He said 'It was revealed about the Ansar. The Ansar used to bring out clusters of unripe dates from their gardens during the harvest and hang them on a rope between two pillars in the mosque of Rasulullah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam so the poor Muhajirin could eat from them. Some would intentionally include spoiled dates thinking it permissible due to the abundance of clusters. This verse was revealed about those who did so: "And do not aim to give the bad from it in charity meaning, do not deliberately give spoiled dates. You would not accept it yourselves except with reluctance meaning, if such were given to you, you would only accept it out of shame for the owner, upset that he sent something you do not need. Know that Allah is Rich beyond your charity.'

The Prophet said: What is this, O Mu'adz? He replied: I visited Syria and saw them prostrating to their bishops and commanders, so I wished to do the same for you. The Messenger of Allah (shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam) said: Do not do so. If I were to order anyone to prostrate to other than Allah, I would order a wife to prostrate to her husband. By the One in Whose Hand is Muhammad's soul, a wife does not fulfill her Lord's right until she fulfills her husband's right, even if he asks for her while she is on a saddle.

وَمَلَكٌ آخِذٌ بِقَفَاهُ ثُمَّ يَرْفَعُ رَأْسَهُ إِلَى السَّمَاءِ فَإِنْ قَالَ أَلْقِهِ أَلْقَاهُ فِي مَهْوَاةٍ أَرْبَعِينَ خَرِيفًا

Then his head will be lifted to heaven, if Allah says, 'Throw him' then the angels will throw him into hell which is as deep as a journey of seventy seasons."

We came to the Prophet shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam and said, 'We will ransom her with forty uqiyah.' Rasulullah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam said: 'Purification is better for her.' Hearing his gentle words, we approached Usamah, saying, 'Plead with Rasulullah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam.' Then Rasulullah stood and spoke, saying: 'Why do you hinder me from enforcing Allah’s hudud on a servant of Allah? By Him in whose hand is Muhammad’s soul, if Fatimah, daughter of Rasulullah, committed what she did, Muhammad would cut off her hand.'

Narrated by [Abu Bakar bin Abu Syaibah], from [Yazid bin Harun], from [Hammam bin Yahya], from [Qatadah], from [Abu Shiddiq An Naji], from [Abu Sa'id Al Khudri], he said: Shall I not tell you what I heard from Rasulullah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam’s mouth, grasped by my ears and heart? He said, 'A man killed ninety-nine souls, then sought repentance. He asked for the most learned on earth and was directed to a man. He said, “I killed ninety-nine souls; is there repentance for me?” The man said, “After ninety-nine souls?” So he drew his sword, killed him, completing a hundred. Seeking repentance again, he asked for the most learned and was directed to another. He said, “I killed a hundred souls; is there repentance for me?” The man said, “Woe to you! Who can hinder your repentance? Leave this wicked village for the righteous one, such-and-such, and worship your Lord there.” He set out for the righteous village but died on the way. The angels of mercy and punishment disputed over him. Iblis said, “I have more right; he never disobeyed me.” The angels of mercy said, “He left repenting.” [Hammam] said: [Humaid At Thawil] narrated from [Bakar bin Abdullah], from [Abu Rafi']: Allah sent an angel; they disputed before him. Allah said, “See which village was nearer and assign him to its people.” [Qatadah] said: [Al Hasan] narrated: As death approached, he leaned toward the righteous village, away from the wicked one, and was counted among the righteous village’s people.'

The Prophet said, 'Will you accept diyat?' They refused. A man from Bani Laith, called Mukaitil, said, 'O Rasulullah, by Allah, this killing in early Islam is like a herd of sheep: the first is struck, and the rest scatter.' Muhayishah was told that Abdullah bin Sahl was killed and thrown into a well called Faqir or Ain in Khaibar. He went to the Jews and said, 'By Allah, you killed him!' They replied, 'By Allah, we did not kill him.' He returned to his people and informed them. Then he, his older brother Huwayishah, and Abdurrahman bin Sahl went back. Muhayishah, who was at Khaibar, spoke, but Rasulullah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam said, 'The eldest, the eldest,' meaning the oldest. So Huwayishah spoke, followed by Muhayishah. Rasulullah said, 'They either pay diyat for your companion or declare war.' Rasulullah wrote to them about this, and they replied, 'By Allah, we did not kill him.' Rasulullah said to Huwayishah, Muhayishah, and Abdurrahman, 'Will you swear to claim your companion’s blood?' They said, 'No.' He said, 'Then the Jews will swear for you.' They said, 'They are not Muslims.' So Rasulullah paid the diyat himself, sending one hundred camels to their house. Sahl said, 'A red camel from them kicked me.'

Narrated by [Ahmad bin 'Amru bin As Sarh], narrated by [Abdullah bin Wahab], narrated by [Yunus] from [Ibnu Syihab] from ['Ali bin Al Hushain], he narrated that ['Amru bin 'Utsman] informed him from [Usamah bin Zaid], he said: I asked Rasulullah: 'Will you stay at your Makkah house?' He said: 'Did Aqil leave us any property or houses?' Aqil and Thalib inherited Abu Thalib, not Ja’far or Ali, as they were Muslims, while Aqil and Thalib were disbelievers. Thus, Umar said: 'A believer does not inherit from a disbeliever.' Rasulullah said: 'A Muslim does not inherit from a disbeliever, nor a disbeliever from a Muslim.'

Their mother died; her children inherited her houses and freed slaves. Amru bin Ash took them to Sham; they died in the Amwas plague. Amru, their kin, inherited them. When Amru returned, Bani Ma'mar disputed their sister's freed slaves before Umar. Umar said: 'I rule by what I heard from Rasulullah: "What a child or parent secures is for their kin."' Umar ruled for us, wrote a document with testimonies of Abdurrahman bin Auf, Zaid bin Thabit, and others. When Abdul Malik bin Marwan became caliph, a freed slave died, leaving two thousand dinars. I heard the ruling changed. They disputed before Hisham bin Ismail, who referred us to Abdul Malik. We brought Umar's document. He said: 'This ruling is certain; I didn't think Madinah's people would doubt it.' He ruled for us, and it remained so.

Suhail said: I am unsure: goodness (Paradise) until the Day of Judgment. Horses are of three types: for one man, they bring reward; for another, they are a shield; and for another, they bring sin. As for the one who earns reward, it is the man who keeps them for Allah’s path and prepares them, so nothing enters their stomachs but a reward is written for him. If he pastures them in a meadow, whatever they eat earns him a reward. If he gives them water from a flowing river, every drop they consume earns him a reward, even for their urine and dung. If they take one or two steps, every step earns him a reward. As for the one for whom they are a shield, it is the man who keeps them for dignity and adornment, not neglecting their backs and stomachs in times of hardship or ease. As for the one for whom they bring sin, it is the man who keeps them for pride, arrogance, ostentation, and showing off to people.'

Allah said: "It has been decreed that they will not return." He said: "O Lord convey this to those after me." So Allah revealed: "Do not think those killed in Allah’s path are dead."'

He said: We asked about this, and the Prophet, peace be upon him, said: 'Their souls are like green birds, roaming freely in Paradise wherever they wish, then resting in lanterns hung from the Throne. While they were thus, their Lord looked upon them and said: Ask Me for anything." They said: "Our Lord what shall we ask when we roam freely in Paradise as we wish?" When they saw they would not be left without asking they said: "We ask that our souls be returned to our bodies in the world to be killed again in Your path." Seeing they asked for nothing else they were left.'"

