Narrated to us [Ahmad bin 'Amr bin As Sarh] and [Al Harith bin Miskin] have been told to us that it was recited to him and I heard it from him, from [Ibn Wahab] from [Yunus] from [Ibn Shihab], that ['Ata bin Yazid Al Laytsi] has told him, indeed [Humran] - the slave of Uthman - has told him, that [Uthman] asked for water for ablution and used it to perform ablution. He washed his hands three times, rinsed his mouth, and put water into his nose, washed his face three times, washed his right hand up to the elbow three times, washed his left hand like that too, wiped his head, then washed his right foot up to the ankle three times, and washed his left foot like that too. Then he said: "I saw the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) performing ablution like this." He added that the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) said: "Whoever performs ablution like this, then prays two rak'ahs - and in those two rak'ahs he does not engage his heart in any conversation other than concentrating on the prayer - his previous sins will be forgiven."

They said, "O Rasulullah peace be upon him, we are people who live from livestock, not from agriculture." Then they did not feel comfortable staying in Medina - because of the stomach disease they were suffering from - so the Prophet peace be upon him sent them several camels and their herdsmen. Then he ordered them to leave Medina. They drink the milk produced by the camel and drink its urine. When they were healthy and on the border of Medina, they left Islam (kufr) and returned to being infidels, then killed the camel herder of the Prophet peace be upon him, and led his camels away. This news reached Rasulullah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam, so he ordered them to look for their traces, and finally they were brought to Rasulullah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam. They were punished by having their eyes pierced with nails, their hands and feet cut off, and then they were left in that state in Harrat until they died.

They asked the Prophet peace be upon him about this. Then Allah the Mighty and Majestic revealed the verse "They ask you about menstruation. Say, 'It is a disease..." Then the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him ordered them to join in eating and drinking with him, to gather with them at home, and to do anything other than having sexual intercourse. The Jewish woman said, "The Messenger of Allah peace be upon him did not let a single thing happen to us unless he disagreed with it!" Then Usaid bin Hudlair and Abbad bin Bisyr arose to tell the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him, they said: "Can we have sex with those (wives) who are menstruating?" The face of Rasulullah peace be upon him then changed with a marked change, so that we thought that he was very angry, then the two of them left. Then the Prophet peace be upon him received a gift of milk, so he looked for traces of these two people and then both of them were brought to the Prophet peace be upon him and he gave them both to drink milk. So it is known that he peace be upon him was not angry with these two people.

Then Ibn Umar went to Aisha and informed her of this statement, and Aisha said, "I used to perfume the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him). Then he went around (in turns) among his wives, then in the morning he entered Ihram."

Narrated to us [Ya'qub bin Ibrahim] he said :Narrated to us [Yahya bin Sa'id] he said : Having told us [Hisyam Ad-Dastawaa'i] he said : [Qatadah] related to us from [Anas bin Malik] from [Malik bin Sha'sha'ah] that the Prophet peace be upon him said: "While I was in front of the Ka'bah between sleep and wakefulness, suddenly one of the three men who were in the middle came with a golden bucket filled with wisdom and faith, so he cut me open from the throat to the stomach, then washed my heart with Zamzam water, then filled it with wisdom and faith. Then I was brought a riding animal smaller than a mule (an animal resulting from crossbreeding between a horse and a donkey) and bigger than a donkey. Then I was taken by Gabriel (peace be upon him). We reached the heaven of the world, then we were asked, 'Who is this?' He replied, 'Gabriel.' Then he was asked again, 'Who is with you?' Gabriel replied, 'Muhammad.' He was asked again, 'Has he been sent to Him? Welcome, the noble guest has come! Then I went to Adam? (peace be upon him) and When we came to the second heaven, we were asked, “Who is this?” Gabriel replied, “Gabriel.” He was asked again, “Who is with you?” He replied, “Muhammad.” Then the same thing happened with Adam. I came to Yahya and Isa and greeted them, and they both said, “Welcome, O noble brother and prophet!” Then we came to the third heaven, and he (Gabriel) was asked, “Who is this?” He replied, “Gabriel.” Then we were asked again, “Who is with you?” He replied, “Muhammad.” Then the same thing happened. Then I met Yusuf (peace be upon him), and I greeted him, and he replied, “Welcome, O my noble brother and prophet!” Then we came to the fourth heaven, and the same thing happened with Adam. I came to Idris (peace be upon him), and I greeted him, and he replied, “Welcome, O my noble brother and prophet.” Then we came to the fifth heaven, and the same thing happened with Adam. as before, I came to Harun Alaihis Salam and said hello to him, then he answered. Welcome my brothers and prophets! Then we came to the sixth heaven, and it happened like that too, and I came to Moses? laihis Salam and I greeted him, then he replied, 'Welcome, my brother and noble prophet! After I passed him, he was crying, so he was asked, 'Why are you crying? 'He answered, 'O my Lord, this young man was sent after my time, but his people who will enter heaven are more numerous and more important than my people. Then we came to the seventh heaven and it also happened as before, I came to Ibrahim? laihis Salam and I greeted him, then he answered, 'Welcome, O my noble son and prophet! Then I was appointed to Baitul Makmur. I asked Jibril about it, and he answered, 'This is Baitul Makmur. Every day there are seventy thousand angels who pray in it. If they leave it, they don't come back. Then I was appointed to Sidratul Muntaha, and I found a tree whose fruit was as big as a jar, its leaves were like elephant ears, and at the bottom there were four rivers. Two hidden rivers and two clearly visible rivers. So I asked Jibril, he answered; The two hidden rivers are rivers in heaven, while the two rivers that are clearly visible are the Euphrates and the Nile. Then I was obliged to pray fifty times. I then came to Moses, and he said, 'What are you doing? I answered, 'I have been obliged to pray fifty times. 'He said, 'I know the human condition better than you. I have tried my best on the Children of Israel. Your people will not be able to carry it out, so return to your Rabb and ask Him for relief'. So I returned to my Rabb and I asked Him for relief, and Allah reduced it to forty times. Then I go back to Moses? laihis Salam and he said, 'What are you doing? 'I answered, 'He reduced it to forty times. Then he said what he said first times, then I returned again to my Rabb the Mighty and Majestic. And He reduced it to thirty. Then I came to Musa Alaihis greetings to tell him, and he said the same thing as the original words. I then returned to my Rabb and He reduced it to twenty times. Then ten times, and finally five times. Then I came to Musa Alaihis greetings, and he said as he said first, but I am ashamed to return to Allah the Mighty and Majestic." Then he (Prophet Muhammad peace be upon him) was called out "I have determined My obligations, I have lightened My servants, and every good deed will be rewarded with ten rewards.

