'b bin Ashraf, for he has defied Allah and harmed His Messenger?" Muhammad bin Maslamah stood and said, "O Messenger of Allah, would you like me to kill him?" He said, "Yes." Muhammad bin Maslamah said, "Allow me to say something." He said, "Say it." Then Muhammad bin Maslamah went to Ka'b and said, "This man (meaning the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him) asked us for charity while we are in hardship, so I came to you to borrow." Ka'b said, "And, by Allah, you will tire of him." Maslamah said, "We have followed him, and we do not like to abandon him until we see how his matter ends. We want you to lend us one or two wasqs." Amr narrated to us more than once but did not mention "one or two wasqs," or I said to him, "one or two wasqs." He said, "I recall it as one or two wasqs." Ka'b said, "Fine, but you must give me a pledge." They said, "What do you want?" He said, "Pledge your wives." They said, "How can we pledge our wives when you are the most handsome of the Arabs?" He said, "Then pledge your daughters." They said, "How can we pledge our daughters? They would be insulted, saying, 'They were pledged for one or two wasqs.' This is a disgrace for us, but we will pledge our weapons." Sufyan said, meaning arms. They made an appointment to meet him. At night, Maslamah came with Abu Na'ila, Ka'b's foster brother. Ka'b invited them into the fortress and came down to them. His wife said, "Where are you going at this hour?" Ka'b said, "It is only Muhammad bin Maslamah and my brother Abu Na'ila." Another narrator said, "His wife said, 'I hear a voice as if blood is dripping from it.' Ka'b said, 'It is only my brother Muhammad bin Maslamah and my foster brother Abu Na'ila. A noble man, if called to a stab at night, would respond.'" The narrator said, "Muhammad bin Maslamah brought two men with him." It was said to Sufyan, "Did Amr name them?" He said, "Amr named some of them." Amr said, "He came with two men." Another said, "Abu Abs bin Jabr, Al Harith bin Aus, and Abbad bin Bishr." Amr said, "He came with two men." Maslamah said, "When he comes, I will seize his hair and smell it. When you see me holding his head, come and strike him." Once he said, "Then I will let you smell it." When Ka'b came down, scented with perfume, Maslamah said, "I have never smelled a finer scent than this." Another said, "I have the most fragrant Arab women and the most perfect Arabs." Amr said, "Maslamah said, 'May I smell your head?' Ka'b said, 'Yes.' So he smelled it and let his companions smell it. Then he said, 'May I again?' Ka'b said, 'Yes.' When he held him, Maslamah said, 'Now!' and they killed him. Then they went to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and informed him.

"Narrated to us [Yusuf bin Musa] narrated to us [Ubaidullah bin Musa] from [Israil] from [Abu Ishaq] from [Al Barra bin Azib], he said, 'The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, sent men from the Ansar to Abu Rafi', the Jew, and appointed Abdullah bin Atik over them. Abu Rafi' used to harm the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and aid against him. He was in a fortress in the land of Hijaz. When they approached, the sun had set, and people had returned with their flocks. Abdullah said to his companions, "Stay in your place; I will go and approach the gatekeeper, perhaps I can enter." He advanced toward the door, then covered himself with his garment as if relieving himself. The people had entered, and the gatekeeper called, "O servant of Allah, if you want to enter, come in, for I want to lock the gate." I entered and hid. When the people entered, he locked the gate and hung the keys on a peg. I went to the keys, took them, and opened the gate. Abu Rafi' was having a gathering in his upper room. When his guests left, I climbed to him. Every time I opened a door, I locked it from inside, saying, "If they notice me, they won't reach me until I kill him." When I reached him, he was in a dark house...

some people with them. They set out until they approached the fortress. Abdullah bin Atik said to them, "Stay here, I will go and look." He said, "So I carefully tried to enter the fortress. They had lost a donkey of theirs, and they went out with a torch to look for it. I was afraid of being recognized, so I covered my head and sat as if I were relieving myself. Then the gatekeeper called out, 'Whoever wants to enter, let him enter before I close it.' I entered and hid in a donkey stable near the fortress gate. They were having dinner with Abu Rafi' and talked until late at night, then they returned to their homes. When the voices quieted and I heard no movement, I came out." He continued, "I saw where the gatekeeper placed the fortress key in a niche, so I took it and opened the fortress gate." He said, "I thought, 'If the people notice me, I will move slowly.' Then I went to their house doors and locked them from the outside. I climbed to Abu Rafi' via a ladder, and the house was dark, its lamp extinguished, so I didn't know where the man was. I called out, 'O Abu Rafi'!' He said, 'Who is it?' I went toward the voice and struck him, and he shouted, but it did no good. Then I came as if to help him, saying, 'What's wrong, O Abu Rafi'?' and changed my voice. He said, 'Woe to your mother, a man came in and struck me with a sword.' I went to him again and struck him another time, but it did no good, and he shouted, and his household arose. I came again, changing my voice as if I were a helper, and found him lying on his back. I placed the sword in his stomach and pressed until I heard the sound of bone. Then I left in a panic until I reached the ladder, intending to descend, but I fell and injured my leg. I bandaged it and came to my companions limping. I said, 'Go and inform the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, for I will not leave until I hear the announcer.' At dawn, the announcer climbed up and said, 'I announce the death of Abu Rafi'.' I stood and walked with no unease in my heart, caught up with my companions before they reached the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and gave him the good news.

Then he ascended the pulpit and said, "I am ahead of you, and I am a witness over you. Your appointed place is the Pool, and I see it from my position here. I do not fear that you will commit polytheism, but I fear the world will make you compete for it." "Narrated to us [Ubaidullah bin Musa] from [Israil] from [Abu Ishaq] from [Al Barra] may Allah be pleased with him, he said, 'We met the polytheists that day, and the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, positioned a group of archers and appointed Abdullah over them, saying, "Do not leave your place. If you see us overcoming them, do not leave, and if you see them overcoming us, do not come to help us." When we engaged, they fled until I saw their women running to the mountain, their legs exposed, showing their anklets. The Muslims (archers) started saying, "The spoils, the spoils!" Abdullah said, "The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, instructed me not to leave." But they refused. When they disobeyed, their faces were turned (in disarray), and seventy were killed. Abu Sufyan stood at a high point and said, "Is Muhammad among you?" The Prophet said, "Do not answer." Abu Sufyan said, "Is the son of Abu Quhafah among you?" He said, "Do not answer." He said, "Is the son of Al-Khattab among you?" He said, "They are dead; if they were alive, they would have answered." Umar could not restrain himself and said, "You lie, O enemy of Allah! Allah will keep you in disgrace." Abu Sufyan said, "Exalt Hubal!" The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "Answer him." They said, "What should we say?" He said, "Say, 'Allah is Higher and More Exalted.'" Abu Sufyan said, "We have Al-Uzza, and you have no Uzza." The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "Answer him." They said, "What should we say?" He said, "Say, 'Allah is our Protector, and you have no protector.'" Abu Sufyan said, "This day is for the day of Badr, and war alternates. You will find mutilation I did not order, but it does not displease me."'

"Narrated to us [Abdan] narrated to us [Abdullah] informed us [Shu'bah] from [Sa'd bin Ibrahim] from his father [Ibrahim] that when [Abdurrahman bin Auf] was fasting, he was brought food and said, 'Mush'ab bin Umair was killed, and he was better than me, shrouded in a cloak; if his head was covered, his feet were exposed, and if his feet were covered, his head was exposed.' And I think he said, 'Hamzah was killed, and he was better than me. Then the world was spread out for us,' or he said, 'We were given of the world what we were given, and I fear our good deeds have been hastened for us.' Then he wept until he left the food.

