Narrated by Muhammad ibn Rumh ibn Al-Muhajir Al-Misri, from Al-Layth ibn Sa'd, from Ibn Shihab, from 'Urwah ibn Az-Zubayr, that Abdullah ibn Az-Zubayr told him: A man from the Ansar disputed with Az-Zubayr before the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) about the irrigation channels used for palm trees. The Ansari said, 'Let the water flow,' but Az-Zubayr refused. They argued before the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him), who said, 'Irrigate, O Zubayr, then let the water flow to your neighbor.' The Ansari became angry and said, 'O Messenger of Allah, is it because he is your cousin?' The face of the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) changed, then he said, 'O Zubayr, irrigate, then hold the water until it reaches the wall.' Zubayr said, 'By Allah, I believe this verse was revealed about this: By your Lord they do not truly believe until they make you judge in their disputes then find no resistance in their hearts to your decision and submit fully.'"

He noticed people who were buying and selling gold pieces for dinars and silver pieces for dirhams. Then he exclaimed; "O people, indeed you have consumed usury, I have heard the Messenger of Allah sallallaahu 'alaihi wasallam say: "Do not sell gold for gold unless it is equal, there is no excess and there is no delay between the two." Mu'awiyah said to him; "O Abul Walid I do not see usury in this transaction, except in its suspension! " Ubadah replied; "I conveyed to you the hadith from the Messenger of Allah sallallaahu 'alaihi wasallam, but you think with your own views. Indeed, if Allah takes me out, then I will not stay in your territory even though I am under your orders." When he returned to Medina he met Umar bin Khaththab, then Umar said to him, "O Abul Walid, what made you come here? Then he told the story to Umar, and he did not tell him about where he lived. Umar said: "O Abul Walid, go back to your country. Indeed, Allah will make a country despised without your existence and people like you." Then Umar wrote a letter to Mu'awiyah; "You have no right to order him, and invite people to follow what he says, because he is above the truth."

The best speech is the speech of Allah, and the best guidance is that of Muhammad. Beware of newly invented matters, for the worst matters are those newly invented. Every innovation is a misdeed, and every misdeed is misguidance. Do not let long hopes harden your hearts. What is to come is near, and what is far is what will not come. The wretched is he who was wretched in his mother’s womb, and the fortunate is he who learns from others. Killing a Muslim is disbelief, and cursing him is wickedness. It is not lawful for a Muslim to shun his brother beyond three days. Beware of lying, for lying is not right, whether serious or in jest. A man should not promise a child and fail to fulfill it. Lying leads to wickedness, and wickedness leads to the Fire. Truthfulness leads to righteousness, and righteousness leads to Paradise. It is said of the truthful: he is true and righteous; and of the liar: he has lied and sinned. A servant who lies will be recorded with Allah as a liar.'

He said: "Those who believe say: 'O our Lord, our brothers used to pray with us, fast with us, and perform the Hajj with us, but why have You put them in hell!' Allah says: 'Go and take out those you know from them.' So they came to him and recognized them by their forms, their forms were not consumed by the fire. One of them was consumed by fire up to part of both of his calves. And some had been consumed by fire up to their ankles. So they took it out. Then they cried out; 'Our Lord, we have brought out those whom You have commanded us.' Then He said: 'Bring out the person in whose heart there is faith worth one dinar. Then there is the person in whose heart there is faith weighing half a dinar. Then there is the person in whose heart there is faith as heavy as a mustard seed.' Abu Sa'id said: "Whoever does not believe this, then let him read: "Indeed, Allah does not wrong anyone even if it is the size of a particle, and if there is a virtue as large as a particle, Allah will surely multiply it and give from His side a great reward."

