Abu Khaithamah Zuhayr bin Harb narrated to me, who said that Waki' narrated to us, from Kahmas, from 'Abdullah bin Buraydah, from Yahya bin Ya'mar. (In another narration) 'Ubaydullah bin Mu'adh al-'Anbari narrated to us, and this is his hadith, who said that my father narrated to us, who said that Kahmas narrated to us, from Ibn Buraydah, from Yahya bin Ya'mar, who said, ""The first person to discuss predestination in Basra was Ma'bad al-Juhani, so Humaid bin Abdurrahman al-Himyari and I went for Hajj or Umrah. We said, 'If only we could meet one of the companions of the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), we would ask him about what they are saying regarding predestination.' Abdullah bin 'Umar was destined (by Allah) for us, and he was entering the mosque. So my friend and I intercepted him. One of us was on his right side and the other on his left. I thought my friend would let me speak, so I said, 'O Abu Abdurrahman, there has appeared among us a people who recite the Qur'an and seek knowledge, yet they claim there is no predestination, and that the matter is new (not preceded by Allah's predestination and knowledge).' Abdullah bin 'Umar replied, 'If you meet those people, then tell them that I am free of them, and that they are free of me. And by the One by Whom the servant of Allah takes an oath, if one of you were to spend gold the size of Mount Uhud, his charity would not be accepted until he believes in predestination, both its good and its evil.' He said, 'Then he began to narrate the hadith and said, 'Umar bin al-Khattab said, 'We were once with the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), when a man came whose clothes were extremely white and his hair was extremely black. There were no signs of travel on him, and none of us knew him, until he sat close to the Prophet (peace be upon him), and placed his knees against the Prophet's knees. Then he said, 'O Muhammad, inform me about Islam?' The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) replied: ""To testify that there is no god (worthy of worship) except Allah and that Muhammad is His servant and Messenger, to establish prayer, to pay zakat, to fast during Ramadan, and to perform Hajj to the House (Ka'bah) if you are able to make the journey to it."" He said, 'You have spoken the truth.' 'Umar said, 'We were surprised by him, as he would ask him a question and then confirm it.' He asked again, 'Inform me about faith?' He replied: ""To believe in Allah, His angels, His books, His messengers, the Last Day, and to believe in predestination, both its good and its evil."" He said, 'You have spoken the truth.' He asked, 'Inform me about Ihsan?' He replied: ""To worship Allah as if you see Him, for if you do not see Him, then indeed He sees you."" He asked again, 'When will the Last Hour be?' He replied: ""The one who is asked does not know more than the one who is asking."" He asked, 'Then inform me about its signs?' He replied: ""When a female slave gives birth to her master, and when you see the barefooted, naked, poor, and shepherds of goats competing to build tall buildings."" Then he left. I was still astonished, then he said, ""O 'Umar, do you know who that questioner was?"" I replied,

'Allah and His Messenger know best.' He said: ""That was Jibril, he came to you to teach you your religion."" Muhammad bin 'Ubayd al-Ghubari and Abu Kamil al-Jahdari and Ahmad bin 'Abdah narrated to us, who said that Hammad bin Zayd narrated to us, from Matar al-Warraaq, from 'Abdullah bin Buraydah, from Yahya bin Ya'mar, who said, 'When Ma'bad said what he said about the issue of predestination, we disapproved of it.' He said again, 'Then I performed Hajj with Humaid bin Abdurrahman al-Himyari.' Then they mentioned a hadith similar in meaning to the hadith of Kahmas. In it there are some additions and omissions of letters."" And Muhammad bin Hatim narrated to us, who said that Yahya bin Sa'id al-Qattan narrated to us, who said that 'Uthman bin Ghiyath narrated to us, who said that 'Abdullah bin Buraydah narrated to us, from Yahya bin Ya'mar and Humaid bin Abdurrahman, both of whom said, ""We met 'Abdullah bin 'Umar, and we mentioned predestination and their opinion about it, then he narrated the hadith to us just as they did from 'Umar (may Allah be pleased with them both) from the Prophet (peace be upon him), and in it there are some additions and omissions."" And Hajjaj bin ash-Sha'ir narrated to us, who said that Yunus bin Muhammad narrated to us, who said that al-Mu'tamir narrated to us, from his father, from Yahya bin Ya'mar, from Ibn 'Umar, from 'Umar, from the Prophet (peace be upon him) with a similar hadith.

Abu Bakr bin Abi Shaybah and Zuhayr bin Harb narrated to us, all from Ibn 'Ulayyah. Zuhayr said, Isma'il bin Ibrahim narrated to us, from Abu Hayyan, from Abu Zur'ah bin 'Amr bin Jarir, from Abu Hurayrah, who said, ""One day, the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) was in front of the people, when a man came to him and said, 'O Messenger of Allah, what is faith?' He replied, 'To believe in Allah, His angels, His books, to believe in the event of meeting with Him, to believe in His messengers, and to believe in the Last Resurrection.' He asked, 'O Messenger of Allah, what is Islam?' He replied, 'Islam is that you worship Allah and do not associate anything with Him, to establish the obligatory prayer, to pay the obligatory zakat, and to fast Ramadan.' He asked again, 'O Messenger of Allah, what is Ihsan?' He replied, 'You worship Allah as if you see Him, for if you do not see Him, then indeed He sees you.' He asked again, 'O Messenger of Allah, when will the Hour be?' He replied, 'The one who is asked about it does not know more than the one who is asking, but I will tell you about its signs: when a female slave gives birth to her master. That is one of its signs. And when the naked, barefooted become the leaders of men. That is one of its signs. And when the shepherds of goats compete in building tall buildings. That is one of its signs among the five signs that no one knows except Allah.' Then he (peace be upon him) recited: '(Indeed, Allah, with Him is knowledge of the Hour and He sends down the rain, and knows what is in the wombs. And no soul perceives what it will earn tomorrow, and no soul perceives in what land it will die. Indeed, Allah is Knowing and Acquainted.)' (Q.s. Luqman: 34). Then the man went back. The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said, ""Call that man back to me."" So they began to call him, but they did not see anything. The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said, ""This was Jibril, who came to teach the people about their religion."" Muhammad bin Abdullah bin Numayr narrated to us, who said that Muhammad bin Bisyr narrated to us, who said that Abu Hayyan at-Taymi narrated to us with this chain a similar hadith, except that in his narration there is the phrase, 'When a female slave gives birth to her husband,' meaning the concubines.

Qutaybah bin Sa'id bin Jamil bin Tarif bin Abdullah ats-Tsaqafi narrated to us, from Malik bin Anas in a narration recited to him, from Abu Suhail, from his father, that he heard Talhah bin Ubaydullah say, "A man from the people of Najd with unkempt hair came to the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him). We heard the murmuring of his voice, but we could not understand what he was saying until he came close to the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him). It turned out he was asking about Islam. The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) replied: 'Islam is five prayers a day and night.' He asked again, 'Do I have any obligations other than that?' He replied: 'No, unless you perform voluntary prayers and fast Ramadan.' He asked, 'Do I have any obligations other than that?' He replied: 'No, unless you perform voluntary fasting,' and the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) mentioned (the obligation of) zakat to him. He asked again, 'Do I have any obligations other than that?' He replied: 'No, unless you give voluntary charity.' The narrator said, "Then the man turned and left, and he said, 'By Allah, I will not add more than this and will not decrease from it.' The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: "He will be happy if he is truthful (in doing it)." Yahya bin Ayyub and Qutaybah bin Sa'id narrated to us, all from Isma'il bin Ja'far, from Abu Suhail, from his father, from Talhah bin 'Ubaydullah, from the Prophet (peace be upon him) with this hadith like the hadith of Malik, except that he said, "The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: "He will be happy, -by his father- if he is truthful," or "He will enter Paradise, -by his father- if he is truthful."

Amr bin Muhammad bin Bukayr an-Naqid narrated to us, who said that Hashim bin al-Qasim Abu an-Nadr narrated to us, who said that Sulayman bin al-Mughirah narrated to us, from Tsabit, from Anas bin Malik, who said, ""We were hesitant to ask the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) about anything, so we were amazed at the arrival of an intelligent man from the desert dwellers. He asked, and we listened. Then a man from the desert dwellers came and said, 'O Muhammad, your messenger came to us and claimed that you claim that Allah sent you.' The Messenger of Allah replied: 'It is true.' He asked, 'Who created the heaven?' The Messenger of Allah replied: 'Allah.' He asked, 'Who created the earth?' The Messenger of Allah replied: 'Allah.' He asked, 'Who set up these mountains and put everything He created inside them?' He replied: 'Allah.' He asked, 'So by the One who created the heaven, created the earth, and set up these mountains, did Allah really send you?' He replied: 'Yes.' He asked, 'Your messenger claims that we are obligated to perform five prayers a day and night, is this true?' He replied: 'It is true.' He asked, 'By the One who sent you, did Allah command you to do this?' He replied: 'Yes.' He asked, 'Your messenger claims that we are obligated to fast Ramadan every year, is this true?' He replied: 'Yes.' He asked, 'By the One who sent you, did Allah command you to do this?' He replied: 'Yes.' He asked, 'Your messenger claims that we are obligated to perform Hajj for those among us who are able to make the journey, is this true?' He replied, 'Yes, it is true.' Then he turned away and said, 'By the One who sent you with the truth, I will not add to these obligations and I will not decrease from them.' The Prophet (peace be upon him) said: ""If he is truthful (in what he said), he will surely enter Paradise."" Abdullah bin Hashim al-Abdi narrated to us, who said that Bahz narrated to us, who said that Sulayman bin al-Mughirah narrated to us, from Tsabit, who said, Anas said, ""We were hesitant to ask about anything from the Qur'an to the Messenger of Allah."" Then he brought a similar hadith.

Abu Bakr bin Abi Shaybah and Muhammad bin al-Muthanna and Muhammad bin Bashshar narrated to us, and their wordings are similar. Abu Bakr said, Ghundar narrated to us, from Shu'bah, while the other two said, Muhammad bin Ja'far narrated to us, who said that Shu'bah narrated to us, from Abu Jamrah, who said, ""I was a translator between Ibn 'Abbas and the people, then a woman came and asked about the juice of nabidh (a type of wine) stored in a pottery vessel. He replied, 'Indeed, the delegation of 'Abd al-Qays came to the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), and the Messenger of Allah said: ""Who is this delegation - or what is this tribe?"" They replied, 'Rabi'ah.' He said: ""Welcome to the people - or the delegation - without any reluctance or regret."" The narrator said, 'They said, 'O Messenger of Allah, we have come to you from a distant place. Between us and you is the disbelieving tribe of Mudlar, so we cannot reach you except during the Sacred Month. So, command us with a decisive matter that we can inform our people about, so that with it we can enter Paradise.' The narrator said, 'So the Messenger of Allah commanded them with four things and forbade them from four things.' The narrator said again, 'The Messenger of Allah commanded them to believe in Allah alone and said, 'Do you know what it means to believe in Allah?' They replied, 'Allah and His Messenger know best.' He said: ""To testify that there is no god except Allah, and that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah, to establish prayer, to pay zakat, to fast Ramadan, and to pay one-fifth of the war booty, and I forbid you from ad-Dubba', al-Hantam, and al-Muzaffat."" Shu'bah said, ""It is possible that he said 'an-Naqir' and it is possible 'al-Muqayyar.' He said: ""Protect it and inform your people about it."" Abu Bakr mentioned in his narration, 'The people you lead behind you' without mentioning 'al-Muqayyar.'"" And 'Ubaydullah bin Mu'adh narrated to me, who said that my father narrated to us. (In another narration) Nasr bin 'Ali al-Jahdami narrated to us, who said that my father informed me, both of whom said that Qurrah bin Khalid narrated to us, from Abu Jamrah, from Ibn 'Abbas, from the Prophet (peace be upon him) with a similar hadith to the hadith of Shu'bah, saying: ""I forbid you from what is pressed into ad-Dubba', an-Naqir, al-Hantam, and al-Muzaffat."" So, command us with a command so that we can preach it to those behind us and with it we will enter Paradise if we adhere to it.' They asked, 'O Prophet of Allah, what is your knowledge about an-Naqir?' He replied: ""It is a trunk of a palm tree that has been carved out (hollowed out) and then you put dates into it."" Sa'id said, ""Or he said: 'from a palm tree.' Then you pour water into it until when its boiling has settled, you drink it, so that one of you - or one of them - will indeed strike his uncle with a sword," he said, 'And among the people was a man who had also been wounded.' He said again, 'I hid it out of shame for the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), and then I asked, 'Then what kind of vessel are we allowed to drink from, O Messenger of Allah?' He replied, 'From a leather vessel (that has been tanned) whose mouth has been tied.' They asked, 'O Messenger of Allah, indeed our land has many mice, so no drink is left in the leather vessel (that has been tanned),' so the Prophet (peace be upon him) said: ""Even if it is eaten by mice, and even if it is eaten by mice, and even if it is eaten by mice."" Abu Bakr said, Waki' narrated to us from Zakariya bin Ishaq, who said that Yahya bin Abdullah bin Shaifi narrated to me from Abu Ma'bad from Ibn Abbas from Mu'adh bin Jabal. Abu Bakar said, 'Perhaps...' Waki' said, from Ibn Abbas, that Mu'adh said, 'The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) sent me.' He said, 'Indeed, you will come to a people from the People of the Book, so invite them to the testimony that there is no god (worthy of worship) but Allah, and that I am the Messenger of Allah. If they obey you in that, then inform them that Allah has obligated upon them five prayers every day and night. If they obey you in that, then inform them that Allah has obligated upon them a charity that is taken from their rich and distributed to their poor. If they obey you in that, then avoid their valuable wealth. Fear the prayer of the oppressed, for there is no barrier between him and Allah.' Ibn Abu Umar narrated to us, who said that Bisyr bin as-Sari narrated to us, who said that Zakariya' bin Ishaq narrated to us. FIGHTING PEOPLE WHO REFUSE TO PAY ZAKAT

