And narrated to me [Ibrahim bin Muhammad bin 'Ar'arah As Sami] and [Muhammad bin Hatim], the wording of both is not much different, and this wording belongs to Ibn Hatim, both said narrated to us ['Abdur Rahman bin Mahdi] narrated to us [Al Mutsanna bin Sa'id] from [Abu Jamrah] from [Ibn Abbas] he said: 'When Abu Dzar heard the news that a prophet was sent in Mecca, he said to Unais: 'O Unais, go to Mecca! After that, inform me about the man who claims he is a messenger of God who receives revelation from heaven. Listen to what he says then convey it to me!' Then Unais departed until he arrived in Mecca and listened to what was said by the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. After that, Unais returned to Abu Dzar saying: 'According to my observation, the prophet sent by God teaches noble morals and conveys His words that are not the same as poetry.' Abu Dzar said: 'It seems I am not satisfied with what you said, O Unais, and I want to know more information. Therefore, it is better for me to go there myself.' Then Abu Dzar prepared various supplies and brought a bag containing drinking water. After that, he departed to Mecca. Upon arriving in Mecca, he went straight to the Masjid al-Haram to meet the Messenger of Allah. But because he did not know him yet and was reluctant to ask, he had difficulty meeting him. When night came, he slept lying near the Ka'bah. While Ali saw him and knew that the lying person was a stranger. So Ali accompanied that person without anyone asking between the two until morning. Then Abu Dzar brought his water bag and supplies to the mosque. He stayed there all day, but he did not see the Prophet Muhammad, peace and blessings be upon him, until evening. Then he returned to his resting place. Not long after, Ali passed by that place saying: 'Why hasn't this person gone home yet?' Finally, Ali invited him to stay with him without anyone asking about anything between them. On the third day, Abu Dzar did the same as the previous day. Then Ali invited him again to stay with him. Ali asked Abu Dzar: 'Why did you come to this city of Mecca?' Abu Dzar answered: 'If you promise to guide me, then I will do it.' Then Abu Dzar told his intention to Ali. Hearing his story, Ali said: 'Actually, Muhammad is true and he is the messenger of Allah. It is better, tomorrow morning you follow me. Because if I worry about something on you, then I will stand up, as if I am pouring water. Therefore, follow where I go!' Abu Dzar went following Ali's departure, until both entered the house of the Prophet Muhammad, peace and blessings be upon him. Then Abu Dzar listened to the explanation of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, until he immediately entered Islam at that moment. The Prophet Muhammad, peace and blessings be upon him, said to Abu Dzar: 'Go home to your people and convey the Islamic teachings to them until you get the victory of Islam.' Abu Dzar said: 'By Allah who controls myself, indeed I will convey Islam to them as clearly as possible.' Then Abu Dzar left the house of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, going to the Masjid al-Haram. Upon arriving there, he shouted with all his might saying: 'I bear witness that there is no god worthy of worship except Allah alone and I bear witness that Muhammad is the messenger of Allah.' Hearing that shout, the residents of Mecca were shocked and came to the source of the voice. After knowing that the one announcing the voice was a stranger and not a resident of Mecca, they immediately beat him until he fell. Not long after, Abbas bin Abdul Muththalib came to protect him saying: 'Woe to you! Don't you know that the person you beat is from the Ghifar tribe? And aren't you aware that your trade route to the land of Sham will surely pass through the Ghifar tribe's territory?' Then Abbas immediately saved Abu Dzar from the fury of the Quraysh people. The next day Abu Dzar still did the same act, until the Quraysh people of Mecca came to beat him. Then Abbas came to protect and save him from their fury.

Narrated to me [Abdul Hamid bin Bayan] informed us [Khalid] from [Bayan] from [Qais] from [Jarir] he said: In the Jahiliyah era there was a house named Dzul Khalshah, that house was usually called Al Ka'bah Al Yamaniyah and Al Ka'bah As Syamiyah. Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said to him: 'Can you please me by destroying Dzul Khalashah or Al Ka'bah Al Yamaniyah and Syamiyah?' Jabir said: then I departed with one hundred and fifty strong cavalry troops. We destroyed it and killed the people around it. Then I returned to inform him of the success to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and the Messenger prayed for us and the strong horsemen.

Narrated to us [Ishaq bin Ibrahim] and ['Abad bin Humaid] and this wording belongs to 'Abad who said Informed us ['Abdur Razzaq] Informed us [Ma'mar] from [Az Zuhri] from [Salim] from [Ibnu 'Umar] who said 'If someone had a dream during the time of the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him, he would narrate that dream to the Messenger of Allah, until I also really wanted to have a dream and narrate it to him. When I was a teenager, during the time of the Messenger of Allah, I once fell asleep in the mosque. In that sleep, I dreamed that there were two angels who captured me and took me to Hell whose edges were walled like a well with two ropes like well ropes. It turned out that inside the well there were some people I knew and immediately I said: 'I seek refuge in Allah from the punishment of Hell. I seek refuge in Allah from the punishment of Hell. I seek refuge in Allah from the punishment of Hell.' Not long after, the two angels were met by another angel and he said to me 'You will be safe.' Then I narrated my dream to Hafshah and Hafshah narrated it to the Messenger of Allah. Then the Messenger of Allah said: 'The best person is Abdullah bin 'Amru, if he is willing to perform prayer in part of the night.' Salim said 'After that Abdullah bin 'Amru never slept at night except for a short while.' Narrated to us ['Abdullah bin 'Abdur Rahman Ad Darimi] Informed us [Musa bin Khalid Khatan Al Firyabi] from [Abu Ishaq Al Fazari] from ['Ubaidillah bin 'Umar] from [Nafi'] from [Ibnu 'Umar] who said I spent the night in the mosque, at that time I did not have a family I could stay with. Then I dreamed as if I was taken to a well...-then he mentioned the Hadith from the Prophet peace be upon him similar to the Hadith of Az Zuhri from Salim from his father.-

Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Al Mutsanna Al 'Anbari] Narrated to us [Mu'adz bin Mu'adz] Narrated to us ['Abdullah bin 'Aun] from [Muhammad bin Sirin] from [Qais bin 'Ubad] who said One day I was in Madinah with people among whom were companions of the Prophet peace be upon him. Then someone came and on his face there was a sign of humility. People said That person is from the inhabitants of Paradise, that person is from the inhabitants of Paradise. Then he prayed two light rak'ahs. When he left the mosque, I followed him until he entered the house, I also entered with him then we chatted. When he heard, I said to him When you entered the mosque, people said like this and that. That person said Glory be to Allah, it is not proper for someone to say something he does not know. I will tell you, I dreamed something during the time of the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him then I narrated that dream to him, I dreamed as if I was in a garden, -Ibnu 'Aun said he mentioned its vastness, the green of its grass, and in the middle there was an iron pillar, its bottom embedded in the earth and its top reaching the sky. At the top there was a rope then it was said to me: Climb. I said I can't. Then a misnhaaf came -Ibnu 'Aun said al minshaf is a servant- then he lifted my clothes from behind, he said Climb. So I climbed until I was on top of the pillar and grabbed the rope, he said Hold on to the rope. Then I woke up and the rope was in my hand. I came to the Prophet peace be upon him then I narrated it to him. The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said: 'The meaning of that plant is Islam, its pillar is the pillar of Islam while its rope is the firm rope, and you are in Islam until you die.' Ibnu 'Aun said: 'The person meant is ['Abdullah bin Salam].'

Narrated to us [Muhammad bin 'Amru bin 'Abbad bin Jabalah bin Abu Rawwad] Narrated to us [Harami bin 'Umarah] Narrated to us [Qurrah bin Khalid] from [Muhammad bin Sirin] who said [Qais bin 'Ubad] said One day I was in a gathering in which there were Sa'ad bin Malik, Ibnu Umar. Then [Abdullah bin Salam] passed by them. People said That person is from the inhabitants of Paradise. So I stood to meet him and I said to him People said like this and that. Abdullah bin Salam said Glory be to Allah, it is not proper for someone to say something he does not know. I only dreamed something as if a pillar was placed in a green garden, then embedded in it. At the top of the pillar there was a rope while below it there was a servant. Then it was said to me: Climb. So I climbed until I grabbed the rope. Then I narrated that dream to the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him so the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said: 'Abdullah will die in a state holding the strong rope.'

Narrated to us [Qutaibah bin Sa'id] and [Ishaq bin Ibrahim] and this wording belongs to Qutaibah Narrated to us [Jarir] from [Al A'masy] from [Sulaiman bin Mushir] from [Kharasyah bin Al Hurr] who said 'I once sat in a circle in the mosque of Madinah led by a sheikh with an attractive appearance, namely [Abdullah bin Salam], who gave advice to the congregation.' Kharasyah said 'After Abdullah bin Salam stood up, the congregation exclaimed 'Whoever wants to see someone who is from the people of Paradise, then look at this sheikh!' Kharasyah said 'Then I said 'By Allah, I will surely follow him so that I know where his house is.' Then I followed the sheikh who walked almost out of Madinah until he entered his house.' Kharasyah said 'Then I asked permission from him and he allowed me to enter his house.' The sheikh asked me 'Is there something I can help with, O my nephew?' I answered 'I heard the congregation say about you when you stood up. Whoever wants to see someone who will enter Paradise, then look at this sheikh, until finally I followed you.' Abdullah bin Salam said 'Actually only Allah knows about the people who will enter Paradise. I will inform you about what they said earlier 'I once had a dream and in that dream I was approached by a man. Then that man said to me 'O Abdullah, wake up!' Then he held my hand and went with it. It turned out that on my left there was a long road and I wanted to pass over that road. But that man said to me 'Do not pass that road, because that is the road of the misguided people! Besides that, there is also a long road on my right. Then that man said to me, 'Pass this road!' Then he took me to a mountain. Upon arriving there he said 'Climb!' But, every time I climbed, I fell on my buttocks. Then he invited me to go until we arrived at a pillar whose tip is in the sky and its base on the earth and there is a circle at the top. That man said to me 'Climb to the top of this pillar!' I answered 'How can I climb to the top, while its tip is in the sky?' Then that man held my hand and threw me up until I was hanging on the circle at the top of the pillar. After that, he hit the pillar until it collapsed, while I remained hanging on the circle until morning. Abdullah bin Salam said 'The next day I came to meet the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him to narrate that dream to him.' Then the Messenger of Allah explained that dream to me: 'The road you saw on your left is the road of the misguided people, while the road you saw on your right is the road of the good people. The mountain is the home of the martyrs, but you cannot reach it. The pillar is the religion of Islam, while the circle where you hold on is the religion of Islam which you will always hold until you die.'

Narrated to us ['Abdul Malik bin Syu'aib bin Al Laits] Narrated to me [my father] from [my grandfather] Narrated to me [Khalid bin Yazid] Narrated to me [Sa'id bin Abu Hilal] from ['Umarah bin Ghaziyyah] from [Muhammad bin Ibrahim] from [Abu Salamah bin 'Abdur Rahman] from ['Aisyah] that the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said: 'Humiliate the Quraysh disbelievers with poetry, because that is more painful than arrow shots.' Once, the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him sent someone to Ibnu Rawahah to convey his message which read Humiliate the Quraysh disbelievers with your poetry!' Then Ibnu Rawahah launched an attack on them with his poetry, but it seems the Messenger of Allah was not satisfied yet. After that, the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him sent a messenger to Ka'ab bin Malik. Then also sent a messenger to Hassan bin Tsabit. When the messenger came to him, Hassan said 'The time has come for you to send a lion that wags its tail, sticks out and moves its tongue. By the One who has sent you with the truth, I will tear the hearts of the Quraysh disbelievers with this poetry of mine like tearing skin.' But the Messenger of Allah warned him first: 'O Hassan, do not be hasty, because indeed Abu Bakr knows more about the genealogy of the Quraysh people. While the genealogy of Quraysh itself is on me.' Then Hassan bin Tsabit went to visit Abu Bakr. After that, he returned to meet the Messenger of Allah and said O Messenger of Allah, your genealogy I have known its lineage. By the One who has sent you with the truth, I will surely be able to pull you out and their group as a grain of wheat is pulled from its dough.' Aisyah said 'Then I heard the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him say: 'Indeed Gabriel peace be upon him will always support you O Hassan as long as you humiliate the disbelievers with your poetry to defend Allah and His Messenger.' Aisyah said Hassan bin Tsabit hurled humiliating poems at the Quraysh with great force.' Hassan bin Tsabit said in his poetry 'You humiliate Muhammad, then I reply to your humiliation, # and with that I earn reward in the sight of Allah. # You humiliate Muhammad, a good and sincere person, # the messenger of Allah who never breaks promises. # My father, my grandmother, and my honor I dedicate for the honor of Muhammad and your attack. # I will spur my horse that you cannot catch piercing the enemy and keep climbing. # Our cavalry troops dash up the hill, with our arrows ready to be launched. # Our horses keep running, with our flags arranged by the women. # Your challenge we will surely face, until victory is in our hands. # If not, then wait for the time of battle # which Allah will give # glory to whom He wills. # Allah says: 'I have sent a servant, # who conveys the truth without hiding.' # Allah says: 'I have prepared assistance, # namely the Ansar troops who long for the enemy. # Every day we are ready to face insults, # battles, or humiliations. # Your insults, praises and help to the Messenger of Allah, all that means nothing to him. # Gabriel sent by Allah to help us, he is the Holy Spirit who is unmatched.

PRAYER OF THE RASULULLAH SHALALLAHU ALAIHI WASALLAM FOR MOTHER ABU HURAIRAH TO RECEIVE HIDAYAH

Narrated to us [Amru An Naqid] Narrated to us [Umar bin Yunus Al Yamami] Narrated to us ['Ikrimah bin 'Ammar] from [Abu Katsir Yazid bin 'Abdur Rahman] Narrated to me [Abu Hurairah] who said 'In the past, I often invited my mother to enter Islam, when she was still polytheist. One day I invited her to enter Islam, but she uttered words that I did not like about the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him. Then I came to meet the Messenger of Allah while crying and said O Messenger of Allah, I often invite my mother to enter Islam, but she always refuses and even says to me words that I do not like about you. Therefore, ask Allah so that my mother gets His guidance and direction.' After hearing my explanation. The Messenger of Allah immediately prayed: 'O Allah, give guidance to the mother of Abu Hurairah!' Then I returned home feeling happy because of the prayer of the Messenger of Allah. Upon arriving home, I found the house door still closed. My mother heard my footsteps then said O Abu Hurairah, stop for a moment!' Then I heard the sound of water spilling. It turned out my mother was bathing. She quickly dressed and put on her veil. She opened the door while saying O Abu Hurairah, now I testify that there is no god but Allah and I testify that Muhammad is the servant of Allah and His Messenger.' Abu Hurairah said 'Then I returned again to the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him. I approached him while crying because of joy. I said 'O Messenger of Allah, I am truly happy and joyful, Allah has granted your prayer. And Allah has given His guidance to my mother.' The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him praised Allah and thanked Him. I said 'O Messenger of Allah, ask Allah so that I and my mother love the believers and they also love us!' Then the Messenger of Allah prayed 'O Allah, make this Your little servant (namely Abu Hurairah and his mother) love the believers and make them love both!' So there is no believer who hears my name and does not meet me except he loves me.'

I used to be a poor person who always helped the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him who ate just staple food, while the Muhajirin were busy with trade in the markets, and the Ansar were busy with their possessions, then the Prophet peace be upon him said: 'Who among you wants to spread his cloth then he will never forget what he hears from me?' So I spread my cloth until he finished saying his words then I attached my cloth to my body. After that I never forgot the Hadiths I heard from him.' Narrated to me [Abdullah bin Ja'far bin Yahya bin Khalid] Informed us [Ma'an] Informed us [Malik] Similarly narrated from another chain, And narrated to us [Abad bin Humaid] Informed us [Abdur Razzaq] Informed us [Ma'mar] all from [Az Zuhri] from [Al A'raj] from [Abu Hurairah] with this Hadith. ABU HURAIRAH EXPLAINS THE REASON WHY HE MEMORIZED MORE HADITH THAN THE MUHAJIRIN AND ANSHAR

قَالَ ابْنُ شِهَابٍ وَقَالَ ابْنُ الْمُسَيَّبِ إِنَّ أَبَا هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ يَقُولُونَ إِنَّ أَبَا هُرَيْرَةَ قَدْ أَكْثَرَ وَاللَّهِ الْمَوْعِدُ وَيَقُولُونَ مَا بَالُ الْمُهَاجِرِينَ وَالْأَنْصَارِ لَا يَتَحَدَّثُونَ مِثْلَ أَحَادِيثِهِ وَسَأُخْبِرُكُمْ عَنْ ذَلِكَ إِنَّ إِخْوَانِي مِنَ الْأَنْصَارِ كَانَ يَشْغَلُهُمْ عَمَلٌ أَرْضِيهِمْ وَإِنَّ إِخْوَانِي مِنَ الْمُهَاجِرِينَ كَانَ يَشْغَلُهُمُ الصَّفْقُ بِالْأَسْوَاقِ وَكُنْتُ أَلْزِمُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلَى مِلءِ بَطْنِي فَأَشْهَدُ إِذَا غَابُوا وَأَحْفَظُ إِذَا نَسُوا وَلَقَدْ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَوْمًا أَيُّكُمْ يَبْسُطُ ثَوْبَهُ فَيَأْخُذُ مِنْ حَدِيثِي هَذَا ثُمَّ يَجْمَعُهُ إِلَى صَدْرِهِ فَإِنَّهُ لَمْ يَنْسَ شَيْئًا سَمِعَهُ فَبَسَطْتُ بُرْدَةً عَلَيَّ حَتَّى فَرَغَ مِنْ حَدِيثِهِ ثُمَّ جَمَعْتُهَا إِلَى صَدْرِي فَمَا نَسِيتُ بَعْدَ ذَلِكَ الْيَوْمَ شَيْئًا حَدَّثَنِي بِهِ وَلَوْلَا آيَتَانِ أَنْزَلَهُمَا اللَّهُ فِي كِتَابِهِ مَا حَدَّثْتُ شَيْئًا أَبَدًا { إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يَكْتُمُونَ مَا أَنْزَلْنَا مِنَ الْبَيِّنَاتِ وَالْهُدَى } إِلَى آخِرِ الْآيَتَيْنِ وَحَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ الدَّارِمِيُّ أَخْبَرَنَا أَبُو الْيَمَانِ عَنْ شُعَيْبٍ عَنِ الزُّهْرِيِّ أَخْبَرَنِي سَعِيدُ بْنُ الْمُسَيَّبِ وَأَبُو سَلَمَةَ بْنُ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ أَنَّ أَبَا هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ إِنَّكُمْ تَقُولُونَ إِنَّ أَبَا هُرَيْرَةَ يُكْثِرُ الْحَدِيثَ عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِنَحْوِ حَدِيثِهِمْ

Said [Ibnu Syihab] and said [Ibnu Al Musayyab] that [Abu Hurairah] once said 'People say that Abu Hurairah narrates many Hadiths. Allah the Exalted gives him opportunity with the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him.' People said 'Why do the Muhajirin and Ansar not narrate Hadiths as many as Abu Hurairah's narrations?' I (Abu Hurairah) will tell you about this: My brothers from the Ansar are busy farming and my brothers from the Muhajirin are busy buying and selling in the markets. While I always accompany the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him, so I hear more of his words. I am present when they, the companions from the Ansar and Muhajirin, are not present and I memorize when they forget.' One day, the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said: 'Who among you is willing to spread his cloth to accommodate my words? After that, attach that cloth to his chest, because by doing so he will never forget a single Hadith he ever heard from me.' Hearing the statement of the Messenger of Allah, then I spread my shawl until the Messenger of Allah finished speaking, Then I attached that shawl to my chest. Since then, I have never forgotten a single Hadith he said to me. If there were not two verses of the Quran revealed by Allah, surely I would never convey a single Hadith I ever heard. Those two verses are: 'Indeed those who hide what We have revealed in the form of clear explanations and guidance after We explain it to humans in the Quran, then they will be cursed by Allah and also cursed by all creatures that can curse, except those who repent and make improvements and explain the truth, then to them I accept their repentance and I am the Most Accepting of repentance and the Most Merciful' (QS. Al-Baqarah 159). And narrated to us ['Abdullah bin 'Abdur Rahman Ad Darimi] Informed us [Abu Yaman] from [Syu'aib] from [Az Zuhri] Informed me [Sa'id bin Al Musayyab] and [Abu Salamah bin 'Abdur Rahman] that [Abu Hurairah] said Indeed you say, why does Abu Hurairah memorize many Hadiths from the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him..and so on with a similar Hadith.

Narrated to us [Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah], ['Amru An Naqid], [Zuhair bin Harb], [Ishaq bin Ibrahim] and [Ibnu Abu 'Umar] this wording belongs to 'Amru. [Ishaq] said Informed us, while the others said Narrated to us [Sufyan bin 'Uyainah] from ['Amru] from [Al Hasan bin Muhammad] Informed me ['Ubaidullah bin Abu Rafi'] that is a scribe of Ali who said I heard [Ali] say 'The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him once assigned me, Zubair, and Miqdad. Before leaving, the Messenger of Allah said: 'Go to the Khakh garden and there is a woman carrying a letter. Then, seize that letter from her!' Then we left riding horses and there we met a woman. Then we said to her 'Take out the letter you are carrying!' The woman answered 'I am not carrying a letter.' We said to her while giving an ultimatum 'You take out that letter or we will strip you by force.' So she took out the letter from behind her hair bun. Then we brought that letter to the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him and it turned out that in it was written 'From Hathib bin Abu Balta'ah to the Quraysh disbelievers in Makkah about some affairs of the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him.' The Messenger of Allah asked 'O Hathib, what is this?' Hathib answered 'O Messenger of Allah, do not be hasty in anger towards me! Actually I used to be close to the Quraysh disbelievers in Makkah (Abu Sufyan said 'Hathib is an ally of the Quraysh disbelievers, but he himself is not from Quraysh). I also used to migrate with you leaving the family in the city of Makkah which they are cared for by their relatives. When their relatives are no longer there, then I want there to be a guarantee from them to protect my family. Of course, I do this not because of disbelief or apostasy from my religion. Because, anyway I do not want to become a disbeliever after entering Islam.' Hearing the direct explanation from Hathib, the Messenger of Allah said: 'You are right O Hathib.' Suddenly Umar bin al-Khattab said 'O Messenger of Allah, allow me to behead this hypocrite!' The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said: 'O Umar, do you know that Hathib also participated in the battle of Badr. Do you not know that indeed Allah has given leniency to those who participated in the battle of Badr and said: 'Please do as you please, indeed I have forgiven you!' Then Allah the Exalted revealed the verse which reads: 'O you who believe, do not make My enemies and your enemies as loyal friends.' (Al Mumtahanah (60): 1). Ishaq included that verse in his narration based on the recitation of Abu Sufyan. Narrated to us [Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah] Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Fudhail] Similarly narrated from another chain, And narrated to us [Ishaq bin Ibrahim] Informed us ['Abdullah bin Idris] Similarly narrated from another chain, And narrated to us [Rifa'ah bin Al Haitsam Al Wasithi] Narrated to us [Khalid] that is Ibnu 'Abdullah all from [Hushain] from [Sa'ad bin 'Ubadah] from [Abu 'Abdur Rahman As Sulami] from ['Ali] who said The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him once assigned me, Abu Martsad Al Ghanawi and Zubair bin Awwam riding horses Before leaving, the Messenger of Allah said: 'Go to the Khakh garden and there is a woman from the polytheists carrying a letter from Hathib to the polytheists... -Next as the Hadith similar to the Hadith of Ubaidullah bin Abu Rafi' from Ali.

Narrated to us [Abu 'Amir Al Asy'ari] and [Abu Kuraib] all from [Abu Usamah] said [Abu 'Amir] Narrated to us [Abu Usamah] [Buraid] from [his grandfather Abu Burdah] from [Abu Musa] who said 'I was once with the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him when he was stopping with Bilal at Ji'ranah, which is an area between Mecca and Medina. Not long after, a Bedouin Arab came to meet the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him and said 'O Muhammad, why do you not fulfill what you promised me?' Then the Messenger of Allah said to that Bedouin Arab: 'There is good news for you.' But the Arab said to the Messenger of Allah 'You always say to me 'There is good news for you.' Then the Messenger of Allah turned away from him and faced Abu Musa and Bilal like the attitude of someone who is angry while saying: 'Apparently that Bedouin Arab rejects good news from me. It is better for you to face him.' Both companions answered 'We accept it O Messenger of Allah!' After that the Messenger of Allah asked for a glass of water. Then he washed both hands and his face with that water. Then he spat into that water while saying to Abu Musa and Bilal: 'Drink this water O Abu Musa and Bilal! After that, pour that water to wash your faces and necks. Then convey the good news about Islam to that man!' Both took the glass and immediately carried out what the Messenger of Allah ordered them. Not long after, Ummu Salamah, the wife of the Messenger of Allah, called Abu Musa and Bilal from behind the curtain 'O Bilal and Abu Musa, save that water for me (your mother)!' Finally they saved that water for Ummu Salamah.

Narrated to us [Abdullah bin Barrad Abu 'Amir Al Asy'ari] and [Abu Kuraib Muhammad bin Al A'laa] this wording belongs to Abu 'Amir who said Narrated to us [Abu Usamah] [Buraidd] from [Abu Burdah] from [his father] who said 'After the battle of Hunain, the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him assigned Abu Amir to lead the Muslim troops to Authas. Then Abu Amir attacked Duraidd bin Ash-Shimmah until Duraidd was killed in that battle and Allah destroyed His enemies.' Abu Musa said 'The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him once sent me and Abu Amir to the battlefield. At one time, Abu Amir was hit by an arrow right on his knee. A man from Bani Jusyam aimed at him until it hit his knee. Then I approached him while asking 'Uncle, who aimed at you?' Abu Amir signaled to Abu Musa 'The enemy you see there is the one who aimed at me.' Then I chased that person until I caught up with him. When that man saw me, he ran away. But I kept chasing him and then I said to him 'Are you not ashamed to run away from me? Aren't you an Arab man? Stop and let's fight!' Not long after that person stopped and I fought with him. After attacking twice, I managed to kill him with my sword slash. After that I returned to Abu Amir while saying 'O uncle, indeed Allah has killed the person who aimed at uncle.' Abu Amir said 'O Abdullah (the real name of Abu Musa), pull out this arrow!' Then I pulled out the arrow stuck in Abu Amir's knee until blood kept flowing from his knee. Abu Amir said 'O my nephew, go to the Messenger of Allah and convey my greetings to him and say to him 'Abu Amir asks you to pray for him.' Abu Musa said 'After that Abu Amir assigned me to replace him in leading the Muslim troops. Not long after, Abu Amir died.' After returning to Medina, I immediately met the Messenger of Allah at his house. At that time he was on a bed made of earth covered with a mat, while grains of sand and dust stuck to his back and side. Then I informed him about the news of the Muslim troops and the news of Abu Amir. Then I said 'Abu Amir asks the Messenger of Allah to be willing to pray for him.' Then the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him asked for water and immediately performed ablution. After that he raised both hands while praying: 'O Allah, forgive Ubaid and Abu Amir!' (I saw the white of the Messenger of Allah's armpit when raising his hand). Next he prayed: 'O Allah, place Abu Amir, on the Day of Judgment later, above most of Your creatures!' I said to the Messenger of Allah 'O Messenger of Allah, ask forgiveness for me too!' Then the Messenger of Allah prayed: 'O Allah, forgive the sins of Abdullah bin Qais (the real name of Abu Musa) and enter him into a noble place on the Day of Judgment!' Abu Burdah said 'The first prayer for Abu Amir and the next prayer is for Abu Musa.'

both said Narrated to us [Abu Usamah] Narrated to me [Buraid] from [Abu Burdah] from [Abu Musa] who said 'When we were in Yemen, we got information about the purpose of migration ordered by the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him, then we also went to migrate to that area (Abyssinia). At that time we consisted of myself and my two brothers. I was the smallest, while one of my brothers was named Abu Burdah and the other was named Abu Ruhm.' Abu Musa said 'They consisted of several people or fifty-three people or fifty-two people from our people.' Abu Musa said 'We sailed until our boat brought us to King Najasyi in Abyssinia. Then we joined Ja'far bin Abu Thalib and his group at the side of King Najasyi. Ja'far said 'Indeed the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him has sent us here. Besides, he also ordered us to settle here. Therefore, settle with us.' Abu Musa said 'Then we stayed with Ja'far until we all came.' Abu Musa said 'We all met the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him when he had won the battle of Khaibar. He gave us a share of the war spoils. He did not give any share of the war spoils to people who did not participate in the conquest of Khaibar, except to people who fought with him and to people who joined our group with Ja'far and his friends.' Abu Musa said 'There are some people who said to us who joined the migration voyage to Abyssinia 'We excel you in the matter of migration.' Abu Musa said 'Asma' binti Umais, who was included in our voyage group, once visited the house of Hafshah, the wife of the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him. Asma' had participated in migrating to King Najasyi.' At one time Umar bin al-Khattab entered Hafshah's house, coincidentally Asma' was there. When Umar saw Asma' in the house, he asked 'Who is this O Hafshah?' Hafshah answered 'She is Asma' binti Umais!' Umar asked again 'Has she ever migrated to Abyssinia by sailing?' Asma' binti Umais answered 'Yes, I migrated to Abyssinia.' Umar continued his speech 'If so, we are more entitled to the Messenger of Allah than you.' Asma' became angry and said 'You lie O Umar! By Allah, you indeed accompanied the migration of the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him. But he fed the hungry among you and advised the ignorant among you, while we migrated to a very distant land in Abyssinia full of challenges for Allah and His Messenger. By Allah, I will not eat and drink before I report your words to the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him. Because we feel humiliated and anxious. Therefore, I will complain this matter to the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him. By Allah. I do not lie and do not make up.' Abu Musa said 'When the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him came, Asma' said 'O Prophet of Allah, Umar said this and that.' Then the Messenger of Allah said: 'What did you say to her O Umar?' Umar answered 'I said this and that.' Then the Messenger of Allah said: 'He is not more entitled to me than you. He and his companions migrated once, while you the people of the ship migrated twice.' Abu Musa said 'Then Asma' came home and said 'By Allah, I have heard the Messenger of Allah say: 'I am not more entitled to them than to you, and they migrated once while you the people of the ship migrated twice.''' Abu Musa said 'Then people came to her in groups from every direction, and she narrated to them what the Messenger of Allah said, and there was nothing in the world more beloved to them than that.'

Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Al Mutsanna] and [Ibnu Basysyar] both said Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Ja'far] Narrated to us [Syu'bah] from [Qatadah] from [Anas bin Malik] that the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said: 'There will be no city except that Dajjal will enter it except Mecca and Medina. There is no path from its paths except that there are angels lined up guarding it. Then Dajjal will descend in a salty land, then the earth will shake three times, so every disbeliever and hypocrite will come out from it.' Similarly narrated from another chain, And narrated to us [Muhammad bin Al Mutsanna] Narrated to us [Abu Dawud] Narrated to us [Syu'bah] from [Qatadah] I heard [Anas] narrate from the Prophet peace be upon him with a similar Hadith. He said: 'Then Medina will shake three times.' Similarly narrated from another chain, And narrated to us [Qutaibah bin Sa'id] Narrated to us [Laits] from [Ibnu Syihab] from [Sa'id bin Al Musayyab] that [Abu Hurairah] said The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said: 'Dajjal will come from the east, aiming for Medina until he descends behind Uhud. Then the angels will turn his face towards Sham, and there he will perish.'

Abu Salamah said 'Abu Usaid said 'Am I accused of denying the words of the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him? If I lie, surely I would place my people, Bani Saidah, in the first order.' That Hadith reached Sa'ad bin Ubadah. Then he felt offended. Sa'ad bin Ubadah said 'We are placed in the back order, namely the fourth order? O my family, prepare my donkey, I will meet the Messenger of Allah!' But his intention was prevented by Sahal, his nephew, while saying 'O uncle, are you going only to deny the Messenger of Allah, while he knows better than us? Are you not satisfied to be in the fourth order?' Sa'ad said again 'Allah and His Messenger know better.' Then he ordered his servant to tie his donkey and release its saddle. Narrated to us [Amru bin Ali bin Bahr] Narrated to me [Abu Daud] Narrated to us [Harb bin Syadad] from [Yahya bin Abu Katsir] Narrated to me [Abu Salamah] that [Abu Usaid Al Anshari] narrated to him he heard the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him say: 'The best of the Ansar tribes...-and so on with a similar Hadith, but

حَدَّثَنَا ابْنُ أَبِي عُمَرَ حَدَّثَنَا سُفْيَانُ بْنُ عُيَيْنَةَ عَنْ أَبِي الزِّنَادِ عَنْ الْأَعْرَجِ عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ ح وَعَنْ ابْنِ طَاوُسٍ عَنْ أَبِيهِ عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ خَيْرُ نِسَاءٍ رَكِبْنَ الْإِبِلَ قَالَ أَحَدُهُمَا صَالِحُ نِسَاءٍ قُرَيْشٍ وَ قَالَ الْآخَرُ نِسَاءُ قُرَيْشٍ أَحْنَاهُ عَلَى يَتِيمٍ فِي صِغَرِهِ وَأَرْعَاهُ عَلَى زَوْجٍ فِي ذَاتِ يَدِهِ حَدَّثَنَا عُمَرُو النَّاقِدُ حَدَّثَنَا سُفْيَانُ عَنْ أَبِي الزِّنَادِ عَنْ الْأَعْرَجِ عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ يَبْلُغُ بِهِ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَابْنُ طَاوُسٍ عَنْ أَبِيهِ يَبْلُغُ بِهِ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِمِثْلِهِ غَيْرَ أَنَّهُ قَالَ أَرْعَاهُ عَلَى وَلَدٍ فِي صِغَرِهِ وَلَمْ يَقُلْ يَتِيمٍ

Narrated to us [Ibnu Abu 'Umar] Narrated to us [Sufyan bin 'Uyainah] from [Abu Az Zinad] from [Al A'raj] from [Abu Hurairah] Similarly narrated from another chain, and from [Ibnu Thawus] from [his father] from [Abu Hurairah] who said The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said: 'The best women are those who ride camels.' The narrator said among them are the good Quraysh women. While others say Quraysh women are the most loving to children since they were orphans, and most attentive to their husbands. Narrated to us [Amru An Naqid] Narrated to us [Sufyan] from [Abu Az Zinad] from [Al A'raj] from [Abu Hurairah] from [Ibnu Thawus], from [his father] which reaches the Prophet peace be upon him -with a similar Hadith.- but he said attentive to her child when still small. He did not say orphan child.'

[Ibnu Al Mutsanna] said Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Ja'far] Narrated to us [Syu'bah] I heard [Abu Jamrah] Narrated to me [Zahdam bin Madharrib] I heard ['Imran bin Hushain] narrate that the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said: 'The best of you are those who live in my era. Then people in the next era. Then people in the next era. Then people in the next era.' Imran said 'I do not know whether the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him mentioned 'people after my era' two or three times.' After that there will come people who give testimony while they are not asked for testimony. They betray and cannot be trusted. They vow without fulfilling it and among them appear fat. Narrated to me [Muhammad bin Hatim] Narrated to us [Yahya bin Sa'id] Similarly narrated from another chain, And narrated to us ['Abdur Rahman bin Bisyr Al 'Abad] Narrated to us [Bahz] Similarly narrated from another chain, And narrated to me [Muhammad bin Rafi'] Narrated to us [Syababah] all from [Syu'bah] through this chain. And in their Hadith it is mentioned 'I do not know whether he mentioned the era after him two eras or three eras. While in the Hadith of Syababah it is mentioned I heard Zahdam bin Mudharrib when he came to me riding a horse for some need. Then he narrated to me that he heard Imran bin Hushain. As for in the Hadith of Yahya and Syababah it is mentioned 'They vow but do not fulfill it. In the Hadith of Bahaz it is mentioned with the wording 'Yuufuun' (fulfill) as said by Ibnu Ja'far And narrated to us [Qutaibah bin Sa'id] and [Muhammad bin 'Abdul Malik] both said Narrated to us [Abu 'Awanah] Similarly narrated from another chain, And narrated to us [Muhammad bin Al Mutsanna] and [Ibnu Basysyar] both said Narrated to us [Mu'adz bin Hisyam] Narrated to us [my father] both from [Qatadah] from [Zurarah bin Aufa] from ['Imran bin Hushain] from the Prophet peace be upon him with this Hadith. In the Hadith of Abu 'Awanah it is mentioned Imran bin Hushain said Wallahu A'lam, whether he mentioned the era after him three times or not. -as the Hadith of Zahdam from Imran. In the Hadith of Hisyam there is a little addition from Qatadah 'they swear while not being asked to swear.'

in the last days of his life. After saying salam, he stood and said: 'Can you appreciate this night of yours, indeed at the end of a hundred years to come there will be no one still alive on the face of the earth.' Ibnu Umar said 'The companions felt afraid of the words of the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him, so they discussed the meaning of the words a hundred years in that Hadith. Actually the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him only wanted to say: 'At the beginning of the coming century, people living in this era will not one remain alive.' Meaning the era of the companions will end. Narrated to me [Abdullah bin Abdurrahman Ad Daarimi] Informed us [Abul Yaman] Informed us [Syu'aib]. And [Laits] narrated it from [Abdurrahman bin Khalid bin Musafir] both from [Az Zuhri] through the chain of Ma'mar as his Hadith.