Narrated to us by Ali bin Muhammad, he said, narrated to us by Waki' from Kahmas bin Al Hasan, from Abdullah bin Buraidah, from Yahya bin Ya'mar, from Ibn Umar, from Umar, he said: We were sitting with the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) when a man came, with very white clothes and very black hair, showing no signs of travel, and none of us knew him. He sat beside the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him), placing his knees against the Prophet's knees and his hands on his thighs, then said, 'O Muhammad, what is Islam?' He replied, 'To testify that there is no god but Allah and I am His Messenger, to establish prayer, give zakat, fast in Ramadan, and perform Hajj to the House.' The man said, 'You are right.' We were amazed that he asked and confirmed it. Then he asked, 'O Muhammad, what is Iman?' He replied, 'To believe in Allah, His angels, His messengers, His books, the Last Day, and Qadar, both its good and bad.' The man said, 'You are right.' We were amazed again. Then he asked, 'O Muhammad, what is Ihsan?' He replied, 'To worship Allah as if you see Him, for if you do not see Him, He sees you.' He asked, 'When is the Hour?' He replied, 'The one asked knows no more than the questioner.' He asked, 'What are its signs?' He replied, 'When a slave woman gives birth to her master,'—Waki' said, meaning non-Arabs give birth to Arabs—'and you see barefoot, bare-chested, destitute shepherds competing in building.' Umar said, 'Three days later, the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) met me and said, 'Do you know who that man was?' I said, 'Allah and His Messenger know best.' He said, 'That was Jibril, who came to teach you the essentials of your religion.''

Narrated to us by Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah, he said, narrated to us by Isma'il bin 'Ulaiyah, from Abu Hayyan, from Abu Zur'ah, from Abu Hurairah, he said: One day, while the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) was among the Muslims, a man came and asked, 'O Messenger of Allah, what is Iman?' He replied, 'To believe in Allah, His angels, His books, His messengers, His meeting, and the resurrection on the Last Day.' He asked, 'O Messenger of Allah, what is Islam?' He replied, 'To worship Allah without associating anything with Him, perform the prescribed prayers, pay the obligatory zakat, and fast in Ramadan.' He asked, 'O Messenger of Allah, what is Ihsan?' He replied, 'To worship Allah as if you see Him, for if you do not see Him, He sees you.' He asked, 'O Messenger of Allah, when is the Hour?' He replied, 'The one asked knows no more than the questioner, but I will tell you its signs: when a slave woman gives birth to her master, that is one of its signs; when shepherds compete in building, that is one of its signs. In five matters, none knows them but Allah.' Then the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) recited: 'Indeed, with Allah alone is the knowledge of the Hour; He sends down the rain, knows what is in the wombs, and no soul knows what it will earn tomorrow, nor in which land it will die. Indeed, Allah is All-Knowing, All-Aware.'

And by another chain: Narrated to us by Ali bin Maimun Ar Raqqi, he said, narrated to us by Abu Mu'awiyah and Muhammad bin Ubaid, from Al A'masy, from Zaid bin Wahhab, he said: Abdullah bin Mas'ud said: The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him), the truthful and trusted, narrated to us: 'The creation of each of you is gathered in his mother's womb for forty days, then becomes a clot of blood for the same period, then a lump of flesh for the same period. Then Allah sends an angel to it, who is commanded with four words, saying: "Write his deeds, his lifespan, his provision, and whether he is wretched or blessed." By the One in Whose Hand is my soul, one of you may perform the deeds of the people of Paradise until there is but an arm's length between him and it, yet the decree overtakes him, and he performs the deeds of the people of Hell and enters it. And one of you may perform the deeds of the people of Hell until there is but an arm's length between him and it, yet the decree overtakes him, and he performs the deeds of the people of Paradise and enters it.'

Narrated to us by Ali bin Muhammad, he said, narrated to us by Ishaq bin Sulaiman, he said: I heard Abu Sinan, from Wahb bin Khalid Al Himshi, from Ibn Ad Dailami, he said: Something about Qadar troubled my heart, and I feared it would ruin my religion and affairs, so I went to Ubai bin Ka’ab and said, 'O Abul Mundzir, something about Qadar troubles my heart, and I fear for my religion and affairs. Tell me something about it that Allah may benefit me with.' He said, 'If Allah were to punish the inhabitants of His heavens and earth, He would do so without wronging them. If He were to show them mercy, His mercy would be better than their deeds. If you had gold the size of Mount Uhud and spent it in Allah’s way, it would not be accepted until you believe in Qadar, knowing that what befalls you was not meant to miss you, and what misses you was not meant to befall you. If you die believing otherwise, you will enter the Fire. There is no harm in asking my brother, Abdullah bin Mas’ud.' So I went to Abdullah and asked him, and he said the same as Ubai, and told me, 'There is no harm in asking Hudzaifah.' So I went to Hudzaifah and asked him, and he said the same as they did and told me, 'Go to Zaid bin Tsabit and ask him.' So I went to Zaid bin Tsabit and asked him, and he said, 'I heard the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) say: “If Allah were to punish the inhabitants of His heavens and earth, He would do so without wronging them. If He were to show them mercy, His mercy would be better than their deeds. If you had gold the size of Mount Uhud and spent it in Allah’s way, it would not be accepted until you believe in Qadar, knowing that what befalls you was not meant to miss you, and what misses you was not meant to befall you. If you die believing otherwise, you will enter the Fire.”'