Hadith Imam Muslim Number 29

حَدَّثَنَا قُتَيْبَةُ بْنُ سَعِيدٍ حَدَّثَنَا لَيْثُ بْنُ سَعْدٍ عَنْ عُقَيْلٍ عَنْ الزُّهْرِيِّ قَالَ أَخْبَرَنِي عُبَيْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عُتْبَةَ بْنِ مَسْعُودٍ عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ لَمَّا تَوَفَّى رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَاسْتُخْلِفَ أَبُو بَكْرٍ بَعْدَهُ وَكَفَرَ مَنْ كَفَرَ مِنَ الْعَرَبِ قَالَ عُمَرُ بْنُ الْخَطَّابِ لِأَبِي بَكْرٍ كَيْفَ تُقَاتِلُ النَّاسَ وَقَدْ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَمِرْتُ أَنْ أُقَاتِلَ النَّاسَ حَتَّى يَقُولُوا لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ فَمَنْ قَالَ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ فَقَدْ عَصَمَ مِنِّي مَالَهُ وَنَفْسَهُ إِلَّا بِحَقِّهِ وَحِسَابُهُ عَلَى اللَّهِ فَقَالَ أَبُو بَكْرٍ وَاللَّهِ لَا أُقَاتِلَنَّ مَنْ فَرَّقَ بَيْنَ الصَّلَاةِ وَالزَّكَاةِ فَإِنَّ الزَّكَاةَ حَقُّ الْمَالِ وَاللَّهُ لَوْ مَنَعُونِي عَقْلًا كَانُوا يُؤَدُّونَهُ إِلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَقَاتَلْتُهُمْ عَلَى مَنَعِهِ فَقَالَ عُمَرُ بْنُ الْخَطَّابِ

فَوَاللَّهِ مَا هُوَ إِلَّا أَنْ رَأَيْتُ اللَّهَ عَزَّ وَجَلَّ قَدْ شَرَحَ صَدْرَ أَبِي بَكْرٍ لِلْقِتَالِ فَعَرَفْتُ أَنَّهُ الْحَقُّ

Qutaibah bin Sa'id narrated to us, who said that Laits bin Sa'ad narrated to us from Uqail from az-Zuhri, who said that Ubaydullah bin Abdullah bin Utbah bin Mas'ud informed us from Abu Hurairah, he said, 'When the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) passed away, and Abu Bakar was appointed as the caliph after him, and the disbelievers from the Arabs committed disbelief, Umar bin al-Khattab said to Abu Bakar, 'How can you fight the people when the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) has said: 'I have been commanded to fight the people until they say, 'There is no god (worthy of worship) but Allah,' and whoever says, 'There is no god (worthy of worship) but Allah,' then he has protected his wealth and his life from me except by the right of Islam, and his reckoning is with Allah.' So Abu Bakar said, 'By Allah, I will fight anyone who makes a distinction between prayer and zakat, because zakat is a right upon wealth. By Allah, if they withhold from me a rope that they used to pay to the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), I will fight them because of their withholding.' Then Umar bin al-Khattab said, 'By Allah, it was not but that I saw that Allah had opened the chest of Abu Bakar to fight (them), and then I knew that it was the truth.'

Abu Bakar bin Abu Syaibah narrated to us, who said that Hafsh bin Ghiyats narrated to us from al-A'mash from Abu Sufyan from Jabir from Abu Salih from Abu Hurayrah, both of them said, 'The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: 'I have been commanded to fight the people...' just like the hadith of Ibn al-Musayyab from Abu Hurayrah. And Abu Bakar bin Abu Syaibah narrated to me, who said that Waki' narrated to us. And Muhammad bin al-Mutsanna narrated to me, who said that Abdurrahman, that is bin Mahdi, narrated to us. Both of them said, Sufyan narrated to us from Abu az-Zubair from Jabir, he said, 'The Messenger of Allah said: 'I have been commanded to fight the people until they say, 'There is no god (worthy of worship) but Allah,' and when they say, 'There is no god (worthy of worship) but Allah,' they have protected their wealth and their lives from me except by the right of Islam, and their reckoning is with Allah.' Then he recited: '(Indeed, you (O Muhammad) are only a reminder. You are not a controller over them)' (Qs. Al Ghaasyiyah: 21-22).

Harmalah bin Yahya at-Tujibi narrated to me, who said that Abdullah bin Wahb informed me, he said, Yunus informed me from Ibn Shihab, he said, Said bin al-Musayyab informed me from his father, he said, 'The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) visited Abu Talib when he was facing death. He found Abu Jahal and Abdullah bin Abu Umayyah bin al-Mughirah also there. The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: 'O uncle! Say the Two Testimonies of Faith, I will be a witness for you before Allah.' Then Abu Jahal and Abdullah bin Abu Umayyah interrupted, 'O Abu Talib, are you leaving the religion of Abdul Muththalib?' The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) did not despair and kept teaching him to say the Two Testimonies of Faith and repeated it many times. Finally, Abu Talib's last words to them were that he remained with the religion of Abdul Muththalib, and he refused to say the Testimonies of Faith. The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) then said: 'By Allah, I will ask for forgiveness from Allah for you,' until Allah revealed the verse: '(It is not for the Prophet and those who have believed to ask forgiveness for the polytheists, even if they were relatives, after it has become clear to them that they are the companions of the Hellfire)' (Qs. At-Tawbah: 113). Then Allah revealed His saying concerning the event of Abu Talib: '(Indeed, you (O Muhammad) do not guide whom you love, but Allah guides whom He wills, and He is most knowing of the [rightly] guided)' (Qs. Al Qashash: 56). And Ishaq bin Ibrahim and Abd bin Humaid narrated to me, both of them said that Abdurrazzaq informed us, who said that Ma'mar informed us. And Hasan al-Hulwani and Abd bin Humaid narrated to us, both of them said that Ya'qub, that is Ibn Ibrahim bin Sa'ad, narrated to us, he said, my father narrated to us from Salih, both of them from az-Zuhri with a similar chain. However, the hadith of Salih ends with his saying, 'then Allah revealed His saying about it,' and he did not mention the two verses. And he mentioned in his hadith, 'And both of them returned to repeat that saying,' in the hadith of Ma'mar as a substitute for this sentence. And both of them were still based on it.

Then he said, 'The provisions of the people ran out.' Then he said, 'Until they wanted to slaughter some of their riding animals.' The narrator said, 'Then Umar said, 'O Messenger of Allah, if you were to gather some of the people's provisions and then pray to Allah over it (it would be good).' The narrator said, 'Then he did so.' The narrator said, 'Then the owner of the wheat came with his wheat, and the owner of the dates came with his dates.' The narrator said, 'And Mujahid said, 'And the owner of the seeds with their seeds.' I said, 'What did they do with the seeds?' He replied, 'They sucked on them and drank water with them.' He said, 'Then the Messenger of Allah called them until they were able to fill their provision containers.' Sahl bin Uthman and Abu Kuraib Muhammad bin al-Ala' narrated to us, all from Abu Muawiyah. Abu Kuraib said, Abu Muawiyah narrated to us from al-A'mash from Abu Salih from Abu Hurayrah or - from Abu Sa'id, al-A'mash was in doubt - Abu Hurayrah said, 'During the battle of Tabuk, the army (of the Muslims) experienced great hunger, and they said, 'O Messenger of Allah, if you would permit us to slaughter our camels, so we can eat their meat and use their fat as oil?' The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) replied: 'Do it.' Abu Hurayrah said, 'Then Umar came and said, 'O Messenger of Allah, if you do that, the backs of the camels (vehicles) will be gone! But it would be better for you to ask for the remaining food they have and then pray for Allah to give it blessings.' The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) then said: 'Alright.' Then he asked for a spread (made of leather), and after spreading it, he asked for the remaining food that they still had.' Abu Hurayrah continued, 'Then a man came with a handful of corn, another came with a handful of dates, and some others came with food crumbs (like bread), so a little food gathered on the leather spread.' Abu Hurayrah said, 'Then the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) prayed for blessings on the food, and after that, he said: 'Take it and fill your food containers.' Abu Hurayrah continued, 'They then filled their provision containers, so that not a single soldier's food container was left unfilled.' Abu Hurayrah continued, 'They then ate until they were full, and there was still food left over.' The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) then said: 'I bear witness that there is no god (worthy of worship) but Allah and that I am the Messenger of Allah. No servant meets Allah without doubting this statement and is then prevented from entering Paradise.'

Zuhayr bin Harb narrated to us, who said that Umar bin Yunus al-Hanafi narrated to us, who said that Ikrimah bin Ammar narrated to us, he said that Abu Katsir narrated to us, he said that Abu Hurayrah narrated to us, he said, 'During a battle, we were sitting around the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), and with us were Abu Bakar and Umar. Then he got up and left us and was late in returning, so much so that we were worried that he had been captured by the enemy or had a mishap. We were all very worried, and the one most worried about him was me. So I stood up and went out to look for the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) until I reached a garden belonging to the Ansar from Bani Najjar. I went around it hoping to find an entrance, but I did not. And it turned out there was a stream of water from outside the garden that entered from a corner of the garden. So I tried to enter just as a fox would try to enter through a narrow hole. And I found the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him). He called out: 'Abu Hurayrah!' I replied, 'Yes, O Messenger of Allah.' 'What's wrong?' he asked. I replied, 'It's like this, O Messenger, you were with us earlier, then you suddenly left us and were gone for a long time until we were very worried about your safety, especially me, O Messenger. So I tried to enter this garden from a very narrow hole like a fox, and they (the other companions) are behind me.' While saying this, he gave me his two sandals: 'O Abu Hurayrah, take these two sandals of mine, and whoever you meet behind this garden who testifies that there is no god (worthy of worship) but Allah and has this belief firmly in his heart, then give him the good news of Paradise.' And by chance, the first person I met was Umar, so he asked, 'What's with those two sandals, O Abu Hurayrah?' I replied, 'These are the two sandals of the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), he commanded me to take them and to give the good news of Paradise to the first person I meet who testifies that there is no god (worthy of worship) but Allah, and he believes it with his heart.' So Umar hit me with his hand right in the middle of my chest (solar plexus) until I fell to a sitting position, then he said, 'Go back, O Abu Hurayrah!' So I returned to the Messenger of Allah with a face holding back tears, and it turned out that Umar was also following me. At that moment, the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) asked: 'What is wrong with you, O Abu Hurayrah?' I replied, 'I met Umar, and I told him about what you commanded me to do, but he suddenly hit me hard in the solar plexus until I fell limp, after that he said, 'Go back!' So the Messenger said: 'O Umar, why did you do that?' Umar replied, 'O Messenger of Allah, is it true that you sent Abu Hurayrah with those two sandals of yours and commanded him to give the good news of Paradise to the first person he met who testifies that there is no god (worthy of worship) but Allah with firm conviction in his heart?' He replied: 'Yes, that is true.' Umar said, 'You should not do that, O Messenger of Allah, because I am very worried that people will rely on it, and let them perform good deeds.' The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said (to Abu Hurayrah): 'Let them be (not knowing this hadith).'

Ishaq bin Manshur narrated to us, who said that Mu'adh bin Hisham informed us, he said that my father narrated to us from Qatadah, he said that Anas bin Malik narrated to us that the Prophet of Allah (on a journey), while Mu'adh bin Jabal was riding behind him on his mount, the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) then called out: 'O Mu'adh!' Mu'adh replied, 'I am at your service, O Messenger of Allah.' The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) called out again: 'O Mu'adh!' I replied again, 'I am at your service, O Messenger of Allah.' The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) called out: 'O Mu'adh!' I replied again, 'I am at your service, O Messenger of Allah.' The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) then said: 'Whoever says the Two Testimonies of Faith, that there is no god (worthy of worship) but Allah and that Muhammad is His servant and messenger, will surely be saved from the fire of Hell.' Then Mu'adh said, 'May I inform the people about this so that they can spread this good news?' The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: 'If you do that, then they will rely on it.' So Mu'adh spread the news before his death for fear of incurring sin (by concealing the hadith).

Syaiban bin Farrukh narrated to us, who said that Sulayman, that is Ibn al-Mughirah, narrated to us, he said that Tsabit narrated to us from Anas bin Malik, he said that Mahmud bin ar-Rabi' narrated to us from Itban bin Malik, he said, 'I came to Madinah, and I met Itban. Then I asked him to narrate a hadith.' He said, 'My eyes were afflicted with a certain disease that caused some things, so I sent a messenger to the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) who said that I hoped for his arrival to perform prayer with me in my house, so that I could make it a place of prayer.' Itban said again, 'So the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) arrived along with the companions who wanted to come, and he entered the house. He performed the prayer, while the companions were still talking among themselves, where some of them talked about the hypocrisy of Malik bin Dukhsyum. The companions said, they hoped that the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) would pray against Malik bin Dukhsyum so that he would be afflicted with misfortune. They also wanted him to be afflicted with a calamity. After the prayer, he asked: 'Has he not said the Two Testimonies of Faith, that there is no god (worthy of worship) but Allah and that I am the Messenger of Allah?' The companions replied, 'He said it only with his mouth but not with his heart.' He said: 'No one who says that there is no god (worthy of worship) but Allah and that I am the Messenger of Allah will enter Hell, or taste it.' Anas said, 'This hadith amazed me. So I said to my son, 'Write this hadith,' and he wrote it.' Abu Bakar bin Nafi' al-Abdi narrated to us, who said that Bahz narrated to us, who said that Hammad narrated to us from Tsabit from Anas, he said that Itban bin Malik narrated to us that he was blind, so he sent a messenger to the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) and said, 'Please come here (O Messenger of Allah), so that it can be a place of prayer for me.' So the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) came with his companions, and then the bad character of a man among them called Malik bin ad-Dukhsyum was mentioned... then he mentioned a hadith similar to the hadith of Sulayman bin al-Mughirah.

