 أَنَّهُ حِينَ ذَكَرَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ غَيْرَ مُسْتَخْلِفٍ

Narrated to us [Abu Kuraib Muhammad bin Al-'Ala], narrated to us [Abu Usamah], from [Hisham bin 'Urwah], from [his father], from [Ibn Umar], he said, 'I was present when my father was struck (stabbed by someone). The companions present comforted him, saying, "May Allah reward you with good." Umar replied, "I am full of hope and fear." They said, "Appoint your successor (as Caliph)!" Umar replied, "Should I bear the burden of your governance in life and death? I want my duty to be complete, neither lacking nor excessive. If I appoint my successor, it was done by someone better than me, Abu Bakr As-Siddiq. And if I leave the appointment to you, it was done by someone better than me, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him." Abdullah said, "From his words, I knew he would not appoint his successor as Caliph.'

 اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَحَدًا وَأَنَّهُ غَيْرُ مُسْتَخْلِفٍ

Narrated to us [Ishaq bin Ibrahim] and [Ibn Abu Umar] and [Muhammad bin Rafi'] and [Abd bin Humaid], with their wording closely aligned, Ishaq and Abd said, informed us, while the other two said, narrated to us [Abdurrazaq], narrated to us [Ma'mar], from [Az-Zuhri], informed me [Salim], from [Ibn Umar], he said, 'I met Hafshah, and she asked, "Do you know that your father does not want to appoint a Caliph?" Abdullah said, "I said, 'It seems he does not want to do that.' Hafshah said, 'He (Umar bin Khattab) must do it.' I swore to convince (Umar) about it, but he remained silent, so I felt reluctant to discuss it further. However, I felt as if I were carrying a mountain on my right shoulder until I met him again. Umar asked me about the people's condition, and I answered as it was. Then I said to him, "I heard people talking about something, and I swore to convey this to you. They believe you are a Caliph who does not want to appoint a successor. What do you think if you were a camel or goat herder, and he came to you leaving his flock, would you not see that he neglected it? Even more so, the herder you manage is human." Abdullah said, "Umar agreed with my opinion. He lowered his head for a moment, then raised it toward me and said, "Indeed, Allah, the Mighty and Exalted, will preserve His religion. If I do not appoint a Caliph, did not the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, do the same? And if I appoint a successor, did not Abu Bakr do so?" Abdullah said, "By Allah, when he mentioned the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and Abu Bakr, I realized he did not intend to follow the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, in directly appointing his successor as Caliph."

So he sent him to Yemen, followed by Mu'adh bin Jabal. When Mu'adh met Abu Musa, Abu Musa said, offering him a cushion, 'Please sit!' Narrated to us [Abu Bakar bin Abi Syaibah] and [Amru An Naqid] and [Ibn Abi Umar], with the wording from Abu Bakar, they said, narrated to us [Sufyan bin Uyainah], from [Az Zuhri], from ['Urwah], from [Abu Humaid As Sa'idi], he said, 'The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, employed a man from the Al-Asad tribe named Ibn Luthbiyah - Amru and Ibn Abu 'Umar said - to collect zakat. When he submitted the collected zakat, he said, "This is the zakat I submit to you, and this was given to me as a gift." Abu Humaid said, "The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, then gave a sermon from the pulpit. After praising and glorifying Allah, he said, 'There is an official I tasked with collecting zakat who said, "This is the zakat I submit to you, and this was given to me as a gift." Why does he not sit in his parents' house waiting for someone to bring him a gift? By Allah, in whose hand is Muhammad's soul, none of you who misappropriates zakat while tasked with collecting it will, on the Day of Judgment, carry a bleating camel, a mooing cow, or a bleating goat on his shoulders.' Then he raised his hands so that we saw the whiteness of his armpits and said, 'O Allah, I have conveyed,' saying it twice.' Narrated to us [Ishaq bin Ibrahim] and [Abd bin Humaid], both said, informed us [Abdurrazzaq], narrated to us [Ma'mar], from [Az Zuhri], from ['Urwah], from [Abu Humaid As Sa'idi], he said, 'The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, appointed Ibn Luthbiyah, a man from Asd, to collect zakat. He came to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, submitted the zakat, and said, "This is the zakat I submit to you, and this was given to me as a gift." He said, "Why does he not sit in his parents' house waiting to see if someone will bring him a gift or not." Then the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, stood to give a sermon,' then he mentioned the hadith as Sufyan did.

"Narrated to us [Abu Kuraib, Muhammad bin Al 'Ala'], narrated to us [Abu Usamah], narrated to us [Hisham], from [his father], from [Abu Humaid As Sa'idi], he said, 'The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, appointed a man from Azd named Ibn Al Atbiyah to collect the zakat of Bani Sulaim. When his scribe came, he said, "This is your wealth, and this is a gift for me." The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "Why do you not sit in your mother's or father's house so that someone comes to give you a gift, if you are truthful?" Then he gave a sermon, and after praising and glorifying Allah, he said, "To proceed: I appointed one of you as an official for a task Allah has entrusted to me, and he comes saying, 'This is your wealth, and this is a gift given to me.' Why does he not sit in his father's or mother's house waiting for someone to give him a gift, if he is truthful? By Allah, none of you takes anything from it without right, except that he will meet Allah Almighty on the Day of Judgment carrying it. Indeed, I will recognize any of you who comes meeting Allah carrying a bleating camel, a mooing cow, or a bleating goat."

Then he raised his hands until the whiteness of his armpits was visible and said, "O Allah, I have conveyed. My eyes have seen it, and my ears have heard it." Narrated to us [Abu Kuraib], narrated to us ['Abdah] and [Ibn Numair] and [Abu Mu'awiyah]. In another chain, narrated to us [Abu Bakar bin Abu Syaibah], narrated to us ['Abdurrahim bin Sulaiman]. In another chain, narrated to us [Ibn Abu 'Umar], narrated to us [Sufyan], all from [Hisham], with this chain. In the hadith of 'Abdah and Ibn Numair, it is mentioned, 'Then his scribe came,' as mentioned by Abu Usamah. In the hadith of Ibn Numair, it is mentioned, 'Indeed, you have known, by Allah in whose hand is my soul, none of you takes anything from it...' and in Sufyan's hadith, it is added, 'He said, "My eyes have seen it, and my ears have heard it." Then they asked Zaid bin Thabit, who witnessed the event with me.' Narrated to us [Ishaq bin Ibrahim], informed us [Jarir], from [Asy Syaibani], from [Abdullah bin Dzakwan] - that is Abu Az Zinnad - from ['Urwah bin Zubair], from [Abu Humaid As Sa'idi], that the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, appointed a man to collect zakat. Soon after, he came with a large amount and said, 'This is your wealth, and this is a gift for me...' then he mentioned the hadith as such. 'Urwah said, 'I asked Abu Humaid As Sa'idi, "Did you hear it from the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him?" He replied, "From his mouth to my ears."' "

They were ordered to obey and listen to him. At one point, the leader became angry with his men over some matter and said, 'Gather firewood.' After the firewood was collected, he said, 'Did not the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, order you to listen and obey me?' They replied, 'Yes.' He said, 'Then enter the fire.' Ali said, 'Some looked at each other, saying, "We must flee to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, from the fire." They remained in that (hesitation) until his anger subsided, and the fire was extinguished. When they returned, they reported the incident to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, and he said, 'If you had entered it, you would not have escaped the fire. Obedience is only in righteousness.' Narrated to us [Abu Bakar bin Abu Syaibah], narrated to us [Waki'] and [Abu Mu'awiyah], from [Al A'masy], with this chain.

I approached and sat near him. He said, "We were on a journey with the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and stopped at a place. Some of us fixed beds, others practiced archery, and others tended to animals. Then the Messenger's caller summoned us for congregational prayer, and we gathered near him. He said, 'Prophets before me were sent to guide their people to goodness taught by Allah and warn them of dangers. The most perfect and safe of my nation are the first generation those after will face trials they dislike, like fitnah. Some will insult others, causing calamities. Believers will say, "This is what destroys me." When one calamity ends, another arises, and believers say, "This is it!" Whoever wishes to be free from Hell and enter Paradise should die believing in Allah and the Last Day, and do good to people as they desire. Whoever pledges loyalty to a leader and fulfills it sincerely should obey him to the best of his ability. If another comes to rebel, strike his neck." Abdurrahman said, "I moved closer to 'Amru and asked, 'By Allah, did you hear this hadith from the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him?' He pointed to his ears and heart, saying, 'I heard it with my ears and stored it in my heart.' I said, 'Your cousin Mu'awiyah orders us to consume wealth unjustly and kill each other, while Allah says: "O you who believe, do not consume your wealth unjustly except in fair trade, and do not kill your brethren. Indeed, Allah is merciful to you" (Qur'an, An-Nisa: 29).' 'Amru paused, then said, 'Obey his orders if they align with Allah's, and disobey if they contradict Allah's.'" Narrated to us [Abu Bakar bin Abu Syaibah], [Ibnu Numair], and [Abu Sa'id Al

Messenger of Allah, I was in evil, then Allah brought this goodness (Islam) to us. Will evil return after this?" He replied, "Yes." I asked, "Will goodness return after that evil?" He replied, "Yes." I asked, "How so?" He said, "After me, there will be leaders who do not follow my guidance or my way, and men will arise with hearts like devils in human form." I asked, "O Messenger of Allah, what do you command me if that happens?" He replied, "Listen and obey your leader, even if he strikes you or takes your wealth listen and obey."

Busaisah then came while in the house there was no one except me and the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him." Anas said, "I do not know whether he favored some of his wives (to hear the secret news)." Anas continued, "Then Busaisah delivered his report. Then the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, went out saying: 'We are departing now for a purpose, whoever has prepared his vehicle, then depart with us.' Then some men asked permission from him to take their vehicles outside the city of Madinah, but he said: 'No, only those whose vehicles are ready.' Then the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, and his companions departed so they arrived at Badr first before the polytheists. Not long after the polytheists arrived, so the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said: 'Do not act before there is an order from me.' When the polytheists got closer, the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said: 'Advance to paradise, whose width is as wide as the heavens and the earth.' Anas said, 'Suddenly 'Umair bin Al Hammam Al Anshari said, 'O Messenger of Allah, paradise whose width is as wide as the heavens and the earth!' He replied: 'Yes.' 'Umair said, 'Wow, wow..!' Then the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said: 'Why do you say wow...wow..?' Umair replied, 'No, by Allah O Messenger of Allah, I hope that I become its inhabitant.' He said: 'Yes, indeed you are among its inhabitants.' Then he took out dates from his pocket and ate some. After that he said, 'Truly a long life for me, if I finish these dates of mine.' Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Hatim] narrated to us [Affan] narrated to us [Hammad] informed us [Tsabit] from [Anas bin Malik] he said, "A group of people came to the Prophet, peace be upon him, then they said, 'Send with us some people to teach the Qur'an and the Sunnah to us.' Then he sent seventy men from the Ansar group, they were called Al Qurra (experts in reading the Qur'an). They were people who avoided forbidden matters, always reading and studying the Qur'an at night, while during the day they carried water to the mosque so it could be used for purification. Besides that they also looked for firewood, after selling it, they used the money to buy food for the people of suffah and the poor. The Prophet, peace be upon him, then sent them to accompany the group. In the middle of the journey they were attacked by the group, and finally they were killed before reaching the destination. But they had time to pray: 'O Allah, convey our news to our Prophet, that we have met You. We are pleased with You and You are pleased with us.' Anas continued, 'At that time there was someone who followed Haram -uncle of Anas- from behind, apparently Haram could stab him with a spear until he succeeded in killing him. After that Haram said, 'I have won by the Lord of the Ka'bah.' Then the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said to his companions: 'Indeed your brothers have been killed, and (before being killed) they had time to say, 'O Allah, convey our news to our Prophet, that we have met You. We are pleased with You and You are pleased with us'.'

And narrated to me [Muhammad bin Hatim] narrated to us [Bahz] narrated to us [Sulaiman bin Al Mughirah] from [Tsabit] he said [Anas] said, "That my uncle named like my name did not join the war with the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, during the battle of Badr." Anas said, "With a feeling of regret he said, 'I was not present at the first battle attended by the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, if Allah still gives me the opportunity to fight with the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, after that, indeed Allah will see what I will do.' -it seems he would say something else- Anas said, 'Then he joined with the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, in the battle of Uhud.' Anas continued, 'When Sa'ad bin Mu'adz approached him, Anas asked him, 'O Abu Amru, where are you going?' He replied, 'The fragrance of paradise I have smelled behind the mountain of Uhud.' Anas bin Malik continued, 'Then he (my uncle) fought them (the enemy) until he was killed.' Anas bin Malik said, 'On his whole body were found more than eighty wounds from sword slashes, spear stabs and arrow shots.' Anas said, 'Then his sister -namely my aunt named Rubayi' binti An Nadlr- said, 'I do not recognize my brother except through his fingers.' Then the verse came down: '(Among the believers there are people who fulfill what they have promised to Allah Then among them there are those who fall. and among them there are (also) those who wait-and they do not change (their promise)'. (Qs. Al Ahzaab: 23). Anas said, 'According to them that verse came down regarding him and his other companions.'

He replied, 'Yes, I heard the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, say: 'Indeed the first human to be judged on the Day of Resurrection is someone who died as a martyr, then shown to him pleasures so he knows it clearly, then He asks: 'What have you done in the world O My servant? Then it is ordered for him to be thrown and cast into hellfire. And also brought someone who studied the Qur'an and taught it, then shown to him pleasures so he knows it clearly, Allah asks: 'What have you done? After that Ummu Haram combed Ummu Haram's hair until the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, fell asleep, suddenly he woke up laughing." Ummu Haram said, "What causes you to laugh O Messenger of Allah?" He said: 'A group of my ummah was shown by Allah the Exalted to me, they fight in the way of Allah crossing the sea with ships, namely kings on thrones or like kings on thrones.' -the narrator doubts between the two- Ummu Haram said: "O Messenger of Allah, pray that I am among them." Then he prayed for her. After that he placed his head until he fell asleep. Suddenly he woke up laughing." Ummu Haram said, "Then I asked: "O Messenger of Allah, what makes you laugh?" He answered: "A group of my ummah was shown by Allah the Exalted to me, they fight in the way of Allah..." -as his first saying- Ummu Haram said then I said, "O Messenger of Allah, pray that I am among them!" He said: "You are from the first group." During the time (government) of Mu'awiyah, Ummu Haram joined the Islamic troops sailing to the sea (to fight in the way of Allah), when landing, she fell from her vehicle until she died.

Narrated to me [Ahmad bin Abdurrahman bin Wahb] narrated to us my uncle [Abdullah bin Wahb] narrated to us ['Amru Al Harits] narrated to me [Yazid bin Abu Habib] narrated to me [Abdurrahman bin Syimamah Al Mahri] he said, "When I was at the place of Maslamah bin Mukhallad who at that time there was [Abdullah bin 'Amru bin Al 'Ash]. Abdullah said, "The Day of Resurrection will not befall except upon the most evil creatures. They are more evil than the people who lived in the time of ignorance. They do not ask anything from Allah except He will surely reject it (not grant it)." When they were talking like that, suddenly [Uqbah bin 'Amir] came. Then Maslamah said to him, "O Uqbah, listen to what Abdullah says." Then 'Uqbah said, "He knows better. As for me, indeed I also heard the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, say: 'There will always be from my ummah a group that fights on the matter of Allah, they defeat their enemies, and people who oppose them cannot harm them at all until the Day of Resurrection comes while they are still in that state.'" Abdullah then added, "True." Then Allah sends a wind whose smell is like the smell of musk and its softness is like soft silk, it does not pass by someone in whose heart there is faith even if only as heavy as a seed, except it will surely cause his death. Then only the evil people remain, then the Day of Resurrection occurs.

I hunt with my bow and trained and untrained dogs. Tell us what is lawful." He replied, "As for living among the People of the Book and eating from their vessels, if you can find other vessels, do not use theirs. If not, wash their vessels and eat from them. As for living in their land where hunting is their livelihood, if you hunt with your bow, mention Allah's name first, then eat. If you catch with a trained dog, mention Allah's name first, then eat. If you catch with an untrained dog and can slaughter it, eat it." Narrated to me [Abu At Thahir], informed us [Ibnu Wahb]. In another narration, narrated to me [Zuhair bin Harb], narrated to us [Al Muqri'], both from [Haiwah] with this chain like Ibn Mubarak's hadith, but Ibn Wahb's hadith does not mention, "hunting with a bow."