He said, "In Paradise." So he threw the dates in his hand and fought until he was killed.'

On the day of Uhud, when the Muslims were defeated, he said, 'O Allah, I apologize to You for what these people did,' meaning the Muslims, 'and I dissociate from what the polytheists brought.' No one recognized him except his sister, by a mark or his fingers, with over eighty wounds from stabs, strikes, and arrows.

"Narrated to us [Abu Al Walid] narrated to us [Shu'bah] from [Adi bin Thabit] I heard [Abdullah bin Yazid] narrate from [Zaid bin Thabit] may Allah be pleased with him, he said, 'When the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, set out for Uhud, some of those who went with him turned back. The Prophet’s companions, peace and blessings be upon him, split into two groups: one saying, "We will fight them," and another saying, "We will not fight them." Then the verse was revealed: (Why are you divided into two factions regarding the hypocrites, when Allah has cast them back for what they earned?) (Quran, An-Nisa: 88). He said, "It is Taybah (Medina), which expels sins as fire expels impurities from silver."'

When the date harvest came, Jabir said, 'I went to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and said, "You know my father was martyred at Uhud, leaving many debts, and I want the creditors to see you." He said, "Go and pile each type of date separately." I did so and called him. When they saw him, it was as if they pressed me at that moment. Seeing what they did, he circled the largest pile three times, sat on it, and said, "Call your companions." He kept measuring for them until Allah fulfilled my father’s trust. I was pleased that Allah fulfilled my father’s trust, even if I returned to my sisters without a single date. Allah preserved all the piles, and I looked at the pile where the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, sat, as if not a single date was missing.'

Abu Talhah was a skilled archer, breaking two or three bows that day due to the intensity of his shooting. When a man passed by with a quiver of arrows, he said, "Give it to Abu Talhah." The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, would look up to see the enemy, and Abu Talhah said, "O Prophet of Allah, may my father and mother be your ransom, do not look up, lest an arrow from the enemy hits you. Let my neck be struck instead of yours." I saw 'Aishah, daughter of Abu Bakr, and Umm Sulaim, with their garments tucked up to their ankles, revealing their anklets, carrying water skins on their backs and pouring water into the mouths of the wounded. They would return to refill the skins and come back to pour water into the mouths of the people. The sword fell from Abu Talhah's hand two or three times.'

Hudzaifah observed the battle and saw his father, Al Yaman, and cried out, "O servants of Allah, my father, my father!" 'Aishah said, "By Allah, they did not stop until they killed him." Hudzaifah then said, "May Allah forgive

"Narrated to us ['Abdan] informed us [Abu Hamzah] from ['Utsman bin Mauhab] he said, 'A man who had performed Hajj saw people sitting and asked, "Who are these people sitting?" They said, "They are from Quraysh." He asked, "Who is the elder?" They said, "[Ibnu Umar]." He approached Ibnu Umar and said, "I want to ask you about something, so explain it to me. I adjure you by the sanctity of this House (Ka'bah), do you know that 'Utsman fled from the Battle of Uhud?" Ibnu Umar said, "Yes." He asked, "Do you know that he was absent from Badr and did not participate?" Ibnu Umar said, "Yes." He asked, "Do you know that he was absent from the Pledge of Ridwan and did not witness it?" Ibnu Umar said, "Yes." The man said, "Allahu Akbar." Then Ibnu Umar said, "Come, let me explain what you asked about. As for his fleeing on the day of Uhud, I bear witness that Allah has forgiven and pardoned him. As for his absence from Badr, he was caring for the daughter of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, who was ill, and the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said to him, 'You will have the reward and share of those who witnessed Badr.' As for his absence from the Pledge of Ridwan, if there had been anyone in the valley of Mecca more honorable than 'Utsman bin 'Affan, the Prophet would have sent him in his place. But the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, sent 'Utsman, and the Pledge of Ridwan took place after 'Utsman had gone to Mecca. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, raised his right hand and said, 'This is the hand of 'Utsman,' and struck it with his other hand, saying, 'This is for 'Utsman.' Now go with this explanation.'

"Narrated to me [Abu Ja'far Muhammad bin Abdullah] narrated to us [Hujain bin Al Muthanna] narrated to us [Abdul Aziz bin Abdullah bin Abu Salamah] from [Abdullah bin Al Fadl] from [Sulaiman bin Yasar] from [Ja'far bin 'Amr bin Umayyah Ad-Damri] he said, 'I went out with 'Ubaidullah bin 'Adi bin Khiyar to Syria. When we arrived in Hims, 'Ubaidullah bin 'Adi said to me, "How about we meet Wahshi and ask him about the killing of Hamzah?" I said, "Yes." Wahshi was living in Hims, and when we asked about him, we were told, "He is there in the shade of his house, as if he were a black man." We came and stood before him briefly, greeted him, and he returned the greeting. 'Ubaidullah had his head covered, so Wahshi could only see his eyes and feet. 'Ubaidullah said, "O Wahshi, do you recognize me?" He looked at him and said, "No, by Allah, except that I know 'Adi bin Khiyar married a woman called Umm Qital, daughter of Abu Al 'Is, and she bore him a boy in Mecca. I was asked to find a wet nurse for him, and I carried that boy with his mother and handed him to her. It’s as if I’m looking at your feet." 'Ubaidullah uncovered his face and said, "Will you tell us about the killing of Hamzah?" Wahshi said, "Yes, Hamzah killed Tu'aimah bin 'Adi at Badr, so my master, Jubair bin Mut'im, said to me, 'If you kill Hamzah in revenge for my uncle, you will be free.' When the people set out for 'Aynayn—a small mountain below Uhud separated by a valley—I went with them to fight. When they lined up for battle, Siba' came out and said, 'Who will face me?' Hamzah bin Abdul Al Muttalib came out and said, 'O Siba', O son of Umm Anmar, the one who cuts clitorises, do you defy Allah and His Messenger, peace and blessings be upon him?' Then he charged at him and finished him off as if he were nothing. I hid behind a rock to ambush Hamzah, and when he came close, I threw my spear at him, striking his lower abdomen until it came out between his hips. That was my promise to him. When the people returned, I returned with them. I stayed in Mecca until Islam spread there, then I went to Ta'if. They sent a messenger to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and I was told he does not harm messengers. I went with them until I met the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. When he saw me, he said, 'Are you Wahshi?' I said, 'Yes.' He said, 'Did you kill Hamzah?' I said, 'The matter is as it has reached you.' He said, 'Can you hide your face from me?' So I left. When the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, passed away, Musaylimah the Liar appeared. I said, 'I will go after Musaylimah; perhaps I can kill him to atone for Hamzah.' I went out with the people, and the matter unfolded as it did. I saw a man standing in a gap in a wall, like a gray camel with disheveled hair. I threw my spear at him, striking it through his chest until it came out between his shoulders. Then an Ansari man rushed at him and struck his head with a sword.' [Abdullah bin Al Fadl] said, narrated to me [Sulaiman bin Yasar] that he heard [Abdullah bin 'Umar] say, 'Then a girl on the roof of a house said, "The Commander of the Faithful has been killed by the black slave (meaning Wahshi)."'

"Narrated to us [Ahmad bin Yunus] narrated to us [Zuhair] narrated to us [Al A'mash] from [Shaqiq] from [Khabbab] may Allah be pleased with him, he said, 'We migrated with the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, seeking the pleasure of Allah, so our reward is with Allah. Some of us passed away or left without taking any of their reward, including Mus'ab bin Umair, who was killed on the day of Uhud, leaving only a striped cloak. When we covered his head with it, his feet were exposed, and when we covered his feet, his head was exposed. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said to us, 'Cover his head with it and place idhkhir (fragrant grass) over his feet,' or he said, 'Throw idhkhir over his feet.' Some of us have had their fruits ripen, and they are harvesting them.'

