He passed a gathering with Abdullah bin Ubayy bin Salul, before his conversion to Islam, including Muslims, idol-worshippers, and Jews, with Abdullah bin

Do not disturb us in our gathering return to your mount, and tell those who come to you. Abdullah bin Rawahah said: O Messenger of Allah, join us in our gatherings, for we love it. Muslims, idol-worshippers, and Jews argued until nearly fighting. The Prophet, peace be upon him, calmed them until they were silent. He rode on to Sa'd bin 'Ubadah's house and said: O Sa'd, did you hear what Abu Hubab said, meaning Abdullah bin Ubayy? Sa'd said: Forgive him, O Messenger of Allah, and be lenient. "Imran bin Maisarah narrated to us, Ibnu Al Fudlail narrated to us, Hushain narrated from 'Amir from Imran bin Hushain, may Allah be pleased with them, who said: There is no ruqyah except for the evil eye or fever. I mentioned this to Sa'id bin Jubair, who said: Ibnu Abbas narrated that the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said: Nations were shown to me one or two prophets passed with a few followers, and some with none. Then I saw a great multitude and asked: Is this my nation? It was said: This is Moses and his people. I was told: Look at the horizon. I saw a multitude filling it. Then I was told: Look here and there at the sky’s horizons. A multitude filled them. It was said: This is your nation, and seventy thousand of them will enter Paradise without reckoning. He entered his house without explaining. The people debated, saying: We who believed in Allah and followed His Messenger, or our children born in Islam, as we were born in ignorance. When this reached the Prophet, peace be upon him, he came out and said: They are those who do not seek ruqyah, do not believe in omens, do not cauterize, and rely on their Lord. Ukashah bin Mihshan said: Am I one of them, O Messenger of Allah? He said: Yes. Another stood and asked: Am I one of them? He said: Ukashah has preceded you.

"Muhammad narrated to me, 'Attab bin Bashir narrated from Ishaq from Az Zuhri, who said: 'Ubaidullah bin Abdullah informed me that Umm Qais binti Mihshan, from the early migrant women who pledged allegiance to the Prophet, peace be upon him, and sister of Ukashah bin Mihshan, reported that she brought her son, whom she had treated for a throat infection by pressing his throat, to the Prophet, peace be upon him. He said: Fear Allah, why do you treat your children’s throats with your fingers? Use this Indian wood, for it has seven cures, including for pleurisy. He meant costus, which is Indian wood, a term in the language.

When he reached Sargh, the army commanders, Abu Ubaidah bin Al Jarrah and his companions, informed him that a plague had struck Sham. Ibnu Abbas said: Umar said: Call the early Muhajirin. They were called, and he consulted them, informing them of the plague in Sham. They differed some said: You set out for a purpose, and we think you shouldn’t turn back. Others said: You have people and the Prophet’s companions, peace be upon him, and we think you shouldn’t expose them to this plague. Umar said:

Leave me. Then he said: Call the Ansar. They were called and consulted, and they followed the Muhajirin's way, differing as they did. Umar said: Leave me. Then he said: Call the Quraysh elders from the conquest migration. They were called, and none differed except two, who said: We think you should return with the people and not expose them to this plague. Umar announced to the people: I will depart in the morning, so prepare to leave. Abu Ubaidah bin Al Jarrah said: Are you fleeing from Allah's decree? Umar said: If only someone else said this, O Abu Ubaidah. Yes, we flee from Allah's decree to Allah's decree. Suppose you had camels in a valley with two sides, one fertile and one barren. If you graze them in the fertile side, isn't it by Allah's decree? If you graze them in the barren side, isn't it by Allah's decree? Then Abdurrahman bin Auf, absent for some need, came and said: I have knowledge of this. I heard the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, say: If you hear of it in a land, do not go to it. If it strikes a land while you are there, do not flee from it. Umar praised Allah and departed.

If one of you sees something he dislikes, let him spit thrice upon waking and seek refuge from its evil, for it will not harm him. Abu Salamah said: I used to see dreams heavier than a mountain, but after hearing this hadith, I no longer cared about them.

"Musa bin Isma'il narrated to us, Abu Awanah narrated from Abu Bisyr from Abu Al Mutawakkil from Abu Sa'id that a group of the Prophet’s companions, peace be upon him, went on a journey and stopped at an Arab tribe who refused to host them. Their leader was stung, and they tried everything to no avail. Some said: Go to those men who stopped here perhaps one has something. They went and said: Our leader was stung, and nothing helped. Does anyone have something? One said: Yes, by Allah, I can perform ruqyah, but since you refused to host us, I won’t unless you offer a reward. They agreed on a flock of sheep. He went, spat, and recited: Praise be to Allah, Lord of the worlds, until the man seemed freed from bonds and walked with no ailment. They gave the reward. Some said: Divide it. The one who performed ruqyah said: Not until we ask the Prophet, peace be upon him, what happened and see what he orders. They told the Prophet, peace be upon him, and he said: How did you know it was a ruqyah? You did well divide it and give me a share.

People dispersed without explanation, and the Prophet’s companions, peace be upon him, discussed it, saying: We were born in idolatry but believed in Allah and His Messenger perhaps they are our descendants. "Sa'id bin Ufair narrated to us, Al Laits narrated to me, Abdurrahman bin Khalid narrated to me from Ibnu Syihab from Abu Salamah from Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, judged between two women from Hudhail who fought. One threw a stone at the other, hitting her pregnant belly, killing her fetus. They brought the case to the Prophet, peace be upon him, who ruled that the compensation for the fetus was a male or female slave. The guardian of the liable woman said: O Messenger of Allah, how can I pay for one who neither ate, drank, spoke, nor cried? Such a case is void. The Prophet, peace be upon him, said: This is like the words of soothsayers.

One day or night, while with me, he prayed and prayed, then said: O Aisyah, do you know Allah has guided me in what I sought? Two men came to me one sat by my head, the other by my feet. One said to the other: What ails this man? He said: He is bewitched. He asked: Who bewitched him? He said: Labid bin Al A'sham. He asked: With what? He said: With a comb, hair from it, and a male date-palm sheath. He asked: Where is it? He said: In Dzarwan's well. The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, went with some companions to the well and returned, saying: O Aisyah, its water seemed like henna infusion, its palms like devils' heads. I said: O Messenger of Allah, did you not take it out? He said: Allah has cured me, and I disliked spreading evil among people. He ordered it buried. This was supported by Abu Usamah, Abu Dlamrah, and Ibnu Abu Az Zinad from Hisyam. Al Laits and Ibnu Uyainah said from Hisyam: 'comb and fallen hair,' meaning hair that falls when combed, and 'musyaqqah' is hair stuck to the comb.

"Abdullah bin Muhammad narrated to me, Sufyan narrated from Az Zuhri from Abu Idris Al Khaulani from Abu Tha'labah Al Khushani, may Allah be pleased with him, who said: The Prophet, peace be upon him, forbade eating every fanged beast. Az Zuhri said: I did not hear this until I reached Sham. Al Laits added: Yunus narrated to me from Ibnu Syihab, who said:

I asked him: Should we perform ablution or drink the milk of she-donkeys, the gall of beasts, or camel urine? He said: Muslims used them as medicine and saw no harm in it. As for she-donkey milk, we heard the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, forbade eating their meat, but we heard no command or prohibition about their milk. As for the gall of beasts, Ibnu Syihab said: Abu Idris Al Khaulani informed me that Abu Tha'labah Al Khushani informed him that the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, forbade eating every fanged beast.

Zubair narrated that Aisyah, may Allah be pleased with her, the Prophet’s wife, peace be upon him, said: The wife of Rifa'ah Al Qurazhi came to the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, while I was sitting with Abu Bakr. She said: O Messenger of Allah, I was married to Rifa'ah, and he divorced me irrevocably. I married Abdur Rahman bin Az Zubair, and by Allah, O Messenger of Allah, he has nothing but like this fringe—she took a fringe from her cloak. Khalid bin Sa'id, at the door, not yet permitted to enter, heard her and said: O Abu Bakr, will you not stop her from speaking so boldly before the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him? By Allah, the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, only smiled. He said to her: Perhaps you wish to return to Rifa'ah? No, not until you taste his sweetness and he tastes yours. This became a precedent thereafter.

"Narrated to us Abdullah bin Muhammad, narrated to us Abu Amir, narrated to us Ibrahim bin Nafi' from Al-Hasan from Tawus from Abu Hurairah, he said: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, gave the example of a miser and a charitable person as two men wearing iron cloaks from their chests to their collarbones. When the charitable person gives charity, his cloak expands until it covers his fingertips and erases his traces. When the miser intends to give charity, his cloak contracts, and each ring clings to its place. Abu Hurairah said: I saw the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, gesturing with his finger in his collar, as if trying to widen it, but it would not expand. This was supported by Ibn Tawus from his father and Abu Az-Zinad from Al-A'raj regarding the two cloaks, and Hanzalah said: I heard Tawus say I heard Abu Hurairah say two cloaks, and Ja'far bin Hayyan said from Al-A'raj, two cloaks.

"Narrated to us Ibrahim bin Musa, informed us Hisham from Ma'mar from Az-Zuhri from Urwah from Aishah, may Allah be pleased with her, she said: Some Muslims migrated to Abyssinia, and Abu Bakr prepared to migrate. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said: Wait, for I hope to be permitted to migrate. Abu Bakr said: By my father, do you hope for that? He said: Yes. So Abu Bakr held back to accompany the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and fed two camels with acacia leaves for four months. Urwah said: Aishah said: One day, while we were sitting in our house at midday, someone said to Abu Bakr: Here is the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, approaching with his face covered, at an hour he never visited us. Abu Bakr said: May my father and mother be your ransom by Allah, he has not come at this hour except for something important. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, came, sought permission, and entered. He said to Abu Bakr: Send out those with you. Abu Bakr said: They are your family, may my father be your ransom, O Messenger of Allah. He said: I have been permitted to leave (migrate). Abu Bakr said: May I accompany you, may my father and mother be your ransom, O Messenger of Allah? He said: Yes. Abu Bakr said: Take one of these two camels, may my father be your ransom, O Messenger of Allah. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said: For a price. Aishah said: We prepared them quickly, packed provisions in a bag, and Asma bint Abu Bakr cut a piece of her waistband to tie the bag, earning her the title Dhat an-Nitaq (the one with the waistband). Then the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and Abu Bakr went to a cave in a mountain called Thawr, staying there for three nights. Abdullah bin Abu Bakr, a clever young man, stayed with them, leaving at dawn to mingle with the Quraysh in Mecca, gathering news and returning to them at night. Amir bin Fuhayrah, Abu Bakr’s freed slave, tended a flock of sheep to cover their tracks, bringing the sheep to them after the evening prayer, allowing them to rest until he called them at dawn. He did this every night for those three nights.

The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: If that is the case, you are not lawful for Rifa'ah, or not suitable for him, until he tastes your sweetness. He saw the two sons with him and said: Are these your sons? He said: Yes. He said: This is what you claim? By Allah, they resemble him more than a crow resembles another crow.

"Narrated to us Musa bin Ismail, he said: Narrated to me Juwairiyah from Nafi' from Abdullah that Umar, may Allah be pleased with him, saw a silk-embroidered mantle being sold and said: O Messenger of Allah, why don’t you buy it and wear it for delegations when they visit you or for Friday prayers? He said: Only those who have no share in the Hereafter wear this. Later, the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, sent a silk mantle to Umar. Umar said: You gave it to me after what you said about it? He said: I sent it to you to sell or give to your wife.

"Narrated to us Sulaiman bin Harb, narrated to us Hammad bin Zaid from Yahya bin Sa'id from Ubaid bin Hunain from Ibn Abbas, may Allah be pleased with them, he said: I waited a year intending to ask Umar about the two women who conspired against the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, but I was hesitant. One day, he stopped at a place and went into the bushes. When he came out, I asked him, and he said: Aishah and Hafsah. Then he said: In the pre-Islamic era, we did not consider women significant, but when Islam came and Allah mentioned them, we recognized their rights over us without involving them in our affairs. There was a dispute between me and my wife, and she was harsh with me, so I said to her: You don't need to interfere in my affairs. She said: You say this to me while your daughter harms the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him. I went to Hafsah and said: I warn you against disobeying Allah and His Messenger and cautioned her about harming him. Then I went to Umm Salamah and told her, and she said: How strange, O Umar, you interfere in our affairs nothing remains but for you to come between the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and his wives. Her words affected me. I had an Ansari friend when he was absent from the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and I was present, I would inform him of what happened, and if I was absent, he would inform me. We were vigilant around the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and everything was stable except for the king of Ghassan in Sham, whom we feared might attack. My Ansari friend came and said: A significant event has occurred. I asked: What is it? Has the Ghassani come? He said: Greater than that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, has divorced his wives. I came and heard crying from their rooms. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, was in an upper room accessible by stairs, with a servant at the door. I went to him and said: Permit me. He allowed me, and I entered. I saw the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, on a mat that left marks on his side, with a leather pillow stuffed with fiber under his head and some tanned leather and leaves hanging nearby. I mentioned what I said to Hafsah and Umm Salamah and what Umm Salamah replied to me, and the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, smiled. He stayed there for twenty-nine nights, then came down.

"Narrated to me Muhammad bin Abdullah Al-Ansari, he said: Narrated to me my father from Thumamah from Anas that when Abu Bakr, may Allah be pleased with him, was appointed as Caliph, he wrote to him, and the engraving on the ring had three lines: Muhammad on one line, Rasul on another, and Allah on the third. Abu Abdullah said: Ahmad added to me, narrated to us Al-Ansari, he said: Narrated to me my father from Thumamah from Anas, he said: The ring of the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, was in his hand, then in Abu Bakr's hand after him, then in Umar's hand after Abu Bakr. When it was with Uthman, he was sitting by the well of Aris. He took out the ring and played with it, and it fell. He said: We searched with Uthman for three days, draining the well, but did not find it.

"Narrated to us Ali bin Abdullah, narrated to us Sufyan, he said: I heard Abdurrahman bin Al-Qasim, and there was no one in Medina at that time better than him, he said: I heard my father say: I heard Aishah, may Allah be pleased with her, say: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, returned from a journey, and I had hung a curtain with images in my alcove. When the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, saw it, he tore it down and said: 'The people who will receive the severest punishment on the Day of Resurrection are those who imitate Allah's creation.' "Narrated to us Sa'id bin Abu Maryam, narrated to us Ismail bin Ibrahim bin Uqbah, he said: Informed me Nafi' from Ibn Umar, may Allah be pleased with them, from the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, he said: While three men were walking, rain overtook them, so they took shelter in a cave in a mountain. A rock fell over the mouth of their cave, trapping them inside. One of them said to the others: 'Look at the righteous deeds you have done for Allah and call upon Allah with them, perhaps He will relieve you.' One of them said: 'O Allah, I had two elderly parents and young children whom I provided for by herding. When I returned to them, I milked and began by giving my parents to drink before my children. One day, the grazing place was far, and I did not return until evening. I found them asleep, so I milked as usual and brought the milk, standing by their heads, disliking to wake them from their sleep and disliking to give the children before them, while the children were crying at my feet. That was my practice and theirs until dawn broke. If You know that I did that seeking Your Face, then open a gap for us so we may see the sky.' So Allah opened a gap for them until they could see the sky. The second said: 'O Allah, I had a female cousin whom I loved as much as a man can love a woman. I sought her, but she refused until I brought her a hundred dinars. I worked hard until I collected a hundred dinars and brought them to her. When I sat between her legs, she said: 'O servant of Allah, fear Allah and do not break the seal.' So I stood up and left her. O Allah, if You know that I did that seeking Your Face, then open a gap for us.' So Allah opened another gap for them. The other said: 'O Allah, I had hired a worker for a measure of rice. When he completed his work, he said: "Give me my right." I offered him his right, but he refused it and left. I kept planting it until I gathered cows and their shepherd from it. He came to me and said: 'Fear Allah and do not wrong me, give me my right.' I said: 'Go to those cows and their shepherd.' He said: 'Fear Allah and do not mock me.' I said: 'I am not mocking you, take those cows and their shepherd.' So he took them and left. If You know that I did that seeking Your Face, then open what remains.' So Allah opened the rest for them.

"Narrated to us Abu Al-Yaman, informed us Shu'aib from Az-Zuhri, he said: Narrated to me Auf bin Malik bin At-Tufail, who is Ibn Al-Harith, the nephew of Aishah, the wife of the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, through her mother, that Aishah was told that Abdullah bin Az-Zubair said about a sale or gift that Aishah gave him: 'By Allah, Aishah must stop, or I will isolate her.' Aishah said: 'Did he say that?' They said: 'Yes.' She said: 'It is a vow to Allah that I will never speak to Ibn Az-Zubair again.' When the estrangement lasted long, Ibn Az-Zubair sought intercession with her. She said: 'No, by Allah, I will not accept intercession for him, nor will I break my vow.' When it became prolonged for Ibn Az-Zubair, he spoke to Al-Miswar bin Makhrama and Abdurrahman bin Al-Aswad bin Abd Yaghuth, both from Banu Zuhrah, saying: 'I adjure you by Allah to bring me to Aishah, for it is not lawful for her to vow to cut me off.' Al-Miswar and Abdurrahman came to Aishah, wrapped in their cloaks, and sought permission, saying: 'Peace be upon you, and the mercy and blessings of Allah. May we enter?' Aishah said: 'Enter.' They said: 'All of us?' She said: 'Yes, all of you.' She did not know Ibn Az-Zubair was with them. When they entered, Ibn Az-Zubair went behind the curtain, embraced Aishah, pleaded with her, and wept. Al-Miswar and Abdurrahman urged her to speak to him and accept him, saying: 'The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, forbade estrangement, as you know, for it is not lawful for a Muslim to shun his brother for more than three nights.' When they persisted in reminding and urging Aishah, she recalled her vow, wept, and said: 'I have vowed, and the vow is severe.' They continued until she spoke to Ibn Az-Zubair and freed forty slaves for her vow. Afterward, she would recall her vow and weep until her veil was soaked with tears.

He looked at the sky, and we saw no clouds. Then he prayed for rain, and clouds gathered, one joining another, and it rained until the drains of Madinah flowed. It continued until the next Friday without stopping. Then that man or another stood while the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, was delivering the sermon and said: 'We are drowning, so ask your Lord to withhold it from us.' He smiled and said: 'O Allah, around us and not upon us,' two or three times. The clouds began to part from Madinah to the right and left, raining around it but not a drop fell on it, showing Allah’s honor to His Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and the acceptance of his supplication.

One of them was cursing his companion, angry, his face red. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said: I know a word that, if he said it, would remove what he feels. If he said: I seek refuge with Allah from the accursed Satan. They said to the man: Do you not hear what the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, is saying? He said: I am not mad.

When night came, Abu Ad-Darda went to pray, but Salman said, 'Sleep.' So he slept. Then he went to pray again, and Salman said, 'Sleep.' When it was the last part of the night, Salman said, 'Now get up.' They prayed, and Salman said to him, 'Your Lord has a right over you, your soul has a right over you, and your wife has a right over you, so give each their due right.' He came to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and mentioned that to him, and the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'Salman is right.' Abu Juhaifah, Wahb As-Suwa’i, is also called Wahb Al-Khair.

Abdullah bin Sahl was killed. Abdurrahman bin Sahl, Huwayyisah, and Muhayyisah bin Mas’ud went to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, to speak about their companion’s matter. Abdurrahman, the youngest among them, began speaking. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'Let the eldest speak first.' Yahya said, 'Meaning the eldest should speak.' They spoke about their companion’s matter, and the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'Will fifty of you swear to claim your companion’s blood?' They said, 'O Messenger of Allah, we didn’t witness it, how can we swear?' He said, 'Then the Jews will clear themselves with fifty of their oaths.' They said, 'O Messenger of Allah, they are disbelievers.' So the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, paid the blood money on their behalf. Sahl said, 'I found a camel from those camels, and when I put it in their pen, it kicked me with its leg.' Laith narrated from Yahya, from Bushair, from Sahl, and Yahya thought he said with Rafi’ bin Khadij. Ibn Uyaynah narrated from Yahya, from Bushair, from Sahl alone.

It occurred to me that it was the date-palm tree, but I hesitated to speak as Abu Bakr and Umar were present. When they did not speak, the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'It is the date-palm tree.' When I left with my father, I said, 'O father, it occurred to me that it was the date-palm tree.' He said, 'What stopped you from saying it? If you had, it would have been dearer to me than such-and-such.' I said, 'Nothing stopped me except that I saw neither you nor Abu Bakr speak, so I disliked speaking.'

"Narrated to us Qutaibah bin Sa’id, narrated to us Hatim bin Isma’il, from Yazid bin Abi Ubaid, from Salamah bin Al-Akwa’, he said: We went out with the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, to Khaibar and traveled at night. A man from the group said to Amir bin Al-Akwa’, 'Won’t you let us hear some of your poetry?' Amir was a poet, so he dismounted and recited for the people: 'O Allah, were it not for You, we would not have been guided, nor given charity, nor prayed. Forgive us as a ransom for what we have done, and make our steps firm when we meet the enemy, and grant us tranquility. When called, we come, and with our cries, they lament.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'Who is this driver?' They said, 'Amir bin Al-Akwa’.' He said, 'May Allah have mercy on him.' A man from the group said, 'It is destined, O Prophet of Allah, if only you had let us enjoy him longer.' We reached Khaibar and besieged them until we faced severe hunger. Then Allah granted victory over them. When evening came on the day of victory, the people lit many fires. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'What are these fires? What are you cooking?' They said, 'Meat.' He said, 'What meat?' They said, 'Domestic donkey meat.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'Pour it out and break it.' A man said, 'O Messenger of Allah, shall we pour it out and wash it?' He said, 'Or that.' When the two armies faced each other, Amir’s sword was short, and he struck a Jew’s leg, but the blade turned back and hit Amir’s knee, and he died from it. When they returned, Salamah said: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, saw me looking pale and said, 'What’s wrong with you?' I said, 'May my parents be sacrificed for you, they claim Amir’s deeds are void.' He said, 'Who said that?' I said, 'So-and-so, so-and-so, and Usaid bin Al-Hudhair Al-Ansari.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'Whoever said that has lied. He has two rewards,' joining his two fingers, 'He is indeed a striving warrior, and few Arabs were like him.'

He said, 'Woe to you, who would be just if I am not?' Umar said, 'Permit me to strike his neck.' He said, 'No, he has companions who would make one of you belittle his prayer compared to theirs and his fasting compared to theirs. They pass through religion like an arrow through a target. You look at its head, and there's nothing at its shaft, nothing at its fletching, nothing at its feathers, nothing. It has passed through dung and blood. They will appear during a time of division among people. Their sign is a man with one hand like a woman's breast or a piece of flesh that quivers.' Abu Sa'id said, 'I bear witness that I heard this from the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and I bear witness that I was with Ali when he fought them, and a man matching the description given by the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, was found among the dead.'