Narrated to us by [Yahya bin Habib al-Haritsi] "Narrated to us by [Hammad bin Zaid] from [Ishaq] -that is Ibn Suwaid- that [Abu Qatadah] "Narrated the hadith, he said, 'We were with Imran bin Hushain in a group, and among us was Busyair bin Ka'ab, so [Imran bin Hushain], at that time, "Narrated to us, he said, 'The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said: "Shyness is all good." Or he said, "Shyness is entirely good." So Busyair bin Ka'ab said, "Indeed, in some of our books or wisdom we find that from shyness comes tranquility and dignity to Allah, and from shyness there is weakness." So Imran became angry until his eyes turned red and said, "Why do I see myself narrating to you from the Messenger of Allah but you oppose it!" Abu Qatadah said, "So Imran repeated the hadith." Abu Qatadah said, "And Busyair also repeated it again, so Imran became angry." Abu Qatadah continued, "So we kept saying about it, because those words come from us, O Abu Nujaid. That's fine." It was "Narrated to us by [Ishaq bin Ibrahim] informed us by [an-Nadlr] "Narrated to us by [Abu Na'amah al-Adawi] he said, I heard [Hujair bin ar-Rabi' al-Adawi] say from [Imran bin Hushain] from the Prophet peace be upon him with a similar hadith to Hammad bin Zaid.'

Abu Rafi' said, 'Then I "Narrated to Abdullah bin Umar, but he denied me. When Ibn Mas'ud came and stayed at Qanah, Abdullah bin Umar followed me inviting me to follow Ibn Mas'ud, so when we sat, I asked Ibn Mas'ud about this hadith, so he "Narrated the hadith to me as I "Narrated it to Ibn Umar.' Give charity and increase in seeking forgiveness. Because, I see that women are the most inhabitants of Hell.' A smart woman among them asked, 'O Messenger of Allah, why are women the most inhabitants of Hell?' The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said: 'You curse a lot and deny (the favors from) your husband. I do not see those who are deficient in intellect and religion who are more controlling over the owners of intellect, than your group.' The woman asked again, 'O Messenger of Allah! What is the meaning of deficient in intellect and religion?' The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him answered: 'The meaning of deficient in intellect is the testimony of two women equal to the testimony of one man. This is what is called deficient in intellect. Likewise, women do not perform prayer on the nights they pass and break their fast in Ramadan (because of menstruation). So this is what is called deficient in religion.' And it was "Narrated to us by [Abu ath-Thahir] informed us by [Ibnu Wahab] from [Bakar bin Mudlar] from [Ibnu al-Had] with this chain similar to it.' Narrated to us by [Ahmad bin al-Hasan bin Khirasy] "Narrated to us by [Amru bin Ashim] "Narrated to us by [Mu'tamir] he said, I heard [his father] narrate that [Khalid al-Atsbaj] my cousin, Shafwan bin Muhriz, "Narrated from [Shafwan bin Muhriz] that he "Narrated, that during the turmoil of Ibn Zubair, [Jundab bin Abdullah Al-Bajali] sent a messenger to 'As'as bin Salamah saying, 'Gather some of your brothers so I can tell them some news.' So a messenger was sent to them, and when they had gathered, Jundab came wearing a yellow head covering and said, 'Talk about what you always talk about,' until that conversation took place among them. And when it came to his turn to speak, he uncovered his head covering and said, 'I come to you, not intending to convey news from your Prophet. Indeed, the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him sent a messenger from the Muslims to the polytheists. And they were truly face to face, so if one of the polytheists wanted to target one of the Muslims to kill, he could kill him, and likewise a Muslim could target one when he was off guard.' He said, 'And we were informed of the incident of Usamah bin Zaid, when he had raised his sword, suddenly that polytheist said, "There is no god (worthy of worship) except Allah", but he still killed him. So Basyir came to the Prophet peace be upon him to complain and ask about it. He "Narrated it to him and what that man had done. So he called Usamah and asked him, "Why did you kill him?" He replied, "O Messenger of Allah, he had harmed the Muslims, he had killed so-and-so and so-and-so, and he mentioned a name to him, and indeed I harbored resentment against him, but when he saw my sword, he said, 'There is no god (worthy of worship) except Allah'." The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him asked again: "Did you kill him?" He replied, "Yes." He asked again: "Then what will you do with the statement, 'There is no god (worthy of worship) except Allah', if on the Day of Judgment it comes (to hold you accountable) on the Day of Judgment?"

I said, "O Messenger of Allah, he only said it as a shield." He said: "Did you kill him after he said, 'There is no god (worthy of worship) except Allah'?" "Narrated to us by [Muhammad bin al-Mutsanna al-Anazi] and [Abu Ma'n ar-Raqasyi] as well as [Ishaq bin Manshur] all from [Abu Ashim] and the wording is that of Ibnu al-Mutsanna, "Narrated to us by [adl-Dlahhak] -that is Abu Ashim- he said, informed us by [Haiwah bin Syuraih] he said, "Narrated to us by [Yazid bin Abu Habib] from [Ibnu Syimasah al-Mahri] he said, 'We attended [Amru bin al-Ash], while he was washing a deceased person, then he cried for a long time and turned his face to the wall, so his son began to say, "O my father, did not the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him give you glad tidings about this, did not the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him give you glad tidings about this." The narrator said, "Then he turned his face and said, 'Indeed, the most excellent thing we consider is the testimony that there is no god (worthy of worship) except Allah, and that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah, indeed I was in three states I saw myself, but no one hated the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him more than me, and there was nothing I liked more than being close to him, so I could kill him, if I had died in that state, I would surely be among the inhabitants of Hell. When Allah placed Islam in my heart, I came to the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him and said, 'Extend your right hand, so I may pledge allegiance to you,' so he extended his right hand.' Amru bin al-Ash said, 'Then I held my hand.' He asked, 'What is wrong with you, O Amru?' I replied, 'I want to make a condition.' He said, 'What condition do you want?' I replied, 'That I be forgiven.' He said, 'Do you not know that Islam erases the sins before it, and that migration erases the sins before it, and that Hajj erases the sins before it.' And no one was more beloved to me than the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him, and nothing was clearer in my eyes than him, and I was not able to fill my eyes with anything other than him due to my reverence for him, if I were asked to describe him, I would not be able, because I had not filled my eyes with him. And if I died in that state, I would hope to be one of the inhabitants of Paradise. Then we went through something, and I do not know my state in it, so when I die, let no wailing women accompany me, nor fire. When you bury me, scatter the earth over me, then stand around my grave for about the time it takes to slaughter a camel and distribute its meat, so I may hear you and see what the messenger of my Lord brings.'"

Narrated to me by [Muhammad bin Minhal adl-Dlarir] and [Umayyah bin Bistham al-Aisyi] and the wording is that of Umayyah, both said, "Narrated to us by [Yazid bin Zurai'] "Narrated to us by [Rauh] -that is Ibn al-Qasim- from [al-Ala'] from [his father] from [Abu Hurairah] he said, 'When the verse was revealed to the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him: "(To Allah belongs whatever is in the heavens and the earth. Whether you show what is in your hearts or conceal it, Allah will call you to account for it. Then He forgives whom He wills and punishes whom He wills and Allah is All-Powerful over everything)" (Qs. al-Baqarah: 284), Abu Hurairah said, "It felt heavy on the companions of the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him, so they came to the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him and greeted him while on their mounts, saying, 'O Messenger of Allah, we have been burdened with deeds we cannot bear: prayer, fasting, jihad, and charity. Indeed, this verse has been revealed to you, and we cannot bear it!' The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said: 'Do you want to say as the People of the Book before you said, "We hear and we disobey"? Rather, say, "We hear and we obey, forgive us, our Lord, and to You is the return." They replied, "We hear and we obey, forgive us, our Lord, and to You is the return." When the people recited it, their tongues submitted to it, then Allah revealed after it: "(The Messenger has believed in what was revealed to him from his Lord, and so have the believers. All of them believe in Allah, His angels, His books, and His messengers. (They say), 'We make no distinction between any of His messengers,' and they say, 'We hear and we obey.' (They pray), 'Forgive us, our Lord, and to You is the return')" (Qs. al-Baqarah: 285). When they did that, Allah abrogated it, then revealed: "(Allah does not burden a soul beyond its capacity. It will have the reward of what it has earned and the punishment of what it has committed. (They pray): 'Our Lord, do not punish us if we forget or err')" Allah responded: "Yes." "(Our Lord, do not impose on us a burden as You imposed on those before us)" Allah responded: "Yes." "(Our Lord, do not burden us with what we cannot bear)" Allah responded: "Yes." "(Pardon us, forgive us, and have mercy on us. You are our Protector, so help us against the disbelieving people)" Allah responded: "Yes."

Indeed, the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said: 'No servant to whom Allah has entrusted the affairs of the people, and when his death approaches he is still betraying them, except that Allah will forbid him Paradise.' Ubaidullah said, 'Did you not convey this hadith to me yesterday?' Ma'qil replied, 'I have not conveyed this hadith to you before.' And it was "Narrated to me by [Al-Qasim bin Zakariya] "Narrated to us by [Husain] -that is Al-Ja'fiy- from [Zaidah] from [Hisyam] he said, [Al-Hasan] said, 'When we were visiting [Ma'qil bin Yasar], Ubaidullah bin Ziyad came. Ma'qil then said to him, "I will convey a hadith I heard from the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him..." then he mentioned a hadith with the same meaning as theirs.'

Then it returns and rises from its place of rising, then it runs its course where it does not cause any denial among people until it stops at its place of orbit, which is under the Throne, and it is told, "Rise and rise in the morning from the west." Then it rises from the west.' The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him then said: 'Do you know when that happens? It happens when a person's faith is of no benefit to him if he did not believe before or did good in his faith.' Narrated to us by [Yahya bin Yahya] he said, I read it before [Malik] from [Nafi'] from [Abdullah bin Umar] that the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said: 'One night I dreamt near the Ka'bah, I saw a man with a brownish complexion, as handsome as you have seen a man with a brownish complexion, with wavy hair as handsome as you have seen a man with wavy hair. He was letting his hair down, still wet. He was leaning on two men or on the shoulders of two men while circumambulating the House. Then I asked, "Who is this man?" Someone answered, "He is the Messiah, son of Mary." Then suddenly I was near a man with curly hair, his right eye blind like a ripe grape (meaning his eye was protruding). Then I asked, "Who is this man?" Someone answered, "He is the Messiah, the Dajjal."'

"Narrated to us by [Muhammad bin Ishaq al-Musayyabi] "Narrated to us by [Anas] -that is Ibn Iyadl- from [Musa] -that is Ibn Uqbah- from [Nafi'] he said, '[Abdullah bin Umar] said, "One day the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him mentioned the Messiah, the Dajjal, in front of people, he said: 'Indeed, Allah is not one-eyed. Know that the Messiah, the Dajjal, is blind in his right eye, as if his eye is a ripe grape.' The narrator said, 'Then the Messenger of Allah said: "I dreamt one night near the Ka'bah, suddenly there was a man with a brownish complexion, as handsome as you have seen a man with a brownish complexion, his wavy hair flowing between his shoulders, his hair let down, and his head dripping with water, he placed both hands on the shoulders of two men. He was circumambulating the House between them, so I asked, 'Who is this man?' They answered, 'The Messiah, son of Mary.' And I saw behind him a curly-haired man, blind in his right eye, resembling someone I had seen, Ibn Qathan, in a state of placing both hands on the shoulders of two men. He was circumambulating the House, so I asked, 'Who is this?' They answered, 'This is the Messiah, the Dajjal.'"

They asked about some matters regarding Baitul Maqdis that I was not certain of, so I felt a distress I had never experienced before." He said again: "So Allah raised it for me so I could see it. And they did not ask me anything except that I would surely answer it. I saw myself among a group of Prophets. And suddenly I was shown Prophet Moses standing in prayer, he was a sturdy man with curly hair, as if he were from the tribe of Shanuah. I was also shown Jesus son of Mary standing in prayer. Urwah bin Mas'ud Ath-Thaqafi was the person most resembling him. I was shown Prophet Abraham standing in prayer, the person most resembling him was your companion here that is, himself. When the time for prayer came, I led them all. And after performing the prayer, someone said, 'O Muhammad, this is the angel guardian of the Fire, give him your greeting!' So I turned to him, but he greeted me first."

