And Narrated to us by [Ibnu Abu Umar]. Narrated to us by [Sufyan], I heard [Hisyam bin Hassan] report from [Ibnu Sirin] from [Anas bin Malik] who said; After the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) threw pebbles at Jumrah, slaughtered his sacrificial animal and after shaving his hair, he asked the barber to shave his hair on the right side again. Then he called Abu Thalhah Al Anshari and gave the hair to him. After that, he asked again to have his left hair shaved while saying: 'Shave.' So he shaved it, and after that, distributed it to the people.

I said, 'O Messenger of Allah, she has performed the circumambulation of Ifadah and circumambulated the Kaaba, and only after the Ifadah did she menstruate!' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'Then let her depart with us.' Narrated to me [Abu Thahir], [Harmalah bin Yahya], and [Ahmad bin Isa] - Ahmad said - narrated to us, while the other two said - informed us [Ibn Wahb], informed me [Yunus] from [Ibn Syihab] with this chain, he said: Shafiyyah bint Huyay, the wife of the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, menstruated after the circumambulation of Ifadah, during the Farewell Pilgrimage, as in the hadith of Laits. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, entered, followed by Bilal, Zaid, and Utsman bin Thalhah. Then the door of the Kaaba was closed, and they stayed inside for some time. When Utsman opened the door, Abdullah said, I hurried ahead of the crowd to meet the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. He came out with Bilal, so I asked [Bilal], 'Did the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, pray inside?' Bilal replied, 'Yes.' I asked, 'Where?' Bilal replied, 'Between two pillars.' Ibn Umar said: I forgot to ask how long he prayed. And narrated to us [Ibn Abu Umar], narrated to us [Sufyan] from [Ayyub As Sakhtiyani] from [Nafi'] from [Ibn Umar], he said: During the conquest of Mecca, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, arrived riding a camel belonging to Usamah bin Zaid until he tethered it in the courtyard of the Kaaba. Then he called Utsman bin Thalhah and said, 'Give me the key (of the Kaaba).' He went to his mother, but she refused to give it, so he said, 'By Allah, you will hand over the key, or I will unsheathe this sword.' So she gave him the key. Utsman bin Thalhah then approached the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and he opened the door of the Kaaba. Then he narrated the hadith as in the hadith of Hammad bin Zaid.

Aisyah said: I said, 'Will you restore it to the foundation of Ibrahim?' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'If it were not for your people who have recently left disbelief, I would have done so.' Abdullah bin Umar said: If only Aisyah heard this directly from the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him! Narrated to us [Hannad bin As Saria], narrated to us [Ibn Abu Zaidah], informed us [Ibn Abu Sulaiman] from [Atha`], he said: When the Kaaba was burned during the time of Yazid bin Mu'awiyah when it was attacked by the people of Sham, he ordered that the Kaaba be left as it was. [Ibn Zubair] also left it until people came during the Hajj season, intending that Ibn Zubair could rally them to fight the people of Sham. After people went to the Kaaba, Ibn Zubair said, 'Brothers, give me advice about the Kaaba! Should I demolish it and rebuild it, or repair only the damaged parts?' Ibn Abbas replied, 'I have an opinion about the Kaaba. In my view, you should repair only the damaged parts and leave the Kaaba as it was when people first embraced Islam. Also, leave the stones as they were when people first embraced Islam and when the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, was sent.' Ibn

Zubair reminded, 'If one of your houses burned, you would not be satisfied until you rebuilt it perfectly, yet this is the house of your Lord. Indeed, I will perform istikharah to seek guidance from my Lord three times, then I will make my decision.' After three istikharahs, Ibn Zubair confirmed his decision to demolish the Kaaba. People stayed away from the Kaaba, fearing a calamity from above might strike the first person to climb it, so someone climbed and threw down a stone. When people saw no harm befell the climber, they rushed to demolish it until it was level with the ground. Then Ibn Zubair erected several pillars and hung curtains until the structure rose. Ibn Zubair said: I heard [Aisyah] say that the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'If people had not recently left disbelief and if I had sufficient funds to rebuild the Kaaba now, I would include the Hijr and make one door for entry and one for exit.' Ibn Zubair said, 'Now I have the funds, and I am not worried about the faith of the Muslims.' Atha said: Then Ibn Zubair expanded the Kaaba by five cubits at the Hijr, then showed the foundation to the public, and the structure was built on that foundation. The Kaaba's length was originally twelve cubits, but after expansion, it appeared short, so its length was increased by ten cubits. Then two doors were made, one for entry and one for exit. After Ibn Zubair was killed, Al-Hajjaj wrote to Abdul Malik bin Marwan to inform him of this, also reporting that Ibn Zubair had built on a foundation seen by most of Mecca's residents. So Abdul Malik replied to Al-Hajjaj, 'We do not follow Ibn Zubair's error in any way. As for the extension of the Kaaba's length by Ibn Zubair, I approve it, but as for the expansion of the Kaaba at the Hijr by Ibn Zubair, restore it to its original state and close the door made by Ibn Zubair.' Then Ibn Hajjaj demolished the Kaaba and restored it to its original state.

 كِلَاهُمَا عَنْ ابْنِ جُرَيْجٍ بِهِذَا الْإِسْنَادِ مِثْلَ حَدِيثِ ابْنِ بَكْرٍ

Narrated to me [Muhammad bin Hatim], narrated to us [Muhammad bin Bakr], informed us [Ibn Juraij], he said, I heard [Abdullah bin Ubaid bin Umair] and [Al Walid bin Atha`], both narrating from [Al Harits bin Abdullah bin Abu Rabi'ah] - Abdullah bin Ubaid said - Al Harits bin Abdullah came as an envoy to Abdul Malik bin Marwan during his reign. Abdul Malik said, 'I did not think that Abu Khubaib, namely Ibn Zubair, heard from Aisyah, claiming he heard it from Aisyah.' Al Harits said, 'Indeed, I also heard about it from Aisyah. [Aisyah] said: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "Indeed, your people reduced the structure of the Kaaba. If it were not for their recent departure from polytheism, I would restore what they omitted. So if your people build it after me, come, I will show you how much length they omitted." So I saw it, about seven cubits.' This is the hadith of Abdullah bin Ubaid. Then Al Walid bin Atha` added: The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'And I would indeed make two doors for it, both reaching the ground, one to the east and one to the west. Do you know why your people raised its door?' Aisyah said: I replied, 'No.' He said, 'So that only those they permitted could enter it. If someone wanted to enter, they let him climb until he almost entered, then they blocked him until he fell.' Abdul Malik asked Al Harits, 'Did you hear Aisyah say this?' Al Harits replied, 'Yes.' Then Abdul Malik struck his staff for a moment and said, 'I wish I had left it and what it entailed.' And narrated to us [Muhammad bin Amru bin Jablah], narrated to us [Abu Ashim] - in another narration - And narrated to us [Abdu bin Humaid], informed us [Abdurrazzaq], both from [Ibn Juraij] with this chain, as in the hadith of Ibn Bakr.

ABDUL MALIK'S REGRET FOR REMOVEING THE KA'BAH

Hadith Imam Muslim Number 2373

وَحَدَّثَنِي مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ حَاتِمٍ حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ بَكْرٍ السَّهْمِيُّ حَدَّثَنَا حَاتِمُ بْنُ أَبِي صَغِيرَةَ عَنْ أَبِي قَرَعَةَ أَنَّ عَبْدَ
 الْمَلِكِ بْنَ مَرْوَانَ بَيْنَمَا هُوَ يَطُوفُ بِالْبَيْتِ إِذْ قَالَ قَاتَلَ اللَّهُ ابْنَ الزُّبَيْرِ حَيْثُ يَكْذِبُ عَلَى أُمَّ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ يَقُولُ
 سَمِعْتُهَا تَقُولُ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَا عَائِشَةُ لَوْلَا حَدَثَانُ قَوْمِكَ بِالْكُفْرِ لَتَقَضَّتْ الْبَيْتَ حَتَّى
 أَزِيدَ فِيهِ مِنَ الْحِجْرِ فَإِنَّ قَوْمَكَ قَصَرُوا فِي الْبِنَاءِ فَقَالَ الْحَارِثُ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ أَبِي رَبِيعَةَ لَا تَقُلْ هَذَا يَا أَمِيرَ
 الْمُؤْمِنِينَ فَإِنَّا سَمِعْتُ أُمَّ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ تُحَدِّثُ هَذَا قَالَ لَوْ كُنْتُ سَمِعْتُهُ قَبْلَ أَنْ أَهْدِمَهُ لَتَرَكْتُهُ عَلَى مَا بَنَى ابْنُ الزُّبَيْرِ

And narrated to me [Muhammad bin Hatim], narrated to us [Abdullah bin Bakr As Sahmi], narrated to us [Hatim bin Abu Shaghira] from [Abu Qaza'ah], that: When Abdul Malik bin Marwan was circumambulating the Kaaba, he suddenly said, 'May Allah curse Ibn Zubair, for he lied about the Mother of the Believers.' Ibn Zubair said: I heard Aisyah say: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'O Aisyah, if it were not for your people who recently left disbelief, I would have demolished the Kaaba to expand it at the Hijr, for your people shortened its structure (compared to the foundation made by Prophet Ibrahim).' [Al Harits bin Abdullah bin Abu Rabi'ah] said, 'Do not say that, O Commander of the Faithful, for I heard the Commander of the Faithful say so.' Abdul Malik bin Marwan said, 'If I had heard this hadith before I rebuilt the Kaaba, I would have left the structure repaired by Ibn Zubair.'

Narrated to us [Sa'id bin Manshur], narrated to us [Abul Ahwash], narrated to us [Asy'ats bin Abu Sya'tsa`] from [Al Aswad bin Yazid] from [Aisyah], she said: I asked the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, about the wall of the Kaaba, whether it is part of the Kaaba or not. He replied, 'Yes, it is.' I asked, 'Why did they not include it?' He said, 'Your people lacked funds.' I asked again, 'Why is its door so high?' He replied, 'That was your people's strategy, so they could allow those they favored to enter and prevent those they disliked. If it were not for your people who recently left the period of ignorance, causing concern that their hearts might rebel, I would have considered including the wall in the Kaaba and making the door reach the ground.' And narrated to us [Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah], narrated to us [Ubaidullah bin Musa], narrated to us [Syaiban] from [Asy'ats bin Abu Sya'tsa`] from [Al Aswad bin Yazid] from [Aisyah], she said: I asked the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, about the wall (of the Kaaba). Then he narrated a hadith with the same meaning as the hadith of Abul Ahwash, and he mentioned in it, 'What about its door that is so high it cannot be climbed except with a ladder?' and he also mentioned, 'Because they feared their hearts would turn wild again.'

The obligation to perform Hajj has fallen upon my father, who is old and frail and can no longer sit on a mount. May I perform it on his behalf?' He replied, 'Yes.' I heard it with my ears, my heart memorized it, and my eyes saw him when he said it. At that time, he praised Allah and glorified Him, then said: 'Allah has made Mecca a sacred land, but people have not made it sacred. Thus, it is not permissible for anyone who believes in Allah and the Last Day to shed blood in it or cut its trees. If anyone argues using the fighting of the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, in it, tell them, 'Indeed, Allah permitted His Messenger, but not you.' Indeed, Allah permitted me only for a few hours of the day. Today, it has returned to its sanctity as it was yesterday. Let those present convey to those absent.'

Then it was said to Abu Syuraih, 'What did Amru say to you?' He replied, 'I know more about it than you, O Abu Syuraih. Indeed, the sanctity does not protect a wrongdoer, nor one who flees after shedding blood or stealing and causing harm.'

Narrated to us [Hammad bin Isma'il bin Ulayyah] narrated to us [my father] from [Wuhaib] from [Yahya bin Abu Ishaq] that he narrated from [Abu Sa'id, Maula Al Mahri], In Medina, he faced hardship and difficulty, so he expressed his complaints to [Abu Sa'id Al Khudri]. Abu Sa'id, Maula Al Mahri, said 'My family is large, and we face such hardships that I plan to move them to a village.' Abu Sa'id Al Khudri advised 'Do not do that, stay in Medina, for we traveled with the Prophet, peace be upon him -to my knowledge, he said- until we reached Usfan, and he stayed there for some nights. The people of Usfan complained, saying, 'We have nothing here, and our families lack protectors and means to sustain them.' The Prophet heard their complaints and said, 'Is that what I hear of your grievances? By the One in Whose hand is my soul, I wish -or if you agree, I am unsure- to have my camel saddled and not remove its rein until I reach Medina.' The Prophet continued, 'Indeed, Ibrahim made Mecca a sacred land, so I now make Medina sacred between its two paths. No blood may be shed there, no weapons drawn for battle, no trees cut except for animal feed. O Allah, bless our Medina, bless our sha', bless our mud, bless our sha', bless our mud, bless our Medina, grant us two blessings with this blessing. By the One in Whose hand is my soul, there is no mountain slope or path in Medina without two angels guarding it until you reach Medina.' Then he said to the people, 'Come, let us go!' We set out for Medina. By the One to Whom we swear -Hammad was uncertain- before we could unsaddle our mounts upon entering Medina, we were attacked by Banu Abdullah bin Ghatafan, though they had never dared to do so before.

Narrated to us [Yahya bin Yahya] he said, I recited to [Malik] from [Qathn bin Wahb bin Uwaimir bin Al Ajda'] from [Yuhannas] the freed slave of Az Zubair, he informed him that He was sitting near [Abdullah bin Umar] during a time of unrest, then a female freed slave came to him. After greeting, she said, 'I want to leave this city, O Abu Abdurrahman, as conditions are too difficult.' Abdullah replied, 'Foolish woman, I heard the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, say: 'Whoever endures the hardships and difficulties in this city, I will be his witness or defender on the Day of Judgment.'

Narrated to us [Qutaibah bin Sa'id] narrated to us [Abdul Aziz Ad Darawardi] from [Al 'Ala] from [his father] from [Abu Hurairah] that the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said: 'A time will come when someone invites his nephew and relatives to leave Medina, saying, "Come, let us seek prosperity, let us seek prosperity." Yet Medina is better for them if they only knew. By the One in Whose hand is my soul, no one leaves Medina out of dislike except that Allah will replace him with someone better. Know that Medina is like a blacksmith's forge, removing impurities. The Day of Judgment will not come until Medina expels its evildoers, as a blacksmith's forge removes impurities from iron.'

MADINA PURIFIED ITS POPULATION LIKE THE IRON WORKS

Hadith Imam Muslim Number 2453

حَدَّثَنَا يَحْيَى بْنُ يَحْيَى قَالَ قَرَأْتُ عَلَى مَالِكٍ عَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ الْمُنْكَدِرِ عَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ أَنَّ أَعْرَابِيًّا بَايَعَ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَأَصَابَ الْأَعْرَابِيَّ وَعَكُّ بِالْمَدِينَةِ فَأَتَى النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ يَا

Narrated to us [Yahya bin Yahya] he said, I recited to [Malik] from [Muhammad bin Al Munkadir] from [Jabir bin Abdullah] that A Bedouin pledged allegiance to the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, then fell ill with a high fever. He came to the Prophet and said, 'O Muhammad, accept my withdrawal of allegiance.' But the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, refused. The Bedouin came again and said, 'O Muhammad, accept my withdrawal of allegiance.' But he refused again. On another occasion, he came and said, 'O Muhammad, accept my withdrawal of allegiance.' Yet the Prophet still refused. So the Bedouin left Medina, and the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said: 'Medina is like a blacksmith's forge it removes its impurities and keeps what is good.'

Abu Salamah and Abu Abdullah said We had no doubt that Abu Hurairah spoke based on a hadith from the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, but we were hesitant to confirm he narrated it directly from him. When Abu Hurairah passed away, we recalled this and reproached ourselves for not asking him to attribute it to the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, if he had heard it directly. In that situation, we sat in a gathering with [Abdullah bin Ibrahim bin Qarizh], so we recounted the hadith to him and what we missed in Abu Hurairah's text. Abdullah bin Ibrahim said to us, 'I testify that I heard Abu Hurairah say The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said: "Indeed, I am the last prophet, and my mosque is the last of the mosques."'

[Ibnu Syihab] said informed me ['Urwah bin Az-Zubair] that [Abdullah bin Az-Zubair] stayed in Mecca, then said Indeed, Allah has blinded the hearts of some as He blinded their sight, for they engaged in mut'ah marriage. Suddenly, a man appeared, calling out to him You are ignorant, by my life, mut'ah marriage was practiced during the time of the leader of the pious, meaning the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him. Ibn Umar said to him Try it, by Allah, if you do it, I will stone you. [Ibnu Syihab] said Informed me [Khalid bin Muhajir bin Saifullah] that while he was sitting with a man, another came asking for a ruling on mut'ah marriage. He (Khalid) permitted it, but Ibn Abi 'Amrah Al Anshari said to him Wait! He (Khalid) asked, Why? By Allah, it was done during the time of the leader of the pious, meaning the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him. Ibn Abi 'Amrah said to him Indeed, mut'ah marriage was allowed in the early days of Islam out of necessity, like eating carrion, blood, or pork in desperation, but Allah established His religion's rulings and prohibited it.

[Ibnu Syihab] said Informed me [Rabi' bin Sabrah Al Juhani] that [his father] said I engaged in mut'ah marriage during the time of the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, with a woman from Bani 'Amir with a dowry of two red cloaks, then the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, prohibited mut'ah marriage. [Ibnu Syihab] said I heard Rabi' bin Sabrah narrate this to Umar bin Abdul Aziz while I was sitting beside him.

Narrated to us [Abdul Malik bin Syu'aib bin Al Laits], narrated to me [my father] from [my grandfather], narrated to me [Khalid bin Yazid], narrated to me [Sa'id bin Abi Hilal] from [Nubaih bin Wahb] that Umar bin Ubaidillah bin Ma'mar intended to marry his son, Thalbah, to the daughter of Syaibah bin Jubair during the hajj, while [Aban bin Utsman] was the leader of the hajj pilgrims. He sent someone to Aban saying, 'Indeed, I wish to marry Thalbah bin Umar, and I would like you to attend the wedding.' Aban replied to him, 'I did not think you, an Iraqi, would follow a school of thought yet be unaware of the Sunnah. Indeed, I heard [Utsman bin 'Affan] say, The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: "A person in ihram is not permitted to marry."'

Narrated to us [Qutaibah bin Sa'id Ats Tsaqafi], narrated to us [Ya'qub, namely Ibnu Abdirrahman Al Qari] from [Abu Hazim] from [Sahl bin Sa'd]. And narrated through another chain, narrated to us [Abdul Aziz bin Abi Hazim] from [his father] from [Sahl bin Sa'd As Sa'idi], he said, 'A woman came to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and said, "O Messenger of Allah, I have come to offer myself to you." The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, looked at her from head to toe and then lowered his head. When the woman saw that he did not respond, she sat down. Then one of his companions stood up and said, "O Messenger of Allah, if you are not interested in her, then marry her to me." He said, "Do you have anything for her dowry?" He replied, "No, by Allah, O Messenger of Allah." He said, "Go to your family perhaps you will find something." He went to his family and returned, saying, "By Allah, I found nothing." The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "Try to find something, even if it is just an iron ring." He went again and returned, saying, "By Allah, O Messenger of Allah, I found nothing, not even an iron ring, but this is my waistcloth." Sahl said, "He had no waistcloth except the one he was wearing. I will give her half of it." The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "What can you do with your waistcloth? If you wear it, she cannot, and if she wears it, you cannot." So the man sat down, lost in thought. After sitting for a while, he stood up. When the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, saw him leaving, he ordered him to be called back. When he came, he said, "Do you know any of the Qur'an?" He replied, "I know such-and-such surahs," naming them. He asked, "Do you know them by heart?" He said, "Yes." He said, "Take her I have married her to you with the dowry of teaching the Qur'an you have memorized." This is the hadith of Ibnu Abi Hazim and Ya'qub, with nearly the same wording. And narrated to us [Khalaf bin Hisyam], narrated to us [Hammad bin Zaid]. And narrated through another chain, narrated to us [Zuhair bin Harb], narrated to us [Sufyan bin 'Uyainah]. And narrated through another chain, narrated to us [Ishaq bin Ibrahim] from [Ad Darawardi]. And narrated through another chain, narrated to us [Abu Bakar bin Abi Syaibah], narrated to us [Husain bin Ali] from [Za'idah], all from [Abu Hazim] from [Sahl bin Sa'd] with this hadith, some adding to others. But in Za'idah's hadith, he mentioned the saying, "Go to her I have married you to her, so teach her a surah from the Qur'an."

Narrated to me [Zuhair bin Harb], narrated to us [Isma'il], namely Ibnu 'Ulayyah, from [Abdul Aziz] from [Anas], that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, fought in Khaibar. He said, 'We performed the dawn prayer near that land. After the prayer, he rode his mount, and Abu Thalhah rode his mount while I rode behind Abu Thalhah. When he passed through an alley in Khaibar, he spurred his mount until my knee touched the thigh of the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and I saw the whiteness of the thigh of the Prophet of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. When he entered the village, he said, "Allahu Akbar, Khaibar has fallen. When punishment descends in their courtyard, how terrible is the morning of those who were warned." He repeated this three times. Anas continued, 'The people (of Khaibar) began coming out to their workplaces, shouting, "Muhammad! By Allah (his army has come)." Abdul Aziz said, Some of our companions mentioned, (they shouted), "Muhammad and his army (have come)!" He (Anas) said, 'We conquered them by force, and all the captives were gathered. Then Dihyah came to him and said, "O Messenger of Allah, give me a female slave from the captives!" He said, "Go and take a female slave from them." So he took Shafiyah binti Huyay. Then a man came to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and said, "O Prophet of Allah, why did you give Shafiyah to Dihyah? She is the daughter of Huyay, a leader of Bani Quraidhah and Nadhir, and she is not suitable for anyone but you." He said, "Tell him to return." Anas continued, 'So Dihyah came with Shafiyah, and when the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, saw her, he said, "Take another female slave from the captives." Anas said, 'Then he freed her and married her.' Thabit said to him, "O Abu Hamzah, what was her dowry?" He replied, "Herself, by freeing her and then marrying her." On the way back, Ummu Sulaim prepared her and handed her over to him that night. In the morning, the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, held a wedding feast and said, "Whoever has something, bring it here." Anas said, "Then he spread a leather mat, and some brought dried milk, others brought dates, and others brought ghee, and they mixed it. That was the wedding feast of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him."

Anas continued, 'Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "When punishment descends in their courtyard, how terrible is the morning of those who were warned." Anas continued, 'Then Allah, the Mighty and Exalted, defeated them, and Dihyah took a beautiful female slave. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, bought her for seven slaves, then handed her to Ummu Sulaim to serve and prepare her.' Thabit said, 'I think Anas said, "Then she observed her waiting period in her house she was Shafiyah, daughter of Huyay." Anas said, 'Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, held a wedding feast with dates, dried milk, and ghee, spreading a leather mat on the ground, and serving dried milk and ghee, so the people were satisfied with it.' Anas said, 'People said, "We do not know whether he married her or made her an Umm Walad (a slave woman who bears her master's child)." Some of them answered, "If he veils her, she is his wife, but if he does not veil her, she is an Umm Walad." When he was about to mount his ride, he veiled Shafiyah, and she sat behind his mount, so people knew he had married her. When we were near Medina, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, went ahead of us.' Anas said, 'Suddenly, his camel, Al 'Adlba', slipped, causing the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, to shift, and (Shafiyah) fell. He stood up and veiled Shafiyah. The women stretched their necks, saying, "May Allah keep this Jewish woman away." Thabit said, 'I asked, "O Abu Hamzah, did the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, consummate the marriage with her?" He replied, "By Allah, he consummated it with her.'"

Then he passed by the houses of his wives, greeting each one, asking, "How are you, O household?" They replied, "We are fine, O Messenger of Allah." He asked, "How is your family?" They said, "Fine." When he felt it was enough, he returned, and I followed him back. When we reached the door of the house, the two men were still there, conversing. When they saw he had returned, they stood up and left. By Allah, I do not know whether I informed him or he received revelation that they had left. So he returned, and I returned with him. As he stepped into one side of the door, the veil was lowered between me and him, and Allah revealed the verse: "O you who believe, do not enter the houses of the Prophet unless you are permitted...""

Narrated to us [Abu Bakar bin Abi Syaibah], narrated to us [Syababah], narrated to us [Sulaiman] from [Thabit] from [Anas]. And narrated through another chain, narrated to me

[Abdullah bin Hasyim bin Hayyan], with the wording from him, narrated to us [Bahz], narrated to us [Sulaiman bin Mughirah] from [Thabit], narrated to us [Anas], he said, '(During the Battle of Khaibar) Shafiyah was allotted to Dihyah, and people praised her to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him.' Anas said, 'They said, "We have never seen a captive like her." Anas continued, 'Then he sent for Dihyah, and Dihyah brought (Shafiyah) to him. Then he handed her to my mother, saying, "Prepare her." Anas said, 'Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, went out to Khaibar. When he reached the middle of the city, he stopped and set up a large tent. In the morning, he said, "Whoever has extra provisions, let him bring them here." Someone came with dates and sawiq dough, and they mixed it in a slightly elevated pot to make hais (a dish of dried milk, ghee, and dates). Then they ate it and drank from a man-made reservoir for rainwater.' Anas said, 'That was the wedding feast of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, with Shafiyah.' He continued, 'Then we continued our journey. When we saw the walls of Medina, we became excited and spurred our mounts, as did the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. Shafiyah rode behind the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him.' Anas continued, 'Suddenly, the Messenger of Allah's mount slipped, and he fell, as did Shafiyah.' Anas continued, 'Not one person looked at him or Shafiyah until the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, stood up and veiled Shafiyah.' Anas said, 'Then we approached him, but he said, "It's fine." We entered Medina, while the slave women of his wives came out to see (Shafiyah) and console her for the incident.'

Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Hatim bin Maimun], narrated to us [Bahz]. And narrated through another chain, narrated to me [Muhammad bin Rafi'], narrated to us [Abu An Nadlr Hasyim bin Al Qasim], both said, narrated to us [Sulaiman bin Mughirah] from [Thabit] from [Anas]—this hadith was also narrated by Bahz—when Zainab's waiting period ended, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said to Zaid, "Go and propose to Zainab for me." Anas said, 'So Zaid went to her and found her making dough.' Zaid said, 'When I saw her, my heart pounded, so I could not look at her to convey the message of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. So I turned away, stepping back, and said to her, "O Zainab, I was sent by the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, to propose to you for him. What is your response?" She replied, "I cannot decide until I seek guidance from my Lord." Then she went to her prayer place. Meanwhile, the Qur'an (revelation) came down to him, and the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, entered Zainab's house without asking permission.' Anas said, 'We still remember when the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, treated us to bread and meat. As the day progressed, many guests left, but a few remained, talking in the house after eating. So the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, went out to the houses of his wives, and I followed behind him. He greeted them, and they responded, asking, "O Messenger of Allah, how is your new wife?" Anas said, 'I don't recall whether I informed him or he told me that the guests had left.' So he returned to Zainab's house, and I entered with him, but he lowered the curtain between me and him. Then the verse of the veil was revealed.' Anas said, 'It was to teach (a lesson) to the people.' Ibnu Rafi' added in his hadith, '(namely the words of Allah) "Do not enter the houses of the Prophet unless you are permitted to eat, without waiting for the food to be served—until His saying—Allah is not shy to speak the truth." (Qur'an, Al-Ahzab: 53).'

Anas said, 'Then I informed the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, that they had left.' Anas said, 'Then he entered, and I followed him in, but he lowered his curtain between me and him.' Anas said, 'Then Allah, the Mighty and Exalted, revealed (the verse): "O you who believe, do not enter the houses of the Prophet unless you are permitted to eat, without waiting long for the food to be served—until His saying—Indeed, that is great in the sight of Allah."'

Narrated to us [Qutaibah bin Sa'id], narrated to us [Ja'far], namely Ibnu Sulaiman, from [Al Ja'd Abu Utsman] from [Anas bin Malik], he said, 'After the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, married (Zainab), he went to his wife's house.' Anas said, 'Meanwhile, my mother, Ummu Sulaim, made dough and placed it in a bowl, saying, "O Anas, take this to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and tell him this is a small gift from your mother, and convey her greetings to him." He (Anas) said, 'I took the cake to him and said, "My mother sent me to bring this small cake to you, and she sends her greetings to you." He replied, "Place it there, then go and invite people to come here, namely so-and-so, so-and-so, and so-and-so, and anyone you meet." So I went to invite those he mentioned and anyone I met.' Abu Utsman said, 'I asked Anas, "How many guests were there?" Anas replied, "About three hundred people." And the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said to me, "O Anas, bring the cake here." Meanwhile, many guests had arrived, filling the courtyard and the room. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "Form groups of ten, and each group eats from what is near them." Anas said, 'The guests ate the meal until they were full.' Anas continued, 'Each group finished eating and left, replaced by another group until they all ate.' He said to me, "O Anas, clear it!" Anas said, 'So I cleared (the remaining food), and I don't know whether the food was abundant when served or increased when I cleared it.' Anas continued, 'Some groups were still talking in the house of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, while he sat, and his wife turned her face to the wall. It seemed they had troubled the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him.' Anas said, 'Then he went out to the houses of his other wives. After a while, he returned. When they saw the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, had returned, they realized they had troubled him.' Anas said, 'So they left, and all of them went out. Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, entered and closed the curtain, while I was still sitting in the room. Soon after, he came out to me, and then the verse was revealed: "O you who believe, do not enter the houses of the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, unless you are invited to eat, without waiting long for the food to be served. But if you are invited, enter. And when you have eaten, leave without prolonging conversation, for that disturbs the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him..."—until the end of the verse—(Al-Ahzab: 53). Al Ja'd said, Anas bin Malik said, 'I then shared this verse with people, and the wives of the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, wore the veil.'

Narrated to me [Muhammad bin Rafi'], narrated to us [Abdur Razzaq], narrated to us

[Ma'mar] from [Abu Utsman] from [Anas], he said, 'When the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, married Zainab, Ummu Sulaim gave him a gift of dough in a stone bowl.' Anas said, 'So the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "Go and invite the Muslims you meet." So I went and invited everyone I met, and they entered (his house) and ate the food, then left.' Anas said, 'Then he placed his hand in the dough and prayed as Allah willed.' Anas said, 'I didn't leave anyone I met without inviting them, and they ate the food until they were full, then left, except for a group who kept talking.' Anas said, 'The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, was too shy to rebuke them, so he went out and left them in the house. Then Allah, the Mighty and Exalted, revealed the verse: "O you who believe, do not enter the houses of the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, unless you are invited to eat." Qatadah added, "Without waiting long for the food to be served, but if you are invited, enter...—until His saying—That is purer for your hearts and their hearts." (Al-Ahzab: 53).'

They replied: A man has a wife who is breastfeeding, and he has intercourse with her but does not want her to become pregnant, so he practices coitus interruptus, or a man has a female slave and does not want her to become pregnant. The Prophet, peace be upon him, said: 'There is no harm if you do not do it, for it is indeed related to Allah's decree.' Ibn 'Aun said: I mentioned this to Al Hasan, and he said: By Allah, it seems like a strong warning. Narrated to us [Yahya bin Yahya], he said: I read before [Malik], from [Abdullah bin Abu Bakar], from ['Amrah], that [Aisyah] informed her that the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, was beside her, and she heard the voice of a man asking permission to meet the Messenger of Allah at Hafshah's house. Aisyah said: I said: 'O Messenger of Allah, there is a man asking permission to meet you at Hafshah's house.' The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said: 'I think it is so-and-so, Hafshah's uncle by breastfeeding.' Aisyah asked: 'O Messenger of Allah, if so-and-so, her uncle by breastfeeding, were alive, could he enter my house?' The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, replied: 'Yes, for breastfeeding creates a familial bond just as blood ties do.'

Abu Al Qu'ais was Aisyah's father by breastfeeding. Aisyah said: I said: By Allah, I will not permit Aflah to meet me until I seek permission from the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, because it was not Abu Al Qu'ais who breastfed me, but his wife. Aisyah said: When the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, came, I said: O Messenger of Allah, Aflah, the brother of Abu Al Qu'ais, asked permission to meet me, and I did not like to permit him without your approval. Aisyah continued: The Prophet, peace be upon him, said: 'Let him enter.' Urwah said: Therefore, Aisyah said: 'Make a sibling by breastfeeding a familial bond just as you make a sibling by blood.' Narrated to us [Abd bin Humaid], informed us [Abdurrazaq], informed us [Ma'mar], from [Az Zuhri] with this chain. Aflah, the brother of Abu Al Qu'ais, asked permission to meet her, the same as their hadith.

The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said: 'Would you like that?' She replied: 'O Messenger of Allah, I am serious about you, and I would prefer if the one who shares my good deeds is my sister.' The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said: 'Indeed, that is not lawful for me.' I said: 'We heard you intend to marry Durrah, daughter of Abu Salamah.' He said: 'The daughter of Abu Salamah?' She replied: 'Yes.' The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said: 'Even if she were not my stepdaughter under my care, she would still not be lawful for me, as she is the daughter of my brother by breastfeeding, for Thuwaibah breastfed both me and Abu Salamah. Therefore, do not offer your daughters or sisters to me.' Narrated to me [Abdul Malik bin Shu'aib bin Al Laits], narrated to me [my father], from [my grandfather], narrated to me ['Uqail bin Khalid]. And through another chain, narrated to us [Abd bin Humaid], informed us [Ya'qub bin Ibrahim Az Zuhri], narrated to us [Muhammad bin Abdullah bin Muslim], both from [Az Zuhri] with the chain of Ibn Abu Habib like his hadith, but his hadith does not mention someone named Azzah, unlike Yazid bin Abu Habib.

Narrated to us [Abu Kuraib Muhammad bin Al 'Ala'], narrated to us [Abu Usamah], from [Hisham], from [his father], from [Aisyah], she said: I was always jealous of a woman who offered herself to the Prophet, peace be upon him. And if you desire to take back any you have set aside, there is no blame upon you...' (Al-Ahzab: 51). I (Aisyah) said: 'By Allah, I see your Lord hastens to fulfill your desires.'

He said: 'Why not a virgin, so you could flirt with her and she with you?'—or he said: 'So you could jest with her and she with you?' I said: 'Abdullah passed away, leaving nine or seven daughters, and I did not want to marry someone like them. I preferred a woman who could care for them and make them good.' The Prophet, peace be upon him, said: 'May Allah bless you,' or he prayed for my good. In Abu Rabi's narration: 'So you could be intimate with her and she with you, or jest with her and she with you.' Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Abdul A'la], narrated to us [Al Mu'tamir], I heard [my father] say: Narrated to us [Abu Nadlrah], from [Jabir bin Abdullah], he said: We were with the Prophet, peace be upon him, on a journey. I rode a camel used for watering crops, while he was among a crowd. Jabir said: The Prophet, peace be upon him, struck it—or Jabir said: He nudged it with something he carried. Jabir continued: Unexpectedly, the camel outpaced others, resisting me until I held it firmly. The Prophet, peace be upon him, said: 'Will you sell your camel for this and that? May Allah forgive you.' I said: 'I give it to you, O Prophet of Allah!' He said: 'Will you sell it for this and that? May Allah forgive you.' I said: 'I give it to you, O Prophet of Allah!' Then he said: 'Have you married since your father's passing?' I said: 'Yes, I have married.' He said: 'A widow or a virgin?' I said: 'A widow.' He said: 'Why not a virgin, so she could jest with you and you with her, or be intimate with you and you with her?' Abu Nadlrah said: That is a phrase Muslims use: Do such and such, may Allah forgive you.

Narrated to us [Yahya bin Yahya], [Qutaibah], and [Ibn Rumh], with the wording from Yahya. Qutaibah said: Narrated to us [Laits], while the other two said: Informed us [Al Laits bin Sa'd], from [Nafi'], from [Abdullah], that he divorced his wife during her menstruation with one pronouncement of divorce. The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, ordered him to take her back and stay with her until she was pure, then menstruated again, and then waited until she was pure from the second menstruation. Only then could he divorce her before consummating the marriage. That is the waiting period Allah prescribed for divorcing women. In Ibn Rumh's narration, it is added: If Abdullah was asked about divorcing a wife during menstruation, he would say to one of them: If you divorce her once or twice, the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, ordered this (to take her back). But if you divorce her with three pronouncements, she becomes unlawful to you until she marries another, and you have disobeyed Allah regarding the command of divorce for a woman. Muslim said: Laits memorized well his words: Divorcing her with one pronouncement.

Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Abdullah bin Numair], narrated to us [my father], narrated to us ['Ubaidullah], from [Nafi'], from [Ibn Umar], he said: During the time of the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, I divorced my wife while she was menstruating. Umar reported it to the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, and he said: 'Order him to take her back, then wait until she is pure, menstruates again, and becomes pure. Then he may divorce her before consummating or keep her as his wife. That is the waiting period Allah prescribed for divorcing women.' Ubaidullah said: I asked Nafi': What kind of divorce was meant? He replied: One divorce with its waiting period. Narrated to us [Abu Bakar bin Abu Syaibah] and [Ibn Al Mutsanna], both said: Narrated to us [Abdullah bin Idris], from ['Ubaidillah] with a similar chain, but he did not mention Ubaidullah's words from Nafi'. In Ibn Al Mutsanna's narration, it says: He should take her back. Abu Bakar said: He should reconcile with her.

Narrated to me [Zuhair bin Harb], narrated to us [Isma'il], from [Ayyub], from [Nafi'], that [Ibn Umar] divorced his wife while she was menstruating. Umar asked the Prophet, peace be upon him, about it, and he ordered [Ibn Umar] to take her back and delay until she menstruated again, then wait until she was pure. After that, he could divorce her before consummating. That is the waiting period Allah prescribed for divorcing a woman. Nafi' said: If Ibn Umar was asked about a man divorcing his wife during menstruation, he would say: If you divorced her once or twice, the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, ordered to take her back, then delay until she menstruates again and becomes pure. Then you may divorce her before consummating. But if you divorce her with three pronouncements, you have disobeyed your Lord in the command of divorce, and your connection with her is severed.

[Aisyah] continued: Hafshah and I agreed that whichever of us the Prophet visited first should say: 'I smell maghafir from you did you eat maghafir?' When he visited one of them, she said it, and he replied: 'No, but I drank honey at Zainab binti Jahsy's, and I will not do it again.' Then the verse was revealed: 'Why do you forbid what Allah has made lawful for you...' to 'If you both repent'—meaning Aisyah and Hafshah—and when the Prophet confided a matter to one of his wives.' (At-Tahrim: 1-3). That was regarding his saying: 'But I drank honey.'

Narrated to us [Abu Kuraib Muhammad bin Al 'Ala'] and [Harun bin Abdullah], both said: Narrated to us [Abu Usamah], from [Hisham], from [his father], from [Aisyah], she said: The Prophet, peace be upon him, loved sweets and honey. After Asr prayer, he would visit his wives and linger briefly. Once, he stayed longer than usual at Hafshah's house. I asked about it and was told a woman from her people gave her a bowl of honey, and she poured a drink for the Prophet, peace be upon him. I said: By Allah, I will trick him. I told Saudah: When he visits you soon, say to him: 'O Messenger of Allah, did you eat maghafir?' He will say no. Then say: 'What is this smell?' He dislikes bad odors and will say: 'Hafshah poured me a drink of honey.' Then say: 'Its bees ate urfuth.' I will say the same, and you too, Shafiyah. When he entered Saudah's house, she said: By the One, no deity but Him, I nearly said what you told me out of fear when the Prophet, peace be upon him, was at the door. When he approached, she said: 'O Messenger of Allah, did you eat maghafir?' He said: 'No.' She said: 'What is this smell?' He said: 'Hafshah poured me a drink of honey.' She said: 'Its bees ate urfuth.' When he visited me, I said the same. Then he went to Shafiyah, and she said the same. When he returned to Hafshah, she said: 'O Messenger of Allah, shall I pour you more honey?' He said: 'No, I don't need it.' Aisyah said: Saudah said: Subhanallah, by Allah, we have forbidden it for him. Aisyah said: I told her: Be quiet! And Narrated to us by [Zuhair bin Harb], narrated to us [Rauh bin Ubadah], narrated to us [Zakariya` bin Ishaq], narrated to us [Abu Az Zubair] from [Jabir bin Abdilllah], he said Once Abu Bakar asked permission from the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, to enter his house and he found some people sitting in front of the door of his house and none of them were allowed to enter. He said: Then Abu Bakar was allowed to enter, so he entered his house. After that Umar came and asked permission, and he was allowed to enter. Inside the house, Umar found the Prophet, peace be upon him, sitting, and around him his wives appeared silent and sad. He said: Then Umar said Indeed, I will say a word that can make the Prophet, peace be upon him, laugh. He said: O Messenger of Allah, if you see the daughter of Khorijah asking for excessive maintenance from me, surely I will face her and hit her neck. Then the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, laughed and said: They are all around me, as you see they are all asking for more maintenance from me. Then Abu Bakar immediately stood up approaching 'Aisyah and hit her. Likewise with Umar, he stood up approaching Hafshah and hit her. Then both said: Why do you ask the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, for something he does not have? Then both answered: By Allah, we will not ask the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, for something he does not have. Then he secluded himself from them for a month or twenty-nine days. Then the verse came down: 'O Prophet, say to your wives, -until His word- For the good among you a great reward'. He said: He started it from 'Aisyah, he said to her: 'O 'Aisyah, indeed I want to offer a matter to you, and I hope you do not rush in deciding it until you ask for approval from your parents.' Aisyah said: What is that O Messenger of Allah? Then he recited the verse above to her. Aisyah said: Is it towards you, I must ask for approval from my parents?! No, but I prefer Allah, His Messenger and the Hereafter, and I ask you not to inform my statement to your other wives. He answered: 'None of them ask that to me except I will surely inform it to her. Indeed, Allah Almighty did not send me to force people or plunge them, but He sent me as a teacher and one who eases affairs'.

Narrated to us by [Zuhair bin Harb], narrated to us ['Umar bin Yunus Al Hanafi], narrated to us [Ikrimah bin 'Ammar] from [Simak Abu Zumail], Narrated to me by ['Abdullah bin Abbas], Narrated to me by [Umar bin Al Khaththab], he said When the Prophet, peace be upon him, secluded himself from his wives. He (Umar) continued Then I entered the mosque and I saw people playing with pebbles. They all said The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, has divorced his wives, this happened before the command of hijab, then Umar said Then I said I want to know the certainty now. He continued Then I met Aisyah while asking O daughter of Abu Bakar, are you not satisfied yet hurting the heart of the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him? She answered What is my business with you O Ibnul Khaththab! You should take care of your own place (meaning advised to counsel Hafshah his daughter), he (Umar) continued Then I met Hafshah binti Umar, then I said to her O Hafshah, are you satisfied hurting the heart of the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, indeed you have known that the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, does not love you, if not for me, surely the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, has divorced you, therefore she (Hafshah) cried profusely. Then I asked her Where is the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, now? She answered He is in his private room. Then I went to meet him, suddenly I met Rabah, a servant of the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, sitting with his legs dangling on the wood in front of the room door, which is the wood made as a ladder for the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, to climb, then I called him O Rabah, ask permission for me to meet the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him! Then Rabah looked into the room then looked at me without saying anything, then I called him a bit harshly O Rabah, ask permission for me to meet the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, because I thought, that the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, knew if my coming was because of Hafshah, by Allah if the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, ordered me to behead her neck, indeed I would behead her neck! I said that with a harsh tone. Then he signaled for me to go up. I immediately met the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, and he was lying on a mat, then I sat near him, when he fixed his sarong, I saw the mat mark on his ribs, I looked at the storage place, apparently I did not find anything, except a sack of wheat about one sha' and a qarazh size in the corner of the room and a hanging skin, (Umar) continued (Seeing such a condition) my tears fell, then he asked: 'Why are you crying O Ibnul Khaththab?' I answered O Prophet of Allah, how can I not cry, because I see this mat leaving a mark on your ribs, and I do not see anything in your storage place except what I have seen, while the palace of Persia and the Roman empire are overflowing with fruits and rivers, while you are the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, and His chosen one, only this is your storage place! He said: 'O Ibnul Khaththab, are you not pleased if the hereafter is for us while the world is for them?' I answered Of course. When I entered to meet him, it was as if his face was angry, then I asked O Messenger of Allah, what troubles you regarding your wives? If you divorce them, then Allah and all His Angels, Jibril, Mika'il, myself and Abu Bakar and the believers will remain with you. And I have never said words like that to him while praising Allah, except I hope that Allah confirms my words to him, then the verse of choice came down: 'If the Prophet divorces you all, perhaps his Lord will replace him with better wives than you.' 'And if you two help each other to trouble the Prophet, then indeed Allah is his Protector, as well as Jibril and the righteous believers and all Angels are his helpers too.' While Aisyah and Hafshah were the ones who collaborated in demonstrating and influencing the other wives of the Prophet, peace be upon him, then I said O Messenger of Allah, have you divorced them? He answered: 'No.' I continued O Messenger of Allah, when I entered the mosque, I saw the Muslims playing with pebbles while saying The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, has divorced his wives. Should I go down and explain to them that you did not divorce them? He answered 'Yes, if you want.' I always talked with him, until the angry expression disappeared from his face and changed to a smile. And he is the human with the best row of teeth. Then the Prophet of Allah, peace be upon him, went down, I also went down holding the date palm trunk, while the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, went down as if walking on the ground, not holding anything, then I said O Messenger of Allah, whereas you in that room only twenty-nine days! He said: 'Indeed that day is only twenty-nine days.' Then I stood in front of the mosque door while calling with a loud voice that the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, did not divorce his wives. Then the verse came down: 'And when there comes to them a news that pleases and frightens, they immediately broadcast it. Whereas, if they surrender it to Allah and the leader (ulil Amri) among them, surely those who want certainty about its truth will know it from them.' And I am the one who confirmed the truth of that news, then Allah Almighty sent down the verse of choice (namely Al Ahzab: 28-29).

Narrated to us by [Harun bin Sa'id Al Aili], narrated to us [Abdullah bin Wahb], he informed me [Sulaiman namely Ibn Bilal], he informed me [Yahya], he informed me [U'baid bin Hunain] that he heard [Abdullah bin Abbas] tell, He said For a year I wanted to ask [Umar bin Al Khaththab] about the meaning of a verse, but I did not dare to ask it because of his authority. After the hajj season arrived, he went for hajj and I also joined him. When we were on the way home, he took another path because he wanted to relieve himself, while I waited for him until he finished. Then I returned walking with him. Then I asked him O Commander of the Faithful, who are the two women from the wives of the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, who collaborated against the wisdom of the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him? He answered They are Aisyah and Hafshah. (Ibnu Abbas) said I said to him By Allah, indeed I wanted to ask you since a year ago, but I did not dare to ask because of your authority. He said Do not be like that, if you think that I know it, then ask me directly, if it turns out I know it, I will explain it to you. (Ibnu Abbas) said Umar continued In the Jahiliyah era, we never involved women in any affairs, until the time came when Allah determined their position and role, he (Umar) continued When I was thinking about an affair, suddenly my wife said How about you do like this and like that? Then I said to her How could you know? You do not need to interfere and trouble thinking about my affairs. Then she said to me How strange you O Ibnul Khaththab, you do not want to exchange thoughts with me! Whereas your daughter always exchanges thoughts with the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, until one night she was angry. Umar said Then I put on my clothes, then I went to Hafshah's house. Then I asked her O my daughter, is it true you like to argue with the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, so that one night you were angry all night? Then Hafshah answered By Allah, indeed we only exchange thoughts, then I interrupted her O my daughter, I warn you of Allah's punishment and the wrath of His Messenger, do not ever be jealous of someone's pride because of her beauty and the love of the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, towards her. Then I went out until I met Ummu Salamah, because she is still from my relatives, then I told (the case) to her Then she said to me How strange you O Ibnul Khaththab, you have interfered in all affairs up to the household affairs of the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, and his wives. (Umar) said The words (Ummu Salamah) really offended my feelings until it was very impressed in my heart. Then I left her. And I have a friend from Anshar who exchange news if one of us is absent. At that time we were guarding against a king from the kings of Ghassan who reportedly wanted to attack us. Our hearts at that time were focused (on that attack), suddenly my Anshar friend came knocking on the door while saying open the door...open the door...! I asked Has the Ghassan army come? He answered Even more than that, the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, has distanced himself from his wives. Then I said Woe to Hafshah and Aisyah! Then I put on my clothes, then I went to meet him, it turned out the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, was in a room that can be climbed with stairs, while the servant of the Prophet, peace be upon him, who has black skin was at the end of the stairs, I said I am Umar, then I was allowed to enter, then I told my meeting with Ummu Salamah to the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, smiled. It turned out he just slept on a mat without a base, with a pillow made of fiber. Near his feet there was a sack of qarazh seeds and near his head hung a newly tanned skin. I saw the mat mark on the ribs of the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, suddenly my eyes shed tears, he said: 'What makes you cry?' I answered O Messenger of Allah, indeed Kisra (Persia) and Caesar (Rome) are living luxuriously with what they have, while you are the Messenger of Allah. Then the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said: 'Are you not willing, if they have the world while you have the hereafter?' And Narrated to us by [Muhammad bin Al Mutsanna], narrated to us ['Affan], narrated to us [Hammad bin Salamah], he informed me [Yahya bin Sa'id] from ['Ubaid bin Hunain] from [Ibnu Abbas] he said I returned with [Umar] until when we arrived at Marru Dzahran, then he continued the long hadith as the hadith of Sulaiman bin Bilal but he said (Ibnu Abbas) said I asked about two women (from the wives of the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him) who opposed him, he (Umar) answered They are Hafshah and Ummu Salamah.' And it was added Then I came to every house of his wives, it turned out every house heard the sound of crying. And added again That he swore not to meet his wives for a month, but when the twenty-ninth day, he came down to meet them.

I have not had time to continue my speech, until he said 'Aisyah and Hafshah.

Narrated to us by [Ishaq bin Ibrahim Al Handlali] and [Muhammad bin Abi Umar] while the wording of the hadith is almost the same, he said Ibnu Abi Umar said Narrated to us. While Ishaq said He informed us [Abdur Razzaq], he informed us [Ma'mar] from [Az Zuhri] from ['Ubaidillah bin Abdillah bin Abu Tsaur] from [Ibnu Abbas] he said I always waited for the opportunity to ask [Umar bin Al Khaththab] about two wives of the Prophet, peace be upon him, mentioned by Allah Almighty namely: 'If you two repent to Allah, then indeed your hearts have inclined to accept goodness.' When Umar performed hajj, I joined him. On the way, suddenly Umar deviated (to relieve himself) and I also deviated following him carrying a vessel. After finishing, I poured water on his hands, then he performed ablution. After that I asked O Commander of the Faithful, who are the two wives of the Prophet, peace be upon him, mentioned by Allah in His word: 'If you two repent to Allah, then indeed your hearts have inclined to accept goodness.' Umar answered You are strange, O Ibnu Abbas, both are Hafshah and 'Aisyah. Then Umar continued Formerly we the Quraysh tribe were a tribe that ruled over women. After we came to Madinah, instead we found the women there ruling over the men, of course our women learned from them. At that time, my house was on the hill in the village of Bani 'Umayyah Ibnu Zaid. One day, I scolded my wife, but she did not want to be scolded anymore, then opposed my anger. But I did not want to be opposed, she said Why do you not want to be opposed? While the wives of the Prophet, peace be upon him, once opposed him, even one of them until distancing herself a day until night. Then I went to Hafshah's house and asked her Is it true you like to oppose the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him? She answered Yes, once. Is it true one of you until distancing yourself from the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, until all night? She answered Yes. I said Indeed wasted and lost are those who do so. Do you feel safe from Allah's wrath because of the anger of the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him? Because he will surely perish. Therefore, do not oppose the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, and do not ask from something he does not have. Ask me what you need, and do not be jealous because your neighbor (Aisyah) is more beautiful and more loved by the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, than yourself. Umar continued I have an Anshar neighbor, where we always take turns waiting for news near the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, if there is revelation descending, one day he waits and informs me if there is revelation descending, tomorrow I replace waiting and inform him if there is revelation descending. We once talked that the king of Ghassan has prepared to attack us. Then my friend met the Prophet, peace be upon him, as usual, and only returned after isha'. Suddenly he knocked on the door while calling me, I immediately went out to meet him. He said There has happened a very big event. I asked Has the king of Ghassan attacked? He answered Even bigger than that. The Prophet, peace be upon him, has divorced his wives. I said Indeed unfortunate and lost is Hafshah, I have suspected that this case will happen. After Subuh prayer, I put on my clothes then I went to Hafshah's house, I found her crying. Then I asked Is it true you all have been divorced by the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him? She answered I do not know, but surely he secluded himself in his special room. Then I met his servant, a black-skinned one. I said Ask permission from the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, Umar wants to meet him. The servant entered, then came out to meet me. He said I have conveyed it to him, but he remained silent. Therefore I went, after I arrived near the pulpit, I sat. There I found many people who had sat, even some of them were crying. After sitting for a while, my feeling (to meet the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him) greatly influenced me. So I came again to the servant, saying Ask permission for Umar. The servant entered, then came out to meet me, he said Your message I have conveyed, but he remained silent. When I was about to leave, suddenly the servant called me He said Please enter! He has permitted. I immediately entered and greeted the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him. At that time I saw him lying on a woven mat, and his mat left a mark on his ribs. I asked Is it true you have divorced your wives O Messenger of Allah? He then raised his head saying: 'No.' I said Allahu akbar ... Allahu akbar. Surely you have understood O Messenger of Allah, that we the Quraysh are a people who rule over women. Then when we migrated to Madinah, we found their women ruling over the men. Of course our women learned from them. One day I scolded my wife, but she opposed me. Then I blamed her because she opposed me. Then she answered You cannot blame me, by Allah, indeed the wives of the Prophet, peace be upon him, also once opposed him, even one among them distanced from him until late night. Then I answered her Indeed unfortunate and lost is who does so. Does she feel safe with Allah's wrath because of the anger of the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him! Hearing my words, the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, smiled. I continued O Messenger of Allah, I just came from Hafshah's house, then I said to her Do not be influenced if there is your neighbor (your co-wife) who is more beautiful and more loved by the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, than you. The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, smiled hearing it. I said I ask permission O Messenger of Allah (to stay longer here). He answered 'Yes, may.' Then I sat while lifting my head looking at the surroundings. By Allah, there is nothing visible except three sacks. Then I said Pray to Allah O Messenger of Allah, may He expand life for your ummah. Because Allah Ta'ala has expanded the livelihood of the Persian and Roman nations, while they are nations that do not worship Allah Almighty. Hearing my story, he sat, then he said: 'Are you still doubting O Ibnul Khaththab! They are indeed hastened to receive all goodness in worldly life (but they will not get the hereafter life -pent).' I said 'Ask forgiveness for me O Messenger of Allah!' The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, has sworn not to return to the houses of his wives for a month, because he was very offended by their behavior, so he received a rebuke from Allah Almighty.

