Narrated by Musa bin Isma'il, narrated by Abu 'Awanah, from Firas, from As-Sha'bi, from Masruq, from 'Aishah (may Allah be pleased with her): Some of the wives of the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) Sa'dto him: 'Which of us will be the quickest to join you (after death)?' He said: 'The one with the longest arm among you.' So they took a stick to measure their arms, and Saudah (may Allah be pleased with her) had the longest arm among them. Later, we understood that the length of her arm referred to her generosity in giving charity, and she was the first among us to join him, as she loved giving charity.

So he went out with his charity and placed it in the hand of a thief. The next morning, people were talking, saying: 'He gave charity to a thief.' He said: 'O Allah, to You be praise. I will surely give charity again.' So he went out with his charity and placed it in the hands of a prostitute. The next morning, people were talking, saying: 'Last night, he gave charity to a prostitute.' He said: 'O Allah, to You be praise for (giving to) a prostitute. I will surely give charity again.' So he went out with his charity and placed it in the hands of a rich man. The next morning, people were talking, saying: 'He gave charity to a rich man.' He said: 'O Allah, to You be praise for (giving to) a thief, a prostitute, and a rich man.' Then he was approached (in a dream) and told: 'As for your charity to the thief, perhaps it will prevent him from stealing. As for the prostitute, perhaps it will prevent her from committing adultery. And as for the rich man, perhaps it will teach him to spend from what Allah has given him.'

And narrated by Abu Al-Yaman, informed by Shu'aib, narrated by Abu Az-Zinad, that Abdurrahman narrated to him that he heard Abu Hurairah (may Allah be pleased with him) say that he heard the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) say: 'The example of a miser and a generous person is like two men wearing iron cloaks from their chests to their collarbones. As for the generous person, whenever he spends, his cloak expands or widens over his skin until it covers his fingertips and erases his tracks. As for the miser, whenever he intends not to spend anything, every ring of his cloak sticks to its place, and though he tries to widen it, it does not expand.' This was supported by Al-Hasan bin Muslim from Tawus regarding the two cloaks, and Hanzalah Sa'dfrom Tawus: 'cloaks.' They said: 'O Prophet of Allah, what if someone has nothing?' He said: 'He should work with his hands to benefit himself and give charity.' They said: 'What if he cannot?' He said: 'He should help someone in dire need.' They said: 'What if he cannot?' He said: 'Then he should do good deeds and refrain from evil, for that is charity for him.'

This is the obligation of zakat that the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) prescribed for the Muslims, as Allah commanded His Messenger. Whoever among the Muslims is asked for it according to its rules should give it, and whoever is asked for more than that should not give. For twenty-four camels or less, zakat is paid in sheep: one sheep for every five camels. When it reaches twenty-five to thirty-five camels, a female bint makhadh is due. When it reaches five camels, one sheep is due. For grazing sheep, if they reach forty to one hundred twenty, one sheep is due. If they exceed one hundred twenty to two hundred, two sheep are due. If they exceed two hundred to three hundred, three sheep are due. If they exceed three hundred, one sheep is due for every hundred. If a man's grazing sheep are one less than forty, there is no zakat unless he wishes to give. For silver, one-fortieth is due. He said: 'O people, give charity.' Then he passed by the women and said: 'O women, give charity, for I have seen that you are the majority of the inhabitants of the Fire.' They said: 'Why is that, O Messenger of Allah?' He said: 'You curse frequently and are ungrateful to your husbands. I have not seen anyone more deficient in intellect and religion who can sway the mind of a resolute man than one of you, O women.' Then he left. When he reached his home, Zainab, the wife of Ibn Mas'ud, came seeking permission to see him. It was said: 'O Messenger of Allah, this is Zainab.' He said: 'Which Zainab?' It was said: 'The wife of Ibn Mas'ud.' He said: 'Yes, let her in.' She was permitted and said: 'O Prophet of Allah, today you commanded charity, and I have jewelry that I intended to give in charity, but Ibn Mas'ud claimed that he and his children are more deserving of my charity than others.' The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) said: 'Ibn Mas'ud is right. Your husband and your children are more deserving of your charity than others.'

He said: 'What I fear for you after me is what will be opened to you of the splendor and adornment of this world.' A man said: 'O Messenger of Allah, does good bring evil?' The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) remained silent, and it was Sa'dto the man: 'What is wrong with you, speaking to the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) and he does not respond?' We saw that revelation was descending upon him. He wiped the sweat from himself and said: 'Where is the questioner?' And it seemed he praised him. He said: 'Good does not bring evil. What grows in spring may kill or nearly kill, except for the eater of green, who eats until its sides are full, then faces the sun, defecates, urinates, and grazes again. This wealth is green and sweet. Blessed is the Muslim who gives from it to the poor, the orphan, and the wayfarer,' or as the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) said. 'Whoever takes it without right is like one who eats but is never satisfied, and it will be a witness against him on the Day of Resurrection.'

It was then mentioned to him that Ibn Jamil, Khalid bin Al Walid, and 'Abbas bin 'Abdul Muthalib refused to pay zakat. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said: "What can prevent Ibnul Jamil from paying his zakat, since he was once poor but Allah and His Messenger made him wealthy? As for Khalid, you have wronged Khalid, for he has spent his armor and weapons in the cause of Allah. The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) left out a man from them and did not give him, though he was the most impressive to me. I stood up to the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) and spoke to him privately, saying: "What about so-and-so? By Allah, I see him as a believer." He said: "Or a Muslim?" I remained silent for a while, then what I knew about him overcame me, and I said: "O Messenger of Allah, what about so-and-so? By Allah, I see him as a believer." He said: "Or a Muslim?" I remained silent for a while, then what I knew about him overcame me again, and I said: "O Messenger of Allah, what about so-and-so? By Allah, I see him as a believer." He said: "Or a Muslim?" He said: "I give to a man while another is dearer to me than him, fearing that he might be thrown on his face into the Fire." From his father, from Salih, from Isma'il bin Muhammad, that he said: I heard my father narrate this, and in his narration, he said: The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) struck with his hand, gathering between my neck and shoulder, then said: "Come here, O Sa'd I give to a man..." Abu 'Abdullah said: {They were overturned} means they were turned over and thrown down. {Mukibb} means a man whose action is not directed at anyone, but if the action occurs, you say: Allah has thrown him on his face, and I have thrown him.'

Narrated by Sahl bin Bakkar, narrated by Wuhaib, from 'Amr bin Yahya, from 'Abbas As-Sa'di, from Abu Humaid As-Sa'di, he said: 'We went on the Tabuk expedition with the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him). When he reached Wadi Al-Qura, there was a woman in her garden. The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) Sa'dto his companions: "Estimate it." The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) estimated ten wasq. He Sa'dto her: "Count what comes out of it." When we reached Tabuk, he said: "There will be a strong wind tonight, so let no one stand, and whoever has a camel, let him tie it." We tied them, and a strong wind blew. A man stood, and it threw him to the mountain of Tayy. The king of Aylah gifted the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) a white mule and clothed him with a cloak and wrote for him regarding their sea. When he returned to Wadi Al-Qura, he Sa'dto the woman: "How much did your garden yield?" She said: "Ten wasq, as the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) estimated." The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) said: "I am hastening to Medina, so whoever wants to hasten with me should hasten." When Ibn Bakkar Sa'da word meaning he overlooked Medina, he said: "This is Tabah." When he saw Uhud, he said: "This is a small mountain that loves us, and we love it. Shall I tell you about the best houses of the Ansar?" They said: "Yes." He said: "The houses of Banu An-Najjar, then Banu 'Abdul Ashhal, then Banu Sa'idah, or Banu Al-Harith bin Al-Khazraj, and in every house of the Ansar, there is good." Sulaiman bin Bilal said: Narrated by 'Amr: "Then the house of Banu Al-Harith, then Banu Sa'idah." Sulaiman Sa'dfrom Sa'dbin Sa'id, from 'Umarah bin Ghaziyyah, from 'Abbas, from his father, from the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him), he said: "Uhud is a

Narrated by Sa'id bin Abu Maryam, narrated by 'Abdullah bin Wahb, he said: Informed me by Yunus bin Yazid, from Az-Zuhri, from Salim bin 'Abdullah, from his father (may Allah be pleased with him), from the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him), he said: 'For what is irrigated by rain, springs, or groundwater, the zakat is one-tenth, and for what is irrigated by effort, the zakat is one-twentieth.' Abu 'Abdullah said: 'This is the explanation of the first, because he did not specify in the first, meaning the hadith of Ibn 'Umar: "For what is irrigated by rain, the zakat is one-tenth." He clarified in this and specified, and the addition is accepted, and the explained rules over the unclear when narrated by reliable people, as Al-Fadl bin 'Abbas narrated that the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) did not pray in the Ka'bah, but Bilal Sa'dhe prayed, so Bilal's statement was taken, and Al-Fadl's was left.'

Narrated to us Muhammad bin Abu Bakar Al Muqaddamiy, narrated to us Fudhail bin Sulaiman, narrated to me Musa bin 'Uqbah, Sa'd informed me Kuraib from 'Abdullah bin 'Abbas, may Allah be pleased with them, said: The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, departed from Madinah after combing and oiling his hair, wearing his waistcloth and cloak, as did his companions. He did not forbid any cloaks or waistcloths except those with saffron lingering on the skin. In the morning at Dzul Hulaifah, he rode his mount until reaching the plain at noon, then he and his companions started ihram with talbiyah. He marked his sacrificial animal. This was on the last five days of Dzul Qa'dah. He arrived in Makkah on the fourth night of Dzul Hijjah, circumambulated the Ka'bah, performed sa'i between Safa and Marwah, and did not release ihram because he had marked his sacrificial animal. He stayed at Al Hajjun, the high part of Makkah, intending hajj. He did not approach the Ka'bah after his circumambulation until returning from 'Arafah. He ordered his companions to circumambulate the Ka'bah, perform sa'i between Safa and Marwah, then cut their hair and release ihram. This applied to those without a marked sacrificial animal. For those with their wives, their wives, perfume, and clothes were permissible.

Narrated to us 'Abdullah bin Maslamah, narrated to us Malik from Ibn Syihab from 'Urwah bin Az Zubair from 'Aisyah, may Allah be pleased with her, the Prophet's wife, peace and blessings be upon him, said: We went with the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, during the Farewell Hajj, and we entered ihram for umrah. The Prophet said: Whoever has a sacrificial animal should enter ihram for hajj with umrah and not release ihram until completing both. I arrived in Makkah while menstruating, unable to circumambulate the Ka'bah or perform sa'i between Safa and Marwah. I complained to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and he said: Undo your hair, comb it, enter ihram for hajj, and leave umrah. I did so. After completing hajj, the Prophet sent me with 'Abdurrahman bin Abu Bakr to Tan'im to perform umrah, saying: This replaces your umrah. Those who entered ihram for umrah circumambulated the Ka'bah, performed sa'i between Safa and Marwah, then released ihram, and circumambulated again after returning from Mina. Those who combined hajj and umrah circumambulated only once.

I said: No. He ordered me to circumambulate the Ka'bah, perform sa'i between Safa and Marwah, then release ihram. I went to a woman from my people who combed my hair or washed my head. 'Umar, may Allah be pleased with him, came and said: If we follow Allah's Book, it commands us to complete hajj and umrah, as Allah says: And complete the hajj and umrah for Allah (Al-Baqarah: 196). If we follow the Prophet's Sunnah, peace and blessings be upon him, he did not release ihram until sacrificing the animal.

Narrated to us Muhammad bin Basysyar, narrated to me Abu Bakar Al HaNafi,, narrated to us Aflah bin Humaid, I heard Al Qasim bin Muhammad from 'Aisyah, may Allah be pleased with her, said: We went with the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, during the hajj months, nights, and sacred days, and stopped at Saraf. She said: He went to his companions and said: Whoever has no sacrificial animal and wishes to make it umrah, let him do so; those with a sacrificial animal, do not. Some companions followed this, others did not. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and some strong companions had sacrificial animals, so they did not make it umrah. She said: The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, entered while I was crying. He said: What makes you cry, O little one? I said: I heard what you Sa'dto your companions, and I am prevented from umrah. He asked: What is your condition? I said: I cannot pray. He said: It does not harm you; you are a woman among Adam's daughters, and Allah has decreed for you as He did for them. Perform your hajj, and may Allah grant you it. She said: We went for his hajj until we reached Mina, and I became pure. I left Mina and completed rites at the Ka'bah. She said: I went with him on the final departure until we reached Muhassab. He called 'Abdurrahman bin Abu Bakr and said: Take your sister out of the sacred area, let her enter ihram for umrah, complete the rites, then come here; I will wait for you. She said: We went out, and after I completed my umrah and circumambulation, I came to him at dawn. He asked: Have you finished? I said: Yes. He announced departure to his companions, and people left, heading to Madinah.

Narrated to us Abu Nu'aim, narrated to us Abu Sihab, said: I arrived in Makkah for umrah with tamattu' three days before Tarwiyah. People of Makkah said: Your hajj is now like a Makkan's. I consulted 'Ataa, and he said: Jabir bin 'Abdullah, may Allah be pleased with them, told me he performed hajj with the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, when he brought sacrificial animals and they entered ihram for hajj alone. The Prophet said: Release your ihram after circumambulating the Ka'bah, performing sa'i between Safa and Marwah, and cutting your hair. Stay in a permissible state until the day of Tarwiyah, then enter ihram for hajj, making what you did tamattu'. They asked: How can we make it tamattu' when we intended hajj? He said: Do as I command you. Had I not brought a sacrificial animal, I would do as I ordered you, but I cannot permit what is forbidden until the animal reaches its place of sacrifice. They did so. Abu 'Abdullah said: Abu Sihab has no other chain for this.

Narrated to us Musaddad, narrated to us Abu Al Ahwash, narrated to us Asy'ats from Al Aswad bin Yazid from 'Aisyah, may Allah be pleased with her, said: I asked the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, about the Hijr: Is it part of the Ka'bah? He said: Yes. I asked: Why did they not include it in the Ka'bah? He said: Your people lacked the funds. I asked: Why is its door elevated? He said: Your people did that to allow entry to whom they wished and prevent whom they wished. Were it not for your people's recent state of ignorance, and my fear that their hearts would reject it, I would include the Hijr in the Ka'bah and level its door with the ground.

This is what prompted 'Abdullah bin Az Zubair, may Allah be pleased with them, to demolish it. Yazid said: I saw Ibn Az Zubair when he demolished and rebuilt it, including part of the Hijr. Narrated to us Ashbagh from Ibn Wahb, informed me 'Amru from Muhammad bin 'Abdurrahman, I mentioned to 'Urwah, he said: 'Aisyah, may Allah be pleased with her, told me that the first thing the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, did when he arrived was to perform ablution, then thawaf, and it was not an umrah. Then Abu Bakr and 'Umar, may Allah be pleased with them, performed hajj like him. I performed hajj with Abu Zubair, may Allah be pleased with him, and the first thing he did was thawaf. I saw the Muhajirin and Ansar doing the same. My mother informed me that she, her sister, Az Zubair, and others intended ihram for umrah, and after they touched the Black Stone, they completed their tahallul.

performed thawaf with men? I asked: Was this after or before the verse of hijab? He said: By my life, I witnessed it after the verse of hijab. I asked: How did they mix with men? He said: They did not mix. 'Aisyah, may Allah be pleased with her, performed thawaf separately from men, not mixing with them. A woman said: Let us go touch the Black Stone, O Mother of the Believers. She said: Go yourself. She refused to go. Women used to go out at night unrecognized and perform thawaf with men. But when they entered the mosque, they stood until the men left, then entered. I and 'Ubaid bin 'Umair visited 'Aisyah, may Allah be pleased with her, while she was staying at the foot of Thabir. I asked: What was her hijab? He said: She was in a Turkish tent with a thin cover, and there was nothing between us and her except that. I saw her wearing a rose-patterned garment.

Then he said: Whoever has a sacrificial animal should enter ihram for hajj and umrah together and not release ihram until completing both. I arrived in Makkah while menstruating. When we completed our hajj rites, he sent me with Abdurrahman bin Abu Bakr to Tan'im, and I performed umrah. He said: This is in place of your umrah. Those who entered ihram for umrah performed thawaf, then released ihram, and performed another thawaf after returning from Mina. As for those who combined hajj and umrah, they only performed one thawaf.

He said: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, set out, and the disbelievers of Quraysh prevented him from the Ka'bah. If I am prevented from it, I will do as the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, did. Indeed, in the Messenger of Allah, you have a good example (Surah Al-Ahzab, 21). Then he said: I bear witness to you that I have made obligatory upon myself hajj along with my umrah. He said: Then he arrived and performed one thawaf for both.

Narrated to us Qutaibah, narrated to us Al-Laits from Nafi, that Ibn Umar, may Allah be pleased with them, intended to perform hajj in the year Al-Hajjaj overthrew Ibn Az-Zubair. It was Sa'dto him: There is fighting among people, and we fear they will prevent you. He said: Indeed, in the Messenger of Allah, you have a good example (Surah Al-Ahzab, 21). I will do as the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, did. I bear witness to you that I have made obligatory upon myself umrah. Then he set out until he reached the outskirts of Al-Baida and said: The matter of hajj and umrah is one. I bear witness to you that I have made obligatory upon myself hajj with my umrah. He brought a sacrificial animal he purchased in Qudaid and did no more than that. He did not slaughter, release ihram, shave, or cut his hair until the Day of Sacrifice, when he slaughtered, shaved, and considered that he had completed the thawaf for hajj and umrah with his first thawaf. Ibn Umar, may Allah be pleased with them, said: This is what the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, did.

Then Abu Bakr, may Allah be pleased with him, performed hajj, and the first thing he did was thawaf around the Ka'bah, and it was not an umrah. Then Umar, may Allah be pleased with him, did the same. Then Uthman, may Allah be pleased with him, performed hajj, and I saw the first thing he did was thawaf around the Ka'bah, and it was not an umrah. Then Mu'awiyah and Abdullah bin Umar did the same. Then I performed hajj with my father, Az-Zubair bin Al-Awwam, and the first thing he did was thawaf around the Ka'bah, and it was not an umrah. Then I saw the Muhajirin and Ansar doing the same, and it was not an umrah. The last person I saw doing this was Ibn Umar, and he did not change it to an umrah. Here is Ibn Umar among them, yet they do not ask him, nor anyone from those who came before. They did not begin any rite until they set foot for thawaf around the Ka'bah, and they did not release ihram. I saw my mother and aunt, when they arrived, begin with nothing but thawaf around the Ka'bah, and they did not release ihram. My mother informed me that she, her sister, Az-Zubair, and others entered ihram for umrah, and when they touched the Black Stone, they released ihram.