Narrated to us by Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah and Ali bin Muhammad Ath Thanafusi, both said, narrated to us by Abdullah bin Idris, from Rabi'ah bin Utsman, from Muhammad bin Yahya bin Hibban, from Al A'raj, from Abu Hurairah, he said: The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) said, 'A strong believer is better and more beloved to Allah than a weak believer, yet both have goodness. Strive for what benefits you, seek Allah's help, and do not be helpless. If a calamity befalls you, do not say, "If only I had done such and such," but say, "Qaddar Allahu wa ma sha'a fa'ala (Allah has decreed, and what He wills, He does)." For "if only" opens the door to Satan's work.'

I said, "O Messenger of Allah, blessed is this one, a little bird among the birds of Paradise, who did no evil nor reached it." He replied, "Or is it otherwise, O Aisyah? He invoked mercy upon Umar and said, 'I have not left behind anyone whose deeds I would prefer to meet Allah with than yours. By Allah, I was certain Allah would place you with your two companions, for I often heard the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) say, "I went with Abu Bakr and Umar, I entered with Abu Bakr and Umar, I left with Abu Bakr and Umar." He said: "Allah never spoke to someone except from behind the hijab, while He spoke to your father face to face, He then said: 'O My Servant, ask Me, I will surely give you,' he answered; 'O Rabb, bring me back to life so that I may be killed in Your way a second time.' Allah said: 'Indeed it has passed from Me that they will not return there again,' he said; 'O Rabb, then tell those who are behind me.'" He said: "Then Allah Ta'ala revealed: "Do not think that those who fall in the way of Allah are dead; In fact, they live by their Lord's side by getting sustenance."

Has told us [Ya'qub bin Humaid bin Kasib] said, has told us [Sufyan bin 'Uyainah] from ['Amru bin Dinar] from [Ikrimah] from [Abu Hurairah] The Prophet sallallaahu 'alaihi wasallam, he said: "When Allah decrees a matter in the sky then the angels flap their wings in submission to His word, like a chain on a large rock. If the heart they have become stable, they say; 'What does our Rabb say? ' they answer; 'Al Haq, and He is Most High, Most Great.' The news-stealing jinn listen to it, (they line up) some on top of others. They overhear the sentence and then pass it on to those below them. It could be that the jinn are struck by a star before passing it on to those below them, then they pass it on to the tongue of a sorcerer or witch doctor. It could be that they are not struck by a star so they can convey it, then mix it with a hundred lies. Then the sentence they hear could match the one from the sky.

When Maghrib time came, he stood, performed ablution, prayed, and returned. I asked: May Allah grant you good, is ablution for every prayer obligatory or recommended? He said: Did you notice me and this action of mine? I said: Yes. He said: No, if I performed ablution for Subh, I would pray all prayers with it unless I broke it. But I heard the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) say: Whoever performs ablution while pure gains ten good deeds, and I desired those good deeds.

Narrated by Hautsarah bin Muhammad and Muhammad bin Sa’id bin Yazid bin Ibrahim, both said: Mu’adz bin Hisham narrated to us, my father narrated to us from Qatadah from Abu Harb bin Abul Aswad Ad-Dili from his father from Ali, who said: The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) said regarding the urine of an infant: The urine of a male infant is sprinkled, while the urine of a female infant is washed. Abu Al-Hasan bin Salamah said: Ahmad bin Musa bin Ma'qil narrated to us, Abu Al-Yamani Al-Mishri narrated to us, who said: I asked Ash-Shafi'i about the Prophet's hadith: The urine of a male infant is sprinkled, and the urine of a female infant is washed, though both urines are the same. He said: Because the urine of a male comes from water and clay, while the urine of a female comes from flesh and blood. Then he said to me: Do you understand? I said: No. He said: When Allah created Adam, He created Eve from his short rib, so the urine of a male is from water and clay, and the urine of a female is from flesh and blood. He said: Do you understand? I said: Yes. He said: May Allah benefit you with it.