Narrated to us [Amr bin Hisham] he said : Having told us [Makhlad] from [Sa'id bin Abdul Aziz] he said :Narrated to us [Yazid bin Abu Malik] he said : It wasNarrated to us [Anas bin Malik] that the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) said: "I was given a mount smaller than a mule (an animal resulting from a cross between a horse and a donkey - trans.) and larger than a donkey, whose pace was as fast as the eye could see. Gabriel (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) and I mounted it and we started walking. Then Gabriel (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) said: 'Get down and pray!' Then I prayed. He (Peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) said: 'Do you know where you pray?' You prayed in Taibah, which is where the people should migrate. Then Gabriel (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) said: 'Get down and pray!' Then I prayed. Gabriel (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) asked: 'Do you know where you pray?' You prayed in Tursinah, which is where Allah spoke to Musa (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him). Then Gabriel (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) said: "Go down and pray! So I went down and prayed. He asked again, do you know where you prayed? You prayed in Baitul Lahm, which is where Jesus (peace be upon him) was born. Then I entered Baitul Maqdis, and the Prophets (peace be upon him) were gathered for me. Then I was ordered by Gabriel (peace be upon him) to lead them. Then I was invited to ascend to the heavens of the world and there was Adam (peace be upon him). Then I was invited to ascend to the second heaven, and it turned out there were Jesus and Yahya (peace be upon him). Then I was invited to the third heaven, and it turned out there was Joseph (peace be upon him). Then I was invited to the fourth heaven, and it turned out there was Aaron (peace be upon him). Then I was invited to the fifth heaven, and it turned out there was Idris (peace be upon him). Then I was invited to the sixth heaven, and it turned out there was Moses (peace be upon him). Then I was invited to the seventh heaven, and it turns out there was Ibrahim? laihis Greetings. Then I was lifted up above the seven heavens until we arrived at Sidratul Muntaha, and suddenly a cloud covered me and I fell prostrate, then it was said to me: Verily, on the day I created the heavens and the earth, I made it mandatory for you and your people to pray fifty times, so do it by you and your people, then I went back to Ibrahim, but he did not ask me anything, then I went to Moses, and he asked me; 'What is the number of obligations that Allah has assigned to you and your people, I answered: Pray fifty times. Moses said : you and your people will not be able to carry it out, return to your Rabb and ask Him for relief. I went back to my Rabb, then He reduced it by ten, then I went to Musa, but he told me to go back, I went back and Allah reduced it by ten again, this happened over and over again until finally it became five times. But Moses still told me to ask for leniency, as Allah made it obligatory on the Children of Israel to pray twice, but they were unable to perform it, so I returned to my Lord to reduce it again. Allah replied: Indeed, when I created the heavens and the earth, I made it obligatory on you and your people to pray fifty times, so these five times are equal to fifty, so do them, you and your people. I realized that the command was from Allah, the Almighty. Then I returned to Moses, peace be upon him, and he said: Go back. But I did not return because it was a definite decree of Allah.

Mukhdaji] - had heard someone in Sham - nicknamed Abu Muhammad - he said : "Witr prayer is obligatory." Al Mukhdaji said: "I immediately went to Ubadah bin Shamit, I explained to him, and I also told him what Abu Muhammad said, while he was resting in the Mosque. ['Ubadah] then said, "Abu Muhammad is lying! I heard the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) say: "The five times of prayer that have been obligatory upon His servants, whoever performs them without despising the right of these prayers in the slightest, then he has with Allah a covenant to be admitted to heaven, and whoever does not carry them out, he has no covenant with Allah whatsoever. If Allah wills, He will punish him, and if he wills then He will admit him to heaven."

Narrated to us [Abu Daud] he said : Having told us [Harun, namely Ibn Ismail Al Khazaz] he said : Having related to us [Hammam] from [Qatadah] from [Al Hasan] from [Huraits bin Qabishah] he said : "I came to Medina and prayed, 'O Allah, make it easy for me -to find- a righteous companion.' 'I heard from the Prophet peace be upon him said: "The first thing to be reckoned (counted) from a servant's actions on the Day of Judgment is prayer; if his prayer is good then he is lucky and safe, and if his prayer is broken then he loses." Hammam (one of the narrators of the hadith) said : "I don't know, whether this is what Qatadah (one of the narrators) said or is it part of the matan, he said, "If there is something missing from the obligatory prayer, Allah says; then see if My servant has sunnah prayers?" Then his shortcomings in fardlu prayers were made up for with it. Then all his religious practices are also like that." Abul 'Awwam disputed this editorial.

He peace be upon him did not like to sleep before performing the Isha prayer and he peace be upon him did not like to chat afterwards. Shu'bah said : "Then I went to Abu Barzah and asked him. He replied, "He (peace be upon him) prayed the Dhuhr prayer when the sun had set, while he prayed the Asr prayer when one began his journey to the edge of Medina and the sun was still shining brightly." As for the Maghrib prayer, I do not know exactly at what time Abu Barzah had mentioned. After that I went to him again and asked him. He (Abu Barzah) replied, "He (peace be upon him) prayed the Fajr prayer when the men among them could recognize the companions who were beside him. He used to recite sixty to one hundred verses during the Fajr prayer."

