Narrated to us by [Muhammad bin Al Muthanna Al 'Anzi] Narrated to us by [Muhammad bin Abu 'Adi] from [Said] from [Qatadah] from [Zurarah], that [Sa'd bin Hisham bin Amir] intended to go to war in the way of Allah. He then arrived in the city of Madinah and intended to sell his chosen land in Madinah to buy weapons and war horses, so that he could fight the Romans until death. Suddenly he arrived in Madinah, he met some people of Madinah. Apparently they forbade selling his land, they then informed him that during the time of the Prophet of Allah still alive, six people intended like that, but the Prophet of Allah (peace be upon him) forbade it, he said: 'Is there not in me a good example for you?' After they told that to Sa'd, then Sa'd returned to refer to his wife who had previously been divorced, after that he asked Ibn Abbas about the witr of the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him). Ibn Abbas answered 'Do you want me to inform you to the person who knows the most about the witr of the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him)? Sa'd asked 'Who? Ibn Abbas answered ' [Aishah], come to her, and ask, after that come to me, and inform me of her answer.' Then I went to meet her, and I came to Hakim bin Aflah, and I asked him to meet 'Aishah. Apparently he answered 'I am not someone close to Aishah, because I once forbade her Aishah to comment on something regarding two factions of Muslims who were fighting. Apparently Aishah refused, and continued to comment on those two factions.' Sa'd said 'I also swore on him, until Hakim was willing to meet her. We continued to go to Aishah, we asked for permission and Aishah gave permission to us, finally we met her. 'Aishah asked 'Is this really Hakim?' Apparently Aishah knew him. Hakim answered 'Yes.' Aishah asked 'Then who is with you?' Hakim answered 'He is Sa'd bin Hisham.' Aishah asked again 'Hisham who?.' Hakim answered 'Hisham bin 'Amir.' Finally 'Aishah knew and sympathized with him while saying 'Alright, if so.' -Qatadah said Hisham bin Amir was killed in the battle of Uhud- then I (Saad) asked 'O Mother of the Believers, inform me about the character of the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him)!.' Aishah answered 'Have you not read the Quran?' I answered 'Yes, ' Aishah said 'The character of the Prophet (peace be upon him) is the Quran.' Sa'd said 'Hearing that, I intended to stand and would not ask anything to anyone until I died, then it occurred to me, then I asked 'Inform me about the night prayer of the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him)?' 'Aishah countered 'Have you not read Surah Al Muzammil? I answered 'Yes' Said Aishah 'Allah Almighty once obligated qiyamullail (night prayer) at the beginning of this surah revealed, so the Prophet of Allah (peace be upon him) and his companions established it for a year, and Allah withheld its conclusion in the sky for twelve months until Allah revealed the end of this surah as a form of relief, so the night prayer became sunnah after being obligated. Said Sa'd 'O Mother of the Believers, inform me about the witr of the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him)! Her answer 'We used to often prepare his siwak and his ablution, after that Allah woke him as He willed for the night wake. He then brushed his teeth and performed ablution and prayed nine rak'ahs. He did not sit in those nine rak'ahs except on the eighth rak'ah, he mentioned the name of Allah, praised Him and supplicated to Him, then he stood and did not say salam. After that he stood and prayed for the ninth rak'ah. Then he remembered Allah, praised Him and supplicated to Him, then he said salam loudly so that we heard it. After that he prayed two rak'ahs after salam while sitting, that is eleven rak'ahs O my child. When the Prophet of Allah was advanced in age and he felt fat, he performed witr with seven rak'ahs, and he did in his two rak'ahs as he did in the first, so that means nine O my child. If the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) performed a prayer, then he liked to perform it continuously. If he overslept or was sick so he could not do it at night, then he prayed during the day twelve rak'ahs, as far as I remember the Prophet of Allah (peace be upon him) never read one mushaf (the entire Quran) in one night, nor did he pray night until dawn, nor fast a full month except the month of Ramadan.' Said Sa'd 'After that I went to meet Ibn Abbas, I then told him about that hadith, Ibn Abbas then said 'Aishah is true.' If I approached her or met her, surely I would meet her face to face to convey that hadith. Sa'd continued I said 'If I knew that you did not meet her, surely I would not tell you that hadith.' Narrated to us by [Muhammad bin Al Muthanna] Narrated to us by [Mu'adh bin Hisham] Narrated to me [My father] from [Qatadah] from [Zurarah bin Abu Afa] from [Sa'id bin Hisham], that he once divorced his wife, then he went to Madinah to sell his chosen land, then he mentioned a similar hadith. Narrated to us by [Abu Bakr bin Abu Shaibah] Narrated to us by [Muhammad bin Bisyr] Narrated to us by [Said bin Abu Arubah] Narrated to us by [Qatadah] from [Zurarah bin Afa] from [Sa'd bin Hisham] that he said I went to meet Abdullah bin Abbas and asked him about the witr prayer, then he mentioned the hadith along with its story, and in his hadith, he mentioned Aishah asked 'Hisham who?' I answered 'Ibn 'Amir.' Said 'Aishah 'He is the best person.' Amir was killed in the battle of Uhud. Narrated to us by [Ishaq bin Ibrahim] and [Muhammad bin Rafi'] both from [Abdurrazag] he informed us [Ma'mar] from [Qatadah] from [Zurarah bin Afa], that [Sa'd bin Hisham] was his neighbor, then Sa'd informed him that he had divorced his wife and he told a hadith similar to the hadith of Sa'id, in its wording mentioned Aishah said 'Hisham who?' Sa'd answered 'Hisham bin Amir. Aishah answered 'He is the best person, he was killed when fighting with the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) in the battle of Uhud.' And in that hadith mentioned 'Then Hakim bin Aflah said 'If I knew that you did not meet her, surely I would not tell you this hadith.'"

Narrated to us by [Yahya bin Yahya] he said, I recited to [Malik] from [Ibn Shihab] from [Urwah] from [Aishah] that On one night (in Ramadan), the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) prayed in the mosque, then followed by some companions. Then (on the second night) he prayed again, and it turned out many people followed. And on the third or fourth night they gathered, but the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) did not come out to pray with them. Then in the morning, he said: 'Indeed, I know what you did last night. Nothing prevented me from coming out and praying with you, except that I feared (tarawih prayer) would be made obligatory upon you.'

Narrated to me by [Harmalah bin Yahya] he informed us [Abdullah bin Wahb] he informed me [Yunus bin Yazid] from [Ibn Shihab] he said, he informed me [Urwah bin Zubair] that [Aishah] informed him that the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) went out in the middle of the night then he prayed in the mosque and was followed by some people, eventually they told each other about it so the people praying with him increased. On the second night, the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) went out to perform prayer and people prayed with him, then they mentioned the event so on the third night the mosque congregation increased and they prayed with him. On the fourth night the mosque was overcrowded and could not accommodate the congregation, but the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) did not come out until he performed the Fajr prayer. After performing the Fajr prayer, he faced the congregation, recited the shahada then said: 'Amma ba'd, indeed there was no concern that befell me regarding your situation last night, but I only feared (the night prayer) would be made obligatory upon you, so you would not be able to perform it.'

Then he woke up again and went straight to the qirbah (water container), then he opened its lid. He performed ablution perfectly, without using much water but sufficient. After that, he prayed. Then I woke up and stretched my body, because I did not want him to know that I was watching him. Then I took ablution water and stood to his left while following his prayer. But he took my hand and moved me to his right. That night, the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) prayed thirteen rak'ahs. Then he lay down, then fell asleep until he was snoring. And indeed, when he slept, he

Hadith Imam Muslim Number 1275

Narrated to us by [Yahya bin Yahya] he said: I recited to [Malik] from [Makhramah bin Sulaiman] from [Kuraib] the freedman of Ibn Abbas, that [Ibn Abbas] informed him that On one night he slept at the house of his aunt, Maimunah, the Mother of the Believers. He slept across the bed, while the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) and his wife slept along the bed. He slept until about half the night. After that, he woke up while wiping sleep from his face. Then he recited the last ten verses of Surah Ali Imran. After that, he went to the water place, then he performed ablution by perfecting his ablution, and after that he prayed. Ibn Abbas said, 'I also woke up and did as the Prophet (peace be upon him) did. Then I stood to his left. But he took my head with his hand and moved me to his right. Initially, he prayed two rak'ahs, then two rak'ahs, then two rak'ahs, then two rak'ahs, then two rak'ahs, then two rak'ahs, and then with one rak'ah. After that, he lay down until the muadhin sounded the call for Subuh prayer. The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) woke up, then prayed a brief two rak'ahs, after that he went to (the mosque) to perform the Subuh prayer.' Narrated to me by [Muhammad bin Salamah Al Muradi] Narrated to us by [Abdullah bin Wahb] from [Iyadh bin Abdullah Al Fihri] from [Makhramah bin Sulaiman] with this chain. And he added 'Then he went to the water place, brushed his teeth and performed ablution by perfecting his ablution. And he did not use water except a little. After that, he moved me, until I woke up.' All hadiths (about this) resemble the hadith of Malik.

When sleepiness overcame me, he held my earlobe. (On that night) he prayed eleven rak'ahs. After that, he lay down until I heard his breathing as he slept. When the time of Fajr arrived, he performed a light two rak'ahs prayer.'

Narrated to us by [Ibn Abu Umar] and [Muhammad bin Hatim] from [Ibn Uyainah] -in another chain Ibn Abu Umar- said, Narrated to us by [Sufyan] from [Amru bin Dinar] from [Kuraib] the freedman of Ibn Abbas, from [Ibn Abbas] that he stayed overnight at the place of his aunt, Maimunah. Then the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) woke up at night and performed ablution lightly from a hanging water container -then he described the ablution of the Prophet- he performed ablution lightly and simplified it. Ibn Abbas said 'So I woke up and did as the Prophet (peace be upon him) did. After that, I stood to pray on his left side. But he moved me and placed me on his right. Then he prayed, then lay down and slept until (I heard) him snoring. Then Bilal came and called the adhan for prayer. After that, he went out and performed the Subuh prayer without performing ablution again.' Sufyan said And this act (not performing ablution again) was specific to the Prophet (peace be upon him). Because it has reached us that the two eyes of the Prophet (peace be upon him) slept, but his heart did not sleep.

Narrated to us by [Muhammad bin Bashshar] Narrated to us by [Muhammad] namely the son of Ja'far, Narrated to us by [Shu'bah] from [Salamah] from [Kuraib] from [Ibn Abbas] he said 'I stayed overnight at the house of my aunt, Maimunah. So I wanted to see how the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) performed the night prayer. (So on that night) he woke up and urinated. Then he washed his face, his hands, and slept again. Then he woke up and went straight to the qirbah (water container). He opened its lid and poured it into a small bowl. Then he scooped with his hand and performed ablution by perfecting his ablution. After that, he prayed, and I joined him in prayer, standing on his left side. But he took hold of me and moved me to his right. (On that night) the prayer of the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) was a perfect thirteen rak'ahs. After that, he slept until he was snoring. And we knew when he slept, he snored. After that, he went out to perform the Subuh prayer. Then he recited in his prayer or in his prostration: "O Allah, place light in my heart, light in my hearing, light in my sight, light on my right, light on my left, light in front of me, light behind me, light above me, light below me, and grant me light -or he said- and make me light." Narrated to me by [Ishaq bin Manshur] Narrated to us by [An Nadr bin Shumail] he informed us [Shu'bah] Narrated to us by [Salamah bin Kuhail] from [Bukair] from [Kuraib] from [Ibn Abbas]. [Salamah said] I met [Kuraib] and he said, [Ibn Abbas] said I was at the house of my aunt, Maimunah, then the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) came. Then he narrated a similar hadith to the hadith of Ghundar, and he said "And make me light." Without doubt. Narrated to us by [Abu Bakr bin Abu Shaibah] and [Hannad bin As Saria] both said, Narrated to us by [Abu Ahwash] from [Sa'id bin Masruq] from [Salamah bin Kuhail] from [Abu Risydin] the freedman of Ibn Abbas, from [Ibn Abbas] he said I stayed overnight at the house of my aunt, Maimunah. He narrated the hadith, but he did not mention washing the face and both hands. Instead, he said 'Then he went to the qirbah and opened its lid, then he performed ablution between two ablutions, then he went to his bed and slept. After that, he woke up again, then went to the qirbah (water container) and opened its lid, then performed ablution.' Then he recited: 'Make great light for me.' And he did not say 'And make me light.' Narrated to me by [Abu Thahir] Narrated to us by [Ibn Wahb] from [Abdurrahman bin Salman Al Hajri] from [Uqail bin Khalid] that [Salamah bin Kuhail] narrated to him that [Kuraib] narrated to him that [Ibn Abbas] stayed overnight with the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), he said the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) went to the qirbah (water container), poured water from it and performed ablution without using much water, but he also did not reduce his ablution. He narrated the hadith. Then in that hadith, he said On that night, the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) prayed with nineteen words. Salamah said, Kuraib narrated it to me, and I memorized twelve words from him and forgot the rest. The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) prayed: 'O Allah, grant me light in my heart, light in my tongue, light in my hearing, light in my sight, light above me, light below me, light on my right, light on my left, light in front of me, light behind me, light in my soul, and make great light for me.' Narrated to me by [Abu Bakr bin Ishaq] he informed us [Ibn Abu Maryam] he informed us [Muhammad bin Ja'far] he informed me [Sharik bin Abu Namir] from [Kuraib] from [Ibn Abbas] that he said 'I stayed overnight at the house of Maimunah, where the Prophet (peace be upon him) was at her house. This was so I could see how the night prayer of the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) was. The Prophet (peace be upon him) conversed with his wife for a while, then he slept.' He narrated the hadith. And in it, he said 'Then he woke up, performed ablution, and brushed his teeth.'

Narrated to us by [Washil bin Abdul A'la] Narrated to us by [Muhammad bin Fudlail] from [Hushain bin Abdurrahman] from [Habib bin Abu Thabit] from [Muhammad bin Abu 'Ali bin Abdullah bin Abbas] from [his father] from [Abdullah bin Abbas] that he stayed overnight with the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him). Then he woke up and brushed his teeth, then performed ablution. Then he recited: 'Indeed, in the creation of the heavens and the earth, and the alternation of night and day, there are signs for those of understanding.' He recited that verse until he completed one surah (Ali Imran). Then he prayed two rak'ahs, prolonging his standing, bowing, and prostration. After that, he slept until his breathing was heard. He did this until three times, that is six rak'ahs, and each time he would brush his teeth, perform ablution, and recite that verse, then he prayed with three rak'ahs. Until the muadhin called the adhan. Then he went out to perform the Subuh prayer, praying: 'O Allah, place light in my heart, light in my tongue, light in my hearing, light in my sight, light behind me, light in front of me, light above me, light below me, O Allah, grant me light.'

Narrated to us by [Muhammad bin Bukair Al Muqaddami] Narrated to us by [Yusuf Al Majisyun] Narrated to me [my father] from [Abdurrahman Al A'raj] from [Ubaidullah bin Abu Rafi'] from [Ali bin Abu Thalib] from the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) Usually when the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) prayed, he recited (the opening supplication) as follows: 'I turn my face to Allah, the Creator of the heavens and the earth, sincerely, and I am not of the polytheists. Indeed, my prayer, my worship, my life, and my death are for Allah, Lord of the worlds. He has no partner, and with that, I am commanded, and I am of the Muslims. O Allah, You are the Sovereign, there is no deity worthy of worship except You, You are my Lord, and I am Your servant. I have wronged myself and confessed my sins, so forgive all my sins, for indeed, no one forgives sins except You. Guide me to the best of character, for no one guides to the best of it except You, and turn away from me its evil, for no one turns away its evil except You. Here I am at Your service and support, all good is in Your hands, and evil does not come from You. I am by You and to You. Blessed are You and Exalted. I seek Your forgiveness and repent to You.' And when he bowed, he recited: 'O Allah, to You I bow, in You I believe, and to You I submit, my hearing, my sight, my brain, my bones, and my muscles are humbled to You.' Then when he rose from bowing, he recited: 'O Allah, our Lord, to You be all praise, filling the heavens and the earth, and filling what is between them, and filling whatever You will after that.' Then when he prostrated, he recited: 'O Allah, to You I prostrate, in You I believe, and to You I submit. My face prostrates to the One who created it and formed it, and opened its hearing and sight. Blessed is Allah, the best of creators.' Then at the end of the tashahhud before giving salam, he recited: 'O Allah, forgive me what I have done before and what I do after, what I have concealed and what I have revealed, what I have exceeded, and what You know better than I. You are the One who advances and delays. There is no deity except You.' Narrated to us by [Zuhair bin Harb] Narrated to us by [Abdurrahman bin Mahdi] -in another chain of narration- Narrated to us by [Ishaq bin Ibrahim] he informed us [Abu An Nadhr] both said, Narrated to us by [Abdul Aziz bin Abdullah bin Abu Salamah] from [his uncle] Al Majisyun from [Al A'raj] with this chain, and he said When the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) began the prayer, he said takbir and recited (the opening supplication): 'I turn my face.' He also recited: 'And I am the first of the Muslims.' And when he rose from bowing, he recited: 'O Allah, our Lord, to You be all praise.' He also continued: 'And formed it, perfecting its form.' And after giving salam, he recited: 'O Allah, forgive me what I have done before.' until the end of the hadith. And he did not say 'Between tashahhud and salam.'

Narrated to us by [Abu Bakr bin Abu Shaibah] Narrated to us by [Abdullah bin Numair] and [Abu Mu'awiyah] -in another chain- Narrated to us by [Zuhair bin Harb] and [Ishaq bin Ibrahim] all from [Jarir] they all from [Al A'mash] -in another chain- Narrated to us by [Ibn Numair] -and this wording is from him- Narrated to us by [my father] Narrated to us by [Al A'mash] from [Sa'id bin Ubaidah] from [Al Mustaurid bin Al Ahnaf] from [Shilah bin Zufar] from [Hudzaifah] he said On one night, I prayed (Qiyamul Lail) with the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), then he began reciting Surah Al Baqarah. Then I said (in my heart that he) would bow at the hundredth verse. Then (the hundred verses) passed, then I said (in my heart that) he would pray with (that surah) in one rak'ah. But (Surah Al Baqarah) passed, then I said (in my heart that) he would soon prostrate. But he continued by starting to recite Surah An Nisa until he finished it. Then he continued to Surah Ali Imran until he finished reciting it. When he recited a verse of glorification, he glorified, and when he recited a verse commanding supplication, he supplicated, and when he recited a verse of seeking refuge, he sought refuge. Then he bowed. In his bowing, he recited: 'Glory be to my Lord, the Mighty.'

And his bowing was almost as long as his standing. Then he recited: 'Allah hears those who praise Him.' Then he stood, and his standing was almost as long as his bowing. After that, he prostrated, and in his prostration, he recited: 'Glory be to my Lord, the Most High.' His prostration was almost as long as his standing. While in the hadith of Jarir, there is an addition He recited: 'Allah hears those who praise Him, our Lord, to You be all praise.'

Seeing that, some companions came to that place and they also prayed following the Prophet, peace be upon him. One night they came again, but the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, was late, so he did not come out at all to meet them. Therefore, they raised their voices and threw pebbles at the door to inform the Prophet, peace be upon him, because they thought he might have forgotten. Then, in an angry state, the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, came out to meet them and said: 'Do not do that, for I think that the night prayer will be made obligatory upon you. Therefore, pray in your own homes, because the best prayer for a person is the one performed in his own home, except for the obligatory prayers.' Seeing that, some companions came to that place. Then he mentioned a similar hadith. And he added in it 'If (the night prayer) is made obligatory upon you, surely you will not be able to perform it.'

Narrated to us by [Ahmad bin Abdurrahman bin Wahb] that my uncle namely [Abdullah bin Wahb] narrated to us, that [Amr bin Harith] narrated to us from [Sa'id bin Abu Hilal] that [Abu Rijal] Muhammad bin Abdurrahman, narrated to him from his mother [Amrah bint Abdurrahman], at that time she was in the house of Aisha, the wife of the Prophet, peace be upon him, from [Aisha] that the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, sent a man in a sariyyah (special forces tasked for certain operations). The man, when becoming the imam of prayer for his companions, always ended his surah recitation with 'QUL HUWALLAHU AHAD.' When they returned, the news was conveyed to the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, then he said: 'Ask him why he did that?' Then they asked him. He answered, 'Because in it there is the attribute of Ar Rahman, and I like to always read it.' Hearing that, the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said: 'Inform him that Allah the Exalted also loves him.'

Therefore, I almost acted harshly towards him. But I let him until he left. However, I held his clothes, then I brought him to the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him. I said, 'O Messenger of Allah, I heard this person reciting Surah Al Furqan not like what you recited to me, how is this?' The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, answered: 'Release him, tell him to recite it again.' Then Hisham recited it again as he had recited before. After that, the Prophet, peace be upon him, said: 'Indeed, it was revealed like this.' Then the Prophet, peace be upon him, ordered me to recite. Then I recited as I usually recite. So the Prophet, peace be upon him, said: 'Yes, the verse was revealed like that. Indeed, the Quran was revealed with seven letters (seven dialects). Therefore, recite with the letter that is easy for you.' Narrated to us by [Muhammad bin Abdullah bin Numair] that Narrated to us by [his father] that Narrated to us by [Isma'il bin Abu Khalid] from [Abdullah bin Isa bin Abdurrahman bin Abu Laila] from [his grandfather] from [Ubay bin Ka'b] who said Once I was in the mosque, suddenly a man came and prayed. Then he recited (the Quran) with a recitation that I denied. Then another man came and recited (the Quran) with another recitation. After performing prayer, we all met the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him. I said, 'Indeed, this person recited (the Quran) with a recitation that I denied. Then another man came and recited (the Quran) with another recitation.' Then the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, ordered both to repeat their respective recitations, then the Prophet, peace be upon him, confirmed it. After that, the suspicion of falsehood in my heart disappeared and also the feeling when I was still in ignorance. Then when the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, saw something that had befallen me, he patted my chest, and knowledge opened for me as if I saw Allah with full fear. Then he said: 'O Ubay, (Jibril) has been sent to me to recite the Quran with one letter (dialect recitation) only, then I kept urging him to give ease to my ummah. Then he returned to me to recite it with two letters. I still kept urging him again to give ease to my ummah. Then he returned again (and gave ease) to recite it with seven letters. Jibril said, 'That is how every time you return, I grant your request.' Then I prayed: 'O Allah, forgive my ummah.' And I postponed the third for a day, where all creatures hope to me, even Ibrahim, peace be upon him.' Narrated to us by [Abu Bakr bin Abu Shaibah] that Narrated to us by [Muhammad bin Bishr] that [Isma'il bin Abu Khalid] narrated to me that [Abdullah bin Isa] narrated to me from [Abdurrahman bin Abu Laila] that [Ubay bin Ka'b] informed me that once he sat in the mosque, suddenly a man entered then prayed and recited (the Quran) with a recitation. He narrated a similar hadith to the hadith of Ibn Numair.

Narrated to us by [Abu Bakr bin Abu Shaibah] and [Ibn Numair] all from [Waki'] - [Abu

Bakr] said - that Narrated to us by [Waki'] from [Al A'mash] from [Abu Wa'il] who said A man named Nahik bin Sinan came to [Abdullah] and said, 'O Abu Abdurrahman, how do you recite this letter, with the letter Alif or Ya', namely: 'MIN MAA'IN GHAIRI AASIN' or 'MIN MAA'IN GHARI YAASIN.' Then Abdullah answered, 'Have you counted every Quran except this?' Nahik said again, 'Indeed, I have recited Al Mufasssal in one rak'ah.' Abdullah said, 'His fast recitation is like the fast recitation of poetry. There are some people who recite the Quran, but their recitation does not pass the limit of the throat. The recitation that is embedded in the heart and firmly rooted in it, will be beneficial. The most superior part of prayer is ruku' and sujud. I have known An Nazhair (surahs that are almost the same in length or meaning), which the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, recited in every rak'ah.' Then Abdullah stood up, then Alqamah entered behind then came out and said, 'He has informed me.' Ibn Numair said in his narration A man from Bani Bajilah came to Abdullah.' He did not mention Nahik bin Sinan. And Narrated to us by [Abu Kuraib] that Narrated to us by [Abu Mu'awiyah] from [Al A'mash] from [Abu Wa'il] who said 'A man named Nahik bin Sinan came to [Abdullah].' Namely similar to the hadith of Waki', only he mentioned Then Alqamah came to meet Abdullah, then we said to him, 'Ask him about An Nazhair (surahs that are almost the same in length or meaning) where the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, recited it in one rak'ah.' Then he entered to meet him and asked him. After that, he came out and said, 'Namely twenty surahs from Al Mufasssal in the compilation of Abdullah.