"Narrated to me 'Amru bin Khalid, narrated to us Al-Layth from Yazid bin Abu Habib from Abu Al-Khair from 'Uqbah that one day the Prophet peace be upon him went out and performed the funeral prayer for the martyrs of Uhud, then he went to the pulpit and said: 'I will precede you, and I am a witness over you. By Allah, I am now looking at my pool (in paradise), and I have been given the keys to the treasures of the earth—or the wealth of the earth—and by Allah, I am not afraid that you will commit polytheism after me, but I fear that you will compete for it (worldly wealth).'

"Narrated to me Ibrahim bin Musa, informed us Hisham bin Yusuf from Ma'mar from Az-Zuhri from 'Amru bin Abu Sufyan Ath-Thaqafi from Abu Hurairah (may Allah be pleased with him), he said: The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him sent a reconnaissance detachment led by 'Asim bin Thabit, who was the grandfather of 'Asim bin Umar. They set out and stopped at a place between 'Usfan and Mecca. Their presence was reported to a tribe from Hudhail called Banu Lahyan. About one hundred archers followed their tracks until they reached a place where the companions had camped and found date pits from Medina. They said, 'These are the dates of Yathrib.' They continued following their tracks until they caught up with them. When 'Asim and his companions sensed their presence, they took refuge behind a hill. The people came and surrounded them, saying, 'You have our pledge and covenant that we will not kill any of you if you come down to us.' 'Asim bin Thabit replied, 'As for me, I will not come down under the protection of a disbeliever. O Allah, inform our Prophet about us.' They fought until 'Asim and seven others were killed by arrows. Khubaib, Zaid, and another man remained. They were given a pledge and covenant, so they came down. When the enemy took hold of them, they untied the strings of their bows and bound them with them. The third man with them said, 'This is the first betrayal. By Allah, I will not go with you.' They dragged him and tried to force him, but he refused, so they killed him. They took Khubaib and Zaid and sold them in Mecca. Banu Harith bin 'Amir bin Nawfal bought Khubaib, as he had killed Al-Harith during the Battle of Badr. He remained their prisoner until they decided to kill him. He borrowed a razor from one of Al-Harith's daughters to shave, and she lent it to him. She said, 'I was negligent about my young son, and he went to him and sat on his lap. When I saw this, I was terrified, and he understood my fear while holding the razor. He said, "Do you fear I would kill him? By Allah, I would not do that, God willing." She said, 'By Allah, I have never seen a prisoner as good as Khubaib. I saw him eating a bunch of grapes while bound in iron chains, though there were no fruits in Mecca. It was nothing but sustenance provided by Allah.' They took him out of the sanctuary to kill him. He said, 'Let me pray two rak'ahs.' After praying, he returned to them and said, 'If I were not afraid you would think I fear death, I would have added more.' He was the first to establish the two rak'ahs before execution. Then he said, 'O Allah, count them one by one.' He continued, 'I do not care when I am killed as a Muslim, on which side I fall for Allah. This is for the sake of God, and if He wills, He will bless the severed limbs of my body.' Then 'Uqbah bin Al-Harith stood and killed him. The Quraysh sent for 'Asim to retrieve part of his body as proof, as he had killed one of their leaders at Badr. Allah sent a cloud-like swarm of wasps to protect him, so they could not take anything from his body.

"Narrated to us Abu Ma'mar, narrated to us Abdul Warith, narrated to us Abdul Aziz from Anas (may Allah be pleased with him), he said: The Prophet peace be upon him sent seventy men for a mission, called the Qurra' (reciters of the Qur'an). They were intercepted by tribes from Banu Sulaim, Ri'l, and Dhakwan near a well called Bi'r Ma'unah. They said, 'By Allah, we did not intend to target you; we were only passing through for a mission for the Prophet peace be upon him.' But they killed them. The Prophet peace be upon him invoked calamity upon them (Sulaim, Ri'l, and Dhakwan) for a month during the morning prayer. This was the beginning of Qunut, as we had not performed Qunut before. Abdul Aziz said, 'Someone asked Anas about Qunut, whether it was performed after bowing or after completing the recitation.' Anas replied, 'No, it is performed after completing the recitation.'

"Narrated to me Abdul A'la bin Hammad, narrated to us Yazid bin Zurai', narrated to us Sa'id from Qatadah from Anas bin Malik (may Allah be pleased with him), that Ri'l, Dhakwan, 'Usayyah, and Banu Lahyan sought help from the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him against an enemy. He sent seventy Ansar companions, whom we called the Qurra' in their time. They used to gather firewood by day and pray at night. When they reached Bi'r Ma'unah, they were killed and betrayed. When this reached the Prophet peace be upon him, he performed Qunut for a month during the morning prayer, invoking calamity upon tribes among the Arabs, namely Ri'l, Dhakwan, 'Usayyah, and Banu Lahyan. Anas said, 'We recited about them in the Qur'an, but it was later abrogated: "Convey to our people that we have met our Lord, He is pleased with us, and we are pleased with Him." And from Qatadah from Anas bin Malik, he narrated that the Prophet of Allah peace be upon him performed Qunut for a month in the morning prayer, invoking calamity upon tribes among the Arabs, namely Ri'l, Dhakwan, 'Usayyah, and Banu Lahyan.' Khalifah added: narrated to us Yazid bin Zurai', narrated to us Sa'id from Qatadah, narrated to us Anas, that those seventy Ansar were killed at Bi'r Ma'unah, and we recited in the Qur'an as mentioned above.

"Narrated to us Musa bin Isma'il, narrated to us Hammam from Ishaq bin Abdullah bin Abu Talhah, he said, narrated to me Anas, that the Prophet peace be upon him sent his uncle, the brother of Umm Sulaim, with seventy riders. The leader of the polytheists was 'Amir bin Tufail, who offered three options: 'The people of the plains are yours, and the people of the highlands are mine, or I become your successor, or I fight you with the people of Ghatfan, a thousand and a thousand.' 'Amir was stabbed in the house of Umm Fulan and said, 'A swelling like that of a camel in the house of a woman from the family of so-and-so, bring me my horse.' He died on his horse. Haram, the brother of Umm Sulaim, a lame man, and a man from Banu Fulan set out. He said, 'Stay close until I reach them. If they grant me safety, stay near; if they kill me, go to your companions.' Haram said, 'Will you grant me safety to deliver the message of the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him?' He spoke to them, but they signaled to a man who approached from behind and stabbed him with a spear until it pierced through. Haram said, 'Allahu Akbar, by the Lord of the Ka'bah, I have won.' They captured and killed all of them except the lame man, who was on a mountain peak. Allah revealed to us, later abrogated: 'Indeed, we have met our Lord, He is pleased with us, and we are pleased with Him.' The Prophet peace be upon him invoked calamity upon Ri'l, Dhakwan, Banu Lahyan, and 'Usayyah, who disobeyed Allah and His Messenger peace be upon him, for thirty mornings.

"Narrated to us 'Ubaid bin Isma'il, narrated to us Abu Usamah from Hisham from his father from 'Aishah (may Allah be pleased with her), she said: Abu Bakr sought permission from the Prophet peace be upon him to emigrate when the persecution intensified. The Prophet said to him, 'Stay.' Abu Bakr said, 'O Messenger of Allah, are you waiting for permission?'