Narrated to us Abu Al-Yaman, informed us Shu'aib from Az-Zuhriy, Sa'dUrwah: I asked Aisyah, may Allah be pleased with her, saying: What do you think of Allah's statement, 'Indeed, Safa and Marwah are among the symbols of Allah, so whoever performs hajj or umrah, there is no blame on him for performing sa'iy between them' (Surah Al-Baqarah, 158)? By Allah, there is no blame on anyone for not performing sa'iy between Safa and Marwah. She said: How terrible is what you Sa'd O son of my sister. If this verse meant as you interpreted it, it would be 'there is no blame on him for not performing sa'iy between them.' But it was revealed concerning the Ansar, who, before embracing Islam, entered ihram for Manat, the idol they worshipped at Al-Mushallal. Those who entered ihram felt it was sinful to perform sa'iy between Safa and Marwah. When they embraced Islam, they asked the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, about it, saying: O Messenger of Allah, we used to consider it sinful to perform sa'iy between Safa and Marwah. So Allah revealed, 'Indeed, Safa and Marwah are among the symbols of Allah.' Aisyah, may Allah be pleased with her, said: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, established sa'iy between them, so no one may abandon it. Then I informed Abu Bakr bin Abdurrahman, and he said: This is knowledge I had not heard before. I heard scholars mention that, except for those Aisyah mentioned who entered ihram for Manat, people performed sa'iy between Safa and Marwah. When Allah mentioned thawaf around the Ka'bah in the Quran but did not mention Safa and Marwah, they said: O Messenger of Allah, we used to perform sa'iy between Safa and Marwah, but Allah mentioned thawaf around the Ka'bah and not Safa. Is there any blame if we perform sa'iy between Safa and Marwah? So Allah revealed, 'Indeed, Safa and Marwah are among the symbols of Allah.' Abu Bakr said: I understand this verse was revealed for both groups: those who considered it sinful to perform sa'iy between Safa and Marwah during the time of ignorance because of Manat, and those who performed it but felt it was sinful in Islam because Allah mentioned thawaf around the Ka'bah and not Safa until He mentioned it after commanding thawaf around the Ka'bah.

Narrated to us Muhammad bin Ubaid bin Maimun, narrated to us Isa bin Yunus from Ubaidullah bin Umar from Nafi, from Ibn Umar, may Allah be pleased with them, said: When the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, performed the first thawaf, he jogged for three circuits and walked for four, and he performed sa'iy at the base of the valley between Safa and Marwah. I asked Nafi,: Did Abdullah walk when he reached the Yamani corner? He said: No, unless he was crowded at the Black Stone, for he would not leave it until he touched it.

Narrated to us Ali bin Abdullah, narrated to us Sufyan from Amru bin Dinar, said: We asked Ibn Umar, may Allah be pleased with them, about a man who performed thawaf around the Ka'bah for umrah but did not perform sa'iy between Safa and Marwah. May he approach his wife? He said: The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, arrived, performed thawaf around the Ka'bah seven times, prayed two rak'ahs behind the Maqam Ibrahim, and performed sa'iy between Safa and Marwah seven times. Indeed, in the Messenger of Allah, you have a good example (Surah Al-Ahzab, 21). We also asked Jabir bin Abdullah, may Allah be pleased with them, and he said: He should not approach her until he performs sa'iy between Safa and Marwah.

Ali arrived from Yemen with a sacrificial animal and said: I entered ihram as the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, did. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, ordered his companions to make it an umrah, perform thawaf, cut their hair, and release ihram, except for those with a sacrificial animal. They said: We head to Mina while some of us are impure. This reached the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and he said: If I could revisit my decision, I would not have brought a sacrificial animal, and if I did not have one, I would have released ihram. Aisyah, may Allah be pleased with her, was menstruating and completed all rites except thawaf around the Ka'bah. When she became pure, she performed thawaf around the Ka'bah. She said: O Messenger of Allah, you depart with hajj and umrah, while I depart with only hajj. So he ordered Abdurrahman bin Abu Bakr to go with her to Tan'im, and she performed umrah after hajj.

A woman arrived and stayed at the palace of Banu Khalaf, and she narrated that her sister was married to a companion of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, who participated in twelve battles with him, and her sister accompanied him in six battles. He said: Let her friend lend her a jilbab so she can witness goodness and the supplication of the believers. When Umm Atiyyah, may Allah be pleased with her, arrived, I met her and asked, or she Sa'd we asked her. She never mentioned the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, without saying, 'By my father.' We said: Did you hear the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, say such and such? She said: Yes, by my father, he said: Let the young girls, those secluded, and those menstruating go out to witness goodness and the supplication of the Muslims, but the menstruating should stay away from the prayer place. I said: Even the menstruating? She said: Do they not attend Arafah and witness this and that?

Narrated to us Farwah bin Abu Al-Maghra?, narrated to us Ali bin Mushir from Hisham bin Urwah, Sa'dUrwah: During the time of ignorance, people performed thawaf around the Ka?bah naked except for the Hums, and the Hums were the Quraysh and their descendants. The Hums distinguished themselves from others; some men provided clothes for men to perform thawaf in, and some women provided clothes for women to perform thawaf in. Those not given clothes by the Hums performed thawaf naked. The masses departed from Arafah, while the Hums departed from Jam? (Muzdalifah). He said: My father informed me from Aisyah, may Allah be pleased with her, that this verse was revealed concerning the Hums: ?Then depart from where the people depart? (Surah Al-Baqarah, 199). Urwah said: They used to depart from Jam?, but they were directed to depart from Arafah.

Narrated to us Abdullah bin Yusuf, informed us Malik from Hisham bin Urwah from his father, said: Usamah was asked while I was sitting with him: How did the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, travel during the Farewell Hajj when he departed from Arafah? He said: He traveled at a moderate pace (anaq), and when he found an open space, he quickened his pace (nash). Hisham said: Nash is faster than anaq. Abu Abdullah Al-Bukhari said: Fajwah means an open plain, its plural is fajawat or fijaa?, like rikwah, whose plural is rikaa?. And manash does not mean running.

(Muzdalifah). He prayed the two prayers, each with its own adhan and iqamah, and ate dinner between them. Then he prayed Fajr when dawn appeared. Some said: Dawn has appeared, while others said: Dawn has not appeared. Then he said: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: These two prayers are shifted from their times in this place: Maghrib and Isha, so people should not arrive in Jam? until they pray Isha, and Fajr at this time. Then he stood until the sky turned yellowish (morning), then said: If the Commander of the Faithful departed now, he would follow the Sunnah. Abdurrahman bin Yazid said: I do not know whether his words were to urge Uthman, may Allah be pleased with him, to hasten or that Uthman departed from there, continuing to recite talbiyah until he threw the Jamrah Aqabah on the Day of Sacrifice.

Then I slept and dreamt that someone was calling out: A blessed Hajj and an accepted mut?ah. I went to Ibn Abbas, may Allah be pleased with them, and told him about it, and he said: Allah is the Greatest, this is the Sunnah of Abu Al-Qasim, peace and blessings be upon him. He said: And Adam, Wahb bin Jarir, and Ghundar from Shubah said: An accepted Umrah and a blessed Hajj.

Narrated to us Yahya bin Bukair, narrated to us Al-Layth from Uqail from Ibn Shihab from Salim bin Abdullah, that Ibn Umar, may Allah be pleased with them, said: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, performed Hajj Tamattu? during the Farewell Hajj, combining Umrah with Hajj and bringing a sacrificial animal. He led his sacrificial animal from Dhul Hulaifah, starting with ihram for Umrah, then ihram for Hajj. The people performed Hajj Tamattu? with the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, combining Umrah with Hajj. Some brought sacrificial animals, while others did not. When the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, arrived in Makkah, he Sa'dto the people: Whoever among you has brought a sacrificial animal, nothing that is forbidden to him becomes permissible until he completes his Hajj. Whoever among you has not brought a sacrificial animal should perform thawaf around the Ka?bah and sa?i between Safa and Marwah, then shorten his hair and perform tahallul. Then he should enter ihram for Hajj. Whoever does not have a sacrificial animal should fast three days during Hajj and seven days upon returning to his family. He performed thawaf upon arriving in Makkah, kissed the Black Stone first, walked quickly for three circuits and normally for four, then prayed two rak?ahs behind the Maqam Ibrahim, greeted, and proceeded to Safa to perform sa?i between Safa and Marwah for seven circuits. He did not perform tahallul from anything forbidden to him until he completed his Hajj, slaughtered his sacrificial animal on the Day of Sacrifice, and performed thawaf around the Ka?bah. Then everything forbidden to him became permissible. Those who brought and led sacrificial animals did as the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, did. And from Urwah, that Aisyah, may Allah be pleased with her, informed him about the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, performing Hajj Tamattu? with Umrah, and the people performed Hajj Tamattu? with him, as Salim reported from Ibn Umar, may Allah be pleased with them, from the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him.

It was Sa'dto him: There is fighting among the people, and we fear they will prevent you. He said: ?Indeed, in the Messenger of Allah you have a good example? (Surah Al-Ahzab, 21). I will do as he did. I bear witness to you that I have made Umrah obligatory upon myself. When he reached the outskirts of Al-Baida?, he said: The matter of Hajj and Umrah is one. I bear witness to you that I have combined Hajj with Umrah and brought a marked sacrificial animal that I bought. He performed thawaf around the Ka?bah and sa?i at Safa, and did no more than that, and did not perform tahallul from anything forbidden until the Day of Sacrifice. He shaved his head, slaughtered, and considered that he had completed the thawaf for Hajj and Umrah with his first thawaf. Then he said: This is what the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, did.

And he (Abu Ishaq) said: I heard Al-Bara' bin 'Azib (may Allah be pleased with them) say: The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) performed 'Umrah in Dhul Qa?dah before he performed Hajj twice.

Narrated by Musaddad, narrated by Yahya from Ibn Juraij from 'Atho', who said: I heard Ibn 'Abbas (may Allah be pleased with them) inform us, saying: The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) Sa'dto a woman from the Ansar, whose name Ibn 'Abbas mentioned but I forgot: What prevented you from performing Hajj with us? She said: We had a camel that was used by the father of so-and-so and his son, meaning her husband and son, and they left a camel for fetching water. He said: When Ramadan comes, perform 'Umrah in it, for an 'Umrah in Ramadan is equivalent to a Hajj, or something close to what he said.

He Sa'dto us: Whoever among you wishes to enter ihram for Hajj, let him do so, and whoever wishes to enter ihram for 'Umrah, let him do so. Had I not brought a sacrificial animal, I would have entered ihram for 'Umrah. She said: Some of us entered ihram for 'Umrah, and some for Hajj, and I was among those who entered ihram for 'Umrah. When the Day of 'Arafah came, I was menstruating, and I complained about it to the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him). He said: Abandon your 'Umrah, undo your hair, comb it, and enter ihram for Hajj. On the night of Al-Hasbah, he sent 'Abdurrahman with me to At-Tan?im, and I entered ihram for 'Umrah in place of my previous 'Umrah.

Narrated by Muhammad bin Al-Mutsanna, narrated by 'Abdul Wahhab bin 'Abdul Majid from Habib Al-Mu?allim from 'Atho', who narrated that Jabir bin 'Abdullah (may Allah be pleased with them) said: The Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) and his companions entered ihram for Hajj, and none of them had a sacrificial animal except the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) and Talhah. 'Ali came from Yemen with a sacrificial animal and said: I entered ihram as the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) did. The Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) permitted his companions to make it an 'Umrah, to circumambulate the Ka?bah, then shorten their hair and exit ihram, except for those with a sacrificial animal. They said: We set out for Mina, and some of us mentioned withdrawing. This reached the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him), and he said: If I could revisit my decision, I would not have brought a sacrificial animal. Had I not brought the sacrificial animal, I would have exited ihram. 'Aisyah (may Allah be pleased with her) menstruated and performed all the rituals except circumambulating the Ka?bah. When she became pure and circumambulated, she said: O Messenger of Allah, will you depart with both Hajj and 'Umrah while I depart with only Hajj? He ordered 'Abdurrahman bin Abu Bakr to go with her to At-Tan?im, and she performed 'Umrah after Hajj in Dhul Hijjah. Suraqah bin Malik bin Ju?sham met the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) at Al-?Aqabah while he was throwing pebbles and asked: Is this only for you, O Messenger of Allah? He replied: No, it is forever.

Narrated by Abu Nu'aim, narrated by Aflah bin Humaid from Al-Qasim from 'Aisyah (may Allah be pleased with her), who said: We set out with the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) entering ihram for Hajj during the months of Hajj and the sanctity of Hajj. We stopped at Sarif, and the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) Sa'dto his companions: Whoever does not have a sacrificial animal and wishes to make it an 'Umrah, let him do so, and whoever has a sacrificial animal, let him not. The Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) and some of his strong companions had sacrificial animals, so they did not perform 'Umrah. The Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) came to me while I was crying and said: What makes you cry? I said: I heard what you Sa'dto your companions, and I am prevented from performing 'Umrah. He said: What is the matter with you? I said: I am not praying. He said: It does not harm you; you are among the daughters of Adam, and what is decreed for them is decreed for you. Perform your Hajj, and perhaps Allah will grant you it. I continued until we departed from Mina and stopped at Al-Muhassab. He called 'Abdurrahman and said: Take your sister out of the sacred precinct and let her enter ihram for 'Umrah, then complete your circumambulation. I will wait for you here. We came at midnight, and he said: Are you done? I said: Yes. He announced the departure to his companions, and the people departed. Those who circumambulated the Ka?bah before the morning prayer then set out for Madinah.

Narrated by Abu Nu'aim, narrated by Hammam, narrated by 'Atho', who said: Safwan bin Ya?la bin Umayyah narrated from his father that a man came to the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) at Al-Ji?ranah wearing a jubba (robe) with traces of perfume or yellow dye on it and said: How should I perform my 'Umrah? Allah revealed a revelation to the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him), and he was covered with a cloth. Ya?la bin Umayyah said: I wished I could see the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) while receiving revelation. 'Umar said: Come, would it please you to see the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) while Allah reveals to him? I said: Yes. He lifted the edge of the cloth, and I saw him with a snoring sound, and I think he said: Like the snoring of a young camel. When the revelation ceased, he said: Where is the one asking about 'Umrah? Remove your jubba, wash off the traces of perfume and yellow dye, and perform in your 'Umrah as you would in your Hajj.

Narrated by 'Abdullah bin Yusuf, narrated by Malik from Hisham bin 'Urwah from his father, who said: I Sa'dto 'Aisyah (may Allah be pleased with her), the wife of the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him), when I was young: What do you think of Allah?s statement (Al-Baqarah 158): ?Indeed, As-Safa and Al-Marwah are among the symbols of Allah. Whoever performs Hajj to the House or performs 'Umrah, there is no blame on him for circumambulating them?? I think there is no harm if someone does not circumambulate them. 'Aisyah said: No, if it were as you say, it would be: ?There is no blame on him if he does not circumambulate them.? This verse was revealed about the Ansar, who used to enter ihram for Manat, which was near Qudaid, and they felt reluctant to circumambulate between As-Safa and Al-Marwah. When Islam came, they asked the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) about it, and Allah revealed: ?Indeed, As-Safa and Al-Marwah are among the symbols of Allah. Whoever performs Hajj to the House or performs 'Umrah, there is no blame on him for circumambulating them.? Sufyan and Abu Mu?awiyah added from Hisham: Allah does not accept the Hajj or 'Umrah of a person who does not circumambulate between As-Safa and Al-Marwah.

When he entered Makkah, he circumambulated, and we circumambulated with him, and he went to As-Safa and Al-Marwah, and we went with him. We were protecting him from the people of Makkah so that no one would throw stones at him. A companion of mine asked him: Did he enter the Ka?bah? He said: No. He said: Tell us what he Sa'dabout Khadijah (may Allah be pleased with her). He said: Give glad tidings to Khadijah of a house in Paradise made of pearls, with no noise or hardship.

So I circumambulated the Ka?bah and performed sa?iy between As-Safa and Al-Marwah. Then I went to a woman from Banu Qais, and she deloused my head. Then I entered ihram for Hajj. I continued to give fatwas about this until the caliphate of 'Umar (may Allah be pleased with him), who said: If we follow the Book of Allah, it commands us to complete it, and if we follow the saying of the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him), he did not exit ihram until the sacrificial animal reached its place.

Then a man from the Ansar came and entered through the front door, as if he was criticized for it. So, the verse was revealed (Al-Baqarah 189): 'And it is not righteousness to enter houses from the back, but righteousness is [in] one who fears Allah. And enter houses through their doors.'

He said: We set out with the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him), and the disbelievers of Quraish prevented us from reaching the House. The Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) slaughtered his sacrificial animal and shaved his head. If I am allowed to reach the House, I will perform tawaf, but if I am prevented, I will do as the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) did when I was with him. So, he entered ihram for 'Umrah from Dhul Hulaifah, then traveled for a while and said: The matter of both (Hajj and 'Umrah) is one. I bear witness to you that I have made Hajj obligatory along with my 'Umrah. He did not exit ihram from either until he exited on the Day of Sacrifice after slaughtering his sacrificial animal. He said: He did not exit ihram until he performed one tawaf on the day he entered Makkah. Narrated by Musa bin Isma'il, narrated by Abu 'Awanah, narrated by 'Utsman, son of Mawhab, who said: 'Abdullah bin Abu Qatadah informed me that his father informed him that the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) set out for Hajj, and they went with him. He diverted a group of them, including Abu Qatadah, and said: Take the coast of the sea until we meet. So, they took the sea coast. When they were about to depart, all of them entered ihram except Abu Qatadah, who did not. While they were traveling, they saw wild donkeys. Abu Qatadah attacked them and slaughtered a female donkey. They stopped and ate its meat. They said: Can we eat the meat of game while we are in ihram? We carried the remaining meat of the female donkey. When they reached the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him), they said: O Messenger of Allah, we were in ihram, but Abu Qatadah was not. We saw wild donkeys, and Abu Qatadah attacked them and slaughtered a female donkey. We stopped and ate its meat, then said: Can we eat the meat of game while we are in ihram? We brought the remaining meat. He said: Did any of you order him to attack it or point to it? They said: No. He said: Then eat the remaining meat.