Narrated to me by [Ahmad bin Ja'far Al Ma'qiri] that Narrated to us by [An Nadhr bin Muhammad] that Narrated to us by [Ikrimah bin Ammar] that Narrated to us by [Shaddad bin Abdullah Abu Ammar] and [Yahya bin Abu Kathir] from [Abu Umamah] - Ikrimah said Shaddad has met Abu Umamah and Wathilah, also accompanied Anas to the land of Sham, he has praised him with virtue and goodness - From Abu Umamah who said, [Amr bin Abasah As Sulami] said In the time of ignorance, I thought that people at that time were in misguidance. They did not have anything (worthy of pride), they at that time worshiped idols. Then I heard about a man in Makkah who was delivering some news. Then I sat on my riding animal. I came to the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, when he was in 'Ukadh, then I asked, 'Who is the master?' He answered: 'A Prophet.' I asked again, 'What kind of Prophet?' He answered: 'Allah has sent me.' I asked again, 'What were you sent with?' He answered: 'I was sent to connect ties of kinship, destroy idols, and so that Allah is worshiped alone and not associated with.' Then I asked again, 'Who is the person who follows you in this matter (Islam)?' He answered: 'A free person and also a slave.' While at that time he was with Abu Bakr and Bilal, may Allah be pleased with them. Then he said to me: 'Go home until Allah strengthens His Messenger.' After that, I came to him and said, 'May Allah make me your ransom. Teach me something that you know while I do not know it, namely something that does not harm you and Allah also benefits me with it. Is there a time that is more superior than another time, and is there a time that we must be wary of?' He answered: 'Indeed, you have asked me about something that no one has asked before you. Indeed, Allah, the Mighty and Majestic, descends in the last third of the night, and He forgives any sin except polytheism and transgression. Prayer is a worship that is witnessed and attended (by angels) so pray until the sun rises. And when the sun has risen, do not pray until the sun is high, because the sun rises between two horns of Satan, and prayer at that time is the prayer of the disbelievers. Then, if the sun is already high, then pray, because prayer at that time is witnessed and attended (by angels) until midday. When the sun is in the middle of the sky, do not pray, because at that time the fire of hell is being kindled until the shadow reappears. And when the shadow has returned then pray, because prayer at that time is witnessed and attended (by angels) until the sun sets. When the sun is about to set, do not pray until it has truly set, because the sun sets between two horns of Satan and at that time the disbelievers worship.' I said, 'O Prophet of Allah, tell me about ablution.' He said: 'None of you perfects ablution, then he rinses his mouth and inhales water into his nose then exhales it except the sins of his face, lips and nose will melt away. Then, if he washes his face as commanded by Allah, surely the sins of his face will melt away with the water from the ends of his beard. And he does not wash his two hands up to the elbows except the sins of his two hands will melt away with the water from his fingers. And he does not wash his head except the sins of his head will melt away with the water from the ends of his hair. And he does not wash his two feet up to the ankles except the sins of his two feet also melt away with the water from his toes. And if he stands and prays then praises Allah and extols Him and also praises Him with something that He is entitled to then devotes his heart solely to Allah, then surely he will be free from his sins as the day he was born by his mother.' Amr bin Habash narrated this hadith to Abu Umamah one of the companions of the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him. Then Abu Umamah said to him, 'O Amr bin Abasah, look at what you have said in the same place, 'This man will be given.'" Amr said, 'O Abu Umamah, indeed my age has advanced and my bones have become brittle while my death is near, so I do not need to lie in the name of Allah and not in the name of the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him. If I had not heard it from the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, except only once or twice, or three times - until he counted it himself up to seven times - surely I would not narrate it forever. But I have heard it more than that.'

Narrated to me by [Harmalah bin Yahya At Tujibi] that [Abdullah bin Wahb] narrated to us, [Amru bin Harits] informed me from [Bukair] from [Kuraib], the freed slave of Ibn Abbas, that Abdullah bin Abbas, Abdurrahman bin Azhar, and Al Miswar bin Makhramah sent him to meet Aisha, the wife of the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and instructed him, 'Convey our greetings to her and ask about the two rak'ahs after Asr, then say that we have heard news that you perform them even though it has reached us that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, forbade those two rak'ahs.' Ibn Abbas said, 'I and Umar used to strike some people for performing the two rak'ahs after Asr.' Kuraib said; So I met Aisha and conveyed their messages. Then Aisha said, 'Ask [Umm Salamah].' Finally, I returned to them and conveyed Aisha's comment. Then they sent me again to meet Umm Aisha and ask the same question. Umm Salamah replied, 'I heard the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, forbidding the two rak'ahs after Asr. But after that, I saw him performing them. And indeed, before performing them, he first performed the Asr prayer. After that, he entered to meet me, while at my side there were some women from the Ansar of Bani Haram, then he performed the two rak'ahs (after Asr). Then I sent a female slave and said to her, 'Stand beside him, and say to him, 'Umm Salamah says; O Messenger of Allah, I have heard you forbidding these two rak'ahs, but I see you performing them.' And if he signals with his hand, then step back.' The female slave did so, then he signaled, so the female slave stepped back. After finishing the prayer, he said: 'O daughter of Abu Umayyah, you asked about the two rak'ahs after Asr. Indeed, some people from Bani Abdul Qais came to me declaring the Islam of their people until they kept me busy from performing the two rak'ahs after Zuhr, so these two rak'ahs are their replacement.'

Usually, if we found a tree that could be used for shade, we made it a resting place for the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. At that time, a man from the polytheists came, while the sword of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, was hanging on the tree. So the polytheist man took the sword of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and drew it while saying to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, 'Are you not afraid of me?' He replied: 'No.' The man asked again, 'Then who will save you from my threat?' He replied: 'Allah will save me from your threat.' Then the companions frightened him until he put the sword back into its sheath and hung it. After that, the adhan was called to perform the prayer. So first he prayed with one group two rak'ahs, after that, they retreated. Then another group came and prayed with him two rak'ahs. So the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, performed it four rak'ahs, while each group two rak'ahs.

And Narrated to us by [Muhammad bin Rafi'] that [Abdurrazzaq] narrated to us, [Ma'mar] informed us from [Hammam bin Munabbih] the brother of Wahb bin Munabbih, he said, [Abu Hurairah] narrated to us from Muhammad, peace and blessings be upon him, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'We (the ummah of Muhammad) are the last (to come to the world), but the first (to be judged) on the Day of Judgment. Even though they were given the book before us, while we after them. And this day (Friday) is the day that has been obligated upon them, but they differed about it. Then Allah showed it to us. Therefore, other ummahs related to Friday are followers. For the Jews, tomorrow. While for the Christians the day after.'

And Narrated to us by [Ishaq bin Ibrahim] and [Muhammad bin Al Mutsanna] both from [Al A'la] - [Ibnul Mutsanna] said- narrated to me [Abdul A'la] he is Abu Hammam, [Dawud] narrated to us from [Amru bin Sa'id] from [Sa'id bin Jubair] from [Ibnu Abbas] that; 'Once, Dlimam came to Mecca. He was from Azdi Syanu`ah, and skilled in ruqyah (treating with certain recitations) a mad person or affected by jinn disturbance. Then one day he heard the foolish people of Mecca say that Muhammad was mad. So Dlimad said, 'If I can see this man, hopefully Allah heals him through my hands.' So Dlimad met him, and said, 'O Muhammad, I usually ruqyah this disease, and Allah will heal through my hands whoever He wills. Do you want?' So the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, recited: 'All praise is due to Allah, we praise Him and seek His help. Whomsoever Allah guides, there is none to misguide him, and whomsoever He misguides, there is none to guide him. I bear witness that there is no god but Allah alone with no partner, and I bear witness that Muhammad is His servant and Messenger. As for what follows.' Dlimad said, 'Repeat your words again.' So the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, repeated it three times. Finally Dlimad said, 'I have heard the words of soothsayers, the words of magicians and the words of poets but I have never heard words like what you said, I have also traversed the ocean. Give me your hand, I will pledge allegiance to you to embrace Islam.' So he pledged allegiance to him. Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'And also for your people.' Dlimad said, 'Yes, also for my people.' Not long after, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, sent a detachment (special troops assigned for certain operations), then they passed by Dlimad's people. Then the commander of the troops asked his soldiers, 'Do any of you take something from that village?' then a man answered, 'Yes, I have taken their bucket.' so the commander said, 'Return it. Because they are Dlimad's people.'

Narrated to me by [Suraij bin Yunus] that [Abdurrahman bin Abdul Malik bin Abjar] narrated to us from [his father] from [Washil bin Hayyan] he said, [Abu Wa'il] said; [Ammar] once delivered the Friday sermon to us with concise and dense language. So when he descended from the pulpit, we said to him, 'O Abu Yaqzhan! Your sermon is so short and dense. How good if you lengthen it again.' Ammar said; I heard the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, say: 'Indeed the length of someone's prayer and the shortness of his sermon indicate his understanding of his religion. Therefore, lengthen the prayer and shorten the sermon, because some of the explanation is magic.'

Then I said to him, 'O Messenger of Allah, there is a stranger who deliberately came to you to ask about religion, he does not know what his religion is.' So the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, approached me and cut off his sermon. When he reached near me, a chair was given -I estimated its legs were made of iron- for him to sit. Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, sat on the chair and taught me about the religion that Allah had taught him. After that, he continued his sermon until finished.'

Narrated to us by [Abdullah bin Maslamah bin Qa'nab] that [Sulaiman bin Bilal] narrated to us from [Ja'far] from [his father] from [Ibnu Abu Rafi'] he said; Once (Caliph) Marwan asked [Abu Hurairah] to replace him (as leader) in Madinah, while Marwan went to Mecca. Then on one Friday, Abu Hurairah led us in Friday prayer. He recited Surah Al Jumu'ah in the first rak'ah, and Surah Al Munafiqun in the second rak'ah. After finishing the prayer, I met Abu Hurairah and said to him, 'The two surahs you recited earlier were recited by Ali bin Abi Thalib when he was in Kufah.' Abu Hurairah said, 'I have heard the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, recite those two surahs on Friday.' Namely similar. Except in the narration of Hatim; 'So he recited Surah Al Jumu'ah in the first prostration, while in the last prostration (rak'ah) he recited, 'When the hypocrites come to you..' While in the narration of Abdul Aziz it is similar to the hadith of Sulaiman bin Bilal.

After the imam said salam I stood in my place then I performed the sunnah prayer. When Mu'awiyah entered, he sent someone to me and the messenger said, 'Do not repeat your action earlier. If you have finished performing the Friday prayer, do not connect with sunnah prayer before you converse or before you leave the mosque. And Narrated to me by [Muhammad bin Rafi'] and [Abdu bin Humaid] all from [Abdurrazaq] - [Ibnu Rafi'] - said, narrated to us [Abdurrazaq] informed us [Ibnu Juraij] informed me [Al Hasan bin Muslim] from [Thawus] from [Ibnu Abbas] he said; 'I once attended the Eid al-Fitr prayer with the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, Abu Bakr, Umar and Uthman, they all prayed first before the sermon.' Then Ibn Abbas said that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, descended from the pulpit, it seems I saw him when ordering the men to sit with a hand gesture then he passed in the middle until he approached the women. Then he preached to them and advised them, then he ordered them to give alms, while Bilal spread his cloth. Then the women placed their rings on the cloth spread by Bilal, including their earrings and necklaces. Then he said: 'Give alms, O women, for most of you will be the fuel of hell.' Then a woman from among them stood up with a dark face and asked: 'Why, O Messenger of Allah?' He replied: 'Because you complain a lot and deny the virtues and kindness of husbands.' So they gave alms from their jewelry by throwing it on Bilal's spread cloth, including their rings and necklaces. And he said: 'Give alms, for most of you are the fuel of hell.' A woman with dark cheeks stood up from among them and asked: 'Why, O Messenger of Allah?' He replied: 'Because you complain a lot and deny the kindness of husbands.' So they threw their jewelry on Bilal's cloth, including their rings and necklaces.

He started it with prayer before delivering the sermon, without adhan and Iqamah. After that he stood while leaning on Bilal's hand. Then he ordered to always fear Allah, and gave encouragement to always obey Him. He also gave advice to people and reminded them. After that, he passed until he reached the place of the women. He gave advice and warning to them. He said: 'Give alms, because most of you will be the fuel of hell Jahannam.' So a best woman among them stood up with a pale face while asking, 'Why O Messenger of Allah?' he replied: 'Because you complain more (complain) and deny the advantages and kindness of husbands.' Finally they gave alms of the jewelry they owned by throwing it into the cloth spread by Bilal, including their rings and necklaces.

And if he had finished performing the prayer and closed it with salam, he immediately stood facing the congregation who were sitting in their prayer places. If he had a need like wanting to send a troop he announced it to the congregation, or he had another need he ordered them to do it. And he always said: 'Give alms, give alms, give alms!.' And the people who gave the most alms were from the women. Then after that he left the field. This continued until the time of Marwan bin Al Hakam. I went out holding Marwan until arriving at the field. But it turned out Katsir bin Ash Shalt had built a pulpit made of soil and bricks. And suddenly Marwan pulled my hand as if he ordered me to ascend the pulpit and start with the sermon first, and I ordered him to start with prayer first. When I saw that incident, I said to him, 'Start with prayer!' But he replied, 'No O Abu Sa'id, something you know has been left.' I replied, 'Absolutely not, by the One in whose hand my soul is, as far as I know you will not bring any good (he repeated up to three times).' Then he left the place.

After that, Abu Bakr entered and immediately got angry saying, 'Satan's singing is beside the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him)?' Then the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) met him and said: 'Let them both be.' When he no longer paid attention, then I signaled to the two female slaves so they both went out. Then on the holiday, the black-skinned people played armor and spears. Possibly I asked the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) or he asked me, 'Do you want to see it?' I replied, 'Yes.' Then he placed me standing behind him, my cheek attached to his cheek. And he said: 'Please play, O children of Arfidah (title for the Ethiopian nation).' Until when I was bored, he asked, 'Enough?' I replied, 'Yes.' He said, 'Go.'

And Narrated to us by [Yahya bin Yahya] and [Yahya bin Ayyub] and [Qutaibah] and [Ibn Hujr] -Yahya said- has informed us -while the others said- Has narrated to us [Isma'il bin Ja'far] from [Sharik bin Abu Namir] from [Anas bin Malik] that; There was a man who entered the mosque on Friday from the door facing Darul Qadha, while the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) was standing delivering the sermon. Then the man immediately faced the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) and said, 'O Messenger of Allah, the property has been destroyed and the roads have been cut off. Therefore, pray to Allah to send down rain.' Then the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) raised both his hands while praying: 'O Allah, send us rain. O Allah, send us rain, O Allah, send us rain.' Anas said, 'No, by Allah, we did not see clouds or even a bit of cloud mass in the sky, nor was there anything between us or between the gaps even one house or residence.' He said, 'Then came from behind him a cloud mass resembling a shield. After filling the sky, the cloud spread then rain fell.' He said, 'No, by Allah we could not see the sun at that time.' He said, 'Then there was a man who entered through that door on the next Friday, while the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) was standing delivering the sermon, then he approached him standing and said, 'O Messenger of Allah, our property has vanished and the roads are blocked, so pray to Allah to withhold it for us.' He said, 'Then the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) raised both his hands then prayed, 'O Allah! Rain around us, not upon us. O Allah, give rain to the highlands, some small hills, valley bottoms and some lands that grow trees.' Then we immediately stood and went out walking under the sunlight.' Sharik said; Then I asked Anas bin Malik, 'Was that man the first man?' He replied, 'I do not know.' And Narrated to us by [Dawud bin Rusyaidin] has narrated to us [Al Walid bin Muslim] from [Al Auza'i] has narrated to me [Ishaq bin Abdullah bin Abu Talhah] from [Anas bin Malik] he said; People were afflicted with drought in the time of the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him). Then when the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) was delivering the sermon to the people on the pulpit on Friday, suddenly a Bedouin stood up and said, 'O Messenger of Allah, the property has been destroyed and our families are starving.' He then narrated a hadith similar to the one above. And in it he mentioned the prayer: 'O Allah, around us and not upon us.' And he did not signal with his hand, except it was seen (cloud mass), until I saw the city of Madinah like a hole. And the Qanath valley flowed its water for a month, and no one came from across, except bringing news of heavy rain. And Narrated to me by [Abdul A'la bin Hammad] and [Muhammad bin Abu Bakr Al Muqaddami] both said, has narrated to us [Mu'tamir] has narrated to us [Ubaidullah] from [Thabit Al Bunani] from [Anas bin Malik] he said; The Prophet (peace be upon him) delivered the sermon on Friday, then people came to him shouting saying, 'O Prophet of Allah, rain no longer falls, trees have turned red and livestock have perished.' He then narrated the hadith. And in it -from the narration of Abdul A'la- it is mentioned; 'Then (the cloud) spread from Madinah, until rain fell wetting around it, while in the city of Madinah not a drop of rain fell. After that, I saw Madinah, it turned out that the city of Madinah at that time was really like a crown (because the rain had evenly wet it).' And Narrated to us by [Abu Kuraib] has narrated to us [Abu Usamah] from [Sulaiman bin Al Mughirah] from [Thabit] from [Anas] similar to it. And he added; 'Then Allah gathered the cloud masses, then we stayed there for a while until I saw that man could no longer hold back his desire to immediately go to his family.' And Narrated to us by [Harun bin Sa'id Al Aili] Has narrated to us [Ibn Wahab] has narrated to me [Usamah] that [Hafsh bin Ubaidullah bin Anas bin Malik] has narrated to him, that he heard [Anas bin Malik] say; 'A Bedouin came to the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) on Friday while he was on the pulpit.' He then narrated that hadith, and he added; 'Then I saw clouds separating like water when poured.'

THE PROPHET'S ATTITUDE DURING STRONG WINDS AND RAIN

Hadith Imam Muslim Number 1495

حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ مَسْلَمَةَ بْنُ قَعْنَبٍ حَدَّثَنَا سُلَيْمَانُ بْنُ يَحْيَى ابْنُ بِلَالٍ عَنْ جَعْفَرٍ وَهُوَ ابْنُ مُحَمَّدٍ عَنْ عَطَاءِ بْنِ أَبِي رَبَاحٍ أَنَّهُ سَمِعَ عَائِشَةَ زَوْجَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ تَقُولُ كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا كَانَ يَوْمُ الرِّيحِ وَالْغَيْمِ عَرَفَ ذَلِكَ فِي وَجْهِهِ وَأَقْبَلَ وَأَدْبَرَ فَإِذَا مَطَرَتْ سُرَّ بِهِ وَذَهَبَ عَنْهُ ذَلِكَ قَالَتْ عَائِشَةُ فَسَأَلْتُهُ

فَقَالَ إِنِّي خَشِيتُ أَنْ يَكُونَ عَذَابًا سُلَّطَ عَلَى أُمَّتِي وَيَقُولُ إِذَا رَأَى الْمَطَرَ رَحْمَةً

Narrated to us by [Abdullah bin Maslamah bin Qa'nab] has narrated to us [Sulaiman, that is the son of Bilal] from [Ja'far, that is the son of Muhammad] from [Atha' bin Abu Rabah] that he heard [Aishah] the wife of the Prophet (peace be upon him) say; If there was a very strong wind blowing, then it could be known from his face (peace be upon him), he went back and forth to the front and back. And when the rain fell, then he was happy and his worry disappeared. Aishah said; Then I asked him about it, he replied: 'I am worried, it might be a punishment inflicted on my people.' And when seeing the rain he said: '(this is) mercy.'

THE PROPHET'S PRAYER WHEN SEEING THE CLOUDS AND WIND

And Narrated to me by [Abu Tahir] has informed us [Ibn Wahb] he said, I heard [Ibn Juraij] narrate from [Atha' bin Abu Rabah] from [Aishah] the wife of the Prophet (peace be upon him), that she said; If there was a very strong wind blowing, then the Prophet (peace be upon him) usually recited: 'O Allah, indeed I ask You for its good, the good it contains, and the good it brings. And I seek refuge in You from its evil, the evil in it and the evil it brings.' If the sky was dark and cloudy, then he would appear pale, going in and out of the house, to the front and back. And if the rain fell, he felt relieved, and it could be known from his facial expression. Aishah said; I asked him about it, then he said: 'O Aishah, if the weather is like this, I am worried lest it happen as expressed by the people of Ad, 'Then when they saw the punishment in the form of clouds heading to their valleys, they said: This is the cloud that will bring down rain to us.'

Aishah also said; And if he saw a black cloud darkening or a strong blowing wind, then (worry) could be seen from his facial expression. Aishah then asked, 'O Messenger of Allah, I observe people, when they see black fog, they are so happy, because rain will soon fall, but I observe you when seeing it, I can catch (worry) on your face.' He stood for a very long time, then bowed for a very long time, then rose from bowing and stood for a very long time, but not as long as his first standing, then he bowed for a very long time, but not as long as his first bowing, then he prostrated. Then he stood for a long time, but not as long as his first standing, then he bowed for a long time but not as long as his first bowing. Then he raised his head (stood up), then stood for a long time, but not as long as his first standing, then he bowed for a long time, but not as long as his first bowing, then he prostrated. When the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) finished the prayer, the sun had shone brightly. Then he delivered a sermon in front of the congregation. He first praised and glorified Allah, then said: 'Indeed the sun and the moon are part of the signs of Allah's greatness, and both do not experience eclipse because of someone's death or birth. Therefore, if you see a solar or lunar eclipse, say takbir and pray to Allah, and pray and give alms. O community of Muhammad, indeed there is no hatred greater than Allah's hatred if His servant (male or female) commits adultery. O community of Muhammad, by Allah, if you knew what I know, you would cry a lot and laugh a little. Have I not conveyed?' And in the narration of Malik; 'Indeed the sun and the moon are two signs from the signs of Allah.' And Narrated to us by [Yahya bin Yahya] has informed us [Abu Mu'awiyah] from [Hisham bin Urwah] with this chain. And he also added; 'As for what follows, indeed the sun and the moon are among the signs of Allah.' He also added; 'Then he raised both his hands and recited: 'O Allah, have I not conveyed?''

Narrated to me by [Harmalah bin Yahya] has informed me [Ibn Wahb] has informed me [Yunus] -in another chain- And Narrated to me by [Abu Tahir] and [Muhammad bin Salamah Al Muradi] both said, has narrated to us [Ibn Wahb] from [Yunus] from [Ibn Shihab] he said, has informed me [Urwah bin Zubair] from [Aishah] the wife of the Prophet (peace be upon him), she said; A solar eclipse occurred in the time of the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him). Then the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) went out to the mosque and stood then said takbir (performed prayer), so the people followed forming rows behind him. Then the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) recited with a long recitation. Then he said takbir then bowed with a long bowing. Then he raised his head while reciting: 'Allah hears whoever praises Him. Our Lord, and to You be praise.' Then he stood and recited with a long recitation, but shorter than the first recitation. After that, he said takbir then bowed with a long bowing, but shorter than the first bowing. After that, he recited: 'Allah hears whoever praises Him. Our Lord, and to You be praise.' Then he prostrated. -Abu Tahir did not mention the phrase: then he prostrated.- Then in the next rak'ah, he did the same until his prayer was complete consisting of four bowings and four prostrations. After that, the sun returned to shine before he moved to disperse. He then stood and delivered a sermon to the people. He praised Allah with the praise that is right upon Him, then he said: 'Indeed the sun and the moon are two signs from the signs of Allah. Eclipse does not occur on both because of someone's death or birth. So if you see it, hurry to perform prayer.' and he also said: 'So pray until Allah reveals it back to you.' And the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) also said: 'I have seen in my standing place here, that is everything promised to you. Even I saw myself wanting to pick fruit from Paradise, that is when you saw me advance.' And [Al Muradi] said; Advance (move forward). 'And I also have seen Hell Jahannam destroying each other, that is when you saw me retreat. Then I also saw in it Ibn Luhay, who has sent As Sawa'ib (animals dedicated to idols).' The hadith of Abu Tahir ends at his expression; 'So hurry to perform prayer.' and he did not mention after it.