The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said, 'I hope for it.' Aishah continued, 'Abu Bakr waited for the permission. One day at noon, the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him came to him and called out, "Send out those with you." Abu Bakr said, "They are only my two daughters." He said, "Do you feel that I have been permitted to emigrate?" Abu Bakr said, "Do you need a companion?" The Prophet peace be upon him said, "A companion." Abu Bakr said, "O Messenger of Allah, I have two camels I prepared for emigration." He gave one of them, Al-Jad'a, to the Prophet peace be upon him. They rode and set out until they reached the cave of Thawr and hid in it. 'Amir bin Fuhairah was a slave of Abdullah bin Tufail bin Sakhbarah, 'Aishah's half-brother. Abu Bakr had a flock of milking goats, which 'Amir brought to them every morning and evening. He would go out at night to them and then graze the flock, so none of the shepherds noticed. When they set out, Abu Bakr and the Prophet followed behind until they reached Medina. 'Amir bin Fuhairah was killed on the day of Bi'r Ma'unah.' Abu Usamah said, Hisham bin 'Urwah said, my father informed me, 'When those at Bi'r Ma'unah were killed and 'Amr bin Umayyah Adh-Dhamri was captured, 'Amir bin Tufail said to him, "Who is this?" pointing to a slain man. 'Amr bin Umayyah said, "This is 'Amir bin Fuhairah." He said, "I saw him after he was killed, raised to the sky until I saw him between the sky and the earth, then he was lowered." When the news reached the Prophet peace be upon him, he announced their deaths and said, "Your companions have been struck, and they asked their Lord, saying, 'Our Lord, inform our brothers about what we are pleased with from You and what You are pleased with from us.' So Allah informed them about them." Among those killed that day were 'Urwah bin Asma' bin As-Salt, after whom 'Urwah was named, and Mundhir bin 'Amr, after whom Mundhir was named.'

"Narrated to us Musa bin Isma'il, narrated to us Abdul Wahid, narrated to us 'Asim Al-Ahwal, he said, I asked Anas bin Malik (may Allah be pleased with him) about Qunut in prayer. He said, 'Yes.' I said, 'Was it before or after bowing?' He said, 'Before bowing.' I said, 'But so-and-so informed me that you said after bowing.' He said, 'He lied. The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him performed Qunut after bowing for a month when he sent a group called the Qurra' (reciters), seventy men, to a group of polytheists with whom there was a covenant. But those with the covenant betrayed them, so the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him performed Qunut after bowing for a month, invoking calamity upon them.'

"Narrated to us Khallad bin Yahya, narrated to us Abdul Wahid bin Aiman from his father, he said, I visited Jabir (may Allah be pleased with him), and he said: On the day of the Khandaq, we were digging when a hard rock obstructed us. The companions went to the Prophet peace be upon him and said, 'This hard rock is blocking the trench.' He said, 'I will go down.' He stood, with his stomach tied with a stone (due to hunger). We had gone three days without tasting food. The Prophet peace be upon him took the pickaxe and struck the rock, turning it into loose sand or dust. I said, 'O Messenger of Allah, permit me to go home.' I said to my wife, 'I saw something in the Prophet peace be upon him that I could not bear. Do you have anything?' She said, 'I have barley and a young goat.' She slaughtered the goat and ground the barley. We put the meat in a pot. I went to the Prophet peace be upon him when the dough was ready and the pot was nearly cooked between the stones. I said, 'I have a little food. Come, O Messenger of Allah, with one or two men.' He said, 'How much is it?' I told him, and he said, 'Plenty and good.' He said, 'Tell her not to remove the pot or bake the bread until I come.' He said, 'Get up.' The Muhajirin and Ansar stood up. When I entered my wife's house, I said, 'Oh no, the Prophet peace be upon him has come with the Muhajirin, Ansar, and those with them.' She said, 'Did he ask you?' I said, 'Yes.' He said, 'Enter and do not crowd.' He began breaking the bread, placing meat on it, covering the pot and oven when taking from them, and serving his companions. He continued breaking bread and scooping until they were full, and some remained. He said, 'Eat this and give some away, for the people are suffering from hunger.'

I returned to my wife and said, 'Do you have anything? I saw the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him extremely hungry.' She brought out a sack with one sha' of barley, and we had a young goat. I slaughtered it, and she ground the barley. She finished as I finished. I cut the meat and put it in the pot. I went to the Prophet peace be upon him. She said, 'Do not shame me before the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him and those with him.' I went to him and whispered, 'O Messenger of Allah, we slaughtered a young goat and ground a sha' of barley we had. Come with a few others.' The Prophet peace be upon him called out, 'O people of the Khandaq, Jabir has prepared a meal, so come along!' The Prophet peace be upon him said, 'Do not remove your pot or bake your dough until I arrive.' I returned, and the Prophet peace be upon him came, leading the people. I went to my wife, and she said, 'Oh, you!' I said, 'I did what you told me.' She brought out the dough, and he spat in it and blessed it. Then he went to our pot, spat in it, and blessed it. He said, 'Call a baker to bake with me, and scoop from your pot without removing it.' There were a thousand of them. I swear by Allah, they ate until they left, and our pot remained full, and our dough was still being baked.

I said, 'The affairs of the people are as you see, and I have been given no part in it.' She said, 'Join them, for they are waiting for you, and I fear your absence may cause division.' She did not leave him until he went. When the people dispersed, Mu'awiyah gave a sermon, saying, 'Whoever wishes to speak on this matter, let him show himself to us, for we are more entitled to it than him and his father.' Habib bin Maslamah said, 'Why did you not respond to him?' Abdullah said, 'I loosened my garment, intending to say, "The one more entitled to this matter than you is he who fought you and your father for Islam," but I feared saying a word that would divide the community, shed blood, and be misunderstood. I remembered what Allah has prepared in paradise.' Habib said, 'You were protected and preserved.' Mahmoud said, from Abdurrazzaq, with the word 'Nausatuha.'

"It has been narrated to us by [Zakariya' bin Yahya] who narrated to us from [Abdullah bin Numair] who narrated to us from [Hisyam] from [his father] from ['Aisyah, may Allah be pleased with her], she said; 'Sa'ad was wounded on the day of the Battle of Khandaq by an arrow from a man of Quraysh named Hibban bin 'Ariqah, who is Hibban bin Qais from Bani Ma'ish bin 'Amir bin Lu'ay, striking him in the brachial vein. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, set up a tent near the mosque to visit him easily. When the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, returned from the Battle of Khandaq, he put down his weapons and bathed. Gabriel, peace be upon him, came to him, shaking dust from his head, and said: 'Have you put down your weapons? By Allah, I have not put mine down. Go out to them.' The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, asked: 'Where?' Gabriel pointed toward Bani Quraizhah. So, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, set out to them. Bani Quraizhah agreed to submit to his judgment. He referred the judgment to Sa'ad, who said; 'I rule that their warriors be killed, their women and children be taken captive, and their wealth be divided.' Hisyam said; My father informed me from 'Aisyah that Sa'ad said; 'O Allah, You know that there is no one I love to fight for Your sake more than a people who denied Your Messenger, peace and blessings be upon him, and expelled him. O Allah, I think You have ended the war between us and them. If there remains any war with Quraysh, keep me alive to fight them for Your sake. But if You have ended the war, let my wound burst and let my death be in it.' Then blood gushed from his chest. Nothing alarmed them in the mosque, where there was a tent of Bani Ghifar, except the blood flowing toward them. They said; 'O people of the tent, what is this coming from your direction?' It was Sa'ad’s wound gushing blood, and he died from it, may Allah be pleased with him.'

Our feet became worn, and my feet were worn, and my nails fell off. We wrapped our feet with rags, so it was called the Battle of Dzatur Riqa' because we bandaged our feet with rags.' Abu Musa narrated this hadith to us but disliked it, saying; 'What have I done by mentioning it?' as if he disliked revealing his deeds.