"Narrated to us Abu Al-Yaman, informed us Shu'aib, from Az-Zuhri, he said: Informed me Salim bin Abdullah, that Abdullah bin Umar informed him, that Umar bin Khattab went with the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, with a group of his companions toward Ibn Sayyad. They found him playing with children near the fortress of Bani Maghala. Ibn Sayyad was nearing puberty at that time but did not notice until the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, struck his back with his hand and said: 'Do you testify that I am the Messenger of Allah?' He looked at him and said: 'I testify that you are the Messenger of the unlettered.' Then Ibn Sayyad said: 'Do you testify that I am the Messenger of Allah?' The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, rejected him and said: 'I believe in Allah and His Messengers.' Then he said to Ibn Sayyad: 'What do you see?' He said: 'A truthful one and a liar come to me.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'The matter is confused for you.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'I have hidden something for you.' He said: 'It is smoke.' He said: 'Woe to you, you will not exceed your limit.' Umar said: 'O Messenger of Allah, permit me to strike his neck.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'If it is him, you will not be given power over him, and if it is not him, there is no good in killing him.' Salim said: I heard Abdullah bin Umar say: After that, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and Ubayy bin Ka'b Al-Ansari went toward the palm grove where Ibn Sayyad was. When the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, entered, he began to shield himself with palm trunks, trying to hear something from Ibn Sayyad before he saw him. Ibn Sayyad was lying on his bed in a velvet cloth, murmuring. Ibn Sayyad's mother saw the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, shielding himself with palm trunks and said to Ibn Sayyad: 'O Saf, this is Muhammad.' Ibn Sayyad woke up, and the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'If she had left him, it would have been clear.' Salim said: Abdullah said: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, stood among the people, praised Allah as He deserves, then mentioned the Dajjal and said: 'I warn you about him, and no prophet but has warned his people about him. Noah warned his people, but I will tell you something about him that no prophet has told his people: Know that he is one-eyed, and Allah is not one-eyed.' Abu Abdullah said: I drove away the dog, meaning I distanced it, and 'Khasi'in' [Quran 2:65] means expelled in disgrace.

"Narrated to us Abu Al-Yaman, informed us Shu'aib, from Az-Zuhri. And narrated to us Isma'il, he said: Narrated to me my brother, from Sulaiman, from Muhammad bin Abi 'Atiq, from Ibn Shihab, from Urwa bin Az-Zubair, that Usama bin Zaid, may Allah be pleased with them, informed him that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, rode a donkey with a Fadakiyya cloth saddle, with Usama behind him, to visit Sa'd bin Ubada in Bani Harith bin Al-Khazraj before the Battle of Badr. They passed by a gathering where Abdullah bin Ubayy bin Salul was, before he embraced Islam. The gathering included a mix of Muslims, polytheists, idol-worshippers, and Jews, with Abdullah bin Rawaha among the Muslims. When the dust from the mount covered the gathering, Abdullah bin Ubayy covered his nose with his cloak and said: 'Do not cover us with dust.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, greeted them, stopped, dismounted, invited them to Allah, and recited the Quran to them. Abdullah bin Ubayy bin Salul said: 'O man, there is nothing better than what you say if it is true, but do not disturb us in our gatherings. Go back, and narrate to those who come to you.' Abdullah bin Rawaha said: 'No, O Messenger of Allah, come to our gatherings, for we love it.' The Muslims, polytheists, and Jews began to curse each other until they nearly fought. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, kept calming them until they were silent. Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, mounted his animal and continued until he reached Sa'd bin Ubada. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'O Sa'd, did you not hear what Abu Hubab said?' – meaning Abdullah bin Ubayy – 'He said such and such.' Sa'd bin Ubada said: 'O Messenger of Allah, by my father, forgive him and be lenient with him. By the One who revealed the Book to you, Allah brought the truth you were given, and the people of this place had agreed to crown him and put a turban on him. When Allah rejected that with the truth given to you, he was upset, and that is why he did what you saw.' So the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, forgave him. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and his companions forgave the polytheists and the People of the Book as Allah commanded, enduring their harm. Allah Almighty said: 'You will certainly hear from those who were given the Scripture...' [Quran 3:186] and 'Many of the People of the Scripture wish...' [Quran 2:109]. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, followed Allah's command to forgive them until He permitted fighting them. When the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, fought at Badr and Allah killed the leaders of the disbelievers and the chiefs of Quraysh, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and his companions returned victorious, with spoils and captives from the leaders of the disbelievers and chiefs of Quraysh. Abdullah bin Ubayy bin Salul and the polytheists and idol-worshippers with him said: 'This matter has prevailed.' So they pledged allegiance to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, for Islam, and they embraced Islam.

And I was the most knowledgeable about the hijab when its command was revealed Ubay bin Ka'b even asked me about it. The command was first revealed during the marriage of the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him with Zainab binti Jahsh. At that time, the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him held a walimah feast, inviting people, and they enjoyed the food served. After that, they left, except for a few who remained with the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him, lingering longer. So the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him got up and left, and I went out with him so that they would leave too. Then the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him walked, and I walked with him until we reached the threshold of Aisha’s room. Then the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him thought they had left, so he returned, and I returned with him until he reached Zainab’s place, but they were still sitting there and had not left. So the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him returned again, and I returned with him until we reached the threshold of Aisha’s room, thinking they had left, so he returned, and I returned with him, and they had finally left. Then the verse of the hijab was revealed, and he placed a barrier between me and him.'

"Narrated to us [Ibrahim bin Musa] informed us [Hisyam] from [Ma'mar] from [Az Zuhri] from ['Urwah bin Zubair] he said informed me [Usamah bin Zaid] that the Prophet, peace be upon him, rode a donkey with a velvet Fadaki saddle, with Usamah bin Zaid riding behind him, when he went to visit Sa'ad bin 'Ubadah in Bani Al Harits Al Khazraj, before the Battle of Badr. He passed by a gathering that included a mix of Muslims, pagans, idol-worshippers, and Jews, among them Abdullah bin Ubay bin Salul and Abdullah bin Rawahah. When the dust from the animal covered the gathering, Abdullah bin Ubay covered his nose with his cloak and said 'Do not cover us with dust.' The Prophet, peace be upon him, greeted them, then stopped, dismounted, invited them to Allah, and recited the Quran to them. Abdullah bin Ubay bin Salul said to him 'O man! There is no good in what you say. If what you say is true, do not disturb us in our gathering. Return to your mount, and if any of us come to you, tell them.' Abdullah bin Rawahah said 'O Messenger of Allah, join us in our gatherings, for we love that.' Then the Muslims, pagans, and Jews began arguing until they almost attacked each other. The Prophet, peace be upon him, kept calming them until they quieted down. Then he mounted his animal and went to Sa'ad bin 'Ubadah's house and said 'O Sa'ad! Did you not hear what Abu Hubab said?' meaning Abdullah bin Ubay's words. He said 'He said such and such.' Sa'ad said 'Forgive him, O Messenger of Allah, and be lenient with him. By Allah, Allah has given you what He has given you. The people of this valley (Medina) had agreed to crown him and appoint him, but when the truth you were given emerged, it prevented him from becoming the leader, so that is why he did what you saw.' So the Prophet, peace be upon him, forgave him.

Ali said 'We found her riding her camel as the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, described. We said 'Where is the letter you have?' She replied 'I have no letter.' We made her camel kneel and searched her belongings but found nothing. My two companions said 'We don’t see a letter.' I said 'I am certain the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, does not lie. By the One by whom I swear, you will produce the letter, or I will strip you!' When she saw my seriousness, she reached for her waistband - as she was wearing a waistband with a cloth - and produced the letter.' Ali continued 'We brought the letter to the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him. He said 'O Hatib, what made you do this?' Hatib replied 'I only wanted to believe in Allah and His Messenger, and I have neither changed nor altered. I wanted to have a favor among the people so that Allah would protect my family and wealth, while none of your companions there have anyone to protect their family and wealth.' He said 'You have spoken the truth, so do not say anything to him except good.' Umar said 'O Messenger of Allah, he has betrayed Allah, His Messenger, and the believers. Let me strike his neck.' Ali continued 'He said 'O Umar, what do you know? Perhaps Allah has looked upon the people of Badr and said Do whatever you wish, for Paradise is guaranteed for you.' Umar's eyes welled up with tears, and he said 'Allah and His Messenger know best.'

Then Fatimah, peace be upon her, came walking, and by Allah, her walk was indistinguishable from that of the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him. When he saw her, he welcomed her, saying Welcome, my daughter! He seated her to his right or left, then whispered to her, and she wept intensely. Seeing her sadness, he whispered to her again, and she smiled. I said to her, among his wives The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, singled you out with a secret among us, and yet you weep. When the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, left, I asked her what he whispered. She said I would not disclose the secret of the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him. After he passed away, I said to her I urge you by my right over you to tell me. She said Now, yes. She told me, saying The first time he whispered, he informed me that Jibril used to review the Quran with him once or twice a year, and this year he did so twice, so I know my time is near. Fear Allah and be patient, for I am an excellent predecessor for you. She said So I wept as you saw. When he saw my distress, he whispered to me again, saying O Fatimah, are you not pleased to be the leader of the believing women or the best woman of this nation?

"Narrated to us [Ahmad bin Yunus] narrated to us [Abu Syihab] from [Al A'masy] from ['Umarah bin 'Umair] from [Al Harits bin Suwaid] narrated to us [Abdullah bin Mas'ud] regarding two hadiths, one from the Prophet, peace be upon him, and the other from himself, he said 'Indeed, a believer sees his sins as if he were sitting at the base of a mountain, fearing it might fall upon him, while a sinner sees his sins like a fly landing on his nose, and he brushes it off like this.' Abu Syihab gestured with his hand above his nose. He also said 'Allah rejoices more at the repentance of His servant than a man who stops at a perilous place with his mount carrying his food and drink, then lays his head down and sleeps. When he wakes, his mount has gone with his food and drink. When the heat and thirst intensify, or as Allah wills, he says, 'I should return to my place.' He returns and sleeps again. When he lifts his head, his mount is by his side.' This hadith is supported by [Abu 'Awanah] and [Jarir] from [Al A'masy]. [Abu Usamah] said narrated to us [Al A'masy] narrated to us ['Umarah] I heard [Al Harits]. And [Syu'bah], Abu Muslim, that is ['Ubaidullah Al Kufi], the guide of Al A'masy, also said from [Al A'masy] from [Ibrahim At Taimi] from [Al Harits bin Suwaid]. "Narrated to us [Musaddad] narrated to us [Mu'tamir] he said I heard [Manshur] from [Sa'd bin Ubaidah] he said narrated to me [Al Barra` bin 'Azib], may Allah be pleased with them, he said The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said to me: 'When you go to your bed, perform ablution as you would for prayer, then lie on your right side and say: O Allah, I surrender myself to You, entrust my affairs to You, and seek refuge in You with hope and fear. There is no refuge or safety from You except with You. I believe in Your Book which You have revealed and Your Prophet whom You have sent. If you die, you die in a state of natural purity. Make these words the last you say.' I said, 'Shall I memorize them: I believe in Your Messenger whom You have sent?' He said, 'No, but I believe in Your Prophet whom You have sent.'

He got up again, went to the water skin, untied it, and performed ablution between two ablutions, not excessive but sufficient, then prayed. I stood up, stretched, fearing he might think I was watching him, and performed ablution. He stood to pray, and I stood to his left. He took my ear and moved me to his right. His prayer totaled thirteen rak'ahs. Then he lay down and slept until he was snoring, as he would snore when sleeping. Bilal called the adhan for prayer, and he prayed without renewing ablution. In his supplication, he said: O Allah, place light in my heart, light in my sight, light in my hearing, light to my right, light to my left, light above me, light below me, light before me, light behind me, and grant me light. Kuraib said And seven in the chest. I met a man from the descendants of Al Abbas, and he narrated it to me, mentioning my nerves, my flesh, my blood, my hair, my skin, and two other qualities.

"Narrated to us [Hafsh bin Umar] narrated to us [Hisyam] from [Qatadah] from [Anas], may Allah be pleased with him that the companions asked the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, so persistently that they almost forced him with questions. So he got angry and ascended the pulpit and said, 'You will not ask me about anything today except that I will explain it to you.' Then I looked right and left, and every man was covering his head with his garment while weeping. Suddenly, a man who, when in conflict, was called by a name other than his father's, said, 'O Prophet of Allah, who is my father?' He replied, 'Your father is Hudzafah.' Then Umar quickly said, 'We are pleased with Allah as our Lord, Islam as our religion, and Muhammad, peace and blessings be upon him, as our Messenger, we seek refuge with Allah from trials.' Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'I have never seen good and evil like today, for today Paradise and Hell were depicted for me until I saw them both behind this wall.' And Qatadah always mentioned this hadith when reciting the verse, 'O you who believe, do not ask about things which, if made clear to you, may distress you.' (Q.S. Al Maidah: 101).

"Narrated to us [Qutaibah bin Sa'id] narrated to us [Isma'il bin Ja'far] from ['Amru bin Abu 'Amru], a freed slave of Al Mutthalib bin Abdullah bin Hanthab, that he heard [Anas bin Malik] say the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said to Abu Thalhah, 'Find me a boy from among your servants to assist me.' So Abu Thalhah took me behind him on his mount. I then became a servant of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. Every time he stopped at a place, he would often say, 'O Allah, I seek refuge in You from worry and sorrow, from weakness and laziness, from miserliness and cowardice, from the burden of debt and oppression by men.' I continued to serve him until we returned from Khaibar, and he returned with Shafiyah bint Huyai. I saw him covering her with a cloak and then seating her behind him. When we reached Shahba, he prepared hais in a leather vessel, then sent me to invite the companions. They ate the meal, and that was the start of his marriage with her. Then he continued the journey until Uhud came into view, and he said, 'This is a mountain that loves us, and we love it.' When entering Medina, he said, 'O Allah, I make sacred what lies between its two mountains, as Ibrahim made Mecca sacred. O Allah, bless them in their mudd and sa'.'

He said, "They spoke the truth indeed, some are punished in a way that all animals can hear." After that, I never saw him except that he sought refuge from the punishment of the grave after prayer.'

"Narrated to us [Musa bin Isma'il] narrated to us [Ibrahim bin Sa'd] narrated to us [Ibnu Syihab] from ['Amir bin Sa'd] that [his father] said 'During the Farewell Pilgrimage, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, visited me when I was ill with a sickness that led to my death. I said, 'O Messenger of Allah, my condition has worsened, as you see, and I am a man of wealth, but I have only one daughter to inherit my estate. Should I give away two-thirds of my wealth in charity?' He said, 'No.' I asked, 'Then half of it?' He replied, 'A third is sufficient, and even a third is a lot. It is better to leave your heirs wealthy than to leave them in poverty, begging from others. Whatever you spend seeking Allah’s pleasure, you will be rewarded for it, even for the morsel you place in your wife’s mouth.' I asked, 'Will I remain alive after my companions pass away?' He replied, 'You will not live long, and if you perform any deed seeking Allah’s pleasure, your rank will increase. May you live long so that some people benefit from you and others suffer because of you. O Allah, complete the emigration of my companions and do not turn them back to disbelief. But poor Sa'd bin Khaulah.' Sa'd said, 'Then the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, prayed for him because he died in Mecca.'

(He said): 'If one of you intends to do something, let him perform two rak'ahs and then say: O Allah, I seek Your guidance with Your knowledge, and I seek Your decree with Your power, and I ask You of Your great bounty, for You have power and I have none, You know and I know not, and You are the Knower of the unseen. O Allah, if You know that this matter (and he mentions his need) is good for me in my religion, my livelihood, and the outcome of my affairs—or he said in the immediate and future of my affairs—then decree it for me, make it easy for me, and bless me in it. But if You know that this matter (and he mentions his need) is bad for me in my religion, my livelihood, and the outcome of my affairs—or he said in the immediate and future of my affairs—then turn it away from me and turn me away from it, and decree for me what is good wherever it may be, and make me pleased with it.' "Narrated to us [Isma'il] he said narrated to me [Malik] from [Nafi'] from [Abdullah bin Umar], may Allah be pleased with them both, that: 'When the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, returned from a battle, Hajj, or Umrah, he would proclaim takbir three times at every elevated place and then say: There is no deity except Allah, alone, without partner. To Him belongs the dominion, and to Him belongs all praise, and He is over all things competent. We return, repent, worship, and prostrate to our Lord, praising Him. Allah has fulfilled His promise, supported His servant, and defeated the confederates alone.'

He kept supplicating to his Lord, then said: 'O Aisyah, have you felt that Allah has given me a ruling on what I sought His ruling on?' Aisyah said: 'What is that, O Messenger of Allah?' He replied: 'Two men came to me one sat at my head and the other at my feet. One of them said to his companion: 'What is the man's ailment?' He said: 'He is bewitched.' He asked: 'Who bewitched him?' He said: 'Labid bin Al A'sham.' He asked: 'With what?' He said: 'With hair that fell (when combed) and the husk of a date palm.' He asked: 'Where is it?' He said: 'In the well of Dzarwan.'—Dzarwan is a well in Bani Zuraiq—Aisyah continued: 'Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, went to it, then returned to Aisyah and said: 'By Allah, its water was like the infusion of henna, and its palm trees were like the heads of devils.' Aisyah said: 'Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, came and informed her about the well, and I said: 'O Messenger of Allah, why not take it out?' He said: 'As for me, Allah has cured me, and I disliked causing evil to spread among the people.' [Isa bin Yunus] and [Al Laits bin Sa'd] added from [Hisyam] from [his father] from [Aisyah] she said: 'The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, was bewitched, so he kept supplicating and supplicating...' Narrated to us [Qutaibah bin Sa'id] narrated to us [Jarir] from [Al A'masy] from [Abu Shalih] from [Abu Hurairah] he said The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: "Indeed, Allah has angels who roam the roads seeking the people of remembrance. When they find a group remembering Allah, they call out to one another: 'Come to what you are seeking.' Then they surround them with their wings up to the lowest heaven. Their Lord asks them—and He knows better than they—'What are My servants saying?' They say: 'They are glorifying You, magnifying You, praising You, and exalting You.' He says: 'Have they seen Me?' They say: 'No, by Allah, they have not seen You.' He says: 'What if they had seen Me?' They say: 'If they had seen You, they would be more fervent in worshiping You, more intense in exalting and praising You, and more abundant in glorifying You.' He says: 'What do they ask of Me?' They say: 'They ask You for Paradise.' He says: 'Have they seen it?' They say: 'No, by Allah, O Lord, they have not seen it.' He says: 'What if they had seen it?' They say: 'If they had seen it, they would be more eager for it, more ardent in seeking it, and greater in their desire for it.' He says: 'From what do they seek refuge?' They say: 'From the Fire.' He says: 'Have they seen it?' They say: 'No, by Allah, O Lord, they have not seen it.' He says: 'What if they had seen it?' They say: 'If they had seen it, they would flee from it more intensely and fear it more greatly.' He says: 'I bear witness to you that I have forgiven them.' One of the angels says: 'Among them is so-and-so who is not one of them he came for some need.' He says: 'They are the companions whose associate does not suffer misery.'

He was asked: 'What are the blessings of the earth?' He said: 'The adornments of the world.' A man said to him: 'Can good bring evil?' The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, remained silent for a while until we thought revelation was being sent down to him. Then he wiped his forehead and said: 'Where is the questioner?' The man said: 'I am here.' Abu Sa'id said: 'We praised him when he appeared.' He said: 'Good does not bring anything but good. Indeed, this wealth is green and sweet, and all that the spring produces either kills or causes distress, except for the eater of green, who eats until its flanks are full, then faces the sun, chews its cud, defecates, urinates, and returns to eat. Indeed, this wealth is sweet. Whoever takes it rightfully and uses it rightfully, it is an excellent aid. But whoever takes it wrongfully is like one who eats and is never satisfied.'

Narrated to us [Qutaibah bin Sa'id] narrated to us [Jarir] from [Abdul Aziz bin Rufai'] from [Zaid bin Wahb] from [Abu Dzar], may Allah be pleased with him, he said "One night, I went out, and I saw the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, walking alone with no one accompanying him. I thought he might dislike someone walking with him, so I walked in the shadow of the moon. He turned and saw me and said, 'Who is this?' I said, 'Abu Dzar, may Allah make me your ransom.' He said, 'O Abu Dzar, come here.' I walked with him for a while, and he said, 'Indeed, those who amass wealth will be the least on the Day of Resurrection, except for those whom Allah has given goodness, and they distribute it to their right, their left, in front of them, and behind them, and do good with it.' I walked with him for a while, and he said to me, 'Sit here.' He made me sit in a place surrounded by stones and said, 'Sit here until I return to you.' He went into the rocky area until I could no longer see him, and he stayed away for a long time. Then I heard him as he approached, saying, 'Even if he steals and commits adultery.' When he returned, I could not hold back and said, 'O Prophet of Allah, may Allah make me your ransom, who were you speaking to on the side of the rocky area? I did not hear anyone respond to you.' He said, 'That was Jibril, peace be upon him, who appeared to me on the side of the rocky area and said, 'Give glad tidings to your nation that whoever dies without associating anything with Allah will enter Paradise.' I said, 'O Jibril, even if he steals and commits adultery?' He said, 'Yes.' I said, 'Even if he steals and commits adultery?' He said, 'Yes, and even if he drinks alcohol.' [An Nadlr] said informed us [Syu'bah] narrated to us [Habib bin Abu Tsabit] and [Al A'masy] and [Abdul Aziz bin Rufai'] narrated to us [Zaid bin Wahb] with this hadith. Abu Abdullah said 'The hadith of Abu Shalih from Abu Darda` is mursal and not authentic we only wanted to know it, and the authentic one is the hadith of Abu Dzar.' It was asked to Abu Abdullah about the hadith of Atha` bin Yasar from Abu Darda`, and he said, 'It is also mursal and not authentic the authentic one is the hadith of Abu Dzar.' He also said, 'Take the hadith of Abu Darda` about: "If (someone) dies saying 'There is no deity except Allah' at the time of death."'

Narrated to us [Al Hasan bin Ar Rabi'] narrated to us [Abu Al Ahwash] from [Al A'masy] from [Zaid bin Wahb] he said [Abu Dzar] said "I was walking with the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, in the rocky area of Medina, and we faced Mount Uhud. He said, 'O Abu Dzar!' I said, 'At your service, O Messenger of Allah.' He said, 'It would not please me to have gold like this Mount Uhud and have it stay with me for three nights, with even a dinar of it remaining, except for something I set aside for a debt, unless I say with it for the servants of Allah, like this, like this, and like this,' demonstrating with his hand to the right, left, and behind him. Then he walked and said, 'Indeed, those who amass the most will be the least on the Day of Resurrection, except those who say like this, like this, and like this,' demonstrating to the right, left, and behind him, 'and they are few.' Then he said to me, 'Stay in your place, do not move until I come back to you.' He went into the darkness of the night until he disappeared. I heard a loud voice and feared something had happened to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him. I wanted to go to him, but I remembered his words, 'Do not move until I come back to you,' so I did not move until he returned. I said, 'O Messenger of Allah, I heard a loud voice and was afraid,' and I mentioned it to him. He said, 'Did you hear it?' I said, 'Yes.' He said, 'That was Jibril who came to me and said, 'Whoever from your nation dies without associating anything with Allah will enter Paradise.' I said, 'Even if he commits adultery and steals?' He said, 'Even if he commits adultery and steals.'