Narrated to us by [Ishaq bin Ibrahim Al Handlali] and [Muhammad bin Abi Umar] while the wording of the hadith is almost the same, he said Ibnu Abi Umar said Narrated to us. While Ishaq said He informed us [Abdur Razzaq], he informed us [Ma'mar] from [Az Zuhri] said He informed me [Urwah] from ['Aisyah] she said When twenty-nine nights had passed, the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, first met me, then I asked O Messenger of Allah, you have sworn not to meet us for a month, but only twenty-nine days I counted, you have met me. He said: 'Indeed a month is twenty-nine days.' Then he continued: 'O 'Aisyah, indeed I will state a matter, so do not rush to decide it before you consult with your parents.' Then he recited the verse to me, namely: 'O Prophet, say to your wives -until the verse- a great reward'. Aisyah said Indeed he has known, by Allah indeed my parents will not allow me to separate from him. She (Aisyah) continued I said Is it with this matter you order me to ask opinion with my parents! Indeed I choose Allah, His Messenger and the hereafter home. [Ma'mar] said He informed me [Ayyub] that ['Aisyah] said Do not inform your other wives that I choose you. Then the Prophet, peace be upon him, to her: 'Indeed Allah sent me as a conveyor and did not send me as one who troubles.' Qatadah said The meaning of the sentence 'in shaghat qulubukuma', namely: Your hearts have inclined (to accept goodness).

Narrated to us by [Yahya bin Yahya] he said I read in front of [Malik] from [Abdullah bin Yazid] the former slave of Al Aswad bin Sufyan, from [Abu Salamah bin Abdurrahman] from [Fathimah binti Qais] that Abu Amru bin Hafsh has divorced her with three talaqs, while he was far from her, then he sent a representative to her (Fathimah) bringing wheat, (Fathimah) refused it. Then (the representative of 'Amru) said By Allah, we have no more obligation to you. Therefore, Fathimah met the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, to ask about that to him, he said: 'Indeed, he is no longer obliged to provide maintenance.' After that, he ordered her to spend her iddah period at Ummu Syarik's house. But then he said: 'She is a woman often visited by my companions, therefore, wait for your iddah at Ibnu Ummi Maktum's house, because he is a blind man, you are free to put your clothes there, if you have become halal (finished iddah), inform me.' She (Fathimah) said After my iddah finished, I informed that to him that Mu'awiyah bin Abi Sufyan and Abu Al Jahm have proposed to me, then the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said: 'Abu Jahm is a person who never leaves his stick from his neck (likes to hit -pent), while Mu'awiyah is a poor person, has no wealth, therefore marry Usamah bin Zaid.' But I did not like him, he still said: 'Marry Usamah.' Then I married Usamah, Allah has given abundance of goodness to him until happy.

And Narrated to me by [Muhammad bin Rafi'], narrated to us [Husain bin Muhammad], narrated to us [Syaiban] from [Yahya], he is Ibnu Abi Katsir, narrated to me [Abu Salamah] that [Fathimah binti Qais] sister of Ad Dhahak bin Qais, has informed him That Abu Hafsh bin Mughirah Al Mahzumi has divorced her with three talaqs, then he went to Yemen, then the family (Al Mahzumi) said to his wife You no longer have the right to receive maintenance from him. Then Khalid bin Walid with a group came to the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, they said Indeed Abu Hafsh has divorced his wife with three talaqs, does his wife still have the right to receive maintenance from him? The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, answered: 'She no longer has the right to receive maintenance (from her former husband), order her to wait for her iddah period.' Then he sent someone to meet her namely not to rush (before he decides her case) and ordered her to stay at Ummu Syarik's house, not long after that, he sent someone to meet her again that Ummu Syarik often has guests from the first Muhajirin, then move to Ibnu Ummi Maktum's house who is blind, because if you remove your veil, he will not see you. Then she moved to (Ibnu Ummi Maktum's) house, after her iddah finished, the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, married her to Usamah bin Zaid bin Haritsah. Narrated to us by [Yahya bin Ayyub], [Qutaibah bin Sa'id] and [Ibnu Hujr] they said Narrated to us by [Isma'il namely Ibnu Ja'far] from [Muhammad bin Amru] from [Abu Salamah] from [Fathimah binti Qais]. And narrated from another path Narrated to us by [Abu Bakar bin Abi Syaibah], narrated to us [Muhammad bin Bisyr], narrated to us [Muhammad bin 'Amru], narrated to us [Abu Salamah] from [Fathimah binti Qais] she said I wrote that in a book, (Fathimah) said I was under the care of a man from Bani Mahzum, then he divorced me with three talaqs, then I sent someone to go to his family to ask for maintenance for me. Then they narrated the hadith with the meaning of the hadith of Yahya bin Abi Katsir from Abu Salamah, but in the hadith of Muhammad bin 'Amru it is mentioned 'Do not precede us (in deciding your affairs).'

Hadith Imam Muslim Number 2713

حَدَّثَنَا حَسَنُ بْنُ عَلِيٍّ الْحُلَوَانِيُّ وَعَبْدُ بْنُ حُمَيْدٍ جَمِيعًا عَنْ يَعْقُوبَ بْنِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ بْنِ سَعْدٍ حَدَّثَنَا أَبِي عَنْ صَالِحٍ عَنْ ابْنِ شِهَابٍ أَنَّ أَبَا سَلَمَةَ بْنَ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ عَوْفٍ أَخْبَرَهُ أَنَّ فَاطِمَةَ بِنْتَ قَيْسٍ أَخْبَرَتْهُ أَنَّهَا كَانَتْ تَحْتَ أَبِي عَمْرِو بْنِ حَفْصٍ بْنِ الْمُغِيرَةِ فَطَلَّقَهَا آخِرَ ثَلَاثِ تَطْلِيقَاتٍ فَرَعِمَتْ أَنَّهَا جَاءَتْ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ تَسْتَفْتِيهِ فِي خُرُوجِهَا مِنْ بَيْتِهَا فَأَمَرَهَا أَنْ تَنْتَقِلَ إِلَى ابْنِ أُمِّ مَكْتُومٍ الْأَعْمَى فَأَبَى مَرْوَانَ أَنْ يُصَدِّقَهُ فِي خُرُوجِ الْمُطَلَّاقَةِ مِنْ بَيْتِهَا وَقَالَ عُرْوَةُ إِنَّ عَائِشَةَ أَنْكَرَتْ ذَلِكَ عَلَى فَاطِمَةَ بِنْتَ قَيْسٍ وَحَدَّثَنِي مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ رَافِعٍ حَدَّثَنَا حُجَيْنٌ حَدَّثَنَا اللَّيْثُ عَنْ عُقَيْلٍ عَنْ ابْنِ شِهَابٍ بِهَذَا الْإِسْنَادِ مِثْلَهُ مَعَ قَوْلِ عُرْوَةَ إِنَّ عَائِشَةَ أَنْكَرَتْ ذَلِكَ عَلَى فَاطِمَةَ

Narrated to us by [Hasan bin Ali Al Hulwani] and [Abd bin Humaid] all from [Ya'qub bin Ibrahim bin Sa'ad], narrated to us [My father] from [Shalih] from [Ibnu Syihab] that [Abu Salamah bin Abdurrahman bin 'Auf] has informed him, that [Fathimah binti Qais] has informed him, that she was once the wife of Abu 'Amru bin Hafsh bin Mughirah, then he divorced his wife the last time with three talaqs, then she (his wife) intended to come to the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, to ask for a fatwa about whether she is allowed to leave her house (because she feels unsafe). Then the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, ordered her to stay at Ibnu Ummi Maktum's house who is blind. But Marwan refused to confirm the news about a woman divorced with three talaqs allowed to leave her house. 'Urwah said Indeed 'Aisyah denied that happened to Fathimah binti Qais. And Narrated to me by [Muhammad bin Rafi'], narrated to us [Hujain], narrated to us [Al Laits] from ['Uqail] from [Ibnu Syihab] with this isnad like this, with the words of 'Urwah 'That 'Aisyah denied that happened to Fathimah.'

Narrated to us by [Ishaq bin Ibrahim] and [Abd bin Humaid] while the wording is from 'Abd both said He informed us [Abdur Razzaq], he informed us [Ma'mar] from [Az Zuhri] from ['Ubaidillah bin Abdullah bin 'Utbah] that Abu 'Amru bin Hafsh bin Al Mughirah once went with Ali bin Abi Thalib to Yemen, then he sent someone to divorce his wife namely [Fathimah binti Qais] with the remaining talaq (namely three talaqs), then his former husband ordered Al Harits bin Hisyam and 'Ayyasy bin Abi Rabi'ah to give maintenance, then both said to the former wife of Abu 'Amru 'By Allah, you no longer have the right to get maintenance except if you are pregnant.' Then his former wife came to the Prophet, peace be upon him, and informed the words of the two brothers of Amru to him, he said: 'Indeed, you no longer have the right to get maintenance.' She asked permission from the Prophet, peace be upon him, to move house, he permitted her. She said 'Where should I stay O Messenger of Allah?' He answered: 'At Ibnu Ummi Maktum's house, because he is a blind man.' At Ibnu Ummi Maktum's house she can remove her clothes and Ibnu Ummi Maktum does not see. When her iddah finished, the Prophet, peace be upon him, married her to Usamah bin Zaid. Then Marwan ordered Qabishah bin Dzu`aib to ask about this hadith, then Fathimah conveyed this hadith, Marwan said 'I have never heard this hadith except from a woman whom we will ask to strengthen her news as people informed me.' When Marwan's news reached Fathimah saying that between me and you there is Al Qur`an, where Allah 'azza wajalla has said: 'Do not allow them to leave their houses'. Then Fathimah answered This is for a woman who is talak raj'i (namely talaq that can be ruju'), then what happens after three talaqs, how do you say no right to get maintenance except if pregnant. Then on what basis do you prevent her (from leaving the house to seek livelihood -pent)?

After my iddah finished, I informed him. Not long after Mu'awiyah, Abu Jahm, and Usamah bin Zaid came to propose her, then the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said: 'Mu'awiyah is a person poor in wealth, while Abu Jahm likes to hit women, better you choose Usamah.' Then Fathimah avoided and signaled with her hand sign of disapproval, then the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said to her: 'Obedience to Allah and His Messenger is better for you.' Fathimah said Then I married Usamah, it turned out I was happy.

Then I said 'I am only given maintenance this much, do you not allow me to wait for iddah in your house?' Ayyash answered 'No.' Fathimah continued her story Then I put on my clothes and hurried to meet the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him. He asked: 'How many times has he divorced you?' I answered 'Three times.' He said: 'He is right, indeed you no longer have the right to maintenance from him, therefore wait for your iddah at your uncle's son namely Ibnu Ummi Maktum, because he is blind so you are free if you want to remove your clothes, if your iddah has ended, then inform me.' Fathimah said Not long after, some people proposed to me, among them Mu'awiyah and Abu Jahm. Then the Prophet, peace be upon him, said: 'Indeed Mu'awiyah is a difficult person while Abu Jahm is a person hard on women or likes to hit women or said like that, but marry Usamah bin Zaid.' And Narrated to me by [Ishaq bin Manshur], he informed us [Abu 'Ashim], narrated to us [Sufyan Ats Tsauri], narrated to me [Abu Bakar bin Abi Jahm] he said I and Abu Salamah bin Abdirrahman met [Fathimah binti Qais] and asked her. Umar bin Abdillah wrote a letter to Abdullah bin Utbah and informed him that Subai'ah had informed him That she was the wife of Sa'ad bin Khaulah from the tribe of Amir bin Lu'ai. While Sa'ad was one of the companions who participated in the Battle of Badr, he died during the Farewell Hajj when his wife was heavily pregnant. A few days after he passed away, his wife gave birth. After his wife was clean from postpartum bleeding, she adorned herself hoping to be proposed to. Not long after, Abu Sanabil bin Ba'kak - a man from Bani Abdid Dar - came and said to her 'I see you adorning yourself, perhaps you hope to remarry. By Allah, you are not allowed to remarry until four months and ten days have passed.' Subai'ah said After he said that to me, I immediately put on my clothes and went to meet the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), I asked him about the issue. Then he gave me a fatwa that I was actually halal to marry after giving birth to my child, he even ordered me to marry again if I wished. Ibnu Syihab said 'So I am of the opinion that a woman is allowed to marry after giving birth, even if she is still bleeding, as long as her husband does not have intercourse with her until she is clean.'

Narrated to us by Muhammad bin Al Mutsanna Al Anazi, narrated to us from Abdul Wahab, he said I have heard Yahya bin Sa'id, he informed me from Sulaiman bin Yasar that Abu Salamah bin Abdurrahman and Ibnu Abbas gathered with Abu Hurairah, while both mentioned about a woman who gave birth after her husband's death a few nights, so Ibnu Abbas said 'Her iddah is the end of the two periods (namely the iddah period and birth).' While Abu Salamah said 'Her iddah is complete due to the birth.' So they disputed each other about the issue. Then Abu Hurairah said 'I and my nephew, namely Abu Salamah, finally sent Kuraib, the former slave of Ibnu Abbas, to meet Ummu Salamah and ask about the issue, not long after Kuraib returned to them and informed that Ummu Salamah said 'Indeed Subai'ah Al Aslamiyah once gave birth after her husband's death a few days, then she informed that to the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), and he ordered her to marry.' And Narrated to us by Muhammad bin Rumh, narrated to us from Al Laits. And narrated from another path, Narrated to us by Abu Bakar bin Abi Syaibah and Amru An Naqid, both said Narrated to us by Yazid bin Harun, both from Yahya bin Sa'id with this chain, but in the hadith of Al Laits it says 'Then they sent him to meet Ummu Salamah.' Without mentioning the name Kuraib.

The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) answered: 'Not allowed,' he said it twice or three times. By saying: 'Not allowed, that is only allowed after four months and ten days, indeed in the Jahiliyah era one of you would throw dung at the end of the year.' Humaid said I asked Zainab Why did she throw dung at the end of the year? Then Zainab answered 'In the past, a woman if her husband died, she would not leave the house and wear ugly clothes and not wear perfume or any jewelry for a full year. After that, the woman was given an animal - donkey, goat or bird - then she dropped something on the animal until the animal mostly died, after that the woman was given animal dung, then she threw it. After that she was allowed to wear the perfume she liked or otherwise.'

النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ذَاكُمْ التَّفْرِيقُ بَيْنَ كُلِّ مُتَلَاعِنِينَ

And Narrated to us by Yahya bin Yahya, he said I read in front of Malik from Ibnu Syihab that Sahl bin Sa'd As Sa'idi informed him that Uwaimir Al Ajlani asked Ashim bin Adi Al Anshari 'O Ashim, what is your opinion if a husband catches another man dating his wife? Should the husband kill that man then you kill him (as qisas) or what should he do? O Ashim, try asking this to the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him)!' Then Ashim asked the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), but the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) disliked the question, even he censured it, so Ashim felt very guilty with what he heard from the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him). When Ashim returned to his family, suddenly Uwaimir came, then he asked 'O Ashim, what did the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) say to you?' Ashim answered 'Instead, the issue did not bring any good to me at all, indeed the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) disliked the question I posed to him.' Uwaimir said 'By Allah, I will not stop until I myself ask it to him.' Uwaimir then went until he came to the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) who was in a crowd of people. Uwaimir asked 'O Messenger of Allah, what do you think, if there is a husband who finds his wife with another man? Is the husband allowed to kill that man then you kill him (as qisas), or what should he do?' Then the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: 'A verse has been revealed regarding you and your wife, so bring your wife here!' Sahl said Then Uwaimir and his wife performed li'an (mutual cursing). After both finished performing li'an, then Uwaimir said 'O Messenger of Allah, if I still keep her as my wife, it means I am lying.' Then he divorced her with three talaks, before he was ordered by the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him).' Ibnu Syihab said 'Such is the way to resolve between husband and wife who mutually curse.' Narrated to us by Harmalah bin Yahya, he informed us from Ibnu Wahb, he informed me from Yunus from Ibnu Syihab, he informed me from Sahl bin Sa'd Al Anshari that Uwaimir Al Anshari from Bani Ajlan met Ashim bin Adi, then he continued the hadith text like Malik's hadith and he inserted (added words not part of the hadith) in that hadith with his statement 'Then he separated him from his wife, such is the sunnah teaching husband and wife who mutually curse.' And he added Sahl said 'After that his wife was pregnant, while her child was called by her mother's name, then the sunnah applied to her that her child inherits her mother's traits, so does her mother inherit her child's traits as Allah has decided for her.' And Narrated to us by Muhammad bin Rafi', narrated to us from Abdur Razzaq, he informed us from Ibnu Juraij, he informed me from Ibnu Syihab regarding those who mutually curse, and the sunnah's ruling on it from the hadith of Sahl bin Sa'd brother of Bani Sa'idah that a man from Ansar came to the Prophet (peace be upon him), he asked 'O Messenger of Allah, what is your opinion, if a husband finds his wife with another man?' Then he mentioned the hadith with its story. And he added 'Then both mutually cursed in the mosque, at that time I witnessed it.' And he said in that hadith 'Then Uwaimir divorced her with three talaks before he was ordered by the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), then he divorced her beside the Prophet (peace be upon him), subsequently the Prophet (peace be upon him) said: 'Thus you should separate between two people (husband and wife) who mutually curse.'

Narrated to us by Muhammad bin Abdulalh bin Numair, narrated to us from my father, and narrated from another path, Narrated to us by Abu Bakar bin Abi Syaibah, while the wording is from him, narrated to us from Abdullah bin Numair, narrated to us from Abdul Malik bin Abu Sulaiman from Sa'id bin Jubair, he said I was once asked about husband and wife who mutually accuse during the rule of Mush'ab, should both be divorced? Ibnu Jubair said I did not answer it, because I did not know its ruling, so I directly came to the house of Ibnu Umar in Makkah. I said to his servant Allow me to meet him. He answered Indeed Ibnu Umar is taking a midday rest. But apparently Ibnu Umar heard and recognized my voice, then he said 'Is that Ibnu Jabir?' I answered 'Yes.' He said 'Come in, by Allah you did not come at times like this except for an important matter.' Then I entered his house, while he was sitting leaning on a saddle and pillow made of fiber. Then I asked 'O Abu Abdurrahman, must they be separated if there is a husband and wife who perform li'an?' He answered 'Subhanallah, yes, they must be separated. Indeed the first person to ask this issue is so-and-so son of so-and-so, he asked O Messenger of Allah, what is your opinion if one of us finds his wife committing adultery? What should he do? If he talks about it, then he talks about something sensational, but if silent, he is silent on a very big issue.' Ibnu Umar continued Then the Prophet (peace be upon him) was silent, did not answer anything. Not long after, he came again to him, saying Indeed the issue I asked you the other day is my personal issue, and I have just been tested with that issue. Regarding their case, then Allah Almighty revealed the verse mentioned in Surah An Nur: 'And those who accuse their wives of adultery' Then he recited that verse to him, gave him instruction, warned him sternly and informed that the punishment of the world is lighter than the punishment of the hereafter. The man said 'By Allah who sent you with truth, I am not lying.' Then he called his wife, then he gave instruction, warned her sternly, and informed her that the punishment of the world is lighter than the punishment of the hereafter.' The woman answered 'By Allah who sent you with truth, indeed that man is lying.' Then he ordered the man to testify in the name of Allah four times that he is among the truthful, and the fifth saying that Allah's curse will befall him if he lies. Then he ordered the woman to testify in the name of Allah four times oath that her husband is among the liars, and the fifth by saying that Allah's wrath upon her if her husband is truthful. Then he separated between them. And Narrated to me by Ali bin Hujr As Sa'di, narrated to us from Isa bin Yunus, narrated to us from Abdul Malik bin Abi Sulaiman, he said I once heard Sa'id bin Jubair say I was once asked about a husband and wife who mutually li'an during Mush'ab bin Zubair's time, and I did not know what to answer, then I met Abdullah bin Umar, I asked 'What is your opinion if there is a husband and wife who mutually li'an, should both be separated?' Then he mentioned like the hadith of Ibnu Umar.

Ishaq said He informed us, while the two said Narrated to us by Jarir from Al A'masy from Ibrahim from Alqamah from Abdullah he said On Friday night we were in the Mosque, suddenly an Ansar man came while saying 'What if a husband finds his wife dating another man, should the husband kill that man then you flog him, or should the husband kill that man then you qisas him, or must the husband be silent, but if he is silent, by Allah, he is silent in anger! Indeed I will ask this issue to the Prophet (peace be upon him).' The next day, he came to the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), then he asked, he said 'What if a husband finds his wife dating another man, should the husband tell then you flog him, or should the husband kill that man then you qisas him, or must he be silent, but if the husband is silent means silent in great anger!' Then he said: 'O Allah, open (explain this ruling to us).' And he prayed, then the li'an verse descended: 'And those who accuse their wives (of adultery) while they have no witnesses except themselves.' That man has been tested with this matter among people. Then he and his wife came to the Prophet (peace be upon him) and performed li'an, the man said four times oath with Allah's name that he is among the truthful, and the fifth time he cursed himself that Allah's curse is ready to befall him if he is among the liars. After that it was his wife's turn to say li'an, so the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said to her: 'Hold (do not do it).' But she refused and said li'an, after both left, he said: 'Perhaps she will give birth to a child with black skin and curly hair.' Not long after she gave birth to a child with black skin and curly hair. And Narrated to us by Ishaq bin Ibrahim, he informed us from Isa bin Yunus. Anas said Then Hilal performed li'an oath in front of the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), then he said: 'Try to watch that woman, if later her child is white, straight hair and slightly red eyes, it means the baby is Hilal bin Umayyah's child, but if his eyes are somewhat black, curly hair and slim calves, then the baby belongs to Syarik bin Sahma.' Anas said Then I was told by people that the child had black eyes, curly hair and slim calves.