Narrated to us [Ishaq bin Ibrahim Al Hanzhali] and [Muhammad bin Al Mutsanna] and [Muhammad bin Basysyar]. [Ishaq] said Informed us. While the others said Narrated to us. This wording belongs to [Ibnu Al Mutsanna] Narrated to us [Mu'adz Ibnu Hisyam] Narrated to me [my father] from [Qatadah] from [Zurarah bin Aufa] from [Usair bin Jabir] who said 'When [Umar bin Khaththab] was approached by a group of people from Yemen, he always asked them 'Is Uwais bin Amir in your group?' Until one day, Caliph Umar bin Khaththab met Uwais while asking 'Are you Uwais bin Amir?' Uwais answered 'Yes. True I am Uwais.' Caliph Umar asked again 'You are from Murad and then from Qaran?' Uwais answered 'Yes true.' Next Caliph Umar asked again 'Have you ever been attacked by leprosy then recovered except remaining as big as a dirham coin on you?' Uwais answered 'Yes true.' Caliph Umar asked again 'Is your mother still alive?' Uwais answered 'Yes, my mother is still alive.' Caliph Umar bin Khaththab said 'O Uwais, indeed I once heard the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him say: 'Uwais bin Amir will come to you with a group of people from Yemen who are from Murad then from Qaran. He has been attacked by leprosy then recovered except remaining as big as a dirham coin. His mother is alive and he always devoted to her. If he swears in the name of Allah then his oath will be granted, so if you can ask to be willing to pray for forgiveness for you, do it!' Therefore O Uwais, pray for forgiveness for me!' Then Uwais prayed for forgiveness for Umar bin Khaththab. After that, Caliph Umar asked Uwais 'Where are you going O Uwais?' Uwais bin Amir answered 'I am going to Kufah O Commander of the Faithful.' Caliph Umar said again 'Do I need to make a special letter to the Kufah official?' Uwais bin Amir answered 'I prefer to be with the common people O Commander of the Faithful.' Usair bin Jabir said 'In the following year, a high official of Kufah went to perform Hajj to Mecca. After performing Hajj, he went to visit Caliph Umar bin Khaththab. Then the Caliph asked about the news of Uwais to him. The official answered 'I let Uwais live in an old house and live in a very simple condition.' Umar bin Khaththab said 'Indeed I once heard the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him say: 'Later Uwais bin Amir will come to you with a group of people from Yemen. He is from Murad and then from Qaran. He has been attacked by leprosy then recovered except remaining as big as a dirham coin. If he swears with the name of Allah, surely his oath will be granted. If you can ask him to be willing to pray for forgiveness for you, then do it!' After that, the Kufah official immediately met Uwais and said to him 'O Uwais, pray for forgiveness for me!' Uwais bin Amir with a feeling of wonder answered 'Aren't you just returned from the holy journey, Hajj in Mecca? Then it should be you who pray for me.' The official remained insistent and said 'Pray for forgiveness for me O Uwais?' Uwais bin Amir answered 'You just returned from Hajj, then you are more worthy to pray for me.' Then Uwais turned to ask the official 'Have you met Caliph Umar bin Khaththab in Medina?' The Kufah official answered 'Yes. I have met him.' Finally Uwais prayed for forgiveness for that Kufah official. After that, Uwais was known by the wider community, but he himself did not change his life and remained as before. Usair said 'Then I gave Uwais a beautiful shawl, until every time people who saw it surely asked 'From where did Uwais get that shawl? "

If you have conquered the land of Egypt, then do good to its inhabitants! Because, anyway, they have the right to be protected, as the non-Muslim dhimmis or because of family ties (or as dhimmis and family relations from marriage ties). If you see two people fighting in Egypt at a brick stone location, then leave that place!' Abu Dzar said 'It turned out I saw Abdurrahman bin Syurahbil bin Hasanah and his brother, namely Rabi'ah fighting at the brick stone place, then I left that place.'

Narrated to us [Uqbah bin Mukram Al 'Ammi] Narrated to us [Ya'qub] that is Ibnu Ishaq Al Hadhrami Informed us [Al Aswad bin Syaiban] from [Abu Naufal] who said 'I once saw Abdullah bin Zubair crucified on a hill between Medina and Mecca. Therefore, it is not surprising, if the Quraysh and other Muslim society pass that place. So Abdullah bin Umar also passed Abdullah bin Zubair and stood near him while saying 'Peace be upon you O Abu Khubaib! # Peace be upon you O Abu Khubaib! # Peace be upon you O Abu Khubaib! # By Allah, indeed I once forbade you to do like this! # By Allah, indeed I once forbade you to do like this! # By Allah, indeed I once forbade you to do like this! ' # Abdullah bin Zubair said 'By Allah, to my knowledge you are a person who diligently wakes up at night to perform prayer diligently connecting family ties. By Allah, you are the worst person in the midst of a good ummah.' After that, Abdullah bin Umar went leaving him. The attitude of Abdullah bin Zubair and his words were known by Hajjaj Ats Tsaqafi. Then he sent troops to lower him from the cross pole and throw him on the Jewish graves. After that, Al Hajjaj sent a messenger to the mother of Abdulah bin Zubair, namely Asma' binti Abu Bakar. But, Asma' did not come to Al Hajjaj. Then once again Al Hajjaj sent his messenger to Asma' binti Abu Bakar bringing a special message from Al Hajjaj which reads 'You come to me or I send troops to drag you to me!' But Asma' binti Abu Bakar remained refusing while saying 'By Allah, I will not come to you even if you send troops to drag me to you!' Al Hajjaj said 'O troops prepare my horse!' Then Hajjaj put on his shoes and departed bringing his troops until they arrived in front of the house [Asma' binti Abu Bakar]. Al Hajjaj asked her 'O old mother, what is your opinion about the deed I have done to the enemy of Allah (meaning his son, namely Abdullah bin Zubair)?' Asma' binti Abu Bakar answered loudly 'In my opinion, you have destroyed his world while he has destroyed your hereafter.' 'I hear' said Asma' 'You said to him (meaning to Abdullah bin Zubair, his son) 'O son of a woman who has two belts!' By Allah, I am the woman who has two belts. One, I used to carry the food of the Messenger of Allah and the food of Abu Bakar from his vehicle, while the other is the belt always needed by women. Indeed the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him once informed us that in Tsaqif there is a liar and a destroyer. That liar we have known, while the destroyer, we have no other suspicion except you.' Abu Naufal said 'Then Al Hajjaj left the place of Asma' binti Abu Bakar without saying a word to her.'

Narrated to us [Qutaibah bin Sa'id] Narrated to us ['Abdul 'Aziz] that is Ibnu Muhammad from [Tsauro] from [Abu Al Ghait] from [Abu Hurairah] who said 'When we were sitting beside the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him, suddenly surah Al Jumu'ah was revealed to him. When the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him recited the verse which reads: '...and others from them who have not yet joined them' suddenly someone asked 'O Messenger of Allah, who are they?' The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him did not answer until that person asked it three times. Coincidentally at that time among us there was Salman Al Farisi. Then the Messenger of Allah placed his hand on Salman while saying: 'If faith is in the place of stars in the sky, surely the Persian people will reach it.'

Narrated to us [Sa'id bin Manshur] Narrated to us ['Abdullah bin Wahb] Informed me ['Amru bin Al Harits] from [Yazid bin Abu Habib] that [Na'im] -slave- Ummu Salamah narrated to him, ['Abdullah bin 'Amru bin Al 'Ash] said 'A man came to the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him then he said: I pledge (promise loyalty) with you will join migration and jihad, because I desire reward from Allah.' The Prophet peace be upon him asked: 'Are your parents still alive?' The person answered 'Even both are still alive.' The Prophet peace be upon him asked again: 'Do you expect reward from Allah?' He answered 'Yes!' The Prophet peace be upon him said 'Go home to your parents, then devote to both with the best.'

Narrated to us [Syaiban bin Farrukh] Narrated to us [Sulaiman bin Al Mughirah] Narrated to us [Humaid bin Hilal] from [Abu Rafi'] from [Abu Hurairah] who said 'Once Juraij worshiped in his place of worship.' Then his mother came -Hamid said Abu Rafi described the nature of Abu Hurairah when exemplifying the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him when his mother called Juraij while placing his hand on his eyelash then raising his head calling Juraij 'O Juraij, I am your mother answer!' It turned out his mother found Juraij praying. Juraij said 'O Allah, my mother or my prayer which I must fulfill?' then Juraij chose to continue his prayer. Then his mother returned to him (at the prayer place), and still found Juraij praying, she said 'O Juraij, I am your mother, answer.' Juraij said in his heart 'O Allah, my mother or my prayer,' then he still chose his prayer. Then his mother came to him and found him praying, she said 'O Juraij, I am your mother, answer me,' Juraij said in his heart 'O Allah, my mother or my prayer,' then he still chose his prayer. And finally His mother said 'O Allah, this Juraij is my child, I have invited him to speak (called him) but he did not answer me, O Allah, do not kill him before he meets a prostitute woman.' if he prayed for Juraij to get fitnah, then Juraij would surely get that fitnah.' Abu Hurairah said 'There was a goat herder who sheltered in his place of worship,' Abu Hurairah said 'then the prostitute woman came out and committed adultery with the goat herder until giving birth to a baby boy,' then the woman was asked 'Whose child is this?' the prostitute woman answered 'Child of the owner of the place of worship.' then people came to Juraij's place of worship bringing axes and shovels, they called Juraij but he turned out to be praying and reluctant to answer it. Finally they destroyed his place of worship. Seeing that, then Juraij descended to meet them, they said 'Ask this woman.' Abu Hurairah said 'Juraij smiled, then stroked the baby's head while asking 'Who is your father?' then the baby answered 'My father is the goat herder.' After hearing that immediately they said 'O Juraij, we will rebuild your destroyed place of worship with gold and silver,' but Juraij answered 'No, build with soil back,' then they did it.'

Narrated to us [Zuhair bin Harb] Narrated to us [Yazid bin Harun] Informed us [Jarir bin Hazim] Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Sirin] from [Abu Hurairah] from the Prophet peace be upon him who said: 'There is no baby who can speak when still in the cradle except three babies: baby Isa bin Maryam, and baby in the matter of Juraij.' Juraij is a man who is diligent in worship. He built a place of worship and always worshiped there. When performing sunnah prayer, suddenly his mother came and called him 'O Juraij!' Juraij asked in his heart 'O Allah, which one do I prefer, continuing my prayer or fulfilling my mother's call?' Finally he continued his prayer until his mother felt disappointed and moved away from him. The next day, his mother came again to him while Juraij was performing sunnah prayer. Then his mother called him 'O Juraij!' Juraij said in his heart 'O Allah, which one do I prefer, fulfilling my mother's call or my prayer?' Then Juraij still continued his prayer until his mother felt disappointed and moved away from him. The following day, his mother came again when Juraij was performing sunnah prayer. As usual his mother called 'O Juraij!' Juraij said in his heart 'O Allah, which one should I prefer, continuing my prayer or fulfilling my mother's call?' But Juraij still continued his prayer and ignored his mother's call. Of course this disappointed his mother's heart. Until not long after his mother prayed to Allah 'O Allah, do not kill him before he gets fitnah from prostitute women!' The Bani Israil always discussed about Juraij and his worship, until there was a beautiful prostitute woman who said 'If you want Juraij's popularity destroyed in the eyes of society, then I can slander him for you.' The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him continued his words: 'Then the prostitute started to tempt and persuade Juraij, but Juraij was not easily deceived by the prostitute's temptation. Then the prostitute went to approach a livestock herder who happened to often shelter in Juraij's place of worship. It turned out the woman succeeded in deceiving him until the male herder committed adultery with her until finally pregnant. After giving birth, the prostitute woman said to the surrounding society that 'This baby is the result of my deed with Juraij.' Hearing the woman's confession, the society became angry and hated Juraij. Then approached Juraij's place of worship and even destroyed it. In addition, they together judged Juraij without asking him first. Then Juraij asked them 'Why do you do this to me?' They answered 'We do this to you because you have committed adultery with this prostitute until she gave birth to a baby from your deed.' Juraij exclaimed 'Where is that baby?' Then they presented the baby from that adultery and touched his stomach with his finger while asking 'O little baby, who is actually your father?' Miraculously, the baby immediately answered 'My father is so-and-so, a herder.' The words of the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him: 'Finally they respected Juraij. They kissed him and hoped for blessings from him. After that they said 'We will rebuild this place of worship with material made of gold.' But Juraij refused and said 'No need, but return the place of worship as before made of clay.' Finally they started to carry out the construction of that place of worship as before. And the third baby, There was a baby sucking on his mother, suddenly there was a handsome man and also good clothes. Then the baby's mother said 'O Allah my Lord, make this child of mine like the man who is riding that animal!' Miraculously, the baby stopped from his sucking, then faced and looked at the man while saying 'O Allah my Lord, do not make me like that man!' After that, the baby immediately sucked back to his mother. Abu Hurairah said 'It seems I saw the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him telling the baby's sucking by demonstrating his index finger sucked with his mouth.' The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him continued his words: 'At one time, there were some people dragging and beating a woman while saying 'You woman do not know profit. You have committed adultery and stolen.' But the woman remained firm and said 'Only Allah is my helper. Indeed He is my best helper.' Then the baby's mother said 'O Allah, do not make my child like that woman!' Suddenly the baby stopped from his mother's sucking, then looked at the woman while saying 'O Allah my Lord, make me like her!' Such the statement of the mother and her baby continued to oppose, until the mother said to her baby 'Woe to you O my child! Earlier, there was a handsome and charming man passing in front of us, then you prayed to Allah 'O Allah, make my child like that man! But you instead said 'O Allah, do not make me like that man! Then earlier, when there were some people dragging and beating a woman while saying 'O Allah, do not make my child like that woman!' But you instead said 'O Allah, make me like that woman!' Hearing his mother's statement, the baby answered 'Indeed the handsome man is a dictator until I said 'O Allah, do not make me like that man!' While the woman accused of stealing and committing adultery earlier is actually a righteous woman, never committed adultery, or stolen. Therefore, I prayed 'O Allah, make me like that woman!'

Narrated to us [Hasan bin 'Ali Al Hulwani] Narrated to us [Ya'qub bin Ibrahim bin Sa'ad] Narrated to us [my father] and [Al Laits bin Sa'ad] all from [Yazid bin 'Abdullah bin Usamah bin Al Hadi] from ['Abdullah bin Dinar] from [Ibnu 'Umar] that if he intended to go to Mecca, then usually he brought his donkey to ride it if -he was tired of riding the camel, - while tying the turban on his head. One day, when he was riding his donkey, suddenly there was a Bedouin Arab man passing, then he said 'Aren't you so-and-so son of so-and-so?' That person answered 'Yes, true.' Then Ibnu Umar gave his donkey to that person while saying 'Take this donkey for your vehicle!' In addition, he also gave his turban by saying 'Tie this turban on your head!' One of the companions said to Abdullah bin Umar 'May Allah forgive you O Ibnu Umar, because you have given the donkey that you usually make your vehicle and the turban that you usually tie on your head to that Bedouin Arab.' Abdullah bin Umar answered 'O companion know that I once heard the Messenger of Allah say: 'Among the best devotion of someone to his parents is connecting the family ties of his parents' relatives after his parents die.' Indeed the father of that Bedouin Arab was a friend of Umar bin Khaththab.'

Let not one of you trade something that is still in the offer of another Muslim, and be Allah's servants who are brothers. One Muslim with another Muslim is a brother, not allowed to harm, belittle, or insult. Piety is here (the Messenger pointed to his chest), He said it three times. A person is considered to have done evil if he insults his fellow Muslim brother. One Muslim with another Muslim, his blood, property, and honor are sacred.' Narrated to me [Abu At Thahir Ahmad bin Amru bin Sarh] Narrated to us [Ibnu Wahab] from [Usamah] that is Ibnu Zaid that he heard [Abu Sa'id] -slave- from Abdullah bin Amir bin Kuraiz say I heard [Abu Hurairah] say The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said: -then the narrator mentioned a Hadith similar to the Hadith of Dawud, with a little addition and subtraction. Among the additions is 'Indeed Allah does not look at your bodies and appearances, but Allah looks at your hearts. (while pointing his index finger to his chest).'

حَدَّثَنَا ابْنُ أَبِي عُمَرَ حَدَّثَنَا سُفْيَانُ عَنْ مُسْلِمِ بْنِ أَبِي مَرْيَمَ عَنْ أَبِي صَالِحٍ سَمِعَ أَبَا هُرَيْرَةَ رَفَعَهُ مَرَّةً قَالَ

تُعْرَضُ الْأَعْمَالُ فِي كُلِّ يَوْمٍ خَمِيسٍ وَاثْنَيْنِ فَيَغْفِرُ اللَّهُ عَزَّ وَجَلَّ فِي ذَلِكَ الْيَوْمَ لِكُلِّ أَمْرٍ لَا يُشْرِكُ بِاللَّهِ شَيْئًا إِلَّا أَمْرًا كَانَتْ بَيْنَهُ وَبَيْنَ أَخِيهِ شَحْنَاءُ فَيُقَالُ ارْكُؤَا هَذَيْنِ حَتَّى يَصْطَلِحَا ارْكُؤَا هَذَيْنِ حَتَّى يَصْطَلِحَا

Narrated to us [Ibnu Abu 'Umar] Narrated to us [Sufyan] from [Muslim bin Abu Maryam] from [Abu Shalih] I heard [Abu Hurairah] say about a Hadith that he raised to the Prophet 'The gates of Paradise are opened every Monday and Thursday. Then Allah forgives the sins of every His servant who is not polytheist, except a person who is hostile to his brother (fellow Muslim). Then it is said to them Wait for these two people until they reconcile! Wait for these two people until they reconcile!'

[Ishaq] said Informed us while the others said Narrated to us [Jarir] from [Al A'masy] from [Ibrahim At Tamimi] from [Al Harits bin Suwaid] from ['Abdullah] who said 'I came to visit the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him when he was sick, then I touched him while saying, 'O Messenger of Allah! Your fever is getting worse.' He answered: 'Indeed my fever is like the fever of two people among you.' I said again 'May you receive double reward too.' He answered 'May it be so!' Then he said: 'There is no Muslim afflicted with a trial in the form of sickness or otherwise, except that Allah the Exalted erases his sins, like a tree shedding its leaves.' But in the Hadith of Zuhair, the wording is not mentioned 'then I touched his body.' Narrated to us [Abu Bakr bin Abi Syaibah] and [Abu Kuraib] said narrated to me [Abu Mu'awiyah] Similarly narrated from another chain, And narrated to us [Muhammad bin Rafi'] narrated to us ['Abdur Razzaq] Narrated to us [Sufyan] Similarly narrated from another chain, And narrated to us [Ishaq bin Ibrahim] Informed us ['Isa bin Yunus] and [Yahya bin 'Abdul Malik bin Abu Ghaniyyah] all from [Al A'masy] through the chain of Jarir with a similar Hadith. In the Hadith of Abu Mu'awiyah it is mentioned with the wording 'Na'am.' (yes), By my soul which is in His hand, there is no Muslim on this earth.'

NO MUSLIM IS AFFECTED BY DISASTER EXCEPT ALLAH WILL DELETE HIS SINS

Hadith Imam Muslim Number 4664

حَدَّثَنَا زُهَيْرُ بْنُ حَرْبٍ وَإِسْحَاقُ بْنُ إِبْرَاهِيمَ جَمِيعًا عَنْ جَرِيرٍ قَالَ زُهَيْرٌ حَدَّثَنَا جَرِيرٌ عَنْ مَنْصُورٍ عَنْ إِبْرَاهِيمَ
عَنِ الْأَسْوَدِ قَالَ دَخَلَ شَبَابٌ مِنْ قُرَيْشٍ عَلَى عَائِشَةَ وَهِيَ بِمِنَى وَهُمْ يَضْحَكُونَ فَقَالَتْ مَا يَضْحَكُكُمْ قَالُوا
فُلَانٌ خَرَّ عَلَى طُئْبٍ فَسَطَاطٍ فَكَادَتْ عُنُقُهُ أَوْ عَيْنُهُ أَنْ تَذْهَبَ فَقَالَتْ لَا تَضْحَكُوا فَإِنِّي سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ
صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَا مِنْ مُسْلِمٍ يُشَاكُ شَوْكَةً فَمَا فَوْقَهَا إِلَّا كُتِبَتْ لَهُ بِهَا دَرَجَةٌ وَنُحِيتَ عَنْهُ بِهَا خَطِيئَةٌ

Narrated to us [Zuhair bin Harb] and [Ishaq bin Ibrahim] all from [Jarir]. [Zuhair] said Narrated to us [Jarir] from [Manshur] from [Ibrahim] from [Al Aswad] who said 'One day, a young Quraysh man visited ['Aisyah], the wife of the Messenger of Allah, when she was in Mina. Coincidentally at that time the companions were laughing, until 'Aisyah felt surprised and also asked 'Why are you laughing?' They answered 'So-and-so fell on the tent rope until his neck (or his eye) almost came off.' 'Aisyah said 'Do not laugh out loud! Because indeed I heard the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him say: 'There is no Muslim pierced by a thorn or something smaller than that, except it will be written for him one degree and one of his mistakes will be erased.'

I replied 'Yes.' Ibn Abbas said 'There was a black woman who came to the Prophet (peace be upon him) then said Indeed, I suffer from epilepsy and my private parts become exposed, so pray to Allah for me. He said: 'If you wish, be patient and Paradise will be yours, or if you wish, I will pray to Allah to cure you.' She said No, I will be patient. But pray to Allah that my private parts do not become exposed. So he prayed for her.'

Narrated to us by 'Abdullah bin 'Abdur Rahman bin Bahram Ad Darimi Narrated to us by Marwan, that is Ibn Muhammad Ad Dimasyqi Narrated to us by Sa'id bin 'Abdul 'Aziz from Rabi'ah bin Yazid from Abu Idris Al Khalwani from Abu Dzar from the Prophet (peace be upon him) in narrating the words of Allah Subhanahu wa Ta'ala: 'O My servants, indeed I have forbidden injustice upon Myself and have made it forbidden among you. Therefore, do not commit injustice to one another! O My servants, all of you are astray except those whom I have guided. So ask Me for guidance, and I will guide you! O My servants, all of you are hungry except those whom I have fed. So ask Me for food, and I will feed you! O My servants, all of you are naked except those whom I have clothed. So ask Me for clothing, and I will clothe you! O My servants, you commit sins night and day, while I forgive all sins and mistakes. So ask Me for forgiveness, and I will forgive you! O My servants, you cannot cause Me any harm even if you try, nor can you benefit Me even if you try. O My servants, if the first and the last of you, humans and jinn, were all at the highest level of piety, it would not increase My dominion at all. O My servants, if the first and the last of you, jinn and humans, were all at the worst level of disobedience, it would not decrease My dominion at all. O My servants, if the first and the last of you, all jinn and humans, stood on a hill asking Me, and I fulfilled each one's request, it would not decrease what is with Me except like a thread absorbing water when dipped into the ocean. O My servants, indeed your deeds will be accounted for by Me for yourselves, and then I will give the reward. Whoever finds good, let him praise Allah Subhanahu wa Ta'ala. And whoever finds otherwise, let him blame only himself.' Said said Abu Idris Al Khaulani, when narrating this hadith, did so while kneeling.

Narrated to me by Abu Bakr bin Ishaq Narrated to us by Abu Mushir Narrated to us by Sa'id bin 'Abdul 'Aziz through this chain. But the hadith of Marwan is more complete than both. Abu Ishaq said Narrated to us regarding this hadith by Al Hasan and Al Husain - the two sons - Bisyr and Muhammad bin Yahya, they said Narrated to us by Abu Mushir - then they mentioned the hadith in detail. Narrated to us by Ishaq bin Ibrahim and Muhammad bin Al Mutsanna, both from 'Abdush Shamad bin 'Abdul Warits Narrated to us by Hammam Narrated to us by Qatadah from Abu Qilabah from Abu Asma' from Abu Dzar, he said The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said, narrating from Allah Tabaraka wa Ta'ala: 'I have forbidden injustice upon Myself and My servants, so do not commit injustice among yourselves... and so on with a similar hadith. But the hadith of Abu Idris that we mentioned is more complete than this.'

The companions replied 'In our view, the bankrupt among us is the one who has no money or wealth.' The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: 'Indeed, the bankrupt of my ummah is the one who comes on the Day of Judgment with prayers, fasting, and zakat, but he has abused others, slandered, eaten others' wealth, killed, and harmed others. Then his good deeds are taken and given to each of them until his good deeds are exhausted, while their claims are still unmet. Next, some of their sins are taken and loaded onto him, until finally he is thrown into the hell.'

حَدَّثَنَا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ يُونُسَ حَدَّثَنَا زُهَيْرٌ حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو الزُّبَيْرِ عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ اقْتَتَلَ غُلَامَانِ غُلَامٌ مِنَ الْمُهَاجِرِينَ وَغُلَامٌ مِنَ الْأَنْصَارِ فَنَادَى الْمُهَاجِرُ أَوْ الْمُهَاجِرُونَ يَا لِّلْمُهَاجِرِينَ وَنَادَى الْأَنْصَارِيُّ يَا لِّلْأَنْصَارِ فَخَرَجَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ مَا هَذَا دَعَوَى أَهْلِ الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ قَالُوا لَا يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ إِلَّا أَنَّ غُلَامَيْنِ اقْتَتَلَا فَكَسَعَ أَحَدُهُمَا الْآخَرَ قَالَ فَلَا بَأْسَ وَلْيَنْصُرِ الرَّجُلُ أَخَاهُ ظَالِمًا أَوْ مَظْلُومًا إِنْ كَانَ ظَالِمًا فَلْيَنْهَهُ فَإِنَّهُ لَهُ نَصْرٌ وَإِنْ كَانَ مَظْلُومًا فَلْيَنْصُرْهُ

Narrated to us by Ahmad bin 'Abdullah bin Yunus Narrated to us by Zuhair Narrated to us by Abu Az Zubair from Jabir, he said 'One day, two young men were fighting, one from the Muhajirin and one from the Ansar. The Muhajir youth shouted 'O Muhajirin, (help me!)' The Ansar youth shouted 'O Ansar, (help me!)' Hearing that, the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) came out and asked: 'What is this? Isn't this the call of Jahiliyyah?' The people replied 'No, O Messenger of Allah. Actually, two young men were fighting, one pushing the other.' Then the Messenger said: 'Alright. Let someone help his Muslim brother, whether he is the oppressor or the oppressed. If he is the oppressor, prevent him from oppression, and that is helping him. And if he is oppressed, help him!'

Narrated to us by Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah, Zuhair bin Harb, Ahmad bin 'Abdah Adh Dhabbi, and Ibn Abi 'Umar, this wording belongs to Ibn Abu Syaibah. Ibn 'Abdah said He informed us. While the others said Narrated to us by Sufyan bin 'Uyainah, he said He heard 'Amru Jabir bin 'Abdullah say 'We accompanied the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) in a battle. Suddenly, a companion from the Muhajirin pushed the back of a companion from the Ansar. Then the Ansar companion shouted 'O people of Ansar, come here!' Then the Muhajir companion also shouted 'O people of Muhajirin, come here!' Hearing such calls, the Messenger said: 'Why are you still using the calls of Jahiliyyah?' The companions said 'O Messenger of Allah, earlier a companion from the Muhajirin pushed the back of a companion from the Ansar.' Then the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: 'Leave the calls of Jahiliyyah, for they will cause bad effects.' It turned out that the incident was heard by Abdullah bin Ubay, a hypocrite leader, and he said 'They have really done it? Indeed, if we return to Madinah, the stronger ones will expel the weaker ones there.' Hearing that statement, Umar said 'O Messenger of Allah, allow me to behead this hypocrite.' The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) replied: 'Let him go and release him! So that people do not say that Muhammad kills his companions.'

Narrated to us by Muhammad bin 'Abdullah bin Numair Narrated to us by my father Narrated to us by Al A'masy from Abu Shalih from Abu Hurairah, he said: The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) said: 'O Allah, I am only human. Any Muslim I revile, curse, or whip, make it a purification or mercy for him.' And Narrated to us by Ibn Numair Narrated to us by my father Narrated to us by Al A'masy from Abu Sufyan from Jabir from the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) with a similar Hadith. But he used the wording: purification and reward. Narrated to us by Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah and Abu Kuraib, both said: Narrated to us by Abu Mu'awiyah likewise, Narrated through another chain, and Narrated to us by Ishaq bin Ibrahim it was informed to us by 'Isa bin Yunus, both from Al A'masy with the chain of 'Abdullah bin Numair similar to his Hadith. But he used the wording: 'may it be made for him a reward.' While in the Hadith of Abu Hurairah and Jabir, it uses the wording: 'may it be made for him a mercy.'

He said: Narrated to us by 'Umar bin Yunus Narrated to us by 'Ikrimah bin 'Ammar Narrated to us by Ishaq bin Abu Thalhah Narrated to me by Anas bin Malik, he said: 'Ummu Sulaim, the mother of Anas, had an orphaned daughter. Once, the Messenger of Allah saw the orphan girl and said: 'Oh, it's you! You've grown up but haven't matured.' Hearing those words, the orphan girl returned to Ummu Sulaim crying. Then Ummu Sulaim asked: 'What's wrong with you, my child?' Her daughter answered: 'The Messenger of Allah said to me that I haven't matured and will never mature.' Hearing her daughter's complaint, Ummu Sulaim quickly went out with her headscarf to meet the Messenger of Allah. After meeting, the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) immediately asked: 'What's wrong with you, O Ummu Sulaim?' Ummu Sulaim replied: 'My daughter complained to me that you said words that saddened her, an orphan.' The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) asked: 'What do you mean, O Ummu Sulaim?' Ummu Sulaim explained: 'My daughter said you stated that she will not mature.' Hearing that, the Messenger of Allah laughed and said: 'O Ummu Sulaim, do you not know what I have stipulated with my Lord? Indeed, there is a condition I must fulfill with my Lord. I said: O my Lord, I am only human. I can be pleased like others and angry like others. If there is someone from my community hurt by my words that I should not have said, make it an expiation of sins and a reward that brings them closer to You on the Day of Judgment.' حَدَّثَنِي حَرَمَلَةُ بْنُ يَحْيَى أَخْبَرَنَا ابْنُ وَهْبٍ أَخْبَرَنِي يُونُسُ عَنْ ابْنِ شِهَابٍ أَخْبَرَنِي مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ عَوْفٍ أَنَّ أُمَّهُ أُمَّ كُثُومٍ بِنْتَ عُقْبَةَ بْنِ أَبِي مُعَيْطٍ وَكَانَتْ مِنَ الْمُهَاجِرَاتِ الْأُولَى اللَّاتِي بَايَعْنَ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَخْبَرْتُهُ أَنَّهَا سَمِعَتْ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَهُوَ يَقُولُ لَيْسَ الْكَذَّابُ الَّذِي يُصْلِحُ بَيْنَ النَّاسِ وَيَقُولُ خَيْرًا وَيَنْبِي خَيْرًا قَالَ ابْنُ شِهَابٍ وَلَمْ أَسْمَعْ يُرَخَّصُ فِي شَيْءٍ مِمَّا يَقُولُ النَّاسُ كَذِبٌ إِلَّا فِي ثَلَاثِ الْحَرْبِ وَالْإِصْلَاحِ بَيْنَ النَّاسِ وَحَدِيثِ الرَّجُلِ امْرَأَتَهُ وَحَدِيثِ الْمَرْأَةِ زَوْجَهَا حَدَّثَنَا عَمْرُو النَّاقِدُ حَدَّثَنَا يَعْقُوبُ بْنُ إِبْرَاهِيمَ بْنِ سَعْدٍ حَدَّثَنَا أَبِي عَنْ صَالِحٍ حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ مُسْلِمٍ بْنُ عُبَيْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ شِهَابٍ بِهَذَا الْإِسْنَادِ مِثْلَهُ غَيْرَ أَنَّ فِي حَدِيثِ صَالِحٍ وَقَالَتْ وَلَمْ أَسْمَعْهُ يُرَخَّصُ فِي شَيْءٍ مِمَّا يَقُولُ النَّاسُ إِلَّا فِي ثَلَاثٍ بِمِثْلِ مَا جَعَلَهُ يُونُسُ مِنْ قَوْلِ ابْنِ شِهَابٍ وَحَدَّثَنَا عَمْرُو النَّاقِدُ حَدَّثَنَا إِسْمَاعِيلُ بْنُ إِبْرَاهِيمَ أَخْبَرَنَا مَعْمَرٌ عَنِ الزُّهْرِيِّ بِهَذَا الْإِسْنَادِ إِلَى قَوْلِهِ وَنَمَى خَيْرًا وَلَمْ يَذْكُرْ مَا بَعْدَهُ

Narrated to me by Harmalah bin Yahya it was informed to us by Ibn Wahb it was informed to me by Yunus from Ibn Syihab it was informed to me by Humaid bin 'Abdur Rahman bin 'Auf that his mother, Ummu Kultsum bin 'Uqbah bin Abu Mu'aith --and she was among the women who migrated in the first group that pledged allegiance to the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him)-- that she heard the Messenger of Allah say: 'The person who reconciles conflicting parties, speaks for good, and inspires (reminds of) goodness is not a liar.' Ibn Syihab said: 'I never heard of permission for lying spoken by people except in three cases: lying in war, lying to reconcile conflicting parties, and lying between a husband and wife (to achieve happiness or avoid harm).'

Narrated to us by 'Amru An Naqid Narrated to us by Ya'qub bin Ibrahim bin Sa'ad Narrated to us by my father from Shalih Narrated to us by Muhammad bin Muslim bin Ubaidullah bin Abdullah bin Syihab through this chain with a similar Hadith. But in Shalih's Hadith, it is mentioned with the wording: Ummu Kultsum said: 'I never heard the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) permit lying spoken by people except in three cases,' --as in Yunus's Hadith from Ibn Syihab's statement. Narrated to us by 'Amru An Naqid Narrated to us by Isma'il bin Ibrahim it was informed to us by Ma'mar from Az Zuhri through this chain only up to the statement: 'inspires goodness,' --without mentioning the sentence after it.

Narrated to us by [Abu Kamil Al Jahdari Fudhail bin Husain] Narrated to us by [Abu 'Awanah] from ['Abdur Rahman bin Al Ashbahani] from [Abu Shalih Dzakwan] from [Abu Sa'id Al Khudri] he said Indeed, the women came to the Messenger of Allah while saying 'O Messenger of Allah, the men have been accustomed to hearing your admonitions, so give us one day, so that we can sit with you, and you teach us from the knowledge that Allah has conveyed to you.' He said: 'Alright, gather on this day and this.' Then they gathered on the appointed day. The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) taught them the knowledge that Allah had given him. Then he said: 'There is no woman among you who is left dead by three of her children except they will be a hijab(barrier) for her from the Fire.' Then one of them said 'What if two?' The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: 'Or two.' Narrated to us by [Muhammad bin Al Mutsanna] and [Ibnu Basysyar] both said Narrated to us by [Muhammad bin Ja'far] Likewise narrated from another chain, And Narrated to us by ['Ubaidullah bin Mu'adz] Narrated to us by [My father] Narrated to us by [Syu'bah] from ['Abdur Rahman bin Al Ashbahani] through this chain with a similar Hadith. However, there is an addition -all of it- from [Syubah] from [Abdurrahman bin Al Ashbahani] who said I heard [Abu Hazim] narrate from [Abu Hurairah] who said 'Three children who have not reached puberty.'