Narrated to me [Abu Nu'aim] with about half of this hadith narrated to us ['Umar bin Dzar] narrated to us [Mujahid] that [Abu Hurairah] said "By Allah, the One besides whom there is no deity, I used to press my stomach against the ground due to hunger, and I would tie a stone to my belly due to hunger. One day, I sat on their path, the one they used to come out from. Abu Bakr passed by, and I asked him about a verse from the Book of Allah, not asking him except so he would feed me, but he passed by and did not do so. Then Umar passed by, and I asked him about a verse from the Book of Allah, not asking him except so he would feed me, but he passed by and did not do so. Then Abul Qasim, peace and blessings be upon him, passed by, smiled when he saw me, and knew what was in my heart and on my face. He said, 'O Abu Hirr!' I said, 'At your service, O Messenger of Allah.' He said, 'Follow me.' He proceeded, and I followed him. He entered and asked permission for me, and I was permitted to enter. He found milk in a bowl and said, 'Where did this milk come from?' They said, 'So-and-so or so-and-so gifted it to you.' He said, 'O Abu Hirr!' I said, 'At your service, O Messenger of Allah.' He said, 'Go to the people of the Suffah and call them to me.' The people of the Suffah were the guests of Islam, with no family, wealth, or anyone to turn to. When charity came to him, he would send it to them and not take anything from it, and when a gift came to him, he would send some to them and take some, sharing it with them. This saddened me, and I said, 'What is this milk for the people of the Suffah? I am more entitled to drink from this milk to gain strength.' When they came, he ordered me to give it to them, and I thought, 'What will reach me from this milk?' But there was no escaping obedience to Allah and His Messenger, peace and blessings be upon him. I went to them and called them, and they came, asked permission, and were permitted, taking their seats in the house. He said, 'O Abu Hirr!' I said, 'At your service, O Messenger of Allah.' He said, 'Take it and give it to them.' I took the bowl and gave it to a man, who drank until he was satisfied, then returned the bowl to me. I gave it to another man, who drank until he was satisfied, then returned the bowl to me, and so on until I reached the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and all the people had drunk their fill. He took the bowl, placed it in his hand, looked at me, smiled, and said, 'O Abu Hirr!' I said, 'At your service, O Messenger of Allah.' He said, 'Now it is just you and me.' I said, 'You are right, O Messenger of Allah.' He said, 'Sit and drink.' I sat and drank. He said, 'Drink,' and I drank. He kept saying, 'Drink,' until I said, 'No, by the One who sent you with the truth, I can find no more room for it.' He said, 'Give it to me.' I gave him the bowl, he praised Allah, said His name, and drank the remainder.

Narrated to us [Musa] narrated to us [Mu'tamir] I heard [my father] narrated to us [Qatadah] from ['Uqbah bin Abdul Ghafir] from [Abu Sa'id Al Khudri], may Allah be pleased with him, from the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, he mentioned a man from those who came before or before you, whom Allah gave wealth and children. When death approached, he said to his sons, 'What kind of father was I to you?' They said, 'The best father.' He said, 'Indeed, he did not store up good with Allah.' Qatadah explained, 'He did not amass good deeds.' He said, 'If I meet Allah, He will punish me. So look, when I die, burn me, and when I become charcoal, crush me,' or he said, 'grind me. Then, when there is a stormy wind, scatter me in it.' He took their firm oaths to do so, and by my Lord, they did. Allah said, 'Be,' and there was a man standing. Then He said, 'O My servant, what made you do what you did?' He said, 'Fear of You,' or 'Dread of You.' So Allah had mercy on him and nothing of his deeds destroyed him. I told [Abu Utsman], and he said, I heard [Salman], but he added, 'And scatter me in the sea,' or as he narrated. [Mu'adz] said narrated to us [Syu'bah] from [Qatadah] I heard ['Uqbah] I heard [Abu Sa'id Al Khudri] from the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him.

Immediately, someone followed him, and kept following until the warrior was wounded and sought to hasten his death. He took the tip of his sword, placed it on his chest, and thrust it through between his shoulders. He told us: "Initially, trust was placed in the depths of people's hearts, then they learned from the Quran and the Sunnah." And he told us about the removal of trust, saying: "A man sleeps soundly, and trust is taken from his heart, leaving a trace like a footprint. Then he sleeps soundly again, and trust is taken again, leaving a mark like a blister, like an ember rolled on your foot, causing it to blister, and you see it swollen, though it is empty. Then people rush to pledge allegiance, and hardly anyone fulfills the trust. Then it is said: 'In the tribe of so-and-so, there is a trustworthy man.' And it is said of a man: 'How wise he is, how clever he is, how brave he is,' yet there is not a mustard seed's worth of faith in his heart." A time passed for me when I did not care whom among you I dealt with, for if he was a Muslim, his Islam would guide him to me, and if he was a Christian, his tax collector would guide him to me. But today, I would not deal with anyone except so-and-so and so-and-so.

Narrated to us [Hudbah bin Khalid] narrated to us [Hammam] narrated to us [Qatadah] narrated to us [Anas bin Malik] from [Mu'adz bin Jabal], may Allah be pleased with him, saying, While I was riding behind the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, with nothing between me and him except the back of the saddle, he called: "O Mu'adz!" I replied, "Here I am, at your service, O Messenger of Allah." Then he continued traveling for a while and said: "O Mu'adz!" I replied, "Here I am, at your service, O Messenger of Allah." He asked: "Do you know what Allah's right over His servants is?" I said, "Allah and His Messenger know best." He said: "Allah's right over His servants is that they worship Him purely and associate nothing with Him." Then he continued traveling and called: "O Mu'adz bin Jabal!" I replied, "Here I am, at your service, O Messenger of Allah." He said: "Do you know what the servants' right over Allah is if they do so?" I said, "Allah and His Messenger know best." He explained: "The servants' right over Allah is that He does not punish them."

Narrated to us [Malik bin Ismail] narrated to us [Zuhair] narrated to us [Humaid] from [Anas], may Allah be pleased with him, The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, had a she-camel. According to another chain, narrated to me [Muhammad] informed us [Al Fazari] and [Abu Khalid Al Ahmar] from [Humaid ath Thawil] from [Anas] saying The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, had a she-camel named 'Adhba'. This camel was never beaten (in a race). Then a Bedouin came on his young camel and outraced it. This shocked the Muslims, and they said, "The 'Adhba' has been surpassed, the 'Adhba' has been surpassed." Immediately, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: "It is a right upon Allah that nothing is raised in this world except that He lowers it later."

My servant does not draw near to Me with anything more beloved to Me than what I have made obligatory upon him. My servant continues to draw near to Me with voluntary acts until I love him. When I love him, I am his hearing with which he hears, his sight with which he sees, his hand with which he strikes, and his foot with which he walks. If he asks Me, I will surely give him, and if he seeks My protection, I will surely protect him. I do not hesitate about anything I do as I hesitate about taking the soul of a believer who fears death, for I fear causing him distress."

Aisha or some of his wives commented, "We are anxious about death!" The Prophet then said: "That is not what it means, but the true meaning is that when death approaches a believer, he is given glad tidings of Allah's pleasure and honor, so there is nothing more beloved to him than what lies ahead, thus he loves to meet Allah, and Allah loves to meet him. Conversely, when death approaches a disbeliever, he is given bad news of Allah's punishment and torment, so there is nothing more hated to him than what lies ahead, he hates to meet Allah, and Allah hates to meet him."

When he was ill and his head was on my thigh, he fainted for a while, then regained consciousness and fixed his gaze on the ceiling, saying: "O Allah, unite me with the highest companion." I said to myself: This means he will not choose to stay with us, and Aisha understood that this was the statement he had previously told us. Aisha continued, that was the last thing the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said: "O Allah, unite me with the highest companion."

The first of creation to be clothed is Ibrahim, peace be upon him, and some people from my nation will be brought and taken to the left, so I will plead: 'O Lord, my companions, my companions.' But Allah will say: 'You do not know what they did after you.' So I will say as the righteous servant (meaning Jesus) said: 'And I was a witness over them while I dwelt amongst them' up to the verse 'Indeed, You are the Mighty, the Wise' (Quran, Al-Maidah 5:118-119). It is said that they turned apostate afterward.

Narrated to me [Yusuf bin Musa] narrated to us [Jarir] from [Al A'masy] from [Abu Shalih] from [Abu Sa'id] said: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: "Allah says: 'O Adam.' He replies: 'Here I am, at Your service, and all good is in Your hands.' Allah says: 'Bring forth the delegation of Hell.' Adam says: 'What is the delegation of Hell?' Allah says: 'From every thousand, nine hundred and ninety-nine.' That is when the young will turn gray, as the verse says: 'And every pregnant woman will drop her load, and you will see people intoxicated, though they are not intoxicated, but the punishment of Allah is severe' (Quran, Al-Hajj 22:2)." This caused them distress, and they said: "O Messenger of Allah, which of us is that one man?" He said: "Rejoice, for from Gog and Magog, a thousand will be taken, and from you, one." Then he said: "By the One in Whose hand is my soul, I hope you will be a third of the people of Paradise." We praised Allah and glorified Him. Then he said: "By the One in Whose hand is my soul, I hope you will be half the people of Paradise. Your likeness among the nations is like a white hair on the skin of a black bull or a mark on the arm of a donkey."

Narrated to me [Shalat bin Muhammad] narrated to us [Yazid bin Zurai'] regarding the verse: 'And We remove whatever rancor is in their breasts' (Quran, Al-Hijr 15:47), he said, narrated to us [Sa'id] from [Qatadah] from [Abu Mutawakkil An Naji], that [Abu Sa'id Al Khudzri], may Allah be pleased with him, said, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: "The believers will be saved from the Fire, then they will be detained on a bridge between Paradise and the Fire, where wrongs committed among them in the world will be settled against one another. When they are purified and cleansed, they will be permitted to enter Paradise. By the One in Whose hand is Muhammad's soul, each of them will be more familiar with their abode in Paradise than they were with their abode in the world."

Narrated to us [Musaddad] narrated to us [Abu 'Awanah] from [Qotadah] from [Anas], may Allah be pleased with him, said, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: "On the Day of Resurrection, Allah gathers all people, and they say: 'If only we could seek intercession with our Lord to relieve us from this place.' So they come to Adam and say: 'You are the one whom Allah created with His Hand, breathed His Spirit into you, and commanded the angels to prostrate to you, so intercede for us with our Lord!' But Adam replies: 'This is not my place to help you,' mentioning his sin, and says: 'Go to Noah, the first messenger Allah sent.' They go to Noah, but he says: 'This is not my place to help you,' mentioning his sin, and says: 'Go to Ibrahim, whom Allah took as His friend.' They go to him, but he says: 'This is not my place to help you,' mentioning his sin, and says: 'Go to Moses, to whom Allah spoke.' They go to Moses, but he says: 'This is not my place to help you,' mentioning his sin, and says: 'Go to Jesus.' They go to Jesus, and he says: 'This is not my place to help you,' and says: 'Go to Muhammad, peace and blessings be upon him, for his past and future sins have been forgiven.' So they come to me, and I ask permission from my Lord. When I see Him, I fall in prostration, and He leaves me as long as Allah wills, then it is said to me: 'Raise your head, ask, and you will be given speak, and you will be heard intercede, and your intercession will be accepted.' So I raise my head, praise my Lord with praises He teaches me, then I intercede, and He sets a limit for me. I take them out of Hell and admit them to Paradise. Then I return and fall in prostration again, and the same happens the third or fourth time until none remain in Hell except those detained by the Quran. And Qatadah said regarding this: 'Thus eternity is obligatory for them.'"

Hadith Imam Bukhari Number 6086

حَدَّثَنَا عُثْمَانُ بْنُ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ حَدَّثَنَا جَرِيرٌ عَنْ مَنْصُورٍ عَنْ إِبْرَاهِيمَ عَنْ عَبِيدَةَ عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ قَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنِّي لَأَعْلَمُ آخِرَ أَهْلِ النَّارِ خُرُوجًا مِنْهَا وَآخِرَ أَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ دُخُولًا رَجُلٌ يَخْرُجُ مِنْ النَّارِ كَبْوًا فَيَقُولُ اللَّهُ اذْهَبْ فَادْخُلْ الْجَنَّةَ فَيَأْتِيهَا فَيُخَيَّلُ إِلَيْهِ أَنَّهَا مَلْأَى فَيَرْجِعُ فَيَقُولُ يَا رَبِّ وَجَدْتُهَا مَلْأَى فَيَقُولُ اذْهَبْ فَادْخُلْ الْجَنَّةَ فَيَأْتِيهَا فَيُخَيَّلُ إِلَيْهِ أَنَّهَا مَلْأَى فَيَرْجِعُ فَيَقُولُ يَا رَبِّ وَجَدْتُهَا مَلْأَى فَيَقُولُ اذْهَبْ فَادْخُلْ الْجَنَّةَ فَإِنَّ لَكَ مِثْلَ الدُّنْيَا وَعَشَرَةَ أَمْثَالِهَا أَوْ إِنَّ لَكَ مِثْلَ عَشَرَةِ أَمْثَالِ الدُّنْيَا فَيَقُولُ تَسْخَرُ مِنِّي أَوْ تَضْحَكُ مِنِّي وَأَنْتَ الْمَلِكُ فَلَقَدْ رَأَيْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ضَحِكَ حَتَّى بَدَتْ نَوَاجِذُهُ وَكَانَ يَقُولُ ذَاكَ أَدْنَى أَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ مَنْزِلَةً

Narrated to us [Utsman bin Abu Syaibah] narrated to us [Jarir] from [Manshur] from [Ibrahim] from [Abidah] from [Abdullah], may Allah be pleased with him, the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said: "Indeed, I know the last person to come out of Hell and the last person to enter Paradise. A man will come out of Hell crawling, and Allah, Blessed and Exalted, will say: 'Go and enter Paradise.' He will come to it, and it will seem to him that it is full. He will return and say: 'O Lord, I found it full.' Allah will say: 'Go and enter Paradise.' He will come to it, and it will seem to him that it is full. He will return and say: 'O Lord, I found it full.' Allah will say: 'Go and enter Paradise, for you will have the equivalent of the world and ten times more, or you will have ten times the world.' He will say: 'Are You mocking me or laughing at me, when You are the King?' And I saw the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, laugh until his molars were visible, and he said: 'That is the lowest in rank among the people of Paradise.'"

Narrated to us [Abul Yaman] informed us [Syu'aib] from [Az Zuhri] informed me [Sa'id] and ['Atho' bin Yazid], that [Abu Hurairah] informed them from the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him - through another chain - narrated to me [Mahmud] narrated to us [Abdurrazaq] informed us [Ma'mar] from [Az Zuhri] from ['Atho' bin Yazid Al Laitsi] from [Abu Hurairah] said: Some people asked, 'O Messenger of Allah, will we see our Lord on the Day of Resurrection?' He said: 'Do you find it difficult to see the sun when there are no clouds?' They said: 'No, O Messenger of Allah.' He said: 'Do you find it difficult to see the full moon on a clear night?' They said: 'No, O Messenger of Allah.' He said: 'Indeed, you will see Him on the Day of Resurrection like that. Allah will gather all people and say: 'Whoever worshipped something, let him follow it.' So those who worshipped the sun will follow it, those who worshipped the moon will follow it, and those who worshipped false deities will follow them, leaving this nation with its hypocrites. Allah will come to them in a form they do not recognize and say: 'I am your Lord.' They will say: 'We seek refuge in Allah from you. This is our place until our Lord comes to us, and when our Lord comes, we will recognize Him.' Then Allah will come to them in the form they recognize and say: 'I am your Lord.' They will say: 'You are our Lord,' and they will follow Him. The bridge of Hell will be set up.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'I will be the first to cross it. The supplication of the messengers that day will be: 'O Allah, grant safety, grant safety.' It has hooks like the thorns of the Sa'dan plant. Have you not seen the thorns of the Sa'dan?' They said: 'Yes, O Messenger of Allah.' He said: 'They are like the thorns of the Sa'dan, but no one knows their magnitude except Allah. They will snatch people according to their deeds. Some will be destroyed by their actions, and some will be torn but then saved. When Allah has finished judging His servants and wishes to bring out from Hell those He wills from among those who testified that there is no god but Allah, He will command the angels to bring them out. They will recognize them by the marks of prostration, as Allah has forbidden the Fire from consuming the marks of prostration on the children of Adam. They will bring them out, charred, and water called the Water of Life will be poured on them, and they will grow like a seed grows on the bank of a torrent. One man among them will remain, facing the Fire, and say: 'O Lord, its stench has choked me, and its blaze has burned me. Turn my face away from the Fire.' He will continue to supplicate Allah, and Allah will say: 'Perhaps if I grant you this, you will ask for something else.' He will say: 'No, by Your Might, I will not ask for anything else.' So Allah will turn his face away from the Fire. Then he will say: 'O Lord, bring me closer to the gate of Paradise.' Allah will say: 'Did you not claim you would not ask for anything else? Woe to you, son of Adam, how treacherous you are!' He will continue to supplicate, and Allah will say: 'Perhaps if I grant you this, you will ask for something else.' He will say: 'No, by Your Might, I will not ask for anything else.' He will give Allah covenants and pledges not to ask for anything else, so Allah will bring him closer to the gate of Paradise. When he sees what is in it, he will remain silent as long as Allah wills, then say: 'O Lord, admit me to Paradise.' Allah will say: 'Did you not claim you would not ask for anything else? Woe to you, son of Adam, how treacherous you are!' He will say: 'O Lord, do not make me the most wretched of Your creation.' He will continue to supplicate until Allah laughs. When Allah laughs at him, He will permit him to enter. When he enters, it will be said to him: 'Wish for this,' and he will wish. Then it will be said: 'Wish for that,' and he will wish until his wishes are exhausted. Allah will say: 'This is for you and its like with it.' Abu Hurairah said: 'That man is the last of the people of Paradise to enter.' 'Atho' said: And Abu Sa'id Al Khudzri was sitting with Abu Hurairah and did not change anything in his hadith until he reached the saying: 'This is for you and its like with it.' Abu Sa'id said: 'I heard the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, say: 'This is for you and ten times its like.' Abu Hurairah said: 'I memorized its like with it.'"

Narrated to us [Sa'id bin Abi Maryam] narrated to us [Muhammad bin Mutharrif] narrated to me [Abu Hazim] from [Sahal bin Sa'd] said, the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said: "I am the one who precedes you to the pond. Whoever comes to me will drink, and whoever drinks will never thirst again. Some people will come to me whom I recognize, and they recognize me, but a barrier will be placed between me and them." [Abu Hazim] said: [Nu'man bin Abi 'Ayyash] heard me and said: 'Is this how you heard it from Sahal?' I said: 'Yes.' He said: 'I bear witness that I heard it from [Abu Sa'id Alkhudzri], and he added: I will say: 'They are from me!' But it will be said: 'You do not know what they innovated after you.'

So I will say: 'Away, away with those who changed after me.' Ibn 'Abbas said: The term 'suhqan' means distance. Sahiq means far, and ashaqa means to distance. [Ahmad bin Syabib bin Sa'id Al Habathi] said, narrated to us [my father] from [Yunus] from [Ibnu Syihab] from [Sa'id bin Musayyab] from [Abu Hurairah] that he narrated that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: "A group of my companions will come to me at the pond on the Day of Resurrection, but they will be turned away from it. I will say: 'O Lord, my companions!' It will be said: 'You have no knowledge of what they innovated after you. They turned back on their heels.'"

Hibban bin Musa narrated to us, Abdullah informed us, Yunus informed us from Az Zuhri, who said: Abdullah bin Muhairiz Al Jumahi informed me that Abu Sa'id Al Khudzri informed him that while he was sitting with the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, a man from the Ansar came and said: 'O Messenger of Allah, we acquire captives and love wealth. What do you think about coitus interruptus?' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'Do you do that thinking it will prevent conception? You do not have to do it, for no soul that Allah has decreed to come into existence will fail to do so.'

THE PROPHET'S SERMON ON THE COMING OF THE DOOMSDAY
Hadith Imam Bukhari Number 6114

حَدَّثَنَا مُوسَى بْنُ مَسْعُودٍ حَدَّثَنَا سُفْيَانُ عَنْ الْأَعْمَشِ عَنْ أَبِي وَائِلٍ عَنْ حُذَيْفَةَ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ قَالَلَقَدْ خَطَبَنَا النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ خُطْبَةً مَا تَرَكَ فِيهَا شَيْئًا إِلَى قِيَامِ السَّاعَةِ إِلَّا ذَكَرَهُ عَلِمَهُ مَنْ عَلِمَهُ وَجَهِلَهُ مَنْ جَهِلَهُ إِنْ كُنْتُ لَأَرَى الشَّيْءَ قَدْ نَسِيتُ فَأَعْرِفُ مَا يَعْرِفُ الرَّجُلُ إِذَا غَابَ عَنْهُ فَرَآهُ فَعَرَفَهُ

Musa bin Mas'ud narrated to us, Sufyan narrated to us from Al A'masy from Abu Wa'il from Khudzaifah, may Allah be pleased with him, who said: The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, delivered a sermon to us in which he left out nothing that would happen until the Hour, mentioning it. Those who knew it knew it, and those who were ignorant remained ignorant. I would see something I had forgotten, then recognize it as a man recognizes something when he sees it after being absent and knows it.

with the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, who had a stick with which he was striking the ground, and he said: 'None of you but his place in Hell or Paradise has been written.' A man from the people said: 'Should we not rely on this, O Messenger of Allah?' He said: 'No, strive, for everyone is facilitated.' Then he recited: 'As for he who gives and fears Allah' (Quran, Al-Lail 5).

Hibban bin Musa narrated to us, Abdullah informed us, Ma'mar informed us from Az Zuhri from Sa'id bin Musayyab from Abu Hurairah, may Allah be pleased with him, who said: We attended Khaibar with the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said about a man who was with him claiming to be Muslim: 'This man is from the people of Hell.' When the battle began, the man fought fiercely and received many wounds, which immobilized him. A companion of the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, came and said: 'O Messenger of Allah, did you see the man you said was from the people of Hell? He fought fiercely and received many wounds.' The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'Indeed, he is from the people of Hell.' Some Muslims almost doubted. While in that state, the man felt the pain of his wounds, reached for his quiver, took an arrow, and killed himself with it. Some Muslim men rushed to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and said: 'O Messenger of Allah, Allah has confirmed your statement. So-and-so committed suicide.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'O Bilal, stand and announce: None will enter Paradise except a believer, and Allah strengthens this religion with a wicked man.'

Sa'id bin Abi Maryam narrated to us, Abu Ghassan narrated to us, Abu Hazim narrated to me from Sahal bin Sa'd, that a man, one of the most courageous Muslims in a battle fought with the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, was observed by the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, who said: 'Whoever wants to see a man from the people of Hell, let him look at this one.' A man from the people followed him, and he was in that state, the fiercest against the polytheists, until he was wounded and hastened death. He placed the hilt of his sword between his chest until it came out between his shoulders. The man rushed to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and said: 'I bear witness that you are the Messenger of Allah.' He said: 'What is that?' He said: 'You said about so-and-so: Whoever wants to see a man from the people of Hell, let him look at him. He was the most courageous among us Muslims. I knew he would not die in that state. When he was wounded, he hastened death and killed himself.' The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, then said: 'Indeed, a servant may perform the deeds of the people of Hell but be from the people of Paradise, and perform the deeds of the people of Paradise but be from the people of Hell. Deeds are judged by their endings.'

He said: 'My son was a worker for this man and committed adultery with his wife. I was told my son must be stoned, so I ransomed him with a hundred sheep and a slave girl. Then I asked the scholars, who said my son should receive a hundred lashes and a year’s exile, and stoning applies to the woman.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'By the One in whose Hand is my soul, I will judge between you by Allah’s Book. Your sheep and slave girl are returned to you, your son will receive a hundred lashes and a year’s exile.' He ordered Unais Al Aslami to go to the other man’s wife, and if she confessed, to stone her. She confessed, and he stoned her.

When he finished his work, he came to the Prophet and said: 'O Messenger of Allah, this is for you, and this was given to me as a gift.' The Prophet said: 'Why didn’t you stay at your parents’ house to see if you’d receive gifts?' Then, after the evening prayer, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, stood, bore witness, praised Allah as He deserves, and said: 'What is wrong with a zakat collector we appoint, who comes saying: ‘This is from your work, and this is a gift for me’? Why doesn’t he stay at his parents’ house to see if he gets gifts? By the One in whose Hand is Muhammad’s soul, none of you takes anything unjustly without carrying it on his neck on the Day of Resurrection—whether a camel with its grunting, a cow with its mooing, or a sheep with its bleating. I have conveyed.' Abu Humaid said: Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, raised his hands so we could see the whiteness of his armpits. Abu Humaid said: 'Zaid bin Thabit heard this with me from the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, so ask him.'