Narrated to us [Ahmad bin Yunus], narrated to us [Zuhair], narrated to us [Abu Az Zubair] from [Jabir]. In another narration, narrated to us [Yahya bin Yahya], informed us [Abu Khaitamah] from [Abu Az Zubair] from [Jabir], he said, 'The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, sent us with Abu Ubaidah as commander to intercept a Quraysh caravan. We were provisioned only with a sack of dates, nothing else. Abu Ubaidah distributed it to us one by one.' [Abu Az Zubair] said, 'I asked, "What could you do with one date?" Jabir replied, "We sucked it like a child, then drank water, and it sufficed us for the day until night. We also knocked down leaves with sticks, soaked them in water, and ate them. When we reached the coast, we saw what seemed like a water mound, but it was a sea creature called 'anbar. Jabir said, 'Abu Ubaidah said, "It's a carcass." Then he added, "But it's fine, we are the Messenger's envoys on Allah's path, and you are in need, so eat it." Jabir said, 'We stayed there for a month, three hundred of us, and we all became fat from eating it. We took oil from its eye sockets, collected it in large vessels, and cut its meat like butchering an ox. Abu Ubaidah called thirteen soldiers to enter its eye socket, took its ribs, stood them up, and had our largest camel pass under it. We took its meat as provisions and cooked it. When we reached Medina, we met the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and informed him, and he said, "It is sustenance Allah granted you. Do you have some of its meat for us to eat?" Jabir said, 'We sent some to the Messenger, and he ate it.'

Narrated to me [Abu At Thahir] and [Harmalah], both from [Ibnu Wahb]. [Harmalah] said, informed us [Ibnu Wahb], informed me [Yunus] from [Ibnu Shihab] from [Abu Umamah bin Sahl bin Hunaif Al Anshari], that [Abdullah bin Abbas] informed him that [Khalid bin Walid], known as Allah's sword, informed him, that he, with the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, visited Maimunah, the Prophet's wife—Khalid's and Ibn Abbas's aunt. She found roasted lizard meat sent by her sister Hufaidah binti Al Harits from Najd. The lizard meat was served to the Messenger. Rarely was he served food without being told its name. As he reached for the lizard meat, a woman present said, "Tell the Messenger what you're serving!" We said, "It's lizard meat, O Messenger of Allah!" He immediately withdrew his hand. Khalid bin Walid said, "Is lizard meat forbidden, O Messenger?" He replied, "No, but it's not in my people's land, so I'm reluctant to eat it." Khalid said, "I took the meat, ate it, and the Messenger watched without forbidding it." Narrated to me [Abu Bakr bin An Nadlr] and [Abdurrahman bin Humaid], Abd said, informed me, and Abu Bakr said, narrated to us [Ya'qub bin Ibrahim bin Sa'd], narrated to us [my father] from [Shalih bin Kaisan] from [Ibnu Shihab] from [Abu Umamah bin Sahl] from [Ibnu Abbas], who informed him that [Khalid bin Walid] informed him, that he was with the Messenger at Maimunah binti Al Harits's house—Maimunah was Khalid's aunt. The Messenger was served lizard meat from Ummu Hufaidl from Najd, wife of a Bani Ja'far man. It was the Messenger's habit not to eat until he knew the food...then the narrator mentioned like Yunus's hadith, adding at the end. Narrated to him [Ibnu Al Asham] from [Maimunah], and he was among her foster children. Narrated to us [Abd bin Humaid], informed us [Abdurrazaq], informed us [Ma'mar] from [Az Zuhri] from [Abu Umamah bin Sahl bin Hunaif] from [Ibnu Abbas], he said, 'The Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, was served two roasted lizard meats at Maimunah's house...like their hadith, but he did not mention Yazid bin Al Asham from Maimunah.' Narrated to us [Abdul Malik bin Shyu'aib bin Al Laits], narrated to us [my father] from [my grandfather], narrated to me [Khalid bin Yazid], narrated to me [Sa'id bin Abu Hilal] from [Ibnu Al Munkadir], that [Abu Umamah bin Sahl] informed him from [Ibnu Abbas], he said, 'The Messenger was served lizard meat at Maimunah's house with Khalid bin Walid beside him...then the narrator mentioned a hadith similar to Zuhri's.'

Some ate them, others did not. The next day, I visited [Ibnu Abbas] and told him, with a group present. Some said, "The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, 'I don't eat it, nor forbid or declare it unlawful.'" [Ibnu Abbas] said, "What you say is bad. The Messenger was sent to permit or forbid. At Maimunah's house, with Fadl bin Abbas, Khalid bin Walid, and a woman, they were served meat in a large vessel. As the Messenger reached for it, Maimunah said, 'It's lizard meat.' He withdrew his hand, saying, 'I've never eaten this meat.' He told those present, 'Eat the meat.' Al Fadl, Khalid, and the woman ate it. Maimunah said, 'I won't eat unless the Messenger eats.'"

He replied, "Slaughter with anything that causes blood to flow, mention Allah's name, then eat, except with teeth or nails. I explain: teeth are like bones, and nails are tools used by the Abyssinians." We obtained camels and goats as spoils, and when one camel fled, a man shot it with an arrow to retrieve it. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "Some of these camels are wild like beasts if they trouble you, do the same." Narrated to us [Ishaq bin Ibrahim], informed us [Waki'], narrated to us [Sufyan bin Sa'id bin Masruq], from [his father], from ['Abayah bin Rifa'ah bin Rafi' bin Khadij], from [Rafi' bin Khadij], he said, 'I was with the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, at Dzul Khulaifah from Tihamah, and we obtained goats and camels as spoils. People hurried to boil water in pots, but he ordered the pots be overturned, then made ten goats equivalent to one camel... the rest of the hadith follows Yahya bin Sa'id's narration.' Narrated to us [Ibnu Abu Umar], [Sufyan], from [Isma'il bin Muslim], from [Sa'id bin Masruq], from ['Abayah], from [his grandfather Rafi'], then narrated to me [Umar bin Sa'id bin Masruq], from [his father], from ['Abayah bin Rifa'ah bin Rafi' bin Khadij], from [his grandfather], he said, 'We said, "O Messenger of Allah, tomorrow we face the enemy, but we lack knives, so we slaughtered with sharp branches..." He mentioned the hadith, adding, "Then one of our camels fled, and we shot it with an arrow until it fell." Narrated to us [Al Qasim bin Zakaria], [Husain bin Ali], from [Za'idah], from [Sa'id bin Masruq], with this chain completely, he mentioned, "While we had no knives, may we slaughter with wood?" Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Al Walid bin Abdul Hamid], [Muhammad bin Ja'far], narrated to us [Syu'bah], from [Sa'id bin Masruq], from ['Abayah bin Rifa'ah bin Rafi'], from [Rafi' bin Khadij], he said, 'O Messenger of Allah, tomorrow we face the enemy, but we lack knives for slaughtering...' He mentioned the hadith but did not say, 'Then the companions hurried to boil water in pots, but he ordered them overturned...' He narrated the full story.

Abu Thufail said, "Then Ali took out a document that read, 'Allah curses those who slaughter for other than Allah, those who move land boundaries, those who curse their parents, and those who shelter criminals.'"

The proceeds were for Fatimah's wedding. In that house, Hamzah bin Abdul Mutthalib was drinking intoxicants, entertained by a female singer who sang, "O Hamzah, heed the plump camels." Ibnu Syihab said, 'Ali said, "I saw a shocking scene and went to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, with Zaid bin Haritsah beside him. I told him what happened. He went out with Zaid, and I followed. He met Hamzah and rebuked him. Hamzah looked at him and said, 'You are merely my father's slaves.' When preparing to marry Fatimah, the daughter of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, I agreed with a goldsmith from Bani Qainuqa' to go with me carrying idzkhir to sell, using the proceeds for my wedding. While preparing saddles, sacks, and ropes for the camels, tied beside an Ansar's house, I found both camels with their humps cut, bellies slit, and livers taken. I could hardly bear the sight and asked, "Who did this?" People said, "Hamzah bin Abdul Mutthalib, now in this house with Ansar who drink intoxicants, entertained by a female singer who sang, 'O Hamzah, heed the plump camels.' Hamzah stood with an unsheathed sword, cut their humps, slit their bellies, and took their livers." Ali said, "I went to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, who was with Zaid bin Haritsah. Seeing my face, he knew what happened. He asked, 'What's wrong with you?' I said, 'O Messenger of Allah, by Allah, I've never seen such a day. Hamzah attacked my camels, cut their humps, and slit their bellies. He's in that house with drinkers.' Ali said, 'The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, took his cloak, put it on, and walked to the house, with me and Zaid following. At the door, he asked permission to enter. The occupants allowed him in. They were drinking intoxicants. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, rebuked Hamzah for his actions. Hamzah's eyes were red, and he looked at the Prophet from his knees to his navel, then to his face, saying, 'You are merely my father's slaves.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, realized Hamzah was heavily drunk, stepped back, and left. We followed him out." Narrated to me [Muhammad bin Abdullah Al Quhzadza], narrated to me [Abdullah bin Utsman], from [Abdullah bin Mubarak], from [Yunus], from [Az Zuhri] with this chain.'

THE ORDER TO DISPOSE OF KHAMR WHEN IT WAS FORBIDDEN BY THE RASULULLAH SHALLALLAHU 'ALAIHI WASALLAM

Hadith Imam Muslim Number 3662

حَدَّثَنِي أَبُو الرَّبِيعِ سُلَيْمَانُ بْنُ دَاوُدَ الْعَتَكِيُّ حَدَّثَنَا حَمَّادُ يَعْنِي ابْنَ زَيْدٍ أَخْبَرَنَا ثَابِتٌ عَنْ أَنَسِ بْنِ مَالِكٍ قَالَ كُنْتُ سَاقِيَ الْقَوْمِ يَوْمَ حُرِّمَتْ الْخَمْرُ فِي بَيْتِ أَبِي طَلْحَةَ وَمَا شَرَابُهُمْ إِلَّا الْفَضِيخُ الْبُسْرُ وَالثَّمَرُ فَإِذَا مُنَادٍ يُنَادِي فَقَالَ اخْرُجْ فَاَنْظُرْ فَخَرَجْتُ فَإِذَا مُنَادٍ يُنَادِي أَلَا إِنَّ الْخَمْرَ قَدْ حُرِّمَتْ قَالَ فَجَرْتُ فِي سِكَكِ الْمَدِينَةِ فَقَالَ لِي

أَبُو طَلْحَةَ أَخْرَجَ فَاهْرَقْتُهَا فَهَرَقْتُهَا فَقَالُوا أَوْ قَالَ بَعْضُهُمْ قُتِلَ فُلَانٌ قُتِلَ فُلَانٌ وَهِيَ فِي بُطُونِهِمْ قَالَ فَلَا أَذْرِي هُوَ مِنْ حَدِيثِ أَنَسٍ فَأَنْزَلَ اللَّهُ عَزَّ وَجَلَّ { لَيْسَ عَلَى الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ جُنَاحٌ فِيمَا طَعِمُوا إِذَا مَا اتَّقَوْا وَآمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ }

Narrated to me [Abu Ar Rabi' Sulaiman bin Daud Al 'Ataki], narrated to us [Hammad] - that is Ibn Zaid - informed us [Tsabit], from [Anas bin Malik], he said, 'I was serving intoxicants to people at Abu Thalhah's house when intoxicants were prohibited. They were drinking only Fadlikh, made from young and ripe dates. Suddenly, someone shouted. Abu Thalhah said, "Go out and see what's happening." Someone announced, "Intoxicants have been forbidden." Anas said, "The news spread through Madinah. Abu Thalhah told me, 'Go out and spill it.' I spilled it. People said, or some said, 'Someone died with intoxicants in their stomach.' Tsabit said, 'I don't know if this is part of Anas's hadith.' Then Allah, Mighty and Exalted, revealed, 'There is no sin on those who believe and do righteous deeds for what they ate before, if they fear Allah, believe, and do righteous deeds...' (Qur'an, Al-Ma'idah: 93).'

Not long after, the woman came and stayed in the house of Bani Sa'idah. Then the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) went out and went to meet the woman, it turned out that the woman always lowered her head. When the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) invited her to talk, the woman instead said, 'I seek refuge in Allah from you.' He replied: 'Alright, I also protect you from me.' After that the companions said to her, 'Do you know who the person who invited you to talk earlier was?' the woman answered, 'No.' The companions said, 'That person is the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), he came to propose to you.' The woman said, 'If so, I am among the unlucky ones.' Sahl said, 'At that time the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) came and sat in the hall of Bani Sa'idah together with the companions. Then he said to Sahl: 'Give us a drink.' Sahl said, 'Then I took out this bowl for them and gave them a drink using that bowl.' Abu Hazim said, 'Then Sahl took out the bowl for us and we immediately drank it.' Abu Hazim said, 'After a few years, Umar bin Abdul Aziz asked for the bowl. Then the bowl was finally given to him.' And in the narration of Abu Bakar bin Ishaq it is mentioned, 'He said: 'Serve us a drink, O Sahl!.'

The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: 'If so, then I am not either!' The man repeated his invitation again. The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) asked: 'What about Aisha?' Narrated to us by [Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah] Narrated to us by [Khalaf bin Khalifah] from [Yazid bin Kaisan] from [Abu Hazim] from [Abu Hurairah] who said One day or one night the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) went out of the house, suddenly he met Abu Bakr and Umar. Then he asked: 'Why did you go out of the house at night like this?' They replied 'We are hungry, O Messenger of Allah!' The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: 'By Allah in Whose Hand is my soul, I also went out because of hunger like you. Come on!' They went following him to the house of an Ansari companion (Abu Haitsam bin At Taihan). But unfortunately he was not at home. But when his wife saw the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) coming, she said 'Welcome and greetings (welcome).' So the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) asked: 'Where is so-and-so (Abu Haitsam)?' His wife replied 'He is fetching fresh water for us.' Suddenly her husband came and saw the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) with his two companions, so he said 'Praise be to Allah, no one is happier than me today, because of the arrival of noble guests.' Then he took a bunch of dates, among them some that were still young, some starting to ripen, and some fully ripe. He said 'Please eat this.' While he took a knife. The Prophet (peace be upon him) said: 'Do not slaughter the one that is still milking.' So he slaughtered a goat, then they ate the goat, ate the bunch of dates, and drank. After everyone was full and satisfied with eating and drinking, the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said to Abu Bakr and Umar: 'By Allah in Whose Hand is my soul, you will be asked on the Day of Judgment about the blessing you obtained this. You left the house because of hunger and returned after obtaining this blessing.' Narrated to me by [Ishaq bin Manshur] It was informed to us by [Abu Hisyam] that is Al Mughirah bin Salamah Narrated to us by ['Abdul Wahid bin Ziyad] Narrated to us by [Yazid] Narrated to us by [Abu Hazim] who said I heard [Abu Hurairah] say When Abu Bakr and Umar were sitting, suddenly the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) came to them, he asked: 'Why are you sitting here?' They replied 'We are hungry until we left the house.' The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: 'By Allah in Whose Hand is my soul,...' then he mentioned a hadith similar to the hadith of Khalfa bin Khalifah.

Narrated to me by [Hajjaj bin Asy Sya'iri] Narrated to me by [Adl Dlahak bin Makhlad] from a sheet of paper that he showed me, then he read it to me, he said It was informed to us by [Handzalah bin Abu Sufyan] Narrated to us by [Sa'id bin Mina] who said I heard [Jabir bin Abdullah] say 'When the digging of the Khandaq defense trench was being carried out, I saw the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) in a state of hunger. Therefore I returned to my wife, asking her 'Do you have food? I saw the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) hungry.' So she took out a sack, in it there was one sha' (a measure) of wheat. Besides that we had a goat livestock. So I slaughtered the goat, while my wife ground the flour. When I finished slaughtering, she had finished grinding. Then I cut the goat into pieces and put it into the pot. Then I went to the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) (inviting him to come eat at home). Meanwhile my wife said to me 'Do not embarrass me to the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) and his companions.' So I met him while whispering to him 'O Messenger of Allah! I slaughtered our livestock goat, and my wife has ground one sha' (a measure) of wheat that we have. Therefore please come to eat together with some companions.' So the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) shouted: 'O people of Khandaq! Jabir has prepared a meal for all of you. Let us eat together!' Meanwhile the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said to Jabir: 'Do not take down your pot and do not cook your bread dough until I come.' Then I went home. Not long after, the Messenger of Allah came ahead of the companions. When I met my wife, she regretted me, saying 'How are you! How are you!' I replied 'I have done what you instructed me.' So I took out our bread dough, then the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) spat on the dough to give blessing. Then he went to the pot (where the goat was cooked), so he prayed for blessing for it. After that he said to my wife: 'Call the baker to help you cook. Later fill the stew into bowls directly from the pot and do not take down your pot at all.' At that time the companions were all one thousand people. By Allah, all of them ate and after that they left. But our pot was still full as before. While the dough - as Ad Dlahak said - was still available as much as before.