Narrated by [Muhammad bin Yahya]; narrated by [Muhammad bin Yusuf Al Firyabi]; narrated by [Sufyan] from ['Alqamah bin Martsad] from [Ibnu Buraidah] from his father, he said: When Rasulullah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam appointed a commander for an expedition, he specifically advised him to fear Allah and urged the Muslims with him to do good, saying: 'Fight in the name of Allah, in the way of Allah, against those who disbelieve in Allah. Fight, but do not betray, do not steal, do not mutilate, and do not kill children. When you meet your polytheist enemy, invite them to one of three options. Accept whichever they choose and refrain from them: Invite them to Islam; if they accept, take it and stop. Then invite them to move from their land to the land of the Muhajirin, informing them they will have the rights and duties of the Muhajirin. If they refuse and stay, inform them they will be like the Bedouin Muslims, subject to Allah’s laws for believers, with no share in spoils unless they fight with the Muslims. If they refuse Islam, ask for jizyah; if they agree, accept it and stop. If they refuse, seek Allah’s help and fight them. If you besiege a fortress and they want Allah’s and His Prophet’s protection, do not grant it, but offer your protection, your father’s, and your companions’. Breaking your own pledge is lighter than breaking Allah’s and His Prophet’s. If they want to submit to Allah’s judgment, do not grant it, but judge them by your own, for you do not know if you will match Allah’s judgment.' [Alqamah] said: I narrated this to [Muqatil bin Hayyan], and he said: Narrated by [Muslim bin Haidlam] from [An Nu’man bin Muqarrin] from the Prophet shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam similarly.

At the battle’s end or mid-journey, a group requested permission. He permitted them and appointed [Abdullah bin Hudzafah bin Qais As-Sahmi] as their leader. I was among those who fought with him. Mid-journey, they lit a fire to warm themselves or cook. Abdullah, jokingly, said, 'Don’t you owe me obedience?' They said, 'Yes.' He said, 'I command you to jump into this fire.' Some prepared to jump. When he thought they would, he said, 'Stop, I was only joking.' Upon return, they reported to the Prophet shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam, who said, 'Whoever orders you to disobey Allah, do not obey him.'

Narrated by [Abu Bakar bin Abu Syaibah]; narrated by [Abu Usamah] from [Hisyam bin 'Urwah]; my father informed me, he said: I said to Aisyah, 'I see no sin in not performing Sa'i between Safa and Marwah.' She replied, 'Allah Subhanahu Wa Ta'ala says: Indeed Safa and Marwah are among the symbols of Allah. So whoever performs Hajj to the House or Umrah there is no sin upon him to perform Sa'i between them" (QS. Al Baqarah 2:158). If it were as you say it would be: "There is no sin upon him not to perform Sa'i between them." This verse was revealed about some Ansar who when they entered Ihram did so for Manat so it was not permissible for them to perform Sa'i between Safa and Marwah. When they came with the Prophet shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam for Hajj they mentioned this to him and Allah revealed this verse. By my life Allah Subhanahu Wa Ta'ala does not complete the Hajj of one who does not perform Sa'i between Safa and Marwah.'"

Some among the people entered Ihram for Umrah and some for Hajj. I was among those who entered Ihram for Umrah. We arrived in Makkah and on the Day of Arafah I was menstruating and had not exited Ihram from my Umrah. I complained to the Prophet shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam and he said "Abandon your Umrah undo your hair comb it and enter Ihram for Hajj." I did so. On the night of Hasbah after Allah completed our Hajj he sent Abdurrahman bin Abu Bakr with me who accompanied me to Tan'im where I entered Ihram for Umrah. Thus Allah completed our Hajj and Umrah without any sacrificial animal Narrated by [Ayyub bin Muhammad Al Hasyimi]; narrated by [Abdul Qahir bin Sari As Sulami]; narrated by [Abdullah bin Kinanah bin Abbas bin Mirdas As Sulami], that his father informed him from his father, that the Prophet shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam prayed for his Ummah on the evening of Arafah for forgiveness. It was answered: 'I have forgiven them except the oppressor, for I will take from him for the oppressed.' He said: 'O my Lord, if You will, grant the oppressed from Paradise and forgive the oppressor.' He was not answered that evening. At Muzdalifah, he repeated the prayer, and it was answered as he requested. Rasulullah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam laughed or smiled. Abu Bakr and Umar said: 'By my father and mother, this is not a time you usually laugh. What made you laugh? May Allah make your teeth laugh.' He replied: 'When the enemy of Allah, Iblis, learned that Allah Subhanahu Wa Ta'ala had answered my prayer and forgiven my Ummah, he took dirt, threw it on his head, and called for woe and destruction. His distress made me laugh.'

Narrated by [Hisyam bin Ammar], he said: Narrated by [Hatim bin Isma'il], narrated by [Ja'far bin Muhammad] from [his father], he said: We visited [Jabir bin Abdullah]. When we reached him, he asked about the people until he came to me. I said: 'I am Muhammad bin Ali bin Husain.' He reached for my head, unbuttoned my upper and lower buttons, placed his hand on my chest, and I was a young boy then. He said: 'Welcome, ask what you wish.' I asked him, though he was blind. When prayer time came, he stood in a woven cloth, wrapping it around him; its edges returned to him due to its small size, with his cloak on a hanger beside him. He led us in prayer. I said: 'Tell us about the hajj of the Messenger of Allah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam.' He gestured with his hand, showing nine, and said: 'The Messenger of Allah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam stayed nine years without performing hajj, then announced in the tenth year that he would perform hajj. Many people came to Madinah, all seeking to follow the Messenger of Allah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam and do as he did. He set out, and we went with him. At Dzul Hulaifah, Asma' binti Umais gave birth to Muhammad bin Abu Bakar. She sent to the Messenger of Allah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam, asking: 'What should I do?' He said: 'Bathe, secure a cloth, and enter ihram.' The Messenger of Allah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam prayed in the mosque, then rode Qashwa until his camel stood on the Baida'. Jabir said: 'I looked as far as my eyes could see, with riders and walkers in front, to his right, left, and behind him. The Messenger of Allah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam was among us, with the Qur'an revealed to him, and he knew its interpretation. Whatever he did, we did. He proclaimed tawhid: 'Labbayk Allahumma labbayk, labbayk la sharika laka labbayk, inna al-hamda wa al-ni'mata laka wa al-mulk, la sharika laka.' People also proclaimed what they did, and he did not object. He continued his talbiyah.' Jabir radliallahu 'anhu said: 'We intended only hajj, not knowing umrah. At the House with him, he touched the Rukn, performed raml for three circuits and walked for four. Then he went to Maqam Ibrahim, reciting: 'And take the Maqam Ibrahim as a place of prayer.' He positioned himself between Maqam Ibrahim and the House. My father said—and I know only that he mentioned it from the Prophet shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam—that he recited Qul ya ayyuha al-kafirun and Qul huwa Allahu ahad in the two raka'at. He returned to the House, touched the Rukn, then went out to Safa. Nearing Safa, he recited: 'Indeed, Safa and Marwah are among the symbols of Allah. We begin with what Allah began.' He started at Safa, climbed until he saw the House, then glorified, praised, and thanked Allah, saying: 'La ilaha illa Allah wahdahu la sharika lahu, lahu al-mulk wa lahu al-hamd, yuhyi wa yumit, wa huwa 'ala kulli shay'in qadir. La ilaha illa Allah wahdahu la sharika lahu, anjaza wa'dahu, wa nasara 'abdahu, wa hazama al-ahzaba wahdahu.' He prayed between this, repeating it three times. He descended to Marwah, walking until his feet reached the valley's bottom, then ran lightly in the valley until his feet climbed, walking until he reached Marwah. He did at Marwah as he did at Safa. At the end of his circuits at Marwah, he said: 'If I had known before what I know now, I would not have brought the sacrificial animal and made it an umrah. Whoever among you has no sacrificial animal, let them exit ihram and make it an umrah.' All people exited ihram and shortened their hair except the Prophet shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam and those with sacrificial animals. Suraqah bin Malik bin Ju'shum stood and said: 'O Messenger of Allah, is this for this year or forever?' The Messenger of Allah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam interlocked his fingers, saying: 'Umrah has entered hajj like this,' twice, then said: 'No, it is forever.' Ali came with the Prophet’s sacrificial animals and found Fatimah among those who had exited ihram, wearing colored clothes and kohl. Ali disapproved, but she said: 'My father ordered me to do this.' Ali said in Iraq: 'I went to the Messenger of Allah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam, upset about Fatimah’s actions, seeking his ruling. I told him I disapproved, and he said: 'She is right, she is right. What did you say when you intended hajj?' I said: 'O Allah, I proclaim what Your Messenger proclaimed shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam.' He said: 'I have the sacrificial animal, so do not exit ihram.' The total sacrificial animals Ali brought from Yemen and the Prophet shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam brought from Madinah were one hundred. All people exited ihram and shortened their hair except the Prophet shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam and those with sacrificial animals.