Narrated to us [Abul Yaman], informed us [Syu'aib], narrated to us [Abu Az Zanad] from [Abdurrahman Al A'raj] from [Abu Hurairah], the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'Sulaiman bin Dawud said: ‘Tonight, I will go to ninety-nine wives, each giving birth to a knight who fights in Allah’s path.’ His companion said: ‘Say, if Allah wills.’ But he didn’t say it. He went to them all, but only one became pregnant, giving birth to half a man. By the One in whose Hand is Muhammad’s soul, if he had said ‘if Allah wills,’ they would all have been knights fighting in Allah’s path.'

Narrated to us [Qutaibah], narrated to us [Abdul Wahhab] from [Ayyub] from [Abu Qilabah] and [Al Qasim At Tamimi] from [Zahdam], there was love and brotherhood between this tribe of Jarm and the Ash'aris. We were with [Abu Musa Al Ash'ari], and food containing chicken meat was brought to him. There was a man from Bani Taimullah, red-skinned, as if he were from the freed slaves. Abu Musa invited him to the food, but he said: 'I saw it eating something I found disgusting, so I swore not to eat it.' Abu Musa said: 'Stand up, and I will tell you about that. I came to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, with a group of Ash'aris, asking to travel with him. He said: 'By Allah, I cannot include you, and I have no means to transport you.' Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, was brought some plundered camels and asked about us, saying: 'Where are the Ash'ari people?' He ordered five white-backed camels for us. When we set out, we said: 'What have we done? The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, swore he would not include us and had no means to transport us, yet he included us. We overlooked the oath of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. By Allah, we will not prosper.' So we returned to him and said: 'We came to you to include us in travel, and you swore you would not include us and had no means to transport us.' He said: 'It was not I who included you in travel: Allah provided for you. By Allah, I do not swear an oath and then see something better than it, except that I do what is better and expiate my oath.'

She sent another message, swearing by him. So he stood, and we stood with him. When he arrived and sat, the boy was brought to him, and he placed him on his lap. He said: 'This is mercy that Allah places in the hearts of His servants whom He wills. Allah only shows mercy to His merciful servants.'

Do this in all your prayers.'

Each narrated to me a portion of the hadith, and Allah revealed: 'Indeed, those who brought the slander' (QS. An-Nur 11-21), all ten verses about my innocence. Abu Bakr As-Siddiq, who provided for Misthah bin Utsatsah due to kinship, said, 'By Allah, I will never provide for Misthah anything after what he said about 'Aisyah.' Then Allah revealed: 'Let not those of virtue and wealth among you swear not to give to their relatives' (QS. An-Nur 22). Abu Bakr said, 'Yes, by Allah, I wish Allah to forgive me,' and resumed providing for Misthah, saying, 'By Allah, I will never withhold it from him.'

Do you have anything?' She said, 'Yes.' She took out some barley loaves, took a veil of hers, wrapped the bread in part of it, and sent me to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. I went and found the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, in the mosque with people. I stood before them, and the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'Did Abu Thalhah send you?' I said, 'Yes.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said to those with him, 'Get up.' They set out, and I walked among them until I reached Abu Thalhah and informed him. Abu Thalhah said, 'O

Abu Thalhah went out until he met the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and Abu Thalhah came and entered. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'Bring what you have, O Umm Sulaim.' She brought that bread, and the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, ordered the bread to be broken. Umm Sulaim squeezed a container of clarified butter and seasoned it. Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said what Allah willed him to say. Then he said, 'Permit ten people.' He permitted them, and they ate until they were full, then left. He replied by quoting Allah's words, 'Indeed, in the Messenger of Allah you have a good example' (QS. Ahzab 21), he never fasted on the day of Eid al-Adha or Eid al-Fitr, and he did not approve of fasting on those days.

We did not acquire gold or silver as spoils, only wealth, clothes, and goods. A man from Banu Dhubaib, named Rifa'ah bin Zaid, gifted the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, a slave named Mid'am. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, sent him to Wadi al-Qura, and while Mid'am was unloading the saddle for the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, a stray arrow struck and killed him. The people said, 'Congratulations to him, Paradise!' But the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'No, by the One in Whose hand is my soul, the cloak he took from the spoils of Khaibar before they were divided is burning on him with fire.' When the people heard this, a man brought one or two sandal straps to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and he said, 'One or two sandal straps of fire.'

Narrated to us [Ali bin Hujr] narrated to us [Isma'il bin Ibrahim] from [Ayyub] from [Al Qasim at Tamimi] from [Zahdam Al Jarmi] said, We were with [Abu Musa], and there was a bond of brotherhood and kindness between us and the people of Jarm. Zahdam said, Food was presented, including chicken meat. Among the group was a man from Banu Taimullah Ahmar, who seemed like a freed slave, and he did not approach the food. [Abu Musa] said to him, 'Come closer, for I have seen the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, eating it.' Zahdam said, I saw him eating something I found repulsive, so I swore never to eat it. Abu Musa called me and said, 'Come closer, let me tell you about your oath. We came to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, with a group of Ash'aris to request transport while he was distributing charity camels.' Ayyub said, I think he said, 'and he was angry.' He said, 'By Allah, I will not provide you transport, and I have nothing to carry you with.' We left, and then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, received spoils of camels. It was said, 'Where are those Ash'aris who asked for transport?' We came to him, and he ordered about thirty to a hundred white-backed camels for us. Zahdam said, We continued our journey, and I said to my companions, 'We came to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, asking for transport, and he swore he would not provide it, but then he sent for us and provided it. It seems the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, forgot his oath. By Allah, if the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, forgot his oath to us, we will not prosper. Let us return to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and remind him of his oath.' We returned and said, 'O Messenger of Allah, we came to you asking for transport, and you swore not to provide it, but then you did. We thought you forgot your oath.' He replied, 'Continue your journey, for it is Allah who provided you transport. By Allah, if Allah wills, I do not swear an oath and see something better than it, except that I do what is better and expiate my oath.' This hadith is supported by [Hammad bin Zaid] from [Ayyub] from [Abu Qilabah] and [Al Qasim bin 'Ashim Al Kalbi]. Narrated to us [Yahya bin Bukair] narrated to us [Al Laits] from [Uqail] from [Ibnu Syihab] said, Informed me [Malik bin Aus bin Al Hadatsan], and [Muhammad bin Jubair bin Muth'im] mentioned to me among his hadiths, so I went to him and asked him. He said, I went to [Umar]. His gatekeeper, Yarfa, came to him and said, 'Do you permit [Utsman], [Abdurrahman], [Zubair], and [Sa'd]?' He said, 'Yes.' Then he said, 'Do you permit [Ali] and [Abbas]?' He said, 'Yes.' Abbas said, 'O Commander of the Faithful, judge between me and this man.' Umar said, 'I adjure you by Allah, by Whose permission the heavens and the earth stand, do you know that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, We are not inherited what we leave is charity," referring to himself?' The group said, 'He said that.' Umar turned to Ali and Abbas and said, 'Do you both know that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said that?' They said, 'He said that.' Umar said, 'I will tell you about this matter. Allah gave His Messenger, peace and blessings be upon him, a special share in this spoil that He did not give to anyone else. Allah said, "What Allah has bestowed upon His Messenger... to His saying, Almighty." (Qur'an, Al-Hashr 1). Thus, it was exclusively for the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. By Allah, he did not keep it from you nor favor himself over you. He gave it to you and distributed it among you until this wealth remained. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, spent on his family from this wealth for a year, then took what remained and allocated it as Allah's wealth. That is how the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, managed it during his life. I adjure you by Allah, do you know this?' They said, 'Yes.' Then he said to Ali and Abbas, 'I adjure you by Allah, do you both know this?' They said, 'Yes.' Umar continued, 'Then Allah took His Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and Abu Bakr said, "I am the successor of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him." He took it and managed it as the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, did. Then Allah took Abu Bakr, and I said, "I am the successor of the successor of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him." I managed it for two years as the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and Abu Bakr did. Then you both came to me, with one claim and one matter. You, [Abbas], came asking for your share through your nephew, and this man [Ali] came asking for his wife's share through her father. I said, "If you wish, I will hand it over to you both." You seek a judgment from me other than this. By Allah, by Whose permission the heavens and the earth stand, I will not judge otherwise until the Hour comes. If you are unable, hand it over to me, and I will manage it for you.'"

He said, 'No.' I said, 'Then half?' He said, 'No.' I said, 'A third?' He said, 'A third is much. It is better to leave your heir wealthy than to leave them destitute, begging from people. Whatever you spend, you will be rewarded for it, even the morsel you raise to your wife’s mouth.' I said, 'O Messenger of Allah, will I be left behind from my migration?' He said, 'You will not be left behind after me and do a deed seeking Allah’s face except that it will increase your elevation and rank. Perhaps you will remain after me so that some people benefit from you and others are harmed by you. But the unfortunate one is Sa’d bin Khaulah.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, grieved for him as he died in Mecca. Sufyan said, 'Sa’d bin Khaulah was a man from Banu Amir bin Lu’ai.'

Narrated to us [Musa] narrated to us [Abu 'Awanah] from [Manshur] from [Ibrahim] from [Al Aswad] that [Aisyah], may Allah be pleased with her, bought Barirah to free her, but her owners stipulated that her wala' remains with them. She said, 'O Messenger of Allah, I bought Barirah to free her, but her owners stipulated that her wala' remains with them.' He said, 'Free her, for the wala' belongs to the one who frees,' or he said, 'to the one who pays the price.' She bought her and freed her. He said, 'She was given the choice, and she chose herself.' She said, 'Even if I were given such and such, I would not stay with him.' Al Aswad said, 'Her husband was a free man.' Al Aswad's statement is disconnected, and Ibn Abbas's statement, 'I saw him as a slave,' is more authentic.

They brought their dispute to Dawud, peace be upon him, and he judged that the child belongs to the elder. They went to Sulaiman bin Dawud, peace be upon them, and informed him. He said, "Bring me a knife, and I will divide him between them." The younger said, "Do not do it, may Allah have mercy on you, he is her son." So he judged that the child belongs to the younger.' Abu Hurairah said, 'By Allah, I never heard of a knife until that day we used to say "golok."'"

Narrated to me [Mahmud] narrated to us ['Abdurrazaq] informed us [Ma'mar] from [Az Zuhri] from [Abu Salamah] from [Jabir], a man from Aslam came to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and confessed to adultery. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, turned away from him until he testified against himself four times. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said to him, 'Are you insane?' He said, 'No.' He said, 'Are you married?' He said, 'Yes.' He ordered him to be stoned at the prayer ground. When the stones hurt him, he fled but was caught and stoned until he died. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, spoke well of him and prayed over him. [Yunus] and [Ibnu Juraij] from [Az Zuhri] did not say, 'He prayed over him.' Abu Abdullah was asked, 'Is he prayed over him" authentic?' He said, 'It was narrated by Ma'mar.' He was asked, 'Did anyone other than Ma'mar narrate it?' He said, 'No.'"

He said, 'Can you find a slave to free?' He said, 'No.' He said, 'Can you fast for two months?' He said, 'No.' He said, 'Then feed sixty poor people.' [Al Laits] said from ['Amru bin Al Harits] from ['Abdurrahman bin Al Qasim] from [Muhammad bin Ja'far bin Zubair] from ['Abbad bin 'Abdullah bin Zubair] from ['Aisyah], a man came to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, in the mosque and said, 'I am ruined.' He said, 'Why is that?' He said, 'I had intercourse with my wife during Ramadan.' He said, 'Give charity.' He said, 'I have nothing.' He sat down, and a man came leading a donkey with food. ['Abdurrahman] said, 'I don’t know if he met the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him.' The Prophet said, 'Where is the ruined man?' He said, 'Here I am.' He said, 'Take this and give it in charity.' He said, 'To someone needier than me? My family has no food.' He said, 'Eat it.' Abu Abdullah said, the first hadith is clearer, with his saying, 'Feed your family.'

His opponent, who was more knowledgeable, stood up and said, 'Judge between us according to the Book of Allah, and allow me to speak.' He said, 'Speak.' He said, 'My son was a laborer for this man and committed adultery with his wife. I ransomed him with one hundred sheep and a servant. Then I asked some scholars, and they informed me that my son should be flogged one hundred times and exiled for a year, and his wife should be stoned.' The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'By Him in Whose Hand is my soul, I will judge between you according to the Book of Allah, the Exalted in Might. The hundred sheep and the servant are to be returned to you, and your son will be flogged one hundred times and exiled for a year. Go, O Unais, to this man’s wife, and if she confesses, stone her.' Unais went to her, she confessed, and he stoned her. I asked Sufyan, 'Did he not say, They informed me that my son should be stoned"?' Narrated to us ['Abdul 'Aziz bin Abdullah] narrated to me [Ibrahim bin Sa'd] from [Shalih] from [Ibnu Syihab] from ['Ubaidullah bin Abdullah bin 'Utbah bin Mas'ud] from [Ibnu 'Abbas] who said, I was teaching some of the Muhajirin, including 'Abdurrahman bin Auf. While I was at his place in Mina, and he was with [Umar bin Khattab] during his last Hajj, 'Abdurrahman returned to me and said, 'If you had seen a man who came to the Commander of the Faithful today, saying, O Commander of the Faithful, what do you say about so-and-so who says, 'If Umar dies, I will pledge allegiance to so-and-so, for by Allah, the pledge to Abu Bakr was nothing but a spontaneous act that was then completed'?"' Umar became angry and said, 'If Allah wills, I will stand this evening among the people and warn them about those who want to seize their affairs.' 'Abdurrahman said, I said, 'O Commander of the Faithful, do not do so, for the Hajj season gathers the rabble and the riffraff, and they will dominate near you when you stand among the people. I fear you will say something, and every rumor-monger will spread it, and they will not understand it or place it in its proper context. Wait until you reach Medina, for it is the place of migration and Sunnah, where you can be with the people of knowledge and the nobles, and say what you wish confidently. The people of knowledge will understand your words and place them in their proper context.' Umar said, 'By Allah, if Allah wills, I will do so at the first opportunity in Medina.' Ibn Abbas said, We arrived in Medina at the end of Dhul-Hijjah. On Friday, I hastened to go when the sun declined until I found Sa'id bin Zaid bin 'Amr bin Nufail sitting by the corner of the pulpit. I sat near him, my knee touching his. Soon after, Umar bin Khattab came. When I saw him approaching, I said to Sa'id bin Zaid bin 'Amr bin Nufail, 'This evening, he will say something he has not said since he became caliph.' He objected, saying, 'What do you think he will say that he hasn’t said before?' Umar sat on the pulpit. When the callers to prayer fell silent, he stood, praised Allah as He deserves, and said, 'To proceed: I am about to say something destined for me to say. I do not know, perhaps it is before my death. Whoever understands and heeds it, let him convey it wherever his mount takes him. Whoever fears he does not understand it, I do not permit anyone to lie about me. Allah sent Muhammad, peace and blessings be upon him, with the truth and revealed the Book to him. Among what Allah revealed was the verse of stoning, which we read, understood, and heeded. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, performed stoning, and we performed stoning after him. I fear that after a long time, someone will say, "By Allah, we do not find the verse of stoning in the Book of Allah," and they will go astray by abandoning an obligation Allah revealed. Stoning in the Book of Allah is a right upon those who commit adultery, whether men or women, if they are married, and there is clear evidence, pregnancy, or confession. We used to read in what we read from the Book of Allah, "Do not reject your forefathers, for it is disbelief for you to reject your forefathers," or "Indeed, it is disbelief for you to reject your forefathers." The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "Do not praise me excessively as Jesus, son of Mary, was praised. Say, 'Servant of Allah and His Messenger.'" It has reached me that someone among you says, "By

Allah, if Umar dies, I will pledge allegiance to so-and-so." Let no one be deceived into saying, "The pledge to Abu Bakr was a spontaneous act and it was completed." Indeed, it was so, but Allah protected from its evil. There is none among you to whom necks are bowed like Abu Bakr. Whoever pledges allegiance to a man without the consultation of the Muslims, neither he nor the one he pledged to should be followed, lest they both be killed. When Allah took His Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, the Ansar opposed us and gathered in the Saqifah of Bani Sa'idah. Ali, Zubair, and those with them opposed us, and the Muhajirin gathered with Abu Bakr. I said to Abu Bakr, 'O Abu Bakr, let us go to our brothers from the Ansar.' We set out to meet them, and when we approached, two righteous men from them met us and mentioned what the people had agreed upon. They said, 'Where are you going, O group of Muhajirin?' We said, 'We are going to our brothers from the Ansar.' They said, 'You should not approach them settle your matter.' I said, 'By Allah, we will go to them.' We went until we reached them in the Saqifah of Bani Sa'idah. There was a man wrapped in a cloak among them. I said, 'Who is this?' They said, 'This is Sa'd bin Ubadah.' I said, 'What's wrong with him?' They said, 'He is ill.' After we sat briefly, their speaker bore witness and praised Allah as He deserves, then said, 'To proceed: We are the helpers of Allah and the battalion of Islam. You, O group of Muhajirin, are a small group, and some of your people have come intending to uproot us from our roots and exclude us from authority.' When he fell silent, I wanted to speak, having prepared a speech I liked, intending to present it before Abu Bakr, tempering some of its sharpness. When I was about to speak, Abu Bakr said, 'Gently.' I disliked angering him, so Abu Bakr spoke, and he was more patient and dignified than I. By Allah, he did not omit any word I liked in my prepared speech but said something like it or better in his impromptu speech until he finished. He said, 'Whatever good you mentioned about yourselves, you are worthy of it. This matter will only be recognized for this clan of Quraysh, who are the most central of the Arabs in lineage and home. I am pleased with one of these two men for you, so pledge allegiance to whichever you wish.' He took my hand and the hand of Abu Ubaidah bin Al-Jarrah, who was sitting between us. I disliked nothing of what he said except that. By Allah, I would rather be brought forward and have my neck struck without sin than lead a people among whom is Abu Bakr, unless my soul tempts me at death with something I do not feel now. Someone from the Ansar said, 'I am their trusted pillar and their honored elder. An emir from us and an emir from you, O Quraysh.' The clamor grew, and voices rose until I feared discord. I said, 'Extend your hand, O Abu Bakr.' He extended his hand, and I pledged allegiance to him. The Muhajirin pledged allegiance to him, then the Ansar pledged allegiance to him. We rushed toward Sa'd bin Ubadah, and someone among them said, 'You have killed Sa'd bin Ubadah.' I said, 'May Allah kill Sa'd bin Ubadah.' Umar continued, 'By Allah, we found nothing stronger in what we witnessed than the pledge to Abu Bakr. We feared that if we left the people without a pledge, they would pledge to someone after us, and we would either pledge to what we did not approve or oppose them, causing corruption. Whoever pledges allegiance to a man without the consultation of the Muslims, neither he nor the one he pledged to should be followed, lest they both be killed.'"

They told me my son should be stoned, so I ransomed him with one hundred sheep and a female slave. Then I asked the scholars, and they said my son should be flogged one hundred times and exiled for a year.' Abdullah bin Salam said, 'You lie it contains stoning.' They brought the Torah and opened it, and one of them placed his hand over the verse of stoning, reading what was before and after it. Abdullah bin Salam said, 'Lift your hand.' He lifted his hand, and there was the verse of stoning. They said, 'He is right, O Muhammad, it contains the verse of stoning.' And [Abdullah bin Raja'] said: Narrated to us [Harb] from [Yahya] narrated to us [Abu Salamah] narrated to us [Abu Hurairah]: In the year of the conquest of Mecca, Banu Khuza'ah killed a man from Banu Laith in retaliation for one of their own killed in the pre-Islamic era. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, stood up and said: 'Allah restrained the elephant from Mecca and sent His Messenger and the believers against them. Know that it was not lawful for anyone before me, nor will it be lawful for anyone after me. It was only made lawful for me for a short time during the day. Know that at this moment, it is sacred. Its thorns may not be broken, its trees may not be cut, and its lost items may not be picked up except by one who announces them. Whoever has a person killed, he has the better of two options: either he is paid blood money or he retaliates.' A man from the people of Yemen, called Abu Shah, stood up and said, 'Write it for me, O Messenger of Allah.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'Write it for Abu Shah.' Then a man from Quraysh stood up and said, 'O Messenger of Allah, except for idhkhir, for we use it in our houses and graves.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'Except for idhkhir.' This was supported by ['Ubaidullah] from [Shaiban] regarding the elephant. Some said from [Abu Nu'aim] with the wording 'the opportunity to retaliate.' And ['Ubaidullah] said with the wording 'or the family of the killed is given blood money.'

Ibn Abbas said: Pardon means accepting blood money in cases of intentional killing. THE LAW ON THROWING STONES AT PEEKING INTO THE HOUSE
Hadith Imam Bukhari Number 6380

وَبِإِسْنَادِهِ لَوْ اطَّلَعَ فِي بَيْتِكَ أَحَدٌ وَلَمْ تَأْذَنْ لَهُ خَذَفْتَهُ بِحَصَاةٍ فَفَقَأْتَ عَيْنَهُ مَا كَانَ عَلَيْكَ مِنْ جُنَاحٍ

With the same chain of narration (from [Abu Hurairah]): 'If someone peeks into your house without your permission and you throw a stone at him, blinding his eye, you bear no sin for it.'

Narrated to me [Ishaq bin Manshur] narrated to us [Abu Usamah], [Hisham] said, he narrated to us from [his father] from [Aishah], who said: During the Battle of Uhud, the polytheists were defeated, and Satan shouted, 'O servants of Allah, beware of your rear!' So the front turned back toward the rear, and they clashed. Hudhaifah looked and saw his father, Al Yaman, and shouted, 'O servants of Allah, my father, my father!' Aishah said, 'By Allah, they did not hold back until they killed him.' Hudhaifah said, 'May Allah forgive you.' Urwah commented, 'There remained in Hudhaifah a residue of goodness until he met Allah.'

One of the men said, 'O Amir, let us hear your poems!' So Amir Ibn Al Akwa' recited poetry for them. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, asked, 'Who is driving our camels?' They replied, 'Our companion, Amir bin Al Akwa'.' He prayed, 'May Allah have mercy on him!' The companions said, 'O Messenger of Allah, could you not have let us enjoy him longer?' He died the next morning. The people said, 'His deeds are in vain he killed himself.' When I returned, the companions were saying that Amir bin Al Akwa''s deeds were in vain because he killed himself. So I went to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and said, 'O Prophet of Allah, may my parents be sacrificed for you, they claim my brother Amir's deeds are in vain!' He said, 'Whoever says that is lying. Indeed, he has two rewards. He was earnest and a fighter. What killing could be worse than what he endured?'