Narrated to us by [Yahya bin Yahya] he said I read the hadith of [Malik bin Anas] from [Ishaq bin 'Abdullah bin Abu Thalhah] That he heard [Anas bin Malik] say Abu Thalhah said to Ummu Sulaim 'I heard the voice of the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) very weak, which I know that he is very hungry. Do you have something?' She replied 'Yes.' Then she took out some flat breads from wheat, then took her veil. Then she slipped it under my arm, and draped her veil (containing the bread). She sent me to the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him). Anas said 'I brought it to meet the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him). I found him sitting in the mosque with the companions. I stood before them. The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) asked: 'Did Abu Thalhah send you?' Anas replied 'Yes', He asked: 'To bring food?' I replied 'Yes,' so the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said to the people who were with him 'Stand up!' Anas said 'He set off and I was in front of them, until I met Abu Thalhah and informed him of that.' Abu Thalhah said 'O Ummu Sulaim, the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) came with people, while we do not have enough food to entertain them?' Ummu Sulaim replied 'Allah and His Messenger know better.' Anas said 'Abu Thalhah met the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him). He arrived and Abu Thalhah approached him until he entered his house. The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: 'Come here, O Ummu Sulaim, what do you have?' She came bringing the bread, then the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) ordered the bread to be crumbled. The bread was crumbled and Ummu Sulaim poured ghee on the container. So it became a side dish. The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) uttered some words then said: 'Allow ten people to enter.' Abu Thalhah allowed them. They ate it until full then left. He said: 'Allow ten people to enter.' Abu Thalhah allowed them, and they ate it until full then left. Then he said: 'Allow ten people to enter.' Until they all could eat and be full. Their number was seventy people or eighty people.'

Narrated to us by [Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah], Narrated to us by [Abdullah bin Numair], similarly narrated from another chain, and Narrated to us by [Ibnu Numair] this wording is his, Narrated to us by [my father], Narrated to us by [Sa'd bin Sa'id], Narrated to me by [Anas bin Malik radliallahu 'anhu] he said 'Abu Thalhah sent me to approach the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) to invite him to eat at his house, and Abu Thalhah had prepared a meal. Then I went to invite him. I found him with many people. He looked at me so I was embarrassed by it. Then I said 'Abu Thalhah invites you to eat at his house, please accept (fulfill it)!'. So he said: 'Stand up all of you!' Abu Thalhah said 'O Messenger of Allah!

I only prepared food for you alone.' Then he touched the available food and prayed for blessing on that food. Then he said: 'Order those friends to enter ten people.' He said: 'Please eat!' From between his fingers something came out (in the form of food), so they ate until full, after that they left. He said: 'Order ten more people to enter.' They also ate until full. I found him sitting chatting with his companions, while his stomach was tied. As I recall he tied a stone to his stomach. Then I asked his companions 'Why did the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) tie his stomach?' They replied 'He is hungry.' I immediately went to meet Abu Thalhah the husband of Ummu Sulaim binti Milhan, I said to him 'O father, I saw the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) tying his stomach, then I asked his companions, they replied 'He is hungry.' Abu Thalhah then entered to meet my mother, he asked her 'Is there food?' He signaled to me then I stood to meet him. He held my hand (inviting me to go with him). We walked until we reached the house of one of his wives. He entered and allowed me to enter as well. So I entered into the inner room. He asked his wife: 'Do you have food ready?' They answered 'Yes!' Then three loaves of bread were brought and presented before the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him. He took one and placed it in front of him, then took another and placed it in front of me. After that, the third was broken, half taken by him and the other half placed in front of me. Then he asked: 'Is there any condiment?' They answered 'There is nothing except vinegar.' He said: 'Bring it here! The best condiment is vinegar.'

And Narrated to me by [Hajjaj bin As Syaa'ir] and [Ahmad bin Sa'id bin Shakhr] the wording from both is almost similar. Both said Narrated to us by [Abu An Nu'man], Narrated to us by [Tsabit] in the narration of Hajjaj bin Yazid Abu Zaid Al Ahwal, Narrated to us by [Ashim bin Abdullah bin Al Harits] from [Aflah] -the slave- of Abu Ayyub from [Abu Ayyub] that the Prophet peace be upon him stayed at his house. Then He stayed overnight and remained below while Abu Ayyub Al Anshari was above. One night Abu Ayyub Al Anshari woke up, he (Abu Ayyub Al Anshari) said We walk above the head of the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him? Then he moved and slept with his family beside him. Abu Ayyub Al Anshari mentioned that to the Prophet peace be upon him then the Prophet peace be upon him said: 'Below is more beneficial for me.' Abu Ayyub Al Anshari said: I will not stay on the upper floor while you are below it.' Then Abu Ayyub Al Anshari moved below while the Prophet peace be upon him moved above. Abu Ayyub Al Anshari also prepared food for the Prophet peace be upon him. When the food place was returned Abu Ayyub Al Anshari asked where the fingers of the Prophet peace be upon him were, then he ate from the traces of the fingers of the Prophet peace be upon him. He also once prepared food that contained garlic. When the remnants of his plate were returned, he asked about the traces of the fingers of the Prophet peace be upon him, it was said to him 'The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him did not eat.' Abu Ayyub Al Anshari was shocked and immediately went up, he asked: 'Is that food forbidden? The Prophet peace be upon him said: 'No, I just do not like it.' Abu Ayyub Al Anshari said 'Indeed, I also hate what you hate. (And the Prophet peace be upon him at that time was often visited by angels and revelation).

Narrated to me by [Zuhair bin Harb], Narrated to us by [Jarir bin Abdul Hamid] from [Fudhail bin Ghazawan] from [Abu Hazim Al Asyja'i] from [Abu Hurairah] he said 'A man came to the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him then he said: 'I am in difficulty (hard life and hunger).' So he took that person to the house of some of his wives, asking if they had food. His wives answered 'By Allah who sent you with the truth, I have nothing except water.' That was the answer from each of them until all his wives said the same answer. Then he said to his companions: 'Who is willing to host this guest tonight surely he will be given mercy by Allah Almighty.' Then a man from the Ansar stood up and said 'I, O Messenger of Allah!' then he took that person to his house. He asked his wife 'Do you have food ready?' His wife answered 'No, except the children's food.' He said 'Distract them with anything. And when our guest has come, turn off the lamp and show him that we seem to eat with him. The way is when he starts eating, stand near the lamp then turn it off. So they sat, and the guest ate. After dawn, that companion met the Prophet peace be upon him. Then he said: 'Indeed Allah is amazed at how you two treated your guest last night'.

Narrated to us by [Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah] Narrated to us by [Syababah bin Sawwar]
Narrated to us by [Sulaiman bin Al Mughirah] from [Tsabit] from ['Abdurrahman bin Abu Laila] from [Al Miqdad] he said 'I and my two friends came -while at that time my hearing and sight were no longer functioning due to the illness I had experienced.' Al Miqdad said
'We began to surrender ourselves (asking for help) to the companions of the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him, but none of them were willing to accept us. Finally, we came to the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him and he took us to his family. It turned out that in his house there were three goats. Then he said: 'Milk those goats for us to drink together!'
Al Miqdad said 'Then we milked those goats and each of us drank our respective portions.
After that, we saved the portion of the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him. Al Miqdad said 'Part of the night had passed, then the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him gave a greeting that did not wake up the sleeping, but could be heard by the awake.' Al Miqdad said 'The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him came to the mosque then he performed prayer. After that, he approached his drink to drink it.' That night, when I had drunk my portion, suddenly I was tempted by the whisper of Satan that kept ringing in my ear 'Muhammad comes to the Ansar people and they host him. After that, he (Muhammad) gets a banquet among them, so he (Muhammad) does not need his remaining drink.' Then I approached his remaining drink and directly drank it. After the drink of the Messenger of Allah entered my stomach, and of course it was impossible for me to take it out again, then

Satan whispered regret into my heart 'O woe to you, ' exclaimed Satan. 'What have you done? Why did you drink up Muhammad's drink? What if Muhammad comes and he no longer finds his drink, so finally he prays for misfortune upon you and you will be miserable in the world and the hereafter?' coincidentally at that time I was wearing a cloak, which if I covered up to my feet my head would be visible. Conversely, if I covered my head, then my feet would be visible. Therefore, I could not sleep peacefully. While my two friends, it seems they both could sleep soundly because they did not do what I had done. Al Miqdad said 'Not long after the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him came and gave a greeting as usual. After that, he went to the mosque to perform prayer. After performing prayer, he directly approached his drink to drink it. But, he found the drink in the glass was empty. Finally, he raised his face to the sky. My heart said 'Perhaps the Messenger of Allah now will pray for misfortune for me, as the one who has finished his drink.' But, it turned out he instead prayed: 'O Allah, give food to the one who has given me food and give drink to the one who has given me drink.' Al Miqdad said 'Finally I rolled up my cloak, then I took a knife, and I went to my goat pen. I chose the fattest goat to slaughter as food for the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him. When I slaughtered it, it turned out those goats contained a lot of milk, so I immediately borrowed a container from the family of the Messenger of Allah, which previously they rarely used that container to milk goats. Finally I milked the goats until the containers were full. After that, I approached the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him. Then he said: 'Have you drunk your drinks last night?' I said 'O Messenger of Allah, please taste this goat milk!' Then he drank it happily. After that he asked for more drink. Then I allowed him to drink that milk. So he drank it and after that he still asked for more. After I knew the Messenger of Allah had felt relieved and I had been able to fulfill his request, then I felt happy until I fell to the ground. The Messenger of Allah asked 'O Miqdad, is there one of your bad deeds?' I answered 'Yes, actually last night I was like this and that, until finally I have done this and that.' Then the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said: 'Actually that is mercy from Allah. Unfortunately, why didn't you tell me so we could wake up our two friends and they could also drink with us?' Al Miqdad said 'By the One who sent you, I do not care if you have tasted this milk with me, then want to be with the other companions again.' And Narrated to us by [Ishaq bin Ibrahim], he informed us [An Nadhr bin Syumail] Narrated to us by [Sulaiman bin Al Mughirah] with a similar chain.

Not long after, there was a tall, thin polytheist with disheveled hair while herding goats. So the Messenger of Allah asked him: 'Are these goats for sale or as a gift?' The polytheist answered 'These goats are for sale.' Finally the Messenger of Allah bought the goat from him, then slaughtered and he ordered the goat's liver to be grilled. Abdurrahman said 'By Allah, every companion numbering one hundred and thirty got a share from the grilled goat of the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him. If the person happened to be present, then the Messenger of Allah saved his share. Abdurrahman said 'The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him divided the goat meat into two pots and we all ate it until full. Moreover, we were not able to finish it. Then the remainder in the two pots we carried with camels. Or approximately like that he narrated.'

Narrated to us by ['Ubaidullah bin Mu'adz Al 'Anbiri] and [Hamid bin 'Umar Al Bakrawi] and [Muhammad bin Abdul A'la Al Qaisi] all from [Al Mu'tamir] and this wording belongs to Ibnu Mu'adz Narrated to us by [Al Mu'tamir bin Sulaiman] he said Said [My father] Narrated to us by [Abu 'Utsman] he narrated to him ['Abdurrahman bin Abu Bakr] that the people of Suffah, (people who stayed on the porch of the Nabawi mosque), were poor people. One day, the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said: 'Whoever has food for two people, then eat with three people. Whoever has food for four people, then eat by five or six people.' Or approximately that is what he said. Abu Bakr once came with three people, while the Prophet Muhammad peace be upon him came with ten people. Meanwhile, the three people with Abu Bakr were me, my father and my mother. (I do not know if he narrated my wife and the servant in our house and Abu Bakr's house). Abdurrahman said 'Abu Bakr may Allah be pleased with him had dinner at the place of the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him and he had not returned until after Isha prayer. It seems the Messenger of Allah was already sleepy, then Abu Bakr returned and arrived home after part of the night had passed. Then Abu Bakr was asked by his wife 'O my husband, why did you just leave your guests?' Abu Bakr instead asked back to his wife 'Have you not given them dinner?' His wife answered 'They did not want to eat before you came. Actually the food had been served, but they still did not want to eat.' Abdurrahman said 'Then I went out to sneak away.' Abu Bakr said 'O Ghuntsar!' Apparently Abu Bakr said unpleasant (because looking for me) and invited his guests 'Please enjoy our modest meal!' Abu Bakr said 'By Allah, I will not taste it.' Abdurrahman said 'By Allah, every time we took a bite from that food, then the food always increased, until we felt full and the food became more than before.' Seeing the food that did not decrease at all or even increased, then Abu Bakr said to his wife 'O sister of Bani Firas, what miracle is this?' His wife answered 'By my heart's content, indeed the food increased three times from before.' Abdurrahman said 'Abu Bakr only tasted part of the food while saying something to his wife, 'O my wife, indeed your oath is from Satan.' It turned out Abu Bakr only tasted one bite from that food. After that, he brought the food to the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him, until it was by his side. Abdurrahman said 'We had an agreement with a people while the time limit had passed. Then we invited twelve people to eat each accompanied by several subordinates. Only Allah knows how many subordinates each of the twelve people. 'Abdurrahman said 'Clearly, each person was accompanied by several subordinates. They then ate all of it.' (Approximately that is what he conveyed).

Narrated to us by [Muhammad bin Al Mutsanna] Narrated to us by [Salim bin Nuh Al 'Aththar] from [Al Jurairi] from [Abu 'Utsman] from ['Abdurrahman bin Abu Bakr] he said 'Some of our guests stopped at our house.' Abdurrahman said 'While that night my father had an appointment to converse with the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him. So Abu Bakr left while saying 'O Abdurrahman, serve your guests well!' Abdurrahman said 'In the evening, I served the guests by presenting dishes for them, but they refused while saying 'Wait, until this host comes, so he can eat with us.' Abdurrahman said 'So I said to them 'He is a hard person, if you do not eat what I serve, I am afraid my father will scold me. Abdurrahman said 'But they still refused.' When Abu Bakr came, while among them no one had touched it at all. Abu Bakr asked them 'Have you finished enjoying our meal?' Abdurrahman said then they answered 'By Allah, not yet.' Abu Bakr said Didn't I tell Abdurrahman? Abdurrahman said 'Then I moved away from Abu Bakr, but he immediately called me 'O Abdurrahman!' Abdurrahman said 'but I kept avoiding him.' So Abu Bakr called me O Guntsar! (rebuking word) 'I swear to you if you hear my voice, so come! Abdurrahman said So I came while saying 'By Allah, I am not wrong, they are Father's guests, so ask them. I have served and hosted them, but they refused to eat the meal until father came.'

Abdurrahman said So Abu Bakr asked 'Why don't you want to eat the meal we gave you?' Abdurrahman said So Abu Bakr said 'By Allah, I will not eat tonight!' Abdurrahman said then they said 'By Allah, we will not eat it until you eat it.' Abu Bakr said 'I have never seen evil like what happened tonight.' Woe to you why don't you accept our meal? Abdurrahman said then Abu Bakr said 'Your oaths earlier are from Satan, come eat your meal.' So the food was presented to them. Abu Bakr prayed first then ate, then they followed eating. Abdurrahman said 'In the morning Abu Bakr met the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him while saying 'O Messenger of Allah, my guests have done good by keeping their oaths. While I have broken my oath. Abdurrahman said Abu Bakr narrated the incident last night to the Messenger of Allah, then the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said: 'No, even you are the best and superior to them. Abdurrahman said 'I did not hear there is kaffarah (expiation) for that oath.'

Not long after that, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, was given some garments, including silk. Then he sent one to Umar. So Umar asked "O Messenger of Allah! Narrated to us Syaiban bin Farrukh narrated to us Jarir bin Hazim narrated to us Nafi' from Ibnu Umar, he said "Umar bin Khattab saw Utharid At Tamimi standing in the market displaying a silk garment. Utharid was a man close to the kings and obtained the garment from them. Umar said: 'O Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, I saw Utharid standing in the market displaying a silk garment. How nice it would be if you bought it to wear when receiving Arab delegations that come to you, -it seems he also said 'and for you to wear for preaching on Friday.'- The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, answered: "Only those who have no share in the hereafter wear silk in this world." Not long after that, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, was given some silk garments. Then he sent one to Umar, also gave one to Usamah bin Zaid, and gave one to Ali bin Abi Thalib, saying to Ali: "Cut that garment for your wife's shawl!" Umar came to him carrying the silk garment sent by the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, for him. Umar said "O Messenger of Allah! Why did you send me this silk garment? Didn't you say to me yesterday about the garment displayed by Utharid?" The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, answered: "I did not send it to you to wear, but I sent it so that you could use it to meet your needs." As for Usamah, he wore the garment joyfully. Therefore, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, looked at him with a look that showed he disapproved of Usamah's action. Usamah said "O Messenger of Allah! Why do you look at me like that, didn't you send me this garment?" The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, answered: "I did not send it for you to wear, but so that you could cut it again for your wife's shawl."