Narrated to us by [Zuhair bin Harb] Narrated to us by [Jarir] from [Suhail] from [His father] from [Abu Hurairah] who said The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: 'Indeed, if Allah Subhanahu wa Ta'ala loves someone, then He calls the angel Jibril (peace be upon him) while calling: 'O Jibril, indeed I love so-and-so. Therefore, love him!' The Messenger said: 'Finally, that person is loved by Jibril. After that, Jibril calls out in the sky 'Indeed Allah Subhanahu wa Ta'ala loves so-and-so. Therefore, love him!' Then the inhabitants of the sky begin to love him as well.' The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: 'After that, the inhabitants of the earth also love him.' Conversely, if Allah Subhanahu wa Ta'ala hates someone, then He calls the angel Jibril and calls to him: 'Indeed I hate so-and-so. Therefore, hate him.' The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: 'Then the angel Jibril calls out in the sky 'Indeed Allah Subhanahu wa Ta'ala hates so-and-so. Therefore hate him!' Then the inhabitants of the sky hate him. After that, the inhabitants and people of the earth also hate him. Narrated to me by [Abu Ar Rabi' Al 'Ataki] Narrated to us by [Hammad] that is Ibnu Zaid

Narrated to us by [Tsabit Al Bunani] from [Anas bin Malik] who said 'One day a man came to the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) while asking 'O Messenger of Allah, when will the Day of Judgment come?' Hearing the man's question, the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) asked back: 'What have you prepared to face the Day of Judgment?' The man answered 'Love for Allah and His Messenger.' Then the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: 'Indeed, you will be with the people you love.' Anas said 'There is nothing more pleasing to our hearts after entering Islam except the saying of the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) which reads: 'Indeed, you will be with the people you love.' Anas said 'Because I love Allah, the Messenger of Allah, Abu Bakar, and Umar, so I hope to be with them even though I cannot perform deeds like them.' Narrated to us by [Muhammad bin 'Ubaid Al Ghubari] Narrated to us by [Ja'far bin Sulaiman] Narrated to us by [Tsabit Al Bunani] from [Anas bin Malik] from the Prophet (peace be upon him). But in it, the words of Anas are not mentioned.

Then becomes a clot of blood in the next forty days. Then becomes a lump of flesh in the next forty days. After the next forty days, Allah sends an angel to blow the soul into him and is commanded to write four things his sustenance, his death, his deeds, and his misery or happiness.' By Allah who there is no God but Him, indeed there is someone among you who performs the deeds of the people of Paradise, until the distance between him and Paradise is only one cubit, but the decree of destiny is apparently determined for him until he performs the deeds of the people of Hell and finally he enters Hell. There is also a person who performs the deeds of the people of Hell, until the distance between him and Hell is only one cubit, but the decree of destiny is apparently determined for him until then he performs the deeds of the people of Paradise and finally he enters Paradise.' DETERMINING HUMAN DESTINY IN THE WOMB

حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ نُمَيْرٍ وَزُهَيْرُ بْنُ حَرْبٍ وَاللَّفْظُ لَابْنِ نُمَيْرٍ قَالَ حَدَّثَنَا سُفْيَانُ بْنُ عُيَيْنَةَ عَنْ
عَمْرِو بْنِ دِينَارٍ عَنْ أَبِي الطُّفَيْلِ عَنْ حُذَيْفَةَ بْنِ أَسِيدٍ يَبْلُغُ بِهِ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ يَدْخُلُ الْمَلَكُ
عَلَى النُّطْفَةِ بَعْدَ مَا تَسْتَقَرُّ فِي الرَّحِمِ بِأَرْبَعِينَ أَوْ خَمْسَةً وَأَرْبَعِينَ لَيْلَةً فَيَقُولُ يَا رَبِّ أَشَقِيئٌ أَوْ سَعِيدٌ فَيُكْتَبَانِ
فَيَقُولُ أَيُّ رَبِّ أَذْكَرٌ أَوْ أُنْثَى فَيُكْتَبَانِ وَيُكْتَبُ عَمَلُهُ وَأَثَرُهُ وَأَجَلُهُ وَرِزْقُهُ ثُمَّ تَطْوَى الصُّحُفُ فَلَا يَزَادُ فِيهَا
وَلَا يُنْقُصُ

Narrated to us by [Muhammad bin 'Abdullah bin Numair] and [Zuhair bin Harb], this wording belongs to Ibnu Numair both said Narrated to us by [Sufyan bin 'Uyainah] from ['Amru bin Dinar] from [Abu Ath Thufail] from [Hudzaifah bin Asid] from the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), he said: 'Indeed, the angel will come to the nutfah that has settled in the womb for forty or forty-five nights while saying 'O my Lord, will he be miserable or happy later?' Then one of the two is determined. Then the angel asks again 'O my Lord, will he be male or female later?' Then one of the two is determined, his deeds, his age, his death, and his sustenance are also determined. After that, the decree note is folded without addition or subtraction.'

HUMAN DESTINY IS DETERMINED FROM THE CONCEPT Hadith Imam Muslim Number 4783

Narrated to me by [Abu Ath Thahir Ahmad bin 'Amru bin Sarh] Informed us by [Ibnu Wahb] Informed me by ['Amru bin Al Harits] from [Abu Az Zubair Al Makki] that ['Amir bin Watsilah] Narrated to him he once heard ['Abdullah bin Mas'ud] say 'The miserable person is the one who has been determined to be a miserable person since he was in his mother's womb. While the happy person is the one who has been determined to be a happy person since he was in his mother's womb.' Then a companion of the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), named [Hudzaifah bin Asid Al Ghifari], came. Then Amir bin Watsilah recounted the words of Abdullah bin Mas'ud to him while saying 'How can someone become miserable before he does anything?' Hudzaifah said to Amir 'Are you still amazed to hear that statement? Indeed, I once heard the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) say: 'When the nutfah has aged forty-two nights, then Allah will send an angel to the nutfah. Then Allah will shape his body, create his hearing, his sight, his skin, his flesh, and also his bones. After that, the angel will ask 'O Lord, is the fetus in this womb male or female?' Then Allah, your Lord, will determine according to His will. Then the angel records it. After that, the angel will ask again O Lord, what about the death of this fetus?' Then Allah will determine his death according to His will. Then, after that, the angel will record it. Then the angel will ask again 'O Lord, what about his sustenance?' Then Allah, your Lord, will determine his sustenance according to His will. After that, the angel will record it. Then the angel comes out carrying a sheet of notes in his hand -without adding or subtracting- what Allah has commanded to record.' Narrated to us by [Ahmad bin 'Utsman An Naufali] Informed us by [Abu 'Ashim] Narrated to us by [Ibnu Juraij] Informed me by [Abu Az Zubair] that [Abu Ath Thufail] Informed him he heard ['Abdullah bin Mas'ud] say -then he mentioned the Hadith-similar to the Hadith of 'Amru bin Al Harits.

Then he raised his head while saying: 'There is no soul among you except its place in Paradise or in Hell has been known. The companions asked: 'O Messenger of Allah, if so why should we do deeds, should we just stay silent without doing anything?' 'No, Do deeds! Because each has been facilitated to do according to its determination. Then he recited the verse: As for those who give their wealth in the way of Allah and fear and confirm the existence of the best reward (Paradise), then We will prepare for him an easy path. As for those who are stingy and feel sufficient and deny the existence of the best reward, then We will prepare for him a difficult path.' (Qs. Al-Lail (92): 5-10). I (Abul Aswad) answered 'That is because of the destiny that has been determined since long ago upon them.' Imran bin Hushain asked again 'Isn't that an injustice?.' Abul Aswad answered 'I was very surprised by that question, then I said 'Everything is His creation, Allah will not be asked for accountability for what He does, but humans will surely be asked for accountability.' Imran bin Hushain said to me 'O Abul Aswad, may Allah give you mercy. Actually I did not intend to ask you except to guard your thoughts.' One day there were two men from the Muzainah tribe who came to the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) and asked 'O Messenger of Allah, in your opinion, is the behavior and efforts of the Muslims now because it is already a decree of destiny that has been determined since long ago or because they practice the teachings brought by their Prophet and they are aware of the evidence that will demand them?' The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) answered: 'That is a decree of destiny that has been determined (by Allah) since long ago which is in accordance with the word of Allah which reads: 'And by the soul and its perfection/creation, then Allah inspires to the soul the path of wickedness and the path of piety.' THE DEBATE BETWEEN ADAM AND MOSES ABOUT DESTINY AND SIN

حَدَّثَنِي مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ حَاتِمٍ وَإِبْرَاهِيمُ بْنُ دِينَارٍ وَابْنُ أَبِي عُمَرَ الْمَكِّيُّ وَأَخْمَدُ بْنُ عَبْدِ الصَّغِيِّ جَمِيعًا عَنْ ابْنِ عُيَيْنَةَ وَاللَّفْظُ لِابْنِ حَاتِمٍ وَابْنِ دِينَارٍ قَالَا حَدَّثَنَا سُفْيَانُ بْنُ عُيَيْنَةَ عَنْ عَمْرِو عَنْ طَاوُسٍ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ أَبَا هُرَيْرَةَ يَقُولُ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ احْتَجَّ آدَمُ وَمُوسَى فَقَالَ مُوسَى يَا آدَمُ أَنْتَ أَبُونَا خَيَّبْتَنَا وَأَخْرَجْتَنَا مِنَ الْجَنَّةِ فَقَالَ لَهُ آدَمُ أَنْتَ مُوسَى اضْطَفَاكَ اللَّهُ بِكَلَامِهِ وَخَطَّ لَكَ بِيَدِهِ أَتْلُومَنِي عَلَى أَمْرِ قَدَرَهُ اللَّهُ عَلَيَّ قَبْلَ أَنْ يَخْلُقَنِي بِأَرْبَعِينَ سَنَةً فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَحَجَّ آدَمُ مُوسَى فَحَجَّ آدَمُ مُوسَى وَفِي حَدِيثِ ابْنِ أَبِي عُمَرَ وَابْنِ عَبْدِ قَالَ أَحَدُهُمَا خَطَّ وَقَالَ الْآخَرُ كَتَبَ لَكَ التَّوْرَةَ بِيَدِهِ

Narrated to me by Muhammad bin Hatim and Ibrahim bin Dinar and Ibn Abu Umar Al-Makki and Ahmad bin Abdah Ad-Dhabbi, all from Ibn Uyainah, and this wording belongs to Ibn Hatim and Ibn Dinar, both said: Narrated to us by Sufyan bin Uyainah from Amr from Tawus, he said: I heard Abu Hurairah say: The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) said: 'Adam and Moses (peace be upon them) argued with each other. Moses said: O Adam, you are our father. You have disappointed us and expelled us from Paradise because of your sin. Adam replied: O Moses, Allah has chosen you with His speech and written the Torah for you with His hand. Do you blame me for a matter that Allah decreed upon me forty years before He created me? Then the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) said: Thus Adam's argument defeated Moses, thus Adam's argument defeated Moses. And in the Hadith of Ibn Abu Umar and Abdah, one of them said with the wording 'wrote.' While the other said: He has written for you the book of the Torah with His hand.'

DEBATE BETWEEN ADAM AND MOSES CONCERNING EXIT FROM HEAVEN

حَدَّثَنَا قُتَيْبَةُ بْنُ سَعِيدٍ عَنْ مَالِكِ بْنِ أَنَسٍ فِيمَا قُرِئَ عَلَيْهِ عَنْ أَبِي الرَّزَّادِ عَنْ الْأَعْرَجِ عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ تَحَاجَّ آدَمُ وَمُوسَى فَحَجَّ آدَمُ مُوسَى فَقَالَ لَهُ مُوسَى أَنْتَ آدَمُ الَّذِي أَغْوَيْتَ النَّاسَ وَأَخْرَجْتَهُمْ مِنَ الْجَنَّةِ فَقَالَ آدَمُ أَنْتَ الَّذِي أَعْطَاهُ اللَّهُ عِلْمَ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ وَاصْطَفَاهُ عَلَى النَّاسِ بِرِسَالَتِهِ قَالَ نَعَمْ قَالَ فَتَلُومُنِي عَلَى أَمْرٍ قُدِّرَ عَلَيَّ قَبْلَ أَنْ أُخْلَقَ

Narrated to us by Qutaibah bin Said from Malik bin Anas from what was read to him from Abu Az-Zinad from Al-Araj from Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) said: 'Adam and Moses once argued. Moses said to Adam: You are the one who has misled people and expelled them from Paradise. Adam replied: Are you not the one whom Allah has given knowledge of all things and chosen over others with His message? Moses said: Yes. Adam said: Then why do you blame me for a matter that Allah Almighty has decreed for me before I was created?'

Narrated to us by Ishaq bin Musa bin Abdullah bin Musa bin Abdullah bin Yazid Al-Ansari: Narrated to us by Anas bin Iyadh: Narrated to me by Al-Harith bin Abu Dhubab from Yazid, that is Ibn Hurmuz, and Abdur Rahman Al-Araj, both said: We heard Abu Hurairah say: The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) said: 'Adam and Moses (peace be upon them) once argued in the presence of Allah. But in the end, Adam defeated Moses (peace be upon him).' Moses said: You are Adam whom Allah created with His power. Then Allah breathed His spirit into you. After that, Allah commanded all His angels to prostrate to you and placed you in His Paradise, but then you caused humanity to descend to earth because of your mistake. Adam replied: You are Moses whom Allah has chosen with His message and His word. Allah has also given you some pages that contain explanations of all things and brought you close to receive His word. How many years did Allah write the Torah before I was created? Moses replied: Forty years. Adam asked again: Did you find in the Torah the verse that says: '...and Adam disobeyed his Lord and went astray.' (Quran, Thaahaa (20): 12 1). Moses replied: Yes. Adam asked again: Why do you blame me for an action that Allah Almighty decreed forty years before Allah created me? The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) said: In the end, Adam was able to give an answer to Moses.

حَدَّثَنَا إِسْحَاقُ بْنُ مَنْصُورٍ أَخْبَرَنَا أَبُو هِشَامٍ الْمَخْزُومِيُّ حَدَّثَنَا وَهَيْبٌ حَدَّثَنَا سُهَيْلُ بْنُ أَبِي صَالِحٍ عَنْ أَبِيهِ عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ عَنْ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ كُتِبَ عَلَى ابْنِ آدَمَ نَصِيبُهُ مِنَ الزَّنا مُدْرِكُ ذَلِكَ لَا مَحَالَةَ فَالْعَيْنَانِ زَنَاهُمَا النَّظْرُ وَالْأُذُنَانِ زَنَاهُمَا الْإِسْتِمَاعُ وَاللِّسَانُ زَنَاهُ الْكَلَامُ وَالْيَدُ زَنَاهَا الْبَطْشُ وَالرَّجُلُ زَنَاهَا الْخُطَا وَالْقَلْبُ يَهْوَى وَيَتَمَنَّى وَيُصَدِّقُ ذَلِكَ الْفَرْجُ وَيُكَذِّبُهُ

Narrated to us by Ishaq bin Manshur, it was informed to us by Abu Hisham Al-Makhzumi, Narrated to us by Wuhaib, Narrated to us by Suhail bin Abu Salih from his father from Abu Hurairah from the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him), he said: 'Indeed, for humans, their share of adultery has been decreed, which is impossible to avoid and will certainly be carried out. The adultery of the two eyes is looking, the adultery of the two ears is hearing, the adultery of the tongue is speaking, the adultery of the two hands is touching, the adultery of the two feet is stepping, and the adultery of the heart is desiring and fantasizing, while all of that will be followed up or rejected by the private parts.'

Narrated to us by Hajib bin Al-Walid, Narrated to us by Muhammad bin Harb from Az-Zubaidi from Az-Zuhri, it was informed to me by Said bin Al-Musayyab from Abu Hurairah, he said: The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) said: 'A baby is not born (into this world) except in a state of purity (fitrah). Then it is his parents who will make him a Jew, a Christian, or a Zoroastrian - just as animals are born in a safe condition without defects. So, do you feel any defects? Then Abu Hurairah said: If you wish, then read Allah's word that says: '...remain upon the fitrah of Allah who has created humans according to that fitrah. There is no change in Allah's fitrah.' (Quran, Ar-Rum 30:30). Narrated to us by Abu Bakr bin Abu Shaibah: Narrated to us by Abdul A'la, Similarly narrated from other chains, and Narrated to us by Abd bin Humaid: it was informed to us by Abdurrazzaq, both from Mamar from Az-Zuhri with this chain and he said: Just as livestock give birth to their offspring. -without mentioning defects.-

Narrated to us by Abu Bakr bin Abu Shaibah, Narrated to us by Waki from Talhah bin Yahya from his aunt, Aisyah bint Talhah, from Aisyah the Mother of the Believers, she said: 'Once, the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) was invited to attend the funeral of a baby from the Ansar. Then I (Aisyah) said to him: O Messenger of Allah, how happy this little baby is! He is like a bird from the birds of Paradise who has never committed a sin and has never been stained by sin. Hearing that statement, the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) said: 'It may not be like that, O Aisyah. Actually, Allah has created people who will be inhabitants of Paradise when they are still in the ribs (loins) of their fathers. And conversely, Allah has also created people who will be inhabitants of Hell when they are still in the ribs of their fathers.' Narrated to us by Muhammad bin Ash-Shabbah, Narrated to us by Ismail bin Zakaria from Thalhah bin Yahya, Similarly narrated from other chains, and Narrated to me by Sulaiman bin Ma'bad, Narrated to us by Al-Husain bin Hafsh, Similarly narrated from other chains, and Narrated to me by Ishaq bin Manshur, it was informed to us by Muhammad bin Yusuf, both from Sufyan Ats Tsauri from Thalhah bin Yahya with the chain of Waki like his Hadith.

Narrated to us by Abu Bakr bin Abu Shaibah and Abu Kuraib - and this wording belongs to Abu Bakr - both said: Narrated to us by Waki from Mis'ar from Alqamah bin Marthad from Al-Mughirah bin Abdullah Al-Yashkuri from Al-Ma'rur bin Suwaid from Abdullah, he said: 'Umm Habibah - the wife of the Messenger of Allah - once prayed as follows: O Allah, grant me enjoyment (extend my life) with my husband, the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him), my father, Abu Sufyan, and my brother, Muawiyah. Abdullah said: Hearing that prayer, the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) said to his wife, Umm Habibah: Indeed, you are asking Allah Glorified and Exalted for lifespan, death, and sustenance that have been determined, where Allah will not advance or delay before its time. If you ask Allah Glorified and Exalted to save you from the torment of Hell and the torment of the grave, then that is better for you and more preferable. Abdullah bin Masud said: then it was asked to the Messenger of Allah about monkeys. Mis'ar said: I think he said: Are pigs from humans who have changed form? The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) answered: Indeed, Allah Almighty will not destroy or punish a people, then make descendants for them. Indeed, the descendants of pigs and monkeys already existed before. Narrated to us by Abu Kuraib, Narrated to us by Ibn Bishr from Mis'ar through this chain. Except that he mentioned in his Hadith, from Ibn Bishr and Waki - overall -. The wording: from the torment of Hell and the torment of the grave.'

Narrated to us by Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah and Ibn Numair, both said: Narrated to us by Abdullah bin Idris from Rabiah bin Uthman from Muhammad bin Yahya bin Habban from Al-Araj from Abu Hurairah, he said: 'The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) said: The strong believer is better and more beloved to Allah Glorified and Exalted than the weak believer. In each there is indeed goodness. Strive earnestly for what benefits you, seek help from Allah Almighty, and do not become weak. If you are afflicted by a misfortune, do not say: If only I had done this and that, it would not have become this and that. But say: This is Allah's decree and what He wills will be carried out. Because indeed the word 'if' will open the way for Satan's temptation.'

Narrated to us by Abdullah bin Maslamah bin Qa'nab, Narrated to us by Yazid bin Ibrahim At-Tusturi from Abdullah bin Abu Mulaikah from Al-Qasim bin Muhammad from Aisyah, she said: that the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) once recited the following verse: 'It is He who has sent down to you the Book (the Quran). Among its contents are verses that are muhkamaat, those are the foundations of the Quran, and others are mutasyaabihaat. As for those in whose hearts is deviation, they follow some of the mutashabihat verses from it to cause fitnah and to seek its interpretation, while no one knows its interpretation except Allah.' Aisyah said: then the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) said: 'If you see people who follow some of the mutashabihat verses, then they are the ones mentioned by Allah. Beware of them!'

Narrated to us by [Harmalah bin Yahya At Tujibi] informed us by ['Abdullah bin Wahb], narrated to me by [Abu Syuraih], that [Abul Aswad] narrated to him from ['Urwah bin Az Zubair], he said 'Aisyah said to me O my nephew, it has reached me that ['Abdullah bin 'Amr] will pass by us for Hajj, so meet him and ask him, for he carries much knowledge from the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him. 'Urwah said then I met him and asked him about several matters he mentioned from the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. 'Urwah said among what he mentioned that the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'Indeed, Allah will not take knowledge away from people after He has given it to them. Rather, Allah will take the scholars, so when each scholar passes, the knowledge he holds goes with him. Thus, only ignorant people remain in the world, giving fatwas without knowledge, going astray and leading others astray.' 'Urwah said when I narrated this hadith to 'Aisyah, she was surprised and said Did he really hear this hadith from the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him? 'Urwah replied yes, until he returns, we will ask again. Then, shortly after, 'Aisyah said to 'Urwah Ibn 'Amr has come, so meet him and greet him until you can ask him about the hadith on knowledge he mentioned to you. So I met him and asked him, and he mentioned what he had narrated to me before. 'Urwah said when I informed 'Aisyah of this, she said I do not think except that he has truthfully narrated the hadith, neither adding nor subtracting from it.

Narrated to me by [Zuhair bin Harb], narrated by [Jarir bin 'Abdul Hamid] from [Al A'masy] from [Musa bin 'Abdullah bin Yazid] and [Abu Adh Dhuha] from ['Abdurrahman bin Hilal Al 'Absi] from [Jarir bin 'Abdullah], he said 'At one time, some Bedouin Arabs came to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, wearing woolen clothes. The Messenger noticed their pitiful condition. Moreover, they were in great need of help. So, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, urged the companions to give charity to them. But unfortunately, the companions were slow to act on the Messenger's urging, until disappointment appeared on his face.' Jarir said 'Shortly after, a companion from the Ansar came giving aid wrapped in leaves, followed by several other companions. After that, more companions came contributing their charity (to be given to the Bedouin Arabs) until joy appeared on the face of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him.' Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'Whoever sets a good example in Islam, and it is followed by others after him, will have recorded for him a reward equal to that of those who follow him, without reducing their reward in the least. Conversely, whoever sets a bad example in Islam, and it is followed by others after him, will have recorded for him a sin equal to that of those who follow him, without reducing their sin in the least.' Narrated to us by [Yahya bin Yahya] and [Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah] and [Abu Kuraib], all from [Abu Mu'awiyah] from [Al A'masy] from [Muslim] from ['Abdurrahman bin Hilal] from [Jarir], he said the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, gave a sermon, then urged giving charity - as in the hadith of Jarir. Narrated to us by [Muhammad bin Basysyar], narrated by [Yahya bin Sa'id], narrated by [Muhammad bin Abu Isma'il], narrated by ['Abdurrahman bin Hilal Al 'Absi], he said [Jarir bin 'Abdullah] said the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said 'No servant sets a good example that is followed by others,' - then he completed the hadith. Narrated to us by ['Ubaidullah bin 'Umar Al Qawariri] and [Abu Kamil] and [Muhammad bin 'Abdul Malik Al Umawi], they said narrated by [Abu 'Awanah] from ['Abdul Malik bin 'Umair] from [Al Mundzir bin Jarir] from [his father] from the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him. Likewise narrated through another chain, and narrated to us by [Muhammad bin Al Mutsanna], narrated by [Muhammad bin Ja'far]. Likewise narrated through another chain, and narrated to us by [Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah], narrated by [Abu Usamah]. Likewise narrated through another chain, and narrated to us by ['Ubaidullah bin Mu'adz], narrated by [his father], they said narrated by [Syu'bah] from ['Aun bin Abu Juhaifah] from [Al Mundzir bin Jarir] from [his father] from the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, with this hadith.

Narrated to us Sa'id bin Amr Al Asy'atsi informed us Abtsar from Mutharrif from Amir from Syuraih bin Hani' from Abu Hurairah he said The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: "Whoever loves to meet Allah, Allah loves to meet him, and whoever hates to meet Allah, Allah hates to meet him." Syuraih said I then visited Aisyah and asked "O Mother of the Believers! I heard Abu Hurairah mention a Hadith from the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. If so, we are doomed!" Aisyah said Indeed, those who are doomed are those declared doomed by the Messenger of Allah. Then Aisyah asked, "What did he say?" Syuraih answered "The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'Whoever loves to meet Allah, Allah loves to meet him, and whoever hates to meet Allah, Allah hates to meet him.' But there is none among us who does not hate death!" She said "Indeed, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said that, but it is not as you understand. Rather, it means when the eyes are raised, the chest palpitates, and the skin shivers, at that moment, whoever loves to meet Allah, Allah loves to meet him, and whoever hates to meet Allah, Allah hates to meet him." Narrated to us Ishaq bin Ibrahim Al Hanzhali informed us Jarir from Mutharrif with this chain like the Hadith of Abtsar.

Narrated to us Abul Khatthab Ziyad bin Yahya Al Hassani narrated to us Muhammad bin Abu Adi from Humaid from Tsabit from Anas that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, visited a Muslim man who was gravely ill, so weak and thin like a small bird. Then the Messenger of Allah asked him: "Did you ever pray or ask something from Allah?" The companion answered "Yes, I prayed: 'O Allah, my Lord, whatever punishment You will give me in the Hereafter, hasten it in this world!'" Hearing his statement, the Messenger of Allah said: "Subhanallah, why did you pray like that? You certainly cannot bear it. Why did you not pray: 'O Allah, give us goodness in this world and goodness in the Hereafter, and protect us from the punishment of the Hellfire.'" Anas said "Then the Messenger of Allah prayed to Allah for that companion, and Allah healed him." Narrated to us Ashim bin An Nadhr At Taimi narrated to us Khalid bin Al Harits narrated to us Humaid with this chain up to the phrase 'and save us from the fire of Hell' and did not mention the additional part. Narrated to me Zuhair bin Harb narrated to us Affan narrated to us Hammad informed us Tsabit from Anas that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, visited one of his companions who was ill, so much so that he was like a small bird - as in the Hadith of Humaid - only with a slight addition, he said: "You cannot withstand Allah's punishment," - without mentioning the phrase 'then he prayed for him until he recovered.' Narrated to us Muhammad bin Al Mutsanna and Ibnu Basysyar they both said narrated to us Salim bin Nuh Al Aththar from Sa'id bin Abu Arubah from Qatadah from Anas from the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, with this Hadith.

Narrated to us Muhammad bin Hatim bin Maimun narrated to us Bahz narrated to us Wuhaib narrated to us Suhail from his father from Abu Hurairah from the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, he said: "Indeed, Allah, the Most Holy and Exalted, has angels who roam seeking gatherings of remembrance (dhikr). When they find such a gathering, they sit there, covering each other with their wings until they fill the space between them and the lowest heaven. When the gathering of remembrance ends, they depart and ascend to the heavens." Then the Messenger of Allah continued his saying: "Then they are asked by Allah, the Exalted, the One who truly knows about them: 'Where did you come from?' They answer 'We came from Your servants on earth who are always glorifying, magnifying, praising, and supplicating to You, O Allah.' Then Allah, the Exalted, asks: 'What do they ask for?' The angels answer 'They ask for Your Paradise, O Allah.' Allah, the Exalted, asks again: 'Have they seen My Paradise?' The angels answer 'No, they have not seen it, O Allah.' Allah, the Exalted, says: 'What if they had seen My Paradise?' The angels say 'They also seek Your protection, O Allah.' Allah, the Exalted, asks: 'From what do they seek My protection?' The angels answer 'They seek Your protection from Your Hellfire, O Allah.' Allah, the Exalted, asks: 'Have they seen My Hellfire?' The angels answer 'No, they have not seen Your Hellfire, O Allah.' Allah, the Exalted, says: 'What if they had seen My Hellfire?' The angels say 'O Allah, it seems they also seek forgiveness (istighfar) from You.' Then Allah, the Exalted, responds: 'Know, O My angels, that I have forgiven them, granted what they asked for, and protected them from the Hellfire.' The angels say 'O Allah, among their gathering was a sinful servant who merely passed by and sat with them.' Then Allah responds: 'Know that I will forgive that person as well. Indeed, they are a people whose companion will not be wretched because of them.'"

Narrated to me Zuhair bin Harb narrated to us Ismail bin Ulayyah from Abdul Aziz namely Ibnu Shuhaib he said 'One time, Qatadah asked Anas 'O Anas, what prayer did the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, often recite?' Anas answered 'Indeed, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, often recited the prayer: 'O Allah, give us goodness in this world and goodness in the hereafter, and protect us from the punishment of the Hellfire.'" The narrator of this Hadith said 'When Anas wanted to pray, he would always recite that prayer. And when he wanted to recite another prayer, he would always include that prayer.'

The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'Say: Laa ilaaha illallaahu wahdahuu laa syarikalah. Allaahu Akbaar kabiiran walhamdulillaahi katsiiran. Subhaanallahi Rabbil aalamiin. Laa haula walaa quwwataa illa billaahil aziizil hakim (There is no god but Allah, the One, no partner for Him. Allah is the Greatest, all praise be to Him abundantly. Glory be to Allah, Lord of the worlds. There is no power and no strength except with the help of Allah, the Mighty, the Wise).' The Bedouin Arab said 'O Messenger of Allah, that is a recitation for Allah, but what is the recitation for myself?' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'Allaahummaghfir lii warhamnii wahdinii warzuqnii (O Allah, forgive me, have mercy on me, guide me, and grant me sustenance).'" Musa Al Juhani said 'I am uncertain about the word "Aafini" and do not know its origin.' However, Ibnu Abu Syaibah in his Hadith did not mention this statement of Abu Musa.

THE BEST PRAYER TO ASK FOR FORGIVENESS, COMPASSION, GUIDANCE, AND FORTUNE

Hadith Imam Muslim Number 4865

حَدَّثَنِي زُهَيْرُ بْنُ حَرْبٍ حَدَّثَنَا يَزِيدُ بْنُ هَارُونَ أَخْبَرَنَا أَبُو مَالِكٍ عَنْ أَبِيهِ أَنَّهُ سَمِعَ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
وَأَتَاهُ رَجُلٌ فَقَالَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ كَيْفَ أَقُولُ حِينَ أَسْأَلُ رَبِّي قَالَ قُلِ اللَّهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لِي وَارْحَمْنِي وَعَافِنِي وَارْزُقْنِي
وَيَجْمَعْ أَصَابِعُهُ إِلَّا الْإِبْهَامَ فَإِنَّ هَؤُلَاءِ تَجْمَعُ لَكَ دُنْيَاكَ وَآخِرَتَكَ

Narrated to me Zuhair bin Harb narrated to us Yazid bin Harun informed us Abu Malik from his father that he heard the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, when a man came to him and asked "O Messenger of Allah, what should I say when I supplicate to Allah, the Exalted and Majestic?" The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, replied: "When you supplicate to Allah, say the following prayer: 'O Allah, forgive me, have mercy on me, save me, and grant me sustenance!' (At that moment, he clasped his fingers except the thumb), for indeed these prayers encompass your worldly and hereafter affairs."

Whoever eases the burden of someone in difficulty, Allah will ease his affairs in this world and the hereafter. Whoever conceals the faults of a Muslim, Allah will conceal his faults in this world and the hereafter. Allah will continue to help His servant as long as the servant helps his Muslim brother. Whoever treads a path in search of knowledge, Allah will make easy for him a path to Paradise. No group of people gathers in a mosque (house of Allah) to recite the Qur'an except that tranquility descends upon them, mercy envelops them, angels surround them, and Allah mentions them to those in His presence. Whoever is slowed down by his deeds, his lineage will not elevate him." Narrated to us Muhammad bin Abdullah bin Numair narrated to us my father. Then he asked 'What is this gathering?' They answered 'We are sitting here to remember Allah, the Mighty and Majestic.' Mu'awiyah asked again 'By Allah, are you truly sitting here only for that?' They answered 'By Allah, we are sitting only for that.' Mu'awiyah then said 'Indeed, I did not ask you to swear because I doubted you. For there is no one who received Hadith from the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, less than I did.' Indeed, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, once passed by a gathering of his companions. Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, asked: 'What is this gathering?' They answered 'We are sitting to remember Allah and praise Him for His guidance through Islam and His blessings upon us.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, asked again: 'By Allah, are you sitting here only for this?' They answered 'By Allah, we are sitting here only for this.' The Messenger of Allah then said: 'Indeed, I asked you to swear not because I doubted you. But because Gabriel, peace be upon him, came to me and informed me that Allah, the Mighty and Majestic, was boasting about you to the angels.'"

حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو كَامِلٍ فَضِيلُ بْنُ حُسَيْنٍ حَدَّثَنَا يَزِيدُ يَعْنِي ابْنَ زُرَيْعٍ حَدَّثَنَا التَّيْمِيُّ عَنْ أَبِي عُثْمَانَ عَنْ أَبِي مُوسَى أَنَّهُمْ كَانُوا مَعَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَهُمْ يَصْعَدُونَ فِي ثَنِيَّةٍ قَالَ فَجَعَلَ رَجُلٌ كُلَّمَا عَلَا ثَنِيَّةً نَادَى لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَاللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ قَالَ فَقَالَ نَبِيُّ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّكُمْ لَا تُنَادُونَ أَصَمَّ وَلَا غَائِبًا قَالَ فَقَالَ يَا أَبَا مُوسَى أَوْ يَا عَبْدَ اللَّهِ بْنَ قَيْسٍ أَلَا أَدُلُّكَ عَلَى كَلِمَةٍ مِنْ كَنْزِ الْجَنَّةِ قُلْتُ مَا هِيَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ قَالَ لَا حَوْلَ وَلَا قُوَّةَ إِلَّا بِاللَّهِ وَحَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عَبْدِ الْأَعْلَى حَدَّثَنَا الْمُعْتَمِرُ عَنْ أَبِيهِ حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو عُثْمَانَ عَنْ أَبِي مُوسَى قَالَ بَيْنَمَا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَذَكَرَ نَحْوَهُ حَدَّثَنَا خَلْفُ بْنُ هِشَامٍ وَأَبُو الرَّبِيعِ قَالَا حَدَّثَنَا حَمَّادُ بْنُ زَيْدٍ عَنْ أَيُّوبَ عَنْ أَبِي عُثْمَانَ عَنْ أَبِي مُوسَى قَالَ كُنَّا مَعَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي سَفَرٍ فَذَكَرَ نَحْوَ حَدِيثِ عَاصِمٍ وَحَدَّثَنَا إِسْحَاقُ بْنُ إِبْرَاهِيمَ أَخْبَرَنَا الثَّقَفِيُّ حَدَّثَنَا خَالِدُ الْحَذَّاءُ عَنْ أَبِي عُثْمَانَ عَنْ أَبِي مُوسَى قَالَ كُنَّا مَعَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي غَزَاةٍ فَذَكَرَ الْحَدِيثَ وَقَالَ فِيهِ وَالَّذِي تَدْعُونَهُ أَقْرَبُ إِلَيَّ أَحَدِكُمْ مِنْ عُنُقِ رَاحِلَةٍ أَحَدِكُمْ وَلَيْسَ فِي حَدِيثِهِ ذِكْرُ لَا حَوْلَ وَلَا قُوَّةَ إِلَّا بِاللَّهِ

Narrated to us Abu Kamil Fudhail bin Husain narrated to us Yazid bin Zurai' narrated to us At Taimi from Abu Utsman from Abu Musa that the companions were once accompanying the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and while climbing a path between two mountains, one of them would call out whenever ascending 'Laa ilaaha illa Allah wallahu Akbar (There is no god but Allah, and Allah is the Greatest).' Abu Musa said then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'Indeed, you are not calling upon a Being who is deaf or far away.' Abu Musa said then he called out 'O Abu Musa or O Abdullah bin Qais, would you like me to show you one of the treasures of Paradise?' I answered 'What is it, O Messenger of Allah?' The Messenger of Allah said: 'Laa haua wala quwwata illaa billaah (There is no power and no strength except with the help of Allah).'" Narrated to us Muhammad bin Abdul A'la narrated to us Al Mu'tamir from his father narrated to us Abu Utsman from Abu Musa he said 'when the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him,' - then he mentioned a similar Hadith. Narrated to us Khalaf bin Hisyam and Abu Ar Rabi' they both said narrated to us Hammad bin Zaid from Ayyub from Abu Utsman from Abu Musa he said we were with the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, on a journey, - then he mentioned like the Hadith of Ashim. Narrated to us Ishaq bin Ibrahim informed us Ats Tsaqafi narrated to us Khalid Al Hadza from Abu Utsman from Abu Musa he said we were with the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, in a battle, - then he mentioned the Hadith, and in it, he said the Being you call upon is closer than the neck of the mount of one of you. And in it, it does not mention the phrase 'Laa haua wala quwwata illaa billaah (There is no power and no strength except with the help of Allah).'