Narrated to us [Qutaibah bin Sa'id] narrated to us [Abu Bishr Ismail bin Ibrahim Al Asadi] narrated to us [Al Hajjaj bin Abi Uthman] narrated to me [Abu Raja'] from the family of Abu Qilaba, narrated to me [Abu Qilabah]: Umar bin Abdul Aziz one day set out his couch for the people and gave them permission to enter. He asked, 'What do you say about Qasamah?' We replied, 'Qasamah? Retaliation through it is valid, and the caliphs have enforced retaliation through it.' He asked me, 'What do you say, O Abu Qilabah?' and he appointed me to guide the people. I said, 'O Commander of the Faithful, you have the leaders of the armies and the elite of the Arabs. If fifty of them testified that a married man in Damascus committed adultery without seeing him, would you stone him?' He said, 'No.' I said, 'If fifty of them testified that a man in Homs stole without seeing him, would you cut off his hand?' He said, 'No.' I said, 'By Allah, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, never killed anyone except for one of three reasons: a man who killed intentionally and was killed, a man who committed adultery after marriage, or a man who fought against Allah and His Messenger and apostatized from Islam.' The people said, 'Did not Anas bin Malik narrate that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, cut off hands for theft, gouged out eyes, and left them in the sun?' I said, 'I will narrate to you the hadith of Anas. Anas narrated to me that a group of eight from Ukl came to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and pledged allegiance to Islam. They found the climate of Medina unsuitable, and their bodies became ill. They complained to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, who said, Why don’t you go out with our shepherd with his camels and drink their milk and urine?" They said, "Yes." They went out, drank the milk and urine, and recovered. Then they killed the shepherd of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and drove off the camels. This reached the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and he sent pursuers after them. They were caught and brought back. He ordered their hands and feet to be cut off, their eyes gouged out, and they were left in the sun until they died.' I said, 'What could be worse than what they did? They apostatized from Islam, killed, and stole.' Anbasah bin Sa'id said, 'By Allah, I have never heard anything like this today.' I said, 'Do you reject my hadith, O Anbasah?' He said, 'No, but you have brought the hadith as it is. By Allah, this army will remain in good as long as this elder lives among them.' I said, 'There is also a precedent from the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, in this matter. A group of Ansar visited him and conversed with him. One of them left and was killed. The others came out after him and found their companion writhing in his blood. They returned to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and said, 'O Messenger of Allah, our companion was talking with us, then left, and we found him writhing in his blood.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, went out and said, 'Who do you suspect, or who do you think killed him?' They said, 'We think the Jews killed him.' He sent for the Jews, called them, and said, 'Did you kill this man?' They said, 'No.' He said, 'Will you accept if fifty Jews swear they did not kill him?' They said, 'They would not care if they killed us all and then swore.' He said, 'Will you accept the blood money if fifty of you swear?' They said, 'We would not swear.' So he paid the blood money himself. I said, 'The tribe of Hudhail had renounced an ally of theirs during the pre-Islamic era. They attacked a Yemeni family at night in Bat-ha'. A man from the household woke up and struck him with a sword, killing him. Hudhail came, seized the Yemeni, and brought him to Umar during the season, saying, 'He killed our companion.' He said, 'They had renounced him.' Umar said, 'Let fifty of Hudhail swear they did not renounce him.' Forty-nine of them swore. A man from them came from Sham and they asked him to swear, but he redeemed his oath from them for a thousand dirhams. They brought another man in his place. They handed him to the brother of the killed man, and their hands were tied together. They set out with the fifty who swore until they reached a palm grove. A storm overtook them, and they took shelter in a cave in the mountain. The cave collapsed on the fifty who swore, and they all died. The two tied men escaped, but a stone followed them and crushed the leg of the killed man’s brother. He lived for a year and then died. I said, 'Abdul Malik bin Marwan once enforced retaliation through Qasamah, but later regretted it and ordered the fifty who swore to be removed from the register and sent to Sham.'"

Narrated to me [Muhammad bin Al Husain bin Ibrahim] informed us [Ubaidullah bin Musa] informed us [Shaiban] from [Firas] from [Asy Sha'bi] from [Abdullah bin Amru] who said: A Bedouin Arab came to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and said, 'O Messenger of Allah, what are the major sins?' He replied, 'Associating partners with Allah.'

He asked, 'Then what?' He said, 'Disobeying parents.' He asked, 'Then what?' He said, 'The false oath.' I asked, 'What is the false oath?' He said, 'The one by which a Muslim’s property is taken, while he is lying.'

Both of them asked for a position. The Prophet said, 'O Abu Musa, or O Abdullah bin Qais.' I said, 'By the One who sent you with the truth, they did not tell me what was in their hearts, and I did not realize they were seeking a position.' It was as if I could see his tooth stick under his lip, retracted. He said, 'We will not, or I will not, appoint to our tasks someone who seeks it. But you, O Abu Musa, or O Abdullah bin Qais, go to Yemen.' Then Mu'adh bin Jabal followed him. When Mu'adh arrived, Abu Musa spread a cushion for him and said, 'Dismount.' There was a man with him, bound. Mu'adh asked, 'Who is this?' Abu Musa said, 'He was a Jew, then became Muslim, then returned to Judaism.' Abu Musa said, 'Sit down.' Mu'adh said, 'I will not sit until he is killed, according to the decree of Allah and His Messenger,' repeating it three times. So Abu Musa ordered his execution. Then they discussed praying at night. One of them said, 'As for me, I pray and sleep, and I hope for reward in my sleep as I hope for it in my prayer.'

Umar said, 'By Allah, it was only that I saw Allah had opened Abu Bakr’s heart to fighting, and I knew it was the truth.'"

He said, 'I do not know what the Haruriyyah are, but I heard the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, say, There will emerge in this nation – and he did not say from it – a people whose prayer will make you belittle your own prayer. They read the Quran, but it does not pass their throats or larynxes. They leave the religion as an arrow leaves the bow. The archer looks at his arrow, its head, its shaft, and doubts whether there is any blood on the fletching."'"

Narrated to us [Abdullah bin Muhammad] narrated to us [Hisham] informed us [Ma'mar] from [Az Zuhri] from [Abu Salamah] from [Abu Sa'id] who said: While the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, was distributing, Abdullah bin Dhi Al-Khuwaysirah Al-Tamimi came and said, 'Be just, O Messenger of Allah.' He replied, 'Woe to you! Who would be just if I am not just?' Umar bin Al-Khattab said, 'Let me strike his neck.' The Prophet said, 'Leave him, for he has companions whose prayer makes one of you belittle his own prayer, and their fasting makes you belittle your own fasting. They leave the religion as an arrow leaves the bow. One looks at its fletching and finds nothing, then at its head and finds nothing, then at its shaft and finds nothing, then at its notch and finds nothing. It has passed through filth and blood. Their sign is a man whose one hand – or he said breast – is like a woman’s breast, or he said like a piece of flesh that quivers. They will emerge at a time of division among people.' Abu Sa'id said, 'I bear witness that I heard this from the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and I bear witness that Ali killed them while I was with him. A man was brought with the characteristics the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, described.' He said, 'This verse was revealed about him: And among them are those who criticize you concerning the distribution of charities" (Quran 9:58).'"

Narrated to us [Musa bin Isma'il] narrated to us [Abu 'Awanah] from [Hushain] from [someone] who said: Abu Abdurrahman and Hibban bin 'Uthayyah disputed. Abu Abdurrahman said to Hibban, 'I know what emboldened your companion to shed blood,' meaning [Ali bin Abi Thalib]. Hibban asked, 'What is it?' Abu Abdurrahman replied, 'Something I heard him say.' Hibban asked, 'What was it?' He said: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, sent me, Zubair, and Abu Murtsad, all of us on horseback, saying, 'Go until you reach Raudah Haj.' Abu Salamah said, thus Abu 'Awanah said 'Haj.' 'There is a woman there carrying a letter from Hathib bin Abi Baltha'ah to the polytheists. Bring it to me.' So we set out on our horses until we found her where the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, told us, riding her camel. Hathib bin Abi Baltha'ah had written to the people of Mecca about the Messenger of Allah's march toward them. We asked her, 'Where is the letter you have?' She said, 'I have no letter.' We made her camel kneel and searched her belongings but found nothing. My two companions said, 'We don't see any letter with her.' I said, 'We know the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, does not lie.' Then Ali swore, 'By the One by whom oaths are taken, you will produce the letter, or I will strip you.' She reached for her waistband, as she was wearing a cloth waistband, and took out the letter. They brought it to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. Umar said, 'O Messenger of Allah, Hathib has betrayed Allah, His Messenger, and the believers. Let me strike his neck.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, asked Hathib, 'What made you do this?' Hathib said, 'O Messenger of Allah, it's not that I don't believe in Allah and His Messenger, but I wanted to have a favor among the people to protect my family and wealth. None of your companions lack someone from their people there to protect their family and wealth through them.' The Prophet said, 'He has spoken the truth. Do not say anything about him except good.' But Umar persisted, saying, 'O Messenger of Allah, he has betrayed Allah, His Messenger, and the believers. Let me strike his neck.' The Prophet said, 'Is he not one of the people of Badr? How do you know, perhaps Allah looked upon them and said, Do as you wish, for I have guaranteed Paradise for you"?' Umar's eyes filled with tears, and he said, 'Allah and His Messenger know best.' Abu Abdullah said regarding the place, 'Khah is more authentic, but Abu 'Awanah said Haj, and Haj is a mistake. It is a place, and Husyaim says Khah (with the final letter Kha, not Jim).'"

We said, 'Will you not seek help for us? Will you not pray for us?' He said, 'Before you, a man would be taken, a pit dug for him, and he would be placed in it. A saw would be brought and placed on his head, splitting him in two, or he would be combed with iron combs, separating his flesh from his bones, yet that did not turn him from his religion. By Allah, this matter will be completed until a rider travels from Sana’a to Hadramaut, fearing only Allah and the wolf for his sheep, but you are impatient.'

Narrated to us [Abdullah bin Maslamah] from [Malik] from [Ibnu Syihab] from [Abdullah bin Amir bin Rabi'ah], that Umar bin Khattab, may Allah be pleased with him, set out for Syria. When he reached Sargh, he was informed that a plague had struck Syria. [Abdurrahman bin Auf] informed him that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'If you hear of it in a land, do not go to it, and if it breaks out in a land where you are, do not leave to flee from it.' So Umar returned from Sargh. And from [Ibnu Syihab] from [Salim bin Abdullah], that Umar returned because of this hadith of Abdurrahman.

Narrated to us [Abdullah bin Muhammad] narrated to us [Hisyam bin Yusuf] informed us [Ma'mar] from [Az Zuhri] from [Abu Salamah] from [Jabir bin Abdullah] who said, 'The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, established pre-emption (shuf'ah) for anything undivided. But if the boundaries and pathways are set, there is no pre-emption.' Some people said, 'Pre-emption is for the neighbor,' then held to what they strengthened and nullified it. They said, 'If someone buys a house and fears the neighbor will take it by pre-emption, he buys one share out of a hundred, then buys the rest. The neighbor has pre-emption only on the first share, not the rest of the house, and he may scheme to do this.'

Narrated to us [Ali bin Abdullah] narrated to us [Sufyan] from [Ibrahim bin Maisarah], I heard [Amru bin Syarid] say, Miswar bin Makhramah came and placed his hand on my shoulder. I went with him to Sa'd. [Abu Rafi'] said to Miswar, 'Will you not order this man to buy my house in my courtyard?' He said, 'I will not offer more than four hundred, whether in cash or installments.' Abu Rafi' said, 'I was offered five hundred in cash and refused it. If I had not heard the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, say, The neighbor has more right to his neighbor's wall," I would not have sold it to you,' or he said, 'I would not have given it to you.' I said to Sufyan, 'Ma'mar did not say it like this.' He said, 'But he told me this way.' Some people said, 'If someone wants to sell pre-emption, he may scheme to nullify the pre-emption. The seller gifts the house to the buyer, sets its boundaries, hands it over, and the buyer compensates him with a thousand dirhams, so the one with pre-emption rights has no claim to it.'"

Narrated to us [Ubaid bin Isma'il] narrated to us [Abu Usamah] from [Hisyam] from [his father] from [Abu Humaid As Sa'idi] who said, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, appointed a man to manage the charity of Bani Sulaim, called Ibn Al-Latabiyyah. When he came and was accounted, he said, 'This is your wealth, and this is a gift.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'Why did you not stay in your father's or mother's house until your gift came to you, if you are truthful?' Then he addressed us, praised and glorified Allah, and said, 'As for what follows, I appoint a man among you to a task Allah has entrusted to me. He comes and says, This is your wealth, and this was gifted to me." Why does he not stay in his father's or mother's house until his gift comes to him? By Allah, none of you takes anything without right except that he will meet Allah carrying it on the Day of Resurrection. I will surely know if any of you meet Allah carrying a camel that brays, a cow that moos, or a sheep that bleats.' Then he raised his hands until the whiteness of his armpits was visible, saying, 'O Allah, have I not conveyed what I saw with my eyes and heard with my ears?'"

Narrated to us [Yahya bin Bukair] narrated to us [Al Laith] from [Uqail] from [Ibnu Syihab], and narrated to me [Abdullah bin Muhammad] narrated to us [Abdurrazaq] narrated to us [Ma'mar], [Az Zuhri] said, narrated to me [Urwah] from [Aishah], may Allah be pleased with her, who said: The first revelation that came to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, was a true dream during sleep. He never saw a dream but that it came like the break of dawn. He would go to Hira and seclude himself for worship for several nights, taking provisions for that. Then he would return to Khadijah, who would prepare provisions for him again. This continued until the truth came to him while he was in the cave of Hira. An angel came to him and said, 'Read.' The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'I said, I cannot read."' The angel took me and pressed me until I was exhausted, then released me and said, 'Read.' I said, 'I cannot read.' He pressed me a second time until I was exhausted, then released me and said, 'Read.' I said, 'I cannot read.' He pressed me a third time until I was exhausted, then released me and said, 'Read in the name of your Lord who created,' up to 'taught man what he did not know.' He returned trembling until he reached Khadijah and said, 'Cover me, cover me!' They covered him until his fear subsided. He said, 'O Khadijah, what is wrong with me?' He told her the news and said, 'I fear for myself.' She said, 'No, rejoice! By Allah, Allah will never disgrace you. You maintain family ties, speak the truth, bear burdens, host guests, and support the truth.' Then Khadijah took him to Waraqah bin Naufal bin Asad bin Abdul Uzza bin Qusayy, her cousin, the brother of her father, who had become a Christian in the pre-Islamic period. He used to write Arabic and wrote from the Gospel in Arabic as Allah willed. He was an old man who had gone blind. Khadijah said to him, 'O cousin, listen to your nephew.' Waraqah said, 'O nephew, what have you seen?' The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, told him what he saw. Waraqah said, 'This is the Namus that was sent to Musa. I wish I were young and alive when your people expel you.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'Will they expel me?' Waraqah said, 'Yes, no man has brought what you bring without being opposed. If I live to see your day, I will support you strongly.' Soon after, Waraqah passed away, and the revelation paused for a time, causing the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, to grieve, as we were told, to the point that he went out several times intending to throw himself from mountain peaks. Each time he reached the summit to cast himself off, Jibril appeared to him and said, 'O Muhammad, you are truly the Messenger of Allah.' This calmed his heart and soul, and he would return. When the pause in revelation grew long, he would go out again for the same purpose, and when he reached the summit, Jibril would appear and say the same. Ibn Abbas said about 'the cleaver of dawn,' it refers to the light of the sun by day and the light of the moon by night."

Narrated to us [Abdullah bin Yusuf], informed us [Malik] from [Ishaq bin Abdullah bin Abu Thalhah], that he heard [Anas bin Malik] say, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, visited Umm Haram bint Milhan, who was married to Ubadah bin As-Samit. One day, he visited her, and she fed him and began to remove lice from his head. Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, fell asleep, then woke up laughing. She said, I asked, 'What makes you laugh, O Messenger of Allah?' He said, 'People from my nation were shown to me, fighting in the cause of Allah, riding the surface of this sea, kings on thrones, or like kings on thrones'—Ishaq was unsure of the wording. She said, 'O Messenger of Allah, pray to Allah to make me one of them.' So the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, prayed for her. Then he put his head down and slept again, then woke up laughing. I said, 'What makes you laugh, O Messenger of Allah?' He said, 'People from my nation were shown to me, fighting in the cause of Allah,' as he said the first time. She said, 'O Messenger of Allah, pray to Allah to make me one of them.' He said, 'You are among the first.' She sailed the sea during the time of Mu'awiyah bin Abu Sufyan, and her mount slipped when she came out of the sea, and she passed away.

The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, visited us, and I said, 'May Allah's mercy be upon you, O Abu As-Sa'ib, my testimony is that Allah has honored you.' He said, 'How do you know?' I said, 'I do not know, by Allah.' He said, 'As for him, by Allah, certainty (death) has come to him. I hope for good for him from Allah, but by Allah, I do not know, though I am the Messenger of Allah, what will be done with me or you.' Ummul Alaa said, 'By Allah, I will not praise anyone after him.' She said, 'I saw in a dream that Uthman had a flowing spring. Narrated to me ['Ubaidullah bin Sa'id], narrated to us ['Affan bin Muslim] narrated to us [Shakhr bin Juwairiyah] narrated to us [Nafi'], that [Ibnu Umar] said: Some of the companions of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, used to see dreams during the time of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and they would narrate them to him, and he would say about them what Allah willed. I was a young boy, and my home was the mosque before I married. I said to myself, 'If there was good in you, you would see what these people see.' So one night when I lay down, I said, 'O Allah, if You know there is good in me, show me a dream.' While I was in that state, two angels came to me, each holding an iron mace, and they took me toward Hell, and I was between them, praying, 'O Allah, I seek refuge in You from Hell.' Then I saw another angel meet me, holding an iron mace, and he said, 'Do not be afraid, you are a good man if you pray more.' They took me until they stopped me at the edge of Hell, and it was folded like a well, with horns like a well’s horns, and between each pair of horns was an angel holding an iron mace. I saw men hanging by chains, their heads downward, and I recognized some men from Quraysh. Then they took me to the right side. I narrated it to Hafsa, and Hafsa narrated it to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'Abdullah is a righteous man if he prays at night.' Nafi' said, 'After that, he increased his prayers.'

Narrated to us [Ali bin Abdullah] narrated to us [Sufyan] from [Ayyub] from [Ikrimah] from [Ibnu Abbas] from the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, who said: 'Whoever claims to have seen a dream he did not see will be tasked with tying two grains of barley together, and he will not be able to do it. Whoever eavesdrops on people’s conversation when they dislike it or avoid him, molten lead will be poured into his ears on the Day of Resurrection. Whoever makes an image will be punished and tasked with breathing life into it, and he will not be able to do so.' Sufyan said: Ayyub connected it to us. Qutaibah said: Narrated to us [Abu 'Awanah] from [Qatadah] from [Ikrimah] from [Abu Hurairah] his saying about: 'Whoever lies about his dream.' Shu'bah said: From [Abu Hashim Ar Rumani], I heard [Ikrimah] say, [Abu Hurairah] with his saying: 'Whoever makes an image, and whoever claims to have dreamed, and whoever eavesdrops.' Narrated to us [Ishaq] narrated to us [Khalid] from [Khalid] from [Ikrimah] from [Ibnu Abbas] said: 'Whoever eavesdrops, and whoever claims to have dreamed, and whoever makes an image,' similarly. Hisham followed it from [Ikrimah] from [Ibnu Abbas] with his saying.

There was a rope connecting the earth to the sky, and I saw you take it and ascend, then another man took it and ascended with it, then another man took it and ascended with it, then another man took it, but it broke, then it was reconnected. Abu Bakr said, 'O Messenger of Allah, my father be your ransom, by Allah, let me interpret it.' The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'Interpret it.' He said, 'The canopy is Islam, the butter and honey dripping from it is the Quran, its sweetness dripping, some take much of the Quran and some take little. The rope connecting the sky to the earth is the truth you are upon, you take it and Allah elevates you, then another man takes it after you and rises with it, then another man takes it and rises with it, then another man takes it, and it breaks but is reconnected, and he rises with it. Tell me, O Messenger of Allah, my father be your ransom, did I get it right or wrong?' The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'You got some right and some wrong.' He said, 'By Allah, O Messenger of Allah, tell me what I got wrong.' He said, 'Do not swear.'

Narrated to me [Mu'ammal bin Hisham Abu Hisham] narrated to us [Isma'il bin Ibrahim] narrated to us ['Auf] narrated to us [Abu Raja'] narrated to us [Samurah bin Jundab], may Allah be pleased with him, said: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, often said to his companions, 'Did any of you see a dream?' He said, so whoever Allah willed would narrate to him. One morning he said, 'Last night, two beings came to me, took me, and said, Let’s go." I went with them, and we came upon a man lying down, and another standing over him with a rock, smashing his head, and the rock rolled away. He followed the rock and took it, but before he returned, the man’s head was healed as it was, and he did it again as the first time. I said to them, "Glory be to Allah, what are these two?" They said, "Go on, go on." We went and came upon a man lying on his back, and another standing over him with an iron hook, tearing one side of his face to the back of his neck, his nostril to the back of his neck, and his eye to the back of his neck.' Sometimes Abu Raja’ said, 'splitting.' 'Then he moved to the other side and did the same as the first side. As soon as he finished that side, the first side healed as it was, and he did it again as the first time. I said, "Glory be to Allah, what are these two?" They said, "Go on, go on." We went and came upon something like an oven.' I think he said, 'There was noise and voices in it.' 'We looked inside and found naked men and women, and a flame came to them from below, and when it reached them, they screamed. I said, "What are these?" They said, "Go on, go on." We went and came upon a river.' I think he said, 'red like blood.' 'In the river was a man swimming, and on the bank was a man who had gathered many stones. The swimmer swam and came to the man with the stones, who opened his mouth and put a stone in it. He swam away and returned, and each time he returned, the man opened his mouth and put a stone in it. I said, "What are these two?" They said, "Go on, go on." We went and came upon a man with a repulsive appearance, the most repulsive man you could see, with a fire he was kindling and running around. I said, "What is this?" They said, "Go on, go on." We went and came upon a lush garden filled with every color of spring, and between the garden's sides was a tall man whose head I could hardly see in the sky, and around him were more children than I had ever seen. I said, "What is this? Who are these?" They said, "Go on, go on." We went and came upon a great garden, the greatest and most beautiful I had ever seen. They said, "Climb it." We climbed and came to a city built with bricks of gold and silver. We came to the city's gate, asked for it to be opened, and it was opened, and we entered. We were met by men, half of them as beautiful as you could see, and half as ugly as you could see. They said to them, "Go and plunge into that river." There was a river flowing across, its water as pure white as could be. They went and plunged into it, then returned to us, the ugliness gone, and they were in the most beautiful form. They said to me, "This is the Garden of Eden, and that is your place." I looked up and saw a palace like a white cloud. They said, "That is your place." I said, "May Allah bless you both, let me enter it." They said, "Not now, but you will enter it." I said, "Since last night, I have seen wonders. What is all this I have seen?" They said, "We will tell you. The first man whose head was smashed with a rock is the one who takes the Quran but rejects it and sleeps through the prescribed prayers. The man whose face was torn from his jaw, nostril, and eye to the back of his neck is the one who leaves his house and tells a lie that spreads to the horizons. The naked men and women in the oven-like structure are the adulterers and adulteresses. The man swimming in the river and fed stones is the one who consumes usury. The repulsive man at the fire, kindling it and running around it, is Malik, the keeper of Hell. The tall man in the garden is Ibrahim, peace be upon him, and the children around him are every child who died in a state of natural purity.' Some Muslims said, 'O Messenger of Allah, even the children of the polytheists?' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'Even the children of the polytheists.' 'As for the people who were half beautiful and half ugly, they are those who mixed righteous deeds with evil ones, and Allah forgave them.'"

Ibn Abi Mulaikah then supplicated: O Allah, I seek refuge in You from turning back or being struck by trials!'"