Narrated to us Yahya bin Yahya informed us Khalid bin Abdullah from Abdul Malik from Abdullah - a freed slave - from Asma' binti Abu Bakr and he was also the uncle of her son Atha, he said "Asma' binti Abu Bakr once sent me to meet Abdullah bin Umar to convey her message which read, 'It has reached me that you have forbidden three things clothing made of mixed silk, a dark red silk saddle, and fasting the entire month of Rajab.' Abdullah bin Umar said to me 'Regarding fasting in the month of Rajab that you mentioned, what about someone who fasts forever? As for the mixed silk in clothing, I actually heard Umar bin Khaththab say 'I heard the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, say: "Indeed, whoever wears silk cloth, surely he will have no share in the hereafter." Therefore, I am worried that the silk in that cloth is part of it. As for the dark red silk saddle, know that it is Abdullah's mattress that turned out to be dark red.' Then I returned to Asma' binti Abu Bakr, to inform her about the information I had obtained. Not long after, she showed me a green imperial robe with a silk collar, and its two sides were sewn with silk, saying 'O Abdullah, this is the robe of the Messenger of Allah.' After that, she continued her words 'This robe was with Aisyah until she passed away. After she passed away, I took it. And the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, often wore it. Then we washed and cleaned it for the sick so that they would recover quickly by wearing it.'

When the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, saw those pillows, he stopped at the door and did not enter. I immediately knew from his face that he was displeased. Aisyah answered 'I bought them for you to sit or lean on.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'The makers of these images will be punished on the Day of Judgment, and it will be said to them: "Bring to life the images you made!"' So give me a fatwa regarding these images!' Ibnu Abbas said to him 'Come closer to me!' The man then came closer. But Ibnu Abbas still said 'Come closer again!' Then the man came closer again until Ibnu Abbas could place his hand on the man's head. After that, Ibnu Abbas said 'I will tell you what I heard from the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, that he said: "Every person who makes images will enter Hell. Allah will make for him, with every image he made, a form that will torment him in the Hellfire." Ibnu Abbas said 'If you must do it, then make images of trees or things that have no soul.' This statement of Abdullah bin Mas'ud reached a woman from Bani Asad, commonly called Ummu Ya'qub, who was reading the Qur'an at that time. Then the woman came to Ibnu Mas'ud and said "O Abdullah, is it true what I heard that you cursed those who request their eyebrows to be plucked and those who file their teeth for beauty, altering Allah's creation?" Abdullah bin Mas'ud answered "How could I not curse those whom the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, cursed, while it is in the Qur'an?" The woman objected "I have read all the verses between the covers of the Qur'an, but I did not find it." Ibnu Mas'ud said "If you had truly read it, you would have found it. Allah, the Exalted, has said in the Qur'an: 'Whatever the Messenger has given you, take and whatever he has forbidden you, refrain from.' (Qur'an, Al-Hashr (59):7)." The woman said "I see what you mentioned on your wife now." Ibnu Mas'ud answered "Go and see her now!" Then the woman went to Abdullah bin Mas'ud's house to meet his wife. However, she saw nothing on her. Finally, she went to meet Ibnu Mas'ud and said "Indeed, I saw nothing on your wife." "Narrated to us Utsman bin Abu Syaibah and Ishaq bin Ibrahim, Utsman said 'Narrated to us.' And Ishaq said 'Informed us' Jarir from Manshur from Salim bin Abu Al Ja'di from Jابر bin Abdullah he said "(The wife of) one of us gave birth to a boy, and he named him Muhammad." Then his family said 'We do not allow you to name your child with the name of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him.' So he went to the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, carrying his child and said: 'O Messenger of Allah! My son was born, and I named him Muhammad. My family said it is not allowed to name with the name of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. What about that?' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'Name with my name, but do not use my kunya. I am titled Qasim (the divider), because I distribute Allah's mercy among you all.'

"Narrated to us Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah Narrated to us Yazid bin Harun Informed us Ibnu Aun from Ibnu Sirin from Anas bin Malik he said One time, Abu Thalhah's baby fell ill. The baby then passed away while Abu Thalhah was out of the house. When Abu Thalhah returned home, he asked Ummu Sulaim 'How is my child?' She answered 'I see he is calmer now than before.' Then, as usual, Ummu Sulaim served dinner for her husband. After dinner, they slept and had marital relations. Shortly after, Ummu Sulaim began to tell the true condition of their child, that he had been buried. The next day, Abu Thalhah went to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and told him about it. Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, asked: 'Did you become newlyweds last night?' Abu Thalhah answered 'Yes.' Then the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, prayed: 'O Allah, bless them both.' When Ummu Sulaim gave birth to a child, Abu Thalhah said to me (Anas) 'Take this child to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him!' So I brought the child to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, with some dates. Then he took the child and asked: 'Is there something brought with him?' The companions answered Yes, here are some dates. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, took the dates and chewed them. After that, he took the chewed date and put it in the baby's mouth, moved the baby's mouth, and named him Abdullah. Narrated to us Muhammad bin Basysyar Narrated to us Hammad bin Mas'adah Narrated to us Ibnu Aun from Muhammad from Anas with this story as in the Hadith of Yazid.

Upon arriving at Quba', she gave birth to her baby there. After giving birth, she went to meet the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, so that he would perform tahnik for her baby boy. Then he took the baby and placed him on his lap. After that, he asked for a date. Aisyah said 'We had to search for it for a while before we finally found it.' Soon after, the Messenger of Allah began chewing the date and spat it into the baby's mouth, so the first thing that entered his stomach was his saliva. Then, Asma' said 'Then the Messenger of Allah rubbed, prayed for, and named him Abdullah.' When he was seven or eight years old, the boy came to pledge allegiance to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him. It was his father, Zubair, who had encouraged him to do so. The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, smiled proudly when he saw the boy come to pledge allegiance, then he accepted his pledge.

Umar said, If you heard it from the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), bring a witness, or I'll teach you a lesson! Abu Sa'id said, Then Abu Musa came to us (the companions) and said, Haven't you heard the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) say, Seeking permission is only three times? The companions laughed at Abu Musa's odd situation. Abu Sa'id said, I told them, Why do you laugh when your Muslim brother is in distress? Then I said, Come, O Abu Musa, I'll go with you to face Umar's judgment if you're wrong. Abu Musa returned to Umar with Abu Sa'id and said, Here is Abu Sa'id as my witness. Narrated to us by Muhammad bin Al Ala Abu Kuraib Al Mahdani Narrated to us by Abu Usamah from Hisyam Informed me by my father from Asma' binti Abu Bakr, she said, I married Zubair, who had nothing—no servant, wealth, or anything but a horse. I fed, cared for, and trained it. I ground date pits for food, prepared his meals and drinks, and sewed and cooked. But I wasn't skilled at baking bread, so our Ansari neighbors, kind women, made it. I carried dates on my head from the land the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) allotted to Zubair, two farsakhs away. One day, while carrying dates, I met the Messenger and some companions. He said, Ikh! Ikh! stopping his camel to kneel, offering me a ride behind him. Asma said (to her husband), But I was shy, knowing you're jealous. Zubair replied, By Allah, your burden of carrying dates on your head feels heavier to me than you riding with him. Asma said, Later, my father Abu Bakr sent a servant to us, who took over the horse's care, as if freeing me from heavy labor.

Narrated to us by Muhammad bin Ubaid Al Ghurbari Narrated to us by Hammad bin Zaid from Ayyub from Ibn Abu Mulaikah that Asma' said, I helped my husband Zubair with household tasks. He had a horse, and I cared for it. Nothing was harder for me than tending that horse. I gathered its fodder and cleaned it. The narrator said, Then, at one point, he got a servant—a captive given to the Prophet (peace be upon him), who gave her to Asma' as a helper. Asma' said, She took over caring for the horse, easing my burden. Once, a man came to me, saying, O Ummu Abdullah, I am poor may I sell under your house's shade? Asma' replied, If my husband Zubair permits, come back when he's home. Later, the man returned, saying, O Ummu Abdullah, I am poor and wish to sell under your house's shade please allow me! Asma' said, Is there no other house in Madinah but mine? Hearing this, Zubair said to Asma', Why forbid a poor man from selling? So, the man sold and profited. I sold him a slave. Later, Zubair asked about the money I kept from the sale. Zubair said, Give me the money. Asma' replied, I have spent it in charity.

One day or night, he prayed, prayed, and prayed. Then he asked Aisyah, O Aisyah, do you know Allah Almighty informed me of this? Two men came to me one sat near my head, the other near my feet. One asked the other, What ails this man? He replied, He's bewitched! He asked, Who bewitched him? He answered, Labid bin A'sham! He asked, With what? He replied, A comb and dried date palm fibers. He asked, Where are they? He answered, In the Dzi Arwan well. Aisyah said, The Messenger went with some companions to find them. He said, O Aisyah, I saw the well's water reddish, its date palms like devils' heads. I asked, Did you not burn them? The Prophet replied, No! Allah Almighty has healed me, and I don't wish to repay evil with evil, so I ordered them buried. Narrated to us by Abu Kuraib Narrated to us by Abu Usamah Narrated to us by Hisyam from his father from Aisyah, she said, The Messenger was bewitched... (Abu Kuraib narrated the full story like Ibn Numair's Hadith, adding, The Messenger went to the well and looked inside, where bees were above it. Aisyah said, O Messenger of Allah, take them out. The Hadith omits, Why not burn them? and, I ordered them buried.

Narrated to us by Yahya bin Yahya At Tamimi Informed us by Husyaim from Abu Bisyr from Abu Al Mutawakkil from Abu Sa'id Al Khudri that some companions traveled far and rested in an Arab village, asking the villagers for hospitality. The villagers refused. They asked the companions, Is there anyone among you skilled in incantations? Our village leader was stung by an insect. A companion replied, Yes! He went to the leader and recited Surah Al Fatihah as an incantation, and the leader recovered. They gave him about thirty goats as payment, but he refused, saying, Wait! I will ask the Prophet (peace be upon him) if I may accept it. He came to the Prophet and asked, O Messenger of Allah, by Allah, I recited Surah Al Fatihah as an incantation. The Prophet smiled and said, How did you know Al Fatihah is an incantation? Accept their gift and share some with me. Narrated to us by Muhammad bin Basysyar and Abu Bakr bin Nafi', both from Ghundar Muhammad bin Ja'far from Syu'bah from Abu Bisyr through this chain. He mentioned in his Hadith, The man recited the Mother of the Qur'an, gathered his saliva, spat it out, and the person recovered.

Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Al Mutsanna] Narrated to us [Ibnu Abu 'Adi] from [Syu'bah] from [Habib], he said: While we were in Medina, news reached me that the plague was spreading in Kufa. So ['Atha bin Yasar] and others said to me: 'The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said: "If you are in a place where the plague is, do not leave it. And if you hear it is in a place, do not go there."' I asked: From whom did you hear this? They replied: 'From [Amir bin Sa'ad].' I said: I will meet him. They said: 'He is not here.' So I met his brother, [Ibrahim bin Sa'd]. I asked him, and he replied: 'I saw [Usamah] tell Sa'ad, saying: I heard the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, say: "The plague is a punishment, a warning, or a remnant of punishment by which Allah afflicted people before you. If you hear it spreading in a land where you are, do not leave it. And if it spreads in a land, do not go there."' [Habib] said: I asked [Ibrahim]: Did you hear [Usamah] say this to Sa'ad without him denying it? Ibrahim replied: 'Yes.' Narrated to us ['Ubaidullah bin Mu'adz] Narrated to us [my father] Narrated to us [Syu'bah] through this chain, but he did not mention the story of ['Atha bin Yasar] at the start. Narrated to us [Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah] Narrated to us [Waki'] from [Sufyan] from [Habib] from [Ibrahim bin Sa'd] from [Sa'd bin Malik] and [Khuzaimah bin Tsabit] and [Usamah bin Zaid], they said: The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said a hadith similar to Syu'bah's. Narrated to us ['Utsman bin Abu Syaibah] and [Ishaq bin Ibrahim], both from [Jarir] from [Al A'masy] from [Habib] from [Ibrahim bin Sa'd bin Abi Waqqash], he said: [Usamah bin Zaid] and [Sa'd] were sitting, discussing something. Both said: The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said: (a similar hadith). Narrated to me [Wahb bin Baqiyah] Informed us [Khalid], namely Ath Thahan, from [Asy Syaibani] from [Habib bin Abu Tsabit] from [Ibrahim bin Sa'd bin Malik] from [his father] from the Prophet, peace be upon him, with a similar hadith.

Narrated to us [Yahya bin Yahya At Tamimi], he said: I read the hadith of [Malik] from [Ibnu Syihab] from ['Abdul Hamid bin 'Abdur Rahman bin Zaid bin Al Khatthab] from ['Abdullah bin 'Abdullah bin Al Harits bin Naufal] from ['Abdullah bin 'Abbas] that once 'Umar bin Khatthab traveled to Sham. Upon reaching Saragh, the army commanders, including Abu 'Ubaidah bin Jarrah and other companions, informed him that a plague was spreading in Sham. Ibn Abbas said: 'Umar said: "Call the early Muhajirin!" So I called them, and he consulted them, saying: "A plague is spreading in Sham. What is your opinion?" They differed. Some said to 'Umar: "You set out for an important matter we think you should not return." Others said: "You came with a large group, including companions of the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him. We do not agree to expose them to the plague." 'Umar said: "Leave!" Then he said: "Call the Ansar!" So I called them, and he consulted them. They acted like the Muhajirin, differing similarly. 'Umar said: "Leave!" Then he said: "Call the Quraysh leaders who migrated before the conquest of Mecca!" So I called them, and they unanimously agreed, saying: "We think you should return with your group and not expose them to the plague." 'Umar announced to his group: "Tomorrow morning, I will return, so prepare yourselves!" Abu 'Ubaidah bin Jarrah asked: "Are we fleeing from Allah's decree?" 'Umar replied: "Why do you say that, O Abu 'Ubaidah?" He seemed reluctant to debate him, saying: "Yes, we flee from Allah's decree to Allah's decree. Suppose you had a camel and came to a valley with two sides, one fertile and one barren. If you grazed it in the fertile side, would you not graze by Allah's decree? And if you grazed it in the barren side, would you not graze by Allah's decree?" Then ['Abdurrahman bin 'Auf], who had been absent due to some matter, arrived and said: "I know about this. I heard the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, say: 'If you hear a plague spreading in a land, do not go there. And if it spreads where you are, do not leave to escape it.'" Ibn Abbas said: 'Umar praised Allah and then left.' Narrated to us [Ishaq bin Ibrahim] and [Muhammad bin Rafi'] and [Abad bin Humaid], [Ibnu Rafi'] said: Narrated to us, while the others said: Informed us [Abdurrazaq], Informed us [Ma'mar] through this chain as in Malik's hadith. In Ma'mar's hadith, 'Umar added: "If you grazed the camel in the barren side, leaving the fertile one, would you not weaken it?" Abu Ubaidah replied: "Yes." 'Umar said: "Then proceed!" So Abu Ubaidah proceeded to Medina, saying: "This is a place to stay, God willing." Narrated to me [Abu Thahir] and [Harmalah bin Yahya], both said: Informed us [Ibnu Wahb], Informed me [Yunus] from [Ibnu Syihab] through this chain, except he said: It was Abdullah bin Al Harits who narrated to him, not Abdullah bin Abdullah.

Narrated to me [Abu Ath Thahir] and [Harmalah], and their wording is similar, both said: Informed us [Ibnu Wahb] Informed me [Yunus] from [Ibnu Syihab] that [Abu Salamah bin 'Abdur Rahman bin 'Auf] narrated to him that the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said: "No disease spreads on its own." He also narrated that the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said: "The sick should not approach the healthy." Abu Salamah said: "[Abu Hurairah] narrated both hadiths from the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him. Later, Abu Hurairah refrained from the saying 'No disease spreads on its own' and held to 'The sick should not approach the healthy.'" The narrator said: Al Harits bin Abu Dzubab, Abu Hurairah's cousin, said: "I heard you, O Abu Hurairah, narrate this hadith with another, then you stopped mentioning it. You said: The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said: 'No disease spreads on its own.' But Abu Hurairah denied it, saying: 'The sick should not approach the healthy.' Al Harits did not accept this until Abu Hurairah got angry and spoke in an Abyssinian accent, saying to Al Harits: 'Do you not know what I said?' Al Harits replied: 'No.' Abu Hurairah said: 'I did not say it.' Abu Salamah said: 'Indeed, Abu Hurairah narrated to us that the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said: 'No disease spreads on its own.' But I do not know if Abu Hurairah forgot or abrogated one of his statements." Narrated to me [Muhammad bin Hatim] and [Hasan Al Hulwani] and [Abad bin Humaid]. [Abad] said: Narrated to me, while the others said: Narrated to us [Ya'qub], namely Ibnu Ibrahim Sa'd Narrated to me [my father] from [Shalih] from [Ibnu Syihab] Informed me [Abu Salamah bin 'Abdur Rahman], he heard [Abu Hurairah] say: The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said: "No disease spreads on its own," and also said: "The healthy should not approach the sick," as in Yunus's hadith. Narrated to us ['Abdullah bin 'Abdur Rahman Ad Darimi] Informed us [Abul Yaman] Narrated to us [Syu'aib] from [Az Zuhri] through this chain with a similar hadith.