Narrated to us by [Abu Bakar bin Abu Syaibah] "Narrated to us by [Yahya bin Sa'id] from [Sufyan] from [Habib bin Abi Tsabit] from [Abu al-Abbas] from [Abdullah bin Amr] he said, 'The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said: "Allah chose a servant from among His servants and gave him wealth, so he spent it in His way. The angels said, 'O our Lord, this servant of Yours has spent in Your way, but it is from what You have given him.' Allah said: 'Indeed, I have given it to him, and I have favored him over many of My creation, for I have given him something that I have not given to anyone before or after.' Then a tree was raised for him, and he said, 'O my Lord, bring this tree closer to me so that I may take shade under it and drink its water.' Allah said: 'O son of Adam, perhaps if I give it to you, you will ask Me for something else.' He replied, 'No, O my Lord.' Then he promised Allah not to ask for anything else. Yet his Lord excused him because He saw something he could not resist. So the tree was brought closer to him, and he took shade under it and drank its water. Then another tree, more beautiful than the first, was raised. He said, 'O my Lord, bring this tree closer to me so that I may drink its water and take shade under it, I will not ask You for anything else.' Allah said, 'O son of Adam, did you not promise Me not to ask for anything else?' Allah said again, 'Perhaps if I bring it closer to you, you will ask for something else.' Then he promised not to ask Allah for anything else. Yet his Lord excused him because He saw something he could not resist. So Allah brought the tree closer to him, and he took shade under it and drank its water. Then another tree was raised for him near the gate of Paradise, more beautiful than the previous two. He said, 'O my Lord, bring this tree closer to me so that I may take shade under it and drink its water, I will not ask You for anything else.' Allah said, 'O son of Adam, did you not promise Me not to ask for anything else?' He replied, 'Yes, indeed, O my Lord. This time I will not ask You for anything else.' Yet his Lord excused him because he saw something he could not resist. So Allah brought it closer to him. When Allah brought it closer, he heard the voices of the people of Paradise. Then he said, 'O my Lord, admit me to it.' Allah said, 'O son of Adam, what will make you stop asking Me? Would you be satisfied if I gave you the world and its like with it?' He replied, 'O my Lord, are You mocking me, when You are the Lord of the worlds?' Then Ibnu Mas'ud laughed, saying, 'Will you not ask me what made me laugh?' They asked, 'What made you laugh?' Ibnu Mas'ud said, 'This is how the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him laughed.' The companions said, 'What made you laugh, O Messenger of Allah?' He replied: '(I laughed) because of what made the Lord of the worlds laugh when the servant said, "Are You mocking me, when You are the Lord of the worlds." Allah replied, "Indeed, I am not mocking you, but I am capable of doing whatever I wish."'

"Narrated to us by [Zuhair bin Muhammad] from [Suhail bin Abu Shalih] from [an-Nu'man bin Abu 'Ayyasy] from [Abu Sa'id al-Khudri] that the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said: 'Indeed, the lowest in status among the inhabitants of Paradise is a person whose face is turned away from the Fire toward Paradise, and Allah depicts for him the image of a tree with shade. Then he says, "O my Lord, bring me closer to that tree so that I may be in its shade." Then he mentioned this hadith about his entry into Paradise and his desires, until finally he said: "When he no longer has any desires, Allah says to him, 'This is for you and ten times as much.' The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him continued: 'Then he enters his house (in Paradise), and after that, two of his wives from among the houris enter to meet him. They say, "Praise be to Allah, Who has given you life for us and given us life for you."
The Messenger of Allah said: 'He says, "No one has been given a gift like the gift Allah has given me.'""

Narrated to us by [Yunus bin Abdul A'la ash-Shadafi] informed us by [Ibnu Wahb] he said, informed us by [Amru bin al-Harits] that [Bakr bin Sawadah] "Narrated to him from [Abdurrahman bin Jubair] from [Abdullah bin Amr bin al-'Ash] that the Prophet peace be upon him recited the words of Allah regarding Abraham: '(My Lord, indeed these idols have led astray most of mankind, so whoever follows me is indeed of my company)' (Qs. Ibrahim: 36) until the end of the verse. And regarding Jesus, peace be upon him: '(If You punish them, they are Your servants, and if You forgive them, indeed You are the Mighty, the Wise)' (Qs. Al Maidah: 118), then he raised his hands and prayed: 'O Allah, save my nation, save my nation,' with tears streaming down. Then Allah Almighty said to the angel Gabriel: 'Go to Muhammad -and your Lord knows best- and ask him, "What makes you weep?"' So the angel Gabriel asked him, and he peace be upon him answered with what Allah said -and Allah knows best about that. Then Allah said: 'O Gabriel, go to Muhammad and say that We will make you pleased with your nation and will not make you sad about them (We will save all your nation).'

Narrated to us [Sa'id bin Manshur], "Narrated to us [Hushaim], informed us [Husain bin Abdurrahman], he said, 'I was with [Sa'id bin Jubair], and he said, "Who among you saw the falling star last night?" I replied, "I did." Then I said, "But I wasn't praying, as I was stung (by an animal)." Sa'id said, "What did you do?" I replied, "I sought ruqyah." Sa'id asked, "What made you do that?" I replied, "A hadith "Narrated by [ash-Sha'bi]." Sa'id asked, "What did ash-Sha'bi narrate to you?" I replied, "He "Narrated to us from [Buraidah bin Husaib al-Aslami], that he said, 'There is no ruqyah except for the evil eye or fever (poisoning).'" Sa'id replied, "Those who act on what they hear do well, but [Ibn Abbas] "Narrated to us from the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him), he said: 'Allah showed me groups of humanity. I saw a prophet with a group, a prophet with one or two men, and a prophet with no followers. Then I saw a large group and thought they were my nation, but I was told, "This is Prophet Moses (peace be upon him) and his people. Look to the horizon." I looked and saw a large group. I was told, "Look to the other horizon." There was another large group. I was told, "This is your nation, and among them are seventy thousand who will enter Paradise without reckoning or punishment." Then the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) stood and entered his house. People discussed those who would enter Paradise without reckoning or punishment. Some said, "Perhaps they are those who accompanied the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him)." Others said, "Perhaps they are those born in Islam and never associated partners with Allah." They offered various opinions. The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) came out and asked, "What have you been discussing?" They explained, and he said: "They are those who do not use ruqyah, do not seek ruqyah, do not believe in omens, and rely on their Lord." Ukkashah bin Mihshan stood and said, "Pray to Allah that I be among them." The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) said: "You are among them." Then another man stood and said, "Pray to Allah that I be among them." The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) said: "Ukkashah has preceded you.""

Narrated to us [Uthman bin Abu Syaibah al-'Absyi], "Narrated to us [Jarir] from [al-A'mash] from [Abu Shalih] from [Abu Sa'id], he said, 'The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) said: "Allah said, 'O Adam!' Adam responded, 'I answer Your call with pleasure, and all good is in Your hands.' Allah said: 'Bring out those sent to Hell.' Adam asked, 'How many are sent to Hell?' Allah said: 'From every thousand, nine hundred ninety-nine are taken.' The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) said: 'This happens when children turn gray: "(Pregnant women will miscarry, and people will be as if drunk, though they are not drunk, but Allah's punishment is severe)" (Quran, Al-Hajj: 2). The words of the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) confused the Companions. They asked, "O Messenger of Allah, who among us is that one from a thousand?" The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) said: "Rejoice, for among the thousand are Gog and Magog, and from you is only one." Then he said: "By the One in Whose hand is my soul, I hope you will be a quarter of the inhabitants of Paradise." We praised Allah and glorified Him. He said again: "By the One in Whose hand is my soul, I hope you will be a third of the inhabitants of Paradise." We praised Allah and glorified Him. Then he said: "By the One in Whose hand is my soul, I hope you will be half of the inhabitants of Paradise. And Narrated to me by Muhammad bin Abdullah bin Bazi', "Narrated to us by Yazid - that is, the son of Zurai' - "Narrated to us by Humaid ath-Thawil, "Narrated to us by Abu Bakar bin Abdullah al-Muzani from Urwah bin al-Mughirah bin Syu'bah from his father, he said, "The Messenger of Allah went to the back, and I went to the back with him. When he fulfilled his need, then he said: 'Do you have water?' Then I gave him pure water, then he washed both his palms and his face. When he wanted to open both his arms, the sleeves of his cloak were narrow, then he took out his hand from under the cloak, and placed his cloak on both his shoulders. He then washed both his arms, wiped his forehead and the top of his turban, and wiped the top of both his khuff. Then he mounted his ride, and I also mounted, until we arrived at some people, while they were performing prayer led by Abdurrahman bin Auf, and he had bowed with them one bow. When he sensed the arrival of the Prophet, peace be upon him, then he started to retreat, then he signaled to him (to continue), so he continued leading them. When he had said the salam, then the Prophet, peace be upon him, stood, and I stood with him, then we bowed in the rak'ah that we had missed.

Otherwise, if you do not see it, it is sufficient to sprinkle water around it. Indeed, I once scraped semen from the clothes of the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, then he used those clothes to perform prayer.'

Narrated to me by [Zuhair bin Harb] Narrated to us by [Abdurrahman bin Mahdi] Narrated to us by [Hammad bin Salamah] Narrated to us by [Thabit] from [Anas] that the Jews used to, when their women were menstruating, not give them food not associate with them in the house. So the companions of the Prophet peace be upon him asked the Prophet peace be upon him. Then Allah revealed, "They ask you about menstruation. Say, 'Menstruation is harm'. So leave the women during menstruation do not approach them until they are pure. When they have purified themselves, then come to them from where Allah has ordained for you. Indeed, Allah loves those who are constantly repentant loves those who purify themselves." (al-Baqarah: 222) so the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said, "Do everything except intercourse". So this reached the Jews, they said, "This man does not want to leave anything from our matters except that he opposes us in it." Then Usaid bin Hudair Abbad bin Bishr said, "O Messenger of Allah, indeed the Jews say such such, so we will not touch the women." The face of the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him changed suddenly until we thought that he was angry with both of them, then both of them left, they went coinciding with a gift of milk intended for the Prophet peace be upon him, So he sent a messenger to follow their departure, he offered drinks to both of them. Both of them realized that he was not angry with them.

WOMEN MUST TAKE A BATH AFTER A WET DREAM

Narrated to us by [Abbas bin al-Walid] Narrated to us by [Yazid bin Zurai'] Narrated to us by [Sa'id] from [Qatadah] that [Anas bin Malik] narrated to them that [Umm Sulaim] once told that she asked the Prophet peace be upon him about a woman who dreams (of intercourse) as happens to a man. So the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said, "If that woman dreams of emitting semen, then she must perform the major bath." Umm Sulaim said, "I was shy to ask about that matter". Umm Sulaim asked, "Does this apply to women?" The Prophet peace be upon him said, "Yes (women also emit semen, if she does not emit) then from where does the resemblance come?. Know that the semen of a man is thick white, while the semen of a woman is thin yellow. Whichever semen from one of them is more dominant or prevails, surely the resemblance occurs because of it.

Narrated to us by [al-Hasan bin Ali al-Hulwani] Narrated to us by [Abu Taubah, namely ar-Rabi' bin Nafi'] Narrated to us by [Mu'awiyah, namely Ibn Sallam] from [Zaid, namely his brother] that he heard [Abu Sallam] say, Narrated to us by [Abu Asma' ar-Rahabi] that [Thauban, the freed slave of the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him] told him, he said, "I once stood near the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him, suddenly came one of the rabbis from the Jews saying, 'Peace be upon you O Muhammad. So I pushed him hard until he almost fell because of it.' Then he asked, 'Why did you push me?' I replied, 'Can't you call him with the call "O Messenger of Allah"? ' The Jewish rabbi replied, 'It is enough for us to call him with the name given by his family to him.' Then the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said, ' my name is Muhammad, the name given by my family to me.' The Jew said, 'I came to ask you some questions.' The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him asked back, 'Is there something beneficial for you if I speak to you.' He replied, 'I will listen with these two ears of mine'. Then the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him made lines on the ground with the stick in his hand saying, 'Ask! ' The Jew said, '(The day when the earth is replaced with another earth the heavens...) (QS. Ibrahim 48), at that time where are the people? ' The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him replied, 'They are in darkness under the bridge.' He asked, 'Then who are the first people allowed to cross that bridge? ' He replied, 'The poor from the Muhajirin.' The Jew asked again, 'What is the special dish for them when entering paradise? ' He replied, 'The best organ from the liver of the shark fish'. He asked again, 'After that what dish is served to them? ' He replied, 'They are slaughtered a bull of paradise that is eaten from its sides'. He asked again, 'What is their drink? ' He replied, 'A drink taken from a spring named Salsabil'. He said, 'You are right'. Then he continued his speech, 'I also came to pose some questions whose answers are not known by anyone on this earth except a Prophet or one or two men only'. He said, 'Will it benefit you if I answer it? ' He replied, 'I will listen to it with my two ears'. He said, 'I came with a question about the child'. He replied, 'The semen of a man is white the semen of a woman is yellow, if both unite then if the semen of the man is more dominant over the semen of the woman then the fetus will be male with Allah's permission. But if the semen of the woman is more dominant over the semen of the man then the fetus will be female with Allah's permission.' The Jew said, 'You are right, you are indeed truly a Prophet'. Then the Jewish man left. After that the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said, 'Indeed I was once asked by someone about the question that he also asked me, I did not know the answer at all until Allah informed me of it'. [Abdullah bin Abdurrahman ad-Darimi] informed me of this hadith, [Yahya bin Hassan] informed us, [Mu'awiyah bin Sallam] narrated like that to us with the same chain, but the difference he said: I once sat near the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him. the difference in wording "Zaidatu kabidin nun" (shark fish liver), "adzkarâ" "ânatsa" (with singular form), not "adzkârâ" "ânatsâ" (with dual form).