Atha said that Ibn Abbas said, 'Then the Prophet sallallaahu'alaihi wasallam came out, and at that moment I seemed to see the Prophet's head Sallallahu'alaihi wasallam dripped water by placing his hand on his head' Ibn Abbas signaled, "Then Ibn Juraij said : "Then I checked with Ata by saying, 'How did the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) place his hands on his head?' He indicated to me as Ibn Abbas did; Ata put something between his fingers, then placed his palms on the crown of his head, wet his head and wiped his hands over his head, then his face, then wiped his temples, that is, the part between the eyes and ears, and wiped his beard, neither more nor less, but this is the way." The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) said, "If I were not afraid of burdening my people, I would have ordered them to perform the Isha prayer as it is at this time."

Or is there a better time to make dhikr of him?" He sallallaahu'alaihi wasallam answered; "Yes, the closest time between Allah the Mighty and Majestic and His servant is the middle of the last night. If you are able to be among those who remember Allah at that time, do so, for it is attended and witnessed (by the angels) until the sun rises. And the sun rises between the two horns of Satan and that is the time of worship of the disbelievers, so leave the prayer until the sun begins to rise as high as a spear and its light begins to spread. Then the prayer at that time is attended and witnessed (by the angels) until the sun stands upright like a spear at midday, because that is when the gates of Hell are opened and its fire is lit, so leave the prayer until the shadow (of an object) appears, then the prayer at that time is attended and witnessed (by the angels) until the sun sets, because the sun sets between the two horns of Satan and that is the time of worship of the disbelievers."

Narrated to us [Ibrahim bin Al-Hasan] and [Yusuf bin Sa'id] -and this is the word for him- they both said :Narrated to us [Hajjaj] from [Ibn Juraij] he said :Narrated to us ['Abdul 'Aziz bin 'Abdul Malik bin Abu Mahdzurah] that ['Abdullah bin Muhairiz] told him - he was an orphan who was looked after by Abu Mahdzurah until he prepared him to go to Syria - he said, 'I once said to Abu Mahdzurah, 'I am going to Syria and I am worried that I will be asked about asking you for permission'." Then he reported that [Abu Mahdzurah] once said, 'I came out with some people and at that time we were on the Hunain road - the way Rasulullah Sallallahu'alaihi wasallam was returning home from Hunain - we met Rasulullah Sallallahu'alaihi wasallam on part of the road. Then the muezzin Rasulullah Shallallahu'alaihi wasallam gave the call to prayer at his side told stories and mocked him Shallallahu'alaihi wasallam heard a voice and then sent someone to us until we were standing in front of him Shallallahu'alaihi wasallam, then he Shallallahu'alaihi wasallam said: 'Whose voice do I hear so loud? ' People pointed the finger at me, and they were right. Then Rasulullah sallallaahu'alaihi wasallam told everyone to leave while he detained me, then he sallallahu'alaihi wasallam said, 'Rise and call to prayer for prayer'. I woke up and Rasulullah Shallallahu'alaihi wasallam himself led me to the call to prayer. He sallallaahu'alaihi wasallam said, 'Say, "ALLAAHU AKBAR ALLAAHU AKBAR, ALLAHU AKBAR ALLAHU AKBAR (Allah is the Greatest, Allah is the Greatest, Allah is the Greatest, Allah is the Greatest). ASYHADU AN LAA ILAAHA ILLALLAAH, ASYHADU AN LAA ILAAHA

Then Rasulullah Shallallahu'alaihi wasallam said, "Repeat and lengthen your voice." Then he (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) said, 'Say, "ASYHADU AN LAA ILAAHA ILLALLAH, ASYHADU AN LAA ILAAHA ILLALLAAH, (I bear witness that there is no god worthy of worship except Allaah. After His call to prayer, sallallaahu'alaihi wasallam, called me and gave me a bag filled with silver, so I said, 'O Messenger of Allah, order me to call to prayer in Mecca. He answered, 'I order you to do that'. Then I came to Attab bin Usaid - an employee of Rasulullah Sallallahu'alaihi wasallam in Makkah - then I said the call to prayer for congregational prayers according to the orders of Rasulullah Sallallahu'alaihi wasallam."

Narrated to us [Kathir bin 'Ubaid] he said :Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Harb] from [Az-Zubaidi] from [Az-Zuhri] from [Abu Salamah bin 'Abdurrahman] and [Abu 'Abdullah Al-Agharr] - slaves of Al Juhaniyyin and both of them were friends of Abu Hurairah - that both of them heard [Abu Hurairah] say; "Praying at the mosque of Rasulullah Sallallahu'alaihi wasallam is more important than praying a thousand times at other mosques, except the Grand Mosque. Rasulullah Shallallahu'alaihi wasallam is the last apostle and his mosque is the last mosque." Abu Salamah and Abu Abdullah said, "We have no doubt that Abu Hurayrah said this from the hadith of the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him), and we were forbidden to check with Abu Hurayrah about this hadith until he died before we mentioned it. We rebuked each other so that we would not speak to Abu Hurayrah about it, so that the hadith was attributed to the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) even though he had heard it from the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him). While in that situation, [Abdullah bin Ibrahim bin Qarizh] suddenly sat with us and mentioned the hadith from the text of Abu Hurayrah that we left behind. He said to us, "I bear witness that I heard [Abu Hurayrah] say, 'The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) said, "...I am the last of the prophets, and that mosque is also the last mosque."

I saw Rasulullah sallallahu'alaihi wasallam on a camel his vehicle and Abu Bakr Radliyallahu'anhu rode behind him, while the Bani Najjar officials were around him until he reached Abu Ayub's yard, and he sallallaahu'alaihi wasallam prayed whenever prayer time came. ' They answered, 'By Allah, we do not sell it except to Allah the Mighty and Majestic.'" Anas said, "Previously in that place there were graves of polytheists, ruins of buildings, and date palm trees. Rasulullah Sallallahu'alaihi wasallam ordered the graves of polytheists to be dismantled and the bases of date palm trees to be cut down, as well as the leveling of former buildings. Then he made a date palm tree the direction of the mosque's Qibla and a large stone the two stones of the mosque. They began to move large stones with hard work while singing a verse - while Rasulullah sallallaahu'alaihi wasallam was with them - which said: 'O Allah, there is no goodness better than the goodness of the afterlife. O Allah, help the Ansar and Muhajirin'."