By Allah, indeed I am more jealous than him, and Allah is more jealous than me. Because of Allah's jealousy, He forbids all forms of abomination, both visible and hidden, and there is no one more jealous than Allah and no one who prefers to give a warning first than Allah, therefore Allah sends His messengers to give glad tidings and warnings. And no one likes praise more than Allah, that is why He created paradise." And Narrated to us by ['Ali bin Khasyram] it has been informed to us by [Isa namely Ibnu Yunus] from [Sa'id bin Abi Arubah] with this chain, adding "If he does not have wealth, then the slave's value is assessed with a fair price, then he is employed to the owner (who does not free) him without burdening him." Narrated to us by [Abu Kuraib Muhammad bin Al 'Ala` Al Hamdani] Narrated to us by [Abu Usamah] Narrated to us by [Hisyam bin Urwah] it has been informed to me by [my father] from ['Aisyah] she said Once Barirah met me and said "Indeed my family (master) promised to free me if I can redeem myself with nine uqiyah over nine years, and I have to pay one uqiyah every year, therefore help me." Then I said to her "If your family (master) is willing then I will redeem you in cash (namely nine uqiyah at once), I will free you, and your guardianship right is with me." After that she conveyed that to her family (master), but they refused unless her guardianship right remains with them. Then she met me and conveyed that to me, then I scolded her and said "By Allah, the rule is not like that." Aisyah continued It turned out the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him heard this, then he asked me, then I informed him what happened. Then he said: "Buy her and free her and ask for the condition so that guardianship is with you, because guardianship is for the one who frees." Finally I did it. Not long after that, the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him preached at Isha time, after he praised Allah with praises appropriate for Him, he then said: "Amma Ba'du, what is the matter with people giving conditions? Any conditions that never exist in the Book of Allah Almighty and Majestic, then the condition is invalid even if he conditions a hundred times, because the Book of Allah is more entitled to be fulfilled and Allah's condition is stronger. Then what is the matter with one of you saying 'Free so-and-so on the condition that his guardianship is still with me, " indeed guardianship is for the one who frees." Hadith Imam Muslim Number 2884

وَحَدَّثَنِي عَبْدُ الْمَلِكِ بْنُ شُعَيْبٍ بْنُ اللَّيْثِ بْنُ سَعْدٍ حَدَّثَنِي أَبِي عَنْ جَدِّي حَدَّثَنِي عُقَيْلُ بْنُ خَالِدٍ عَنْ ابْنِ شَهَابٍ أَنَّهُ قَالَ أَخْبَرَنِي سَالِمُ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ أَنَّ عَبْدَ اللَّهِ بْنَ عُمَرَ كَانَ يُكْرِي أَرْضِيهِ حَتَّى بَلَغَهُ أَنَّ رَافِعَ بْنَ خَدِيجٍ الْأَنْصَارِيَّ كَانَ يَنْهَى عَنْ كِرَاءِ الْأَرْضِ فَلَقِيَهُ عَبْدُ اللَّهِ فَقَالَ يَا ابْنَ خَدِيجٍ مَاذَا تُحَدِّثُ عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي كِرَاءِ الْأَرْضِ قَالَ رَافِعُ بْنُ خَدِيجٍ لِعَبْدِ اللَّهِ سَمِعْتُ عَمِّي وَكَأَنَّا قَدْ شَهِدَا بَدْرًا يُحَدِّثَانِ أَهْلَ الدَّارِ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نَهَى عَنْ كِرَاءِ الْأَرْضِ قَالَ عَبْدُ اللَّهِ لَقَدْ كُنْتُ أَعْلَمُ فِي عَهْدِ

رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنَّ الْأَرْضَ تُكْرَى ثُمَّ خَشِيَ عَبْدُ اللَّهِ أَنْ يَكُونَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَحَدَتْ فِي ذَلِكَ شَيْئًا لَمْ يَكُنْ عَلَيْهِ فَتَرَكَ كِرَاءَ الْأَرْضِ

"And narrated to me Abdul Malik bin Syu'aib bin Al Laits bin Sa'd, narrated to me my father from my grandfather, narrated to me 'Uqail bin Khalid from Ibnu Syihab, he said; Informed me Salim bin Abdullah that Abdullah bin Umar used to rent his farmland until he heard that Rafi' bin Khadij had forbidden renting farmland, then Abdullah met Rafi', he said; "O Ibnu Khadij, what did you narrate from the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, regarding renting farmland?" He answered; "O Abdullah, I heard from my uncle and he participated in the Battle of Badr, that he said to the people here that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, forbade renting farmland." Abdullah said; "Indeed, in the time of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, I knew that farmland was often rented." Because Abdullah was worried that he did not know that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, had forbidden it, then he abandoned renting farmland.

He replied: That is no problem. At the time of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, many of the companions used to rent their land in return for obtaining the crop from the plants that grew around the irrigation channels or waterways or for a portion of the plants themselves. At times the landowner would incur loss while the tenant benefited, or the landowner would benefit while the tenant incurred loss, yet many people still engaged in such contracts. Therefore the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, forbade renting land in that manner. But renting land with a specified and accountable payment is not forbidden.

Narrated to me Ali bin Hujr As Sa'di, narrated to us Ali namely Ibnu Mushir, informed us 'Ubaidullah from Nafi' from Ibnu Umar, he said; "The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, gave (wages) to the people of Khaibar with part of the plants or crops they produced. Then he distributed every year to his wives one hundred wasaq namely eighty wasaq and twenty wheat. When Umar bin Khatthab ruled, then the land of Khaibar began to be distributed. Umar gave choices to the wives of the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, whether they wanted to receive land and water or would continue to receive their usual food quota every year. Among them, some chose the distribution of land and water, while others chose the usual quota every year. In this case, Aisyah and Hafshah chose the distribution of land and water." Narrated to us Ibnu Numair, narrated to us my father, narrated to us Ubaidullah, narrated to me Nafi' from Abdullah bin Umar that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, employed the people of Khaibar with wages from part of the crops they planted or fruits they planted..." then he continued the hadith like the hadith of Ali bin Mushir, and did not mention the wording; While Aisyah and Hafshah were among those who chose the distribution of land and water. And narrated to me Abu Thahir, narrated to us Abdullah bin Wahb, informed me Usamah bin Zaid Al Laitsi from Nafi' from Abdullah bin Umar, he said; "When Khaibar was conquered, the Jews requested the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, to allow them to stay there to work the fields and farms with wages of half of the crops or fruits produced." The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, answered: "We allow you to stay until the time we determine." Then he continued the hadith like the hadith of Ibnu Numair and Ibnu Mushir from Ubaidullah with the addition of wording; And half of the fruits from the spoils of Khaibar were distributed, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, took one-fifth of it.

"And narrated to me Muhammad bin Rafi' and Ishaq bin Manshur while the wording from Ibnu Rafi' both said; narrated to us Abdur Razzaq, informed us Ibnu Juraij, narrated to me Musa bin 'Uqbah from Nafi' from Ibnu Umar that Umar bin Khaththab expelled the Jews and Christians from the land of Hijaz. Indeed, after the conquest of Khaibar, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, intended to expel the Jews from that land, because after it was controlled, the land belonged to Allah and His Messenger and all Muslims. Therefore, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, intended to expel the Jews from that land, but the Jews requested the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, to allow them to stay there to continue their (agricultural) efforts, with the condition; for them half of the fruits they worked on. Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said to them: "We allow you to stay with that condition until the time we desire." Then they stayed there until the time Umar expelled them to Taima' and Ariha'.

Narrated to us by [Abu Thahir], informed us [Ibn Wahb] from [Qurrah bin Abdurrahman Al Ma'afiri] and [Amru bin Harits] and others, that [Amir bin Yahya Al Ma'afiri] informed them from [Hanas], he said: 'We were with [Fadlalah] in a battle, and my companion and I obtained a necklace with gold, silver, and jewels. I wanted to buy his share, so I asked Fadlalah bin 'Ubad, and he said, "Separate the gold and place it on the scale, do the same with your gold, and do not take it unless the weight is equal, for I heard the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, say: 'Whoever believes in Allah and the Last Day, let him not take gold unless it is of equal measure.'"

The servant went and took more than one sha' of wheat. When Ma'mar came, he informed him, and Ma'mar said, 'Why did you do that? Go and return the wheat, do not take it except with equal measure. I heard the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, say: "Food for food must be equal." Ma'mar added, "At that time, our food was wheat." The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, asked: 'Where did you get these dates?' He replied, 'I brought two sha' of dates, then exchanged one sha' of them for two sha' of my dates, because the price of good dates is this, and bad dates is that.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'Woe to you! You have committed usury. If you want good dates, sell your dates, then buy any dates you like with the money.' Abu Sa'id said, 'And dates for dates is more usurious than silver for silver.' Abu Nadlrah said, 'After that, I met Ibn Umar, and he forbade me from doing it, but I did not meet Ibn Abbas.' The narrator said: Abu Ash Shahba` narrated to me that he asked Ibn Abbas about it in Mecca, and Ibn Abbas also disliked such practices.'

Take your camel and your dirhams they are yours.' "Narrated to us by [Utsman bin Abu Syaibah] and [Ishaq bin Ibrahim], and this is Utsman's wording. [Ishaq] said: informed us, and [Utsman] said: Narrted to us by [Jarir] from [Mughirah] from [Asy Sya'bi] from [Jabir bin Abdullah], he said: 'When I was fighting with the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, he met me while I was riding my exhausted camel, barely able to walk. He asked me: "What's wrong with your camel, O Jabir?" I replied, "It's sick, O Messenger of Allah." He stepped back, struck it, and prayed for my camel. After that, my camel always walked ahead. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, asked: "How do you see your camel now, O Jabir?" I replied, "It looks strong and healthy again." He asked: "Will you sell your camel to me?" I felt reluctant, as it was my only transport, but I said, "Alright," and sold it with the condition that I could ride it to Madinah. I said to him, "O Messenger of Allah, I am newly married, so I ask your permission to return first." The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, allowed me, so I preceded the companions to Madinah. At home, my uncle asked about my camel, and I told him what happened.' Jabir continued, 'When I asked permission to return first as a newlywed, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, asked: "O Jabir, who did you marry, a virgin or a widow?" I replied, "A widow." He said: "Why not a virgin, so she could play with you, and you with her?" I replied, "O Messenger of Allah, my father died, leaving young sisters, and I didn't want a virgin their age who couldn't guide or care for them, so I married a widow to guide and educate them." Jabir continued, 'When the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, arrived in Madinah, I met him with the camel, he paid for it and returned the camel to me.' Narrated to us by [Utsman bin Abu Syaibah], Narrated to us by [Jarir] from [Al A'masy] from [Salim bin Abu Al Ja'd] from [Jabir], he said: 'We returned from Mecca to Madinah with the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and my camel was sick.' He continued the hadith. In his narration, he said, 'Then he said to me: "Sell your camel to me!" I replied, "No, I gift it to you." He said: "No, sell it to me." I replied, "No, I gift it to you, O Messenger of Allah." He said: "No, sell it to me!" I said, "I owe someone one uqiyah of gold, so pay that much." He said: "Alright, take the camel to Madinah." In Madinah, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, ordered Bilal: "O Bilal, pay Jabir one uqiyah of gold for his camel, and add a little." Bilal gave me one uqiyah of gold, plus some qirath.' Jabir continued, 'I said, "The addition from the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, stayed in my purse, but during the Harrah war, the Syrians took it from me." Narrated to us by [Abu Kamil Al Jahdari], Narrated to us by [Abdul Wahid bin Ziyad], Narrated to us by [Al Jurairi] from [Abu Nadlrah] from [Jabir bin Abdullah], he said: 'We were with the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, on a journey, and my mount was slow..., then he continued the hadith. He said, 'The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, rebuked it and said to me: "Ride it in the name of Allah." And it was added: "He kept giving me more, saying: 'May Allah forgive you.'"

Narrated to me [Muhammad bin Rafi'] and [Ishaq bin Manshur], this is Ibnu Rafi's wording, both said narrated to us [Abdurrazzaq], informed us [Ibnu Juraij], informed me [Abu Az Zubair] from [Jabir], who said, 'A woman in Medina gave a garden to her son. He died, followed by her, leaving other children, siblings of the deceased son given the garden. Her living children said, "The garden should return to us." The children of the deceased son said, "No, it was our father's while alive, and now our inheritance." A dispute arose, and they appealed to Thariq, Utsman's freed slave. Thariq called Jabir, who testified that the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) said an 'Umra belongs to its recipient. Thariq ruled accordingly, wrote to Caliph Abdul Malik about his decision and Jabir's testimony. Abdul Malik replied, "Jabir's testimony is true!" Thus, Thariq enforced it, and the garden remains with the recipient's descendants.'

Narrated to us [Yahya bin Yahya At Tamimi], informed us [Sulaim bin Ahldar] from [Ibnu 'Aun] from [Nafi'] from [Ibnu Umar], who said, 'Umar acquired a share of land in Khaibar. He came to the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) for advice, saying, "O Messenger of Allah, I received land in Khaibar, more precious to me than any wealth. What do you command regarding it?" He replied: "If you wish, maintain its trees and give its produce in charity." Ibnu Umar said, "Umar gave its produce in charity, not selling its trees or produce, nor bequeathing or gifting it." Ibnu Umar continued, "Umar gave its produce to the poor, relatives, freeing slaves, supporting Allah's cause, fighters, and guests. He allowed others to cultivate it and eat its produce reasonably or feed a friend without hoarding." Ibnu Umar said, "I told this Hadith to Muhammad, and when I said, 'without hoarding,' Muhammad said, 'without accumulating its wealth.'" [Ibnu 'Aun] said, "Someone who read this book told me it says, 'without accumulating its wealth.'" Narrated to us [Abu Bakar bin Abu Syaibah], narrated to us [Ibnu Abu Zaidah]. In another chain, narrated to us [Ishaq], informed us [Azhar As Saman]. In another chain, narrated to us [Muhammad bin Al Mutsanna], narrated to us [Ibnu Abu 'Adi], all from [Ibnu 'Aun] with this chain. Ibnu Abu Zaidah and Azhar's Hadith ends at, 'or feed a friend without hoarding,' with nothing after. Ibnu Abu 'Adi's Hadith includes, like Sulaim, Ibnu Umar's words, 'I told this Hadith to Muhammad,' and so on. Narrated to us [Ishaq bin Ibrahim], narrated to us [Abu Daud Al Hafari Umar bin Sa'd] from [Sufyan] from [Ibnu 'Aun] from [Nafi'] from [Ibnu Umar] from [Umar], who said, 'I acquired land in Khaibar and went to the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him), saying, "I received land more beloved to me than any," continuing the Hadith like theirs, but not mentioning, 'I told this Hadith to Muhammad,' or what follows.

اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَا تَنْذِرُوا فَإِنَّ النَّذْرَ لَا يُغْنِي مِنَ الْقَدَرِ شَيْئًا وَإِنَّمَا يُسْتَخْرَجُ بِهِ مِنَ الْبَخِيلِ

"Narrated to us [Zuhair bin Harb] and [Ali bin Hujr As Sa'di], Zuhair's wording, both said narrated to us [Isma'il bin Ibrahim], narrated to us [Ayyub] from [Abu Qilabah] from [Abu Al Muhallib] from ['Imran bin Hushain], who said, 'Thaqif was a servant of Bani 'Uqail. Thaqif captured two of the Prophet's companions, while the Prophet's companions captured a man from Bani 'Uqail with his camel. The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) approached him while he was bound. The captive said, "O Muhammad!" He replied: "What is it?" The man said, "Why have you captured me and my swift racing camel?" He answered: "I did so in retaliation for your allies' crimes, Thaqif!" He left, but the man called, "O Muhammad, O Muhammad!"—the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) was compassionate and kind—returned, and said: "What do you need?" The man said, "I am Muslim." He said: "If you said so while controlling your affairs, you would gain all success." He left, but the man called again, "O Muhammad, O Muhammad." He returned and said: "What do you need?" The man said, "I am hungry, feed me I am thirsty, give me drink!" He said: "That is your need." Later, the man was ransomed for two others. 'Imran said, "An Ansari woman was captured with the Prophet's camel, Al Adlba', bound. The robbers were resting, their stolen camels in front of their camps. She escaped her bonds, approached the camels, but each one snorted when she tried to ride, so she left it until she reached Al Adlba'. She rode the trained, obedient camel from behind, urged it, and it sped off. The sleeping robbers awoke, chased her, but could not catch her. She vowed that if Allah saved her, she would slaughter Al Adlba'. In Medina, people saw the camel and said, "This is Al Adlba', the Prophet's camel!" She said, "If Allah saves it, I will slaughter it." They told the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) about her vow. He said: "Glory to Allah, what a poor reward for it. She vowed to Allah that if He saved her, she would slaughter it. There is no obligation to fulfill a vow of disobedience to Allah or for what one does not own." In Ibnu Hujr's narration, it says: "There is no vow in disobedience to Allah." Narrated to us [Abu Ar Rabi' Al 'Ataki], narrated to us [Hammad]—that is Ibnu Zaid—. In another chain, narrated to us [Ishaq bin Ibrahim] and [Ibnu Abu Umar] from [Abdul Wahhab Ats Tsaqafi], both from [Ayyub] with this chain. In Hammad's Hadith, it says, "Al Adlba' was a Bani 'Uqail camel, among the swiftest." It also says, "The Ansari woman approached a highly trained camel." In Ats Tsaqafi's Hadith, it says, "Naqatun Mudarrabatun (a trained camel)."

Narrated to us [Abdullah bin Barrad Al Asy'ari] and [Muhammad bin Al 'Ala' Al Hamdani], their wording similar, both said: narrated to us [Abu Usamah] from [Buraidd] from [Abu Burdah] from [Abu Musa], he said, 'My companions sent me to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, to request transport for them, as they were with him in the Usrah army (the difficult war), the Battle of Tabuk. I said to him, "O Prophet of Allah, my companions sent me to ask you to provide transport for their war supplies." He replied: "By Allah, I cannot provide anything for you." At that moment, I saw him angry, and I did not know why. Due to his refusal, I returned sadly, fearing he was displeased with me. After meeting my companions, I conveyed the Messenger's response. Shortly after, Bilal called me, "O Abdullah bin Qais!" I answered his call. Bilal said, "Come to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, as he is calling you." When I reached the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, he said: "Take these, one for two people, one for two people, one for two people - pointing to six camels he had just bought from Sa'ad. Take all these camels to your companions and say to them, 'Indeed, Allah has provided this transport for you.' Ride them." Abu Musa continued, "I brought all the camels to my companions, saying, 'The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, ordered me to bring these for you, but by Allah, I will not leave you until some of you come with me to those who heard the Messenger's response and refusal when I asked for transport, yet he gave it to me, so you do not think I fabricated what he said.' They replied, 'By Allah, we trust you, but we will do as you wish.' So, Abu Musa went with some companions, and they met those who heard the Messenger's refusal but later saw him fulfill their request.

Narrated to me [Abu Rabi' Al Ataki], narrated to us [Hammad] - that is Ibnu Zaid - from [Ayyub] from [Abu Qilabah] and [Qasim bin 'Ashim] from [Zahdam Al Jarmi]. Ayyub said, 'I remember the hadith of Abu Qilabah better.' He said, 'We were with [Abu Musa], and he served us a meal with chicken. After a while, a man from Bani Taimillah, red-skinned like a freed slave, entered the house. Abu Musa called him, "Come here." He refused. Abu Musa called again, "Come here, for I saw the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, eat it." The man replied, "I saw him eat something, and feeling disgusted, I avoided it and swore not to eat it again." Abu Musa said, "Come, I will tell you about it. I came to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, with a group of Asy'ari people to request transport for supplies. He said: "By Allah, I cannot provide your supplies, and I have nothing to carry them." We stayed silent for a while, as Allah willed. Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, was given some camels and called us, ordering us to take five white camels." Abu Musa continued, "As we left, some of us said to others, 'It seems Allah did not bless us, as the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, broke his oath.' We returned to him and said, 'O Messenger of Allah, we came to you requesting transport for our supplies, and you swore you could not help, but later you did. Did you forget, O Messenger of Allah?' He replied: 'By Allah, if I swear an oath and see something better, I will take the better option and pay its expiation. So, go, for it is Allah, Mighty and Exalted, who provides for you.'

Hadith Imam Muslim Number 3155

حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو الرَّبِيعِ سُلَيْمَانُ بْنُ دَاوُدَ الْعَتَكِيُّ حَدَّثَنَا حَمَّادُ يَعْنِي ابْنَ زَيْدٍ عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ دِينَارٍ عَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ أَنَّ رَجُلًا مِنَ الْأَنْصَارِ أَعْتَقَ غُلَامًا لَهُ عَنْ دُبْرٍ لَمْ يَكُنْ لَهُ مَالٌ غَيْرُهُ فَبَلَغَ ذَلِكَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ مَنْ يَشْتَرِيهِ مِنِّي فَاشْتَرَاهُ نُعَيْمُ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بِثَمَانٍ مِائَةِ دِرْهَمٍ فَدَفَعَهَا إِلَيْهِ قَالَ عَمْرُو سَمِعْتُ جَابِرَ بْنَ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ يَقُولُ عَبْدًا قِبْطِيًّا مَاتَ عَامَ أَوَّلِ

Narrated to us [Abu Ar Rabi' Sulaiman bin Daud Al 'Ataki], narrated to us [Hammad] - that is Ibnu Zaid - from ['Amru bin Dinar] from [Jabir bin Abdullah], that a man freed his slave through a will, though he had no other property but that slave. When this reached the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, he said: 'Who will buy this slave from me?' Nu'aim bin Abdullah bought the slave from him for one hundred dirhams, and the money was given to him (Jabir). ['Amru] said, 'I heard [Jabir bin Abdullah] say, "He was a Coptic slave who died in the early year (of Ibn Zubair's rule)."'

Mas'ud bin Zaid went on a journey. When they reached Khaibar, they parted ways. Shortly after, Muhayishah found Abdullah killed and buried him. Then he came to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, with Huwaishah bin Mas'ud and Abdurrahman bin Sahl. Abdurrahman, the youngest among them, spoke before his cousin. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'Let the elder speak first.' So he fell silent, and his two brothers spoke. They told him that Abdullah bin Sahl was killed. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, asked them: 'Will you swear fifty times? If you do, you are entitled to demand retribution for your brother's death.' They replied, 'How can we swear when we did not witness the killing?' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'Then the Jews will be cleared of your accusation with their fifty oaths.' They said, 'How can we accept the oaths of disbelievers?' Seeing this situation, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, paid the blood money (diyat) himself.'

Suddenly, Abdullah was found killed, and they suspected the Jews. His brother, Abdurrahman, and his two cousins, Huwayishah and Muhayishah, went to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him. Abdurrahman spoke about his brother's issue, though he was the youngest among them. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'Let the eldest among you speak first,' or he said: 'Let the eldest start speaking.' Then they spoke about their brother's case. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'Let fifty of you swear against one of them (the Jews), and he will be held accountable.' They said, 'We have never experienced this how can we swear?' He said: 'Then the Jews will be cleared of your accusation with their oaths.' They said, 'O Messenger of Allah, they are disbelievers.' Rafi' continued, 'Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, paid the blood money to them.' Narrated to us [Al Qawariri], narrated to us [Bisyr bin Al Mufadlal], narrated to us [Yahya bin Sa'id] from [Busyair bin Yasar] from [Sahal bin Abu Khatsmah] from the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, like that. In his hadith, he did not mention, 'Then I was kicked by a camel.' Narrated to us ['Amru An Naqid], narrated to us [Sufyan bin 'Uyainah]. Narrated to us [Abdullah bin Maslamah bin Qa'nab], narrated to us [Sulaiman bin Bilal] from [Yahya bin Sa'id] from [Busyair bin Yasar], that Abdullah bin Sahl bin Zaid and Muhayishah bin Mas'ud bin Zaid Al Ansari, from the people of Bani Harithah, went out to Khaibar during the time of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. At that time, Khaibar was under a peace agreement, and its people were Jews. Then they parted ways to attend to their needs. Shortly after, he found Abdullah bin Sahl killed, so he buried him and returned to Madinah. Then the brother of the deceased, Abdurrahman bin Sahl, Muhayishah, and Huwayishah, informed the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, about Abdullah's killing. Busyair - who narrated from a companion of the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, who knew the matter - believed that he said to them: 'Swear fifty times, and you will be entitled to retribution for your brother's killer.' They said, 'O Messenger of Allah, we did not witness the killing.' Busyair believed he replied: 'Then the Jews are cleared of your accusation with their fifty oaths.' They said, 'O Messenger of Allah, how can we accept the oaths of disbelievers?' Busyair believed that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, paid the blood money from his own side. Narrated to us [Yahya bin Yahya], informed us [Husayim] from [Yahya bin Sa'id] from [Busyair bin Yasar], that an Ansari man from Bani Harithah named Abdullah bin Sahl bin Zaid went with his cousin Muhayishah bin Mas'ud bin Zaid..., then he continued the hadith like Laits's, up to the statement, 'Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, paid the blood money with his own money.' [Yahya] said: narrated to me [Busyair bin Yasar], he said: informed me [Sahl bin Abu Hatsmah], he said, 'I was kicked by a camel paid as blood money, in its enclosure.' Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Abdullah bin Numair], narrated to us [my father], narrated to us [Sa'id bin 'Ubaid], narrated to us [Busyair bin Yasar Al Ansari] from [Sahal bin Abu Hatsmah Al Ansari], that he informed that a group of them went to Khaibar, and upon arrival, they parted ways, finding one of them killed..., then he continued the hadith.

Narrated to me [Ishaq bin Manshur], informed us [Bisr bin Umar], he said: I heard [Malik bin Anas] say: narrated to me [Abu Laila Abdullah bin Abdurrahman bin Sahal] from [Sahal bin Abu Hatsmah], that he informed him from some prominent men of his tribe, that Abdullah bin Sahl and Muhayishah went to Khaibar to carry out a task. Someone informed Muhayishah that Abdullah bin Sahl had been killed and his body thrown into a shallow well. Muhayishah went to the Jews and said, 'By Allah, you must have killed Abdullah bin Sahl.' The Jews denied it, saying, 'No, we did not kill him.' Muhayishah returned to Madinah, informed his people of the incident, and, accompanied by Huwayishah and Abdurrahman, went to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. Since Muhayishah was the one who went to Khaibar, he intended to speak first, but the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'The elder, the elder,' meaning he wanted the older one to speak. So Huwayishah spoke first, followed by Muhayishah. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said to them: 'Very well, you may demand blood money from the Jews, or we will fight them.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, sent a letter to the Jews about this, and they replied, 'By Allah, we truly did not kill him.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said to Huwayishah, Muhayishah, and Abdurrahman: 'Will you swear and thereby be entitled to the blood money for your slain brother?' They replied, 'No.' He said: 'The Jews have sworn against you.' They said, 'Are they not non-Muslims?' Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, paid the blood money from his own wealth and sent one hundred camels, which were brought into their house. Sahl commented, 'I was kicked by one of those camels given as blood money.'

Narrated to us [Yahya bin Yahya At Tamimi] and [Abu Bakar bin Abu Syaibah], both from [Husyaim], this is the wording of Yahya, he said: informed us [Husyaim] from [Abdul Aziz bin Shuhaib] and [Humaid] from [Anas bin Malik], that some people from the 'Urainah tribe went to Madinah to meet the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. Upon arriving in Madinah, they fell ill because the climate of Madinah was not suitable for their health. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said to them: 'If you wish, go to the charity camels (zakat camels) and drink their milk and urine.' They followed the Prophet's advice and regained their health. But shortly after, they attacked the camel herders, killed them, apostatized from Islam, and stole the camels of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. When this was reported to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, he ordered their pursuit until they were caught. When brought before him, he ordered their hands and feet be cut off, their eyes gouged out, and they were left under the scorching sun until they died.