Narrated to us by [Muhammad bin al-Muthanna] [Ibn Bashshar] [Ibn al-Muthanna] said, Narrated to us by [Muhammad bin Ja'far] Narrated to us by [Shu'bah] from [Ibrahim bin al-Muhajir] he said, I heard [Shafiyyah] narrate from [Aishah] that Asma' asked the Prophet peace be upon him about the bath of the menstruating person. So he said, 'One of you should take her water her lotus plant, then she purifies, then perfects her purification, then pours water on her head, then massages it strongly until reaching the roots of her head hair, then pours water on it, then she takes musk cotton, then purifies with it. Then Asma' said, 'How does she purify with it?' He said, 'Glory be to Allah, purify yourself with it.' Then Aishah said -as if she covered that matter-, 'You wipe the traces of blood.' she asked him about the major impurity bath, so he said, 'You should take water then purify with the best purification, or intensely in purifying then you pour water on the head, then massage it until reaching the base of the head, then pour water on it.' Then Aishah said, 'The best women are the women of Ansar whose shyness does not prevent them from deepening their religious matters.' Narrated to us by [Ubaidullah bin Mu'adh] Narrated to us by [my father] Narrated to us by [Shu'bah] in this chain a similar hadith, the narrator said, he said, 'Glory be to Allah, purify with it, he hid (because of shyness).' Narrated to us by [Yahya bin Yahya] [Abu Bakr bin Abi Shaibah] both narrated from [Abu al-Ahwash] from [Ibrahim bin Muhajir] from [Shafiyyah binti Shaibah] from [Aishah] she said, 'Asma' bint Shakal visited the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him while saying, 'O Messenger of Allah, how does one of us bathe when she wants to purify from menstruation?' Then she brought that hadith without mentioning, 'Major impurity bath.'

Suddenly the stone moved carrying his clothes. Moses ran chasing it while shouting, 'O stone! Leave my clothes! O stone! Leave my clothes! So that the people of Bani Israil could see Moses' private parts.' Then they said, 'By Allah indeed Moses has no defect at all.' Then I said to her, 'O mother or O Mother of the Believers, indeed I wish to ask you about something, indeed I am shy towards you.' Then she said, 'Do not be shy to ask me about something you used to ask your mother who gave birth to you. I am your mother.' I asked, 'What obligates bathing?' She answered, 'Indeed you have found a wise person for the question you asked, the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said, 'If a man sits between the four branches of a woman (meaning both thighs both hs) the male genitalia meets the female genitalia then indeed bathing is obligatory'.

Narrated to us by [Yahya bin Yahya] he said, I read before [Malik] from [Abdurrahman bin al-Qasim] from [his father] from [Aishah may Allah be pleased with her] that she said, We once went out with the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him in some of his journeys. Until when we arrived at al-Baida' or at Zatul Jaish, my necklace broke the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him started looking for it. People also looked for it with the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him while they were not in a place with water they did not have any water at all. Then people came to Abu Bakr then said, 'Do you not see what Aishah has done? ' She has caused the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him, people to search for her necklace while they are not in a place with water they also do not have any water at all? Then Abu Bakr came to me at that time the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him was sleeping with his head on my thigh. He said, 'You have held back the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him people, while they are all not in a place with water they also do not have any water at all'. Aishah said, 'Abu Bakr scolded me with words until he pressed the base of my thigh with his h. I could not move because the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him was on my thigh. The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him slept until the next morning woke up without any water at all. Then Allah revealed the verse of tayammum. They then performed tayammum. In connection with that, Usaid bin al-Hudhair, one of the leaders said, This is not the first blessing for you, O family of Abu Bakr! Then Aishah said, Then we looked for the camel I rode then we found the necklace under it.

REASONS FOR THE DESCRIPTIONS OF THE TAYAMMUM VERSES Hadith Imam Muslim Number 551

Narrated by Abu Bakar bin Abi Syaibah, Abu Usamah, through another chain, Abu Kuraib, from Hisyam, from his father, from Aisyah: She borrowed a necklace from Asma', which was lost. Rasulullah, peace be upon him, sent companions to search for it. When salat time arrived, they prayed without wudhu. They reported this to the Prophet, peace be upon him, the verse of tayammum was revealed. Usaid bin Hudhair said, 'May Allah reward you. Narrated by Yahya bin Yahya, Abu Bakar bin Abi Syaibah, Ibnu Numair, from Abu Muawiyah, from al-A'masy, from Syaqiq: He said, 'I sat with Abdullah Abu Musa al-Asy'ari. Abu Musa asked Abdullah, "O father of Abdurrahman, if a man is junub finds no water for a month, what should he do about salat?" Abdullah replied, "He must not perform tayammum, even without water for a month." Abu Musa cited the verse in Surah al-Maidah: "If you find no water, perform tayammum with clean soil" (Q.S. al-Maidah: 6). Abdullah said, "If they were lenient with this verse, they'd use soil when water feels cold." Abu Musa said, "Haven't you heard Ammar's words? Rasulullah, peace be upon him, sent me on a task, I became junub without water, so I rolled in dust like an animal. I told the Prophet, peace be upon him, he said, 'It suffices to strike your hs thus.' He struck the ground once, wiped his left h over his right, the backs of both hs, his face." Abdullah said, "Didn't you see Umar was unsatisfied with Ammar's statement?" Another narration by Abu Kamil al-Jahdari, from Abdu Wahid, from al-A'masy, from Syaqiq, states Abu Musa told Abdullah similarly, but the Prophet said, "It suffices to say this," striking both hs on the ground, shaking them, wiping his face palms.'

Narrated by Ishaq bin Ibrahim al-Hanzhali, from Sufyan bin Uyainah, from al-Ala', from his father, from Abu Hurairah: The Prophet, peace be upon him, said, 'Whoever prays salat without reciting Ummul Qur'an, his salat is indebted, incomplete,' three times. Asked, 'We are behind an imam?' Abu Hurairah replied, 'Recite Ummul Qur'an silently, for I heard Rasulullah say, "Allah said, 'I divide salat between Me My servant, My servant gets what he asks. When he says, "Praise be to Allah, Lord of all worlds," Allah says, "My servant praises Me." When he says, "Most Gracious, Most Merciful," Allah says, "My servant extols Me." When he says, "Master of the Day of Judgment," Allah says, "My servant glorifies Me." Then, "My servant entrusts to Me." When he says, "You alone we worship, You alone we ask for help," Allah says, "This is between Me My servant, My servant gets what he asks." When he says, "Guide us to the straight path, the path of those You favored, not those who earned wrath, nor the astray," Allah says, "This is for My servant, My servant gets what he asks."' Sufyan narrated from al-Ala' bin Abdurrahman bin Ya'kub, visited while ill, confirming the Hadith. Another narration by Qutaibah bin Sa'id, from Malik bin Anas, from al-Ala' bin Abdurrahman, from Abu as-Saib, by Muhammad bin Rafi', from Abdurrazzaq, from Ibnu Juraij, from al-Ala' bin Abdurrahman bin Ya'kub, from Abu as-Saib, narrating from Abu Hurairah, is similar, stating Allah divides salat into two parts, half for Him, half for His servant. Another narration by Ahmad bin Ja'far al-Ma'qiri, from an-Nadhr bin Muhammad, from Abu Uwais, from al-Ala', from his father Abu as-Saib, companions of Abu Hurairah, is similar, stating, 'Whoever prays salat without al-Fatihah, it is indebted,' three times.

Rasulallah said, 'Peace be upon you,' then, 'Return pray, for you have not prayed,' three times. The man said, 'By Him who sent you with truth, I cannot do better teach me.' He said, 'When you begin salat, say takbir, recite what is easy from the Qur'an, then rukuk with tuma'ninah, rise upright, sujud with tuma'ninah, sit with tuma'ninah, do so in all your salat.' Another narration by Abu Bakar bin Abi Syaibah, from Abu Usamah Abdullah bin Numair, Ibnu Numair, from his father, from Ubaidullah, from Sa'id bin Abi Sa'id, from Abu Hurairah: A man entered a mosque prayed while Rasulallah was in a corner. A servant of my ummah will be barred from it, I'll say, "O my Lord, he is of my ummah." Allah will say, "You know not what happened after you."' Then one day the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said to us: Allah is the Most Peaceful, when one of you sits in prayer, let him say: Attahiyyat Lillah wa ash-Shalawat wa ath-Thayyibat, assalamu alaika, ayyuha an-Nabiyyu Warahmatullahi Wabarakatuhu, assalamu 'alaina wa ala ibadillahishshaalihin (All reverence is for Allah, prayers, and goodness. Narrated to us [Muhammad bin al-Mutsanna] and [Ibnu Basysyar], both said: narrated to us [Muhammad bin Ja'far], narrated to us [Syu'bah] from [Manshur] with this chain, similar to it, and he did not mention: 'Then he may choose any supplication he wishes.' Narrated to us ['Abd bin Humaid], narrated to us [Husain al-Ju'fi] from [Zaidah] from [Manshur] with this chain, similar to the second hadith, then he mentioned in the hadith: 'Then let him choose after that a supplication he wishes or desires.' Narrated to us [Yahya bin Yahya], informed us [Abu Muawiyah] from [al-A'masy] from [Syaqiq] from [Abdullah bin Mas'ud], he said: 'We used to, when sitting with the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, in prayer,' like the hadith of Manshur, and he said: 'Then he may choose after that some supplication.' And narrated to us [Abu Bakar bin Abi Syaibah], narrated to us [Abu Nu'aim], narrated to us [Saif bin Sulaiman], he said: I heard [Mujahid] say: narrated to me [Abdullah bin Sakhbarah], he said: I heard [Ibnu Mas'ud] say: 'The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, taught me the tasyahhud, my shoulder between his shoulders, as he taught a surah of the Qur'an.' Then he narrated the tasyahhud like the tasyahhud they narrated.

Narrated to us [Sa'id bin Manshur], [Qutaibah bin Sa'id], [Abu Kamil al-Jahdari], and [Muhammad bin Abdul Malik al-Umawi], and the wording is that of Abu Kamil, they said: narrated to us [Abu 'Awanah] from [Qatadah] from [Yunus bin Jubair] from [Hiththan bin Abdullah bin ar-Raqasyi], he said: 'I prayed with [Abu Musa al-Asy'ari] in a prayer. When at the sitting (tahiyat), a man from the people said: Prayer is associated with goodness and giving zakat. He said: When Abu Musa performed the prayer and gave the salam, he turned and said: Who among you said such-and-such words? The narrator said: The people were silent, then he said again: Who among you said such-and-such words? The people remained silent. Then he asked again: Perhaps you, O Hiththan, said it. He replied: I did not say it, and I feared you would rebuke me for it. Then a man from the people said: I said it, and I only intended good by it. Then Abu Musa said: Do you not know how you should say (dhikr) in your prayers? The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, gave us a sermon, explained to us his Sunnah, and taught us about our prayers. He said: When you pray, align your rows, then let one of you lead you. When he says takbir, say takbir, and when he says: "Ghairil Maghhdhubi Alaihim wala adh-Dhallin (Not the path of those who earn Your anger, nor of those who go astray)," say: Amin, and Allah will love you. When he says takbir and bows, say takbir and bow, for the imam bows before you and rises before you. Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: Thus, this movement follows that movement. When he says: Samiallahu liman hamidah (May Allah hear the one who praises Him), say: Allahumma Rabbana laka al-Hamdu (O Allah, our Lord, all praise is for You), and Allah will hear you, for Allah said through the tongue of His Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him: Samiallahu liman hamidah. And when the imam says takbir and prostrates, say takbir and prostrate, for the imam prostrates before you and rises before you. Then the Messenger of Allah said: Thus, this movement follows that movement. And when sitting for tahiyat, let your first supplication be: Attahiyyat Lillah wa ash-Shalawat wa ath-Thayyibat, assalamu alaika, ayyuha an-Nabiyyu Warahmatullahi Wabarakatuhu, assalamu 'alaina wa ala ibadillahishshaalihin (All reverence is for Allah, prayers, and goodness. Peace be upon you, O Prophet, and the mercy and blessings of Allah. Peace be upon us and upon the righteous servants of Allah). I bear witness that there is no deity worthy of worship except Allah, and I bear witness that Muhammad is His servant and Messenger.' Narrated to us [Abu Bakar bin Abi Syaibah], narrated to us [Abu Usamah], narrated to us [Sa'id bin Abi 'Arubah], and through another chain: narrated to us [Abu Ghassan al-Misma'i], narrated to us [Muadz bin Hisyam], narrated to us [my father], and through another chain: narrated to us [Ishaq bin Ibrahim], informed us [Jarir] from [Sulaiman at-Taimi], all narrated from [Qatadah] with this chain, similar to it. And in the hadith of [Jarir] from [Sulaiman] from [Qatadah], there is an addition: 'When the imam recites, listen attentively.' And none of them have the phrase: 'Allah said through the tongue of His Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, Samiallahu liman hamidah,' except in the narration of [Abu Kamil] alone from [Abu Awanah]. Abu Ishaq said: Abu Bakar, the nephew of Abu an-Nadhar, said in this hadith. Then Muslim said: You mean more preserved than Sulaiman. Then Abu Bakar said to him: The hadith of Abu Hurairah is authentic, meaning: 'When the imam recites, listen attentively.' And Abu Hurairah said: I consider this hadith authentic. Muslim asked: Why did you not include it here? Abu Hurairah replied: Not everything I have is authentic. I included it here only to place it alongside as long as they agree on it. Narrated to us [Ishaq bin Ibrahim] and [Ibnu Abi Umar] from [Abdurrazzaq] from [Ma'mar] from [Qatadah] with this chain, and he said in the hadith: 'Allah decreed through the tongue of His Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, Samiallahu liman hamidah.'