Then sat around with his companions. After he did this, the people who were left behind (from the Tabuk war) came. They told him the reason and swore an oath to him. There were around eighty more men. Rasulullah Shallallahu'alaihi wasallam accepted their frankness, pledged allegiance to them, asked for forgiveness for them, and handed over the secrets (which were in their hearts) to Allah the Mighty and Majestic until I came. After I greeted him and he smiled with the smile of an angry person, he sallallaahu'alaihi wasallam called me, "Come here." Haven't you bought your riding animal?" I answered, "O Rasulullah sallallaahu'alaihi wasallam, by Allah, if I sat with other than you from the people of this earth, I would definitely believe that I could be free from their wrath because I have the ability to argue. However, by Allah, I know that if I tell you a lie today so that you will be pleased with me, Allah will definitely create something that will make you angry with me. On the other hand, if I tell you the truth bluntly, it will be because I really hope for Allah's forgiveness. By Allah, when I was lagging behind you, I had never been as strong and free as I was at that time." Then Rasulullah Sallallahu'alaihi wasallam said, "This person is acting honestly, just leave until Allah decides your case." Then I stood up and left." (Briefly)

Narrated to us [Qutaibah] he said :Narrated to us [Ya'qub bin 'Abdurrahman] from [Abu Hazim] from [Sahl bin Sa'd] that news has reached the Messenger of Allah sallallaahu'alaihi wasallam that Bani Amru bin Auf has a problem. Rasulullah sallallaahu'alaihi wasallam and several people then came to reconcile them. Rasulullah sallallaahu'alaihi wasallam was held back (by their affairs) until the time for the first prayer (Zhuhur) arrived. Then Bilal came to Abu Bakr and said, "O Abu Bakr, Rasulullah Sallallahu'alaihi wasallam is stuck while the time for prayer has arrived. Are you willing to be an imam for the people?" He answered, "Yes, if you want." Then Bilal called for iqamah and Abu Bakar came forward and said takbir with the Muslims. Then came Rasulullah sallallaahu'alaihi wasallam in the gaps in the prayer line until he sallallaahu'alaihi wasallam stood in the prayer line. The people then started clapping their hands, but Abu Bakr did not turn around in his prayer. After many people clapped their hands (as a signal), Abu Bakr turned and saw Rasulullah Sallallahu'alaihi wasallam, then Rasulullah Sallallahu'alaihi wasallam motioned to him to continue his prayer, but Abu Bakr raised both hands and praised Allah the Mighty and Majestic then stepped back until he stood in the line of the congregation. Rasulullah sallallaahu'alaihi wasallam then advanced to become an imam. When he had finished, he sallallaahu'alaihi wasallam turned to the people and said, "O people, why do you clap your hands when praying? Clapping is only for women. Whoever finds something wrong with his shalal, then say: 'Subhanallah (Glory be to Allah), because no one can hear when someone says subhanallah (Glory be to Allah) unless they turn around. O Abu Bakr, what is stopping you? to pray as a priest for the people when I so indicate?" Abu Bakr said, "It was not appropriate for Ibn Quhafah to pray - as imam - in front of Rasulullah sallallaahu'alaihi wasallam."

Narrated to us [Ahmad bin 'Abdah] from [Hammad bin Zaid] then he mentioned a sentence whose meaning, he said :Narrated to us [Abu Hazim] he said : said [Sahl bin Sa'd] that the Bani Amru bin Auf had a problem, then this came to the Messenger of Allah sallallaahu'alaihi wasallam, so he sallallaahu'alaihi wasallam prayed the midday prayer and then came to them to reconcile them. Rasulullah Sallallahu'alaihi wasallam said to Bilal, "O Bilal, if the time for the Asr prayer comes and I have not yet come, then order Abu Bakr (to be the imam) to pray with the Muslims." When the time for Asr comes, Bilal immediately calls to prayer and continues with the iqamah. Then Bilal said to Abu Bakr Rabi'ah, "Go forward (to become a priest)." then Abu Bakr stepped forward to become a prayer leader. At that time the Messenger of Allah sallallaahu'alaihi wasallam came, he sallallaahu'alaihi wasallam immediately entered through the gaps in the prayer line until he was standing behind Abu Bakr. People started clapping their hands, and when Abu Bakr had started praying he usually did not turn around during his prayer. After Abu Bakr saw the large number of people clapping, Abu Bakr couldn't help turning his head, so he found Rasulullah sallallaahu'alaihi wasallam, and he sallallaahu'alaihi wasallam gave a signal with his hand to Abu Bakr, but Abu Bakr praised Allah the Mighty and Majestic for his command to him, "Just continue." Then Abu Bakr went back and stepped back, and Rasulullah Sallallahu'alaihi wasallam immediately came forward to become imam and pray with the Muslims. When he had finished, he sallallaahu'alaihi wasallam faced the congregation and said, "O Abu Bakr, what is preventing you from praying as an imam for the congregation when I indicate so." Abu Bakr said, "It is not appropriate for Ibn Quhafah to pray as an imam for Rasulullah sallallaahu'alaihi wasallam." He sallallaahu'alaihi wasallam then said to the Muslims, "If you experience something - during prayer - then it is better for men to glorify and for women to clap their hands."

Narrated to us [Muammal bin Hisham] he said :Narrated to us [Isma'il bin 'Ulayyah] from [Sa'id] from [Qatadah] from [Yunus bin Jubair] from [Hiththan bin Abdullah] he said : "We prayed with Abu Musa, after he sat down a man from his people came and said, 'The prayer has been established with goodness and zakat'. After Abu Musa greeted him, he turned to his people and said, 'Who said that earlier?' 'Rasulullah sallallaahu'alaihi wasallam taught us prayers and Sunnahs, he sallallahu'alaihi wasallam said, "The Imam is to be followed. If he says takbir then make takbir and if the imam says, 'Ghairil maghdhubi 'alaihim walaadh-dhaalliin (Not those who are angry nor those who go astray)' then say, 'Aamiin'. May Allah grant you. If the imam bows then bow and if he raises (the head from bowing') by saying 'Sami'allaahu liman hamidah (Allah hears those who praise Him)' then say, 'Rabbanaa lakal hamdu (O our Rabb, to You is all praise)' May Allah hear you. If the imam prostrates then he also prostrates and if he lifts (his head from prostrating) then he raises it. The Imam prostrates before you and raises (the head of the prostration) before you." Then Rasulullah Sallallahu'alaihi wasallam said - these are the procedures that must be carried out between the imam and the congregation -, "You follow each movement afterwards."