My ears heard it, my heart comprehended it, and my eyes saw him when he spoke it. He praised Allah and glorified Him, then said: Indeed, Allah has sanctified Mecca, and it was not sanctified by people. Thus, it is not permissible for anyone who believes in Allah and the Last Day to shed blood in it or to cut down its trees. If anyone seeks permission to fight in it as the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) did, say to them: Allah permitted His Messenger, but He did not permit you. Indeed, it was permitted for me only for a short time during the day, and its sanctity has been restored today as it was yesterday. Let the one present convey to the one absent.' It was asked of Abu Shuraih: 'What did 'Amr say to you?' He said: 'I know better than you, O Abu Shuraih. Indeed, the sacred precinct does not give refuge to a sinner, a murderer, or a thief.'

When you are called to fight, go forth. Indeed, this is a land that Allah sanctified on the day He created the heavens and the earth, and it remains sacred by Allah?s sanctity until the Day of Resurrection. Fighting in it was not lawful for anyone before me, nor was it lawful for me except for a short time during the day. It is sacred by Allah?s sanctity until the Day of Resurrection. Its thorns must not be cut, its game must not be disturbed, its lost items must not be picked up except by one who will announce them, and its grass must not be uprooted.' Al-'Abbas said: 'O Messenger of Allah, except for the idhkhir plant, for it is used in their smithing and houses.' He said: 'Except for the idhkhir.'

When Abu Bakr was overcome with fever, he would recite: 'Every person wakes in the morning with his family, yet death is closer than the strap of his sandal.' And when Bilal recovered from his fever, he would raise his voice, reciting: 'Would that I knew if I could spend a night in a valley surrounded by idhkhir and jalil plants. Will I ever reach the waters of Majannah? Will the hills of Shamah and Tufail appear to me?' He Sa'd 'O Allah, curse Shaybah bin Rabi'ah, 'Utbah bin Rabi'ah, and Umayyah bin Khalaf, as they expelled us from our land to a land of pestilence.' Then the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) Sa'd 'O Allah, make us love Medina as we love Mecca or even more. O Allah, bless our measures of sa' and mud, make it healthy for us, and transfer its fever to Juhfah.' She Sa'd 'We arrived in Medina when it was the most plague-ridden land of Allah.' She added, 'The valley of Buthan flowed with stagnant, disease-carrying water.'

Once, Qais bin Shirmah Al Anshariy was fasting, and when the time for breaking the fast came, he went to his wife and said: 'Do you have any food?' She said: 'No, but I will go and seek some for you.' That day, he had worked hard and fell asleep. His wife came, and seeing him asleep, she said: 'What a loss for you.' At midday, he fainted. This was mentioned to the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him), and this verse was revealed: 'It is made lawful for you to approach your wives on the night of the fast' (Qur'an, Al-Baqarah 2:187). They were overjoyed, and then came: 'And eat and drink until the white thread becomes distinct to you from the black thread at dawn.'

Narrated to me 'Abdul 'Aziz bin 'Abdullah, narrated to me Muhammad bin Ja'far, from Humaid, that he heard Anas (may Allah be pleased with him) say: The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) would not fast in a month so much that we thought he would not fast at all, and he would fast so much that we thought he would never break his fast. If you wanted to see him praying at night, you would see him, and if you wanted to see him sleeping, you would see him. Sulaiman Sa'd from Humaid, that he asked Anas about fasting.

UNITING THE TARAWIH PRAYERS INTO ONE JAMA'AH IS A GOOD BID'AH
Hadith Imam Bukhari Number 1871

وَعَنْ ابْنِ شِهَابٍ عَنْ عُرْوَةَ بْنِ الزُّبَيْرِ عَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ عَبْدٍ الْقَارِيِّ أَنَّهُ قَالخَرَجْتُ مَعَ عُمَرَ بْنِ الْخَطَّابِ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ لَيْلَةً فِي رَمَضَانَ إِلَى الْمَسْجِدِ فَإِذَا النَّاسُ أَوْزَاعٌ مُتَفَرِّقُونَ يُصَلِّي الرَّجُلُ لِنَفْسِهِ وَيُصَلِّي الرَّجُلُ فَيُصَلِّي بِصَلَاتِهِ الرَّهْطُ فَقَالَ عُمَرُ إِنِّي أَرَى لَوْ جَمَعْتُ هَؤُلَاءِ عَلَى قَارِئٍ وَاحِدٍ لَكَانَ أَمْثَلَ ثُمَّ عَزَمَ فَجَمَعَهُمْ عَلَى أُبَيِّ بْنِ كَعْبٍ ثُمَّ خَرَجْتُ مَعَهُ لَيْلَةً أُخْرَى وَالنَّاسُ يُصَلُّونَ بِصَلَاةِ قَارِئِهِمْ قَالَ عُمَرُ نِعْمَ الْبِدْعَةُ هَذِهِ وَالَّتِي يَنَامُونَ عَنْهَا أَفْضَلُ مِنْ الَّتِي يَقُومُونَ يُرِيدُ آخِرَ اللَّيْلِ وَكَانَ النَّاسُ يَقُومُونَ أَوَّلَهُ

And from Ibn Shihab, from 'Urwah bin az-Zubair, from 'Abdurrahman bin 'Abdul Qari, he said: I went out with 'Umar bin al-Khattab (may Allah be pleased with him) one night in Ramadan to the mosque, and the people were praying in scattered groups; some prayed alone, and some led a small group in prayer. 'Umar Sa'd 'I think if I gathered them under one reciter, it would be better.' Then he decided and gathered them under Ubayy bin Ka'b. I went out with him another night, and the people were praying with their reciter. 'Umar Sa'd

'This is an excellent innovation, and those who sleep first are better than those who pray early in the night,' meaning to pray at the end of the night, while people generally prayed at the beginning.

Narrated to us Yahya bin Bukair, narrated to us al-Laith, from 'Uqail, from Ibn Shihab, informed me 'Urwah, that 'Aishah (may Allah be pleased with her) informed him: The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) went out one night in the middle of the night and prayed in the mosque, and some men prayed with him. In the morning, people talked about it, so more gathered and prayed with him. The next morning, people talked about it again, and on the third night, the mosque was crowded with people. The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) went out and prayed, and they prayed with him. On the fourth night, the mosque could not accommodate the people, but he only came out for the Fajr prayer. After completing Fajr, he turned to the people, recited the testimony, and Sa'd 'To proceed, your presence was not hidden from me, but I feared it would be made obligatory upon you, and you would be unable to bear it.' The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) passed away, and the matter remained as such.

Seek it in the last ten nights, on the odd nights. I saw myself prostrating in water and mud." Those who performed i'tikaf with the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) returned. We saw no clouds in the sky, but then a cloud came and it rained until the mosque?s roof, made of palm branches, leaked. Narrated to us Ibrahim bin Hamzah, from Ibn Abu Hazim and Ad-Darawardiy, from Yazid bin Al-Had, from Muhammad bin Ibrahim, from Abu Salamah, from Abu Sa'id Al-Khudriy (may Allah be pleased with him): The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) performed i'tikaf during the middle ten nights of Ramadan. When the twentieth night passed and the twenty-first began, he returned to his place of i'tikaf, as did those who were with him. On the night he resumed i'tikaf, he gave a sermon and Sa'd 'I performed i'tikaf in the first ten nights, then it was shown to me to perform it in the last ten. Whoever was in i'tikaf with me should remain in his place. I was shown this night (Lailatul Qadar), but I was made to forget its exact time. Seek it in the last ten nights, on the odd nights. I saw myself prostrating in water and mud.' The sky became cloudy that night, it rained, and the mosque leaked at the Prophet?s prayer place on the twenty-first night. I saw the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) after the dawn prayer with his face covered in mud and water.

On the morning of the twentieth, he gave a sermon and Sa'd "I was shown Lailatul Qadar, but I was made to forget its exact time. Seek it in the last ten nights, on the odd nights. I saw myself prostrating in water and mud." Whoever performed i'tikaf with the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) returned to the mosque. We saw no clouds in the sky, but then a cloud came, and it rained. The prayer was established, and the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) prostrated in mud and water, and I saw traces of mud on his nose and forehead.'

Narrated to us Abu Al-Yaman, narrated to us Shu'aib, from Az-Zuhriy, he Sa'd informed me Sa'id bin Al-Musayyab and Abu Salamah bin 'Abdurrahman, that Abu Hurairah (may Allah be pleased with him) Sa'd 'You say that Abu Hurairah narrates many hadiths from the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), and you say, "Why don?t the Muhajirun and Ansar narrate as much as Abu Hurairah?" My brothers from the Muhajirun were busy trading in the markets, while I stayed with the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) on a full stomach, so I was present when they were absent and remembered when they forgot. My brothers from the Ansar were busy with their properties, while I was a poor man from the people of As-Suffah, so I remembered when they forgot. The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) Sa'din a hadith he narrated, "Whoever spreads his cloth until I finish this speech and then gathers it to his chest will not forget what I say." So I spread my striped cloth until the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) finished his speech, then I gathered it to my chest, and I did not forget anything from that speech of the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him).'

And Al Humaidi narrated to us, narrated to us Sufyan, narrated to us 'Amru from Ibn 'Umar (may Allah be pleased with them), he said: 'We were with the Prophet (peace be upon him) on a journey, and I was on a wild young camel belonging to 'Umar. It kept overtaking me, going ahead of the people. 'Umar would rebuke it and bring it back, but it would go ahead again, and 'Umar would rebuke it and bring it back. The Prophet (peace be upon him) Sa'dto 'Umar, "Sell it to me." He Sa'd "It is yours, O Messenger of Allah." He Sa'd "Sell it to me." So 'Umar sold it to the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him). The Prophet (peace be upon him) Sa'd "It is yours, O 'Abdullah bin 'Umar, do with it as you wish." Abu 'Abdullah Al Bukhari Sa'd and Al Laits Sa'd narrated to me 'Abdurrahman bin Khalid from Ibn Shihab from Salim bin 'Abdullah from 'Abdullah bin 'Umar (may Allah be pleased with them), he said: 'I sold to the Commander of the Faithful, 'Uthman bin 'Affan, property in a valley for his property in Khaibar. After we conducted the sale, I turned back on my heels and left his house, fearing he might cancel the sale, as it was the Sunnah that the two parties in a sale have the option until they part. 'Abdullah Sa'd "When my sale and his were binding, I realized I had wronged him, as I had brought him to the land of Thamud in three nights, while he brought me to Madinah in three nights."'

REWARDS OF CONGREGATIONAL PRAYERS IN THE MOSQUE AND PRAYERS OF ANGELS
Hadith Imam Bukhari Number 1976

حَدَّثَنَا قُتَيْبَةُ حَدَّثَنَا جَرِيرٌ عَنْ الْأَعْمَشِ عَنْ أَبِي صَالِحٍ عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ قَالَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ صَلَاةُ أَحَدِكُمْ فِي جَمَاعَةٍ تَزِيدُ عَلَى صَلَاتِهِ فِي سُوقِهِ وَبَيْتِهِ بِضْعًا وَعِشْرِينَ دَرَجَةً وَذَلِكَ بِأَنَّهُ إِذَا تَوَضَّأَ فَأَحْسَنَ الْوُضُوءَ ثُمَّ أَتَى الْمَسْجِدَ لَا يُرِيدُ إِلَّا الصَّلَاةَ لَا يَنْهَزُهُ إِلَّا الصَّلَاةُ لَمْ يَخْطُ خَطْوَةً إِلَّا رُفِعَ بِهَا دَرَجَةً أَوْ حُطَّتْ عَنْهُ بِهَا خَطِيئَةٌ وَالْمَلَائِكَةُ تُصَلِّي عَلَى أَحَدِكُمْ مَا دَامَ فِي مُصَلَّاهُ الَّذِي يُصَلِّي فِيهِ اللَّهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلَيْهِ اللَّهُمَّ ارْحَمْهُ مَا لَمْ يُحْدِثْ فِيهِ مَا لَمْ يُؤْذِ فِيهِ وَقَالَ أَحَدُكُمْ فِي صَلَاةٍ مَا كَانَتْ الصَّلَاةُ تَحْبِسُهُ

Narrated to us Qutaibah, narrated to us Jarir from Al A'mash from Abu Salih from Abu Hurairah (may Allah be pleased with him), he said: The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: 'The prayer of one of you in congregation surpasses his prayer in the market or his house by more than twenty degrees. This is because when he performs ablution perfectly and then goes to the mosque intending only to pray, driven only by the prayer, not a single step he takes but it raises him a degree or erases a sin. The angels pray for one of you as long as he remains in his place of prayer where he prays, saying, "O Allah, send blessings upon him, O Allah, have mercy on him," as long as he does not break his ablution or cause harm there. And he said: "One of you is considered in prayer as long as the prayer detains him."'

It is mentioned from Abu Salih, Mujahid, Al-Walid bin Rabah, and Musa bin Yasar, from Abu Hurairah, from the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him: a sa' of dates. Some of them Sa'd from Ibn Sirin: a sa' of food, and he has the option for three days. I said: If your masters agree that I pay it for them and your patronage belongs to me, I will do it. Barirah went to her masters and told them, but they refused unless the patronage remained theirs. She came back from them while the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him was sitting. She said: I offered it to them, but they refused unless the patronage remained theirs. The Prophet peace and blessings be upon him heard, and Aishah informed the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him. He said: Take her and stipulate the patronage for them, for the patronage belongs to the one who frees. Aishah did so. Then the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him stood among the people, praised Allah, and said: What is wrong with men who stipulate conditions not in the Book of Allah? Any condition not in the Book of Allah is invalid, even if it is a hundred conditions. The decree of Allah is more rightful, and the condition of Allah is more binding. The patronage belongs to the one who frees.

He said: Some of them Sa'dto the others: Call upon Allah with the best deed you have done. One of them said: O Allah, I had two elderly parents. I would go out to graze, then come back and milk, bringing the milk to my parents to drink, then I would give it to my children, my family, and my wife. One night I was delayed, and when I came, they were asleep. I disliked waking them, and my children were crying at my feet. This was my habit and theirs until dawn. O Allah, if You know that I did this seeking Your pleasure, open a gap for us to see the sky. He said: A gap was opened for them. Another said: O Allah, You know that I loved a woman, my cousin, as much as a man can love a woman. She said: You will not have her unless you give her one hundred dinars. I worked for it until I gathered it. When I sat between her legs, she said: Fear Allah and do not break the seal except rightfully. So I stood up and left her. If You know that I did this seeking Your pleasure, open a gap for us. He said: Two-thirds of the rock was removed. The other said: O Allah, You know that I hired a worker for a measure of grain, and I gave it to him, but he refused to take it. I cultivated that grain until I bought cows and their shepherd with it. Then he came and said: O servant of Allah, give me my right. I said: Go to those cows and their shepherd; they are yours. He said: Are you mocking me? I said: I am not mocking you, but they are yours. O Allah, if You know that I did this seeking Your pleasure, open a gap for us. Then the rock was fully removed, and they were freed.

It was said: Abraham has come with one of the most beautiful women. He was sent for and asked: O Abraham, who is this woman with you? He said: My sister. Then he returned to her and said: Do not contradict my words, for I told them you are my sister. By Allah, there are no believers on earth except you and me. So she was sent to him. She stood to perform ablution and pray, saying: O Allah, if I have believed in You and Your Messenger and preserved my chastity except for my husband, do not let this disbeliever overpower me. He was seized until he kicked with his foot. Al-A'raj Sa'd Abu Salamah bin Abdurrahman Sa'd Abu Hurairah said: She said: O Allah, if he dies, it will be Sa'dshe killed him. So he was released. Then he approached her again, and she stood to perform ablution and pray, saying: O Allah, if I have believed in You and Your Messenger and preserved my chastity except for my husband, do not let this disbeliever overpower me. He was seized until he kicked with his foot. Abdurrahman Sa'd Abu Salamah Sa'd Abu Hurairah said: She said: O Allah, if he dies, it will be Sa'dshe killed him. So he was released on the second or third time. He said: By Allah, you have brought me nothing but a devil. Return her to Abraham and give her a reward. She returned to Abraham (peace be upon him) and said: Do you realize that Allah has humiliated the disbeliever and made him a servant?

Narrated to us Ya'qub bin Ibrahim, narrated to us Isma'il bin 'Ulayyah, informed us Ibn Juraij, he Sa'd informed me 'Ata, from Safwan bin Ya'la, from Ya'la bin Umayyah (may Allah be pleased with him), he said: I participated in the expedition of hardship (Tabuk) with the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him), and it was one of my most cherished deeds. I had a hired worker who fought with someone, and one of them bit the other's finger, causing it to be pulled out and a tooth to fall. He went to the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him), who dismissed the case of the tooth and Sa'd 'Would he leave his finger in your mouth for you to bite it?' He Sa'd I think he Sa'd 'Like a stallion bites.' Ibn Juraij Sa'd and narrated to me 'Abdullah bin Abi Mulaykah, from his grandfather, with a similar account, that a man bit another man's hand, and his tooth was dislodged, and Abu Bakr (may Allah be pleased with him) dismissed it.

They worked for him until midday, then Sa'd "We have no need for the wage you stipulated for us, and what we have done is in vain." He Sa'dto them, "Do not do that; complete the rest of your work and take your wage in full." They refused and left. He hired two workers after them and Sa'dto them, "Complete the rest of this day, and you will have the wage I stipulated for them." They worked until the time of the 'Asr prayer, then Sa'd "What we have done is in vain, and you keep the wage you set for us." He Sa'dto them, "Complete the rest of your work; what remains of the day is little." They refused. He hired people to work for him for the rest of their day, and they worked until the sun set, and they received the full wage of both groups. That is their example and the example of those who accepted this light.'