Narrated by Ahmad bin Abdullah bin Yunus, from Zaidah, from Musa bin Abi Aisyah, from Ubaidullah bin Abdullah: He visited Aisyah said, 'Will you tell me about Rasulallah's illness?' She said, 'Yes. The Prophet, peace be upon him, felt unwell asked, "Have the people prayed together?" We said, "No, they await you, O Rasulallah." He said, "Place water for me in a vessel." We did so, he bathed, tried to st, then fainted. He awoke asked, "Have the people prayed?" We said, "No, they await you, O Rasulallah." He said, "Place water for me in the vessel." We did so, he bathed, tried to st, fainted again, then awoke. He asked, "Have the people prayed?" We said, "No, they await you, O Rasulallah." He said, "Place water for me in the vessel." We did so, he bathed, tried to st, fainted again, then awoke.' Aisyah said, 'People gathered, awaiting Rasulallah for late Isha salat.' She added, 'Rasulallah sent a messenger to Abu Bakar to lead the people in salat. The messenger told Abu Bakar, "Rasulallah orders you to lead the people." Abu Bakar, a sensitive man, said, "O Umar, lead the people." Umar said, "You are more entitled." Aisyah said, 'Abu Bakar led them that day. Then Rasulallah felt anxious, went out, supported by two men, one being al-Abbas, for Dhuhr salat while Abu Bakar led. Seeing him, Abu Bakar stepped back. The Prophet signaled him not to, told those supporting him, "Seat me beside him." They seated him beside Abu Bakar. Abu Bakar followed the Prophet's salat, the people followed Abu Bakar's, the Prophet, peace be upon him, prayed sitting.' Ubaidullah said, 'I visited Abdullah bin Abbas said, "Shall I recount Aisyah's narration of Rasulallah's illness?" He said, "Tell me." I recounted it, he did not deny any part, but asked, "Did Aisyah name the man with al-Abbas?" I said, "No." He said, "It was Ali."

Nothing drove me to frequently visit the Messenger of Allah except that it never crossed my mind that people would love a leader after his passing who could replace him forever. If not for that, I assumed that anyone replacing him would make people grow weary of him. So, I wanted the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, to bestow (the leadership) upon Abu Bakr.'

The narrator said: We were stunned and confused, and we were in prayer because of joy at the appearance of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and Abu Bakr stepped back to join the row, thinking that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, had come out for the prayer. Narrated to me [Yahya bin Yahya], he said: I read before [Malik] from [Abu Hazim] from [Sahl bin Sa'd as-Sa'idi] that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, went to Bani Amru bin Auf to reconcile between them, then the time for prayer arrived, and the mu'adhdhin came to Abu Bakr: Would you lead the people in prayer so I can call the iqamah? He replied: Yes. He said: Then Abu Bakr prayed, and the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, came while the people were in prayer, then he moved forward until he stood in the row, and the people clapped their hands. Abu Bakr did not turn during the prayer. But when the people continued clapping, he turned and saw the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and the Messenger of Allah signaled to him to stay in your place. Then Abu Bakr raised both his hands and praised Allah as the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, had instructed him regarding that. Then Abu Bakr stepped back until he was aligned with the row, and the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, moved forward and prayed. Then (after finishing) he turned and said: O Abu Bakr, what prevented you from staying in your place when I ordered you? Abu Bakr replied: It is not fitting for Ibnu Abi Quhafah to pray in front of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: Why do I see you clapping so much? Whoever needs to signal something during his prayer should say tasbih, for if he says tasbih, he will be noticed, while clapping is for women. Narrated to us [Qutaibah bin Sa'id], narrated to us [Abdul Aziz, that is Ibnu Abi Hazim], and [Qutaibah] said: narrated to us [Ya'qub, that is Ibnu Abdurrahman al-Qari], both narrated from [Abu Hazim] from [Sahl bin Sa'd] with a hadith similar to Malik's, and in both their hadiths: 'Then Abu Bakr raised both his hands, praised Allah, and stepped back behind him until he stood in the row (of the congregation).' Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Abdullah bin Bazi'], informed us [Abdul 'A'la], narrated to us [Ubaidullah] from [Abu Hazim] from [Sahl bin Sa'd as-Sa'idi], he said: 'The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, went to reconcile between Bani Amru bin Auf,' as in their hadith. And he added: 'Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, came and parted the rows until he stood beside the front row.' And it mentions that Abu Bakr stepped back.

Narrated to me [Muhammad bin Rafi'] and [Hasan bin Ali al-Hulwani], all narrated from [Abdurrazzaq], [Ibnu Rafi'] said: narrated to us [Abdurrazzaq], informed us [Ibnu Juraij], narrated to me [Ibnu Syihab] from the hadith of ['Abbad bin Ziyad] that [Urwah bin al-Mughirah bin Syu'bah] informed him that [al-Mughirah bin Syu'bah] informed him: 'He fought alongside the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, in the Battle of Tabuk.' Al-Mughirah said: 'Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, relieved himself before the dawn prayer, and I brought water. When the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, returned to me, I began pouring water from a container over his hands, and he washed his hands three times, then washed his face, then tried to pull his arms out of his cloak, but the sleeves were tight, so he inserted his hands into the cloak and pulled them out from under it, then washed his arms up to the elbows, then performed wudu over his leather socks, then moved forward.' Al-Mughirah said: 'Then I walked with him until we found the people who had sent Abdurrahman bin Auf forward to lead them. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, joined one of the two rak'ahs, then prayed with the people in the last rak'ah. When Abdurrahman bin Auf gave the salam, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, stood to complete his prayer, which caught the attention of the Muslims, and they increased their tasbih. When the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, finished his prayer, he turned to them and said: You have done well, or he said: You have done right, motivating them to pray on time.' Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Rafi'] and [al-Hulwani], he said: narrated to us [Abdurrazzaq] from [Ibnu Juraij], narrated to me [Ibnu Syihab] from [Ismail bin Muhammad bin Sa'id] from [Hamzah bin al-Mughirah], a similar hadith to Abbad's. [Al-Mughirah] said: 'Then I intended to hold back Abdurrahman, but the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said: Let him be.'

The Messenger of Allah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam set out with companions toward Ukazh market, while demons were blocked from heavenly news and meteors were sent against them. The demons returned to their people, who said: What is wrong with you? They replied: We are barred from heavenly news and struck with meteors. They said: This must be due to something new, so travel east and west of the earth to see what blocks us. A group of jinn heading to Hijaz found him at Nakhlah, en route to Ukazh, leading his companions in Subuh prayer. Hearing the Qur'an, they listened and said: This is what bars us from heavenly news. They returned to their people, saying: O our people, we heard a wondrous Qur'an, guiding to the right path, so we believed in it and will never associate anyone with our Lord. Then Allah revealed to His Prophet Muhammad: Say, it has been revealed to me that a group of jinn listened to the Qur'an.

In the morning, he came from Hira'. We said: O Messenger of Allah, we lost you, searched, and spent a terrible night. they are food for your brethren. Narrated to me Ali bin Hujr as-Sa'di, narrated to us Ismail bin Ibrahim, from Dawud, with this chain, up to: And their fires' traces. Narrated to me by [Muhammad bin 'Abbad] that [Sufyan] narrated to us from [Amr] from [Jabir] who said, 'Mu'adh prayed with the Prophet (peace be upon him), then he came and led his people. So he performed the Isha prayer that night with the Prophet (peace be upon him), then came to his people and led them. Then he began with Surah Al-Baqarah, so a man turned away and gave salam, then prayed alone, then turned away and left. So they said to him, 'Have you become a hypocrite, O so-and-so?' He replied, 'No, by Allah, I will go to the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) and inform him.' Then he went to the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) and said, 'O Messenger of Allah, indeed the workers who irrigate (plants) work during the day (so they are tired), and indeed Mu'adh prayed Isha with you, then came to us and prayed beginning with Surah Al-Baqarah.' So the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) turned to Mu'adh and said, 'O Mu'adh, are you a tempter (who makes people flee from religion), recite with this surah and recite with this' -meaning short and light surahs-.' Sufyan said, then I said to Amr indeed [Abu az-Zubair] narrated to us from [Jabir] that he said, 'Recite 'Read' and 'By the sun and its brightness', and 'By the forenoon', and 'By the night when it covers', and 'Glorify the name of your Lord the Most High'.' Then Amr said something similar.

He replied, 'I asked the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) about that, and he said, "You should increase prostrations to Allah, for you do not prostrate to Allah with a prostration except that Allah raises you a degree by it and erases a sin from you by it."' [Ma'dan] said, 'Then I met [Abu ad-Darda]', and I asked him, and he answered me with something similar to what Thawban said to me.'

At that time, the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) prayed because the time for prayer had come, and he prayed at a goat pen. Then he ordered the construction of a mosque. For that, he invited the leaders of Bani an-Najjar, and they came. The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said, 'O Bani Najjar! Sell me this garden of yours!' They replied, 'No! By Allah, we will not ask for compensation except from Allah.' Anas said, 'In that garden were palm trees, graves of polytheists, and ruins of buildings. So the Messenger of Allah ordered the palm trees to be cut down, the graves to be dug up, and the ruins to be leveled.' He said further, 'After that, they arranged the palm trees (into a structure) facing the qibla, and its door frames were made of stone.' Anas continued, 'They recited poetry while the Messenger of Allah was with them, "O Allah, there is no good except the good of the Hereafter. So help the Ansar and the Muhajirin."'

Narrated to us [Abu Bakar bin Abi Syaibah], narrated to us [Affan], narrated to us [Hammad bin Salamah] from [Tsabit] from [Anas], 'The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) used to pray facing Baitul Maqdis, then the verse was revealed, "Indeed, We see your face turning toward the sky, so We will turn you to a qibla that pleases you. Turn your face toward the Sacred Mosque." (Quran 2:144). A man from Bani Salimah passed by while they were bowing in the morning prayer, having prayed one rak'ah, and he called out, "Know that the qibla has been changed," so they turned as they were toward the qibla.'

We said, "No." He said, "Stand and pray," and he did not ask us to call the adhan or iqama. We stood behind him. He took our hands and placed one of us on his right and the other on his left. When he bowed, we placed our hands on our knees. He said, "But Abdullah struck our hands and placed his palms together, inserting them between his thighs." When the prayer was finished, he said, "There will come rulers who delay the prayer from its time and postpone it until it almost expires. If you see them doing that, pray on time, then pray with them in congregation and make your prayer with them a voluntary act. If you are three, pray together if you are more, appoint one as the imam. When one of you bows, place your arms on your knees and bow. Join your palms together. I can still see the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) interlacing his fingers." Then Abdullah demonstrated it to them.' Narrated to us [Minjab bin al-Harits at-Tamimi], informed us [Ibnu Mushir], he said, —through another chain— and narrated to us [Utsman bin Abi Syaibah], narrated to us [Jarir], he said, —through another chain— and narrated to me [Muhammad bin Rafi'], narrated to us [Yahya bin Adam], narrated to us [Mufadhdhal], all narrated from [al-A'masy] from [Ibrahim] from [Alqamah] and [al-Aswad], 'They visited [Abdullah],' in line with the meaning of Abu Mu'awiyah's hadith. Narrated to us [Yahya bin Yahya] and [Qutaibah bin Sa'id], both narrated from [Abdul Aziz], [Yahya] said, informed us [Abdul Aziz bin Abi Hazim] from [his father], 'A group of people came to [Sahl bin Sa'd] because they disputed about what wood the pulpit of the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) was made of. Sahl said, "By Allah, I know exactly what wood it was made from, who made it, and I saw the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) sit on it the first day it was completed." Abu Hazim said, "O Abu Abbas (Sahl)! Tell us!" Sahl narrated, "One day, the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) sent for a woman—Abu Hazim said, 'He mentioned her name at the time'—and said to her, 'Order your carpenter son to make a wooden pulpit for me to address the people.' So she made this three-tiered pulpit. Then the Messenger of Allah ordered it to be placed in this spot. The pulpit was made of tamarisk wood. I saw the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) pray on that pulpit. He said takbir, and the people said takbir behind him while he was on the pulpit. Then he rose from bowing, descended backward, and prostrated at the base of the pulpit. Then he returned to the pulpit until he finished the prayer. After that, he faced the people and said, 'O people, I did this so you would follow me and learn my way of praying.'" Narrated to us [Qutaibah bin Sa'id], narrated to us [Ya'qub bin Abdurrahman bin Muhammad bin Abdullah bin Abdul Qari al-Qurasyi], narrated to me [Abu Hazim] that some men came to [Sahl bin Sa'd], he said, —through another chain— and narrated to us [Abu Bakar bin Abi Syaibah] and [Zuhair bin Harb] and [Ibnu Abi Umar], they said, narrated to us [Sufyan bin Uyainah] from [Abu Hazim], he said, 'They came to [Sahl bin Sa'ad] and asked him, "What was the pulpit of the Prophet (peace be upon him) made of?"' and they brought a hadith similar to that of Ibnu Abi Hazim.