Narrated to us Qutaibah bin Sa'id narrated to us Laits. Likewise narrated from another chain, and narrated to us Muhammad bin Rumh informed us Al Laits from Yazid bin Abu Habib from Abul Khair from Abdullah bin Amr from Abu Bakr Ash-Shiddiq, may Allah be pleased with him, that he said to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him "Teach me a prayer that I can recite in my salah." He, peace and blessings be upon him, said: "Say: 'O Allah, I have wronged myself with great wrong,' - Qutaibah said 'much wrong' - 'and none forgives sins except You, so forgive me with forgiveness from You and have mercy on me. Indeed, You are the Most Forgiving, Most Merciful.'" Narrated to me Abu Ath Thahir informed us Abdullah bin Wahb informed me a man he mentioned, and Amr bin Al Harits from Yazid bin Abu Habib from Abul Khair that he heard Abdullah bin Amru bin Al Ash say that Abu Bakr Ash Shiddiq said to the Messenger of Allah: "Teach me a prayer that I can recite in my salah and in my house," - then he mentioned the same Hadith as Al Laits. However, he mentioned with the phrase 'zhulman katsiran' (with much persecution).

Narrated to us Utsman bin Abu Syaibah and Ishaq bin Ibrahim - and this wording belongs to Utsman - Ishaq said informed us, and Utsman said narrated to us Jarir from Manshur from Sa'd bin Ubaidah narrated to me Al Barra' bin Azib that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: "When you intend to sleep, perform ablution as you would for prayer. Then lie on your right side and pray: 'ALOOHUMMA INNII ASLAMTU WAJHII ILAIKA, WAFAWWADHTU AMRII ILAIKA, WA-ALJA'TU ZHOHRII ILAIKA ROGHBATAN WAROHBATAN ILAIKA, LAA MALJA'A WALAA MANJAA MINKA ILLAA ILAIKA, AAMANTU BIKITAABIKALLADZII ANZALTA, WABINABIYYIKALLADZII ARSALTA (O Allah, my Lord, I surrender my face to You, I entrust my affairs to You, and I rely on You with hope and fear, for there is no refuge or safety from Your punishment except by seeking refuge in You. I believe in Your Book which You have revealed and in Your Prophet whom You have sent).' Make this recitation your final words before sleeping. If you die that night, you will die in a state of purity (fitrah)." Al Barra' said 'I repeated this recitation to memorize it and I said 'I believe in Your Messenger whom You have sent.' Then the Prophet Muhammad, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'Say: 'I believe in Your Prophet whom You have sent.'"

Narrated to us Muhammad bin Abdullah bin Numair narrated to us Abdullah bin Idris he said I heard Hushain from Sa'd bin Ubaidah from Al Barra' bin Azib from the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, regarding this Hadith. However, the Hadith of Manshur is more complete than this. And in the Hadith of Hushain, there is an addition 'if he wakes up again in the morning, he has obtained goodness.'

Narrated to us Qutaibah bin Sa'id and Amru An Naqid and Ibnu Abu Umar - and this wording belongs to Ibnu Abu Umar - they said narrated to us Sufyan from Muhammad bin Abdurrahman - a freed slave of the family of Thalhah - from Kuraib from Ibnu Abbas from Juwairiyah that the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, left Juwairiyah's house in the morning after the Fajr prayer while she remained in her prayer place. Shortly after, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, returned after the forenoon (Dhuha time), and Juwairiyah was still sitting in her prayer place. Then the Messenger of Allah greeted her: "O Juwairiyah, you still haven't moved from your prayer place?" Juwairiyah replied 'Yes, I'm still here, in the same place, O Messenger of Allah.' Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'After leaving earlier, I recited four phrases - three times each - which, if compared to what you have been reciting all day, would be equivalent: SUBHAANALLOOHI WABIHAMDIHI, 'ADA KHOLQIHI WARIDHOO NAFSIHI WAZINATA 'ARSIHI WAMIDAADA KALIMAATIHI (Glory be to Allah and praise be to Him, as many as His creations, according to His pleasure, the weight of His Throne, and the ink of His words).'" Narrated to us Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah and Abu Kuraib and Ishaq from Muhammad bin Bisyr from Mis'ar from Muhammad bin Abdurrahman from Abu Risydin from Ibnu Abbas from Juwairiyah she said that once the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, passed by me after the Fajr prayer. - then he mentioned a similar narration. However, he used the phrase 'SUBHANALLAH 'ADADA KHALQIHI, SUBHANALLAH RIDHO NAFSIHI, SUBHANALLAH ZINATA 'ARSIHI, SUBHANALLAH MIDADA KALIMAATIHI (Glory be to Allah as many as His creations, Glory be to Allah according to His pleasure, Glory be to Allah the weight of His Throne, Glory be to Allah as numerous as His words).'

Narrated to us Muhammad bin Al Mutsanna and Muhammad bin Basysyar - this wording belongs to Ibnu Mutsanna - they both said narrated to us Muhammad bin Ja'far narrated to us Syu'bah from Al Hakam he said I heard Ibnu Abu Laila narrated to us Ali that Fatimah felt pain in her hands from grinding flour, and at that time, there was a servant who offered himself to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. Fatimah came to the Messenger of Allah to ask for a helper but did not manage to meet him and only met Aisyah. Then Fatimah left a message with Aisyah to convey to the Messenger of Allah. When the Messenger of Allah arrived at the house, Aisyah informed him about Fatimah's visit. Ali bin Abu Thalib said "Then the Messenger of Allah came to our house when we were lying down to sleep. So we started to get up, but he stopped us, saying: 'Stay in your places!' Then the Messenger of Allah sat between us until I felt the coolness of his feet touching my chest. After that, the Messenger of Allah said: 'Would you both like me to teach you something better than what you asked for? When you lie down to sleep, recite Takbir thirty-four times, Tasbih thirty-three times, and Tahmid thirty-three times. Indeed, this is better for you than a servant.'" Narrated to us Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah narrated to us Waki'. Likewise narrated from another chain, narrated to us Ubaidullah bin Mu'adz narrated to us my father. Likewise narrated from another chain, narrated to us Ibnu Al Mutsanna narrated to us Ibnu Abu Adi, all from Syu'bah through this chain. In the Hadith of Mu'adz, it uses the phrase 'When you lie down to sleep at night.' Narrated to me Zuhair bin Harb narrated to us Sufyan bin Uyainah from Ubaidullah bin Abu Yazid from Mujahid from Ibnu Abu Laila from Ali bin Abu Thalib. Likewise narrated from another chain, and narrated to us Muhammad bin Abdullah bin Numair and Ubaid bin Ya'isy from Abdullah bin Numair narrated to us Abdul Malik from Atha bin Abu Rabah from Mujahid from Ibnu Abu Laila from Ali from the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, with the same Hadith as Al Hakam from Ibnu Abu Laila. In it, there is an addition Ali said 'I have never abandoned that recitation since I heard it from the Messenger of Allah.' Someone asked him 'O Ali, did you not abandon this prayer even on the night of the Battle of Siffin?' Ali replied 'Yes, I never abandoned this recitation even on the night of the Battle of Siffin.' In the Hadith of Atha from Mujahid from Ibnu Abu Laila, he said I asked Ali 'Did you not abandon this prayer on the night of the Battle of Siffin?'

Narrated to us Muhammad bin Al Mutsanna and Ibnu Basysyar and Ubaidullah bin Sa'id - and this wording belongs to Ibnu Sa'id - they said narrated to us Mu'adz bin Hisyam narrated to me my father from Qatadah from Abul Aliyah from Ibnu Abbas that the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, used to pray when in distress: "LAA-ILAAHA ILLALLOOHUL 'AZHIIMUL HALIIM, LAA-ILAAHA ILLALLOOH ROBBUL'ARSYIL 'AZHIIM, LAA-ILAAHA ILLALLAH ROBBUSSAMAAWAATI WAROBBUL ARDHI WAROBBUL'ARSYIL KARIIMI (There is no god but Allah, the Mighty, the Forbearing. There is no god but Allah, Lord of the Mighty Throne. There is no god but Allah, Lord of the heavens and the earth, and Lord of the Noble Throne)." Narrated to us Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah narrated to us Waki' from Hisyam with this chain. And the Hadith of Mu'adz bin Hisyam is more complete. Narrated to us Abd bin Humaid informed us Muhammad bin Bisyr Al Abdi narrated to us Sa'id bin Abu Arubah from Qatadah that Abul Aliyah Ar Riyahi narrated to them from Ibnu Abbas that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, prayed this prayer when in distress, - then he mentioned the same narration as the Hadith of Mu'adz bin Hisyam from his father from Qatadah - but with the phrase 'Rabbus samawati wal Ardhi.' Narrated to me Muhammad bin Hatim narrated to us Bahz narrated to us Hammad bin Salamah informed me Yusuf bin Abdullah bin Al Harits from Abul Aliyah from Ibnu Abbas that when the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, faced a problem, he would say - then a similar narration was mentioned as the Hadith of Mu'adz from his father, with the addition 'Laailaaha Illallah Rabbul Arsyil Karim.'

Narrated to me Muhammad bin Ishaq Al Musayyabi narrated to me Anas bin 'Iyad Abu Dlamrah from Musa bin 'Uqbah from Nafi' from Abdullah bin 'Umar from the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, he said: "When three men were walking, it suddenly rained, and they took shelter in a cave in a mountain. Unexpectedly, a large rock fell, sealing the entrance of the cave and trapping them inside. One of them said to the others: 'Recall the righteous deeds you have done solely for the sake of Allah's pleasure. Then, pray and seek Allah's help through those deeds, and perhaps Allah will relieve your hardship.' Shortly after, one of them said: 'O Allah, my Lord, I had two elderly parents, a wife, and several young children. I provided for them by herding livestock. When I returned from grazing, I would milk the animals and prioritize giving the milk to my parents before my children. One day, the grazing area was far, and I returned late in the evening to find my parents fast asleep. As usual, I milked the animals and brought the milk to their room. I stood by them, not wanting to wake them, but also unwilling to give the milk to my children before my parents drank. My children were gathered at my feet, crying from hunger, yet I and my children endured this until dawn. O Allah, if You know that I did this seeking Your pleasure, open a gap for us so we can see the light!' Consequently, Allah, the Exalted, opened a gap in the cave, allowing them to see the sky. Another stood and said: 'O Allah, my Lord, I had a female cousin (daughter of my paternal uncle) whom I loved as passionately as men love women. Once, I tried to seduce her, but she refused unless I gave her a hundred dinars. After struggling to gather the money, I managed to give it to her. When I was between her thighs, ready to commit the act, she said: 'O servant of Allah, fear Allah and do not break the seal (commit this act) unless it is your right.' So, I stood up and left her. O Allah, my Lord, You know I did this seeking Your pleasure. Therefore, open a gap for us!' Allah, the Exalted, opened another small gap for the three. The third stood and said: 'O Allah, my Lord, I once employed someone to work my field on a profit-sharing basis. When he finished, he said: 'Give me my share!' But I couldn't give him his share, and he left in frustration. Later, I cultivated the field myself, gathered its yield, bought several cows, and hired shepherds. After some time, the man whose share I withheld came to me and said: 'Fear Allah and do not wrong others by withholding their rights!' I told him: 'Go to those cows and their shepherds and take them all!' He replied: 'Fear Allah and do not mock me!' I said again: 'I am not mocking you. Take all the cows and their shepherds!' He understood and took them. O Allah, You know that what I did was to seek Your pleasure. Therefore, open the remaining part of the cave's entrance!' Allah then opened the rest, allowing them to exit the cave sealed by the large rock." Narrated to us Ishaq bin Manshur and Abad bin Humaid, both said informed us Abu 'Ashim from Ibnu Juraij, informed me Musa bin Uqbah. Likewise narrated through another chain, and narrated to me Suwaid bin Sa'id narrated to us Ali bin Mushir from Ubaidullah. Likewise narrated through another chain, and narrated to me Abu Kuraib and Muhammad bin Tharif Al Bajali, both said narrated to us Ibnu Fudlail narrated to us my father and Raqabahh bin Masqalah. Likewise narrated through another chain, narrated to me Zuhair bin Harb and Hasan Al Hulwani and Abad bin Humaid, they said narrated to us Ya'qub, namely Ibnu Ibrahim bin Sa'ad, narrated to us my father from Shalih bin Kaisan, all from Nafi' from Ibnu 'Umar from the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, with a narration similar to the Hadith of Abu Dlamrah from Musa bin Uqbah, and they added in their Hadith: 'then they walked out.' In the Hadith of Abu Shalih, it uses the wording: 'Yatamasyauna' (walking together). Except for Ubaidullah, whose Hadith only uses the wording: 'wa kharaju' without additional phrases. Narrated to me Muhammad bin Sahl At Tamimi and Abdullah bin Abdurrahman bin Bihram and Abu Bakr bin Ishaq Ibnu Sahl said narrated to us, and the others said informed us Abul Yaman informed us Syu'aib from Az Zuhri, informed me Salim bin Abdullah that Abdullah bin Umar said I heard the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, say: 'There were three envoys before you, until they spent the night in a cave.' Then he narrated the Hadith similar to the Hadith of Nafi' from Ibnu Umar. However, he said: 'One of them said: O Allah, I had two elderly parents, and I never gave drink in the evening to my family or livestock before giving to them first.' - Also with the wording: - 'Then the woman refused me until a time of famine occurred, and she came back to me, and I gave her a hundred and twenty dinars.' - Also with the wording: - 'Then I gathered his wages, and I was surprised because the money had grown significantly.' - Also with the wording: - 'Then they walked out of the cave.'

Narrated to me Suwaid bin Sa'id narrated to us Hafsh bin Maisarah narrated to me Zaid bin Aslam from Abu Shalih from Abu Hurairah from the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, he said: "Allah, the Exalted, says: I am as My servant thinks of Me, and I am with him when he remembers Me. By Allah, Allah, the Exalted, is more joyful at the repentance of one of you than one of you is at finding his lost property in a vast place. Whoever draws near to Me by a handspan, I draw near to him by a cubit. If he draws near to Me by a cubit, I draw near to him by a fathom. If he comes to Me walking, I come to him running."

Narrated to us Utsman bin Abu Syaibah and Ishaq bin Ibrahim - and this wording belongs to Utsman - Ishaq said informed us, and Utsman said narrated to us Jarir from Al A'masy from Umarah bin Umair from Al Harits bin Suwaid, he said: "I visited Abdullah to check on him when he was ill. He narrated to me about two things: one about himself and one about the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him." Abdullah said: 'I heard the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, say: "Allah rejoices at the repentance of a believing servant more than a person in a terrifying desert with his mount and provisions of food and drink, then he falls asleep. When he wakes, his mount has escaped with the food and drink. He searches for it everywhere until he becomes thirsty. Then he says: 'I should return to my resting place until I die.' Soon after, he lies down, placing his head on his arm, preparing to die. When he wakes, his mount is by his side with the food and drink. Indeed, Allah's joy at the repentance of His believing servant surpasses the joy of this person whose mount escaped and returned with the provisions." Narrated to us Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah narrated to us Yahya bin Adam from Quthbah bin Abdul Aziz from Al A'masy with this chain, and he said: from a man in a terrifying desert. Narrated to me Ishaq bin Manshur narrated to us Abu Usamah narrated to us Al A'masy narrated to us Umarah bin Umair, he said I heard Al Harits bin Suwaid, he said narrated to me Abdullah about two Hadiths. One of them from the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and the other about himself. He said The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: "Allah is greatly pleased with the repentance of a believing servant" - similar to the Hadith of Jarir.

حَدَّثَنَا عُبَيْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ مُعَاذٍ الْعَنْبَرِيُّ حَدَّثَنَا أَبِي حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو يُونُسَ عَنْ سِمَاكِ قَالَ خَطَبَ التُّعْمَانُ بْنُ بَشِيرٍ فَقَالَ
لِلَّهِ أَشَدُّ فَرَحًا بِتَوْبَةِ عَبْدِهِ مِنْ رَجُلٍ حَمَلَ زَادَهُ وَمَزَادَهُ عَلَى بَعِيرٍ ثُمَّ سَارَ حَتَّى كَانَ بِفَلَاةٍ مِنَ الْأَرْضِ فَأَدْرَكَهُ
الْقَائِلَةُ فَنَزَلَ فَقَالَ تَحْتَ شَجَرَةٍ فَعَلَبَتْهُ عَيْنُهُ وَانْسَلَّ بَعِيرُهُ فَاسْتَيْقِظَ فَسَعَى شَرْفًا فَلَمْ يَرَ شَيْئًا ثُمَّ سَعَى شَرْفًا
ثَانِيًا فَلَمْ يَرَ شَيْئًا ثُمَّ سَعَى شَرْفًا ثَالِثًا فَلَمْ يَرَ شَيْئًا فَأَقْبَلَ حَتَّى أَتَى مَكَانَهُ الَّذِي قَالَ فِيهِ فَبَيْنَمَا هُوَ قَاعِدٌ إِذْ جَاءَهُ
بَعِيرُهُ يَمْشِي حَتَّى وَضَعَ خِطَامَهُ فِي يَدِهِ فَلِلَّهِ أَشَدُّ فَرَحًا بِتَوْبَةِ الْعَبْدِ مِنْ هَذَا حِينَ وَجَدَ بَعِيرَهُ عَلَى حَالِهِ قَالَ
سِمَاكُ فَرَعَمَ الشَّعْبِيُّ أَنَّ التُّعْمَانَ رَفَعَ هَذَا الْحَدِيثَ إِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَأَمَّا أَنَا فَلَمْ أَسْمَعْهُ

Narrated to us Ubaidullah bin Mu'adz Al Anbari narrated to us my father narrated to us Abu Yunus from Simak, he said An Nu'man bin Basyir delivered a sermon, saying: Indeed, Allah's joy at the repentance of His servant surpasses the joy of one of you who carries his provisions and drink on a camel, then travels in a vast desert. He rests briefly and sleeps under a tree. Suddenly, his camel escapes. He searches for it in the hills but sees nothing, searches other hills but finds nothing, and climbs another hill but still finds nothing. Finally, he returns to his resting place. While sitting, his camel suddenly comes to him, handing him its reins. Indeed, Allah's joy at the repentance of His servant exceeds the joy of this person when he retrieves his camel as it was. Simak said Sya'bi thought that Nu'man attributed this Hadith to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, but I have not heard it as such.

Narrated to us Yahya bin Yahya and Ja'far bin Humaid, Ja'far said narrated to us, and Yahya said informed us Ubaidullah bin Iyad bin Laqith from Iyad from Al Barra bin Azib, he said The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: "What do you think of the joy of a person who loses his mount while traveling in a barren desert with no water or food, yet the mount carries his water and food? He searches for it until he is exhausted. As he passes a tree, he finds his mount tied there." We said: 'That person would be extremely joyful, O Messenger of Allah.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: "Indeed, Allah is more joyful at the repentance of His servant than this person is at finding his mount." Ja'far said narrated to us Ubaidullah bin Iyad from his father.

Narrated to us Yahya bin Yahya At Taimi and Qathan bin Nusair - and this wording belongs to Yahya - informed us Ja'far bin Sulaiman from Sa'id bin Iyas Al Jurairi from Abu Utsman An Nahdi from Hanzhalah Al Usayyidi, he said (one of the scribes of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him), he said: "I met Abu Bakr, and he said to me: 'How are you, O Hanzhalah?' I replied: 'Hanzhalah has become a hypocrite.' Abu Bakr was shocked and said: 'Subhanallah, what do you mean, O Hanzhalah?' I said: 'Know, O Abu Bakr, when we are with the Messenger of Allah, he reminds us of the Fire and Paradise until it's as if we see them with our own eyes. But when we leave his presence, we act harshly toward our wives and children and engage in futile deeds. So, we often become heedless.' Abu Bakr said: 'By Allah, we do the same, O Hanzhalah.' Then Abu Bakr and I went to the house of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. When we arrived, I said: 'O Messenger of Allah, Hanzhalah has become a hypocrite.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, asked: 'What do you mean, O Hanzhalah?' I continued: 'O Messenger of Allah, when I am with you, you describe the Fire and Paradise to me as if I see them with my own eyes. But when I leave your presence, I act harshly toward my wife and children and engage in futile deeds. So, I often become heedless.' Hearing this, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'By the One in whose hand is my soul, if you were to maintain the state you have when you are with me and when you remember Allah, the angels would shake your hands in every step and journey. But, of course, this is done gradually (from time to time, not spontaneously).' He repeated this three times.

Hanzhalah said: But when I returned home, I laughed with my children and played with my wife. Hanzhalah said: So, I went out and met Abu Bakr, and I told him about my habits. Abu Bakr replied: I do the same. Then we met the Messenger of Allah, and I said: 'O Messenger of Allah, Hanzhalah has become a hypocrite!' He asked: 'Why is that, O Hanzhalah?' I explained my habits to him, and he said: "O Hanzhalah, renew your faith gradually (from time to time, not spontaneously). If your state were as it is when you are with me, the angels would greet you even during your journeys." Narrated to us Zuhair bin Harb narrated to us Al Fudlail bin Dukain narrated to us Sufyan from Sa'id Al Jurairi from Abu Utsman An Nahdi from Hanzhalah At Tamimi Al Usayyidil Al Katib, he said: When we were with the Messenger of Allah, he would remind us of Paradise and the Fire. - Then it continues as in the second narration.

He instructed his wife and family: 'O my family, when I die, burn my body! Then scatter part of it on land and part in the sea. By Allah, if Allah decrees, He will punish me with a punishment He has never inflicted on any creature in this world.' When he died, his family carried out his instructions, burning his body and scattering part on land and part in the sea. Then Allah, the Exalted, commanded the land to gather his body, and He commanded the sea to gather his body. After his body was reassembled in the Barzakh, Allah asked him: 'O My servant, why did you instruct your family to do this?' The man replied: 'O Allah, my Lord, I did it out of fear of Your punishment, and You are the All-Knowing.' Consequently, Allah forgave him."

Narrated to me Ubaidullah bin Mu'adz Al Anbari narrated to us my father narrated to us Syu'bah from Qatadah, he heard Uqbah bin Abdul Ghafir say I heard Abu Sa'id Al Khudri narrate from the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, that he mentioned: "There was a man before you to whom Allah gave wealth and children. Before his death, he said to his son: 'You must carry out what I command, or you are the one entitled to my inheritance over others. When I die, burn my body.' Abu Sa'id said I think he said 'until I become ashes, then grind them and scatter them in the wind. For I have no abundant good deeds with Allah. And indeed, Allah is capable of punishing me.' The Prophet said: 'Then he made his sons promise to do it, and by my Lord, they carried it out. Then Allah said to him: "O My servant, what prompted you to do this?" He replied, "O Lord, I feared You." He said: "He had not done any deed other than that, and through it, Allah granted him mercy." Narrated to us Yahya bin Habib Al Haritsi narrated to us Mu'tamir bin Sulaiman, he said my father said narrated to us Qatadah. Likewise narrated through another chain, and narrated to us Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah narrated to us Al Hasan bin Musa narrated to us Syaiban bin Abdurrahman. Likewise narrated through another chain, and narrated to us Ibnul Mutsanna narrated to us Abul Walid narrated to us Abu Awanah, both from Qatadah, they all mentioned with the chain of Syu'bah with a similar Hadith. In the Hadith of Syaiban and Abu Awanah, it is mentioned with the wording: "There was a man whom Allah gave wealth and children." While in the Hadith of At Taimi, it is mentioned with the wording: "Lam Yabta ir." (he had no investment of goodness). He said Qatadah interpreted it as: "he had no store of good deeds with Allah." As for the Hadith of Ibnu Syaiban, it uses the wording: "mab ta'ara" (store). And in the Hadith of Abu Awanah, with the wording: "mam ta'ara." (he had no investment of goodness).

Narrated to me Abdul A'la bin Hammad narrated to us Hammad bin Salamah from Ishaq bin Abdullah bin Abu Thalhah from Abdurrahman bin Abu Amrah from Abu Hurairah from the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, from what Allah, the Exalted, informed, he said: "There was a man who had sinned. Then he prayed and supplicated: 'O Allah, forgive my sin!' Then Allah, the Exalted, said: 'Indeed, My servant acknowledges he has sinned, and he knows he has a Lord who can forgive sins or punish for sins.' Then the man sinned again and prayed: 'O Allah, forgive my sin!' So Allah, the Exalted, said: 'My servant has sinned, and he knows he has a Lord who forgives sins or punishes His servant for sins. Therefore, do as you wish, for I will surely forgive you (if you repent).' Abdul A'la said 'I do not know whether the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'Do as you wish' on the third or fourth time.' Abu Ahmad said narrated to me Muhammad bin Zanjuyah Al Qurasyi Al Qusyairi narrated to us Abdul A'la bin Hammad An Narsi with this chain. Narrated to me Abd bin Humaid narrated to me Abul Walid narrated to us Hammam narrated to us Ishaq bin Abdullah bin Abu Thalhah, he said There was a man in Medina who narrated, he was called Abdurrahman bin Abu Amrah, he said I heard him say I heard Abu Hurairah say I heard the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, say: A servant committed a sin... - similar to the Hadith of Hammad bin Salamah, mentioning the wording: - 'he committed a sin,' three times. And on the third time, he mentioned: 'I (Allah) have forgiven My servant, so do as he wishes.'

Narrated to us Qutaibah bin Sa'id and Abu Kamil Fudhail bin Husain Al Jahdari, both from Yazid bin Zurai' - and this wording belongs to Abu Kamil - narrated to us Yazid narrated to us At Taimi from Abu Utsman from Abdullah bin Mas'ud that a man once kissed a woman, then he went to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and informed him. So the verse was revealed: "And establish prayer at the two ends of the day and at the approach of the night. Indeed, good deeds remove evil deeds. That is a reminder for those who remember." (QS Hud: 114). Abdullah said the man asked: "O Messenger of Allah, is this verse for me?" He replied: "It is for those who act upon it from my ummah." Narrated to us Muhammad bin Abdul A'la narrated to us Mu'tamir from his father narrated to us Abu Utsman from Ibnu Mas'ud that a man went to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and said he had touched a woman, either by kissing or touching her hand, it seems he asked the Prophet about expiation. Ibnu Mas'ud said then the verse was revealed - as in the Hadith of Yazid. Narrated to us Utsman bin Abu Syaibah narrated to us Jarir from Sulaiman At Taimi with this chain, he said "A man committed a minor sin against a woman, then he went to Umar bin Khaththab, and Umar considered it a major sin. Then he went to Abu Bakr, and he also considered it a major sin. Then he went to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him - then the narrator mentioned as in the Hadith of Yazid and Mu'tamir.

Narrated to us Yahya bin Yahya and Qutaibah bin Sa'id and Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah - and this wording belongs to Yahya - Yahya said informed us, and the others said narrated to us Abul Ahwash from Simak from Ibrahim from Alqamah and Al Aswad from Abdullah, he said from Abdullah, he said "A man came to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and said: 'O Messenger of Allah! I have sinned, for I was intimate with a woman on the outskirts of Medina. I committed a sin with her short of intercourse. So judge me with whatever punishment you wish.' Umar bin Khaththab said to him: 'If you had concealed your sin, Allah would have concealed your fault.' Abdullah said 'The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, did not refute Umar's statement at all.' Then the man stood and left. Then the Prophet sent someone to follow and call him back. Then he recited to him this verse: 'And establish prayer at the two ends of the day and at the approach of the night. Indeed, good deeds remove evil deeds. That is a reminder for those who remember.' (QS Hud: 114). Then someone from a group present asked: 'O Prophet of Allah! Is this verse specific to him?' The Prophet replied: 'Rather, it is for all of humanity.' Narrated to us Muhammad bin Al Mutsanna narrated to us Abu An Nu'man Al Hakim bin Abdullah Al Ijli narrated to us Syu'bah from Simak bin Harb, he said I heard Ibrahim narrate from his uncle Al Aswad from Abdullah from the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, similar to the Hadith of Abul Ahwash, he said in his Hadith Mu'adz said: O Messenger of Allah, is this verse specific to him or for all of us? He replied: 'In fact, this is for all of you.'

Narrated to us Muhammad bin Al Mutsanna and Muhammad bin Basysyar - and this wording belongs to Ibnul Mutsanna - both said narrated to us Mu'adz bin Hisyam narrated to me my father from Qatadah from Abu Ash Shiddiq from Abu Sa'id Al Khudri that the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said: "In the past, there was a man who had killed ninety-nine people. Then he sought the most knowledgeable scholar. He was directed to a monk and went to him. He confessed to the monk that he had killed ninety-nine people and asked if his repentance would be accepted. The monk replied: 'No, your repentance will not be accepted.' So the man killed the monk, making it a hundred people he had killed. Then he sought another, the most knowledgeable person. He was directed to a scholar with vast knowledge. To this scholar, he said: 'I have killed a hundred people, will my repentance be accepted?' The scholar replied: 'Yes, there is no barrier between you and your repentance. Go to such-and-such land, for there are people who worship Allah, the Exalted. Worship Allah with them and do not return to your land, for it is a bad environment.' So the man set out for that land. On his way, he died. Then the angels of mercy and punishment disputed over him. The angel of mercy said: 'This man intended to go to a land to repent and worship Allah wholeheartedly.' The angel of punishment countered: 'But he has not done any good at all.' Then an angel in human form came to them. They asked him to judge fairly. He said: 'Measure the distance closest to the man who died from his starting point to his destination. Whichever is closer, that is the decision.' It turned out that the man died closer to his destination. Thus, he was taken by the angel of mercy." Qatadah said Al Hasan said 'Someone told us that the man died falling face down.'

حَدَّثَنِي عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ مُعَاذٍ الْعَنْبَرِيُّ حَدَّثَنَا أَبِي حَدَّثَنَا شُعْبَةُ عَنْ قَتَادَةَ أَنَّهُ سَمِعَ أَبَا الصَّدِّيقِ النَّاجِيَّ عَنْ أَبِي
سَعِيدٍ الْخُدْرِيِّ عَنْ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنَّ رَجُلًا قَتَلَ تِسْعَةً وَتِسْعِينَ نَفْسًا فَجَعَلَ يَسْأَلُ هَلْ لَهُ مِنْ تَوْبَةٍ
فَأُتِيَ رَاهِبًا فَسَأَلَهُ فَقَالَ لَيْسَتْ لَكَ تَوْبَةٌ فَقَتَلَ الرَّاهِبَ ثُمَّ جَعَلَ يَسْأَلُ ثُمَّ خَرَجَ مِنْ قَرْيَةٍ إِلَى قَرْيَةٍ فِيهَا قَوْمٌ
صَالِحُونَ فَلَمَّا كَانَ فِي بَعْضِ الطَّرِيقِ أَذْرَكَهُ الْمَوْتُ فَنَأَى بِصَدْرِهِ ثُمَّ مَاتَ فَاخْتَصَمَتْ فِيهِ مَلَائِكَةُ الرَّحْمَةِ
وَمَلَائِكَةُ الْعَذَابِ فَكَانَ إِلَى الْقَرْيَةِ الصَّالِحَةِ أَقْرَبَ مِنْهَا بِشِيرٍ فَجُعِلَ مِنْ أَهْلِهَا حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ بَشَّارٍ حَدَّثَنَا
ابْنُ أَبِي عَدِيٍّ حَدَّثَنَا شُعْبَةُ عَنْ قَتَادَةَ بِهَذَا الْإِسْنَادِ نَحْوَ حَدِيثِ مُعَاذِ بْنِ مُعَاذٍ وَزَادَ فِيهِ فَأَوْحَى اللَّهُ إِلَى هَذِهِ أَنْ

Narrated to me Ubaidullah bin Mu'adz Al Anbari narrated to us my father narrated to us Syu'bah from Qatadah that he heard Abu Ash Shiddiq An Naji from Abu Sa'id Al Khudri from the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, that there was a man who had killed ninety-nine people, then asked if there was a door of repentance for him. Then he went to a monk and asked him. He replied: 'There is no door of repentance for you.' So he killed the monk. Then he kept asking until he left his village for another village where there were righteous people. But on the way, death overtook him. He died falling face down. Then the angels of mercy and punishment disputed over him. After measuring the distance of his journey, it turned out he was a handspan closer to the good village, so he was counted among its inhabitants. Narrated to us Muhammad bin Basysyar narrated to us Ibnu Abu Adi narrated to us Syu'bah from Qatadah with this chain, like the Hadith of Mu'adz bin Mu'adz, with an addition 'Then Allah revealed to this village to move away, while to the other village to come closer.'

EVERY MUSLIM ON THE DAY OF JUDGMENT WILL BE RANSOMED BY A JEW OR A CHRISTIAN

حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو بَكْرِ بْنُ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو أُسَامَةَ عَنْ طَلْحَةَ بْنِ يَحْيَى عَنْ أَبِي بُرْدَةَ عَنْ أَبِي مُوسَى قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا كَانَ يَوْمُ الْقِيَامَةِ دَفَعَ اللَّهُ عِزَّ وَجَلَّ إِلَى كُلِّ مُسْلِمٍ يَهُودِيًّا أَوْ نَصْرَانِيًّا فَيَقُولُ هَذَا فِكَائُكَ مِنَ النَّارِ

Narrated to us Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah narrated to us Abu Usamah from Thalhah bin Yahya from Abu Burdah from Abu Musa, he said "The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'On the Day of Resurrection, Allah, the Exalted, will assign a Jew or a Christian to every Muslim. Then Allah, the Exalted, will say: "This is your ransom from the fire of Hell."'

Narrated to us Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah narrated to us Affan bin Muslim narrated to us Hammam narrated to us Qatadah that Aun and Sa'id bin Abu Burdah narrated to Qatadah that they witnessed Abu Burdah narrate to Umar bin Abdul Aziz from his father from the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, he said: "No Muslim dies except that Allah will show a Jew or a Christian in his place in Hell." Qatadah said Then Umar bin Abdul Aziz asked Abu Burdah to swear by Allah, who has no deity but Him, three times, that he indeed heard his father narrate this Hadith from the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. Qatadah said Abu Burdah swore to him. Qatadah said But Sa'id did not narrate to me that Umar asked Abu Burdah to swear, but he also did not deny Aun's statement. Narrated to us Ishaq bin Ibrahim and Muhammad bin Al Mutsanna, all from Abdush Shamad bin Abdul Warits, informed us Hammam narrated to us Qatadah with this chain, like the Hadith of Affan, and said Aun bin Utbah.