"It has been narrated to us by [Isma'il], he said; my brother narrated to me from [Sulaiman] from [Muhammad bin Abu 'Atiq] from [Ibnu Syihab] from [Sinan bin Abu Sinan Ad Du`ali] from [Jabir bin Abdullah, may Allah be pleased with them], he informed him that he fought with the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, toward Najd. When the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, returned, he returned with him. At midday, they reached a valley with many thorny trees. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, stopped under a tree, hung his sword on it, and the people scattered among the trees seeking shade. Jabir said; 'We slept for a while, then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, called us. We came to him, and there was a Bedouin sitting with him.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'This man took my sword while I was asleep. I woke up, and it was in his hand, unsheathed. He said to me, "Who will protect you from me?" I said, "Allah." Now he is sitting here.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, did not punish him. [Aban] said; [Yahya bin Abu Katsir] narrated to us from [Abu Salamah] from [Jabir], he said; 'We were with the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, at Dzatur Riqa'. When we came to a shady tree, we left it for the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him. A man from the polytheists came, and the Prophet's sword was hanging on the tree. He took it and said, "Are you afraid of me?" He said, "No." He said, "Who will protect you from me?" He said, "Allah." The Prophet's companions, peace and blessings be upon him, threatened him. Then the prayer was established, and he prayed two rak'ahs with one group, then they stepped back, and he prayed two rak'ahs with the other group, so the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, had four rak'ahs, and the people had two rak'ahs.' Musaddad said from [Abu 'Awanah] from [Abu Bisyir]; 'The man's name was Ghawrats bin Al Harits, and he fought in it against Muharib Khasafah.' [Abu Az Zubair] said from [Jabir]; 'We were with the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, at Nakhl, and he performed the fear prayer.' Abu Hurairah said; 'I prayed with the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, in the Battle of Najd, the fear prayer. But Abu Hurairah came to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, during the time of Khaibar.'

"It has been narrated to us by [Qutaibah bin Sa'id] who informed us from [Isma'il bin Ja'far] from [Rabi'ah bin Abu Abdurrahman] from [Muhammad bin Yahya bin Habban] from [Ibnu Muhayriz], he said; 'When I entered the mosque, I saw Abu Sa'id Al Khudri, and I sat next to him. I asked him about coitus interruptus ('azl). [Abu Sa'id] said; "We went out with the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, in the Battle of Bani Al Musthaliq, and we took captives from among the Arabs. We desired the women, and celibacy was hard on us, so we wanted to practice coitus interruptus. We said, 'Shall we practice it while the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, is among us without asking him?' So, we asked him about it, and he said, 'There is no harm in not doing it. No soul that is destined to exist until the Day of Resurrection will fail to exist.'

"Narrated to us [Abdul Aziz bin Abdullah] narrated to us [Ibrahim bin Sa'ad] from [Shalih] from [Ibnu Syihab] he said; narrated to me ['Urwah bin Az Zubair] and [Sa'id bin Al Musayyab] and ['Alqamah bin Waqash Al Laitsi] and ['Ubaidullah bin Abdullah bin 'Uqbah bin Mas'ud] from ['Aisyah may Allah be pleased with her], the wife of the Prophet, peace be upon him, when the slanderers said to her what they said. They all narrated to me, a group of people narrated based on what 'Aisyah conveyed, and some of them were based on their assumptions, then I established the hadith from the stories related to this incident, and I also included the hadiths from those narrated to me from 'Aisyah, and some of their hadiths reinforce one another, where they assumed about one another. They said 'Aisyah said: 'When the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, intended to go on a journey, he used to cast lots among his wives, and if one of their names came up, she would travel with him. On one occasion, he cast lots among us for a battle he undertook, and my name came up, so I went with the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, after the verse of the veil was revealed. I was carried in my howdah and placed in it. We set out, and when the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, had finished that battle, we returned. When we were near Medina, he announced a night rest. So I went out from my howdah when he and the group stopped, and I walked until I passed the army. After I finished my needs, I returned to the group, and to my surprise, when I touched my chest, my necklace from Zhafar had fallen off. So I went back to look for my necklace.' Aisyah continued; 'Then the people who carried me came and took my howdah and placed it on the camel I was riding, assuming I was in it. At that time, women were light-bodied, not too heavy, and they did not have much flesh; they only ate a morsel of food. Therefore, the people carrying my howdah did not suspect its lightness when they lifted it. At that time, I was a young woman. Then they drove the camel and moved on. Meanwhile, I found my necklace after the army had passed. I then went to the place where the group had stopped, but no one was left. After that, I returned to my original place, hoping they would miss me and come back for me. While I was sitting, I was overcome by drowsiness and fell asleep. Shafwan bin Al Mu'aththal As Sulami Adz Dzakwan came from behind the army, then he approached my place and saw a dark figure like a sleeping person. He recognized me when he saw me. He had seen me before the verse of the veil was revealed. I woke up when I heard his saying of istirja' (the phrase 'Indeed, to Allah we belong and to Him we shall return') when he recognized me. I immediately covered my face with my veil. By Allah, we did not speak a single word, nor did I hear a single word from him except his istirja'. He then stopped his mount and made it kneel. So I approached his mount and rode it. He then walked, leading the mount until we caught up with the army after they stopped at the edge of Azh Zhahirah river to rest in the heat of the noon. Aisyah said; 'So perished those who perished.' And the one who played a major role in spreading this false rumor was Abdullah bin Ubay bin Salul.' - 'Urwah said; I was informed that Abdullah bin Ubay spread the false rumor, narrated it, confirmed it, and passed it on to people while exaggerating it. - 'Urwah also said; 'No one else involved in spreading the false rumor was mentioned except Hasan bin Tsabit, Misthah bin Utsatsah, and Hamnah binti Jahsy. I do not know about them except that they were a group of people as Allah Almighty said. And the one who played the biggest role among them was Abdullah bin Ubay bin Salul. 'Urwah said; 'Aisyah disliked cursing Hasan in her presence, and she said that Hasan was the one who said: 'Indeed, my father, his father, and my honor are a shield for the honor of Muhammad from you.' Aisyah continued; 'When we arrived in Medina, I fell ill for a month since my arrival, while people were busy with the false rumor spread by those who carried it. Meanwhile, I was completely unaware of any of it. But I was suspicious because, during my illness, I did not feel the kindness of the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, as I usually did when I was sick. The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, only came to me, greeted me, and said: 'How are you?' then left. This made me anxious, but I did not realize the evil that was happening. One day, I went out (from my house) when I felt better. I went out with Ummu Misthah toward Al Manashi', the place where we used to relieve ourselves, and we only went there at night. This was before we built latrines near our homes. Aisyah said; 'Our custom was like that of the early Arabs, relieving ourselves in the open field. We felt uncomfortable building latrines near our homes.' Aisyah continued; 'So I and Ummu Misthah, -she was the daughter of Abu Ruhum bin Al Muthallib bin Abdu Manaf, while her mother was the daughter of Sakhar bin 'Amir, the aunt of Abu Bakr Ash Shiddiq’s mother, and her son was Misthah bin Utsatsah bin 'Abbad bin Al Mutahllib- after we finished our business, I and Ummu Misthah returned to my house. Suddenly, Ummu Misthah tripped over her garment and said; 'Woe to Misthah.' I said to her; 'How bad is what you said. Are you cursing a man who witnessed Badr?' She said; 'O my daughter, haven’t you heard what he said?' I asked; 'What did he say?' Ummu Misthah told me about the words of the slanderers. This incident added to my illness on top of the illness I was already feeling. When I returned to my house, the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, came to me, greeted me, and said: 'How are you?' I asked him; 'Will you permit me to go to my parents' house?' Aisyah said: 'At that time, I wanted to verify the news from my parents' side.' So the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, gave me permission, and I asked my mother; 'O Mother, what are people talking about?' My mother replied: 'O my daughter, calm down. By Allah, rarely is there a woman living with a man who loves her and has co-wives but they trouble her.' Aisyah said; I said; 'Glory be to Allah, are people really talking about this?' Aisyah said; 'So I cried that night until morning with tears streaming down, and I could not sleep or rest because I kept crying, and in the morning, I was still crying. Aisyah continued; 'The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, called 'Ali bin Abi Thalib and Usamah bin Zaid when the revelation had not yet come, asking them and seeking their advice regarding separating from his wife. Aisyah continued; As for Usamah, he advised the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, based on what he knew about the innocence of his family and what he knew about them in himself. Usamah said: 'Your family, we only know good about them.' As for 'Ali bin Abi Thalib, he said; 'O Messenger of Allah, Allah will not burden you, for there are many women besides her. Ask the servant girl, and she will tell you the truth.' So the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, called Barirah and said: 'O Barirah, have you ever seen anything suspicious about Aisyah?' Barirah replied: 'By the One who sent you with the truth, I have never seen anything suspicious about her. If I saw anything, it was only a small matter; she is still very young, she once fell asleep over her family's dough, and then ate it.' Aisyah continued; 'One day, while he was standing on the pulpit, the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, stood to address Abdullah bin Ubay bin Salul. He said: 'O Muslims, who will relieve me of a man who I heard has harmed my family? By Allah, I only know good about my family. They have mentioned a man (meaning Shafwan) about whom I only know good, and he never visited my family except with me.' Aisyah said; 'Then Sa'ad bin Mu'adz, the brother of Bani 'Abdul Ashal, stood and said: 'I, O Messenger of Allah, will relieve you of this offense. If he is from the Aws tribe, I will strike his neck, and if he is from our brothers of the Khazraj tribe, command us, and we will carry out your order.' Aisyah continued; Then a man from the Khazraj tribe stood up - the mother of Hassan was his cousin - he was Sa'ad bin 'Ubadah, the leader of the Khazraj tribe. Aisyah continued; 'He was a righteous man, but that day he was carried away by tribal zeal and said to Sa'ad bin Mu'adz: 'You lie, by Allah who knows the life of His servant, you will not kill him, nor can you kill him. If he were from your tribe, you would not want him killed.' Then Usaid bin Hudlair, the cousin of Sa'ad bin Mu'adz, stood and said: 'You are the liar, by Allah who knows the life of His servant, we will surely kill him. Indeed, you are a hypocrite defending the hypocrites.' Then the situation at the gathering heated up between the two tribes, Aws and Khazraj, until they almost fought, while the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, was still standing on the pulpit. Aisyah continued; 'The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, kept calming them until they were silent, and he too was silent. Aisyah said; 'So I cried all that day, my tears kept flowing, and I could not sleep peacefully because of it, until my parents were by my side, while I had been crying for two nights and one day, until I thought my tears had dried up.'