Narrated to us Abdullah bin Maslamah Al Qa'nabi, narrated to us Sulaiman bin Bilal from Yahya from Amrah that a Jewish woman came to Aisyah and said, 'May Allah protect you from the torment of the grave.' Aisyah said, I asked, 'O Messenger of Allah, will Allah punish people in the grave?' Amrah said, Aisyah said, the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, replied, 'Seek refuge with Allah.' Then the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, went out riding in the daytime, and a solar eclipse occurred. Aisyah said, I went out through the door of the house in the mosque with some women. Then the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, came from his ride, walked to the prayer place, and stood to pray. The Muslims stood behind him. Aisyah said, He stood for a very long time, then bowed for a very long time, then rose and stood for a long time, but not as long as the first. He bowed again very long, but not as long as the first, then rose while the sun had shone again. He said, 'Indeed, I have seen that you will be tested in the grave like the trial of the Dajjal.' Amrah said, I heard Aisyah say, 'After that, I heard the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, seek refuge from the punishment of the fire and the grave.' Narrated to us Muhammad bin Al Mutsanna, narrated to us Abdul Wahhab, and narrated to us Ibn Abu Umar, narrated to us Sufyan, all from Yahya bin Sa'id with this chain, consistent with the meaning of Sulaiman bin Bilal's hadith.

Narrated to me Ya'qub bin Ibrahim Ad Dauraqi, narrated to us Isma'il bin Ulayyah from Hisyam Ad Dastawa'i, he said, narrated to us Abu Zubair from Jabir bin Abdullah, he said, A solar eclipse occurred during the time of the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, when the sun was intensely hot. The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, performed the eclipse prayer with his companions. He prolonged his standing until the companions fell and sat due to exhaustion. Then he bowed and prolonged his bowing, then rose and prolonged his standing again. He bowed and prolonged his bowing. Then he rose and prostrated twice. Then he stood and did the same, making it four rak'ahs and four prostrations. He said, 'Everything you will enter has been shown to me. Paradise was shown to me, and if I had taken a bunch of its fruit, I would have taken it—or he said—I tried to take a bunch of its fruit, but my hand could not reach. Hell was also shown to me, and I saw a woman from Bani Isra'il being punished for a cat she tied up, neither feeding it nor releasing it to eat insects of the earth. I also saw Abu Tsumamah Amru bin Malik being dragged on his back in hell. They (the people of ignorance) said the sun and moon only eclipse due to the death of a great person. But they are signs from Allah's signs shown by Him. When an eclipse occurs, perform prayer until it shines again.' Narrated to me Abu Ghassan Al Misma'i, narrated to us Abdul Malik bin Shabah from Hisyam with this chain, similar. But he said, 'In hell, I saw a tall, dark-skinned Himyar woman,' and did not mention, 'From Bani Isra'il.'

Narrated to us Abu Bakar bin Abu Syaibah, narrated to us Abdullah bin Numair, and narrated to us Muhammad bin Abdullah bin Numair—his wording is similar—he said, narrated to us my father, narrated to us Abdul Malik from Atha' from Jabir, he said, A solar eclipse occurred during the time of the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, on the day Ibrahim, the son of the Messenger of Allah, passed away. People said, 'The solar eclipse occurred because of Ibrahim's death.' The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, stood to perform the eclipse prayer with his companions, six rak'ahs with four prostrations. He began with takbir, recited verses, and prolonged his recitation. Then he bowed for a long time, about as long as his standing. He rose from bowing, recited verses, but not as long as the first. He bowed, about as long as his standing. He rose, recited verses, but not as long as the second. He bowed, about as long as his standing. He rose from bowing, then prostrated twice. He stood, then bowed three times his recitation in each rak'ah was longer than the next. His bowing was about as long as his prostration. Then he moved back, and the rows behind him moved back until near the women's rows. Then he moved forward, and the congregation followed him to their original place. After the eclipse prayer, the sun shone again. In his sermon, he said, 'O people, the sun and moon are two signs among Allah's signs. Their eclipse is not due to someone's death. When you see an eclipse, pray until it shines again. Everything promised by Allah was shown to me in this brief prayer. Hell was shown to me when you saw me move back, I feared its flames. I saw a man with a hooked stick dragging his intestines in hell, for he stole pilgrims' wealth with his stick. If asked, he said, 'I didn't mean to, it got caught on my spear,' but when unnoticed, he stole again. I also saw a woman in hell who tied up a cat, neither feeding it nor letting it eat dry grass, so it died of hunger. Paradise was shown to me when you saw me move forward, I reached for its fruits to show you, but I couldn't. Everything Allah promised, I saw clearly in this prayer.'

Narrated to us Muhammad bin Ala` Al Hamdani, narrated to us Ibn Numair, narrated to us Hisyam from Fathimah from Asma`, she said, A solar eclipse occurred during the time of the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him. I went to Aisyah and found her praying. I asked, 'Why are people praying?' She gestured with her head to the sky. I asked, 'A sign?' Aisyah said, 'Yes, a sign of Allah.' The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, stood long in prayer, so I felt dizzy. I took a water container and brought it near me, then wet my head and face. Asma` said, when the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, finished praying and the sun shone again, he gave a sermon to the people. He began by praising and extolling Allah, then said, 'There is nothing I have not seen, but I saw in this prayer, even paradise and hell. It was revealed to me that you will be questioned in the grave, or like the trial of the Dajjal. Each of you will be approached and asked, "What do you know about this man (Muhammad)?" The believers will say, 'He is Muhammad, the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, who came with clear proofs and guidance, and we accepted and followed him.' The question will be repeated three times. Then they are told to sleep, saying, 'We know you truly believed in him, so sleep peacefully.' But the hypocrites and doubters will say, 'I don't know. I heard people say this and that, so I said it too.' Narrated to us Abu Bakar bin Abu Syaibah and Abu Kuraib, both said, narrated to us Abu Usamah from Hisyam from Fathimah from Asma`, she said, I came to Aisyah, and people were standing in prayer, so I asked, 'Why are people praying?' She narrated the hadith as Ibn Numair narrated from Hisyam. Yahya bin Yahya narrated to us, narrated to us Sufyan bin Uyainah from Az Zuhri from Urwah, he said, 'Do not say, "The sun darkened," but say, "The sun eclipsed."'

Hadith Imam Muslim Number 1518

حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو عَامِرٍ الْأَشْعَرِيُّ عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ بَرَادٍ وَ مُحَمَّدٌ بْنُ الْعَلَاءِ قَالَا حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو أُسَامَةَ عَنْ بُرَيْدٍ عَنْ أَبِي بُرْدَةَ
عَنْ أَبِي مُوسَى قَالَ خَسَفَتِ الشَّمْسُ فِي زَمَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَامَ فِرْعَاوْنُ يَحْشَى أَنْ تَكُونَ السَّاعَةُ
حَتَّى أَتَى الْمَسْجِدَ فَقَامَ يُصَلِّي بِأَطْوَلِ قِيَامٍ وَرُكُوعٍ وَسُجُودٍ مَا رَأَيْتُهُ يَفْعَلُهُ فِي صَلَاةٍ قَطُّ ثُمَّ قَالَ إِنَّ هَذِهِ الْآيَاتُ
الَّتِي يُرْسِلُ اللَّهُ لَا تَكُونُ لِمَوْتِ أَحَدٍ وَلَا لِحَيَاتِهِ وَلَكِنَّ اللَّهَ يُرْسِلُهَا يُخَوِّفُ بِهَا عِبَادَهُ فَإِذَا رَأَيْتُمْ مِنْهَا شَيْئًا
فَافْزَعُوا إِلَى ذِكْرِهِ وَدُعَائِهِ وَاسْتِغْفَارِهِ وَفِي رِوَايَةِ ابْنِ الْعَلَاءِ كَسَفَتِ الشَّمْسُ وَقَالَ يُخَوِّفُ عِبَادَهُ

Narrated to us Abu Amir Al Asy'ari Abdullah bin Barrad and Muhammad bin Al Ala', both said, narrated to us Abu Usamah from Buraidd from Abu Burdah from Abu Musa, he said, During the time of the Prophet, peace be upon him, a solar eclipse occurred. He was startled and stood quickly, fearing it might be the Hour. He went to the mosque and performed prayer with very long standing, bowing, and prostration. I never saw him prolong recitation like that before. He said, 'These signs sent by Allah are not due to someone's death or birth, but Allah sends them to frighten His servants. When you see them, hasten to remember Allah, supplicate to Him, and seek His forgiveness.' In the hadith narrated by Ibn Al 'Alaa', it is mentioned, 'A solar eclipse occurred,' and he said, 'To frighten His servants.'

Abu Salamah narrated: When Abu Salamah passed away, I went to the Prophet (peace be upon him) and said, 'O Messenger of Allah, Abu Salamah has passed away.' He said: 'Say, "O Allah, forgive me and forgive him, and grant me a good replacement for him."' So I recited it, and Allah replaced him with someone better, namely Muhammad (peace be upon him).

Everything has an appointed time with Allah. So, tell her to be patient and restrain herself.' Shortly after, the messenger returned and said, 'Zainab earnestly requests that the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) visit her.' So he went with some companions, including Sa'ad bin Ubadah, Mu'adz bin Jabar, and myself. Upon arrival, the deceased child was handed to him, and his breathing became heavy as if in distress, and his tears fell. Sa'ad asked, 'What is this, O Messenger of Allah?' He replied: 'This is compassion that Allah has placed in the hearts of His servants. Indeed, Allah only shows mercy to His compassionate servants.' Narrated to us [Dawud bin Rusyaid], narrated to us [Isma'il bin Ulayyah], narrated to us [Ayyub] from [Abdullah bin Abu Mulaikah], he said: I was sitting beside [Ibnu Umar] to attend the funeral of Ummu Aban binti Utsman, and Amru bin Utsman was also there. Then Ibnu Abbas came, guided by someone who showed him Ibnu Umar's place. Ibnu Abbas sat beside me, with me between them. Suddenly, a sound came from the house, so Ibnu Umar spoke as if directing Amru to stand and stop them, saying: I heard the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) say: 'Indeed, the deceased is truly punished due to the crying of his family.' Then Abdullah sent a messenger. [Ibnu Abbas] said: We were with the Leader of the Believers [Umar bin Al Khaththab]. When we reached Al Baida', he saw a man resting under the shade of a tree and said to me, 'Go and find out who that man is.' I went and found it was Shuhaib. I returned and said, 'You ordered me to find out who he is it is Shuhaib.' Umar said, 'Tell him to come with us.' I said, 'He is with his family.' Umar said, 'Even if he is with his family.' Ayyub said: 'Tell him to come with us.' When we arrived, and the Leader of the Believers had not been there long, Shuhaib came and said, 'O my brother, O my friend...!' Umar said, 'Have you not heard - Ayyub said - do you not know - or - have you not heard that the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: "Indeed, the deceased is truly punished due to the crying of his family." Then I stood and went to Aisyah and told her what Ibnu

Umar had said. Aisyah said: No, by Allah, the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) never said: 'Indeed, the deceased is truly punished due to the crying of someone.' But he said: 'Indeed, for the disbeliever, Allah increases his punishment due to his family's crying.' And Allah is the One who makes people laugh and cry. No sinner bears the sin of another.' [Ayyub] said: [Ibnu Abu Mulaikah] said: narrated to me [Al Qasim bin Muhammad], he said: When Umar and Ibnu's statements reached [Aisyah], she said, 'You have narrated to me from someone who is not a liar. But ears can mishear.'

Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Rafi'] and [Abdu bin Humaid] - [Ibnu Rafi'] said - narrated to us [Abdurrazaq], informed us [Ibnu Juraij], informed me [Abdullah bin Abu Mulaikah], he said: When the daughter of Utsman bin 'Affan died in Makkah, we came to visit. Among those present were Ibnu Umar and Ibnu Abbas. I sat between them. Then another person came and sat beside me. [Abdullah bin Umar] asked Amru bin Utsman, who was sitting opposite him, 'Why do you not stop the people crying? The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: "Indeed, the deceased is truly punished due to the crying of his family over him."' Then [Ibnu Abbas] said, 'Umar did say that.' Then Ibnu Abbas continued: I was coming from Makkah with Umar, and when we reached Baida', we saw a caravan resting under a tree. Umar said, 'Check who the leader of that caravan is.' I looked and found it was Shuhaib. I informed Umar. Umar said, 'Call him here.' I went back to Shuhaib and said, 'Come and meet the Leader of the Believers now.' When Umar was afflicted by being stabbed, Shuhaib came crying and said, 'O my brother, O my brother...' Umar said, 'Shuhaib, are you crying for me? The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said that the deceased is punished because of his family's crying.' [Ibnu Abbas] said: When Umar passed away, I conveyed Umar's hadith to Aisyah. Aisyah said, 'May Allah have mercy on Umar. No, by Allah, the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) never said that Allah punishes a believer because of someone's crying. Rather, he said: "Indeed, Allah increases the punishment of a disbeliever because of his family's crying over him." Abdullah said: Aisyah then said: This verse of Allah is sufficient for you, "No bearer of burdens will bear the burden of another." Ibnu Abbas said, 'If so, Allah makes you laugh and cry.' Ibnu Mulaikah said, 'By Allah, Ibnu Umar said nothing (after hearing Aisyah's explanation).' Narrated to us [Abdurrahman bin Bisyr], narrated to us [Sufyan], said [Amru] from [Ibnu Abu Mulaikah], he said: We gathered at the funeral of Ummu Aban binti Utsman. He narrated the hadith, but he did not attribute it to the Prophet (peace be upon him) through Ibnu Umar as Ayyub and Ibnu Juraij did. Their hadiths are more complete than Amru's.

"Narrated to us [Khalaf bin Hisyam] and [Abu Rabi' Az Zahrani], all from [Hammad] - [Khalaf] said - narrated to us [Hammad bin Zaid] from [Hisyam bin Urwah] from [his father], he said: It was mentioned in the presence of Aisyah about Umar's statement that the deceased is punished due to his family's crying. Aisyah said, 'May Allah have mercy on Abu Abdurrahman. He heard (the hadith of the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him), but he did not memorize it well. The incident was like this: A Jewish funeral passed by the Prophet (peace be upon him), and his family was crying over him. The Prophet (peace be upon him) said: "You are crying over him, while he is truly being punished (because of your crying)."

Narrated to us [Abu Kuraib], narrated to us [Abu Usamah] from [Hisyam] from [his father], he said: A narration was told to [Aisyah] that Ibnu Umar attributed to the Prophet (peace be upon him) that he said: 'Indeed, the deceased is punished in his grave due to the crying of his family over him.' Aisyah said, 'He was mistaken. It was not like that. What the Prophet (peace be upon him) said was: The deceased is punished for his mistakes or sins, while his family is crying over him now. That is as mistaken as the claim that the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) stood by a pit during the Battle of Badr, where the disbelievers' bodies were buried, and said: "Indeed, they truly hear what I say." He was mistaken. The truth is, he said: "Indeed, they will truly know (in the Hereafter) that what I told them is true." Then Aisyah recited the verse: "Indeed, you cannot make the dead hear." And the verse: "You cannot make those in the graves hear." He said this when they were preparing their place in Hellfire. Narrated to us [Abu Bakar bin Abu Syaibah], narrated to us [Waki'], narrated to us [Hisyam bin Urwah] with this chain, similar in meaning to Usamah's hadith, but Usamah's is more complete.

Aisyah said, 'May Allah forgive Abu Abdurrahman. He did not lie, but he forgot or was mistaken. Narrated to us by [Ibnul Mutsanna] and [Ibnu Abu Umar] - [Ibnul Mutsanna] said - Narrated to us by [Abdul Wahhab], he said, I heard [Yahya bin Sa'id] say, it was reported to me by [Amrah] that she heard [Aisyah] say: When the news of the death of Ibnu Haritsah, Ja'far bin Abi Thalib, and Abdullah bin Rawahah reached the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him), he sat down and signs of sadness were visible on his face. Aisyah continued: I looked through the cracks of the door, and a man came to him saying, 'O Messenger of Allah, Ja'far's wife is crying.' The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) ordered the man to silence her. The man left, but soon returned, saying they refused to be silenced. The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) ordered him again to return, but shortly after, the man came back and said, 'By Allah, they will not be silenced and do not heed me, O Messenger of Allah.' Aisyah thought that the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) told the man to go and say, 'Go! And stuff earth into her mouth!' Aisyah then said, 'Woe to you, by Allah, you have not properly carried out what the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) commanded you, leaving the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) in difficulty.' It was also narrated to us by [Abu Bakar bin Abu Syaibah], narrated to us by [Abdullah bin Numair] - in another chain - and narrated to me by [Abu Thahir], reported to us by [Abdullah bin Wahb] from [Mu'awiyah bin Shalih] - in another chain - narrated to me by [Ahmad bin Ibrahim Ad Dauraqi], narrated to us by [Abdush Shamad], narrated to us by [Abdul Aziz bin Muslim] from [Yahya bin Sa'id] with this chain, similar to it. Narrated to us by [Yahya bin Yahya At Tamimi], [Abu Bakar bin Abu Syaibah], [Muhammad bin Abdullah bin Numair], and [Abu Kuraib] - the wording is Yahya's - Yahya said, reported to us - while the others said - narrated to us by [Abu Mu'awiyah] from [Al A'masy] from [Syaqiq] from [Khabbab bin Al Arat], he said: We migrated with the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) in the way of Allah, seeking only the countenance of Allah, so Allah will grant us our reward (including spoils of war). But some among us never tasted any of their reward, one of them was Mush'ab bin Umair, for he was killed during the Battle of Uhud. At that time, there was nothing to shroud him except a single burdah cloth if we placed it over his head, his feet would be exposed, and if we placed it over his feet, his head would be exposed. So the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) said: 'Place it below his neck, and put Idzkhir (a type of plant) over his feet.' Thus, some among us have had their fruits ripen, and they are harvesting them. It was also narrated to us by [Utsman bin Abu Syaibah], narrated to us by [Jarir] - in another chain - and narrated to us by [Ishaq bin Ibrahim], reported to us by [Isa bin Yunus] - in another chain - and narrated to us by [Minjab bin Harits At Tamimi], reported to us by [Ali bin Mushir] - in another chain - and narrated to us by [Ishaq bin Ibrahim] and [Ibnu Abu Umar], all from [Ibnu Uyainah] from [Al A'masy] with this chain, similar to it.

Narrated to us by [Hasan bin Rabi'] and [Muhammad bin Abdullah bin Numair], both said, narrated to us by [Abdullah bin Idris] from [Asy Syaiban] from [Asy Sya'bi] that the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) performed the funeral prayer over a grave after the deceased was buried. He pronounced four takbirs over it. [Asy Syaibani] said: I asked [Asy Sya'bi], 'Who narrated this hadith to you?' He replied, 'A trustworthy person, [Abdullah bin Abbas].' This is the wording of Hasan's hadith. In the narration of Ibnu Numair, he said: The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) came to a freshly buried grave, then he performed the funeral prayer over it, and the companions lined up behind him. Then he pronounced four takbirs. I asked [Amir], 'Who narrated this hadith to you?' He replied, 'From a trustworthy person, [Ibnu Abbas].' Narrated to me by [Abu Rabi' Az Zahrani] and [Abu Kamil Fudlail bin Husain Al Jahdari] - with the wording of Abu Kamil - both said, narrated to us by [Hammad, son of Zaid] from [Tsabit Al Bunani] from [Abu Rafi'] from [Abu Hurairah] that a black woman or a young man used to sweep the mosque. Once, the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) missed that person and asked about them. The companions replied, 'That person has died.' He said: 'Why did you not inform me?' It seemed they considered the matter of their death insignificant. He said: 'Show me their grave.' So the companions showed him the grave, and he performed the funeral prayer over it. Then he said: 'Indeed, these graves are filled with darkness for their occupants, and Allah will grant them light because of my prayer over them.'

And Narrated to me by [Harun bin Sa'id Al Aili] has narrated to us [Abdullah bin Wahb] has informed us [Ibn Juraij] from [Abdullah bin Kathir bin Muthallib] that he heard [Muhammad bin Qais] say, I heard [Aishah] narrate, she said 'Do you want me to tell you a hadith from the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) and also from me?' We answered, 'Yes.' -in another chain- And Narrated to me by [someone] who heard Hajjaj Al A'war, and the wording also belongs to him, he said, has narrated to us [Hajjaj bin Muhammad] Has narrated to us [Ibn Juraij] has informed me [Abdullah] -a man from Quraysh- from [Muhammad bin Qais bin Makhramah bin Al Muthallib] that one day he said, 'Do you want me to tell you (hadith) from me and from my mother?' -so we thought that what he meant by his mother was the mother who gave birth to him- He said [Aishah] said, 'Do you want me to tell you a hadith from me and from the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him)?' we answered, 'Yes, please.' Aishah said On one night when it was the turn of the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) in my house, after he removed his clothes, placed his sandals near his feet and spread the edge of his robe on the mattress, he then lay down. After some time and perhaps he thought I was asleep, he took his clothes and sandals, opened the door slowly and then closed it back slowly. Seeing him like that, I also put on my clothes and covered my head with a cloth, then I followed him from behind until arriving at Baqi'. When arriving there he stood for a while, then he raised both his hands three times, after that he turned back home. I also turned back ahead of him. If he walked fast, then I walked fast. If he jogged, I did the same. When he arrived, I had arrived first before him. Then I entered the house and immediately slept. After that, he entered and asked: 'Why are you O Aishah? I hear your breath expanding and contracting?' I answered, 'Nothing O Messenger of Allah?' He said: 'Tell me or if not Allah -the Most Gentle and Knowing- will tell me.' I answered, 'O Messenger of Allah, by my father and mother.' Then I told him what actually happened. He said, 'So, you were the black shadow I saw in front of me earlier?' I answered, 'Yes, true O Messenger of Allah.' Then he pushed my chest hard until it felt painful for me. Then he said, 'Do you still suspect that Allah and His Messenger will cheat on you?' I answered, 'Every what humans keep secret, surely Allah knows it too.' Then the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) told why he went out. He said: 'Earlier Gabriel came, but because he saw you there, he called me slowly so not heard by you. I answered his call without being heard by you either. He did not enter the house, because you removed your clothes. And I thought you were asleep, so I was reluctant to wake you up fearing you would feel lonely. Gabriel said to me, 'Allah orders you to come to Baqi' and ask for forgiveness for its inhabitants.' I said, 'Then what do I read when arriving there O Messenger of Allah?' Gabriel answered, 'Read: Peace be upon the inhabitants of the homes from the believers and Muslims, and may Allah have mercy on those who have preceded us and those who come later, and we, God willing, will follow you all.'

In the time of Mu'awiyah bin Abu Sufyan's government, he gave a speech in front of the Hajj or Umrah congregation, he said among other things 'Two Mud of Syrian wheat equal one sha' of dates.' Every time the iron cools, it will be heated again then ironed on him every day -a day equivalent to fifty thousand years (in the world) - until his case is decided. After that, then he sees his way out, sometimes to paradise and sometimes to hell.' Then it was asked to him, 'O Messenger of Allah, then how about camels?' he answered: 'Likewise camels, if the owner does not pay its zakat. Among its zakat is paying alms with milk milked from it on the day it comes to water to drink it. Then on the Day of Judgment, the person will be laid down in a flat place to be trampled by the largest and fattest camels, as well as their smallest children. All trample with their hooves and bite with their sharp teeth. Every first one passes, another one comes to trample him. Thus it happens every day until his case is finished being judged. One day there is equivalent to fifty thousand years in the world. After that, then he can see his way out, perhaps to paradise and perhaps to hell.' Then it was asked again to him, 'O Messenger of Allah, then how about cows and goats?' He answered: 'Yes, also the owner of cows and goats who do not pay their zakat. Surely on the Day of Judgment, he will be laid down in a flat place, so that cows and goats trample him with their sharp hooves and also gore him with their horns, whether the goat has crooked horns or no horns or broken horns. When the first one has passed, then followed by the second and so on, until his case is finished being decided. One day in the world is equivalent to fifty thousand years in the world. After that, he can see his way out, whether to paradise or to hell.' Then it was asked again to him, 'If horses how O Messenger of Allah?' he answered: 'Horses are three kinds, namely (First), which can bring sin, (second) as a barrier and (third) which can bring reward. While the horse that brings sin is when a person maintains it because of riya', for glory and pride and to fight Islam. Then the horse for that person becomes a source of sin. (Second), horse as a barrier, namely horse prepared for jihad in the way of Allah, then the owner does not forget the right of Allah by maintaining it and using it for jihad, then the horse for that person is as a protector for him. (Third), horse as a field of reward. Namely horse prepared for jihad in the way of Allah and defending the interests of Muslims in their grazing fields. Then whatever the horse eats in that field, goodness is written for the owner of the garden as much as what the horse eats and goodness is also written as much as the dung and urine excreted by the horse. If the horse's rope breaks, then the horse runs far, then goodness is written for its owner as much as the trail and dung of the horse. Every time the horse crosses a river, then it drinks unintentionally or is given drink by its owner, then Allah will write goodness for its owner as much as the water drunk by his horse.' After that, it was asked again to him, 'How about donkeys O Messenger of Allah?' He answered: 'Allah did not reveal any revelation to me regarding donkeys, except this short but comprehensive verse,

'Whoever does good as big as a zarrah (mustard seed), surely he will see (reward) it. And whoever does evil as heavy as a zarrah, surely he will see its retribution too.' And Narrated to me by [Yunus bin Abdul A'la Ash Shadafi] has informed us [Abdullah bin Wahb] has narrated to me [Hisham bin Sa'd] from [Zaid bin Aslam] in this chain, and similar in meaning to the hadith of Hafsh bin Maisarah until the end. Only he said 'Whoever owns a camel who does not pay its right (its zakat).' He did not say 'From its right.' And he mentioned in it: 'Not missing from it a single young one', he said: 'It is ironed on his side and his forehead and his back.'