Narrated to us Zuhair bin Harb narrated to us Isma'il bin Ibrahim from Hisyam Ad Dastawa'i from Qatadah from Shafwan bin Muhriz, he said "A man asked Ibnu Umar: 'How did you hear the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, speak about Allah's whispering?' Ibnu Umar replied: 'I heard the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, say: "On the Day of Resurrection, a believer will be brought very close to Allah, the Mighty and Exalted, until his body touches Allah. Then Allah will cover his sins. Then Allah will ask: 'Do you know your sins?' The believer will reply: 'Yes, my Lord, I know my sins.' Allah will say: Indeed, I concealed them for you in the world, and today I forgive you. Then the believer is given the record of his good deeds. Meanwhile, the disbelievers and hypocrites will be called with a loud voice before all creatures: 'These are the ones who lied against Allah, the Mighty and Exalted.'"

Narrated to me Abu Ath Thahir Ahmad bin Amru bin Abdullah bin Amru bin Sarh, a slave of Bani Umayyah, informed me Ibnu Wahb informed me Yunus from Ibnu Syihab, he said "The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, set out to the Battle of Tabuk to face the Romans and the Christian Arabs in Syria." Ibnu Syihab said 'I was narrated to by Abdul Rahman bin Abdullah bin Ka'ab bin Malik, that Abdullah bin Ka'ab bin Malik - Abdullah bin Ka'ab was one of Ka'ab's sons who accompanied Ka'ab when he was blind - he said 'I heard Ka'ab bin Malik narrate the story about himself when he accompanied the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, in the Battle of Tabuk.' Ka'ab bin Malik said 'I never missed joining the Messenger of Allah in any battle he participated in except the Battle of Tabuk, though I also missed the Battle of Badr. The Messenger of Allah did not blame any Muslim who did not join the Battle of Badr, as the Muslims initially aimed only to attack the Quraysh caravan until Allah brought them face-to-face with their enemies without prior agreement. I was present with the Messenger of Allah on the night of Aqabah when we pledged to defend Islam. To me, joining the Battle of Badr is not comparable to the night of Aqabah, although Badr is more famous among people. Among the stories of why I did not join the Battle of Tabuk is as follows: I was truly helpless and had more means than ever when I did not join the Battle of Tabuk. By Allah, I had never prepared two mounts for any battle before, but for Tabuk, I prepared two mounts. The Messenger of Allah set out for Tabuk during intense heat, a long and risky journey, facing a large number of enemies. The Messenger explained to the Muslims what they would face with him and ordered them to prepare sufficient provisions for war. At that time, the Muslims accompanying the Messenger were so numerous that they were not listed in a register. Ka'ab said 'A man who did not appear because he wished not to join the battle thought his absence would go unnoticed by the Messenger unless a revelation came from Allah about him. The Messenger went to the Battle of Tabuk when the fruit harvest was excellent, so I had to turn my attention away from it. The Messenger and the Muslims prepared, and I went to gather provisions with them. Then I returned without obtaining any provisions. I said to myself: "I can prepare provisions anytime." I remained in doubt between joining or not until the Muslims were fully prepared. The Messenger departed with the Muslims, and I had not prepared anything. I went, then returned without preparing anything. I kept wavering like that between joining the battle or not until the Muslim army had hastened and the battle had begun. Then I wanted to catch up to the battlefield - but it was only wishful thinking - and I was destined not to join the battle. After the Messenger went to the Battle of Tabuk, sadness enveloped me. When I went out among the people, I realized I could only meet those in hypocrisy or the weak whom Allah excused. The Messenger did not remember me until he reached Tabuk. Then, while sitting among the companions, he suddenly asked: 'Why didn't Ka'ab bin Malik join us?' A companion from Bani Salimah replied: 'O Messenger of Allah, it seems Ka'ab bin Malik prioritized himself over this struggle.' Hearing this, Muadz bin Jabal said: 'O companion, how bad is your statement! By Allah, O Messenger of Allah, I know Ka'ab bin Malik is a good person.' Then the Messenger remained silent. While he was silent, he saw a man wearing an iron helmet, hard to recognize. The Messenger said: 'You must be Abu Khaitsamah?' It was indeed Abu Khaitsamah Al Anshari, a companion who had given a sa' of dates when mocked by hypocrites. Ka'ab bin Malik said 'When I heard that the Messenger was preparing to return from Tabuk, I was overwhelmed with sadness. I began to devise a lie. I said to myself: "What excuse can save me from the Messenger's anger?" For this, I sought help from family members who could advise. When someone told me the Messenger was almost in Medina, the idea of lying vanished from my mind. I realized I could not lie to the Messenger at all. Therefore, I had to be truthful with him. Soon after, the Messenger arrived in Medina. As usual, he went straight to the mosque - as was his tradition after traveling - to perform sunnah prayers. After the sunnah prayers, he sat with the companions. Then, some companions who did not join the battle came, offering various excuses with oaths. They were estimated to be over eighty people. The Messenger accepted their openness, pledged allegiance to them, sought forgiveness for them, and entrusted what they concealed in their hearts to Allah. After a while, I came to meet the Messenger. After greeting him, he smiled like someone angry. Then he said: 'Come here!' So I approached and sat in front of him. Then the Messenger asked: 'Why didn't you join us in the battle, O Ka'ab? Didn't you pledge to give your life for Islam?' I replied: 'O Messenger of Allah, by Allah, if I sat with anyone other than you, I am sure I would escape their anger with my excuses and arguments. But, by Allah, I know if I now give you a false excuse to avoid your anger, Allah will make you angry with me. If I give you my true and honest reason, and you become angry with it, I will accept it willingly. Let Allah judge me with my truthful statement. By Allah, I had no excuse for not joining the battle. By Allah, I was completely helpless despite having ample opportunity to join the Muslims in the struggle.' Hearing my sincere confession, the Messenger said: 'This man has spoken truthfully. Therefore, stand until Allah decides for you.' So I stood and left his side. Shortly after, some people from Bani Salimah followed me, saying: 'O Ka'ab, by Allah, we did not know you had committed a sin before. You truly did not offer excuses to the Messenger as other companions who did not join the battle did. Indeed, only the Messenger's intercession can erase your sin.' Ka'ab bin Malik said 'By Allah, they kept reproaching me until I wanted to return to the Messenger and deny myself.' Ka'ab bin Malik said 'Are there others who faced the Messenger like me?' They, the Bani Salimah, replied: 'Yes, there are two others like you. Both said to the Messenger what you said, and the Messenger responded to them as he did to you.' Ka'ab bin Malik said 'Then I asked: "Who are those two, O companions?" They replied: 'They are Murarah bin Rabi'ah Al Amri and Hilal bin Umayyah Al Waqifi.' Ka'ab bin Malik said 'Then they mentioned two righteous companions who participated in the Battle of Badr and were worthy of being exemplary. After that, I left when they mentioned those two to me.' Ka'ab bin Malik said 'Days later, the Messenger forbade the Muslims from speaking to the three of us who did not join the Battle of Tabuk. From then on, the Muslims began to distance themselves and change their attitude toward us, making the earth feel foreign to us, as if it were not the earth I had lived on before, and this lasted for fifty nights.' My two companions who did not join the Battle of Tabuk stayed sorrowfully in their homes, weeping, while I, being young and resilient, remained normal, going out, attending congregational prayers with the Muslims, and walking in the market, though no one would speak to me.

Once, I approached the Messenger, greeting him while he was at his seat after prayer. I wondered: 'Will the Messenger move his lips to respond to my greeting or not?' Then I prayed near the Messenger, stealing glances at him. When I prepared for prayer, he looked at me, but when I turned to him, he turned his gaze away. After a long period of isolation from the Muslims, I went for a walk until I reached the garden wall of Abu Qatadah, my cousin and someone I liked. Upon arriving, I greeted him. But, by Allah, he did not respond to my greeting. So I mustered the courage to ask: 'O Abu Qatadah, I swear by Allah, don't you know that I love Allah and His Messenger?' He remained silent. I repeated my oath as before, but he stayed silent. Then I repeated it again, and he replied: 'Indeed, Allah and His Messenger know best about this.' Hearing his response, tears welled up, and I returned home along the garden wall. While walking in the Medina market, a man from Syria selling food asked: 'Who can show me where Ka'ab bin Malik is?' The people pointed to me, and he came to me, handing me a letter from the King of Ghassan. Being literate, I read its contents: 'We heard that your companion (meaning the Messenger) has isolated you from society, while your Lord does not waste you like this. Join us, and we will help you.' After reading it, I said: 'This letter is also a calamity for me.' Then I put it in the fire and burned it until it was destroyed. After forty days of public isolation, no revelation had come. Then, one day, a messenger from the Messenger came to me with a message: 'O Ka'ab, the Messenger orders you to stay away from your wife.' I asked: 'Should I divorce her or what?' The messenger replied: 'No need to divorce her. Just avoid her and do not approach her.' So I said to my wife: 'O my dear, go back to your parents' house and stay with them until Allah provides a clear decision in this matter.' Ka'ab bin Malik said 'Soon after, Hilal bin Umayyah's wife went to the Messenger and asked: 'O Messenger of Allah, Hilal bin Umayyah is old and frail and has no servant. Therefore, allow me to care for him.' The Messenger replied: 'No. You should not accompany him for now, and he must not approach you for a while.' Hilal's wife insisted: 'By Allah, O Messenger, he has no spirit left. He has been crying since this issue began until now.' Ka'ab bin Malik said 'Some of my family said: "You should ask the Messenger's permission regarding your wife, as he allowed Hilal bin Umayyah's wife to care for her husband." Ka'ab bin Malik said 'I will not ask the Messenger for permission about my wife. For how could I know what his response would be if I asked, given that I am still young?' Ka'ab bin Malik said 'This lasted for ten nights, completing fifty nights since the Muslims were forbidden to speak to us. Then I performed the dawn prayer on the fiftieth night at the back of the house. While sitting in prayer, I was overwhelmed with regret and sadness, feeling the vast earth was narrow for me. Suddenly, I heard someone shouting loudly, piercing the horizon: 'O Ka'ab bin Malik, rejoice!' So I fell in prostration, knowing I had been freed from my ordeal. Ka'ab bin Malik said 'Then the Messenger announced to the Muslims after...'

Narrated to us Hibban bin Musa informed us Abdullah bin Al Mubarak narrated to us Yunus bin Yazid Al Aili. Likewise narrated through another chain, narrated to us Ishaq bin Ibrahim Al Hanzhali and Muhammad bin Rafi' and Abad bin Humaid. Ibnu Rafi' said narrated to us. While the others said informed us Abdurrazaq informed us Ma'mar, whose Hadith chain is from Abd and Ibnu Rafi'. Yunus and Ma'mar said collectively from Az Zuhri, narrated to me Sa'id bin Al Musayyab and Urwah bin Zubair, Alqamah bin Waqqash, Ubaidullah bin Abdullah bin Utbah bin Mas'ud from the Hadith of Aisyah - the wife of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him - when those who spread false rumors spoke as they pleased about what they said, then Allah clarified her innocence from the accusation. A group of people narrated to me about the incident, some accepting the story from others, making the story seem strong, until I memorized the words of each person who narrated to me, and some stories confirmed others. From Urwah, he narrated to me from Aisyah, the wife of the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, she said when the Messenger of Allah intended to travel, he drew lots among his wives. Whoever's lot came up would go with him. Aisyah said "Then he drew lots among us for a battle, and my arrow came up, so I went with the Messenger of Allah. This was after the verse about hijab was revealed. I was carried in my howdah. On the way, I got down until the Messenger completed a battle and returned to Medina. One night, I was with a group of Muslims. When they slept, I got up and walked ahead of them. After finishing my business, I returned to join the Muslims. When I touched my chest, my necklace from Zhafar, Yemen, had broken. So I went back to search for my necklace, which delayed me. Meanwhile, the group carrying my howdah had left, placing it on the camel I usually rode, thinking I was inside." Aisyah said "At that time, the Prophet's wives were thin and light, as they did not eat meat, only light food. So no one suspected the weight of the howdah when they carried it. Besides, I was still young. They took the camel and continued the journey. I found my necklace after the army had passed. When I reached their resting place, there was no one to call or answer. So I returned to my spot, hoping some Muslims would find me and come back for me. While sitting there, I felt sleepy and fell asleep. Shafwan bin Mu'atthal Assulami and the Dzakwan people stayed behind the army (checking for anything left). They traveled at night and reached my spot in the morning. Shafwan bin Mu'atthal Assulami saw someone sleeping, so he approached and recognized me, as he had seen me before the hijab was mandated. I woke up hearing him say 'Inna lillahi wa inna ilaihi raji'un' when he recognized me. I immediately covered my face with my jilbab. By Allah, he did not speak a word, and I heard nothing but his istirja'. He lowered his camel, and I mounted it. Then he led the camel I rode until we caught up with the Muslims after they rested at Azhzhariah beach. Woe to those who assumed evil of my affair. The most prominent in arrogance was Abdullah bin Ubay bin Salul. Then I arrived in Medina. After our arrival, I suddenly fell ill for nearly a month, while people kept talking about the accusation, though I felt I had done nothing. So he doubted my illness. I no longer saw the kindness of the Messenger I used to see. When I was sick, the Messenger would come, greet, and ask: 'How are you?' as if he doubted me, while I felt I had done no wrong. When I started to recover, I went out with Ummu Misthah to a secluded place for relieving ourselves, as we only went out at night. The secluded place was near our houses. Our practice was like the early Arabs, making a secluded place for relieving ourselves at home. Then I and Ummu Misthah - she was the daughter of Abu Ruhmi bin al Muthallib bin Abdi Manaf, and her mother was the daughter of Sakhr bin Amir, Abu Bakr's aunt, and her son was Misthah bin Utsabah bin Abbad bin al Muthallib - returned to my house after finishing. Then Ummu Misthah slipped, tripping over her garment, and said: 'Woe to Misthah.' I asked her: 'How bad is what you said, cursing someone who fought in Badr?' She said: 'O, didn't you hear what he said?' I said: 'What did he say?' So she told me about the accusations. My illness worsened, and when I returned home, the Messenger came to me, greeted, and said: 'How are you?' I said: 'Do you permit me to go to my parents?' She said: 'I wanted to confirm the news from them.' So the Messenger permitted me. I went to my parents and asked my mother: 'O Mother, what are people talking about?' She replied: 'O my daughter, may your matter be eased. By Allah, no woman clearly loved by her husband, with co-wives, escapes their accusations.' I said: 'Glory be to Allah, is this what people are talking about?' She said: 'That night, I cried until morning, my tears exhausted, and I did not sleep. In the morning, I cried. The Messenger called Ali bin Abi Thalib and Usamah bin Zaid to consult about separating from his wife while waiting for revelation.' Aisyah said 'As for Usamah bin Zaid, he advised the Messenger based on what he knew of his wife's innocence and his love for her. Usamah said: 'O Messenger of Allah! They are your wives, we know nothing but good.' As for Ali bin Abi Thalib, he said: 'Allah, the Mighty and Exalted, does not constrain you there are many women besides her. If you ask your slave, she will be truthful.' Aisyah said 'Then the Messenger called Barirah and asked: 'O Barirah! Have you seen anything suspicious in Aisyah?' Barirah replied: 'By the One who sent you with truth, I see nothing in her but good, except that, being young, she falls asleep while waiting for the dough in her family, and a tame animal eats it.' Then the Messenger stood and sought arguments against a man named Abdullah bin Ubai bin Salul. While on the pulpit, the Messenger said: 'O Muslims, who will help me against a man who has hurt my family? By Allah, I know nothing but good of my family. They mentioned a man I know only for good, who never entered my wife's presence except with me.' Sa'ad bin Mu'adz al Anshari said: 'O Messenger of Allah! I will help you against him. If he is from Bani Aus, we will behead him, even if from our brothers Bani Khazraj, if you command us, we will execute your order.' Immediately, Sa'ad bin Ubadah - the leader of Bani Khazraj, a righteous man but still with tribal fanaticism - said to Sa'ad bin Mu'adz: 'By Allah, you cannot kill him and are not able to kill him.' Then Usaid bin Hudlair, Sa'ad bin Mu'adz's nephew, stood and said to Sa'ad bin Ubadah: 'You lie by Allah, we will kill him because you are a hypocrite defending hypocrites.' The situation escalated between Bani Aus and Khazraj, nearly leading to fighting, while the Messenger remained on the pulpit. Then the Messenger calmed them until they were silent, and he too was silent. That day, I cried until my tears were exhausted, and I did not sleep. The next night, I cried until my tears were exhausted and did not sleep. My parents thought my crying would break my heart. Aisyah said: 'Then they sat by me while I kept crying. Then an Ansar woman asked permission to meet me, and I allowed her. She sat and cried with me. While we were like that, the Messenger came, greeted, and sat.' She said: 'He had not sat with me for a month since no revelation came about my matter.' She said: 'The Messenger gave testimony, greeted, and sat, saying: 'Amma ba'd, O Aisyah, such-and-such news has reached me. If you are innocent of it, may Allah, the Mighty and Exalted, keep you far from it. If you committed that sin, seek forgiveness from Allah and repent to Him. For when a servant acknowledges his sin and repents, Allah accepts his repentance.' Aisyah said: 'When the Messenger finished speaking, my tears flowed so much I no longer felt their drops.' I said to my father: 'Answer what the Messenger said about me.' My father said: 'I don't know, by Allah, what to say to the Messenger.' Then I said to my mother: 'Answer what the Messenger said about me!' My mother said: 'By Allah, I don't know what to say to the Messenger.' Aisyah said: I said: 'I am a young girl and do not read much of the Qur'an. By Allah, I know you have heard this until you are convinced and believe it. If I say to you: "I am far from that deed, and Allah, the Mighty and Exalted, knows I am far from it," you will not believe it. If I confess to you a matter, while Allah knows I am far from it, you will believe me. By Allah, there is no word between me and you except as Abu Yusuf said: Patience is good, and Allah is the one sought for help against what you accuse.' (QS. Yusuf 18) Aisyah said: 'Then I changed my position and lay on my bed.' She said: 'By Allah, I knew I was far from that deed, and Allah would keep me far from it. But, by Allah, I did not expect a revelation about my matter. My matter seemed too trivial for Allah to speak about me with a recited revelation. I hoped the Messenger would see in his dream that Allah kept me far from it.' Aisyah said: 'By Allah, the Messenger did not leave his assembly, nor did anyone from the household leave until Allah sent down revelation to His Prophet. His condition changed as it did when revelation came, with sweat pouring despite it being winter, due to the weight of the words revealed to him.' Aisyah said: 'When the Messenger received the good news, he smiled, and the first words he said were: 'Glad tidings, O Aisyah! Allah, the Mighty and Exalted, has kept you far from it.' Then my mother said to me: 'Stand to him.' I said: 'By Allah, I will not stand to him and will praise only Allah, the Mighty and Exalted, who sent down the revelation clarifying my innocence. Allah sent down the verses: Indeed, those who brought the lie are a group among you... up to ten verses (QS. An-Nur 1-11). Allah sent down verses clarifying my innocence.' Aisyah said: 'Abu Bakr used to provide for Misthah, his relative and a poor man. He said: 'By Allah, I will never aid him again after he accused Aisyah.' Then Allah sent down the verse: And let not those of virtue among you... until His saying: do you not wish that Allah should forgive you? (QS. An-Nur 22). Hibban bin Musa said, Abdullah bin Mubarak said: "This verse is the most hoped-for in Allah's Book. So Abu Bakr said: 'By Allah, I prefer that Allah forgive me.' Then he resumed aiding Misthah as he used to.' Abu Bakr said: 'Indeed, I will not stop aiding him forever.' Aisyah said: The Messenger asked Zainab bint Jahsy, his wife, about my matter: 'What do you know, what did you see, or what news reached you?' She replied: 'O Messenger of Allah! I guard my hearing and sight, and I know nothing but good.' Aisyah said: 'Yet Zainab was his wife known to boast against me...

THE PROPHET SHALALLAHU ALAIHI WASALLAM ORDERED ALI TO KILL THE MAN ACCUSED OF ADULTERY

حَدَّثَنِي زُهَيْرُ بْنُ حَرْبٍ حَدَّثَنَا عَفَّانُ حَدَّثَنَا حَمَّادُ بْنُ سَلَمَةَ أَخْبَرَنَا ثَابِتٌ عَنْ أَنَسٍ أَنَّ رَجُلًا كَانَ يُتَّهَمُ بِأَمٍّ وَلَدَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِعَلِيٍّ اذْهَبْ فَاضْرِبْ عُنُقَهُ فَأَتَاهُ عَلِيٌّ فَإِذَا هُوَ فِي رَكِيٍّ يَتَبَرَّدُ فِيهَا فَقَالَ لَهُ عَلِيٌّ اخْرُجْ فَنَاولَهُ يَدَهُ فَأَخْرَجَهُ فَإِذَا هُوَ مَجْبُوبٌ لَيْسَ لَهُ ذَكَرٌ فَكَفَّ عَلِيٌّ عَنْهُ ثُمَّ أَتَى النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ إِنَّهُ لَمَجْبُوبٌ مَا لَهُ ذَكَرٌ

Narrated to us Zuhair bin Harb narrated to us Affan narrated to us Hammad bin Salamah informed us Thabit from Anas that a man was accused of committing adultery with the wife of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. So the Messenger said to Ali: Go and behead him (for his hypocrisy). Ali went to him, finding him cooling himself in a small well. Ali said to him: Come out! Then Ali pulled his hand and found he was a man without genitals. So Ali did not kill him. Ali returned to the Messenger and said: O Messenger of Allah, indeed he is a man without genitals.

ZAID BIN ARQAM'S COMPLAINT TO RASULULLAH SHALALLAHU ALAIHI WASALLAM ABOUT ABDULLAH BIN UBAY

Narrated to us Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah, narrated to us Al Hasan bin Musa, narrated to us Zuhair bin Mu'awiyah, narrated to us Abu Ishaq, that he heard Zaid bin Arqam say: "On one occasion, we went with the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, on a long journey during which many companions faced difficulties. Then Abdullah bin Ubay said to his friends: 'Do not spend on those who are with the Messenger of Allah so that they may abandon him.' Zuhair said: 'The wording "Haulihi" (with kasrah on the letter lam) is the most authentic reading.' Abdullah bin Ubay said: 'Indeed, when we return to Medina, the strong will surely expel the weak.' (QS. Al-Munafiqun (63): 8). Zaid bin Arqam said: 'Then I went to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, to inform him of Abdullah bin Ubay's statement. The Messenger of Allah sent someone to question Abdullah bin Ubay, but he swore he never said such a thing and claimed: 'Zaid has lied about the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him.' Zaid bin Arqam said: 'Of course, the words of the hypocrites made me upset, until Allah, the Exalted, revealed a verse confirming my stance: "When the hypocrites come to you..." (QS. Al-Munafiqun (63): 1).' Zaid bin Arqam said: 'Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, called them, the hypocrites, to seek forgiveness for them from Allah, but they turned their faces away.' Allah, the Exalted, said: 'The hypocrites are like timber propped up...' (QS. Al-Munafiqun (63): 4). Zaid bin Arqam said: 'In appearance, they seemed charming.'

Narrated to us Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah, narrated to us Abu Usamah, narrated to us 'Ubaidullah bin 'Umar from Nafi' from Ibn 'Umar, he said: "When Abdullah bin Ubay bin Salul passed away, his son Abdullah bin Abdullah (bin Ubay) came to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, requesting his cloak to shroud his father. The Messenger of Allah granted his request. Then he also asked the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, to perform the funeral prayer for his father. When he stood to perform the funeral prayer, Umar (bin Khaththab) pulled his garment and said: 'O Messenger of Allah! Will you perform the funeral prayer for him? Has not Allah forbidden you from praying for him?' He replied: 'I have only been given a choice by Allah, the Exalted, to pray for them or not.' Then he recited the verse: 'Whether you ask forgiveness for them or do not ask forgiveness for them, even if you ask forgiveness for them seventy times...' (QS. At-Taubah (9): 80). And I will exceed seventy times.' Umar said: 'But he is a hypocrite!' Yet the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, still performed the prayer for him. Then Allah, the Exalted, revealed: 'And never pray over any of them who has died, nor stand at his grave...' (QS. At-Taubah (9): 84). Narrated to us Muhammad bin Al Mutsanna and 'Ubaidullah bin Sa'id, both said: narrated to us Yahya Al Qaththan from 'Ubaidullah with this chain, a similar Hadith, with the addition: then he abandoned praying for the hypocrites.

Narrated to us Al Hasan bin 'Ali Al Hulwani and Muhammad bin Sahl At Tamimi, both said: narrated to us Ibn Abu Maryam, informed us Muhammad bin Ja'far, informed me Zaid bin Aslam from 'Atha bin Yasar from Abu Sa'id Al Khudri: "Some hypocrites during the time of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, when he went to battle, would not join the fight and took pride in sitting idly to oppose the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. When the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, returned (with victory and war booty), they would offer their excuses for not joining the battle, reinforcing them with oaths. Then they wished to be praised (as if they were heroes) despite doing nothing. Therefore, the verse was revealed: 'Do not ever think that those who rejoice in what they have done and love to be praised for what they have not done, do not think they will escape punishment...' (QS. Ali Imran (3): 188).

Narrated to us Zuhair bin Harb and Harun bin 'Abdullah—and this wording belongs to Zuhair—both said: narrated to us Hajjaj bin Muhammad from Ibn Juraij informed me Ibn Abu Malikah that Humaid bin 'Abdurrahman bin 'Auf informed him that Marwan said: "O Abu Rafi', tell the gatekeeper to go to Ibn Abbas and ask: 'If every one of us who rejoices in what he has done and loves to be praised for what he has not done will be punished, does that mean we will all be punished?' Ibn Abbas said: 'What does this verse have to do with you? This verse was revealed concerning the People of the Book.' Then Ibn Abbas recited the verse: 'And [recall] when Allah took a covenant from those who were given the Scripture, [saying], "You must make it clear to the people and not conceal it..." (QS. Ali Imran (3): 187). And Ibn Abbas recited the verse: 'And do not ever think that those who rejoice in what they have done and love to be praised for what they have not done...' (QS. Ali Imran (3): 188). Ibn Abbas said: 'When the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, asked them about something, they concealed it and told him something else. Then they left. I saw that they were informed about what he had asked them, and they wanted to be praised for what they had reported, and they rejoiced in what they had done by concealing what he had asked.'

Narrated to us Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah, narrated to us Aswad bin 'Amir, narrated to us Syu'bah bin Al Hajjaj from Qatadah from Abu Nadhrah from Qais, he said: I asked Ammar, 'What is your opinion about the war against Ali? Or what was the message of the Messenger of Allah conveyed to you?' Ammar replied: 'The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, never conveyed a message to us that he did not also convey to everyone.' I was informed by Hudzaifah from the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, who said:

'Among my companions, there are twelve hypocrites. Eight of them will not enter Paradise until a camel can pass through the eye of a needle. Eight of them will surely be struck by Dubailah, while the other four, I do not recall what Syu'bah said about them.'

Narrated to us Zuhair bin Harb, narrated to us Abu Ahmad Al Kufi, narrated to us Al Walid bin Jumai', narrated to us Abu Ath Thufail, he said: "There was an issue between a participant of the Aqabah Pledge and Hudzaifah that became widely known. Hudzaifah asked: 'I swear by Allah, how many were the people in the Aqabah Pledge?' Abu Thufail said: People told him: 'Inform Hudzaifah if he asks you.' He replied: 'We were told they were fourteen. If you were among them, then it would be fifteen. I testify to Allah that twelve of them are enemies of Allah and His Messenger in this world and the Hereafter.' The other three sought excuses, saying: 'We did not hear the call of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and we did not know what the hypocrites intended.' In very hot weather, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, traveled and said: 'Provisions are scarce, so let no one touch the water before I do!' But the Messenger of Allah found that some hypocrites had preceded him. Consequently, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, cursed them at that moment.

Narrated to us 'Ubaidullah bin Mu'adz Al 'Anbari, narrated to us my father, narrated to us Qurrah bin Khalid from Abu Az Zubair from Jabir bin 'Abdullah, he said: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'Whoever climbs the hill of Al Murar, his sins will be forgiven as the sins of the Children of Israel were forgiven.' Jabir bin Abdullah said: 'The first to climb that hill were our cavalry from Bani Khazraj. Then the others followed together.' Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'Your sins will be forgiven, except for the owner of the red camel.' So we went to the owner of the red camel and said: 'Come, ask the Messenger of Allah to seek forgiveness for you!' But the owner of the red camel replied: 'I would rather find my lost camel than have your companion (the Prophet) seek forgiveness for me.' Jabir said: 'It turned out he was looking for his lost camel.' Narrated to us Yahya bin Habib Al Haritsi, narrated to us Khalid bin Al Harits, narrated to us Qurrah, narrated to us Abu Az Zubair from Jabir bin 'Abdullah, he said: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'Whoever climbs the hill of Al Murar or Al Marar?'—as in the Hadith of Mu'adz, except he said with the wording: 'and it turned out he was a Bedouin looking for his lost camel.'

Narrated to me Muhammad bin Rafi', narrated to us Abu An Nadhr, narrated to us Sulaiman bin Al Mughirah from Thabit from Anas bin Malik, he said: "There was a male companion from Bani Najjar who had memorized Surah Al-Baqarah and Surah Ali Imran. He was also a scribe for the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. One day, he fled and joined the People of the Book." Anas said: "The People of the Book honored and respected him, saying: 'This man was a scribe for Muhammad.' So their respect for him grew. Not long after, he died among the People of the Book. They dug a grave to bury him, but the earth kept throwing his body out. They dug again to bury him, but the earth threw his body out again. They dug once more, but the earth threw his body out yet again, until they left him lying there."

Narrated to us Ahmad bin 'Abdullah bin Yunus, narrated to us Fudhail bin 'Iyadl from Manshur from Ibrahim from 'Ubaidah As Salmani from 'Abdullah bin Mas'ud, he said: "A monk came to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and said: 'O Muhammad, or O Abu Qasim! On the Day of Resurrection, Allah, the Exalted, will hold the heavens, the earth, the mountains, the trees, the water, the animals, and all creatures with His fingers. Then He will shake them all, saying: 'I am the King! I am the King!' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, laughed upon hearing the monk and confirmed it. Then he recited the verse: 'And they have not appraised Allah with true appraisal, while the earth entirely will be [within] His grip on the Day of Resurrection, and the heavens will be folded in His right hand...' (QS. Az-Zumar (39): 67). Narrated to us 'Utsman bin Abu Syaibah and Ishaq bin Ibrahim, both from Jarir from Manshur with this chain, he said: 'A Jewish monk came to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him'—similar to the Hadith of Fudhail, but he did not mention the phrase: 'then He shakes them all.' He also said: 'I saw the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, laugh until his front teeth were visible, in amazement and confirmation of what he said. Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, recited the verse: 'And they have not appraised Allah with true appraisal...' (QS. Az-Zumar (39): 67) and so on."

Narrated to us [Umar bin Hafsh bin Giyats], narrated to us [my father], narrated to us [Al A'masy], narrated to me [Ibrahim] from [Alqamah] from [Abdullah] who said: While I was walking with the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, in a field, leaning on a stick, some Jews passed by. They said to one another: 'Ask him about the soul.' They said: 'What doubts you to ask him, lest he responds with something you dislike?' They said: 'Ask him.' Then one of them approached and asked him about the soul. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, remained silent and gave no answer. I knew he was receiving revelation. I stood in my place. When the revelation descended, he said: 'They ask you about the soul. Say: The soul is of my Lord's affair, and you have been given but little knowledge.' (Al-Israa: 85). Narrated to us [Abu Bakar bin Abu Syaibah] and [Abu Sa'id Al Asyuj], narrated to us [Waki']. Narrated to us [Ishaq bin Ibrahim Al Hanzhali] and [Ali bin Khasyram], both said: Informed us [Isa bin Yunus], both from [Al A'masy] from [Ibrahim] from [Alqamah] from [Abdullah] who said: I walked with the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, in a field in Medina, similar to the hadith of Hafsh, but in Waki's hadith, it is mentioned: 'And you have been given but little knowledge.' (Al-Israa: 85). In Isa bin Yunus's hadith, it is mentioned: 'And you have been given.' From the Messenger of Allah, Ibn Khasyram. Narrated to us [Abu Sa'id Al Asyujj] who said: I heard [Abdullah bin Idris] say: I heard [Al A'masy] narrate it from [Abdullah bin Murrah] from [Masruq] from [Abdullah] who said: The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, was in a date grove, leaning on a date palm trunk. Abdullah mentioned the same hadith as Al A'masy's, and in his narration, he said: 'And you have been given but little knowledge.' (Al-Israa: 85).

Narrated to us [Abu Bakar bin Abu Syaibah] and [Abdullah bin Sa'id Al Asyujj], the text belongs to Abdullah, both said: Narrated to us [Waki'], narrated to us [Al A'masy] from [Abu Adh Dhuha] from [Masruq] from [Khabbab] who said: Al-Ash owed me a debt. I came to him to demand it. He said to me: I will not pay your debt until you disbelieve in Muhammad. I said to him: I will not disbelieve in Muhammad until you die and are resurrected. He said: If you are resurrected after death, I will settle your debt when I return to my wealth and children. Waki' said: Thus Al A'masy said: Then this verse was revealed: 'Have you seen the one who disbelieves in Our signs and says: I will surely be given wealth and children,' up to His saying: 'And he will come to Us alone.' (Maryam: 77-80). Narrated to us [Abu Kuraib], narrated to us [Abu Mu'awiyah]. Narrated to us [Ibnu Numair], narrated to us [my father]. Narrated to us [Ishaq bin Ibrahim], informed us [Jarir]. Narrated to us [Ibnu Abi Umar], narrated to us [Sufyan], all from [Al A'masy] with this chain, like Waki's hadith. In Jarir's hadith, it is mentioned: In the time of ignorance, I was a slave of Al-Ash bin Wa'il. I worked and then came to him to demand my rights.

Narrated to us [Ubaidullah bin Mu'adz Al Anbari], narrated to us [my father] from [Syu'bah] from [Abdul Hamid Az Ziyadi], he heard [Anas bin Malik] say: Abu Jahal once said: O Allah, if this is truly from You, then rain down stones upon us from the sky or bring us a painful punishment. Then this verse was revealed: 'And Allah will not punish them while you are among them, nor will Allah punish them while they seek forgiveness. Why should Allah not punish them when they prevent people from the Sacred Mosque?' (Al-Anfal: 33) to the end of the verse.

Narrated to us [Ubaidullah bin Mu'adz] and [Muhammad bin Abdula'la Al Qaisi], both said: Narrated to us [Al Mu'tamir] from [his father], narrated to me [Nu'aim bin Abu Hind] from [Abu Hazim] from [Abu Hurairah] who said: Abu Jahal said: Does Muhammad prostrate his face on the ground among you? Someone answered: Yes. He said: By Lata and Uzzah, if I see him doing that, I will step on his neck or bury his face in the dirt. Abu Hurairah said: He then approached the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, while he was praying, intending to step on his neck. Nothing shocked them except that he (Abu Jahal) retreated, shielding himself with his hands. Someone asked him: What's wrong with you? He replied: Between me and him was a trench of fire, terror, and many wings. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'If he had come closer to me, the angels would have torn his limbs apart one by one.' Abu Hurairah said: Then Allah, Mighty and Exalted, revealed - we (Nu'aim) are unsure whether this verse was mentioned in Abu Hurairah's hadith or heard by Abu Hazim from the Messenger of Allah -: 'Indeed, man transgresses, because he sees himself as self-sufficient. Indeed, to your Lord is the return. What do you think of one who prevents a servant from praying? What if he is on the truth or commands piety? What if he denies and turns away?' meaning Abu Jahal. 'Does he not know that Allah sees all? If he does not stop, We will seize him by the forelock, a lying, sinful forelock. Let him call his assembly We will call the angels of Hell. No, do not obey him.' (Al-Alaq: 7-19). Abdullah added in his hadith: He said: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, commanded Abu Jahal with what was commanded to him. Ibn Abdula'la added: 'Let him call his assembly,' meaning his people.