The Prophet, first to wake, was startled and said, 'O Bilal!' Bilal replied, 'O Messenger of Allah, may my parents be sacrificed for you, the One who took my soul took yours.' The Prophet said, 'Lead on.' They led their mounts a little, then he performed wudhu and ordered Bilal to call the iqamah. He led them in Subh. After finishing, he said, 'Whoever forgets a prayer should pray it when he remembers, for Allah says, Establish prayer for My remembrance."'"

It has been told to us [Abu Ubaid Muhammad bin Ubaid bin Maimun Al Madani] said, has told us [Muhammad bin Salamah Al Harrani] said, has told us [Muhammad bin Ishaq] said, has told us [Muhammad bin Ibrahim At Taimi] from [Muhammad bin Abdullah bin Zaid] from [his father] he said; "In the beginning the Messenger of Allah shallallahu'alaihi wasallam wanted that (the call to prayer) use a trumpet, and he ordered his companions to beat the gong. Then Abdullah bin Zaid had a dream. He said; "I saw a man wearing two green cloths carrying a gong. Then I asked; "O servant of Allah, do you sell this gong?" He asked; "What do you need with the gong?" "I will use it for the call to prayer" I replied. He then said; "Shall I show you something better than that?" I replied; "What is that?" He replied; "Say; 'ALLAHU AKBAR ALLAHU AKBAR, ALLAHU AKBAR ALLAHU AKBAR - ASYHADU AN LAA ILAAHA ILLALLAH, ASYHADU AN LAA ILAAHA ILLALLAH - ASYHADU ANNA MUHAMMADAN RASULULLAH, ASYHADU ANNA MUHAMMADAN RASULULLAH - HAYYA 'ALASH SALAAH. He said; Then Abdullah bin Zaid came to Rasulullah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam and told him about his dream, he said; "O Messenger of Allah, I saw a person wearing two green cloths carrying a kettle," then he told him the news of his dream. Then Rasulullah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam said: "Indeed your friends have had a dream, come out to the mosque together Bilal, tell Bilal and let him be the one who calls it out, because his voice is louder than yours." Abdullah bin Zaid said; "So I went out with Bilal to the mosque, I told him my dream until he called it out. And Umar Ibnul Khaththab heard the sound until he came to the Messenger of Allah and said; "O Messenger of Allah, by Allah I also dreamed as he dreamed! " Abu Ubaid said; "Abu Bakr Al Hakami informed me that Abdullah bin Zaid Al Anshari said regarding the dream; "I praise Allah, the Owner of Greatness and Glory."

Narrated by Muhammad bin Khalid bin Abdullah Al Wasithi, from his father, from Abdurrahman bin Ishaq, from Az Zuhri, from Salim, from his father, who said: The Prophet shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam consulted the people about what would summon them to prayer. They mentioned a trumpet, but he disliked it because it resembled the Jews. Then they mentioned a bell, but he disliked it because it resembled the Christians. That night, an Ansari named Abdullah bin Zaid and Umar bin Al Khattab dreamt of the adhan. The Ansari came to the Prophet at night, and he ordered Bilal to call the adhan. Az Zuhri said: Bilal added in the morning adhan, 'ASH SHALAATU KHAIRUM MINANNAUM,' and the Prophet approved it. Umar said, 'O Messenger of Allah, I saw the same, but he preceded me.'