Narrated to us Abu al-Yaman, informed us Shu'aib, from az-Zuhri, narrated to me Salim bin 'Abdullah, that 'Abdullah bin 'Umar (may Allah be pleased with them) said: I heard the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) say: 'Three men from those before you set out until they sought shelter in a cave and entered it. A rock fell from the mountain and blocked the cave. They Sa'd "Nothing will save you from this rock except that you call upon Allah with your righteous deeds." One of them Sa'd "O Allah, I had two elderly parents, and I never provided milk to anyone or anything before them. One day, I was delayed seeking something and did not return to them until they were asleep. I milked their evening drink and found them asleep. I disliked providing milk to anyone or anything before them, so I waited with the bowl in my hands for them to wake until dawn broke. They woke and drank their evening drink. O Allah, if I did that seeking Your face, then relieve us from this rock." The rock shifted slightly, but they could not exit. The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) said: Another Sa'd "O Allah, I had a cousin who was the dearest person to me. I wanted her, but she refused me until a year of hardship struck her. She came to me, and I gave her one hundred and twenty dinars on condition that she yield herself to me. She did so, but when I was about to have her, she Sa'd 'I do not permit you to break the seal except by its right.' I refrained from her, though she was the dearest to me, and I left the gold I had given her. O Allah, if I did that seeking Your face, then relieve us from this." The rock shifted further, but they still could not exit. The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) said: The third Sa'd "O Allah, I hired workers and paid them their wages except for one man who left what was due to him and went away. I invested his wage, and it multiplied into great wealth. After some time, he came to me and Sa'd 'O servant of Allah, pay me my wage.' I Sa'd 'All that you see is from your wage: the camels, cattle, sheep, and slaves.' He Sa'd 'O servant of Allah, do not mock me.' I Sa'd 'I am not mocking you.' He took it all and drove it away, leaving nothing. O Allah, if I did that seeking Your face, then relieve us from this." The rock opened, and they walked out.'

Narrated to us Abu an-Nu'man, narrated to us Abu 'Awanah, from Abu Bishr, from Abu al-

Mutawakkil, from Abu Sa'id (may Allah be pleased with him), he said: A group of the Prophet?s companions (peace and blessings be upon him) set out on a journey and stayed with an Arab tribe. They sought their hospitality, but the tribe refused to host them. The tribe?s leader was stung, and they tried everything to treat him, but nothing worked. Some of them Sa'd 'Why don?t you go to those people who are staying here? Perhaps some of them have something.' They went to them and Sa'd 'O people, our leader has been stung, and we have tried everything, but it hasn?t helped. Does any of you have something?' One of them Sa'd 'Yes, by Allah, I can perform ruqyah (healing recitation), but by Allah, we sought your hospitality, and you refused us. I will not perform it until you set a payment for us.' They agreed on a number of sheep. He went, spat on the leader, and recited, 'All praise is due to Allah, Lord of the worlds' (Al-Fatihah). It was as if the leader was released from a rope; he stood up and walked, fully recovered. They paid them the agreed-upon payment. Some Sa'd 'Divide it.' The one who performed the ruqyah Sa'd 'Do not do that until we reach the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) and tell him what happened, and see what he orders us.' They came to the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) and told him. He Sa'd 'How did you know it was a ruqyah?' Then he Sa'd 'You have done right. Divide it and assign a share for me with you.' The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) laughed. Abu 'Abdullah al-Bukhari Sa'd and Shubah Sa'd narrated to us Abu Bishr, I heard Abu al-Mutawakkil with this.

Narrated to us Yahya bin Bukair, narrated to us Al-Laith, from 'Uqail, Ibn Shihab Sa'd 'Urwah bin Az-Zubair informed me that 'Aishah (may Allah be pleased with her), the wife of the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him), said: 'I never knew my parents except that they followed the religion.' Abu Salih Sa'd narrated to me 'Abdullah, from Yunus, from Az-Zuhri, he Sa'd 'Urwah bin Az-Zubair informed me that 'Aishah (may Allah be pleased with her) said: 'I never knew my parents except that they followed the religion, and not a day passed without the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) visiting us at both ends of the day, morning and evening. When the Muslims were tested, Abu Bakr set out to migrate to Abyssinia until he reached Bark Al-Ghimad, where he met Ibn Ad-Daghinah, the leader of the Qarah tribe. He Sa'd 'Where are you going, O Abu Bakr?' Abu Bakr Sa'd 'My people have expelled me, so I want to wander the earth and worship my Lord.' Ibn Ad-Daghinah Sa'd 'A man like you should neither leave nor be expelled, for you provide for the destitute, maintain kinship ties, bear burdens, honor guests, and help in matters of truth. I will be your protector. Return and worship your Lord in your land.' Ibn Ad-Daghinah set out and returned with Abu Bakr, then went to the nobles of the Quraysh disbelievers and Sa'dto them, 'A man like Abu Bakr should neither leave nor be expelled. Do you expel a man who provides for the destitute, maintains kinship ties, bears burdens, honors guests, and helps in matters of truth?' The Quraysh accepted Ibn Ad-Daghinah?s protection and granted safety to Abu Bakr. They Sa'dto Ibn Ad-Daghinah, 'Order Abu Bakr to worship his Lord in his house, pray, and read what he wishes, but not to harm us with it or do it openly, for we fear he may influence our children and women.' Ibn Ad-Daghinah conveyed this to Abu Bakr. So Abu Bakr worshipped his Lord in his house and did not pray or recite openly outside his house. Then it occurred to Abu Bakr to build a mosque in the courtyard of his house, where he prayed and recited the Qur'an. The women and children of the polytheists gathered around him, amazed and watching him. Abu Bakr was a man who wept and could not hold back his tears when reciting the Qur'an. This alarmed the nobles of the Quraysh polytheists, and they sent for Ibn Ad-Daghinah. When he came to them, they Sa'd 'We granted Abu Bakr protection on the condition that he worship his Lord in his house, but he has exceeded that by building a mosque in his courtyard and openly praying and reciting. We fear he may influence our children and women. Go to him; if he agrees to worship his Lord in his house, let him do so, but if he insists on doing it openly, ask him to return your protection, for we dislike breaking your trust, but we do not consent to Abu Bakr doing it openly.' 'Aishah said: Ibn Ad-Daghinah came to Abu Bakr and Sa'd 'You know the terms on which I granted you protection. Either adhere to them or return my protection, for I do not want the Arabs to hear that I failed a man I made a pact with.' Abu Bakr Sa'd 'I return your protection to you and am content with the protection of Allah and His Messenger.' At that time, the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) was in Mecca. He Sa'd 'I have been shown the place of your migration; I saw a land with palm trees between two lava fields.' So those who migrated went to Medina when the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) mentioned this. Some who had migrated to Abyssinia returned to Medina. Abu Bakr prepared to migrate, and the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) Sa'dto him, 'Take it slowly, for I hope I will be permitted.' Abu Bakr Sa'd 'Do you hope for that, may my father be your ransom?' He Sa'd 'Yes.' So Abu Bakr held himself back to accompany the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) and fed two mounts he had with acacia leaves for four months.

Narrated to us 'Abdul 'Aziz bin 'Abdullah, narrated to me Yusuf bin Al-Majishun, from Salih bin Ibrahim bin 'Abdurrahman bin 'Auf, from his father, from his grandfather 'Abdurrahman bin 'Auf (may Allah be pleased with him), he said: I wrote to Umayyah bin Khalaf that he should protect me in my affairs in Mecca, and I would protect him in his affairs in Medina. When I mentioned Ar-Rahman, he Sa'd 'I do not know Ar-Rahman. Write to me with your name from the time of ignorance.' So I wrote to him as 'Abd 'Amr. On the day of Badr, I went to a mountain to protect him while people slept. Bilal saw him and went to a gathering of the Ansar, saying, 'Umayyah bin Khalaf! I will not be safe if Umayyah is safe.' A group of the Ansar followed us. When I feared they would catch us, I left his son to occupy them, but they killed him. They refused to stop until they followed us. He was a heavy man, and when they caught up to us, I Sa'dto him, 'Kneel.' He knelt, and I threw myself over him to protect him, but they pierced him with swords from beneath me until they killed him, and one of them struck my foot with his sword. 'Abdurrahman bin 'Auf showed us that mark on the back of his foot. Abu 'Abdullah Sa'd Yusuf heard Salih, and Ibrahim his father.

Narrated to us Sulaiman bin Harb, narrated to us Shubah, from Salamah bin Kuhail, I heard Abu Salamah bin 'Abdurrahman, from Abu Hurairah (may Allah be pleased with him), that a man came to the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) to claim a debt and spoke harshly. His companions were about to intervene, but the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) Sa'd 'Leave him, for the one with a right has a say.' Then he Sa'd

'Give him a camel of the same age.' They Sa'd 'O Messenger of Allah, there is only one older than his.' He Sa'd 'Give it to him, for the best of you are those who fulfill their obligations best.'

Narrated to us Sa'id bin 'Ufair, narrated to me Al-Laith, narrated to me 'Uqail, from Ibn Shihab, he Sa'd 'Urwah claimed that Marwan bin Al-Hakam and Al-Miswar bin Makhramah informed him that the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) stood when a delegation from Hawazin came as Muslims and asked him to return their wealth and captives. The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) Sa'dto them, 'The speech I love most is the most truthful. Choose one of the two: either the captives or the wealth. I have delayed for them.' The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) had waited for them for about ten nights after returning from Ta'if. When it became clear to them that the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) would only return one of the two, they Sa'd 'We choose our captives.' The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) stood among the Muslims, praised Allah as He deserves, then Sa'd 'To proceed: Your brothers have come to us repentant, and I have decided to return their captives. Whoever among you wishes to do good by this, let him do so, and whoever wishes to keep his share until we give him from the first spoils Allah grants us, let him do so.' The people Sa'd 'We willingly give them to the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him).' He Sa'd 'We do not know who among you has permitted this and who has not. Return so your leaders can inform us of your decision.' The people returned, their leaders spoke to them, and they came back to the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) and informed him that they had agreed and permitted.

The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) passed by me and Sa'd 'Who is this?' I Sa'd 'Jabir bin 'Abdullah.' He Sa'd 'What?s wrong with you?' I Sa'd 'I?m on a slow camel.' He Sa'd 'Do you have a stick?' I Sa'd 'Yes.' He Sa'd 'Give it to me.' I gave it to him, and he struck the camel and urged it, and from that point, it was at the front of the group. He Sa'd 'Sell it to me.' I Sa'd 'No, it?s yours, O Messenger of Allah.' He Sa'd 'Sell it to me. I?ve bought it for four dinars, and you can ride it to Medina.' When we approached Medina, I started to leave. He Sa'd 'Where are you going?' I Sa'd 'I?ve married a woman who was previously married.' He Sa'd 'Why not a young girl to play with and who plays with you?' I Sa'd 'My father passed away and left daughters, so I wanted to marry a woman experienced in household matters.'

He Sa'd 'That?s fine.' When we arrived in Medina, he Sa'd 'O Bilal, pay him and add more.' He gave him four dinars and added a qirat. Jabir Sa'd 'The addition from the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) will never leave me.' The qirat never left Jabir bin 'Abdullah?s pouch.

A rock fell over the mouth of their cave, trapping them. Some of them Sa'dto the others, "Look at the righteous deeds you did for Allah and pray with them; perhaps Allah will open it for you." One of them Sa'd "O Allah, I had two elderly parents and young children for whom I tended livestock. When I returned to them, I milked and began by giving to my parents before my children. One day I was delayed until evening and found them asleep. I milked as usual and stood by their heads, unwilling to wake them or give to the children, while the children were crying at my feet until dawn. If You know I did this seeking Your pleasure, open a gap for us to see the sky." So Allah opened it, and they saw the sky. Another Sa'd "O Allah, I had a cousin whom I loved as much as a man loves a woman. I sought her, but she refused me until I brought her a hundred dinars. When I sat between her legs, she Sa'd 'O servant of Allah, fear Allah and do not break the seal except by its right.' So I stood up. If You know I did this seeking Your pleasure, open a gap for us." So it was opened. The third Sa'd "O Allah, I hired a worker for a measure of rice. When he finished his work, he Sa'd 'Give me my right.' I offered it to him, but he refused it. I kept planting it until I gathered cattle and their shepherd from it. He came to me and Sa'd 'Fear Allah.' I Sa'd 'Go to those cattle and their shepherd and take them.' He Sa'd 'Fear Allah and do not mock me.' I Sa'd 'I am not mocking you; take them.' So he took them. If You know I did this seeking Your pleasure, open what remains." So Allah opened it.' Abu 'Abdullah Sa'd and Isma'il bin Ibrahim bin 'Uqbah Sa'd from Nafi,: the meaning of 'I sought' is 'I endeavored.'

Narrated to us Musa bin Isma'il, narrated to us Ibrahim bin Sa'ad, from Ibn Shihab, from Al-A'raj, from Abu Hurairah (may Allah be pleased with him), he said: 'People say that Abu Hurairah narrates many hadiths, and Allah is the One who fulfills promises. They say: "Why do the Muhajirun and Ansar not narrate as many hadiths as he does?" My brothers from the Muhajirun were busy trading in the markets, and my brothers from the Ansar were occupied with their properties (farming). I was a poor man, always staying with the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) for my sustenance, present when they were absent, and remembering when they forgot. One day, the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) said: "None of you will spread out his cloth until I finish this speech, then gather it to his chest, and he will never forget anything from my speech." So I spread out my striped cloth, the only one I had, until the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) finished his speech, then I gathered it to my chest. By the One who sent him with the truth, I have not forgotten anything from that speech to this day. By Allah, were it not for two verses in the Book of Allah, I would never have narrated anything to you: "Indeed, those who conceal what We sent down of clear proofs and guidance..." (to the end of the verse, "the Merciful").'

Narrated to us 'Abdullah bin Yusuf, informed us Malik bin Anas, from Zaid bin Aslam, from Abu Salih As-Samman, from Abu Hurairah (may Allah be pleased with him), that the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) said: 'A horse can bring a man reward, be a means of protection, or a burden. The one who gains reward is a man who keeps it for Allah?s cause, letting it roam in a meadow or garden; whatever it eats in that meadow or garden becomes good deeds for him. If its tether breaks and it runs a ridge or two, its tracks and dung are good deeds for him. If it passes a river and drinks from it, though he did not intend to water it, that is good deeds for him?that is reward. A man who keeps it for self-sufficiency and restraint, not forgetting Allah?s right on its neck or back, it is protection for him. A man who keeps it for pride, showing off, and hostility to Muslims, it is a burden for him.' The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) was asked about donkeys, and he said: 'Nothing was revealed to me about them except this comprehensive, profound verse: "Whoever does an atom?s weight of good will see it, and whoever does an atom?s weight of evil will see it."'

One day, I tethered them at the door of an Ansari man while I intended to carry grass on them to sell, and with me was a goldsmith from Banu Qainuqa', whom I sought help from for Fatimah?s wedding feast. Hamzah bin 'Abdul Muttalib was drinking in that house with a singing slave girl who said: "Who is strong enough for these fine camels?" Hamzah rushed to them with a sword, cut off their humps, slit their flanks, and took their livers.' I asked Ibn Shihab: 'And from the hump?' He said: 'He cut off their humps and took them.' Ibn Shihab said: 'Ali (may Allah be pleased with him) said: "I saw a horrific sight, so I went to the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him), who was with Zaid bin Harithah, and informed him. He went out with Zaid, and I followed. He entered upon Hamzah and was angry with him. Hamzah looked up and said: 'Are you not but slaves of my forefathers?' The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) backed away until he left them. This was before the prohibition of alcohol.'

He said: 'Gabriel (peace be upon him) came to me and said: "Whoever from your nation dies without associating anything with Allah will enter Paradise." I said: "Even if he did such and such?" He said: "Yes."'

The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) prodded it from behind and said: 'Sell it to me, and you can ride it to Madinah.' When we approached, I sought permission and said: 'O Messenger of Allah, I have recently married.' He said: 'Did you marry a virgin or a widow?' I said: 'A widow, as 'Abdullah passed away and left young girls, so I married a widow to teach and discipline them.' He said: 'Go to your family.' I informed my uncle about selling the camel and its exhaustion, and what the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) did by prodding it. When the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) arrived, I went to him in the morning with the camel, and he paid me its price, gave me the camel, and my share with the people.

The Jew went to the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) and told him about the matter. The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) called the Muslim and asked him about it. Narrated to us 'Abdullah bin Muhammad, narrated to us Sufyan, from Az-Zuhri, from 'Urwah, from 'Aishah (may Allah be pleased with her), that 'Abd bin Zam'ah and Sa'dbin Abi Waqqas disputed before the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) about the son of Zam'ah?s slave woman. Sa'dsaid: 'O Messenger of Allah, my brother instructed me to take the son of Zam'ah?s slave woman, as he is my son.' 'Abd bin Zam'ah said: 'My brother and the son of my father?s slave woman, born on my father?s bed.' The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) saw a clear resemblance to 'Utbah and said: 'He is yours, O 'Abd bin Zam'ah. The child belongs to the bed, and the adulterer gets the stone. Veil yourself from him, O Sawdah.'

He said: I heard the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) say: 'Allah will bring the believer near, place His cover over him, and shield him, saying: "Do you recognize this sin? Do you recognize that sin?" He will say: "Yes, my Lord." Until when He has made him acknowledge his sins, and he thinks in himself that he is doomed, Allah will say: "I concealed them for you in the world, and I forgive them for you today." Then he will be given his book of good deeds. As for the disbeliever and the hypocrites, the witnesses will say: {These are the ones who lied against their Lord. Unquestionably, the curse of Allah is upon the wrongdoers.}'

The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) ordered a caller to announce: 'Indeed, wine has been prohibited.' Anas said: Abu Talhah Sa'dto me: 'Go out and spill it.' So I went out and spilled it, and it flowed in the streets of Madinah. Some people said: 'Some have died with it in their stomachs.' Then Allah revealed: 'There is no blame upon those who believe and do righteous deeds for what they have eaten...' (Qur'an, Al-Ma'idah: 93).