Narrated to us [Qutaibah] from [Malik] from [Ibnu Shihab] from [Anas bin Malik] that the Messenger of Allah sallallaahu'alaihi wasallam once rode a horse and he fell from the horse, so the right side of his body was injured. Then he prayed while sitting. and we also prayed behind him while sitting. After completing the prayer, He sallallaahu'alaihi wasallam said, "A priest is not made but to be followed. If he prays standing, then you pray standing, and if he bows, then bow, and if he says 'Sami'allahuliman hamidah (Allah Hears those who praise him) then say, 'Rabbana lakal hamdu (O Allah, to You is all praise) and if he prays sitting then pray while sitting."

Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Al 'Ala] he said :Narrated to us [Abu Mu'awiyah] from [Al A'masy] from [Ibrahim] from [Al Aswad] from ['Aisyah] Radliyallahu'anha he said : "When Rasulullah Sallallahu'alaihi wasallam felt heavy (the pain), Bilal came to him to inform him about (the arrival of time for) prayer, then he sallallaahu'alaihi wasallam said, 'Order Abu Bakr to pray leading the people'. I said, 'O Rasulullah Sallallahu'alaihiwasallam Abu Bakr is a soft-hearted person, so if he takes your place then people will not be able to hear his voice. What if you told Umar?" He sallallaahu'alaihi wasallam still said, 'Order Abu Bakr to pray leading the people'. Then I said to Hafshah, 'Tell him sallallahu'alaihi wasallam (so that he sends Umar)'. Then Hafshah said to Rasulullah Sallallahu'alaihi wasallam about this, and he sallallahu'alaihi wasallam said, "You (women like) Yusuf's brothers, then order Abu Bakr to pray with the Muslims." Aisyah said : "Then the people ordered Abu Bakr. After Abu Bakr started the prayer, Rasulullah Sallallahu'alaihi wasallam felt his body lighten." Aisyah continued her story, "Then Rasulullah Shallallahu'alaihi wasallam got up, supported by two men, while his feet scratched on the ground. When he arrived at the mosque, Abu Bakr could still hear his gasping for breath, so he tried to step back, but Rasulullah Sallallahu'alaihi wasallam motioned to him to stay where he was. Rasulullah then sat next to Abu Bakr. He prayed leading the Muslims while sitting and Abu Bakr prayed standing by following Rasulullah sallallaahu'alihiwasallam while the Muslims followed Abu Bakr's prayer, Radliyallahu'anhu."

Narrated to us [Al 'Abbas bin Abdul 'Azhim Al 'Anbari] he said :Narrated to us [Abdurrahman bin Mahdi] he said :Narrated to us [Zaidah] from [Musa bin Abu 'Aisyah] from ['Ubaidullah bin Abdullah] he said : I went in to meet 'Aisyah, so I said : May you tell me the illness of Rasulullah Shallallahu'alihiwasallam. [Aisyah] answered. 'When the Messenger of Allah sallallaahu'alaihi wasallam was seriously ill, he sallallaahu'alaihi wasallam said, "Have the people prayed?" We answered, "Not yet, O Messenger of Allah sallallaahu'alihiwasallam, they are waiting for you." He said, "Put water for me in the tub": Aisha said, 'Then we did it. Then he took a shower, then got up with difficulty. Suddenly he sallallaahu'alaihi wasallam fainted and regained consciousness, then he sallallaahu'alaihi wasallam said: "Have the people prayed?" We answered, "Not yet, O Messenger of Allah sallallaahu'alihiwasallam, they are waiting for you." He said : "Put water for me in the tub": Aisha said, 'Then we did it. He then took a shower and got up with difficulty. Suddenly he sallallaahu'alaihi wasallam fainted and regained consciousness and said, "Have the people prayed?" We answered, "Not yet, O Messenger of Allah sallallaahu'alihiwasallam, they are waiting for you." Then he said the third time as before. The people stayed in the mosque to wait for the Prophet sallallaahu'alaihi wasallam to pray the Isha prayer. Then Rasulullah sallallaahu'alaihi wasallam sent someone to Abu Bakr to tell him to pray leading the people. When the messenger of Rasulullah sallallaahu'alaihi wasallam came to Abu Bakr, he said, "Rasulullah sallallahu'alaihi wasallam ordered you to pray with (lead) the people." Abu Bakr was a very soft-hearted person (crying easily), so he said to Umar, "O Umar, pray with (lead) the people." Umar replied, "You have more right to that." Then Abu Bakr prayed with (megimami) the Muslims on those days. Then Rasulullah Sallallahu'alaihi wasallam felt well, so he came accompanied by two men - one of whom was Abbas - to pray the Zuhur prayer. When Abu Bakr saw him, he immediately retreated, but the Prophet sallallaahu'alaihi wasallam motioned to him not to retreat. Rasulullah Sallallahu'alaihi wasallam ordered the two people who were supporting him to sit him next to Abu Bakr. Then Abu Bakr prayed standing and the people prayed following his prayer, while the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) prayed sitting.' Then I entered Ibn Abbas and said to him, 'Shall I tell you what Aisha told me about the illness of the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him)?' [Ibn Abbas] replied, 'Yes.' So I related Aisha's story, and he did not deny it in the slightest. He asked me, 'Did she mention the name of the man who was with Abbas?' I replied, 'No.' Ibn Abbas said, 'He was Ali ibn Abu Talib.'"