Narrated to us [Muhammad bin al-Mutsanna], narrated to us [Yahya bin Sa'id], narrated to us [Hisyam], narrated to us [Qatadah] from [Salim bin Abi al-Ja'd] from [Ma'dan bin Abi Thalbah], 'That [Umar bin al-Khaththab] (may Allah be pleased with him) gave a sermon on Friday, mentioning the Prophet of Allah (peace be upon him) and Abu Bakar. He said, "I have a premonition as if a rooster pecked me three times, and I feel it is a sign of my approaching death. Some people urge me to appoint my successor. Allah will not let His religion or His caliphate perish, nor the teachings brought by His Prophet (peace be upon him). If death comes to me soon, the caliphate is to be decided by consultation among six people whom the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) was pleased with at his death. I know some people will disrupt this matter. I will strike them with my hand for the sake of Islam. If they do this, they are the enemies of Allah, disbelievers, and misguided. I leave behind nothing more important to me than the issue of kalalah (one who dies leaving neither children nor parents). I never debated the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) as I did about kalalah, nor was I as persistent about anything as I was about kalalah until he poked my chest with his finger. He said, 'O Umar, is not the summer verse at the end of Surah An-Nisa sufficient?' If I live, I will decide it for those who read the Quran and those who do not. Then the Messenger of Allah said, 'O Allah, I bear witness to You over the leaders. I sent them to the people to act justly, teach them their religion and the Sunnah of the Prophet (peace be upon him), distribute the spoils among them, and refer difficult matters to me.' Then he said, 'You, O people, have eaten two plants I consider foul: onions and garlic. I saw the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) if he found their smell from a man in the mosque, he would order him to leave, and he was taken to al-Baqi'. Whoever eats them should eliminate their smell by cooking them." Narrated to us [Abu Bakar bin Abi Syaibah], narrated to us [Ismail Ibnu Ulayyah] from [Sa'id bin Abi 'Arubah], he said, —through another chain— and narrated to us [Zuhair bin Harb] and [Ishaq bin Ibrahim], both narrated

He gave the salam after two rak'ahs, then went to a date palm trunk toward the qibla of the mosque and leaned against it in anger. Among the congregation were Abu Bakar and Umar, but they were afraid to speak. Those eager to leave quickly went out, saying, "The prayer has been shortened." Suddenly, Dzul Yadain stood up and said, "O Messenger of Allah, has the prayer been shortened, or did you forget?" The Prophet (peace be upon him) looked right and left, then said, "Is what Dzul Yadain says true?" They replied, "Yes, O Messenger of Allah, you prayed only two rak'ahs." So the Prophet (peace be upon him) prayed two more rak'ahs, then gave the salam. After that, he said takbir and prostrated, then said takbir and rose. Then he said takbir and prostrated again, then said takbir and rose.' He said, 'And [I was informed] from [Imran bin Hushain] that he said, "And gave the salam." Narrated to us by Qutaibah bin Sa'id from Malik bin Anas, from what was read in front of him from Abu Zubair from Thawus from Ibn Abbas, that the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him taught his companions this supplication as he taught them one of the surahs in the Quran. He said: 'Say O Allah, we seek refuge in You from the torment of Jahannam, and I seek refuge in You from the torment of the grave, and I seek refuge in You from the trial of Al-Masih Dajjal, and I seek refuge in You from the trial of life and death.' Muslim bin Hajjaj said 'It has reached me that Thawus asked his son 'Did you supplicate with that supplication in your prayer?' He answered 'No.' Thawus said 'Repeat your prayer, for Thawus (meaning himself) has narrated from three or four people, or as he said.'

Narrated to us by Ashim bin Nadhr At Tamimi, he narrated to us Al Mu'tamir, he narrated to us 'Ubaidullah, he said, (And narrated from another chain) Narrated to us by Qutaibah bin Sa'id, he narrated to us Laith from Ibn 'Ajlan, both from Sumay from Ibn Shalih from Abu Hurairah -and this is the hadith of Qutaibah- That the poor Muhajirin met the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him while saying 'The rich have monopolized the high degrees and eternal pleasures.' The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him asked: 'What do you mean?' They answered: 'The rich pray as we pray, and they fast as we fast, but they give charity and we cannot do it, they can free captives and we cannot do it.' So the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said: 'Shall I teach you something by which you can catch up with those who preceded you in goodness, and you can precede the goodness of those after you, and no one is better than you except those who do as you do?' They answered 'Yes O Messenger of Allah?' He said: 'You glorify, magnify, and praise after every prayer thirty-three times.' Abu Salih said 'Not long after, the poor Muhajirin returned to the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him and said 'It turns out our friends who have much wealth have heard what we did, then they did like that!' The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said: 'That is the virtue of Allah given to whomever He wills!' And others besides Qutaibah added in this hadith from Al Laith from Ibn 'Ajlan. Sumay said 'Then I told this hadith to some of my family, so my family said 'You are wrong, the truth is he said: 'You glorify Allah thirty-three times, praise Allah thirty-three times, magnify Allah thirty-three times.' I then returned to Abu Salih and I said to him, Abu Salih pulled my hand and said 'Allahu akbar, subhanallah, Alhamdulillah, and Allahu akbar, subhanallah, Alhamdulillah, until all are thirty-three.' Ibn 'Ajlan said 'Then I told this hadith to Raja' bin Haiwah, he told me a hadith like above from Abu Salih from Abu Hurairah from the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him Narrated to me by Umayyah bin Bustham Al 'Aishi, he narrated to us Yazid bin Zurai', he narrated to us Rauh from Suhail from his father from Abu Hurairah from the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him, that the companions said 'O Messenger of Allah, the rich have monopolized high degrees and endless pleasures...' like the hadith of Qutaibah from Al Laith, only he inserted the words of Abu Salih in the hadith of Abu Hurairah. 'Then the poor Muhajirin returned, until the end of the hadith.' In that hadith he added, Suhail said 'Eleven eleven, until all are thirty-three.'

Narrated to me by Zuhair bin Harb and 'Ubaidullah bin Sa'id both from Al Azraq. Zuhair said he narrated to us Ishaq bin Yusuf Al Azraq, he narrated to us Sufyan from 'Alqamah bin Martsad from Sulaiman bin Buraidah from his father from the Prophet peace be upon him, that a man asked him about prayer times, then he answered: 'Pray with us for these two days.' When the sun has slanted, he ordered Bilal to call adhan, then he ordered Bilal to iqamah Zuhur prayer, after that he ordered Bilal to call adhan for Asr prayer, when the sun was still high white bright, next time he ordered so Bilal iqamah Maghrib prayer, when the sun has disappeared, after that he ordered Bilal to iqamah Isha' prayer, when the red clouds have disappeared, next time he ordered so Bilal iqamah Subuh prayer (Fajr), when dawn rises. On the second day, he ordered Bilal to delay Zuhr prayer until the weather a bit cool, then Bilal delayed until the weather a bit cool, thus he has given comfort by postponing Zuhr until the weather a bit cool, and he prayed Asr when the sun was still high, he delayed it more than the previous time, after that he performed Maghrib prayer before the red clouds disappeared, and he performed Isha' prayer after one-third of the night passed, he then prayed Fajr (Subuh) when dawn has broken, then he asked: 'Where is the person who asked about prayer times?' the man said 'I O Messenger of Allah' He said: 'Your prayer times are between the times you have seen yourself.'

Narrated to us by Amru bin Sawwad Al-Amiri and Harmalah bin Yahya, both said: Informed to us by Ibn Wahb, informed to me by Yunus, that Ibn Shihab informed him, who said: Narrated to me by Urwah bin Zubair that Aishah the wife of the Prophet (peace be upon him) said: 'One night the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) performed the Isha prayer which is often termed as atamah prayer. Apparently he did not come until Umar bin Khattab said: 'The children and women have already fallen asleep.' Not long after, the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) came and said to the mosque inhabitants, that is when he met them: 'No one from the inhabitants of the earth is waiting for the Isha prayer except you. And that happened when Islam had not yet been socialized among the people.' Harmalah added in his narration, Ibn Shihab said: And it was mentioned to me that the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: 'Wouldn't you rather visit the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) to lead the prayer? and that happened when Umar shouted calling for prayer.' Narrated to me by Abdul Malik bin Shu'aib bin Al-Laits, narrated to me by my father from my grandfather from Uqail from Ibn Shihab with a chain like this, but he did not mention the words of Az-Zuhri, and it was mentioned to me the wording after that.

Narrated to us by Muhammad bin Rafi', narrated to us by Abdurrazzaq, informed to us by Ibn Juraij who said: I said to Atha': 'When is the time you most like for me to pray Isha with you, which people term as atamah prayer, and you and I are only two? Atha' answered: I once heard Ibn Abbas say: 'One night the Prophet (peace be upon him) intended to perform the Isha prayer.' Ibn Abbas said: Until the companions fell asleep and woke up, then fell asleep and woke up. Umar bin Khattab then stood and said: 'Prayer!' Atha' said: Ibn Abbas continued: Not long after, the Prophet (peace be upon him) appeared, as if I see his head dripping water and he placed his hand on the side of his head, he said: 'If it were not burdensome for my ummah, I would order them to perform prayer (like now).' Ibn Juraij said: I asked Atha': 'Then how did the Prophet (peace be upon him) place his hand on his head as reported by Ibn Abbas?' Atha' then spread a little between his fingers, then placed the tips of his fingers on the horn of the head, then pulled and traced towards the head until his thumb touched the edge of the ear facing the face, then traced towards the upper part of his cheek and towards his beard, he did it not too slowly and not too quickly.' I asked Atha': 'How many times was it narrated to you that the Prophet (peace be upon him) delayed the Isha prayer until late at night?' Atha' answered: 'I do not know.' Atha' said: Therefore, I prefer to perform Isha prayer alone when the time is late, as the Prophet (peace be upon him) did on one of his nights, even if it burdens you, whether you do it alone or with people (congregation), then do it ideally, not too slowly and not too quickly.

Narrated to me by Harmalah bin Yahya At-Tujibi, informed to us by Ibn Wahb, informed to me by Yunus from Ibn Shihab that Mahmud bin Rabi' Al-Anshari narrated to him: that Utban bin Malik -a companion of the Prophet (peace be upon him) who participated in the Battle of Badr, from the Ansar- once met the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) and said: 'O Messenger of Allah, I no longer trust my eyesight (vision has blurred) and I am used to leading my people in prayer, if rain falls, then the valley between me and them flows heavily, so I cannot come to their mosque and lead them in prayer. I really wish if you come and pray in my people's prayer place, so I make it a prayer place.' He said: 'Alright, I will come God willing.' Itban said: 'Then the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) set out with Abu Bakr As-Siddiq when the day was somewhat midday. The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) asked for permission, after I gave him permission, he did not sit until entering the house, then he asked: 'Where do you want me to pray in your house?' So I pointed to the corner of the house. The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) then stood and said takbir, then we stood behind him and he performed two rak'ahs of prayer, then he said salam.' Itban said: then we held him because there was khazir cooking namely meat mixed with floured soup that we deliberately cooked for him. Itban continued: Then some men from the neighbors who gathered around us, then someone said: 'Where is Malik bin Dukhsyun?' some of them answered: 'He is a hypocrite who does not love Allah and His Messenger.' At that moment the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) rebuked: 'Do not say like that, don't you know that he has said la ilaha illallah intending to seek the face of Allah?' Ibn Shihab said: then I asked Al-Husain bin Muhammad Al-Anshari namely one of the Bani Salim -he is the most noble person among them- about the hadith of Mahmud bin Rabi', then he confirmed it. Narrated to us by Muhammad bin Rafi' and Abd bin Humaid, both from Abdurrazzaq who said: informed to us by Ma'mar from Az-Zuhri who said: narrated to me by Mahmud bin Rabi' from Itban bin Malik, who said: I came to the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), then he brought a hadith like the hadith of Yunus, only he said: 'Then someone asked: 'Where is Malik bin Duhsyun? or with the wording Dukhaisyin?' And he added in his hadith, Mahmud said: and I conveyed this hadith to a number of people among whom was Abu Ayyub Al-Anshari, who said: 'To my knowledge it was not the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) who said. Mahmud said: 'So I swear if I return to Itban, I will ask him.' Mahmud continued: 'I then returned to meet him and I found him when he was advanced in age and his vision was blind, at that time he became the imam of his people. Then I sat beside him, I asked him about this hadith, he then narrated it as he had narrated to me the first time. Az-Zuhri said: 'After that, some obligations and matters were revealed that we saw all affairs were completed, therefore whoever can not be deceived, then do it.' Narrated to us by Ishaq bin Ibrahim, informed to us by Al-Walid bin Muslim from Auza'i, who said: narrated to me by Az-Zuhri from Mahmud bin Rabi' who said: I still remember the spray done by the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) from a bucket belonging to my village.' Mahmud said: narrated to me by Itban bin Malik, who said: I said: 'O Messenger of Allah, my eyesight has deteriorated, then he conveyed a hadith until his words: 'So he prayed two rak'ahs leading us, after that we held the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) because of Khasyisyah cooking, namely floured porridge mixed with meat that we cooked for him.' But after that Mahmud bin Rabi' did not mention the addition of Yunus and Narrated to us by Yahya bin Yahya, who said: I once recited from memory to Malik from Ishaq bin Abdullah bin Abu Thalhah from Anas bin Malik, that his grandmother Mulaikah once invited the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) for a dish that I made. He then ate it, after that he said: 'Stand up, I will lead you.' Anas bin Malik said: 'I then stood towards a mat whose color had turned black, because it had been used for so long, then I sprinkled it with water, while the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) stood on it. I then made a row with an orphan boy who was behind him and an old woman behind us. The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) then prayed two rak'ahs leading us, then he left.'