On the day of Tarwiyah, they headed to Mina, proclaiming hajj. The Messenger of Allah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam rode and prayed Zuhr, Asr, Maghrib, Isha, and Subh at Mina. He waited until sunrise, then ordered a tent of hair to be set up at Namirah. He proceeded, and Quraysh thought he would stop at Mash'aril Haram or Muzdalifah as they did in Jahiliyyah, but he passed until he reached Arafah. He found the tent set up at Namirah and stayed there. When the sun declined, he ordered Qashwa prepared, rode to the valley's bottom, and addressed the people: 'Your blood, property, and honor are sacred, like the sanctity of this day, month, and land. All matters of Jahiliyyah are beneath my feet. Jahiliyyah blood debts are abolished; the first I abolish is Rabi'ah bin Harith's, nursed among Banu Sa'd and killed by Hudhayl. Jahiliyyah usury is abolished; the first I abolish is ours, Abbas bin Abdul Muththalib's, all abolished. Fear Allah regarding women; you took them with Allah's trust and made their private parts lawful with Allah's word. Your right over them is that they not let anyone you dislike on your beds. If they do, strike them gently. Their right over you is fair provision and clothing. I leave you what will keep you from going astray if you hold to it: Allah's Book. You will be asked about me; what will you say?' They said: 'We testify you have conveyed, fulfilled, and advised.' He raised his finger to the sky, pointing to the people: 'O Allah, witness,' three times. Bilal called the adhan, then iqamah, and he prayed Zuhr. Bilal called iqamah again, and he prayed Asr, with nothing between them. He rode to the standing place, positioning his camel's belly toward the rocks, the pedestrians' path before him, facing the Qiblah. He stood until sunset, when the yellow hue faded and the sun's disk vanished. He took Usamah bin Zaid behind him and moved, holding Qashwa's reins until her head touched his saddle's edge, saying with his right hand: 'O people, calm, calm.' Each time he reached a hill, he loosened the reins slightly to ascend. At Muzdalifah, he prayed Maghrib and Isha with one adhan and two iqamahs, with nothing between them. He lay down until dawn, then prayed Fajr when it was clear, with one adhan and one iqamah. He rode Qashwa to Mash'aril Haram, climbed it, praised, glorified, and thanked Allah, standing until it was very bright, then moved before sunrise.

Nu'aiman carried the provisions, and Suwaibit, a joker, said, 'Feed me.' Nu'aiman replied, 'Not until Abu Bakr comes.' Suwaibit said, 'I’ll teach you a lesson.' Passing a group, Suwaibit said, 'Buy my slave!' They agreed. He said, 'He’s a talkative slave who’ll claim he’s free. Don’t let that ruin my deal.' They said, 'We’ll buy him.' They paid ten young she-camels, tied a turban or rope around Nu'aiman’s neck. He said, 'He’s mocking you; I’m free, not a slave.' They replied, 'He told us you’d say that,' and took him. When Abu Bakr arrived and learned of it, he returned the camels and retrieved Nu'aiman. Upon returning, they told the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him), who laughed with his companions for a year.

Narrated by [Abu Yusuf As Shaidalani Muhammad bin Ahmad Ar raqqi] has told us [Muhammad bin Salamah] from [Al Fazari] from [Abu Syaibah] from [Abdullah bin 'Ukaim Al Juhani] from ['Aisyah] he said; I heard Rasulullah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam say: "ALLLAHUMM 'INNI 'AS'ALUK BIASMIK ALTTAHIR ALTTAYIB ALMUBARAK AL'AHABB 'IILAYK ALLADHI 'IIDHA DUEIT BIH 'AJABT WA'IIDHA SUYILT BIH 'AETAYT WA'IIDHA

ASTURHIMT BIH RAHIMT WA'IIDHA ASTUFRIJAT BIH FARRAJT QALAT WAQAL DHAT YAWM" "O Allah, verily I ask You in Your name, the Holy, the Beautiful, the Blessed and the more beloved, that when You are called upon by Him, You will grant, and when You are asked by Him You will give, and when You are asked for mercy by Him You will be merciful and when You are asked for a way out with Him You will give a way out." 'Aisha said; One day he said: "O 'Aisha, do you know that Allah has shown me a name that when called upon He will grant it?" 'Aisha said; I answered; "O Messenger of Allah, for the sake of my father, you and my mother, teach him to me." He said: "Indeed he is not worthy of you, O 'Aisha." 'Aisha said; so I stepped aside and sat for a moment then I got up and turned his head, then I said; "O Messenger of Allah, teach me." He said: "Surely he is not worthy of you, O 'Aisha, namely to teach you, indeed he is not worthy of you if with him you ask for something from the world." 'Aisha said; "So I got up and made ablution, then prayed two rak'ahs and prayed; "O Allah, indeed I pray to You, O Allah, I pray to You, O Rahman, I pray to You, O Most Good, Most Merciful, and I pray to You with all Your beautiful names, both those that I know and those that I do not know, that You will forgive me and have mercy on me." 'Aisyah said; So Rasulullah sallallaahu 'alaihi wasallam laughed at me and said: "Indeed it is contained in the asthma's that you prayed with earlier."

Narrated by [Ya'qub bin Humaid bin Kasib Al Madani] has told us [Sufyan bin 'Uyainah] from [Az Zuhri] from ['Ubaidullah bin Abdullah] from [Ibn Abbas] he said, "A man came to see the Prophet sallallaahu 'alaihi wasallam when he returned from the battle of Uhud, the man said, "O Messenger of Allah, I dreamed of seeing clouds overshadowing and raining down ghee and honey. I also saw people holding it with the palms of their hands, so some got a lot and some got a little. I also saw the stairs that connect to the sky, I saw you climb them all the way to the top. Then a man climbed after you, so he reached the top. Then a man after him also climbed on it but it was broken and repaired for him so that he reached the top." Abu Bakr said, "Allow me to ta'birkanlah, O Rasulullah." He replied: "Ta'birkanlah." Abu Bakr said, "As for the cloud is Islam, while the rain of ghee and honey that falls from it is the Koran with its pleasure and softness. As for those who were covered with the palms of their hands, they were those who took the Koran, some got a lot and some got a little. Meanwhile, the ladder that reaches heaven is the truth that is within you, and you defend it so that you can achieve glory. After that a man after you also defended it and made himself noble too. After that another man came and he also got glory with him, and another one was cut off, but it was connected again for him so that with him he also got glory." The Prophet sallallaahu 'alaihi wasallam said: "Part of what you tabir is true, and part of it is wrong." Abu Bakr said, "I swear in your name, O Messenger of Allah, if you are willing to tell me some of it is true and some of it is wrong." So the Prophet sallallaahu 'alaihi wasallam said: "O Abu Bakr, do not swear in matters like this." He told us [Abdurrazaq] had told us [Ma'mar] from [Az Zuhri] from ['Ubaidullah] from [Ibn Abbas] he said; Rasulullah, I once had a dream seeing the shade of the cloud between heaven and earth, he sent down ghee and honey...then he mentioned the hadith as above."

