That 'Ubadah stood up to give a lecture, he said : O people, indeed you have been buying and selling, I do not know what it is, know that indeed gold with gold is one scale for one balance, whether it is still pure or its currency, and silver with silver, one scale with one scale, whether it is still pure or its currency. And there is nothing wrong with selling silver for gold with immediate handover and more silver, no delay. Know that wheat is for wheat, and barley is one mudyun (a type of measure for the people of Syria) and there is nothing wrong with selling barley for wheat with direct handover, and millet for more, and there is no delay. Know that in fact dates for dates are one mudyun for one mudyun....until he mentions salt, one mud for one mud. Whoever adds or asks for additional money then he has indeed committed usury.

Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Yahya bin Abdullah], he said : has told us [Muhammad bin Isa bin Ath Thabba'], he said : has told us [Abu 'Awanah] from [Mughirah] from [Ash Sha'bi] from [Jabir], he said : I fought with the Prophet peace be upon him on our camels, then I mentioned that incident. Then the camel became tired and the Prophet peace be upon him rebuked him so that he became enthusiastic again until he was in front of the troops. Then the Prophet peace be upon him said: "O Jabir, I do not see unless I have become enthusiastic again." So I say; because of your blessings, O Messenger of Allah! He said: "Sell to me, and you will get a ride until you reach Medina." Then I sold it even though I really needed it, but I was embarrassed by him. Then when we had finished our war and we were close to Medina, I asked permission to go ahead. I say; O Messenger of Allah, I am a newly married person. He said: "Are you marrying a girl or a widow?" I said : widow, O Messenger of Allah, indeed Abdullah bin 'Amru was killed and he left behind several daughters who were still girls, and I did not like to come to them with women like them, so I married a widow who would teach and educate them. Then he allowed me, and said: "Come to your family at the time of Isha`." Then when I arrived, I told my aunt about the sale of the ont, then she criticized me. When Rasulullah peace be upon him had arrived, I came to him carrying a camel. Then he gave me the price of the camel and the camel itself, and my share with the people.

Then he said: "Why are you at the back?" I say; my camel is tired. Then he grabbed its tail and scolded it, then I was in front of people and the camel's head made me feel worried. Then when we approached Medina he said: "What is the camel doing? Sell it to me." I said : No, but the camel is for you, O Messenger of Allah. He said: "No, sell it to me." I said : no, but the camel is for you. He said: "No, sell it to me, I bought it with one uqiyah, get on it then when you have reached Medina then come to us with the camel." When I reached Medina, I went to him carrying the camel. Then he said to Bilal: "O Bilal, weigh for him one uqiyah and add one qirath." This is something that Rasulullah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam gave me, and he did not leave me. Then I put it in a bag, and it remained with me until the people of Syria came to attack during the Harrah war, and they took from us what they had taken.

Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Yahya] has told us [Abu Ma'mar] has told us [Abdul Warits] has told us [Qathan Abu Al Haitsam] has told us [Abu Yazid Al Madani] from [Ikrimah] from [Ibn Abbas], he said : "Qosamah (fifty people swearing to eliminate the charge of murder) which was first carried out during the Jahiliyah was against a person from the Bani Hashim who employed a Quraysh from one of their tribes. Ibn Abbas said : "Then he went with him riding his camel, then a person from the Bani Hashim passed by whose handle of a vessel made of leather broke, he said : "Help me with a rope so that I can tie the handle of my vessel, the camel will not escape." Then he gave him a rope to tie the handle of his vessel, when they stopped and the camels were tied except one, his master said : "What's wrong with this camel, why isn't he tied up like the other camels?" The worker answered; "He doesn't have a harness." The employer said : "Where is his harness?" The worker replied; "A man from the Banu Hashim whose vessel handle was broken passed in front of me. He asked me for help and said help me with a rope so that I tie the handle of my vessel, the camel will not escape, then I gave him to him. Then the master hit him with the stick he was carrying which was the cause of his death. Then a Yemeni resident came, the worker said : "Have you ever attended Mausim (hajj season)?" The Yemeni resident answered; "I can't attend it or perhaps I have attended it." He said : "Will you convey a message from me just this once?" He answered; "Yes." The worker said : "If you attend Mausim then call, 'O people of Quraysh', if they answer you then call, 'O people of Bani Hashim', if they answer you then ask about Abu Talib and tell him that Fulan killed me because of a rope." Then the worker died. When the master came, Abu Talib met him and said : "What happened to our friend?" He answered, "He was sick and then I treated him, then he died then I did stop at a place and bury him." Abu Tholib said : "He has a job for you, then he stopped for a while then a resident of Yemen came to whom he gave a will to convey in Mausim. He said : "O people of Quraysh!" They replied; "Here we are, the people of Quraysh." "O people of Banu Hashim!" They replied; "Here we are, the people of Banu Hashim." "Where is Abu Talib?" "Here he is Abu Talib." He said : "Indeed Fulan told me to convey the message that so and so killed him with a rope, then Abu Talib said: "Choose one of the three things, if you want then you pay a hundred camels, because you killed our friend wrongly, if you want then fifty people from your people swear that you will not kill him, if you are reluctant then we will kill you." they gave birth to their child and said, "O Abu Talib, I want you to include this child in fifty people and don't take his oath to heart." Abu Tholib did so, then a man came from them and said: "O Abu Talib, you want fifty people to swear to replace one hundred camels, so here are two camels, take it from me and don't take my oath, like the other oaths." forty-eight people, they Ibn Abbas swore, "By the One in Whose Hands my soul is, in less than a year all forty-eight people died."