Narrated to us [Abu Ja'far Muhammad bin As Shabah] and [Abu Bakar bin Abu Syaibah], this is the wording of Abu Bakar, he said: narrated to us [Ibnu 'Ulayyah] from [Hajjaj bin Abu Utsman], narrated to me [Abu Raja'], a freed slave of Abu Qilabah, from [Abu Qilabah], narrated to me [Anas], that a group of eight people from Bani 'Ukl came to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and pledged allegiance to Islam. Soon after, they fell ill due to the unfamiliar climate of Madinah. They complained to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, who said: 'Would you like to go to the grazing camels and drink their milk and urine?' They replied, 'Yes.' They went to the camels, drank their milk and urine, and recovered. Then they killed the herder and stole the camels. When this reached the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, he sent men to pursue them until they were caught and brought before him. He ordered their hands and feet be cut off and their eyes gouged out. They were then thrown under the scorching sun, where they died. [Ibnu Shabah] mentioned in his narration, 'They stole the camels.' He also mentioned, 'Then their eyes were gouged out.' Narrated to us [Harun bin Abdullah], narrated to us [Sulaiman bin Harb], narrated to us [Hammad bin Zaid] from [Ayyub] from [Abu Raja'], a freed slave of Abu Qilabah, he said: [Abu Qilabah] said: narrated to us [Anas bin Malik], he said, 'Some people from the 'Ukl or 'Urainah tribe came to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and fell ill due to Madinah's cold climate. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, ordered them to go to a group of (zakat) camels and drink their milk and urine..., ' with the meaning of Hajjaj bin Abu Utsman's hadith, mentioning, 'Then their eyes were gouged out, and their bodies were thrown under the scorching sun until they died, asking for water, but no one gave them any.' Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Al Mutsanna], narrated to us [Mua'dz bin Mu'adz]. (In another chain) Narrated to us [Ahmad bin Utsman An Naufali], narrated to us [Azhar As Saman], both said: narrated to us [Ibnu 'Aun], narrated to us [Abu Raja'], a freed slave of Abu Qilabah, from [Abu Qilabah], he said, 'I sat behind Umar bin Abdul Aziz, and he said to the people, "What is your opinion on qasamah?" ['Anbasah] replied, 'Indeed, [Anas bin Malik] narrated to us such and such,' and he said: Anas also narrated to me that a group of people came to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him..., ' then he continued the hadith like that of Ayyub and Hajjaj. Abu Qilabah said, 'When I finished, Anbasah exclaimed, "Glory be to Allah!"' Abu Qilabah continued, 'I said, "Do you doubt my hadith, O 'Anbasah?" He replied, "No, this is how Anas bin Malik narrated it to us. O people of Syria, you will remain in goodness as long as this man - or one like him - is among you." Narrated to us [Al Hasan bin Abu Syua'ib Al Harrani], narrated to us [Miskin] - that is Ibnu Bukair Al Harrani - informed us [Al Auza'i]. (In another chain) Narrated to us [Abdullah bin Abdurrahman Ad Darimi], informed us [Muhammad bin Yusuf] from [Al Auza'i] from [Yahya bin Abu Katsir] from [Abu Qilabah] from [Anas bin Malik], he said, 'A group of eight people from 'Ukl came to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him..., ' like their hadith. In his hadith, there is an addition, 'And their blood was left to flow.' Narrated to us [Harun bin Abdullah], narrated to us [Malik bin Isma'il], narrated to us [Zuhair], narrated to us [Simak bin Harb] from [Mu'awiyah bin Qurrah] from [Anas], he said, 'A group of people from 'Urainah came to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, then embraced Islam and pledged allegiance to him. While staying in Madinah, they suffered headaches and breathing difficulties..., ' then he mentioned like their hadith. There is an addition, 'And beside him were about twenty young Ansari men, whom he sent along with a tracker skilled in following trails to pursue the robbers.' Narrated to us [Haddab bin Khalid], narrated to us [Hammam], narrated to us [Qatadah] from [Anas]. (In another chain) Narrated to us [Ibnu Al Mutsanna], narrated to us [Abdul A'la], narrated to us [Sa'id] from [Qatadah] from [Anas], and in [Hammam's] hadith, it is mentioned, 'A group of young men from 'Urainah came to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him.' We said, 'Yes, O Messenger of Allah.' He then said, 'O Muslims, your blood, your wealth—and Muhammad said: I think he also said your honor—are sacred to you, as sacred as this day, in this land, in this month. You will meet your Lord, and He will ask about your deeds. After I am gone, do not return to disbelief or misguidance, killing one another. Let those present convey this to those absent, for perhaps the one who hears it secondhand will preserve it better than the one who hears it directly.' Then he said, 'Have I not conveyed?' Ibnu Habib mentioned in his narration, 'Rajab is Mudlar.' Abu Bakr's narration states, 'Do not return to disbelief after me.'

Narrated to us [‘Ubaidullah bin Mu‘adz Al ‘Anbari], narrated to us [my father], narrated to us [Abu Yunus] from [Simak bin Harb], that [‘Alqamah bin Wa’il] narrated to him, that [his father] narrated to him, he said, 'While I was sitting with the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, a man came dragging another with a rope, saying, 'O Messenger of Allah, this man killed my brother!' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, asked him, 'Did you kill him?' The man who brought him said, 'If he does not admit it, I will bring proof of his deed.' The killer said, 'Yes, I killed him.' He asked, 'Why did you kill him?' He said, 'While we were picking leaves from a tree, he insulted me and angered me, so I struck his neck with my axe, and he died.' The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said to him, 'Do you have anything to ransom yourself?' He said, 'I have no wealth except my axe and the clothes on my body.' He said, 'Perhaps your people would ransom you?' He said, 'I am the most despised among my people.' Then he threw the rope and said, 'Then it's up to your friend here.' The man who reported it left with the killer of his brother. When he left, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'If he kills him, he is like the killer.' The man returned and said, 'O Messenger of Allah, I heard you say, 'If he kills him, he is like him (the killer)?' Yet I brought him by your command.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'Do you not want him to bear your sin and your brother's sin?' He said, 'O Prophet of Allah—seemingly he said—yes.' He said, 'That deed is like that deed.' Alqamah's father said, 'The man then threw the rope and let the killer go.'

Narrated to me [Muhammad bin Hatim], narrated to us [Sa'id bin Sulaiman], narrated to us [Husaym], narrated to us [Isma'il bin Salim] from ['Alqamah bin Wa'il] from [his father], he said, 'A man who killed another was brought to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, with a rope tied around his neck by the victim's heir. When he left, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'The killer and the killed are both in the Fire.' Someone went to the man who brought the killer and told him what the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, so the victim's heir let the killer go.' [Isma'il bin Salim] said, 'I mentioned this to [Habib bin Abu Tsabit], and he said: Narrated to me [Ibnu Asywa'], that the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, asked him to forgive the killer, but he refused.'

Narrated to us [Yahya bin Yahya], he said: I recited before [Malik], from [Ibnu Syihab] from [Abu Salamah] from [Abu Hurairah], that two women from Hudzail fought, and one threw at the other, causing her fetus to miscarry. By Allah, if Fatimah, daughter of Muhammad, stole, I would cut her hand.' In Ibnu Rumh's hadith, it is stated, 'What caused the destruction of those before you.'

Narrated to me [Abu At Thahir] and [Harmalah bin Yahya], and this is Harmalah's wording, both said: Narrated to us [Ibnu Wahb], he said: Narrated to me [Yunus bin Yazid] from [Ibnu Syihab], he said: Narrated to me ['Urwah bin Az Zubair] from ['Aisyah], wife of the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, that during the conquest of Mecca in the time of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, the Quraysh were perplexed about a woman of theirs caught stealing. They said, 'Who would dare raise this issue with the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him?' Some suggested, 'Only Usamah bin Zaid, the one most beloved to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him.' The woman was brought before the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and Usamah bin Zaid raised her issue. The face of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, turned red, and he said: 'Do you seek intercession in Allah's prescribed punishment?' Usamah said to him, 'Seek forgiveness for me, O Messenger of Allah.' In the evening, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, stood and gave a sermon, praising Allah as He deserves, then said: 'Amma Ba'du. What destroyed those before you was that when a noble among them stole, they let him go, but when a weak or lowly one stole, they enforced the punishment. By the One in Whose Hand is my soul, if Fatimah, daughter of Muhammad, stole, I would cut her hand.' He then ordered the woman who stole, and her hand was cut.' [Yunus] said: [Ibnu Syihab] said: ['Urwah] said: ['Aisyah] said, 'After that, the woman repented sincerely and married. She came to me to ask for help in presenting her request to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and I fulfilled her request.' Narrated to us ['Abd bin Humaid], narrated to us [Abdurrazaq], narrated to us [Ma'mar] from [Az Zuhri] from ['Urwah] from ['Aisyah], she said, 'A Makhzumiyyah woman borrowed an item and claimed it as hers. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, ordered her hand be cut, so her family went to Usamah bin Zaid and raised her issue. Usamah raised it with the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him...' then he narrated like the hadith of Laits and Yunus.

Narrated to us [Abu At Thahir] and [Harmalah bin Yahya], both said: Narrated to us [Ibnu Wahb], narrated to me [Yunus] from [Ibnu Syihab], he said: Narrated to me [Ubaidullah bin Abdullah bin 'Utbah] that he heard [Abdullah bin Abbas] say, "[Umar bin Khattab] said while sitting on the pulpit of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, 'Indeed, Allah sent Muhammad, peace and blessings be upon him, with the truth, and He revealed the Book to him. Among the verses revealed to him, which we all read, studied, and sought to understand, was the verse about stoning. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, carried out the stoning punishment, and we will continue to carry it out after his passing. I fear that as time passes, some will say, "We do not find the verse about stoning in the Qur'an," and thus go astray by abandoning an obligatory ruling revealed by Allah Almighty. Indeed, the stoning punishment in the Book of Allah is obligatory for married men and women who commit adultery when there are witnesses, evidence, or a confession.' Narrated to us [Abu Bakar bin Abu Syaibah] and [Zuhair bin Harb] and [Ibnu Abu Umar], they said: Narrated to us [Sufyan] from [Az Zuhri] with this chain.

The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said to him, 'Perhaps you only kissed?' But he affirmed his confession with an oath that he had indeed committed adultery.' Jabir continued, 'Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, ordered that he be stoned. After that, he gave a sermon: "When we set out to fight in the way of Allah, one of you stays behind, making sounds like a male goat in heat, then gives something to the woman. By Allah, if I had the chance, I would punish him as a lesson."'

Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Al Mutsanna] and [Ibnu Basyar], the wording being from Ibnu Mutsanna, both said: Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Ja'far], narrated to us [Suyu'bah] from [Simak bin Harb], he said: I heard [Jabir bin Samurah] say, 'One day, a short man was brought before the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, looking disheveled, dirty, and wearing a sarong. He confessed to committing adultery, but initially, the Prophet rejected his confession twice. Then he ordered his companions to stone him. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: "When we set out to fight in the way of Allah, one of you stays behind, making sounds like an animal in heat and giving something to one of those women. If Allah gave me the chance to deal with him, I would punish him as a lesson—or give him a lesson." The narrator said, "I told this to [Sa'id bin Jubair], and he said, 'He rejected it four times.'" Narrated to us [Abu Bakar bin Abu Syaibah], narrated to us [Syababah]. In another chain, narrated to us [Ishaq bin Ibrahim], narrated to us [Abu 'Amir Al 'Aqdi], both from [Suyu'bah] from [Simak] from [Jabir bin Samurah] from the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, like the hadith of Ibnu Ja'far. [Syababah] also agreed on the statement, "He rejected it twice." In the hadith of Abu 'Amir, it is stated, "He rejected it two or three times."

Ma'iz asked, "What news reached you about me?" He replied, "Is it true you committed adultery with the slave woman of such-and-such family?" Ma'iz answered, "Yes, it is true." Narrated to me [Muhammad bin Al Mutsanna], narrated to me [Abdul A'la], narrated to us [Daud] from [Abu Nadlrah] from [Abu Sa'id], that a man from Bani Aslam named Ma'iz bin Malik came to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, saying, "I have committed a vile act, so purify me!" But the Prophet turned away from him multiple times. Abu Sa'id said, "Then he asked his people, and they replied, 'We see no vileness in him except that he has done something, and he cannot escape unless the prescribed punishment is applied.' Abu Sa'id continued, 'He returned to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and he ordered us to stone him.' Abu Sa'id continued, 'We went to Baqi' Gharqad, and we neither tied him nor buried him.' Abu Sa'id said, 'We threw bones and hard clay at him.' Abu Sa'id said, 'Ma'iz tried to flee until he reached near Hurrah, but we chased him, caught him, and threw large stones at him until he was still (dead).' In the evening, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, stood and gave a sermon, saying, 'Why is it that when we set out to fight in the way of Allah, one of you stays behind, making sounds like a male goat in heat? If you bring such a person to me, I will punish him.' Abu Sa'id said, 'He neither sought forgiveness for him nor cursed him.' Narrated to me [Muhammad bin Hatim], narrated to us [Bahz], narrated to us [Yazid bin Zurai'], narrated to us [Daud] with this chain, like the meaning of the hadith. In that hadith, he mentioned, 'In the evening, the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, stood, praised and glorified Allah, then said: "Amma Ba'du. Why is it that when we set out to fight, one of them stays behind, making sounds like a male goat in heat," and he did not mention, "with our families."' Narrated to us [Suraij bin Yunus], narrated to us [Yahya bin Zakaria bin Abu Zaidah]. In another chain, narrated to us [Abu Bakar bin Abu Syaibah], narrated to us [Mu'awiyah bin Hisyam], narrated to us [Sufyan], both from [Daud] with part of this hadith, but in Sufyan's hadith, it is stated, 'If he confessed to adultery three times.'

Narrated to me [Muhammad bin Al 'Ala Al Hamdani], narrated to us [Yahya bin Ya'la]—that is, Ibnu Al Harits Al Muharibi—from [Ghailan]—that is, Ibnu Jami' Al Muharibi—from [Alqamah bin Murtsad] from [Sulaiman bin Buraidah] from [his father], he said, 'Ma'iz bin Malik came to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, saying, "O Messenger of Allah, purify me." The Prophet replied, "Woe to you! Go back, seek forgiveness from Allah, and repent to Him." Ma'iz left, but soon returned, saying, "O Messenger of Allah, purify me." He replied, "Woe to you! Go back, seek forgiveness from Allah, and repent to Him." Ma'iz left again but returned shortly and said to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, "O Messenger of Allah, purify me." He replied as before, and this repeated four times. On the fourth time, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, asked, "From what should I purify you?" Ma'iz replied, "From the sin of adultery." The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, asked the companions around him, "Is Ma'iz insane?" They informed him that he was not insane. He asked, "Has he drunk alcohol?" A man stood to smell his breath but found no trace of alcohol. Buraidah continued, "Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, asked, 'Did you really commit adultery?' He replied, 'Yes, it is true.' So he ordered that he be stoned, and he was stoned.' Buraidah continued, 'People differed on this matter into two opinions: some said Ma'iz died, and his sin was expiated because he willingly underwent the punishment. Others said Ma'iz repented with the truest repentance, unmatched by any other. He came to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, placed his hand on his, and said, "O Messenger of Allah, stone me with stones." They continued to differ on this for two or three days. Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, came, gave salutations, sat with them, and said, "Seek forgiveness for Ma'iz bin Malik." They sought forgiveness for him, saying, "May Allah forgive Ma'iz bin Malik." Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "Indeed, Ma'iz repented perfectly, and if his repentance were divided among a community, it would suffice them all."

Narrated to us [Abu Bakar bin Abu Syaibah], narrated to us [Abdullah bin Numair]. In another chain, narrated to us [Muhammad bin Abdullah bin Numair], the wording being close, narrated to us [my father], narrated to us [Basyir bin Muhajir], narrated to us [Abdullah bin Buraidah] from [his father], that Ma'iz bin Malik Al Aslami went to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, saying, "O Messenger of Allah, I have wronged myself by committing adultery, so I want you to purify me." But he rejected his confession. The next day, he came again, saying, "O Messenger of Allah, I have committed adultery." But he rejected his confession a second time. Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, sent someone to his people, saying, "Do you know if there is something wrong with Ma'iz's mind that you would disapprove of?" They replied, "We are not certain if Ma'iz is disturbed in his mind as far as we know, he is a good person with a sound mind." For the third time, Ma'iz bin Malik came to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, to purify himself from the sin of adultery he had committed. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, sent someone to his people to ask about Ma'iz's mental state, but they informed him that his mind was sound and he was among the good people. When Ma'iz bin Malik came the fourth time, the Prophet ordered a pit to be dug for Ma'iz. Finally, he ordered that he be stoned, and the stoning punishment was carried out. Buraidah continued, "Once, a woman from Ghamidiyah came to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, saying, 'O Messenger of Allah, I have committed adultery, so purify me.' But for the first time, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, ignored and rejected her confession. The next day, she came to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, saying, 'O Messenger of Allah, why do you reject my confession? It seems you reject my confession as you did Ma'iz's. By Allah, I am now pregnant from that illicit relationship.' Hearing her confession, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'If you wish to repent, go back until you give birth.' After giving birth, she came again to him carrying her baby wrapped in cloth, saying, 'Here is the baby I have given birth to.' He then said, 'Go back and breastfeed your baby until you wean him.' After the weaning period, she came again with her baby, who was holding a piece of bread, saying, 'O Prophet of Allah, I have weaned this child, and he can now eat his own food.' Then he handed the baby to a Muslim man and ordered the stoning punishment. The woman was buried up to her chest in the ground. Then he ordered the people to stone her. Meanwhile, Khalid bin Walid joined in stoning her head with a stone, and suddenly her blood splattered on Khalid's face, causing him to curse her. Hearing Khalid's curse, the Prophet of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'Calm yourself, O Khalid. By the One in Whose Hand is my soul, this woman has truly repented. If such repentance were done by a great sinner, his sins would be forgiven.' After that, he ordered her body to be prayed over and buried.

She said, 'O Messenger of Allah, I have violated the law, so enforce the punishment on me.' The Prophet of Allah called her guardian and said to him, 'Treat this woman well, and when she gives birth, bring her to me.' Her guardian followed the instruction. After that, the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, ordered her to be stoned, ensuring her clothing was adjusted (to prevent exposure during stoning). Then he ordered her to be stoned. After the stoning, he prayed over her body, but this caused Umar to ask, 'O Prophet of Allah, should she be prayed over? Did she not commit adultery?' He replied, 'Indeed, she has repented such that if her repentance were divided among seventy people of Madinah, it would suffice them all. Is there a greater repentance than giving her life to Allah Almighty willingly?' Narrated to us [Abu Bakar bin Abu Syaibah], narrated to us ['Affan bin Muslim], narrated to us [Aban Aal 'Athar], narrated to us [Yahya bin Abu Katsir] with this chain like this.

His opponent spoke up—and he was more knowledgeable than the first man—saying, 'Yes, judge our case according to the Book of Allah, and allow me to speak first.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'Speak.' He said, 'My son worked for this man, and he accused my son of committing adultery with his wife. I know my son should be stoned, so I ransomed him with one hundred goats and a female slave, but then I asked the scholars, and they said my son should be whipped one hundred times and exiled for a year, while the woman should be stoned.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'By the One in Whose Hand is my soul, I will judge both of you according to the Book of Allah. The slave and the goats will be returned, while your son must be whipped one hundred times and exiled for one year. O Unais, tomorrow morning go to this man's wife and investigate whether she indeed committed adultery. If she confesses to adultery, then stone her.' Abu Hurairah said, 'In the morning, Unais examined the woman, and she confessed to adultery, so the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, ordered her to be stoned, and she was stoned.' Narrated to me [Al Hakam bin Musa Abu Shalih], narrated to us [Syua'ib bin Ishaq], narrated to us ['Ubaidullah] from [Nafi'] that [Abdullah bin Umar] narrated to him, that a man and a woman were brought before the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, accused of committing adultery. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, went to the Jews and asked, 'What do you know in the Torah about the punishment for those who commit adultery?' They replied, 'We blacken their faces with charcoal, then place them back-to-back on a mount and parade them around the city.' He said, 'If you are truthful, show me your Torah.' They brought the Torah and read it in his presence. When the reading reached the verse about stoning, the young man reading placed his hand to cover that verse and moved to the next. But Abdullah bin Salam, who was accompanying the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'O Messenger of Allah, tell him to lift his hand.' When the young man lifted his hand, the verse about stoning was revealed beneath it. Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, ordered that both be stoned, and they were stoned. Abdullah bin Umar said, 'I was among those who stoned them, and I saw the man trying to shield the woman with his body from the stones.' Narrated to us [Zuhair bin Harb], narrated to us [Isma'il]—that is, Ibnu 'Ulayyah—from [Ayyub]. In another chain, narrated to me [Abu At Thahir], narrated to us [Abdullah bin Wahb], narrated to me learned men, including [Malik bin Anas], that [Nafi'] narrated to them from [Ibnu Umar], that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, stoned a Jewish man and woman caught committing adultery, and the Jews brought them to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him... then they continued the hadith like the one above. Narrated to us [Ahmad bin Yunus], narrated to us [Zuhair], narrated to us [Musa bin 'Uqbah] from [Nafi'] from [Ibnu Umar], that the Jews came to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, with a man and a woman who had committed adultery... then he mentioned as in the hadith of Ubaidullah from Nafi'.

Narrated to us [Yahya bin Yahya] and [Abu Bakar bin Abu Syaibah], both from [Abu Mu'awiyah]. [Yahya] said: Narrated to us [Abu Mu'awiyah] from [Al A'masy] from [Abdullah bin Murrah] from [Al Barra` bin 'Azib], he said, 'Once, a Jew, blackened and whipped, passed by the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him. He called them and said, "Is this the punishment for adultery you find in your Torah?" They replied, "Yes." Then he called a man from their scholars and asked, "I urge you to swear by the name of Allah who revealed the Torah to Moses, is this how the punishment for adultery is found in your Torah?" He replied, "No, if you had not sworn me by Allah's name, I would not have told you the truth. In the Torah, we know the punishment is stoning, but it is usually not applied to our elites. If an elite is caught, we let them go, but if a commoner is caught, we enforce the Torah's law. We discussed and decided on a punishment to apply to both elites and commoners, so we chose blackening the body and whipping instead of stoning." After he finished speaking, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "O Allah, I am the first to revive Your Sunnah after they abolished this command." Then he ordered the Jew who committed adultery to be stoned, and he was stoned. Then Allah Almighty revealed the verse: "(O Messenger, do not grieve for those who hasten to disbelief—until His saying—If this is given to you, accept it)" (Qur'an, Al-Ma'idah: 41). The Jews said, "Come to Muhammad, peace and blessings be upon him. If he rules for blackening and whipping, accept it, but if he rules for stoning, beware." Then Allah Almighty revealed the verses: "(Whoever does not judge by what Allah has revealed, they are the disbelievers. Whoever does not judge by what Allah has revealed, they are the oppressors. Whoever does not judge by what Allah has revealed, they are the sinners)" (Qur'an, Al-Ma'idah: 44-47). This also applies to all disbelievers. Narrated to us [Ibnu Numair] and [Abu Sa'id Al Asyaji], both said: Narrated to us [Waki'], narrated to us [Al A'masy] with this chain up to his saying, "Then the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, ordered him to be stoned, and he was stoned." And he did not mention anything after that, like the revelation of the verses.

Narrated to us [Zuhair bin Harb], narrated to me [Syababah], narrated to me [Warqa`] from [Abu Az Zinnad] from [Al A'raj] from [Abu Hurairah] from the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, he said: "There were two women playing with their respective children. Suddenly, a wolf came and attacked, taking the child of one of them. One woman said to the other, 'It was your child the wolf took.' The other denied it, saying, 'No, it was your child the wolf took.' They sought a decision from David, but David ruled that the living child belonged to the older woman. Then they went to Solomon bin David, peace be upon them, and told him what happened. After hearing their story, Solomon said, 'Very well, bring me a knife, and I will cut the child in two for both of you.' Suddenly, the younger woman said, 'No, may Allah have mercy on you, give the child to her.' So Solomon ruled that the child belonged to the younger woman." Al A'raj continued, "Then Abu Hurairah commented on this hadith, 'This is the first time I heard the word sikkin (knife) in this hadith story, as we usually call it mudyah (knife).'" Narrated to us [Yahya bin Ayyub] and [Qutaibah] and [Ibnu Hujr]. Ibnu Hujr said: Narrated to us, while the other two said: Narrated to us [Isma'il]—that is, Ibnu Ja'far—from [Rabi'ah bin Abu Abdurrahman] from [Yazid], the freed slave of Al Munba'its, from [Zaid bin Khalid Al Juhani], that a man asked the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, about found items, and he said: "Announce it for a year, then identify its container and string, and afterward you may use it. If its owner comes, give it to them." The man asked again, "O Messenger of Allah, what about a stray goat?" He replied, "Take it it may belong to you, your brother, or even the wolf." He asked again, "O Messenger of Allah, what about a stray camel?" Zaid bin Khalid said, "The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, became angry until his face turned red, then said: 'What is your business with a stray camel? It has its own feet and water container until it meets its owner.'" Narrated to me [Abu At Thahir], narrated to us [Abdullah bin Wahb], narrated to me [Sufyan Ats Tsauri] and [Malik bin Anas] and ['Amru bin Al Harits] and others, that [Rabi'ah bin Abu Abdurrahman] narrated to them with this chain like the hadith of Malik, except he added: Zaid said, "A man came to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, while I was with him, and asked about found items." The narrator said: Amru mentioned in the hadith, "If the owner has not come to claim it, you may use it." Narrated to me [Ahmad bin Utsman bin Hakim Al Audi], narrated to me [Khla'id bin Makhlad], narrated to me [Sulaiman]—that is, Ibnu Bilal—from [Rabi'ah bin Abu Abdurrahman] from [Yazid], the freed slave of Al Munba'its, he said: I heard [Zaid bin Khalid Al Juhani] say, "A man came to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him," then he mentioned like the hadith of Isma'il bin Ja'far, but he said, "Then he became angry until his face turned red." And after the statement, "then announce it for a year, if the owner has not come, it becomes a trust for you."

Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Basyar], narrated to us [Muhammad bin Ja'far], narrated to us [Suyu'bah]. (In another chain) Narrated to me [Abu Bakar bin Nafi'], with his wording, narrated to us [Ghundar], narrated to us [Suyu'bah] from [Salamah bin Kuhail], he said: I heard [Suwaid bin Ghafalah] say, 'I was with Zaid bin Shuhan and Salman bin Rabi'ah going to war, and on the way, I found a whip and took it. My two companions said, "Do not take it, leave it." I replied, "No, I will announce it. If the owner comes to claim it, I will give it to them if no one claims it, I will use it myself." I disagreed with my two companions. After returning from the war, Allah destined me to perform Hajj. Upon arriving in Medina, I met [Ubay bin Ka'ab] and told him about the whip I found and my companions' opinion. He said, "During the time of the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), I found a pouch containing one hundred gold dinars. I brought it to the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), and he said, 'Announce it for a year.' I announced it for a year, but no one claimed it. I brought it back to the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), and he said, 'Announce it for a year.' I announced it again, but no one claimed it. Then he said, 'Record its amount, mark its string and container. If the owner comes and claims it, give it to them if no one claims it, you may use it.' I used the gold for my needs. Later, I met him in Mecca, and he said, 'I do not know if he announced it for three years or one year.' Narrated to me [Abdurrahman bin Bisyr Al 'Abdi], narrated to us [Bahs], narrated to us [Suyu'bah], informed us [Salamah bin Kuhail] or he informed a group, and I was among those who heard, he said: I heard [Suwaid bin Ghafalah] say, 'I went with Zaid bin Shuhan and Salman bin Rabi'ah, then I found a whip...' and he continued as in the above hadith until, 'Then I used it for my needs.' Syu'bah said, 'I heard it ten years ago that he said, "Announce it for a year."' Narrated to us [Qutaibah bin Sa'id], narrated to us [Jarir] from [Al A'masy]. (In another chain) Narrated to us [Abu Bakar bin Abu Syaibah], narrated to us [Waki']. (In another chain) Narrated to us [Ibnu Numair], narrated to us [my father], all from [Sufyan]. (In another chain) Narrated to me [Muhammad bin Hatim], narrated to us [Abdullah bin Ja'far Ar Raqi], narrated to us [Ubaidullah] - that is Ibnu 'Amru - from [Zaid bin Abu Unaisah]. (In another chain) Narrated to me [Abdurrahman bin Bisyr], narrated to us [Bahs], narrated to us [Hammad bin Salamah], all from [Salamah bin Kuhail] with this chain, similar to Syu'bah's hadith. In their hadiths, it is mentioned, 'Three years,' except in Hammad bin Salamah's hadith, it is mentioned, 'Two years or three years.' In the hadiths of Sufyan, Zaid bin Abu Unaisah, and Hammad bin Salamah, it is mentioned, 'If someone comes to you and describes its amount, container, and string, give it to them.' Sufyan added in Waki's narration, 'If not, it is like your property.' In Ibnu Numair's narration, it is mentioned, 'If not, use it.'

Narrated to us [Yahya bin Yahya At Tamimi], he said: I recited before [Malik bin Anas] from [Nafi'] from [Ibnu Umar], that the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: 'Do not milk someone else's livestock without their permission. The udders of their goats are their food storage, so none of you should milk someone else's livestock without permission.' Narrated to us [Qutaibah bin Sa'id] and [Muhammad bin Rumh], both from [Laits bin Sa'd]. (In another narration) Narrated to us [Abu Bakar bin Abu Syaibah], narrated to us [Ali bin Mushir]. Narrated to us [Abu Bakar bin Abu Syaibah], narrated to us [Waki' bin Al Jarrah] from [Sufyan]. (In another narration) Narrated to us [Ishaq bin Ibrahim], informed us [Yahya bin Adam], narrated to us [Sufyan], he said: and he dictated to us. (In another narration) Narrated to me [Abdullah bin Hasyim], with his wording. Narrated to me [Abdurrahman bin Mahdi], narrated to us [Sufyan] from ['Alqamah bin Martsad] from [Sulaiman bin Buraidah] from [his father], he said: 'Whenever the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) appointed a commander or leader of an army, he always advised them to fear Allah, then said: "Fight in the name of Allah to uphold the way of Allah. Fight those who disbelieve in Allah. Fight, but do not cheat (in spoils), do not break promises, do not kill cruelly, and do not kill children. When you meet your enemy from the polytheists, invite them to three things. If they accept any of them, accept it and stop fighting them. Then invite them to embrace Islam. If they accept, accept them. Then invite them to move from their homeland to the homeland of the Muhajirin. If they agree, inform them they have the same rights and obligations as the Muhajirin. If they refuse to move, inform them they are like other Muslim Arabs, not entitled to any spoils unless they fight with the Muslims. If they refuse, ask for tribute from them. If they agree, accept it and do not fight them. If they refuse, seek help from Allah and fight them. If you besiege a fortress and they request safety and guarantee from Allah and His Messenger, do not grant it. Instead, place them under your protection and that of your companions, as the risk of breaking your and your companions' protection is lighter than breaking the protection of Allah and His Messenger. If they request to be placed under Allah's law, do not grant it, but apply your own judgment, as you may not know if you can uphold Allah's law for them or not.'" Abdurrahman said: 'Like this or similar.' [Ishaq] added at the end of his hadith, from [Yahya bin Adam], he said: I mentioned this hadith to [Muqatil bin Hayyan]. Yahya said: 'That is, Alqamah said to Ibnu Hayyan, narrated to me [Muslim bin Haisham] from [An Nu'man bin Muqarrin] from the Prophet (peace be upon him) like that.' Narrated to me [Hajjaj bin Sya'ir], narrated to me [Abdush Shammad bin Abdul Warits], narrated to us [Syu'bah], narrated to me ['Alqamah bin Martsad], that [Sulaiman bin Buraidah] narrated from [his father], he said: 'Whenever the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) appointed a commander or leader of an army, he prayed for them and advised them...' then he continued the hadith similar to Sufyan's.

He went to war, and near Asr time, he reached a village and said to the sun: 'O sun, you are commanded, and I am commanded.' Then he prayed: 'O Allah, halt the sun's movement for my cause.' The sun stopped until Allah granted them victory over their enemy. When the spoils were gathered, fire came to consume them but did not. The prophet said: 'Some of you have hidden spoils, so let each tribe pledge loyalty to me!' They pledged by shaking his hand. He said again: 'Some of you have hidden spoils, let each tribe pledge to me!' He shook hands with two or three men and said: 'You have hidden spoils.' They brought out a lump of gold the size of a cow's head and gave it to the prophet, who placed it with the spoils on the hill. Then fire consumed the spoils." He continued: "Spoils were not lawful for anyone before us because Allah knew our weakness, so He made them lawful for us."

Narrated to us [Yahya bin Yahya At Tamimi], informed us [Husayim] from [Yahya bin Sa'id] from [Umar bin Katsir bin Aflah] from [Abu Muhammad Al Anshari] - a student of Abu Qatadah - he said: [Abu Qatadah] said then he narrated the hadith. Narrated to us [Qutaibah bin Sa'id], narrated to us [Laits] from [Yahya bin Sa'id] from [Umar bin Katsir] from [Abu Muhammad], a freed slave of Abu Qatadah, that [Abu Qatadah] said then he mentioned the hadith. Narrated to us [Abu At Thahir] and [Harmalah], with Harmalah's wording, informed us [Abdullah bin Wahb], he said: I heard [Malik bin Anas] say: Narrated to me [Yahya bin

Sa'id] from [Umar bin Katsir bin Aflah] from [Abu Muhammad], a freed slave of Abu Qatadah, from [Abu Qatadah], he said: 'We went to war with the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) in the Battle of Hunain. When we faced the enemy, some Muslims retreated. I saw a polytheist overpowering a Muslim, so I turned back, approached from behind, and struck his neck. But the polytheist turned and grabbed me tightly. I knew he was near death, and when he died, I was released. Then I met Umar bin Khattab, who asked: "How is the army?" I replied: "That's Allah's affair." The people returned, and the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) sat and said: "Whoever kills an enemy and has a witness, all the equipment of the killed belongs to him." I stood and said: "Who will be my witness?" then sat. The Messenger said it again. I stood and said: "Who will be my witness?" then sat. He said it a third time, so I stood again. The Messenger asked: "What's with you, O Abu Qatadah?" I told him how I killed an enemy. A soldier spoke: "Abu Qatadah is right, O Messenger of Allah! The equipment of the killed is with me, so ask him to yield his right to me." Abu Bakar said: "No, by Allah, a lion among Allah's lions who fights for Him and His Messenger, and you get his spoils?" The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: "That's true, give Abu Qatadah his right." I sold the armor and bought a garden in Bani Salamah's orchards. That was the first property I gained in Islam.' In Laits's hadith, Abu Bakar said: 'Never, (Allah) does not give it to belittle a Quraysh and deny the rights of Allah's lions.' In Al Laits's hadith, it is mentioned: 'The first property I gained in Islam.'

Narrated to us [Yahya bin Yahya At Tamimi], informed us [Yusuf bin Al Majisyun] from [Shalih bin Ibrahim bin Abdurrahman bin Auf] from [his father] from [Abdurrahman bin Auf], he said: 'During the Battle of Badr, as I stood in the ranks, I looked to my right and left and found myself between two young Ansar men, though I wished to be between stronger men. One of them signaled me with his eyes, saying: "O uncle, do you know Abu Jahal?" I said: "Yes, what do you want with him, my nephew?" He replied: "I heard he insulted the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him). By the One in whose hand is my soul, if I see him, I won't part from him until one of us dies." I was amazed. The other signaled me and asked the same. Soon after, I saw Abu Jahal moving among the crowd, so I said to them: "Don't you see? That's the man you asked about." They rushed him, struck with their swords, and killed him. They returned to the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) and informed him. He asked: "Which of you killed him?" Each said: "I killed him!" He said: "Have you cleaned your swords?" They said: "Not yet." He looked at the swords and said: "Both of you killed him." He gave the spoils of the killed to Mu'adz bin 'Amru bin Jamuh. The two youths were Mu'adz bin 'Amru bin Jamuh and Mu'adz bin 'Afra.'

'Auf bin Malik reported to the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), who said: "Why didn't you give him his spoils?" Khalid replied: "I gave him plenty, O Messenger of Allah!" He said: "Give him his share!" Once, Khalid passed by 'Auf, who pulled his cloak hard and said: "Didn't you hear what I conveyed from the Messenger's ruling?" The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) heard 'Auf's words, got angry, and said: "O Khalid, do not give it to him, do not give it to him!" Then he said to 'Auf: "Why not leave the commanders I appoint to me? Your example and theirs is like a shepherd of camels or goats who brings them to a pond. The animals drink the clean water, leaving the dirty water. The clean water is for you, and the dirty water is for them." Narrated to me [Zuhair bin Harb], narrated to us [Al Walid bin Muslim], narrated to us [Shafwan bin 'Amru] from [Abdurrahman bin Jubair bin Nufair] from [his father] from ['Auf bin Malik Al Asyja'i], he said: 'I went out with Zaid bin Haritsah in the Battle of Mu'tah, and a group of Yemeni soldiers came to assist me...' then he continued the hadith as above, but it mentioned: "[Auf] said: 'O [Khalid], don't you know the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) ruled that whoever kills an enemy gets his spoils?' Khalid replied: 'Yes, but I gave him plenty.'

While we were having lunch with the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), a man arrived on a red camel. After making it kneel and untying its rope, he ate with us, glancing around. After eating, some rested due to fatigue from days on their mounts, especially those walking. Soon, the man hurriedly went to his camel, untied it, mounted, and urged it to run fast. Unnoticed, another man on a gray camel followed him. Salamah said: 'I rushed after him on a camel, chased until I was near his camel, grabbed its reins, and when I made it kneel and his feet touched the ground, I drew my sword and struck him until he fell dead. I returned, riding the camel and leading his camel and belongings. The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) and his companions welcomed me. He said: "Who killed that man?" The companions said: "Ibnu Akwa'." He said: "Thus, he is entitled to all the belongings of the killed."

I saw among them captives, including children and women. Fearing they'd climb the mountain first, I shot arrows at the enemy group near the mountain. Seeing the arrows, they stopped, and I captured them. Among them was a woman from Bani Fazarah wearing a leather head covering, with her beautiful daughter, among the finest Arab women. I handed them to Abu Bakar, who gave me her daughter as spoils. We returned to Medina, and I hadn't touched her. While in the market, I met the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), who said: "O Abu Salamah, give me that girl from yesterday!" I said: "O Messenger of Allah, by Allah, she amazed me, but I haven't touched her." The next day, he met me in the market and said: "O Salamah, give me that girl!" Narrated to me [Abdullah bin Muhammad bin Asma Adl Dlubai], narrated to us [Juwairiyah] from [Malik] from [Az Zuhri] that [Malik bin Aus] narrated to him, saying, '[Umar bin Khattab] summoned me, so I came to him when the day grew hot.' Malik bin Aus said, 'I found him in his house sitting on a bed touching the ground, leaning on a leather cushion.' He said to me, 'O Malik, your people with their families have arrived swiftly from a journey. I have ordered something to be distributed to them, so distribute (the spoils) among them.' Malik bin Aus said, 'I said, "It would be better if you ordered someone else besides me." Umar said, "Take it, O Malik." Malik bin Aus said, 'Then Yarfa came and said, "O Commander of the Faithful, may [Uthman bin 'Affan], [Abdurrahman bin 'Auf], [Zubair bin 'Awwam], and [Sa'd] enter?' Umar replied, "Yes, let them enter." Then they entered. Later, Yarfa came again and said, "May [Ali] and [Abbas] enter?" Umar replied, "Yes, they may." They were allowed to enter. Then Abbas said, "O Commander of the Faithful, judge between me and this liar, traitor, and sinner." Some people said, "Indeed, O Commander of the Faithful, judge him and resolve the matter." Malik bin Aus said, "I assumed Abbas and Ali were leading that group." Umar said, "Be calm, both of you. I seek goodness for you from Allah, by Whose permission the heavens and earth stand. Do you know that the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said: 'We do not leave an inheritance what we leave is charity'?" They replied, "Yes." Then Umar turned to Ali and Abbas and said, "I seek goodness for you from Allah, by Whose permission the heavens and earth stand. Do you know that the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said: 'We do not leave an inheritance what we leave is charity'?" Abbas and Ali said, "Yes, indeed." Umar then said, "Indeed, Allah Almighty gave a special privilege to His Messenger, peace be upon him, not given to others. Allah said: '(And whatever spoils Allah granted His Messenger are for Allah and His Messenger...)' (Qur'an, Al-Hashr: 7)—I am unsure if Umar recited the preceding verse or not. Umar said, 'Then the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, distributed the wealth of Banu Nadir among you. By Allah, he did not keep it for himself excluding you, so some of it remained. The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, took it to provide for his family for a year, and the rest he designated for public welfare.' Then Umar said, 'I ask you all, by Allah's permission by which the heavens and earth stand, do you know this?' They replied, 'Yes, indeed.' Then he turned to Abbas and Ali as he did with the group, 'Do you both know this?' They replied, 'Yes, indeed.' Umar continued, 'When the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, passed away, [Abu Bakr] said, "I am the successor of the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him." Then both of you sought the inheritance from his cousin, while this one (Ali) demanded his wife's inheritance from her father. Abu Bakr said, "Did not the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, say: 'We do not leave an inheritance what we leave is charity'?" Do you both see him as a liar, sinner, or traitor? By Allah, He knows Abu Bakr was truthful, good, wise, and followed the truth. After Abu Bakr's passing, I became the successor of the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, and Abu Bakr. Do you both see me as a liar, sinner, or traitor? By Allah, He knows I am truthful, good, wise, and follow the truth, yet you turned away from me. Then you both came to me, along with others, regarding a single matter. You both asked me, and I replied, "If you want that portion distributed to you, you must use it as the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, did, and take it under that agreement. But now you come to me seeking a ruling between you that contradicts that agreement. By Allah, I will not rule except according to that agreement until the Day of Judgment. If you cannot fulfill its terms, return that portion to me." Narrated to us [Ishaq bin Ibrahim] and [Muhammad bin Rafi'] and [Abd bin Humaid], [Ibn Rafi'] said: narrated to us, while the others said: informed us [Abdurrazaq], informed us [Ma'mar] from [Az Zuhri] from [Malik bin Aus bin Al-Haddatsan], he said, "Umar bin Khattab sent for me, saying, 'Indeed, people from some families of your tribe...' like the hadith of Malik, but it mentions, 'With it, he provided for his family for a year.' It seems Ma'mar said, 'He provided sustenance from it for his family for a year, then made the remaining wealth as Allah's wealth.'

Narrated to me [Muhammad bin Rafi'], informed us [Hujain], narrated to us [Laits] from ['Uqil] from [Ibn Shihab] from ['Urwah bin Zubair] from ['Aisyah], that she informed him that Fatimah, daughter of the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, sent someone to [Abu Bakr], requesting her share of the inheritance of the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, in Medina, Fadak, and one-fifth of the remaining spoils of Khaibar. Abu Bakr replied, 'The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said: "Our inheritance cannot be inherited what we leave is charity, and the family of Muhammad, peace be upon him, may only benefit from that charity." By Allah, I dare not alter the charity established by the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him. I will keep it as it was during his time, and I will continue what he did.' Abu Bakr refused Fatimah's request, so she became very upset and angry with Abu Bakr's action. Urwah continued, 'She even refused to speak to him until her death, six months after the passing of the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him. When Fatimah passed away, her husband, Ali bin Abu Thalib, buried her at night without informing Abu Bakr beforehand. Ali also performed her funeral prayer. While Fatimah was alive, many respected Ali, but this changed after her death. Then he considered reconciling with Abu Bakr and pledging allegiance to him, as he had not done so for months. Ali wrote to Abu Bakr, saying, "I hope you come to me, but do not bring anyone else."—it seems Ali disliked Abu Bakr being accompanied by Umar bin al-Khattab. Umar said to Abu Bakr, "By Allah, do not meet him alone." Abu Bakr replied, "I am certain Ali will not harm me. By Allah, I will meet him." With confidence, Abu Bakr went to meet Ali. Upon meeting, Ali bin Abu Thalib pledged allegiance to him, saying, "O Abu Bakr, I know the virtues and goodness Allah has bestowed upon you, and I am not envious of the blessings Allah has granted you. But I believe you acted unjustly toward me. As the closest family of the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, I should have a right to his inheritance." Ali's words flowed so strongly that Abu Bakr shed tears. With emotion, Abu Bakr explained, "By the One in Whose hand is my soul, the family and kin of the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, are dearer to me than my own family. Regarding the inheritance we dispute, I have always strived to be just, wise, and adhere to the truth. I will not abandon what the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, did I will uphold it." Ali said to Abu Bakr, "Nevertheless, I will pledge allegiance to you this afternoon." After performing the Dhuhr prayer, Abu Bakr ascended the pulpit, recited the testimony of faith, and explained to the Muslims present the reason for Ali's delayed pledge and its cause, then sought forgiveness. Then Ali stood, honored Abu Bakr's stance, and stated he was not envious of the virtues and blessings Allah granted Abu Bakr. But, he continued, 'We, the closest family of the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, see that he acted unjustly toward our family, especially regarding the spoils of war left by the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him. It is our right to claim it.' Most Muslims present rejoiced at Ali's statement, saying, 'You have spoken truly.' Ali grew closer to the Muslims after boldly addressing the issue.

Abu Bakr replied, 'The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said: "The inheritance I leave cannot be inherited it is charity." Urwah said, 'Fatimah lived for six months after the passing of the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, continually requesting her share of the inheritance from the remaining spoils of Khaibar, namely Fadak and Medina. But Abu Bakr refused, saying, "I dare not alter what the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, established, and I will continue what he did. Indeed, I fear if I disobey his command, I will stray." As for the charity in Medina, Umar preserved it from Ali and Abbas, as well as the land of Fadak, saying, "Both are the charity of the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, whose rights must be fulfilled, given to those in need. And so it continues to this day."

Narrated to us [Hannad bin Sari], narrated to us [Ibn Al Mubarak] from ['Ikrimah bin Ammar], narrated to me [Simak Al Hanafi], he said: I heard [Ibn Abbas] say: narrated to me [Umar bin Khattab], he said, 'During the Battle of Badr.' (In another chain) Narrated to us

[Zuhair bin Harb], and this is his wording, narrated to us [Umar bin Yunus Al Hanafi], narrated to us ['Ikrimah bin 'Ammar], narrated to me [Abu Zumail]—that is, Simak Al Hanafi—narrated to me [Abdullah bin Abbas], he said: narrated to me [Umar bin Khattab], he said, 'During the Battle of Badr, the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, saw the polytheists' army numbering a thousand, while his companions were only three hundred and nineteen. The Prophet of Allah, peace be upon him, faced the qibla, raising his hands, praying: "O Allah, fulfill Your promise to me. O Allah, grant what You promised me. O Allah, if this small group of Muslims perishes, no one will worship You on this earth." He continued praying to his Lord, raising his hands toward the qibla, until his shawl fell from his shoulders. Abu Bakr approached, took the shawl, placed it back on his shoulders, and stood behind him. Abu Bakr said, "O Prophet of Allah, your supplication to Allah is sufficient He will surely fulfill His promise to you." Then Allah revealed: '(Remember when you sought help from your Lord, and He answered you: "Indeed, I will reinforce you with a thousand angels, following one another.")' (Qur'an, Al-Anfal: 9). Allah aided him with angelic forces. Abu Zumail said, 'Ibn Abbas narrated to me, saying, "On that day, when a Muslim soldier pursued a polytheist ahead of him, he suddenly heard the sound of a whip above the polytheist's head, and a rider's voice saying, 'Advance, O Haizum!' Unexpectedly, the polytheist fell dead, his nose swollen, his face split as if struck by a whip, and his body turned green. The Muslim soldier reported this to the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, who said: 'You are right that was aid from the third heaven.' On that day, the Muslims killed seventy polytheists and captured seventy others.' Abu Zumail continued, 'Ibn Abbas said, "When the captives were detained, the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, asked Abu Bakr and Umar: 'What is your opinion on these captives?' Abu Bakr replied, 'O Prophet of Allah, they are our cousins and kin. I suggest we take ransom from them, strengthening us against the disbelievers, and perhaps Allah will guide them to Islam.' The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said: 'What is your opinion, O Ibnul Khattab?' I replied, 'No, by Allah, O Messenger of Allah, I disagree with Abu Bakr. I suggest you allow me to behead them, allow Ali to behead 'Uqail, and allow me to behead so-and-so—meaning my own brother—because they are the leaders and chiefs of the disbelievers.' But the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, approved Abu Bakr's opinion and not mine. The next day, I found him and Abu Bakr sitting and weeping. I said, 'Tell me, why are you both weeping? If I can weep, I will, or I will pretend to weep for you.' The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said: 'I weep because the ransom your companions took for the captives was cheaper than this wood.'—referring to a piece of wood near him. Then Allah Almighty revealed: 'It is not fitting for a prophet to have prisoners of war until he has thoroughly subdued the enemy on earth... until His words: so eat of the spoils.' (Qur'an, Al-Anfal: 67-69). Thus, Allah made the spoils lawful for them.'

Narrated to us [Qutaibah bin Sa'id], narrated to us [Laits] from [Sa'id bin Abu Sa'id] that he heard [Abu Hurairah] say, 'The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, sent a cavalry to Najd, and they captured a man from Banu Hanifah named Thumamah bin Uthal, a leader of Yamamah's people. They tied him to a pillar in the mosque. The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, came out to him and said: "How are you, O Thumamah?" He replied, "I am well, O Muhammad. If you kill me, you will shed blood. If you free me, you free a grateful man. If you want wealth, name your price, and I will give it." The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, left him. The next day, he asked again: "How are you, O Thumamah?" He replied, "As I told you: if you kill me, you shed blood if you free me, you free a grateful man if you want wealth, name your price." The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, left him. The following day, he asked again: "How are you, O Thumamah?" He replied, "As I said: if you kill me, you shed blood if you free me, you free a grateful man if you want wealth, name your price." The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said: "Release Thumamah!" He went to a palm tree near the mosque, bathed, entered the mosque, and said, "I testify that there is no god but Allah, and Muhammad is His servant and Messenger. O Muhammad, by Allah, no face on earth was more hated to me than yours, but now your face is the most beloved. By Allah, no religion was more hated to me than yours, but now your religion is the most beloved. No land was more hated to me than yours, but now it is the most beloved. Your cavalry captured me while I intended to perform Umrah. What is your opinion?" The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, gave him glad tidings and instructed him to perform Umrah. Upon arriving in Mecca, people asked him, "Have you changed your religion?" He replied, "No, but I have embraced Islam with the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him. By Allah, not a single grain will come to you from Yamamah without the permission of the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him." Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Mutsanna], narrated to us [Abu Bakar Al Hanafi], narrated to me [Abdul Hamid bin Ja'far], narrated to me [Sa'id bin Abu Sa'id Al Maqburi] that he heard [Abu Hurairah] say, 'The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, sent a cavalry toward Najd, and they brought a man named Thumamah bin Uthal Al Hanafi, a leader of Yamamah's people...' then he continued the hadith like Laits' narration, but he said, 'If you kill me, you have shed blood.'

So he expelled Banu Nadir and allowed Banu Quraizhah to remain in Medina until they later fought him. The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, then killed their men, distributed their women, children, and wealth among the Muslims. However, some of them came to the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, seeking safety and embracing Islam. The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, expelled all the Jews from Medina, including Banu Qainuqa', the followers of Abdullah bin Salam, Banu Harithah, and all Jews in Medina without exception. "Narrated to us [Abu Kuraib], narrated to us [Ibn Numair] from [Hisyam], narrated to me [my father] from ['Aisyah] that Sa'd said—when his illness worsened—'O Allah, You know there is nothing I love more than jihad in Your way against those who deny Your Messenger, peace be upon him, and expel him. O Allah, if war remains with the Quraysh, keep me alive to fight them in Your way. I am certain You have ordained war between us and them, so if You have ordained it, let me die in that war.' Blood flowed heavily from Sa'd's wound, unnoticed by the companions. A tent from Banu Ghifar was in the mosque, and the blood flowed toward them. They said, 'O tent dwellers, what blood flows from you?' It was Sa'd's wound bleeding until he passed away.' Narrated to us [Ali bin Al Husain bin Sulaiman Al Kufi], narrated to us ['Abdah] from [Hisyam] with this chain, like the hadith. But he mentioned, 'That night, his wound kept bleeding until he died,' and added, 'A poet recited: "Know, O Sa'd, Quraizhah and Nadir did nothing to Sa'd bin Mu'adh. #By your life, Sa'd bin Mu'adh endured pain in the morning, yet remained patient. #You left your pot empty, while others' pots boiled on the stove. #The noble Abu Hubab said: Stay, O Banu Qainuqa', do not move. #In their land, they felt weary, as they did in Mithan ash-Shukhur."'

Some companions feared missing the prayer time and prayed before reaching Banu Quraizhah, while others said, "We will not pray except at the place the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, instructed, even if the time has passed." Abdullah said, "And he did not rebuke either group."