Narrated to us Musa bin Isma'il, narrated to us Abu 'Awanah from Hushain from Abu Wa'il, he said narrated to me Masruq bin Al Ajda', he said narrated to me Ummu Ruman, the mother of 'Aisyah, may Allah be pleased with them both, she said: "While I was sitting with

'Aisyah, a woman from the Ansar came in and said, 'May Allah do such-and-such to so-and-so and surely do.' Ummu Ruman asked, 'What is the matter?' She said, 'My son is among those who spread this rumor.' 'Aisyah asked, 'What rumor?' She replied, 'Such-and-such.' 'Aisyah asked, 'Has the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, heard it?' She said, 'Yes.' 'Aisyah asked, 'And Abu Bakr?' She said, 'Yes.' Then 'Aisyah fainted and did not regain consciousness until she was struck with a high fever. I covered her with her clothes and wrapped her up. Then the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, came and asked, 'What is wrong with her?' I said, 'O Messenger of Allah, she has been struck with a fever.' He said, 'Perhaps because of the false rumor you spoke of.' Ummu Ruman said, 'Yes.' Then 'Aisyah sat up and said, 'By Allah, if I swear, you will not believe me, and if I say I did not, you will accuse me. My example with you is like Ya'qub, peace be upon him, with his sons when he said: "And Allah alone is sought for help against what you describe." (QS Yusuf: 18). Ummu Ruman said, 'Then he left without saying a word. Then Allah revealed her exoneration.' 'Aisyah said, '(All praise be to Allah) and this is because of Allah, the Most Praiseworthy, and no one else deserves praise, nor do you.'

Ibnu Abu Mulaikah said, "'Aisyah was the most knowledgeable about it compared to others, because indeed that verse was revealed about her.

Hudaibiyyah was a well, and we drained it until not a drop remained. When this reached the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, he came to it, sat at its edge, and asked for a vessel of water. He performed wudu, rinsed his mouth, prayed, and poured it into the well. We left it for a short while, and then it provided us and our mounts with as much water as we wanted.’

"Narrated to us Yusuf bin Isa, narrated to us Ibnu Fudlail, narrated to us Hushain from Salim from Jabir, may Allah be pleased with him, he said: ‘The people were thirsty during the day of Hudaibiyyah, while the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, had only a leather water bag, and he performed wudu with it. Then the people approached him, and the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, asked, ‘What’s wrong with you?’ They replied, ‘O Messenger of Allah, we have no water to perform wudu or drink except what’s in your water bag.’ He said, ‘The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, placed his hand in the water bag, and water began to flow from between his fingers like springs.’ Jabir continued: ‘Then we drank and performed wudu.’ I asked Jabir, ‘How many were you that day?’ Jabir replied, ‘Even if we were a hundred thousand, it would have sufficed us. We were one thousand five hundred.’

I am the daughter of Khufaf bin Iyma' Al Ghifariy. My father participated in the Hudaibiyyah pledge with the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him.' So 'Umar stood with her and did not continue his journey. He said, 'Welcome, one of close kinship.' Then 'Umar approached a pack camel tied in the courtyard and loaded it with two sacks filled with food. Between the two sacks, he placed provisions and clothes. Then 'Umar handed her the camel's reins and said, 'Lead it. This will not run out until Allah brings you goodness.' A man said, 'O Commander of the Faithful, you have given her too much.' 'Umar said, 'May your mother be bereaved of you, I saw this woman's father and brother besiege a fortress for a long time until they conquered it. Then we received a share of the spoils because of their contribution.'

They will fight you, block you from the Ka'bah, and prevent you.' He said, 'Advise me, O people. Do you think I should turn toward the families and offspring of those who intend to block us from the Ka'bah? If they come to us, Allah, the Mighty and Exalted, will cut off a spy from the polytheists otherwise, we will leave them defeated.' Abu Bakr said, 'O Messenger of Allah, you set out intending to visit this House, not to kill or fight anyone. So proceed toward it, and whoever blocks us, we will fight them.' Narrated to me Ishaq, informed us Ya'qub, narrated to me the nephew of Ibnu Syihab from his uncle, informed me Urwah bin Az Zubair that he heard Marwan bin Al Hakam and Miswar bin Makhramah narrating about the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, during the umrah of Hudaibiyyah. Among what Urwah narrated from them was that when the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, made a treaty with Suhail bin 'Amru on the day of Hudaibiyyah regarding the terms of the truce, Suhail bin 'Amru stipulated, 'No one from us will come to you, even if they follow your religion, except that you return them to us and leave them to us.' Suhail refused to agree with the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, except on these terms. The believers disliked this and were troubled, discussing it. When Suhail refused to agree except on his terms, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, agreed to the treaty and returned Abu Jandal bin Suhail to his father, Suhail bin 'Amru, that day. No man came to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, during that period except that he returned them, even if they were Muslim. Then believing women came as emigrants, including Ummu Kulthum bint 'Uqbah bin Abu Mu'aith, a freed slave woman who emigrated to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. Her family came asking the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, to return her to them until Allah revealed verses about the believing women who emigrated, as He had decreed (prohibiting their return).