Then he buried him and then came to the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) along with Huwayyishah bin Mas'ud and Abdur Rahman bin Sahl, and he was the youngest of them. Then Abdur Rahman went to speak before his two companions. Then the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) said to him: "Give priority to the older ones." Then he was silent and two of his companions spoke, then he spoke with them and they mentioned to Rasulullah peace be upon him about the killing of Abdullah bin Sahl. Then he said: "Do you swear fifty oaths and do you have rights against your friends or against those who attack you?" They said : "How can we swear when we haven't seen it?" Then he said: "Do you want the Jews to be free from your accusations with fifty oaths?" They said : "How do we accept the oath of the disbelievers?" Then when Rasulullah peace be upon him saw this he gave his diyat."

Then Rasulullah peace be upon him said to him; "Did you kill him?" He says; "O Messenger of Allah, if he doesn't confess then I will bring proof." The person said : "Yes, I killed him." He said: "How did you kill him?" The person answered; "I was with him looking for firewood from a tree, then he insulted me and made me angry. Then I hit him on the head with an axe." The Prophet peace be upon him said to him: "Do you have wealth to redeem yourself?" The person said : "O Messenger of Allah, I have nothing except my ax and clothes." Before that they had apologized and fined the woman's family. After her brother, who was Anas's uncle and had participated in the Uhud war, swore an oath, these people were willing to forgive. Then the Prophet peace be upon him said: "Indeed, among the servants of Allah there is a person who, if he swears in the name of Allah, Allah will fulfill it."

LAW ON PAYMENT OF DIAT FOR ACCIDENTAL MURDER

بِالْحُرِّ وَالْعَبْدُ بِالْعَبْدِ وَالْأُنْثَى بِالْأُنْثَى إِلَى قَوْلِهِ فَمَنْ عُفِيَ لَهُ مِنْ أَخِيهِ شَيْءٌ فَاتِّبَاعٌ بِالْمَعْرُوفِ وَأَدَاءٌ إِلَيْهِ بِإِحْسَانٍ }فَالْعَفْوُ أَنْ يَقْبَلَ الدِّيَةَ فِي الْعَمْدِ وَاتِّبَاعٌ بِمَعْرُوفٍ يَقُولُ يَتَّبِعُ هَذَا بِالْمَعْرُوفِ وَأَدَاءٌ إِلَيْهِ بِإِحْسَانٍ وَيُؤَدِّي هَذَا بِإِحْسَانٍ ذَلِكَ تَخْفِيفٌ مِنْ رَبِّكُمْ وَرَحْمَةٌ مِمَّا كُتِبَ عَلَى مَنْ كَانَ قَبْلَكُمْ إِنَّمَا هُوَ الْقِصَاصُ لَيْسَ الدِّيَةَ

[Al Harith bin Miskin] said by reading the history and I heard from [Sufyan] from ['Amru] from [Mujahid] from [Ibn Abbas], he said : Previously, among the Children of Israel there was a law on qishas but there was no diyat on them, then Allah the Mighty and Majestic revealed the verse: (O you who believe, qishash is enjoined on you regarding those who are killed; free people with free people, slaves with slaves, and women with women. So whoever gets forgiveness from his brother, let (the one who forgives) follow it in a good way, and let (the one who is forgiven) pay (diat) to the one who gives it. sorry in a good way (too)). Giving forgiveness is accepting diyat for intentional killing, and let (the one who forgives) follow it in a good way, and let (the one who forgives) pay (diat) to the one who forgives in a good way (also)), and carry out this with kindness. This is a relief from your Lord and a mercy from what was required of the people before you, in fact this is qishas, not diyat.