Narrated to us Yahya bin Bukair, narrated to us Al-Laith, from 'Uqail, from Ibn Shihab, he Sa'd narrated to me 'Ubaidullah bin 'Abdullah bin Abi Thawr, from 'Abdullah bin 'Abbas (may Allah be pleased with them), he said: I was always eager to ask 'Umar (may Allah be pleased with him) about the two women among the Prophet's wives about whom Allah said: 'If you two repent to Allah, your hearts have inclined...' (Qur'an, At-Tahrim: 4). So I went on Hajj with him, and he turned aside, and I turned aside with him carrying a water container. He relieved himself and came back, and I poured water from the container over his hands, and he performed ablution. I said: 'O Commander of the Faithful, who are the two women among the Prophet's wives about whom Allah Almighty said: "If you two repent to Allah, your hearts have inclined..."?' He said: 'How surprising of you, O Ibn 'Abbas! They are 'Aishah and Hafsah.' Then 'Umar began narrating the story, saying: 'I and a neighbor of mine from the Ansar were among Bani Umayyah bin Zaid, which is in the outskirts of Madinah. We used to take turns visiting the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him). He would go one day, and I would go another. When I went, I would bring him news of that day regarding revelation or other matters, and when he went, he did the same. We, the Quraysh, used to dominate our women, but when we came to the Ansar, they were a people whose women dominated them. Our women began to adopt the manners of the Ansar women. I scolded my wife, and she argued back with me, and I disapproved of her arguing with me. She said: 'Why do you disapprove of me arguing with you? By Allah, the Prophet's wives argue with him, and one of them even avoids him all day until night.' This alarmed me, and I said: 'Whoever among them does this has failed greatly.' Then I gathered my clothes and went to Hafsah and said: 'O Hafsah, does one of you anger the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) all day until night?' She said: 'Yes.' I said: 'She has failed and lost. Do you feel safe that Allah will not be angry because of the anger of His Messenger (peace and blessings be upon him), and you perish? Do not demand too much from the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him), do not argue with him about anything, and do not avoid him. Ask me for whatever you need, and do not be swayed by the fact that your co-wife is more beautiful than you and more beloved to the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him),' meaning 'Aishah. We were talking about Ghassan preparing shoes for our battle. When my companion went on his day, he returned at night, knocked on my door loudly, and said: 'Is he asleep?' I was alarmed and went out to him. He said: 'A great matter has happened.' I said: 'What is it? Have the Ghassan come?' He said: 'No, something greater and longer than that. The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) has divorced his wives.' I said: 'Hafsah has failed and lost.' I thought this was imminent. I gathered my clothes and prayed the dawn prayer with the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him). He entered a loft of his and secluded himself there. I went to Hafsah, and she was crying. I said: 'Why are you crying? Did I not warn you? Has the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) divorced you?' She said: 'I don?t know; he is there in the loft.' I went out and came to the pulpit, where a group was gathered, some of them crying. I sat with them a little, then what I felt overwhelmed me, so I went to the loft where he was and Sa'dto his black servant: 'Seek permission for 'Umar.' He went in and spoke to the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him), then came out and said: 'I mentioned you to him, but he was silent.' I went back and sat with the group at the pulpit. Then what I felt overwhelmed me again, so I went and Sa'dthe same. I sat with the group at the pulpit, and what I felt overwhelmed me again, so I went to the servant and said: 'Seek permission for 'Umar.' He Sa'dthe same. When I turned to leave, the servant called me and said: 'The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) has permitted you.' I entered and found him lying on a mat of palm fibers with no bedding between him and it, leaving marks on his side, reclining on a leather pillow stuffed with palm fiber. I greeted him and, while standing, said: 'Have you divorced your wives?' He looked at me and said: 'No.' Then, while standing, I Sa'dto make him feel at ease: 'O Messenger of Allah, if you saw me, we, the Quraysh, used to dominate women, but when we came to a people whose women dominated them...' I told him the story, and the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) smiled. Then I said: 'If you saw me, I went to Hafsah and said: "Do not be swayed by the fact that your co-wife is more beautiful and more beloved to the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him)," meaning 'Aishah.' He smiled again. I sat down when I saw him smile, then looked around his house. By Allah, I saw nothing to catch the eye except three hides. I said: 'Pray to Allah to expand for your nation, for Persia and Rome have been expanded for and given the world, yet they do not worship Allah.' He was reclining and said: 'Are you in doubt, O Ibn Al-Khattab? They are a people whose good things have been hastened in this worldly life.' I said: 'O Messenger of Allah, seek forgiveness for me.' The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) secluded himself because of that matter when Hafsah disclosed it to 'Aishah. He had said: 'I will not go to them for a month,' due to his anger with them when Allah reproached him. When twenty-nine days had passed, he went to 'Aishah first. 'Aishah Sa'dto him: 'You swore not to come to us for a month, and we have reached twenty-nine nights; I counted them.' The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) said: 'The month is twenty-nine days.' That month was indeed twenty-nine days. 'Aishah said: 'Then the verse of choice was revealed, and he began with me as the first wife. He said: "I am mentioning a matter to you; do not hasten until you consult your parents." I said: 'I know my parents would not order me to part from you.' Then he said: 'Allah has said: "O Prophet, say to your wives..." up to "great" (Qur'an, Al-Ahzab: 28-29).' I said: 'Shall I consult my parents about this? I choose Allah, His Messenger, and the Hereafter.' Then he offered the choice to his wives, and they Sa'dthe same as 'Aishah said.

Narrated to us Muslim bin Ibrahim, narrated to us Jarir bin Hazim, from Muhammad bin Sirin, from Abu Hurairah (may Allah be pleased with him), he said: The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) said: 'There was a man among the Children of Israel called Juraij, who was praying when his mother came and called him, but he refused to answer her. He said: "Should I respond to her or continue praying?" Then she came to him and said: "O Allah, do not let him die until he faces a trial." One day, while Juraij was in his hermitage, a woman said: "I will tempt Juraij." She offered herself to him, but he refused. She then went to a shepherd and gave herself to him, and she bore a child. She said: "This is Juraij's child." So people came to Juraij, destroyed his hermitage, brought him down, and insulted him. Juraij performed ablution, prayed, then went to the child and said: "Who is your father, O child?" The child said: "The shepherd." They said: "We will rebuild your hermitage with gold." Juraij said: "No, only with clay."'

Narrated to us Abdullah bin Yusuf, informed us Malik, from Wahb bin Kaisan, from Jabir bin Abdullah (may Allah be pleased with them), he said: The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) sent a detachment toward the coast and appointed Abu Ubaidah bin Al-Jarrah as their leader, and they were three hundred, and I was among them. We set out until, on part of the journey, our provisions ran out. Abu Ubaidah ordered all the provisions of that army to be collected, and it amounted to two bags of dates. He would give us a little each day until it ran out, and we were left with only one date each. I said: 'What use is one date?' He said: 'We found its absence when it was gone.' Then we reached the sea and found a whale as large as a mountain. The army ate from it for eighteen nights. Then Abu Ubaidah ordered two of its ribs to be set up, and a mount was saddled and passed under them without touching them.

The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) ordered the pots to be overturned, then he divided, equating ten sheep to one camel. A camel escaped, and they chased it until they were exhausted, as there were only a few horses among the group. A man shot an arrow at it, and Allah stopped it. Then he said: 'These animals have wild tendencies like wild beasts, so whatever overcomes you, do with it like this.' My grandfather said: 'We hope or fear to meet the enemy tomorrow, and we have no knives; can we slaughter with reeds?' He said: 'What causes the blood to flow and the name of Allah is mentioned upon it, eat it, except with teeth or nails. I will tell you about that: teeth are bone, and nails are the knives of the Abyssinians.'

Narrated to us Abu Nu'aim, narrated to us Zakariyya, he Sa'd I heard Amir say, I heard An-Nu'man bin Bashir (may Allah be pleased with them), from the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him), he said: 'The example of one who upholds Allah's limits and one who falls into them is like a group of people who drew lots on a ship. Some got the upper part, and some got the lower part. Those in the lower part, when they needed water, passed by those above them and said: "If we make a hole in our share, we won't disturb those above us." If they let them do what they want, they all perish. But if they stop them, they all survive.'

Narrated to us Abdul Aziz bin Abdullah Al-Amiri Al-Uwaisi, narrated to us Ibrahim bin Sa'd from Salih, from Ibn Shihab, informed me Urwah, that he asked Aishah (may Allah be pleased with her). And Al-Laith Sa'd narrated to me Yunus, from Ibn Shihab, he Sa'd informed me Urwah bin Az-Zubair, that he asked Aishah (may Allah be pleased with her) about the saying of Allah Almighty: 'If you fear that you will not be just? up to four' (Qur'an, An-Nisa: 3). She said: 'O my nephew, it refers to an orphan girl under her guardian's care, whose wealth is with him, and he is pleased with her wealth and beauty. Her guardian wishes to marry her without being just in her dowry, giving her what others would give. They were forbidden to marry them unless they are just and give them the highest dowry. They were ordered to marry other women they like besides them.' Urwah Sa'd Aishah said: 'Then people sought a ruling from the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) after this verse, so Allah revealed: "They ask you for a ruling concerning women?" up to "you desire to marry them" (Qur'an, An-Nisa: 127). And what Allah mentioned, that it is recited to you in the Book, is the first verse in which He said: "If you fear that you will not be just to the orphans, then marry women who are good for you" (Qur'an, An-Nisa: 3). Aishah said: And Allah's saying in the other verse: "you desire to marry them" means one of you desiring to marry an orphan girl under his care when she has little wealth and beauty. They were forbidden to marry those they desired for their wealth and beauty among orphan women except with justice, due to their lack of desire for them.'

Narrated to us Abu An-Nu'man, narrated to us Hammad bin Zaid, informed us Abdul Malik bin Juraij, from Ata, from Jabir, and from Tawus, from Ibn Abbas (may Allah be pleased with them), they said: The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) and his companions arrived on the morning of the fourth of Dhul-Hijjah intending Hajj, with nothing mixing with it. When we arrived, he ordered us to make it an Umrah and to be intimate with our wives. Talk spread about it. Ata said: Jabir said: 'One of us would go to Mina while his private parts were dripping with semen.' Jabir Sa'd to keep it discreet. But it reached the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him), so he stood and gave a sermon, saying: 'It has reached me that some people are saying such and such. By Allah, I am the most righteous and pious toward Allah among them. If I could redo my matter, I would not have brought a sacrificial animal, and if I had not brought the sacrificial animal, I would have exited Ihram.' Suraqah bin Malik bin Ju'shum stood and said: 'O Messenger of Allah, is this for us alone or forever?' He said: 'No, it is forever.' Jabir said: 'Then Ali bin Abi Talib came.' One of them said: Ali said: 'Labbayk, I intend Hajj as the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) intended.' And the other said: 'Labbayk, I intend the Hajj of the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him).' The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) ordered him to remain in Ihram and share in the sacrificial animal.

Narrated to us Muhammad, informed us Waki,, from Sufyan, from his father, from Abayah bin Rifa'ah, from his grandfather Rafi' bin Khadij (may Allah be pleased with him), he said: We were with the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) at Dhul-Hulaifah in Tihamah, and we acquired sheep and camels. The people hurriedly cooked them in pots. The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) came and ordered the pots to be overturned. Then he divided, equating ten sheep to one camel. A camel escaped, and there were only a few horses among the group. A man shot it with an arrow and stopped it. The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) said: 'These animals have wild tendencies like wild beasts, so whatever overcomes you, do with it like this.' My grandfather said: 'O Messenger of Allah, we hope or fear to meet the enemy tomorrow, and we have no knives; can we slaughter with reeds?' He said: 'Hurry, or bring to me, what causes the blood to flow and the name of Allah is mentioned upon it, eat it, except with teeth or nails. I will tell you about that: teeth are bone, and nails are the knives of the Abyssinians.'

Narrated to us Ibn Abi Maryam, he said: Narrated to us Al-Laith, from Uqail, from Ibn Shihab; Urwah mentioned that Marwan and Al-Miswar bin Makhrama informed him that the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) stood when a delegation from Hawazin came to him, asking him to return their wealth and captives. He said: You see those who are with me, and the most beloved speech to me is the truest. Choose one of the two groups, either the wealth or the captives, and I have been waiting for them. The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) waited for them for about ten nights after returning from Ta'if. When it became clear to them that the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) would only return one of the two groups, they said: We choose our captives. The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) stood among the people, praised Allah as He deserves, then said: As for what follows, your brothers have come to us repenting, and I have decided to return their captives to them. Whoever among you wishes to do so willingly, let him do so, and whoever wishes to keep his share until we give him from the first spoils Allah grants us, let him do so. The people said: We willingly give it up for you. He said: We do not know who among you has given permission and who has not. Go back so that your leaders may inform us of your decision. The people returned, their leaders spoke to them, then they came back to the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) and informed him that they agreed and gave permission. This is what reached us about the captives of Hawazin. Anas said: Abbas Sa'dto the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him): I have ransomed myself and Aqil.

Barirah mentioned this to her owners, but they refused and said: If she wishes to seek reward for you, let her do so, but your wala' remains with us. Narrated to us Ubaid bin Ismail, narrated to us Abu Usamah, from Hisham bin Urwah, from his father, from Aishah (may Allah be pleased with her), she said: Barirah came and said: I have agreed with my owners to free myself for nine uqiyyah, one uqiyyah each year, so help me. Aishah said: If your owners agree that I pay it off in one payment and your wala' be mine, I will do it. She went to her owners, but they refused that. Aishah said: I offered that to them, but they refused unless the wala' remained with them. The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) heard of this and asked me, so I informed him. He said: Take her and free her, and stipulate the wala' for them, for the wala' belongs to the one who frees. Aishah said: Then the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) stood among the people, praised Allah and extolled Him, then said: As for what follows, what is wrong with men among you who stipulate conditions that are not in the Book of Allah? Any condition that is not in the Book of Allah is invalid, even if it is a hundred conditions. The decree of Allah is more rightful, and the condition of Allah is stronger. What is wrong with men among you who say: Free, O so-and-so, but the wala' is mine? Indeed, the wala' belongs to the one who frees.

Narrated to us Abdullah bin Yusuf, informed us Malik, from Yahya bin Sa'id, from Amrah bint Abdur-Rahman, that Barirah came seeking help from Aishah, the Mother of the Believers (may Allah be pleased with her). Aishah Sa'dto her: If your owners agree, I will pay them your price in one payment and free you, and your wala' will be mine. Barirah mentioned this to her owners, and they said: No, unless your wala' remains with us. Malik Sa'd Yahya said: Amrah believed that Aishah mentioned this to the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him), and he said: Buy her and free her, for the wala' belongs to the one who frees.

الْوَلَاءُ لِمَنْ أَعْتَقَ وَإِنْ اشْتَرَطُوا مِائَةَ شَرْطٍ

Narrated to us Abu Nu'aim, narrated to us Abdul Wahid bin Aiman, he said: My father Aiman narrated to me, he said: I visited Aishah (may Allah be pleased with her) and said: I was a young slave of Utbah bin Abi Lahab, and he died, and his sons inherited me. They sold me to Abdullah bin Amru bin Umar bin Abdullah Al-Makhzumi, and Ibn Abi Amru freed me, but the sons of Utbah stipulated that the wala' remain with them. Aishah said: Barirah came to me while she was a mukatab (a slave working to buy her freedom) and said: Buy me and free me. Aishah said: Yes. Barirah said: They will not sell me unless they stipulate my wala' for themselves. Aishah said: I have no need for that. The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) heard of this or it reached him, and he spoke to Aishah, and Aishah mentioned what she had Sa'dto her. He said: Buy her and free her, and let them stipulate whatever they wish. So Aishah bought her and freed her, and her owners stipulated the wala'. The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) said: The wala' belongs to the one who frees, even if they stipulate a hundred conditions.

The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) was staying ahead of us, and the people were in ihram, but I was not. They spotted a wild donkey while I was busy repairing my sandal, and they did not inform me about it, though they wished I had seen it. I looked up and saw it, so I went to the horse, saddled it, and rode, but I forgot the whip and the spear. I Sa'dto them: Hand me the whip and the spear. They said: No, by Allah, we will not help you with it in any way. I got angry, dismounted, took them, and rode again. I chased the donkey and wounded it, then brought it, and it was dead. They began eating it, but then they doubted whether they could eat it while in ihram. We set off, and I hid a foreleg with me. When we reached the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him), we asked him about it. He said: Do you have any of it with you? I said: Yes. I handed him the foreleg, and he ate it until it was finished, while he was in ihram. Zaid bin Aslam narrated to me from Ata' bin Yasar, from Abu Qatadah, from the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him).

It was mentioned to the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him), and the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) said: Buy her and free her, for the wala' belongs to the one who frees. Meat was sent to her, and it was Sa'dto the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him): This was given as charity to Barirah. The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) said: It is charity for her and a gift for us. And she was given a choice. Abdur-Rahman said: Was her husband a free man or a slave? Shubah said: I asked Abdur-Rahman about her husband, and he said: I do not know whether he was a free man or a slave.

Narrated to us Ismail, he said: My brother narrated to me, from Sulaiman, from Hisham bin Urwah, from his father, from Aishah (may Allah be pleased with her), that the wives of the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) were divided into two groups. One group included Aishah, Hafsah, Safiyyah, and Sawdah, and the other group included Umm Salamah and the rest of the wives of the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him). The Muslims knew the love of the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) for Aishah, so if one of them had a gift to give to the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him), he would delay it until the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) was in Aishah's house, then the owner of the gift would send it to the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) in Aishah's house. The group of Umm Salamah spoke about it and Sa'dto her: Speak to the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) to tell the people that whoever wants to give a gift to the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) should give it to him wherever he is among his wives' houses. Umm Salamah spoke to him about what they Sa'd but he did not say anything to her. They asked her, and she said: He did not say anything to me. They Sa'dto her: Speak to him again. She spoke to him when it was her turn again, but he did not say anything to her. They asked her, and she said: He did not say anything to me. They Sa'dto her: Speak to him until he speaks to you. When it was her turn, she spoke to him, and he Sa'dto her: Do not hurt me regarding Aishah, for revelation has not come to me while I was in the garment of any woman except Aishah. She said: I repent to Allah for hurting you, O Messenger of Allah. Then they called Fatimah, the daughter of the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him), and sent her to the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him), saying: Your wives seek fairness from Allah regarding the daughter of Abu Bakr.

She spoke to him, and he said: O my daughter, do you not love what I love? She said: Yes. She returned to them and informed them. They said: Go back to him. But she refused to go back. They sent Zainab bint Jahsh, and she went to him and spoke harshly, saying: Your wives seek fairness from Allah regarding the daughter of Ibn Abi Quhafah. She raised her voice and addressed Aishah, who was sitting there, and insulted her until the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) looked at Aishah to see if she would speak. Aishah spoke and responded to Zainab until she silenced her. The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) looked at Aishah and said: She is indeed the daughter of Abu Bakr. Al-Bukhari said: The last statement, the story of Fatimah, is narrated from Hisham bin Urwah, from a man, from Az-Zuhri, from Muhammad bin Abdur-Rahman. Abu Marwan Sa'd from Hisham, from Urwah: People would choose the best of their gifts for Aishah's day. And from Hisham, from a man from Quraysh and a man from the Mawali, from Az-Zuhri, from Muhammad bin Abdur-Rahman bin Al-Harith bin Hisham, Aishah said: I was with the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him), and Fatimah asked for permission to enter.