And Narrated to me by [Muhammad bin Abdul Malik Al Umawi] Has narrated to us [Abdul Aziz bin Al Mukhtar] Has narrated to us [Suhail bin Abu Salih] from [his father] from [Abu Hurairah] he said The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: 'There is no owner of property who does not pay its zakat, except on the Day of Judgment an iron will be made for him heated in the fire of Jahannam, then ironed on his side, his forehead and his back. Until Allah decides among His servants on a day whose length is equivalent to fifty thousand years compared to a day in the world. Then only then is shown his way to paradise or to hell. And there is no owner of camels who refuses to issue its right (zakat from his camels) except (on the Day of Judgment later) he is laid down in a flat place, then he is trampled and bitten by those camels. Every time the last camel has passed him, the first camel returns to pass him. Thus until Allah decides the case among humans on a day, where the time is equivalent to fifty thousand years (in the world), and only then he will see his way, whether to paradise or to hell. And no owner of goats who does not fulfill its zakat except on the Day of Judgment he will be laid down on a flat place, then those goats trample him with their hooves and gore him with their horns. Among the goats there is none with crooked horns and none without horns. Every time the last goat has passed him, the first goat returns to pass him. Thus until Allah decides the case among humans on a day, where the time is equivalent to fifty thousand years (in the world), and only then he will see his way, whether to paradise or to hell.' Suhail said 'I do not know, whether he mentioned cows or not.' Then the companions asked, 'How about horses, O Messenger of Allah?' he said: 'On the crown of the horse, on it is tied goodness until the Day of Judgment. Horses are three kinds namely horses whose owners will get reward, horses that become shields, and horses whose owners get sin. As for horses whose owners get reward are horses prepared to defend the religion of Allah, and for jihad in the way of Allah. Then whatever the horse eats is written for its owner goodness as much as what the horse eats. If he pastures it in a pasture field then goodness will be written for its owner as much as what it eats. If the horse is given water from a river then goodness will be written for its owner as much as the water it drinks. If the horse's rope breaks, then the horse runs to a high place then goodness is written for its owner as much as the trail passed by the horse. While horses that become shields for their owners are people who maintain horses for honor and ornament without forgetting the right of Allah, namely made as mounts and also paid attention to their food, both in easy or difficult times. While horses whose owners will get sin is when a person maintains it to boast and because of riya', then the horse for that person becomes a source of sin.' The companions asked again, 'How about donkeys O Messenger of Allah?' He said: 'There is nothing revealed by Allah about donkeys except this short but comprehensive verse 'Whoever does good as big as a zarrah (mustard seed), surely he will see (reward) it. And whoever does evil as heavy as a zarrah, surely he will see its retribution too.'" And Narrated to us by [Qutaibah bin Sa'id] Has narrated to us [Abdul Aziz Ad Darawardi] from [Suhail] with this chain, and he narrated that hadith. And Narrated to me by [Muhammad bin Abdullah bin Bazi'] Has narrated to us [Yazid bin Zurai'] Has narrated to us [Rauh bin Al Qasim] Has narrated to us [Shuhail bin Abu Salih] with this chain and he said He replaced farthest with widest. And he also mentioned 'Then ironed on the side and back.' and he did not mention 'his forehead.' And Narrated to me by [Harun bin Sa'id Al Aili] Has narrated to us [Ibn Wahb] has informed me [Amr bin Harith] that [Bukair] has narrated to him from [Dhakwan] from [Abu Hurairah] from the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) that he said: 'If a servant does not fulfill the right of Allah or alms (zakat) of his camel...' Then he narrated the hadith as the hadith of Suhail from his father.

And no owner of cows who does not fulfill its right, except the cows will come on the Day of Judgment with a large number, then he is placed on flat land then the cows gore him with their horns and trample him with their hooves. Among the livestock there is none without horns and none with broken horns. No owner of property who does not pay its zakat, except his property turns into a large and poisonous snake, which follows its owner wherever he goes, while he himself always runs from the snake. Then it is said to him: 'Take this your property that you stored, indeed I am Rich from it.' After he knows that he cannot run from the snake, then he inserts his hand into the snake's mouth, then the snake bites him like a male animal bites.' [Abu Zubair] said I heard [Ubaid bin Umair] say this expression. then we asked Jabir bin Abdullah about it, then he said as what was said by Ubaid bin Umair. [Abu Zubair] said I heard [Ubaid bin Umair] say A man said 'O Messenger of Allah, what is the right of camels?' he answered: 'Namely bringing it to water (for drinking), breeding its females, breeding its males, milking its milk and using it in the way of Allah.'

Narrated to us by [Abu Bakr bin Abi Shaibah] Has narrated to us [Waki'] Has narrated to us [Al A'mash] from [Al Ma'rur bin Suwaid] from [Abu Dharr] he said I arrived near the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) when he was sitting under the shade of the Ka'bah. When he saw me, he said: 'By the Lord of the Ka'bah, they are the losers.' Then I approached him, while I sat and asked him, 'O Messenger of Allah, who are they?' he answered: 'They are people who have abundant wealth. Except those (who count their good deeds by) saying So much, so much, so much (while he signaled forward and backward, right and left). But they are few in number. No owner of camels, owner of cows, and owner of goats who does not pay the zakat of his livestock, except on the Day of Judgment his largest and fattest livestock will come to him goring with their horns and trampling that person with their hooves. Every last one finishes trampling him, the first one comes back again. Thus the punishment applies until his case is decided.' And Narrated to us by [Abu Kuraib Muhammad bin Al Ala'] Has narrated to us [Abu Mu'awiyah] from [Al A'mash] from [Al Ma'rur] from [Abu Dharr] he said I arrived near the Prophet (peace be upon him), who at that time was sheltering under the shade of the Ka'bah. Then he mentioned a hadith similar to that of Waki'. Only he said 'By the One in Whose hand my soul is, no one in this world dies leaving camels or cows or goats that he has not fulfilled their zakat.'

Narrated to us by [Yahya bin Yahya] and [Abu Bakr bin Abi Shaibah] and [Ibn Numair] and [Abu Kuraib] all from [Abu Mu'awiyah] - [Yahya] said- has informed us [Abu Mu'awiyah] from [Al A'mash] from [Zaid bin Wahb] from [Abu Dharr] he said At one twilight, I walked with the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) on black rocky ground while we looked towards Mount Uhud. Suddenly the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) called me and said: 'O Abu Dharr.' I answered, 'Yes, O Messenger of Allah.' He said: 'If Mount Uhud becomes gold for me, then it will not please me, if on the third day that gold still remains in my hand one dinar, except one dinar that I prepare to pay debt. But I will call the servants of Allah, and say to them -while he threw forward, right and left, as if he was distributing.-' While we continued walking, then he called me again: 'O Abu Dharr!' I answered, 'Yes, O Messenger of Allah.' He said: 'People who are rich in wealth will become poor on the Day of Judgment, except people who say: This, this (distributing his wealth, as the Prophet did initially).' Then Abu Dharr continued While we continued walking, and suddenly he called me again: 'O Abu Dharr, stay here, until I return.' Then he went until he disappeared from my sight. Not long after, I heard a noisy sound, perhaps the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) got into trouble, I thought. And I intended to follow him. But I remembered his command, do not go anywhere until I return. Therefore, I just waited for him. When he arrived, I told him about the noisy sound I heard. Then he said: 'That is Gabriel, he came to me. Gabriel said, 'Whoever among your ummah dies without associating Allah with anything, surely he will enter paradise.'" The Prophet (peace be upon him) asked: 'Even if he commits adultery and steals?' Gabriel answered, 'Yes, even if he commits adultery and steals.'

And Narrated to us by [Qutaibah bin Sa'id] Has narrated to us [Jarir] from [Abdul Aziz, namely the son of Rufai'] from [Zaid bin Wahb] from [Abu Dharr] he said On one night, I went out, suddenly I found the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) walking alone without being accompanied by anyone. Then I thought that he did not like if there were others walking with him. Then I walked under the moonlight, then he turned and saw me, then he asked: 'Who is this?' I answered, 'Abu Dharr, may Allah make me a ransom for you.' He said: 'O Abu Dharr, come here.' Then I walked with him for a while, then he said: 'Indeed people who like to hoard (wealth), later on the Day of Judgment they are people full of deficiencies. Except those who are given goodness by Allah -he then like giving to his right, left and forward and backward- then he manages it well.' After that, we walked for a while. Then he said: 'Sit here.' Then he placed me in a wide and flat place surrounded by rocks. Then he advised again: 'Sit here until I return to meet you.' Then he immediately went to the hurrah (land without sand) until I no longer saw him. After a long time, I heard him ask: 'Even if he has stolen and committed adultery?' Then when he returned impatiently I immediately asked, 'O Prophet of Allah, may Allah make me a ransom for you, who did you talk to beside the land without sand? I heard no one answering your question.' He answered: 'That is Gabriel, he met me beside the land without sand saying, 'Give glad tidings to your ummah, that whoever among them dies without associating Allah with anything, surely he will enter paradise.' Then I asked, 'O Gabriel, even if he has stolen and committed adultery?' he answered, 'Yes, even if he has stolen and committed adultery.' I asked again, 'Even if he has stolen and committed adultery?' he answered, 'Yes, even if he has stolen and committed adultery.' I asked again, 'Even if he has stolen and committed adultery?' he answered, 'Yes, even if he has stolen and drunk khmr.'

And Narrated to me by [Zuhair bin Harb] Has narrated to us [Isma'il bin Ibrahim] from [Al Jurairi] from [Abul Ala'] from [Al Ahnaf bin Qais] he said When I was in Madinah and in a group of Quraysh people, suddenly came [a man] dressed in coarse material, skin and his face also coarse. Then the man stood saying, 'Give glad tidings to people who hoard wealth (do not pay zakat), that they will be punished with stones heated in the fire of Jahannam. Then placed on the chest of one of them until the stone comes out from their shoulders. Then the stone is placed in the middle of his two shoulders until it comes out from his chest boiling.' (Hearing that) people bowed their heads. And I did not see anyone from them looking back at him. Then the man turned, then I followed until he sat in his group. Then I said to him, 'I do not see them, except hating what you have said.' He said, 'Indeed those people do not understand at all. Indeed my beloved Abu Al Qasim (peace be upon him) once called me, then I answered his call. Then he asked: 'Do you see Mount Uhud?' Then I saw the sun shining on me, and I thought he wanted to send me. Then I said, 'I see it.' He said: 'It does not please me if I have gold as big as Mount Uhud, then I spend it in the way of Allah, except what I leave for debt.' Then he said: 'The rich people will be poor on the Day of Judgment, except those who say like this and this (while signaling right, left, forward and backward). And they are few. No owner of property who does not pay its zakat, except his property will be made into a bald snake on the Day of Judgment, which will be placed around his neck. Then he recited: 'And let not those who withhold what Allah has given them of His bounty ever think that it is better for them. Rather, it is worse for them. Their necks will be encircled by what they withheld on the Day of Resurrection.' (Quran 3:180)' Then he said: 'No owner of camels who does not fulfill its right, except on the Day of Judgment he will be laid down in a flat place, then his camels will come in their fattest and largest form, trampling him with their hooves and biting him with their teeth. Every time the last one finishes, the first one returns. Thus until people are judged on a day whose length is fifty thousand years. Then he sees his way, whether to paradise or to hell. No owner of cows who does not fulfill its right, except on the Day of Judgment he will be laid down in a flat place, then his cows will come in their fattest and largest form, goring him with their horns and trampling him with their hooves. Every time the last one finishes, the first one returns. Thus until people are judged on a day whose length is fifty thousand years. Then he sees his way, whether to paradise or to hell. No owner of goats who does not fulfill its right, except on the Day of Judgment he will be laid down in a flat place, then his goats will come in their fattest and largest form, goring him with their horns and trampling him with their hooves. Among them there is none without horns or with broken horns. Every time the last one finishes, the first one returns. Thus until people are judged on a day whose length is fifty thousand years. Then he sees his way, whether to paradise or to hell.' Then it was asked to him, 'O Messenger of Allah, what about horses?' He said: 'Horses are three: horses that are a burden (sin), horses that are a cover, and horses that are a reward. As for horses that are a reward, it is a person who ties it in the way of Allah, then lengthens its rope in a meadow or garden. Then whatever it eats from that meadow or garden is written as good deeds for him as much as what it eats, and as much as its dung. If its rope breaks, then it runs up a hill or two, then its footprints and dung are written as good deeds for him. If it passes a river and drinks from it, while he did not intend to water it, then that is also written as good deeds for him as much as what it drinks. So the horse is a reward. As for horses that are a cover, it is a person who ties it for honor and as a show against the enemies of Allah and His Messenger, without forgetting its right on its back and stomach in hardship and ease. Then the horse is a cover. As for horses that are a burden, it is a person who ties it for arrogance, showing off and enmity against the people of Islam. Then the horse is a burden for him.' Then it was asked to him, 'O Messenger of Allah, what about donkeys?' He said: 'Nothing was revealed to me regarding donkeys except this comprehensive verse: 'So whoever does an atom's weight of good will see it, and whoever does an atom's weight of evil will see it.' Narrated to us by [Abul Ahwash Salam bin Sulaiman] Has narrated to us [Syaqiq] namely Ibn Salamah Abu Wail from [Amr bin Harith] the brother of Zainab the wife of Abdullah bin Mas'ud from [Zainab] the wife of Abdullah she said The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) entered our neighborhood and said: 'O women, give alms even if with your jewelry.' Zainab said Hearing the words of the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), then I went home to meet Abdullah -my husband- saying to him, 'You are a poor man. The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) ordered us women to give alms. Try to go to him and ask if it is permissible if I give alms to the family? If not I will divert it to others.' Abdullah answered, 'You should go to him.' Then I went. Then at the door of the house of the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) I found an Ansar woman who intended the same as me. As usual, people who want to meet the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) are always filled with awe. Coincidentally Bilal came out to meet us. We said to Bilal, 'Please convey to the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), that two women are standing at the door wanting to ask, 'Is it considered sufficient, if we both give alms to our respective husbands and to the orphans under our care? And never tell who we are.' Then Bilal entered asking the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), but he asked back: 'Who are the two women?' Bilal answered, 'An Ansar woman together with Zainab.' He asked, 'Which Zainab?' Bilal answered, 'Zainab the wife of Abdullah.' The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: 'Each of them gets two rewards. Namely the reward (connecting) relatives and the reward for alms.' Narrated to me by [Ahmad bin Yusuf Al Azdi] Has narrated to us [Umar bin Hafsh bin Ghiyath] Has narrated to us [his father] Has narrated to us [Al A'mash] has narrated to me [Shaqiq] from [Amr bin Harith] from [Zainab] the wife of Abdullah. He said then I mentioned it to [Ibrahim], then he narrated to me from [Abu Ubaidah] from [Amr bin Harith] from [Zainab] the wife of Abdullah with a similar hadith. Zainab said Once I was in the mosque, then the Prophet (peace be upon him) saw me and said: 'Give alms, even with your jewelry.' He then narrated the hadith as the hadith of Abul Ahwash.

WORKING IS BETTER THAN BEGGING

Hadith Imam Muslim Number 1728

حَدَّثَنِي أَبُو الطَّاهِرِ وَيُونُسُ بْنُ عَبْدِ الْأَعْلَى قَالَ حَدَّثَنَا ابْنُ وَهْبٍ أَخْبَرَنِي عَمْرُو بْنُ الْحَارِثِ عَنْ ابْنِ شَهَابٍ عَنْ أَبِي عُبَيْدٍ مَوْلَى عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ عَوْفٍ أَنَّهُ سَمِعَ أَبَا هُرَيْرَةَ يَقُولُ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَأَنْ يَحْتَزِمَ أَحَدُكُمْ حُزْمَةً مِنْ حَطَبٍ فَيَحْمِلَهَا عَلَى ظَهْرِهِ فَيَبِيعَهَا خَيْرٌ لَهُ مِنْ أَنْ يَسْأَلَ رَجُلًا يُعْطِيهِ أَوْ يَمْنَعُهُ

Narrated to me by [Abu Thahir] and [Yunus bin Abdul A'la], both said, narrated to us [Ibnu Wahb] informed me [Amru bin Harits] from [Ibnu Syihab] from [Abu Ubaid], the freed slave of Abdurrahman bin Auf, that he heard [Abu Hurairah] say The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: ""One of you tying a bundle of firewood, then carrying it on his back, then selling it is better for him than begging from someone, whether that person gives or refuses.""

Narrated to me by [Abdullah bin Abdurrahman Ad Darimi] and [Salamah bin Syabib] - Salamah said- narrated to us -while Ad Darimi said- informed us [Marwan bin Muhammad Ad Dimasyqi] narrated to us [Sa'id, who is the son of Abdul Aziz] from [Rabi'ah bin Yazid] from [Abu Idris Al Khaulani] from [Abu Muslim Al Khaulani] he said Narrated to me the Beloved (the one I love) and the Trustworthy (the one I trust) [Auf bin Malik Al Asyja'i] he said We were once near the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) for nine or eight or seven days. When we were about to part, he said: ""Will you not pledge allegiance to the Messenger of Allah?"" At that time, we had just pledged allegiance to him, so we replied, ""Indeed, we have pledged allegiance to you, O Messenger of Allah."" Then he asked again: ""Will you not pledge allegiance to the Messenger of Allah?"" We replied, ""Truly, we have pledged allegiance to you, O Messenger of Allah."" He repeated his question: ""Will you not pledge allegiance to the Messenger of Allah?"" So we extended our hands while saying, ""Indeed, we have pledged allegiance to you, so over what else should we pledge allegiance to you, O Messenger of Allah?"" He replied, ""That you will worship Allah and not associate anything with Him, establish the five daily prayers, be obedient,"" then he lowered his voice: ""and not ask anything from people."" Auf said I once saw some of them when his whip fell, but he did not ask anyone at all to pick it up for him.

Then I came to the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), asking for his help to pay it. He replied: ""Wait until people come delivering zakat, then I will order it to be given to you."" Then he continued his saying: ""O Qabishah, indeed begging is not permissible (not halal) except for three groups. (One) a person who bears a debt (gharim, to reconcile two people in dispute or the like). Then that person may beg until his debt is paid off. Once his debt is paid, he may no longer beg. (Two) a person struck by disaster, so his property is destroyed. That person may beg until he obtains a decent source of livelihood. (Three) a person afflicted by poverty, (witnessed or known by three trusted people that he is indeed poor). That person may beg until he obtains a decent source of livelihood. Other than these three groups, it is forbidden for him to beg, and forbidden for him to eat the results of begging.""

He said, ""You are the best residents of Basrah and you are their Qurra'. Therefore, recite and do not leave it for too long until your hearts harden like the hearts of those before you. When we read a long surah whose firmness resembles surah Bara'ah (surah Taubah) then I was made to forget, but I still remember a little of it, namely: 'If the descendants of Adam had property as much as two mountains, surely he would seek a third mountain, and nothing can fill the stomach of the descendants of Adam except soil.' At that time we also read a surah similar to one of the Al Musabbihaat (surahs beginning with sabbaha) then I was made to forget, but I still memorize a little of it, namely: 'O you who believe, why do you say (order) what you do not do.' Then a testimony will be written on you, and on the Day of Resurrection you will be asked about it.""

Narrated to us by [Yahya bin Yahya] informed us [Al Laits bin Sa'd] -in another chain- narrated to us [Qutaibah bin Sa'id] and both chains are the same in wording, he said Narrated to us [Laits] from [Sa'id bin Abu Sa'id Al Maqbury] from ['Iyadh bin Abdillah bin Sa'ad], that he heard [Abu Sa'id Al Khudhri] say: Once the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) stood and delivered a sermon in front of people. He said: No, by Allah, there is nothing I fear more befalling you than the pleasures of the world that Allah expands for you. A companion asked: O Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), can property obtained from a good path also bring evil? The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) was silent for a moment, then he said: What did you ask? He said: I repeated my question O Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), can property obtained from a good path also bring evil? He replied: Indeed, true goodness will only yield goodness, whatever that goodness is. Indeed, all plants that grow in spring will only kill the greedy animals that devour all kinds of plants or at least make them near death, except for animals that only eat vegetables. It eats, then when both sides of its stomach are full with food, it faces the sun to defecate and urinate, then it returns to chew food again and swallow it. So whoever takes property that is his right will be given blessing to him, and whoever takes property that is not his right is like an animal that always eats and never feels full.

Narrated to me by [Abu Thahir] informed us [Abdullah bin Wahb] he said, informed me [Malik bin Anas] from [Zaid bin Aslam] from [Atha' bin Yasar] from [Abu Sa'id Al Khudri] that the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: ""Something I fear most befalling you is something that Allah will bring out for you in the form of worldly beauty."" The companions asked, ""Then what is meant by worldly adornment, O Messenger of Allah?"" He replied: ""That is the blessings and prosperity of the earth."" They asked again, ""O Messenger of Allah, can goodness bring evil?"" He replied: ""Indeed, goodness will not bring except goodness and goodness will not bring except goodness, goodness will not bring except goodness. And every what grows in the rainy season, sometimes can kill or hurt. Except for the eater of vegetables who eats only until full, then faces the sun, then defecates or urinates, after that only then eats again. Indeed, worldly property appears green and sweet. Whoever obtains property in a halal way and spends it on the right path, then that is the best help. But whoever obtains it in a non-halal way, then he is like someone who eats but never feels full.""

Narrated to me by [Ali bin Hujr] informed us [Isma'il bin Ibrahim] from [Hisyam, his brother Dastawa`i] from [Yahya bin Abu Katsir] from [Hilal bin Abu Maimunah] from [Atha` bin Yasar] from [Abu Sa'id Al Khudri] he said Once the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) sat on the pulpit, while we sat around him. Then he said: ""What I fear for you all after I am gone is Allah's favor upon you in the form of worldly property adornment."" Then a man asked, ""Is it possible that something good brings evil, O Messenger of Allah?"" Hearing that question, the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) was silent. Then it was said to the questioning companion, ""What do you think, you asked the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), but he did not answer your question?"" The man replied, ""I thought, perhaps revelation was being sent down to him."" After regaining consciousness, he wiped his sweat, then said: ""Indeed, this questioner (is a smart questioner)"" -he said it with an attitude like praising-. Then he said: ""Indeed, goodness will not bring evil. But what is grown in the rainy season, sometimes can kill or hurt. Except for the eater of vegetables who eats only until full, then he faces the sun, then defecates or urinates, after that only then eats again. Indeed, worldly property appears green and sweet. But the best property of a Muslim is what he gives in charity to the poor or to orphans or to travelers (someone on a journey)."" Or as said by the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), ""Whoever obtains property not halal, then he is like someone who eats but never feels full (satisfied). And that property will be a witness to his greed on the Day of Resurrection.""

Narrated to us by [Qutaibah bin Sa'id] from [Malik bin Anas] -as read to him- from [Ibnu Syihab] from ['Atha' bin Yazid Al Laitsi] from [Abu Sa'id Al Khudri] said Some people from the Ansar often begged for charity from the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) and they were always given. Until one time the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) ran out of what they asked for. Then he said: ""As long as something good is still with me, I will never hide it from you. But whoever maintains chastity (preserves himself from begging) then Allah will preserve him too. And whoever feels sufficient with what there is, Allah will suffice him too. And whoever is patient, Allah will add to his patience. There is no gift given to someone that is better and more relieving to the heart than patience."" Narrated to us by [Abdu bin Humaid] informed us [Abdurrazaq] informed us [Ma'mar] from [Az Zuhri] with this chain, similar to it.