Narrated to us [Suwaid bin Nasr] he said :Narrated to us [Abdullah bin Al Mubarak] from [Al Mas'udi] from ['Ali bin Al Aqmar] from [Abul Ahwash] from [Abdullah] that he once said : "Whoever wants to meet Allah the Mighty and Majestic in a Muslim state, keep praying five times a day when he is called to do it. Allah the Mighty and Majestic has prescribed paths of guidance to the Prophet sallallaahu'alaihi wasallam. And praying five times a day is one of those paths of guidance. I do not judge any of you unless he definitely has a mosque in his house which is used for prayer. Remember, if you pray in your house and leave your mosque, it means you are abandoning the Sunnah of the Prophet you. If you abandon the Sunnah of your prophet, you will definitely go astray. There is no Muslim who performs his ablution and then goes to the mosque, unless Allah the Mighty and Majestic writes one good thing for each step or elevates him by one level, or removes one mistake from him with that step he stood on the bench (line) of prayer."

(Still from the previous hadith). Then I asked, "O [Abu Hurairah]! Do I sometimes pray behind the imam?" then took my hand and said, "O Pharisee, read in your heart (quietly), because I heard Rasulullah Sallallahu'alaihi wasallam say: 'Allah the Mighty and Majestic said: "I divide the prayer between Me and My servant into two parts, some for Me and the other for My servant, for My servant what he asks for." Rasulullah Sallallahu'alaihi wasallam said: 'Read -if- a servant says "Alhumdulillaah rabbil 'aalamiin (Praise be to Allah, the Rabb of the worlds" then Allah says, "My servant has praised Me." If the servant says,

"Arrahmaanirrahiim (Most Gracious, Most Merciful)" then Allah the Mighty and Majestic says, "My servant has praised Me." If the servant said, "Maaliki yaumiddiin (He is the ruler of the day Retribution) " then Allah the Mighty and Majestic said, "My servant has exalted Me." If the servant continues his reading, "Iyyaaka na'budu wa iyyaaka nasta'iin (You alone we worship and only You we ask for help)" then the verse is between Allah and His servant. For His servant what he asks for." If the servant continues his reading, "Ihdinash-shiraathal mustaqiim, shiraathal-ladzina an'amta 'alaihim ghairil maghdhuubi 'alaihim waladh-dhaalliin (Show us the straight path, namely the path of those whom You guide, not the path of those who are angry and not the path of those who are astray) "then it is all for My servant and for My servant what he asks."

A man replied, "I did it out of desire for good!" The Prophet (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) said: "I know that some of you have differed with me in their recitation."

Al Qiyamah (75): 16-17) He said that Rasulullah Sallallallahu'alaihi wasallam often tried to control the burden when the revelation came down, and he moved his lips, then Allah the Mighty and Majestic said, "Do not move your tongue to (read) the Qur'an because you will quickly (master) it. It is upon Us to collect it (in your chest) and (make you clever at) reading it" (Qs. Al Qiyamah (75): 16-17). He said, "Allah gathered the Qur'an in your chest. Then he read it. "When We have finished reciting it, then follow the recitation." (Qs. Al Qiyamah (75): 18). He said, "So listen and be silent, -because- the Prophet sallallaallahu'alaihi wasallam when Jibril visited him he listened to it, and when he left the Prophet sallallallahu'alaihi wasallam could read it as it was recited. Then I invited him and led him to the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him Rasulullah, I heard someone earlier This is reading Surah Al Furqaan in a dialect that is not like the one you read to me! ' Rasulullah Sallallallahu'alaihi wasallam then said: 'Let him go, O Umar. Read it, O Hisham! ' Hisham then read it as I had heard before. Then he said: 'That is how the Qur'an was revealed.' Then the Messenger of Allah sallallaahu'alaihi wasallam said: 'O Umar, read'. Then I read it as Rasulullah Shallallallahu'alaihi wasallam read it to me. After finishing the prayer he came to Rasulullah Sallallahu'alaihiwasallam while saying greetings to him and the Muslims, then he sallallaahu'alaihiwasallam returned the greeting and said to him: "Alaikassalam, come back and Pray again, in fact you haven't prayed yet'. Then he went and prayed again. Rasulullah Shallallahu'alaihiwasallam supervised his prayer without realizing his mistake! After finishing his prayer he came again to Rasulullah Sallallahu'alaihiwasallam while greeting him and the Muslims, then he sallallaahu'alaihiwasallam returned his greeting and then said to him, 'Alaikassalam, go back and pray again, in fact, you have not prayed yet'. He repeated this two or three times, then the man said : 'O Rasulullah sallallaahu'alaihiwasallam, what do you blame about my prayer? ' Rasulullah Sallallahu'alaihiwasallam said: "Not one of you has completed his prayer until he completes his ablution as Allah the Mighty and Majestic has commanded, Washing his face and hands up to the elbows, wiping his head and washing his feet up to the ankles, then making takbir to Allah the Mighty and Majestic -and praising and exalting Him- In another lafazh: he said: then praise Allah and glorify Him. Rifa'ah said : "I heard those two (sentences) from the Prophet sallallaahu'alaihi wasallam." Then read the Qur'an which is easy for him, which was taught by Allah and permitted by Him. Then perform takbir then bow down until the joints are calm, then say, "Sami'allahu liman hamidah." Then he stands up straight until his back is straight, then he says the takbir and prostrates until he touches his face—another word: his forehead—until his joints are calm, then he says the takbir and rises from prostration until he sits in his place and his back is straight. Then he says the takbir and prostrates again until he touches his face and is calm. If he does not do this, his prayer is not complete.'