Narrated to us [Ishaq bin Ibrahim], informed us [Jarir] from [Manshur] from [Abu Adh Dhuha] from [Masruq] who said: We were sitting with [Abdullah] while he was lying down. Someone came to him and said: O Abu Abdurrahman, someone at the gate of Kindah claims that the sign of smoke came and took the lives of disbelievers, while for believers, it was like a cold. Abdullah sat up angrily and said: O people, fear Allah. Whoever among you knows something, let him speak what he knows, and whoever does not know, let him say: Allah knows best. The most knowledgeable among you is the one who says Allah knows best for what he does not know. Allah, Mighty and Exalted, said to His Prophet: 'Say: I ask no reward from you for my message, nor am I of those who pretend.' (Sad: 86). When the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, saw people turning away, he prayed: 'O Allah, bring them famine like the famine of Yusuf.' Masruq said: They were struck with a famine that consumed everything, so they ate skins and carrion due to hunger. Someone looked at the sky and saw what seemed like smoke. They went to Abu Sufyan, who said: O Muhammad, you came commanding obedience to Allah and maintaining kinship ties your people are perishing, so pray to Allah for them. 'So wait for the day when the sky brings clear smoke, enveloping people. This is a painful punishment,' up to His saying: 'Indeed, you will return to disbelief.' (Ad-Dukhan: 10-15). He said: Will the punishment of the Hereafter be lifted? '(Remember) the day We strike them with a mighty blow. Indeed, We are the avengers.' (Ad-Dukhan: 16). The mighty blow was the Battle of Badr. The signs of smoke, the mighty blow, death, and the verse about the Romans have passed.

Narrated to us [Abu Bakar bin Abu Syaibah], narrated to us [Abu Mu'awiyah] and [Waki']. Narrated to me [Abu Sa'id Al Asyujj] and [Waki']. Narrated to us [Utsman bin Abu Syaibah], narrated to us [Jarir], all from [Al A'masy]. Narrated to us [Yahya bin Abu Yahya] and [Abu Kuraib], the text belongs to Yahya, both said: Narrated to us [Abu Mu'awiyah] from [Al A'masy] from [Muslim bin Shubaih] from [Masruq] who said: Someone came to [Abdullah] and said: I left someone in the mosque interpreting Quranic verses based on his opinion: 'So wait for the day when the sky brings clear smoke, enveloping people.' (Ad-Dukhan: 10). He said: On the Day of Judgment, smoke comes to people and takes their lives like a cold. Then Abdullah said: Whoever knows something, let him convey it, and whoever does not know, let him say: Allah knows best. One's understanding is to say Allah knows best for what he does not know. That (smoke) occurred when the Quraysh defied the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him. He prayed for them to be struck with famine like that of Yusuf. They were afflicted with drought and exhaustion until someone looked at the sky and saw what seemed like smoke between him and the sky due to exhaustion, and they ate bones. Someone then came to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and said: O Messenger of Allah, seek forgiveness from Allah for Mudar, for they have perished. He said to Mudar: 'Indeed, you are reckless.' Abdullah said: The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, prayed for them, and Allah, Mighty and Exalted, revealed: 'Indeed, We will remove the punishment a little. Indeed, you will return to disbelief.' (Ad-Dukhan: 10-15). Abdullah said: Then they were given rain, and when they gained prosperity, they returned to their old ways. Abdullah said: Then Allah, Mighty and Exalted, revealed: 'So wait for the day when the sky brings clear smoke, enveloping people. This is a painful punishment.' (Ad-Dukhan: 10). Abdullah said: That was the Battle of Badr.

Narrated to us [Ubaidullah bin Mu'adz Al Ambari], narrated to us [my father], narrated to us [Syu'bah] from [Abu Imran Al Jauni] from [Anas bin Malik] from the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, who said: 'Allah, Blessed and Exalted, asks the inhabitant of Hell with the lightest punishment: If you had the world and all it contains, would you ransom it? He replies: Yes. Allah says: I asked for something easier than this when you were in Adam's loins, that you not associate partners with Me—Anas thinks he said: And I not admit you to Hell, but you refused and persisted in associating partners.' Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Basyar], narrated to us [Muhammad bin Ja'far], narrated to us [Syu'bah] from [Abu Imran] who said: I heard [Anas bin Malik] narrate from the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, similarly, but he did not mention: And I not admit you to Hell.

Narrated to me [Muhammad bin Ubaid Al Ghubari], narrated to us [Hammad bin Zaid], narrated to us [Ayyub] from [Abu Al Khalil Adh Dhuba'i] from [Mujahid] from [Ibn Umar] who said: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, asked his companions one day: 'Tell me about a tree whose example is like that of a believer.' People mentioned a desert tree, then Ibn Umar said: My heart said—or considered—that it was the date palm. I wanted to say it, but they were all elders, so I was hesitant to speak. When they were silent, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'It is the date palm.' Narrated to us [Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah] and [Ibn Umar], both said: Narrated to us [Sufyan bin Uyainah] from [Ibn Abi Najih] from [Mujahid] who said: I accompanied Ibn Umar to Medina, and I only heard him narrate one hadith from the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. He said: We were near the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and he was given soft date meat, then Ibn Umar mentioned like their hadith. Narrated to us [Ibn Numair], narrated to us [my father], narrated to us [Saif] who said: I heard [Mujahid] say: I heard [Ibn Umar] say: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, was given soft date meat, then he mentioned like their hadith.

DATE PALM TREE AS A PARABLE OF MUSLIM PEOPLE WHO BEAR FRUIT ALL THE TIME

Hadith Imam Muslim Number 5029

حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو بَكْرِ بْنُ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو أُسَامَةَ حَدَّثَنَا عُبَيْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ عُمَرَ عَنْ نَافِعٍ عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ كُنَّا عِنْدَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ أَخْبِرُونِي بِشَجَرَةٍ شَبِهَ أَوْ كَالرَّجُلِ الْمُسْلِمِ لَا يَتَحَاتُّ وَرَفُهَا قَالَ إِبْرَاهِيمُ لَعَلَّ مُسْلِمًا قَالَ وَتَوْتِي أَكْلَهَا وَكَذَا وَجَدْتُ عِنْدَ غَيْرِي أَيْضًا وَلَا تُؤْتِي أَكْلَهَا كُلَّ حِينٍ قَالَ ابْنُ عُمَرَ فَوَقَعَ فِي

نَفْسِي أَنَّهَا التَّخْلَةُ وَرَأَيْتُ أَبَا بَكْرٍ وَعُمَرَ لَا يَتَكَلَّمَانِ فَكَرِهْتُ أَنْ أَتَكَلَّمَ أَوْ أَقُولَ شَيْئًا فَقَالَ عُمَرُ لَأَنْ تَكُونَ قُلْتَهَا أَحَبُّ إِلَيَّ مِنْ كَذَا وَكَذَا

Narrated to us [Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah], narrated to us [Abu Usamah], narrated to us [Ubaidullah bin Umar] from [Nafi'] from [Ibn Umar] who said: We were near the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and he asked: 'Tell me about a tree like a Muslim, whose leaves do not fall!' Ibrahim said: Perhaps he said: Muslim, he said: 'Always bearing fruit'—as I found in another narration: 'And it does not bear fruit all the time.' Ibn Umar said: My heart said it was the date palm. I saw Abu Bakr and Umar not speaking, so I did not want to speak or say anything. Umar said: If you had said it, I would have preferred it over such and such.

Narrated to me [Muhammad bin Rafi'], narrated to us [Syababah], narrated to me [Warqa`] from [Abu Az Zinad] from [Al A'raj] from [Abu Hurairah] from the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, who said: 'Paradise and Hell disputed. Hell said: The arrogant and proud enter me. Paradise said: As for me, only the weak, insignificant, and powerless enter me. Then Allah said to Paradise: You are My mercy with you, I show mercy to whomever I will of My servants. Then Allah said to Hell: You are My punishment with you, I punish whomever I will. Each of you will be filled. But Hell is not filled until Allah places His foot, then Hell says: Enough, enough. At that, Hell is full, and parts of it are gathered to others.' Narrated to us [Abdullah bin Aun Al Hilali], narrated to us [Abu Sufyan Muhammad bin Humaid] from [Ma'mar] from [Ayyub] from [Ibn Sirin] from [Abu Hurairah], the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'Paradise and Hell disputed,' narrating a hadith with the same meaning as Abu Az Zinad's.

Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Abdullah Ar Ruzzi], narrated to us [Abdulwahhab bin Atha`] regarding Allah's saying: 'On the day We say to Hell: Are you filled? And it says: Is there more?' (Qaaf: 30), then he informed us from [Sa'id] from [Qatadah] from [Anas bin Malik] from the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, who said: 'Hellfire is constantly filled, and it keeps saying: Is there more? Until the Lord of Might places His foot, then parts of it are gathered to others, and it says: Enough, enough, by Your might and glory. In Paradise, there is always surplus until Allah creates beings for it and places them in its surplus.'

Narrated to us [Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah] and [Abu Kuraib], their texts are similar, both said: Narrated to us [Abu Mu'awiyah] from [Al A'masy] from [Abu Shalih] from [Abu Sa'id] who said: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'Death is brought on the Day of Resurrection like a speckled sheep—Abu Kuraib added: And placed between Paradise and Hell, the rest of the hadith is the same—then it is said: O inhabitants of Paradise, do you know this? They look up and say: Yes, it is death. Death is laid down and slaughtered, then it is said to the inhabitants of Hell: O inhabitants of Hell, do you know this? They look up and say: Yes, it is death. He said: Then death is ordered to be slaughtered, and it is said: O inhabitants of Paradise, eternity with no death, and O inhabitants of Hell, eternity with no death.' Then he recited: 'And warn them of the Day of Regret, when the matter is decided, while they are heedless and do not believe.' (Maryam: 39) He pointed his hand to the world. Narrated to us [Utsman bin Abu Syaibah], narrated to us [Jarir] from [Al A'masy] from [Abu Shalih] from [Abu Sa'id] who said: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'When the inhabitants of Paradise enter Paradise and the inhabitants of Hell enter Hell, it is said: O inhabitants of Paradise,' then he mentioned like the meaning of Abu Mu'awiyah's hadith, but he mentioned: That is Allah's saying, Mighty and Exalted, without mentioning: Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, recited, nor did he mention: He pointed his hand to the world.

THE DISTANCE BETWEEN THE SHOULDERS OF THE INFIDEL IN HELL IS THREE DAYS' TRAVEL

Hadith Imam Muslim Number 5091

حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو كُرَيْبٍ وَأَحْمَدُ بْنُ عُمَرَ الْوُكَيْعِيُّ قَالَ حَدَّثَنَا ابْنُ فَضِيلٍ عَنْ أَبِيهِ عَنْ أَبِي حَازِمٍ عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ يَرْفَعُهُ قَالَ مَا بَيْنَ مَنْكِبَيْ الْكَافِرِ فِي النَّارِ مَسِيرَةُ ثَلَاثَةِ أَيَّامٍ لِلرَّكِبِ الْمُسْرِعِ وَلَمْ يَذْكُرِ الْوُكَيْعِيُّ فِي النَّارِ

Narrated to us [Abu Kuraib] and [Ahmad bin Umar Al Waki'i], narrated to us [Ibn Fudhail] from [his father] from [Abu Hazim] from [Abu Hurairah], he raised this hadith, saying: The distance between the shoulders of a disbeliever in Hell is a three-day journey for a swift rider. Al Waki'i did not mention: 'In Hell.'

Narrated to us [Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah], narrated to us [Waki']. Narrated to us [Ubaidullah bin Mu'adz], narrated to us [my father], both from [Syu'bah]. Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Al Mutsanna] and [Muhammad bin Basyar], text of Ibnu Al Mutsanna, both said: Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Ja'far], narrated to us [Syu'bah], from [Al Mughirah bin An Nu'man], from [Sa'id bin Jubair], from [Ibnu Abbas], who said: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, stood delivering a sermon, giving advice among us, saying: "O people, you will be gathered before Allah barefoot, naked, and uncircumcised. 'As We began the first creation, so We will repeat it. That is a promise binding upon Us. Indeed, We will do it.' (Al-Anbiya: 104) Know that the first creature to be clothed on the Day of Resurrection is Ibrahim, peace be upon him. Know that some of my ummah will be brought and taken to the left, and I will say: 'O Lord, my companions.' It will be said: 'Indeed, you do not know what they innovated after you.' Then I will say, as a righteous servant said: 'I was a witness over them while I was among them, but when You took me, You were the Watcher over them, and You are Witness over all things. If You punish them, they are Your servants.' (Al-Ma'idah: 117-118) Then it will be said: They kept turning back (apostating) since you left them." In the hadith of Waki' and Mu'adz: Then it will be said: "Indeed, you do not know what they innovated after you."

Narrated to me [Abu Ghassan Al Misma'i], [Muhammad bin Al Mutsanna], and [Muhammad bin Basyar bin Utsman], text of Ghassan and Ibnu Al Mutsanna, both said: Narrated to us [Mu'adz bin Hisyam], narrated to me [my father], from [Qatadah], from [Mutharrif bin Abdullah bin Asy Syakhir], from [Iyadh bin Himar Al Mujasy'i], the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said one day in his sermon: "Indeed, my Lord commanded me to teach you what you do not know, which He taught me today: 'All wealth I have given to a servant is lawful. I created My servants upright, but devils came to them, diverting them from their religion, forbidding what I made lawful, and commanding them to associate with Me what I did not authorize.' Indeed, Allah looked at the people of the earth and despised them, Arab and non-Arab, except remnants of the People of the Book. He said: 'I send you to test you and test others through you. I revealed to you a Book untouched by water, which you read while asleep or awake.' Indeed, Allah commanded me to burn the Quraysh, and I said: 'O Lord, they would crush my head, leaving it to rot.' He said: 'Expel them as they expelled you, fight them, and We will aid you spend, and We will replace it send an army, and We will send five times as much fight those who disobey you with those who obey you.' He continued: 'The people of Paradise are three: a just ruler who gives charity and helps, a merciful person soft-hearted toward every relative and Muslim, and a chaste person with dependents.' He continued: 'The people of Hell are five: the weak with no strength, your followers among you who seek neither family nor wealth the betrayer whose greed is never hidden, even if subtle, he surely betrays and the one who deceives you morning and evening regarding your family and wealth.' He mentioned stinginess, lying, and bad character. Abu Ghassan in his hadith did not mention: Spend, and I will replace. Narrated to me [Muhammad bin Al Mutsanna Al Anazi], narrated to us [Muhammad bin Abu Adi], from [Sa'id], from [Qatadah], with this chain in his hadith, he did not mention: "All wealth I have given to a servant is lawful." Narrated to me [Abdurrahman bin Bisyr Al Abdi], narrated to us [Yahya bin Sa'id], from [Hisyam], friend of Ad Dastuwa'i, narrated to us [Qatadah], from [Mutharrif], from [Iyadh bin Himar], one day the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, delivered a sermon, mentioning the hadith, and at the end, he mentioned: Yahya said: Syu'bah said: From Qatadah, who said: I heard Mutharrif in this hadith. Narrated to me [Abu Ammar Husain bin Hurait], narrated to us [Al Fadhl bin Musa], from [Al Husain], from [Mathar], narrated to me [Qatadah], from [Mutharrif bin Abdullah bin Asy Syakhir], from [Iyadh bin Himar] of Bani Mujasyi', who said: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, stood delivering a sermon one day among us and said: "Indeed, Allah commanded me," mentioning the hadith like Hisyam from Qatadah, adding in his hadith: "And Allah revealed to me that you should humble yourselves so no one boasts over another or oppresses another." He (Iyadh) mentioned in his hadith: And they are your followers among you, seeking neither family nor wealth. I asked: Is that so, O Abu Abdullah? He replied: Yes, by Allah, I met them in the time of ignorance a man herded in a village with only his female slave, and he was intimate with her.

narrated it to me, saying: While the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, was in a garden belonging to Bani An Najjar, riding his mule with us, the mule suddenly swerved, nearly throwing him. There were six, five, or four graves—Al Jurairi said: That is what he said—then he asked: "Who knows the occupants of these graves?" Someone replied: I do. He asked: "When did they die?" He replied: They died during idolatry. He said: "Indeed, this ummah is tested in their graves. If you did not rush, I would pray to Allah to let you hear the punishment of the grave as I hear it." Then he turned his face toward us and said: "Seek refuge in Allah from the punishment of Hell." They said: We seek refuge in Allah from the punishment of Hell. He said: "Seek refuge in Allah from the punishment of the grave." They said: We seek refuge in Allah from the punishment of the grave. Narrated to me [Ishaq bin Umar bin Salith Al Hudzali], narrated to us [Sulaiman bin Al Mughirah], from [Tsabit], who said: [Anas] said: I was with [Umar]. Narrated to us [Syaiban bin Farrukh], his text, narrated to us [Sulaiman bin Al Mughirah], from [Tsabit], from [Anas bin Malik], who said: We were with [Umar] between Mecca and Medina, we saw the crescent moon, I was sharp-sighted, I saw it, but no one thought anyone saw it except me. Anas said: I said to Umar: Do you not see it? He did not see it, he said: I will see it lying on my mat. Then he narrated to us about the soldiers of Badr, saying: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, showed the places of death of the Badr soldiers yesterday, saying: "This is the place of so-and-so's death tomorrow, God willing." Anas said: Umar said: By the One who sent him with the truth, they did not deviate from the limits set by the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. He said: They were placed in a pit together, then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, hurried until he reached them, calling: "O so-and-so son of so-and-so, O so-and-so son of so-and-so, have you found the truth of Allah and His Messenger's promise? Indeed, I have found the truth of Allah's promise to me." Umar said: O Messenger of Allah, how do you speak to lifeless bodies? He said: "You do not hear my words more than they do, but they cannot answer me at all."

Narrated to us [Hadbah bin Khalid], narrated to us [Hammad bin Salamah], from [Tsabit Al Bunani], from [Anas bin Malik], the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, left the bodies of Badr for three days, then approached them, stood, and called them, saying: "O Abu Jahal bin Hisyam, O Umaiya bin Khalaf, O Utbah bin Rabi'ah, O Syaibah bin Rabi'ah, have you not found the truth of your Lord's promise? Indeed, I have found the truth of my Lord's promise to me." Umar heard the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and said: O Messenger of Allah, how do they hear and respond when they are corpses? He said: "By the One in whose hand is my soul, you do not hear my words more than they do, but they cannot answer." Then he ordered them to be dragged and thrown into the well of Badr. Narrated to me [Yusuf bin Hammad Al Ma'ni], narrated to us [Abdul A'la], from [Sa'id], from [Qatadah], from [Anas bin Malik], from [Abu Thalhah]. Narrated to me [Muhammad bin Hatim], narrated to us [Rauh bin Ubadah], narrated to us [Sa'id bin Abu Urubah], from [Qatadah], who said: [Anas bin Malik] narrated to us from [Abu Thalhah], saying: During the Battle of Badr, when the Prophet of Allah defeated them, he ordered twenty-some—Rauh's hadith says twenty-four—Quraysh leaders to be thrown into one of Badr's wells. He mentioned a hadith with the same meaning as Tsabit's from Anas.

Narrated to me [Harmalah bin Yahya], informed us [Ibnu Wahb], informed me [Yunus], from [Ibnu Syihab], informed me [Urwah bin Az Zubair], that [Zainab binti Abu Salamah] informed him, that [Ummu Habibah binti Abu Sufyan] informed her, that [Zainab binti Jahsy], the wife of the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, informed her, saying: One day, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, came out in fear with his face red, saying: "There is no god but Allah, woe to the Arabs from an evil that draws near today, the barrier of Gog and Magog has been opened like this—he joined his thumb and index finger." She (Zainab) asked: O Messenger of Allah, will we be destroyed while righteous people are among us? He replied: "Yes, if wickedness becomes widespread." Narrated to me [Abdulmalik bin Syu'aib bin Al Laits], narrated to me [my father], from [my grandfather], narrated to me [Uqail bin Khalid]. Narrated to us [Amru An Naqid], narrated to us [Ya'qub bin Ibrahim bin Sa'ad], narrated to us [my father], from [Shalih], both from [Ibnu Syihab], like the hadith of Yunus from Az Zuhri with its chain.

Narrated to us [Qutaibah bin Sa'id], [Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah], and [Ishaq bin Ibrahim], text of Qutaibah, Ishaq said: Informed us, while others said: Narrated to us [Jarir], from [Abdulaziz bin Rufai'], from [Ubaidullah bin Al Qibthiyyah], who said: Al Harits bin Abu Rabi'ah and Abdullah bin Shafwan visited the home of [Ummu Salamah], Mother of the Believers, and I was with them. They asked about the army swallowed by the earth during the time of Ibnu Az Zubair. She replied: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: "Someone seeks refuge in the Sacred House, then an army is sent to him when they reach a desert, they are swallowed." I asked: O Messenger of Allah, what about those who are unwilling? He replied: "They are swallowed with them, but resurrected on the Day of Resurrection based on their intentions." Abu Ja'far said: That was in the plain of Medina. Narrated to us [Ahmad bin Yunus], narrated to us [Zuhair], narrated to us [Abdulaziz bin Rufai'], with this chain, and in his hadith it is mentioned: He said: Then I met Abu Ja'far, and I said: Indeed, Ummu Salamah only said in a desert. Abu Ja'far said: No, by Allah, it is the desert of Medina.

[Abdulmalik Al Amiri], from [Yusuf bin Mahak], informed me [Abdullah bin Shafwan], from [Mother of the Believers], the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: "A people will seek refuge in this house—meaning the Sacred House—with no protector, number, or weapons. An army is sent to attack them. When they reach a desert, they are swallowed by the earth." Yusuf said: At that time, the people of Syria were traveling to Mecca. Abdullah bin Shafwan said: By Allah, they are not the army meant. Zaid said: Narrated to me [Abdulmalik Al Amiri], from [Abdurrahman bin Sabith], from [Al Harits bin Abu Rabi'ah], from [Mother of the Believers], like the hadith of Yusuf bin Mahak, but he did not mention the army mentioned by Abdullah bin Shafwan.

Narrated to us [Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah], narrated to us [Yunus bin Muhammad], narrated to us [Al Qasim bin Al Fadhl Al Huddani], from [Muhammad bin Ziyad], from [Abdullah bin Zubair], that [Aisyah] said: Once, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, stirred in his sleep. We said: O Messenger of Allah, in your sleep you did something you never did before. He said: "Strange, indeed, some of my ummah will head to the Sacred House to attack a Quraysh man seeking refuge there. When they reach a desert, they are swallowed." We said: O Messenger of Allah, the road gathers many people. He replied: "Yes, among them are those who go intentionally, those who are forced, and those who are merely traveling with them. They are all destroyed together, but resurrected differently. Allah resurrects them according to their intentions."

Narrated to me [Abu Kamil Al Jahdari Fudhail bin Husain], narrated to us [Hammad bin Zaid], narrated to us [Utsman Asy Syahham], who said: I went with Farqad As Sabakhi to meet [Muslim bin Abu Bakrah] in his area. We entered his home and asked: Did you hear your father narrate a hadith about trials? He replied: Yes, I heard [Abu Bakrah] narrate, saying: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: "Indeed, trials will occur. After that, a trial occurs where the one sitting is better than the one walking, and the one walking is better than the one jogging toward it. When a trial occurs, whoever has camels, let him follow his camels whoever has goats, let him follow his goats whoever has land, let him follow his land." Someone asked: O Messenger of Allah, what about one who has no camels, goats, or land? He replied: "He should hold his sword, strike its edge on a stone, then escape if he can. O Allah, have I conveyed? O Allah, have I conveyed? O Allah, have I conveyed?" Someone asked: O Messenger of Allah, what if I am forced into one of two factions or groups, and someone strikes me with his sword or an arrow hits and kills me? He replied: "He comes bearing his sin and yours, and he is among the people of Hell." Narrated to us [Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah] and [Abu Kuraib], both said: Narrated to us [Waki']. Narrated to me [Muhammad bin Al Mutsanna], narrated to us [Ibnu Abi Adi], both from [Utsman Asy Syahham], with this chain, the hadith of Ibnu Abi Adi is like Hammad's until the end. Waki's hadith stops at: "If he can escape," and does not mention what follows.

Narrated to me [Abu Kamil Fudhail bin Husain Al Jahdari], narrated to us [Hammad bin Zaid], from [Ayyub] and [Yunus], from [Al Hasan], from [Al Ahnaf bin Qais], who said: I went to meet this man, then [Abu Bakrah] met me and asked: Where are you going, O Ahnaf? I replied: I am going to meet the son of the Prophet's uncle, peace and blessings be upon him—meaning Ali. He said: O Ahnaf, return, for I heard the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, say: "If two Muslims face each other with swords, the killer and the killed are in Hell." I said, or it was said: O Messenger of Allah, the killer (deserves Hell), but what about the killed? He replied: "Indeed, he intended to kill his companion."

حَدَّثَنِي حَرْمَلَةُ بْنُ يَحْيَى التُّجِيبِيُّ أَخْبَرَنَا ابْنُ وَهْبٍ أَخْبَرَنِي يُونُسُ عَنْ ابْنِ شَهَابٍ أَنَّ أَبَا إِدْرِيسَ الْخَوْلَانِيَّ كَانَ يَقُولُ قَالَ حُذَيْفَةُ بْنُ الْيَمَانِ وَاللَّهِ إِنِّي لَا أَعْلَمُ النَّاسَ بِكُلِّ فِتْنَةٍ هِيَ كَائِنَةٌ فِيمَا بَيْنِي وَبَيْنَ السَّاعَةِ وَمَا بِي إِلَّا أَنْ يَكُونَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَسْرًا لِي فِي ذَلِكَ شَيْئًا لَمْ يُحَدِّثْهُ غَيْرِي وَلَكِنْ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ وَهُوَ يُحَدِّثُ مَجْلِسًا أَنَا فِيهِ عَنِ الْفِتَنِ فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَهُوَ يُعَدُّ الْفِتَنَ مِنْهُنَّ ثَلَاثٌ لَا يَكْذَنُ يَذَرْنَ شَيْئًا وَمِنْهُنَّ فِتْنٌ كَرِيحِ الصَّيْفِ مِنْهَا صَغَارٌ وَمِنْهَا كِبَارٌ قَالَ حُذَيْفَةُ فَذَهَبَ أُولَئِكَ الرَّهْطُ كُلُّهُمْ غَيْرِي

Narrated to us [Harmalah bin Yahya At Tujibi], informed us [Ibnu Wahb], informed me [Yunus], from [Ibnu Syihab], that [Abu Idris Al Khaulani] said: [Hudzaifah bin Al Yaman] said: By Allah, I am the most knowledgeable about every trial from now until the Hour, because the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, told me something about it privately, not sharing it with others, but he spoke of trials in an assembly where I was present. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, counting the trials, including three that leave almost nothing, some like summer winds, some small, some large. Hudzaifah said: Then they all left except me.

Narrated to us [Utsman bin Abu Syaibah] and [Ishaq bin Ibrahim], Utsman said: Narrated to us, while Ishaq said: Informed us [Jarir], from [Al A'masy], from [Syaqiq], from [Hudzaifah], who said: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, stood among us, informing us of all that will happen until the Hour. Those who memorized it memorized, and those who forgot it forgot. My companions knew it, and something I forgot, I recalled, then remembered it as one remembers a man's face when he leaves, recognizing it upon seeing him. Narrated to us [Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah] and [Waki'], from [Sufyan], from [Al

A'masy], with this chain, up to: And those who forgot it forgot. He did not mention what follows.

Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Abdullah bin Numair] and [Muhammad bin Al Ala` Abu Kuraib], from [Abu Mu'awiyah], [Ibnu Al Ala`] said: Narrated to us [Abu Mu'awiyah], narrated to us [Al A'masy], from [Syaqiq], from [Hudzaifah], who said: We were at Umar's house, and he asked: Who among you remembers the hadith of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, about trials as he said it? Hudzaifah bin Al Yaman replied: I do. Umar said: You are bold what did he say? I (Hudzaifah bin Al Yaman) said: I heard the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, say: "A man's trial with his family, wealth, and neighbor is expiated by prayer, charity, enjoining good, and forbidding evil."

Umar said: That is not what I meant, but the trial that surges like the ocean. I said: You have no issue with it, O Commander of the Faithful, for between you and that trial is a closed door. Umar asked: Is the door broken or opened? Hudzaifah replied: Broken. Umar said: Then it will never close again. We asked Hudzaifah: Did Umar know who the door was? Hudzaifah replied: Yes, as he knows the night separates today from tomorrow. I narrated a hadith without error. We said to Masruq: Ask him. He asked, and he replied: Umar. Narrated to us [Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah] and [Abu Sa'id Al Asyaji], who said: Narrated to me [Waki'], and narrated to me [Utsman bin Abu Syaibah], narrated to us [Jarir]. I said: Today, blood will be spilled here. He said: No, by Allah. I said: Yes, by Allah. He said: No, by Allah. I said: Yes, by Allah. That was a hadith the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, told me. I said: You are my worst companion since today you hear me, yet oppose me, though I heard it from the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, so do not forbid me. Then I said: Why be angry? I approached him and asked, and it was [Hudzaifah].

He said: People are busy chasing worldly gains. I replied: True. He said: I heard the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, say: "The Euphrates will soon reveal a treasure of gold. When people hear of it, they approach, and those nearby say: 'If we let others take it, they will take it all.'" He said: "They fight over it for every hundred, ninety-nine are killed." Abu Kamil said in his hadith: He said:

I and Ubai bin Ka'ab rested in the shade of Hassan's garden.

When they face each other, the Romans say: 'Let us fight those who took our people captive.' The Muslims reply: 'No, by Allah, we will not let you fight our brothers.' Then a battle ensues. A third are defeated, whom Allah will never forgive a third are killed, the best martyrs with Allah and a third are victorious, never to face trials again, then they conquer Constantinople. While dividing the spoils, hanging their swords on olive trees, Satan shouts: 'The Messiah has appeared among your families.' They scatter, but it is a lie. When they reach Syria, he appears. As they prepare for battle and align their ranks, the prayer time arrives, and Jesus son of Mary, peace and blessings be upon him, descends and leads them. When Allah's enemy (Dajjal) sees him, he melts like salt in water. Even if left alone, he would melt and perish, but Allah has him killed by his hand, showing them his blood on his spear."

Narrated to us [Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah] and [Ali bin Hujr], both from [Ibnu Ulayyah], text of Hujr, narrated to us [Isma'il bin Ibrahim], from [Ayyub], from [Humaid bin Hilal], from [Abu Qatadah], from [Yasir bin Jabir], who said: A red wind stirred in Kufa, and a man came, saying only: O [Abdullah bin Mas'ud], the Hour has come. Yasir said: Ibn Mas'ud sat up from reclining and said: The Hour will not come until inheritance is not divided and spoils do not please. Then he gestured with his hand toward Syria, saying: An enemy gathers against the Muslims, and the Muslims gather against them. I said: You mean the Romans? He replied: Yes, during that battle, a great assault occurs. The Muslims send a troop to die, not returning unless victorious. They fight until night, both sides return, neither winning, and the troop is gone. The Muslims send another troop to die, not returning unless victorious.

They fight until night, both sides return, neither winning, and that troop is gone. The Muslims send another troop to die, not returning unless victorious. They fight until night, both sides return, neither winning, and that troop is gone. On the fourth day, the remaining Muslims advance, and Allah brings defeat upon them. They kill so many, perhaps he said: Nothing like it was seen, or: Nothing like it was seen, until birds fly over them and fall dead. A tribe counts, once a hundred, but finds only one man, so what spoils can please or inheritance be divided? While like this, they hear of a greater attack a crier says the Dajjal has replaced them in their families. They discard what is in their hands and return, sending ten horsemen ahead. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: "I know their names, their fathers' names, and their horses' colors. They are the best cavalry on earth then, or among the best cavalry on earth then." [Ibnu Abi Syaibah] said in his narration: From Usair bin Jabir. Narrated to me [Muhammad bin Ubaid Al Ghubari], narrated to us [Hammad bin Zaid], from [Ayyub], from [Humaid bin Hilal], from [Abu Qatadah], from [Yusair bin Jabir], who said: I was near [Ibn Mas'ud], a red wind stirred, he mentioned a similar hadith. Ibn Ulaiah's hadith is more complete. Narrated to us [Syaiban bin Farrukh], narrated to us [Sulaiman bin Al Mughirah], narrated to us [Humaid bin Hilal], from [Abu Qatadah], from [Asir bin Jabir], who said: I was at [Abdullah bin Mas'ud]'s house, full of people, he said: A red wind stirred in Kufa, then he mentioned like Ibn Ulaiah's hadith.

He said: A people came to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, from the west, wearing woolen clothes, meeting him near a hill. They stood while the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, sat. He (Nafi') said: My heart said: Go to them and stand between them and the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, so they do not attack him. Then I said: Perhaps he is speaking quietly with them. I approached and stood between them and him. I memorized four statements from him, counting them with my hand. He said: "You will fight the Arabian Peninsula, and Allah will conquer it then Persia, and Allah will conquer it then the Romans, and Allah will conquer them then the Dajjal, and Allah will conquer him." Then Nafi' said: O Jabir, we do not think the Dajjal will appear until the Romans are conquered.

Narrated to us [Ubaidullah bin Mu'adz Al Ambari], narrated to us [my father], narrated to us [Syu'bah], from [Furat Al Qazzaz], from [Abu Ath Thufail], from [Abu Sarihah Hudzaifah bin Usaid], who said: The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, was in a room while we were below. He looked at us from above and asked: "What are you discussing?" We replied: The Hour. He said: "The Hour will not come until you see ten signs: a landslide in the east, a landslide in the west, a landslide in the Arabian Peninsula, smoke, the Dajjal, the beast of the earth, Gog and Magog, the sun rising from the west, and a fire from the depths of Aden driving people." Syu'bah said: Narrated to me [Abdulaziz bin Rufai'], from [Abu Ath Thufail], from [Abu Sarihah], like that, he did not mention the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him. One of them said the tenth sign: The descent of Jesus son of Mary, peace and blessings be upon him. The other said: A wind throwing people into the sea. Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Basyar], narrated to us [Muhammad bin Ja'far], narrated to us [Syu'bah], from [Furat], who said: I heard [Abu Ath Thufail] narrate from [Abu Sarihah], who said: The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, was in a room while we were below, discussing, he mentioned a similar hadith. Syu'bah said: I think he said: "(The fire) stays where they are and with them at midday rest." Syu'bah said: Narrated to me [someone], this hadith from [Abu Ath Thufail], from [Abu Sarihah], and he did not attribute it to the Prophet. One of them said: The descent of Jesus son of Mary. The other said: A wind throwing them into the sea. Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Al Mutsanna], narrated to us [Abu An Nu'man Al Hakim bin Abdullah Al Ijli], narrated to us [Syu'bah], from [Furat], who said: I heard [Abu Ath Thufail] narrate from [Abu Sarihah], who said: We were discussing, and the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, looked at us from above, like the hadith of Mu'adz and Ibnu Ja'far. Ibnu Mutsanna said: Narrated to us [Abu An Nu'man Al Hakam bin Abdullah], narrated to us [Syu'bah], from [Abdulaziz bin Rufai'], from [Abu Ath Thufail], from [Abu Sarihah], it seems, who said: And the tenth sign is the descent of Jesus son of Mary. Syu'bah said: Abdulaziz did not attribute it to the Prophet.

حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ عُمرِ بْنِ أَبَانَ وَوَاصِلُ بْنُ عَبْدِ الْأَعْلَى وَأَحْمَدُ بْنُ عُمرِ الْوَكَيْعِيِّ وَاللَّفْظُ لِابْنِ أَبَانَ قَالُوا حَدَّثَنَا ابْنُ فَضِيلٍ عَنْ أَبِيهِ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ سَالِمَ بْنَ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عُمرِ يَقُولُ يَا أَهْلَ الْعِرَاقِ مَا أَسْأَلُكُمْ عَنْ الصَّغِيرَةِ وَأَرْكَبَكُمْ لِلْكَبِيرَةِ سَمِعْتُ أَبِي عَبْدَ اللَّهِ بْنَ عُمرِ يَقُولُ سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ إِنَّ الْفِتْنَةَ تَجِيءُ مِنْ هَاهُنَا وَأَوْمًا بِيَدِهِ نَحْوَ الْمَشْرِقِ مِنْ حَيْثُ يَطْلُعُ قَرْنَا الشَّيْطَانِ وَأَنْتُمْ يَضْرِبُ بَعْضُكُمْ رِقَابَ بَعْضٍ وَإِنَّمَا قَتَلَ مُوسَى الَّذِي قَتَلَ مِنْ آلِ فِرْعَوْنَ خَطَأً فَقَالَ اللَّهُ عَزَّ وَجَلَّ لَهُ { وَقَتَلْتَ نَفْسًا فَنَجَّيْنَاكَ مِنَ الْغَمِّ وَفَتَنَّاكَ فُتُونًا } قَالَ أَحْمَدُ بْنُ عُمرِ فِي رِوَايَتِهِ عَنْ سَالِمٍ لَمْ يَقُلْ سَمِعْتُ

Narrated to us [Abdullah bin Umar bin Aban], [Washil bin Abdula'la], and [Ahmad bin Umar Al Waki'i], text of Ibnu Aban, they said: Narrated to us [Ibnu Fudhail], from [his father], who said: I heard [Salim bin Abdullah bin Umar] say: O people of Iraq, I do not ask about small matters or urge you toward great ones. I heard my father, [Abdullah bin Umar], say: I heard the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, say: "Indeed, the trial comes from here," pointing east, "from where the two horns of Satan rise. You will cut each other's throats. Moses only killed a man from Pharaoh's family by mistake, and Allah, Mighty and Exalted, said to him: 'And you killed a man, so We saved you from distress and tested you with trials.'" Ahmad bin Umar said in his narration: From Salim, he did not say: I heard.

The companions replied: Yes, O Messenger of Allah. He continued: "The Hour will not come until seventy thousand from Isaac's descendants fight it. When they reach it, they encamp but do not fight with swords or arrows. They say: 'There is no god but Allah, and Allah is Great,' and one side falls—Tsauro said: I only know he mentioned the sea side—then they say it a second time: 'There is no god but Allah, and Allah is Great,' and the other side falls. They say it a third time: 'There is no god but Allah, and Allah is Great,' and their defenses open, so they enter and take the spoils. While dividing the spoils, a shout comes: The Dajjal has appeared. They abandon everything and return." Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Al Mutsanna], narrated to us [Salim bin Nuh], from [Al Jurairi], from [Abu Nadhrah], from [Abu Sa'id], who said: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, Abu Bakr, and Umar met him (Ibn Shayyad) in one of Medina's streets. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, asked him: "Do you testify that I am Allah's Messenger?" He replied: Do you testify that I am Allah's Messenger? The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: "I believe in Allah, His angels, and His books." He asked: "What do you see?" He replied: I see a throne over water. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: "You see the throne of Satan over the sea." He asked: "What do you see?" He replied: Two truthful and one liar, or two liars and one truthful. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: "He is confused leave him." Narrated to us [Yahya bin Hubaib] and [Muhammad bin Abdula'la], both said: Narrated to us [Mu'tamir], who said: I heard [my father] say: Narrated to us [Abu Nadhrah], from [Jabir bin Abdullah], who said: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, met Ibn Shayyad with Abu Bakr and Umar, while Ibn Shayyad was with children, mentioning like Al Jurairi's hadith.

IBNU SHAYYAD ASKED THE RASULULLAH ABOUT THE DAJJAL

Hadith Imam Muslim Number 5209

حَدَّثَنِي عُيَيْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ عُمَرَ الْقَوَارِيرِيُّ وَمُحَمَّدُ بْنُ الْمُثَنَّى قَالَا حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ الْأَعْلَى حَدَّثَنَا دَاوُدُ عَنْ أَبِي نَضْرَةَ عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ صَحِبْتُ ابْنَ صَائِدٍ إِلَى مَكَّةَ فَقَالَ لِي أَمَا قَدْ لَقِيتُ مِنَ النَّاسِ يَزْعُمُونَ أَنِّي الدَّجَالُ

أَلَسْتُ سَمِعْتَ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ إِنَّهُ لَا يُولَدُ لَهُ قَالَ قُلْتُ بَلَى قَالَ فَقَدْ وُلِدَ لِي أَوْلَيْسَ
 سَمِعْتَ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ لَا يَدْخُلُ الْمَدِينَةَ وَلَا مَكَّةَ قُلْتُ بَلَى قَالَ فَقَدْ وُلِدْتُ بِالْمَدِينَةِ
 وَهَذَا أَنَا أُرِيدُ مَكَّةَ قَالَ ثُمَّ قَالَ لِي فِي آخِرِ قَوْلِهِ أَمَا وَاللَّهِ إِنِّي لَا أَعْلَمُ مَوْلَدَهُ وَمَكَانَهُ وَأَيْنَ هُوَ قَالَ فَلَبَسَنِي

Narrated to me [Ubaidullah bin Umar Al Qawariri] and [Muhammad bin Al Mutsanna], both said: Narrated to us [Abdula'la], narrated to us [Dawud], from [Abu An Nadhrah], from [Abu Sa'id Al Khudri], who said: I accompanied Ibn Shayyad to Mecca. He said to me: I met some people who think I am the Dajjal. Have you not heard the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, say he has no children? I replied: Yes. He said: But I have children. And have you not heard the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, say: "The Dajjal cannot enter Medina or Mecca"? I replied: Yes. He said: Yet I was born in Medina and now head to Mecca. He added at the end: By Allah, I know his birth, place, and where he is. I said: He confused me.

IBNU SHAYYAD ADMITS HE KNOWS THE PLACE OF THE DAJJAL Hadith Imam Muslim Number 5210

حَدَّثَنَا يَحْيَى بْنُ حَبِيبٍ وَ مُحَمَّدٌ بْنُ عَبْدِ الْأَعْلَى قَالَا حَدَّثَنَا مُعْتَمِرٌ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ أَبِي يُحَدِّثُ عَنْ أَبِي نَضْرَةَ عَنْ أَبِي
 سَعِيدٍ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ لِي ابْنُ صَائِدٍ وَأَخَذَنِي مِنْهُ ذِمَامَةٌ هَذَا عَذَرْتُ النَّاسَ مَا لِي وَلَكُمْ يَا أَصْحَابَ مُحَمَّدٍ
 أَلَمْ يَقُلْ نَبِيُّ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّهُ يَهُودِيٌّ وَقَدْ أَسْلَمْتُ قَالَ وَلَا يُولَدُ لَهُ وَقَدْ وُلِدَ لِي وَقَالَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ قَدْ
 حَرَّمَ عَلَيْهِ مَكَّةَ وَقَدْ حَجَجْتُ قَالَ فَمَا زَالَ حَتَّى كَادَ أَنْ يَأْخُذَ فِي قَوْلِهِ قَالَ فَقَالَ لَهُ أَمَا وَاللَّهِ إِنِّي لَا أَعْلَمُ الْآنَ
 حَيْثُ هُوَ وَأَعْرِفُ أَبَاهُ وَأُمَّهُ قَالَ وَقِيلَ لَهُ أَيْسُرُكَ أَنَّكَ ذَاكَ الرَّجُلُ قَالَ فَقَالَ لَوْ عُرِضَ عَلَيَّ مَا كَرِهْتُ

Narrated to us [Yahya bin Hubaib] and [Muhammad bin Abdula'la], both said: Narrated to us [Mu'tamir], who said: I heard [my father] narrate from [Abu Nadhrah], from [Abu Sa'id Al Khudri], who said: Ibn Sa'id said to me, and I respected him: I forgive people. What is your concern with me, O companions of Muhammad? Did the Prophet of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, not say the Dajjal is a Jew, while I have embraced Islam? He continued: The Dajjal has no children, while I have. He continued: Allah has forbidden the Dajjal from Mecca and Medina, while I have performed Hajj. Abu Sa'id said: He kept talking until his words drew me in. He said: Indeed, by Allah, I know where the Dajjal is now, I know his father and mother. Abu Sa'id said: Someone said to him: Would you like to be that man (the Dajjal)? He replied: If he were shown to me, I would not dislike it.

IBNU SHAYYAD KNEW WHERE DAJJAL WAS AND THOUGHT HIMSELF WAS DAJJAL

حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ الْمُثَنَّى حَدَّثَنَا سَالِمُ بْنُ نُوحٍ أَخْبَرَنِي الْجَرِيرِيُّ عَنْ أَبِي نَضْرَةَ عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ

خَرَجْنَا حُجَّاجًا أَوْ عُمَرَاءَ وَمَعَنَا ابْنُ صَائِدٍ قَالَ فَتَزَلْنَا مَنْزِلًا فَتَفَرَّقَ النَّاسُ وَبَقِيَْتُ أَنَا وَهُوَ فَاسْتَوْحَشْتُ مِنْهُ وَحُشَّةً شَدِيدَةً مِمَّا يُقَالُ عَلَيْهِ قَالَ وَجَاءَ بِمَتَاعِهِ فَوَضَعَهُ مَعَ مَتَاعِي فَقُلْتُ إِنَّ الْحَرَّ شَدِيدٌ فَلَوْ وَضَعْتُهُ تَحْتَ تِلْكَ الشَّجَرَةِ قَالَ فَفَعَلَ قَالَ فَرَفَعْتُ لَنَا عَنَمٌ فَانْطَلَقَ فَجَاءَ بِعُسٍّ فَقَالَ اشْرَبْ أَبَا سَعِيدٍ فَقُلْتُ إِنَّ الْحَرَّ شَدِيدٌ وَاللَّبَنُ حَارٌّ مَا بِي إِلَّا أَنِّي أَكْرَهُ أَنْ أَشْرَبَ عَنْ يَدِهِ أَوْ قَالَ آخِذٌ عَنْ يَدِهِ فَقَالَ أَبَا سَعِيدٍ لَقَدْ هَمَمْتُ أَنْ آخِذَ حَبْلًا فَأَعْلَقَهُ بِشَجَرَةٍ ثُمَّ أَخْتَنِقَ مِمَّا يَقُولُ لِي النَّاسُ يَا أَبَا سَعِيدٍ مَنْ خَفِيَ عَلَيْهِ حَدِيثُ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا خَفِيَ عَلَيْكُمْ مَعْشَرَ الْأَنْصَارِ أَلَسْتَ مِنْ أَعْلَمِ النَّاسِ بِحَدِيثِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَلَيْسَ قَدْ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ هُوَ كَافِرٌ وَأَنَا مُسْلِمٌ أَوَلَيْسَ قَدْ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ هُوَ عَقِيمٌ لَا يُولِدُ لَهُ وَقَدْ تَرَكْتُ وَلَدِي بِالْمَدِينَةِ أَوَلَيْسَ قَدْ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَدْخُلُ الْمَدِينَةَ وَلَا مَكَّةَ وَقَدْ أَقْبَلْتُ مِنَ الْمَدِينَةِ وَأَنَا أُرِيدُ مَكَّةَ قَالَ أَبُو سَعِيدٍ الْخُدْرِيُّ حَتَّى كِدْتُ أَنْ أَعْذِرَهُ ثُمَّ قَالَ أَمَا وَاللَّهِ إِنِّي لَا أَعْرِفُهُ وَأَعْرِفُ مَوْلِدَهُ وَأَيْنَ هُوَ الْآنَ قَالَ قُلْتُ لَهُ تَبًّا لَكَ سَائِرَ الْيَوْمِ

Narrated to me [Muhammad bin Al Mutsanna], narrated to us [Salim bin Nuh], informed me [Al Jurairi], from [Abu Nadhrah], from [Abu Sa'id Al Khudri], who said: We went for Hajj or Umrah, Ibn Sa'id was with us. We stopped at a place, people dispersed, leaving only me and him. I was uneasy about him because of what people said. He placed his supplies with mine. I said: It is very hot if only you placed them under that tree. Abu Sa'id said: He did so. Abu Sa'id said: Then a goat was brought, he left and returned with a glass. He said: Drink, O Abu Sa'id. I said: It is too hot, and the milk is hot. There was nothing wrong with me except that I disliked drinking from his hand—or he said: taking from his hand. Then Abu Sa'id said: O Abu Sa'id, I want to take a rope, hang it on a tree, and hang myself because of what people say about me. O Abu Sa'id, who among the Ansar does not know the Prophet's hadith? Are you not among those most knowledgeable of the Messenger of Allah's hadith, peace and blessings be upon him? Did he not say the Dajjal is a disbeliever, while I am a Muslim? Did the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, not say the Dajjal is barren, while I have children? And I left my father in Medina. Did the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, not say the Dajjal cannot enter Medina or Mecca, while I have left Medina and now head to Mecca? Abu Sa'id Al Khudri said: I almost accepted his reasoning. Then he said: Indeed, by Allah, I know him (the Dajjal), his birth, and where he is now. Abu Sa'id said: I said to him: Woe to you all this day.

Narrated to me [Harmalah bin Yahya bin Abdullah bin Harmalah bin Imran At Tujini], informed me [Ibnu Wahab], informed me [Yunus], from [Ibnu Syihab], from [Salim bin Abdullah], who informed him that [Abdullah bin Umar] informed him that Umar bin Al Khaththab went with the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, in a group toward Ibn Shayyad until they found him playing with children near the Bani Maghalah fortress. Ibn Shayyad was nearly mature. He did not notice until the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, struck his back with his hand, then asked Ibn Shayyad: "Do you testify that I am Allah's Messenger?" Ibn Shayyad looked at him and said: I testify that you are the messenger of the illiterate. Ibn Shayyad asked the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him: Do you testify that I am Allah's Messenger? The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, rejected it and said: "I believe in Allah and His messengers." Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, asked: "What do you see?" Ibn Shayyad replied: A truthful one and a liar come to me. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said to him: "The matter is confused for you." Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: "I have hidden something for you." Ibn Shayyad said: "Smoke." The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said to him: "Go away, you will not exceed your limit." Umar bin Al Khaththab said: Let me strike his neck, O Messenger of Allah. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said to him: "If he is that one, you cannot overpower him if he is not, there is no good in killing him." Salim bin Abdullah said: I heard Abdullah bin Umar say: After that, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and Ubai bin Ka'ab Al Anshari went to the date grove where Ibn Shayyad was, entering the grove while concealing himself with palm fronds to avoid being heard. He saw Ibn Shayyad and his mother. Ubai said: If you had let him explain, he would have clarified. Salim said: Abdullah bin Umar said: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, stood among people, praising and glorifying Allah as He deserves, then mentioned the Dajjal, saying: "I warn you of him. No prophet but warned his people of the Dajjal. Noah warned his people, but I will tell you something no prophet told his people: Know that he is one-eyed, while Allah, Blessed and Exalted, is not one-eyed." [Ibnu Syihab] said: Informed me [Umar bin Tsabit Al Anshari], that some of the Prophet's companions, peace and blessings be upon him, informed him that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said while warning people about the Dajjal: "Between his eyes is written KAFIR, readable by those who hate his deeds or by every believer." He said: "Know that none of you will see your Lord, Mighty and Exalted, until you die." Narrated to us [Al Hasan bin Ali Al Hulwani] and [Abdu bin Humaid], both said: Narrated to us [Ya'qub bin Ibrahim bin Sa'id], narrated to us [my father], from [Shalih], from [Ibnu Syihab], informed me [Salim bin Abdullah], that [Abdullah bin Umar] said: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, went with some companions, including Umar bin Al Khaththab, met Ibn Shayyad, a boy nearing maturity, playing with children near the Bani Mu'awiyah fortress, mentioning like Yunus's hadith until the end of Umar bin Tsabit's hadith.

Narrated to us [Abdu bin Humaid], narrated to us [Rauh bin Ubadah], narrated to us [Hisyam], from [Ayyub], from [Nafi'], who said: [Ibnu Umar] met Ibn Sa'id in one of Medina's streets, then Ibn Umar said words that angered him, causing him to swell until he filled the street. Ibn Umar entered [Hafshah]'s house, and the news reached her. Hafshah said to Ibn Umar: May Allah have mercy on you, what did you want from Ibn Sa'id? Do you not know the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: "Indeed, he emerges from his anger."

Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Al Mutsanna], narrated to us [Husain bin Hasan bin Yasar], narrated to us [Ibnu Aun], from [Nafi'], who said: Nafi' mentioned Ibn Shayyad. [Ibnu Umar] said: I met him twice. I met him and said to some: Do you say he is the Dajjal? He replied: No, by Allah. I said: You lie to me. By Allah, some of you told me he will not die until he has the most wealth and children among you. That is their belief now. Nafi' said: We talked, then I left him. Ibnu Umar said: I met Ibn Shayyad again, his eyes swollen. I asked: Since when have your eyes been like this? He replied: I do not know. I said: You do not know, though they are in your head? He said: If Allah wills, He could create them in your staff. Ibnu Umar said: Then Ibn Shayyad snorted like the loudest donkey snort I ever heard. Some friends thought I struck him with my staff until it broke. By Allah, I did not feel I struck him. Nafi' said: Ibnu Umar came, entered the Mother of the Believers' house, and told her. She said: Why did you approach him? Do you not know the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said his anger is the start of his (Dajjal's) rise among people.

رَأْيِي الْعَيْنِ مَاءٌ أَبْيَضُ وَالْآخَرُ رَأْيِي الْعَيْنِ نَارٌ تَأْجَجُ فِيمَا أَدْرَكَنَّ أَحَدَ فَلَيَاتِ النَّهْرَ الَّذِي يَرَاهُ نَارًا وَلْيُعْمَضْ ثُمَّ
لِيُطَاطِئْ رَأْسَهُ فَيَشْرَبَ مِنْهُ فَإِنَّهُ مَاءٌ بَارِدٌ وَإِنَّ الدَّجَالَ مَمْسُوحُ الْعَيْنِ عَلَيْهَا ظَفَرَةٌ غَلِيظَةٌ مَكْتُوبٌ بَيْنَ عَيْنَيْهِ
كَافِرٌ يَقْرَأُهُ كُلُّ مُؤْمِنٍ كَاتِبٍ وَغَيْرِ كَاتِبٍ

Narrated to us [Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah], narrated to us [Yazid bin Harun], from [Abu Malik Al Asyja'i], from [Rib'i bin Hiras], from [Hudzaifah], who said: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: "I know what is with the Dajjal: he has two flowing rivers. One appears as white water, the other as blazing fire. If anyone meets him, let him approach the paradise that looks like fire, close his eyes, lower his head, and drink, for it is cool water. The Dajjal is blind in one eye, with thick skin over it, and between his eyes is written KAFIR, readable by every believer, literate or not."

Narrated to us [Abu Khaithamah Zuhair bin Harb] narrated to us [Al-Walid bin Muslim] narrated to me [Abdurrahman bin Yazid bin Jabir] narrated to me [Yahya bin Jabir Ath-Tha`i], the judge of Homs, narrated to me [Abdurrahman bin Jubair] from [his father, Jubair bin Nufair Al-Hadrami] who heard [An-Nawwas bin Sam'an Al-Kilabi]. Narrated to me [Muhammad bin Mihran Ar-Razi], his text, narrated to us [Al-Walid bin Muslim] narrated to us [Abdurrahman bin Yazid bin Jabir] from [Yahya bin Jabir Ath-Tha`i] from [Abdurrahman bin Jubair bin Nufair] from [his father, Jubair bin Nufair] from [An-Nawwas bin Sam'an] who said: One morning, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, mentioned the Dajjal, lowering and raising his voice until we thought he was among the palm trees. We left the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, then returned, and he noticed it in us and said: 'What is wrong with you?' We said: O Messenger of Allah, you mentioned the Dajjal this morning, lowering and raising your voice until we thought he was among the palm trees. He said: 'It is not the Dajjal I fear most for you. If he appears while I am among you, I will defeat him, not you. If he appears when I am not among you, each person defends himself, and Allah is my successor over every Muslim. He is a curly-haired youth, his eye protruding, resembling Abdul Uzza bin Qathan. Whoever sees him should recite the opening of Surah Al-Kahf. He will appear between Sham and Iraq, causing corruption right and left. O servants of Allah, remain steadfast.' We asked: How long will he stay on earth? The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'Forty days: one day like a year, one day like a month, one day like a week, and the rest like your days.' We asked: O Messenger of Allah, for the day like a year, will the prayers of one day suffice? He said: 'No, but estimate its measure.' We asked: O Messenger of Allah, how fast will he move on earth? He said: Like rain driven by wind. He approaches a people and calls them, they accept him, he commands the sky to rain, it rains, he commands the earth to produce plants, it does, their livestock return with long humps, wide flanks, and full udders. Then ruin comes, and he says to it: 'Bring out your treasure.' Its treasure follows him like male bees. Then he calls a young man, strikes him with a sword, cuts him into two pieces, then calls him, and he comes smiling, laughing. While he is thus, Jesus, son of Mary, descends east of Damascus at the white minaret, wearing two saffron-dyed garments, placing his hands on the wings of two angels. When he lowers his head, water drips when he raises it, sweat flows like pearls. No disbeliever smells his breath without dying, and his breath reaches as far as his sight. Jesus seeks the Dajjal until he finds him at the gate of Ludd and kills him. Then Jesus, son of Mary, approaches a people protected by Allah from the Dajjal. He wipes their faces and tells them their ranks in paradise. While they are thus, Allah reveals to him: 'I have brought forth

My servants no one can fight them, so lead My servants to Tur.' Allah sends Gog and Magog, 'From every elevation they descend swiftly.' (Al-Anbiya: 96) The first pass Lake Tiberias and drink, then the last pass and say: 'There was water here.' The Prophet of Allah, Jesus, and his companions are besieged until a buffalo's head is worth more than a hundred dinars today. Then the Prophet of Allah, Jesus, and his companions pray, and Allah sends worms in their necks, and they die like one soul. Jesus and his companions come, finding no inch free of their corpses and stench. They pray to Allah, who sends birds like camel necks to carry them away as Allah wills. Then Allah sends rain, no house of hair or mud blocks it, washing the earth until it is like a mirror. Allah blesses its fertility, so a group suffices with one camel's milk, a tribe with one cow's milk, and kin with one goat's milk. While they are thus, Allah sends a gentle breeze, taking the soul of every believer and Muslim under their armpits, leaving the worst people who copulate openly like donkeys. On them, the Hour comes.' Narrated to us [Ali bin Hujr As-Sa'di] narrated to us [Abdullah bin Abdurrahman bin Yazid bin Jabir] and [Al-Walid bin Muslim], Ibn Hujr said: One hadith blends into another. From [Abdurrahman bin Yazid bin Jabir] with this chain as mentioned, but he adds after his saying: 'There was water here,' 'They travel until they reach the mountain of Khamar, the mountain of Jerusalem, saying: 'We have killed those on earth let us kill those in the sky.' They shoot arrows to the sky, and Allah returns their arrows red with blood.' In Ibn Hujr's narration: 'Indeed, I have brought forth My servants no one can fight them.'

Narrated to me [Amru An-Naqid], [Al-Hasan Al-Hulwani], and [Abdulhamid bin Humaid], their texts are similar, and the following is Abdul's text, he said: Narrated to me, while others said: Narrated to us [Ya'qub bin Ibrahim bin Sa'ad] narrated to us [my father] from [Shalih] from [Ibn Shihab] informed me [Ubaidullah bin Abdullah bin Utbah] that [Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri] said: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, told us a long story about the Dajjal one day, among what he told us: 'He will come to a mountain pass in Medina—though Medina is forbidden to him—until he reaches some land beyond Medina. Then a man, the best or among the best, confronts him, saying, 'I testify you are the Dajjal the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, told us about.' The Dajjal says: 'What if I kill this man and revive him, would you still doubt?' They say: 'No.' So the Dajjal kills him and revives him. Upon reviving, he says: 'By Allah, I have never understood you better than now.' The Dajjal wants to kill him again but cannot overpower him.' Abu Ishaq said: Some say this man is Khadir, peace be upon him. Narrated to me [Abdullah bin Abdurrahman Ad-Darimi] informed us [Abu Al-Yaman] informed us [Shu'aib] from [Az-Zuhri] with this chain and similar text.

The Dajjal's armed guards meet him, asking: 'Where are you going?' The believer says: 'To that man who appeared.' They ask: 'Do you not believe in our lord?' He says: 'Our Lord is not hidden.' They say: 'Kill him.' But they say to each other: 'Didn't our lord forbid killing anyone but himself?' They take him to the Dajjal. When the believer sees him, he says: 'O people, this is the Dajjal the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, mentioned.' The Dajjal orders him to be split. He says: 'Take and split him.' His back and stomach are beaten, then the Dajjal asks: 'Do you not believe in me?' The believer says: 'You are the lying Messiah.' The Dajjal orders him sawn from head to mid-legs. Then the Dajjal walks between the two parts and says: 'Stand,' and the body stands. The Dajjal asks: 'Do you believe in me?' He replies: 'I know you better now.' The Dajjal says: 'O people, no one will be treated like this after me.' Then the Dajjal takes him to slaughter, but silver is placed between his neck and collarbone, and the Dajjal cannot kill him. Then his hands and feet are taken and thrown people think he was thrown to hell, but he was thrown to paradise.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'He is the greatest witness before the Lord of all worlds.'

Narrated to us [Ubaidullah bin Mu'adh Al-Ambari] narrated to us [my father] narrated to us [Shu'bah] from [An-Nu'man bin Salim] who said: I heard [Ya'qub bin Asim bin Urwah bin Mas'ud Ath-Thaqafi] say: I heard [Abdullah bin Amru], someone approached him and said: What are these hadiths you narrate, saying the Hour will come with this and that? He said: Glory be to Allah, or there is no god but Allah, or similar words. I intended not to narrate anything to anyone forever. I only said you will see a great matter that burns houses soon, and this and that will happen. Then he said: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'The Dajjal will appear among my nation and stay for forty—I don't know if forty days, months, or years—then Allah sends Jesus, son of Mary, like Urwah bin Mas'ud, who seeks and kills him. Then people live for seven years with no enmity between any two. Then Allah sends a cool breeze from Sham, and no one with a grain of goodness or faith in their heart remains without their soul being taken, even if one of you enters a mountain, it will enter and take his soul.' He said: I heard from the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, he said: 'Only the worst people remain, light like birds, with beastly desires, knowing no good, denying no evil. Satan appears to them, saying: 'Will you not respond?' They say: 'What do you command us?' He orders them to worship idols, and they do. Their sustenance flows, and their lives are good. Then the trumpet is blown, and no one hears it without tilting and raising their neck.' He said: 'The first to hear it is a man repairing a camel's trough.' He said: 'He dies, and people die. Then Allah sends—or said: brings down—rain like drizzle, and human bodies emerge. "Then the trumpet is blown again, and suddenly they stand, awaiting." (Az-Zumar: 68) Then he said: 'O people, come to your Lord, "And stop them, for they will be questioned." (As-Saffat: 24)' Then he said: 'Bring out the fire's emissaries.' It is said: From how many? It is answered: Nine hundred ninety-nine out of every thousand.' He said: 'That is "the day that makes children gray-haired." (Al-Muzzammil: 17) and "the day the shin is exposed."' (Al-Qalam: 42) Narrated to me

[Muhammad bin Bashir] narrated to us [Muhammad bin Ja'far] narrated to us [Shu'bah] from [An-Nu'man bin Salim] who said: I heard [Ya'qub bin Asim bin Urwah bin Mas'ud] say: I heard someone say to Abdullah bin Amru: You say the Hour comes with this and that. He said: I intended not to narrate anything to anyone forever. I only said you will see a great matter that burns houses soon. Shu'bah said: This or something like it. Abdullah bin Amru said: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'The Dajjal appears among my nation,' mentioning a hadith like Mu'adh's, and he mentioned: 'No one with a grain of faith remains but their soul is taken.'

Narrated to us [Abu Bakr bin Abu Shaibah] narrated to us [Muhammad bin Bishr] from [Abu Hayyan] from [Abu Zur'ah] from [Abdullah bin Amru] who said: I memorized a hadith from the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, that I never forgot. I heard the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, say: 'The first signs to appear are the sun rising from its setting place and the emergence of beasts in the morning upon people. Whichever comes first, the other follows soon after.' Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Abdullah bin Numair] narrated to us [my father] narrated to us [Abu Hayyan] from [Abu Zur'ah] who said: Three Muslims approached Marwan bin Al-Hakam in Medina, hearing him narrate about the signs, that the first to appear is the Dajjal. [Abdullah bin Amru] said: Marwan said nothing. I memorized a hadith from the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, that I never forgot. I heard the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, say, mentioning a similar hadith. Narrated to us [Nashr bin Ali Al-Jahdami] narrated to us [Abu Ahmad] narrated to us [Sufyan] from [Abu Hayyan] from [Abu Zur'ah] who said: They mentioned the Hour at Marwan's residence, then [Abdullah bin Amru] said: I heard the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, say, like their hadith but without mentioning: In the morning.

Narrated to us [Abdulwarith bin Abdusshamad bin Abdulwarith] and [Hajjaj bin Asy-Sha'ir], both from [Abdusshamad], the text of Abdulwarith bin Abdusshamad narrated to us [my father] from [my grandfather] from [Al-Husain bin Dzakwan] narrated to us [Ibn Buraidah] narrated to me [Amir bin Sharahil Asy-Sha'bi] who asked [Fatimah binti Qais], sister of Adh-Dhahhak bin Qais, one of the first women to migrate, saying: Tell me a hadith you heard from the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, not attributed to anyone else. Fatimah said: If you wish, I will tell you. He said: Yes, tell me. Fatimah said: I married Ibn Al-Mughirah, one of the best Quraysh youths then. He died in the first jihad with the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. When I was widowed, Abdurrahman bin Auf proposed to me with some of the Prophet's companions, and the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, proposed his freed slave, Usamah bin Zaid, for me. I was told the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'Whoever loves me should love Usamah.' When the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, spoke to me, I said: It is up to you marry me to whomever you wish. He said: 'Move to Ummu Shuraik's.' Ummu Shuraik was a wealthy Ansar woman, giving much in Allah's way, often hosting guests. I said: Fine. He said: 'No, Ummu Shuraik has many guests, and I don't want your veil to fall or your shin cover to lift, revealing what you dislike. Instead, move to your cousin, Abdullah bin Amru bin Ummu Kulthum.' He was from Banu Fihir, the Quraysh of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. I moved to his residence. When my waiting period ended, I heard the Prophet's caller announce congregational prayer. I went to the mosque and prayed with the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, in the women's row behind the men. After finishing prayer, he sat on the pulpit, laughed, and said: 'Let everyone stay in their place.' Then he asked: 'Do you know why I gathered you?' They said: Allah and His Messenger know best. He said: 'By Allah, I didn't gather you for hope or fear, but because Tamim Ad-Dari, once a Christian, came, pledged allegiance, and embraced Islam.' He told me a hadith like what I told you about the Messiah Dajjal. He said the Dajjal boarded a ship with thirty from Lakham and Judzam. Waves tossed them at sea for a month, then they landed on an island in the sea at sunset. They sat near the ship, entered the island, and a beast with thick fur met them, unclear where its genitals or anus were due to its fur. They said: Woe to you, what are you? It said: I am Jassasah. They asked: What is Jassasah? It said: O people, go to that man at the village's end he longs for your news. Adh-Dhahhak said: When it named someone, we feared it was a devil. We hurried to the village and found the largest man we ever saw, strongly bound, hands tied to his neck, knees to ankles in iron chains. We said: Woe to you, what are you? He said: You know me, so tell me who you are. They said: We are Arabs, sailed on a ship, waves raged, tossed us for a month, then we landed on your island, sat near the ship, entered, and a furry beast met us, unclear where its genitals or anus were. We said: Woe to you, what are you? It said: I am Jassasah. We asked: What is Jassasah? It said: O people, go to that man at the village's end he longs for your news. We came to you, fearing it was a devil. He said: Tell me about Baisan's dates. We asked: What about them? He said: Do they bear fruit? We said: Yes. He said: Soon, they will not. He said: Tell me about Lake Tiberias. We asked: What about it? He said: Is there water? They said: Plenty. He said: Soon, its water will dry. He said: Tell me about Zughar's spring. They asked: What about it? He said: Is there water, and do people farm with it? We said: Yes, plenty, and they farm with it. He said: Tell me about the prophet of the unlettered what is his state? They said: He emerged from Mecca and resides in Yathrib. He asked: Did the Arabs fight him? We said: Yes. He asked: What did they do to him? We told him he prevailed over nearby Arabs, and they obeyed him. He asked: Has that happened? We said: Yes. He said: Indeed, it is better for them to obey him. I will tell you who I am. I am the Messiah, soon to be permitted to emerge. I will traverse the earth, not leaving a village without visiting for forty days, except Mecca and Taibah (Medina), both forbidden to me. Whenever I try to enter one, an angel with a mighty sword blocks me, and every path has guardian angels.' Fatimah said: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, striking his short stick on the pulpit: 'This is Taibah, this is Taibah, this is Taibah—meaning Medina. Have I not told you?' They said: Yes. The story of Tamim amazed me, matching what I told you about the Dajjal, Medina, and Mecca. Indeed, he is in the sea of Sham or Yemen. No, from the east. Not in the east, not in the east. He pointed his hand eastward. Fatimah said: I memorized this from the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him.

Narrated to me [Ali bin Hujr As-Sa'di] narrated to us [Al-Walid bin Muslim] narrated to me [Abu Amru Al-Auza'i] from [Ishaq bin Abdullah bin Abu Thalhah] narrated to me [Anas bin Malik] that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'No land remains but the Dajjal will traverse it, except Mecca and Medina. No path of theirs lacks rows of angels guarding, bringing earth, then Medina shakes thrice. Every disbeliever and hypocrite leaves it for him.' Narrated to us [Abu Bakr bin Abu Shaibah] narrated to us [Yunus bin Muhammad] from [Hammad bin Salamah] from [Ishaq bin Abdullah bin Abu Thalhah] from [Anas] that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said a similar hadith, but he said: 'Then he comes to the land's edge and occupies its front.' And said: 'Then every hypocrite, male and female, goes to him.'

Narrated to me Harmalah bin Yahya, narrated to us Ibn Wahab, narrated to me Yunus from Ibn Shihab from Urwah bin Az Zubair, that Al Miswar bin Makhramah narrated to him that Amru bin Auf, an ally of Amir bin Lu'ai, who joined the Battle of Badr with the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, narrated that the Messenger sent Abu Ubaidah bin Al Jarrah to Bahrain to bring its jizyah. The Messenger made a peace treaty with Bahrain's people, appointing Al Ala' bin Al Hadhrami as their leader. Abu Ubaidah came with wealth from Bahrain, and the Ansar, hearing of his arrival, prayed Fajr with the Messenger, peace and blessings be upon him. After prayer, the Messenger hurried, and they intercepted him. He smiled upon seeing them and said: I think you heard Abu Ubaidah brought something. They said: Yes, O Messenger of Allah. He said: Rejoice and hope for what pleases you. By Allah, I do not fear poverty for you, but I fear the world will be spread out for you as it was for those before you, and you will compete for it as they did, and it will destroy you as it destroyed them.

Narrated to us Syaiban bin Farrukh, narrated to us Hammam, narrated to us Ishaq bin Abdullah bin Abu Thalhah, narrated to me Abdurrahman bin Abu Amrah, that Abu Hurairah narrated to him that he heard the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, say: Indeed, three from Bani Israel—a leper, a bald man, and a blind man—Allah wished to test them, so He sent an angel. The angel came to the leper and said: What do you desire most? He replied: Good skin color, smooth skin, and cure from this leprosy. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said: He granted it, cured his leprosy, and gave him good skin color and smooth skin. He asked: What wealth do you prefer? He said: Camels or cattle—Ishaq was unsure, but one, either the leper or bald man, said camels, the other cattle. He gave him a pregnant camel, saying: May Allah bless you with it. Then he went to the bald man and asked: What do you desire most? He replied: Good hair and cure from this condition that repels people. He granted it, cured his condition, and gave him good hair. He asked: What wealth do you desire? He said: Cattle. He gave him a pregnant cow, saying: May Allah bless you with it. Then he went to the blind man and said: What do you desire most? He replied: That Allah restores my sight to see people. He granted it, and Allah restored his sight. He asked: What wealth do you desire? He said: Goats. He gave him a pregnant goat, and soon it gave birth. Thus, one had many camels, another many cattle, and another many goats. The angel returned to the former leper in his true form, saying: I am a poor man on a journey, with no means but Allah and your help. By the One who gave you good skin color, smooth skin, and camels, I ask for aid to continue my journey. He replied: I have many obligations. The angel said: I seem to recognize you were you not the leper mocked by people, poor, then Allah blessed you? He said: I inherited this wealth from my rich ancestors. The angel said: If you lie, may Allah return you to your former state. He went to the former bald man in his true form, said the same, and was refused similarly. He said: If you lie, may Allah return you to your former state. Then he went to the former blind man in his true form, saying: I am a poor man on a journey, with no means but Allah and your help. By the One who restored your sight and gave you goats, I ask for aid to continue my journey. He said: I was blind, and Allah restored my sight take what you wish and leave what you do not. By Allah, I will not grieve for what you take. The angel said: Keep your wealth you were tested. You are favored, and your two companions are disfavored.