Whoever dreamt would tell the Prophet (peace be upon him). I prayed, 'O Allah, if I have good in Your sight, show me a dream for the Prophet to interpret.' I slept and dreamt two angels took me, meeting another who said, 'Do not fear.' They led me to Hell, folded like a well's walls, with people I recognized. They took me to the right. In the morning, I told Hafshah, who told the Prophet (peace be upon him). He said: 'Abdullah is righteous if he prays more at night.' Thus, Abdullah increased his night prayers.

Narrated by [Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah] has told us [Al Hasan bin Musa Al Asyaib] has told us [Hammad bin Salamah] from ['Ashim bin Bahdalah] from [Al Musayyab bin Rafi'] from [Kharasyah bin Al Hur] he said, "I arrived in Medina, then sat together with several old people in the mosque of the Prophet sallallaahu 'alaihi wasallam. Suddenly an elderly person came leaning on his staff, then the people said, "Whoever wants to see a resident of heaven, look at this person! " The man then stood up and prayed two rak'ahs behind the pillar of the mosque. I then approached and said to him, "Some people have told about you like this and like this." The man answered, "Praise be to Allah, heaven belongs to Allah and He includes in it whoever He wills. Know that during the time of the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) I had a dream in which I saw a man coming towards me and saying to me, 'Go!' Then I went with him and he took me through a bright and wide place, then a path was shown to me on my left, and I wanted to follow it. The man with me said, 'You are not one of them.' Then a path was shown to me on my right, so I followed it until I reached a mountain that I could not step on. Suddenly the man took my hand and pushed me, and unexpectedly I was at the top of it so that I could not lean or hold on. It turned out that there was an iron pillar on top of the peak made of gold, so he took my hand and threw me so that I held on to a rope. Then he asked, 'Have you held on?' I replied, 'Yes.' Then he threw the pole and I held on to the rope.' The man said, 'Then I told the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him), he said: 'You have dreamed a good dream. The place that is bright and big is the Mahsyar field. Meanwhile, the road shown on your left is the path of the inhabitants of hell, and you are not one of its inhabitants. Meanwhile, the path shown on your right is the path to your right, which is the path of the people of heaven. The mountain that cannot be stepped on is the abode of the martyrs, and the rope that you hold on to is Islam. So hold on tight until death takes you.' Therefore, I hope to be a resident of heaven." It turned out that the old man was [Abdullah bin Salam]."

Narrated by [Suwaid bin Sa'id] has told us [Ali bin Mushir] from ['Ashim] from [As Sumaith bin As Samir] from ['Imran bin Al Hushin] he said, "Nafi' bin Al Azraq and his companions, they said, "Woe to you, O 'Imran! " Imran asked, "I'm doomed! " they answered, "Yes." Imran asked again, "What harms me?" they answered, "Allah has said '(and fight them so that there is no slander and there is only the religion of Allah alone)' (Qs. Al Anfal: 39). Imran said, "We have fought them and suppressed them, so that this deen belongs to Allah alone. If you wish, I will tell you a hadith that I heard from the Prophet sallallaahu 'alaihi wasallam." They said, "And you (really) heard it from the Messenger of Allah sallallaahu 'alaihi wasallam?" Imran answered, "Yes. I saw Rasulullah sallallaahu 'alaihi wasallam send an army of Muslims to attack the polytheists, when they met the enemy, they fought him with fierce battles until they succeeded in defeating the enemy. Then one of my relatives was able to hold a polytheist at gunpoint with a spear, when my brother came to him he said, "I testify that there is no god worthy of worship except Allah, I am a Muslim." But my relative still stabbed him so he died. Then my brother came to the Messenger of Allah sallallaahu 'alaihi wasallam and said, "Woe to me, O Messenger of Allah! " He asked once or twice: "What have you done?" He told him what he had done. Rasulullah sallallaahu 'alaihi wasallam also said to him: "Do you have to open his stomach so that you can know what is in his heart?" He answered, "O Messenger of Allah, if I (had to) open his stomach I would know what is in his heart." He asked: "Then why don't you accept what he said and you don't know what he said? was in his heart?" 'Imran said, "Then Rasulullah sallallaahu 'alaihi wasallam silenced him. And not long afterward, that person died. So we buried him. In the morning (his body) was on the ground. They said, "Maybe an enemy deliberately took it out." So we buried him and then ordered our slaves to look after him, but (his body) was again above ground level. So we said, "Maybe the slaves are already sleepy." Then we took care of it ourselves but (the body) remained above ground level so we threw it in a gap between two hills." It has been told to us [Isma'il bin Hafsh Al Aili] has told us [Hafsh bin Ghiyats] from ['Ashim] from [As Sumaith] from ['Imran bin AL Hushain] he said, 'Rasulullah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam sent us on an expedition. Then there was a person from the Muslims attacking someone from the polytheists.... Then the narrator mentioned a hadith like the one above, and he added in his hadith, "But the earth threw him out (expelled him), then this incident was reported to the Prophet sallallaahu 'alaihi wasallam, so he said: "Indeed the earth accepts people who are worse than him, but Allah wants to show you glorification of the honor of the words Laa Ilaaha Illallah."

I asked Allah 'azza wajalla three things: that my ummah not be destroyed by famine, that they not be divided into factions tasting each other’s wrath, and it was said: When I decree, none can reverse it. I will not let famine destroy your ummah, nor gather enemies from all corners to annihilate them, but when the sword is drawn among my ummah, it will not be lifted until the Day of Resurrection. I fear for my ummah misleading leaders, tribes worshipping idols, joining polytheists, and nearly thirty lying Dajjals claiming prophethood. Yet, a group from my ummah will remain steadfast on truth, aided, unharmed by opposition, until Allah’s decree comes.' Narrated by [Muhammad bin Abdullah bin Numair], narrated by [Abu Mu'awiyah] and [my father] from [Al A'masy] from [Syaqiq] from [Hudzaifah], he said: We were sitting with Umar, and he asked: 'Who among you remembers the Hadith of Rasulullah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam about trials?' I said: 'I do.' He said: 'You are bold.' He asked: 'How so?' I said: I heard him say: 'A man’s trial from his wife, children, and neighbor is expiated by prayer, fasting, charity, enjoining good, and forbidding evil.' Umar said: 'Not that trial, but the one that surges like ocean waves.' I said: 'What concern is it to you, O Amirul Mukminin? Between you and it is a locked door.' He asked: 'Will it be broken or opened?' I said: 'Broken.' He said: 'Then it will never close.' We asked Hudzaifah: 'Did Umar know who the door was?' He said: 'Yes, as surely as he knows night follows day. I told him a Hadith without error.' We hesitated to ask who the door was, so we told Masruq: 'Ask him.' He answered: 'It is Umar.'