It has been told to us that [Muhammad bin Bashysar] and [Muhammad bin Yahya] both said; has told us [Abu 'Ashim] said, has told us [Ibnu Juraij] said, has told me [Abdul Aziz bin Abdul Malik bin Abu Mahdzurah] of [Abdullah bin Muhairiz] - an orphan who was in the care of Abu Mahdzurah bin Mi'yar - when he was going to send him to Syria, then I said to [Abu Mahdzurah]; "O uncle, I'm going out to Syria, and I want to ask how you do the call to prayer?" then he informed me that Abu Mahdzurah said; "I went out with several people, so when in the middle of the journey the mu`adzin, Rasulullah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam, gave the call to prayer for prayer at the side of the Messenger of Allah, sallallaahu 'alaihi wasallam, we heard the voice of the mu`adzin, and we walked away, shouting, telling stories and making fun of him. Then the Messenger of Allah, sallallaahu 'alaihi wasallam, heard this until he sent several people to us, then they sat us down in front of him, he said. said: "Are you the people I heard raising their voices?! " So everyone pointed at me and confirmed. Then he let them all go and held me, after that he said to me: "Get up and call to prayer." So I got up, there was nothing I hated except the Messenger of Allah sallallaahu 'alaihi wasallam and what he ordered me. Then I stood in front of the Messenger of Allah sallallaahu 'alaihi wasallam, and he himself taught me the words of the call to prayer. He said: "Say; ALLAHU AKBAR ALLAHU AKBAR ALLAHU AKBAR ALLAHU AKBAR (Allah is Great. Allah is Great. Allah is Great. Allah is Great). ASYHADU AN LAA ILAAHA ILLALLAH. ASYHADU AN LAA ILAAHA ILLALLAH (I bear witness that there is no god worthy of worship except Allah. I bear witness that there is no god worthy of worship except Allah). ASYHADU ANNA MUHAMMADAN RASULULLAH. ASYHADU ANNA MUHAMMADAN RASULULLAH (I bear witness that Muhammad is the messenger of Allah. I bear witness that Muhammad is the messenger of Allah)." Then he said to me: "Loudenly say your voice when you say; ASYHADU AN LAA ILAAHA ILLALLAH. ASYHADU AN LAA ILAAHA ILLALLAH (I bear witness that there is no god worthy of worship except Allah. I bear witness that there is no god worthy of worship except Allah). ASYHADU ANNA MUHAMMADAN RASULULLAH. ASYHADU ANNA MUHAMMADAN RASULULLAH (I bear witness that Muhammad is the messenger of Allah. I bear witness that Muhammad is the messenger of Allah). HAYYA 'ALASH SHALAH. HAYYA 'ALASH SHALAH (Come to prayer. Come to prayer). HAYYA 'ALAL FALAH. HAYYA 'ALAL FALAH (Come to victory. Come to victory). ALLAHU AKBAR ALLAHU AKBAR (Allah is Great. Allah is Great). LAA ILAAHA ILLALLAH (There is no god worthy of worship except Allah)." After I said the call to prayer, he called me. He gave me a package containing silver, then placed his hand on Abu Mahdzurah's crown, passed it in front of his face, then on both breasts up to his heart. The Prophet's hand even reached Abu Mahdzurah's navel, after which he said: "May Allah give you blessings in times of joy and sorrow." So I said: "O Messenger of Allah, did you order me to call to prayer in Makkah?" He said; the person who met Abu Mahzurah had told me that, as was the news that Abdullah bin Muhairiz had conveyed to me.

By my life, if you pray at home, you abandon your Nabi’s sunnah, leading to misguidance. We saw none skip congregational prayer except known hypocrites. I saw a man supported between two to join the prayer row. Whoever purifies well and goes to the masjid for prayer, each step raises his rank and erases a sin.'

They are easy, yet few do them: glorify Allah ten times, praise Him ten times, and magnify Him ten times after every prayer.' I saw the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) counting them with his hand. That is one hundred fifty on the tongue and one thousand five hundred in the scale. When he goes to bed, he glorifies, praises, and magnifies Allah one hundred times; that is one hundred on the tongue and one thousand in the scale. Who among you commits two thousand five hundred sins in a day? They said, 'How do we not maintain them?' He replied, 'Satan comes to one of you during prayer, saying, Remember this or that until the servant forgets. He comes to him at bedtime, lulling him until he falls asleep.'