Narrated to us by [Al Hasan bin Ali Al Hulwani] and [Abdu bin Humaid] both said, Narrated to us by [Ya'qub bin Ibrahim bin Sa'd] Narrated to us by [my father] from [Shalih] from [Ibnu Syihab] it was informed to me by [Amir bin Sa'd] from [his father] Sa'd, he said The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) distributed charity to a group of people, and I sat among them witnessing it. Sa'd said The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) left out a man, he did not give him anything. Whereas he was one of the most admired by me among them. Then I approached the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) and said, 'O Messenger of Allah, why did you not give charity to so-and-so? By Allah, to my knowledge, he is a believer.' So the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) asked back: 'Or is he a Muslim?' I did not understand his intent, so I asked again, 'O Messenger of Allah, why did you not give charity to so-and-so? By Allah, to my knowledge, he is a believer.' The Prophet (peace be upon him) asked again: 'Or is he a Muslim?' So I paused for a moment, then I became more curious and finally asked, 'O Messenger of Allah, why did you not give to so-and-so, by Allah, to my knowledge, he is a believer.' The Prophet (peace be upon him) asked again: 'Or is he a Muslim?' Then he continued his words: 'Indeed, I give to someone, while another is actually more beloved to me. I do so because I fear that the face I give to will be turned upside down by Allah into Hell.' In the hadith of Al Hulwani, the repetition is twice. Narrated to us by [Ibnu Abu Umar] Narrated to us by [Sufyan] -in another chain- And Narrated to me by [Zuhair bin Harb] Narrated to us by [Ya'qub bin Ibrahim bin Sa'd] Narrated to us by [Nephew of Ibnu Syihab] -in another chain- And Narrated to us by [Ishaq bin Ibrahim] and [Abdu bin Humaid] he said, it was informed to us by [Abdurrazaq] it was informed to us by [Ma'mar] all from [Az Zuhri] with this chain and similar to the hadith of Shalih from Zuhri. Narrated to us by [Al Hasan bin Ali Al Hulwani] Narrated to us by [Ya'qub bin Ibrahim bin Sa'd] Narrated to us by [my father] from [Shalih] from [Isma'il bin Muhammad bin Sa'd] he said, I heard [Muhammad bin Sa'd] narrate this hadith, namely the hadith of Az Zuhri that we have mentioned. Then he said in his hadith So the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) patted between my shoulders and neck then said: 'Is it because of war, O Sa'ad? I will indeed give to that man.'

Narrated to me by [Harmalah bin Yahya At Tujibi] it was informed to us by [Abdullah bin Wahb] it was informed to me by [Yunus] from [Ibnu Syihab] it was informed to me by [Anas bin Malik] he said During the Battle of Hunain, Allah gave spoils of war to the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) from the wealth of the Hawazin tribe. Then he distributed it to the Quraysh in the form of one hundred camels. Because of that, some Ansar people said, 'May Allah forgive the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) who has given to the Quraysh while we are left alone by him, even though our war is still wet with the enemy's blood.' Anas said Then their words reached the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), so he ordered the Ansar to gather in a leather tent. After they gathered, the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) came to them and asked: 'Is the news that came to me about your words true?' The smartest among the Ansar answered, 'We never said that, O Messenger of Allah! But our young men said, 'May Allah forgive the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) who has given to the Quraysh, while we are left alone. Even though our swords are still wet with the enemy's blood.' So the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: 'Actually, I only give to people who have recently entered Islam, just to soften their hearts. Are you not willing if they go with worldly possessions, while you return to your homes with the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him)? By Allah, indeed what you bring home is more meaningful than what they bring.' They answered, 'Yes, O Messenger of Allah! We are willing, O Messenger of Allah.' Then he said again: 'You all will find people who are very self-centered so be patient until you meet Allah and His Messenger. I will wait for you at the pond (on the Day of Judgment).' They answered, 'We will be patient, O Messenger of Allah.' Narrated to us by [Hasan Al Hulwani] and [Abdu Humaid] both said, Narrated to us by [Ya'qub bin Ibrahim bin Sa'd] Narrated to us by [my father] from [Shalih] from [Ibnu Syihab] Narrated to me by [Anas bin Malik] that he said 'When Allah gave spoils of war to the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) from the wealth of Hawazin.' He then narrated a similar hadith. Except he said Anas said, 'We can no longer be patient.' He also said 'As for the young children.' And Narrated to me by [Zuhair bin Harb] Narrated to us by [Ya'qub bin Ibrahim] Narrated to us by [Nephew of Ibnu Syihab] from [his uncle] he said it was informed to me by [Anas bin Malik], he then narrated a similar hadith, except he said Anas said 'We will be patient.' Namely as the narration of Yunus from Zuhri.

Narrated to us by [Muhammad bin Al Mutsanna] and [Muhammad bin Basysyar] - [Ibnul Mutsanna] said- Narrated to us by [Muhammad bin Ja'far] it was informed to us by [Syu'bah] he said, I heard [Qatadah] from [Anas bin Malik] he said The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) gathered the Ansar people, then he said: 'Is there anyone else who joined the gathering with you?' They answered, 'No, except our daughters.' So the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: 'A niece of a people is part of that people itself.' Then he continued his words: 'Indeed, the Quraysh have just come out of the Jahiliyyah period and calamity. Therefore, I intend to console and bind their hearts. Are you not willing for them to return with worldly possessions, while you return together with the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him)? If they pass through a valley, and the Ansar pass through another hill, surely I will follow the hill path taken by the Ansar.'

Narrated to us by [Syu'bah] from [Abu Tayyah] he said I heard [Anas bin Malik] say When Mecca was conquered, the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) distributed spoils of war to the Quraysh people. So the Ansar people said, 'This is truly astonishing. Our swords are still wet with the enemy's blood, but our spoils are given to them (the Quraysh).' Then that expression reached the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), finally he gathered them. He asked: 'Is the news that reached me about your words true?' They answered: 'What they conveyed is true, O Messenger of Allah! They did not lie.' So the Prophet (peace be upon him) said: 'Are you not willing if they return carrying worldly possessions, while all of you return to your homes with the Messenger of Allah? If people walk in a valley and hill, while the Ansar pass through another valley and hill, surely I will follow the valley and hill traversed by the Ansar.'

Narrated to us by [Muhammad bin Al Mutsanna] and [Ibrahim bin Muhammad bin 'Ar'arah] -one of them added letter by letter to the other- both said, Narrated to us by [Mu'adz bin Mu'adz] Narrated to us by [Ibnu 'Aun] from [Hisyam bin Zaid bin Anas] from [Anas bin Malik] he said At the time of the Battle of Hunain, the Hawazin tribe, Ghathafan and others faced the Muslims by inviting their descendants and bringing their livestock (as provisions). While on the side of the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) there were ten thousand troops along with the Thulaqa` (people who newly embraced Islam during the Conquest of Mecca). They then left the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), until he stood alone. Anas said Then at that time, he called twice without interspersed with other words, he turned to the right and called: 'O Ansar people!' They answered, 'Here we are, O Messenger of Allah, do not worry, we are with you.' Then he turned to the left and called: 'O Ansar people?' They answered: 'Here we are, O Messenger of Allah! Do not worry, we are with you.' Anas said At that time he was riding a white horse, then dismounted and said: 'I am the servant of Allah and His Messenger.' Finally, the polytheists surrendered. The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) obtained a lot of spoils, then he gave to the Muhajirin and the Thaulaqa` without giving anything to the Ansar. So the Ansar said, 'In critical times we are called, while the spoils of war are given to others besides us.' Then that word was heard by the Prophet (peace be upon him), so he gathered them in a tent and asked: 'O Ansar, is your word that reached me true?' They were silent, then the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: 'O Ansar! Are you not willing, people return carrying possessions while you return carrying Muhammad (peace be upon him) who will associate with you to your homes?' They answered, 'Of course, O Messenger of Allah, we are willing.' Anas said Then he said: 'If people take a valley, then the Ansar take a path, surely I will follow the path of the Ansar.' Hisyam said I asked, 'O Abu Hamzah, did you witness that event?' Abu Hamzah answered, 'Then, where did I disappear to.' Narrated to us by [Ubaidullah bin Mu'adz] and [Hamid bin Umar] and [Muhammad bin Abdul A'la] [Ibnu Mu'adz] said Narrated to us by [Al Mu'tamir bin Sulaiman] from [his father] he said, Narrated to me by [As Sumaith] from [Anas bin Malik] he said We conquered the city of Mecca, after that we fought Hunain, then the polytheists came with well-organized ranks. The cavalry lined up in front, after that the war troops, and behind them the women's ranks then the goats and their possessions. While our number at that time was many, even reaching six thousand people. The right wing command was Khalid bin Walid. Then our cavalry circled behind our backs, and soon the cavalry was exposed and the Arabs fled along with the people we knew. So the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) called: 'O Muhajirin.. O Muhajirin..' then he called again: 'O Ansar.. O Ansar.' Anas said This is the 'Immiyyah hadith. We said, 'Here we are, O Messenger of Allah.' Then the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) advanced. By Allah, we did not approach them until Allah defeated them. And finally we took the wealth, then departed to Tha'if and besieged them for forty nights then returned to Mecca and stayed there. Then the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) gave one hundred camels to one person. -Then he mentioned the rest of the hadith as the hadith of Qatadah and Abu At Tayyah and Hisyam bin Zaid.-

حَدِيثُهُ

Narrated to us by [Muhammad bin Abu Umar Al Makki] Narrated to us by [Sufyan] from [Umar bin Sa'id bin Masruq] from [his father] from [Abayah bin Rifa'ah] from [Rafi' bin Khadij] he said The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) once distributed spoils to Abu Sufyan bin Harb, Sufyan bin Umayyah, 'Uyainah bin Hishn and Al Aqra' bin Habis. He gave one hundred camels to each of them, but he gave 'Abbas bin Mirdas fewer than one hundred camels. So Abbas bin Mirdas recited a poem: 'Why do you place my horse and 'Ubaid's horse between 'Uyainah and Al Aqra'? While Badr and Habis are not higher than Mirdas in collecting (spoils). And I am not someone under either of them. So whoever you humiliate today, surely he will never be lifted.' So the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) gave him exactly one hundred camels. And Narrated to us by [Ahmad bin Abdah Adl Dlabbi] it was informed to us by [Ibnu Uyainah] from [Amru bin Sa'id bin Masruq] with this chain. That the Prophet (peace be upon him) distributed the spoils of the Battle of Hunain, then he gave one hundred camels to Abu Sufyan bin Harb. Then he mentioned this hadith, and he added He gave one hundred camels to Alqamah bin 'Ulatsah. And Narrated to us by [Makhlad bin Khalid Asy Sya'iri] Narrated to us by [Sufyan] Narrated to me by [Umar bin Sa'id] with this chain. But, he did not mention Alqamah bin Ulatsah nor Sufyan bin

Umayyah, likewise the poem.

Narrated to us by [Syuraij bin Yunus] Narrated to us by [Isma'il bin Ja'far] from [Amru bin Yahya bin Umarah] from [Abbad bin Tamim] from [Abdullah bin Zaid] that when the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) conquered Hunain, he distributed the spoils, then he gave it to the Muallaf. Then news reached him that the Ansar also wanted to get a share as generally obtained by people. So the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) stood and delivered a sermon to them. He praised Allah and read praise upon Him, then he said: 'O Ansar, did I not find you in a state of misguidance then Allah gave guidance to you through me? Were you not in a poor state then Allah sufficed you through me? And were you not in a divided state then Allah united you through me?' So they said, 'Allah and His Messenger are more reassuring.' Then he said again: 'Do you not love me?' They said, 'Allah and His Messenger are more reassuring (our hearts).' He said again: 'Indeed, if you want to say this and that.' Amru guessed that he did not memorize it. Then he said again: 'Are you not pleased, if people go carrying goats and camels while you return with the Messenger of Allah to your homes? The Ansar are shi'ar (inner garment) while the general people are ditsar (outer garment). If not for the Hijrah, surely I would be among the Ansar. And if people take a valley and hill path, surely I will pass through the valley and hill path taken by the Ansar. Indeed, after me, you will find atharah (preference), so be patient until you meet me at my pond (Al Haudh).'

He gave Al Aqra' bin Habis one hundred camels, and gave Uyainah the same amount. Then he distributed to the Arab leaders and increased their shares. So a man said, 'By Allah, this is a distribution that is not fair and does not seek the face of Allah.' So I said, 'By Allah, I will surely convey it to the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him).' Then I immediately went to him and informed what the person said, so his face changed until like red dye. After that, he said: 'If so, then who else will be fair, if Allah and His Messenger (are said) not to be fair?' Then he said again: 'May Allah have mercy on Moses, indeed, he was hurt more than this then he was patient.' I said 'There is no sin, if after that I no longer report something (that makes him) angry.'

Narrated to us by [Muhammad bin Rumh Al Muhajir] it was informed to us by [Laits] from [Yahya bin Sa'id] from [Abu Zubair] from [Jabir bin Abdullah] he said A man came to the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) while he was in Ji'ranah upon returning from Hunain. While on Bilal's cloth there was silver, and the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) took from it and gave it to people. Then the man said, 'O Muhammad, be fair.' He said: 'Woe to you, if so, who will be fair if I am no longer fair. Indeed, you have perished if I am not fair.' Then Umar bin Al Khaththab (may Allah be pleased with him) said, 'O Messenger of Allah, allow me to kill this hypocrite.' He said: 'I seek refuge in Allah, if people say that I kill my companions. Indeed, this person and his companions always read the Quran but it does not pass their throats. They exit from it (Islam) as an arrow shoots from its bow.' Narrated to us by [Muhammad bin Al Mutsanna] Narrated to us by [Abdul Wahhab Ats Tsaqafi] he said I heard [Yahya bin Sa'id] say, it was informed to me by [Abu Zubair] that he heard [Jabir bin Abdullah] -in another chain- And Narrated to us by [Abu Bakar bin Abu Syaibah] Narrated to us by [Zaid bin Al Hubab] Narrated to me by [Qurrah bin Khalid] Narrated to me by [Abu Zubair] from [Jabir bin Abdullah] that 'The Prophet (peace be upon him) distributed spoils.' So he mentioned the hadith.

Narrated to us by [Hannad bin As Sari] Narrated to us by [Abul Ahwash] from [Sa'id bin Masruq] from [Abdurrahman bin Abu Nu'm] from [Abu Sa'id Al Khudri] he said When Ali bin Abi Thalib was in Yemen, he once sent gold that was still dirty to the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him). Then the gold was distributed by the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) to four groups. Namely to Aqra' bin Habis Al Hanzhali, Uyainah bin Badar Al Fazari, Alqamah bin Ulatsah Al Amiri, including Bani Kilab and Zaid Al Khair Ath Thay and one of Bani Nabhan. Abu Sa'id said The Quraysh people were angry with that distribution. They said, 'Why are the leaders of Najd given distribution by the Messenger of Allah, and we are not given?' So the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) answered: 'Indeed, I do that, to persuade their hearts.' Meanwhile, a man with a thick beard, prominent temples, sunken eyes, protruding forehead and shaved head came. He said, 'O Muhammad! Fear Allah!' The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: 'Who else will obey Allah, if I myself have disobeyed Him? Allah gives me peace over all the inhabitants of the earth, so do you not want to give me peace?' Abu Sa'id said After the man left, a companion (Khalid bin Al Walid) asked permission from the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) to kill the man. So the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: 'From the group of this person, there will emerge people who are skilled in reading the Quran but it does not pass their throats, they even kill Muslims, and leave the idol worshipers they exit from Islam like an arrow shooting from its bow. If I still find them, I will destroy them like the destruction of the 'Ad people.'

Narrated to us by [Qutaibah bin Sa'id] Narrated to us by [Abdul Wahid] from [Umarah bin Al Qa'qa'] Narrated to us by [Abdurrahman bin Abu Nu'm] he said, I heard [Abu Sa'id Al Khudri] say Ali bin Abu Thalib once sent gold -placed in a dirty bag- to the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) from Yemen. Then the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) distributed it to four people, namely Uyainah bin Hisn, Al Aqra bin Habis, and Zaid Al Khalil. While the fourth is between Alqamah bin Ulatsah or Amir bin Ath Thufail. So there was a companion who said that we are more entitled to this gift than them. Then this event reached the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), so he said: 'Why do you not trust me? Whereas I am the trust of the inhabitant of the sky, and I always get news from the sky every time.' Abu Sa'id said Then a man with sunken eyes whose upper cheeks protrude, thick beard, short hair and his clothes rolled up said, 'O Messenger of Allah, fear Allah!' So he answered: 'Woe to you! Am I not the inhabitant of the earth who most fears Allah?' Then the man turned away, so Khalid bin Al Walid said, 'O Messenger of Allah, allow me to behead him.' He said: 'No, perhaps he also prays.' Khalid said, 'Many people pray, only their tongues speak but their hearts do not.' The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: 'Indeed, I am not commanded to hurt people's hearts, nor to tear their stomachs.' Abu Sa'id said Then he looked at him, and when he came, he said: 'Indeed, from the group of this person will emerge people whose mouths always read the Book of Allah, but it does not pass their throats. They exit from the religion of Allah as an arrow shoots from its bow.' Abu Sa'id said 'If you meet those people, indeed I will destroy them, as the destruction of the Thamud people.' Narrated to us by [Utsman bin Abu Syaibah] Narrated to us by [Jarir] from [Umarah bin Al Qa'qa'] with this chain. He said And Alqamah bin Ulatsah. And he did not mention Amir bin Ath Thufail. And he mentioned 'NAATI`UL JABHAH' but he did not mention, 'NAASYIZ'. Then he also added: 'Then Umar bin Al Khaththab moved and said, 'O Messenger of Allah, should I behead him?' The Prophet answered: 'No.' Then he retreated back. Then Khalid bin Al Walid the sword of Allah stood and said, 'O Messenger of Allah, should I behead him?' He answered: 'No. From the descendants of this person will emerge a people, they are skilled in reading the Book of Allah..' Umarah said (Khalid) said, 'If I meet them, surely I will kill them as the killing of the Thamud people.' And Narrated to us by [Ibnu Numair] Narrated to us by [Ibnu Fudlail] from [Umarah bin Al Qa'qa'] with this chain, and he said Among the four people, namely Zaid Al Khalil, Al Aqra bin Habis, Uyainah bin Hisn and Alqamah bin Ulatsah or Amir bin Ath Thufail. Then he also mentioned 'NAATI`UL JABHAH' as the narration of Abdul Wahid. He also mentioned 'Indeed, there will exit from the descendants of this person, a people...' but he did not mention 'If I find them, surely I will kill them as the killing of the Thamud people.'

And Narrated to us by [Muhammad bin Al Mutsanna] Narrated to us by [Abdul Wahhab] he said, I heard [Yahya bin Sa'id] say, it was informed to me by [Muhammad bin Ibrahim] from [Abu Salamah] and [Atha` bin Yasar] that both approached [Abu Sa'id Al Khudri] and asked about Al Haruriyyah, 'Did you ever hear the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) mention it?' Abu Sa'id answered, 'I do not know, who exactly Al Haruriyyah is. But, I have heard the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) say: 'There will exit from this ummah - and he did not say- from it a people, who will belittle your prayers. Then they read the Quran, but it does not pass their throats. They exit from Islam, as an arrow shoots from its bow, until the archer sees the tip of the arrow, whether it spurts blood.'

The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: 'Woe to you, who else will be fair if not fair. Indeed, I have lost if I am not fair.' So Umar bin Al Khatthab (may Allah be pleased with him) said, 'O Messenger of Allah, allow me to cut his neck.' The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: 'Leave him, indeed he has companions where one of you will view his prayer as insignificant compared to their prayer, fasting to their fasting. They are skilled in reading the Quran but it does not pass their throats. And they exit from Islam as an arrow shoots from its bow. When its tip is seen there is nothing on it, then its base is seen, also no blood trace. Their sign is, someone who one of the two.. black like a woman's nipple. Or moving like lacking meat, so a group of people exit.' Abu Sa'id said 'I testify that I have heard this hadith from the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him). And I also testify, that Ali bin Abu Thalib (may Allah be pleased with him) who fought them, and I was also with him. So Ali ordered to search for the man. Then the man was captured and presented to him until I saw him as the characteristics mentioned by the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him).'

They exit from a group of humans. Their characteristic is shaved heads. He said: 'They are the worst creatures -or from the worst creatures- who will kill them is one of two groups closest to the truth.' So the Prophet (peace be upon him) gave a parable for them -or he expressed-: 'A man releases a shot -or- Al Gharadl (target) then he sees the tip of his arrow, but he does not see anything, and he sees the base of his arrow does not see anything. Then he sees Al Fuq (bow string place), also does not see anything.' Abu Sa'id said, 'And you are the ones who kill them, O people of Iraq.'

And if I narrate something between me and you, that is because war is deception. I have heard the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) say: 'At the end of time, there will appear a people who are young in age and their minds are still foolish. They say something good (but for evil purposes). They also read the Quran, but it does not pass the throat limit. They exit from the religion of Islam as an arrow shoots from its bow. Narrated to us by [Abdu bin Humaid] Narrated to us by [Abdurrazzaq bin Hammam] Narrated to us by [Abdul Malik bin Abu Sulaiman] Narrated to us by [Salamah bin Kuhail] Narrated to us by [Zaid bin Harb Al Juhani] that He once joined a troop with [Ali] (may Allah be pleased with him) who was heading towards the Khawarij people. Then Ali (may Allah be pleased with him) said Indeed, I have heard the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) say: 'There will appear a people from my ummah who are skilled in reading the Quran. Where, your reading is nothing compared to their reading. Likewise your prayer compared to their prayer. Also their fasting compared to your fasting. They read the Quran and they think that the Quran is (proof) for them, but it turns out the Quran is (disaster) upon them. Their prayer does not pass the throat limit. They exit from Islam as an arrow shoots from its bow. If the troops fighting them know the reward that has been set for them upon the tongue of the Prophet (peace be upon him), surely they will stop doing deeds. Their sign is that among them there is a man who has an arm without a hand and on it there is a seed like a milk nipple and also white hairs.' Go to Mu'awiyah and the people of Sham and you leave them. Because, they will come to families and your possessions. By Allah, I really hope that they are the people meant by the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), because they have shed forbidden blood and deceived people. So, depart in the name of Allah. Salamah bin Kuhail said So Zaid bin Wahb continued to narrate it to me event by event until he said We passed a bridge. While at that time the Khawarij were led by Abdullah bin Wahb, so when we met, he said to them, 'Throw spears and draw your swords from their sheaths, because I fear they will seek you as on the Day of Harura.' Finally they returned by throwing spears and drawing their swords. And people blocked them also with spears so that some of them were killed upon others, but none were killed except two people. Ali bin Abu Thalib said, 'Search for a short one among them.' Then they searched for him, but did not find him. So Ali (may Allah be pleased with him) tried to search himself until he found people some of whom had been killed upon others. Ali said, 'Postpone them.' Finally Al Mukhdaj (a short man) was found behind a pile of soil. Ali's companions said takbir then said, 'Allah is the Greatest, and His Messenger has conveyed.' Then Ubaid As Salmani approached him and said, 'O Commander of the Faithful, by Allah Who there is no god worthy of worship except Him, did you really hear that hadith from the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him)?' Ali answered, 'Yes, By the One Who there is no god worthy of worship except Him.' Ubaid As Salmani asked him to swear up to four times.

قَالَ رَأَيْتُ ذَلِكَ الْأَسْوَدَ

Narrated to me by [Abu Thahir] and [Yunus bin Abdul A'la] both said, it was informed to us by [Abdullah bin Wahb] it was informed to me by [Amru bin Harits] from [Bukair bin Al Asyaj] from [Busru bin Sa'id] from [Ubaidullah bin Abu Rafi'] the freed slave of the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) that When the Haruriyah people exited -and at that time he was with [Ali bin Abu Thalib] - they said, 'There is no law, except belonging to Allah.' So Ali said, 'That is a true sentence, but intended for falsehood. Indeed, the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) has described a group of humans, and I really know that the trait is in them. They say truth with their tongues, but their words do not pass this (he signaled to his throat). The most hated creature by Allah among them is a man whose one hand is black like a goat's nipple.' So when Ali fought them, he said, 'Look.' They looked at it, but did not get anything. Ali said again, 'Return (look at it), by Allah, I do not lie nor am deceived.' He said it up to two or three times. And finally they got it in the ruins. Then they approached it then placed it before Ali. Ubaidullah said And at that time, I was also present, and also heard Ali's expression. Then Yunus added in his narration Bukair said, And Narrated to me by a man from Ibnu Hunain that he said 'I saw that black sign.'