Narrated by [Abu Kuraib], narrated by [Abu Mu'awiyah], [Abdurrahman Al Muharibi], and [Waki'] from [Al A'masy] from [Zaid bin Wahb] from [Abdurrahman bin Abd Rabbil Ka'bah], he said: I passed by [Abdullah bin 'Amru bin Al 'Ash] sitting under the Ka’bah’s shade, with people gathered around. I heard him say: While we were with Rasulullah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam on a journey, he stopped at a place. Some of us pitched tents, some competed, and some wandered. His caller announced: 'Prayer in congregation.' We gathered, and Rasulullah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam stood, delivering a sermon: 'Every prophet before me was obliged to guide his people to what he knew was good and warn them of evil. Your ummah’s safety is in its early days, but its later ones will face calamity and objectionable matters. Trials will come, each making the next seem lighter, so a believer says: ‘This will destroy me,’ but it passes. Another comes, and he says: ‘This will destroy me,’ but it passes. Whoever wishes to be saved from the Fire and enter Paradise, let death find him believing in Allah and the Last Day, treating people as he wishes to be treated. Whoever pledges allegiance to a leader, giving his hand and heart, must obey him as able. If another disputes him, strike the latter’s neck.' I pushed through the crowd and said: 'I adjure you by Allah, did you hear this from Rasulullah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam?' He pointed to his ears and said: 'My ears heard it, and my heart understood it.'

A man will wake up a believer and become a disbeliever by evening, or be a believer in the evening and a disbeliever by morning. The one who sits during it is better than the one who stands, the one who stands is better than the one who walks, and the one who walks is better than the one who runs. Then he said: 'Shall I guide you to the gates of goodness? Fasting is a shield, charity extinguishes sins as water extinguishes fire, and a man's prayer in the depth of night.' Then he recited: 'Their sides forsake their beds...' until '...a reward for what they used to do' (Qs. As-Sajadah: 16-18). Then he said: 'Shall I tell you the head, pillar, and peak of the matter? It is jihad.' Then he said: 'Shall I tell you the key to it all?' I said, 'Yes.' He held his tongue and said: 'Restrain this.' I said, 'O Prophet of Allah, are we held accountable for what we say?' He said: 'May your mother be bereft of you, Mu'adz! What else casts people face-down into the Fire but the harvests of their tongues?'

He asked, 'What makes you weep?' [Mu'adz] replied, 'I weep because of something I heard from Rasulullah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam. I heard him say: Indeed the slightest showing-off (riya') is polytheism (shirk) and whoever opposes a friend of Allah has challenged Allah to battle. Indeed Allah loves the righteous pious and obscure (akhfiya') those who when absent are not missed and when present are not recognized. Their hearts are lamps of guidance (masabih al-huda) emerging from every dark and dusty place (ghabra' muzlima).'"

A man asked, 'O Rasulullah, can good bring evil?' Rasulullah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam paused, then said, 'What did you say?' He repeated, 'Can good bring evil?' Rasulullah said: 'Good only brings good. Indeed, everything the spring grows either kills with bloating (habatan) or nearly does, except the eater of greens (akilat al-khadr), which eats until its flanks are full, faces the sun, defecates, and eats again. Whoever takes wealth rightfully is blessed, but whoever takes it wrongfully is like one who eats but is never satisfied.'

A bold woman (jazlah) among them asked, 'O Rasulullah, why are we the majority in the fire?' He said: 'You curse often (tukthirna al-la'n) and betray your husbands (takfurna al-'ashir). I have not seen anyone with deficient intellect and religion (naqisat 'aql wa din) more overpowering to a sensible man than you.' She asked, 'O Rasulullah, what is the deficiency in intellect and religion?' He said: 'The deficiency in intellect is that the testimony of two women equals one man’s, and the deficiency in religion is that you stay days without praying and break your fast in Ramadan.'

Narrated by [Muhammad bin Basysyar] has told us [Abdurrahman bin Mahdi] has told us [Sufyan] from [Ali bin Badzimah] from [Abu 'Ubaidah] he said, "The Messenger of Allah sallallaahu 'alaihi wasallam said: "When there was a moral crisis in the midst of the Children of Israel, there was a man who saw his brother sinning, so he forbade him. But the next day he did not prevent him from what he saw from his brother so that he became a friend to eat, drink and hang out with. So Allah closed their hearts with some of the others, and the verse of the Qur'an regarding them came down, Allah said: '(The disbelievers from the Bani Israel were cursed with the words of David and 'Isa, son of Mary...)' until the verse '(If they had believed in Allah, in the Prophet (Moses) and in what was revealed to him (the Prophet), they would not have taken the polytheists as helpers, but most of them are wicked people)' (Qs. Al Maidah: 78-81). Abu 'Ubaidah said, "The Messenger of Allah sallallaahu 'alaihi wasallam at that time leaned back and sat down and said: "No, until you take from the hands of the wrongdoer, then you really put him on the right path." A man said, 'O Marwan, you have violated the Sunnah! You brought out the pulpit on this day when it was not done, and you started with the sermon before the prayer, which was not the practice.' Abu Sa'id said: 'This man has fulfilled his duty. I heard Rasulullah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam say: Whoever sees an evil and can change it with his hand, let him do so; if not, with his tongue; if not, with his heart, and that is the weakest of faith.'

Those who act rightly then will earn the reward of fifty men doing the same.'

So he asked: "O Jibril, what is this fragrant smell?" Jibril answered, "This is the odor of the graves of Masyithah, her two children and her husband." Jibril continued, "In the beginning, Khidlir was one of the noble people of the Children of Israel and he often passed by a monk who lived in a monastery. Every time he passed by the monk appeared before him, he taught him Islam. When Khidlir had reached puberty, his father married him to a woman, then Khidlir taught (Islam) to his wife. Then he asked his wife not to tell this teaching to anyone. Because Khidlir never approached a woman, so she refused, then his father remarried him to another woman, so Khidlir taught his new wife and asked her not to tell anyone about the teaching. It turned out that one of the two hid it and the other spread it. So he hurried away until he arrived at an island in the middle of the sea. And there two men who were looking for wood saw him, so one of them hid it while the other spread it saw it." He answered, "So and so." The man said again, "But he hid it. And the custom in their religion is that whoever lies will be killed." He said again, "So the man married a woman who could keep secrets, when he was combing Pharaoh's daughter, suddenly the comb fell, saying, "Woe to Pharaoh." So his daughter told her father. Meanwhile, the woman had two children and a husband. So Pharaoh sent a messenger to the woman and her husband to persuade them to return to their religion, but both of them refused, so the messenger said, "I will kill you both." Both said, "As a kindness from you to us, if you kill us you should put us in one house." When the Prophet sallallaahu 'alaihi wasallam was in Israel, he noticed a fragrant smell, so he asked Jibril and Jibril told him."

He said: 'Trustworthiness descended into the core of men’s hearts,'—At Thanafisi said, meaning the center of hearts—'and the Qur’an descended, so we learned from it and the Sunnah.' Then he spoke of its removal: 'A man sleeps, and trustworthiness is lifted from his heart, leaving a faint trace. He sleeps again, and it is removed, leaving a mark like a blister, as if you rolled an ember on your leg, causing a swelling with nothing inside.' Hudzaifah took a handful of pebbles and rolled them on his shin, saying, 'People will trade, but hardly anyone upholds trust, until it is said, In such-and-such tribe there is a trustworthy man and of a man, How clever how bold how charming yet his heart lacks a mustard seed’s worth of faith.' He added, 'A time came when I cared not whom I traded with; if a Muslim, his Islam ensured trust; if a Jew or Christian, their effort ensured it. But today, I only trust so-and-so.'