TEST OF FAITH OF MUHAJIR WOMEN WHO WANT TO PLEDGE ALLEGATION

قَالَ ابْنُ شِهَابٍ وَأَخْبَرَنِي عُرْوَةُ بْنُ الزُّبَيْرِ أَنَّ عَائِشَةَ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهَا زَوْجَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَتْ إِنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يَمْتَحِنُ مَنْ هَاجَرَ مِنْ الْمُؤْمِنَاتِ بِهَذِهِ الْآيَةِ { يَا أَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ إِذَا جَاءَكَ الْمُؤْمِنَاتُ يُبَايِعْنَكَ } وَعَنْ عَمِّهِ قَالَ بَلَغَنَا حِينَ أَمَرَ اللَّهُ رَسُولَهُ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنْ يَرُدَّ إِلَى الْمُشْرِكِينَ مَا أَنْفَقُوا عَلَى مَنْ هَاجَرَ مِنْ أَزْوَاجِهِمْ وَبَلَغَنَا أَنَّ أَبَا بَصِيرٍ فَذَكَرَهُ بِطُولِهِ

Ibnu Syihab said informed me Urwah bin Az Zubair that Aisyah, may Allah be pleased with her, the wife of the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, tested the believing women who emigrated to him with this verse: 'O Prophet, when the believing women come to you pledging allegiance...' (QS Al Mumtahanah: 12)." And from his uncle, he said, it reached us that when Allah commanded His Messenger, peace and blessings be upon him, to return to the polytheists what they had spent on their wives who emigrated, and it reached us that Abu Bashir... (and he narrated the story in full).

ABDULLAH BIN UMAR FOLLOWS THE EXAMPLE OF THE PROPHET SAW IN IHRAM
Hadith Imam Bukhari Number 3863

حَدَّثَنَا قُتَيْبَةُ عَنْ مَالِكٍ عَنْ نَافِعٍ أَنَّ عَبْدَ اللَّهِ بْنَ عُمَرَ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمَا خَرَجَ مُعْتَمِرًا فِي الْفِتْنَةِ فَقَالَ إِنْ صُدِدْتُ عَنْ الْبَيْتِ صَنَعْنَا كَمَا صَنَعْنَا مَعَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَأَهَلَّ بِعُمْرَةٍ مِنْ أَجْلِ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ أَهَلَّ بِعُمْرَةٍ عَامَ الْحُدَيْبِيَةِ

Narrated to us Qutaibah from Malik from Nafi' that Abdullah bin Umar, may Allah be pleased with them both, set out to perform umrah during a time of turmoil. He said, "If I am prevented from the House, we will do as we did with the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him." He then pronounced the talbiyah for umrah, following the example of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, who pronounced the talbiyah for umrah during the year of the Hudaibiyyah treaty.

ABDULLAH BIN UMAR BERIHRAM DESPITE BEING PROHIBITED FROM ENTERING BAITULLAH
Hadith Imam Bukhari Number 3864

حَدَّثَنَا مُسَدَّدٌ حَدَّثَنَا يَحْيَى عَنْ عُبَيْدِ اللَّهِ عَنْ نَافِعٍ عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ أَنَّهُ أَهَلَّ وَقَالَ إِنْ حِيلَ بَيْنِي وَبَيْنَهُ لَفَعَلْتُ كَمَا فَعَلَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حِينَ حَالَتْ كُفَّارُ قُرَيْشٍ بَيْنَهُ وَتَلَا { لَقَدْ كَانَ لَكُمْ فِي رَسُولِ اللَّهِ أُسْوَةٌ حَسَنَةٌ }

Narrated to us Musaddad, narrated to us Yahya from 'Ubaidullah from Nafi' from Ibnu 'Umar, may Allah be pleased with them both, that he was in ihram and said, "Even if I am prevented from the House, I will do as the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, did when the disbelieving Quraysh prevented him from the House." He then recited, "Indeed, in the Messenger of Allah, you have a good example..." (QS Al Ahzab: 21).

IBNU UMAR'S OBEDIENCE FOLLOWED THE PROPHET'S SUNNAH
Hadith Imam Bukhari Number 3865

حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ أَسْمَاءَ حَدَّثَنَا جُوَيْرِيَةُ عَنْ نَافِعٍ أَنَّ عُبَيْدَ اللَّهِ بْنَ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ وَسَالِمَ بْنَ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ أَخْبَرَاهُ أَنَّهُمَا كَلَّمَا عَبْدَ اللَّهِ بْنَ عُمَرَ ح و حَدَّثَنَا مُوسَى بْنُ إِسْمَاعِيلَ حَدَّثَنَا جُوَيْرِيَةُ عَنْ نَافِعٍ أَنَّ بَعْضَ بَنِي عَبْدِ اللَّهِ قَالَ لَهُ لَوْ أَقَمْتَ الْعَامَ فَإِنِّي أَخَافُ أَنْ لَا تَصِلَ إِلَى الْبَيْتِ قَالَ خَرَجْنَا مَعَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَحَالَ كُفَّارُ قُرَيْشٍ دُونَ الْبَيْتِ فَنَحَرَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ هَدَايَاهُ وَحَلَقَ وَقَصَّرَ أَصْحَابُهُ وَقَالَ أُشْهِدُكُمْ أَنِّي أَوْجَبْتُ عُمْرَةً فَإِنْ خُلِّيَ بَيْنِي وَبَيْنَ الْبَيْتِ طُفْتُ وَإِنْ حِيلَ بَيْنِي وَبَيْنَ الْبَيْتِ صَنَعْتُ كَمَا صَنَعَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَسَارَ سَاعَةً ثُمَّ قَالَ مَا أُرَى شَأْنَهُمَا إِلَّا وَاحِدًا أُشْهِدُكُمْ أَنِّي قَدْ أَوْجَبْتُ حَجَّةً مَعَ عُمْرَتِي فَطَافَ طَوَافًا وَاحِدًا وَسَعْيًا وَاحِدًا حَتَّى حَلَّ مِنْهُمَا جَمِيعًا

Narrated to us Abdullah bin Muhammad bin Asma', narrated to us Juwairiyah from Nafi' that 'Ubaidullah bin Abdullah and Salim bin Abdullah informed him that they spoke to Abdullah bin 'Umar. And narrated to us Musa bin Isma'il, narrated to us Juwairiyah from Nafi' that some of Abdullah's children said to him, "You should perform (umrah) next year, for I fear you will not reach the House." Hearing that, Abdullah bin 'Umar said, "We went out with the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, but the disbelieving Quraysh prevented him from the House. So the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, slaughtered his sacrificial animals and shaved his head, and his companions followed suit. I testify to you that I will perform umrah. If I am allowed to reach the House, I will perform tawaf there, and if I am prevented from the House, I will do as the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, did." He walked for a while and then said, "I consider both (hajj and umrah) as one. I testify to you that I have made hajj obligatory for myself along with my umrah." So he performed one tawaf and one sa'i and then completed both together.