Narrated to us [Abu At Thahir] and [Harmalah], both: informed us [Ibn Wahb], informed me [Yunus] from [Ibn Shihab] from [Anas bin Malik], he said, 'When the Muhajirin arrived from Mecca to Medina, they came with nothing, while the Ansar had land and date groves. The Ansar shared some with the Muhajirin, on the condition they give half their harvest yearly. The Muhajirin paid the Ansar with labor and food.' Anas's mother, Ummu Sulaim, and the mother of Abdullah bin Abu Talhah—Anas's half-brother—gave her date grove to the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, who gave it to Ummu Aiman, the freed slave of Usamah bin Zaid's mother. Ibn Shihab said, 'Anas bin Malik informed me that when the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, returned from Khaibar to Medina, the Muhajirin returned the date groves given by the Ansar to them.' Ibn Shihab said, 'The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, returned the grove to my mother and gave a portion of his grove to Ummu Aiman.' Ibn Shihab said, 'Ummu Aiman's issue was that she, Usamah bin Zaid's mother, was a servant from Abyssinia owned by Abdullah bin Abdul Muththalib. When Aminah, the Prophet's mother, gave birth to the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, after his father's death, Ummu Aiman cared for him until he grew up. He freed her, and she married Zaid bin Harithah. Ummu Aiman died five years after the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him.'

that a man... while Hamid and Ibn Abdul A'la said: 'A man gave part of his date grove to the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, until he conquered Banu Quraizah and Banu Nadir. After the conquest, he returned part of the grove to the man.' Anas said, 'My family sent me to the Prophet, peace be upon him, to request the return of what he had given, a plot of land, though he had given it to Ummu Aiman. I went to the Prophet, peace be upon him, and he returned it to me. Ummu Aiman came, placing her shawl around my neck, saying, "By Allah, we will not give it to you, as he gave it to me." The Prophet, peace be upon him, said: "O Ummu Aiman, let him take it, and you will have this and this." But she kept saying, "No, by the One besides whom there is no god..." until he gave her ten times, or nearly ten times, what Anas sought to take.'

Narrated to us [Ishaq bin Ibrahim Al Hanzhali], [Ibn Abu Umar], [Muhammad bin Rafi'], and [Abd bin Humaid], the wording from Ibn Rafi', Ibn Rafi' and Ibn Abu Umar said: narrated to us, while the other two said: informed us [Abdurrazaq], informed us [Ma'mar] from [Az Zuhri] from [Ubaidullah bin Abdullah bin 'Utbah] from [Ibn Abbas] that [Abu Sufyan] narrated directly, saying, 'During the truce between me and the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, I went trading to Syria. While there, someone sent a letter from the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, to Emperor Heraclius, the great ruler of the Romans, carried by Dihyah Al Kalbi to the governor of Busra, who delivered it to Heraclius. Heraclius asked, "Is there anyone here from the people of the man claiming to be a Prophet?" They replied, "Yes." I was summoned to meet Heraclius with some Quraysh companions. We entered and sat before him. Heraclius asked, "Who among you is closest in kinship to the man claiming to be a Prophet?" I replied, "I am." I sat in front, with my companions behind me. He called his interpreter and said, "Tell them I am asking about the man claiming to be a Prophet. If he lies, say he is lying." Abu Sufyan said, "By Allah, if I weren't afraid of being labeled a liar, I would have lied." Heraclius said to his interpreter, "Ask him about the man's status among you." I replied, "He is a nobleman among us." He asked, "Is he of royal descent?" I replied, "No." He asked, "Did you ever call him a liar before he claimed prophethood?" I replied, "No." He asked, "Are his followers nobles or commoners?" I replied, "Commoners." He asked, "Do his followers increase?" I replied, "They always increase." He asked, "Do any of his followers apostatize due to dislike of his religion?" I replied, "No." He asked, "Have you fought him?" I replied, "Yes." He asked, "How did your battles with him go?" I replied, "Our battles alternate between victory and defeat. Sometimes we win, sometimes he wins." He asked, "Does he break promises?" I replied, "No, and we are in a truce with him, unsure what he will do with it." Abu Sufyan said, "By Allah, I could say nothing else." He asked, "Was there anyone before him claiming prophethood like him?" I replied, "No." He said to his interpreter, "Tell him: I asked about his status, and you said he is a nobleman. So it is with all messengers, raised from noble lineage. I asked if he is of royal descent, and you said no if his ancestors were kings, I'd think he seeks their power. I asked if you called him a liar before, and you said no I know he wouldn't lie to people, let alone God. I asked about his followers, nobles or commoners, and you said commoners such are the followers of messengers. I asked if you accused him of lying before, and you said no I know he wouldn't lie to people or God. I asked if his followers apostatize, and you said no that's how faith is when rooted in the heart. I asked if his followers decrease, and you said they increase that's how faith grows to perfection. I asked if you fought him, and you said yes, with alternating victories messengers are tested, but victory is theirs. I asked if he breaks promises, and you said no messengers do not break promises. I asked if anyone before him claimed prophethood like him, and you said no if there were, he might be imitating." He asked, "What does he command you?" I replied, "He commands us to pray, give charity, maintain kinship, and uphold honor." He said, "If what you say is true, he is a Prophet. I knew he would appear, but not from your people. If I could meet him, I would wash his feet. His dominion will reach my realm." Abu Sufyan said, "He requested the letter from the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, and read it, which said: 'In the name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful, from Muhammad, the Messenger of Allah, to Heraclius, the great ruler of the Romans. Peace be upon those who follow guidance. I invite you to Islam. Embrace Islam, and you will be safe. Embrace Islam, and Allah will grant you double reward. If you refuse, you bear the sin of the Arisiyun. "O People of the Book, come to a word common between us and you, that we worship none but Allah, associate nothing with Him, and take none as lords besides Allah. If they turn away, say: Bear witness that we are Muslims." (Qur'an, Ali Imran: 64) After reading, there was commotion around him. He ordered us to leave. Outside, I said to my companions, "The matter of Ibn Abu Kabshah (the Prophet) is remarkable even the king of the yellow-skinned people follows him." I remained certain that the religion of the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, would prevail, and Allah guided me to Islam.' Narrated to us [Hasan Al Khulwani] and [Abd bin Humaid], both said: narrated to us [Ya'qub]—that is, Ibn Ibrahim bin Sa'd—narrated to us [my father] from [Shalih] from [Ibn Shihab] with this chain, adding, 'After Allah granted victory to the Persians over him, the Emperor walked from Hims to Iliya' in gratitude for Allah's trial.' The hadith also mentions, 'From Muhammad, a servant of Allah and His Messenger,' and 'the sin of the Yarisiyin,' and 'with the call of Islam.'

Narrated to me [Yusuf bin Hammad Al Ma'ni], narrated to us [Abdul A'la] from [Sa'id] from [Qatadah] from [Anas], that the Prophet, peace be upon him, sent letters to Kisra (Persian king), Qaishar (Roman king), the Negus, and all tyrannical rulers, inviting them to believe in Allah Almighty. Was not the Negus prayed over by the Prophet, peace be upon him, upon his death? Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Abdullah Ar Ruzzi], narrated to us [Abdul Wahhab bin 'Atha] from [Sa'id] from [Qatadah], narrated to us [Anas bin Malik] from the Prophet, peace be upon him, like the above hadith, but he did not mention, 'Was not the Negus prayed over by the Prophet, peace be upon him?' Narrated to me [Nashr bin Ali Al Jahdlami], informed me [my father], narrated to us [Khalid bin Qais] from [Qatadah] from [Anas], and he also did not mention, 'Was not the Negus prayed over by the Prophet, peace be upon him?'

Narrated to me [Abu At Thahir Ahmad bin 'Amru bin Sarh], informed us [Ibn Wahb], informed me [Yunus] from [Ibn Shihab], he said: narrated to me [Katsir bin Abbas bin Abdul Mutthalib], he said: [Abbas] said, 'I joined the Battle of Hunain with the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him. I and Abu Sufyan bin Harits bin Abdul Mutthalib stayed close to the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, never parting from him. The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, rode his white mule, a gift from Farwah bin Nufatsah Al Judzami. When the Muslims and the disbelievers faced each other, the Muslims retreated. The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, spurred his mule toward the disbelievers.' Abbas said, 'I held the mule's reins, restraining it from running too fast, while Abu Sufyan held the saddle of the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him. The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said: "O Abbas, call the Samurah regiment!" Abbas, who had a loud voice, said, "I called them loudly, 'Where is the Samurah regiment...!' By Allah, they came swiftly upon hearing my call, like cows rushing to their calves. They said, 'We are here, we are here.'" Abbas said, "They fought the disbelievers. Then the call went to the Ansar, 'O Ansar, O Ansar!'" Then it turned to Banu Harith bin Khazraj, 'O Banu Al Harith bin Khazraj, O Banu Al Harith bin Khazraj!' The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, watched the battle from atop his mule, as if rallying the fighting troops, saying: 'This is when the battle blazes.' Abbas said, 'He took some pebbles and threw them at the disbelievers, saying: "By the Lord of Muhammad, you are defeated..."' Abbas said, 'By Allah, I witnessed the battle, and the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, threw only a few pebbles, yet I saw them gradually weaken and flee in disarray.' Narrated to us [Ishaq bin Ibrahim], [Muhammad bin Rafi'], and [Abd bin Humaid], all from [Abdurrazzaq], informed us [Ma'mar] from [Az Zuhri] with this chain, but he mentioned, 'Farwah bin Nu'amah Al Judzami said, "He said: 'By the Lord of the Ka'bah, you are destroyed.'" And in the hadith, he added, "Until Allah destroyed them." Abbas said, "It was as if I saw the Prophet, peace be upon him, rallying the troops from behind on his mule." Narrated to us [Ibn Abu Umar], narrated to us [Sufyan bin 'Uyainah] from [Az Zuhri], he said: informed me [Katsir bin Al Abbas] from [his father], he said, 'I was with the Prophet, peace be upon him, during the Battle of Hunain...' then he continued the hadith, but Yunus and Ma'mar's hadiths are longer and more complete.

He replied, 'No, by Allah, the army of the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, did not flee, but he and some young companions, along with others, went to battle hurriedly without complete weapons and equipment. They met an enemy archery unit from Banu Hawazin and Banu Nasr, whose arrows rarely missed. They shot at the Muslims, forcing them to turn back to the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, who was on his white mule, with Abu Sufyan bin Harits bin Abdul Mutthalib guarding him. He dismounted and sought Allah's help, saying: "I am the Prophet, not a liar I am the son of Ibn Abdul Mutthalib." Then he organized their ranks.'

Narrated to us [Ahmad bin Jannab Al Mishishi], narrated to us [Isa bin Yunus] from [Zakaria] from [Abu Ishaq], he said, "A man came to [Al Barra] and asked, 'O Abu 'Umarah, did you flee from the Battle of Hunain?' He replied, 'I testify regarding the Prophet of Allah, peace be upon him, that his army did not flee. However, at that time, some people hurriedly went to the settlement of Banu Hawazin without complete weaponry, while they were skilled archers. The disbelievers shot arrows at them, as if the Muslims were a swarm of locusts. Consequently, the Muslims were scattered and forced to return to the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, while Abu Sufyan was guarding him, holding his mule. Then he dismounted and prayed, seeking help, saying, 'I am the Prophet, not a liar I am the son of Abdul Mutthalib. O Allah, send down Your aid.' Barra said, 'By Allah, we were greatly concerned due to the intensity of the battle, and the bravest among us was the one closest to the battle, namely the Prophet, peace be upon him.'"

Narrated to us [Zuhair bin Harb], narrated to us ['Umar bin Yunus Al Hanafi], narrated to us [Ikrimah bin 'Ammar], narrated to me [Iyas bin Salamah], narrated to me [my father], he said, 'We participated in the Battle of Hunain with the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him. When we faced the enemy, I advanced first, climbing a hill. Suddenly, I met an enemy and shot him with my arrow, but he disappeared instantly, so I didn't know what he was doing. When I looked at the enemy, they were already on another hill. Then they fought the Prophet's companions, peace be upon him. The companions retreated, and I also retreated in disarray. At that time, I was wearing two burdah cloths, one as a sarong and the other draped over my shoulder. Suddenly, my sarong came loose, so I tied the two cloths together. I passed by the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, while running, and he was on his white mule. The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said, 'It seems Ibn Akwa' has seen something frightening.' When the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, was surrounded, he dismounted from his mule, took a handful of dirt, and threw it at the enemy, saying, 'Ugly faces.' Thus, Allah left none of them without their faces covered in that handful of dirt. Then they fled in disarray. Allah, the Mighty and Exalted, defeated them. Then the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, distributed the spoils among the Muslims.'

Narrated to us [Abu Bakar bin Abu Syaibah], narrated to us ['Affan], narrated to us [Hammad bin Salamah] from [Tsabit] from [Anas], that the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, held a consultation when news reached him about the arrival of Abu Sufyan's caravan. Anas said, 'Then Abu Bakr spoke, but he paid no heed to him. Then Umar spoke, and he paid no heed to him either. Then Sa'd bin Ubadah stood up and said, 'Is it us you seek, O Messenger of Allah? By Allah, in Whose hand is my soul, if you order us to cross the sea, we will cross it, and if you order us to go to the ends of the earth, we will go.' Anas continued, 'Then the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, called the people to gather, and they set out until they reached Badr. There, they met water carriers for the Quraysh. Among them was a black slave belonging to Banu Hajjaj, and they captured him. Then the companions of the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, interrogated him about Abu Sufyan and his army. He replied, 'I don't know about Abu Sufyan, but I know Abu Jahal, 'Utbah, Syaibah, and Umayyah bin Khalaf are with a group of people (soldiers).' Every time he said something similar, they beat him until he said, 'Yes, I'll tell you, Abu Sufyan is there too.' Then they left the slave alone. Shortly after, they asked about Abu Sufyan again, and he replied, 'I don't know where Abu Sufyan is, but there are Abu Jahal, 'Utbah, Syaibah, and Umayyah bin Khalaf with a group of people (soldiers).' Every time he answered like that, they beat the slave.' At that time, the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, was standing in prayer. When he finished praying and saw the incident, he said, 'By the One in Whose hand is my soul, why do you beat him when he tells the truth and leave him when he lies?' Then the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said, 'There is the place where so-and-so will be killed,' pointing to the ground, 'here, and here.' Anas said, 'And none of the places he pointed to were far from where those he indicated with his hand were killed.'

Narrated to us [Syaiban bin Farruh], narrated to us [Sulaiman bin Al Mughirah], narrated to us [Tsabit Al Bunani] from [Abdullah bin Rabbah] from [Abu Hurairah], he said, 'A delegation came to Mu'awiyah during Ramadan, so some of us were busy preparing food for others. Among them was Abu Hurairah, who often invited us to his place. I said to him, 'Wouldn't it be fitting if I prepared food and invited them to eat at my house?' So I instructed (my family) to prepare food.' In the evening, I met Abu Hurairah and said, 'Tonight, dinner is at my house.' Abu Hurairah replied, 'You've beaten me to it.' I said, 'Yes, I've beaten you, and I've invited them all.' After that, Abu Hurairah said, 'Would you like me to tell you a story about yourselves, O people of Ansar?' Then he mentioned the conquest of Mecca, saying, 'At that time, the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, set out until he reached Mecca. He appointed Zubair to lead one wing (of the army), Khalid to another wing, and Abu 'Ubaidah to lead the unarmed infantry. They entered the valley, while the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, was in one unit.' Abu Hurairah said, 'Then he saw me and said, "O Abu Hurairah." I replied, "Yes, O Messenger of Allah!" He said, "Do not allow anyone to approach me except the Ansar." He added, "Except Syaiban." He continued, "Tell the Ansar to come closer to me." Abu Hurairah continued, "They quickly gathered around him, while the Quraysh had also formed ranks in several units. The Quraysh said, "Let them go ahead of us if they succeed, we'll join them, but if they cause harm, we'll give them what they ask for." The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said, "Look at the Quraysh army and their followers!" Then he gestured with both hands, one over the other (meaning to be vigilant and protect each other), and said again, "Until we meet at Shaffa." Abu Hurairah said, 'We kept moving forward, and none of us killed unless a Quraysh killed.' There was no resistance directed at us. Then Abu Sufyan came and said, 'O Messenger of Allah, if the Quraysh are wiped out, there will be no Quraysh after this.' (meaning the Quraysh surrendered without bloodshed). Then he said, 'Whoever enters Abu Sufyan's house is safe.' The Ansar said among themselves, 'It seems this man has been influenced by longing for his hometown, leading to affection for his kin.' Abu Hurairah said, 'At that moment, revelation descended. When revelation came, none of us looked at the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, until it was complete. When the revelation ended, the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said, "O people of Ansar!" They replied, "Yes, O

Messenger of Allah?" He said, "Did you say that this man seems to have been influenced by longing for his hometown?" They replied, "Yes." He said, "Never! I am a servant of Allah and His Messenger. I have migrated to Allah and to you all. My life and death are with you." After hearing this, they approached him, weeping, and said, 'By Allah, we didn't say that except out of jealousy for Allah and His Messenger.' Then the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said, 'Indeed, Allah and His Messenger confirm your statement and forgive you.' Abu Hurairah said, 'Then the people (of Mecca) flocked to Abu Sufyan's house and locked their doors. The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, walked until he reached the Black Stone and kissed it, then circumambulated the Ka'bah. Abu Hurairah said, 'He also approached the idol worshipped by the Quraysh near the Ka'bah, then pierced its eye with the bow in his hand, saying, "The truth has come, and falsehood has vanished." After completing the circumambulation, he went to the Shaffa hill, climbed to its peak, looked at the Ka'bah, raised both hands, praised Allah, and prayed as he wished.' Narrated to me [Abdullah bin Hasyim], narrated to us [Bahz], narrated to us [Sulaiman bin Al Mughirah] with this chain, and in his hadith, he added, 'Then he gestured with both hands, one with the other, strengthening (protection).' And he mentioned in his hadith, 'They said, "Indeed, we said that, O Messenger of Allah." He said, "Have you forgotten who I am? Never, I am a servant of Allah and His Messenger."'

Narrated to me [Abdullah bin Abdurrahman Ad Darimi], narrated to us [Yahya bin Hasan], narrated to us [Hammad bin Salamah], narrated to us [Tsabit] from [Abdullah bin Rabah], he said, 'We came as a delegation to Mu'awiyah bin Abu Sufyan, and among us was [Abu Hurairah]. We took turns cooking food for each other each day. When it was my turn to cook, I said, 'O Abu Hurairah, today is my turn to cook.' Soon after, they came to my place, but the food wasn't ready yet, so I said, 'O Abu Hurairah, it would be great if you told us a story about the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, until our food is served!' He said, 'We went with the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, on the day of the conquest of Mecca. He appointed Khalid bin Walid as commander of the right wing, Zubair as commander of the left wing, and Abu 'Ubaidah to lead the unarmed infantry placed in the valley. Then he said, "O Abu Hurairah, call the Ansar to come closer to me!" I immediately called them, and they quickly gathered near him. He said, "O people of Ansar, do you see the Quraysh army?" They replied, "Yes." He said, "Look closely if you meet them tomorrow, they will be finished." He gestured with both hands, placing the right over the left. Then he said, "Until we meet at Shaffa." Abu Hurairah said, 'And at that time, no one approached them except they finished them.' Abu Hurairah continued, 'Then the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, went up to Shaffa hill, and the Ansar came, surrounding him at Shaffa. Suddenly, Abu Sufyan came and said, 'O Messenger of Allah, if the Quraysh are wiped out, there will be no Quraysh after this.' Abu Sufyan said, 'Then the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said, "Whoever enters Abu Sufyan's house is safe, whoever lays down his weapon is safe, whoever locks his door is safe." After that, the Ansar said among themselves, 'It seems this man has been influenced by affection for his family, leading to love for his kin.' Then revelation descended to the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him. He said, 'Did you say, "It seems this man has been influenced by affection for his family, leading to love for his kin"? Never, have you forgotten who I am?' He said it three times, 'I am Muhammad, a servant of Allah and His Messenger. I have migrated to Allah and to you all, so my life and death are with you.' They said, 'By Allah, we didn't say that except out of jealousy for Allah and His Messenger.' He said, 'Indeed, Allah and His Messenger confirm what you said and forgive your actions.'

No one from his people was allowed to leave with him, but they permitted his companions who wished to stay with them (in Mecca). Then he said to Ali, 'Write the conditions between us and them with In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful, this is the decision established by Muhammad, the Messenger of Allah.' The polytheists said to him, 'If we knew you were the Messenger of Allah, we would follow you, but write Muhammad bin Abdullah.' Then he ordered Ali to erase it, but Ali said, 'By Allah, I will not erase it.' Then the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said, 'Show me the place where you wrote it.' So Ali showed him the place, and he erased it himself and replaced it with Ibn Abdullah. He stayed for three days, and on the third day, they (the Quraysh) said to Ali, 'This is the last day as per the terms made with your brother, so tell him to leave (Mecca).' So Ali informed him, and he left (Mecca).' In the narration of Ibn Janab, it is mentioned, 'We would follow you and pledge allegiance to you.'

Among them was Suhail bin 'Amru. Then the Prophet, peace be upon him, said to Ali, 'Write In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.' Then they proposed conditions to the Prophet, peace be upon him, including that anyone who comes from your side, we will not return to you, but if someone from our side comes to you, you must return them to us.' The companions asked, 'O Messenger of Allah, should we write this condition?' He replied, 'Yes, for those of our people who go to them, Allah will distance them (from His mercy), but if someone from their side comes to us, may Allah provide a way out.'

(In another chain) Narrated to us [Ibnu Numair], with similar wording, narrated to us [my father], narrated to us [Abdul Aziz bin Siyah], narrated to us [Habib bin Abu Tsabit] from [Abu Wa'il], he said, '[Sahal bin Hunaif] stood during the Battle of Shiffin, calling out, "O people, examine yourselves. When the Hudaibiyyah treaty occurred, we were with the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him. If we had seen a need for fighting at that time, we would have fought. This happened during the peace treaty between the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, and the polytheists. Then Umar bin Khattab approached the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, and said, 'O Messenger of Allah, are we not on the side of truth while they are on falsehood?' He replied, 'Yes.' He said, 'Do not those of us who are killed enter paradise, while those of them who are killed enter hell?' He replied, 'Yes, indeed.' Umar asked, 'Why then should we compromise on our religion and return like this, when Allah has not yet decided anything between us and them?' He replied, 'O Ibnul Khattab, I am the Messenger of Allah, and Allah will never forsake me forever.' Abu Wa'il said, 'Umar left dissatisfied, even appearing angry. Then he approached Abu Bakr and said, 'O Abu Bakr, are we not on the side of truth while they are on falsehood?' He replied, 'Yes, indeed.' Umar asked, 'Do not those of us who are killed enter paradise, while those of them who are killed enter hell?' Abu Bakr replied, 'Yes, indeed.' Umar asked again, 'Why then should we compromise on our religion and return like this, when Allah has not yet decided anything between us and them?' Abu Bakr said, 'O Ibnul Khattab, he is the Messenger of Allah, and Allah will never forsake him forever.' Suhail said, 'Then a verse of the Qur'an descended to the Messenger of Allah, namely Surah Al-Fath. He ordered someone to recite it to Umar, and he asked, 'O Messenger of Allah, is this what is meant by victory?' He replied, 'Yes, indeed.' Only then did he repent and return.'

Narrated to us [Zuhair bin Harb] and [Ishaq bin Ibrahim], both from [Jarir], [Zuhair] said, narrated to us [Jarir] from [Al A'masy] from [Ibrahim At Taimi] from [his father], he said, 'Once we were near [Hudzaifah], and a man said, "If I had met the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, I would have fought with him and been earnest." Hudzaifah said, "Would you really do that? I experienced a battle with the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, during the Battle of Ahzab. At that time, we were struck by a strong wind and cold weather. The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said, "Is there anyone who can bring news about the enemy? Allah will place him with me on the Day of Judgment." Everyone was silent, and no one answered. Then he asked again, "Is there anyone who can bring news about the enemy? Allah will place him with me on the Day of Judgment." Everyone was silent, and no one answered. He asked again, "Is there anyone who can bring news about the enemy? Allah will place him with me on the Day of Judgment." We all remained silent, and no one answered. Then he said, "O Hudzaifah, stand and bring news about the enemy!" So I had no choice but to stand, as he clearly called my name. He said,

"Go and bring news about the enemy, and do not startle them about me." When I turned away from him, it was as if I was walking in warmth (unlike the others in the cold). I reached them and saw Abu Sufyan warming himself by a fire. I placed an arrow in my bow and was about to shoot him, but I remembered the Messenger of Allah's instruction, peace be upon him, "Do not startle them about me." Had I not remembered, I would have shot and hit him. Then I returned, walking with warmth, and reported the enemy's condition to him. After that, I left, and suddenly I felt cold. The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, gave me a burdah cloth he used for prayer. I slept until morning, and the next day he said, "Get up, O heavy sleeper."

As the enemy drew closer to him, he said, "Whoever can repel them from us will have paradise or be with me in paradise." A man from the Ansar stepped forward and fought until he was killed. Then the enemy drew closer again, and he said, "Whoever can repel them from me will have paradise or be with me in paradise." Another man from the Ansar stepped forward and fought until he was killed. This continued until all seven Ansar companions were killed. Then the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said to the two Quraysh companions, "How just our companions were."

Narrated to us [Abdullah bin Umar bin Muhammad bin Aban Al Ja'fi], narrated to us [Abdurrahim]—that is, Ibn Sulaiman—from [Zakaria] from [Abu Ishaq] from ['Amru bin Maimun Al Audi] from [Ibnu Mas'ud], he said, 'When the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, was praying near the Ka'bah, Abu Jahal and his companions were sitting nearby, while there was the remains of a camel slaughtered the previous day. Abu Jahal said, "Who among you can take the entrails of the slaughtered camel of so-and-so's family and place it on Muhammad's shoulder when he prostrates?" The worst among them went to take the camel's entrails, and when the Prophet, peace be upon him, prostrated, he placed it on his shoulder.' Ibnu Mas'ud said, 'After that, they laughed loudly and pushed each other. I stood watching the incident. If I had been able, I would have removed the camel's entrails from the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him. The Prophet, peace be upon him, remained in prostration, not lifting his head until someone passed by and informed Fatimah—who was still a young girl. Fatimah came and removed the camel's entrails from his back, then approached them and cursed them. After finishing his prayer, the Prophet, peace be upon him, raised his voice and prayed for harm against them. When he prayed, he usually repeated it three times, and when he asked, he also said it three times. Then he said, "O Allah, deal with the Quraysh." He said it three times. When they heard his voice, they stopped laughing and feared his prayer. Then he continued his prayer: "O Allah, deal with Abu Jahal bin Hisham, 'Utbah bin Rabi'ah, Syaibah bin Rabi'ah, Walid bin 'Uqbah, 'Umayyah bin Khalaf, and 'Uqbah bin Abu Mu'ith." (Ibnu Mas'ud mentioned a seventh, but the narrator forgot his name). By the One who sent Muhammad, peace be upon him, with the truth, I saw those whose names he mentioned dead, lying in the Battle of Badr. Then they were dragged to the well of Badr.' Abu Ishaq said, 'There is still some uncertainty regarding Al Walid bin 'Uqbah in this hadith.'

Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Al Mutsanna] and [Muhammad bin Basyar], with the wording from Ibnu Mutsanna, both said, narrated to us [Muhammad bin Ja'far], narrated to us [Syu'bah], he said, I heard [Abu Ishaq] narrate from ['Amru bin Maimun] from [Abdullah], he said, 'Once, when the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, was prostrating, while some Quraysh were around him, suddenly 'Uqbah bin Abu Mu'th came carrying a sack of rotten camel slaughter remains and threw it onto the back of the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him. Because of this, he did not lift his head. After Fatimah came, she removed the sack from his back. Then he prayed for the destruction of those who had done the deed, saying, "O Allah, destroy the Quraysh Abu Jahal bin Hisham, 'Utbah bin Rabi'ah, 'Uqbah bin Abu Mu'ith, Syaibah bin Rabi'ah, Umayyah bin Khalaf, and Ubay bin Khalaf." Indeed, I saw them all perish in the Battle of Badr, and their bodies were thrown into a well, except for Umayyah or perhaps Ubay, because many of his joints were broken, so he was not thrown into the well.' Narrated to us [Abu Bakar bin Abu Syaibah], narrated to us [Ja'far bin 'Aun], narrated to us [Sufyan] from [Abu Ishaq] with this chain, with a slight addition, 'When he prayed, he preferred to repeat it three times, saying, "O Allah, destroy the Quraysh, O Allah, destroy the Quraysh, O Allah, destroy the Quraysh—up to three times." And he mentioned in the hadith the names Al Walid bin 'Utbah and Umayyah bin Khalaf—without any doubt. Abu Ishaq said, 'And I forgot the seventh.'

He replied, "I have faced hardships from your people, and the greatest hardship I experienced from them was the event on the day of 'Aqabah. At that time, I approached Ibn 'Abd Yaaliil bin 'Abd Kulal, but he did not fulfill my hopes, so I left him in distress. I only regained my composure when I reached Qarnits Ts'alib. Then I looked up and saw that I was shaded by a cloud. Upon closer inspection, I found the angel Gabriel there. He called out to me and said, 'Indeed, Allah, the Mighty and Exalted, has heard what your people said to you and their rejection of your call. He has sent the angel of the mountains to you so that you may command him to destroy them as you wish.'" The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said, "Then the angel of the mountains called out to me, greeted me, and said, 'O Muhammad, indeed Allah has heard what your people said to you, and I, the angel of the mountains, have been sent by your Lord to carry out whatever you desire. If you wish, I will crush them between these two mountains.'" The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said to him, "Rather, I hope that Allah will bring forth from their loins those who will worship Allah and not associate anything with Him."

Narrated to us [Ishaq bin Ibrahim Al Hanzhali], [Muhammad bin Rafi'], and [Abd bin Humaid], with the wording from Ibnu Rafi', [Ibnu Rafi'] said, narrated to us, while the other two said, narrated to us [Abdurrazzaq], narrated to us [Ma'mar] from [Az Zuhri] from ['Urwah], that [Usamah bin Zaid] narrated to him, that the Prophet, peace be upon him, rode a donkey with a worn-out saddle blanket from Fadakiyah. Usamah rode behind him. He was going to visit Sa'd bin Ubadah in the settlement of Banu Harits bin Khazraj before the Battle of Badr. (On the way) he passed by a gathering consisting of Muslims, idol-worshipping polytheists, and Jews, among whom were Abdullah bin Ubay and Abdullah bin Rawahah. When Abdullah bin Ubay saw the dust from our steps, he covered his nose with his veil and said, "Do not scatter dust on us." The Prophet, peace be upon him, greeted them, then stopped and dismounted. He invited them to Allah by reciting verses of the Qur'an to them, but Abdullah bin Ubay said, "Hey, is there nothing better than this? If what you say is true, do not disturb us in our gathering. Go back to your house and recite to those who come to you." Then Abdullah bin Rawahah spoke up, "Come to our gathering, for we love it." Usamah said, "A verbal dispute broke out between the Muslims, polytheists, and Jews, almost leading to a fight. But the Prophet, peace be upon him, calmed them down, then mounted his ride and went to Sa'd bin Ubadah's house. Then he said, 'O Sa'd, do you know what Abu Hubab just said?'—meaning Abdullah bin Ubay—'he said such and such.' Sa'd then said, 'Forgive him, O Messenger of Allah. By Allah, indeed Allah has given you what He has given. Before your arrival, the people of this land had agreed to crown him and wrap a turban around him. But Allah thwarted it with the truth He gave you. That is why he is envious of you. That is the reason he has caused such trouble as you have witnessed.' So the Prophet, peace be upon him, forgave him." Narrated to me [Muhammad bin Rafi'], narrated to us [Hujjain]—that is, Ibnu Al Mutsanna—narrated to us [Laits] from ['Uqail] from [Ibnu Syihab] with this chain, with a slight addition, "This happened before Abdullah embraced Islam."

Anas said, 'Then he went to visit him, riding his donkey along with some Muslims, while Ubay was in a barren land. When the Prophet, peace be upon him, approached him, he said, 'Stay away from me. By Allah, the smell of your donkey has hurt me.' A man from the Ansar retorted, 'By Allah, the smell of the Messenger of Allah's donkey, peace be upon him, is more fragrant than your own smell.' Anas said, 'Then a man from Ubay's people spoke up, and both sides became angry, almost leading to a fight.' Anas continued, 'They struck each other with date palm stalks, hands, and shoes or sandals.' Anas said, 'Regarding them, the verse was revealed: '(If two groups of believers fight each other, make peace between them...)' (Qur'an, Al-Hujurat: 9)."

Narrated to us [Ishaq bin Ibrahim Al-Hanzhali] and [Abdullah bin Muhammad bin Abdurrahman bin Miswar Az-Zuhri], both from [Ibn 'Uyainah], with the wording from Az-Zuhri, narrated to us Sufyan from ['Amru], I heard [Jabir] say, 'The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: "Who among you can kill Ka'ab bin Ashraf? For he has harmed Allah and His Messenger." Muhammad bin Maslamah said, "O Messenger of Allah, would you agree if I kill him?" He replied, "Yes, I agree." Maslamah said, "But allow me first to say something to you." He replied, "Go ahead." Then he approached him to say something, and they engaged in serious conversation. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "Indeed, Ka'ab once intended to give charity, but instead he troubled us." Hearing this, Muhammad bin Maslamah said, "By Allah, I have never felt more enraged than I do now." Muhammad bin Maslamah said, "We will now follow him, and we will not let it go until we know his fate." Maslamah said (to Ka'ab), "O Ka'ab, I want to borrow something from you!" Ka'ab asked, "What will you pledge as collateral?" Ibn Maslamah replied, "What do you want?" Ka'ab said, "How about you pledge your wives to me?" Ibn Maslamah answered, "You are a very handsome and gallant Arab, so how could I pledge my wives?" Ka'ab then asked, "What if you pledge your children to me?" Ibn Maslamah replied, "That is not possible, but I will pledge my weapons to you." Ka'ab said, "Alright, I agree." Then Muhammad bin Maslamah promised to come to Ka'ab bin Al-Ashraf's house with Al-Harith, Abu Abbas bin Jabr, and Abbad bin Bishr. The four of them came to Ka'ab's house at night. Sufyan said, besides 'Amru, he said, "Then Ka'ab's wife said, 'I seem to hear the sound of someone about to shed blood.' Ka'ab replied, 'It is only Muhammad bin Maslamah and Abu Nailah, my foster brother. As an honorable man, I will meet him even at night.' Meanwhile, Muhammad bin Maslamah said (to his companions), 'When he comes out, I will reach for his head, and once I have him, you advance to kill him.' Maslamah said, 'When Ka'ab came out with his weapon, his companions said, 'We seem to smell a pleasant fragrance from you.' Ka'ab replied, 'Indeed, for my wife is skilled in adornment and self-care.' Muhammad bin Maslamah said, 'If you permit, may I smell the fragrance on you?' Ka'ab said, 'Go ahead.' Then Muhammad smelled him and tried to smell again, saying, 'If you permit, may I do it again?' Ka'ab had no objection and offered his head to Muhammad bin Maslamah. Then Muhammad bin Maslamah said to his companions, 'Your turn.' He said, 'Then they killed Ka'ab bin Al-Ashraf.'

Narrated to me [Zuhair bin Harb], narrated to us [Isma'il] - that is Ibn 'Ulayyah - from [Abdul 'Aziz bin Shuhaib], from [Anas], that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, intended to fight Khaibar. When we were near the city, we performed the dawn prayer while it was still somewhat dark. Then the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, mounted his ride, followed by Abu Talhah, while I rode behind Abu Talhah. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, continued through the narrow paths of Khaibar until my knee touched the thigh of the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him. His garment even lifted, revealing the whiteness of his thigh. Upon entering the village, he said, 'Allahu Akbar, Khaibar is conquered, Khaibar is conquered. When we occupy a land, how terrible is the morning for those who were warned.' He repeated this three times. Anas said, 'When the villagers came out to their workplaces, they shouted, "Muhammad has arrived." Abdul Aziz said, 'Some of our companions mentioned, "And his army." Anas said, '(Khaibar) we seized by force.'

Narrated to us [Qutaibah bin Sa'id] and [Muhammad bin 'Abbad], with the wording from Ibn 'Abbad, both said, narrated to us [Hatim] - that is Ibn Isma'il - from [Yazid bin Abu 'Ubaid], a freed slave of Salamah bin Al-Akwa', from [Salamah bin Al-Akwa'], he said, 'We went to fight in Khaibar with the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and we traveled at night. A member of the group said to 'Amir bin Al-Akwa', "Recite your poems to us!" - 'Amir was a poet - then he dismounted while driving the camel and said, "O Allah, if not for Your guidance, we would not have been guided, nor given charity, nor performed prayer. So forgive us as a ransom for our mistakes. Strengthen our resolve when facing the enemy. Grant us tranquility in our hearts when we are called, we will come. With their cries, they will weep to us." The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, asked, "Who is the one driving the camel while reciting poetry?" They replied, "'Amir." He said, "May Allah have mercy on him." A member of the group asked, "Is that so, O Messenger of Allah? It would be great if you let him entertain us further." By then, we had reached Khaibar, and we besieged its people until we were extremely hungry. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "Indeed, Allah has conquered that land for you." Salamah said, "As evening fell on the day of Khaibar's conquest, they began lighting fires. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, asked, 'What are those flames? Why are they lighting fires?' They replied, 'To cook meat.' He asked, 'What meat?' They answered, 'Domesticated donkey meat.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'Spill it and break the pots.' A man said, 'Spill it and wash them.' He replied, 'Or do that.' When the two armies faced each other, 'Amir had only a short sword. With it, he struck the calf of a Jew, but unfortunately, the sword's tip swung back and hit 'Amir's knee, and he died from it.' Salamah said, 'When they returned, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, held my hand when he saw me silent.' He asked, 'What's wrong with you?' I replied, 'May my parents be your ransom, they say, "Amir's reward has been nullified."' He asked, 'Who said that?' I replied, 'So-and-so, so-and-so, and Usaid bin Hudlair Al-Anshari.' He said, 'Whoever said that has lied. Indeed, he has earned a double reward -

gesturing with his fingers - he is a true warrior, and few Arabs have fought like him.'

Narrated to me [Muhammad bin Hatim], narrated to us [Bahz], narrated to us [Hammad bin Salamah], narrated to us [Thabit], from [Anas], that during the battle of Khandaq, the companions of Muhammad, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'We are those who pledged allegiance to Muhammad for Islam, as long as we live,' - or he said - 'for jihad,' Hammad was uncertain. The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'O Allah, there is no lasting good except the good of the Hereafter, so forgive the Anshar and Muhajirin.'

Narrated to us [Qutaibah bin Sa'id], narrated to us [Hatim] - that is Ibn Isma'il - from [Yazid bin Abu 'Ubaid], he said, I heard [Salamah bin Al-Akwa'] say, 'I left the city before the first call to prayer, while the camels of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, were being grazed at Dzu Qard.' Salamah said, 'Suddenly, the slave of Abdurrahman bin Auf came to me and said, "The camels of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, have been stolen." I asked, "Who stole them?" He replied, "Bani Gathafan." Salamah said, 'Then I shouted three times, "Help...!" My voice reached every corner of Madinah, then I set out until I found them at Dzu Qard, where they had just drunk from the water source. I shot arrows at them while reciting, "I am Ibn Al-Akwa', today is the day of destruction." I kept reciting until I retrieved the camels from them and took thirty burdah cloaks from them.' Salamah said, 'Then the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, came with some people, and I said, "O Prophet of Allah, I have kept them from the water source, though they were very thirsty, so send someone to them now." He said, "O Al-Akwa', you have done something excellent." Then we returned, with me riding behind the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, on his camel, until we entered Madinah.'

"Narrated to us [Abu Bakar bin Abu Syaibah], narrated to us [Hasyim Ibnul Qasim]. In another chain, narrated to us [Ishaq bin Ibrahim], informed us [Abu Amir Al-Aqadi], both from [Ikrimah bin Ammar]. In another chain, narrated to us [Abdullah bin 'Abdurrahman Ad-Darimi], and this is his hadith. Informed us [Abu Ali Al-Hanafi Ubaidullah bin Abdul Majid], narrated to us [Ikrimah] - that is Ibn Ammar - narrated to me [Iyas bin Salamah], from [his father], he said, 'We fought alongside the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, at Hudaibiyah, where we numbered one thousand four hundred people, and we brought only fifty goats, so their milk was not enough for us to drink. Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, sat near a well, praying or spitting into it. Thanks to the prayer of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, for the goats' milk, we all drank to our satisfaction. Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, invited us to pledge allegiance under the tree. I pledged to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, in the first group. He continued to accept pledges from the companions present. When it reached the middle group, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said to me, "Pledge, O Salamah." I said to him, "I have already pledged to you in the first group, O Messenger of Allah." But he said to me, "Pledge again, O Salamah." I complied with his request. When he saw I had no weapon, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, gave me a shield. Then he accepted pledges from the last group. At that time, he asked me again, "Why have you not pledged to me, O Salamah?" I replied, "I have pledged to you, O Messenger of Allah, even twice, in the first and middle groups." Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "Pledge again, O Salamah!" So I pledged to him for the third time. After pledging, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, asked me, "O Salamah, where is the shield I gave you?" I tried to explain, "O Messenger of Allah, I met my uncle, Amir, who also had no weapon, so I gave the shield to him." Hearing this, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, smiled and said, "You are like what the people of old said, 'O Allah, my Lord, grant me a beloved who is dearer to me than myself.'" Days later, the polytheists sent a messenger to negotiate peace. After a short process, we agreed to make peace. I was a servant of Talhah bin Ubaidillah, tasked with watering and bathing his horse. In return, I received food from him. I had resolved to leave my family and wealth to migrate for the sake of Allah and His Messenger. When the peace agreement with the people of Makkah was established, and we could mingle, I went to the trees to rest under them. While lying there, four polytheists from Makkah came, slandering the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, which angered me. I moved to another tree, saw them hang their weapons, and then they fell asleep. At that moment, a voice called from the bottom of the valley, "O Muhajirin, Ibn Zunaim has been killed." Immediately, I drew my sword and approached the four sleeping polytheists, taking their weapons. I said to them, "By the One who has honored Muhammad's face, if any of you raises his head, I will sever his neck." I then brought the four Quraysh disbelievers to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. At the same time, I saw Amir, my uncle, bringing a Quraysh man named Mikraz to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. Mikraz was riding a horse, followed by about thirty of his polytheist followers. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, looked at them and said, "Let them be, for they will bear their wrongdoing from beginning to end." Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, forgave them, and Allah revealed the verse: "And it is He who withheld their hands from you and your hands from them in the valley of Makkah after He made you victorious over them" (Qs. Al-Fath: 24). After that, we returned to Madinah with victory. But before that, we stopped at a place. The distance between us and Bani Lihyan was only a mountain, and I knew Bani Lihyan were also polytheists. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said he would forgive anyone who could climb that mountain at night. That mountain seemed to challenge the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and the companions present. That night, I climbed the mountain two or three times. We finally reached Madinah. Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, sent Rabbah - his servant - to escort a camel carrying a large load, and I accompanied Rabbah, riding Talhah's horse. The next day, I heard that Abdurrahman Al-Fazari planned to intercept our group. The information was true Abdurrahman captured the Messenger of Allah's camels, peace and blessings be upon him, along with their load and killed the camel rider. I told Rabbah, "O Rabbah, take this horse and give it to Talhah bin Ubaidullah, and don't forget to inform the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, that the polytheists have captured the camel caravan he sent." Then I climbed a hill, faced Madinah, and shouted three times, "O people!" I descended from the hill, shooting arrows at the enemy while reciting, "I am the son of Al-Akwa', today is the day of destruction!" During the pursuit, I met a polytheist man and aimed an arrow at him. Soon, I struck an arrow right at his shoulder and said from a distance, "Feel that arrow, I am the son of Al-Akwa', today is the day of destruction."

THE STORY OF THE ARREST OF 80 POLYSTS ON TAN'IM HILL Hadith Imam Muslim Number 3373

حَدَّثَنِي عَمْرُو بْنُ مُحَمَّدٍ النَّاقِدُ حَدَّثَنَا يَزِيدُ بْنُ هَارُونَ أَخْبَرَنَا حَمَّادُ بْنُ سَلَمَةَ عَنْ ثَابِتٍ عَنْ أَنَسِ بْنِ مَالِكٍ أَنَّ ثَمَانِينَ رَجُلًا مِنْ أَهْلِ مَكَّةَ هَبَطُوا عَلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مِنْ جَبَلِ التَّنْعِيمِ مُتَسَلِّحِينَ يُرِيدُونَ غَرَّةَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَأَصْحَابِهِ فَأَخَذَهُمْ سَلْمًا فَاسْتَحْيَاهُمْ فَأَنْزَلَ اللَّهُ عَزَّ وَجَلَّ { وَهُوَ الَّذِي كَفَّ أَيْدِيَهُمْ عَنْكُمْ وَأَيْدِيَكُمْ عَنْهُمْ بِبَطْنِ مَكَّةَ مِنْ بَعْدِ أَنْ أَظْفَرَكُمْ عَلَيْهِمْ }

Narrated to me ['Amru bin Muhammad An Naqid], narrated to us [Yazid bin Harun], narrated to us [Hammad bin Salamah] from [Tsabit] from [Anas bin Malik], that eighty people from the inhabitants of Mecca descended from the Tan'im hill toward the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, with complete weaponry. They intended to attack the Prophet, peace be upon him, and his companions due to their enmity toward him. But they eventually surrendered, and he spared their lives. Then Allah, the Mighty and Exalted, revealed His verse: '(And it is He who withheld their hands from (destroying) you and your hands from (destroying) them in the midst of Mecca after Allah made you victorious over them)' (Qur'an, Al-Fath: 24).

Narrated to us [Abu Bakar bin Abu Syaibah], narrated to us [Yazid bin Harun], narrated to us [Hammad bin Salamah] from [Tsabit] from [Anas], that Ummu Sulaim always carried a dagger during the Battle of Hunain. Abu Thalhah saw her and reported, 'O Messenger of Allah, Ummu Sulaim always carries a dagger.' He then asked Ummu Sulaim, 'Why do you always carry a dagger?' Ummu Sulaim replied, 'If a polytheist approaches me, I will slit his stomach.' The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, laughed upon hearing this. Ummu Sulaim said, 'O Messenger of Allah, kill those you freed on the day of the conquest of Mecca, for now they have fled from you.' The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said, 'O Ummu Sulaim, indeed Allah has sufficed and made things right.' Narrated to me [Muhammad bin Hatim], narrated to us [Bahz], narrated to us [Hammad bin Salamah], narrated to us [Ishaq bin Abdullah bin Abu Thalhah] from [Anas bin Malik] about the story of Ummu Sulaim, from the Prophet, peace be upon him, like the hadith of Tsabit.

Narrated to us [Abdullah bin Abdurrahman Ad Darimi], narrated to us [Abdullah bin 'Amru] - that is Abu Ma'mar Al Minqari - narrated to us [Abdul Warits], narrated to us [Abdul Aziz] - that is Ibn Shuhaib - from [Anas bin Malik], he said, 'When the battle of Uhud raged, some of the Muslim forces fled, leaving the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, while Abu Talhah was a skilled archer. On that day, he broke two or three bows.' Anas said, 'At that time, a man passed by his friend carrying arrows, and his friend said, "Give them to Abu Talhah!"' Anas continued, 'The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, stood upright, observing the entire army. Then Abu Talhah said, "O Prophet of Allah, may my parents be your ransom, I beg you not to stand upright lest you be hit by enemy arrows. Let my neck be struck instead of yours." Anas further said, "Indeed, I saw Aishah bint Abu Bakr and Umm Sulaim, both rolling up their garments so that I could see their anklets. They carried water skins on their backs, pouring water into the mouths of the Muslims. Then they went to refill their water skins and returned to pour again for the troops. After the battle, Abu Talhah's sword fell two or three times due to his extreme drowsiness.'

Narrated to us [Abdullah bin Maslamah bin Qa'nab], narrated to us [Sulaiman] - that is Ibn Bilal - from [Ja'far bin Muhammad], from [his father], from [Yazid bin Hurmuz], that Najdah once wrote a letter to [Ibn Abbas] asking about five matters. Ibn Abbas said, 'If I were not afraid of being accused of concealing knowledge, I would not have replied to his letter.' (The letter from Abdah): 'Amma Ba'd, please inform me, did women go to battle with the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him? Were they also given spoils of war? Did he kill children? When does a child cease to be an orphan? And to whom is the one-fifth share of the spoils given?' Ibn Abbas replied, 'You asked me whether women fought alongside the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. Yes, he went to battle with women. They treated the wounded and were given spoils of war as appropriate, but not a fixed share. And indeed, he never killed children, so refrain from killing children. You asked me when an orphan ceases to be an orphan. By the One who prolongs my life, some people grow beards but are still weak in managing themselves, unable to take or give for themselves. When they can manage themselves and handle their affairs like others, their orphanhood ends. You also asked about the one-fifth share of the spoils. We used to say it was for us (Bani Hashim), but our family objected to us.' Narrated to us [Abu Bakar bin Abu Syaibah] and [Ishaq bin Ibrahim], both from [Hatim bin Isma'il], from [Ja'far bin Muhammad], from [his father], from [Yazid bin Hurmuz], that Najdah wrote to [Ibn Abbas] asking about these matters, as in the hadith of Sulaiman bin Bilal. But in Hatim's hadith, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, never killed children, so do not kill children unless you know they are participating in the fight. And Ishaq mentioned in his hadith from Hatim, 'You can distinguish between the believer, then kill the disbeliever and spare the believer.'

Narrated to us [Ibn Abu Umar], narrated to us [Sufyan], from [Isma'il bin Umayyah], from [Sa'id Al-Maqbiri], from [Yazid bin Hurmuz], he said, 'Najdah bin 'Amir wrote a letter to [Ibn Abbas], asking about a slave and a woman who participated in battle, whether they received a specific share, about killing children, the end of orphanhood, and about dzawil qurba, who are they?' Ibn Abbas said to Yazid, 'Reply to his letter. If I were not afraid he would think I was pretending to be ignorant, I would not reply. Write: "You asked me about a woman and a slave who collected spoils, whether they get a specific share. They do not get a fixed share but are given as appropriate. You asked about killing children. Indeed, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, did not kill children, so do not kill children, except as you know what Musa's companion (Khidr) did when he killed a child. You wrote asking about the limit of orphanhood, when it ends. Orphanhood does not end until the child reaches puberty and matures in intellect (can manage themselves). You asked about dzawil qurba, who they are. I thought I was among them, but my people objected to us."' Narrated to us [Abdurrahman bin Bisyr Al-'Abdi], narrated to us [Sufyan], narrated to us [Isma'il bin Umayyah], from [Sa'id bin Abu Sa'id], from [Yazid bin Hurmuz], he said, 'Najdah wrote to [Ibn Abbas]... then he continued the hadith as above.' Abu Ishaq said, narrated to me Abdurrahman bin Bisyr, narrated to us Sufyan with this very long hadith.

Narrated to us [Ishaq bin Ibrahim], informed us [Wahb bin Jarir bin Hazim], narrated to me [my father], he said, I heard [Qais] narrate from [Yazid bin Hurmuz]. In another chain, narrated to me [Muhammad bin Hatim], with his wording, he said, narrated to us [Bahz], narrated to us [Jarir bin Hazim], narrated to me [Qais bin Sa'd], from [Yazid bin Hurmuz], he said, 'Najdah bin 'Amir sent a letter to [Ibn Abbas].' Yazid bin Hurmuz said, 'I witnessed Ibn Abbas when he read his letter and when he replied to it. Ibn Abbas said, "By Allah, if I were not afraid he would think poorly of me, I would not reply or honor it." Yazid said, "Then Ibn Abbas replied, "You asked about the share of dzawil qurba as mentioned by Allah, who they are. We thought the relatives of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, were us, but our people objected to us. You asked about when orphanhood ends. Orphanhood ends when a person marries and matures in intellect (can manage themselves) and uses their wealth properly. You asked whether the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, killed the children of polytheists. He never killed their children, so do not kill children unless you know from them what Khidr knew when he killed a child. You asked about a slave and a woman, whether they get a specific share if they join the battle. They do not get a fixed share but receive an appropriate portion of the spoils."' Narrated to me [Abu Kuraib], narrated to us [Abu Usamah], narrated to us [Za'idah], narrated to us [Sulaiman, Al-A'mash], from [Al-Mukhtar bin Shaifi], from [Yazid bin Hurmuz], he said, 'Najdah sent a letter to [Ibn Abbas]... then he mentioned part of the hadith, but not as complete as the hadith we mentioned from their hadith.'