It has been told to us [Muhammad bin Rumh] said, it has been reported to us [Al Laits bin Sa'd] from [Abu Az Zubair] from [Jabir] he said, "Mu'adz bin Jabal Al Ansari performed the Isha prayer with his companions, he extended the prayer until a man from us came out and prayed alone. Mu'adz was given news about that man until he said, "He is a hypocrite. " When Mu'adz's words reached the man, he went to Rasulullah sallallaahu 'alaihi wasallam and reported what Mu'adz had said. Then the Prophet sallallaahu 'alaihi wasallam said: "O Mu'adz, are you going to create slander! If you pray with people then read: WASY SYAMSI WA DLUHAHA, SABBIHISMA RABBIKAL A'LA and WAL LAILI IDZA YAGHSYA. Read BISMI RABBIKA. "

Narrated to us [Muhammad bin Basysyar], narrated to us [Abu Ashim], narrated to us [Abdul Hamid bin Ja'far], narrated to us [Muhammad bin Amru bin 'Atho'], he said: I heard [Abu Humaid As Sa'idi] among ten companions of Rasulullah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam, including [Abu Qatadah], he said: I know best how Rasulullah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam prayed. They said: How so? By Allah, you weren't the most frequent follower or the earliest companion. He said: Indeed. They said: Explain. He said: When Rasulullah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam stood for prayer, he said takbir, raised his hands to his shoulders, each limb settled in place, then recited. He said takbir, raised his hands to his shoulders, then bowed, placing his palms on his knees, steady, not raising or lowering his head, balanced. Then he said: Sami'a Allahu liman hamidahu, raised his hands to his shoulders until each bone settled, then prostrated, keeping his arms from his sides. He raised his head, folded his left leg, sat on it, spread his toes toward the qibla in prostration, then prostrated again, said takbir, sat on his left leg until each bone settled. He stood and did the same in the next rak'ah. After two rak'ahs, he raised his hands to his shoulders as at the prayer's start, continuing thus. At the final prostration before salam, he moved one leg back, sat on his left side in tawarruk. They said: You're right, that's how Rasulullah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam prayed.

He stood facing the qibla, said takbir, raised his hands to his shoulders, then bowed, placing his hands on his knees, keeping his arms from his sides. He raised his head, straightened his back, stood longer than you do, then prostrated, placing his hands toward the qibla, keeping his arms from his sides as I saw. He raised his head, sat on his left foot, raised his right, and disliked leaning to the left.

[Sa'id Ibnul Musayyab] from [Jabir bin Abdullah], he said: Rasulullah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam delivered a sermon to us, saying: O people, repent to Allah before you die, hasten to righteous deeds before you are preoccupied, and connect with your Lord by abundant remembrance of Him and giving charity secretly and openly. You will be provided for, helped, and sufficed. Know that Allah has prescribed Friday prayer at this place, on this day, in this month, in this year of mine until the Day of Resurrection. Whoever abandons it during my life or after, with a just or unjust leader, belittling or denying it, Allah will not unite him nor bless his affairs. Know, he has no prayer, no zakat, no Hajj, no fasting, no righteousness until he repents. Whoever repents, Allah accepts his repentance. Know, a woman must not lead men, a Bedouin must not lead a Muhajir, nor a wicked person lead a believer, except if he compels with authority, fearing his sword or whip.

When I took him to Friday prayer and he heard the adhan, he sought forgiveness and prayed for Abu Umamah As'ad bin Zurarah. I listened to this for a while, then thought to myself: By Allah, this is weakness; every time he hears the Friday adhan, he seeks forgiveness for Abu Umamah, yet I never asked why. I took him to Friday prayer as usual, and when he heard the adhan, he sought forgiveness as he did. I said: Father, why do you pray for As'ad bin Zurarah every time you hear the Friday adhan? He said: My son, he was the first to lead us in Friday prayer before Rasulullah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam arrived from Makkah, at Naqi' Al Khadlamat in the lowlands of Bani Bayadlah. I asked: How many were you then? He said: Forty men.

It has five qualities: Allah created Adam on it, descended Adam to earth on it, took Adam’s soul on it, has an hour where a servant’s request is granted unless it’s forbidden, and the Hour will come on it. No close angel, sky, earth, wind, mountain, or sea but fears Friday.