[Muhammad bin Abdullah bin Numair] has told us [My father] has told us [Isma'il bin Abu Khalid] from [Mujalid] from [As Sya'bi] from [Fatimah bint Qais] she said, "One day the Messenger of Allah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam prayed and then climbed the pulpit, even though he usually did not immediately climb the pulpit before that, except on Fridays. So that made the atmosphere seem serious for them. When that some were about to leave and others were still sitting, then he gestured with his hand to the people to sit back down. He said: "By Allah, I am sitting in my place not because there is something that is beneficial for all of you, to surprise you and worry you. But Tamim Ad Dari has come to me with news that prevented me from taking a nap, because of joy and happiness. Therefore, I want to spread to you the happiness of your Prophet. Know that the son of Tamim Ad Dari's uncle informed me that the wind had directed them towards an island they did not know. Then they sat in a small boat belonging to the main boat. Then they went out in the boat. Suddenly they came face to face with a figure with thick, black hair, then they said to the creature, 'Who are you? ' He replied, 'I am Al Jasasah.' They asked again, 'Tell us about yourself! ' He replied, 'Am I not the one who will inform you and also ask you about something, but there is a cave there and you have seen it briefly. So come, because there is a man there who is very longing to hear from you and he will also tell you.' Then they went to the cave and met the man in question. Suddenly they saw a man who was chained with strong bonds and appeared very sad. The person said to them, 'Where are you from? ' They replied, 'From the land of Syria.' He asked again, 'What have the Arabs done? ' They answered, 'We are a people from the Arab nation. So what do you want to ask? ' He said, 'What has a man sent from your neighborhood done? They answered, 'Well, he went against his people, so Allah won him over them. Now, all their affairs are the same (one), their god is one and their religion is one." The men in the cave asked, 'What does 'Ain Zaghar (the spring in the land of Syria) do?' They answered, 'The spring water is used to water their plants and quench their thirst.' He asked again, 'What was done to the tree between Amman and Baisan? ' They answered, 'The tree bears fruit every year.' He asked again, 'How is the At Thabariyah lake? ' they answered, '(the water) overflows to the sides because of the large amount of water and it blows out three times.' The man said, 'If I were free from my bonds, I would not leave a single land but I would stop by with my two feet, except Thayyibah, because I am unable to stop there.' The Prophet sallallaahu 'alaihi wasallam said: "Until here my joy ends. And this is a good (holy) land. By the One in Whose Hand my soul is, in it there is no narrow or wide road, plain or mountain but above it there are Angels who draw their swords until the Day of Judgment."

Narrated by [Hisyam bin 'Ammar], narrated by [Yahya bin Hamzah], narrated by [Abdurrahman bin Yazid bin Jabir], narrated by [Abdurrahman bin Jubair bin Nufair], narrated by [his father], that he heard [An Nawwas bin Sam'an Al Kilabi] say: One morning, the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) mentioned the Dajjal, lowering and raising his voice, making us think he was in the palm groves. When we approached him, he sensed our concern and asked, 'What is the matter with you?' We said, 'O Messenger of Allah, you mentioned the Dajjal this morning, lowering and raising your voice, so we thought he was in the palm groves.' He said, 'It is not the Dajjal I fear for you. If he appears while I am among you, I will shield you from him. If he appears when I am not, each must protect himself, and Allah is my successor over every Muslim. The Dajjal is a curly-haired youth with a protruding eye, resembling Abdul 'Uzza bin Qathan. Whoever encounters him should recite the opening of Surah Al-Kahf. He will emerge between Sham and Iraq, wreaking havoc right and left. O servants of Allah, remain steadfast.' We asked, 'O Messenger of Allah, how long will he stay on earth?' He replied, 'Forty days: one day like a year, one like a month, one like a week, and the rest like your days.' We asked, 'On the day like a year, will one day's prayers suffice?' He said, 'Estimate its measure.' We asked, 'How fast will he move on earth?' He said, 'Like a cloud driven by wind.' He continued, 'He will approach a people, call them, and they will believe and follow him. He will command the sky to rain, and it will rain; the earth to grow, and it will grow. Their livestock will return that evening, their humps high, udders full. He will approach another people, call them, but they will reject him, so he will leave them. They will wake impoverished, their wealth gone. He will tell the earth, Yield your treasure and its treasures will follow him like a swarm of bees. He will call a man, strike him with a sword, splitting him in two as far as a throw. Then he will call him, and the man's face will beam, laughing. At that moment, Allah will send Isa bin Maryam, descending at the white minaret in Damascus, wearing two garments, hands on two angels' shoulders. When he bows his head, pearls of sweat will fall. No disbeliever will survive his breath. Isa will seek the Dajjal, find him at the gate of Ludd, and kill him. Then Prophet Isa will approach a people protected by Allah, wipe their faces, and describe their ranks in Paradise. While in that state, Allah will reveal to Isa, I have released My servants no force can fight; take My servants to Mount Sinai." Allah will send Ya'juj and Ma'juj as Allah says: "Until the barrier of Ya'juj and Ma'juj is opened and they swarm from every height" (Al-Anbiya: 96). The first of them will pass Lake Tiberias drink it dry; others will pass and say "Once there was water here." Prophet Isa and his companions will find a cow's head dearer than a hundred dinars today. They will pray earnestly to Allah who will send worms to their necks killing them like one soul. Isa and his companions will find the earth filled with their stench. They will pray and Allah will send birds like camels' necks to cast them where He wills. Then Allah will send rain cleansing every house and tent until the earth shines like a mirror. The earth will be told "Bring forth your plants and blessings." That day a group will eat a pomegranate and shelter under its skin. Milk will be blessed; a pregnant camel will suffice a crowd a cow a tribe a goat a group. While in this state Allah will send a fragrant breeze taking every Muslim's soul. Only the wicked wild as donkeys will remain and the Hour will come upon them.'