Narrated to me by Zuhair bin Harb, Ismail bin Ibrahim narrated to us, Ayyub narrated to us, from Abu Qilabah, from Malik bin Huwairits, who said: We came to the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) when we were young men of similar age, and we stayed with him for twenty nights. The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) was compassionate and gentle. He realized we missed our families and asked us about those we left behind, and we informed him. Then he said: 'Return to your families, stay with them, teach them, and instruct them. When the time for prayer comes, one of you should call the adhan, and the eldest among you should lead as imam.' And Narrated to us by Abu Rabi' Az-Zahrani and Khalaf bin Hisyam, both said: Hammad narrated to us, from Ayyub with this chain. And Narrated to us by Ibn Abu Umar, Abdul Wahhab narrated to us, from Ayyub, who said: Abu Qilabah told me, Malik bin Huwairits Abu Sulaiman narrated to us, who said: I came to the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) when he was among people, and we were young men of similar age, and they narrated a hadith similar to Ibn 'Ulayyah's.

Hadith Imam Muslim Number 1082

حَدَّثَنِي أَبُو الطَّاهِرِ وَحَرَمَلَةُ بْنُ يَحْيَى قَالَ أَخْبَرَنَا ابْنُ وَهْبٍ أَخْبَرَنِي يُونُسُ بْنُ يَزِيدَ عَنْ ابْنِ شِهَابٍ قَالَ أَخْبَرَنِي سَعِيدُ بْنُ الْمُسَيَّبِ وَأَبُو سَلَمَةَ بْنُ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ عَوْفٍ أَنَّهُمَا سَمِعَا أَبَا هُرَيْرَةَ يَقُولُ كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ حِينَ يَفْرُغُ مِنْ صَلَاةِ الْفَجْرِ مِنَ الْقِرَاءَةِ وَيُكَبِّرُ وَيَرْفَعُ رَأْسَهُ سَمِعَ اللَّهُ لِمَنْ حَمِدَهُ رَبَّنَا وَلَكَ الْحَمْدُ ثُمَّ يَقُولُ وَهُوَ قَائِمٌ اللَّهُمَّ أَنْجِ الْوَلِيدَ بْنَ الْوَلِيدِ وَسَلَمَةَ بْنَ هِشَامٍ وَعَيَّاشَ بْنَ أَبِي رَبِيعَةَ وَالْمُسْتَضْعَفِينَ مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ اللَّهُمَّ اشْدُدْ وَطَأَتَكَ عَلَى مُضَرَ وَاجْعَلْهَا عَلَيْهِمْ كِسْفَ الْيُوسُفَ اللَّهُمَّ الْعَنَ لِحِيَانَ وَرِغْلًا وَذَكْوَانَ وَعُصَيَّةَ عَصَتْ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ ثُمَّ بَلَّغْنَا أَنَّهُ تَرَكَ ذَلِكَ لَمَّا أُنْزِلَ { لَيْسَ لَكَ مِنَ الْأَمْرِ شَيْءٌ أَوْ يَتُوبَ عَلَيْهِمْ أَوْ يُعَذِّبُهُمْ فَإِنَّهُمْ ظَالِمُونَ } وَ حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو بَكْرِ بْنُ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ وَعَمْرُو النَّاقِدُ قَالََا حَدَّثَنَا ابْنُ عُيَيْنَةَ عَنْ الزُّهْرِيِّ عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ الْمُسَيَّبِ عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ إِلَى قَوْلِهِ وَاجْعَلْهَا عَلَيْهِمْ كِسْفَ الْيُوسُفَ وَلَمْ يَذْكُرْ مَا بَعْدَهُ

Narrated to me by Abu At-Thahir and Harmalah bin Yahya, both said: Ibn Wahb informed us, Yunus bin Yazid informed me, from Ibn Shihab, who said: Said bin Musayyab and Abu Salamah bin Abdurrahman bin 'Auf informed me, both heard Abu Hurairah say: 'When the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) prayed the dawn prayer, after reciting, performing takbir, and raising his head, he would say: "Sami'allahu liman hamidah. Rabbanaa walakal hamdu." Then he would recite again while standing: "O Allah, save Al-Walid bin Walid, Salamah bin Hisham, Ayyash bin Abu Rabiah, and the oppressed believers. O Allah, intensify Your punishment on Mudharr and make their years like the years of famine of Yusuf. O Allah, curse Lihiyan, Ri'l, Dzakwan, and Ushayyah, who disobeyed Allah and His Messenger." Then it reached us that he abandoned this qunut when the verse was revealed: "You have no concern in the matter whether Allah forgives them or punishes them, for they are wrongdoers" (Qur'an, Ali Imran 128). And Narrated to us by Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah and 'Amru An-Naqid, both said: Ibn 'Uyainah narrated to us, from Az-Zuhri, from Sa'id bin Musayyab, from Abu Hurairah, from the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) until his saying: "O Allah, make their years like the years of famine of Yusuf," and he did not mention the words after it.

Ibn Ayyub said: Ismail narrated to us, who said: Muhammad, namely Ibn 'Amru, informed me, from Khalid bin Abdullah bin Harmalah, from Al-Harith bin Khifaf, who said: Khufaf bin Ima' said: The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) performed ruku', then raised his head and said: 'Ghifar, may Allah forgive them, Aslam, may Allah save them, Ushayyah, they disobeyed Allah and His Messenger. O Allah, curse Bani Lihyan, Ri'il, and Dzakwan,' then he prostrated. Khufaf said: 'The curse was made against the disbelievers because of that.' And Narrated to us by Yahya bin Ayyub, Ismail narrated to us, who said: Abdurrahman bin Harmalah informed me regarding this hadith from Hanzhalah bin Ali bin Al-Asqa', from Khufaf bin Ima', like the above hadith, except he did not say: 'Then the curse was made for the disbelievers because of that.'

Narrated to me by Harmalah bin Yahya At-Tujibi, Ibn Wahb informed us, Yunus informed me, from Ibn Shihab, from Sa'id bin Musayyab, from Abu Hurairah, that when the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) returned from the battle of Khaibar, he traveled at night. When sleepiness overtook him, he stopped and said to Bilal: 'Guard our sleep tonight.' Bilal prayed as much as was destined, while the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) slept, as did his companions. As dawn approached, Bilal leaned against his mount, his eyes grew heavy, and he fell asleep while leaning on it. In the morning, neither the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him), Bilal, nor any of the companions woke until the sun's heat roused them. The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) was the first to wake, startled, and called out: 'O Bilal!' Bilal replied: 'O Messenger of Allah, my soul was taken by the One who holds your soul, by my father and mother as your ransom!' He then said: 'Lead your mounts.' The companions led their mounts, then the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) performed wudu and ordered Bilal to call the iqamah for prayer. He led them in the dawn prayer. After the prayer, he said: 'Whoever forgets a prayer should perform it when they remember, for Allah Almighty says: "Establish prayer to remember Me" (Qur'an, Taha 14).' Yunus said: Ibn Shihab read it as 'lidzdzikraa.'

Narrated to us by Syaiban bin Farukh, Sulaiman, namely Ibn Al-Mughirah, narrated to us, Thabit narrated to us, from Abdullah bin Rabah, from Abu Qatadah, who said: The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) delivered a sermon to us, saying: 'Indeed, you are now setting out through the evening and night, and you will reach the spring tomorrow, God willing.' The companions set out, none leaning on another. Abu Qatadah said: 'When the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) traveled until midnight, I was beside him, and he became sleepy, his body swaying on his mount. I approached him, straightened his body, and supported him from below, hoping not to wake him, until he sat properly on his mount.' Abu Qatadah continued: 'Then he traveled on, and when most of the night had passed, his body swayed again, and I straightened and supported him from below, so as not to wake him. He continued the journey, and when the pre-dawn time arrived, his body swayed more intensely than the first and second times, nearly falling. I approached him, corrected his position, and supported him from below. Then he raised his head and asked: "Who is this?" I replied: "I am Abu Qatadah." He asked: "Since when have you been watching me during the journey?" I replied: "Since earlier tonight." He said: "May Allah protect you for guarding His Prophet." Then he asked: "Do you think we are unseen by others?" Then he asked again: "Do you see anyone else?" I replied: "Here is one rider," and then: "Here comes another rider," until we gathered, totaling seven riders.' Abu Qatadah said: 'The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) veered off the path, leaning his head, then instructed: "Guard our prayer!" The first to wake was the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him), when the sunlight was evident on his back. Abu Qatadah said: 'We then woke, startled. He said: "Mount up." We continued the journey on our mounts, and when the sun had risen higher, he dismounted and asked for a small vessel of water I carried for wudu. The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) performed wudu differently than usual, yet some water remained. He then instructed Abu Qatadah: "Guard your wudu vessel, for it will become legendary!" Bilal called the adhan for prayer. Then the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) prayed two rak'ahs, followed by the dawn prayer, as he did every day.' Abu Qatadah continued: 'The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) then rode, and we rode with him. We whispered to one another: "What is our expiation for delaying the prayer from its time?" He then said: "Am I not an example for you?" Then he said: "There is no neglect in delaying prayer due to sleep neglect is only for one who does not pray until the time of another prayer arrives. So, whoever does this should pray when they realize, and strive to perform it on time the next day." Then Abdullah asked: "What did the companions do?" Abu Qatadah replied: "After that, the companions lost their Prophet." Abu Bakr and Umar called out: "The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) is behind you, and he has not abandoned you!" But some companions said: "No, the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) is ahead of you." Had they obeyed Abu Bakr and Umar, they would not have gone astray. Abu Qatadah continued: 'We caught up with the companions when the sun's heat was intense, and everything was hot. They complained: "O Messenger of Allah, we are perishing from thirst." He replied: "No, you will not perish!" He then said: "Give me my small vessel!" He requested the wudu vessel. The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) poured water, while Abu Qatadah gave drink to the companions. When the companions saw water pouring from the vessel, they crowded around. The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) said: "Behave well, for you will all drink until satisfied." They followed his command, while the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) continued pouring, and Abu Qatadah distributed the water until only I and the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) remained. Then the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) poured and said to me: "Drink." I replied: "I will not drink until you drink, O Messenger of Allah!" He said: "The one who serves drink should be the last to drink." Abu Qatadah said: 'So I drank, and the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) drank.' Abu Qatadah continued: 'Then the companions reached the water and were satisfied, drinking fully.' Abdullah bin Rabah said: 'I will narrate this hadith in the grand mosque.' Suddenly, Imran bin Hushain said: 'Be careful, young man, how you narrate it, for I was one of the riders that night.' Abdullah bin Rabah said: 'I asked: "Then you know more about this hadith." Imran asked: "Where are you from?" I replied: "From the Ansar." Imran said: "Very well, narrate the hadith, for you know your hadith better." Abdullah said: 'After that, I narrated the hadith to people.' Imran said: 'I witnessed that night's event, and no one remembers it as well as I do.'

Narrated to me by Ahmad bin Said bin Sakhr Ad-Darimi, 'Ubaidullah bin Abdul Majid narrated to us, Salam bin Zarir Al-'Utharidi narrated to us, who said: I heard Abu Raja' Al-'Utharidi, from Imran bin Hushain, who said: I was with the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) on a journey, and we entered the night. As dawn approached, we stopped, unable to resist our weary eyes, falling asleep until the sun rose. Imran continued: 'The first to wake was Abu Bakr. We never woke the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) from his sleep until he woke himself. Then Umar woke, stood by the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him), and said takbir loudly until the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) woke. When he raised his head and saw the sun had risen, he said: "Set out." He continued the journey with us, and after the sun whitened, he stopped and prayed the dawn prayer with us. There was one person who isolated himself from the companions and did not pray with us. After the prayer, the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) asked him: "O so-and-so, what prevented you from praying with us?" He replied: "O Prophet of Allah, I am in a state of janabah." The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) ordered him to perform tayammum with the earth's surface, and he prayed. Then he ordered me to quickly ride to find water. We were thirsty. While traveling, we met a woman with her legs stretched between two water skins. We asked her: "Where is water?" She replied: "Oh, you have no water?" We asked: "How far is it between your family and the water source?" She replied: "A day and night's journey." We said: "Go to the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him)!" She asked: "Who is the Messenger of Allah?" We could not resolve the matter with her until we brought her to the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him). He asked her, and she told him her story as she told us, mentioning that she was a caretaker of orphans. He ordered the water-carrying camel to be brought down. With his mouth, he sprayed water into the water poured from the two upper skins, then distributed it to the water-carrying camel. We rushed to drink, being forty thirsty people, and we were satisfied. We filled every water skin and jug, and bathed our companion, but we did not water our camels, as they nearly burst. We meant the water from the two skins. Then he said: "Gather what you brought!" We collected provisions—dates, ropes, and meat—as a gift for her. He said to her: "Go home and use these provisions for your family know that we did not reduce your water at all!" When she returned to her family, she said: "I met the greatest sorcerer on earth, or perhaps he is a prophet as he claims, and this and that happened." Through her, Allah guided the village's people, so she embraced Islam, and they embraced Islam.' And Narrated to us by Ishaq bin Ibrahim Al-Hanzhali, An-Nadlr bin Shumail informed us, Auf bin Abu Jamilah Al-A'rabi narrated to us, from Abu Raja' Al-'Atharidi, from Imran bin Hushain, who said: We were with the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) on a journey. One night, we traveled until the end of the night. Just before dawn, we stopped. No rest is sweeter for a traveler than that rest. Nothing woke us but the sun's heat.' He then narrated the hadith like Salam bin Zarir's, with additions and omissions. He said in his hadith: 'When Umar bin Khattab woke, he saw the calamity that befell the companions. He was a large, strong man and shouted takbir until the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) woke due to his loud takbir. When the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) woke, the companions complained to him about what they experienced. The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) only said: "No harm, continue your journey..." then the narrator recounted the hadith.