Then I went to the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) while he was sitting and informed him of this. The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) Sa'dto 'Umar, who was sitting: 'Listen, O 'Umar.' 'Umar said: 'How could we not know that you are the Messenger of Allah? By Allah, you are indeed the Messenger of Allah.'

Narrated to us Yahya bin Bukair, narrated to us Al-Laith from 'Uqail from Ibn Shihab from 'Urwah, that Marwan bin Al-Hakam and Al-Miswar bin Makhramah informed him that the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) Sa'dwhen a delegation of Hawazin, who had embraced Islam, came to him and asked him to return their wealth and captives: 'With me are those you see, and the truest speech to me is the most honest. Choose one of the two, either the captives or the wealth. I have been waiting for you.' The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) had waited for them for about ten nights after returning from Ta'if. When it became clear to them that the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) would only return one of the two, they said: 'We choose our captives.' He stood among the Muslims, praised Allah as He deserves, then said: 'As for what follows, your brothers have come to us repenting, and I have decided to return their captives to them. Whoever among you wishes to do so willingly, let him do so, and whoever wishes to keep his share until we give him from the first spoils Allah grants us, let him do so.' The people said: 'We willingly give it up for them, O Messenger of Allah.' He Sa'dto them: 'We do not know who among you has permitted it and who has not, so return and let your leaders inform us of your decision.' The people returned, their leaders spoke to them, and then they returned to the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) and informed him that they had agreed and permitted it. This is what reached us about the captives of Hawazin, the final statement of Az-Zuhri.

Then a tall, disheveled polytheist came driving some sheep. The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) said: 'For sale or as a gift?' or he said: 'Or as a donation?' He said: 'No, for sale.' If they were present, he gave it to them, and if they were absent, he set it aside for them. They made two large bowls, and everyone ate and was satisfied, and the two bowls remained, so we carried them on the camel, or as he said.

Anas?s mother, Umm Sulaim, who was also the mother of Abdullah bin Abi Talhah, gave the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) some dates. The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) gave them to Umm Aiman, his freed slave, the mother of Usamah bin Zaid. The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) returned to Anas?s mother her dates and gave Umm Aiman a portion from his own garden in their place. Ahmad bin Shabib said: Narrated to us my father from Yunus with this hadith, and he said: 'In their place from his own property.'

Narrated to us Abu Ar-Rabi Sulaiman bin Dawud, and Ahmad clarified some of it for me, narrated to us Fulaih bin Sulaiman from Ibn Shihab Az-Zuhri from Urwah bin Az-Zubair, Sa'id bin Al-Musayyab, Alqamah bin Waqqas Al-Laithi, and Ubaidullah bin Abdullah bin Utbah from Aishah (may Allah be pleased with her), the wife of the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him), when the people of slander Sa'dwhat they Sa'dabout her, and Allah cleared her of it. Az-Zuhri said: All of them narrated to me a portion of her story, some being more precise than others and more accurate in their narration. I memorized the hadith from each one of them that they narrated to me from Aishah, and their narrations confirm one another. They claimed that Aishah (may Allah be pleased with her) said: When the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) intended to go on a journey, he would cast lots among his wives, and whichever one?s lot came up, he would take her with him. He cast lots among us for a campaign he undertook, and my lot came up, so I went with him after the verse of the veil was revealed. I was carried in a howdah and placed in it. We traveled until the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) completed that campaign and returned. As we approached Medina, he announced one night that we would depart. I got up when they announced the departure and walked until I passed the army. After attending to my needs, I returned to the camp and touched my chest, only to find that my necklace made of onyx beads had broken off. I went back to look for my necklace, and searching for it delayed me. The people who were to load my howdah came and carried it onto my camel, which I used to ride, thinking I was in it. At that time, women were light, not heavy, and did not consume much meat; they only ate a little food. So the people did not notice the weight of the howdah when they lifted it and carried it. I was a young girl at the time. They sent the camel off and moved on. I found my necklace after the army had gone. I came to their camp, and there was no one there. I went to the place where I had been, thinking they would miss me and return for me. While I was sitting there, my eyes overcame me, and I fell asleep. Safwan bin Al-Mu'attal As-Sulami, later Adh-Dhakwani, was behind the army. He reached my spot in the morning and saw the shadow of a sleeping person. He came to me, having seen me before the veil was prescribed. I woke up startled by his exclaiming 'Inna Lillah' when he made his mount kneel. I rode it, and he led the mount until we reached the army after they had stopped to rest at midday. Then those who were to perish perished, and the one who spread the slander was Abdullah bin Ubayy bin Salul. We arrived in Medina, and I fell ill there for a month while people were engrossed in the words of the slanderers. I felt uneasy during my illness because I did not see the kindness from the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) that I used to see when I was sick. He would only come, greet, and say, 'How is she?' I was unaware of any of this until I recovered. I went out with Umm Mistah toward Al-Manasi', our place for relieving ourselves, which we only visited at night before we had latrines near our homes. Our custom was that of the early Arabs in the open or wilderness. I and Umm Mistah, daughter of Abi Ruhm, were walking when she tripped over her cloak and Sa'd 'May Mistah perish.' I Sa'dto her, 'What a bad thing you have said! Do you curse a man who witnessed Badr?' She Sa'd 'O dear, have you not heard what they said?' She informed me of the slanderers? words, and my illness intensified. When I returned to my house, the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) came to me, greeted, and Sa'd 'How is she?' I Sa'd 'Permit me to go to my parents.' She said: At that time, I wanted to verify the news from them. The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) permitted me, and I went to my parents and Sa'dto my mother, 'What are people talking about?' She Sa'd 'O my daughter, lighten the matter on yourself. By Allah, rarely is there a beautiful woman with a husband who loves her, and she has co-wives, except that they amplify things against her.' I Sa'd 'Subhanallah, have people really been talking about this?' She said: I spent that night until morning with tears that would not stop, and I could not sleep. Then in the morning, the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) called Ali bin Abi Talib and Usamah bin Zaid when the revelation was delayed, consulting them about separating from his family. As for Usamah, he advised based on what he knew of his love for them and Sa'd 'Your family, O Messenger of Allah, and by Allah, we know only good of them.' As for Ali bin Abi Talib, he Sa'd 'O Messenger of Allah, Allah has not made things difficult for you, and there are many women besides her. Ask the servant girl, and she will tell you the truth.' The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) called Barirah and Sa'd 'O Barirah, have you seen anything in her that makes you suspicious?' Barirah Sa'd 'No, by the One who sent you with the truth, I have not seen anything in her to criticize except that she is a young girl who falls asleep while watching her family?s dough, and a domestic animal comes and eats it.' The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) stood that day and sought excuse regarding Abdullah bin Ubayy bin Salul. The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) Sa'd 'Who will excuse me regarding a man whose harm to my family has reached me? By Allah, I know only good of my family, and they mentioned a man of whom I know only good, and he never entered upon my family except with me.' Sa'dbin Mu?adh stood and Sa'd 'O Messenger of Allah, by Allah, I will relieve you of him. If he is from the Aws, we will strike his neck, and if he is from our brothers of the Khazraj, command us, and we will carry out your command regarding him.' Sa'dbin Ubadah, the leader of the Khazraj, who was previously a righteous man but was carried away by tribalism that day, stood and Sa'd 'You lie, you cannot kill him or relieve him.' Then USa'dbin Hudhair stood and Sa'd 'You are the liar. We will surely kill him. You are a hypocrite defending hypocrites.' A verbal dispute arose between the Aws and Khazraj until they were about to vent their anger, while the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) was still on the pulpit. He came down and calmed them until they were silent, and he too was silent. I cried all day, my tears never stopping, and I could not sleep. My parents were with me, and I had cried for two nights and a day until I thought my heart would break. Aishah said: While my parents were sitting with me and I was crying, a woman from the Ansar asked permission to enter, and I allowed her. She sat and cried with me. While we were in that state, the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) came and sat, though he had not sat with me as he used to since what happened to me, and a month had passed without revelation clarifying my matter. Aishah said: He testified with the two testimonies and then Sa'd 'O Aishah, news about you has reached me thus and so. If you are innocent, Allah will surely clear you. But if you have fallen into sin, seek forgiveness from Allah and repent to Him, for when a servant acknowledges his sin and repents, Allah accepts his repentance.' When the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) finished his speech, my tears dried up until I could not feel a single drop. I Sa'dto my father, 'Respond to the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) about me.' My father Sa'd 'By Allah, I do not know what to say to the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him).' I Sa'dto my mother, 'Respond to the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) about what he said.' My mother Sa'd 'By Allah, I do not know what to say to the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him).' Aishah said: I was a young girl who did not read much of the Qur'an. I Sa'd 'By Allah, I know you have heard what people are saying, and it has settled in your hearts, and you have believed it. If I say to you that I am innocent, and Allah knows I am innocent, you will not believe me. And if I admit to you something, while Allah knows I am innocent, you will believe it. By Allah, I find no example between me and you except like the father of Yusuf when he Sa'd "Patience is most fitting, and Allah is the One sought for help against what you describe."' Then I went to my bed, hoping Allah would clear me. But by Allah, I did not think Allah would reveal a revelation about my matter, for I considered myself too insignificant for the Qur'an to speak about my affair. But I hoped the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) would see a dream in which Allah would clear me. By Allah, he had not left his seat nor had anyone from the household gone out when revelation came upon him. He received the revelation as he usually did, in a state of intense fever with sweat pouring. When the revelation ended, he was smiling, and the first thing he Sa'dto me was, 'O Aishah, praise Allah, for Allah has cleared you.' My mother Sa'dto me, 'Get up and go to the Messenger of Allah.' I Sa'd 'By Allah, I will not go to him, and I will not praise anyone but Allah Almighty.' So Allah revealed, 'Indeed, those who came with falsehood are a group among you. Do not think it bad for you; rather, it is good for you...' (Qur'an, An-Nur: 11). When this verse was revealed, clearing me of the accusations, Abu Bakr As-Siddiq (may Allah be pleased with him), who used to provide for Mistah bin Uthathah because he was his relative, Sa'd 'By Allah, I will never provide for Mistah again after what he Sa'dabout Aishah.' Then Allah revealed, 'And let not those of virtue among you and wealth swear not to give to their relatives...' (Qur'an, An-Nur: 22). Abu Bakr Sa'd 'Yes, by Allah, I would love for Allah to forgive me.' So Abu Bakr resumed providing for Mistah as he did before. The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) asked Zainab bint Jahsh about my matter, saying, 'O Zainab, what do you know, and what is your opinion?' Zainab Sa'd 'O Messenger of Allah, I protect my hearing and sight. By Allah, I know only good of her.' Aishah said: Although Zainab used to consider herself above me, Allah protected her with piety. Narrated to us Fulaih from Hisham bin Urwah from Urwah from Aishah (may Allah be pleased with her) and Abdullah bin Az-Zubair with this hadith. And narrated to us Fulaih from Rabi'ah bin Abi Abdurrahman and Yahya bin Sa'id from Al-Qasim bin Muhammad bin Abu Bakr similarly.

He said: ?As for 'Uthman, by Allah, certainty (death) has come to him, and I hope for good for him. By Allah, I am the Messenger of Allah, yet I do not know what will be done with me.? She said: ?By Allah, I will never declare anyone pure after this,? and it saddened me. She said: ?Then I slept and saw a flowing spring for 'Uthman. I went to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and told him. He said: ?That is his deeds.?'

Narrated to us [Sa'id bin Abi Maryam], narrated to us [Abu Ghassan], he said: Narrated to me [Abu Hazim] from [Sahl bin Sa'd may Allah be pleased with him], that some people from Bani ?Amr bin ?Awf had a dispute among themselves. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, went to them with some of his companions to reconcile them. The time for prayer arrived, but the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, had not come. Bilal called the adhan for prayer, but the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, still had not arrived. Bilal went to Abu Bakr and said: 'The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, is detained, and the time for prayer has come. Will you lead the people?' He said: 'Yes, if you wish.' So he established the prayer, and Abu Bakr went forward. Then the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, arrived, walking through the rows until he stood in the first row. The people began clapping loudly. Abu Bakr rarely turned during prayer, but he turned and saw the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, behind him. The Prophet signaled to him to continue praying as he was. Abu Bakr raised his hands, praised Allah, and glorified Him, then stepped back into the row. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, went forward and led the people in prayer. When he finished, he turned to the people and said: 'O people, if something happens during your prayer, you clap. Clapping is for women. If something occurs in prayer, say ?SubhanAllah,? for no one hears it without turning. O Abu Bakr, what stopped you from continuing when I signaled you?' Abu Bakr said: 'It is not fitting for the son of Abu Quhafah to lead prayer in front of the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him.'

Each group?s companions grew angry, leading to fighting with palm branches, hands, and sandals. We heard that the verse was revealed: ?If two parties of believers fight, make peace between them? (QS. Narrated to us 'Ubaidullah bin Musa from Isra'il from Abu Ishaq from Al-Bara' bin 'Azib (may Allah be pleased with him) who said: The Prophet peace and blessings be upon him performed 'Umrah in the month of Dhu al-Qa'dah, but the people of Makkah refused to allow him to enter Makkah until he made a treaty with them to stay there for three days. When they wrote the agreement, they wrote: 'This is what Muhammad, the Messenger of Allah, has agreed upon.' The polytheists said: 'We do not agree with this, for if we knew you were the Messenger of Allah, we would not have prevented you, but you are Muhammad bin 'Abdullah.' He said: 'I am the Messenger of Allah, and I am Muhammad bin 'Abdullah.' Then he Sa'dto 'Ali: 'Erase "Messenger of Allah."' 'Ali said: 'By Allah, I will never erase it.' So, the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him took the document and wrote: 'This is what Muhammad bin 'Abdullah has agreed upon: No weapons shall enter Makkah except in their sheaths, and no one from its people shall leave with anyone if they wish to follow him, nor shall any of his companions who wish to stay in Makkah be prevented.' When he entered Makkah and the time limit expired, the polytheists came to 'Ali and said: 'Tell your companion to leave us, for the time has passed.' So, the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him left. The daughter of Hamzah followed them, saying: 'O uncle, O uncle.' 'Ali bin Abi Talib (may Allah be pleased with him) took her and held her hand, saying to Fatimah (peace be upon her): 'Take your cousin's daughter.' Fatimah took her. Then 'Ali, Zaid, and Ja'far disputed over her. 'Ali said: 'I have the most right to her, as she is my cousin's daughter.' Ja'far said: 'She is my cousin's daughter, and her aunt is under my care.' Zaid said: 'She is my brother's daughter.' The Prophet peace and blessings be upon him decided she should go to her aunt and said: 'The aunt is like the mother.' He Sa'dto 'Ali: 'You are from me, and I am from you.' To Ja'far, he said: 'You resemble my appearance and character.' And to Zaid, he said: 'You are our brother and our freedman.'

Narrated to us Muhammad bin Rafi' from Suraij bin an-Nu'man from Fulaih from Nafi, from Ibn 'Umar (may Allah be pleased with them) that the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him set out to perform 'Umrah, but the disbelievers of Quraish prevented him from reaching the Ka'bah. So, he slaughtered his sacrificial animal and shaved his head at Hudaibiyah, then made a treaty with them that he could perform 'Umrah the following year, not carrying weapons against them except swords, and staying in Makkah only as long as they permitted. He performed 'Umrah the next year and entered Makkah as per the agreement. When he stayed there for three days, they ordered him to leave, and he left.

Narrated to us Muhammad bin 'Abdullah Al-Ansari, Humaid informed me that Anas narrated to them that Ar-Rubayyi', the daughter of An-Nadr, broke the front tooth of a girl. They demanded compensation, but the other party refused. They went to the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, who ordered retribution (qisas). Anas bin an-Nadr said: 'Will the front tooth of Ar-Rubayyi' be broken, O Messenger of Allah? By the One who sent you with the truth, her tooth will not be broken.' The Prophet peace and blessings be upon him said: 'O Anas, Allah's Book prescribes retribution.' The people then agreed and forgave. The Prophet peace and blessings be upon him said: 'Indeed, among Allah's servants are those who, if they swear by Allah, He fulfills it.' Al-Fazari added from Humaid from Anas: 'The people were satisfied and accepted the compensation.'

Narrated to us 'Abdullah bin Muhammad from Sufyan from Abu Musa who said: I heard Al-Hasan say: By Allah, Al-Hasan bin 'Ali faced Mu'awiyah with battalions like mountains. 'Amr bin Al-'As said: 'I see battalions that will not turn back until they kill their opponents.' Mu'awiyah, who by Allah was the better of the two, Sa'dto him: 'O 'Amr, if these kill those and those kill these, who will manage the people's affairs, their women, and their lands?' He sent two men from Quraish, from Bani 'Abd Shams, 'Abdur Rahman bin Samurah and 'Abdullah bin 'Amir bin Kuraiz, saying: 'Go to this man, present to him, speak to him, and request from him.' They went to him, spoke, and made requests. Al-Hasan bin 'Ali Sa'dto them: 'We, the Banu 'Abdul Muttalib, have acquired wealth, and this nation has shed its blood.' They said: 'He offers you such and such and requests from you.' He said: 'Who will guarantee this for me?' They said: 'We will guarantee it.' Whatever he asked, they said: 'We will ensure it.' So, he made peace. Al-Hasan said: 'I heard Abu Bakrah say: I saw the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him on the pulpit with Al-Hasan bin 'Ali beside him, looking at the people one moment and at him the next, saying: 'This son of mine is a leader, and perhaps Allah will reconcile two great groups of Muslims through him.' Abu 'Abdullah Al-Bukhari said: 'Ali bin 'Abdullah told me that we confirmed Al-Hasan's hearing from Abu Bakrah with this hadith.'

One was asking the other to lower his debt and be lenient, but he said: 'By Allah, I will not do it.' The Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him went out to them and said: 'Where is the one who swears by Allah not to do good?' The man said: 'I am, O Messenger of Allah. It is up to him whatever he prefers.'