Has told us [Nashr bin Ali Al Jahdlami] said, has told us [Abdullah bin Dawud] - in his book which is in his house - said, has told us [Salamah bin Nubaith] from [Nu'aim bin Abu

Hindun] from [Nubaith bin Syarith] from [Salim bin Ubaid] he said, "When he was sick the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) fainted and then woke up, he asked: "Is it time for prayer?" The companions answered, "Yes," he said: "Order Bilal to give the call to prayer, and order Abu Bakr to lead the people. " Then he fainted and regained consciousness, he then asked: "Is it time for prayer?" the companions answered: "Yes," he said: "Order Bilal to give the call to prayer, and order Abu Bakr to lead the people. " Then he fainted and regained consciousness, he then asked: "Is it time for prayer?" the companions answered: "Yes," he said: "Order Bilal to give the call to prayer, and order Abu Bakr to lead the people. "'Aishah then said, "Indeed, my father is a man who is soft-hearted, if he occupied that position, he would cry and not be able to (read), try to order someone else." Then he fainted and regained consciousness, he said: "Order Bilal to give the call to prayer, and order Abu Bakr to lead the people. Indeed, you are Yusuf's friends or Yusuf's female friends. " Salim bin Ubaid said, "Bilal was ordered to call to prayer, and Abu Bakr was also ordered to lead the people. After that, Rasulullah sallallaahu 'alaihi wasallam felt better, he said: "Look at me, who can I rely on?" Then came Barirah and another man, then he leaned on both of them. When Abu Bakr saw him, he moved back, but he beckoned to him; stay where you are. "Then Rasulullah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam came and sat beside Abu Bakr, until Abu Bakr finished his prayer. After that Rasulullah shallallahu 'alaihi wasallam died." Abu Abdullah said: "This hadith is gharib, and no one narrated it except Nasr bin Ali."

السُّنَّةُ قَالَ فَمَاتَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي مَرَضِهِ ذَلِكَ

Narrated by Ali bin Muhammad, from Waki', from Isra'il, from Abu Ishaq, from Al-Arqam Abu Isa Syurahbil, from Ibnu Abbas: When the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) was ill with the sickness that caused his death, at Aisyah's house, he said, 'Call Ali for me.' Aisyah said, 'Shall we call Abu Bakr?' He said, 'Call him.' Hafshah said, 'Shall we call Umar?' He said, 'Call him.' Ummu Al-Fadl said, 'Shall we call Al-Abbas?' He said, 'Yes.' When they gathered, the Prophet looked at them and was silent. Umar said, 'Stand for the Messenger of Allah.' Bilal came to inform him of the prayer time. He said, 'Order Abu Bakr to lead the people in prayer.' Aisyah said, 'O Messenger of Allah, Abu Bakr is soft-hearted; if he cannot see you, he will weep, and so will the people. Let Umar lead.' Abu Bakr went out and led the prayer. The Prophet felt lighter, went out supported by two men, his feet dragging. When people saw him, they glorified, alerting Abu Bakr, who moved to step back. The Prophet signaled, 'Stay in your place.' He came, sat to Abu Bakr's right, and Abu Bakr stood. Abu Bakr followed the Prophet's prayer, and the people followed Abu Bakr. Ibnu Abbas said, 'The Prophet continued reciting where Abu Bakr left off.' Waki' said, 'This is the Sunnah.' Ibnu Abbas said, 'The Prophet passed away during that illness.'

Narrated by Muhammad bin Ash-Shabbah, from Jarir, from Ubaidullah bin Umar, from Nafi', from Ibnu Umar: The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) said about the prayer of fear: 'The imam prays with one group, performing one prostration, while another group stands between them and the enemy. The group that prostrated with the imam then moves to the place of those who have not prayed, and those who have not prayed come forward to pray one prostration with the imam. The imam then leaves, having completed his prayer. Each group completes their prayer with one prostration. If the fear is greater, pray on foot or riding.' Ibnu Umar said, 'Prostration means rak'ah.'

He bows once with them, and they bow and prostrate twice on their own in their place. Then they move to the place of the others, and the others come. He bows once with them and prostrates twice with them. This makes two for him and one for them. Then they bow once and prostrate twice.' He went out hurriedly, dragging his garment, to the mosque. He continued praying until the eclipse ended, then said, 'Some claim the sun and moon eclipse only for a great person’s death, but that is not so. The sun and moon do not eclipse for anyone’s death or life. When Allah manifests to His creation, it humbles itself.'