Narrated to me [Abu Ath Thahir Ahmad bin 'Amru bin Sarh] Informed us ['Abdullah bin Wahb] Informed me [Malik bin Anas] from [Shaifi], the freed slave of Ibnu Aflah Informed me [Abu As Saib], the freed slave of Hisyam bin Zuhrah, that he visited [Abu Sa'id Al Khudri] at his house. Abu Saib said: 'I found him praying, so I waited until he finished. I heard movement in the palm fronds in the corner of the house, turned, and saw a snake. I jumped to kill it, but Abu Sa'id signaled me to stay seated. I returned to my seat. After praying, he pointed to a house in the neighborhood and said: "Do you see that house, my friend?" I replied: "Yes, I see it." Abu Sa'id continued: "In that house lived a young man from our family, recently married. We went to the Battle of the Trench with the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him. At noon, he asked the Messenger for permission to return to his wife. The Messenger granted it, saying: 'Take your weapon, for I fear the Banu Quraizah may attack you!' He took his weapon and went home. He found his wife standing at the door. Out of jealousy, he aimed his spear at her. She said: 'Hold your spear and enter to see why I was outside!' He entered and found a large snake coiled on the bed. He stabbed it with his spear, then went out and planted the spear in front of the house. The snake struck him. It's unclear who died first, the snake or the young man. Abu Sa'id Al Khudri said: 'We went to the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, to report the incident and said: "O Messenger of Allah, pray to Allah to revive him!" The Messenger replied: "In Medina, there are jinn who have embraced Islam. If you see something unusual from them, give them three days to stay in the house. If they do not leave after three days, kill them, for they are devils!" Narrated to me [Muhammad bin Rafi'] Narrated to us [Wahab bin Jarir bin Hazim] Narrated to us [my father], he said: I heard [Asma' bin Ubaid] narrate from a man called As Saib, we think [Abu As Saib], he said: We visited [Abu Sa'id Al Khudzri]. While sitting, we heard movement under his bed and saw a snake, and so on as in Malik's hadith from Shaifi. It mentions: Then the Messenger said: "In Medina, there are jinn. If you see something unusual from them, give them three days to stay in the house. If they do not leave, kill them, for they are disbelievers!" He also said: "Go bury your friend."

The truest dream is from one who speaks truthfully. A Muslim's dream is part of forty-five aspects of prophecy. Dreams are three types: (1) A good dream, glad tidings from Allah (2) a frightening or sad dream from Satan (3) a dream from one's own illusions or thoughts. If you dream something you dislike, get up, pray, and do not tell others.' Ibnu Sirin said: 'I prefer a chain on my feet over a chain on my neck, for a chain on the feet shows steadfastness in faith.' Another narrator said: 'I don't know if this was part of the hadith or Ibnu Sirin's words.' Narrated to me [Muhammad bin Rafi'] Narrated to us

['Abdur Razzaq] Informed us [Ma'mar] from [Ayyub] through this chain, and he said in the hadith: Abu Hurairah said: 'I admire a chain on the feet and dislike a chain on the neck, for a chain on the feet shows steadfastness in faith.' Narrated to me [Abu Ar Rabi'] Narrated to us [Hammad], namely Ibnu Zaid Narrated to us [Ayyub] and [Hisyam] from [Muhammad] from [Abu Hurairah], saying: 'When the Day of Judgment nears...' without attributing it to the Prophet, peace be upon him. Narrated to us [Hajib bin Al Walid], narrated to us [Muhammad bin Harb] from [Az Zubaidi], informed me [Az Zuhri] from [Ubaidullah bin Abdullah] that [Ibnu Abbas] or [Abu Hurairah] narrated about someone who came to the Prophet, peace be upon him. Likewise narrated through another chain, narrated to me [Harmalah bin Yahya At Tujibi], this is his wording. Informed us [Ibnu Wahab], informed me [Yunus] from [Ibnu Syihab] that [Ubaidullah bin Abdullah bin 'Uthbah] informed him: Indeed, [Ibnu Abbas] narrated about someone who came to the Prophet, peace be upon him, and said: 'O Messenger of Allah! Last night I dreamt of seeing a cloud dripping with ghee and honey. I saw people reaching out toward the cloud. Some took much, and some took little. Then I saw a rope stretched from the sky to the earth. I saw you holding the rope, then you ascended. After that, another person held the rope and ascended following you. Another man also ascended following you. Then another followed, but the rope broke. After the rope was reconnected, he ascended upward.' Abu Bakr said: 'O Messenger of Allah, by Allah, I ask you to allow me to interpret this dream.' The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said: 'Go ahead!' Abu Bakr said: 'The cloud in the dream is Islam. The ghee and honey dripping from it are the Qur'an, sweet and gentle. What people took from it represents those who gain understanding from the Qur'an, some gaining much and others little. The rope stretched from the sky is the truth you bring and believe in, O Messenger of Allah, through which Allah raises your rank. Then another follows that truth, reaching a high rank. Another follows, but the rope breaks. He strives to reconnect it, and it is reconnected, and he attains a high rank. By my father, O Messenger of Allah, tell me, is my interpretation correct?' The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said: 'O Abu Bakr, some of your interpretation is correct, and some is incorrect.' Abu Bakr said: 'By Allah, O Messenger of Allah, tell me which is correct and which is incorrect?' The Messenger of Allah said: 'Do not swear (in this matter of dream interpretation)!' And narrated to us [Ibnu Abu Umar], narrated to us [Sufyan] from [Az Zuhri] from ['Ubaidillah bin Abdullah] from [Ibnu 'Abbas], he said: A man from the direction of Uhud came to the Prophet and said: 'O Messenger of Allah, last night I dreamt of a cloud dripping with ghee and honey,' - similar to the Hadith of Yunus. And narrated to us [Muhammad bin Rafi'], narrated to us [Abdurrazaq], informed us [Ma'mar] from [Az Zuhri] from ['Ubaidullah bin Abdullah bin 'Utbah] from [Ibnu Abbas] or [Abu Hurairah]. Abdurrazaq said: Sometimes Ma'mar said from Ibnu Abbas, and sometimes from Abu Hurairah, that a man came to the Prophet, peace be upon him, and said: 'Indeed, last night I dreamt of a cloud...' similar to their Hadith. And narrated to us [Abdullah bin Abdurrahman Ad Darimi], narrated to us [Muhammad bin Katsir], narrated to us [Sulaiman, that is Ibnu Katsir] from [Az Zuhri] from [Ubaidullah bin Abdullah] from [Ibnu Abbas] that among what the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, used to ask his companions was: 'Who among you had a dream? Let him narrate it, and I will interpret it for him.' Some time later, a man came and said: 'O Messenger of Allah, I dreamt of seeing a cloud...' and so on, as in their Hadith.

Narrated to us [Abu 'Amir Abdullah bin Barrad Al Asy'ari] and [Abu Kuraib Muhammad bin Al 'Allaa], their wording is not much different. Both said: Narrated to us [Abu Usamah] from [Buraid] from [Abu Burdah], his grandfather, from [Abu Musa] from the Prophet, peace be upon him, he said: 'I dreamt in my sleep that I was migrating from Mecca to a land with many date palms. I thought it was Yamamah or Hajar, but it turned out to be the city of Madinah (Yathrib). In that dream, I also saw myself unsheathing a sword. Suddenly, the middle of the sword broke, and that was the calamity that befell the believers in the Battle of Uhud. Then I saw myself unsheathing the sword again, and it was better than the first. That was the victory granted by Allah and the unity of the believers. In that dream, I also saw cows - and Allah is Most Good. It turned out that the interpretation was the believers who were martyred in the Battle of Uhud and the reward given by Allah afterward, as well as the reward of sincerity in the Battle of Badr granted by Allah thereafter.'

Narrated to me [Muhammad bin Sahal At Tamimi], narrated to us [Abu Al Yaman], informed us [Syu'aib] from [Abdullah bin Abu Husain], narrated to us [Nafi' bin Zubair] from [Ibnu Abbas], he said: During the time of the Prophet, peace be upon him, Musailamah the Liar came to Madinah. Upon arriving, he said: 'If Muhammad bequeaths the matter of prophethood to me, I will follow his teachings.' Musailamah came to Madinah with some of his people. Then the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, and Tsabit bin Qais bin Syammas welcomed him, and at that time, he was holding a palm frond. After facing Musailamah and his followers, the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said: 'O Musailamah, even if you asked me to give you this piece of palm frond, I would never give it to you. And if you ask for this matter of Allah, I would even less give it to you. If you do not obey Allah's command and teachings, surely He will destroy you. O Musailamah, indeed I have seen your destruction, as I witnessed in my dream.' This is Tsabit who will take my place to answer your challenge. Then the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, left Musailamah the Liar. Ibnu Abbas said: I asked about the statement of the Prophet, peace be upon him, regarding his dream related to Musailamah the Liar, then [Abu Hurairah] said: The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said: 'While I was sleeping, I dreamt that there were two gold bracelets on my hands, and I felt anxious about their presence. Then I was inspired in my sleep to blow on them, so I blew, and they vanished. So I interpreted that dream as two liars (false prophets) who will appear after me, one being Al-Aswad al-Ansi, a leader from Sana'a, and the other being Musailamah, a leader from Yamamah.'

THE RASULULLAH SHALLALLAHU 'ALAIHI WASALLAM

Hadith Imam Muslim Number 4228

وَحَدَّثَنِي سَلَمَةُ بْنُ شَيْبٍ حَدَّثَنَا الْحَسَنُ بْنُ أَغَيْنَ حَدَّثَنَا مَعْقِلٌ عَنْ أَبِي الزُّبَيْرِ عَنْ جَابِرٍ أَنَّ رَجُلًا أَتَى النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَسْتَطْعِمُهُ فَأَطْعَمَهُ شَطْرَ وَسْقٍ شَعِيرٍ فَمَا زَالَ الرَّجُلُ يَأْكُلُ مِنْهُ وَامْرَأَتُهُ وَضَيْفُهُمَا حَتَّى كَالَهُ فَأَتَى النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ لَوْ لَمْ تَكِلْهُ لَأَكَلْتُمْ مِنْهُ وَلَقَامَ لَكُمْ

And narrated to me [Salamah bin Syabib] Narrated to us [Al Hasan bin A'yan] Narrated to us [Ma'qil] from [Abu Zubair] from [Jabir, may Allah be pleased with him], he said: A man came to the Prophet, peace be upon him, asking for food, and he gave him half a wasq of barley. So the man ate from that barley every day with his wife and guests, until one day he measured it. Then he came to the Prophet, peace be upon him. He said: 'If you had not measured it, you would have been able to eat from it forever.'

Narrated to us [Abdullah bin Abdurrahman Ad Darimi] Narrated to us [Abu Ali Al Hanafi] Narrated to us [Malik], that is Ibnu Anas, from [Abu Zubair Al Makki] that [Abu Thufail Amir bin Watsilah] informed him [Mu'adz bin Jabal] informed him he said: We traveled with the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, during the year of the Tabuk expedition. During the journey, he combined the Zuhr and Asr prayers, and the Maghrib and Isha prayers, so one day he delayed and combined them. He went to perform the combined Zuhr and Asr prayers. Then he returned. He went out again to perform the combined Maghrib and Isha prayers. After that, he said: 'God willing, tomorrow you will reach a spring in Tabuk. You will not arrive there before midday. Whoever arrives there first must not touch the water until I arrive.' We reached the spring, but two men had arrived before us, and the spring was producing very little water, about the size of a sandal strap. Mu'adz said: Then the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, asked the two men: 'Have you touched the water?' They replied, 'Yes.' The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, rebuked and criticized their actions, saying what should be said to them according to Allah's will. Mu'adz said: Then the companions scooped water little by little from the spring with their hands until it collected in a vessel. The Messenger of Allah washed his face and hands with that water, then returned it to the spring. Then the spring gushed forth abundantly - Abu Ali was uncertain whether the word 'Munhamir' or 'Ghazir' was used for (abundant) - so everyone there could drink. Then he said: 'O Mu'adz! If you live long, you will see this place full of gardens.'

Narrated to us [Abdullah bin Maslamah bin Qa'nab] Narrated to us [Sulaiman bin Bilal] from [Amru bin Yahya] from [Abbas bin Sahal bin Sa'id As Sa'idi] from [Abu Humaid], he said: We accompanied the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, to the Tabuk expedition. When we arrived at the valley of Al Qura, near a garden owned by an Arab woman, the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, asked us: 'Try to guess, how many measures of dates are there?' They guessed, while the Messenger of Allah estimated ten wasqs of dates. Then the Messenger of Allah said to the Arab woman: 'Count the measures of those dates, and God willing, we will return here another day.' After that, we continued until we reached Tabuk. Soon after, the Messenger of Allah said to us: 'O companions, tonight a fierce wind will blow upon you. Therefore, let none of you stand when the fierce wind comes. And whoever has a camel, tie it securely!' Indeed, that night a fierce wind blew strongly. A man tried to stand, but the fierce wind threw him toward the two mountains of Thayyi. The envoy of Ibnu 'Alma, the ruler of Ailah, came to the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, bringing a letter and a white mule as a gift for the Messenger. After receiving it, the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, replied to the letter and gave him a shawl as a gift. Then we continued until we reached the valley of Al Qura. The Messenger of Allah asked the woman who owned the date garden: 'How many dates did it produce?' The owner of the garden replied: 'Ten wasqs, O Messenger of Allah.' After that, the Messenger of Allah said: 'Indeed, I will soon return to Madinah. Whoever wishes to return with me, prepare yourselves, and whoever wishes to stay longer here, stay!' Then we returned until we reached the outskirts of Madinah. Then the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said: 'This is Madinah, a good city. And this is Mount Uhud, a mountain that loves us, and we love it.' The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said: 'Indeed, the best settlement of the Ansar is the settlement of Bani Najjar, followed by Bani Abdul Asyhal, then Bani Al Harits bin Al Khazraj, then Bani Sa'idah. In every settlement of the Ansar, there is surely goodness.' We met Sa'ad bin Ubadah, and Abu Usaid said: 'Do you know that the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, has declared the goodness of the Ansar settlements, placing us at the last rank?' Then Sa'ad bin Ubadah met the Messenger of Allah and said: 'O Messenger of Allah, you have declared the goodness of the Ansar settlements, but why did you place us at the last rank?' The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, replied: 'Is it not enough for you to be among the good?' And narrated to us [Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah] Narrated to us [Affan] Likewise narrated through another chain, And narrated to us [Ishaq bin Ibrahim] Informed us [Al Mughirah bin Salamah Al Makhzumi], both narrated to us [Wuhaib] Narrated to us [Amru bin Yahya] through this chain, up to his saying: 'In every settlement of the Ansar, there is surely goodness.' And there is no further story of Sa'ad bin Ubadah after that. In the Hadith of Wuhaib, there is an addition: 'Then the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, sent a letter to them in their land.'

Narrated to us [Abad bin Humaid] Informed us [Abdur Razak] Informed us [Ma'mar] from [Az Zuhri] from [Abu Salamah] from [Jabir] Likewise narrated through another chain, Narrated to me [Abu 'Imran Muhammad bin Ja'far bin Ziyad], and this is his wording. Narrated to us [Ibrahim], that is Ibnu Sa'ad, from [Az Zuhri] from [Sinan bin Abu Sinan Ad Du'ali] from [Jabir bin Abdullah], he said: We fought alongside the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, in a battle in the Najd region. We met the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, in a valley where many large, thorny trees grew. The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, stopped under a tree and hung his sword on a branch. Jabir said: 'At that time, the companions dispersed in the valley, each seeking shade under a tree.' Then the Messenger of Allah said: 'While I was sleeping under the tree, someone came to me and took my sword. Soon after, I woke from sleep, and he was standing above my head. I knew he was ready with the sword in his hand. He said: 'O Muhammad, who can stop me from killing you?' I answered firmly: 'Allah.' He asked again: 'Who can stop me from killing you?' I answered: 'Allah.' Finally, he sheathed my sword, and here he is sitting.' Yet the Messenger of Allah did not attack to retaliate at all. And narrated to me [Abdullah bin Abdurrahman Ad Darimi] and [Abu Bakr bin Ishaq], both said: Informed us [Abu Al Yaman] Informed us [Syu'aib] from [Az Zuhri] Narrated to me [Sinan bin Abu Sinan Ad Du'ali] and [Abu Salamah bin Abdurrahman] that [Jabir bin Abdullah Al Anshari], a companion of the Prophet, peace be upon him, informed them both that he fought alongside the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, around Najd. When he returned from the battle, Jabir followed. On that day, they rested (slept) in the afternoon, - and so on as in the Hadith of Ibrahim bin Sa'ad and Ma'mar. Narrated to us [Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah] Narrated to us ['Affan] Narrated to us [Abban bin Yazid] Narrated to us [Yahya bin Abu Katsir] from [Abu Salamah] from [Jabir], he said: We returned with the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, until we reached Dzatut Riq'a', - and so on, similar to the Hadith of Az Zuhri, but he did not mention: 'Yet the Messenger of Allah did not attack to retaliate at all.'