Narrated to us Abu Al-Yaman, Shu'aib informed us from Az-Zuhri who said: 'Urwah bin Az-Zubair narrated to me that Az-Zubair used to narrate that he had a dispute with an Ansari who had participated in Badr, brought before the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him concerning a water channel in Al-Harrah that both used for irrigation. The Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him Sa'dto Az-Zubair: 'Irrigate (your land), O Zubair, then let it flow to your neighbor.' The Ansari became angry and said: 'O Messenger of Allah, is it because he is your cousin?' The face of the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him changed, and he said: 'Irrigate (your land), then hold the water until it reaches the wall.' Thus, the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him ensured Az-Zubair?s full right. Before that, he had suggested a lenient approach for both Az-Zubair and the Ansari. When the Ansari upset the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him, he granted Az-Zubair his full right according to clear judgment. 'Urwah said: Az-Zubair said: 'By Allah, I believe this verse was revealed concerning this matter: "But no, by your Lord, they will not believe until they make you judge in their disputes?" (Qur'an, An-Nisa: 65).'

Narrated to me Muhammad bin Bashshar from 'Abdul Wahhab from 'Ubaidullah from Wahb bin Kaisan from Jabir bin 'Abdullah (may Allah be pleased with them) who said: My father passed away with a debt. I offered the creditors to take dates equivalent to the debt, but they refused, deeming it insufficient. I went to the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him and told him about it. He said: 'When you harvest (your dates) and place them in the drying yard, inform the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him.' He came with Abu Bakr and 'Umar, sat on them, and prayed for blessings. Then he said: 'Call your creditors and pay them off.' I left no one my father owed unpaid and had thirteen wasqs left?seven of 'Ajwah dates and six of other types, or six of 'Ajwah and seven of other types. I met the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him at Maghrib prayer and told him. He smiled and said: 'Go to Abu Bakr and 'Umar and inform them.' They said: 'We knew when the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him did what he did that this would happen.' Hisham Sa'dfrom Wahb from Jabir: 'At 'Asr prayer, and he did not mention Abu Bakr or the smile.' And he said: 'My father left a debt of thirty wasqs.' Ibn Ishaq Sa'dfrom Wahb from Jabir: 'At Zhuhr prayer.'

Narrated to us Yahya bin Bukair from Al-Laith from 'Uqail from Ibn Shihab who said: 'Urwah bin Az-Zubair narrated to me that he heard Marwan and Al-Miswar bin Makhrama (may Allah be pleased with them) narrating from the companions of the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him that when Suhail bin 'Amr wrote the treaty, he stipulated with the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him that: 'No one from us will come to you, even if they follow your religion, unless you return them to us and leave them to us.' The believers disliked this and were upset, but Suhail insisted. The Prophet peace and blessings be upon him agreed to it and returned Abu Jandal to his father, Suhail bin 'Amr, that day. He returned every man who came to him during that period, even if Muslim. Then came the believing women who migrated, including Umm Kulthum bint 'Uqbah bin Abi Mu'ait, who migrated to the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him that day, a freed slave. Her family came asking the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him to return her, but he did not, due to what Allah revealed about them: 'When believing women come to you as emigrants, test them. Allah knows best their faith?' (Qur'an, Al-Mumtahanah: 10). 'Urwah said: 'Aishah informed me that the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him tested them with this verse: 'O you who believe, when believing women come to you as emigrants, test them?' (Qur'an, Al-Mumtahanah: 10). 'Urwah said: 'Aishah said: 'Whoever among them agreed to this condition, the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him Sa'dto her: "I have accepted your pledge," speaking to her. By Allah, his hand never touched a woman?s hand in the pledge, and he only took their pledge with his words.'

'Aishah Sa'dto her: 'Return to your masters; if they agree that I pay your contract and your loyalty (wala?) is mine, I will do it.' Barirah informed her masters, but they refused, saying: 'If she wants to pay for your sake, let her, but your loyalty remains ours.' Narrated to us Abu Nu'aim from Zakariyya who said: I heard 'Amir say: Jabir (may Allah be pleased with him) narrated to me that he was traveling on a weak camel. The Prophet peace and blessings be upon him passed by, struck it, and prayed for it, and it moved unlike before. Then he said: 'Sell it to me for an uqiyyah.' I said: 'No.' He Sa'dagain: 'Sell it to me for an uqiyyah.' I sold it, stipulating I could ride it to my family. When we arrived, I brought the camel to him, and he paid me its price. As I left, he sent for me and said: 'I was not going to take your camel. Take your camel; it is yours.' Shubah Sa'dfrom Mughirah from 'Amir from Jabir: 'The Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him allowed me to ride it to Madinah.' Ishaq Sa'dfrom Jarir from Mughirah: 'I sold it on the condition I could ride it until Madinah.' 'Ata' and others said: 'You can ride it to Madinah.' Muhammad bin Al-Munkadir Sa'dfrom Jabir: 'He stipulated riding it to Madinah.' Zaid bin Aslam Sa'dfrom Jabir: 'And you can ride it until you return.' Abu Az-Zubair Sa'dfrom Jabir: 'We allowed you to ride it to Madinah.' Al-A'mash Sa'dfrom Salim from Jabir: 'Use it until you reach your family.' 'Ubaidullah and Ibn Ishaq Sa'dfrom Wahb from Jabir: 'The Prophet peace and blessings be upon him bought it for an uqiyyah.' Zaid bin Aslam followed this from Jabir. Ibn Juraij Sa'dfrom 'Ata' and others from Jabir: 'I took it for four dinars,' which is an uqiyyah, calculated as one dinar equals ten dirhams. Mughirah from Asy-Sha'bi from Jabir, Ibn Al-Munkadir, and Abu Az-Zubair from Jabir did not specify the price. Al-A'mash Sa'dfrom Salim from Jabir: 'An uqiyyah of gold.' Abu Ishaq Sa'dfrom Salim from Jabir: 'For two hundred dirhams.' Daud bin Qais Sa'dfrom 'Ubaidullah bin Miqsam from Jabir: 'He bought it on the Tabuk journey, I think for four uqiyyahs.' Abu Nadrah Sa'dfrom Jabir: 'He bought it for twenty dinars.' Asy-Sha'bi?s saying 'for an uqiyyah' is more common and more authentic, according to Abu 'Abdullah.

The Bedouin said: 'My son was a worker for this man and committed adultery with his wife. I was told my son should be stoned, so I ransomed him with one hundred sheep and a slave girl. Then I asked the scholars, and they told me my son should be flogged one hundred times and exiled for a year, and this man?s wife should be stoned.' The Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him said: 'By the One in whose hand is my soul, I will judge between you by Allah?s Book. The slave girl and sheep must be returned. Your son shall be flogged one hundred times and exiled for a year. O Unais, go to this man?s wife tomorrow, and if she confesses, stone her.' He went to her, she confessed, and the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him ordered her stoned.

The Prophet peace and blessings be upon him heard this or was informed and said: 'What is the matter with Barirah?' He said: 'Buy her and free her, and let them stipulate

THE STORY OF MOSES AND THE PROPHET OF PATIENCE AND PUNISHMENT

It has been narrated to us by Ibrahim bin Musa, who informed us from Hisham, that Ibn Juraij informed him, saying, Ya'la bin Muslim and 'Amru bin Dinar narrated from Sa'id bin Jubair, where one adds to the other's narration, and others besides them, I have heard him narrate from Sa'id bin Jubair, saying: We were in the company of Ibn 'Abbas, may Allah be pleased with them both, who Sa'd Ubay bin Ka'ab narrated to me, saying: The Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him, said: Moses, the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, then he mentioned the hadith. The story is in the words of Allah in Surah al-Kahf, 72: (Prophet Khidr, peace be upon him, said: 'Did I not tell you that you would not be able to have patience with me?') The first question from Moses was due to forgetfulness, the second was a condition he proposed, and the third was intentional. (Moses, peace be upon him, said: 'Do not punish me for my forgetfulness, and do not burden me with difficulty in my matter.') - Al-Kahf, 73 - ('?until they met a boy.') - Al-Kahf, 74 - Then they proceeded until they found (?in that city a wall about to collapse?) - Al-Kahf, 77 - Ibn 'Abbas recited it: 'while before them was a king.'

REQUIREMENTS THAT ARE NOT IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE BOOK OF GOD

حَدَّثَنَا إِسْمَاعِيلُ حَدَّثَنَا مَالِكٌ عَنْ هِشَامِ بْنِ عُرْوَةَ عَنْ أَبِيهِ عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْجَاءَتْنِي بَرِيرَةُ فَقَالَتْ كَاتَبْتُ أَهْلِي عَلَى تِسْعِ أَوَاقٍ فِي كُلِّ عَامٍ أُوقِيَّةٌ فَأَعِينِينِي فَقَالَتْ إِنْ أَحَبُّوا أَنْ أَعُدَّهَا لَهُمْ وَيَكُونَ وَلَاؤُكِ لِي فَعَلْتُ فَذَهَبَتْ بَرِيرَةُ إِلَى أَهْلِهَا فَقَالَتْ لَهُمْ فَأَبَوْا عَلَيْهَا فَجَاءَتْ مِنْ عِنْدِهِمْ وَرَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ جَالِسٌ فَقَالَتْ إِنِّي قَدْ عَرَضْتُ ذَلِكِ عَلَيْهِمْ فَأَبَوْا إِلَّا أَنْ يَكُونَ الْوَلَاءُ لَهُمْ فَسَمِعَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَأَخْبَرَتْ عَائِشَةُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ خُذِيهَا وَاشْتَرِطِي لَهُمْ الْوَلَاءَ فَإِنَّمَا الْوَلَاءُ لِمَنْ أَعْتَقَ فَفَعَلَتْ عَائِشَةُ ثُمَّ قَامَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي النَّاسِ فَحَمِدَ اللَّهَ وَأَثْنَى عَلَيْهِ ثُمَّ قَالَ مَا بَالُ رِجَالٍ يَشْتَرِطُونَ شُرُوطًا لَيْسَتْ فِي كِتَابِ اللَّهِ مَا كَانَ مِنْ شَرْطٍ لَيْسَ فِي كِتَابِ اللَّهِ فَهُوَ بَاطِلٌ وَإِنْ كَانَ مِائَةَ شَرْطٍ قَضَاءُ اللَّهِ أَحَقُّ وَشَرْطُ اللَّهِ أَوْثَقُ وَإِنَّمَا الْوَلَاءُ لِمَنْ أَعْتَقَ

It has been narrated to us by Isma'il, who narrated from Malik, from Hisham bin 'Urwah, from his father, from 'Aishah, may Allah be pleased with her, who said: Barirah came to me and said: 'I have agreed with my masters for my freedom for nine awaq, paying one uqiyah each year, so help me.' I said: 'If your masters agree that I pay the amount for them and your loyalty becomes mine, I will do it.' Barirah went to her masters and conveyed this to them, but they refused. She came back from them while the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him, was sitting, and said: 'I offered this to them, but they refused unless the loyalty remains with them.' The Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, heard this, and 'Aishah informed the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, who said: 'Take her (Barirah) and stipulate the loyalty for her masters, for loyalty belongs to the one who frees.' So 'Aishah did so. Then the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him, stood among the people, praised Allah and glorified Him, and said: 'What is wrong with people who make conditions not in the Book of Allah? Any condition not in the Book of Allah is void, even if it is a hundred conditions. The decree of Allah is more rightful, and the condition of Allah is stronger. Indeed, loyalty belongs to the one who frees.'

It has been narrated to us by Abu Ahmad Marrar bin Hammuyah, who narrated from Muhammad bin Yahya Abu Ghassan Al-Kinani, who informed us from Malik, from Nafi,, from Ibn 'Umar, may Allah be pleased with them both, who said: When the people of Khaibar dislocated the hand of 'Abdullah bin 'Umar, may Allah be pleased with them both, 'Umar stood to deliver a sermon and said: 'The Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him, made an agreement with the Jews of Khaibar to work on their properties (lands) and said: "We will let you remain as long as Allah allows you to remain." One day, 'Abdullah bin 'Umar went to work on his land there and was treated harshly at night until his hands and feet were dislocated. We have no enemies there except them (the people of Khaibar). They are our enemies and the ones we suspect, and I have resolved to expel them.' When 'Umar had made up his mind, a man from Banu Abi Al-Huqaiq came to him and said: 'O Commander of the Faithful, will you expel us when Muhammad peace and blessings be upon him, allowed us to stay, made an agreement with us regarding the properties, and stipulated that for us?' 'Umar said: 'Do you think I forgot the saying of the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him: "What if you are expelled from Khaibar, and your she-camel carries you away night after night?"' The man said: 'This was merely a jest from Abu Al-Qasim.' 'Umar said: 'You lie, O enemy of Allah.' So 'Umar expelled them and gave them the value of their share of the fruits in money, camels, goods, saddles, ropes, and other things. It was also narrated by Hammad bin Salamah from 'Ubaidullah, I believe from Nafi,, from Ibn 'Umar, from 'Umar, from the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, in a summarized form.

It has been narrated to me by 'Abdullah bin Muhammad, who narrated from 'Abdur Razzaq, who informed us from Ma'mar, who Sa'd Az-Zuhriy informed me, saying, 'Urwah bin Az-Zubair narrated to me from Al-Miswar bin Makhramah and Marwan, each confirming the other's narration, who said: The Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him, set out during the time of Hudaibiyah until they were on the way. The Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'Indeed, Khalid bin Al-Walid is at Al-Ghamim with a cavalry of Quraysh as a vanguard, so take the right path.' By Allah, Khalid did not notice them until they were at the army's trail, and he rushed to warn the Quraysh. The Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, proceeded until he reached the pass from which they would descend, and his mount knelt down. The people said: 'Move, move!' But it persisted. They said: 'Al-Qaswa has become stubborn, Al-Qaswa has become stubborn.' The Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'Al-Qaswa is not stubborn, for that is not its nature, but it has been held back by the One who held back the elephant.' Then he said: 'By the One in Whose Hand is my soul, they will not ask me for any action that honors the sanctities of Allah except that I will grant it to them.' Then he urged it, and it stood up. He turned away from them until he stopped at the farthest point of Hudaibiyah, at a small water pool where people were sipping sparingly. It did not take long for the people to deplete it, and they complained of thirst to the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him. He took an arrow from his quiver and ordered them to place it in it. By Allah, it continued to gush fresh water for them until they drank from it. While they were in that state, Budail bin Warqa' Al-Khuza'i came with a group from his people, Khuza'ah, who were the trusted confidants of the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him, from the people of Tihamah. He said: 'I left Ka'b bin Lu'ay and 'Amir bin Lu'ay stationed at the water sources of Hudaibiyah with their suckling camels, and they will fight you and prevent you from reaching the House.' The Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'We have not come to fight anyone but to perform 'Umrah. Indeed, the Quraysh have been weakened and harmed by war. If they wish, I will grant them a truce and leave the path open between me and the people. If I prevail, they may enter what others have entered if they wish, or else they can rest from the exhaustion of war. But if they refuse, by the One in Whose Hand is my soul, I will fight them for this cause until my neck is severed, and Allah will fulfill His command.' Budail said: 'I will convey to them what you have said.' He went to the Quraysh and said: 'We have come to you from this man, and we heard him say something. If you wish, we will present it to you.' The foolish among them said: 'We have no need for you to tell us anything about him.' The wise among them said: 'Tell us what you heard him say.' He said: 'I heard him say such and such,' and he conveyed what the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, said. Then 'Urwah bin Mas'ud stood up and said: 'O my people, are you not the elders?' They said: 'Yes.' He said: 'Am I not a son among you?' They said: 'Yes.' He said: 'Do you suspect me?' They said: 'No.' He said: 'Do you not know that I sought help from the people of 'Ukaz, and when they refused, I came to you with my family, my children, and those who obeyed me?' They said: 'Yes.' He said: 'This man has offered you a wise proposal, so accept it and let me go to him.' They said: 'Go to him.' So he went and spoke with the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, who Sa'dsomething similar to what he Sa'dto Budail. 'Urwah said: 'O Muhammad, what do you think if you destroy your people's cause? Have you heard of any Arab before you who destroyed his people? If it turns out otherwise, by Allah, I see faces and a mix of people likely to flee and abandon you.' Abu Bakr Sa'dto him: 'Be quiet! Will we flee from him and abandon him?' He asked: 'Who is this?' They said: 'Abu Bakr.' Abu Bakr said: 'By the One in Whose Hand is my soul, if it were not for a favor you did for me that I have not repaid, I would have responded to you.' 'Urwah continued speaking with the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, and each time he spoke, he touched his beard. Al-Mughirah bin Shubah was standing by the Prophet's head peace and blessings be upon him, holding a sword and wearing armor. Every time 'Urwah reached for the Prophet's beard peace and blessings be upon him, Al-Mughirah struck his hand with the scabbard and said: 'Remove your hand from the beard of the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him.' 'Urwah raised his head and said: 'Who is this?' They said: 'Al-Mughirah bin Shubah.' 'Urwah said: 'O traitor, am I not striving because of your betrayal?' In the pre-Islamic era, Al-Mughirah accompanied a group, killed them, and took their wealth, then came and embraced Islam. The Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'As for Islam, I accept it, but as for the wealth, I have no part in it.' Then 'Urwah observed the companions of the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him. He said: 'By Allah, whenever the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him, spat, it fell into the hand of one of them, who rubbed it on his face and skin. When he commanded them, they hastened to obey. When he performed ablution, they nearly fought over his water. When he spoke, they lowered their voices in his presence and did not stare at him out of reverence.' 'Urwah returned to his companions and said: 'O my people, by Allah, I have been an envoy to kings, to Caesar, Chosroes, and the Negus. By Allah, I have never seen a king so revered by his companions as Muhammad peace and blessings be upon him, is revered by his companions. By Allah, whenever he spat, it fell into the hand of one of them, who rubbed it on his face and skin. When he commanded them, they hastened to obey. When he performed ablution, they nearly fought over his water. When he spoke, they lowered their voices in his presence and did not stare at him out of reverence. He has offered you a wise proposal, so accept it.' A man from Banu Kinanah said: 'Let me go to him.' They said: 'Go to him.' When he approached the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, and his companions, the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'This is so-and-so, from a people who revere sacrificial animals, so send them to him.' They were sent to him, and the people greeted him with the talbiyah. When he saw this, he said: 'Glory be to Allah, it is not right for these people to be prevented from the House.' When he returned to his companions, he said: 'I saw the sacrificial animals adorned and marked, so I do not think they should be prevented from the House.' Then a man named Mikraz bin Hafs stood up and said: 'Let me go to him.' They said: 'Go to him.' When he approached them, the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'This is Mikraz, and he is a wicked man.' While he was speaking with the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, Suhail bin 'Amr arrived. Ma'mar said: Ayyub informed me from 'Ikrimah that when Suhail bin 'Amr came, the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'Your matter has become easy for you.' Ma'mar said: Az-Zuhriy Sa'din his narration: Suhail bin 'Amr came and said: 'Come, write an agreement between us and you.' The Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, called the scribe and said: 'In the name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.' Suhail said: 'As for the Most Gracious, by Allah, I do not know what it is, but write: In Your name, O Allah, as you used to write.' The Muslims said: 'By Allah, we will not write it except: In the name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.' The Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'Write: In Your name, O Allah.' Then he said: 'This is what Muhammad, the Messenger of Allah, has agreed upon.' Suhail said: 'By Allah, if we knew you were the Messenger of Allah, we would not have prevented you from the House nor fought you. Write: Muhammad bin 'Abdullah.' The Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'By Allah, I am indeed the Messenger of Allah, even if you deny me. Write: Muhammad bin 'Abdullah.' Az-Zuhriy said: This was because of his saying: 'They will not ask me for any action that honors the sanctities of Allah except that I will grant it to them.' The Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, Sa'dto him: 'On the condition that you allow us to perform the circumambulation of the House.' Suhail said: 'By Allah, the Arabs will not say we were forced, but this will be next year.' So it was written.