If the imam says takbir then you make takbir, and if the imam says, "Waladl Dlaalliin" then say: "Aamiin" may Allah grant your request. If the imam says takbir and bows down' then Make takbir and bow down, verily the imam bows down and lifts his head from bowing down before you. -The Prophet sallallaahu'alaihiwasallam said: "You must follow the movements of the imam afterwards. If he raises (his head from bowing) saying: "Sami'allahu liman hamidah (Allah hears those who praise Him)" then say: "Allahumma rabbanaa wa lakal hamdu (O our Rabb, to You is all praise)" may Allah hear you. Indeed, Allah said orally the Prophet sallallaahu'alaihi wasallam; "Sami'allahu Liman Hamidah." If the Imam makes his takbir and prostrates then follow him in his takbir and prostrations, verily the Imam makes his takbir and prostrates before you - the Prophet of Allah, peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, said: You must follow the movements of the Imam afterwards - and if he sits down then the first thing one of you says is: At-tahiyyatut-thayyibaatus-shalawaatu lillahi, As-salaamun 'alaika ayyuhan-nabiyyu wa rahmatullahi wa barakaatuh, salaamun 'alaina wa 'ala 'ibadillahish-shaalihiin, asyhadu allaa ilaah illallaah wa asyhadu anna muhammadan abduhu wa rasuuluh (Respect, mercy and goodness only belong to Allah. When it was time for prayer, the muezzin came to Abu Bakr and told him to gather the people and lead them. Then came the Prophet sallallaahu'alaihiwasallam through the gaps in the prayer line until he sallallaahu'alaihiwasallam stood in the front row. People then started clapping their hands at Abu Bakr to tell him where the Prophet sallallaahu'alaihiwasallam was, but Abu Bakr did not turn around during his prayer. After many people clapped their hands (as a signal), Abu Bakr knew that they were reminding him of something, so he turned and saw the Prophet sallallaahu'alaihiwasallam. Rasulullah Sallallahu'alaihiwasallam motioned to him to continue his prayer. So Abu Bakr raised both hands and praised Allah with the words of Rasulullah Shallallahu'alaihiwasallam then stepped back, then Rasulullah Shallallahu'alaihiwasallam stepped forward to become imam. After he had finished praying, he sallallaahu'alaihiwasallam asked Abu Bakr, 'O Abu Bakr, what is preventing you from praying as an imam for humanity when I suggest so? ' Abu Bakr said : 'It is not appropriate for Ibn Quhafah to lead the prayers of Rasulullah sallallaahu'alaihi wasallam'. Then he sallallaahu'alaihiwasallam said to the people: 'O people, why are you clapping your hands. Applause is for women only. If something happens during your prayer, then say, "Subhanallah (Glory be to Allah)."

Narrated to us [Ishaq bin Mansur] he said :Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Yusuf] he said :Narrated to us [Al Auza'i] he said :Narrated to us [Yahya bin Abu Kathir] from [Hilal bin Abu Maimunah] he said :Narrated to us ['Atha bin Yasar] from [Mu'awiyah bin Al Hakam As Salami] he said : that he once said to Rasulullah Shalallah 'Alaihi Wa Sallam; "O Rasulullah Shalallah 'Alaihi Wa Sallam, we had just left the period of Jahiliyah, then Allah revealed Islam and some of us did thathayyur!" He sallallallahu'alaihi wasallam said: "It's just a whisper from the heart, so don't hinder their intentions." We said : "Some of us also go to shamans." The Prophet sallallaallahu'alaihi wasallam said: "Don't come to them." He said : "O Messenger of Allah, there are those among us who make fortune-telling lines." Then the Prophet said: "In the past there was also one of the prophets who made a guide line. So whoever's line is the same as the line he made, then that is permissible." When we were with Rasulullah in prayer, suddenly someone sneezed, so I spontaneously said : "Yarhamukallah (may Allah have mercy on you)." People glared at me, so I said : "Woe to you, why are you glaring at me?" He said : "Then the people clapped their hands on their thighs. After I saw them telling me to be quiet (actually I wanted to argue with them), I finally kept quiet. After the Messenger of Allah finished praying, he called me - by my mother and father who are the guarantee - he did not hit me, did not scold me, and did not criticize me. I have never seen a teacher before or after him whose teachings were better than his. Then the Messenger of Allah simply said: 'Our prayer should not contain any utterances of human speech. Prayer is glorifying Allah, saying takbir, and reciting the Qur'an.'" He said, "Then I saw my goats being grazed by a slave girl in the area between Uhud and Jawaniyyah, and I saw a wolf carrying off one of the goats - I am a disappointed human being as most people are disappointed - so I slapped the slave once. Then I came to the Messenger of Allah and informed him of this. He thought my treatment was outrageous, so I said : "What if I free him?" He replied: "Call him." Then the Messenger of Allah said to him: "Where is Allah 'azza wajalla?" He - the slave - answered; "He is a woman who believes." then be free."

Narrated to us [Yahya bin Habib bin 'Arabi] he said :Narrated to us [Hammad] from ['Atha bin As Saib] from [his father] from ['Abdullah bin 'Amru] he said : Rasulullah Shalallahu 'Alaihi Wa Sallam said, "There are two things that if a Muslim does, he will go to heaven. These two things are light, but rarely are those who practice them." Abdullah bin 'Amru continued, "Rasulullah Sallallahu 'Alaihi Wa Sallam said again: 'Pray five times and then after each prayer you add tasbih ten times, do tahmid ten times, and do takbir ten times. All these things are worth one hundred and fifty in the mouth and one thousand five hundred in the mizan (the scale of charity in the afterlife). I saw Rasulullah Sallallahu 'Alaihi Wa Sallam counting the dhikr with his fingers, then said: "If you want to go to bed or bed, make tasbih thirty-three times, make tahmid thirty-three times, and make takbir thirty-four times, then it is worth a hundred times in the mouth and a thousand in the mizan." Abdullah bin Amru continued, "The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) said: 'Who among you does two thousand five hundred evil deeds every day and night?' Then he (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) was asked, 'O Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him), how can we not count them?' He (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) replied: 'The devil comes to you while you are praying and whispers, "Remember this and remember that." The devil also comes to you while you are sleeping and sedates you.'

After a third of the month (Ramadan) was over, he sent someone to his daughters and wives, and gathered the people, then he prayed with us until we were afraid we would lose the falah time. He doesn't do that anymore in the month of Ramadan." Daud said : I asked, what is meant by falah? Al Walid answered; namely the time of sahur.