He said : "The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) estimated the price for city residents at four hundred dinars or the equivalent in silver coins. Meanwhile, for camel owners, when the price rose, he increased the price and when it fell, he lowered the price according to the prevailing era (the market). In the time of the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, the value of the diyat reached between four hundred dinars and eight hundred dinars or the equivalent in silver coins." He said again; "The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) decreed that the person whose diyat is with a cow, then the owner of the cow will have two hundred cows. And whoever he diyat with a goat, the diyat will be a thousand goats. And Rasulullah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam has decided that the diyat is an inheritance between the heirs of the person who was killed according to their faraidh. Meanwhile, the excess is for the 'ashabah (relatives of the party father)."The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him decreed that for a woman, one of her 'ashabah should pay her diyat and they should not inherit anything from her except what remains of the woman's heirs. And if the woman is killed, her diyat is divided among her heirs, and they can kill the person who killed the woman."

Narrated to us [Ishaq bin Ibrahim], he said : has told us [An Nadhr bin Syumail], he said : Narrated to us [Kahmas bin Al Hasan], he said : has told us [Abdullah bin Buraidah] from [Yahya bin Ya'mar] that [Abdullah bin Umar] said : has told me [Umar bin Al Khathab], he said : "One day when we were with the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) suddenly a man appeared before us, whose clothes were very white, his hair was black, he had no signs of travel, and none of us knew him, until he sat down in front of the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) and leaned his knees against his knees and placed the palms of his hands on his thighs and said: "O Muhammad, tell me about Islam." He said: "You testify that there is no god worthy of worship except Allah, and Muhammad is Allah's messenger, you pray, pay zakat, fast Ramadan and make the pilgrimage to the Kaaba if you are able to go there." The man said: "You are right." So we were surprised at him, he asked and he also confirmed it. Then he said: "Tell me about faith!" He said: "You believe in Allah, His Angels, His books, His messengers and the Day. The end and all fate, good and bad." He says; "Sir is right." He says; "Tell me about ihsan!" He said: "Ihsan is that you worship Allah as if you see Him and if you do not see Him then indeed He sees you." He says; "Tell me about Doomsday!" He said: "The person being asked does not know more than the person asking." He says; "Tell me about the signs!" He said: "If there is a female slave who gives birth to her master, and you see people who are barefoot, naked and uncircumcised and herding goats competing with each other to raise the building." Three days later he asked me: "O Umar, do you know who asked?" I answered; "Allah and His Messenger know better." He said: "Indeed, he is Jibril 'alaihissalam, he came to you to teach you the things of your religion."

Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Qudamah] from [Jarir] from [Abu Farwah] from [Abu