Narrated to me by [Abdullah bin Muhammad bin Asma Adl Dluba'i] Narrated to us by [Juwairiyah] from [Malik] from [Az Zuhri] that [Abdullah bin Naufal bin Al Harits bin Abdul Muthalib] narrated to him that [Abdul Muthalib bin Rabi'ah bin Al Harits] narrated to him, he said Rabi'ah bin Al Harits and Al Abbas bin Abdul Muthalib, so both said, 'By Allah, we should send these two children (said Abdul Muthalib bin Rabi'ah. The two children are me and Al Fadl bin Abbas) to the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), so that both request him to be ordered to collect zakat. Then both carry out their duties as others do, and obtain what others obtain.' While they were still conversing, suddenly Ali bin Abu Thalib came and stopped near both. Then both narrated it to Ali bin Abi Thalib. So Ali said, 'Do not do that, by Allah he will not allow that.' Then Rabi'ah bin Al Harits turned away from Ali and said, 'By Allah, you do not do this (prohibition), except you feel competitive with us. By Allah, we do not compete with you, because you have been taken as a son-in-law by the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him).' Ali said, 'Go ahead and send the two children.' So the two children went, while Ali lay down. Abdul Muthalib bin Rabi'ah said When the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) prayed Dhuhr, we preceded him to the room, then we stood behind that room, until he came, then he invited us to enter, then said: 'Express whatever you desire in your hearts.' Then he entered, we also entered, at that time, he was at Zainab binti Jahsy's place. So we were silent, then one of us said, 'O Messenger of Allah, you are the best and most approachable person. We are of marriageable age, we came so that you assign us to collect some zakat, then we carry it out and we get a share like others.' Abdul Muthalib bin Rabi'ah said Then the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) was silent for a long time, so that we wanted to speak to him. And suddenly Zainab appeared among us from behind the curtain, (saying), 'Do not both of you speak to him.' After that, the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: 'Indeed, zakat is not permitted for the family of Muhammad, because zakat is the filth of people, call Mahmiyyah (managing one-fifth of war spoils) and Naufal bin Al Harits bin Abdul Muthalib!' Abdul Muthalib bin Rabi'ah said Then both came to the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), and he said to both: 'Marry your daughter to this man (meaning Fadl bin Abbas).' So Mahmiyah married her. Then he said to Naufal bin

Harits, 'Marry your daughter to this boy (meaning Abdul Muthalib bin Rabi'ah).' So Naufal married me. He said to Mahmiyah: 'Give some of the share of one-fifth of war spoils to these two boys so much and so much.' [Az Zuhri] said 'He did not mention it.' Narrated to us by [Harun bin Ma'ruf] Narrated to us by [Ibnu Wahb] it was informed to me by [Yunus bin Yazid] from [Ibnu Syihab] from [Abdullah bin Harits bin Naufal Al Hasyimi] that [Abdul Muthalib bin Rabi'ah bin Al Harits bin Abdul Muthalib] informed him that his father Rabi'ah bin Al Harits bin Abdul Muthalib and Al Abbas bin Abdul Muthalib said to Abdul Muthalib bin Rabi'ah and also to Al Fadl bin Abbas, 'Go to the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him)...' and he mentioned the hadith as the hadith of Malik. And in it he also said

Kuraib said I came to Syria and delivered her needs to him. At that time, I saw the crescent moon of the beginning of Ramadan while still in Syria, I saw it on Friday night. Then I arrived in Madinah at the end of the month. Then [Abdullah bin Abbas] asked me about the crescent moon, he asked, 'When did you see it?' I answered, 'We saw it on Friday night.' He asked again, 'Did you see it?' I answered, 'Yes, people also saw it so they started fasting, as did Mu'awiyah.' Ibn Abbas said, 'But we saw it on Saturday night. And we are still fasting to complete it to thirty days or until we see the crescent moon.' I then asked, 'Isn't it enough for you to follow Mu'awiyah's sighting and his fasting?' He answered, 'No, this is how the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him commanded us.' In the wording 'NAKTAFI' (isn't it enough for us?) or 'TAKTAFI' (isn't it enough for you?), Yahya bin Yahya was somewhat doubtful.

Narrated to us by [Zuhair bin Harb], narrated to us by [Isma'il bin Ibrahim] from [Sulaiman At Taimi] from [Abu Utsman] from [Ibnu Mas'ud] may Allah be pleased with him, who said The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said: 'Do not be prevented from sahur meal by Bilal's adhan for he calls -or- calls the adhan in the middle of the night, so that those performing qiyamullail return soon and those still sleeping wake up soon.' And he said: 'And he does not say like this and this.' He lowered his hand and raised it until he said like this. - he spread his fingers.- And Narrated to us by [Ibnu Numair], narrated to us by [Abu Khalid] namely Al Ahmar, from [Sulaiman At Taimi] with this chain, but mentioned 'Indeed, the time of dawn is when he does not say like this.' He joined his fingers then turned them to the ground. He continued: 'But (the time of dawn is) when he says like this.' He placed his index finger on the index finger and extended both hands. And Narrated to us by [Abu Bakar bin Abu Syaibah], narrated to us by [Mu'tamir bin Sulaiman] -In another narration- And Narrated to us by [Ishaq bin Ibrahim], narrated to us by [Jarir] and [Al Mu'tamir bin Sulaiman] both from [Sulaiman At Taimi] with this chain. And the hadith of Al Mu'tamir stops at his saying: 'To wake those still sleeping among you and so that those performing qiyamullail return (to prepare for dawn).' And Ishaq said Jarir said in his hadith regarding his saying: '(The time of dawn) is not when Bilal says like this, but when he says like this.' Meaning the time of dawn is Al Mu'taridl (the spreading dawn light) and not Al Mustathil (when the dawn light is still elongated).

Then I came and stood beside him. Then another companion came and stood, until finally we became a group. When the Prophet peace be upon him felt that we were praying behind him, he shortened his prayer, then entered his house, and there he prayed alone. Anas said In the morning we asked him, 'Do you know what we did last night?' He answered: 'Yes, I know. That is what caused me to enter the house and there pray alone.' Anas said Some days at the end of the month of Ramadan, the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him did wishal fasting. Therefore, some companions did it, then he said: 'Why do these people follow wishal fasting? Indeed, you are not like me. By Allah, if this month becomes longer, I will continue wishal fasting so that those who burden themselves (with wishal fasting) will be overwhelmed themselves.'

In his narration he said, 'Whoever is in a state of janabah at dawn, let him not fast.' Then I conveyed that to Abdurrahman bin Al Harits and he denied it. Then he immediately went and I followed him to meet [Aisyah] and [Ummu Salamah] may Allah be pleased with them both. Then Abdurrahman asked them about it, and both answered, 'One morning, the Prophet peace be upon him was in a state of janabah not due to a dream, then after that he still fasted.' After that, we met Marwan, and Abdurrahman also narrated it to him. Then Marwan said, 'I will do something to you, unless you immediately meet Abu Hurairah and refute what he said.' Finally, we immediately met Abu Hurairah while Abu Bakar was also present with him. Abdurrahman then narrated the matter. Then Abu Hurairah asked, 'Did they both indeed say that to you?' Abdurrahman answered: 'Yes.' Abu Hurairah said, 'They both know better.' Then Abu Hurairah retracted the statement he had made to [Al Fadll bin Al Abbas], he said, 'I heard it from Al Fadll, indeed I did not hear it directly from the Prophet peace be upon him.' Finally, Abdurrahman withdrew his opinion on the matter. Then I asked Abdul Malik, 'Did they both say: "In the month of Ramadan?"' He answered, 'That is so. One morning, the Prophet peace be upon him was in a state of janabah not due to a dream, then after that he still fasted.'

The man answered, 'I had intercourse with my wife (during the day in Ramadan).' He said: 'Give charity.' He said, 'By Allah, O Prophet of Allah, I have nothing and I am unable to fulfill it.' Then the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said: 'Then sit.' In that condition, suddenly a man came leading a donkey carrying food, then the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him stood up and asked: 'Where is the man who (said) he was ruined earlier?' Then he said: 'Give this in charity.' Then the man said, 'O Messenger of Allah, must (I give it) to someone else? By Allah, we are truly in a state of hunger, we have no food at all.' Finally, he said: 'Then eat it (with your family).'

Narrated to us by [Yahya bin Yahya] and [Muhammad bin Rumh] both said, informed us [Laits] -in another chain- And Narrated to us by [Qutaibah bin Sa'id], narrated to us [Laits] from [Ibnu Syihab] from [Ubaidullah bin Abdullah bin Utbah] from [Ibnu Abbas] may Allah be pleased with them both, that he informed him, that The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him went out in the year of the liberation of Mecca in the month of Ramadan, and he fasted until he reached Kadid, then he broke his fast. Ibn Abbas said And the companions of the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him followed all his actions at that time. Narrated to us by [Yahya bin Yahya] and [Abu Bakar bin Abu Syaibah] and [Amru An Naqid] and [Ishaq bin Ibrahim] from [Sufyan] from [Az Zuhri] with this chain similarly. [Yahya] said, [Sufyan] said 'I do not know who that man was.' That phrase was taken from the end of the saying of the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him. Narrated to me by [Muhammad bin Rafi'], narrated to us by [Abdurrazaq], informed us [Ma'mar] from [Az Zuhri] with this chain. Az Zuhri said breaking the fast is the last of the two matters. And it was taken from the matter of the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him, namely from the last in sequence. Az Zuhri said, 'Then the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him stayed in Mecca for thirteen days, until the month of Ramadan passed.' And Narrated to me by [Harmalah bin Yahya], informed us [Ibnu Wahb], informed me [Yunus] from [Ibnu Syihab] with this chain, as in the hadith of Laits. Ibnu Syihab said 'The companions followed all his actions. And according to them, it was an nasikh al muhkam.'

Narrated to me by Abu Tahir, he said, I heard Abdullah bin Wahb narrate from Yunus from Ibn Shihab - in another narration - Narrated to me by Harmalah bin Yahya, informed us by Ibn Wahb, informed me by Yunus from Ibn Shihab, informed me by Sa'id bin Al-Musayyab and Abu Salamah bin Abdurrahman that Abdullah bin Amru bin Ash, he said It was conveyed to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, there is someone saying, 'Indeed, I will pray all night and fast every day for my life.' So the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, asked me: 'Is it true that you said that?' I replied, 'Yes, I am the one who said it, O Messenger of Allah.' So the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'You will not be able to do it. So fast one day and break one day. You sleep and you also pray, and fast three days in every month, for every one good deed will be multiplied its reward to ten, and that is the example of fasting all the time.'

Abdullah said, 'Indeed, I am capable of more than that.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'If so, fast one day and break two days.' Abdullah said, 'I am still capable of more than that, O Messenger of Allah.' He said: 'If so, fast one day and break one day. That is the fasting of David, peace be upon him. And that is the most balanced fasting.' Abdullah said again 'I am still capable of more than that.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'There is no fasting more excellent than that.' So Abdullah bin Amru said, 'If I had accepted the three-day fast as recommended by the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, to me, it would be more beloved to me than my family and my wealth.'

Narrated to me by Muhammad bin Rafi', narrated to us by Abdurrazzaq, informed us by Ibn Juraij, he said, I heard Atha', he argued that Abul Abbas had informed him, that he heard Abdullah bin Amru bin Al-Ash, may Allah be pleased with both of them, say News reached the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, that I fast every day and pray all night. Possibly he sent someone to me, or possibly I met him. Then he asked: 'Is the news true that states you fast and never break, and you also pray all night (do not sleep)? Do not do it, because your eyes also have rights, yourself has rights, and your family also has rights. Therefore, fast and break, pray and sleep. Then fast one day in every ten days, then you will get a reward of nine times.' He said, 'Indeed, I am still strong more than that, O Prophet of Allah.' He replied: 'If so, do the fasting of David, peace be upon him.' Abdullah asked, 'How did Prophet David fast, O Prophet of Allah?' He replied: 'Prophet David fasted one day and broke one day. And Prophet David also did not flee from the battlefield, precisely when facing the enemy.' Abdullah asked again, 'Then what reward do I get from this fast, O Prophet of Allah?' Atha' said I do not know how he mentioned fasting all the time. Then the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, answered: 'There is no reward for fasting for anyone who fasts all the time. There is no reward for fasting for anyone who fasts all the time.' Narrated to me by Muhammad bin Hatim, narrated to us by Muhammad bin Bakr, informed us by Ibn Juraij with this chain, and said That Abul Abbas Ash-Sha'ir had informed him, he said Muslim Abul Abbas As-Sa'ib bin Farrukh is a resident of Makkah and he is trustworthy and just.

Narrated to us by Yahya bin Yahya At Tamimi and Qutaibah bin Sa'id, both from Hammad - Yahya said - it was reported to us by Hammad bin Zaid from Ghailan from Abdullah bin Ma'bad Az Zimani from Abu Qatadah that a man came to the Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) and asked, 'How do you fast?' Upon hearing the question, the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) became angry. And when Umar witnessed the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) angry, he said, 'We are pleased with Allah as our Lord, Islam as our religion, and Muhammad as our Messenger. We seek refuge in Allah from the wrath of Allah and His Messenger.' Umar repeated these words until the anger of the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) subsided. Then he asked, 'O Messenger of Allah, what about someone who fasts throughout the year?' He replied: 'He neither fasts nor breaks his fast.' - or he said with the wording 'Forever he is not considered fasting nor breaking the fast' - Umar asked again, 'What about someone who fasts one day and breaks the fast one day?' He replied: 'That is the fast of Dawud (peace be upon him).' Umar asked again, 'What about someone who fasts one day and breaks the fast two days?' He replied: 'I would like it if I were given the strength for that.' Then the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: 'Fasting three days every month, fasting from Ramadan to Ramadan is equivalent to fasting a full year. As for fasting on the day of Arafah, I also ask Allah that this fast can erase the sins of a full year before and a year after. As for fasting on the day of Ashura, I ask Allah that this fast can erase the sins of the previous year.'

Narrated to us by Muhammad bin Al Mutsanna and Muhammad bin Basysyar - the wording is from Ibnul Mutsanna - both said, Narrated to us by Muhammad bin Ja'far, Narrated to us by Syu'bah from Ghailan bin Jarir that he heard Abdullah bin Ma'bad Az Zimani from Abu Qatadah Al Anshari (may Allah be pleased with him), that the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) was once asked about his fasting, so immediately the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) became angry, then Umar uttered, 'We are pleased with Allah as our Lord, Islam as our religion, and Muhammad as our Messenger. We seek refuge in Allah from the wrath of Allah and His Messenger and our pledge as a pledge.' Then he was asked about fasting throughout time, so he replied: 'Actually, he neither fasts nor breaks the fast.' Then he was asked again about fasting one day and breaking the fast two days, he replied: 'May Allah give us the strength to do it.' Then he was asked about fasting on Monday, he replied: 'That is the day when I was born and I was sent (as a Messenger) or on that day revelation was sent down to me.' Then he said: 'Fasting three days in every month and Ramadan until the next Ramadan is perpetual fasting.' Then he was asked about fasting on Arafah, so he replied: 'That fast will erase the sins of one year past and one to come.' Then he was asked about fasting on the day of Ashura, he replied: 'It will erase the sins throughout the past year.' And in this hadith, namely from the narration of Syu'bah, he said 'And he was asked about fasting on Monday and Thursday.' But we do not mention fasting on Thursday, because according to us there is Wahm (inaccuracy in the report). Narrated to us by Ubaidullah bin Mu'adz, Narrated to us by my father - in another narration - Narrated to us by Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah, Narrated to us by Syababah - in another narration - Narrated to us by Ishaq bin Ibrahim, it was reported to us by An Nadlr bin Syumail, all from Syu'bah with this chain. Narrated to us by Yahya bin Yahya, he said, I have read to Malik from Nafi' from Ibn Umar (may Allah be pleased with them both) that a man from the companions of the Prophet (peace be upon him) dreamed that Laylatul Qadr is in the last seven days (of the month of Ramadan). So the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: 'I also dreamed like your dream, that Laylatul Qadr falls on the last seven days of Ramadan. So whoever seeks it, seek it in those last seven days.'

Narrated to us by Qutaibah bin Sa'id, Narrated to us by Bakr bin Mudlar from Ibnul Hadi from Muhammad bin Ibrahim from Abu Salamah bin Abdurrahman from Abu Sa'id Al Khudri (may Allah be pleased with him), he said The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) used to perform I'tikaf in the middle ten days of the month of Ramadan, and when twenty days of Ramadan had passed and the twenty-first day was about to enter, he returned to his residence and the people who performed I'tikaf with him also returned. But on the twenty-first night of Ramadan, he returned to I'tikaf and ordered the people to perform I'tikaf with him: 'Whoever wants to perform I'tikaf with me, let him spend the night in his place of I'tikaf. And indeed, I have seen (that) this night (is the night of Laylatul Qadr), but I was made to forget again. Therefore, seek (Laylatul Qadr) in the last ten days of Ramadan. Namely on every odd night. And I also dreamed of prostrating on wet ground.' Abu Sa'id said, 'Rain fell on the twenty-first night until the rainwater seeped into the place of prayer of the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him). I looked at that place, and it turned out he had moved after finishing the Subuh prayer, while on his face there was wet soil mixed with water.' Narrated to us by Ibn Abu Umar, Narrated to us by Abdul Aziz namely Ad Darawardi, from Yazid from Muhammad bin Ibrahim from Abu Salamah bin Abdurrahman from Abu Sa'id Al Khudri (may Allah be pleased with him), that he said 'The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) used to perform I'tikaf in the middle ten days of the month of Ramadan.' So he mentioned a similar hadith, except that he mentioned 'FALYUTSBIT FI MU'TAKAFIHI (Let him stay in his place of I'tikaf).' And he also mentioned 'WA JABIINUHU MUMTALI'AN THIINAN WA MAA'AN (And on his forehead there was soil and water).'

Narrated to me by Muhammad bin Abdul A'la, Narrated to us by Al Mu'tamir, Narrated to us by Umarah bin Ghaziyyah Al Anshari, he said, I heard Muhammad bin Ibrahim narrate from Abu Salamah from Abu Sa'id Al Khudri (may Allah be pleased with him), he said The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) performed I'tikaf in the first ten days of Ramadan, then continued it in the middle ten, in a small dome made of carpet and its door covered with a mat. Then he took the mat, and placed it in the corner of the dome. Then he extended his head while speaking to call the people. So they approached him, he said: 'I have performed I'tikaf since the first ten days to obtain Laylatul Qadr, then the middle ten. Then it was said to me that Laylatul Qadr is in the last ten of Ramadan. Therefore, whoever likes I'tikaf, then please.' So the companions also performed I'tikaf together with him. And he also said: 'I dreamed of seeing Laylatul Qadr on an odd night, where in the morning I prostrated on wet ground.' Indeed, in the morning of the twenty-first night he performed Subuh prayer while it was raining so the mosque was flooded with water. I saw soil and water. After finishing the Subuh prayer, the Prophet (peace be upon him) came out, while on his forehead and nose there was wet soil. That night was the twenty-first night of the last ten of the month of Ramadan.

Narrated to us by Muhammad bin Al Mutsanna, Narrated to us by Abu 'Amir, Narrated to us by Hisham from Yahya from Abu Salamah, he said We remembered Laylatul Qadr, then I came to Abu Sa'id Al Khudri (may Allah be pleased with him) - he is also my friend - then I asked, 'Won't you come out with us to the date garden?' So he came out wearing a cloak. Then I asked again, 'Have you ever heard the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) mention about Laylatul Qadr?' He replied 'Yes, we once performed I'tikaf with the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) in the middle first ten of Ramadan. And when we came out on the morning of the twentieth, the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) preached while saying: 'Indeed, I have dreamed of being shown to me Laylatul Qadr, but I forgot - or - was made to forget again. Therefore, seek it in the last ten of Ramadan, namely on every odd night. And indeed, in my dream, I prostrated in damp water. So whoever wants to perform I'tikaf with the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), let him return.' Then we returned, and at that time I did not see any fog in the sky. But suddenly a cluster of clouds came, until rain fell, until the mosque was flooded with water, while the mosque was made of date palm fronds. Then the prayer was established and I saw the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) prostrating on a expanse of water and damp soil, until I saw its mark on his forehead. Narrated to us by Abdu Humaid, it was reported to us by Abdurrazaq, it was reported to us by Ma'mar - in another narration - Narrated to us by Abdullah bin Abdurrahman Ad Darimi, it was reported to us by Abul Mughirah, Narrated to us by Al Auza'i, both from Yahya bin Abu Katsir with this chain, similar to it. And in both hadiths it is mentioned 'I saw the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) when he finished performing the prayer, while on his forehead there was a mark of soil.'

Narrated to us by Muhammad bin Al Mutsanna and Abu Bakr bin Khallad, both said, Narrated to us by Abdul A'la, Narrated to us by Sa'id from Abu Nadlrah from Abu Sa'id Al Khudri (may Allah be pleased with him), he said The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) once performed I'tikaf in the middle ten nights of the month of Ramadan to seek Laylatul Qadr before it was explained to him. After those middle ten nights passed, the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) ordered a room to be made, but then it was dismantled. Then it was explained to him that Laylatul Qadr is in the last ten nights of the month of Ramadan, then he ordered a room to be made again, but it was dismantled again. Then he came out and met the people and said: 'O people, indeed, Laylatul Qadr has been explained to me, and I came out to inform you about it. But then two people came who both claimed to be right while they were accompanied by Satan. So Laylatul Qadr was forgotten by me. Therefore, seek Laylatul Qadr in the last ten nights of the month of Ramadan, seek Laylatul Qadr on the ninth, seventh, and fifth nights (in those last ten nights).' Someone said, 'O Abu Sa'id! You certainly know more about that number than we do.' Abu Sa'id replied, 'Of course, we know more about it than you.' The person asked again, 'What is meant by the ninth, seventh, and fifth nights?' He replied, 'If the twenty-first night has passed, then the next is the twenty-second night, and that is what is meant by the ninth night. And if the twenty-third night has passed, then the next is the seventh night, and if the twenty-fifth night has passed, then the next is the fifth night.' In another narration Ibn Khallad said 'The wording both claiming to be right' should be both disputing.

Narrated to us by Muhammad bin Hatim and Ibn Abu Umar, both from Ibn Uyainah - Ibn Hatim said - Narrated to us by Sufyan bin Uyainah from Abdah and Ashim bin Abun Najud, both heard Zirr bin Hubaisy say, I asked Ubay bin Ka'b (may Allah be pleased with him). I said, 'Indeed your brother Ibn Mas'ud said, 'Whoever performs night prayer throughout the year, surely he will obtain the night of Laylatul Qadr.' So Ubay bin Ka'b said, 'May Allah have mercy on him. He wanted people not to rely solely on tawakkal. Indeed he has known that Laylatul Qadr occurs in the month of Ramadan, namely in the last ten days precisely on the twenty-seventh night.' Then Ubay bin Ka'b swore that the existence of Laylatul Qadr is on the twenty-seventh night. So I asked, 'On what basis do you say that, O Abu Mundzir?' He replied, 'Based on the signs or indications that the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) has informed us, that on that day the sun rises with rays that do not sting.'

Hadith Imam Muslim Number 2017

حَدَّثَنَا شَيْبَانُ بْنُ فَرُّوخَ حَدَّثَنَا هَمَّامٌ حَدَّثَنَا عَطَاءُ بْنُ أَبِي رَبَاحٍ عَنْ صَفْوَانَ بْنِ يَعْلَى بْنِ أُمَيَّةَ عَنْ أَبِيهِ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ قَالَ جَاءَ رَجُلٌ إِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَهُوَ بِالْجِعْرَانَةِ عَلَيْهِ جُبَّةٌ وَعَلَيْهَا خُلُوقٌ أَوْ قَالَ أَثَرُ صُفْرَةٍ فَقَالَ كَيْفَ تَأْمُرُنِي أَنْ أَصْنَعَ فِي عُمْرَتِي قَالَ وَأُنْزِلَ عَلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْوَحْيُ فَسُتِرَ بِثَوْبٍ وَكَانَ يَعْلى يَقُولُ وَدِدْتُ أَنِّي أَرَى النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَقَدْ نَزَلَ عَلَيْهِ الْوَحْيُ قَالَ فَقَالَ أَيَسْرُكَ أَنْ تَنْظُرَ إِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَقَدْ أُنْزِلَ عَلَيْهِ الْوَحْيُ قَالَ فَرَفَعَ عُمَرُ طَرَفَ الثَّوْبِ فَتَنَظَرْتُ إِلَيْهِ لَهُ غَطِيطٌ قَالَ وَأَحْسَبُهُ قَالَ كَغَطِيطِ الْبَكْرِ قَالَ فَلَمَّا سُرِّيَ عَنْهُ قَالَ أَيْنَ السَّائِلُ عَنِ الْعُمْرَةِ اغْسِلْ عَنْكَ أَثَرَ الصُّفْرَةِ أَوْ قَالَ أَثَرَ الْخُلُوقِ وَاخْلَعْ عَنْكَ جُبَّتَكَ وَاصْنَعْ فِي عُمْرَتِكَ مَا أَنْتَ صَانِعٌ فِي حَجِّكَ

Narrated to us by [Syaiban bin Farrukh], Narrated to us by [Hammam], Narrated to us by [Atha` bin Abu Rabah] from [Shafwan bin Ya'la bin Umayyah] from [his father] (may Allah be pleased with him), he said A man came to the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) while he was in Ji'ranah. The man was wearing a cloak that had traces of Khaluq (a type of perfume from Za'faran). Then the man asked, 'What should I do in my Umrah?' Shwan said At that time, revelation came down to the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him), then he was covered with a cloth. At that time, Ya'la said, 'I want to see the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) when he is receiving revelation.' Then Umar asked, 'Do you want to see the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) when he is receiving revelation.' Ya'la said So Umar lifted a little edge of the cloth (that was covering the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him)), so I saw him breathing hard like the panting of a camel. After receiving the revelation, he asked: 'Where is the person who asked about Umrah? Wash the traces of khaluq on your hair and beard, and remove your cloak. Then perform Umrah as you perform Hajj'.