Narrated to us [Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah] and [Abu 'Amir Al Asy'ari] and [Muhammad bin Al 'Allaa], this is the wording of Abu Amir, they said: Narrated to us [Abu Usamah] from [Buraid] from [Abu Burdah] from [Abu Musa] from the Prophet, peace be upon him, he said: 'The likeness of the religion with which Allah, Mighty and Exalted, sent me, consisting of guidance and knowledge, is like rain falling on the earth. Some of it falls on fertile soil that absorbs water, so lush meadows grow. Some falls on hard ground, so water pools, and many people use it for drinking, irrigating gardens, and livestock. Some falls on barren land, neither pooling water nor growing plants. Such is the likeness of one who learns Allah's religion and benefits from it, studying and teaching, and the likeness of one who is indifferent and does not accept Allah's guidance with which I was sent.'

Narrated to us [Abdullah bin Barrad Al Asy'ari] and [Abu Kuraib], this is the wording of Abu Kuraib, both said: Narrated to us [Abu Usamah] from [Buraidd] from [Abu Burdah] from [Abu Musa] from the Prophet, peace be upon him, he said: 'Indeed, the likeness of me and the teaching with which Allah sent me is like a man who comes to his people and says: "O my people, I have seen the enemy's army with my own eyes, coming to attack you, and I am truly a sincere warner for your safety." Some of his people obey and comply, so they quietly leave the village at night to avoid the enemy's attack. But some of his people deny the warner and stay in the village until morning. Unfortunately, the enemy attacks and destroys their village in the morning. Such is the likeness of those who obey and follow the teaching I bring, and those who rebel and deny the truth I convey.'

Whoever comes to it may drink, and whoever drinks will never thirst again. Many people will come to me, whom I recognize and who recognize me. Then a barrier will separate me from them.' [Abu Hazim] said: [Nu'man bin Abu 'Ayyas] heard me narrating this Hadith and said: Is that how you heard Sahal say it? I replied: 'Yes.' He said: I bear witness over [Abu Sa'id al Khudri], indeed I heard him add, he said: 'They are from my ummah, then it is said to him: "Indeed, you do not know what they did after you." So I say: "Woe, woe to those who changed my teachings after me." And narrated to us [Harun bin Sa'id Al Aili] Narrated to us [Ibnu Wahab] Informed me [Usamah] from [Abu Hazim] from [Sahal] from the Prophet, peace be upon him, and from [Nu'man bin Abu 'Ayyas] from [Abu Sa'id Al Khudri] from the Prophet, peace be upon him, similar to the Hadith of Ya'qub.

But that day, while my slave was combing my hair, I heard the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, say: 'O people,' - I (Ummu Salamah) said to my slave: 'Stop for a moment!' My slave replied: 'He is only calling the men, not the women.' I (Ummu Salamah) said to her: 'Am I not also human?' Then the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said: 'I will precede you to the basin, so come to it. Surely, someone from among you will come, but he will be kept from the basin as a stray camel is kept.' So I asked: Why is that, O Lord? It will be said to me: 'Indeed, you do not know what they did after you.' So I say: 'Woe!' Informed us [Abu Ghassan Al Misma'i] and [Muhammad bin Al Mutsanna] and [Ibnu Basyar], their wordings are not much different. They said: Narrated to us [Mu'adz], that is Ibnu Hisyam Narrated to me [my father] from [Qatadah] from [Salim bin Abu Ja'ad] from [Ma'dan bin Abu Thalhah Al Ya'mari] from [Tsauban] that the Prophet, peace be upon him, said: 'Indeed, I will be at my basin to give drink to good people. Then I will strike with my staff, so the basin's water will gush out to them.' Someone asked him about the width of the basin, and he replied: 'Its width is from my seat to Amman.' Then someone asked about its water, and he replied: 'Its water is whiter than milk and sweeter than honey. In it are two channels pouring water from paradise. One channel is made of gold, and the other of silver.' Narrated to me [Zuhair bin Harb] Narrated to us [Al Hasan bin Musa] Narrated to us [Syaiban] from [Qatadah] through Hisyam's chain, similar to that Hadith. But he said: 'On the Day of Resurrection, I will be at the basin.' And narrated to us [Muhammad bin Basysyar] Narrated to us [Yahya bin Hammad] Narrated to us [Syu'bah] from [Qatadah] from [Salim bin Abu Al Ja'ad] from [Ma'dan] from [Tsauban] from the Prophet, peace be upon him, - regarding the Hadith of the basin, - I asked [Yahya bin Hammad]: 'Did you hear this Hadith from [Abu 'Awanah]?' He replied: 'I even heard it from [Syu'bah].' I said: 'Show me that Hadith,' then he showed it to me and narrated it to me.

Then I gave the child to Ummu Saif, the wife of a blacksmith named Abu Saif. The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, visited him, and I accompanied him. When we arrived at Abu Saif's house, I found him blowing his bellows (a tool for smelting iron), filling the house with smoke. So I quickly walked ahead of the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, and told Abu Saif: "O Abu Saif! Stop! The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, has come!" So he stopped. Then the Prophet, peace be upon him, asked for the baby, and it was handed to his lap. The Prophet, peace be upon him, spoke words of affection as Allah willed. Anas said: "I saw the baby calm in his lap when death came to him. So the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, wept, shedding tears. He said: 'Tears may flow, the heart may grieve, but we only say what pleases our Lord. By Allah, O Ibrahim, we are truly saddened by you!'

Narrated to us [Yusuf bin Hammad Al Ma'ni] Narrated to us [Abdul A'laa] from [Sa'id] from [Qatadah] from [Anas bin Malik] that one day the companions asked the Prophet, peace be upon him, with great seriousness. The next day, the Prophet, peace be upon him, ascended the pulpit and said: 'Ask me! You will not ask anything today that I will not explain.' The companions were so attentive, fearing a grave matter. Anas bin Malik, may Allah be pleased with him, said: 'I looked right and left, finding everyone bowing their heads, weeping.' Suddenly, a man with a head covering, not called by his father's name, stood and asked, 'O Prophet of Allah, who is my father?' The Prophet, peace be upon him, said: 'Your father is Hudzafah.' Anas bin Malik, may Allah be pleased with him, said: 'Then 'Umar stood'—or 'intended to stand'—and said: 'We are content with Allah as our Lord, Islam as our religion, and Muhammad, peace be upon him, as our Messenger,' seeking refuge in Allah from the evil of trials.' The Prophet, peace be upon him, said: 'I have never seen good or evil surpass today. Paradise and Hell were shown to me at this wall.' But if I tell you something from Allah, accept it, for I never lie about Allah.”’

Narrated to me [Abu Ath Thahir] Informed us [‘Abdullah bin Wahb] Informed me [Jarir bin Hazim] from [Ayyub As Sakhtiyani] from [Muhammad bin Sirin] from [Abu Hurairah] that the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said: ‘Prophet Abraham, peace be upon him, never lied except on three occasions. Two were for Allah’s sake: his saying, “I am sick” (Quran, As-Saffat: 89), and his saying, “...but this, their greatest idol, did it” (Al-Anbiya: 63). The third was about Sarah, as follows: Prophet Abraham, peace be upon him, and his beautiful wife Sarah traveled to a land ruled by a cruel king. Abraham said to her: “My wife, if this cruel king knows you are my wife, he will kill me and take you. If he asks, say you are my sister—in faith, for you are my sister, and I find no Muslim on earth but you and me.” When they entered the king’s land, a royal officer saw Sarah and reported to the tyrant king: “O king, a woman has entered your land, and none is worthy of her but you.” The king sent officers to bring Sarah to his palace, while Abraham prayed and supplicated to Allah for her safety. The king’s hand was tightly bound. He pleaded with Sarah: “O beautiful woman, pray to your Lord to free my hand, and I swear not to harm you.” Sarah prayed, and his hand was freed. But he tried to touch her again, and his hand was bound tighter. He pleaded again, and when freed, tried again, only to be bound even tighter. He said: “Pray to your Lord to free my hand, and I swear by God I will not harm you.” Sarah prayed, and his hand was freed. The king summoned the officer who brought her, saying: “You brought me a devil, not a human. Take her out of my land and give her Hagar as a servant.” The Prophet said: ‘Sarah left the palace on foot. When Abraham saw her, he approached and asked, “How are you?” She replied, “Praise be to Allah, I am fine. Allah restrained the tyrant’s hand, and he gave me a servant.”” Abu Hurairah said: ‘That (Hagar) is your mother, O children of the sky’s water!’

They said: “By Allah, nothing prevents Moses from bathing with us except a defect in his private parts.”’ The Prophet said: ‘Once, Moses went to bathe and placed his clothes on a rock, but the rock fled with his clothes.’ The Prophet said: ‘Moses chased the rock to retrieve them, saying: “O rock, return my clothes, O rock, return my clothes.” The Israelites saw Moses’ private parts and said: “By Allah, there is no defect in Moses.” Then the rock stood still, visible to Moses. He took his clothes and struck the rock.’ Abu Hurairah said: ‘By Allah, the rock bears six or seven marks from Moses’ strikes.’

Narrated to us [Yahya bin Habib Al Harits] Narrated to us [Yazid bin Zura'i] Narrated to us [Khalid Al Hadzda'] from ['Abdillah bin Syaqqi], he said: Informed us [Abu Hurairah], he said: Prophet Moses was shy and never showed his private parts. The Israelites accused him of having a defect in his private parts. Abu Hurairah said: Once, Moses bathed in a river and placed his clothes on a rock, but the rock was swept away by the water. Moses chased it with his staff, saying: 'My clothes are carried off by the rock! My clothes are carried off by the rock!' He stopped among a group of Israelites. Then this Quranic verse was revealed: O you who believe, do not be like those who harmed Moses, but Allah cleared him of their accusations. Indeed, Moses was honorable and noble in Allah's sight. The Prophet said: 'Moses slapped the Angel of Death's eye, dislodging it.' The Prophet said: 'The angel returned to Allah, Mighty and Exalted, saying: "You sent me to Your servant who does not want death and has dislodged my eye."' The Prophet said: 'Allah restored his eye and said: "Return to My servant and say: 'Do you want life? If you want life, place your hand on a bull's hair, and for every hair covered, you will gain one year.' Moses said: "Then what?" The angel said: "Death." Moses said: "Then hasten it." He prayed: "O Allah, place my grave near the Holy Land, a stone's throw away."' Abu Hurairah said: The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said: 'If I were there, I would show you his grave, by the road near the red sand.' Narrated to us [ʿAmru bin Muhammad An Naqid] and [Ishaq bin Ibrahim Al Handzali] and [ʿUbaidullah bin Saʿid] and [Muhammad bin Abu ʿUmar Al Makki], all from [Ibnu ʿUyainah], and this is Ibnu Abu ʿUmar’s wording Narrated to us [Sufyan bin ʿUyainah] Narrated to us [ʿAmru bin Dinar] from [Saʿid bin Jubair], he said: 'I said to [Ibnu Abbas] that Nauf Al Bikali claims the Moses among the Israelites is not the Moses with Khidr.' [Ibnu Abbas] said: 'The enemy of Allah lies. I heard [Ubay bin Kaʿab] say: I heard the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, say: "Once, Prophet Moses, peace be upon him, stood to address the Israelites." Someone asked: "O Moses, who is the most knowledgeable on earth?" Moses replied: "I am." The Messenger said: Allah reproached Moses for not attributing knowledge to Allah. Allah revealed to Moses: "O Moses, I have a servant more knowledgeable than you, at the meeting of two seas." Moses asked: "My Lord, how can I meet him?" It was said: "Carry a fish in a palm-leaf basket. Where the fish leaps, there is My servant." Moses set out with his disciple, Yusha' bin Nun, carrying a fish in a palm-leaf basket. They walked to the place. At a large rock, they fell asleep. The fish wriggled out and entered the sea. The Messenger said: "Allah held back the water, forming a tunnel. The fish took its path in the sea, and Moses and his disciple marveled at the sight." They continued their journey day and night. The disciple forgot to mention it. In the morning, Moses said: "Bring our food we are weary from this journey." The Messenger said: "Moses had not gone far past the place he was told to seek when his disciple said: 'Do you know, when we rested at the rock, I forgot to tell you about the fish. None but Satan made me forget, and it took its way into the sea miraculously.' Moses said: 'That is what we sought.' They retraced their steps." The Messenger said: "They followed their tracks back." At the rock, they saw a man asleep, covered with a cloth. Moses, peace be upon him, greeted him. Khidr asked: "Is there peace in your land?" Moses said: "I am Moses." Khidr, surprised, asked: "Moses of the Israelites?" Moses replied: "Yes." Khidr said: "You have Allah's knowledge taught to you, which I do not know, and I have Allah's knowledge taught to me, which you do not know." Moses said to Khidr: "May I follow you to learn the true knowledge you were taught?" Khidr replied: "You will not have patience with me. How can you endure what you do not fully understand?" Moses said: "God willing, you will find me patient, and I will not oppose you in anything."

Narrated to us [Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah] and [Zuhair bin Harb], and this is Abu Bakr's wording Narrated to us [Sufyan bin 'Uyainah] from ['Amru bin Dinar] from [Sa'id bin Jubair] from [Ibnu Abbas] from [Ubay bin Ka'ab] that he heard the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, say: 'Moses stood addressing the Israelites when he was asked: "Who is the most knowledgeable on earth?" He said: "I am." Allah reproached him for not attributing knowledge to Him and revealed: "At the meeting of two seas is My servant, more learned than you." Moses said: "My Lord, how can I find him?" Allah said: "Take a fish in a basket. Where you lose it, he is there." Moses took a fish in a palm-leaf basket and set out with Yusha' bin Nun. At a rock, they rested, and the fish escaped into the sea through a tunnel, a marvel to Moses and his disciple. They continued until Moses said: "Bring our food this journey has wearied us." Yusha' said: "When we rested at the rock, I forgot the fish. Satan made me forget to mention it, and it took its way into the sea miraculously." Moses said: "That is what we sought." They retraced their steps and found Khidr, covered with a cloth. Their story is as Allah described in His Book: a boat with a hole, a boy killed, and a wall rebuilt for two orphans with treasure beneath, whose father was righteous, as a mercy from your Lord.' Narrated to us ['Abdullah bin 'Abdur Rahman Ad Darimi] Informed us [Muhammad bin Yusuf] Also narrated through another chain, Narrated to us ['Abad bin Humaid] Informed us ['Ubaidullah bin Musa], both from [Israil] from [Abu Ishaq] with a chain like At Taimi's from Abu Ishaq with a similar hadith.

Narrated to me [Harmalah bin Yahya] Informed us [Ibnu Wahb] Informed me [Yunus] from [Ibnu Syihab] from ['Ubaidillah bin 'Abdullah bin 'Utbah bin Mas'ud] from ['Abdullah bin Abbas] that he and Al Hurr bin Qais bin Hisn Al Fazari debated about Moses' companion who asked about the way to meet him. Ibnu Abbas said it was Khidr, but Hurr disagreed. Then [Ubay bin Ka'ab al-Anshari] passed by. Ibnu Abbas called him: "O Abu Thufail, come here. I am disputing with my friend about Moses' companion he sought to meet. Have you heard anything from the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, about this?" Ubay replied: "Yes, I heard the Messenger, peace be upon him, say: 'When Moses sat with some Israelites, a man asked him: 'Is there anyone more learned than you?' Moses said: 'No.' Allah revealed to Moses: 'There is My servant Khidr.' Moses asked how to find him. Allah made a fish a sign, saying: 'When the fish is lost, return there, for you will meet him.' Moses followed the fish's path in the sea by Allah's will. Moses said to his disciple: 'Bring our lunch.' The disciple said when asked about lunch: 'Did you see the fish when we rested at the rock? I forgot it, and none but Satan made me forget. It took its way into the sea strangely.' Moses said: 'That is what we sought.' They retraced their steps and met Khidr. What happened next is as Allah described in His Book.' Yunus said: 'Moses followed the shark's path in the sea.'