Zur'ah] from [Abu Hurairah] and [Abu Dzar], they said : "The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him once sat among his companions. Then a stranger came and he did not know which Rasulullah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam was until he asked. Then we asked (permission) from Rasulullah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam to make him a seat so that he could be recognized by strangers when they wanted to meet him. Then we made a long seat for him from clay. While we were sitting, Rasulullah shallallahu was 'alaihi wasallam was in his seat, suddenly a man came with a very beautiful face and a very fragrant smell as if his clothes had never been stained with dirt, so he greeted him at the edge of the rug, he said : "As Salaamu 'alaika O Muhammad! Then he returned the greeting. He says; "Can I come closer, O Muhammad? He said: "Come closer." He kept saying; "Can I come closer?", several times. And he said to him: "Come closer." Until the man put his hands on the two knees of the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him. He said: "O Muhammad, tell me what Islam is?" He said: "Islam is that you worship Allah and do not associate partners with Him, perform prayers, pay zakat, do Hajj to Baitulloh and fasting for Ramadhan." He said : "Will if I do this then I have converted to Islam?" He answered: "Yes." He said : Sir is right. When we heard the words: You are right, from that person, then we became confused about them. He said: "O Muhammad, tell me what faith is!" He said: "Believe in Allah, His Angels, His Books, and the Prophets and believe in the tagdir." He said : "Is it if I do it? that's it then I have believer?" Rasulullah peace be upon him said: "yes." He said : Sir is right." He says; "Tell me what is ihsan?" He said: "You worship Allah, as if you see Him and if you do not see Him then indeed He sees you." He says; "Master is right." He says; "O Muhammad, tell me when will the Day of Judgment come?" He lowered his head and didn't answer at all, then the person repeated the question and he didn't answer at all. Then he raised his head and said: "The person who is asked does not know more than the one who asks. However, he has signs by which the Day of Judgment is known. That is, when you see cattle herders competing to raise buildings and you see people who are barefoot and naked as landowners, and you see women giving birth to their masters. These are the five signs that are not known except by Allah. Indeed, Allah has knowledge about the Day of Resurrection until Allah says: Indeed, Allah is All-Knowing, All-Knowing. Know. Then he said: "By the One who sent Muhammad with the truth as a guide and good news, I do not know better than any of you. Indeed, he is Jibril 'alaihissalam who descended in the form of Dahjah Al Kalbi."

Narrated to us [Al Husain bin Huraits] he said : Narrated to us [Al Fadl bin Musa] from [Sufyan bin Sa'id] from ['Atha` bin As Sa`ib] from [Sa'id bin Jubair] from [Ibn Abbas] he said : "The kings after Prophet Isa bin Maryam 'Alaihi Ash Shalatu was Salam changed the Torah and the Gospel, even though among them there were people who read the Torah. Then it was said to those kings: "We do not get bad reproaches from their reproaches. They read: 'Whoever does not decide according to what Allah has revealed, then they are disbelievers'. They read these verses to criticize our deeds, so invite them to read as we read, and believe as we believe." The kings then invited those who read the Torah (the believers), then gathered them and offered them; (chose to) be killed or they abandoned their reading of the Torah and Gospel, unless they were willing to read the Torah and Gospel as they had changed the reading. The believers said : "What do you want with that offer? Leave us alone." Then a group of them said: "Build us a tower, then raise us to it, give us a tool with which we can raise our food and drink so that we do not pass (disturb) you." Some of them also said: "Let us scatter on the earth until we are thirsty and drink as animals drink, if you find us in your territory, then kill us." Others said: "Build us a house (monastery) in the Sahara desert, then we will dig wells and plant vegetables, we will not cross or meet you again." And there was not a single tribe unless boiling water had been prepared by the kings. Ibn Abbas said : "When they did that, Allah 'azza wajalla revealed the verse: 'And they invented the rahbaniyyah even though we did not require it from them but (they themselves invented it) to seek Allah's pleasure, then they did not maintain it with proper care'. While others said : "We will worship as Fulan worships. We will adventure as Fulan adventures. We will build a house as Fulan builds a house." They remained in polytheism, and they had no knowledge of the faith of the people they used as role models. When Allah sent the Prophet peace be upon him, they (the believers) were left with nothing but a few. A man will come down from his place of worship, adventurers will come from their place of adventure, the owner of the house (monastery) will come out of his house, then they will believe and confirm his prophethood (Muhammad). Allah Tabaraka Wa Ta'ala then said: 'O you who believe (in the apostles), fear Allah and believe in His Messenger, Allah will surely give you His mercy in two parts'. The two parts (of goodness) are their belief in Jesus, the Torah and the Gospel, and their belief in Muhammad peace be upon him and their justification for him. Ibn Abbas continued; "Allah made light for them, with which they can practice the Koran and follow the sunnah of the Prophet peace be upon him." "Then Allah said: 'We explain such things) so that the people of the Book may know', they are like you '(that they will not get anything at all)'."