He said, 'Yes, O Rasulullah.' He said: 'Pray four raka’at, reciting in each Fatihatul Kitab and a surah. After reciting, say: SUBHAANALLAHU WAL HAMDULILLAH WA LAA ILAAHA ILLA ALLAHU WALLAHU AKBAR (Glory be to Allah, praise be to Allah, no god but Allah, Allah is Greatest) fifteen times before ruku. Then ruku and say it ten times, raise your head and say it ten times, sujud and say it ten times, raise your head and say it ten times, sujud again and say it ten times, then raise your head and say it ten times before standing. That totals seventy-five per raka’at, three hundred in four raka’at. If your sins were like towering sand, Allah would forgive them.' Abbas said, 'O Rasulullah, what of one unable to do this daily?' He said, 'Do it weekly, or monthly if unable, or yearly if unable.'

When it was placed in its spot and the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, intended to use it, he passed the trunk he used to preach by, and it groaned until it split. Hearing its sound, the Messenger of Allah descended, touched it with his hand until it calmed, then returned to the pulpit. He continued praying toward it. When the mosque was renovated, Ubayy bin Ka'b took the trunk to his home, where it remained until it decayed, was eaten by termites, and turned to dust.

فَبَكَيْتُ ثُمَّ إِنَّهُ سَارَّنِي فَقَالَ أَلَا تَرْضَيْنَ أَنْ تَكُونِي سَيِّدَةَ نِسَاءِ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ أَوْ نِسَاءِ هَذِهِ الْأُمَّةِ فَضَحِكْتُ لِذَلِكَ

Narrated by [Abu Bakr bin Abu Syaibah], he said: Narrated by [Abdullah bin Numair] from [Zakaria] from [Firas] from [Amir] from [Masruq] from ['Aisyah], she said: All the wives of the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) gathered, none absent. Fatimah came, walking like the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him). He said: Welcome, my daughter, and seated her to his left. He whispered to her, and Fatimah wept. Then he whispered again, and she laughed. I asked her: What made you cry? She said: I would not reveal the Messenger of Allah's secret (peace and blessings be upon him). I said: I have never seen joy so close to sorrow as today. When she wept, I said: Did the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) share something with you alone, excluding us, and you cry? I asked what he said, and she replied: I would not reveal the Messenger of Allah's secret (peace and blessings be upon him). After he passed, I asked again, and she said: He told me that Gabriel reviewed the Qur'an with him once a year, but this year twice, and I see my time has come. You will be the first of my family to join me, and I am a good predecessor for you. So I wept. Then he whispered: Are you not pleased to be the leader of the women of the believers, or the women of this nation? So I laughed.

Narrated by [Nashr bin Ali Al Jahdlami], he said: Informed by [Wahb bin Jarir], narrated by [his father] from [Muhammad bin Ishaq], narrated by [Husain bin Abdullah] from [Ikrimah] from [Ibnu Abbas], he said: When they prepared to dig a grave for the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him), they sent for Abu Ubaidah Ibnul Jarrah, who dug graves like those in Mecca, and for Abu Thalhah, who dug lahad graves for the people of Medina. They sent for both, saying: O Allah, choose what is best for Your Messenger. They found Abu Thalhah and brought him, but not Abu Ubaidah. So Abu Thalhah dug a lahad grave for the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him). When preparations were completed on Tuesday, he was placed on his bed in his house. People entered in groups to pray over the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him). After they finished, the women were allowed to enter, then the children. No one led the prayer over the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him). The Muslims disagreed on where to bury him. Some said: In his mosque. Others said: With his companions. Abu Bakr said: I heard the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) say: No prophet dies except he is buried where he passes away. They lifted the bed on which he died and dug beneath it. He was buried in the middle of the night on Wednesday. Those who entered his grave were Ali bin Abu Thalib, Al Fadl Ibnul Abbas, Qutsam his brother, and Shuqran, the freed slave of the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him). Aus bin Khauli, also called Abu Laila, said to Ali bin Abu Thalib: I swear by Allah and our right with the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him). Ali said: Descend. Shuqran, his freed slave, took a coarse cloth the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) had worn and buried it in the grave, saying: By Allah, no one will wear it after you, ever. So it was buried with the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him).