Narrated to me Syuja' bin Al Walid, he heard An Nadlar bin Muhammad, narrated to us Shakhr from Nafi', he said, "People say that Ibnu 'Umar embraced Islam before 'Umar, but that is not so. During the Hudaibiyyah treaty, 'Umar sent Abdullah bin 'Umar to fetch his horse from a man of the Ansar to use it for fighting. Meanwhile, the companions were pledging allegiance to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, under the tree, and 'Umar was unaware of it. Abdullah pledged allegiance, then went to get the horse and brought it to 'Umar, who was preparing for battle. Abdullah informed him that the companions were pledging allegiance to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, under the tree. Nafi' said, 'He immediately set out with him and pledged allegiance to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him.' That is what people talk about, saying Ibnu 'Umar embraced Islam before 'Umar." Hisyam bin 'Ammar said, narrated to us Al Walid bin Muslim, narrated to us 'Umar bin Muhammad Al 'Umari, informed me Nafi' from Ibnu 'Umar, may Allah be pleased with them both, that people were with the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, during the Hudaibiyyah treaty, scattered under the trees for shade. Suddenly, people surrounded the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him. 'Umar said, "O Abdullah, see what is happening with the people surrounding the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him." Abdullah found them pledging allegiance, so he pledged allegiance, then returned to 'Umar, who went out and pledged allegiance too.

I saw myself during the event of Abu Jandal (during the Hudaibiyyah treaty), and if I could have opposed the command of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, I would have. Allah and His Messenger know best. We did not carry our swords on our shoulders for a decision that harmed us, but it led us to something we understood only later, before this matter (the battle of Siffin). No enmity arose except that it sparked new conflicts we did not know how to handle.'

Narrated to me Abdul A'la bin Hammad, narrated to us Yazid bin Zurai', narrated to us Sa'id from Qatadah that Anas, may Allah be pleased with him, told them that a group from the tribes of 'Ukl and 'Urainah came to Medina to meet the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, to declare their Islam. They said, "O Prophet of Allah, we are people skilled in milking (livestock) and not in farming." They found Medina's climate unsuitable (causing illness). So the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, directed them to a shepherd and some camels so they could drink their milk and urine. When they reached the Harrah district, they renounced their Islam, killed the Prophet's shepherd, and drove off his camels. When this news reached the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, he sent trackers after them. (When caught), he ordered their eyes to be pierced with hot iron, their hands cut off, and left them under the scorching sun until they died in that state. Qatadah said, "It reached us that after this, the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, encouraged charity (distributing their possessions) and forbade mutilation." Syu'bah, Aban, and Hammad said from Qatadah, "...a group from 'Urainah." Yahya bin Abu Katsir and Ayyub said from Abu Qilabah from Anas, "...a group from 'Ukl.

Narrated to us Qutaibah bin Sa'id, narrated to us Hatim bin Yazid from Yazid bin Abu 'Ubaid, he said I heard Salamah bin Al Akwa' say, "I went out before the first call to prayer. The pregnant camels of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, were grazing at Dzi Qarad." He continued, "I met a servant of Abdurrahman bin 'Auf, who said, 'The camels of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, have been stolen.' I asked, 'Who took them?' He said, '(The tribe of) Ghathafan.' So I shouted three times, loud enough to be heard between the two hills of Medina. I rushed forward until I caught up with them as they were about to water the camels. I shot arrows at them, being a skilled archer, and said, 'I am the son of Al Akwa', and today is the day of the ruin of the lowly,' reciting poetry until I retrieved the camels from them (before they drank their milk). I also seized thirty burdah (blankets) from them." He continued, "Then the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and the companions came. I said, 'O Prophet of Allah, I reached the water source before them, leaving them thirsty. Send someone to them now.' He said, 'O Ibn Al Akwa', restrain your emotions and be gentle.' He said, 'Then we returned, and the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, let me ride behind him on his camel until we entered Medina.'

Narrated to us Abdullah bin Maslamah from Malik from Yahya bin Sa'id from Busyair bin Yasar that Suwaid bin An Nu'man informed him that he went out with the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, during the Khaibar campaign. When they reached Sahba', the outskirts of Khaibar, he performed the Asr prayer. Then he called for provisions, but they were given only flour-based food. He ordered it to be prepared, and he ate it, and we ate too. Then he stood for the Maghrib prayer, rinsed his mouth, and we rinsed ours, then performed the prayer without renewing wudu.

Narrated to us Abdullah bin Maslamah, narrated to us Hatim bin Isma'il from Yazid bin Abu 'Ubaid from Salamah bin Al Akwa', may Allah be pleased with him, he said, "We set out with the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, to Khaibar, traveling at night. A man from the group said to 'Amir, 'O 'Amir, why not let us hear some of your poetry?' 'Amir was a poet, so he dismounted and recited to the group, saying, 'O Allah, if not for You, we would not have been guided, nor given charity, nor prayed. Forgive us as a ransom for what we have neglected. Make our feet firm when we meet the enemy. Grant us tranquility. If we are called, we refuse, but with that call, they come to us.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, asked, 'Who is this reciter?' They said, ''Amir bin Al Akwa'.' He said, 'May Allah have mercy on him.' A man from the group said, 'It is destined, O Prophet of Allah. If only you had let us enjoy him longer.' We reached Khaibar and besieged them until we were struck by severe hunger. Then Allah, the Exalted, granted victory over them. In the evening of the day Khaibar was conquered, the people lit many fires. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, asked, 'What are these fires for?' They said, 'For cooking meat.' He asked, 'What meat?' They said, 'Domestic donkey meat.' The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'Pour it out and break the pots.' A man said, 'O Messenger of Allah, should we pour it out and wash them?' He said, 'Or do that.' When the forces lined up, 'Amir's sword was short, and he aimed it at the leg of a Jew to strike him, but the blade turned back and struck 'Amir's knee, causing his death." Salamah said, "When they returned, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, saw me, took my hand, and said, 'What is wrong with you?' I said, 'May my father and mother be your ransom. They claim that 'Amir's deeds were in vain.' The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'Whoever said that has lied. Indeed, he has two rewards.' He joined two fingers, 'He was a striving mujahid. Few Arabs have achieved what he did.'

Narrated to us Sulaiman bin Harb, narrated to us Hammad bin Zaid from Thabit from Anas, may Allah be pleased with him, he said, the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, performed the Subh prayer near Khaibar when it was still dark, then said, "Allahu Akbar, Khaibar is destroyed. Indeed, when we descend upon a people's courtyard, then evil is the morning for those who were warned." (QS Ash Shaffat: 177) They came out running in the streets. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, killed their fighters and took their children captive. Among the captives was Safiyyah. She first went to Dihyah Al Kalbi, then to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, who made her freedom her dowry. Abdul Aziz bin Shuhaib said to Thabit, "O Abu Muhammad, did you ask Anas what her dowry was?" Thabit nodded in affirmation.

Narrated to us Qutaibah, narrated to us Ya'qub from Abu Hazim from Sahal bin Sa'ad As Sa'idi, may Allah be pleased with him, that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, confronted the polytheists, and they fought. When the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, joined his army and the others joined theirs, there was a man among the companions of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, who did not leave any stray or fleeing enemy without pursuing and striking them with his sword. It was said, "No one among us today has earned as much reward as so-and-so." The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "Indeed, he is from the people of the Fire." A man from the group said, "I will be his companion." He went out with him, stopping when he stopped and hastening when he hastened. The man was severely wounded and sought to hasten his death. He placed his sword on the ground with its tip between his chest, then pressed himself onto it, killing himself. The man came to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and said, "I testify that you are the Messenger of Allah." He asked, "Why do you say that?" The man replied, "The man you mentioned earlier as being from the people of the Fire." The people were astonished, and I said, "I will follow him." I went out in pursuit of him, and he was severely wounded, seeking to hasten his death. He placed the blade of his sword on the ground with its tip between his chest, then pressed himself onto it, killing himself. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, then said, "Indeed, a man may perform the deeds of the people of Paradise in what appears to people, yet he is from the people of the Fire. And a man may perform the deeds of the people of the Fire in what appears to people, yet he is from the people of Paradise.