Narrated to us [Imran bin Bakkar bin Rasyid] he said : has told us [Ali bin Ayyasy] he said : has told us [Shi'aib] he said : has told me [Abu Az Zinad] from what ['Abdurrahman Al A'raj] told me from what he told me, that he heard [Abu Hurairah] tell the hadith from the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him, he said : He said: "While two women were with their baby, a wolf came and took the baby of one of them. One of them said: "The wolf took your baby!" Then the other said: "No, but the wolf took your baby!" So they went to judge with Prophet Dawud 'Alaihis Salam, then Prophet Dawud gave the verdict that the baby was the baby of the older woman. Then they went to Prophet Sulaiman bin Dawud and informed him about the matter. Prophet Sulaiman then said: "Give me a small knife so that I can cut it between you two." The younger woman said: "Don't do it, may Allah have mercy on you. It is my baby." So Sulaiman decided that the baby belonged to the younger woman." Abu Hurairah said, "By Allah, I have never heard the word Sikkin (knife) except today, we do not call it except mudyah (knife)."

The Ansar man said : "Let the water flow." But Az Zubair refused. Rasulullah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam then said to Az Zubair: "O Zubair, water your garden. After that, give it to your neighbor." The Ansar became angry and said : "O Messenger of Allah, is it because he is your uncle's son?" Then the face of Rasulullah peace be upon him became red, he then said: "O Zubair, water your garden. After that, hold back the water until it returns to the ground." Then Rasulullah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam fulfilled Zubair's rights. Even before that, Rasulullah peace be upon him signaled Zubair to be flexible both for him and for the Ansar man. When the Ansar man was angry with Rasulullah peace be upon him, he only fulfilled Zubair's rights in his decision." Az Zubair said : "I have no opinion except that this verse only came down regarding that case: 'So by your Lord, they (in essence) do not believe until they make you the judge of the matter over which they dispute." Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Salamah] he said : Narrated to us ['Abdurrahman Ibnul Qasim] from [Malik] from [Ibn Shihab] from [Ubaidullah bin Abdullah bin Utbah] from [Abu Hurairah] and [Zaid bin Khalid Al Juhani] both of them reported to him, that two men who had a dispute complained to the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him. One of the two said : "Judge between the two of us according to the Book of Allah," the other said - and this is the more pious of the two of them -, "That's right, O Messenger of Allah. But allow me to speak, the man also said : "Indeed, my son was a laborer who worked for this person, then my son committed adultery with his wife. People told me that the punishment for my son was stoning. So I redeemed him with a hundred goats and a female slave of mine. After that I asked the experts, they told me that the punishment for my son was one hundred lashes and exile for one year. Meanwhile, the punishment of stoning is for his wife." Then the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said: "By the One in Whose Hand my soul is, I will truly punish you with the Book of Allah. The goat and the slave will be returned to you." Then he whipped the child a hundred times and exiled him for a year. Then he ordered Unais to bring the woman: "If she confesses then stone her." The woman confessed and was finally stoned."

Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Mansur] he said : has told us [Sufyan] he said : has told us [Abu Hazim] he said : I heard [Sahl bin Sa'd As Sa'idi] say; "Once there was a quarrel between two groups of the Ansar until they threw stones at each other. The Prophet peace be upon him then went to reconcile them. When the time for prayer arrived, Bilal gave the call to prayer, when Rasulullah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam was eagerly awaited but did not come because he was delayed (at the peace ceremony). Bilal then said the iqamah while Abu Bakr radliallahu 'anhu came forward. After that the Prophet peace be upon him came and Abu Bakr was still leading the prayer. When the people saw his presence, they formed a line while Abu Bakr remained in his condition and did not turn back. However, when Abu Bakr heard the sound of tashfih (clapping of hands) from the people, he looked back, and it turned out that Rasulullah peace be upon him had come then raised, namely his hand then withdrew slowly Rasulullah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam also came forward to lead the prayer. After Rasulullah peace be upon him finished praying, he said: "What is stopping you from staying ahead?" Abu Bakr answered; "Is it possible that Allah will see Abu Quhafah while there is His Prophet by his side!" He then turned to the crowd and said: "Why do you clap your hands if something happens during prayer? In fact, clapping is for women, so whoever something happens during prayer should say 'Subhanallah'."