خَطَبَنَا عُتْبَةُ بْنُ غَزْوَانَ فَحَمِدَ اللَّهَ وَأَثْنَىٰ عَلَيْهِ ثُمَّ قَالَ أَمَّا بَعْدُ فَإِنَّ الدُّنْيَا قَدْ آذَنْتَ بِصَرْمٍ وَوَلَّتْ حَدَاءً وَلَمْ
يَبْقَ مِنْهَا إِلَّا صُبَابَةٌ كُصْبَابَةِ الْإِنَاءِ يَتَصَابُهَا صَاحِبُهَا وَإِنَّكُمْ مُنْتَقِلُونَ مِنْهَا إِلَىٰ دَارٍ لَا زَوَالَ لَهَا فَانْتَقِلُوا بِخَيْرِ
مَا بِحَضْرَتِكُمْ فَإِنَّهُ قَدْ ذُكِرَ لَنَا أَنَّ الْحَجَرَ يُلْقَىٰ مِنْ شَفَةِ جَهَنَّمَ فَيَهْوِي فِيهَا سَبْعِينَ عَامًا لَا يُدْرِكُ لَهَا قَعْرًا وَ
وَاللَّهِ لَشُمْلَانٌ أَفْعَجِبْتُمْ وَلَقَدْ ذُكِرَ لَنَا أَنَّ مَا بَيْنَ مِصْرَاعَيْنِ مِنْ مَصَارِيعِ الْجَنَّةِ مَسِيرَةُ أَرْبَعِينَ سَنَةً وَلَيَأْتِيَنَّ
عَلَيْهَا يَوْمٌ وَهُوَ كَظِيظٍ مِنَ الزَّحَامِ وَلَقَدْ رَأَيْتُنِي سَابِعَ سَبْعَةٍ مَعَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا لَنَا طَعَامٌ إِلَّا

سَعْدٌ بِنِصْفِهَا فَمَا أَصْبَحَ الْيَوْمَ مِنَّا أَحَدٌ إِلَّا أَصْبَحَ أَمِيرًا عَلَىٰ مِصْرٍ مِنَ الْأَمْصَارِ وَإِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِاللَّهِ أَنْ أَكُونَ فِي
نَفْسِي عَظِيمًا وَعِنْدَ اللَّهِ صَغِيرًا وَإِنَّهَا لَمْ تَكُنْ نُبُوءَةً قَطُّ إِلَّا تَنَاسَخَتْ حَتَّىٰ يَكُونَ آخِرُ عَاقِبَتِهَا مُلْكًا
فَسَتَخْبُرُونَ وَتُجَرَّبُونَ الْأَمْرَاءَ بَعْدَنَا وَحَدَّثَنِي إِسْحَاقُ بْنُ عُمَرَ بْنِ سَلَيْطٍ حَدَّثَنَا سُلَيْمَانُ بْنُ الْمُغِيرَةِ حَدَّثَنَا
حُمَيْدُ بْنُ هِلَالٍ عَنْ خَالِدِ بْنِ عُمَيْرٍ وَقَدْ أَدْرَكَ الْجَاهِلِيَّةَ قَالَ خَطَبَ عُتْبَةُ بْنُ غَزْوَانَ وَكَانَ أَمِيرًا عَلَىٰ الْبَصْرَةِ
فَذَكَرَ نَحْوَ حَدِيثِ شَيْبَانَ

Narrated to us Syaiban bin Farrukh, narrated to us Sulaiman bin Al Mughirah, narrated to us Humaid bin Hilal from Khalid bin Umair Al Adawi, who said: Utbah bin Ghazwan gave a sermon, praising Allah, then said: Indeed, the world has announced its departure, leaving only remnants like water left in a vessel by its drinker. You will move from it to an everlasting abode, so depart with the best you have. It was mentioned to us that a stone thrown from the edge of Hell falls for seventy years without reaching its bottom. By Allah, it will be filled. Are you amazed? It was mentioned that the distance between two gates of Paradise equals a forty-year journey, yet one day they will be crowded. I saw myself as the seventh of seven with the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, with no food but tree leaves, wounding our mouths' corners. I took a cloak, split it in two half for me as a sarong, half for Sa'ad bin Malik. Now, each of us leads a region, and I seek refuge in Allah from being great among people but small before Allah.

A STORY ABOUT A SERVANT'S CONVERSATION WITH GOD ON THE DOOMSDAY

Hadith Imam Muslim Number 5270

حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ أَبِي عُمَرَ حَدَّثَنَا سُفْيَانُ عَنْ سُهَيْلِ بْنِ أَبِي صَالِحٍ عَنْ أَبِيهِ عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالُوا يَا رَسُولَ
اللَّهِ هَلْ نَرَى رَبَّنَا يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ قَالَ هَلْ تُضَارُّونَ فِي رُؤْيَةِ الشَّمْسِ فِي الظُّهَيْرَةِ لَيْسَتْ فِي سَحَابَةٍ قَالُوا لَا قَالَ
فَهَلْ تُضَارُّونَ فِي رُؤْيَةِ الْقَمَرِ لَيْلَةَ الْبَدْرِ لَيْسَ فِي سَحَابَةٍ قَالُوا لَا قَالَ فَوَالَّذِي نَفْسِي بِيَدِهِ لَا تُضَارُّونَ فِي رُؤْيَةِ
رَبِّكُمْ إِلَّا كَمَا تُضَارُّونَ فِي رُؤْيَةِ أَحَدِهِمَا قَالَ فَيَلْقَى الْعَبْدَ فَيَقُولُ أَيُّ فُلٍ أَكْرَمَكَ وَأَسْوَدَكَ وَأَزَوَّجَكَ
وَأَسَخَّرَ لَكَ الْخَيْلَ وَالْإِبِلَ وَأَذْرَكَ تَرَأْسُ وَتَرْبَعُ فَيَقُولُ بَلَى قَالَ فَيَقُولُ أَفَظَنَنْتَ أَنَّكَ مُلَاقِي فَيَقُولُ لَا فَيَقُولُ فَإِنِّي

أَنَسَاكَ كَمَا نَسِيتَنِي ثُمَّ يَلْقَى الثَّانِي فَيَقُولُ أَيُّ فُلٍ أَلَمَ أَكْرَمَكَ وَأَسَوَّدَكَ وَأَزَوَّجَكَ وَأَسَخَّرَ لَكَ الْخَيْلَ وَالْإِبِلَ
وَأَدْرَكَ تَرَأْسُ وَتَرْبَعٌ فَيَقُولُ بَلَى أَيُّ رَبِّ فَيَقُولُ أَفَظَنَنْتَ أَنَّكَ مُلَاقِيٌّ فَيَقُولُ لَا فَيَقُولُ فَإِنِّي أَنَسَاكَ كَمَا نَسِيتَنِي
ثُمَّ يَلْقَى الثَّالِثَ فَيَقُولُ لَهُ مِثْلَ ذَلِكَ فَيَقُولُ يَا رَبِّ آمَنْتُ بِكَ وَبِكِتَابِكَ وَبِرُسُلِكَ وَصَلَّيْتُ وَصُمْتُ وَنَصَّدَقْتُ
وَيُثْنِي بِحَيْرٍ مَا اسْتَطَاعَ فَيَقُولُ هَاهُنَا إِذَا قَالَ ثُمَّ يُقَالُ لَهُ الْآنَ نَبْعَثُ شَاهِدَنَا عَلَيْكَ وَيَتَفَكَّرُ فِي نَفْسِهِ مَنْ ذَا
الَّذِي يَشْهَدُ عَلَيَّ فَيُخْتَمُ عَلَى فِيهِ وَيُقَالُ لِفَخِذِهِ وَلَحْمِهِ وَعِظَامِهِ انْطِقِي فَتَنْطِقُ فَخِذُهُ وَلَحْمُهُ وَعِظَامُهُ بِعَمَلِهِ
وَذَلِكَ لِيُعْذَرَ مَنْ نَفْسِهِ وَذَلِكَ الْمُنَافِقُ وَذَلِكَ الَّذِي يَسَخُطُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ

Narrated to me Muhammad bin Abu Umar, narrated to us Sufyan from Suhail bin Abu Shalih from his father from Abu Hurairah, who said: They asked: O Messenger of Allah, will we see our Lord on the Day of Judgment? He replied: Do you harm others seeing the sun at noon with no clouds? They said: No. He asked: Do you harm others seeing the full moon with no clouds? They said: No. He said: By the One in whose hand is my soul, you will not harm others seeing your Lord, just as you do not harm seeing either of them. He continued: Then He meets a servant, saying: O so-and-so, did I not honor you, make you a leader, marry you, subdue horses and camels for you, and let you lead and be obeyed? He replies: Yes. He asks: Did you think you would meet Me? He says: No. Allah says: I forget you as you forgot Me. Then He meets another, saying the same, and he replies: No. Allah says: I forget you as you forgot Me. Then a third comes, and Allah says the same. He says: O Lord, I believed in You, Your Book, Your Messenger, prayed, fasted, and gave charity, praising his good deeds as best he could. Allah says: Stop here. Then it is said: Now, we send our witness against you. He wonders who will testify against him. His mouth is sealed, and his thighs, flesh, and bones are told: Speak. They recount his deeds, providing evidence against him. That is the hypocrite, the one Allah is displeased with.

We said: Allah and His Messenger know best. He said: I laugh at a servant's dialogue with his Lord. He says: O Lord, did You not protect me from injustice? He replies: Yes. He says: I only allow my soul to witness against me. He continues: It is said: Today, your soul suffices as a witness against you, and the noble angels recording your deeds are witnesses. His mouth is sealed, and his limbs are told: Speak. They recount his deeds. Then, he is released to speak, saying: Woe to you, did I not defend you?

Narrated to us Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah and Zuhair bin Harb, Abu Bakr's text, who said: Narrated to us Yazid bin Harun, narrated to us Abdulaziz bin Abu Salamah from Wahb bin Kaisan from Ubaidullah bin Umair Al Laitsi from Abu Hurairah, from the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, who said: While a man was in a desert, he heard a voice in a cloud: Water so-and-so's garden. The cloud moved and poured water. A man was managing water with his shovel in the garden. He asked him: O servant of Allah, what is your name? He replied: So-and-so, the name he heard from the cloud. He asked: O servant of Allah, why ask my name? He said: I heard a voice in the cloud, whose water this is, saying: Water so-and-so's garden, your name. What do you do with your garden? He replied: Since you ask, I look at its yield, give a third in charity, eat a third with my family, and return a third to the garden.

Narrated to us Yahya bin Yahya, Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah, Muhammad bin Abdullah bin Numair, Ishaq bin Ibrahim, and Abu Kuraib, Abu Kuraib's text, Yahya and Ishaq said: Narrated to us, while others said: Narrated to us Abu Mu'awiyah, narrated to us Al A'masy from Syaqiq from Usamah bin Zaid, who said: It was said to him: Visit Uthman and speak to him. He said: Do you think I only speak to him about what I've told you? I spoke to him privately about something I dislike initiating, and I do not claim to have a leader, for he is the best, as I heard the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, say: A person is brought on the Day of Judgment and cast into Hellfire until their intestines spill out, circling like a donkey around a millstone. The people of Hellfire ask: O so-and-so, what befell you? Did you not enjoin good and forbid evil? He replies: Yes, I enjoined good but did not do it, and forbade evil but did it.

سُلَيْمَانُ حَدَّثَنَا ثَابِتٌ عَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ أَبِي لَيْلَى عَنْ صُهِيبٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
عَجَبًا لِأَمْرِ الْمُؤْمِنِ إِنَّ أَمْرَهُ كُلَّهُ خَيْرٌ وَلَيْسَ ذَاكَ لِأَحَدٍ إِلَّا لِلْمُؤْمِنِ إِنْ أَصَابَتْهُ سَرَاءٌ شَكَرَ فَكَانَ خَيْرًا لَهُ وَإِنْ
أَصَابَتْهُ ضَرَاءٌ صَبَرَ فَكَانَ خَيْرًا لَهُ

Narrated to us Haddab bin Khalid Al Azdi and Syaiban bin Farrukh, both from Sulaiman bin Al Mughirah, Syaiban's narration, narrated to us Sulaiman, narrated to us Tsabit from Abdurrahman bin Abu Laila from Shuhaib, who said: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: The affair of a believer is astonishing all their matters are good, unique to the believer. If joy befalls them, they are grateful, and that is good for them if hardship strikes, they are patient, and that is good for them.

Narrated to us [Haddab bin Khalid], narrated to us [Hammad bin Salamah], narrated to us [Tsabit] from [Abdurrahman bin Abu Laila] from [Shuhaib], the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said: 'There was a king before you who had a sorcerer. When the sorcerer grew old, he said to the king: I am old, send a youth to me to teach him sorcery. A youth came to him, and he taught him sorcery. Between the sorcerer and the king was a monk. The youth visited the monk, heard his words, and admired them. When he went to the sorcerer, he was beaten. He complained to the monk, who said: If the sorcerer wants to beat you, say: My family delayed me, and if you fear your family, say: The sorcerer delayed me. One day, he encountered a large beast blocking people's path and said: Today I will know whether the sorcerer or the monk is better. He took a stone and said: O Allah, if the monk's way is dearer to You than the sorcerer's, kill this beast so people can pass. He threw the stone, killed it, and people passed. He told the monk, who said: My son, you are now better than me, and your matter has reached what I see. You will face trials if so, do not point to me. The youth healed the blind and various diseases. A blind courtier of the king heard of him, brought many gifts, and said: Heal me, and you'll have what I've gathered. The youth said: I do not heal only Allah heals. If you believe in Him, I will pray to Him to heal you. The courtier believed, the youth prayed, and he was healed. The courtier went to the king and sat with him. The king said: O so-and-so, who restored your sight? He said: My Lord. The king said: You have a Lord besides me? He said: My Lord and your Lord is Allah. The king seized and tortured him until he pointed to the youth. The youth was brought, and the king said: O boy, your sorcery heals the blind, lepers, and does this and that. The youth said: I do not heal only Allah heals. The king seized and tortured him until he pointed to the monk. The monk was brought and told: Abandon your religion. He refused, so the king ordered a saw, placed it on his head, and he fell split in two. Then the courtier was brought and told: Abandon your religion. He refused, so the saw was placed on his head, and he fell split in two. The youth was brought and told: Abandon your religion. He refused. The king handed him to soldiers, saying: Take him to such-and-such mountain. If he abandons his religion, let him be if not, throw him off. They took him to the peak, and he prayed: O Allah, suffice me against them as You will. The mountain shook, and they fell. The youth returned to the king, who said: What happened to your companions? He said: Allah sufficed me against them. The king handed him to soldiers, saying: Take him in a boat to the sea. If he abandons his religion, bring him back if not, throw him in. They took him to sea, and he prayed: O Allah, suffice me against them as You will. The boat capsized, and they drowned. The youth returned to the king, who said: What happened to your companions? He said: Allah sufficed me against them. He said to the king: You cannot kill me until you do as I command. The king said: What's that? The youth said: Gather people in an open field, crucify me on a trunk, take an arrow from my quiver, and say: In the name of Allah, the Lord of this youth. If you do this, you will kill me. The king did so, placed the arrow, said: In the name of Allah, the Lord of this youth, shot it into his temple, and the youth died. People said: We believe in the Lord of this youth. It was said to the king: What you feared has befallen you the people have believed. The king ordered trenches at roads, lit fires, and said: Whoever does not abandon their religion, burn them. They did so until a woman with her child hesitated to avoid the fire. Her child said: O mother, be patient you are on the truth.'

Narrated to us [Harun bin Ma'ruf] and [Muhammad bin Abbad], their narrations are similar, and Harun's narration follows: Narrated to us [Hatim bin Isma'il] from [Ya'qub bin Mujahid Abu Hazrah] from [Ubadah bin Al Walid bin Ubadah bin Ash Shamit], who said: My father and I sought knowledge in this Ansar village before they passed. The first we met was [Abu Al Yasar], a companion of the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, with his slave, carrying sheets. Abu Al Yasar wore a Ma'afiri cloak, and his slave wore one too. My father said: O uncle, I see anger on your face. He said: Yes. So-and-so owes me, I went to his family, greeted, spoke, and they said: No. A pot-bellied child came out, and I asked: Where's your father? He said: He heard your voice. My mother, Arikah, came, and I said: Come out I know where you are. I asked: Why hide from me? He said: By Allah, I'll tell you, I won't lie. I fear speaking and lying or promising and breaking it. You're a companion of the Messenger, peace be upon him, and I'm in hardship. I said: Allah. He replied: Allah. I said: Allah. He replied: Allah. I said: Allah. He replied: Allah. He took the sheet, erased it with his hand, and said: If you have money, pay if not, you're free. My eyes, ears, and heart testify the Messenger, peace be upon him, said: Whoever delays a debtor in hardship or frees him, Allah will shade him under His shade. I said: O uncle, if you took your slave's cloak and gave him yours, you'd both be adorned. He patted my head, prayed: O Allah, bless him. O nephew, my eyes, ears, and heart testify the Messenger, peace be upon him, said: Feed them what you eat and clothe them what you wear. Giving him worldly things is lighter than him taking my good deeds on Judgment Day. We went to [Jabir bin Abdullah] in his mosque, praying in one garment wrapped around. I stepped over people to sit between him and the Qibla. I said: May Allah have mercy on you, why pray in one garment with your shawl aside? He gestured to my chest, spreading and curving his fingers, saying: I wanted a fool like you to see and follow me. The Messenger, peace be upon him, came to our mosque with Ibn Thab's branch, saw phlegm at the Qibla, scraped it, faced us, and said: Who among you wants Allah to turn away from him? We bowed. He asked again: Who wants Allah to turn away? We said: No, O Messenger. He said: When one prays, Allah is before him, so don't spit toward His face or right, but left, under his left foot. If unable to control spit or mucus, do this with your garment. He folded his garment and said: Show me saffron oil. A tribe's youth rushed to his family, brought mixed oil, and the Messenger applied it to the branch's tip, rubbing it on the phlegm's trace. Jabir said: Hence, you perfume your mosques. We walked with the Messenger, peace be upon him, in the Buwath campaign, seeking Al Majdi bin Amru al Juhadi. Camels were tended by five, six, or seven men. An Ansar camel herder circled his camel, mounted it, urged it, but it stayed still. He said: Hus, may Allah curse you. The Messenger asked: Who cursed his camel? He said: I did, O Messenger. The Messenger said: Dismount don't accompany a cursed thing. Don't curse yourselves, your children, or your wealth, lest you meet a time when Allah grants prayers, and He grants yours. We walked with the Messenger until evening, nearing an Arab water source. He said: Who will go ahead, fix the well, drink, and give us drink? I stood, saying: I will, O Messenger. He said: Who else with Jabir? Jabbar bin Shakhr stood. We went to the well, drew one or two buckets, poured, and filled it. The Messenger arrived first, asking: Do you permit? We said: Yes, O Messenger. He lowered his camel's head to drink, held its rein, and it urinated. He moved and tethered it. He went to the well, performed ablution. I stood, used his ablution water. Jabbar relieved himself. The Messenger stood to pray. I spread my shawl, but it was short, turned its edges, stretched it, pressed it to my neck, and stood left of the Messenger.

He took my hand, turned me to his right. Jabbar arrived, performed ablution, stood left of the Messenger. He took our hands, placed us behind him. He saw me but I didn't notice, then I understood his gesture to tie my waist. After prayer, he said: O Jabir! I replied: Yes, O Messenger. He said: If wide, spread it if narrow, tie it at your waist. We walked with the Messenger, each eating one date daily. He sucked it, placed it in his garment. We shook trees for leaves to eat, injuring our mouths. I swear, one of us was missing one day. We searched, lifted him, testified he hadn't received his date, and he took it. We walked with the Messenger to a wide valley. He went to relieve himself I followed with a water bucket. He looked around, saw nothing for cover. Two trees were at the valley's edge. He approached one, took its branch, said: Bow for me, by Allah's permission. It bowed like a haltered camel. He did the same with the other tree. Between them, he joined them, saying: Unite for me, by Allah's permission. They united. I ran, fearing he'd sense me and move away. Muhammad bin Abbad said: He moved away, I sat talking to myself. I glanced, saw the Messenger approaching the trees had separated, each on its stump. He stood, gestured his head right and left, and came to me, asking: O Jabir, did you see my place? I said: Yes, O Messenger. He said: Go to the trees, cut a branch from each, bring them, and place one right, one left where I stood. I took a stone, sharpened it, cut branches, dragged them, stood where he stood, placed one right, one left, and said: I did it, O Messenger, why? He said: I passed two graves whose occupants were punished. I wished, by my intercession, to lighten them while the branches remain fresh. We reached the army, and he said: O Jabir, call for ablution water! I said: Ablution water, ablution water, ablution water. I said: O Messenger, I found no drop in the caravan. An Ansar cooled water for the Messenger in a dried vessel on wooden hangers. He said: Go to so-and-so Al Ansari, see if his vessel has water. I went, saw a drop at the vessel's edge if poured, it would dry. I told the Messenger: I found only a drop if poured, it would dry. He said: Bring it. I brought it he took it, spoke words I didn't know, touched it with both hands, and gave it to me, saying: O Jabir, call for a large vessel. I called: Large vessel, O caravan. I brought it, placed it before him. He gestured to it, spreading and placing his fingers at its base, saying: Take it, O Jabir, pour for me, and say: In Allah's name. I poured, said: In Allah's name, saw water gush between his fingers, filling and swirling the vessel. He said: O Jabir, call those needing water. People came, drank, and were satisfied. I said: Anyone else need water? He lifted his hand the vessel was full. People complained of hunger, and he said: May Allah feed you. We went to the coast, the sea surged, cast a fish we lit a fire, cooked, roasted, and ate until full. I, so-and-so, and five others entered its eye socket, unseen until we exited. We took its eyebrow, curved it, called the largest man, camel, and rider in the caravan he entered without bowing.

Narrated to me [Salamah bin Syabib], narrated to us [Al Hasan bin A'yan], narrated to us [Zuhair], narrated to us [Abu Ishaq], who said: I heard [Al Bara` bin Azib] say: Abu Bakr Ash Shiddiq visited my father at his home, bought a mount, and said to Azib: Send your son with me to bring it to my house. My father told me: Take it. I took it, and my father went with him to pay. My father said: O [Abu Bakr], tell me what you two did the night you walked with the Messenger, peace be upon him. Abu Bakr said: Yes. We walked all night until noon. The road was empty, no one passed until a large rock shaded us, untouched by the sun. We stopped, I leveled a place for the Messenger to sleep under its shade, spread a fur garment, and said: Sleep, O Messenger, I'll watch around you. He slept, and I watched. A shepherd came with his goats to the rock for shade like us. I asked: Whose are you, boy? He said: A man from Madinah. I asked: Do your goats have milk? He said: Yes. I asked: Will you milk for me? He said: Yes. He took a goat, cleaned its udder from hair, dirt, and dust—[Abu Ishaq] said: I saw Al Bara` slap one hand on the other, cleaning—then milked into a cup with little milk. I brought the vessel the Messenger used for drinking and ablution. I went to him, didn't wake him, but he awoke. I poured water into the milk to cool its base, and said: O Messenger, drink this milk. He drank until I was pleased. He said: Isn't it time to go? I said: Yes. We left after the sun leaned west. Suraqah bin Malik followed us in barren land. I said: O Messenger, we're approached. He said: Don't grieve Allah is with us. The Messenger prayed against him, and his horse sank into mud up to its belly. Suraqah said: I know you prayed against me pray for me, and I'll fulfill your request. Allah prayed, Suraqah was saved, and returned. He met no one without saying: I've covered for you he's not here. He met no one without turning them back. Abu Bakr said: He kept his promise. Narrated to me [Zuhair bin Harb], narrated to us [Utsman bin Umar]. Narrated to us [Ishaq bin Ibrahim], informed us [An Nadhr bin Syumail], both from [Isra`il bin Abu Ishaq] from [Al Bara`], who said: Abu Bakr bought a mount from my father for thirteen dirhams, mentioning the hadith like Zuhair from Abu Ishaq. Utsman bin Umar's hadith said: When Suraqah approached, the Messenger prayed, his horse sank to its belly, Suraqah jumped, saying: O Muhammad, I know this is your doing pray to Allah to free me, and I'll blind those behind me. Take an arrow from my quiver you'll pass my camels and slaves here, take what you need. He said: I don't need your camels. We entered Madinah at night, and they vied to host the Messenger. He said: Stay with Bani Najjar, Abdul Muthallib's kin, to honor them. Men, women, children, and servants spread in the streets, calling: O Muhammad, O Messenger.

Narrated to me [Abu Ath Thahir Ahmad bin Amru bin Sarh] and [Harmalah bin Yahya At Tujibi], Abu Ath Thahir said: Narrated to us, Harmalah said: Informed us [Ibnu Wahab], informed me [Yunus] from [Ibnu Syihab], informed me [Urwah bin Zubair] that he asked [Aisyah] about Allah's saying: 'If you fear injustice toward orphans, marry women good for you, two, three, or four.’ (An Nisaa` : 3) Aisyah said: O nephew, it refers to an orphan girl under her guardian’s care, sharing his wealth. He admires her wealth and beauty, wanting to marry her unjustly in dowry, giving less than others. They were forbidden to marry them except justly, giving the highest dowry, and ordered to marry other good women. Urwah said: Aisyah said: People sought the Messenger’s ruling after this ayah about orphan girls. Allah revealed: ‘They seek your ruling on women say: Allah rules on them and what is recited to you in the Book about orphan women you don’t give what’s prescribed, yet wish to marry them.’ (An Nisaa` : 127) Aisyah said: Allah’s mention of what’s recited in the Qur’an refers to the prior ayah: ‘If you fear injustice toward orphans, marry women good for you.’ (An Nisaa` : 3) Aisyah said: Allah’s saying in another ayah: ‘While you wish to marry them,’ (An Nisaa` : 127) means your reluctance toward orphan girls under your care with little wealth or beauty. They were forbidden to marry them for their wealth or beauty except with justice due to this reluctance. Narrated to us [Al Hasan Al Hulwani] and [Abdu bin Humaid], both from [Ya'qub bin Ibrahim bin Sa'ad], narrated to us [my father] from [Shalih] from [Ibnu Syihab], informed me [Urwah] that he asked [Aisyah] about: ‘If you fear injustice toward orphan women,’ (An Nisaa` : 3), mentioning the hadith like Yunus from Az Zuhri, adding at the end: Due to their reluctance toward orphan women with little wealth or beauty.

GOD REMOVED THE VERSE PROHIBITING FORCING WOMAN SLAVES TO COMPETE FOR ADULTERY

Hadith Imam Muslim Number 5355

وَحَدَّثَنِي أَبُو كَامِلٍ الْجَحْدَرِيُّ حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو عَوَانَةَ عَنْ الْأَعْمَشِ عَنْ أَبِي سُفْيَانَ عَنْ جَابِرٍ أَنَّ جَارِيَةً لِعَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ أَبِي سَلُولٍ يُقَالُ لَهَا مُسَيِّكَةٌ وَأُخْرَى يُقَالُ لَهَا أُمَيْمَةٌ فَكَانَ يُكْرِهُهُمَا عَلَى الزَّنى فَشَكَتَا ذَلِكَ إِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَأَنْزَلَ اللَّهُ { وَلَا تُكْرِهُوا فَتَيَاتِكُمْ عَلَى الْبِغَاءِ إِلَى قَوْلِهِ غَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ }

Narrated to me [Abu Kamil Al Jahdari], narrated to us [Abu Awanah] from [Al A'masy] from [Abu Sufyan] from [Jabir], a female slave of Abdullah bin Ubai bin Salul, named Musaikah or Umaimah, was forced to prostitute. She reported it to the Prophet, peace be upon him, and Allah revealed: 'Do not force your female slaves into prostitution' to 'Forgiving, Merciful to them after their compulsion.' (An Nuur: 33)

INTERPRETATION OF THE VERSE ABOUT A GROUP OF Djinn WHO ENTERED INTO ISLAM

Hadith Imam Muslim Number 5356

حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو بَكْرِ بْنُ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ إِدْرِيسَ عَنْ الْأَعْمَشِ عَنْ إِبْرَاهِيمَ عَنْ أَبِي مَعْمَرٍ عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ فِي قَوْلِهِ عَزَّ وَجَلَّ { أُولَئِكَ الَّذِينَ يَدْعُونَ يَبْتَغُونَ إِلَى رَبِّهِمُ الْوَسِيلَةَ أَيُّهُمْ أَقْرَبُ } قَالَ كَانَ نَفَرٌ مِنَ الْجِنِّ أَسْلَمُوا وَكَانُوا يُعْبُدُونَ فَبَقِيَ الَّذِينَ كَانُوا يَعْبُدُونَ عَلَى عِبَادَتِهِمْ وَقَدْ أَسْلَمَ النَّفَرُ مِنَ الْجِنِّ

Narrated to us [Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah], narrated to us [Abdullah bin Idris] from [Al A'masy] from [Ibrahim] from [Abu Ma'mar] from [Abdullah] about His saying: 'Those who pray and seek a means to their Lord, which is nearer.' (Al Israa` : 57), he said: A group of jinn embraced Islam and were worshipped. Those worshipping remained in their worship, while some jinn had accepted Islam.

EXPLANATION OF VERSES ABOUT A GROUP OF JIN WHO ARE WORSHIPED

Hadith Imam Muslim Number 5357

حَدَّثَنِي أَبُو بَكْرِ بْنُ نَافِعٍ الْعَبْدِيُّ حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ الرَّحْمَنِ حَدَّثَنَا سُفْيَانُ عَنْ الْأَعْمَشِ عَنْ إِبْرَاهِيمَ عَنْ أَبِي مَعْمَرٍ عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ { أُولَئِكَ الَّذِينَ يَدْعُونَ يَبْتَغُونَ إِلَى رَبِّهِمُ الْوَسِيلَةَ } قَالَ كَانَ نَفَرٌ مِنَ الْإِنْسِ يَعْبُدُونَ نَفَرًا مِنَ الْجِنِّ فَأَسْلَمَ النَّفَرُ مِنَ الْجِنِّ وَاسْتَمْسَكَ الْإِنْسُ بِعِبَادَتِهِمْ فَزَلَّتْ { أُولَئِكَ الَّذِينَ يَدْعُونَ يَبْتَغُونَ إِلَى رَبِّهِمُ الْوَسِيلَةَ } وَحَدَّثَنِيهِ بِشْرُ بْنُ خَالِدٍ أَخْبَرَنَا مُحَمَّدٌ يَعْنِي ابْنَ جَعْفَرٍ عَنْ شُعْبَةَ عَنْ سُلَيْمَانَ بِهِذَا الْإِسْنَادِ

Narrated to us [Abu Bakr bin Nafi' Al Abdi], narrated to us [Abdurrahman], narrated to us [Sufyan] from [Al A'masy] from [Ibrahim] from [Abu Ma'mar] from [Abdullah]: 'Those who pray and seek a means to their Lord, which is nearer.' (Al Israa` : 57) Abdullah said: Some people worshipped a group of jinn, then those jinn embraced Islam, but the people clung to their worship. So the ayah was revealed: 'Those who pray and seek a means to their Lord, which is nearer.' (Al Israa` : 57) Narrated to me [Bisyr bin Khalid], informed us [Muhammad bin Ja'far] from [Syuhbah] from [Sulaiman] with this chain.

وَحَدَّثَنِي حَجَّاجُ بْنُ الشَّاعِرِ حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ الصَّمَدِ بْنُ عَبْدِ الْوَارِثِ حَدَّثَنِي أَبِي حَدَّثَنَا حُسَيْنٌ عَنْ قَتَادَةَ عَنْ
عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ مَعْبُدٍ الرَّمَّانِيِّ عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عُتْبَةَ عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ مَسْعُودٍ {أُولَئِكَ الَّذِينَ يَدْعُونَ يَبْتَغُونَ إِلَى
رَبِّهِمُ الْوَسِيلَةَ} قَالَ نَزَلَتْ فِي نَفَرٍ مِنَ الْعَرَبِ كَانُوا يَعْبُدُونَ نَفَرًا مِنَ الْجِنِّ فَأَسْلَمَ الْجِنِّيُّونَ وَالْإِنْسُ الَّذِينَ كَانُوا
يَعْبُدُونَهُمْ لَا يَشْعُرُونَ فَنَزَلَتْ {أُولَئِكَ الَّذِينَ يَدْعُونَ يَبْتَغُونَ إِلَى رَبِّهِمُ الْوَسِيلَةَ}

Narrated to me [Hajjaj bin Asy Sya'ir], narrated to us [Abdushshamad bin Abdulwarits], narrated to me [my father], narrated to us [Husain] from [Qatadah] from [Abdullah bin Ma'bad Az ZImmani] from [Abdullah bin Utbah] from [Abdullah bin Mas'ud]: 'Those who pray and seek a means to their Lord.' (Al Israa` : 57) He said: It was revealed about Arab people worshipping a group of jinn. The jinn embraced Islam, but the people continued worshipping them unknowingly. Then the ayah was revealed: 'Those who pray and seek a means to their Lord.' (Al Israa` : 57)

SURAT AT TAUBAH REVEALS THE SECRET OF HYPOCRITES

Hadith Imam Muslim Number 5359

حَدَّثَنِي عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ مُطِيعٍ حَدَّثَنَا هُشَيْمٌ عَنْ أَبِي بِشْرٍ عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ جُبَيْرٍ قَالَ قُلْتُ لِابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ سُورَةُ التَّوْبَةِ
قَالَ التَّوْبَةُ قَالَ بَلْ هِيَ الْفَاضِحَةُ مَا زَالَتْ تَنْزِلُ وَمِنْهُمْ وَمِنْهُمْ حَتَّى ظَنُّوا أَنْ لَا يَبْقَى مِنْهَا أَحَدٌ إِلَّا ذُكِرَ فِيهَا قَالَ
قُلْتُ سُورَةُ الْأَنْفَالِ قَالَ تِلْكَ سُورَةُ بَدْرٍ قَالَ قُلْتُ فَالْحُشْرُ قَالَ نَزَلَتْ فِي بَنِي النَّضِيرِ

Narrated to me [Abdullah bin Muthi'], narrated to us [Husyaim] from [Abu Bisyr] from [Sa'id bin Jubair], who said: I said to [Ibnu 'Abbas]: Surah At Taubah, he said: What At Taubah? He said: Rather, it is Al Fadhillah, exposing hypocrites, still descending about them until they thought none of us remained unmentioned. I said: Surah Al Anfaal, he said: It's the surah of Badr. I said: Surah Al Hasyr, he said: It was revealed about Bani Nadhir.

Narrated to us [Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah], narrated to us [Ali bin Mushir] from [Abu Hayyan] from [Asy Sya'bi] from [Ibnu Umar], who said: [Umar] preached on the Prophet's pulpit, peace be upon him, praising Allah, then said: As for what follows, the prohibition of khamr was revealed, and khamr comprises five things: wheat, barley, dates, grapes, and honey. Khamr is what clouds the mind. Three things I wish to convey, O people: The Messenger, peace be upon him, entrusted us with the grandfather's inheritance, kalalah (one who dies leaving no children or parents), and some doors of usury.