I said: "O Abu Bakr, the Messenger permits you to enter and gives you glad tidings of Paradise." Abu Bakr entered and sat to the right of the Messenger, peace be upon him, on the same seat, dangling his legs into the well, with his garment rolled up. I returned to the door. He replied: "Umar bin Khattab." I said: "Wait, O Umar!" I approached the Messenger and said: "O Messenger of Allah, Umar is outside seeking permission." He said: "Let him enter and give him glad tidings of Paradise." I met Umar and said: "O Umar, the Messenger permits you to enter and gives you glad tidings of Paradise." Umar entered and sat to the left of the Messenger, peace be upon him, dangling his legs into the well. I returned to the door, thinking: "If Allah wills good for my brother, He will bring him." Soon, someone moved the door. I asked: "Who is there?" He replied: "Uthman bin Affan." I said: "Wait, O Uthman!" I approached the Messenger, peace be upon him, and informed him of Uthman's arrival. He said: "Let him enter and give him glad tidings of Paradise, along with trials he is facing." I met Uthman and said: "Enter, O Uthman, the Messenger gives you glad tidings of Paradise and mentions trials you are facing." Uthman entered but found the seat full, so he sat opposite them on the other side. Syarik said: Sa'id bin Al Musayyab commented: "I interpret this as referring to their graves together." Narrated to me [Abu Bakr bin Ishaq] Narrated to us [Sa'id bin 'Ufair] Narrated to me [Sulaiman bin Bilal], Narrated to me [Syarik bin Abdullah bin Namr] I heard [Sa'id bin Al Musayyab] say: Narrated to me [Abu Musa Al Asy'ari] here—Sulaiman pointed to Sa'id's gathering place. Abu Musa said: 'I went to meet the Messenger, peace be upon him, but found he had gone to a livestock pen and entered it. He sat by a well, rolling up his garment and dangling his legs into it,' and so on, like Yahya bin Hasan's hadith, but he did not mention Sa'id's saying: "I interpret this as referring to their graves." Narrated to us [Hasan bin 'Ali Al Hulwani] and [Abu Bakr bin Ishaq], both said: Narrated to us [Sa'id bin Maryam] Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Ja'far bin Abu Katsir] Informed me [Syarik bin 'Abdullah bin Abu Namir] from [Sa'id bin Al Musayyab] from [Abu Musa Al Asy'ari], he said: 'One day, the Messenger, peace be upon him, went to a wall in Medina for a need, and I followed him,' and so on, like Sulaiman bin Bilal's hadith. It includes Ibn Musayyab's saying: "I interpret this as referring to their graves, meaning they will be gathered in one place, except Uthman bin Affan."

[Yahya bin Yahya] said: Informed us, while others said: Narrated to us [Isma'il], that is Ibnu Ja'far, from [Muhammad bin Abu Harmalah] from ['Atha] and [Sulaiman]—both sons of Yasar—and [Abu Salamah bin 'Abdur Rahman] that ['Aisyah] said: 'Once, the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, was lying in my house with his thighs or shins uncovered. Abu Bakr asked permission to enter, and the Messenger allowed him in, remaining as he was, and they conversed. Then Umar bin Khattab came and asked permission to enter. The Messenger allowed him in, still in the same state, and they conversed. Later, Uthman bin Affan came and asked permission to enter. The Messenger allowed him in, but sat up and adjusted his clothing. Muhammad said: I do not say this happened on the same day. Uthman entered and spoke with him about various matters. After Uthman left, Aisyah asked: "O Messenger of Allah, when Abu Bakr entered, you did not hasten to receive him. When Umar entered, you greeted him casually. But when Uthman bin Affan entered, you sat up quickly and adjusted your clothing. What is the reason for this?" The Messenger, peace be upon him, replied: "O Aisyah, how could I not be shy before someone whom even the angels are shy of?"

"Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Miskin Al Yamami] Narrated to us [Yahya bin Hassan] Narrated to us [Sulaiman], that is Ibnu Bilal, from [Syarik bin Abu Namir] from [Sa'id Al Musayyab] Narrated to me [Abu Musa Al Asy'ari] that he performed ablution at home. Then he left, saying: "Today, I intend to stay close to the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him." He went to the mosque and asked the companions there about the Messenger's whereabouts. They said: "He went that way." Abu Musa left the mosque, following the Messenger's trail until he reached the Aris well. Abu Musa said: "I sat by a door made of palm branches. After the Messenger finished relieving himself and performing ablution, I approached him. He was sitting on the Aris well on a mat, with his garment rolled up at his shins, dangling his legs into the well. I greeted him and returned to the door, saying: 'Today, I will faithfully guard the Messenger's door.' Soon, Abu Bakr came, pushing the door. I asked: 'Who is there?' He replied: 'I am Abu Bakr.' I said: 'Wait, O Abu Bakr!' Abu Bakr replied: 'Yes.' I approached the Messenger and said: 'O Messenger of Allah, Abu Bakr is here, seeking permission to enter.' The Messenger, peace be upon him, said: 'Let him enter and give him glad tidings of Paradise.' I returned to Abu Bakr and said: 'O Abu Bakr, enter, and the Messenger, peace be upon him, gives you glad tidings of Paradise.' Abu Bakr entered and sat to the right of the Messenger on the same mat, dangling his legs into the well, with his garment rolled up at his shins, as the Messenger did. I returned to the door. I had left my brother performing ablution to join me. I thought: 'If Allah wills good for him, He will bring him.' Soon, someone moved the door. I asked: 'Who is there?' He replied: 'Umar bin Khattab.' I said: 'Wait, O Umar!' I approached the Messenger and said: 'O Messenger of Allah, Umar is outside, seeking permission to enter.' The Messenger, peace be upon him, said: 'Let him enter and give him glad tidings of Paradise.' I met Umar and said: 'O Umar, the Messenger permits you to enter and gives you glad tidings of Paradise.' Umar entered and sat to the left of the Messenger, peace be upon him, dangling his legs into the well. I returned and sat, saying: 'If Allah wills good for my brother, He will bring him.' Soon, someone moved the door. I asked: 'Who is there?' He replied: 'Uthman bin Affan.' I said: 'Wait, O Uthman!' I approached the Messenger, peace be upon him, and informed him of Uthman's arrival. He said: 'Let him enter and give him glad tidings of Paradise, along with trials he is facing.' I met Uthman bin Affan and said: 'Enter, O Uthman, the Messenger gives you glad tidings of Paradise and mentions trials you are facing.' Uthman entered but found the mat full, so he sat opposite them on the other side. Syarik said: Sa'id bin Al Musayyab commented: 'I interpret this as referring to their graves together.' Narrated to me [Abu Bakr bin Ishaq] Narrated to us [Sa'id bin 'Ufair] Narrated to me [Sulaiman bin Bilal], Narrated to me [Syarik bin Abdullah bin Namr] I heard [Sa'id bin Musayyab] say: Narrated to me [Abu Musa Al Asy'ari] here—Sulaiman pointed to Sa'id's gathering place. Abu Musa said: 'I went to meet the Messenger, peace be upon him, but found he had gone to a livestock pen and entered it. He sat by a well, rolling up his garment and dangling his legs into it,' and so on, like Yahya bin Hasan's hadith, but he did not mention Sa'id's saying: 'I interpret this as referring to their graves.' Narrated to us [Hasan bin 'Ali Al Hulwani] and [Abu Bakr bin Ishaq], both said: Narrated to us [Sa'id bin Maryam] Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Ja'far bin Abu Katsir] Informed me [Syarik bin 'Abdullah bin Abu Namir] from [Sa'id bin Al Musayyab] from [Abu Musa Al Asy'ari], he said: 'One day, the Messenger, peace be upon him, went to a wall in Medina for a need, and I followed him,' and so on, like Sulaiman bin Bilal's hadith. It includes Ibn Musayyab's saying: 'I interpret this as referring to their graves, meaning they will be gathered in one place, except Uthman bin Affan.'

He said: 'Why do you not criticize Ali?' He replied: 'I recall three things about Ali's status that the Messenger, peace be upon him, said, so I will never criticize him for them. One of these three is dearer to me than a prized cow. I heard the Messenger, peace be upon him, say to Ali—when he appointed him as deputy in Medina during some battles: Ali asked: "Are you leaving me with the women and children?" He replied: "O Ali, are you not pleased that your status with me is like Aaron's with Moses, except there is no prophet after me?" I also heard him say during the Battle of Khaibar: "I will give this flag to a man who loves Allah and His Messenger, and Allah and His Messenger love him." We all hoped to receive the flag. He said: "Call Ali!" Ali was brought, suffering from an eye ailment. The Messenger spat in his eyes, gave him the flag, and Allah granted victory through him. When the verse was revealed: "Let us call our sons and your sons," the Messenger, peace be upon him, called Ali, Fatimah, Hasan, and Husain, and said: "O Allah, these are my family."'

Umar bin Khattab said: "I never desired leadership except that day." He said: "I showed my face, hoping to be called for the flag." He said: Then the Messenger, peace be upon him, called Ali bin Abi Thalib, gave him the flag, and said: "Go, and do not turn back until Allah grants you victory." Abu Hurairah said: Ali walked, stopped without looking back, and shouted: "O Messenger of Allah, on what basis shall I fight people?" He replied: "Fight them until they testify there is no god but Allah and Muhammad is His Messenger. If they do so, they protect their blood and wealth from you, except what is rightful in Islam, and their reckoning is with Allah."

Narrated to me [Zuhair bin Harb] and [Syuja' bin Makhlad], both from [Ibnu 'Ulayyah], [Zuhair] said: Narrated to us [Isma'il bin Ibrahim] Narrated to me [Abu Hayyan] Narrated to me [Yazid bin Hayyan], he said: "One day, I went to [Zaid bin Arqam] with Husain bin Sabrah and Umar bin Muslim. After we sat, Husain said to Zaid bin Arqam: O Zaid, you have gained much good. You saw the Messenger of Allah, heard his words, fought alongside him, and prayed with him. You have gained great good. So, O Zaid, tell us what you heard from the Messenger, peace be upon him! Zaid said: O my nephew, by Allah, I am old, and my time is near. I have forgotten some of what I heard from the Messenger, peace be upon him. So accept what I convey, and do not force me to share what I cannot. Then Zaid continued: One day, the Messenger, peace be upon him, stood and spoke at a water place called Khumm, between Mecca and Medina. He praised Allah, gave advice and reminders, and said: Know, O brothers, I am a human like you. Soon, my Lord's messenger, the angel of death, will come, and I am ready to answer. I leave you two weighty things: First, the Quran, which contains guidance and light. Follow and hold fast to it. He strongly urged and encouraged practicing the Quran. Second, my family. I remind you to follow Allah's law in treating my family. (He said this three times.) Husain asked Zaid: O Zaid, who are the Prophet's family? Are not his wives his family? Zaid replied: His wives are his family, but his family here means those forbidden from taking zakat after him. Husain asked: Who are they? Zaid answered: The families of Ali, Aqil, Ja'far, and Abbas. Husain asked: Are they all forbidden from zakat? Zaid replied: Yes. Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Bakkar bin Ar Rayyan] Narrated to us [Hassan], that is Ibnu Ibrahim, from [Sa'id bin Masruq] from [Yazid bin Hayyan] from [Zaid bin Arqam] from the Prophet, peace be upon him, with a similar hadith to Zuhair's. Narrated to us [Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah] Narrated to us [Muhamad bin Fudhail] Also narrated through another chain, Narrated to us [Ishaq bin Ibrahim] Informed us [Jarir], both from [Abu Hayyan] through this chain, like Ismail's hadith, and Jarir's hadith adds: 'That is, Allah's Book, containing guidance and light. Whoever holds fast to it and learns from it is guided. Whoever deems it wrong is astray.' Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Bakkar bin Ar Rayyan] Narrated to us [Hassan], that is Ibnu Ibrahim, from [Sa'id], that is Ibnu Masruq, from [Yazid bin Hayyan] from [Zaid bin Arqam], he said: We met Zaid bin Arqam and said: 'You have gained much good. You met the Messenger, prayed behind him...' and so on, like Abu Hayyan's hadith. But he said: The Messenger, peace be upon him, said: 'Know that I leave you two great things. One is the Quran whoever follows its guidance is guided, and whoever abandons it is astray.' It also includes: We asked: Who are his family, not his wives? He replied: No, by Allah, a wife may be with her husband for a time, then be divorced and return to her father and people. His family are his descendants forbidden from taking zakat.

He ordered Sahl bin Sa'ad to curse Ali bin Abu Thalib, but Sahl refused. The official said to Sahl, 'If you refuse, then say, May Allah curse Abu Thurab.' Sahl replied, 'No nickname was dearer to Ali bin Abu Thalib than Abu Turab, and he was pleased when called by it.' The official asked, 'O Sahl, tell me, how did he get the nickname Abu Turab?' Sahl said, 'One day, the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) visited Fatimah's house but did not find Ali there. He asked, 'Where is your cousin?' Fatimah replied, 'There was a small issue between us. He scolded me and left the house, refusing to rest here.' The Messenger of Allah sent someone to find Ali, his son-in-law and cousin. Soon, the person returned and said, 'O Messenger of Allah, Ali is sleeping in the mosque.' The Messenger went to Ali, who was lying down, his cloak fallen from his side, touching the ground. The Messenger brushed it off, saying, 'Arise, O Abu Turab! Arise, O Abu Turab!'"

Sa'ad bin Abi Waqqash said: "A polytheist man provoked the Muslims." Then the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said to Sa'ad, "Shoot him!" Sa'ad said: "I aimed at him with a blunt arrow, hitting his side. He fell, and his private parts were exposed. Seeing this, the Messenger smiled contentedly, showing his molar teeth."

Narrated to us Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah and Zuhair bin Harb, both said: Narrated to us Al Hasan bin Musa Narrated to us Zuhair Narrated to us Simak bin Harb Narrated to me Mush'ab bin Sa'ad from his father that several Quranic verses were revealed concerning Sa'ad. Mush'ab said: "Sa'ad's mother swore never to speak to him until he abandoned Islam, and she refused to eat or drink." Sa'ad's mother said to him, "O Sa'ad, you said that Allah commanded you to be kind to your parents. I am your mother, and I order you to abandon Islam." Mush'ab said: "She persisted without food or drink for three days and nights until she fainted from weakness. Then Umarah, her son, gave her water. She kept calling Sa'ad, and then Allah revealed: 'We have enjoined upon man kindness to his parents' (Quran, Al-Ankabut 29:8). Another verse says: 'If they strive to make you associate with Me that of which you have no knowledge, do not obey them, but keep their company in this world kindly' (Quran, Luqman 31:15). Sa'ad said: "The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) obtained abundant war spoils, including a sword. I took the sword and brought it to him, saying, 'O Messenger of Allah, give me this sword, for you know my character.' But he said, 'O Sa'ad, return the sword to where you took it.' I went, intending to take it back, but I reproached myself. I returned to the Messenger and said, 'O Messenger of Allah, give me the sword!' Yet he stood firm, saying loudly, 'O Sa'ad, I told you to return the sword to where you took it!' Then Allah revealed: 'They ask you about the spoils of war' (Quran, Al-Anfal 8:1). Sa'ad said: 'When I fell ill, I sent someone to the Messenger. He visited me, and I said, 'O Messenger of Allah, allow me to bequeath my wealth as I wish.' He forbade it. I said, 'What about half?' He still forbade it. Then I said, 'What about a third?' He paused, then allowed a third. Sa'ad said: 'I visited some Ansar and Muhajirin, and they said, 'Come, O Sa'ad, we will give you food and wine (khamr, before it was prohibited).' I joined them in a garden where there was a roasted camel's head and a container of wine. I ate and drank heartily with them. During the discussion about the virtues of the Ansar and Muhajirin, I said the Muhajirin were better. This was controversial and offended many present. One of them struck me with a camel's jawbone, injuring my nose. I went to the Messenger and told him what happened. Then Allah revealed: 'Indeed, intoxicants, gambling, sacrificing to idols, and divining arrows are an abomination of Satan's work' (Quran, Al-Maidah 5:90)." Narrated to us Muhammad bin Al Mutsanna and Muhammad bin Basysyar, both said: Narrated to us Muhammad bin Ja'far Narrated to us Syu'bah from Simak bin Harb from Mush'ab bin Sa'ad from his father, he said: "Four Quranic verses were revealed concerning me," and so on, as in the Hadith of Zuhair from Simak. In Syu'bah's Hadith, it is added: 'When they wanted to feed his mother, they opened her mouth with a stick and poured food in.' Also mentioned: 'One of them struck Sa'ad's nose until it tore.'

Abad said: Narrated to me, while the others said: Narrated to us Ya'qub bin Ibrahim bin Sa'ad Narrated to me my father from Shalih from Ibn Syihab Informed me Muhammad Abdur Rahman bin Al Harits bin Hisyam that Aisyah, the wife of the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), said: One day, the Messenger's wives sent Fatimah binti Muhammad to the Messenger. Fatimah sought permission to enter while he was lying with me under my blanket, and he allowed her in. Fatimah said, "O Messenger of Allah, your wives sent me to you to demand justice regarding the daughter of Abu Quhafah, Abu Bakr Ash-Shiddiq." I remained silent, unable to respond. Aisyah said: The Messenger asked Fatimah, "O my daughter, do you not love what I love?" She replied, "Of course." He said, "Then love this woman." Aisyah said: After hearing the Messenger's response, Fatimah stood and informed the wives about what she said and what he said to her. The wives said to her, "O Fatimah, our sending you to him brought us no benefit. Go back to your father and say, 'Your wives demand justice regarding the daughter of Abu Quhafah.'" Fatimah said, "By Allah, I will never say that to the Messenger again." Aisyah said: Then the wives agreed to send Zainab binti Jahsy, one of the Messenger's wives. Aisyah said: Zainab was one who rivaled me in sharing time with the Messenger. In my view, no woman surpassed Zainab in her religious devotion, piety to Allah, truthful speech, maintaining family ties, charity, good deeds, and closeness to Allah Almighty. Aisyah said: Zainab sought permission to enter while the Messenger was with me under my blanket, as when Fatimah came. He allowed Zainab to enter. She said, "O Messenger of Allah, your wives demand justice regarding the daughter of Abu Bakr." Aisyah said: Zainab then attacked and overpowered me for a while, and I watched the Messenger's eyes to see if he would permit me to retaliate. Aisyah said: Zainab kept overpowering me until I knew the Messenger would not mind if I fought back, so I gently countered and overpowered her. The Messenger smiled and said, "Aisyah is indeed the daughter of Abu Bakr." Narrated to me Muhammad bin Abdullah bin Quhzadz. Abdullah bin Utsman said: Narrated to me from Abdullah bin Al Mubarak from Yunus from Az Zuhri through this chain with a similar Hadith, except it mentions Aisyah's words: "When I defeated her, I did not immediately bring her down."