Hadith Imam Nasa'i Number 5440

أَخْبَرَنِي إِبْرَاهِيمُ بْنُ يَعْقُوبَ قَالَ حَدَّثَنَا زَيْدُ بْنُ الْحُبَابِ أَنَّ مُعَاوِيَةَ بْنَ صَالِحٍ حَدَّثَهُ وَحَدَّثَنِي أَزْهَرُ بْنُ سَعِيدٍ يُقَالُ لَهُ الْحَرَازِيُّ شَامِيٌّ عَزِيز الْحَدِيث عَنْ عَاصِمِ بْنِ حُمَيْدٍ قَالَسَأَلْتُ عَائِشَةَ بِمَا كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَفْتَتِحُ قِيَامَ اللَّيْلِ قَالَتْ سَأَلْتَنِي عَنْ شَيْءٍ مَا سَأَلَنِي عَنْهُ أَحَدٌ كَانَ يُكَبِّرُ عَشْرًا وَيُسَبِّحُ عَشْرًا وَيَسْتَغْفِرُ عَشْرًا وَيَقُولُ اللَّهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لِي وَاهْدِنِي وَارْزُقْنِي وَعَافِنِي وَيَتَعَوَّذُ مِنْ ضِيقِ الْمَقَامِ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ

Having informed me [Ibrahim bin Ya'qub] he said : has told us [Zaid Ibnul Hubab] that [Mu'awiyah bin Salih] told him; has told me [Azhar bin Sa'id] also called Al Harazi, a person from the Sham region and good at hadith, from [Ashim bin Humaid] he said : "I once asked ['Aisyah] about something that Rasulullah peace be upon him did before starting the evening prayer. So she answered, "You are asking something that someone once asked me. He said takbir ten times, exalted ten times, and made istighfar ten times. Then he read: 'ALLAHUMMAGHFIRLI WAAHDINII WARZUQNII (O Allah, forgive me, give me guidance, grant me sustenance and health)'. And he also takes refuge from hardship on the Day of Resurrection."

He said: "Bring the container closer to me." so I brought the container closer to him, and it turned out that the wine was evaporating (like boiling water). He then said: "Throw this drink against the wall, because it is for those who do not believe in Allah and the Day of Judgment." And not as people who deceive themselves say, that the haram is only in the last sip, while the first or previous sip is halal. There is no dispute among scientists that its prohibition covers the whole thing, because drunkenness will not occur only at the last sip without the first, second and so on. Only Allah can ask for help."

He said: "Do not drink except from a vessel with a lid tied on it." Buraidah said, "Then the use of the vessel was abandoned for quite a long time, and when he came again, they had contracted an infectious disease so that their faces looked pale. He said: "Why do I see that you have this misfortune?" they answered, "O Prophet of Allah, our land and environment, and you have also forbidden us except for containers with lids." He said: "Drink, and every intoxicating drink is haram."

Narrated to us [Suwaid] he said : Narrated to us [Abdullah] from [Ma'mar] from [Az Zuhri] from [Abu Bakr bin 'Abdurrahman bin Al Harith] from [his father] he said : I heard [Uthman? radiallahu 'anhu] said, "Avoid drinking wine because it is the source of all sins. There was a man before you who was obedient to worship and was liked by a prostitute. The woman then sent her slave girl to say, 'Indeed, I call you to witness.' So the man and the female slave left, while he himself got ready so that when the man entered he locked the door of the house without anyone but him. So the man was faced with a beautiful woman who at her side had a small child and a bottle of khamer. The woman then said, "By Allah, I am not calling you to testify, but I am calling you to have sex with me, or drink a glass of wine, or kill this little child!" the man said, "Just give me a glass of wine." So the woman gave him a glass of wine. The man then said, "Add it for me." The man continued drinking until he committed adultery with the woman and killed a soul (a child). So stay away from drinking khamr, because - by Allah - faith and the habit of drinking khamr will never come together unless one of them will bring out the other." Narrated to us [Suwaid] he said : Narrated to us [Abdullah] - namely Ibnul Mubarak - from [Yunus] from [Az Zuhri] he said : has told me [Abu Bakr bin 'Abdurrahman bin Al Harith] that [his father] said : I heard [Uthman] say, "Keep away from drinking wine because it is the source of all sins. There was once a man who withdrew from human life to worship.... then he mentioned as in the hadith. He was given the Prophet's juice from a drinking vessel, he then smelled the vessel and frowned. He said: "Give me a bucket of Zamzam water," then he poured it into the juice and drank it. A man then asked, "O Messenger of Allah, is that juice forbidden?" He replied: "No." This is a weak hadith. Because Yahya bin Yaman narrated it himself without the companions of Sufyan. And the hadith of Yahya bin Yaman cannot be used as evidence because his memorization was bad, and he had many mistakes."