I said, 'O Messenger of Allah, we were in ignorance and evil, then Allah brought us this good. Will there be evil after this good?' He said, 'Yes.' I said, 'Will there be good after that evil?' He said, 'Yes, but it will be tainted.' I said, 'What will taint it?' He said, 'A people who guide by other than my guidance you will recognize some of their actions and disapprove of others.' I said, 'Will there be evil after that good?' He said, 'Yes, callers at the gates of Hell. Whoever responds to their call will be thrown into it.' I said, 'O Messenger of Allah, describe them to us.' He said, 'They are of our skin and speak our language.' I said, 'What do you command me to do if I encounter that?' He said, 'Stay with the community of Muslims and their leader.' I said, 'What if they have neither a community nor a leader?' He said, 'Then withdraw from all those sects, even if you must bite onto the root of a tree until death overtakes you while you are in that state.'

I met [Ikrimah] and informed him, and he strongly forbade me, saying: [Ibn Abbas] informed me that some Muslims were with the polytheists, increasing their numbers against the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. An arrow would be shot and kill one of them, or they would be struck and killed, so Allah revealed: {Indeed, those whom the angels take while they are wronging themselves...} (Qur'an, An-Nisa 4:97).

He told us: 'Trustworthiness descended into the roots of men's hearts, then they learned from the Qur'an, and then from the Sunnah.' He also told us about its removal: 'A man will sleep, and trustworthiness will be taken from his heart, leaving a faint trace like a mark. Then he will sleep again, and it will be taken, leaving a mark like a blister, as if you rolled an ember on your foot, causing it to swell, but it is empty.' He said, 'People will continue to trade, but hardly anyone will fulfill trustworthiness, and it will be said, There is a trustworthy man among the tribe of so-and-so." And it will be said of a man, "How intelligent, how charming, how brave," yet he has not a mustard seed's weight of faith in his heart.' He said, 'There was a time when I did not care whom I dealt with if he was a Muslim, his Islam would compel him to fulfill his trust, and if he was a Christian, his overseer would compel him. But today, I only deal with so-and-so and so-and-so.'"

One day, the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, ascended the pulpit and said, 'You will not ask me about anything except that I will explain it to you.' I looked to the right and left, and every man was wrapping his head in his garment, weeping. Then a man, who was called by a name other than his father's when he quarreled, stood up and said, 'O Prophet of Allah, who is my father?' He said, 'Your father is Hudhafah.' Then Umar stood up and said, 'We are pleased with Allah as our Lord, Islam as our religion, and Muhammad as our Messenger. We seek refuge with Allah from the evil of trials.' The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'I have never seen good and evil like today. Paradise and Hell were depicted for me until I saw them beyond this wall.'

I said, 'A man's trial in his family, wealth, children, and neighbor is expiated by prayer, charity, enjoining good, and forbidding evil.' He said, 'I am not asking about that, but about the trial that surges like the waves of the sea.' I said, 'There is no harm for you from it, O Commander of the Faithful, for there is a closed door between you and it.' Umar said, 'Will the door be broken or opened?' I said, 'It will be broken.' Umar said, 'Then it will never be closed again.' I said, 'Yes.' We said to Hudhayfah, 'Did Umar know the door?' He said, 'Yes, as he knows that there is a night before tomorrow, because I narrated to him a hadith without error.' We were hesitant to ask him who the door was, so we instructed Masruq to ask him, and he said, 'Who is the door?' He said, 'Umar.'

Narrated to us [Sa'id bin Abi Maryam], informed us [Muhammad bin Ja'far], from [Sharik bin Abdullah], from [Sa'id bin Al-Musayyab], from [Abu Musa Al-Ash'ari], who said: The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, went out one day to a garden in Medina for a need, and I followed him. When he entered the garden, I sat at its gate and said, 'Today, I will be the gatekeeper of the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, even though he did not command me.' The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, went, fulfilled his need, and sat on the edge of a well, uncovering his legs and dangling them in the well. Abu Bakr came seeking permission to enter, and I said, 'Stay where you are until I seek permission for you.' He waited, and I went to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and said, 'O Prophet of Allah, Abu Bakr seeks your permission.' He said, 'Grant him permission and give him glad tidings of Paradise.' He entered and sat to the right of the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, uncovering his legs and dangling them in the well. Then Umar came, and I said, 'Stay where you are until I seek permission for you.' The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'Grant him permission and give him glad tidings of Paradise.' He came to the left of the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, uncovered his legs, and dangled them in the well. The edge of the well was filled, and there was no room left. Then Uthman came, and I said, 'Stay where you are until I seek permission for you.' The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'Grant him permission and give him glad tidings of Paradise, along with a trial that will afflict him.' He entered but found no place with them, so he moved to face them from the opposite side of the well, uncovered his legs, and dangled them in the well. I began to wish for a brother of mine and prayed to Allah that he would come. Ibn Al-Musayyab said, 'I interpreted this as their graves being gathered here, while Uthman's is separate.'

He said, narrated to us [Al-Hasan], he said, when Al-Hasan bin Ali, may Allah be pleased with them, marched to Mu'awiyah with his troops, Amr bin Al-As said to Mu'awiyah, 'I see an army that will not turn back until its enemy is defeated.' فَذَهَبْتُ إِلَى حَسَنٍ وَحُسَيْنٍ وَابْنِ جَعْفَرٍ فَأَوْقَرُوا لِي رَاحِلَتِي

Narrated to us [Ali bin Abdullah], narrated to us [Sufyan], said [Amr], informed me [Muhammad bin Ali], that [Harmalah], the freed slave of Usamah, informed him. Amr said, I saw Harmalah say, [Usamah] sent me to Ali, and he said, 'Indeed, Ali will ask you now, saying, What kept your companion from joining me?" So say to him, "If I were in the mouth of a lion, I would wish to be with you, but this is a matter I have never seen before."' Ali gave me no provisions, so I went to Al-Hasan, Al-Husain, and Ibn Ja'far, and they loaded my mount with provisions."

Narrated to us [Sulaiman bin Harb], narrated to us [Hammad bin Zaid], from [Ayyub], from [Nafi'], he said, when the people of Medina deposed Yazid bin Mu'awiyah, [Ibn Umar] gathered his household and children and said, 'I heard the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, say, A banner will be raised for every betrayer on the Day of Resurrection," and we have pledged allegiance to this man based on the pledge of Allah and His Messenger. I know of no greater betrayal than for a man to be pledged allegiance based on the pledge of Allah and His Messenger, then to have war raised against him. I know of none among you who has deposed him or pledged allegiance in this matter except that there will be a decisive separation between me and him.'"

We sat with him, and my father began to seek hadith from him, saying, 'O Abu Barzah, do you not see the turmoil that has befallen the people?' The first thing I heard him say was, 'I seek reward from Allah, for I have become angry with the tribes of Quraysh. You, O Arabs, were in the state you know of—humiliation, scarcity, and misguidance. Then Allah saved you through Islam and Muhammad, peace and blessings be upon him, until you reached what you see. But this worldly life has caused corruption among you. Those in Sham, by Allah, fight only for worldly gain, and those among you, by Allah, fight only for worldly gain, and those in Mecca, by Allah, fight only for worldly gain.'

He will stay in some barren land near Medina, and a man, who is the best of people or among the best, will go out to him and say, I bear witness that you are the Dajjal about whom the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, told us." The Dajjal will say, "What if I kill this man and then revive him, will you still doubt this matter?" They will say, "No." So the Dajjal will kill him and then revive him, but the man will say, "By Allah, I have never been more certain about you than I am today." The Dajjal will want to kill him again but will not be able to overpower him.'"

He became angry with them and said, 'Did not the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, command you to obey me?' They said, 'Yes.' He said, 'I have resolved that when you gather firewood and kindle a fire, you should enter it.' So they gathered firewood and kindled a fire. When they were about to enter it, some looked at others, and some said, 'We followed the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, to escape the Fire, so should we enter it now?' While they were in that state, the fire died out, and his anger subsided. This was mentioned to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and he said, 'If they had entered it, they would never have come out of it. Obedience is only in what is right.'

LEGAL DECISIONS BASED ON EXTERNAL EVIDENCE
Hadith Imam Bukhari Number 6634

حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ مَسْلَمَةَ عَنْ مَالِكٍ عَنْ هِشَامٍ عَنْ أَبِيهِ عَنْ زَيْنَبَ بِنْتِ أَبِي سَلَمَةَ عَنْ أُمِّ سَلَمَةَ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهَاأَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ إِنَّمَا أَنَا بَشَرٌ وَإِنَّكُمْ تَخْتَصِمُونَ إِلَيَّ وَلَعَلَّ بَعْضَكُمْ أَنْ يَكُونَ

أَلْحَنَ بِحُجَّتِهِ مِنْ بَعْضٍ فَأَقْضِي عَلَى نَحْوِ مَا أَسْمَعُ فَمَنْ قَضَيْتُ لَهُ مِنْ حَقِّ أَخِيهِ شَيْئًا فَلَا يَأْخُذْهُ فَإِنَّمَا أَقْطَعُ لَهُ قِطْعَةً مِنْ النَّارِ

Narrated to us [Abdullah bin Maslamah], from [Malik], from [Hisham], from [his father], from [Zainab bint Abu Salamah], from [Umm Salamah], may Allah be pleased with her, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'I am only human, and you bring disputes to me. Some of you may be more eloquent than others, so I judge based on what I hear. Whoever I rule for, taking something from his brother's right, let him not take it, for I am only giving him a piece of the Fire.'

Narrated to us [Qutaibah], narrated to us [Al-Laith bin Sa'd], from [Yahya], from [Umar bin

Kathir], from [Abu Muhammad, freedman of Abu Qatadah], that [Abu Qatadah] said, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said on the day of Hunayn, 'Whoever has proof of killing someone gets his spoils.' So I stood to seek proof for my killing, but I found no one to testify for me, so I sat. Then I decided to mention it to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. A man from his companions said, 'The weapon of the man he mentions is with me.' He said, 'Compensate him for it.' Abu Bakr said, 'No, he will not give it to a little bird from Quraysh and leave a lion of Allah who fights for Allah and His Messenger.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, ordered it be given to me. I bought a flock with it, and it was the first wealth I accumulated. [Abdullah] said, from [Al-Laith], the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, stood and gave it to me. The people of Hijaz say a judge cannot rule based on his own knowledge witnessed in or before his session, even if the defendant admits the right of another in court. Some say he cannot rule until two witnesses are brought to confirm the admission. Some Iraqis say what he hears or sees in court, he can rule on, but outside it, he cannot rule without two witnesses. Others say he can rule even outside, as he is trusted, and testimony aims to establish truth, and his knowledge exceeds testimony. Some say he can rule based on his knowledge in financial matters but not others. Al-Qasim said a judge should not rule based solely on his knowledge, as it exposes him to suspicion among Muslims and causes doubt, and the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, disliked suspicion, saying, 'This is Safiyyah.'

Narrated to us [Ali bin Abdullah], narrated to us [Sufyan], from [Az-Zuhri], who heard [Urwah], informed us [Abu Humaid As-Sa'idi], who said, the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, appointed a man from Bani Asad, called Ibn Al-Utbiyyah, to collect charity. When he returned, he said, 'This is for you, and this was gifted to me.' The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, stood on the pulpit—Sufyan also said, 'climbed the pulpit'—praised and glorified Allah, then said, 'What is wrong with an agent we send who comes saying, This is for you, and this is for me"? Why does he not stay in his father's or mother's house to see if he is gifted or not? By the One in Whose hand is my soul, he will not bring anything but come with it on the Day of Resurrection, carrying it on his neck, whether it is a camel that grunts, a cow that moos, or a sheep that bleats.' Then he raised his hands until we saw the whiteness of his armpits, saying, 'Have I not conveyed?' three times. Sufyan said, [Az-Zuhri] narrated it to us, and [Hisham] added from [his father], from [Abu Humaid], saying, 'My ears heard it, and my eyes saw it. Ask Zaid bin Thabit, for he heard it with me.' Az-Zuhri did not say, 'My ear heard the mooing.'"

During the conquest of Mecca, Sa'd took him, saying, 'This is my brother's son he entrusted him to me.' Abd bin Zam'ah stood up and said, 'He is my brother and the son of my father's slave girl, born on his bed.' They took the matter to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. Sa'd said, 'O Messenger of Allah, he is my brother's son he entrusted him to me.' Abd bin Zam'ah said, 'He is my brother and the son of my father's slave girl, born on his bed.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'He is yours, O Abd bin Zam'ah.' Then he said, 'The child belongs to the bed, and the adulterer gets the stone.' Then he said to Sawdah bint Zam'ah, 'Veil yourself from him,' because he saw his resemblance to Utbah, so the boy never saw her until he met Allah Almighty.

Narrated to us [Abu Nu'man], narrated to us [Hammad], narrated to us [Abu Hazim Al-Madani], from [Sahl bin Sa'd As-Sa'idi], he said, there was fighting between Bani Amr, and the news reached the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him. He prayed Dhuhr, then went to them to reconcile them. When the time for Asr prayer came, Bilal called the Adhan and Iqamah, and he ordered Abu Bakr to lead the people. Abu Bakr stepped forward to lead. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, arrived while Abu Bakr was in prayer, passed through the rows until he stood behind Abu Bakr, moving to the row behind him. Sahl said, the people clapped (tashfih) as a sign the Prophet was behind. Abu Bakr, when in prayer, would not turn until he finished, but when he saw the clapping continue, he turned and saw the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, behind him. The Prophet signaled with his hand to continue, and gestured thus. Abu Bakr continued for a moment, praising Allah for the Prophet's words, then stepped back. When the Prophet saw this, he stepped forward and led the people. After finishing the prayer, he said, 'O Abu Bakr, what prevented you from continuing when I signaled you?' Abu Bakr said, 'It is not fitting for Ibn Abi Quhafah to lead the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him.' He said to the people, 'If you are uncertain during prayer, let men say tasbih, and let women clap (tashfih).'

Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Ubaidullah] Abu Thabit, narrated to us [Ibrahim bin Sa'd], from [Ibn Shihab], from [Ubaid bin As-Sibbaq], from [Zaid bin Thabit], he said, Abu Bakr sent for me due to the deaths at Yamamah, and Umar was with him. Abu Bakr said, 'Umar came to me and said, The deaths at Yamamah have taken many Quran reciters, and I fear that deaths of reciters in other places will cause much of the Quran to be lost. I suggest you order the collection of the Quran." I said, "How can I do something the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, did not do?" Umar said, "By Allah, it is good." Umar kept urging me until Allah opened my heart to what He opened Umar’s heart to, and I agreed with Umar.' Zaid said, Abu Bakr said, 'You are a young, intelligent man, and we trust you. You used to write the revelation for the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, so collect the Quran.' Zaid said, 'By Allah, moving a mountain would not have been heavier for me than collecting the Quran. I said, "How can you both do something the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, did not do?" Abu Bakr said, "By Allah, it is good." He kept urging me until Allah opened my heart to what He opened Abu Bakr and Umar’s hearts to, and I agreed with them. I collected the Quran from palm stalks, skins, pottery, bones, and the memories of men. I found the end of Surah At-Taubah, "There has come to you a Messenger from among yourselves..." to its end (Quran 9:128), with Khuzaimah or Abu Khuzaimah, so I included it in its Surah. The manuscripts were with Abu Bakr during his life until Allah took him, then with Umar during his life until Allah took him, then with Hafsah bint Umar.' Muhammad bin Ubaidullah said, 'Al-likhaf means pottery (baked clay).'"

Narrated to us [Abdullah bin Yusuf], informed us [Malik], from [Abu Laila]—through another chain—Narrated to us [Ismail], narrated to me [Malik], from [Abu Laila bin Abdullah bin Abdurrahman bin Sahl], from [Sahl bin Abi Hathmah], he and some elders of his people informed him that Abdullah bin Sahl and Muhayyisah went to Khaibar due to hardship. Muhayyisah was told that Abdullah was killed and thrown into a spring or well. He went to the Jews and said, 'By Allah, you killed him.' They said, 'By Allah, we did not kill him.' He returned to his people and told them. He, his older brother Huwayyisah, and Abdurrahman bin Sahl went forward. Muhayyisah, who was at Khaibar, wanted to speak, but the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said to him, 'Let the elder speak,' meaning age. Huwayyisah spoke, then Muhayyisah. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'Either they pay the blood money for your companion, or they declare war.' The Messenger wrote to them, and they replied, 'We did not kill him.' The Messenger said to Huwayyisah, Muhayyisah, and Abdurrahman, 'Will you swear and claim the blood of your companion?' They said, 'No.' He said, 'Should the Jews swear for you?' They said, 'They are not Muslims.' The Messenger paid the blood money himself with one hundred camels, brought to the house. Sahl said, 'One of them kicked me.'

my son must be stoned. I ransomed my son with one hundred sheep and a slave girl. Then I asked the people of knowledge, and they said my son should be flogged one hundred times and exiled for a year.' When he came to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and was evaluated, he said, 'This is for you, and this is a gift given to me.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'Why not stay in your father’s or mother’s house to see if your gift comes to you, if you are truthful?' Then the Messenger stood, addressed the people, praised and glorified Allah, and said, 'To proceed, I appoint men among you over matters Allah has entrusted to me. One of you comes saying, This is for you, and this is a gift given to me." Why not stay in his father’s or mother’s house to see if his gift comes, if he is truthful? By Allah, none of you will take anything from it—Hisham said, 'unrightfully'—except that he will come to Allah carrying it. I will know if someone comes to Allah carrying a camel that grunts, a cow that moos, or a sheep that bleats.' Then he raised his hands until I saw the whiteness of his armpits, saying, 'Have I conveyed?'"

Abdurrahman said to them, 'I am not competing with you for this matter, but if you wish, I will choose one of you.' They entrusted it to Abdurrahman. When they gave him their authority, people turned to Abdurrahman, so I saw no one following the others or stepping over his decision. People consulted with Abdurrahman for those nights until the night before we pledged to Uthman. Miswar said, Abdurrahman knocked on my door after part of the night, waking me, and said, 'I see you sleeping? By Allah, I haven't slept much this night. Go call Zubair and Sa'd.' I called them, and he consulted them. Then he called me and said, 'Call Ali for me.' I called him, and he spoke privately with him until late at night. Ali left, hopeful, though Abdurrahman feared something from Ali. Then he said, 'Call Uthman for me.' I called him, and he spoke privately with him until the muezzin separated them for Fajr. After leading the people in Fajr prayer, when the group gathered at the pulpit, he sent for those present from the Muhajirun and Ansar and the commanders of the armies who had come for Hajj with Umar. When they gathered, Abdurrahman testified and said, 'To proceed, O Ali, I have considered the people's matter and see they favor Uthman, so do not create a way against yourself.' He said, 'I pledge to you on the Sunnah of Allah, His Messenger, and the two Caliphs after him.' Abdurrahman pledged to him, followed by the Muhajirun, Ansar, army commanders, and Muslims generally.

Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Yusuf], informed us [Sufyan], from [Hisham bin Urwah], from [his father], from [Abdullah bin Umar], may Allah be pleased with them, he said, it was said to [Umar], 'Why do you not appoint a successor?' Umar replied, 'If I appoint a successor, one better than me, Abu Bakr, did so. If I leave it, one better than me, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, left it.' They praised him, so Umar said, 'I am hopeful yet fearful. I wish I could escape it neutrally, neither for nor against me, bearing it neither in life nor death.'

Narrated to us [Ibrahim bin Musa], informed us [Hisham], from [Ma'mar], from [Az-Zuhri], informed me [Anas bin Malik], may Allah be pleased with him, that he heard Umar’s last sermon when he sat on the pulpit the day after the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, passed away. He testified while Abu Bakr was silent, not speaking. Umar said, 'I hoped the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, would live until he outlived us, meaning to be the last of them. But since Muhammad, peace and blessings be upon him, has passed, Allah has placed among you a light to guide you, as He guided Muhammad, peace and blessings be upon him. Abu Bakr, the companion of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, the second of the two, is the most entitled among Muslims to manage your affairs. So stand and pledge to him.' Some had pledged to him before that at Saqifah Bani Sa'idah, and this was the general pledge at the pulpit. Az-Zuhri said, from [Anas bin Malik], I heard Umar say to Abu Bakr that day, 'Ascend the pulpit,' urging him until Abu Bakr ascended, and the people generally pledged to him.

Narrated to us [Al-Hasan bin Umar], narrated to us [Yazid], from [Habib], from [Ataa], from [Jabir bin Abdullah], he said, we were with the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and we declared the intention for Hajj. We arrived in Makkah on the fourth of Dhul-Hijjah. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, ordered us to circumambulate the Kaaba and perform Sa'i between Safa and Marwah, making it an Umrah and exiting ihram, except for those with a sacrificial animal. Jabir said, 'None of us had a sacrificial animal except the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and Talhah. Ali came from Yemen with a sacrificial animal and said, 'I declared the intention as the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, did.' They said, 'We will go to Mina, and one of us has seminal discharge.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'If I could redo what has passed, I would not have brought a sacrificial animal. If I did not have it, I would have exited ihram.' Jabir said, Suraqah met him while throwing pebbles at the Jamrat al-Aqabah and said, 'O Messenger of Allah, is this specific to us?' He said, 'No, it is forever.' Jabir said, Aisha arrived in Makkah menstruating, and the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, ordered her to perform all rituals except circumambulating and praying until she was pure. When they stayed at Al-Batha, Aisha said, 'O Messenger of Allah, you leave with Hajj and Umrah, while I leave with Hajj?' He ordered Abdurrahman bin Abu Bakr As-Siddiq to go with her to Tan'im, and she performed Umrah in Dhul-Hijjah after the days of Hajj.

The companions said, 'But you practice continuous fasting, O Messenger of Allah!' He replied, 'Which of you is like me? Indeed, my Lord feeds and gives me drink.' When they refused to stop their continuous fasting, he continued fasting with them day after day. Then they saw the crescent moon, and he said, 'If the moon had delayed, I would have added more fasting,' as if to discipline them.

Narrated to us Yahya, narrated to us Waki' from Israil from Abu Ishaq from Al Bara', he said, 'When the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, arrived in Medina, he prayed toward Baitul Maqdis for sixteen or seventeen months, though he loved to face the Ka'bah. Then Allah revealed, ‘We have seen the turning of your face toward the heaven, so We will turn you to a qibla you are pleased with’ (Quran 2:144). He faced the Ka'bah, and a man prayed Asr with him, then passed by Ansar people, saying he witnessed praying with the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, facing the Ka'bah, so they shifted while bowing in Asr prayer.'

Command us with something to enter Paradise and inform those behind us.’ They asked about drinks. He forbade four things and commanded four. He commanded faith in Allah, asking, ‘Do you know what faith in Allah is?’ They said, ‘Allah and His Messenger know best.’ He said, ‘Testifying there is no god but Allah alone, without partner, and Muhammad is His Messenger, establishing prayer, paying zakat—I think including Ramadan fasting—and giving one-fifth of spoils.’ He forbade duba’, hantam, muzaffat, and naqir, perhaps saying muqayyar, and said, ‘Memorize them and convey them to those behind you.’