Narrated by [Ali bin Muhammad], narrated by [Abdurrahman Al Muharibi], narrated by [Isma'il bin Rafi' Abu Rafi'] from [Abu Zur'ah As Saibani]—that is Yahya bin Abu 'Amru—from ['Amru bin Abdullah] from [Abu Umamah Al Bahili], he said: The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) delivered a sermon to us, often warning us about the Dajjal to make us cautious. Among his sermon, he said: 'Since Allah created Adam’s descendants, no trial has been greater than the Dajjal. Every Prophet sent by Allah warned his people about the Dajjal’s trial. I am the final Prophet, and you are the final nation, so the Dajjal will surely emerge among you. If he appears while I am among you, I will be every Muslim’s defender. If he appears after my death, each of you must protect yourselves, and Allah is my successor over every Muslim. He will emerge from a crevice between Sham and Iraq, causing ruin to his right and left. O servants of Allah, O people, remain steadfast, for I will describe his traits as no Prophet before me has. He will first claim, I am a Prophet though there is no Prophet after me. Then he will claim, I am your Lord but you cannot see Allah until you die. He has one eye, while Allah is not one-eyed. Between his eyes is written kafir readable by every Muslim, literate or not. Among his trials, he will have a paradise and a fire, but his fire is paradise, and his paradise is fire. Whoever faces his fire’s trial should seek Allah’s protection and recite the opening verses of Surah Al-Kahf. Another trial: he will say to an Arab, If I resurrect your parents will you testify I am your Lord?" The Arab will say "Yes." Satan will appear as his parents saying "O my son follow him; he is your Lord." Another trial: he will seize a man kill him and saw him in two. Then he will say "Look at my servant; I will resurrect him and he will claim another Lord." Allah will revive the man and the Dajjal will ask "Who is your Lord?" He will reply "My Lord is Allah and you are Allah’s enemy the Dajjal. By Allah I am now certain of your falsehood." [Abu Hasan Ath Thanafisi] said: Narrated by [Al Muharibi] narrated by ['Ubaidullah bin Al Walid Al Washafi] from ['Athiyah] from [Abu Sa'id] he said: The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: "That man is from my nation attaining the highest rank in Paradise." Abu Sa'id said: The Messenger (peace be upon him) said: "By Allah we thought he was Umar bin Khattab until he completed his affairs." Al Muharibi said returning to Abu Rafi’s narration: "Among his trials he will command the sky to rain and it will rain; the earth to grow and it will grow. He will pass a land whose people deny him and all their livestock will perish. He will pass a land whose people affirm him command the sky to rain and it will rain; the earth to grow and it will grow. Their livestock will be larger and fatter than ever with full udders. No land on earth will escape the Dajjal’s reach except Makkah and Madinah. He cannot enter them as every pass is guarded by angels with drawn swords. He will halt at a barren unworked place. Madinah will shake thrice expelling every hypocrite man or woman to join the Dajjal purifying Madinah like a bellows removes rust from iron. That day is called the Day of Purification." Ummu Syuraik binti Abu Al 'Akr said "O Messenger of Allah where are the Arabs then?" He replied "They will be few in Baitul Maqdis led by a righteous man. As their leader steps forward for Subh prayer Isa bin Maryam will descend. The leader will step back for Isa to lead but Isa will place his hands on his shoulders saying 'Lead the prayer; it was established for you.' The leader will lead them. After the prayer Isa will say 'Open the gate.' They will open it to find the Dajjal with seventy thousand Jews each with a drawn golden sword and green cloak. Seeing Isa the Dajjal will melt like salt in water flee and be caught by Isa at the eastern gate of Ludd where Isa will kill him. Allah will defeat the Jews; no creature they hide behind—stone tree wall or beast—will shield them except the Gharqad tree their tree which will not speak. Other creatures will say 'O Muslim servant of Allah here is a Jew; come and kill him.' The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: 'His days will be forty years: one year like half a year another like a month a month like a week and the rest like sparks of fire. One will be at Madinah’s gate in the morning and another by evening.' They asked 'O Messenger of Allah how do we pray on those short days?' He said 'Estimate your prayers as you do for long days then pray.' The Messenger (peace be upon him) said: 'Isa bin Maryam will be a just judge and wise leader among my nation breaking the cross killing pigs abolishing the jizyah and leaving charity. He will not seek zakat for camels or goats. Envy and hatred will vanish venom will be removed from creatures so a girl can touch a snake or lion without harm. Wolves will be among sheep like their dog. The world will be filled with peace like a vessel with water. Religion will be one with none worshipped but Allah. War will cease Quraysh will regain power and the earth will shine like a silver star sprouting as in Adam’s time. A group eating a grape or pomegranate will be satisfied. A cow will cost little a horse mere dirhams.' The companions asked 'O Messenger of Allah why are horses cheap?' He said 'They will never be used for war.' They asked 'Why are bulls costly?' He said 'They plow the entire earth. Three years before the Dajjal hardship will strike. In the first year Allah will withhold a third of the rain and crops. In the second two-thirds. In the third all rain and crops with no green plant or hoofed animal surviving except as Allah wills.' They asked 'How will people live then?' He said 'Tahlil takbir and tahmid will nourish them like food.' Abu Abdullah said: I heard [Abu Al Hasan Ath Thanafisi] say: I heard [Abdurrahman Al Muharibi] say 'This Hadith should be taught to teachers to instruct their students in books.'

Narrated by [Abu Kuraib], narrated by [Yunus bin Bukair], from [Muhammad bin Ishaq], narrated by ['Ashim bin Umar bin Qatadah], from [Mahmud bin Labid], from [Abu Sa'id Al Khudri], that Rasulullah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam said: “Ya’juj and Ma’juj will be released, coming as Allah says, ‘from every hill they descend’ (Al Anbiyaa: 96). They will overrun the earth. Muslims will retreat to their cities and fortresses, gathering their livestock. Passing a river, they will drink it dry. The last will pass, saying, ‘Once there was water here.’ They will dominate the earth, saying, ‘We’ve finished earth’s people; now we’ll challenge heaven’s.’ One will hurl a spear skyward, and it will return blood-stained. They’ll say, ‘We’ve killed heaven’s people.’ While thus, Allah will send locust-like creatures to seize their necks, killing them like locusts, piled atop each other. Muslims will wake, hearing no sound, and say, ‘Who will risk himself to see what they’ve done?’ A man will volunteer, expecting death, but find them dead. He will call, ‘Rejoice, your enemy is gone!’ People will emerge, releasing their livestock, grazing only on their flesh, thriving as on the best plants ever.”

Their leader says, ‘Return, you’ll dig tomorrow, insha’Allah.’ They add the exception and return to find it as they left it. They dig and emerge, drying up water. People take refuge in fortresses. They shoot arrows skyward, which return blood-stained. They say, ‘We’ve subdued earth’s people and surpassed heaven’s.’ Allah sends worms (naghaf) to their necks, killing them. They asked Ibrahim about it, but he had no knowledge. They asked Musa, but he had no knowledge. The matter came to Isa bin Maryam, who said, "I was informed of all but its exact time, which only Allah knows." He mentioned the Dajjal's emergence, saying, "I will descend and kill him. People will return to their lands, but Ya'juj and Ma'juj will meet them, descending from every hill. They will drink every water and ruin everything. People will cry to Allah, and I will pray to Allah to destroy them. The earth will stink from their corpses. People will cry again, and I will pray. Allah will send rain to carry them to the sea. Mountains will be leveled, the earth stretched like tanned leather. I was told when this happens, the Hour will be like a pregnant woman whose family knows not when she will deliver." Al 'Awam said, "Its truth is in Allah's Book: 'Until Ya'juj and Ma'juj are released, descending from every hill' (Al Anbiyaa: 96)."