And Narrated to us by [Ibn Abu Umar] he said, Narrated to us by [Sufyan] from [Amru] from [Atha`] from [Shafwan bin Ya'la] from [his father] he said A man came to the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) while he was in Ji'ranah while I was with the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him). The man was wearing a cloak and he had smeared himself with Khaluq, he said, 'Indeed I have intended for Ihram, while I am wearing this cloak and my body has been smeared with Khaluq (a type of perfume).' So the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) said to him: 'Do as you do in your Hajj.' The man said, 'If so, I must remove this clothing, and clean the traces of this Khaluq.' The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) said again: 'What you do in your Hajj, do also in your Umrah'.

 فَالْتَمَسَ الرَّجُلُ فَجِيءَ بِهِ فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَمَّا الطِّيبُ الَّذِي بِكَ فَاغْسِلْهُ ثَلَاثَ مَرَّاتٍ وَأَمَّا

Narrated to me by [Zuhair bin Harb], Narrated to us by [Isma'il bin Ibrahim] -in another narration- And Narrated to us by [Abdu bin Humaid], it was informed to us by [Muhammad bin Bakr] both said, it was informed to us by [Ibn Juraij] -in another narration- And Narrated to us by [Ali bin Khasyram] -the wording also belongs to him- it was informed to us by [Isa] from [Ibn Juraij] he said, it was informed to me by [Atha`] that [Shafwan bin Umayyah] informed him that [Ya'la] said Umar bin Al Khaththab (may Allah be pleased with him), 'If only I could see the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) when he receives revelation.' So when the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) was in Ji'ranah at that time he was covered with a cloth while around him were his companions, among them was Umar bin Al Khaththab, suddenly a man came wearing a Shuf cloak and his body had been smeared with perfume. The man then said, 'O Messenger of Allah, what do you think about a man who intends Ihram for Umrah wearing a cloak after he has smeared it with perfume?' So the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) looked at the man, then he was silent until the revelation came down to him. So Umar signaled with his hand to Ya'la bin Umayyah, 'Come here.' Ya'la came and immediately put his head in, it turned out that the face of the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) was red. Then Umar covered for a moment until he regained consciousness. After that, he asked: 'Where is the person who asked me about Umrah?' so the man was sought and brought before him. Finally the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) said: 'As for the perfume on you, wash it three times, while the cloak, remove it. Do in your Umrah as what you do in your Hajj'.

HOW TO CLEANSE FRAGRANCE DURING IHRAM

Hadith Imam Muslim Number 2021

وَحَدَّثَنَا إِسْحَاقُ بْنُ مَنْصُورٍ أَخْبَرَنَا أَبُو عَلِيٍّ عُبَيْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ عَبْدِ الْمَجِيدِ حَدَّثَنَا رِبَاحُ بْنُ أَبِي مَعْرُوفٍ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ عَطَاءً قَالَ أَخْبَرَنِي صَفْوَانُ بْنُ يَعْلَى عَنْ أَبِيهِ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ قَالَ كُنَّا مَعَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَأَتَاهُ رَجُلٌ عَلَيْهِ جُبَّةٌ بِهَا أَثَرٌ مِنْ خَلْقٍ فَقَالَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ إِنِّي أَحْرَمْتُ بِعُمْرَةٍ فَكَيْفَ أَفْعَلُ فَسَكَتَ عَنْهُ فَلَمْ يَرْجِعْ إِلَيْهِ وَكَانَ عُمَرُ يُسْتَرُّهُ إِذَا أُنْزِلَ عَلَيْهِ الْوَحْيُ يُظْلَهُ فَقُلْتُ لِعُمَرَ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ إِنِّي أَحِبُّ إِذَا أُنْزِلَ عَلَيْهِ الْوَحْيُ أَنْ أُدْخَلَ رَأْسِي مَعَهُ فِي الثَّوْبِ فَلَمَّا أُنْزِلَ عَلَيْهِ خَمَرُهُ عُمَرُ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ بِالثَّوْبِ فَجِئْتُهُ فَأَدْخَلْتُ رَأْسِي مَعَهُ فِي الثَّوْبِ فَنَظَرْتُ إِلَيْهِ فَلَمَّا سَرَّيَ عَنْهُ قَالَ أَيْنَ السَّائِلُ آتِنَا عَنْ الْعُمْرَةِ فَقَامَ إِلَيْهِ الرَّجُلُ فَقَالَ انْزِعْ عَنْكَ جُبَّتَكَ وَاغْسِلْ أَثَرَ الْخَلْقِ الَّذِي بِكَ وَافْعَلْ فِي عُمْرَتِكَ مَا كُنْتَ فَاعِلًا فِي حَجِّكَ

And Narrated to us by [Ishaq bin Manshur], it was informed to us by [Abu Ali Ubaidullah bin Abdul Majid], Narrated to us by [Rabah bin Abu Ma'ruf] he said, I heard [Atha`] say, it was informed to me by [Shafwan bin Ya'la] from [his father] (may Allah be pleased with him), he said We were once with the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him), suddenly a man wearing a cloak and smeared with Khaluq came to him saying, 'O

Messenger of Allah, I have performed Ihram with the intention of Umrah, then how should I do it?' But then he was silent and did not answer the man's question. Then Umar covered (covered) him, that is when the revelation came down. So I said to Umar (may Allah be pleased with him), 'I want to put my head in that blanket when the revelation is sent down to him.' And when the revelation was sent down to him, Umar immediately covered him and I came and put my head into the blanket, so I could see him. When he regained consciousness, he asked: 'Where is the person who asked about Umrah earlier?' Then the man moved towards him. So he said: 'Remove your cloak, and wash the traces of Khaluq that are still on you. Then do in your Umrah as what you do in your Hajj'.

And Narrated to us by [Yahya bin Yahya] he said, I have read to [Malik] from [Sa'id bin Abu Sa'id Al Maqburi] from [Ubaid bin Juraij] that he said to [Abdullah bin Umar] (may Allah be pleased with them both), 'O Abu Abdurrahman, I see you doing four things that your companions have never done.' Abdullah bin Umar asked, 'What are those four things O Ibn Juraij?' Ibn Juraij said, 'I do not see you touching the pillars of the Ka'bah except the Yamani pillars. I also see you wearing Sabtiyyah sandals (sandals without fur). And I see you using yellow color. Then when you are in Makkah and see people already in Ihram when they see the crescent moon, but you yourself do not enter Ihram until the day of Tarwiyah.' Abdullah bin Umar said 'Regarding the pillars of the Ka'bah, indeed I have never seen the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) touching those pillars except the Yamani pillars. About the sabtiyyah type sandals, because I once saw the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) wearing sandals without fur and he performed ablution with them, so I like to wear them. Regarding the yellow color, because I once saw the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) using that color, so I like to use it. As for Ihram, because I do not see the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) entering Ihram except after his vehicle moves quickly (namely when the day of Arafah is near).' Narrated to me by [Harun bin Sa'id Al Aili], Narrated to us by [Ibn Wahb], Narrated to me by [Abu Shakhr] from [Ibn Qusaith] from [Ubaid bin Juraij] he said I once performed Hajj with [Abdullah bin Umar bin Al Khaththab] (may Allah be pleased with them both) then between Hajj and Umrah was twelve times. I then said, 'O Abu Abdurrahman, indeed, I have seen four things from you.' Then he mentioned that hadith with the meaning above, except regarding the story of Ihlal, because he contradicted the narration of Al Maqburi, then he mentioned another meaning.

I quickly saddled my horse, took my spear, and rode. But my whip fell. I asked my companions, who were in Ihram, to pick it up, but they said, 'We cannot help you at all.' So I dismounted and picked it up myself. Then I rode again and chased the donkey. I found it behind a sand dune, stabbed its side with my spear, and brought the meat to my companions. Some said it was permissible to eat, others said it was not. The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) had gone ahead of us. I spurred my horse to catch up with him. Then it was reported to him that an enemy force was at Ghaiah, so the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) set out. While I was with my companions, laughing with one another, I saw a wild donkey and chased it. I asked for their help, but they refused. So we ate the wild donkey meat. But we feared that the Ihram was invalidated. I went to find the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him), spurring my horse swiftly. At the end of the night, I met a man from Bani Ghifar and asked, 'Where did you meet the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him)?' He replied, 'At Ta'hin, and he was taking a nap.' So I went to him and said, 'O Messenger of Allah, your companions send their greetings of peace and mercy to you. They fear that their Ihram is invalidated. Please wait for them.' So he waited for them to arrive. I said, 'O Messenger of Allah, I hunted a wild donkey, and I still have some of its meat.' The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) said to those in Ihram: 'Eat it.'

Ibn Abbas said: 'A person in Ihram may wash his head.' Al Miswar said: 'A person in Ihram must not wash his head.' So Ibn Abbas sent me to [Abu Ayyub Al Anshari] to ask about the ruling on this matter. I found Abu Ayyub bathing behind a cloth stretched between two pillars. I greeted him, and he responded, 'Who is it?' I said, 'I am Abdullah bin Hunain, sent by Ibn

Abbas to ask you about washing the head during Ihram, how did the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) do it?' Abu Ayyub lowered the cloth so his head was visible, then rubbed his head with both hands forward and backward. He said, 'This is how I saw the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) do it.' And narrated to us [Ishaq bin Ibrahim] and ['Ali bin Khasyram], both said, informed us [Isa bin Yunus], narrated to us [Ibn Juraij], informed me [Zaid bin Aslam] with this chain, and he mentioned: Then Abu Ayyub raised both hands above his head, then moved them forward and backward. And Al Miswar said to Ibn Abbas, 'I will not argue with you forever.'

Hadith Imam Muslim Number 2108

حَدَّثَنَا يَحْيَى بْنُ يَحْيَى التَّمِيمِيُّ قَالَ قَرَأْتُ عَلَى مَالِكٍ عَنْ ابْنِ شَهَابٍ عَنْ عُرْوَةَ عَنْ عَائِشَةَ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهَا أَنَّهَا قَالَتْ خَرَجْنَا مَعَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَامَ حَجَّةِ الْوَدَاعِ فَأَهْلَلْنَا بِعُمْرَةٍ ثُمَّ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ كَانَ مَعَهُ هَدْيٌ فَلْيُهَلِّ بِالْحَجِّ مَعَ الْعُمْرَةِ ثُمَّ لَا يَحِلُّ حَتَّى يَحِلَّ مِنْهُمَا جَمِيعًا قَالَتْ فَقَدِمْتُ مَكَّةَ وَأَنَا حَائِضٌ لَمْ أَطْفِئِ بِالْبَيْتِ وَلَا بَيْنَ الصَّافَا وَالْمَرْوَةِ فَشَكَوْتُ ذَلِكَ إِلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ انْقُضِي رَأْسَكَ وَامْتَشِطِي وَأَهْلِي بِالْحَجِّ وَدَعِي الْعُمْرَةَ قَالَتْ فَفَعَلْتُ فَلَمَّا قَضَيْنَا الْحَجَّ أَرْسَلَنِي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَعَ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ أَبِي بَكْرٍ إِلَى التَّنْعِيمِ فَأَعْتَمَرْتُ فَقَالَ هَذِهِ مَكَانُ عُمْرَتِكَ فَطَافَ الَّذِينَ أَهَلُّوا بِالْعُمْرَةِ بِالْبَيْتِ وَبِالصَّافَا وَالْمَرْوَةِ ثُمَّ حَلُّوا ثُمَّ طَافُوا طَوَافًا آخَرَ بَعْدَ أَنْ رَجَعُوا مِنْ مَنَى لِحَجَّتِهِمْ وَأَمَّا الَّذِينَ كَانُوا جَمَعُوا الْحَجَّ وَالْعُمْرَةَ فَإِنَّمَا طَافُوا طَوَافًا وَاحِدًا

"Narrated to us Yahya bin Yahya At Tamimi, he said: I read to Malik from Ibn Shihab from Urwah from Aisha, may Allah be pleased with her, that she said: We went for Hajj with the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, in the year of Farewell Hajj, intending ihram for Umrah. Then he said: 'Whoever has a sacrificial animal may intend ihram for Hajj and Umrah, not releasing until both are complete.' Aisha said: Upon arriving in Makkah, I menstruated, so I did not circumambulate the House or perform Sai between Safa and Marwah. I reported this to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and he said: 'Undo your braids and comb, continue ihram for Hajj, and leave Umrah.' I did so. After completing Hajj, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, sent me with Abdurrahman bin Abu Bakr to Tan'im for Umrah. He said: 'This replaces your failed Umrah.' Those intending Umrah circumambulated the House and performed Sai between Safa and Marwah upon arrival. Returning from Mina, they performed farewell circumambulation. Those combining Hajj and Umrah circumambulated once.

"Narrated to me Sulaiman bin Ubaidullah Abu Ayyub Al Ghailani, narrated to us Abu Amir Abdul Malik bin Amru, narrated to us Abdul Aziz bin Abu Salamah Al Majisyun from Abdurrahman bin Al Qasim from his father from Aishah, may Allah be pleased with her, she said: We went out with the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, with no other intention except Hajj. When we arrived at Sarif, I menstruated, then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, met me while I was crying. He asked: 'What makes you cry?' I replied, 'By Allah, if only I had not gone out for Hajj this year.' He asked again, 'What's wrong with you, it seems you are menstruating?' I replied, 'Yes.' He said: 'This is something Allah has decreed for the women of the descendants of Adam. Therefore, do as a pilgrim usually does, except you may not circumambulate the House until you are pure again.' Aishah said: When we arrived in Mecca, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said to his companions: 'Make your ihram as Umrah.' So people entered ihram for Umrah except those who brought sacrificial animals. Those who brought sacrificial animals included the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, Abu Bakr, Umar, and those who had vehicles. During rest, they recited talbiyah. When the day of Sacrifice arrived, I became pure from my menstruation, so the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, ordered me to join the departure. We were given beef, so I asked, 'What meat is this?' They replied, 'The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, slaughtered sacrificial animals in the form of cows for his wives.' On the day of Hasbah, I said, 'O Messenger of Allah, people return with the rewards of Hajj and Umrah, while I only bring the reward of Hajj.' He ordered Abdurrahman bin Abu Bakr to accompany me for Umrah. Abdurrahman carried me on his camel. At that time, I still remember my age was very young. I dozed off until my face bowed on the camel until we arrived at Tan'im. Then I immediately recited talbiyah for Umrah, as the other companions had done. And narrated to me Abu Ayyub Al Ghailani, narrated to us Bahz, narrated to us Hammad from Abdurrahman from his father from Aishah, may Allah be pleased with her, she said: We recited talbiyah for Hajj. When we arrived at Sarif, I menstruated. Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, met me while I was crying. He mentioned the hadith as in Al Majisyun's hadith. In Hammad's hadith, it is not mentioned: 'Those who brought sacrificial animals were the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, Abu Bakr, Umar, and those who had vehicles. Then they recited talbiyah during their rest.' Nor is Aishah's expression present: 'At that time, I was still very young. I dozed off until my face slumped on the back of the vehicle.'

"Narrated to us Muhammad bin Abdullah bin Numair, narrated to us Ishaq bin Sulaiman from Aflah bin Humaid from Al Qasim from Aishah, may Allah be pleased with her, she said: We went out with the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, in the months of Hajj to perform Hajj, passing days and nights of Hajj until we stopped at Sarif. Then he went out to meet his companions and said: 'Whoever does not bring a sacrificial animal and wishes to make his ihram as Umrah, let him do so. Whoever has a sacrificial animal, do not do so.' Some companions did it, and some did not, namely those who did not bring sacrificial animals. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, brought a sacrificial animal, as did some of his strong companions. Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, entered to meet me in my tent, while I was crying. He asked: 'What makes you cry?' I replied, 'I heard your statement to the companions, so I heard the mention of Umrah.' He asked again: 'What's wrong with you?' I replied, 'I am not praying because I am menstruating.' He said: 'That does not harm you, perform your Hajj rituals. May Allah give you the reward of Umrah. You are only a descendant of Adam whom Allah has decreed as He decreed for women.' I went out for Hajj until we stopped at Mina. Then I became pure and circumambulated the House, and the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, stopped at Al Muhassab. He called Abdurrahman bin Abu Bakr and said: 'Go out with your sister from the Haram until she can enter ihram for Umrah and circumambulate the House, while I wait for you both here.' We went out, I entered ihram for Umrah, circumambulated the House, and performed sa'i between Safa and Marwah. After that, we returned to meet the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, at his stopping place at night. He asked: 'Have you finished performing Umrah?' I replied, 'Yes.' He announced to his companions to continue the journey. He passed the House, circumambulated the Ka'bah before Subuh prayer, and then went out to Madinah.

"Narrated to us Zuhair bin Harb and Ishaq bin Ibrahim, Zuhair said, narrated to us, Ishaq said, informed us Jarir from Manshur from Ibrahim from Al Aswad from Aishah, may Allah be pleased with her, she said: We went out together with the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, with no intention except Hajj. Upon arriving in Mecca, we circumambulated the House, then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, ordered: 'Whoever brings a sacrificial animal, he may halt.' People who did not bring sacrificial animals halted, his wives also did not bring sacrificial animals, so they halted. Aishah said: Suddenly I menstruated until I did not circumambulate the House. On the night of Hasbah, I said, 'O Messenger of Allah, people return with the rewards of Umrah and Hajj, while I return only with the reward of Hajj.' He asked: 'Did you not circumambulate at night when we arrived in Mecca?' Aishah replied, 'No.' He said: 'Go with your brother to Tan'im, then enter ihram for Umrah and we will meet at this place.' Safiyyah said, 'I thought you would wait for me to be pure and finish circumambulating, but I menstruated, so I cannot circumambulate.' He said: 'May Allah make her barren without children, did you not circumambulate on the day of Sacrifice?' Safiyyah replied, 'Yes, correct.' He said: 'No problem, go.' Aishah said: Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, met me while he was going from Mecca as I was coming. Ishaq said: Passing each other on the road. Narrated to us Suwaid bin Sa'id from Ali bin Mushir from Al A'masy from Ibrahim from Al Aswad from Aishah, may Allah be pleased with her, she said: We went out with the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and we recited talbiyah without mentioning Hajj or Umrah. He mentioned a hadith similar to Manshur's hadith.

"Narrated to us Qutaibah bin Sa'id and Muhammad bin Rumh, all from Laits bin Sa'id, Qutaibah said, narrated to us Laits from Abu Zubair from Jabir, may Allah be pleased with him, that he said: We entered ihram together with the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, for Hajj Ifrad, while Aishah entered ihram for Umrah. When we were in Sarif, Aishah menstruated, and after we arrived, we circumambulated the Kaaba and performed sa'i between Safa and Marwah. Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, ordered those among us who did not bring a sacrificial animal to release their ihram. We asked, 'What kind of release?' He replied, 'Complete release.' Jabir said: So we were intimate with our wives, used perfume, and wore regular clothes, with only four nights until Arafah. Then on the day of Tarwiyah, we entered ihram again. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, visited Aishah and found her crying, and he asked, 'Why are you crying?' She replied, 'Because I am menstruating, while others have released their ihram, but I have not, and I have not circumambulated, while they have gone to perform Hajj.' He said, 'This is something Allah has decreed for the women of the descendants of Adam. Therefore, perform ghusl and enter ihram for Hajj.' Aishah did so, performed wuquf, and stopped at the designated places. After becoming pure, she circumambulated the Kaaba and performed sa'i between Safa and Marwah. Then he said, 'You have released your Hajj and your Umrah together.' Aishah said, 'O Messenger of Allah, I feel I have not circumambulated the House until I performed Hajj.' He said, 'O Abdurrahman, take her and let her perform Umrah from Tan'im.' That was during the night of Hasbah. Narrated to me Muhammad bin Hatim and Abdu bin Humaid, Muhammad bin Hatim said, narrated to us, while Abdu said, narrated to us Muhammad bin Bakr, informed us Ibn Juraij, informed me Abu Zubair that he heard Jabir bin Abdullah, may Allah be pleased with them both, say: The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, visited Aishah and found her crying. Then he mentioned a hadith similar to Al Laits' until the end, and he did not mention what was in Al Laits' hadith before. Narrated to us Abu Ghassan Al Misma'i, narrated to us Mu'adz bin Hisyam, narrated to me my father from Mathar from Abu Az Zubair from Jabir bin Abdullah that when the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, performed Hajj, Aishah entered ihram for Umrah. Then he mentioned a hadith similar to Al Laits' hadith, and in it, he added: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, was a man who liked to make things easy, and if she (Aishah) wanted to do something, he would grant her wish. So he ordered Abdurrahman bin Abu Bakr to accompany her so she could enter ihram for Umrah from Tan'im. Mathar said: Abu Az Zubair said: When Aishah performed Hajj, she would do as she did when she was with the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon

After arriving in Mecca, we circumambulated the Kaaba and performed sa'i between Safa and Marwah. After that, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said to us: 'Whoever does not bring a sacrificial animal may release their ihram.' We asked, 'What kind of release, O Messenger of Allah?' He replied, 'You are permitted to do everything as before ihram.' Jabir said: So we were intimate with our wives, wore regular clothes (not ihram clothes), and used perfume. When the day of Tarwiyah (the eighth of Dhul Hijjah) arrived, we entered ihram for Hajj, but we did not perform sa'i between Safa and Marwah again, sufficing with the first sa'i. Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, ordered us, every seven people, to slaughter a badanah (a camel or cow) for sacrifice.

Atha' said: Jabir said: 'After four days of Dhul Hijjah passed, he ordered us to release ihram.' Atha' said: After releasing ihram, they were intimate with their wives, and it was not obligatory for them, but he permitted it. Jabir said: We said, 'When there were five days until Arafah, he ordered us to be intimate with our wives, so we went to Arafah while our private parts were dripping with semen.' Jabir gestured with his hand, and I think I saw him moving his hand. Jabir continued: Then the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, stood among us and said: 'You know that I am the most God-fearing, truthful, and best among you. If it were not for my sacrificial animal, I would have released ihram as you have. If I had known this matter before, I would not have brought a sacrificial animal. So release your ihram.' So we released our ihram, listened, and obeyed. Atha' said: Jabir said: When Ali returned from sa'i, he asked, 'With what did you recite talbiyah?' Ali replied, 'With the talbiyah of the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'Then sacrifice and remain in the sacred state.' So Ali slaughtered a sacrificial animal for him. Suraqah bin Malik bin Ju'tsum asked, 'O Messenger of Allah, is this only for this year or forever?' He replied, 'Rather, forever.'

They entered ihram intending to perform Hajj Ifrad. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'Release your ihram, then circumambulate the Kaaba, perform sa'i between Safa and

What you did before becomes Mut'ah (Umrah or Hajj Tamattu'). They asked, 'How can we make it Umrah when we intended it for Hajj?' He replied, 'Do as I command you. If I had not brought a sacrificial animal, I would do what I commanded you. But that is not permissible for me until the sacrificial animal reaches its place.' So they did as he commanded.