BARIRAH'S DETERMINATION AND GUARDIANSHIP REQUIREMENTS Hadith Imam Bukhari Number 2530

Narrated to us Ali bin Abdullah, narrated to us Sufyan, from Yahya, from Amrah, from Aisyah radliallahu 'anha, she said: Barirah came to her seeking help for her emancipation. Aisyah said: If you wish, I will pay your masters, but your patronage will be mine. When the Messenger of Allah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam came, Aisyah mentioned this to him. The Prophet shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam said: Buy her and free her, for patronage belongs to the one who frees. Then the Messenger of Allah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam stood on the pulpit and said: What is wrong with people who make conditions not in Allah’s Book? Whoever makes a condition not in Allah’s Book, it is invalid, even if he makes a hundred conditions.

Narrated to us Qutaibah bin Sa'id, narrated to us Muhammad bin Abdullah Al Anshariy, narrated to us Ibnu Aun, Nafi' informed me, from Ibnu Umar radliallahu 'anhuma, that Umar bin Al Khaththab radliallahu 'anhu acquired land in Khaibar and came to the Prophet shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam to consult him, saying: O Messenger of Allah, I obtained land in Khaibar, more valuable than any wealth I ever had. What do you command me to do with it? He said: If you wish, retain its trees and give its yield in charity. So Umar gave it in charity, not to be sold, gifted, or inherited, but for the poor, relatives, freeing slaves, Allah’s cause, travelers, and guests. There is no sin for its caretaker to eat from it rightfully or feed others, not intending to amass wealth. The narrator said: I told this to Ibnu Sirin, and he said: Not taking orphans’ wealth to combine with his own.

It has been narrated to us by 'Abdullah bin Maslamah, from Malik, from Ibn Shihab, from 'Urwah bin Az-Zubair, from 'Aishah, may Allah be pleased with her, the wife of the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, who said: 'Utbah bin Abi Waqqas made a covenant with his brother Sa'ad bin Abi Waqqas that the son of Zam'ah's slave girl is from me, so take him.

When the year of the conquest of Makkah came, Sa'ad took him and said: "He is my nephew, and he made a covenant with me regarding him." 'Abdu bin Zam'ah stood up and said: "My brother and the son of my father's slave girl, born on his bed (from a lawful marriage)." They both brought the matter to the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him. Sa'ad said: "O Messenger of Allah, he is my nephew, and he made a covenant with me regarding him." 'Abdu bin Zam'ah said: "My brother and the son of my father's slave girl." The Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him, said: "He is yours, O 'Abdu bin Zam'ah. The child belongs to the bed (the lawful husband), and for the adulterer is the stone (stoning)." Then he Sa'dto Saudah bint Zam'ah: "Veil yourself from him," because he saw a resemblance to 'Utbah. She never saw him until he met Allah.'

It has been narrated to us by Hassan bin Abi 'Abbad, who narrated from Hammam, from Qatadah, from Anas, may Allah be pleased with him, that a Jew struck the head of a slave girl with two stones until it bled. She was asked who did it, was it so-and-so or so-and-so, until the Jew was named, and she nodded with her head. The Jew was brought, and he denied it until he finally confessed. The Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, ordered that his head be struck with stones until it bled.

حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ يُوسُفَ عَنْ وَرْقَاءَ عَنْ ابْنِ أَبِي نَجِيحٍ عَنْ عَطَاءٍ عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمَا قَالَكَانَ الْمَالُ لِلْوَلَدِ وَكَانَتْ الْوَصِيَّةُ لِلْوَالِدَيْنِ فَنَسَخَ اللَّهُ مِنْ ذَلِكَ مَا أَحَبَّ فَجَعَلَ لِلذَّكَرِ مِثْلَ حَظِّ الْأُنْثَيَيْنِ وَجَعَلَ لِلْأَبَوَيْنِ لِكُلِّ وَاحِدٍ مِنْهُمَا السُّدُسَ وَجَعَلَ لِلْمَرْأَةِ الثُّمُنَ وَالرُّبُعَ وَلِلزَّوْجِ الشَّطْرَ وَالرُّبُعَ

It has been narrated to us by Muhammad bin Yusuf, from Warqa', from Ibn Abi Najih, from 'Atha', from Ibn 'Abbas, may Allah be pleased with them both, who said: Previously, the inheritance was for the child, and the bequest was for the parents. Then Allah abrogated this with what He preferred. So Allah, the Exalted, made the share of the male double that of the female, and for each parent one-sixth, for the wife one-eighth or one-fourth, and for the husband half or one-fourth.

He replied: 'To give charity when you are healthy and greedy, hoping for wealth and fearing poverty. Do not delay until your soul reaches your throat, then say: for so-and-so this much, for so-and-so that much, when it already belongs to so-and-so.'

I asked again, and he gave me again, then he Sa'dto me: 'O Hakim, this wealth is green and sweet. Whoever takes it with a generous soul will be blessed in it, but whoever takes it with greed will not be blessed in it, like one who eats but is never satisfied. The upper hand is better than the lower hand.' Hakim said: I said: 'O Messenger of Allah, by the One who sent you with the truth, I will not diminish anyone's right (by taking it) after you until I leave this world.' Abu Bakr called Hakim to give him a share, but he refused to accept anything. Then 'Umar called him to give him a share, but he refused to accept it. 'Umar said: 'I bear witness to you, O Muslims, regarding Hakim. I offered him his right from this spoil, but he refused to take it.' Hakim did not diminish anyone's right after the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, until he passed away, may Allah have mercy on him.

It has been narrated to us by Ibrahim bin Musa, who informed us from Hisham bin Yusuf, that Ibn Juraij informed them, saying: Ya'la narrated to me that he heard 'Ikrimah, the freed slave of Ibn 'Abbas, say: Ibn 'Abbas narrated to us that Sa'ad bin 'Ubadah, may Allah be pleased with them, from the tribe of Banu Sa'idah, said: His mother passed away while he was absent. He came to the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, and said: 'O Messenger of Allah, my mother passed away while I was not with her. Will it benefit her if I give charity on her behalf?' He replied: 'Yes.' He said: 'I take you as my witness that my fruitful garden is given as charity on her behalf.'

It has been narrated to us by Abu Al-Yaman, who informed us from Shu'aib, from Az-Zuhriy, who said: 'Urwah bin Az-Zubair narrated that he asked 'Aishah, may Allah be pleased with her, about the verse: 'And if you fear that you will not deal justly with the orphans, then marry women of your choice...' (An-Nisa 3). She said: 'It refers to an orphan girl under the care of her guardian, who is attracted to her beauty and wealth and wishes to marry her with a dowry less than what is customary for women like her. They were forbidden to marry them unless they treat them justly by giving them the full dowry, and they were commanded to marry other women instead.' 'Aishah said: 'Later, people sought a ruling from the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him, and Allah, the Mighty and Exalted, revealed: 'They ask you for a ruling concerning women. Say: Allah gives you a ruling about them...' (An-Nisa 127). She said: 'Allah clarified in this verse that if an orphan girl has beauty and wealth, they desire to marry her but do not give her the proper dowry. If she lacks wealth or beauty, they leave her and seek other women. Just as they abandon her when they are not interested due to her lack of wealth and beauty, they are not permitted to marry her when they desire her unless they treat her justly by giving her the full dowry and her rights.'

It has been narrated to us by Harun bin Al-Ash'ath, who narrated from Abu Sa'id, the freed slave of Banu Hashim, who narrated from Sakhr bin Juwairiyah, from Nafi,, from Ibn 'Umar, may Allah be pleased with them both, that 'Umar, may Allah be pleased with him, gave charity from his wealth during the time of the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him. It was called Thamgh, a palm grove. 'Umar said: 'O Messenger of Allah, I have acquired wealth that is precious to me, and I wish to give it as charity.' The Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'Give its principal as charity; it should not be sold, gifted, or inherited, but its produce may be spent.' So 'Umar gave it as charity for the cause of Allah, for freeing slaves, for the poor, for guests, for travelers, and for relatives. There is no sin for the one who manages it to eat from it reasonably or to feed a friend, provided it is not for accumulating wealth.'

When the date harvest came, I went to the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him, and said: 'O Messenger of Allah, you know that my father was martyred on the day of Uhud and left a large debt. I would like the creditors to see you.' He said: 'Go and sort each type of date separately.' I did so and then called him. When they saw him, they pressed me at that moment to settle the debt. When he saw what they were doing, he circled the largest pile of dates three times, then sat by it and said: 'Call your companions.' He kept measuring out for them until Allah fulfilled my father's trust. By Allah, I was satisfied that Allah fulfilled my father's trust, and I returned to my sisters without a single date. By Allah, all the piles remained intact, and I looked at the pile where the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him, was sitting, as if not a single date was missing.' Abu 'Abdullah (Al-Bukhari) said: 'ughruu bii means hiijuu bii (spontaneous), like the verse: "So We caused enmity and hatred among them" (Al-Ma'idah 14).'

It has been narrated to us by 'Abdullah bin Yusuf, from Malik, from Ishaq bin 'Abdullah bin Abi Talhah, from Anas bin Malik, may Allah be pleased with him, who Sa'dhe heard: 'The Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him, used to visit Umm Haram bint Milhan, and she would feed him. Umm Haram was under the care of 'Ubadah bin As-Samit. The Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him, visited her, and she fed him and began to comb his hair. The Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him, fell asleep, then woke up laughing. She said: "What makes you laugh, O Messenger of Allah?" He said: "People from my nation were shown to me, fighting in the cause of Allah, sailing across this sea, like kings on thrones?or like kings on thrones." (Ishaq was uncertain.) She said: "O Messenger of Allah, pray to Allah to make me one of them." So the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him, prayed for her. Then he put his head down, slept again, and woke up laughing. She said: "What makes you laugh, O Messenger of Allah?" He said: "People from my nation were shown to me, fighting in the cause of Allah," as he Sa'dthe first time. She said: "O Messenger of Allah, pray to Allah to make me one of them." He said: "You are among the first." She sailed the sea during the time of Mu'awiyah bin Abi Sufyan, and when she came out of the sea, she was thrown from her mount and died.'

It has been narrated to us by 'Abdullah bin Yusuf, who said: Al-Layth narrated to me, who narrated from Yahya, from Muhammad bin Yahya bin Habban, from Anas bin Malik, from his aunt Umm Haram bint Milhan, who said: 'One day, the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, slept near me, then woke up smiling. I said: "What makes you laugh?" He said: "People from my nation were shown to me, sailing across this green sea, like kings on thrones." I said: "Pray to Allah to make me one of them." So he prayed for her. Then he slept again and did the same. I Sa'dthe same as before, and he answered as before. I said: "Pray to Allah to make me one of them." He said: "You are among the first." She went out with her husband, 'Ubadah bin As-Samit, fighting in the first Muslim naval expedition with Mu'awiyah. When they returned from their expedition and landed in Sham, a mount was brought for her to ride, but it threw her, and she died.'

It has been narrated to us by Hafsh bin 'Umar Al-Hawdi, who narrated from Hammam, from Ishaq, from Anas, may Allah be pleased with him, who said: 'The Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, sent seventy men from Banu Sulaim to Banu 'Amir. When they arrived, my uncle Sa'dto them: "I will go ahead of you. If they grant me safety to convey the message of the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him, fine; otherwise, stay close to me." So he went forward, and they granted him safety. While he was speaking to them about the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, they signaled to one of their men, who stabbed him, piercing him through. He said: "Allahu Akbar, I have succeeded, by the Lord of the Ka'bah!" Then they attacked the rest of his companions and killed them, except for a lame man who climbed the mountain. Hammam said: "I believe another man was with him." Jibril, peace be upon him, informed the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, that they had met their Lord, and He was pleased with them and made them pleased. We used to recite: "Inform our people that we have met our Lord, and He is pleased with us and has made us pleased," but it was later abrogated. Then he invoked curses upon them for forty mornings against Ri'l, Dzakwan, Banu Lihyan, and Banu 'Usayyah, who disobeyed Allah and

His Messenger peace and blessings be upon him.'

He said: 'Are you but a finger that has bled, and in the cause of Allah, what you have endured?'

He said: "O Messenger of Allah, I was absent from the first battle you fought against the polytheists. If Allah grants me to witness a battle against the polytheists, Allah will see what I will do." When the day of Uhud came, and the Muslims retreated, he said: "O Allah, I seek refuge in You from what these people have done," meaning his companions, "and I dissociate myself from what these people have done," meaning the polytheists. Then he went forward, and Sa'dbin Mu'adh met him. He said: "O Sa'dbin Mu'adh, Paradise! By the Lord of An-Nadr, I smell its fragrance from beyond Uhud." Sa'dsaid: "O Messenger of Allah, I cannot describe what he did." Anas said: "We found on him more than eighty wounds from swords, spears, or arrows, and we found him killed, mutilated by the polytheists, and no one recognized him except his sister, by his fingers." Anas said: "We thought or believed that this verse was revealed about him and those like him: 'Among the believers are men who have been true to their covenant with Allah' (Al-Ahzab 23) to the end of the verse." And he said: "His sister, called Ar-Rubai', broke the front tooth of a woman, so the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him, ordered retaliation (qisas). Anas said: "By the One who sent you with the truth, her front tooth shall not be broken." They agreed to compensation and forwent retaliation. The Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him, said: "Among the servants of Allah are those who, if they swear by Allah, He fulfills it."'

It has been narrated to us by Abu Al-Walid, who narrated from Shubah, from Abu Ishaq, who said: I heard Al-Bara', may Allah be pleased with him, say: When the verse 'Not equal are those believers remaining [at home]' was revealed, the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him, called Zaid, who came with a shoulder blade and wrote it down. He informed us that Zaid bin Thabit told him that the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him, dictated to him the verse 'Not equal are those believers remaining [at home]' and 'those who strive in the cause of Allah.' He said: Ibn Umm Maktum came to him while he was dictating it to me and said: 'O Messenger of Allah, if I were capable of jihad, I would have fought.' He was a blind man. So Allah, Blessed and Exalted, revealed to His Messenger peace and blessings be upon him, while his thigh was on my thigh, and it became so heavy on me that I feared my thigh would break. Then he was relieved, and Allah, Mighty and Majestic, revealed 'except those with disabilities.'

يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ

It has been narrated to us by Muhammad bin Sinan, who narrated from Fulaih, who narrated from Hilal, from Ata bin Yasar, from Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri, may Allah be pleased with him, that the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him, stood on the pulpit and said: 'Indeed, what I fear for you after me is what will be opened to you of the blessings of the earth.' Then he mentioned the allure of the world, starting with one and continuing with the other. A man stood up and said: 'O Messenger of Allah, does good bring evil?' The Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, remained silent at his question. We said: 'He is receiving revelation.' The people fell silent as if birds were perched on their heads. Then he wiped the sweat from his face and said: 'Where is the questioner from earlier? Is it good?' He asked three times. 'Indeed, good only brings good. Indeed, what the spring brings forth can kill with bloating or bring near death, except for the eater of greenery, which eats until its sides are full, then faces the sun, relieves itself, urinates, and grazes again. Indeed, this wealth is green and sweet. Blessed is the Muslim who takes it rightfully and spends it in the cause of Allah, on orphans, the needy, and the wayfarer. Whoever takes it without right is like one who eats but is never satisfied, and it will be a witness against him on the Day of Resurrection.'

It has been narrated to us by Muhammad bin Abi Bakr, who narrated from Fudhail bin Sulaiman, from Abu Hazim, from Abdullah bin Abi Qatadah, from his father, that he went out with the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him. Abu Qatadah stayed behind with some of his companions, who were in a state of ihram, while he was not. They saw a wild donkey before he did. When they saw it, they left it until Abu Qatadah saw it. He rode his horse, named Al-Jaradah, and asked them to hand him his whip, but they refused. So he took it himself, charged, and killed it. Then he ate from it, and they ate too, but later regretted it. When they caught up with him, he said: 'Do you have anything left of it?' He said: 'We have its leg.' The Prophet peace and blessings be upon him, took it and ate it.

He said: 'O Mu'adh, do you know the right of Allah upon His servants and the right of the servants upon Allah?' I said: 'Allah and His Messenger know best.' He said: 'Indeed, the right of Allah upon His servants is that they worship Him and associate nothing with Him, and the right of the servants upon Allah is that He does not punish those who do not associate anything with Him.' I said: 'O Messenger of Allah, should I not inform the people of this good news?' He said: 'Do not inform them, lest they rely on it.'

It has been narrated to us by Abdullah bin Maslamah, from Malik, from Zaid bin Aslam, from Abu Salih As-Samman, from Abu Hurairah, may Allah be pleased with him, that the Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'Horses are for three types: for one man, they bring reward; for another, they are a means of sustenance; and for another, they bring sin. As for the one who earns reward, it is a man who ties it in the cause of Allah, keeping it in a meadow or garden. Whatever it eats in that meadow or garden becomes good deeds for him. If it breaks its rope and runs one or two bounds, its dung and tracks are good deeds for him. If it passes by a river and drinks from it, even though he did not intend to water it, that is good deeds for him. As for the one who ties it for pride, show, and hostility toward Muslims, it is a sin upon him.' The Messenger of Allah peace and blessings be upon him, was asked about donkeys, and he said: 'Nothing was revealed to me about them except this comprehensive and profound verse: {Whoever does an atom's weight of good will see it, and whoever does an atom's weight of evil will see it} (Surah Az-Zalzalah, 7-8).'