(peace be upon him) was in good health, he said, 'Indeed, a prophet is not taken until shown his place in paradise, then given a choice.' Aisyah said, 'When the angel of death came to the Messenger of Allah, with his head on my lap, he fainted briefly. Soon after, he regained consciousness, looked upward, and said, O Allah, unite me with my beloved, the Most High! Aisyah said, 'Thus, the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) did not choose to stay longer with us.' Aisyah recalled, 'I remembered his words when he was healthy: Indeed, a prophet is not taken until shown his place in paradise, then given a choice.' Aisyah also said, 'His last words were: O Allah, unite me with my beloved, the Most High.'

Once, the lot fell to Aisyah and Hafshah, so we traveled together. At night, the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) would travel with Aisyah, conversing with her. Then Hafshah said to Aisyah, O Aisyah, how about tonight you ride my camel, and I ride yours, then we see what happens? Aisyah agreed, 'Very well!' So Aisyah rode Hafshah's camel, and Hafshah rode Aisyah's. Later, the Messenger approached Aisyah's camel, now ridden by Hafshah, greeted her, and traveled with her until they stopped. Aisyah felt his absence and grew jealous. When they stopped, Aisyah placed her feet among idzkhir plants, saying, O Allah, send a scorpion or snake to bite me, for I cannot speak against Your Messenger.'

Narrated to us by Ali bin Hujr As Sa'di and Ahmad bin Janab, both from Isa, with the wording belonging to Ibn Hujr Narrated to us by Isa bin Yunus Narrated to us by Hisyam bin Urwah from his brother Abdullah bin Urwah from Urwah from Aisyah, she said, 'Eleven women were sitting together, promising not to conceal anything about their husbands. The first said, My husband is like lean camel meat on an uneven mountain peak, neither flat to climb nor fat to move. The second said, My husband, I won't describe him, fearing I'd leave him if I did, I'd reveal his flaws and secrets. The third said, My husband is arrogant if I speak, I fear divorce if I stay silent, he ignores me. The fourth said, My husband is like a Tihamah night, neither hot nor cold, neither frightening nor dull. The fifth said, My husband is like a leopard at home, a lion outside he never questions what's in the house. The sixth said, My husband eats greedily, drinks everything, sleeps turned away, not touching to know my sorrow. The seventh said, My husband is impotent, foolish, with every flaw, injuring my head or body, or both. The eighth said, My husband's touch is like a rabbit's, his scent like a fragrant tree. The ninth said, My husband has tall pillars, a long sword, noble ashes, and a house near gatherings, generous and kind. The tenth said, My husband is Malik, what is Malik? Better than his name, with many camels kept in pens, rarely grazing when hearing wood clatter, they know slaughter awaits. The eleventh said, My husband is Abu Zara' what of Abu Zara'? He adorned my ears with jewelry, filled my arms with flesh, delighted me, making me happy. He found me among a poor shepherd family, then brought me to a family with horses, camels, oxen, and fields. I speak without insult, sleep until dawn, drink my fill. Abu Zara's mother, what of her? Her dining place is grand, her house spacious. Abu Zara's son, what of him? His bed is soft palm fiber, satisfied with lamb foreleg meat. Abu Zara's daughter, what of her? Obedient to her parents, her clothes tight, stirring her husband's jealousy. Abu Zara's servant, what of her? She doesn't spread our talks, isn't dishonest with food, nor dirties our home. The eleventh continued, Once, Abu Zara' traveled during a plentiful season, met a woman with two children like leopards, playing with pomegranates below her waist. He divorced me and married her. I then married a noble man, a valiant rider with a Khatthi staff, herding many livestock to me at dusk, giving me pairs of each, saying, Eat, O Ummu Zara', and share with your family. Yet, all he gave wouldn't fill Abu Zara's smallest vessel. Aisyah said, Then the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said to me, I am to you like Abu Zara' to Ummu Zara'.'

He whispered to her, and she wept deeply. Seeing her sorrow, he whispered again, and she smiled joyfully. I, Aisyah, asked Fatimah, Indeed, the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) singled you out with a secret among his wives, making you weep. After he left, I asked Fatimah, What did the Messenger of Allah say to you? She replied, O Mother of the Believers, I cannot reveal the Prophet's secret. Aisyah said, After the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) passed, I approached Fatimah and said, O Fatimah, I only ask what the Messenger whispered that you wouldn't share. She replied, O Mother of the Believers, now that he has passed, I'll tell you. The first time, he told me that Jibril and he used to recite the Qur'an once or twice yearly, but now twice, so I know my time is near. Fear Allah and be patient, for I am your best predecessor. Fatimah said, Hearing this, I wept, as you saw. Seeing my sadness, he whispered again, O Fatimah, would you be the leader of the believers' wives or the best woman of this ummah? So I laughed, as you saw.'

Narrated to me by Muhammad bin Hatim bin Maimun Narrated to us by Bahz Narrated to us by Sulaiman bin Al Mughirah from Tsabit from Anas, he said, 'When Abu Thalhah and Ummu Sulaim's son died, Ummu Sulaim told her family, Don't inform Abu Thalhah of this tragedy until I tell him myself. Anas said, When Abu Thalhah came home, Ummu Sulaim served dinner as usual. He ate and drank happily. Then Ummu Sulaim adorned herself more beautifully than usual, and he was intimate with her. After he was satisfied, she said, O Abu Thalhah, what if a group lent something to a family, then demanded it back? Can that family refuse? He firmly said, No, they cannot refuse. She said, So it is with our son know that our beloved child has been called back by the One who created and owns him. Accept his passing. Abu Thalhah was shocked and angry, saying, Why didn't you tell me first, but only after I was intimate with you? The next day, he went to the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) and told him what happened. Hearing this, the Messenger said, May Allah bless you both in your night. Anas said, Months later, Ummu Sulaim showed signs of pregnancy. Once, during a journey with the Messenger, Ummu Sulaim joined. Usually, when the Messenger returned to Madinah, he didn't enter the city directly. Near Madinah, Ummu Sulaim felt labor pains, so Abu Thalhah stayed with her while the Messenger went on. Abu Thalhah said, O Allah, my Lord, You know I love to go out and return with Your Messenger. Now I'm halted, as You see. Anas said, Ummu Sulaim said, O Abu Thalhah, I can't endure it let's hasten our journey! Anas said, We continued. When we reached Madinah, Ummu Sulaim safely gave birth to a boy. My mother, Ummu Sulaim, said to me, O Anas, let no one nurse this baby until you take him to the Messenger. The next day, I brought the baby to the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him), who was holding a branding tool for animals. Seeing me, he said, O Unais, has Ummu Sulaim given birth? I joyfully answered, Yes, she has, O Messenger of Allah. He set aside the tool, and I brought the baby to him, placing it in his lap. The Messenger asked for Madinah ajwa dates, chewed them, and fed them to the baby, who chewed eagerly. The Messenger said, See, the Ansar love dates! Anas said, Then the Messenger gently rubbed the baby's face and named him Abdullah.'

We have lost so-and-so, so-and-so, and so-and-so.' The Messenger asked again: 'Are you missing one of your companions?' The companions answered: 'Yes, we have lost so-and-so, so-and-so, and so-and-so.' Once again the Messenger asked: 'Are you feeling the loss of one of your companions?' The companions answered: 'Yes, we have lost so-and-so, so-and-so, and so-and-so.' Then the Messenger continued his statement and said: 'But I have truly lost Julaibib. Therefore, please search where he is?' Then the companions tried to search for Julaibib's body in the midst of the battle victims. Finally, they found his body next to seven infidels he had killed, until he himself fell as a martyr at the hands of the infidels. Not long after, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, approached Julaibib's body and stood over it saying: 'Indeed, Julaibib has killed seven infidels and they killed him. Julaibib is from my group and I am from his group. Julaibib is from my group and I am from his group.' There was no base for Julaibib's body at that time except the two arms of the Messenger of Allah. Then the companions dug a grave for Julaibib's body and put it in, and it is not mentioned about bathing.'

 بِضِيَاغَتِهِ اللَّيْلَةَ

Narrated to us [Haddab bin Khalid Al Azdi] narrated to us [Sulaiman bin Al Mughirah] informed us [Humaid bin Hilal] from ['Abdullah bin Ash Shamit] he said: [Abu Dzar] once said: 'We had left our tribe, the Ghifar tribe. They often permitted the sacred months, until I, my brother Unais, and my mother left our tribe. After that, we stayed at the house of my mother's brother (uncle). My mother's brother greatly respected and treated us well, but finally his tribe felt jealous of us. They said to my mother's brother: 'When you are not at home, Unais often quarrels with your family.' When my mother's brother came, he told us what his tribe had said, so we thought: 'Indeed, uncle has soiled the goodness he has bestowed upon us so far. Therefore, from now on, it is better for us to separate.' Then we began to prepare supplies for our departure, while my mother's brother looked sad and wiped his face wet with tears with his shirt while sobbing. Finally, we left my mother's brother's house until we arrived near Mecca. One day Unais disagreed with us. Then he and my mother went to a soothsayer. It turned out the soothsayer praised Unais. Not long after, Unais and my mother came back to gather with us. Abu Dzar said: 'O my nephew, know that I have performed prayer for three years before I met the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him.' I (Abdullah bin Ash-Shamit) asked: 'To whom did uncle perform prayer?' Abu Dzar answered: 'I performed prayer to Allah.' Then I (Abdullah bin Ash-Shamit) asked again: 'So, in which direction did uncle face during prayer?' Abu Dzar answered: 'I faced the direction desired by Allah Almighty during prayer. I even performed Isha prayer until the end of the night. Then I lay down until the sun shone on me.' Unais said to me: 'I want to enter the city of Mecca. Therefore, allow me to go.' Then Unais departed until he arrived in the city of Mecca. He was quite long in not returning to me. After returning from Mecca, I asked him: 'What have you done there, O Unais?' Unais answered: 'I have met a man in Mecca who shares your religion, O Abu Dzar. Moreover, he states that he is sent by Allah Almighty.' I asked him: 'O Unais, what do people think about him?' Unais answered: 'People say he is a poet, a soothsayer, and a magician.' While Unais himself is a poet. Unais said: 'I have heard the incantations of soothsayers and fortune-tellers, but not like what that person said. And I have tried to equate his words with the works of famous poets. But, anyway, his words are not poetry, either in my view or in the view of others. By Allah, indeed his words are true, and they are the ones who have lied.' Then Abu Dzar said: 'Allow me to go so I can see the person you mentioned!' Then I went to Mecca. In the middle of the road, I met one of the residents of Mecca and asked: 'Where is the person who has changed religion (Ash-Shabi)?' The person I asked pointed at me while saying: 'What did you say, O stranger? Ash-Shabi?' Then that person threw clay and bones at me until I fell and fainted. Abu Dzar said: 'Some time later I woke up and came to like a red statue. Then I went to the Zamzam well to clean the blood from the wounds of the clay and bone throws. After that, I drank Zamzam water. Know, O my nephew, that I stayed there for thirty days, day and night without food except Zamzam water. Therefore, it is not surprising if at that time my body became fat and my stomach a bit bloated without feeling hungry. Abu Dzar said: 'On a full moon night, the city of Mecca felt deserted and no one was performing tawaf around the Ka'bah, only two women praying to the idols Isaf and Nailah. The two women approached me during tawaf and I said: 'Marry one of the two idols for you both!' It turned out both were angry and came to me. Then I said again to both: 'Aren't these idols just made of wood and I don't even need to know their names.' Finally, both women immediately left while saying: 'If only there were some people from our tribe around here, surely we would ask for help to teach that man a lesson.' Abu Dzar said: 'Not long after, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, and Abu Bakr who had just arrived at the place, passed by the two women. The Messenger asked the two women: 'What is wrong with you both?' The two women answered: 'There is a person who has changed religion (Ash-Shabi)' standing between the Ka'bah and its curtain.' Next, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, asked: 'What did he say to you both?' Both answered: 'That person said to us words that are very saddening.' Then the Messenger came and directly kissed the Black

Stone. After that, he performed tawaf and prayed with Abu Bakr. After praying, Abu Dzar came to the Messenger and said: 'Assalamu 'Alaikum O Messenger of Allah.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, replied to the greeting: 'Wa 'Alaika wa Rahmatullah.' Abu Dzar said: 'I am the first person to greet him with the Islamic greeting.' Then the Messenger asked: 'Who are you, O my brother?' Abu Dzar answered: 'I am from the Ghifar tribe, O Messenger of Allah.' Then the Messenger shook my hand. After that, he placed his fingers on his forehead. I said in my heart: 'Perhaps he does not like because I am from the Ghifar tribe.' Then I wanted to hold his hand, but Abu Bakr prevented it. Indeed, he knew more about the Messenger than I did. After that, the Messenger raised his head while asking me: 'How long have you been in this place, O my brother?' I answered: 'I have been here for thirty days, O Messenger of Allah.' The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, asked again: 'Who fed you?' I answered: 'There is no food for me except Zamzam water. Therefore, I look fat and my stomach is a bit bloated and do not feel hungry.' The Messenger said: 'Zamzam water is indeed full of blessings and contains more protein than ordinary food.' Next, Abu Bakr said: 'O Messenger of Allah, allow me to give him dinner tonight.' Then the Messenger and Abu Bakr departed to his house and I followed them. Abu Bakr opened his house and immediately took Taif grapes for us. That was the first food I ate. Then I asked permission from Abu Bakr to go home and I directly met the Messenger. He said: 'Indeed, a land with many date palms has been presented to me, namely Yathrib (Medina). O Abu Dzar, are you willing to convey my teachings to your people? May Allah benefit your people through your efforts and give you reward for conveying dawah to them.' After that, Abu Dzar went to Unais. Then Unais asked him: 'What have you done there, O Abu Dzar?' Abu Dzar answered: 'I have entered Islam and believed in Muhammad's teachings, O Unais.' Unais said: 'Actually, I do not hate that religion. And know, indeed I have entered Islam and believed in Allah.' Then we went to our mother. Then she said: 'Indeed I like your religion. Therefore, I also want to enter Islam and believe in Allah.' Next, we returned to our tribe's hometown, the Ghifar tribe. There we conveyed Islamic dawah to the residents of our tribe until half of them entered Islam. Their leader was Aima bin Rahadhah Al Ghifari. Meanwhile, half of the Ghifar tribe said: 'When the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, has arrived in Medina, then we will enter Islam.' When the Messenger arrived in Medina, then half of them finally entered Islam. Not long after, the Aslam tribe entered Islam saying: 'O Messenger of Allah, our brothers from the Ghifar tribe have entered Islam. Therefore, we also want to enter Islam.' Hearing that statement, the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: 'May Allah forgive the Ghifar tribe and give safety and peace to the Aslam tribe.' Narrated to us [Ishaq bin Ibrahim Al Hanzhali] informed us [An Nadhr bin Syumail] narrated to us [Sulaiman bin Al Mughirah] narrated to us [Humaid bin Hilal] through this chain but there is an addition after his words: 'Allow me to go so I can see the person you mentioned!' Unais answered: 'Please, but be careful of the people of Mecca, because they have become enemies and hate him.' Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Al Mutsanna Al 'Anbari] narrated to me [Ibn Abu 'Adi] he said: Informed us [Ibn 'Aun] from [Humaid bin Hilal] from ['Abdullah bin Ash Shamit] he said: [Abu Dzar] said: O my nephew, I have performed prayer for two years before the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, was sent. Unais said: 'Then in which direction did you face during prayer? Abu Dzar answered: to the direction Allah desires.' -then the narrator narrated the hadith like the hadith of Sulaiman bin Al Mughirah. In that hadith it is also mentioned: then both went to a soothsayer, to ask about the person in Mecca. But Unais always praised the superiority of that person until the soothsayer lost the argument. Unais said: until we took his camels and combined them with our camels. In that hadith it is mentioned: then the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, came and performed tawaf at the Ka'bah then prayed behind the station of Ibrahim. Abu Dzar said: I met him, peace and blessings be upon him, while saying greeting. I am the first person to say greeting to him with the words: Assalaamu 'Alaika O Messenger of Allah.' He answered: 'Wa Alaikas Salam, who are you? It is also mentioned his words: 'How long have you stayed here?' Abu Dzar answered: 'Fifteen days.' Then Abu Bakr said: 'Allow me to host him tonight.'