Narrated to us Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah and Ishaq bin Ibrahim all from Hatim he said, - Abu Bakr said - narrated to us Hatim bin Isma'il Al Madani from Ja'far bin Muhammad from his father he said; We came to the house of Jabir bin Abdullah, then he asked us one by one, what our names were each. When my turn came, I mentioned my name Muhammad bin Ali bin Husain. Then he opened the top and bottom of my garment buttons. Then he placed his palm between my two breasts. At that time, I was still a young boy. Then he said, "Welcome O son of my brother, ask whatever you wish to ask." So I asked him. He was blind. When the time of prayer came, he stood on a small prayer mat that he always carried. Every time he placed that mat upon his shoulder, its edge always clung to him because of the smallness of that mat. I asked him, "Explain to me how the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, performed the Hajj." Then he spoke with the sign of his hand while holding nine of his fingers. He said; Nine years he stayed in Madinah, yet he had not performed Hajj. Then he informed that in the tenth year he would perform Hajj. Therefore people flocked to Madinah, wanting to join with the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, to act according to his actions. Then we set out together with him. When arriving at Dzulhulaifah, Asma binti Humais gave birth to her son Muhammad bin Abu Bakr. She was ordered to ask the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, what she should do (because of childbirth). Then he said: "Bathe and use your cloth, then put on again your ihram garment." The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, prayed two rak'ahs in the mosque of Dzulhulaifah, then he mounted his camel named Qashwa. When reaching Baida, I looked around me, how many people surrounded him, those who were riding and those who were walking, on his right, on his left and behind him. At that time, the Qur'an was revealed, in which the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, understood its meaning, that it was guidance for deeds that we should do. Then he called out the talbiyah: "Labbaik Allahumma labbaik, labbaik laa syarika laka labbaik, innalhamda wan ni'mata laka wal mulku laa syarika laka." Then the people too made talbiyah as the talbiyah of the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, did not forbid them, but he continued reciting it repeatedly. Our intention was only for Hajj, and we did not know Umrah. After arriving at the House (Ka'bah), he kissed one of its corners (the Black Stone), then he performed tawaf, jogging three times and walking four times. Then he went to the station of Ibrahim, and he recited the verse: "And take the station of Ibrahim as a place of prayer..." Then he placed that station between him and the House. Meanwhile my father said that the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, recited in his prayer: "Qul huwa Allahu ahad..." and: "Qul ya ayyuhal kafirun..." Then he returned to the corner of the House (the Black Stone) and kissed it again. Then through the gate he went to Safa. When near to Safa hill he recited the verse: "Indeed, Safa and Marwah are among the symbols of Allah..." Then he began what Allah commanded. So he climbed the hill of Safa. When the House appeared to him, he faced the qiblah glorifying Allah and declaring His oneness, and he recited: "Laa ilaaha illa Allah wahdahu laa syarika lahu, lahul mulku walahul hamdu wahuwa 'ala kulli shay'in qadiir, laa ilaaha illa Allah wahdahu, anjaza wa'dahu, wa nashara 'abdahu, wa hazamal ahzaaba wahdah." Then he supplicated. That tahlil he repeated three times. Then he descended toward Marwah. When reaching the valley he jogged. After that he went toward Marwah walking again. When reaching Marwah hill he did what he did at Safa. When he finished his sa'i at Marwah he said: "If I had not brought the hady I would have made it 'Umrah." Then Surajah bin Malik bin Ju'thum said, "O Messenger of Allah, is this for this year only or forever?" The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, intertwined his fingers and said: "'Umrah has entered into Hajj. 'Umrah has entered into Hajj, no! Rather forever." Meanwhile Ali came from Yemen bringing the sacrificial animals of the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and he found Fatimah among those who had released ihram; she wore dyed clothes and used kohl. Ali forbade her. Fatimah replied, "My father himself ordered me to do this." Ali said; Then I went to meet the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, to ask about that. I explained to him that I prevented her. He said: "Fatimah is right." Then he asked: "What did you say when intending Hajj?" Ali said; I replied: "O Allah, I intend to perform Hajj as Your Messenger performed it." Then Ali asked, "But I brought sacrificial animals, what should I do?" He said: "Do not release ihram." Ja'far said; The number of hady brought by Ali from Yemen and those brought by the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, were one hundred. The pilgrims released ihram and shaved, except the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and those who had the hady with him. When the day of Tarwiyah (eighth of Dzulhijjah) came, they went to Mina to perform Hajj. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, rode his mount. There he prayed Zuhr, Asr, Maghrib, Isha and Fajr. Then he waited until the sun rose, while he sent people earlier to Namirah to set up a tent. The Quraysh thought that he would stop at Masy'aril Haram as was the custom of Jahiliyyah, but he continued directly to Arafah. At Namirah he found tents already set up, then he stopped there. When the sun had declined, he mounted his camel and continued. In the valley he gave a sermon: "Indeed your blood and your wealth are sacred as the sanctity of this day, in this month, in this land. Know that everything of Jahiliyyah is under my foot abolished, including the blood revenge of Jahiliyyah. The first blood I abolish is the blood of Ibn Rabi'ah bin Harith who was nursed by Banu Sa'ad, then killed by Huzail. And the riba of Jahiliyyah is abolished, and the first riba I abolish is that of Abbas bin Abdul Muthalib. Indeed all riba I abolish. Fear Allah concerning women. You have taken them as a trust from Allah and made them lawful by the word of Allah. You have rights over them, that they do not allow anyone to tread your bed. If they do, you may strike them without causing harm. They have rights over you, provision and clothing in kindness. I have left with you something which if you hold to it you will never go astray, the Book of Allah. You will be asked about me, so what will you say?" They said: "We bear witness that you have conveyed, you have fulfilled, and you have advised." Then he raised his finger to the sky and pointed to the people: "O Allah, bear witness, O Allah bear witness, O Allah bear witness." Then he gave the call to prayer, then the iqamah, and prayed Zuhr. Then iqamah again and prayed Asr, without prayer between them. Then he continued until wukuf. He stopped his camel Qashwa at the rocks with people walking in front of him. He faced the qiblah and remained in wukuf until the sun set and the redness disappeared. Then he went, with Usamah riding behind him while he held the reins. He pulled so that its head nearly touched the saddle. He said by gesture: "O people, calm, calm." Every time he climbed a hill he loosened the reins a little. At Muzdalifah he prayed Maghrib and Isha with one adhan and two iqamahs, without prayer between them. Then he slept until dawn. At

"Narrated to us Yahya bin Yahya, informed us Abu Mu'awiyah from Hisham bin Urwah from his father from Aishah, may Allah be pleased with her, she said: The Quraysh and those who followed their teachings performed wuquf in Muzdalifah, and they called themselves Al Hums. As for all the Arab tribes, they performed wuquf in Arafah. When Islam came, Allah, the Mighty and Exalted, ordered His Prophet to go to Arafah, perform wuquf there, and then depart from it quickly. That is what is indicated by the words of Allah, the Mighty and Exalted: 'Then depart from the place where the people depart (Arafah)...'

"Narrated to us Abu Kuraib, narrated to us Abu Usamah, narrated to us Hisyam from his father, he said: The Arabs of old used to circumambulate the Kaaba naked, except for Al Hums. Al Hums were the Quraysh and their descendants. The Arabs circumambulated naked unless they were given clothes by the Quraysh, men giving to men and women to women. The Quraysh did not depart from Muzdalifah, but the masses all went to Arafah. Hisyam said: Narrated to me my father from Aishah, may Allah be pleased with her, she said: Al Hums were the Quraysh, which caused Allah to reveal the verse about them, 'Then depart from the place where the people depart...' (Al Baqarah: 199). Aishah said: The masses departed from Arafah, while they (Al Hums) departed from Muzdalifah. They said, 'We will not depart except from the sacred land.' So when the verse above was revealed, they all went to Arafah.

I replied, 'LABBAIKA (O Allah, I answer Your call) as the ihlal of the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him.' I replied, 'LABBAIKA IHLAALAN KAIHLAALIN NABI SHALLALLAHU 'ALAIHI WASALLAM (With the ihlal as the ihlal of the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him).' حَتَّى قَضَى حَجَّهُ وَنَحَرَ هَدْيَهُ يَوْمَ التَّحْرِ وَأَفَاضَ فَطَافَ بِالْبَيْتِ ثُمَّ حَلَّ مِنْ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ حَرَّمَ مِنْهُ وَفَعَلَ مِثْلَ مَا فَعَلَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ أَهْدَى وَسَاقَ الْهَدْيَ مِنَ النَّاسِ

"Narrated to us Abdul Malik bin Syu'aib bin Laits, narrated to me my father from my grandfather, narrated to me Uqail bin Khalid from Ibn Syihab from Salim bin Abdullah that Abdullah bin Umar, may Allah be pleased with them both, said: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, performed Hajj Tamattu' during the Farewell Hajj, by performing Umrah before Hajj. Then he paid a penalty with a sacrificial animal he brought from Dhul Hulaifah, where he began his ihram for Umrah. After that, he entered ihram for Hajj, and people performed Umrah with him. Some brought sacrificial animals, and some did not. Upon arriving in Mecca, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said to the people: 'Whoever brought a sacrificial animal may release ihram until Hajj is completed. Whoever did not bring a sacrificial animal should circumambulate the Kaaba, perform sa'i between Safa and Marwah, then shave and release ihram. Then he must enter ihram again for Hajj and pay a penalty by slaughtering a sacrifice. Whoever does not have a sacrificial animal must fast three days during Hajj and seven days upon returning to his hometown.' Upon arriving in Mecca, he first touched the Black Stone, then jogged three times around the Kaaba, prayed two rak'ahs at the Station of Ibrahim. After praying, he went to Safa and Marwah and performed sa'i between them seven times. He did not release ihram until Hajj was completed and he slaughtered the sacrifice on the day of Nahr (the tenth of Dhul Hijjah). After that, he returned to Mecca, circumambulated the Kaaba, then released ihram, permitting everything previously forbidden during Hajj. What he did was followed by those who brought sacrificial animals.

So he set out and entered ihram for Umrah and continued walking. When he approached Baida', Abdullah bin Umar turned to his companions and said, "Indeed the two, Umrah and Hajj, are but one matter. I bear witness to you that I have obligated Hajj along with my Umrah." Then Ibn Umar continued, and when he reached the Sacred House, he performed tawaf and Sa'i between Safa and Marwah seven times. And he did not add to it. In his view, Hajj was sufficient, and he slaughtered a sacrificial animal.

And narrated to us Muhammad bin Al Mutsanna, narrated to us Yahya Al Qaththan from Ubaidullah, who told me from Nafi', that Abdullah bin Abdullah and Salim bin Abdullah once had a discussion with Abdullah bin Umar when Hajjaj intended to fight Ibn Zubair. They said to Abdullah, "It seems there is no harm if you do not go for Hajj this year, for fear that there will be fighting and you will be prevented from performing it." Abdullah replied, "If I am prevented from the Sacred House, then I will do as the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, did, and at that time I was with him, when he was prevented from the Sacred House by the disbelievers of Quraysh. I bear witness before you that I have obligated Umrah upon myself." So Abdullah set out, and when he reached Dzulhulaifah, he began ihram for Umrah. Then he said, "If I am allowed, I will complete my Umrah, but if I am prevented from the Sacred House, I will do as the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, did, and at that time I was with him." Then he recited the verse: "Indeed, in the Messenger of Allah there is a good example for you..." (Al-Ahzab: 21). After that, he continued his journey to Baida'. Then he said, "Indeed, Hajj and Umrah are one. If I am prevented from Umrah, then I am prevented from Hajj as well. I will show you how to perform Hajj together with Umrah." And he continued his journey. When he reached Quda'id, he purchased a sacrificial animal. Then he performed tawaf of the Sacred House once, sa'i between Safa and Marwa once, and he did not come out of ihram except on the Day of Nahr, the tenth of Dhu al-Hijjah. And narrated to us Ibn Numair, narrated to us my father, narrated to us Ubaidullah from Nafi', he said: Ibn Umar intended to perform Hajj when Hajjaj wanted to fight Ibn Zubair. He then narrated the hadith similar to the story above. And at the end of the hadith, he mentioned: Ibn Umar said, "Whoever combines Hajj and Umrah, then one tawaf is sufficient for him, and he should not come out of ihram until he comes out of both together.

"And narrated to us Muhammad bin Rumh, who informed us from Laits, and in another narration Qutaibah, whose wording is also his, narrated to us from Laits from Nafi', that Ibn Umar intended to perform Hajj when Hajjaj wanted to fight Ibn Zubair. It was said to him, "Indeed, there will be fighting among the people, and we fear they will prevent you." Ibn Umar replied, "Indeed, in the Messenger of Allah there is an excellent example for you. I will do as the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, did. I bear witness before you that I have obligated Umrah upon myself." So he set out, and when he approached Baida', he said, "Hajj and Umrah are nothing but one matter. Bear witness," and Ibn Rumh added, "I bear witness before you that I have obligated Hajj along with my Umrah." Then Ibn Umar slaughtered the sacrificial animal which he had purchased at Quda'id. After that, he proceeded and entered ihram for Hajj and Umrah. When he arrived in Makkah, he performed tawaf around the Ka'bah, then sa'i between Safa and Marwa, and he did not add anything beyond that. He did not slaughter again, did not shave, did not shorten his hair, and did not exit from ihram until the Day of Nahr. Then he sacrificed his animal. According to him, the tawaf he had performed at first sufficed for both Hajj and Umrah. Then Ibn Umar said, "This is what the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, did." Narrated to us Abu Rabi' Az Zahrani and Abu Kamil, who narrated to us from Hammad, and in another narration Zuhair bin Harb who narrated to us from Isma'il, both from Ayyub from Nafi' from Ibn Umar with this story. And in this version he did not mention the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, except at the beginning of the hadith, when it was said to him, "They will prevent you from the Sacred House," and Ibn Umar replied, "If so, I will do as the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, did." And at the end of the hadith he also did not mention, "This is what the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, did," as Laits had mentioned.

Narrated to us Suraij bin Yunus, narrated to us Husyaim, narrated to us Humaid from Bakr from Anas, may Allah be pleased with him, he said, "I heard the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, recite the talbiyah for both Hajj and Umrah together." Bakr said, then I told this to Ibn Umar, and he said, "He only recited the talbiyah for Hajj alone." Then I went to Anas and told him what Ibn Umar had said, so Anas replied, "You people only consider us as children at that time. I indeed heard the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, say: Labbaika Umratan wa Hajjan (O Allah, I answer Your call for Umrah together with Hajj).

Ibn Umar replied, 'Yes, it is permissible.' But Ibn Abbas said, 'Do not circumambulate the Kaaba until you perform wuquf in Arafah.' Ibn Umar replied, 'What prevents you from doing so?' The man said, 'Indeed, I saw Ibn Fulan dislike it, and we prefer you over him. We see that he has been consumed by the trials of this world.' Ibn Umar said, 'Who among you is not consumed by the trials of this world?' Then he said, 'We saw the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, enter ihram for Hajj, then circumambulate the Kaaba and perform sa'i between Safa and Marwah. "Narrated to me Harun bin Sa'id Al Aili, narrated to us Ibn Wahb, informed me Amru bin Al Harits from Muhammad bin Abdurrahman that a man from the people of Iraq said to him, 'Ask Urwah bin Zubair for me about a man who entered ihram for Hajj. After circumambulating the Kaaba, may he release ihram or not? If he says it is permissible, tell him that someone else said the same.' Muhammad bin Abdurrahman said: So I asked Urwah, and he replied, 'It is not permissible to release ihram for someone who entered ihram for Hajj except with Hajj.' I said, 'Indeed, someone permitted it.' Urwah said, 'How bad is what he said.' Then the man detained me, so I conveyed it to him. The man said, 'Tell him that someone who permitted it narrated that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, did so, and what about Asma' and Zubair who also did it?' So I went to Urwah and conveyed it to him, but he asked, 'Who is this person, why doesn't he come himself to ask? I suspect he is an Iraqi.' I replied, 'I don't know.' Urwah said, 'Indeed, he has lied. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, performed Hajj. Aishah informed me that the first thing he did upon arriving in Mecca was perform wudu, then circumambulate the Kaaba. Abu Bakr performed Hajj, and the first thing he did was circumambulate the Kaaba, not otherwise. Umar did the same. Then Uthman performed Hajj, and I saw the first thing he did was circumambulate the Kaaba, not otherwise. Then Mu'awiyah and Abdullah bin Umar. I also performed Hajj with Abu Zubair bin Al Awwam, and the first thing he did was circumambulate the Kaaba, not otherwise. I saw the Muhajirin and Ansar do the same, not otherwise. The last I saw was Ibn Umar, and he never replaced it with Umrah. Now Ibn Umar is among them, so why don't they ask him? Not one of those who preceded us failed to start with circumambulating the Kaaba upon arriving in Mecca. After that, they did not release ihram. Indeed, I saw my mother and aunt when they arrived in Mecca; they did not start with any ritual at the Kaaba except circumambulating the Kaaba, then they did not release ihram. My mother informed me that she, her sister, Zubair, so-and-so, and so-and-so performed Umrah, and when they touched the corner, they released ihram. Indeed, that Iraqi lied about what he said.'

Then, on the fourth day, the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, came with his companions (during the months of Hajj) to enter ihram for Hajj, but then he ordered his companions to make their ihram for Umrah, which was very significant for them. Narrated to us by [Abu Kamil Fudlail bin Husain Al Jahdari] Narrated to us by [Abdul Wahid bin Ziyad] Narrated to us by [Al Jurairi] from [Abu Thufail] he said; I once asked [Ibnu Abbas], 'Do you know about jogging three rounds at the House and walking four rounds, is that the teaching of the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him)? Because your people consider that it is the teaching of the Prophet (peace be upon him).' Ibnu Abbas answered, 'They are right, but they also lied.' I asked, 'What do you mean by saying that they are right, but lied?' Ibnu Abbas answered, 'Indeed, the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) came to Mecca, then the polytheists said that Muhammad and his companions are unable to tawaf at the House because of weakness. Those polytheists envied the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him).' Ibnu Abbas continued; 'Therefore, the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) ordered his companions to jog three rounds and walk normally four rounds.' I asked again to Ibnu Abbas, 'Tell me about Sa'i between Safa and Marwah by riding. Is that also included in the teaching of the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him)? Because, your people consider that it is also sunnah.' Ibnu Abbas answered, 'They are right, but they lied.' I asked, 'What do you mean?' Ibnu Abbas answered, 'The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) was once surrounded by many people, they said this is Prophet Muhammad, this is Prophet Muhammad, so that women came out of the house.' Ibnu Abbas continued, 'At the beginning he did (sa'i), not many people in front of the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) came, until when the number of people increased, then he did sa'i by riding, but doing sa'i by walking and jogging is more preferable.' And Narrated to us by [Muhammad bin Al Mutsanna] Narrated to us by [Yazid] it was informed to us by [Al Jurairi] with this chain, like it, except he mentioned; 'The people of Mecca are a people who are envious (Qaumu Hasadin).' And he did not mention; 'Yahsudun (they continuously envy).'

Narrated to me by [Abu Rabi' Az Zahrani] Narrated to us by [Hammad bin Zaid] from [Ayyub] from [Sa'id bin Jubair] from [Ibnu Abbas] he said; The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) and his companions came to Mecca to perform Hajj in a weak state due to the fever of Madinah. Then the polytheists of Mecca said to each other, 'Tomorrow, a people will come here who are weak because they were attacked by exhausting fever.' Therefore, they sat near the Hijr watching the Muslims tawaf. The Prophet (peace be upon him) ordered them to jog three rounds and walk normally four rounds between two prostrations so that the polytheists see their agility. Then the polytheists said to each other, 'Is this the people you said are weak due to hot sickness, it turns out they are stronger than this and that group.' Ibnu Abbas said; 'And nothing prevented him from ordering them to jog in all rounds, except for his mercy towards them.'

Narrated to us by [Yahya bin Yahya] Narrated to us by [Abu Mu'awiyah] from [Hisham bin Urwah] from [his father] from [Aisyah] (may Allah be pleased with her). Urwah said; I said to Aisyah, 'I think, if someone does not sa'i between Safa and Marwah it does not invalidate his Hajj.' Aisyah asked, 'What is your reason?' I answered, 'Namely the words of Allah which read: 'Indeed Safa and Marwah are part of the symbols of Allah's religion....' (Al Baqarah: 158), Aisyah said, 'The Hajj and Umrah of someone is not complete without sa'i between Safa and Marwah. If true what you say, surely the words of Allah should read: 'It is not sinful for someone who does not sa'i between them.' Do you know why? The reason is; In the Jahiliyyah era the Ansar worshiped two idols located on the beach, namely the idol called Isaf and Nailah. After they came to those two idols, they sa'i between Safa and Marwah and after that, they shaved. After Islam came, they were reluctant to Sa'i between them, because they did not want to remember their actions during Jahiliyyah. Then Allah revealed the verse: 'Indeed Safa and Marwah are part of the symbols of Allah's religion....' (Al Baqarah: 158), So since then they sa'i between them.'

And Narrated to us by [Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah] Narrated to us by [Abu Usamah] Narrated to us by [Hisyam bin Urwah] it was informed to me by [his father] he said, I once said to [Aisyah], 'According to me, I am not sinful if I do not perform Sa'i between Safa and Marwah.' Aisyah asked, 'Why?' I answered, 'Because Allah the Almighty has said: 'Indeed Safa and Marwah are part of the symbols of Allah's religion....' (Al Baqarah: 158) Aisyah said, 'If true what you say, then the verse should read: 'It is not sinful for someone who does not sa'i between them.'" Aisyah continued, 'Indeed this verse was revealed concerning the Ansar people. In the past when ihram, they ihram for Manat (a large stone in Qadid during Jahiliyyah), and they did not tahallul, until they Sa'i between Safa and Marwah. So when they came to perform Hajj with the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), they were reluctant to Sa'i between Safa and Marwah. Then Allah revealed: 'Indeed Safa and Marwah are part of the symbols of Allah's religion. So whoever performs Hajj to the House or Umrah, it is not sinful for him to perform sa'i between them.' Narrated to me by [Harmalah bin Yahya] it was informed to us by [Ibnu Wahb] it was informed to me by [Yunus] from [Ibnu Syihab] from [Urwah bin Zubair] that [Misbah bin Abdurrahman] informed him that he once came to [Aisyah] the wife of the Prophet (peace be upon him), then he said, 'With the name of Allah, I ask you by Allah, did the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) perform Sa'i between Safa and Marwah?' Aisyah answered, 'Yes, by the One who my soul is in His hand.' Misbah said, 'Indeed, some people say that if someone does not sa'i between Safa and Marwah. And I myself do not care to not sa'i between them.' So Aisyah said, 'Your opinion is wrong. O my nephew! The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) and the Muslims all performed sa'i between Safa and Marwah. And that is sunnah. In the past, the worshipers of the idol Manat which is in Musyallal, they indeed did not sa'i between Safa and Marwah. So when Islam came, that we asked to the Prophet (peace be upon him). Then Allah the Almighty revealed the verse: 'Indeed Safa and Marwah are part of the symbols of Allah's religion. So whoever performs Hajj to the House, or Umrah, it is not sinful for them to perform sa'i between them.' (Al Baqarah: 158). If true what you say, then the verse should read: 'It is not sinful for someone who does not sa'i between them.' Az Zuhri said; Then I narrated that to Abu Bakr bin Abdurrahman bin Harits bin Hisyam, then he was amazed saying, 'Indeed, this is really knowledge. I have heard a scholar saying that; People who do not Sa'i between Safa and Marwah are Arabs, they say, 'Indeed our tawaf between these two stones is part of Jahiliyyah actions.' While the Ansar people say, 'We are only ordered to perform tawaf at the House, and not ordered to sa'i between Safa and Marwah.' So Allah revealed the verse: 'Indeed Safa and Marwah are part of the symbols of Allah's religion.' Abu Bakr bin Abdurrahman said; So I have been told, that the verse was revealed to this and that group. And Narrated to me by [Muhammad bin Rafi'] Narrated to us by [Hujain bin Al Mutsanna] Narrated to us by [Laits] from [Uqail] from [Ibnu Syihab] that he said, it was informed to me by [Urwah bin Zubair] he said; 'I asked [Aisyah] ...' He mentioned a similar hadith. Then he mentioned in that hadith; When they asked that to the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), they said, 'O Messenger of Allah, we feel sinful if performing sa'i between Safa and Marwah.' Then Allah the Almighty revealed the verse: 'Indeed Safa and Marwah are part of the symbols of Allah's religion. So whoever performs Hajj to the House, or Umrah, it is not sinful for them to perform sa'i between them.' (Al Baqarah: 158). Aisyah said, 'The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) has included it as a sunnah action, so no one is allowed to leave Sa'i between them.'

And Narrated to us by [Harmalah bin Yahya] it was informed to us by [Ibnu Wahb] it was informed to me by [Yunus] from [Ibnu Syihab] from [Urwah bin Zubair] that [Aisyah] informed him that; In the past the Ansar people before embracing Islam, they and Bani Ghassan worshiped the idol Manat, so they felt sinful to tawaf between Safa and Marwah. That has become the custom of their ancestors, that whoever ihram for Manat, then he may not tawaf between Safa and Marwah. And when they entered Islam, they asked that to the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), then Allah the Almighty revealed the verse regarding that: 'Indeed Safa and Marwah are part of the symbols of Allah. So whoever performs Hajj to the House or Umrah, it is not sinful for him to perform sa'i between them. And whoever does a good deed willingly, then indeed Allah is Appreciative and Knowing.'