Narrated to us Muhammad bin Ubadah, informed us Yazid, narrated to us Salim bin Hayyan, and he praised him, narrated to us Sa'id bin Mina', narrated to us, or I heard Jabir bin Abdullah say, 'Angels came to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, while he was sleeping. Some said, He is asleep," while others said, "His eyes are asleep, but his heart is awake." They said, "Your companion has a parable, so give him a parable." Some said, "He is asleep," and others said, "His eyes are asleep, but his heart is awake." They said, "His parable is like a man who built a house, prepared a feast in it, and sent an inviter. Whoever responds to the inviter enters the house and eats from the feast, and whoever does not respond does not enter the house nor eat from the feast." They said, "Interpret it for him so he understands." Some said, "He is asleep," and others said, "His eyes are asleep, but his heart is awake." They said, "The house is Paradise, and the inviter is Muhammad, peace and blessings be upon him. Whoever obeys Muhammad, peace and blessings be upon him, has obeyed Allah, and whoever disobeys Muhammad, peace and blessings be upon him, has disobeyed Allah. Muhammad, peace and blessings be upon him, is the divider among people." This was supported by Qutaibah from Al Laits from Khalid from Sa'id bin Abu Hilal from Jabir, "The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, came to us."'"

RECOMMENDATIONS TO STAND FIRMLY TO THE QUR'AN
Hadith Imam Bukhari Number 6739

حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو نُعَيْمٍ حَدَّثَنَا سُفْيَانُ عَنْ الْأَعْمَشِ عَنْ إِبْرَاهِيمَ عَنْ هَمَّامٍ عَنْ حُذَيْفَةَ قَالَيَا مَعْشَرَ الْقُرَّاءِ اسْتَقِيمُوا فَقَدْ سَبَقْتُمْ سَبْقًا بَعِيدًا فَإِنْ أَخَذْتُمْ يَمِينًا وَشِمَالًا لَقَدْ ضَلَلْتُمْ ضَلَالًا بَعِيدًا

Narrated to us Abu Nu'aim, narrated to us Sufyan from Al A'masy from Ibrahim from Hammam from Hudzaifah, he said, 'O community of Quran reciters, remain steadfast, for you have excelled greatly. If you veer right or left, you will have strayed far.'

THE PARABLE OF THE PROPHET AND COMMUNITY'S COMPLIANCE
Hadith Imam Bukhari Number 6740

حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو كُرَيْبٍ حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو أُسَامَةَ عَنْ بُرَيْدٍ عَنْ أَبِي بُرْدَةَ عَنْ أَبِي مُوسَعَنْ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ

إِنَّمَا مَثَلِي وَمَثَلُ مَا بَعَثَنِي اللَّهُ بِهِ كَمَثَلِ رَجُلٍ أَتَى قَوْمًا فَقَالَ يَا قَوْمِ إِنِّي رَأَيْتُ الْجَيْشَ بِعَيْنَيَّ وَإِنِّي أَنَا النَّذِيرُ الْعُرْيَانُ فَالنَّجَاءَ فَأَطَاعَهُ طَائِفَةٌ مِنْ قَوْمِهِ فَأَدْلَجُوا فَانْطَلَقُوا عَلَى مَهَلِهِمْ فَنَجَوْا وَكَذَّبَتْ طَائِفَةٌ مِنْهُمْ فَأَصْبَحُوا مَكَانَهُمْ فَصَبَّحَهُمْ الْجَيْشُ فَأَهْلَكَهُمْ وَاجْتَاحَهُمْ فَذَلِكَ مَثَلُ مَنْ أَطَاعَنِي فَاتَّبَعَ مَا جِئْتُ بِهِ وَمَثَلُ مَنْ عَصَانِي وَكَذَّبَ بِمَا جِئْتُ بِهِ مِنْ الْحَقِّ

Narrated to us Abu Kuraib, narrated to us Abu Usamah from Buraid from Abu Burdah from Abu Musa, from the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, he said: 'My example and the example of what Allah sent me with is like a man who came to a people and said, O people, I have seen the army with my own eyes, and I am the naked warner, so save yourselves." A group of his people obeyed him, set out at night, and proceeded slowly, so they were saved. Another group disbelieved him and stayed in their place, so the army attacked them at dawn, destroyed them, and overran them. That is the example of those who obey me and follow what I brought, and the example of those who disobey me and deny the truth I brought.'"

Narrated to us Qutaibah bin Sa'id, narrated to us Laits from Uqail from Az Zuhri, informed me Ubaidullah bin Abdullah bin Utbah from Abu Hurairah, he said, 'When the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, passed away and Abu Bakr was appointed as caliph after him, and some Arabs reverted to disbelief, Umar said to Abu Bakr, How can you fight people when the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'I was ordered to fight people until they say "There is no god but Allah." Whoever says "There is no god but Allah" protects his wealth and life from me except by its right, and his reckoning is with Allah'?" Abu Bakr said, "By Allah, I will fight those who separate prayer and zakat, for zakat is the right of wealth. By Allah, if they withhold from me even a rope they used to pay to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, I will fight them for withholding it." Umar said, "By Allah, it was nothing but that I saw Allah had opened Abu Bakr's heart to fighting, and I knew it was the truth." Ibn Bukair and Abdullah mentioned from Al Laits with the wording "inaaq" instead of "iqaal," although the meaning is the same, a camel, and this is more authentic.'"

The Quran reciters were Umar's council and advisors, whether old or young. Uyainah said to his nephew, O nephew, do you have influence with this leader to seek permission for me to meet him?" Al Hurr bin Qais said, "I will seek permission for you." Ibn Abbas said, "So Al Hurr bin Qais sought permission for Uyainah. When Uyainah entered, he said, 'O Ibnul Khattab, by Allah, you have not given us generously nor judged among us justly.' Umar became angry and intended to punish him. Al Hurr said, 'O Commander of the Faithful, Allah Almighty said to His Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, "Take what is given freely, enjoin what is good, and turn away from the ignorant" (Quran, Al-A'raf: 199), and this man is among the ignorant.' By Allah, Umar did not proceed with the punishment when Al Hurr recited it to him, for he was steadfast in adhering to the Book of Allah.'"

I asked, Why are people praying?" She pointed with her hand toward the sky and said, "Subhanallah." I asked, "A sign?" She nodded with her head, "Yes." When the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, finished praying, he praised and glorified Allah, then said, "There is nothing I have not seen except that I saw it in my place here, even Paradise and Hell. It was revealed to me that you will be tested in your graves, close to the trial of the Dajjal. As for the believer or Muslim—I am not sure which Asma said—he will say, 'Muhammad came to us with clear proofs, and we answered him and believed.' It will be said, 'Sleep soundly we know you were certain.' As for the hypocrite or doubter—I am not sure which Asma said—he will say, 'I don’t know I heard people saying something, so I said it.'"'"

Then one night they did not hear his voice and thought he was asleep. Some began to clear their throats to make him come out to them. He said, 'You kept doing what I saw of your actions until I feared it would be made obligatory upon you, and if it were made obligatory, you would not be able to uphold it. Narrated to us Muhammad bin Muqatil, informed us Waki', informed us Nafi' bin Umar from Ibn Abu Mulaikah, he said, 'The two righteous men, Abu Bakr and Umar, almost perished when a delegation from Banu Tamim came to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him. One of them suggested Al Aqra' bin Habis At Tamimi Al Hanzhali, the brother of Banu Mujashi', while the other suggested someone else. Abu Bakr said to Umar, You only want to oppose me!" Umar said, "I did not intend to oppose you!" Their voices rose in the presence of the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and the verse was revealed: "O you who have believed, do not raise your voices above the voice of the Prophet..." (Quran, Al-Hujurat: 2-3). Ibn Abu Mulaikah said, 'Ibn Zubair said, "After that, Umar—and he did not mention it from his grandfather, meaning Abu Bakr—when speaking to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, would speak as if whispering, not audible until he was asked to repeat himself."'"

Narrated to us Ismail, narrated to me Malik from Hisyam bin Urwah from his father from Aishah, the Mother of the Believers, that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said during his illness, 'Order Abu Bakr to lead the people in prayer.' Aishah said, 'I said, If Abu Bakr stands in your place, he will not be heard by the people because of his weeping. Order Umar to lead the people."' But he said, 'Order Abu Bakr to lead the people.' Aishah said, 'So I said to Hafsah, "Say to him, 'If Abu Bakr stands in your place, he will not be heard by the people because of his weeping. Order Umar to lead the people.'" Hafsah did so, and the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'You are like the companions of Yusuf. Order Abu Bakr to lead the people.' Hafsah said to Aishah, 'I will never gain anything good from you.'"

Narrated to us Adam, narrated to us Muhammad bin Abdurrahman bin Abu Dzi'b, narrated to us Az Zuhri from Sahl bin Sa'd as Sa'idi, he said, 'Uwaimir Al 'Ajlani came to 'Asim bin Adi and said, What is your opinion if a man finds another man with his wife and kills him, will you kill him for it? Ask the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, for me, O 'Asim." So 'Asim asked, and the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, disliked excessive questions and criticized them. 'Asim returned and informed him that the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, disliked excessive questions. Uwaimir said, "By Allah, I will go to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him." He came, and Allah had revealed the Quran after 'Asim. The Prophet said, "Allah has revealed the Quran among you." He called the couple, and they came forward and performed mutual cursing (li'an). Then Uwaimir said, "I would be lying about her, O Messenger of Allah, if I kept her." He separated from her, though the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, did not order him to separate. This became the Sunnah for those who perform mutual cursing. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "Observe her. If she gives birth to a red, short child like a gecko, I think he lied. But if she gives birth to a dark-eyed child with prominent buttocks, I think he was truthful about her." She gave birth to a child with undesirable traits.'"

Narrated to us Abdullah bin Yusuf, narrated to us Al Laits, narrated to me 'Uqail from Ibn Syihab, he said, informed me Malik bin Aus an Nashri, and Muhammad bin Jubair bin Muth'im mentioned something about it to me, so I went to Malik and asked him. He said, 'I went to Umar, and his doorkeeper, Yarfa, came and said, Would you allow Uthman, Abdurrahman, Zubair, and Sa'd to enter?" He said, "Yes." They entered, greeted, and sat. He said, "Would you allow Ali and Abbas?" He permitted them. Abbas said, "O Commander of the Faithful, judge between me and this oppressor." The group, including Uthman and his companions, said, "O Commander of the Faithful, judge between them and relieve one from the other." Umar said, "Be patient. I adjure you by Allah, by Whose permission the heavens and earth stand, do you know that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'We are not inherited what we leave is charity,' referring to himself?" The group said, "He did say that." Umar turned to Ali and Abbas and said, "I adjure you by Allah, do you both know that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said that?" They said, "Yes." Umar said, "I will tell you about this matter. Allah gave His Messenger, peace and blessings be upon him, something in this wealth that He did not give to anyone else. Allah says, 'What Allah has bestowed upon His Messenger from them, for which you did not spur…' (Quran, Al-Hashr: 6). This was exclusively for the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. By Allah, he did not keep it from you nor favor himself with it over you. He gave it to you and distributed it among you until this wealth remained. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, used to spend on his family their annual expenses from this wealth, then take what remained and treat it as Allah's wealth. He managed it this way during his life. I adjure you by Allah, do you know this?" They said, "Yes." Then he said to Ali and Abbas, "I adjure you by Allah, do you both know this?" They said, "Yes." Umar continued, "Then Allah took His Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and Abu Bakr said, 'I am the successor of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him.' Abu Bakr took it and managed it as the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, did. And you both were there." Turning to Ali and Abbas, he said, "You claim Abu Bakr did such and such, but Allah knows he was truthful, righteous, guided, and followed the truth. Then Allah took Abu Bakr, and I said, 'I am the successor of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and Abu Bakr.' I took it for two years, managing it as the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and Abu Bakr did. Then you both came to me, united in your claim. You, Abbas, asked for your share from your nephew, and you, Ali, asked for your wife's share from her father. I said, 'If you wish, I will hand it over to you both on the condition that you uphold Allah's covenant and manage it as the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and Abu Bakr did, and as I have since I took charge. Otherwise, do not speak to me about it.' You said, 'Give it to us on that basis,' so I gave it to you. I adjure you by Allah, did I give it to them on that basis?" The group said, "Yes." He turned to Ali and Abbas and said, "I adjure you by Allah, did I give it to you both on that basis?" They said, "Yes." He said, "Do you seek a judgment from me other than that? By the One by Whose permission the heavens and earth stand, I will not judge differently until the Hour comes. If you are unable to manage it, return it to me, and I will suffice you both.""

Narrated to us Musaddad, narrated to us Yahya from Ibn Jurayj, narrated to me Ata from Ubaid bin Umair, he said, 'Abu Musa sought permission to enter Umar's presence, but it seemed he found him busy, so he returned. Umar said, Did I not hear the voice of Abdullah bin Qais? Let him be permitted." So he was called, and Umar said, "What made you do what you did?" He replied, "We were commanded to do this." Umar said, "Bring me proof of this, or I will deal with you." So he went to a gathering of the Ansar, and they said, "Only our young ones will testify." Then Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri stood and said, "We were commanded to do this." Umar said, "This was hidden from me regarding the Prophet's command, peace and blessings be upon him. I was distracted by dealings in the markets."'"

I was a poor man who stayed with the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, for the sake of filling my stomach. The Muhajirun were occupied with trading in the markets, and the Ansar were busy managing their properties. So I witnessed a day when the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, Whoever spreads his cloak until I finish my speech and then gathers it will never forget anything he heard from me." So I spread my cloak that was on me, and by the One who sent him with the truth, I never forgot anything I heard from him.'"

As for the one for whom it is a reward, it is a man who ties it for the cause of Allah, letting it graze in a meadow or garden. Whatever it eats in that meadow or garden is counted as good deeds for him. If it breaks its rope and runs a distance or two, its tracks and dung are good deeds for him. If it passes by a river and drinks from it, even if he did not intend to water it, that is good deeds for him, and it is a reward for him. Another man ties it for sustenance and modesty, not forgetting Allah's right over its neck and back, so it is a covering for him. And a man ties it for pride and show, so it is a burden for him.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, was asked about donkeys, and he said, 'Allah did not reveal anything to me about them except this comprehensive verse: Whoever does an atom's weight of good will see it, and whoever does an atom's weight of evil will see it" (Quran, Az-Zalzalah: 7-8).'"

Narrated to us Musa bin Ismail, narrated to us Ibrahim, informed us Ibn Shihab from Ubaidullah bin Abdullah that Ibn Abbas, may Allah be pleased with them, said, 'Why do you ask the People of the Book about anything when your Book, revealed to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, is the most recent, and you read it pure, untainted? They have told you that the People of the Book altered Allah's Book, changed it, and wrote a book with their hands, saying, This is from Allah," to sell it for a small price. Does not the knowledge that has come to you prevent you from asking them? No, by Allah, we have never seen any of them asking you about what was revealed to you.'"

He said, Come, I will write for you a document so you will never go astray." Umar said, "The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, is overcome by pain, and you have the Quran, so the Book of Allah suffices us." The people of the house disagreed and disputed. Some said, "Come closer, let the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, write for you a document so you will never go astray." Others said what Umar said. When their noise and disagreement increased in the presence of the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, he said, "Leave me." Ubaidullah said, Ibn Abbas used to say, "The greatest calamity was what prevented the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, from writing that document for them due to their disagreement and noise."'"

Ata said, Jabir said, The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, arrived on the morning of the fourth of Dhul-Hijjah. When we arrived, the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, ordered us to come out of ihram and said, 'Come out of ihram and go to your wives.'" Ata said, Jabir said, "He did not make it obligatory for them but permitted it for them." It reached him that we were saying, "When there were only five days left until Arafah, he ordered us to come out of ihram to our wives, so we come to Arafah with our private parts dripping with madhi." Jabir said, gesturing with his hand like this, and moved it. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, stood and said, "You know that I am the most God-fearing, truthful, and dutiful among you. If it were not for my sacrificial animal, I would have come out of ihram as you do. So come out of ihram, for if I could redo what has passed, I would not have brought a sacrificial animal." So we came out of ihram, listened, and obeyed.'"

As for Usamah, he advised based on what he knew of his wife's innocence. As for Ali, he said, Allah has not restricted you, and there are many women besides her. Ask the servant girl, she will tell you the truth." He said, "Have you seen anything suspicious?" She said, "I have not seen anything more than that she is a young girl who falls asleep over her family's dough, and the animal comes and eats it." So he stood on the pulpit and said, "O Muslims, who will excuse me from a man whose harm to my wife has reached me? By Allah, I know nothing but good of my wife." Then he mentioned Aishah's innocence.' And Abu Usamah said, from Hisham."

Narrated to us Ismail, narrated to me Malik from Abdurrahman bin Abdullah bin Abdurrahman bin Abu Sha'sha'ah from his father from Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri, that a man heard someone reciting 'Say, He is Allah, the One' (Surat Al-Ikhlas), repeating it. In the morning, he came to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and mentioned it to him, as if the man considered it insignificant. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'By the One in whose hand is my soul, it is equivalent to one-third of the Quran.' Ismail bin Ja'far added from Malik from Abdurrahman from his father from Abu Sa'id, my brother Qatadah bin Nu'man informed me from the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him.

Narrated to me Mu'adh bin Fadlalah, narrated to us Hisham from Qatadah from Anas, that the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'Allah will gather the believers on the Day of Resurrection and they will say, Would that we seek intercession with our Lord so that He may grant us relief from this place." So they will come to Adam and say, "O Adam, do you not see the people? Allah created you with His Hand, made His angels prostrate to you, and taught you the names of all things. Intercede for us with our Lord so that He may grant us relief from this place." He will say, "I am not the one for that," and he will mention his sin that he committed. "But go to Noah, for he was the first messenger Allah sent to the people of the earth." They will go to Noah, and he will say, "I am not the one for you," and he will mention his sin that he committed. "But go to Ibrahim, the Friend of the Merciful." They will go to Ibrahim, and he will say, "I am not the one for you," and he will mention his sins that he committed. "But go to Musa, a servant to whom Allah gave the Torah and spoke to directly." They will go to Musa, and he will say, "I am not the one for you," and he will mention his sin that he committed. "But go to Isa, Allah's servant and messenger, His word and His spirit." They will go to Isa, and he will say, "I am not the one for you, but go to Muhammad, peace and blessings be upon him, a servant whose past and future sins have been forgiven." So they will come to me, and I will seek permission from my Lord, and it will be granted to me. When I see my Lord, I will fall in prostration, and He will leave me as long as Allah wills. Then it will be said, "Raise your head, O Muhammad, speak and you will be heard, ask and you will be given, intercede and your intercession will be accepted." I will praise my Lord with praises He has taught me, then I will intercede, and He will set a limit for me, and I will admit them into Paradise. Then I will return, and when I see my Lord, I will fall in prostration, and He will leave me as long as Allah wills. Then it will be said, "Raise your head, O Muhammad, speak and you will be heard, ask and you will be given, intercede and your intercession will be accepted." I will praise my Lord with praises He has taught me, then I will intercede, and He will set a limit for me, and I will admit them into Paradise. Then I will return, and when I see my Lord, I will fall in prostration, and He will leave me as long as Allah wills. Then it will be said, "Raise your head, O Muhammad, speak and you will be heard, ask and you will be given, intercede and your intercession will be accepted." I will praise my Lord with praises He has taught me, then I will intercede, and He will set a limit for me, and I will admit them into Paradise. Then I will return and say, "O my Lord, none remains in the Fire except those whom the Quran has detained and for whom eternity is obligatory." The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "Whoever says 'There is no god but Allah' and has in his heart goodness the weight of a barley grain will be taken out of the Fire. Then whoever says 'There is no god but Allah' and has in his heart goodness the weight of a wheat grain will be taken out of the Fire. Then whoever says 'There is no god but Allah' and has in his heart goodness the weight of an atom will be taken out of the Fire."'"

Narrated to us Qabishah, narrated to us Sufyan from his father from Ibn Abu Nu'm—or Abu Nu'm, Qabishah was uncertain between the two—from Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri, he said, 'Some pieces of gold were brought to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and he divided them among four people.' And narrated to me Ishaq bin Nashr, narrated to us Abdurrazaq, informed us Sufyan from his father from Ibn Abu Nu'm from Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri, he said, 'Ali, who was in Yemen, sent some pieces of gold still in their ore to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and he divided them among Al-Aqra' bin Habis Al-Hanzhali, then one of Bani Majashi', and Uyainah bin Badr Al-Fazari, and Alqamah bin 'Ulathah Al-'Amiri, then one of Bani Kilab, and Zaid Al-Khail At-Thai, then one of Bani Nabhan. So some people from Quraysh and the Ansar became angry and said, The Prophet gives it to the leaders of the people of Najd and leaves us." He said, "I only give them to soften their hearts." Then a man with sunken eyes, protruding forehead, thick beard, prominent cheekbones, and a shaven head came and said, "O Muhammad, fear Allah!" The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "Who would obey Allah if I disobeyed Him? He trusts me with the people of the earth, and you do not trust me?" A man from the people asked to kill him—I think it was Khalid bin Al-Walid—but the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, prevented him. When the man left, the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "From the offspring of this man will come a people who recite the Quran but it does not go beyond their throats. They will pass through Islam as an arrow passes through its target. They will kill the people of Islam and leave the idol-worshippers. If I were to encounter them, I would kill them as the people of 'Ad were killed."'"

Narrated to us Abdul Aziz bin Abdullah, narrated to us Ibrahim bin Sa'd from Ibn Shihab from 'Ata bin Yazid Al-Laithi from Abu Hurairah, that the people said, 'O Messenger of Allah, will we see our Lord on the Day of Resurrection?' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'Do you find it difficult to see the moon on a full moon night?' They said, 'No, O Messenger of Allah.' He said, 'Do you find it difficult to see the sun when there are no clouds?' They said, 'No, O Messenger of Allah.' He said, 'Indeed, you will see Him like that. Allah will gather the people on the Day of Resurrection and say, Whoever worshipped something, let him follow it." So those who worshipped the sun will follow the sun, those who worshipped the moon will follow the moon, and those who worshipped false deities will follow the false deities. This nation will remain, with its hypocrites or its intercessors—Ibrahim was uncertain. Then Allah will come to them and say, "I am your Lord." They will say, "This is our place until our Lord comes to us, and when our Lord comes to us, we will recognize Him." Then Allah will come to them in the form they recognize and say, "I am your Lord." They will say, "You are our Lord," and they will follow Him. The bridge will be set up between the two sides of Hell, and I and my nation will be the first to cross it. On that day, no one will speak except the messengers, and the supplication of the messengers on that day will be, "O Allah, save, save." In Hell, there are hooks like the thorns of Sa'dan. Have you seen the thorns of Sa'dan?' They said, 'Yes, O Messenger of Allah.' He said, 'They are like the thorns of Sa'dan, but no one knows their magnitude except Allah. They snatch people according to their deeds. Some will be destroyed by their deeds, or bound by their deeds, and some will be swept away or punished, or something similar. Then Allah will manifest Himself, and when Allah has finished judging His servants and wishes to bring out by His mercy those He wills from the people of the Fire, He will order the angels to bring out of the Fire those who did not associate anything with Allah, those whom Allah wishes to show mercy, those who testify that there is no deity worthy of worship except Allah. They will recognize them in the Fire by the mark of prostration. The Fire consumes the son of Adam except the mark of prostration Allah has forbidden the Fire to consume the mark of prostration. They will come out of the Fire, having been burned, and the water of life will be poured over them, and they will grow under it as a seed grows in the stream's silt. Then Allah will finish judging His servants, and there will remain one man among them, facing the Fire. He is the last of the people of the Fire to enter Paradise. He will say, "O my Lord, turn my face away from the Fire, for its smell has overwhelmed me, and its blaze has burned me." He will supplicate to Allah as he wishes, and then Allah will say, "If I grant you this, will you ask for something else?" He will say, "No, by Your might, I will not ask for anything else." He will give his Lord whatever covenants and pledges He wishes, and Allah will turn his face away from the Fire. When he faces Paradise and sees it, he will remain silent as long as Allah wills, then he will say, "O my Lord, bring me to the gate of Paradise." Allah will say to him, "Did you not give your covenants and pledges that you would not ask for anything other than what you were given forever? Woe to you, O son of Adam, how treacherous you are!" He will say, "O my Lord," and he will supplicate to Allah until He says, "If I grant you this, will you ask for something else?" He will say, "No, by Your might, I will not ask for anything else," and he will give whatever covenants and pledges He wishes. So Allah will bring him to the gate of Paradise. When he stands at the gate of Paradise, Paradise will open for him, and he will see its delights and joys. He will remain silent as long as Allah wills, then he will say, "O my Lord, admit me to Paradise." Allah will say, "Did you not give your covenants and pledges that you would not ask for anything other than what you were given? Woe to you, O son of Adam, how treacherous you are!" He will say, "O my Lord, do not make me the most wretched of Your creation," and he will keep supplicating until Allah laughs at him. When Allah laughs at him, He will say, "Enter Paradise." When he enters it, Allah will say to him, "Make a wish." He will ask his Lord and make wishes until Allah reminds him, saying, "Such and such," until his wishes are exhausted. Allah will say, "That is for you, and its like with it." 'Ata bin Yazid said, 'Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri was with Abu Hurairah and did not contradict any of his narration until Abu Hurairah said that Allah, Blessed and Exalted, said, "That is for you, and its like with it." Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri said, "And ten times its like with it, O Abu Hurairah." Abu Hurairah said, "I only memorized His saying, 'That is for you, and its like with it.'" Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri said, "I testify that I memorized from the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, his saying, 'That is for you, and ten times its like.'" Abu Hurairah said, "That man is the last of the people of Paradise to enter Paradise."'"