Narrated by [Ahmad bin Muhammad bin Yahya bin Sa'id Al Qatthan], narrated by ['Amru bin Muhammad Al 'Anqazi], narrated by [Asbath bin Nashr] from [As Suddi] from [Abu Sa'd Al Azdi], a reciter of Azad, from [Abu Al Kanud] from [Khabbab] regarding Allah’s words: 'Wa la tatrud alladhina yad'una rabbahum bil-ghadati wal-'ashiyyi' to 'fatakuna min azh-zhalimin' (And do not drive away those who call upon their Lord morning and evening, seeking His face, until you become of the wrongdoers) (QS. Al-An'am: 52). Khabbab said: Al-Aqra' bin Habis At-Tamimi and 'Uyainah bin Hishn Al-Fazari came and found Rasulullah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam sitting with Suhaib, Bilal, 'Ammar, and Khabbab among the weak believers. Seeing them around the Prophet, they belittled them and said to him privately: 'We want you to hold a special assembly for us, so the Arabs recognize our superiority, as their delegations come to you, and we feel ashamed if they see us with these slaves. When we come, dismiss them, and sit with them afterward if you wish.' He replied: 'Yes.' They said: 'Write a contract for us.' He called for a sheet and asked Ali to write, while we sat aside. Then Jibril 'alaihi salam descended, saying: 'Wa la tatrud alladhina yad'una rabbahum bil-ghadati wal-'ashiyyi yuridu wajhah, ma 'alaika min hisabihim min syai’in wama min hisabika 'alaihim min syai’in fatatrudahum fatakuna min azh-zhalimin' (And do not drive away those who call upon their Lord morning and evening, seeking His face; you are not accountable for them, nor they for you, so driving them away makes you a wrongdoer) (QS. Al-An'am: 52). Jibril mentioned Al-Aqra' bin Habis and 'Uyainah bin Hishn, saying: 'Wa kadhalika fatanna ba'dhahum biba'dhin liyaqulu aha’ula manna Allahu 'alaihim min bainina, alaysa Allahu bi-a'lama bish-shakirin' (Thus We tested some by others, so they say: Are these the ones Allah favored among us? Does Allah not know best the grateful?) (QS. Al-An'am: 53). Then he said: 'Wa idha ja’aka alladhina yu’minuna bi-ayatina faqul salamun 'alaikum kataba rabbukum 'ala nafsihi ar-rahmah' (When those who believe in Our verses come to you, say: Peace be upon you; your Lord has decreed mercy upon Himself) (QS. Al-An'am: 54). Khabbab said: We approached him until our knees touched his, and Rasulullah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam sat with us. When he intended to leave, Allah revealed: 'Wasbir nafsaka ma’a alladhina yad'una rabbahum bil-ghadati wal-'ashiyyi yuridu wajhah wala ta’du 'aynaka 'anhum' (And keep yourself patient with those who call upon their Lord morning and evening, seeking His face, and let not your eyes pass beyond them) (QS. Al-Kahf: 28), meaning do not sit with the elites, 'turidu zinatal hayati ad-dunya wala tuthi’ man aghfalna qalbahu 'an dhikrina' (seeking worldly adornments, and do not obey those whose hearts We made heedless of Our remembrance), meaning 'Uyainah and Al-Aqra', 'wattaba’a hawahu wakana amruhu furuthan' (and followed their desires, their affairs in ruin) (QS. Al-Kahf: 28). Khabbab said: Their affairs mean ruin. He likened them to two men and worldly life. Khabbab said: We sat with the Prophet shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam, and when the time came for him to rise, we stood and left before he did.

Insha Allah, we will join you.' Then he said: 'I wish we could see our brothers.' They said: 'O Rasulullah, are we not your brothers?' He replied: 'You are my companions; my brothers are those who come after me, and I await them at the basin.' They asked: 'O Rasulullah, how will you know those of your ummah you have not seen?' He said: 'If a man has white-faced, white-footed horses among dark ones, would he not recognize them?' They said: 'Yes.' He said: 'They will come on the Day of Resurrection with radiant faces, hands, and feet from wudhu’s traces. I await them at the basin.' Then he said: 'Some men will be driven from my basin as stray camels are driven away. I will call: Come here!" But it will be said: "They changed after you and kept turning back." So I will say: "Away away!"'

Narrated by [Nashr bin Ali], narrated by [Khalid bin Al Harits], narrated by [Sa'id], from [Qatadah], from [Anas bin Malik], that the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said, 'On the Day of Resurrection, the believers will gather, inspired—or inclined, Sa'id was unsure—and say, If only we sought syafa'at from our Lord to relieve us from this place." They approach Adam (peace be upon him) saying "You are Adam father of humanity created by Allah’s hands with angels prostrating to you. Seek syafa'at for us with your Lord to move us from here." He says "I am not the one mentioning his sin, feeling ashamed, and says, Go to Nuh the first messenger sent to earth." They approach Nuh who says "I am not the one recalling his request to his Lord without knowledge, feeling ashamed, and says, Go to Ibrahim the beloved of Ar Rahman." They approach Ibrahim who says "I am not the one but go to Musa a servant spoken to by Allah and given the Torah." They approach Musa who says "I am not the one mentioning his killing of a soul unjustly, and says, Go to Isa Allah’s servant messenger word and spirit." They approach Isa who says "I am not the one but go to Muhammad a servant whose past and future sins Allah forgave." He said "So they come to me and I proceed." The narrator said "He mentioned this from Al Hasan saying ‘I walk among rows of believers.’" Returning to Anas’s hadith he said "I seek permission from my Lord and it is granted. Seeing Him I fall in prostration and He leaves me as He wills. Then it is said ‘Rise O Muhammad speak and you will be heard; ask and you will be given; seek syafa'at and it will be granted.’ I praise Him with praises He teaches me then seek syafa'at. He sets a limit and I admit them to paradise. I return a second time see my Lord and fall in prostration. He leaves me as He wills then says ‘Rise O Muhammad speak and you will be heard; ask and you will be given; seek syafa'at and it will be granted.’ I raise my head praise Him with praises He teaches me seek syafa'at and He sets a limit admitting them to paradise. I return a third time see my Lord fall in prostration and He leaves me as He wills. Then it is said ‘Rise O Muhammad speak and you will be heard; ask and you will be given; seek syafa'at and it will be granted.’ I raise my head praise Him with praises He teaches me seek syafa'at and He sets a limit admitting them to paradise. Narrated by [Hisyam bin 'Ammar], narrated by [Abdul Hamid bin Habib bin Abu Al 'Iysrin], narrated by [Abdurrahman bin 'Amru Al Auza'i], narrated by [Hasan bin 'Athiyah], narrated by [Sa'id bin Al Musayyab], that he met Abu Hurairah, who said: I ask Allah to unite me and you in the market of Paradise. Sa'id said: Is there a market in it? He said: Yes, Rasulullah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam informed me that when the people of Paradise enter it, they settle according to their deeds. They are permitted, on a day equivalent to Friday in the world, to visit Allah 'azza wajalla. He shows them His Throne and appears to them in a garden of Paradise. Pulpits of light, pearl, ruby, peridot, gold, and silver are set for them. The lowest among them—none are lowly—sit on mounds of musk and camphor, not thinking the chair-holders have a better seat. Abu Hurairah said: I asked, 'O Rasulullah, will we see our Lord?' He said: 'Yes. Do you dispute seeing the sun or moon on a full night?' We said: 'No.' He said: 'Likewise, you will not dispute seeing your Lord 'azza wajalla.' In that gathering, none remain but Allah converses with them, saying to one: 'O so-and-so, do you not recall when you did such-and-such?' reminding him of his worldly misdeeds. He says: 'O Lord, have You not forgiven me?' Allah says: 'Yes, by the vastness of My forgiveness, you reached this station.' While they are thus, a cloud covers them, raining a fragrance they never smelled before. Then He says: 'Arise to the honor I prepared for you and take what you desire.' We come to a market surrounded by angels, with things no eyes have seen, no ears have heard, and no hearts have conceived. What we desire is brought to us; nothing is sold or bought there. In that market, the people of Paradise meet each other. A man of high rank meets one below him—none are lowly—and is awed by his attire. Before their talk ends, a better attire appears for him, for none should grieve in Paradise. Then we return to our homes, and our spouses greet us, saying: 'Welcome! You return with greater beauty and fragrance than when you left.' We say: 'Today we sat with our Lord, Al Jabbar 'azza wajalla, and it is fitting we return as such.'

Narrated by [Hisyam bin Khalid Al Azraq Abu Marwan Ad Dimasyqi], narrated by [Khalid bin Yazid bin Abu Malik] from [his father] from [Khalid bin Ma'dan] from [Abu Umamah], he said: Rasulullah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam said: No one whom Allah admits to Paradise but He marries him to seventy-two wives: two from the houris and seventy from the inheritance of the people of the Fire. None of them lacks a desirable front, and he has a member that never weakens. Hisyam bin Khalid said: The inheritance of the people of the Fire means men who entered the Fire, and the people of Paradise inherit their wives, as Pharaoh’s wife was inherited.