Narrated to us [Qutaibah] he said :Narrated to us [Bakr bin Mudhar] from [Ibnul Had] from [Muhammad bin Ibrahim] from [Abu Salamah bin 'Abdurrahman] from [Abu Hurairah] he said : "I once came to (the hill of) Thur and I found Ka'ab there. Then he and I stayed there for one day. I told him the hadith from Rasulullah Shalallahu 'Alaihi Wa Sallam, while he told me the Torah. I said to him. 'The Messenger of Allah Shalallahu 'Alaihi Wa Sallam once said: "The best day as long as the sun rises is Friday. On that day the prophet Adam was created, on that day he was sent down, on that day his repentance was accepted, on that day he died, and on that day the apocalypse will occur. All animals on the face of the earth are on Friday morning in a state of optimizing their hearing until the sun rises because they are afraid of the arrival of doomsday except humans. On Friday there is a time when no believer prays and asks Allah for something at that time, except that Allah will answer it." Ka'ab then said : 'That time is only one day every year.' Then I said, 'Indeed, that time is every Friday.' Then Ka'ab read the Torah. Then he said : 'The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, is right, that day is every Friday.' Then I went out and met [Basrah bin Abu Basrah Al Ghifari], and he said : 'Where did you come from?' I replied, 'From Thur.' He said : 'If I had met you before you came to Thur, you would not have come to it.' I asked him; 'Why is that?' He explained; 'I once heard the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, say: "No vehicle (travel) is prepared except for three mosques: the Grand Mosque, this mosque of mine, and the Baitul Maqdis Mosque.' I also met Abdullah bin Salam, I told him that I came out from Thur and met him. with Ka'ab, then he and I stayed there for one day, and I told him the hadith from Rasulullah Shalallahu 'Alaihi Wa Sallam, while he told me the Torah, then I said to him that Rasulullah Shalallahu 'Alaihi Wa Sallam once said: 'The best day for sunrise is Friday. On that day the prophet Adam was created, on that day he was sent down, on that day his repentance was accepted, on that day he died, and on that day the apocalypse occurred. All animals on earth are in a state of optimal hearing on Friday morning until the sun rises except humans. On Friday there was a time, at which time no believer would pray in his prayer and ask Allah for something at that time unless Allah would grant it." Ka'ab then said, 'Time exists on one day in every year'. [Abdullah bin Salam] then said that Ka'ab had lied, so I said that Ka'ab read the Torah and then said, 'The Messenger of Allah is right, that day is every Friday'. then Abdullah bin Salam said, 'Ka'ab is right, and I know very well about that time! I begged him, 'O my brother, tell me about this? ' He answered, 'It was the last time on Friday, before sunset'. Then I refuted him by asking, Didn't you hear Rasulullah Sallallahu'alaihiwasallam say: "Not a believer prays at this time in his prayer?" Isn't that time when you are still praying? ' he answered by asking, 'Didn't you also hear the Prophet sallallaahu'alaihiwasallam say: "Whoever prays and then sits down to wait for the prayer, then he will always be counted in the state of prayer until the time for the next prayer comes?" 'I answered 'Yes'. He said, 'Then it is also like that.'

each rak'ah was bowed three times. He bowed the third time, then prostrated. Some people at that time fell unconscious, because He stood with them for a long time, so that a bucket of water was poured over their bodies. When he bowed, he said Allahu Akbar, and when he rose from bowing he said: 'Sami'allah huliman hamidah'. He did not rise until the sun was bright again. with it, Allah warns you. If both of them experience an eclipse, then immediately remember Allah the Mighty and Majestic (Prayer) until it is light again.'

He stood up and said the takbir, then people lined up behind him. He read a long recitation. Then he made the takbir then bowed for a long bow, then raised his head while saying: 'Sami' Allahu Liman Hamidah, Rabbana Wa Lakal Hamdu'. Then he got up and read the long recitation, but shorter than the first. Then he said the takbir and ruku' with a long ruku', but shorter than the first. Then he said: 'Sami' Allahu Liman Hamidah, Rabbana Wa Lakal Hamdu', then prostrated. Then the sun was bright again before he got up and delivered the sermon to the people. He praised Allah the Mighty and Majestic with something that was His right, then The Prophet (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) said: "The sun and the moon are two signs of the greatness of Allaah, the Exalted. They do not eclipse because of the death or birth of anyone. If you see them eclipsed, then pray until they are revealed again." Then the Messenger of Allaah (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) continued, "In this place of mine, I see all that was promised to you. You saw that I wanted to take something from Paradise when you saw me advancing. Indeed, I saw Hell overlapping one part of it and another when you saw me retreating, and I saw Abu Luhaiy there, and he was the one who left the camel of Saibah."

Then Aisyah said to Rasulullah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam: "O Rasulullah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam answered: 'O Rasulullah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam, will people be tortured when they are in the grave? ' Rasulullah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam answered: 'Take refuge in Allah!' -it turned out- there was a solar eclipse, so we went into the room, and the women gathered to us. Rasulullah peace be upon him appeared facing us, and it was during Dluha time.' Then he stood for a long time, then bowed for a long time. Then he raised his head and stood up, but it was shorter than the first stand. Then bow down shorter than the first bow, then prostrate. Then the second one stands and does the same thing, except bowing and standing shorter than the first, then prostrating, and the sun is bright again. After he finished, he sat on the pulpit and said: 'Humans are tested in their graves, like the slander of the Dajjal'." Narrated to us ['Amru bin 'Ali] he said :Narrated to us [Yahya bin Sa'id] he said :Narrated to us [Yahya bin Sa'id Al Ansari] he said : I heard ['Amrah] say; I heard ['Aisha] say; A Jew came to me and said : "May Allah protect you from the torment of the grave." After Rasulullah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam came, I said to him, 'O Rasulullah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam, will humans be tortured when they are in the grave? ' Rasulullah peace be upon him answered: "Take refuge in Allah!" Then he got on his vehicle, then a solar eclipse occurred. I was in the room with the women, then Rasulullah peace be upon him came from his vehicle and entered his prayer place, then prayed with the people. Then he stood up, then bowed for a long time. Then raised his head and stood for a long time. Then he bowed for a long time, then he raised his head and stood for a long time. Then prostrate for a long time, and stand again but shorter than the first standing. Then bow down with a bow that is shorter than the first bow, then raise his head and stand up again but shorter than the first stand. Then bow again, which is shorter than the first bow, then raise his head and stand up but lighter than the first. The prayer was four times bowing and four times prostration, and the sun was bright. After that he said: 'You will be tested in the grave, like the slander of the Dajjal. Then Aisha said : 'We heard him ask for protection from the torment of the grave after that.'