Narrated to us Yahya bin Bukair, narrated to us Al-Laith bin Sa'd from Khalid bin Yazid from Sa'id bin Abi Hilal from Zaid from 'Ata bin Yasar from Abu Hurairah, from the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, he said: 'I will seek permission from my Lord and it will be granted to me, and when I see Him, I will fall in prostration, and He will leave me as long as Allah wills. Then it will be said, Raise your head, O Muhammad, speak and you will be heard, and give intercession and you will be given intercession, and ask and you will be given." So I will raise my head and praise my Lord with the praises He has taught me, then I will intercede, and He will set a limit for me. Then I will go out and admit them into Paradise.' Qatadah said, 'And I heard him mention, "And I will go out and take them out of the Fire and admit them into Paradise. Then I will return a second time and seek permission from my Lord at His house, and I will be permitted to meet Him, and when I see Him, I will fall in prostration. Allah will leave me as long as He wills, then Allah will say, 'Raise your head, O Muhammad, speak and you will be heard, give intercession and you will be given intercession, and ask and you will be given.' So I will raise my head and praise my Lord with the praises He has taught me. Then I will intercede, and He will set a limit for me, so I will go out and admit them into Paradise." Qatadah said, "And I heard him mention, 'And I will go out and take them out of the Fire and admit them into Paradise.'" Qatadah said, "And I heard him mention, 'So I will go out and take them out of the Fire and admit them into Paradise until none remains in the Fire except those whom the Quran has detained, meaning they are obligated to eternity.' Then he recited this verse, '(It may be that your Lord will raise you to a praised station)' (Quran, Al-Isra': 79). The Prophet said, 'This is the praised station promised to your Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him.'"

To You be praise, You are the Lord of the heavens and the earth and whoever is in them. To You be praise, You are the Light of the heavens and the earth and whoever is in them. You are the Truth, Your Word is the Truth, Your Promise is the Truth, meeting You is the Truth, Paradise is true, the Fire is true, and the Hour is true. O Allah, to You I submit, in You I believe, upon You I rely, for You I contend, and with You I judge. So forgive me for what I have done and what I have delayed, what I have concealed and what I have declared, and what You know better than I. There is no deity worthy of worship except You." Abu Abdullah said, Qais bin Sa'd and Abu Zubair said from Thawus, "Qayyaam," and Mujahid said, "{Al-Qayyum} means the One who sustains everything," and Umar read it as "Al-Qayyaam," and both are praise.'"

Narrated to us Muhammad bin Al-Muthanna, narrated to us Abdul Wahhab, narrated to us Ayyub from Muhammad from Ibn Abu Bakrah from Abu Bakrah, from the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, he said: 'Time has come full circle as it was when Allah created the heavens and the earth. The year is twelve months, four of which are sacred: three consecutive ones—Dhu al-Qa'dah, Dhu al-Hijjah, and Muharram—and Rajab of Mudar, which is between Jumada and Sha'ban. What month is this?' We said, 'Allah and His Messenger know best.' He remained silent until we thought he would name it something other than its name. He said, 'Is it not Dhu al-Hijjah?' We said, 'Yes.' He said, 'What town is this?' We said, 'Allah and His Messenger know best.' He remained silent until we thought he would name it something other than its name. He said, 'Is it not Al-Baldah?' We said, 'Yes.' He said, 'What day is this?' We said, 'Allah and His Messenger know best.' He remained silent until we thought he would name it something other than its name. He said, 'Is it not the Day of Sacrifice?' We said, 'Yes.' He said, 'Indeed, your blood, your property,'—Muhammad said, and I think he said, 'and your honor'—'are sacred to you as the sanctity of this day of yours, in this town of yours, in this month of yours. You will meet your Lord, and He will ask you about your deeds. So do not turn back after me as misguided people, striking the necks of one another. Let the one who is present convey to the one who is absent, for perhaps some of those to whom it is conveyed will understand it better than some who heard it.' Muhammad, whenever he mentioned it, would say, 'The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, spoke the truth,' then he said, 'Have I not conveyed? Have I not conveyed?'

Narrated to us Musa bin Ismail, narrated to us Abdul Wahid, narrated to us 'Asim from Abu Uthman from Usamah, he said, 'A son of one of the daughters of the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, was dying, so she sent to him asking him to come to her. He sent back, To Allah belongs what He takes, and to Him belongs what He gives, and everything has an appointed term. So let her be patient and seek reward." She sent to him again, swearing that he must come. So the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, got up, and I got up with him, along with Mu'adh bin Jabal, Ubayy bin Ka'b, and Ubadah bin As-Samit. When we entered, they handed the boy to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, whose soul was rattling in his chest—I think he said, like an old waterskin—so the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, wept. Sa'd bin Ubadah said, 'Are you weeping?' He said, 'Indeed, Allah shows mercy to His merciful servants.'"

Then an angel is sent to it, and he is commanded with four words: to write its provision, its lifespan, its deeds, and whether it will be wretched or happy. Then the soul is breathed into it. Indeed, one of you may perform the deeds of the people of Paradise until there is only an arm’s length between him and it, but the decree overtakes him, and he performs the deeds of the people of the Fire and enters it. Ubayy bin Ka'b Al-Ansari passed by them, and Ibn Abbas called him and said, 'I have been debating with my friend here about the companion of Moses whom he sought to meet. Have you heard the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, mention anything about him?' He said, 'Yes, I heard the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, say: While Moses was in a gathering of the Children of Israel, a man came to him and said, 'Do you know anyone more knowledgeable than you?' Moses said, 'No.' Then it was revealed to Moses, 'Yes, Our servant Khidr.' Moses asked for the way to meet him, and Allah made the fish a sign for him and said, 'When you lose the fish, return, for you will meet him.' Moses followed the trace of the fish in the sea. The young man with Moses said to him, 'Do you remember when we took shelter at the rock? I forgot the fish, and none made me forget to mention it except Satan' (Quran, Al-Kahf: 63). Moses said, 'That is what we were seeking.' So they retraced their steps (Quran, Al-Kahf: 64), and they found Khidr. And what happened to them was as Allah narrated."'"

Narrated to us Ali bin Abdullah, narrated to us Sufyan, from Amru, from Ikrimah, from Abu Hurairah, reaching the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, he said, 'When Allah decrees a matter in the heavens, the angels beat their wings in submission to His command, as if it were a chain on a smooth rock.' Ali said, 'And others said, Like a smooth rock that pierces them." Allah said, "When fear is removed from their hearts, they say, 'What did your Lord say?' They say, 'The truth, and He is the Most High, the Most Great'" (Quran, Saba: 23). Ali said, 'Narrated to us Sufyan, narrated to us Amru, from Ikrimah, from Abu Hurairah with this narration.' Sufyan said, 'Amru said, "I heard Ikrimah narrate to us from Abu Hurairah."' Ali said, 'I asked Sufyan, "He said, 'I heard Ikrimah say, I heard Abu Hurairah say, "Yes."'" I said to Sufyan, "Some people narrated from Amru, from Ikrimah, from Abu Hurairah, attributing it to the Prophet, that he read 'furrigha' (when it is completed)." Sufyan said, "This is how Amru read it, and I do not know if he heard it like that or not." Sufyan said, "And that is our reading."'

His Lord said, 'Does My servant know that he has a Lord who forgives sins and holds accountable for them? I have forgiven My servant.' Then he remained as Allah willed, then he committed a sin—or performed a sin—and said, 'My Lord, I have sinned—or committed another—so forgive it.' He said, 'Does My servant know that he has a Lord who forgives sins and holds accountable for them? I have forgiven My servant.' Then he remained as Allah willed, then he sinned—or committed a sin—and said, 'My Lord, I have committed—or sinned—another, so forgive it for me.' He said, 'Does My servant know that he has a Lord who forgives sins and holds accountable for them? I have forgiven My servant three times, so let him do as he wishes.'"'"

Narrated to us Abdullah bin Abu Al-Aswad, narrated to us Mu'tamir, I heard my father, narrated to us Qatadah, from Uqbah bin Abdul Ghafir, from Abu Sa'id, from the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, he mentioned a man from those who came before or those before you, saying, 'Allah gave him wealth and children. When death approached, he said to his children, What kind of father was I to you?" They said, "The best father." He said, "He has not stored up—or he said, accumulated—any good with Allah, and if Allah has power over him, He will punish him. So when I die, burn me until I become charcoal, then crush me—or he said, Alexandria—and when it is a stormy day, scatter me in it." The Prophet of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "So they took their oaths on that, and by my Lord, they did it, then scattered him on a stormy day." Allah, Mighty and Sublime, said, "Be," and there he was, a man standing. Allah said, "O My servant, what made you do what you did?" He said, "Fear of You—or dread of You." He said, "Nothing saved him except that Allah had mercy on him at that moment." And he said another time, "Nothing saved him except that." I narrated it to Abu Uthman, and he said, "I heard this from Salman, except that he added, 'Scatter me in the sea,' or as he narrated." Narrated to us Musa, narrated to us Mu'tamir, and he said, "He did not hope for good." Khalifah said, "Narrated to us Mu'tamir, and he said, 'lam yabta'iz,' which Qatadah interpreted as 'he did not store up.'"

Narrated to us Sulaiman bin Harb, narrated to us Hammad bin Zaid, narrated to us Ma'bad bin Hilal Al-Anazi, he said, 'We, a group from the people of Basra, gathered and went to Anas bin Malik, accompanied by Thabit Al-Bunani, to ask him about the hadith of intercession. We found him in his palace praying the forenoon prayer. We sought permission, and he allowed us while sitting on his bed. We said to Thabit, Do not ask him about anything before the hadith of intercession." He said, "O Abu Hamzah, these are your brothers from Basra who have come to ask you about the hadith of intercession." He said, "Muhammad, peace and blessings be upon him, narrated to us, saying, 'When the Day of Resurrection comes, people will surge against one another. They will come to Adam and say, "Intercede for us with your Lord." He will say, "I am not for it, but go to Ibrahim, for he is the Friend of the Merciful." So they go to Ibrahim, and he says, "I am not for it, but go to Musa, for he is the one Allah spoke to." They go to Musa, and he says, "I am not for it, but go to Isa, for he is the Spirit of Allah and His Word." They go to Isa, and he says, "I am not for it, but go to Muhammad, peace and blessings be upon him." So they come to me, and I say, "I am for it." I seek permission from my Lord, and it is granted to me. He inspires me with praises by which I praise Him, which do not come to me now. I praise Him with those praises and fall prostrate before Him. He says, "O Muhammad, raise your head, speak, and you will be heard ask, and you will be given intercede, and your intercession will be granted." I say, "O Lord, my community, my community." He says, "Go and take out from it those who have in their hearts the weight of a barley grain of faith." So I go and do it. Then I return, praise Him with those praises, and fall prostrate before Him. It is said, "O Muhammad, raise your head, speak, and you will be heard ask, and you will be given intercede, and your intercession will be granted." I say, "O Lord, my community, my community." He says, "Go and take out from it those who have in their hearts the weight of an atom or a mustard seed of faith." So I go and do it. Then I return, praise Him with those praises, and fall prostrate before Him. He says, "O Muhammad, raise your head, speak, and you will be heard ask, and you will be given intercede, and your intercession will be granted." I say, "O Lord, my community, my community." He says, "Go and take out from it those who have in their hearts the least, the least, the least weight of a mustard seed of faith." So I go and do it.' When we left Anas, I said to some of our companions, 'If only we could pass by Al-Hasan, who is secluded in the house of Abu Khalifah, and tell him what Anas bin Malik narrated to us.' So we went to him, greeted him, and he permitted us. We said to him, 'O Abu Sa'id, we have come from your brother Anas bin Malik, and we have not seen anything like what he narrated to us about intercession.' He said, 'Heih.' So we narrated the hadith to him, and when he reached this point, he said, 'Heih.' We said, 'He did not add anything beyond this.' He said, 'He narrated it to me fully twenty years ago, and I do not know if he forgot or disliked that you rely on it.' We said, 'O Abu Sa'id, narrate it to us.' He laughed and said, 'Man was created hasty. I only mentioned it because I intended to narrate it to you. He narrated to me as he narrated to you, saying, "Then I return the fourth time, praise Him with those praises, and fall prostrate before Him. It is said, 'O Muhammad, raise your head, speak, and you will be heard ask, and you will be given intercede, and your intercession will be granted.' I say, 'O Lord, permit me for those who said, "There is no god but Allah."' He says, 'By My might, majesty, grandeur, and greatness, I will surely take out from it those who said, "There is no god but Allah."'"""

Narrated to us Ali bin Hujr, informed us Isa bin Yunus, from Al-A'mash, from Khaithamah, from Adi bin Hatim, he said, 'The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, There is none among you but that his Lord will speak to him without an interpreter. He looks to his right and sees nothing but what he has sent forth of his deeds, looks to his left and sees nothing but what he has sent forth, and looks in front of him and sees nothing but the Fire facing him. So protect yourselves from the Fire, even if with half a date." Al-A'mash said, "And Amru bin Murrah narrated to me from Khaithamah the same, and he added, 'or with a good word.'"""

Narrated to us Uthman bin Abu Shaibah, narrated to us Jarir, from Manshur, from Ibrahim, from Abidah, from Abdullah, may Allah be pleased with him, he said, 'A Jewish scholar came and said, When the Day of Resurrection comes, Allah will place the heavens on one finger, the earths on one finger, the water and the dust on one finger, and the creatures on one finger, then He will shake them and say, 'I am the King, I am the King.'" I saw the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, laugh until his molars were visible, in amazement and confirmation of his statement. Then the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, recited, "And they have not appraised Allah with true appraisal..." to His saying, "...of what they associate with Him" (Quran, Az-Zumar: 67).'"

Musa said, You are Adam..." (truncated due to length). Jibril took him up at the fifth time, and he said, "O Lord, my community is weak in their bodies, hearts, hearing, sight, and forms, so lighten it for us." The Mighty One said, "O Muhammad." He said, "I respond to Your call." He said, "Indeed, the word before Me is not changed, as I have ordained it upon you in the Mother of the Book." He said, "Every good deed is with tenfold its like, so it is fifty in the Mother of the Book, but it is five upon you." He returned to Musa, and he said, "What did you do?" He said, "He lightened it for us He gave us for every good deed tenfold its like." Musa said, "By Allah, I urged the Children of Israel for less than that, and they abandoned it. Return to your Lord so He may lighten it for you further." The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "O Musa, by Allah, I am shy before my Lord for how much I have disputed with Him." He said, "Descend in the name of Allah." He said, "And he awoke, and he was in the Sacred Mosque."'"

So they will come to Adam and say to him, "You are Adam, the father of mankind. Allah created you with His Hand, made the angels prostrate to you, and taught you the names of all things. Intercede for us with our Lord so that He may grant us relief." Adam will say to them, "I am not the one for that," and he will mention to them the mistake he made.'"

Narrated to us Abdul Aziz bin Abdullah, narrated to me Sulaiman, from Sharik bin Abdullah, he said, I heard Anas bin Malik say, 'On the night the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, was taken on the Night Journey from the Ka'bah Mosque, three beings came to him—before revelation had come to him—while he was sleeping in the Sacred Mosque. The first of them said, Which one is he?" The second said, "He is the best of them." The third said, "Take the best of them." That night he did not see them until they came to him on another night, in a state where his heart saw, his eyes slept but his heart did not sleep. Thus are the prophets: their eyes sleep, but their hearts do not. They did not speak to him until they carried him and placed him by the well of Zamzam. Jibril took charge of him from among them, splitting him from his throat to his chest until his chest and abdomen were emptied. Jibril washed him with Zamzam water with his hand until his abdomen was purified. Then a golden basin was brought, containing a golden vessel filled with faith and wisdom. Jibril filled his chest and the veins of his throat with it, then closed it. Then he ascended with him to the lowest heaven and knocked on one of its gates. The inhabitants of the heaven called out, "Who is this?" He said, "Jibril." They said, "And who is with you?" He said, "Muhammad." They said, "Has he been sent?" He said, "Yes." They said, "Welcome to him, welcome!" The inhabitants of the heaven rejoiced with him, not knowing what Allah intended for him on earth until Allah informed them. In the lowest heaven, he found Adam. Jibril said to him, "This is your father, Adam, greet him." So he greeted him, and Adam returned the greeting and said, "Welcome, welcome, my son. What an excellent son you are." Then in the lowest heaven, he saw two flowing rivers. He said, "What are these two rivers, O Jibril?" He said, "These are the Nile and the Euphrates, their source." Then he took him through the heaven, and there was another river with a palace of pearls and emeralds above it. He struck it with his hand, and it was pure musk. He said, "What is this, O Jibril?" He said, "This is Al-Kawthar, which your Lord has reserved for you." Then he ascended with him to the second heaven, and the angels said to him as the first had said, "Who is this?" He said, "Jibril." They said, "And who is with you?" He said, "Muhammad, peace and blessings be upon him." They said, "Has he been sent?" He said, "Yes." They said, "Welcome to him, welcome!" Then he ascended with him to the third heaven, and they said as the first and second had said. Then he ascended with him to the fourth heaven, and they said the same. Then he ascended with him to the fifth heaven, and they said the same. Then he ascended with him to the sixth heaven, and they said the same. Then he ascended with him to the seventh heaven, and they said the same. In every heaven, there were prophets whose names he mentioned, and I recall among them Idris in the second, Harun in the fourth, another in the fifth whose name I do not remember, Ibrahim in the sixth, and Musa in the seventh, because of the favor of Allah’s speech to him. Musa said, "My Lord, I did not think anyone would be raised above me." Then he ascended with him beyond that, to a place known only to Allah, until he reached the Lote Tree of the Utmost Boundary. Then he drew near to the Almighty, the Lord of Might, and descended until he was at a distance of two bow-lengths or closer. Allah revealed to him what He revealed, including the obligation of fifty prayers for your community every day and night. Then he descended until he reached Musa, who detained him and said, "O Muhammad, what has your Lord ordained for you?" He said, "He ordained fifty prayers for me every day and night." Musa said, "Your community cannot bear that. Return, so your Lord may lighten it for you and them." The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, turned to Jibril as if consulting him about it, and Jibril gestured, "Yes, if you wish." So he ascended with him to the Almighty, and while in His presence, he said, "O Lord, lighten it for us, for my community cannot bear this." So He reduced ten prayers from him. Then he returned to Musa, who detained him, and Musa kept sending him back to his Lord until it became five prayers. Then Musa detained him at the five and said, "O Muhammad, by Allah, I urged the Children of Israel, my people, for less than this, and they weakened and abandoned it. Your community is weaker in their bodies, hearts, and forms. Return, so your Lord may lighten it for you." Each time, the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, turned to Jibril for advice, and Jibril did not disapprove. Jibril took him up at the fifth time, and he said, "O Lord, my community is weak in their bodies, hearts, hearing, sight, and forms, so lighten it for us." The Almighty said, "O Muhammad." He said, "I respond to Your call." He said, "Indeed, the word before Me is not changed, as I have ordained it upon you in the Mother of the Book." He said, "Every good deed is with tenfold its like, so it is fifty in the Mother of the Book, but it is five upon you." He returned to Musa, and he said, "What did you do?" He said, "He lightened it for us He gave us for every good deed tenfold its like." Musa said, "By Allah, I urged the Children of Israel for less than that, and they abandoned it. Return to your Lord so He may lighten it for you further." The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "O Musa, by Allah, I am shy before my Lord for how much I have disputed with Him." He said, "Descend in the name of Allah." He said, "And he awoke, and he was in the Sacred Mosque."'

Ibn Abbas said to me, "So I move them for you as the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, moved them." Sa'id said, "I move them as Ibn Abbas moved them," and he moved his lips. He said, 'It was revealed when the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, was in hiding in Makkah. When he prayed with his companions, he raised his voice with the Quran, and when the polytheists heard it, they cursed the Quran, the One who revealed it, and the one who brought it. So Allah said to His Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, "And do not raise your voice in your prayer," meaning with your recitation, so the polytheists hear and curse the Quran, "nor lower it too much" from your companions so they do not hear, "but seek a way between that."'"

So I took him, leading him to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and said, "I heard this man reciting Surah Al-Furqan in dialects you did not teach me." He said, "Release him. Recite, O Hisham." So he recited the recitation I had heard, and the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "Thus it was revealed." Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "Recite, O Umar." So I recited what he had taught me, and he said, "Thus it was revealed. Indeed, this Quran was revealed in seven dialects, so recite what is easy for you."'"

We were with Abu Musa Al-Ash'ari, and food was brought to him, including chicken meat. There was a man from Banu Taim Allah, seemingly a freed slave. He invited him to eat, but he said, I saw it eating something I found disgusting, so I swore not to eat it." Abu Musa said, "Come, let me tell you about that. I came to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, with a group of Ash'aris seeking transport. He said, 'By Allah, I will not transport you, and I have nothing to transport you with.' Then the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, was brought some plundered camels and asked about us, saying, 'Where are the Ash'ari group?' He ordered five fine camels for us, and we set off. We said, 'What have we done? The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, swore he would not transport us and had nothing to transport us with, yet he transported us. We took advantage of the Messenger of Allah’s oath. By Allah, we will never succeed.' So we returned to him and told him. He said, 'It was not I who transported you Allah transported you. By Allah, I do not swear an oath and then see something better than it except that I do what is better and expiate my oath.'"'"

Narrated to us Ali, narrated to us Hisham, informed us Ma'mar from Az-Zuhri. (In another chain) narrated to me Ahmad bin Salih, narrated to us Anbasah, narrated to us Yunus from Ibn Shihab, informed me Yahya bin Urwa bin Az-Zubair that he heard Urwa bin Az-Zubair say: Aisha, may Allah be pleased with her, said: People asked the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, about soothsayers. He said: 'They are nothing.' They said: 'O Messenger of Allah, they sometimes tell something that comes true.' The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'That is a word of truth that the jinn snatches and clucks into the ear of his ally like the clucking of a hen, and they mix in more than a hundred lies.'

It was asked: 'What is their sign?' He said: 'Their sign is shaving,' or he said: 'Their hair is shaved off.'
